Dear Marty,

What a pleasure it was on October 7th to honor our local public servants. The event also brought to light how lucky we are to have the youth we have in Stratford. The SISD Gifted/Talented classes, with the help of their sponsor Kathie Altman, put together and presented a tribute to our local law enforcement, fire and EMS personnel that was simply outstanding. A great deal of press is given to what's wrong with today's kids. That's hard to believe here in Stratford. On Friday, at the request of our Governor and the Secretary of Education in Washington, Our SISD students joined countless other students across our nation to recite the pledge of allegiance at 1:00 p.m. After the staff and students said the pledge together, comments were extremely positive from those of all ages. America's youth are, in their own way, stepping up to do what they can in the current national situation. The citizens of Stratford have reason to be proud Rutherford of Groom; three of the youth in our community. Again, thanks to the students and adults for honoring our public servants. I encourage everyone to attend the SHS Student Council program honoring our veterans on November 9th. You will be glad vou did.

Thanks for the forum.

Grace Alone, Faith Alone

The great principle of the Protestant Reformation is salvation by grace alone through faith alone. This principle comes through loud and clear in Isaiah 1:27 in the Old Testament of the Bible. "Zion will be redeemed with justice, and her repentant ones with righteousness" (Isaiah 1:27). In the Old Testament Zion is a picture of the New Testament church. Hebrews 12:22-23 teaches us this. When someone redeems a slave, they pay a price for that servant. Justice refers to the just payment for evil. Justice demands recompense be made for evil acts. Righteousness refers to the requirement for heaven. Leviticus 18:5 says, "So you s hall keep My statues and My judgments, by which a man may live if he does them; I am the Lord." To live is to have eternal life. The requirement for eternal life in heaven is perfection. But no one is perfect except One, Jesus Christ. Since Jesus Christ died to pay for the sins of those who believe in Him, justice is served. Since Jesus Christ also lived a perfect life on behalf of those who believe in Him, the requirement of righteousness is met. Through Jesus Christ God can "be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus" (Romans 3:26). This is God's grace received through faith. We celebrate this Reformation principle on October 31.

Typically, teen drivers progress through three stages: the learner's permit stage, a restricted or probationary licensestage, and the full license stage.

In light of the events of September 11, 2001, the GT classes of Stratford ISD honored our emergency workers in Sherman County with an appreciation program and reception. Over 180 people were in attendance, making this a great success.

Tiffany Duke sang "The Change" in tribute to our guests.

The afternoon included speeches by Trisha Teig, Dylan Briah McClellan, Everett, Matthew Taliaferro, Katie York, Tiffany Duke, Anne Brooks, Cheyenne Zieman, Jordan Taylor, and Brandon Davis. They talked about the history of our EMS, Fire Department, Police Department, Sheriff's office, highway patrol and emergency management.

A special recognition was given to Mrs. Rene Booth Cavitt and her sons Brian and Brady Booth for the life Trooper Steve Booth gave in the line of duty.

The current and former members of each department were given plaques and also thank cards and letters from the students at Mary Allen Elementary. Junior High students Gina Mattocks, Cheyenne Zieman, Kristen Crabtree, Juliana Taliaferro, Samantha Hart, Jordan Confer and Eric Riffe announced these members. They were assisted by Channing Zieman, Roy Allen, Lyndsi Thiessen, Kyle Horsford, Christopher Hart and Josh Robertson in passing out the cards.

The program concluded with Mrs. Belinda Hamilton's 4th grade chorus singing, "This Land is Your Land" and "I Am Someone Special."

Others who assisted in the planning and preparation of our program were: Evan Haile, Amie Witcher, Twyla Young, Allison Baskin, Haley Buckles, Megan Crabtree, Kathie Altman, Cindy Russell, Barbara Haile, Gregg Wright, Jack Newcomb, The Stratford Star and the parents of the G-T Classes.
