

Paving Contract Let to Oklahoma City Bidders

Brick on Concrete Base Chosen by Council as Type of Paving for Street Improvements.

Earl W. Baker & Company, Oklahoma City contractors, were the successful bidders for the paving work on Floydada streets, for which contract was let by the City Council Monday night.

Two and one-half inch concrete base was the type of paving decided upon and the price per square yard is $2.98. The engineer's estimate of the total cost of the job, including the part chargeable to the property owners was $32,625.50. The contractor's bid will total $38,072.20.

Advertisement of the council called for the contract to be closed and bond filed within ten days after the letting of the bid. The bidder proposes to begin work within five days after the contract is made and complete it within sixty working days.

An unusual feature of the contractor's bid is the high percentage of discount allowed property owners who pay cash for their portion of the paving work. This discount is set at 7 per cent in the bid submitted.

Six paving concerns offered bids on the job let by the city. They were Roy Irick, Plainview; Highway Construction Company, Tulsa, Okla.; Burke Mathis, Plainview; L. H. Howard, Post; Panhandle Construction Co., Lubbock and the successful bidder.

Bigger Paving Program May Be Next Move Here

Possibility that a considerably bigger paving program in Floydada may be in order, is contained in the semi-official statement from the mayor and members of the city council to the effect that $10,000 or more may be left in the paving funds after the completion of their contract let for 9 blocks of paving Monday night.

It was suggested that California, Missouri or possibly some other street or streets could be paved for several blocks into the residential section if the property owners indicated sufficient interest.

Savage, of W. T. S. T. C. Studying Schools Here

Canvass-Survey of Floyd County Schools Being Made by Representative of Teachers College.

A study of the school work being done by the schools of the panhandle, both city and rural, with particular reference to the work their ex-students are doing, and to the problems that are being faced by the schools of the country, together with the needs of the schools that can be learned by first-hand study, is being made by representatives of the West Texas State Teachers' College of Canyon. The study is periodic and is done by regular members of the teachers' college.

A week of such study is being given Floyd County schools this week by F. E. Savage, former superintendent of the Floydada Public Schools and now Professor of Mathematics at the College. Monday he spent in company with Price Scott, County Superintendent of Public Instruction and visited five rural schools. Tuesday he spent in the Floydada Schools, the early-morning rain changing his plans.

"Technically speaking, our school is a teacher-training and developing school," Mr. Savage said. "We want W. T. S. T. C. to fill its mission thoroughly and in order to do this, it seems that first-hand study of conditions and needs of the schools is one good way to obtain this information. If, in a study of the schools over the country, we can learn to do our job better, and aid our students to make greater successes in their chosen work, we will have gained much by the study we are making. If we find an ex-student of W. T. S. T. C. who is not making a success, perhaps we may find a way to aid them, or, if too late for that, maybe we can correct a fault at the college that is responsible for the failure," Mr. Savage said.

Mr. Savage's last year as superintendent in Floydada was 1918. He was superintendent at Tulia for the two succeeding years and went to the teachers' college the following year, and except for master's work done at Peabody has made his residence there since.

His visit to Floyd County at this time has no official significance, he stated, and is not a trip of inspection, but a study of the work being done, the equipment available and the teaching force of the county.

Rains Continue To Fall Over South Plains Area

Rains continue to fall over the south plains area, Floyd and neighboring counties this week getting good showers to heavy rains in all sections. At Floydada .87 inches had fallen in the period from Tuesday morning to Thursday morning.

Some hail fell Tuesday morning and Thursday evening, although no serious damage had been reported this morning. Some sections of the county report as much as 2 inches of rain. At Plainview 1.16 inches fell Tuesday morning in an hour. A cloud burst near Sweetwater washed out tracks for the Texas & Pacific and the Roscoe, Snyder & Pacific, and one child was drowned. Slaton reported a 2-inch deluge in some 30 minutes of rain.

Lakes have begun to fill with water and farmers say they have one of the best spring seasons in years.

REPORTS SHOW 3,382 SCHOLASTICS IN COUNTY; 1 DISTRICT NOT IN

Floyd County scholastics for 1926 to-date total 3,382, with the census for one district, Starkey, not yet complete or checked over by Price Scott, county superintendent. The figures are yet subject to correction, although the rolls have been gone over and duplications eliminated so far as possible. But the list is not yet officially approved, stated Mr. Scott.

The total for last year was 3,446, and it is expected that the final number for '26 will show an appreciable gain. Following are thirty-one of the county districts with the number of scholastics indicated:

Irick, 124; Pleasant Valley, 69; Muncy, 43; Pleasant Hill, 61; Fairview, 126; Aiken, 123; Sunset, 104; Sand Hill, 100; Harmony, 61; Lakeview, 127; Fairmount, 39; Center, 85; Lone Star, 79; Cedar, 104; McCoy, 87; Roseland, 86; Mountain View, 59; Baker, 83; Antelope, 70; Providence, 56; Blanco, 37; Allmon, 87; Liberty, 63; Prairie Chapel, 114; Campbell, 73; Ramsey, 46; Hillcrest, 20; Goodnight, 71; Newland, 37; Lockney, 496; Floydada, 652.

Gas Pocket Hit In Shallow Well East of Floydada

Gas that ignited and burned freely for several hours, was struck in a water well on the C. H. Featherston lands 15 miles east of Floydada Monday by J. M. Jackson driller.

The well was approximately 250 feet when the gas was struck. Noticing the pressure Mr. Jackson and his helpers closed the opening, packed the mud around it and ignited the gas that emitted. It burned freely and heated a nail held in the flame red hot in a very short time. Several residents of that section saw the demonstration and quite a bit of interest has been stirred by it.

Mr. Jackson says he strikes gas in all the wells he digs anywhere along the caprock north of the Matador road practically but this is the second one that has burned when fire was applied.

Santa Fe Extension Plea To Be Heard at Lubbock

Interstate Commerce Commission Designates May 3 as Date Before Texas Commission.

Application of the Pecos & Northern Texas Railway Company for an extension of their Floydada Branch from Floydada to a point approximately 15 miles southeast within Floyd County is set for public hearing at Lubbock on Monday, May third. Notice of the setting of the date was received here Monday. The Santa Fe is asking for a certificate of public convenience and necessity.

In view of the fact that Examiner Boles in his report on the general railway construction program in the plains territory has recommended that this line would obviate the necessity of construction of its Floydada Extension by the Quanah, Acme & Pacific, it is expected that Floydada interests will oppose the Santa Fe's application.

Formal notice of protest against the extension of the branch out of Floydada has been filed by attorneys of the Quanah, Acme & Pacific in notice given the Interstate Commerce Commission several days ago.

RAIN AND HEAVY ROADS CUT BAPTIST MEETING ATTENDANCE

Although interest continues good in the Baptist Meeting now in progress with Rev. S. F. Martin, of Santa Anna, doing the preaching and Grady Helm, of Fort Worth, leading the song services twice daily, the attendance has been cut down somewhat by continued rains.

Prayer services in business houses over town have been held several afternoons in addition to the morning and evening services at the church.

There is a probability that the meeting will continue through the latter part of next week, on account of the bad weather interfering with its progress. This is to be determined in time for announcement Sunday, it is stated.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION MEETS TUESDAY, APR. 27 AT LOCKNEY

E. S. Shoaf, of Lockney, secretary of the Floyd County Poultry Association, has issued the following call for a meeting of poultry producers of Floyd County:

There will be a meeting of the Floyd County Poultry Association in Lockney, Tuesday evening, April 27th, 8 p. m. in the lobby of the First National Bank.

The Floyd County Poultry Association is less than a year old, but much was accomplished last year. If the association is to continue every one must put their shoulder to the wheel. Every grain dealer, and every one interested in poultry must help.

Floyd County has been the banner poultry county of West Texas for a number of years, and last year many of our farmers were saved by the money derived from the sales of poultry and eggs.

Election of officers for 1926 will be held at this meeting, good efficient men and women should be elected, so that the good work can be carried on. Plan now to be present. Whether you are a member of the Association or not, come.

Plans for the next Poultry Show will be discussed. Don't forget the date—Tuesday evening, April 27th, 8 p. m., at First National Bank, Lockney.

COUNCILMEN SEE PAVING IN OTHER SOUTH PLAINS TOWNS

Paving in a half dozen south plains towns has been studied by the city council during the past sixty days, a trip in a body being made by the mayor and councilmen to Lubbock, Slaton and Tahoka Friday of last week to inspect types of paving used in those cities.

They also visited with city officials where there was municipal ownership of light plants, as well as private ownership, where the municipalities have power and lighting contracts on the 20-year "development" basis promulgated last year by Texas Utilities Company, and which has been the subject of discussion pro and con in Floydada during the past several months.

Santa Fe Would Re-Open Case of the T. P. & G.

Other Railway Companies and South Plains Committee Object to Taking of New Testimony.

The Panhandle & Santa Fe Railway Company would re-open the entire matter of railway construction into the plains country now before the Interstate Commerce Commission, according to a brief filed with the commission last week. This railway asks permission to intervene in the case of the T. P. & G. Railway Company, since authority has been recommended giving this route preference to build from Fort Worth to Tucumcari, provided certain intervening short lines are used and extensions be made from the extension of the Q. A. & P. to Lubbock and Plainview. New testimony would be presented, this company states, showing the extensions projected by the examiner are unnecessary and involve new matters on which it has no opportunity to present testimony.

The so-called "South Plains Railway Committee," representing half a dozen south plains towns, the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Panhandle & Gulf, and the Fort Worth & Denver Railway entered pleas opposing the re-opening of the case for the presentation of new testimony, although all except the T. P. & G. do not object to consolidation of the cases.

All the interests protesting oppose the plea of the Santa Fe that the matter be indefinitely delayed.

Several Strong Teams Expected District Meet at Lubbock, April 23-24

Stiff competition from a number of track and literary teams is expected at Lubbock next Friday and Saturday when Floydada and other towns from the twenty-one counties comprising District Two of the Interscholastic League will meet at the place to decide who the winners shall be for the State Interscholastic League Meet, to be held at Austin in the early part of May.

First and second place winners at each of the county meets in Classes A and B, also Rural Schools when classed a-part from Class B teams are privileged to take part at the district meet, and strong teams will likely represent Ralls, Crosbyton, Post, Plainview, Slaton, Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa, Lockney, and perhaps other towns of the district, stated Superintendent Wester, with Lubbock being the probable winner, because of their access to the track at that place and the intensive training which their athletes undergo each year.

Counties represented in the District are as follows: Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Scurry and Andrews.

TOWN OF GOOD HOMES NOW SAVAGE SAYS OF FLOYDADA

F. E. Savage, former resident of Floydada, gets a mighty good impression of the town his first ride over it since he left eight years ago to take the superintendency of the Tulia Public Schools. Mr. Savage is a member of the faculty at W. T. S. T. C. and is here on a study of school conditions in Floyd County for that school.

In his ride over the city in company with J. T. Kirk, Mr. Savage said he was much impressed with the beautiful homes, the good-looking premises and the general air of civic pride so evident, as well as the industrial development seen. The town has made wonderful strides in every way in the eight years of his absence, he declared.

SAN JACINTO DAY

Yesterday was San Jacinto Day. San Jacinto means more in Texas than any other day we celebrate. It commemorates a day, which in the lives of the people and the destiny of the state, means more than any other day, even more possibly than the Fourth of July to Texans.

And yet, as fleeting time takes its toll, the thing that happened at San Jacinto means less in our lives. We unfailingly celebrate the 4th of July, because we should in the first place, and then largely because it is a national custom. Since Texas was taken into the union and the destiny of the state molded with that of the greater nation, we forget the things that are behind the day when Texas was admitted to the union.

San Jacinto stopped one of the most sanguine flights of an Anglo-Saxon people ever known. From the outskirts of civilization in Texas, then about the lower reaches of the Brazos and Trinity as far east as Nacogdoches, news of the advance of Santa Anna went on before. The terror of the unprotected civilians of the new country was abject and their departure so abrupt as to scatter personal belongings on every road and trail. Some families even left their chickens in the barnyards, and their personal effects in their homes, Wortham tells us in History of Texas.

But San Jacinto put a stop to this. It did another thing. It united the people of the state in a common cause. There is reason to believe that some friction existed between the "old timers" and the "new comers" prior to that battle. This was all forgotten and the state began to hew out its destiny with energy and dispatch.

SAM HOUSTON

Sam Houston was to Texas what George Washington was to the Thirteen Colonies. From his personality which could lend dignity to a log hut with a dirt floor to the workings of his big mind, which could perceive results far in advance of their occurrence, Houston was without doubt, Texas' greatest man. Nor would this tribute belittle the life and work of Stephen F. Austin.

To deceive the enemy Houston allowed his army to travel eastward to the last turn of the road that would take him into conflict with the enemy. Houston's men had decided to refuse to go past this last turn, to depose their leader if necessary. Houston knew this. He also knew they would not turn on him until he reached that point.

Strategist, statesman, politician, reader of human nature, student of economics, patriot, thinker. Any of the good things you usually say about a great man could be said of the man who made a place for himself in history after having tasted disaster in middle life.

WORK AT IT

If you have your fortune to make, a community to build up, a business to put on its feet, or any of the things it falls to the lot of man to do, have at it. Nearly always, the man whom destiny seeks out is the man who has prepared himself so that destiny may take hold.

If you have ceased to grow, change the routine so that you may continue to grow. But do not allow yourself to get "out of sorts," bitter, against circumstances which seem to hedge you in. Take hold of circumstances and make them make way.

It does you no good to worry about an unkind fate that has mis-placed you. Put the old think tank to work. Success comes largely to the man who does not "kid himself" that he is working at his job. Analyze yourself. See if you are delivering the goods or merely making excuses. Circumstances have something to do with making the man. The man can have a lot to do with making the circumstances.

FLOYDADA NEEDS EASTERN OUTLET

Floydada and that great scope of country in Floyd and adjacent counties, which it serves, needs an eastern outlet by rail. And while it would ill become any community in West Texas to combat railway construction, it would seem, it must also be apparent that this territory cannot sit by and willingly permit construction that would sound the death knell to our hopes for an eastern connection.

According to Examiner Boles' report the Quanah, Acme & Pacific's expenditure of less than a million dollars to extend to Floydada from MacBain would be unnecessary if the Santa Fe extends its Floydada Branch another 15 miles southeast. Without admitting that this is good logic at all, it would seem, by the same process of reasoning, that the Santa Fe's 15 mile extension southeast would be unnecessary should the Quanah, Acme & Pacific extend to Floydada. That the eastern outlet, by whomsoever made, would be inestimably more valuable than a further extension of a branch line that hauls our products the wrong direction, goes without saying.

OLD AGE IS SOMETIMES TRAGEDY

When we see a serene old age that is closing out a well-rounded career we may pause to extend congratulations. For old age, itself more or less tragic to the younger mind at least, is so often beset with tragedy. We think of this when we think of Houston, the fiery leader at San Jacinto. Before coming to Texas this son of destiny had lived a full life, had been honored with position and power. Domestic unhappiness sent him forth to the new state from his native Tennessee.

And, having led his people in his adopted state for more than thirty years through storm and strife, he died in old age in the midst of a civil war after having been forced to resign as governor of his state by the people whom he loved, victim of circumstances with which he was unable to cope.

Except that the type of man was entirely different, his declining years must have been much the same as those of Stephen F. Austin, "Father of Texas," who saw himself put on a back shelf as the young Houston came forth to champion the new order of things.

But something or other about having lived long, seems to take the bitterness out of a man. The Houston who died was not the stormy Sam Houston who dominated the political life and fortunes of Texas from the days following the battle of San Jacinto.

THIS AND THAT

R. M. Parrish, our entry in the District Judge's race, says he wants to conduct his campaign without any mud-slinging, and hopes the other boys will do the same.

The Hesperian recently ran an advertisement asking for work for a housekeeper, inadvertently giving S. B. McCleskey's telephone number to call. The thousand and one callers were told by Mr. McCleskey that his wife was unable to do their housework and although he was able he wouldn't.

We have been handed the following by a good friend. It will be comforting to those who have been wishing the cool weather would break and we could have some planting weather:

"The year 1816 was known as the year without a summer. In part of the United States freezing weather occurred every month in the year. The average temperature in July was 68 degrees."

While we do not have any authority for this statement, we heard somewhere that this occurred every 110 years in the United States.

One thing about it, if it stays cold all spring and summer, we'll save a big ice bill, and keep the bloated millionaire iceman from getting rich at our expense. We always try to get some comfort out of any situation.

We had a good shower Tuesday morning.

Good way for big daughter to observe Mother's Day would be to help her wash the dishes and clean up the house before pinning on a red flower.

DAVE NELSON IMPROVED

Dave Nelson, elder brother of E. C. and E. P. Nelson, continues to improve in health, and was strong enough Saturday of last week to go on the operating table.

Two weeks ago he was taken from his home at Mt. Pleasant to a Dallas Sanitarium. At that time it was the intention to have an operation at once and the two brothers here, in company with Mrs. E. C. Nelson and son, Lillburn, went to Dallas to be with him. It was necessary to build up his condition several days with blood transfusion and other treatment before it was safe to operate.

The family now has every hope for Mr. Nelson's complete recovery.

T. R. Elder, of Mt. Blanco, was given the 5-tube radio set by Brazier & Arwine, Star Cash Grocery and Milady's Specialty Shop Saturday afternoon of last week.

Correct Tire Inflation Adds to Balloon Wear

Under-inflation of a balloon tire costs the owner just 700 miles of service per pound under the correct pressure, according to the results of a series of experiments by the Ford Motor Company. These experiments were conducted in connection with a campaign to help Ford car owners get the most out of their tires.

To determine at just which point the Ford size balloon tires—29x4.40—yielded the maximum comfort to passengers consistent with maximum mileage, all makes of tires were tested. At the end of the test period, the exact loss per pound of under-inflation was calculated in terms of mileage and a bulletin was sent to Ford dealers and service stations advising the correct pressure.

A number of common tire ailments were traced directly back to under-inflation. Among the most common are rim cuts, tread separation, over-heating and stone bruising in addition to a more rapid rate of natural wear and deterioration.

On the other hand, every pound of over-inflation takes its toll of comfort and the fundamental value of balloon equipment is lost. Other advantages of low pressure tires, namely greater traction, ability to travel over soft ground without sinking and quick stopping without skidding, are also nullified in a direct ratio to the extent of the excessive pressure.

The following inflation table has been proven to best combine riding comfort with long life in 29x4.40 balloon tires:

Type	Pounds Front	Inflation Rear
Roadster	27	27
Coupe	27	27
Touring Car	27	27
Tudor	27	30
Fordor	27	30
Runabout with Pick Up Body	27	30

DID YOU KNOW—

That a man's appearance is his biggest asset in Business, in social life, and in every phase of his activities? He is judged by his appearance largely. If a man thinks enough of himself to clothe himself as well as he is able, others are inclined to have a pretty good opinion of him.

DID YOU KNOW—

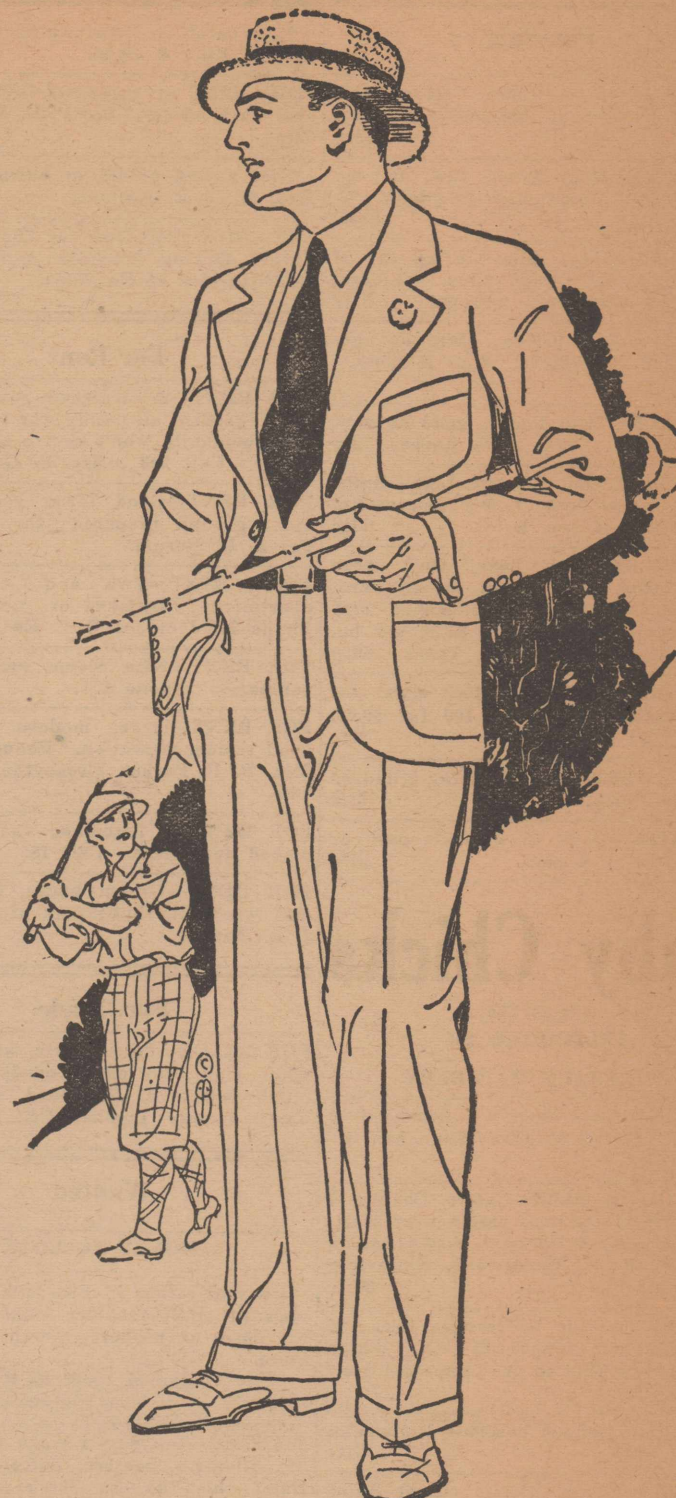

That there has begun a "Renaissance of clothes" in America? That men of affairs are paying more attention to their appearance than ever before. You've heard the Slogan "Dress well and succeed"—and it isn't just an idle phrase.

DID YOU KNOW—

That there's a difference in being a fop or a jelly bean and being well dressed? The well dressed man doesn't go to extremes, but his clothes are stylish, well selected, and made from an attractive fabric.

DID YOU KNOW—

That Baker-Campbell Co. is making a very successful effort to sell the best clothing for the money obtainable, in approved styles and fabrics, and quality to be relied on? Our suits will suit. Come, and be convinced.

We Pay In The Field

When hail comes and ruins a good prospect for wheat the owner of the crop has a big loss. Then is when he needs his insurance policy.

We Represent Old Line Companies that will pay off when the loss comes. Our adjusters live in this part of the country; They are home men. And they will pay off in the field where the damage was done.

With Good Prospects for a Wheat Crop, it is Cheaper to let somebody else carry the big risk your crop is under every day than to undertake to carry it your self.

Let us write you an old-line Policy and be safe.

A baseball game was scheduled between Floydada and Sand Hill, the first of the season for our team, but was postponed on account of rain. Also, a game was scheduled with Lockney here, but has been postponed for the same reason.

Three of the groups of Seniors selected to help pay off the moving picture machine debt have already made up their quota of twenty dollars. Two more groups remain.

Unless postponed on account of bad weather, the District Meet will be held at Lubbock on Friday and Saturday. About twenty-five contestants will go from here. Those who win either first or second place at Lubbock will have their expenses paid to Austin. Last year about eight were sent from here, and more ought to go this year.

The Senior Class play, "That's One on Betty," will be given on or about May 18, and has a cast of 21 characters, including one little negro girl, who will be drafted from the institution of learning for colored children, there being only one who will fit the part. The cast of characters will be announced later; the remainder of the "negroes" in it to be taken from the Senior Class.

Baptist Evangelist at Chapel

Rev. Martin spoke in Chapel Monday morning, on the subject of "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches," in which he stated that your clothes, your ancestry and your money, or your father's money made no difference in making a name for yourself. He said that in spite of all these things that every man must make a name for himself.
Rev. Martin went to school with Mr. Wood, our janitor, and with Miss Jarvis, and was able to give the student body some very interesting facts about their past lives.
Mr. Grady Helm was also present and led the singing, giving a solo.

The grade sheets this last period showed some excellent improvements. The senior class is one third above 85 per cent. This speaks well for that group. They have only four or five failures at this time. The highest grade for this class is 94.

Gertrude Davis has maintained a yearly average of 93.535, which gives her first honors in her class. Ethel Rhoades' average is 93.2 per cent while Hal Scott and Arie Gamble are near enough to be in the running. It has been a close race for the honors. Hal Scott will be first honor boy.

The junior class still holds up its few first places, namely Ina Mickey and others whose grades are the highest on this list. The number on this roll is somewhat smaller than usual. Some good students in this grade are losing their "pep."

The ninth grade is to be complimented on their showing this period. They have their per cent above 85. They also have some excellent grades. I have known all the time that this class could make the honor roll and now I am going to say that I am proud of those whose names appear above.

The eighth grade has a good group of honor students but it seems to me that some are missing this time. It is a bad sign for a class to show a falling off at this time of the year. The sophomores have shown an improvement and I can't see why the freshmen and juniors have not. This is the time for the finish.
—Harper Scoggins, Principal.

'SLIMES' HAVE OUTING

Last Thursday at noon the freshmen started out for Linguish Falls. When they started all were together but in some way a few became separated from the rest of the crowd. The cars, which were eight in number, all arrived at the brink of the canyon in time for everyone to go to the falls together, although much exploring was carried on before the supper was eaten. All this walking and exploring had only served to sharpen the appetites of the "fish" and when the call for supper was sent out it was readily answered. After one of the best meals on record we started back for the cars. We went by the way of the "Narrows" and by the time the 165 pound members reached the cars they were minus a few patches of skin and very tired and thirsty. The moonlight ride home was enjoyed by all who went. We reached home tired but happy about 8:30.

Floydada Class A, Sand Hill Class B, Fairview Rural School Meet Winners

Floydada won the all-round Floyd County Interscholastic League Cup from Lockney by a score of 155 to 142, with the conclusion of the track events at Lockney last Saturday. Sand Hill was Class B winner, and Fairview the winner of the Rural Division teams. The day was an almost perfect one for the field and track events, which had been postponed two times, and a large delegation from the various county schools was present to witness the contests.

The outstanding and high point man for the county was Weldon Moore of Sand Hill, who won first place in the 100 yard dash, the broad jump, discus throw, Class B Essay contest, Extemporaneous speaking; second place in the shot put, 440 yard dash, the boys' tennis singles and was a member of the doubles team from Sand Hill which won second place, in addition to taking part in the rural spelling contest.

Ragle of Lockney was the most brilliant track performer in the Class A division, winning four first places—the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 220 low hurdles and the broad jump.

For Floydada John Edwards showed to the most advantage, with two first and second places, the shot put and discus, 100 and 220 yard dashes, respectively. Hal Scott, as a member of the winning relay team, and by taking first place in the mile, second in the shot put and fourth in the 220 dash also greatly aided the Green and White tracksters to "nose out" over the Lockneyites. Steen, with a second place in both the 220 and 440 yard dashes, fourth in the shot and as a member of the relay team; and Terry, who won first in the half-mile, fourth in the 100 and participated in the relay were among the others to flash for Floydada. Kate Stiles also proved her worth among the girls athletes by capturing first place in the 50 yard dash and by winning the tennis singles championship—thus materially aiding Floydada to win the all-round cup again.

Sand Hill had little competition in Class B events, and, among the Rural Schools, Starkey's track team far outdistanced the others.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY

In announcing my candidacy for the office of District Attorney, of the 64th Judicial District, I do so with a full understanding of the important duties devolving upon the incumbent of that office and with a feeling that my past training and experience as an attorney qualifies me for the successful performance of those duties to the satisfaction of my constituents.

During the intervening weeks, until the Democratic primary of July, it is my desire to see every voter in person throughout the District; but I know I shall necessarily miss some, so while placing my announcement in the columns of this newspaper, I am also taking this opportunity of acquainting the voters of this District with some of my qualifications, past experience and policies.

I am 43 years of age, a native born Texan, and have lived on the plains of Texas during the past 18 years. After studying law for some time in private law offices, I finished my legal preparation in the Law Department of the Texas State University. I have served 11 years as County Attorney, five of which have been in Lamb County. During these years as an Attorney, I have also enjoyed an increasingly large and successful private practice, having had wide experience in both the prosecution and defense of felony cases.

I believe in the adherence to and enforcement of all laws, and with fairness to all, would exercise the functions of my office in that direction. I do not believe that any citizen or group of citizens have the right to pick out such laws as they will obey and such as they will disregard; neither is it within the province of the District Attorney to select such law violations as he wishes to enforce, letting others go by default. If people do not like certain laws they have opportunity of change or annulment through the Legislature; if they become entangled with some of the statutes they have the right of correction, redress and acquittal through the courts, upon presentation of proper testimony. But as long as any law is considered a bona fide statute it is obvious that it should be so recognized and obeyed.

I believe that public office is a trust granted by the citizens; that it should be considered primarily for their benefit, and as such, it would be my endeavor to live up to that ideal.

I wish to thank you in advance for your favorable consideration of my candidacy to this worthy office, and to assure you of my whole-hearted service and most careful attention to the duties of this office.

Yours very truly,

HEAVY HOGS LOWER

Heavy hogs are showing weakness on the markets the past two weeks, as are sows. Jones & Howard, local shippers, have been trying to place the heavy weights and sows at the same figure as the lighter hogs but have been unable to do so.

Hogs, other than sows, under 240 pounds in weight, are holding steady in the markets.

Controlling Cut Worms

R. R. Reppert, entomologist of the Texas A. & M. College issued the following bulletin, regarding the control of cut worms, from College Station on April 9:

Reports from various sections of the state indicate that garden crops are being cut off by cutworms, and as soon as cotton appears, it is almost certain that heavy losses to this crop will occur. We consider the situation as serious.

Cultural measures at this time will be of little avail. Dependence must be placed now in the poison bran mash, made up as follows:

- Coarse Wheat bran, 25 lbs.
 - White arsenic or Paris green, 1 lb.
 - Cane or sorghum molasses (avoid corn syrup), 2 qts.
- Water enough to make a wet mash that can be readily sown.

Lemons, 6 fruits.

Mix the poison thoroughly with the bran. Squeeze the lemons and grind the rinds in a fine meat chopper, and add to two gallons of water, add to this also the molasses. Now mix the liquid thoroughly with the bran-poison mixture so every particle is wet. The mash should be thoroughly moist, yet so that when sown it readily falls apart.

APPLICATION OF MASH—Damage may be expected to crops over patches where weeds or grass were growing just previous to soil preparation, or bordering weedy fence rows. Here it may be well two or three days before the crops appear above ground, to sow the mash broadcast using twenty-five pounds to two or three acres. In case the worms attack the plants after these show above ground, whether in garden or field, place about one-fourth teaspoonful of the mash at the base of each plant; or in the case of row crops, apply a thin stream of the mash along the rows.

WINGLESS MAY BEETLES—The same poison bran mash will control the Wingless May Beetle, otherwise known as the "Four-o'clock Bug" if sown where they are found doing damage. We anticipate an infestation of these this spring.

GRASSHOPPERS—We do not expect a general heavy infestation of grasshoppers. Sow the bran mash if they appear.

Highest in Quality Lowest in Price

The finest steels available are used in the manufacture of Ford cars. The plate glass for windshields and windows is as perfect as can be made. Upholstery material contains a larger percentage of wool than is ordinarily specified—even for much higher priced cars. The basic features of Ford design have never been improved upon by any manufacturer.

No other car offers greater dependability. The Ford car has won the favor of millions of users, under every conceivable motoring condition. Its convenience is known and appreciated the world over; its performance is taken for granted.

Such quality is possible at Ford prices because every operation, from mining of ore to final assembly, is under direct control of the Ford Motor Company.

Iron is taken from Ford mines in Michigan; coal from the Company's mines in Kentucky and West Virginia. Glass comes from Ford glass plants; wood from the Ford timber tracts in the North. Raw materials and finished products are carried over the Company's own transportation routes; coke ovens, blast furnaces, a steel mill, foundries and saw mills—all are part of this complete organization. There are even salvage plants, paper mill, cement plant, etc., to transform waste materials into useful by-products.

In this way every possible economy is effected. Under no other circumstances could Ford quality be had at Ford prices.

MAYVIEW ORGANIZES CLUB

At 2:30 o'clock Monday evening the women of the Mayview community met at the home of Mrs. Kirk Bartlett for the purpose of organizing a Home Demonstration Club.

Miss Bass first gave a brief outline of Club work and explained the work. Then we went into the election of officers, as follows: President, Mrs. J. W. Miller; vice president, Mrs. George L. Lott; Secretary, Miss Beatrice Davis; reporter, Mrs. W. F. Culpepper. Several of the ladies were interested in the Dress Contest, all being eager to learn how to make bound button holes and set-in pockets. So Miss Bass gave a short lesson, and some enrolled for the contest. All are delighted to have the Club organized, and will look forward to each meeting.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Readhimer, at which time Miss Bass will give a demonstration on yeast bread. Let's every member be present and bring new members.

The following were present Monday afternoon: Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mrs. Fred Emert, Mrs. Cardwell, Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. J. Campbell, Mrs. Lott, Mrs. J. R. Readhimer, Mrs. Willie Emert, Mrs. George Lott, Mrs. Kirk Bartlett, Mrs. Payne and Mrs. W. F. Culpepper.

Let's all remember the Club dates, the first and third Mondays in each month, unless something prevents a meeting; then we meet the next regular time at this place. Miss Bass' mother was with her. We were all delighted to meet her and cordially invite her back.

Starkey Club Girls

The Starkey Club Girls met at the school house Tuesday evening, April 6, with eleven members present. All seemed to be very interested in the club work. The girls have their caps and aprons to be worked on the next meeting. At the last meeting Miss Bass gave an interesting talk on the club work.

The girls have started their poultry and home improvement work.

Tuesday of this week the girls held another meeting.

McCOY CLUB

The club met again with Miss Bass last Thursday, April 15. We are very glad to report two new members. They are Miss Mary Lea Jones and Miss Zell Fairchild.

Most all the girls had finished their caps but had not done quite so well on their aprons. We hope to complete both soon, as we are to begin our cooking at the next meeting, which will be April 29.

CAMPBELL CLUB

Friday afternoon of last week our Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Burnett. Twelve members were present, two new members and several visitors. Miss Murray, our district agent, was with us, and we enjoyed her visit and the interesting talks she gave.

Miss Bass gave a demonstration on yeast bread, which was interesting and helpful to us. She made several kinds of bread in a very short time, which was certainly delicious. We took down the recipes and am sure most of them have been tried in all the homes of our club members. We are very interested in our club and what Miss Bass is doing for us, and hope to learn many helpful and interesting things this year.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. A. C. Jackson. Miss Bass will give a demonstration on the art of making braided rugs. Will also discuss plans for our club exhibits for the fair.

BLANCO CLUB

The Club had a most enjoyable meeting with Mrs. Horace Simpson Thursday afternoon, April 15, at which time Miss Bass gave the quick bread demonstration.

There were twelve ladies present, one new member, Mrs. Daniels; so glad to have her with us and join. Hope still more of the ladies come next time and join. At this meeting the different articles to be made for the County Fair were given members to prepare, and several ladies enrolled to make dresses for the Dress Contest.

Our next meeting will be held with Mrs. Tinnin, on Thursday afternoon, May 6, at which time Miss Bass is to give the salad demonstration. The subject for this meeting will be "Vitamin." We are to answer roll call by giving our favorite salad recipe. "What is meant by vitamin?" will be discussed by Mrs. Smith, and "Importance of using raw vegetables and fruit" will be given by Mrs. Christian.

PROVIDENCE CLUB

The Providence Club met at their Club room April 13. There were twenty-four present, three visitors and one new member—Mrs. Dock Bennett joined the Club.

Miss Bass, our faithful demonstration agent, again met with us and we had a very interesting meeting. Three more ladies joined the House Dress Contest, which makes eleven in all. We hope to have more join this contest next time.

Our lesson was on "Yeast Breads, by Quick Methods." Miss Bass is a fine bread maker; she made, baked and served three kinds of bread, plain bread, raisin bread and lemon rolls, which were certainly fine. Each member took down the recipes for the breads, which were such a treat to us.

All our members are proud of Miss Bass, our County Demonstration Agent for she is always so jolly and has a kind word for all. She makes all the meetings so interesting that we know she is one of the BEST in the state.

The next meeting will be April 27, and the subject "Attractive dishes for children." Mrs. Cowart will be hostess. Following is the program:

Roll call—"How I feed my children the required amount of milk."

Leader, Miss Jewel Jones.

Points in assisting children to form proper food habits—Mrs. Carpenter.

Wise choice of foods and hints on methods of preparation—Mrs. Kennedy.

Effect on emotion of the taking of food—Mrs. Kramer.

Preparation of three attractive dishes for children—Mrs. Gilbreth.

Every one come to the next meeting as you are missing some very interesting lessons. We are intending to purchase a set of chairs for our Club room, which will make it more convenient. We are going to keep furnishing it as best we can till it is the best Club room in the country. All remember to bring a visitor to the next meeting, as these visitors soon become members before they attend very long.

Benefits of Membership In W. T. C. of C. Cited

"What is the West Texas Chamber of Commerce doing that is a benefit to Floydada?" was the general question asked this week while B. F. Bennett, of that organization was in the city soliciting members.

In this work as in the local Chamber of Commerce, one does not receive a direct benefit or a direct return of money from it, but, in an indirect manner, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has saved the citizens and farmers several times the amount contributed locally.

It would take too much time to explain every detail that this organization has taken care of this year, but the fact that it was directly responsible for the reduced freight rates on cotton would alone justify its existence.

For the first time West Texas will have an exhibit of its agricultural products at the Sesqui-centennial International Exposition or World's Fair which opens May 31, 1926 in Philadelphia. This exhibit will be in charge of B. M. Whiteker, of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Literature about Floydada and Floyd County, and if possible, products raised in this County will be a part of the exhibit. It is believed that more people will hear of West Texas through this medium than has ever before. One of the principal ideas of this exhibit is to interest eastern capitalists in investing in the west.

The sum of $25,000 has been set aside to cover the expense of this exhibit, which will be on display for six months, and will be viewed by many thousands.

Sometime soon Floydada will be given another chance to raise its quota of memberships, which is thirty, and Floydada Chamber of Commerce officials hope that there will be no trouble in doing it. Less than twenty members were secured this week; Floydada is said to be the only town that has fallen below its quota.

Fairview News

Rev. Joe Wilson of Miami closed a great revival meeting at this place last Sunday evening. Many people gave their lives to Christ, and some surrendered for special service.

We are all rejoicing over our victory at the school fair. One more time to win the championship cups, and then you will have to put up another.

The people of Lockney are to be commended for their courtesy and co-operation in making the school fair a great success. The friendly rivalry between Floydada and Lockney makes the events very interesting. Both schools show splendid sportsmanship.

If more cups were offered for rural schools, there would be a greater interest shown on their part.

There is some talk of four teachers for Fairview next year. This will place the school in Class B—and fair warning to Sand Hill if such a thing is done! Our scholastics have increased 25 per cent; hence the need of an increase in the faculty.

Fairview will have a delegation at Lubbock during the district meet. We will be there to help Floyd County bring home the honors.

We want to congratulate Weldon Moore of Sand Hill on being high point man in Floyd County, and possibly the state, or even the United States. Hurrah for a boy that wants to do something!

Sidney Ray was one of the contenders for high point cups.

Our junior track team piled up more points than any other junior team in the County.

We want the world to know that Fairview school is one of the best in its class in the state, and we are hoping to make it better still. Competition is what it takes to put over worthwhile programs in any school.

38 MEMBERS OF WAYLAND GRADUATING CLASS THIS YEAR

There will be thirty-eight graduates in this year's graduating class at Plainview. Commencement exercises will begin May 4 and will close with graduating exercises on May 25.

Hamilton, who is to make the class address on May 25 was at one time president of Howard Payne College and prior to that time a member of the faculty of Baylor University.
