The deadline for payment of the current poll tax in order to be a qualified voter in 1958 elections is only a week away. And unless at a time when it was badly needthere is a heavy rush of last-minute taxpayers, the county's potential voting strength will be the lowest in years.

Those who pay the poll tax or are otherwise qualified as voters, will not only select city, school, county and state officials in elections this year, but will decide other important issues almost certain to be voted on in 1958.

A school bond election in the O'Brien District is an example, Haskell's municipal water proposal, in all likelihood, will come before the voters. Nine constitutional amendments will be up for voters' ap- end. proval. All these are virtually certain, and emergencies could create others.

Also, there is the matter of integration in our schools. This is an issue which could develop at any time, in any school in the county. will be played Friday night, with However, a State law now requires a vote of the people o nthe question all proceeds going to the National in the district affected.

Unless you pay the current poll tax, or have reached the age kell. Weinert and Rochester. of 60, you will forfeit the right to express your opinion on any of the above matters, neither will you have any choice as to who will be named city, school, county and state officials.

On the other hand, those who pay the poll tax will be in the ratio of 1 out of 4 potential voters. Thus, in a single vote they will in effect be expressing their opinion as that of four citizens-whether it be in a bond election, school integration, or selection of public officials

Trade Extension Program Pays Off

Despite the long drouth and consequent unstable economic conditions, Haskell merchants have continued a program of trade expansion which has paid dividends in increased business volume from one of the most prolific strains for West Texas and will be introan ever-widening trade territory.

An illustration of the value of a consistent, planned program son. of retail trade expansion is provided in the monthly Dollar Day sponsored by local merchants.

The larger-than-usual crowds in town Tuesday represented shoppers from a wide area surrounding Haskell, attracted here by the cooperative effort of Haskell merchants who have joined in the Dollar Day promotion.

Retail stores report that a steady increase in the volume of business is noticeable from month to month on Dollar Day, except or the few occasions when bad weather has affected the event.

As a result of the success of the monthly Dollar Day promo tion, the proposal that an additional weekly program could be successfully carried out has been advanced by several merchants. Although still entirely in a tentative stage, any such proposal merits the careful study of every merchant interesed in exending Haskell's trad B. B. Adams of the Foster comterritory.

Man of Year Has Company

(Houston Chronicle)

So Nikita Khrushchev has been nominated Man of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll

Well, so far as world-wide publicity is concerned, including getting his porcine face, by turns brutal and fatuous, in the papers, he qualifies.

In the rather select list of men of the year, however, the Butcher of Budapest must feel a little lonesome. So we nominate a few of his ilk to keep him company, including Nero, the Man of the Year of A. D. 64; Attila the Hun, 451 Jenghis Khan, 1219; Tamerlane, 1580; Bluebeard, 1440; Joseph Stalin the perpetuator of the famine-mass murders of 1932 and the subsequent purges; Hitler, 1939.

Let it not he said that Krushchev stands alone, His kind has made news before.

ACTION NEVER CAME SO BEAUTIFULLY PACKAGED

... or offered so many new ideas about driving pleasure! CHEVROLET has blended bold new styling with brilliant advances in riding comfort and engine performance to come up with a BEAUTIFULLY MOVING THING.

There's an unmistakable sense of action in the style of this new Chevrolet. You see it in the bold way the windshield rakes back at the corners, in the deeply sculptured gull-wing rear that looks like the very shape of motion. Even the way that trim, slim steering wheel feels in your hand tells you there's potent performance in this package!

Just twist the key. This one snaps awake and into action on a moment's notice, and puts out the kind of performance that puts pleasure into driving. V8's with up to 280 h.p. supply the action. Full Coil suspension and a new body-frame design turn that action into a smooth, sweethandling ride. If you like Chevrolet's looks, wait till you sample its life! Your Chevrolet dealer will arrange it.

The key to getting proper land use and soil conservation is an intimate understanding of the land. Soil surveys point out the permanent characteristics as depth, texture, permethe land, and damage from erosion are determined. These charistics determine the capability of the land. Capability units are the basis for determining proper land is water. Consequently, characteristics of the land that causes loss of water are emphasized in week before last while returning designing the treatment for that land. For example, the slope of swiped by two cars, one on each the land or the permeability of the soil. The greater the slope of the land or slower the permeability of the soil, the greater is the possibility of loss of water by runoff. Treatment then, must be designed to hold water where it falls or slow its movement to allow as much moisture to soak into the ground as possible.

The need of the land are determined by soil surveys. When the farmer knows these needs he can plan his operations to best utilize the soil according to its needs.

Mrs. L. R. Burkett Directs Magazine Club Program

Continuing the study, History Past and Present, Mrs. L. R. Burkett was director when the Magazine Club met Jan. 17. "The U. S. Fights for Democracy in World War 1" was the theme of the program Mrs Burkett very aptly discussed the events leading up to the war, and told how Presidents Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, Woodrow Wilson and other Americans tried to promote peace. There were many conferences and arbitration treaties, but before the last of the treaties went into effect the world was plunged into the conflict known as World War I, Mrs. Burkett stated.

Mrs. C. J. Robinson presented the topic, World War I Engulfs Rurope and Affects the U. S. She that to date no one noted knows the cause of this horrible. destructive war, unless it was greed and dissatisfaction. It was mentioned that President Wilson worked hard to form a League of Nations to preserve future peace and security, but lack of cooperation and bitter opposition caused him to fail, though his ideal of a brotherhood of nations lives on as a challenge for future generations.

Miss Beryle Boone was hostess for the afternoon.

Presiding for this meeting, at which sixteen members were present, was Mrs. J. G. Vaughter, club president.

The next meeting of the club will be February 11 at 7:30 p. m. The program theme will be, Haskell County's One Hundredth Anniversary.

The next meeting will be Feb-ruary 4 at the Magazine Club house with the International Relations Committee in charge of the program.

News From The Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard An acute disaster hit most farmers in the great area of our country during the 1957 growing season. It was actually more than a disaster. It was a calamity in a large area of the Southwest and the Deep South. Heavy rains during planting and growing seasons and early frosts and freezes during the harvest season greatly reduced farm yields and the quality of farm commodities. As a result many of the farmers who had just gone through an extended drouth find themselves in an acute economic condition. Along with mempers of Congress from the affected areas, I have met with Representatives of the Department of Agriculture this week in an effort to work out some workable plan mrough the Farmers Home Administration or other agencies for making additional financing available and working out ways to extend existing FHA obligations. It is hoped that something con-structive can be developed immediately. The farm plan that Secretary Benson presented to Congress yesterday has little chance

Program to Form New Scout Troops Gets Underway

The "Together-We-Organize program for the Chisholm Traii Council, Boy Scouts of America was launched Monday night at a supper meeting at Hotel Windsor in Abilene by Senator David Ratliff of Stamford, chairman of the campaign. This program is designed to set into motion the organizing of sev-eral Scout Troops at the same time all over the 91/2 county area of the Council. Assisting Senator Ratliff in this program are the Together-We-Organize District Chairmen Judge Ben Charlie Chapman of Haskell, Ralph Wallace of Sweetwater, Rep. Truitt Latimer of Abilene and Rep. A. J. Bishop of Winters.

Forty-five men were in attendance at the kick-off supper and heard Council Scout Executive Henry McGinty explain how the program is carried out. Council Commissioner Otey Cannon gave the details of Troop Organization. A filmstrip "Fundamentals of Boy Scouting" gave each man a knowledge of the Council opera-

Local Scouters attending the Abilene meeting were Don Rob-erts of Haskell and Gene Overton of Paint Creek.

A meeting of Scout leaders of the Northern District of the Councill will be held at St. John's Methodist Church in Stamford Monday night. Jan. 27, to make further plans for expansion of the Bob Scout program and organiza-tion of new Troops.

John F. Ivy Enters Race for Office Of County Judge

John F. Ivy, well-known Haskell businessman and former county official, authorizes the announcement this week of his candidacy for County Judge, subject to action of the Democratic primaries. Because of his years of service to the public, both as County Judge and as a businessman, Mr. Ivy needs no introduction to a majority of the people of Haskell

County, while past experience has fully qualified him for the position he seeks. In making his announcement Means for Upkeep Mr. Ivy issued the following statement: Of Many Plots To The Voters of Haskell County:

J. M. Crawford is Candidate for County Judge

J. M. Crawford, well-known Haskell businessman and civic worker has authorized the announcement of his candidacy for the office of County Judge, sub-ject to action of the Democratic primaries.

In announcing his decision to seek the office of County Judge, Mr. Crawford stated that he did so only after careful consideration of the responsible duties involved and with the belief that he was qualified to handle the office in a satisfactory and businesslike manner. Mr. Crawford, a resident of Haskell for 33 years, needs no introduction to a majority of the citizens of Haskell County. During
