Two Thousand Enjoy Day At Dedication Of Park

Remarkable Assembly Gathers To Do Honor to Memory of Blanco Pioneers

Without doubt the biggest thing of its kind ever held in this section of the state was the reunion of old-timers of a dozen counties at the dedication of the 22-acre park site as a memorial to Uncle and Aunt Hank Smith, held Tuesday at Mt. Blanco. It was featured by the attendance of hundreds of old-time residents, 1500 or 2000 persons in all being present and taking part in the big days.

Grizzled Veterans There Many old timers from the vicinity of Floydada attended, and it was declared yesterday that never had a bunch of old-timers enjoyed themselves more thoroughly than those gathered at the bois d'arc grove and bare grass arbor on the plat of twenty-two acres forming the park site.

Grizzled veterans of the plains were there in plentiful number. At least 500 persons whose time of residence in Crosby, Floyd or some of the neighboring counties exceeded thirty years were estimated to have been present and some of these old-timers were among the cowboys of that heyday period forty to fifty years ago when the ranchmen first began to head their herds into this section and throw them out in long reaches to graze the succulent short grass here in such great profusion that there was plenty of room for all. Truss Gray, the man who bossed the outfit that put the first grazing herd on catfish Draw—the Silverstein cattle—was among these. Others, Tom Harrison for instance, could be named by the score who had seen this country and lived in it forty and more years ago when the range was wide open and no fences to hinder.

It was a day crowded with reminiscences and the reuniting of old friends from all over a dozen or more counties. Friends of the early day who had not been gathered together for years and years before, met and clasped hands again. And the recounting of the hard times and good times, of the fellowships, the sufferings and the joy of those days. They were lived over again by scores of groups of a half dozen here and a dozen there.

Pink Parish Presides But the informatics of the occasion were not all of the big reunion staged by R. B. Smith, his brother, Geo. W. Smith, and scores of neighbors who aided him by assisting in the arrangements, donating beaves, mutton or goats.

A formal session of the Crosby County and West Texas Old Settlers' Association, in which all old-timers freely sat, was held with Judge Pink L. Parrish, mayor of Lubbock, as its president, presiding, and several of the best orators of the day present and having a part. Among these were Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, of Claude, one of the park system's most ardent supporters; Clifford B. Jones, of Spur; Judge L. S. Kinder of Plainview; Mrs. Mae Fulbright of Lorenz; Lloyd Wicks of Ralls; Col. R. P. Smythe of Plainview; J. J. Day of Floydada. Judge L. Gough of Amarillo, president of the T-Anchor Association, could not be present but a poem penned by him for the occasion was read to and enjoyed by the gathering.

The speech-making was held at the grove and arbor east of the Rock House where the dinner was also served. That Johnny Parker, famous Matador and Spur cook of the old days, and J. H. Shurbet of Floydada, had not lost their cunning in preparing barbecue was thoroughly proven on this day. Beef, mutton, and goats all were prepared in an appetizing form and these were supplemented by baskets and baskets of dinner brought in the many families of old timers present in the regular old time way, with the result that the two thousand present enjoyed a great feast.

Extra Edition For Fight Fans Thursday Night

Yessir! Local fight fans have a big treat in store for them Thursday night. The Hesperian will issue an extra giving the full details of the Tunney-Dempsey battle at Soldiers Field in Chicago. A special leased wire will give a direct, blow-by-blow story from the ringside.

In addition to the special, The Hesperian has planned to stage a big "party" in front of the office, beginning at 8:30, Thursday night. Bulletins will be given at intervals and full reports announced of the championship bout by rounds.

Through the courtesy of C. Surge Hardware, a big Atwater-Kent Radio equipped with a loud speaker will tune-in and furnish the fans additional thrills and side-lights on the fight. If the radio is hindered by static or other disturbances the Hesperian wire will assure the fans the complete "dope."

Immediately after the end of the big go, The Hesperian will issue a fight extra, giving the full story and will also carry the latest news of the Floyd County Fair activities.

The extra will be on the streets a short time after the fight ends. Be sure and come to the "party"—you'll enjoy it.

Bakery Formal Opening Attended By Hundreds

Hundreds of people of Floydada and neighboring communities visited the Western Bakery and the new Boothe Building on the occasion of the formal opening from 8 to 11 o'clock last Friday evening, and enjoyed the inspection of the baking and mixing machinery in operation as well as the refreshments served.

A gala air was added to the event by the presence of the Municipal Band which played for more than an hour, while the crowds were taking advantage of the proffered hospitality of the bakery management.

One of the interesting features of the evening for a large number of visitors was an inspection of the entire Boothe Building under the supervision of the owner, E. E. Boothe. Both the first and second floors were thrown open to the guests who had an opportunity to see the completeness of arrangement of the building.

Although no register was kept the total number of visitors during the evening was probably in excess of eight hundred, including a large number of school students. Macaroons and eskimoes were served by the Western Bakery and John Pennell of Armour & Company, served grape punch.

"We had a house full for two hours or more," J. C. Wester said, "and of those the greater number had an opportunity to see the machinery in operation. We enjoyed the occasion thoroughly and we hope that our visitors did, too."

E. E. Boothe, proprietor of the building, was all smiles as the evening drew to a close. The building was truly a "made in Floydada" product and the praise of the visitors for its completeness and general appearance added to his sense of pride in the building.

L. C. TATUM, DISTRICT MGR. HIGGINBOTHAM-BARTLETT DEAD

Funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at Lubbock for L. C. Tatum, District Manager of the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co., who died Friday in a hospital at Dallas following an operation. Mr. Tatum had been with the company for twenty-one years. He was a frequent visitor at the local yard here. He is survived by his wife and three children.

J. C. Gilliam, manager of the local yard and wife; H. M. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dickey attended the funeral.

Will Build Fifty-Foot Frontage On California

Site Formerly Occupied by Pope & Son Will be Utilized by Finkner for Brick Building.

Geo. M. Finkner, who early this summer bought the Barker Bros. building and lot on West California Street, occupied in recent years by H. O. Pope & Son, and also the lot adjoining it on the east recently vacated by L. G. Withers' hamburger stand, is putting brick and tile on the ground this week for the construction of a building which will have fifty feet of frontage.

The iron clad building will be torn or moved just as quickly as possible, Mr. Finkner said Tuesday morning, and it is possible that the foundation work may start this week, he indicated. This will depend to an extent on how quickly the old building can be moved and the ground cleared for the construction.

Mr. Finkner said his plans were not definite at this time whether the building would house two store rooms or one, but that this will be decided without delaying the construction work on the building.

The owner, who is a builder, will probably contract the brick work and superintend the construction of the building, having charge of the carpenter work himself.

CONDITION OF A. V. HAYNES NOT ENCOURAGING, REPORT

A. V. Haynes, who has been in a Plainview sanitarium for the past four weeks is in a critical condition, a telephone message this morning indicated.

Amputation of his right foot between the knee and ankle was made Sunday morning at 9:30, in an effort to stop the spread of poisoning in his system that had developed in his foot. His limb had become infected following an injury at the gin here while engaged in repair work.

Dr. Lon Smith of this city assisted in the operation. Mr. Haynes has failed to rally from the shock of the operation and his condition has gradually grown worse, it was said.

OPENING OF CALLAWAY'S NEW SALES ROOMS WELL ATTENDED

Nearly two hundred persons attended the opening of the new quarters of the Callaway Motor Company Wednesday evening of last week from 6 to 9 o'clock.

The firm recently moved to the new Martin Building on North Main Street, third door north of the Floyd County National Bank, where they had the new Buick on display and served refreshments. Many Buick owners and other well-wishers of the firm attended.

May Order Block Paved Between Main And Wall

The block of Mississippi Street between Main Street and Wall may be ordered paved by the City Council, Mayor Smith indicated Tuesday of this week. The bad condition of the block makes the drainage problem a difficult one and its only solution is paving, he said.

A proposal from W. M. Colville & Son to pave the street on the basis of bids accepted by the city for the paving done here last summer, has been received. In view of the relatively small amount of work involved, it is thought probable that this proposal will be accepted when the legal requirements of contract lettings have been met.

Funds for the paving are already in the treasury, left over as an excess from last year's bond issue.

HESPERIAN ISSUED WEDNESDAY

On account of the fact that the Fair opens on Thursday and The Hesperian is getting out an extra Thursday night on the Dempsey-Tunney fight the paper is being issued Wednesday night.

Readers of The Hesperian in the city and other communities in the county will receive their papers several hours earlier.

To See Dempsey-Tunney Mill At Chi Tonight

Four local men are in Chicago today to attend the Dempsey-Tunney championship fight. They are O. P. Rutledge, Fred Zimmerman, R. Fred Brown and J. I. Hammonds.

"We may have to wire home to find out how the fight comes out, but we're going to get as close to the fight as we can, and at least be able to say we were among those present," Mr. Rutledge said.

The party of four left Tuesday morning with the expectation of starting their return home Friday.

Elder Ira L. Sanders, minister of the City Park Church of Floydada and Elder Alva Johnson, of Turkey, will have the affirmative and negative sides of the issue respectively. The dates are September 22, 23, and 24.

A cordial invitation to come and hear the debate has been extended by the elders of the church to all who will come.

FIRST BALE GINNED HERE RAISED BY D. W. SHERRILL

The first bale of the 1927 season to be turned out by a Floydada gin was brought in Saturday by D. W. Sherrill and ginned by the Farmers' Gin Company.

Mr. Sherrill raised the cotton on Mrs. W. A. Shipley's place four miles south of Floydada.

$39.50 in cash was paid as a prize for the bale by local business men.

It was the second bale to be received on the local market, the first having been brought in Tuesday of last week by W. W. Palmer, of Joe Bailey, that bale having been turned out by the Joe Bailey Gin Company and a liberal premium made up for it. Star Cash Grocery bought that bale, paying 24 cents for it.

Exhibits Being Placed Ready For Formal Show of Products Opening at Four.

"It is Floyd County, dressed for this special occasion and ready for inspection by the entire State," is the description given by officials to the Floyd County Fair, which opens its doors today for the fourteenth time in the history of the county. "Arrayed in all the splendor of its agricultural products, we believe that this fair is full proof that Floyd County is now, as it always will be, the banner County of the Lone Star State. Exhibits and entertainment that are unequalled by any free county fair in the State and that have been secured only through the expenditure of a large sum of money and the wonderful cooperation of the people of Floyd County, will be offered the visitors of the fair," Ed Bishop, its secretary said.

Exhibits Open At 4

Almost doubling the expectation of the officials, ten communities of the county are busy preparing their agricultural exhibits for the opening at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Representing the work of twelve home demonstration clubs and every girls 4H club in the county, the entire east side of the large fair building will be crowded with exhibits of cooking, sewing and canning. Located in the center of the building and where it is one of the most attractive features of the event is the Floyd County Flower and Art Show. This show has grown, under the direction of lovers of flowers and beautiful pictures, until it is one of the most important events of the county. Various merchants have taken advantage of the opportunity offered by the fair and are displaying their wares in attractive booths within the fair building.

That hunger for entertainment which once drew people for many miles is being partly satisfied now at home. Knowing what the people want, the directors of the fair are attempting to satisfy that desire by offering a variety of amusement that will please all ages. Beginning at 10 o'clock the only South Plains croquet and horseshoe pitching tournament will progress throughout the three days until the championship of each is decided.

Lovers of good horses and good horsemen did not pass away with the passing of the horse races. For many years the wild west show and the rodeo proved popular but that now is passing for a more fascinating sport—that of polo. Those who thrill at the sight of a beautiful well trained horse in action will be given a treat when 60 horses, representing a cost of thousands of dollars, will be seen on the polo ground in three games between the well known teams of Wichita Falls and Snyder.

Famous Riders Here

Riders who are famous in the South as real horsemen and who take pride in their mounts, are here and will take part in the games. Even those who will delight in seeing a good horse race are not to be disappointed as arrangements have been made whereby two one-quarter mile races will be run each day preceding the polo games.

The shrill of the football whistle will be heard for the first time this season when the Plainview Bulldogs meet the Floydada Whirlwinds last years bi-district champions at the Floydada baseball park at 3:30 Friday afternoon. A game between these two teams any time of the season would create much interest but coming as it does at the beginning of the season it will be watched by the entire South Plains in an effort to predict the winners of the two districts.

Saturday has been proclaimed Floyd County Day. On this day every community in the county will be represented in some phase of the fair and barring inclement weather, the largest crowd that ever gathered in Floydada for a similar occasion will be present on this day. Consisting of community floats that will be both unique and attractive, high school and organization floats that will be beautiful in design

WELCOME TO FLOYDADA

Today, tomorrow and Saturday all of Floyd County will be on dress parade. It is a great event from the standpoint of entertainment, education and advancement. The best products of the best people of the best state are on display in the exhibit booths at the City Auditorium in the south part of the city.

Floydada is host and hostess today. "Welcome to all of you, neighbors and visitors," is the watchword of the town. Just this suggestion—take your time and see everything. Study the exhibits and you may discover some things you did not know. It will help you visualize just what Floyd County really means—just what her people are doing and are capable of producing.

It has taken many weeks of planning, study and work to make possible just these three days of the fair. They are valuable not only in the sense of money expended in preparation of the accompanying features but also in the sense of broadening the community spirit of fellowship and understanding. Exchange of ideas are valuable, too.

And don't forget that it is your fair. Floydada is only the servant today—striving to help you enjoy this occasion. And remember to call on the merchants, for they will all have something that will assist you in making these three days profitable financially.

All Floydada bids you welcome. Make yourself at home. There are no keys—the Gateway To The Plains is wide open—come.

SCHOOL SANITATION IMPORTANT

Parents and officials will realize that this is the time of the year that all schools, both city and rural, should protect their pupils by insuring sanitary surroundings and examinations of physical fitness of the children. Conservation of health should be given first consideration in any school program, and health cannot be conserved in insanitary surroundings. Neither can children with physical defects make any progress in school work.

School officials are charged with the responsibility of attending to the sanitary phases as much as any other part of school management. According to specifications sent out by Dr. J. C. Anderson, state health officer, the requirements for school sanitation are: safe water supply; sanitary toilets; clean school grounds; proper ventilation and plenty of light. In schools where well water is used, a pump should be installed, and the well top made of impervious material that will not permit the entrance of surface water. A well should be located on higher ground than toilets and 100 feet or more from them.

"For schools without sewer connections," Mr. Anderson's communication continues, "chemical toilets properly operated are desirable, but if not available, then the provision should be made for approved pit privies. Plans for such closet can be obtained by writing the State Department of Health, at Austin."

WHAT WILL IT COST?

Over in Childress last summer a little girl paid with her life the price for an awakening of the citizenship to the traffic dangers existing. What will be the price that Floydada will have to pay? Come what will, it should not be a human life. Only the ounce of preventative is needed before it is too late to apply the pound of cure.

Double parking is one of the greatest dangers connected with modern-day traffic problems. Motorists must take double care to prevent collisions and the pedestrians have to trust to luck, their wits, their eyes and their muscles.

Especially on Saturday nights does the situation become acute. People love to ride down town and park for a few minutes or a few hours and watch the world go by. It is an interesting diversion and if cultivated becomes intensely fascinating—just to watch the folks. It so happens that there are more people with the same idea in mind at the same time than there are spaces to accommodate them, and double and triple parking result.

A speeding car, a pedestrian stepping from behind double-parked motors, a crash, a scream and then the ambulance—the penalty that only cooperation of public and police can prevent being exacted.

In the sanitarium at Plainview today is a little lad, twelve years of age, who is suffering with a broken leg suffered because a motorist failed to observe the parking laws. If you could hear the pitiful wails coming from the lips of that little child as he cries morning and night in agony, you would think twice and thrice before you disobeyed a traffic law.

Double parking should be stopped. No rude awakening of the citizenship should be necessary to gain full assistance in seeing that it is stopped for all time.

KEEP YOUR SEED

"Last year's cotton seed will be better to plant next season than the seed from this year's crop. Keep your old seed." This is the advice of a local gin man who is an experienced farmer and is cultivating his own crop this year.

The ginner-farmer stated that the old seed would be seasoned and better suited for planting next year because all of the moisture will be gone; they can be more easily stored and handled, and majority of the "dead" seeds will be dried up.

"It is just a better policy to use the older seed," he concluded.

Every farmer should make careful selection of what he plants, for unless his choice has been a good one, he will waste time, energy and money on a resulting worthless crop. Not only in cotton but in other crops as well, it would be wise to make sure that the planting seed are matured and the best adapted for the soil, climate and conditions and of the best quality.

What's Doing In West Texas Today

TEXLINE—Approximately 150 tons of clay are shipped from Texline each week. The quality of the material is remarked upon wherever it is sent. Texline people are hoping to attract a clay products company here for manufacturing purposes.

PERRYTON—Perryton will serve as host to the first convention held by the newly formed "Trans-Canadian" district of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The district embraces a tier of ten counties in the north panhandle region of Texas. Fifty towns of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, and New Mexico have been invited to send delegates, and at least 300 are expected.

SPEARMAN—Tax-paying voters of Spearman have instructed their city council to invest the sum of $80,000 in public improvements. This amount will be divided as follows: $50,000 for a sewer system; $10,000 for a new city hall; and $20,000 for paying some city indebtedness.

ABILENE—The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is protesting designation of the "Llano Estacado" of northwest Texas and eastern New Mexico as a "very dry and almost woodless plateau" such as was given recently by a national periodical. The organization has compiled figures which show that this area is one of the richest farming sections of the entire nation and is offering widespread refutation of the article. SAN SABA—Everything is in readiness for entertainment of delegates from the pecan-belted Hills Country District of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here on September 22. Many prominent speakers are on the program and a special sheep and goat raisers meeting has been arranged to be held in connection with the regular convention.

PADUCAH—Cottle County will have a two day free fair here October 4 and 5. A series of good will trips covering 23 communities of the trade territory are being made by the Chamber of Commerce, accompanied by the chamber of commerce band. The fair management is strongly favoring organized community exhibits rather than individual exhibits. The Cottle County Division of the Green Belt Poultry Association will hold their show in connection with the exhibition.

CARLSBAD, N. M.—Guests at the Crawford Hotel here are entertained in a new 30-room addition to the hotel, these rooms being arranged with new and modern furnishings.

LOCKNEY—Work on the $30,000 municipal water extension to industrial Lockney is finished and the water has been turned into the mains. With the present system, the city is enabled to furnish water to the residential consumer at 10 cents per thousand gallons, and to the industrial consumer at 8 cents per thousand, with a minimum charge of one dollar per month.

WINTERS—The annual meeting of the Winters Chamber of Commerce will be held September 19. The gathering will be a "home" affair but will be outstanding for the reason of a greatly increased outline of activity and educational campaign.

Wichita Falls—Stimulus to the industrial and commercial life of Wichita Falls has been added greatly with the announcement that the world's largest poultry ranch and a large cheese factory are to be established here. M. Johnson of Bowie plans to have a mammoth chicken plant in operation here by January 1, 1928. The Kraft Cheese Company, a national concern, will build a branch factory here that will produce products for national consumption.

DIMITT—Unprecedented building activities are under way here. Among the work is construction of a new school auditorium, costing more than $3,000. Several business houses are included in the building program. Work is progressing rapidly on the Fort Worth and Denver terminal here.

LAMPASAS—Ranchmen have begun fall shearing in this section. The fleece is said to be heavy and the clip unusually fine. The Fall clip is expected to be the largest in the history of the county.

MULESHOE—Construction has been started on a 25x80 foot brick and tile business house here. The work is expected to be completed within thirty days.

HEREFORD—Natural gas is to be piped into Hereford not later than December 1, 1928, according to contract signed with the West Texas gas company. A twenty year franchise was granted to them by the city commission.

QUITAQUE—A city hall and a jail are to be erected here at a cost of $4,500. The building will be 20x40 feet, fire-proof, and of reinforced concrete.

CHANNING—Mrs. Hubert Bishop has been placed on the staff of the Hartley County News, following resignation of Alvin Daves, who has returned to College for the winter term.

CLAUDE—Contract has been entered into which will give Claude natural gas by November 1. The rate agreed on is 75 cents per thousand cubic feet, less ten per cent if the bill is paid by the tenth of the month, and plus $1 a month service charge.

Mrs. J. W. Childers and daughter, Miss Rose, of Abilene, have been here since last mid-week on a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Dora Reagan.

BORN—to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brewer, city, September 11, a son.

In a mass meeting Monday afternoon, plans were laid for the Eighth Annual Floyd County Fair which will be held in Floydada on October 10, 1913. A committee composed of Wm. Massie, Dr. V. Andrews, I. D. Gamble, Homer Steen and C. Surginer was appointed by E. C. Nelson, Chairman. Amazing results in plant production by means of electroculture are being obtained by Henry Surber, a Swiss. The apparatus used pulls elements from the air and feeds them to the plant roots, making fertilizer unnecessary. Maximum strength, reached at the end of the fifth year, remains at that point indefinitely.

Just Tottering, So Weak

"I was in a bad state of health and was going through a critical time of my life," says Mrs. Ella Scarborough, R. F. D. 5, Dothan, Ala. "Several different things were recommended to me, but I did not get any real relief until I began to take Cardui.

"I was just as weak as could be. My legs were shaky, and often I would just totter around the house. I finally got so bad that I was in bed several weeks.

"It was then that I began to take Cardui. I kept it up for quite a while, and at last I regained my health. Cardui was certainly a friend to me in time of need.

"My health is splendid now, and I seldom have to use medicine, but I gladly say a word about Cardui whenever I find a friend going through the same suffering which I endured."

Now - An even better car at even lower prices

Since its first day before the public, the Pontiac Six has been scoring a series of triumphs. First came the triumph of its introduction, which resulted in world record sales for a new make of car! Then came a steady succession of important improvements in quality, luxury and convenience——improvements that resulted in smoother operation and greater handling ease, in greater comfort, greater economy and greater owner pride—in higher standards of quality and higher levels of popularity!

And now Pontiac Six again represents a sensational new standard of value—the result of this notably finer quality, combined with beautiful new Duco colors on bodies by Fisher, at lower prices on all body types.

New lower prices announced July 15th on all passenger cars.

LEARN ONE WORD A WEEK

Our new word this week is "cunctation." Very few persons are acquainted with this word, although it is right there in all the good dictionaries. "Cunctation" is a fancy word for "delay" or "tardiness." A teacher, rebuking a pupil who is habitually late to school, may properly say to said pupil: "It grieves me to find that you are falling into a habit of cunctation." Another way to put it is: "Of late you have grown intolerable cunctation; this must stop."—Exchange.

Boyhood Chum Visiting
C. Snodgrass This Week

C. Snodgrass has as his guest this week a boyhood chum in the person of John D. Taylor, of Winters, Texas, whom Mr. Snodgrass had not seen for thirty years.

Both born and reared in Titus County, Mr. Snodgrass and Mr. Taylor were childhood friends and as school boys and young men grew up in the same community. Thirty-six years ago they parted and had seen each other only once in that time, just briefly thirty years ago.

A few weeks ago Mr. Taylor met a Crosbyton man whom he asked about Mr. Snodgrass, and learning of his continued residence here, "I just decided I'd come to see Carrick," he said Monday. He arrived Saturday and will remain for a few days.

ALL-STARS BEST WHIRLWINDS
IN MUDDY GAME LAST FRIDAY

"A bad start brings a good finish" is a good omen for the F. H. S. Whirlwind eleven for their 1927 season. Their first scrimmage game of the season, scheduled with former F. H. S. "all-stars" last Friday afternoon ended in a slick muddy defeat for the Whirlwinds. The score was 6 to 0.

Threatened for some time of being "rained out" the battle began at a delayed hour Friday afternoon with water standing on the field in a number of places. The only touchdown of the entire tussel was scored in the first quarter by the all-stars. The younger and less experienced lads were unable to hold the older gridiron eleven although the High School boys succeeded in holding them to only one touchdown and no goal after touchdown.

Captain Dixie White lined up many of his "prospects" against the former Whirlwinds and discovered several excellent "finds." Among the new players with the Green and White eleven who were "sounded" in the mud-slinging scrimmage Friday were Ed and Homer Palmer. Old players who were in a greater part of the game were Jim Carter, Jim Stiles, John Edwards, A. D. White, U. S. Marshall and Sid Carter.

Among the former Whirlwind stars who met the regulars Friday were Jim Curry, Lorrain (Brit) Britton, Bill Colville, and Roy Eubank.

Because of the delayed hour and the mud, very few spectators witnessed the gridiron meet Friday.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS SUBJECT
THEME OF MEDIC'S MEETING

The topic for discussion at the Hale-Floyd-Swisher-Lamb-Briscoe County Medical Society meeting held in Floydada last week was "Infantile Paralysis," the subject being discussed from various angles. All the attending physicians present agreed that the disease is contagious, is probably carried in the discharges of the nose and throat, and that children from two to three years of age are most susceptible to it, although adults have been known to contract infantile paralysis.

On account of possible contagion, cases found should be isolated and quarantined, the doctors agreed, and the Texas code covering isolation and quarantine of this disease was pointed out as one of the most nearly ideal.

The meeting was held beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with Dr. Holt, of Olton, president of the society, presiding. Other physicians attending were Drs. Nichols, McClendon, Cantrell and Dey of Plainview; Drs. Henry, Greer and Henry of Lockney; Drs. Andrews, Alexander, Smith and Smith of Floydada. The session was held at the Smith & Smith Sanitarium and following its close, punch and cake were served.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE

The best of workers get out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sick spell, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by

SUSTAINED FAITH

Twenty-five years ago the officials of the First National Bank, of Floydada, had faith that Floyd County and the surrounding territory was a permanent, progressive country. Their faith has been sustained. Sustained faith has brought this institution a wealth of confidence from its customers.  Settler Dies Wednesday

Mrs. Susan A. Munsy, wife of the late J. J. Munsy and one of the pioneer settlers of Floyd County died Wednesday, September 14, in Amarillo, at the home of her son, D. J. Munsy. She had visited and spent part of the day with a neighbor saying she felt better than usual. A blood vessel burst causing her instant death.

The deceased with her husband and children came to Floyd County in 1890 and lived much of the time here until ten years ago when she went to make her home with her children at Amarillo and Tascosa. Her husband had the honor of having improved more places in Floyd County than any other man, with the exception of one other.

She was the daughter of David Doyle and wife, of Lee County Virginia, the place of her birth. She was 80 years, 7 months and 13 days old at the time of her death. At the age of 14 she joined the Baptist church of which she joined a member until her death.

She was married to John J. Munsy in Lee County Virginia, Feb. 22, 1869, to which union was born eleven children, three died in infancy and her son, James, died at Lockney at the age of 38. Her husband died 18 years ago.

She leaves behind to mourn her loss 7 children, 27 grandchildren, 4 brothers and one sister.

The children are D. J. and W. D. of Amarillo; C. M. and D. G. of Tascosa; Mrs. Jane Moore of Montrose, Colo.; Mrs. Lela Stokes, of Amarillo and Mrs. Rosa Franks, of San Diego, California.

All of the children and several grandchildren were present at the funeral and burial at Lockney Sunday afternoon, Sept. 18. The service was conducted by her former pastor, Rev. G. W. Tubbs.

Notice is hereby given that I, Mrs. Bertha Watson, guardian of the estate of Newton Childers, et al, minors, have this day filed my application in the above numbered and entitled cause for an order of the County Judge of Floyd County, Texas, authorizing me as guardian of the estate of said wards to renew, increase and extend the loan now held by the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of Dallas, Texas, for the sum of $3200.00 for a period of 4 years with interest at the rate of 6½ per cent per annum, on the following described land, to wit: 213 1-3 acres the same being the North 1-3 of Section No. 55 in Block G Certificate No. 19, and situated in Floyd County, Texas, said application will be heard by the County Judge at the Court house in the City of Floydada, Floyd County, Texas, on the 30th day of September A. D. 1927. 301tc. MRS. BERTHA WATSON, Guardian.

A crippled children's bureau has been organized in the New York State Department of Education, and a register will be kept of physically handicapped children. In cases of necessity, on order of the children's court, counties will be charged with cost of the physical care and education of such children; but on approval of the State commissioner of health half of the expense so incurred will be reimbursed by the State.

"Skin clinics" for public-school children are conducted twice a week in Minneapolis, Minn. Free treatment is given children unable to pay for the service. Visits to the number of 1,933 were reported during the past year. In heart clinics, conducted once a week, 130 children were enrolled, and a number of follow-up visits were made. Missouri St. Closing Hearing Friday Night

Mayor Smith Expresses Belief Matter Would Have to be Submitted to Vote of Citizens.

Further hearing on the matter of closing Missouri Street on the town side of the Santa Fe tracks will be held Friday night at a conference of the City Council and representatives of the Santa Fe and Quana, Acme & Pacific Railway Companies. This date was set by Mayor Smith following receipt of advices from President C. H. Sommer, of the last-named railway to the effect that he could be here on that date.

The interest of the Q. A. & P. in the hearing arises out of the fact that the site proposed as the desired one by the Santa Fe for their depot is on the right-of-way for the proposed interchange track of the Quana line with the Santa Fe. On account of the fact that more than two hundred local citizens are on a guarantee for right-of-way for this line, considerable local interest is evinced in this phase of the situation. Superintendent J. C. Barton, in Floydada last week, told the council that whether or not that body saw fit to close the street for the Santa Fe that company would be unwilling for the Quana interchange track to make connections along the route proposed for the reason that it would cut a Santa Fe industrial track and would discommode two or more of the Santa Fe's already established customers.

Another angle was given the proposal to close the street this week when Mayor Smith expressed the belief that it would be necessary to have a vote of the residents of Floydada before the street could be closed, if after full discussion and hearing it was found advisable to do so. "Unless there is some information on the subject the city does not have, the proposition of closing the street would have to be left to a vote of the people of Floydada," he said.

This statement was made by Mayor Smith after reference to the statutes, which he said seem to set this out as the proper mode of procedure. What the attitude of the community generally on the matter would be is problematical. Considerable opposition to the proposal has been expressed and probably an equal number of persons have expressed the belief that the closing of the street would not entail material damage, while adding greatly to the convenience of the public in its dealings with the Santa Fe should their station be located at the point where the street is closed. "We want to build a new station in Floydada in the next year and the location asked for is the only logical one our engineers have found to date," was Mr. Barton's explanation of their request to the council to close the street. The request was for an early decision so that if it proved favorable the proposed expenditure could be put in the budget for this division.

Successful Community Fair Held At Campbell

Filling a large room until overflowing with a wonderful display of the best products raised in that section the Campbell community fair held at the Campbell school house Tuesday afternoon was a great success. Agricultural and garden products featured the display, although the women's department was most complete. The agricultural and garden products were judged by Mr. Young, agricultural teacher of Ralls High School. No prizes were offered the exhibitors for their display, but despite this fact, the best products in the community were shown. Those gathered at the fair will fill a most complete score card at the County Fair, it is believed.

Miss Blanche Bass, county home demonstration agent, judged the women's department.

Fair attendance was present at the meeting Tuesday, and the community fair was considered a most complete success.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY

There was a time when men were standing with their love of truth in advance of their love of personal liberty. We see that we are standing now with our love of personal liberty in advance of our love for truth. We anticipate a time when the love of truth shall have come up to our love of liberty, and men shall be cordially tolerant and earnest believers both at once. When that comes it will be a new thing in the world. It has been seen in beautiful or splendid individuals scattered all through the ages, but there has been no age in which the mass of thinkers were at once strong in positive belief and tolerant of different of opinion.—Phillips Brooks.

STUFFED OWLS USED AS DECOY FOR CROWS

There is one way in which a wild crow may be shaken out of his accustomed wary composure or may be reduced even to a state of hysteria, says Henry C. Cary in Bird Lore.

Procure a stuffed owl, preferably one of the largest species, like the great horned or the barred, and place it out into the open in the country.

The crows will gather more quickly than do the vultures when they see carrion, and they will follow each other, as the vultures are said to do, so that the whole crow population for miles will soon be pouring out the vials of its wrath on the poor stuffed head with its yellow glass eyes.

The crows have an instinctive fear of the owl tribe, and hence they unite in an attempt to drive the stuffed owl, which they suppose to be alive, away from their neighborhood.

This method of decoying crows seems to work best in the nesting season. Its efficacy may be due to the owl's preying upon old and young crows in and near the nest at night.

Certainly the habit of nesting and roosting very near the topmost branches of tall trees would seem to make the crow, more than most birds, an easy victim of both hawks and owls.

ENTERTAINMENT PROGRAM READY FOR TEXAS-OKLAHOMA FAIR

Wichita Falls, Texas, Sept. 21.—Entertainment program and plans for the Texas Oklahoma Fair, to be held here October 1 to 6, inclusive are complete. This program calls for some of the most entertaining features offered during the six years of the exposition.

Heading the program will be A. F. Thaviu and his band and Halcyon players, numbering fifty two. Mr. Thaviu is one of the best known band instructors in the nation. It was his organization that took first prize at the San Francisco Exposition and again at the Ses Qui Centennial in Philadelphia last year. This organization will appear afternoon and night in front of the big steel grand stand. One of the main programs will be presented on Sunday night. It will be a Biblical production and promises to be something unusual.

Other entertainment features are automobile races and possibly horse racing. Midway attractions will be furnished by the Lackman Carson Carnival Company, one of the largest companies of the kind on the road. This will be the company's first visit to the South. Football will also be a feature for two days. These will be run Sunday and Monday. Football games are scheduled for Saturday and Tuesday. Other features are the Style Show on Tuesday, Wichita Falls Day, The Coronation of the Queen, Monday October 3 and the double wedding on opening night.

The entertainment program is costing upwards of $15,000 and the Fair management is offering more than $12,000 in cash premiums. Live stock exhibits promise to set new records in both numbers and quality, while it is expected at least twenty counties will have farm exhibits in the Agricultural Building.

As a result of 30 years' effort by the simplified spelling board of America, 12 of the 30,000 respelled words contained in the handbook of this society have been entered in some English dictionaries. They are: tho, altho, thru, thruout, thoro, thorofoare, thoroly, program, catalog, decalog, pedagog and prolog.

An appointment existing in London since 1570 is that of 'rememberer.' The holder of this office, who must be a lawyer, is paid between $7,500 and $10,000 a year, his duties being to sit beneath the gallery of the House of Commons and 'remember' legislation affecting the city of London. He must also act as medium for communication with the royal family or cabinet.

Part of the land flooded in the St. Bernard and Plaquemine parishes, Louisiana, was trapping land. In order that the muskrats might be saved, rafts fully provisioned were floated, and conservation agents reported that as many as 150 muskrats were seen on a single raft.

The maxim of the South American Cholo is, 'Plenty to eat, little to wear and nothing to do.' The Cholo is second cousin to the peasant of Cyprus, where goats are so valued that if one of the peasants gets a goat and a chestnut tree, he will work no more for the rest of his life.

Fastest Four in America Proves Its Claim to Title

Dodge Averages 67.35 miles per hour in Beating All Other Fours in Atlantic City A. A. A. Race

The Atlantic City (N.J.) Speedway Association, without Dodge Brothers instigation or knowledge, bought a Dodge Brothers Four and entered it in a Labor Day race for Four cylinder stock cars. Four cars of other makes also competed. All were strictly stock cars as required by the rules of the association. The race was for 25 miles—to determine which was "The Fastest Four in America."

The Dodge won. Its average speed for the entire race, from a standing start, was 67.35 miles per hour (officially timed by A. A. A.).

Generous confirmation, to say the least, of the modest claim of "Mile-a-minute Performance!" Even more remarkable than the speed, however, is the fact that the car had been driven only 10 days and yet was able to withstand this difficult test without once stopping. Thus the race not only offers conclusive proof of the Dodge's superiority in speed, but stands also as a glowing tribute to the rugged materials and excellent workmanship that go to make it—America's Fastest and Finest Four!

BLANCO DEMONSTRATION NEWS

The Blanco Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. W. F. Farley as hostess, Thursday, September 15. The subject of the lesson was "What I Have for the Fair." At the conclusion of the program a round table discussion was had on Fair Work.

The next meeting will be held October 6 with Mrs. Henderson. "Milk and Egg Dishes" will be the subject of the program, with Mrs. Daniel as leader.

Other subjects to be discussed will be: "Food Value of Milk," Mrs. G. R. Smith; "Care of Milk," Mrs. W. C. Cates; "Eggs as a Food," Mrs. Wheeler; "Variety in Milk and Eggs," Mrs. McPeak.

SAND HILL H. D. CLUB

The Sand Hill Home Demonstration club met Thursday afternoon, September 15, at the club room for the Fall garden show. Several men of the community came and helped to build shelves and arrange the vegetables, which made the work much lighter.

Mrs. Miller who is our garden contestant had on exhibit 106 varieties of vegetables. There were 136 altogether. One of the most interesting features of the show was a butter bean which was about two feet long and 6 inches in diameter. It was shaped like a dipper gourd.

After pictures had been made of the exhibit we asked all of the teachers and school children to come over and see the exhibit. It was quite amusing to hear the children guess at the number of varieties.

We had on exhibit several watermelons so after the show we cut them and had a watermelon feast.

THE PROVIDENCE CLUB

The Providence Club met at the club room on September 13. There were sixteen members present. Miss Bass met with us but we did not have our regular lesson as we planned for the Floyd County Fair which is to be held September 22, 23 and 24.

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, September 21, at 2 o'clock. Everyone is requested to bring all of the articles that they are contributing to the fair. These articles will be carried to Floydada early Thursday morning.

LAKEVIEW H. D. CLUB

The Lakeview Home Demonstration Club met in regular order September 14, in the home of Mrs. H. B. Hambright. There were 12 members present. This was a called meeting which was turned over to Miss Bass. There were many pretty articles brought to be judged. Everyone is requested to bring their exhibits for the Fair, ready packed, to the home of Mrs. Newton and from there they will be carried to the Fair. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Hugh Nelson Wednesday, September 28. "Ways of Cooking Meat" will be our subject. Everyone come and learn many new ways of cooking meat.

F. H. S. Classes Elect Officers And Organize

Henry Bosley Chosen at Meeting to Lead 1928 Seniors Through Last High School Year.

Henry Bosley, an active student in Floydada High School for the past three years, was elected president of the Senior Class of 1928 when the class met for the purpose of organizing last Thursday at the noon hour. Bosley has attended the Floydada schools for a number of years. He was president of the Junior class last year and has been selected as a class officer a number of times previous.

There are fifty-two in the class this year—thirty boys and twenty-two girls. A. D. (Dixie) White, captain of the Whirlwinds, was elected vice-president of the class and Ollie Belle Collins as secretary and treasurer. The class flower, colors and motto were not selected but will be chosen in the near future, it was stated.

Two other F. H. S. classes met Thursday noon, also, for the purpose of organizing and selecting officers for the semester. The sophomore class elected Howard Welborn as president and Audrey Farris, vice president. Lois Sitton was chosen secretary and treasurer of the class.

Members of the Freshman class met and selected as their president, Mildred Welborn, Hazel Probasco for vice president, and Ava Belle Gamble for secretary and treasurer. Class colors, flowers and mottoes were not announced.

DAVIS WILL TELL OF HIS RECENT TRIP INTO ILLINOIS

Rev. F. L. Davis and wife reached home the latter part of last week from their brief vacation trip into Illinois, where they were guests at Springfield of a son. They were accompanied by Allen Davis, their son, who this week enters Drury College at Springfield.

Mr. Davis has promised to write some interesting things about his trip as soon as he has caught up with the accumulation of work on hand, and will possibly have it in time for next week's issue of The Hesperian.

Tri-State Top Sow Is Added To Hilltop Herd

Holmes Brothers' Champion Boar Defeated by Missouri Swine.—Duroc Herd Ranked Sixth.

Adding to their herd the top sow sold at public auction at the Amarillo Tri-State Exposition on Thursday, Holmes Brothers, widely known Duroc breeders of this county, plan to keep their herd one of the best in this section of the state. The sum of $100 was paid by the Hilltop Farm owners for the best sow sold on this day.

Although their herd boar, Great Heritage, Grand Champion of the Tri-State Fair for the past two years, was defeated in the final showing this year, the Holmes Brothers were very optimistic over their showing since the swine exhibit at the fair was about fifty percent larger than any time in the past. A. L. Ward, of Dallas, judge of the swine department, was extremely well pleased with the showing at the Tri-State Exposition and was loud in his praise of the hogs shown. At last year's Amarillo fair, the Hilltop Farm exhibited the second best litter. This year their litter won sixth place. Their boar was defeated by a Junior Yearling boar from Missouri.

Continued dry weather in the spring, forcing swine breeders in this section to raise their hogs without a green pasture, is believed to have caused the decline in the Holmes Brothers exhibit. "I believe it is impossible to beat the big boys under these conditions" are the words of Ed Holmes. "This makes me believe stronger still that you cannot grow real breeding stock without green pastures at all times, although we believe that with the advantages that we have in this section, this can be made into a regular 'Hog Paradise,'" he continued.

The Holmes Brothers have shown their hogs at fairs in this section for the past few years. They are entering their herd and will compete with the larger breeders of this state at the leading fairs this year, it was stated. They plan to show their hogs at the Lubbock South Plains Fair on September 27 to October 1. They will show at other West Texas fairs also.

DUM-DUM BULLETS IN WAR OF INDEPENDENCE

A collector of bullets dating from the period of the Revolutionary war and prepared for a variety of uses has been recently added to the collection of the New York Historical society.

One fact of historical interest established by the finding of these relics is the certain use of dum-dum bullets by the soldiers of both armies, contrary to the practice of war. Accusations and recriminations have been common for a century and a half. It now appears that the soldiers of both armies displayed considerable ingenuity in preparing bullets in such a manner as to inflict jagged wounds, sometimes cutting them nearly in half and either twisting or beating them out of shape.

Other bits of the lead designed for deadly use were diverted to pursuits far from the intention of their makers. Pounded squares, with spots cut in the sides, they were used for dice through the long winters of inaction. Hammered into strips—long and narrow or short and broad—they served as lead pencils. Some of these were punctured and worn on a strip about the neck, anticipating later styles. Other bullets were cut in two and tied together to serve as cuff links, occasionally ornamented by laborious carving.

Some of these bullets bear the marks of human teeth and recall those more inhuman days when flogging was a common punishment. Victims were tied to post or tree while the lash was applied to their bare backs. They were permitted at such times to hold a bullet between their teeth as an aid against crying out in weakness under the ordeal.

THAMES HAS DOUBLE EBB

It is a rare thing that an interesting happening entirely escapes the eye of the press, but recently such an event was unrecorded. London river, the river of the empire, enjoyed a double ebb and flow of its tide and no one said a word about it. Such a manifestation is certainly a curious one and not always explainable. But before the Thames was embanked, its vagaries in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries were pretty frequent, for in 1659 it ebbed and flowed twice in three hours and in 1682 three times in four hours—a sergeant major's allowance which has never been surpassed.—Manchester Guardian.

TRIBUTE SEEMS ROUGH ON WEDDING FINERY

Rice and confetti, for use after wedding ceremonies, both have their opponents, but they seem preferable to the coal dust which, we are told, was thrown at St. Pancras recently after the wedding of a coal heaver and his bride.

But the idea of this occupational tribute is not quite new; some years ago a confectioner and his bride were pelted with the little sweets which are known as "hundreds and thousands." The idea might be endlessly extended—tea leaves for the grocer, sawdust for the joiner, chopped suet for the butcher, buns for the baker, buttons for the draper, orange peel for the green grocer and pills for the doctor and chemist. In the case of writing people and journalists, presumably all their friends would turn up and empty their fountain pens at the bride and bridegroom. That sounds a curious compliment—but, then so does coal dust.—Manchester (England) Guardian Weekly.

MUCH IN A NAME

A little colored girl, a newcomer in Sunday School, gave her name to the teacher as "Fertilizer Johnson."

Later the teacher asked the child's mother if that was right.

"Yes, ma'am, dat's her name," said the fond parent. "You see she was named for me and her father. Her father's name am Ferdinand and my name is 'Liza. So we named her Fertilizer.'"—Ex.

Mrs. Ben Dillard Died In Floydada Tuesday

Mrs. Ben Dillard, 29, of the Cedar Hill community died Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock in Floydada at the private Sanitarium of Mrs. Francis White after an illness of several weeks. She was in a very serious condition when brought to Floydada and an operation was performed by Dr. H. Z. Pennington Monday morning in an effort to save her life which proved futile.

The deceased is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Massengale, also of the Cedar Hill community. She has resided in Floyd county for eleven years. Besides her husband and parents she leaves three small children, two daughters, Eva Lee and Vivian Doriene and one son, Elvis Truman.

Other survivors are five sisters and three brothers. They are: Mrs. Hugh Fortenberry, Adrian; Mrs. Elvie Luckey, Lockney; Mrs. Warnie Leach, Danville, Calif.; Mrs. Geo. Leach, Childress, and Miss Virginia Massengale, Cedar Hill community; Luther, Lawrence, and E. J. Massengale of Cedar Hill.

Ask Me Another Question

1. Is there any virtue in the old saying, "Let a child be exposed to children's disease and get them over with?" (Mrs. F. J.)
2. Give a general diet for small children. Young mother)
3. Is the jack rabbit a carrier of the organism causing infantile paralysis? (Mrs. A. D. S., Miles.)
4. What causes infantile paralysis, and is there any way of preventing it? (Mrs. L., Lubbock)
5. What is the cause of measles? (Mrs. B., Lubbock)
6. What service does the Bureau of Child Hygiene offer mothers in this state? (Reader, West Texas.)
7. How can a county receive state aid in establishing a county public health nursing service?

ANSWERS

1. It is never wise to expose a child to any disease. As a rule, the younger the child, the more severe and permanent are the "after effects" or complications of a disease. Then, too, the older a child grows, the less his susceptibility to most diseases becomes. If he escapes infection from children's disease when young, he will probably escape them for life, and will be just that much better off physically. The good health and the lives of many children have been needlessly sacrificed through the foolish notion that a child should have children's diseases while young and "get them over with."

2. A general diet for children should include from a pint to a quart of milk of safe quality daily; two vegetables each day, one of which should be of the leafy variety; fresh fruit every day if possible, and dried fruit on days when no fresh fruit is given; cereals once a day with milk or cream; bread and butter sandwiches; soft cooked eggs; very little sweets—none between meals; very little meat; no tea or coffee. Parents having children who are sickly, or who have delicate digestive systems, should see their family physician as to a diet suited to the individual needs of such children.

3. While a few have advanced the theory that the jack rabbit might be responsible for the transmission of infantile paralysis, there is no proof of this theory. This supposition arose, perhaps, from the fact that there occurs in lower animals, as rabbits and dogs, a form of paralysis with symptoms somewhat similar to those found in infantile paralysis.

4. Anterior poliomyelitis, which is the proper name of infantile paralysis, is caused by a specific organism, but the mode of transmission of this organism has not been definitely determined. This causative germ apparently exists in the nose and throat secretions of a victim of the disease, and frequently in the secretions of a contact. The bowel discharges may also contain the contagion. There may be also other methods of transmission.

5. The cause of measles is unknown. While measles is usually a mild disease, it is very unwise to consider a case of measles lightly, as not infrequently secondary lung complications arise which may result in death. Never expose a child to measles unnecessarily.

6. The Bureau of Child Hygiene of the State Department of Health, Austin, offers to expectant mothers a series of pre-natal letters, giving instructions as to diet, hygiene, and other health matters pertinent at this critical time in a woman's life, as well as giving patterns for approved maternity dress and baby layette. This service is all free for the asking. This bureau also has literature on infant and child care, which is sent upon request.

7. The State Department of Health has a limited fund which is used for establishing a public health nursing service for counties on a cooperative basis. An organization interested in establishing such a service in their county, should write the State Department of Health for further information.

VEGETABLES FOR VITAMINES

Vitamines! What are they? We hear about them on all sides. "They are necessary for normal nutrition, necessary for growth," it is said.

Their chemical nature is not known. But it is an established fact, that when they are lacking in the diet, health suffers. Certain diseases are attributed to this lack—outstandingly rickets.

Vegetables, fruits and milk are rich in vitamins. Spinach and tomatoes contain a higher percentage of vitamins than any other foods.

The Year Around
Can we have plenty of vitamins in the diet the year around? Certainly. And very easily, too, in canned vegetables and fruits, among other things. (Though canning lessens the vitamin content somewhat.)

Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, the Philadelphia cooking expert, gives today a few simple rules for canning vegetables.

"Right your stove first. Put a wash boiler filled with water on one burner, a teakettle on another, and a large pan of water on the third. "Prepare vegetables by washing, and skinning where this is necessary," Mrs. Rorer says. "Wash the glass jars, adjust rubbers on them, and screw on the tops to test them.

Scald Quickly
"Then open jars, but do not remove the rubbers. Put them, with the lids, in a pan, and dip over them from the boiler enough water to scald.

"Put the vegetables in a square of cheesecloth, and lower into the pan of boiling water for 15 minutes. Lift, drain, and put into the jars at once.

"Add a teaspoon of salt to each quart jar. Add enough boiling water to fill jar (after vegetables are in). Screw on the tops, give half turn back, and place at once on the rack in the wash boiler or canner.

"Individual wire holders cost but little and are more easily managed than a solid rack. When the boiler is filled, cover, wait until the water again boils and turn down to low heat."

Mrs. Rorer's Table for Blanching

Spinach	10 minutes
Tomatoes, to skin	3 minutes
Asparagus	5 minutes
Green Beans	15 minutes
Beets	25 minutes
Peas	5 minutes
Corn, on cob	3 minutes

Table for Sterilizing

Spinach	2 hours
Tomatoes	1 hour
Asparagus	1 1/2 hours
Green Beans	1 1/2 hours
Beets	2 hours
Peas	3 hours
Corn	4 hours
Chicken	3 hours

What a comfort it is to have a stove which needs no watching. One of the modern long-chimney oil stoves has this advantage. Once you set the flames, they will not vary. You can leave the kitchen, and forget all about this stove.

Fiesta String Beans
Mrs. Belle DeGraf, San Francisco home economics counselor, suggests a new and pleasing way of cooking string beans. String beans are very rich in vitamins. Mrs. DeGraf's recipe follows:

String and cut beans in two lengthwise. Cook in a boiling salted water in an uncovered saucepan about 25 minutes. Use only enough water to barely cover beans. Drain and season with 1/2 teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper and 1 tablespoon of butter. Set beans aside until sauce is made.

Put 2 egg yolks in a small saucepan, add 2 teaspoons of flour and 1 tablespoon of lemon juice; mix them and add 1 cup of stock. The stock can either be canned consommé, a bouillon cube dissolved in warm water or strained soup stock. Cook over a very low fire until sauce has thickened, then add to hot beans. Too fast or too long cooking will make this sauce curdle.

Beans Au Gratin
Another good dish is one recommended by Miss Lucy G. Allen, principal of the Boston School of Cookery, string beans au gratin.

"Drain a can of stringless beans, and place them on a clean cloth to absorb all moisture," Miss Allen says.

"When well dried, put half of them into a shallow baking dish, season highly with salt and cayenne, sprinkle over the beans three tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, and pour over three tablespoonfuls of heavy cream. Repeat, making two layers and put into the oven to heat and brown about ten minutes.

Glazed Carrots
Miss Allen also gives a recipe for glazed carrots. Carrots also have a high vitamin content.

Wash, scrape and cook five medium carrots. Cut in thin slices. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in an omelet pan, and add two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Add slices of carrots, and stir well until browned.

Every home with a kitchen pump can now have running hot water! One manufacturer of kerosene hot water heaters has perfected a simple system of connecting the kitchen pump and the heater. By means of a valve connection either hot or cold water can be pumped.

Factory's Alterations Costing Ford Millions

More Than Fifty Per Cent of Company Machinery Altered for Producing New Model

Total expenditure in the purchase and alteration of tools, together with the cost of constructing a single set of body dies, preparatory to building a new Ford car, has amounted to $15,000,000—"before a wheel is turned," says the Ford News in its issue of September 8, and received here last week. The article continues:

Two of the factors included in these preliminary steps were the purchase of 4,500 new machine tools; and the alteration of fifteen thousand more. These two items involved an expenditure of nearly $10,000,000.

Preparing to produce the new rear axle alone necessitated the construction of an entire group of machine tools. One hundred and sixty-six gear-generating machines were completely rebuilt at a cost per unit of $3,000 to produce two gears included in the rear axle assembly.

A number of hot metal spinning machines were purchased at a total cost of about sixty thousand dollars. Other mechanical equipment, consisting principally of punch presses, was also required, the latter costing approximately one million dollars.

Alterations and purchases of machinery for production of the new steel-spoked wheel cost between $600,000 and $700,000.

The preparations involve three hundred welding machines, many of them built especially for Ford purposes at a cost of from seven hundred to nine thousand dollars each.

Four million dollars of the total expenditure was spent for new machine tools. About $4,500,000 was expended for altering or rebuilding tools on hand.

already in company plants before preparations began. Of these, 32,000, or nearly seventy-five per cent, were production tools. More than fifty per cent of all company tools have been rebuilt.

worth of preserving the relics and history of the section, now beginning to be more difficult from year to year to accumulate, and each of them pledged assistance in any way possible to gain this end. That such relics and history should preferably be kept at historic spot chosen for the park site was indicated.

A gathering of the old timers would be incomplete without fiddling and the old-time tunes. Two old timers, John McDonald and Coke Fullingim, were the principal dispensers of the fiddling music, others assisting them from time to time. Tuesday night, following the formalities of the day, these who remained, enjoyed an old-time square dance at the Rock House.

In the bronc busting contests Roy Shirley, Clarence Miller and Bill Brown were among the riders, and some good exhibitions of horsemanship were given. None of the elderly old-timers tried their luck at the game that had been their life for years on the plains. In the goat roping contest Roy Shirley won first place, Roy Snodgrass second and Clarence Miller third.

R. C. Scott, of this city, who assisted the secretary in keeping tab on those present and recording the doings of the day. "I never saw a bunch of old settlers enjoy themselves like they did Tuesday," he declared. "Without a doubt, it was the biggest thing of its kind ever pulled off in this country."

The park site dedicated is a twenty-two acre tract immediately east of the rock house on a gently rolling slope and including a short stretch of Blanco Canyon and a grove of trees. It will serve as a perpetual memorial to the memories of Uncle and Aunt Hank Smith, who moved to the site in 1879 from Ft. Griffin, built the Rock House and reared a family. Soon after they settled at the place application was made for it to be designated as a post office and name of Mt. Blanco was chosen, from a white chalk hill that is half a mile distant. Mrs. Smith was postmistress and cowboy for counties around made long trips to the office get their mail.

It is the hope of the old settlers to make the event an annual one.

Under the plan for interchange of teachers and students between the British Isles and the dominions and colonies of the Empire, 230 teachers are exchanged each year through the medium of the League of the Empire, which has been in existence for 20 years. A beginning was made last summer by a joint committee in the exchange of secondary teachers between Great Britain and the United States, and negotiations are in process for similar exchanges with different countries of Europe.

WHITE MULE HOPS SHERIFF'S CAR FOR SHORT, WOEFUL RIDE

Sheriff P. G. Stegall had an unusual passenger, and an unusual experience, Saturday afternoon one and a half mile east of Floydada on the Matador highway, when a white mule—the regular kind that you say gidap at—in three leaps landed from a pasture alongside the fence onto the running board of the sheriff's car, tearing off one of the doors of a two-door sedan and otherwise damaging the car. The sheriff, his wife and T. G. Hall, occupants of the car, miraculously escaped injury except for a slight scratch sustained by Mr. Hall who was on the driving side where the mule struck the car.

The party were enroute home from Wichita Falls where they had been to take a patient to the insane hospital. The trip both ways had been without incident.

"It was just about sundown and we were coming along at a good clip when the mule quit his grazing alongside a gap in the fence and in three bounds was out of the pasture, across the barbed and into the car with a crash," Sheriff Stegall said. "The weight of the mule as he stuck to the car after the impact must have kept it from turning over with us."

The mule belonged to E. S. Kelly, a contractor on the Quanah, Acme & Pacific, who has a camp a short distance east of town. It was a good work animal apparently Mr. Stegall said.

FOR ART'S SAKE

It was lovely, approaching the divine. A million stars blinked in the heavens. The full moon scattered tiny flakes of silver on the wavelets which danced and sang at our feet. Away off to our right the red beacon of the Round Island light shot its message of guidance, good cheer and security out across the endless sea. To the left, and hugging the horizon, a four-masted schooner loomed phantom-like against the blue-black night. It was all so restful, serene an comforting that I was quite overcome with emotion.

"What a night for lovers!" I confided to my friend.

"Yes," he said, "and I got it, frame and all, with 45 soap wrappers."

Automobile accidents are most likely to happen between five and six o'clock in the afternoon, a survey indicates. Evidence of tuberculosis of the spine were found in an Egyptian mummy dating back to about 2500 B. C.

and color, and led by the 40-piece Floydada Municipal Band a parade that should be almost one-half mile in length will pass through the business section at 1 o'clock. Included in this parade will be the 4H Girls Club band, which attracted so much attention at the A. & M. Short Course, and several of the Boy Scout Troops of the county. Merchants and automobile agencies will also be represented in this colorful parade.

Races And Polo Saturday

Saturday afternoon the second game of polo will be played between Wichita Falls and Snyder preceded by the two horse races. The third game will not be played until Sunday afternoon.

The best independent company of the road today, carrying only the three rides merry-go-round, ferris wheel and merry-mix-up has been engaged for the fair. Very little effort to secure concessions has been made, the fair officials believing that the different county organizations would arrange to furnish amusement of this kind. The mid-way attractions are opened now and will be in progress both day and night for the remainder of the week.

"Merry Madcaps" Stock Company opened this week down town but is moving today to the fair grounds, where they will entertain both afternoon and evening.

It is not an idle boast to say that this fair is the outstanding event of its kind on the South Plains. Twenty-one years ago the Floyd County Fair came into being. Since that time, under the direction of far sighted, patriotic, earnest loyal business men, it has demonstrated to thousands of visitors, by means of a comprehensive display, the productiveness of its soil. Today it stands in the front ranks of the free county fairs in the State. Only for a short time preceding and during the world's war was the fair suspended. Operated with no thought of profit save that which will come through a more thorough development of Floyd County, the Floyd County Fair is entirely unselfish in its aims.

Whirlwind-Bulldog Meet Attracting Attention

Plainview Gridsters Bringing Large Delegation of Fans to Witness First Game Friday.

With the expectation of bringing with them a large delegation of rooters to witness their first football game of the season, the Plainview Bulldogs are making preparations for a tough battle when they hang their fangs in the Floydada High Whirlwinds on Friday of this week. Coach Guy Allen, of Plainview, earlier in the week issued an order to Fair officials for 125 tickets for the Plainview rooters who plan to attend the game. According to reports, the visiting gridsters will be accompanied by the High School band and a trained drilled pep squad.

The pigskin classic Friday will be the featuring sport event of the second day of the Floyd County Fair. Ike Jay, Whirlwind coach and Coach Allen are both looking forward to a hard fought contest between the opposing gridsters, rivals of long standing. The Bulldogs, Class A team, have been victorious over the Whirlwinds, Class B team, for the past two years, although each game has been a battle royal. Last season, the Plainview squad was barely victorious over the local lads and were defeated in the Class A district games. The Whirlwinds, on the otherhand, were B-district champions of Class B schools. The Plainview eleven have letter men from tackle to tackle, but only one letter man, Norman Magill, in the backfield, reports state. Practices since the opening of school indicate that their backfield is speedy, but will be handicapped by the lack of experience.

Coach Ike Jay reports that the Whirlwinds will be in excellent condition for Friday's game. Although greatly handicapped by the mud, the All-star game with ex-students last Friday, gave him an opportunity to test their strength and speed and he is very optimistic over the chances of defeating the Bulldogs this year. From the scrimmage game last week, Jay has worked out a probable line-up that will likely start the Whirlwinds schedule. The eleven who will probably start the first interscholastic game is as follows: ends—Jim Carter and Jim Stiles; tackles—J. R. Borum and Winfred Newsome; guards—Wallace Robbins and Orville Moore; Center John Edwards; quarter back, A. D. White; full back, U. S. Marshall; and halves, Sid Carter and Homer Palmer.

The game will be called promptly at 3:30 o'clock, the Fair officials announce. J. C. Wester and Aubrey Bishop will probably be officials. Preceding the game, two Boy Scout Troops of this city will compete in various forms of drills. A large American flag will be presented to the winning troop, it was announced.

First Polo Game Starts Today At Three O'Clock

The first polo game, featuring the fair, will be held this afternoon (Thursday) preceded by one or more quarter-mile horse races that have been added as a feature in the past week.

All men and mounts of the Snyder team arrived Tuesday afternoon, all in good condition, and anxious to play. The Wichita Falls horses have been here several days resting up for the game and the members of the team, other than Mr. Featherston, will arrive this morning by automobile. Mr. Featherston has been here since his return to Texas from Colorado a few weeks ago.

The grounds for the polo games this year are located west of town a half-mile, north of the Sand Hill road. Completing the preparation of the grounds Wednesday, Roy Snodgrass, manager of this feature of the fair, said everything was in readiness for the games here today. Optimism over the outlook for attendance at the games was expressed. After the game today the teams rest tomorrow, then clash again Saturday afternoon, and the third game will be played Sunday afternoon.

FELLOWSHIPS FOR ENGLISHMEN IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES

Commonwealth fund fellowships, amounting to $125,000, have been awarded to 23 honor graduates of British universities who are to come to the United States next fall for two years' study in American universities. This is the third annual group of such awards and makes a total of 63 young scholars so far given opportunity for education and travel in the United States under the auspices of the commonwealth fund. To the 20 annual fellowships provided under the original plan, 3 new fellowships have been added this year for honor graduates of British colonial universities at present studying in Great Britain.

An important provision of the fellowships is that the holders are required to travel widely while in this country. During the academic year they attend meetings of various learned societies and so come in contact with eminent specialists in their field of work. In the summer each fellow maps out a "swing around the circle" which usually extends from coast to coast.—School Life.

Brown Bros.

The poultry industry of the United States is a billion dollar industry. In fact, according to Roy C. Potts, chief poultry marketing specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture, it has passed well beyond the value and has become one of the leading agricultural industries of the country. Chicken egg production on farms is in the neighborhood of 2,000,000,000 dozen annually with a value of $600,000,000 or more, while the number of poultry raised each year is approaching three-quarters of a billion with an approximate value of $500,000,000. These production and value figures include farm production only and do not embrace the village and city production, which, its extent were known, would undoubtedly swell the totals considerably.

THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

VOLUME 34

FLOYDADA, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1927.

NUMBER 30

Schools Keep Pace With Rapid Growth

Succeeding Years Bring Increase In Enrollment

Annual Growth Has Made System One Of Best In This Section.

Hand in hand with the progress of the city and community, the Floydada Public School system has advanced and broadened until it ranks among the best on the Panhandle Plains of Texas. From a little teacherage of the nineties, the facilities have increased until they include three modern brick buildings, completely equipped in every respect. Each year has brought new pupils for the ever growing rolls. In the high school and the two grade schools this term there are 783 pupils, the latest check shows.

30 Rural Schools

Advancement and development has not been restricted to Floydada alone. There are 30 rural schools and every community has manifested a pride in co-operating in the educational program and erected beautiful buildings to accommodate their children.

Floyd County's scholastic enrollment, as approved by the State Department of Education, based on the census taken last spring shows a total of 3,533. This number shows a net gain of sixteen pupils over last year, which had a total of 3,517. The first payment of the state apportionment of sixteen dollars per capita, which, incidentally, is the largest in history, was received Thursday afternoon of last week. A check for $3,533 was sent County Superintendent Price Scott for distribution.

Lockney Public schools opened Monday, September 12, with Professor W. D. Biggers as superintendent. Last mid-week there were 518 children enrolled; 183 students in high school and 335 in the primary and intermediate department. A gain of 55 is indicated over the mark set last year. Twenty-four teachers are employed at Lockney.

There are thirty rural schools in the county, nineteen of which are housed in splendid brick buildings costing from $10,000 to $25,000. State rural school inspectors give the county credit for having some of the best schools in the State. Seventeen of the rural schools have their own teacherages. A recent statement showed that each rural school owned from five to ten acres of land.

Of the 30 rural schools, all had opened their 1927-28 session Monday of last week with the exception of Newland and Irick.

All along the line, in the local schools, in those in the rural communities and at Lockney, a spirit of optimism has been expressed in words that "everything points to the greatest year in history."

Local Divisions Active

All of the Floydada divisions of the system have been operating smoothly since the opening Monday, September 5. Superintendent W. E. Patty has the assistance of twenty-eight other faculty members in directing the work in the three schools. The members of the teaching staff are: High School—Hopper Scoggins, O. T. Williams, Miss Davis Rea, Mrs. G. J. Clements, Miss Avis Austin, Miss Lela Swain, Ike Jay, A. D. Cummings, Miss Jewel Brock, Miss Dorothy Biebel, Misses Gladys Collins and Mae Colvin, and substitute teacher, Mrs. Lon Smith; Ward Schools—Mrs. A. H. Thornton, J. M. Phillips, D. M. Hopper, Misses Vera Fry, Lula Belcher, Sude Miller, Ruby Norton, Maude Williams, Eddy's Walker, Vera Louise Hamilton, Emma Lou McKinney, Mesdames A. D. Cummings, J. N. Johnston Helena Green, Ernest Hughes and G. F. Klebold; substitutes Mrs. A. A. Bishop and Mrs. L. G. Mathews.

Three active Parent-Teacher Associations supporting the schools are outstanding in their accomplishments. They are now operating cafeterias at the East Ward and Andrews Ward and are making plans to serve at the High School.

Members and officials of the High School P. T. A. have been discussing the feasibility of assisting in creating new interest in the library. They have made the following appeal:

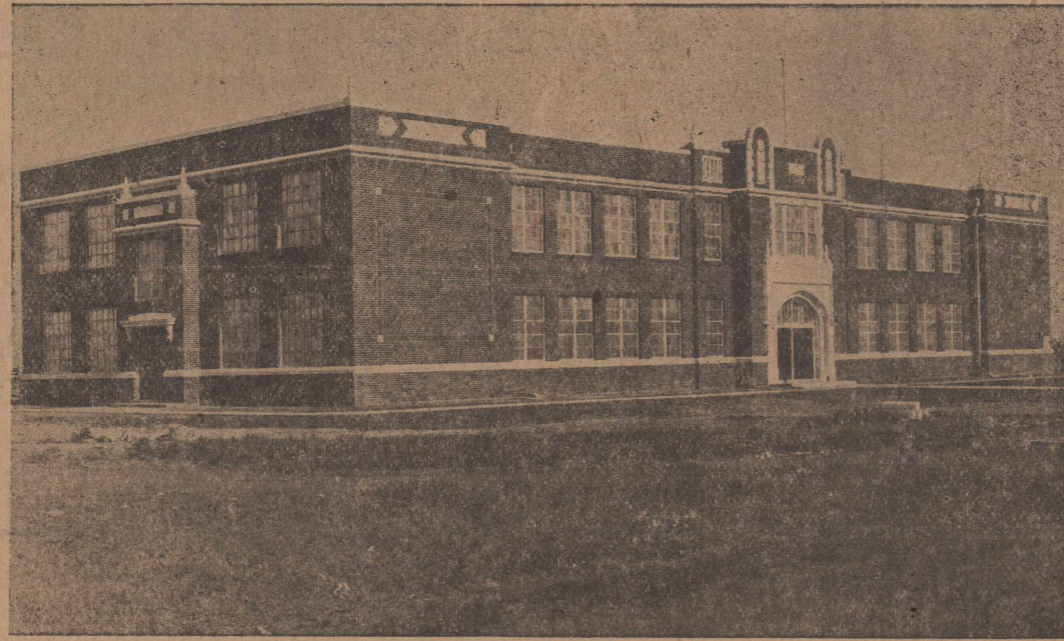

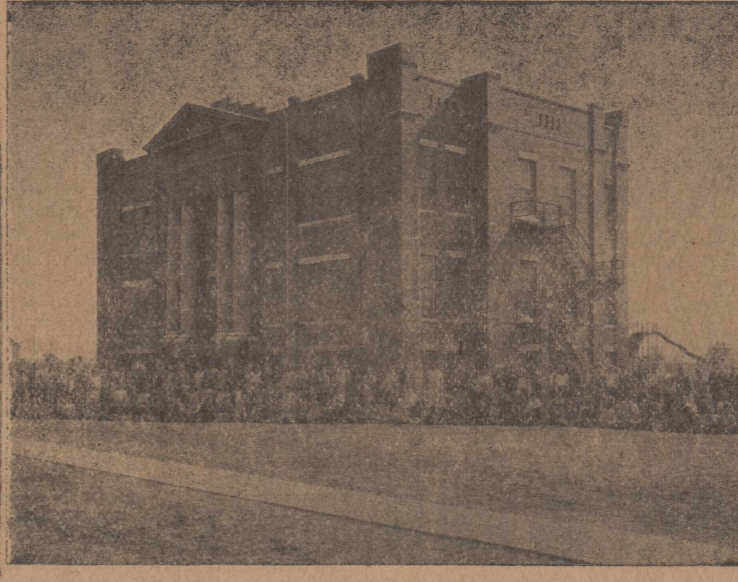

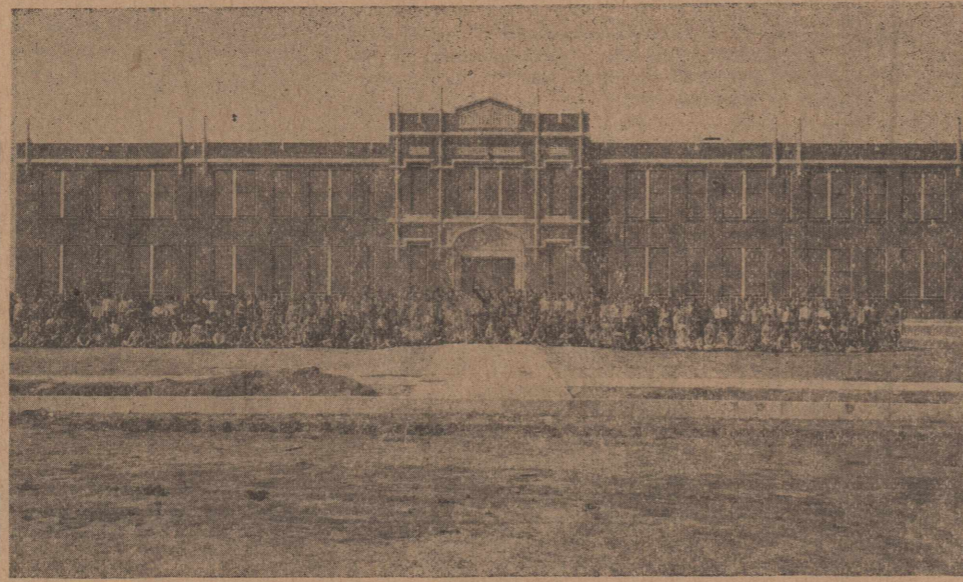

"Because of the increased enrollment in High School this year it is expedient that the number of volumes in the high school library is increased.

"Not only should recognized books be made accessible to every child but a wide variety of choice should be placed at his disposal. This variety can be secured by the co-operation of the townspeople in adding to our library shelves books of recent fiction written by versatile modern writers. The realm of writing will not seem so far removed from the life of the child if he understands that the writer is making his career in modern times. Perhaps you have in your homes modern books which you have discarded after the first reading. Donate these books to our library to enrich the literary acquaintance of your boys and girls.

"It is not our intention to disparage the value of books from reputable writers such as Scott, Hawthorne, Thackeray, Hugo and others, but our desire is to make our reading list more flexible. The success of any plan will depend upon the co-operation of the parents in displaying your willingness to share your libraries with us."

FLOYD COUNTY PRODUCTS IN FOUR FAIRS

THE THREE MODERN BUILDINGS OF FLOYDADA'S EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM, RECOGNIZED AS AMONG THE BEST IN THIS SECTION OF THE PLAINS

In The Pictures

UPPER LEFT—This is the R. C. Andrews Ward, the newest of the buildings in use by the Floydada school system. It was completed and opened on November 8, 1926. It represents an expenditure of $90,000. The athletic gymnasium which is in this building is one of the best "gyms" in height of ceiling, width and seating capacity in West Texas.

UPPER RIGHT—The East Ward building is the oldest structure of the three. It was used as a high school until 1925, and since that time has served as a ward for the grades.

LOWER LEFT—Floydada High School, located in the south part of town. The structure cost approximately $85,000 and was completed in 1925. It has a large auditorium, study halls, two laboratories, departments for science, economics and commercial work.

Tell Texas Real Facts By Exhibits Of Crops

Explain What Great Staked Plains Really Produce Each Year.

Major crop products of Floyd County will be placed on display this year at four fairs in Texas. Exhibits will be placed at the local fair, at the West Texas Fair at Abilene, the Texas-Oklahoma Fair at Wichita Falls and the State Fair at Dallas. This county was awarded fifth place in the competition last week at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair. Wheat, cotton, oats, maize, hay, corn forage and vegetables are featured in each of the exhibits. "Telling them about Floyd County with the actual products" is the summary story of what is being done.

Do Big Job

Immense in every dimension is the briefest way of describing the job of collecting, selecting, preparing, shipping, arranging and explaining the exhibits, say the officials responsible in a large measure for the extensive showing made this year of Floyd County products. Ed Bishop, secretary of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, Fay Guthrie, secretary of the Lockney C. of C. and O. T. Williams, in charge of the vocational agriculture department of local high school have prepared the exhibits.

In the background of the general Floyd County exhibit on display in other cities this month and next will be seen a sign made of a variety of grains grown in this county, with the words "Llano Estacado" in the center. Although the word is well known in this section, it is the cause of many questions and gives the individual in charge of the exhibit an opportunity of explaining that "The Great Staked Plains" was so named by the Spanish people who were among those who first visited this section.

It is this vast territory—"The Llano Estacado"—which covers a distance of 150 miles east and west and 400 miles north and south that represents the greatest farming and ranching section of the Lone Star State. The fact that the Staked Plains produce 80 per cent of the wheat of Texas and more grain sorghums than any state in the Union with the exception of Texas itself.

This Important Section

That Floyd County is a very important part of the Staked Plains can be seen by the fact that its annual production of wheat will crowd the 2,000,000 bushel record held by this county at the present time. The last census on this grain was taken in 1924, when the county produced 1,879,899 bushels. The 1926 crop was 1,543,900 bushels and although 1927 was considered a dry year, the county was successful in producing approximately 1,250,000 bushels. Wheat is one of the major crops shown in the Floyd County exhibits.

Another crop that is considered by many as the real money crop of the county is grain sorghums. This occupies a prominent position in the county exhibits and generally consists of an equal showing of maize and kafir corn. This crop is very seldom a failure and there is always enough raised to take care of the local needs and to ship out thousands of dollars worth to other markets.

Forage crops are a part of the plan of the diversified farmer in this county for a showing of forage crops. Millet, sudan, cane and peas are generally shown in this department.

Good Farm Gardens

Floyd County farm homes are not complete without a large garden where a variety of vegetables are raised each year. The members of the Home Demonstration Clubs annually can hundreds of dollars worth of home-grown vegetables. The exhibits of different varieties are needed to fill the score card for the county exhibit and the score

Feed Crops Excellent As Harvest Time Nears

Conditions point to a bumper feed crop this year, grain men say. A survey of the county shows that maize, cane hegari and kafir corn are in excellent condition and all practically matured.

Unless an extra early frost comes, much of the late feed stuffs will have time to ripen, it is thought. Yields will be heavier and more general this year than any recent year of good grain and forage crops.

Preparations are being made for the movement of the 1927 crop to begin at an early date. Showers falling over sections of the county during the past week have done much to add the little necessary moisture for the final maturing stage of maize and cane grains, farmers state.

Wheat drilling has also been under way on a large scale during the past two weeks.

Cotton Market Changes As Reports Vary Daily

Unsteady Openings With Recoveries Causes Fluctuations In "Bull Market" Last Week.

From the middle of the week to the close of the markets Saturday night, cotton prices have fluctuated with no definite level. On Saturday an opening advance in the New York exchange was checked by renewed liquidation. Prices broke into new low ground for the movement, December selling off to 21.05c, or 45 points net lower, closing at 22.30c.

The markets have been opening steady but have weakened later during the latter part of each day. Indications point to a much stronger market than in 1926 with sustained reports of a short crop. Rallies followed the publication of Secretary Jardine's statement on the cotton situation and recoveries of 20 to 30 points were made after the flurried drop came the first of the week following publication of incorrect figures.

Through the Bureau of the Census, the Department of Commerce has announced the preliminary report on cotton ginned by counties in Texas for the crops of 1927 and 1926. The total for the state was made public recently and shows that the 1927 crop reaches a mark of 925,522 bales as compared to 487,862 bales for the same period in 1926. Nueces County is far in the lead with 88,224 bales produced so far this season. The state estimate was on quantities in running bales, counting round as half bales, and linters not included.

With its "ups and downs" the market has been active this year. This is the "bull year" as traders call it, a time of a short crop and an active trade.

The first bale of cotton sold on the Floydada market was bought by Star Cash Grocery for 24c.

DUNCAN BACK ON THE JOB

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Duncan and baby returned home last week from an extended vacation visit at Enid, Oklahoma City and other Oklahoma points and Mr. Duncan has resumed his duties as cashier at the Santa Fe station.

During the absence of Mr. Duncan, R. O. Stark, Agent at O'Donnell, held the cashier's job here and Mr. and Mrs. Stark were guests of Judge and Mrs. Wm. McGehee. Mrs. Stark is a daughter of the judge and his wife. They returned to O'Donnell last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Green left Saturday for Denton, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Ethna, and Miss Ina Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sims, where the two young ladies will enter the College of Industrial Arts for the school year.

Bishop Awarded 4 Individual Prizes In Amarillo Tri-State Fair Exhibit

Secretary Wins Three Firsts And Third In Keen Competition With Other Exhibitors.

Four prizes, including three first places and a third, were awarded Ed Bishop, Secretary of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, in the individual exhibit class at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair last week. George Samson of Post led the list. He was closely followed in the total number of winners by Maury Hopkins of Plainview, Hale County.

Bishop, who was manager of the Floyd County exhibit at the fair, stated that the competition was unusually keen. He stated that the dry growing season had a greater effect, however, upon the department of individual agricultural and horticultural exhibits at the fair, probably, than any other department. He said that while there was a shortage in quantity, on the whole, the quality of the products shown was excellent.

Here are the classes and winners in which Floyd County products placed: Oats, any variety, except red oats—First, Ed Bishop, Floydada; second, Mrs. R. W. McNally, Waynoka, Oklahoma; third, Howard Gray, Wellington. Onions—Ed Bishop, Floydada. Peppers, green bell—First, Ed Bishop, Floydada; second, Frank L. Brown, Plainview.

Hard winter wheat, gallon—First, Maury Hopkins, Plainview; second, R. O. Dunkle, Hereford; Third, Ed Bishop, Floydada.

The Floyd County Exhibit, prepared and arranged by Ed Bishop and O. T. Williams of this city and Fay Guthrie, of Lockney, was awarded fifth place. Deaf Smith County won first, Garza, second; Homphill, third, and Hale, fourth. The prize for this county was $100.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

As members of the assignment committee during the Panhandle District Convention of the First Christian Church we wish to express thanks to the ladies of Floydada, and especially to those belonging to other churches, for opening their homes to the delegates during the convention.

Mrs. Ed Brown.
Mrs. Jno. Farris.

G. C. WOOD HOME COMPLETED

A new five room stucco house, one block north of Floydada High School, was completed last week for G. C. Wood. Mr. Wood and his family moved to their new home immediately after it was completed.

Oh Where Izzy? Got 1 For Him, Cries Producer

"Oh where izzy; oh where izzy?" cried G. H. Davis of the Sand Hill community as he came rushing into the Hesperian office Saturday afternoon with a small box under his arm.

"Where's who?" answered the woman in charge of the office. "Him." Said Mr. Davis. "I want the fellow who writes these freak stories; I've got one for him."

And he did. The small box disclosed several layers of white hen eggs—four dozen of them. They had just had a narrow escape—those eggs, and they were still quivering. A short time before, a team of mules owned by Mr. Davis had broken from a hitching post in Floydada and made a run for home. A. D. Cummings saw the run-away animals and jumped in to his car and succeeded in catching and stopping the team after they had covered about one mile of territory at a rather rapid rate.

In a tin container, without the slightest trace of packing, were the four dozen eggs in the rear end of the wagon—and not a single shell was broken or cracked. How did it happen? If you know your eggs perhaps you can answer that question, for the "henfruit" were placed on the local market and you might have had one for your breakfast.

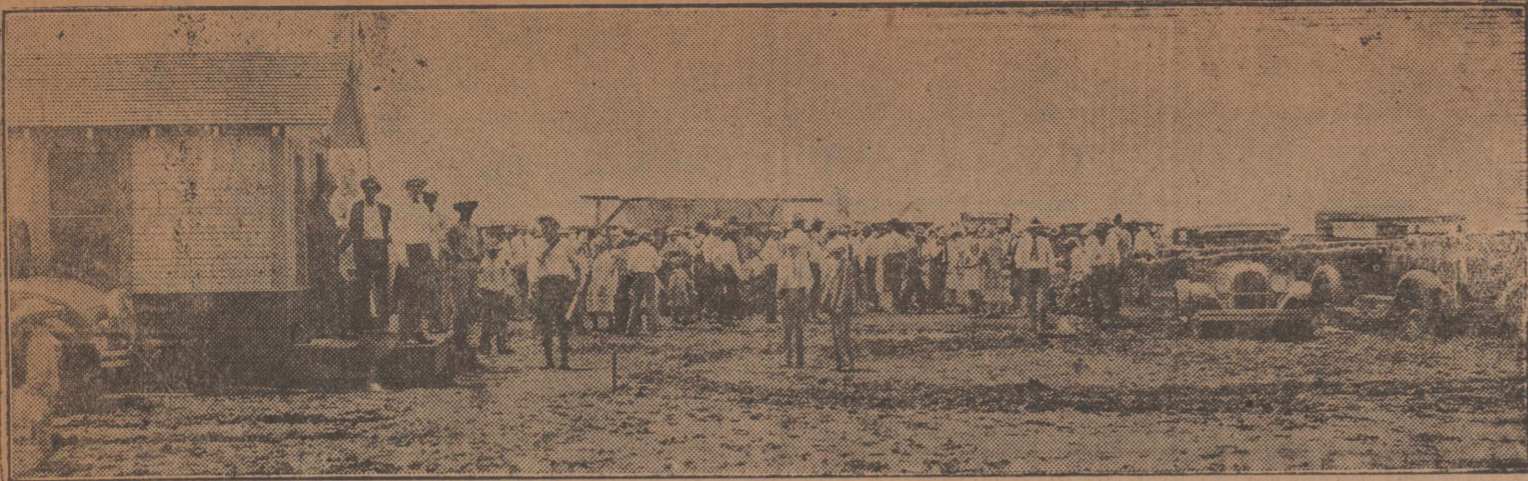

MICHAEL-YOUNG WEDDING WAS HELD AT LUBBOCK SATURDAY

Earl E. Young, son of Mrs. M. C. Young, of this city, was married Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage at Lubbock to Miss Ruth Michael, of Estacado. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. L. Levalene, pastor.

Mr. Young has lived in Floydada for the past three years. During the past year he was employed at the Assiter gin at Estacado, where he has been employed again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Young spent Sunday in Floydada as guests of his mother.

When West Texans Gathered At Rhodes to Open Floyd County's Newest Plains Town

The recent grand opening of the new townsite of Rhodes, pictured above, was fraught with much difficulty for those attending for on the previous day water from the heavy rains was over the door step of the field office to be seen on the left side of the photograph. But in spite of the mud and almost impassable roads, hundreds of people attended the occasion in order to secure choice locations in the new railroad junction city. Rhodes is located at the crossing of the two new F. W. & D. lines of the south plains—the 202-mile line from

Estelline to Plainview and Dimmitt, and the new line northeast from Lubbock to Silverton. The new town is in the heart of a rich agricultural community and will also be an important railroad center, with important railroad, grain concentration, jobbing, and educational facilities plans under way. Rhodes is located 18 miles east of Plainview and 7½ miles northeast of Lockney in Floyd County and with this new city plus the new railroad facilities, this county is expected to have an extremely rapid development within the next few months with rapid increases in land values.

GOOD CROWD GREET'S MADCAPS IN OPENING-PLAY THIS WEEK

A good crowd greeted the Merry Madcaps in their first bill of the week in Floydada Monday night which was their initial production under the auspices of the Floyd County Fair Association, which brought them here as an attraction for the week of the fair.

The first three days of the week the company has been located down-town but today are moving to a location adjoining the fair grounds where they play for the remainder of the week.

According to the Midland Reporter this show had a good run in that city, the report declaring that every member of the cast showed talent.

"The Whirlpool" and "The Road to Happiness" are two of the plays in which the company has received praise.

Included in the specialty numbers are Mr. Gunn in his "Toby" characterization, Miss Gladstone in an acrobatic dance, Mr. Weldon with the musical saw and the Saxophone Quintette.

'PAINTING THE TOWN' GREAT NUT FILM, TICKLES FANS

"Painting the Town," photoplay to be presented at the Royal Theatre Friday is without doubt one of the funniest pictures seen here in a long time. It kept the audience in gales of laughter from start to finish and proved to be excellent entertainment for all ages and classes. There is nothing subtle in the humor of this photo comedy, nevertheless, its rapid succession of laughable situations, good gags and funny subtitles serve to keep one at the laughing-point through reel after reel.

Credit for most of the fun in this offering goes to Glenn Tryon, a young comedian hitherto little known. In the role of a small-town smart-aleck he contributes a continuous stream of comedy. He is a new-comer among the field of popular screen comedians but judging from his work in this picture, he is due for fame and fortune. He is almost the whole show, although there is no doubt but that much credit also should go to William J. Craft, the director, and Harry O. Hoyt who wrote the story from which the picture was adapted.

Co-featured with Tryon is Patsy Ruth Miller, the heroine of many successful screen plays and an actress who can always be depended upon to add to the appeal of a picture by her beauty and acting ability. In "Painting the Town" she plays the role of a Follies Beauty and is an admirable foil for the small-town hero.

GOV. MOODY, A LA GEO. LIDER, MISSES TRAIN, GAINS FAME

Governor Dan Moody is believed by local friends to be on the road to fame. Having garnered practically all the honors capable of being thrust upon a man politically, the young governor now seeks other honors, according to press reports.

The reports give the governor credit with failing to keep an appointment with a Katy train in Austin, thereby missing an opportunity to attend and have a part in the Hunt County Fair, in the most approved Geo. A. Lider style.

It is maintained in West Texas that Geo. A. Lider of this city is the champion late arriver of the state. He is credited with being late at more appointments than any other one man. When he arrives at a meeting the chairman arises and announces, "Mr. Lider having arrived, all are now here and we will proceed."

Mr. Lider, approached on the subject Tuesday morning was just a little touchy on the subject of the governor's attempted encroachment on his honors. "I'll just say one thing, I never missed a train in my life," was his comment. He did not attack the record of the governor satisfying himself with the expressed belief that the governor is a "smart young man."

Miss Belle Cannaday, who is principal of the Petersburg school, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Cannaday. Miss Ruth Newman, of Idalou, who is also a teacher in the Petersburg school accompanied Miss Belle home and was also a guest in the Cannaday home.

Misses Eddythe Walker and Avis Austin attended the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, during Saturday and Sunday.

Polo Recorded As Oldest Of Stick And Ball Games

Have you ever seen an honest-to-goodness polo game?

It is believed that, with the exception of the two games played at last year's Floyd County Fair, very few of those who will attend the Floyd County Fair, September 22, 23 and 24 have ever witnessed a real polo game.

The Fair management, through the co-operation of C. H. Featherston, manager of the Wichita Falls Polo Club, have booked three polo games that promise to be among the best in the Southwest, and already keen interest is being manifested in this feature of entertainment.

Mr. Featherston arrived sometime ago from Denver Colorado where the Wichita Falls team had been for thirty days entered in an All-Southwest tournament. Horses belonging to the Wichita Falls club were shipped direct from Denver to Floydada and are now pasturing on the Featherston ranch near this place.

Since the games at the Floyd County Fair will be among the best in this section, it has been pointed out that a knowledge of the fundamentals of polo will greatly increase the spectator's interest. The following description of the game is presented, therefore, giving a brief history and the origin of polo. A close reading of this article will enable the spectator to get a great deal more enjoyment out of the game, and it is suggested that it be clipped and used for reference.

History

Polo is the most ancient of all stick and ball games. It is supposed to have originated in Persia before the Christian era, later spreading over central Asia and India. About the middle of the last century some English cavalry officers, who had learned the game in India, took it to England. Polo was first introduced in the United States in 1876, and was played in Kansas City as early as 1900.

Team

A team consists of four players, designated as numbers one, two, three, and back (or four). One and two are forwards, three is half defensive; and back protects the goal. While each player has definite duties in the team, the speed of the game sometimes requires them to change positions, at which time they each take up the other's duties. One of the players, usually number three or back, is elected Captain.

Mounts

The horse is recognized as constituting from one-half to two-thirds of the game. The polo mount is selected for his speed, handiness, disposition, and stamina. It requires about two years to train a pony and the better mounts usually have a large percentage of thoroughbred blood. Four ponies are the minimum used by each player in a game, sixteen ponies to each team.

Handicap

If a player is a member of a polo club affiliated with the United States Polo Association, he is given a handicap rating. The highest rating in the United States is ten goals and the lowest is zero goals. Two players in the United States are rated at 10 goals handicap and only thirty-seven players are rated at five goals or better.

The handicap of players on each team are added together and the team having the smallest total of handicaps is credited at the beginning of the game with the number of goals by which their total is less than that of their opponents.

General Rules

A polo field is nine hundred feet long and four hundred fifty feet wide with boards along the sides.

Two goal posts ten feet high are located 24 feet apart at the middle of each end of the field.

The balls used are of Bamboo root wood painted white. They are about three and one-eighth inches in diameter and do not exceed five ounces in weight.

There are two referees, one selected by each team captain; if however, the captains agree there may be only one referee. His or their decision shall be final.

The game is divided into eight periods or chukkers of seven and one-half minutes each with intervals of three minutes between the periods and seven minutes between halves.

In case of a tie at the end of eight periods, the game is continued in periods of seven and one-half minutes until one side obtains a goal.

Field Rules

The game commences when the referee throws the ball in between the two teams lined up at the center of the field.

A goal is gained when the ball passes between the goal posts over and clear of the goal line. Each goal counts one. Ends are changed after every goal.

If the ball is hit behind the back line but not between the goal posts by the attacking side, play is stopped and the ball is placed on the back line where it went out and one of the defending side hits it into play.

If one of the defending side hits the ball behind the back line and not between the goal posts, a safety is declared and one of the attacking side is given a free shot for goal from the sixty yard line.

When a ball goes over the side boards, the players line up at the point where the ball went out and play is resumed when the referee throws the ball in between them.

A player in possession of a ball has the right and another player may not cross this right of way except at such a distance that the player in possession of the ball does not have to check his pony.

If two players are riding in opposite directions to hit the ball, each shall hit the ball on the off side of his pony.

No player shall hook an opponent's mallet across the opponent's horse.

Careless or dangerous riding, such as bumping at a dangerous angle, zig-zagging in front of another player or pulling across another pony is not allowed.

If a player does not observe the rules of the game, it is the duty of the referee to stop the game and declare the proper penalty.

If the foul committed was a dangerous one, a goal should be given to the side fouled.

If the foul was not quite so serious, penalty two is inflicted, which gives the side fouled a free hit at the goal from the forty yard line, all the side fouling to be behind the back line.

In case the foul was less severe, penalty is given, which is a free hit by the side fouled at the place where the foul occurred.

The umpire can, in case a foul was deliberately dangerous, exclude a player from future participation in the game.

Believed Cattle Theft Frustrated Sat. Night

Belief that John Clifford, employe of Chas. H. Featherston on the Featherston Ranch 16 miles east of Floydada, frustrated a cattle theft Saturday night, was expressed by Mr. Featherston Monday of this week.

The owner had been missing a calf or two from his herd of Herefords in a two-section pasture occasionally for weeks, ten having disappeared in recent months, and recently a large cow was found shot in the pasture, all leading to the belief that thieves had been at work in the pasture. Mr. Clifford was posted in the pasture Saturday night and about 3:30, he says a truck drove up without lights into one of three herds of cattle that were lying down in the pasture. When the lights of the truck were thrown on they reflected the light of the car driven by Mr. Clifford, and the occupants of the truck hurriedly started their engine and escaped through a gate left open in the pasture. Mr. Clifford gave chase in the car; he was driving but stuck in a mud hole in the pasture one time and mis-judged the direction to the gate, and did not get close enough to the truck to learn the number of occupants, their identity, or the kind of truck driven. He last saw them driving toward Floydada, he believes.

Freshly broken weeds found in the truck tracks the next morning and other physical conditions on the scene bore out the story told by Mr. Clifford Mr. Featherston said. The hour of the morning was given as about 3 o'clock.

Setting out 495,000 trees recently inaugurates a three-year forestry project of boys and girls composing 4-H Clubs in 15 counties in the State of New York. The plan contemplates the planting of many varieties of trees on land unsuited to agriculture where no forests are now standing and protection of the trees from damage by livestock. Members are required to keep a complete record and make a report by November 1.

POPE TEMPORARY QUARTERS AT NEW ENOCH BUILDING

H. O. Pope & Son this week have moved from their former garage location on West California Street to the new Enoch Building on East side of the Square, where they will be located temporarily.

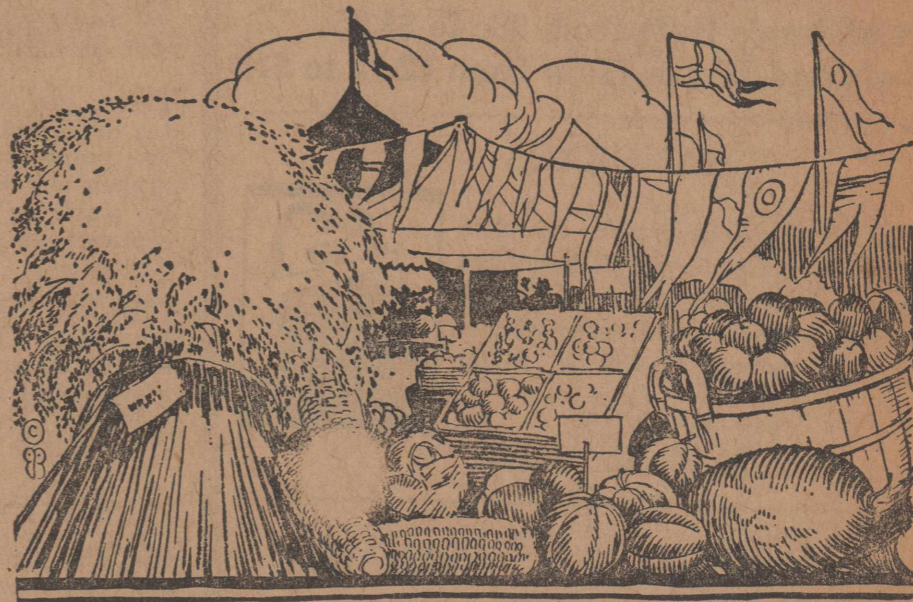

The old building from which they are moving, was constructed by Barker Bros., and will be torn down by the new owner, Geo. M. Finkner, to make way for a new brick to be constructed on the lot.

In Australia every child born entitles the mother, regardless of wealth or station, to a sum of £5, or $25, from public funds, toward the cost of the child's birth. The Government of France gives to every mother who nurses her own child a monthly pension during the first year of the child's life.—School Life.

The United States Government recently purchased a fleet of five Chevrolet touring cars for field use in the Tennessee mountain district by engineers of the Geological Survey.

Dempsey-Tunney Bout Tonight Holds Interest of The Sport World

All Eyes Turned Toward Roped Arena At Chicago

Both Fighters In Condition For "Fight of Ages" At 8:45.

Tonight all the eyes of the sport world are turned toward Soldiers Field in Chicago, where one of the most gripping dramas boxing has ever known will be staged with Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey as the principal characters. A former champion is attempting a come-back—something that history records has never been done. It will be a thrilling fight to the finish, all sportdom predicts, and then pauses to wonder who will come form the fray crowned as the heavyweight champion of the world.

Thousands In Chicago

Fight fans from every section of the country, thousands of them, have been pouring into Chicago for the past week to see "the fight of the ages." Both the gladiators having completed their intensive training are in readiness for the big bout. Tex Richard and George F. Getz, the actual promoters, anticipate that 160,000 people will pay some $3,000,000 to see the spectacle.

All attempts with court injunctions, reform moves and other incidental means of delay have failed to stop plans for staging the fight that is scheduled to go ten rounds.

Daily press reports and personal interviews have kept the public in close touch with practically every move that the champion and the challenger have made since the opening of their training camps. Close readers of sport columns probably know more about the men who will do the fighting than they know about themselves, one Floydada fan said.

It has been said that the people of the nation, and the world in general know more about the approaching battle—that they are more completely informed—than in any previous bout between heavyweights or otherwise.

Both In Trim

With the exception of a cut over his right eye Champion Tunney is in excellent condition, critics say who have been with him each day at his work-outs with his sparring partners. Dempsey has regained his old-time punch and will represent to the sport world the caliber of man who won the championship title and held it against all comers until he met Tunney last year.

"It will go to Dempsey," one will say and another will add, "Now, because of so, and so, I know Tunney will win." It will be a toss-up, all early predictions indicate. Robert Edgren, famous national sport critic has the following to say:

"Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney have been compared muscle for muscle, punch for punch, plunge for sidestep and pound for pound. Everyone knows that physically there is not a great deal to choose between them. Their weight is practically the same, or will be at ring time. Dempsey may weigh half a dozen pounds more, a mere nothing between heavyweights, each can run well on the road, has trained off any useless fat and has enough strength to drive an effective fist. Dempsey proved his endurance in the Sharkey fight. Dempsey is by far the heavier hitter, and Tunney is much harder to hit. These things all average up about as they did last year if we bar the theory that Dempsey was either drugged or too sick to fight. Certainly there was something wrong with Dempsey, and it hasn't yet been satisfactorily explained.

"There remains the mental condition of both men, the question of fighting confidence and determination, of clear headed ability to fight to the best possible advantage."

Spurred on by the inspiration from his wife, Jack Dempsey is going to be a real threat and has a good chance to make history—but a champion has never lost his crown and then regained it in the fistic realm—can Dempsey do it? Tunney loves his title and he seems confident of victory.

Who will win? Tonight the sport world will have its answer.

BELLE BENNETT PORTRAYS 'MOTHER' IN FBO FEATURE

Youth must have its fling irrespective of the aftermath.

In the FBO production of "Mother," starring Belle Bennett, there is a sequence showing Jerry Ellis, the seventeen-year-old son of Mary Ellis, bringing a score of typical "Sheiks and Shebas" to his home for a wild party while his mother was absent, in the cinema play to be shown tonight (Thursday) at the Olympic Theatre.

James Leo Meehan, the director, went through a list of screen prospects to the number of 200 before making his final selection and he certainly secured real types.

The gang is in the midst of a wild revel, during which they practically wrecked the house when Belle Bennett, the mother, arrives, sees her boy lying in a stupor and believes him to be hurt, but eventually learns it is from drink that the stupor comes.

She orders the gang from the house and when they have gone the realization that her boy has disgraced himself and her brings about one of the finest bits of acting that Miss Bennett has done for the screen to date.

William Bakewell is the boy and others having prominent roles include Crawford Kent, Joyce Coad, Charlotte Stevens and Sam Allen.

"Mother" is suggested by Kathleen Norris' story and was adapted to the screen by Dorothy Yost.

E. W. Turner of McCoy community visited Sunday with his brother, V. D. Turner who is in the sanitarium at Plainview.

Expect 1000 At County Singing In October

More than one thousand persons are expected to be in attendance at the annual meeting of the Floyd County Singing Convention on Sunday, October 16, when the association convenes at Sand Hill. Officials have issued the statement this week that elaborate plans for the meeting are being made and the meeting at Sand Hill is expected to be one of the largest in several years.

Jno. F. Taylor, president of the Plateau Singing Convention, of which the local organization is a member, is expected to be in attendance at the meeting. Clyde Burlison, official of Brownfield is also planning to be at the local meet, it was stated.

The Plateau Singing Convention is an organization of smaller associations and covers a territory of some thirty-six counties in Western Texas and Northern New Mexico. This convention is the largest of any in this entire section, it has been pointed out. The Floyd convention met in this city two years ago, with a record attendance of near two thousand.

C. M. Lyles, president of the Floyd County Convention, has stated that everything will be in readiness for the singers and that the visitors will be entertained while in attendance. A general invitation is being issued to singers of this county by R. G. Spence, secretary of the organization.

 FLOYDADA, TEXAS

WHIRLWINDS MEET WESTERNERS SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, AT LUBBOCK FAIR GROUND

Lubbock, Sept. 19. (Special)—Lubbock and Floydada high schools, old time rivals on the gridiron will meet here as one of the feature high school games to be played at the Panhandle South Plains Fair. The game will be played Friday, September 30, and is expected to draw the biggest crowd of any game with the possible exception of the Texas Tech vs. St. Edwards University battle that will take place the next day, Saturday, Oct. 1.

Both teams are working out at this time, getting in trim for the contest. Last year, Jay piloted his boys up in the race for state honors in Class B competition by winning the district championship and later the bi-district honors and lost to the Anson High School which went on to win the state contest, defeating Marlin 3 to 0 in a classic.

Jay has eight of the veteran eleven back with the team this year, including Captain A. D. White, John Edwards, U. S. Marshall, Sidney Carter, Jim Carter, Jim Stiles, J. R. Borum, and Harold Porterfield.

Indications point to a good game and the Lubbock Westerners with the loss of several good men will have to get up and step to win the contest. Eddie Adkinson will be ineligible this year. Smythe Reynolds, sensational back will not be with the squad and other losses will be felt. Frnka will have Leslie Smith, Barton, Dollihite, Curtis Allen, and Pierce McGee back. About thirty boys are working out with Frnka here daily and some new material of promise is being uncovered but as a squad it looks green and much material will have to be weeded out, Frnka says.

Lubbock and Floydada are ancient rivals and have thrilled fair visitors many times before with sensational playing. This year a number of fans are expected to accompany the Floydada eleven here as usual and all the Lubbock high fans will be in the stands for the first whistle.

Other high school games to be played are: Tuesday, Sept. 27, Lamesa vs. Spur; Wednesday, Littlefield vs. Tahoka; Thursday, Slaton vs. Plainview.

SNYDER SENDING STRONG CLUB TO PLAY WICHITA FALLS HERE

That the Snyder polo team, engaged to play the Wichita Falls team in Floydada during the fair, is a strong one is indicated in the following appearing in the Times-Signal of September 8:

Manager Nathan Reynolds of the Snyder Polo Club has closed a three-day engagement with the Wichita Falls Polo Club at Floydada September 22, 23 and 24.

Snyder will send its best team, and the Times-Signal hopes that Wichita Falls will fill the same victims as Abilene did here.

The Snyder Polo Club will have in their line-up the following gentlemen: No. 1, Allen Stevens and Clyde Miller; No. 2, Bill Miller and Ted Gardner; No.

3, Red Waskom and Don Gardner; No. 4, Nathan Reynolds, Frank Crenshaw and Wade Winston.

While the news only filtered through yesterday that the local club would go to Floydada, seven automobiles and accompanying passengers have said they would go with the boys to cheer them to victory. Wichita Falls is given the credit of having one of the best teams in Texas, but Snyder has defeated Abilene three times in succession, and Wichita Falls will know they have been in a polo game when they tie into Snyder. The Times-Signal will be represented at the games.

THE HARBOR

I wonder if you have forgotten
The time we spent the day
On the deck of a creaky ferry,
Showered with salty spray;
With the wind blowing clean on our faces,
Straight in from the sea,
With the sun laughing down on the water,
And you laughing down on me?

Oh, my garden is far from the harbor
Where shrill seagulls fly,
Where whistles shriek noisy warnings
To meet the siren's sigh;
Where the homing ocean liner
Blares at lagging boats,
And the busy little tuggers
Bleat discordant notes.

Yet a certain way the sunlight
Falls across the pool,
A certain note in a bird's song,
A sudden rush of cool,
Have stirred old slumbering fancies,
To fill my heart with pain
And here in my garden quiet
The harbor screams again.
—Dorothy Swift Woods in the York Herald Tribune.

Tell Texas Real Facts By Exhibits Of Crops

While poultry and dairy products are not displayed in county exhibits, they play an important part in the money crops of the Llano Estacado. Floyd County is one of the leading poultry counties of the State at the present and is rapidly gaining recognition in the dairy line. In 1925-26, the county produced 1,000,000 pounds of poultry and 500,000 cases of eggs. A conservative estimate of the number of eggs shipped from Floydada in one week's time is 200 cases or 70,000 eggs. Each month the city buyers pay out to the producers of poultry and dairy products $21,000, and although Floydada is the largest marketing center, there are two more in the county and the annual income from these two commodities is approximately $900,000.

Cotton has always been considered a major crop of the county although it is never shown in the agricultural exhibit except only in the class designated as other crops. This is done because cotton raised in this section is not of the long staple variety. In 1924 25,000 bales of cotton were produced and shipped out of Floyd County. The following year this production was cut to less than 20,000 bales on account of the early freeze. But 1926 saw a new record set with a production of 42,286 bales. Of this amount Floydada alone shipped out more than 23,000 bales.

That fruits can be grown successfully in this County has been demonstrated by several farmers among whom is L. H. Lewis, who lives twenty-one miles northeast of Floydada. Each year Mr. Lewis's orchard is one of his best paying investments and his fruits are displayed at practically every State Fair that the Floyd County exhibit is placed. Apples and cherries are among the chief fruit crops that are proving the most successful, but peaches, grapes and strawberries thrive practically every year.

MASSACHUSETTS TOWNS MAKE HIGH ARITHMETIC SCORE

A perfect score in addition was made by sixth-grade pupils in two towns in New England in a recent arithmetic contest sponsored by the school of education of Boston University. Returns were received from 160 towns, cities, and districts, involving participation of 113,000 children. The greatest accuracy as a whole was shown by pupils in small rural schools. The next highest score in addition made anywhere was 91.6 per cent in both the fifth and seventh grades. No perfect scores were made in subtraction, multiplication, or division. The highest scores in each of these subjects were made by seventh-grade pupils: 93.5 in subtraction, 87.1 in multiplication, and 86 per cent in division. The contest is said to prove that 100 per cent accuracy in arithmetic can be achieved.

A passport issued to Elkanah Watson, one of five printed by Benjamin Franklin on his own press in Passy when he was envoy to France, brought $1,775 at a recent auction in New York.

Through many years of steady development for Floydada and Floyd County, the Floyd County National Bank has operated on a basis of service, progress and good will.

The founders of this institution, with an abiding faith in the future of this great territory have looked far down the years—instead of just at "Tomorrow."

Officers, directors and staff of this bank know Floyd County and its business and industrial activities. Strength, experience, vision and confidence in the future of this territory have enabled this institution to work hand-in-hand with those who have built a greater Floyd County.

Time's passage, as marked in our years of growth, has brought greater strength, wider activities. Yet the friendly helpfulness, the courtesy, and the ability to view problems from customers' angles, are just as strong today as in those years gone by.

It affords us great pleasure in extending to you a cordial welcome to attend the Floyd County Fair, and it will give us even greater pleasure if there is anything we might do for you to make your visit here more enjoyable and worth while.

SNYDER WINS 9-8 VICTORY OVER WICHITA FALLS TEAM

First Of Three-Game Series Close Contest

Team Work Of Reds Holds Advanced Score Until End Of Battle.

In spite of a brilliant offensive opened in the first few seconds of play, Wichita Falls could not overcome a six-point handicap and was defeated by the Snyder club Thursday afternoon in the first of a series of three polo games here during the Fourteenth Floyd County Fair. The final score was 9 to 8, which in itself tells briefly how closely was contested the game. Saturday afternoon on the polo field in West Floydada the teams will meet again. The third and concluding game is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30. Horse races will precede each game.

Patterson Starts It Clyde Patterson of the Blue of Wichita Falls started things in the first chukker. He led off from the line-up and drove straight down the field to a goal almost before the sounds of the referee's whistle had died away for the opening of activities.

Slowly the score changed,—1, 2, 3, 4, 5, to 6. As the game progressed, things began to look like the Snyder total had paralysis. Almost in every chukker another point was added to the fast growing figures of the Blue.

In the sixth chukker, things began to turn Red. Bunching hits in the middle at the center of the field, Snyder's Red warriors played the ball forward and carried it through to a perfect goal.

With the score standing 5 to 7, Wichita came back in the seventh and scored to make the count 6 to 7, with the determination and machine-precision Reds leading.

It was at this stage that the Snyder score seemed to turn into a cork floating on the surface of Wichita's total. Every time the Blue drove a score, the Red advanced just one above them, and so it went.

In the last chukker the skillful manipulation of the persistent Reds netted a score just after play was resumed and then it stood 7 to 9.

Wichita fought to tie to the score and their onslaught was rewarded with another counter, but they could not increase it above the figure 8, and so it ended 8 to 9 for Snyder at 4:40 o'clock.

A handicap of 6 points was allowed the Snyder team, in accordance with national rulings. If a player is a member of a polo club affiliated with the United States Polo Association, he is given a handicap rating. Wichita has three such men rated as follows: White, 3; Featherston 1, and Robbins, 2, making a total of 6.

Wichita Mounts Superior Judging from action on the field, the Wichita mounts were slightly superior to those of the Snyder aggregation but team work on the part of the latter brought them victory.

Ted Gardner, No. 2, was the outstanding star for Snyder, his teammates presenting a single unit rather than indi-

Fine Weather Greeted Crowds On Opening Day

'Couldn't Have Hoped For Better Beginning' Word Of Secretary Bishop.

Predictions that the 1927 Floyd County Fair would be the greatest in history is becoming a reality, fair officials state. With perfect weather and other conditions favorable, the first day has found everything prepared according to schedule and in readiness for the remaining two-day program. Exhibits have been entered from nine communities in the agricultural division and eleven are represented in the home demonstration club booths. "It is just as good a start as we could possibly hope for," Ed Bishop fair secretary in charge said at the close of the day Thursday.

Nine Community Exhibits Nine of the nine communities planning to enter products have everything complete, a survey Thursday afternoon shows. The mammoth building has taken on the appearance of a miniature State Fair and is running in "full blast."

Local Boy Escapes Injury In Accident Near Laredo When Student Is Killed

Leslie Surginer, of this city, a senior student at the University of Texas, escaped serious injury Sunday night in an automobile crash eighteen miles north of Laredo, Texas, when a car in which he was a passenger with three other students, overturned on a viaduct curve and rolled down an embankment.

Leslie called his father, I. C. Surginer here by telephone Tuesday from Austin to advise him of his safe return to that city where he went last week. He told his father he was uninjured, having only been shaken up somewhat in the fall.

Stories of the accident, appearing in the daily press, said the young men had arrived in Laredo Saturday night to attend the Nueve Laredo Celebration and the car was returning northward.

Leo Howard, of Houston, was the member of the party killed in the accident. His breast was crushed and his skull fractured, the newspaper reports stated.

Leslie is an assistant cashier of the Floyd County National Bank, where he has been employed since the close of the school year in 1926, after completing three years of work at the University. He is on a leave of absence from the bank to complete his course at that institution in electrical engineering.

T. B. Carroll and Jack Kirkham, the latter of Cincinnati, Ohio, were the other two uninjured men in the wreck.

MRS. MARY STEVENSON ILL

Mrs. Mary Stevenson, mother of T. S. Stevenson and Mrs. Kenneth Bain, of this city has been very ill at her home at Silvertown, since Tuesday afternoon when she suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Stevenson and Mrs. Bain accompanied by Mr. Bain and their cousin, A. J. Folley, left Tuesday afternoon to be at her bedside.

Mr. Folley and Mr. Bain returned home Tuesday night. Mr. Stevenson came home Wednesday afternoon but was called back this morning on account of his mother's condition having become more serious.

Given Decision By Referee In Tenth As Thousands Cheered Title Holder

Ringside, Soldier's Field Stadium, Chicago—Gene Tunney proved himself a worthy heavyweight champion of the world Thursday night by decisively defeating Jack Dempsey in the second ten round bout they had fought for the title.

Beaten to the dust of the canvas by a terrific left hook in the seventh round Gene gallantly got up and came back to whip his ever-dangerous opponent.

Had the fight gone more than ten rounds, it must have ended in a knockout for the champion.

But for one terrific punch which he failed to duck because of over-confidence, gained in every round Tunney would have whipped Dempsey so badly that it would have been hardly a contest.

And it was "the fight of the ages!" Thousands thronged into the giant stadium to see the greatest bout in recent history. The Windy City reported that it was the greatest throng of people the city had ever seen. It was estimated that between 145,000 and 150,000, and the gate receipts were $2,800,000.

First Ring Details No vacant seat visible in the whole stadium. Tunney and Dempsey have both come in and have gone to the dressing rooms. Tex Richard has come in and gone to his seat and found one-eyed Conley sitting by his side. (Conley is most widely known gate crasher in America.)

Fight fans have begun to yell "fight, fight," clamoring for main bout. Tunney is still in his dressing room. Guard for Tunney from dressing room to the ring.

Preliminaries have been disappointing. Tex Richard visited both Jack and Gene in their dressing rooms.

In the champion's dressing room he found Gus Wilson one of Dempsey's seconds was watching the application of gauze and tape to the title holder's hands.

Richard spoke briefly with both men and assured them the gate was good from their point of view.

Tex Richard estimated the crowd at 150,000. He also said the receipts were $2,800,000.

Dempsey and Tunney are both on their way to the ring now. The crowd is cheering uproariously.

Dempsey was the first into the ring. He entered at eight fifty-five.

The crowd went wild when Dempsey entered the ring. They are having trouble getting the crowd quieted down so they can introduce the fighters.

Dempsey accompanied by his manager Lee Flynn and his body guard entered at 8:55. Jack wore a warm white bathrobe. The crowd was so disorderly in its applause of Dempsey that the promoter and financial supporters of the bout could not be introduced. Jack dashed over to a neutral corner.

Dave Barry entered the ring and it was supposed he had been picked to referee the main bout.

Tunney In At 9 Surrounded by policemen Tunney entered the ring at nine o'clock. He was given an outburst of cheers that exceeded the applause which greeted Dempsey.

WHIRLWINDS OPEN WITH BULLDOGS HERE FRIDAY

Grid Game At Ball Park Meeting Of Old Rivals

Boy Scouts Give Exhibition; Classic Begins Promptly At 3:30 O'clock.

WHO?
Plainview vs. Floydada
WHAT?
Opening football game of the season between Whirlwinds and Bulldogs.
WHERE?
Floydada Baseball Park, northeast of Court House.
WHEN?
Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock; Boy Scout drill at 2:30.

There was a time when Plainview High School placed the Whirlwinds of Floydada High School on their list of easy victims during the football season. Bulldog eleven has pounded the much lighter but determined Whirlwinds until only a referee's whistle ended the one-sided fight—but that was years ago. Today the Floydada High eleven are powerful machines, fully capable of meeting the strongest of gridiron contenders. When the Whirlwinds meet the Bulldogs now, it is a case of master versus master and the outcome of the fray is always in doubt until the final gun.

Settling Old Counts
As a feature event for the entertainment program for Floyd County Fair visitors Friday, the two ancient rivals will clash again at the Floydada Ball Park in the northern portion of the city. It will be just another opportunity to settle old scores for the Whirlwinds and it will be just another hard fight for the Plainview aggregation. Every early indication points to a grid classic that will be a thriller from start to finish. Both elevens will send experienced lads into the battle—boys who have proven their mettle under fire time and again. It will not represent a struggle between amateurs and some real football is promised the spectators. F. H. S. is the holder of the 1926 bi-district championship title of the Class B schools of the Interscholastic League of Texas, and P. H. S. is a strong contender for honors each year in the Class A division of this section. Owing to the records of the two squads, considerable interest is being manifested in the possible outcome of the game Friday afternoon. Sport fans are watching for the score in order to make predictions for the future successes of these two powerful machines later in the season.

Game At 3:30
Fair officials have announced that the game will start promptly at 3:30, and will be preceded by an exhibition contest between local Boy Scout troops, the winner of which will be awarded a large American flag.

Coaches Ike Jay and Guy Allen will have strong reserves to back up their first string elevens. The lines will have experienced men of probably equal weight. Jay's Whirlwinds will have advantage in the backfield with three letter men in position. The Bulldogs are reported to have only one backfield man Norman McGill, who has lettered. Advantages either way will mean nothing Friday afternoon and the final score will be a question mark until the game is ended.

While he has made no definite announcements, Coach Jay will likely send the following men in to start the game: John Edwards, center; Wallace Robbins and Orville Moore, guards; J. R. Borum and Winfred Newsome, tackles; Jim Carter and Jim Stiles, ends; Sid Carter and Homer Palmer, halves; U. S. Marshall, fullback and A. D. White quarterback.

Aubrey Bishop, S. M. U., will referee the game and an official from Plainview will umpire. J. C. Wester has been named as headlinesman.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY COMPLETES MILLION DOLLAR CAMPAIGN

Cash to the amount of $150,259.42 was contributed by negroes in the campaign, just completed to raise a fund of $1,000,000 for the medical school of Howard University, Washington, D. C. A bronze tablet, bearing the names of 51 colored men and women who made individual donations of from $1,000 to $10,000, will be placed in the new building of the medical school to be erected at a cost of $500,000. Departments of medicine, dentistry, and pharmacy are maintained by the university; and Freeman's Hospital is closely allied with the medical school. Howard University is an institution for the higher education of negro men and women, supported in part by the Government.

Natural Gas Piped To Fair Grounds Today For Dealers' Demonstrations

Natural gas for Floydada will be an actual accomplishment tonight, and while it will not be available to the whole community it will actually be delivered within the city limits, Local Agent H. F. Mays said this morning.

Because of the good progress made by the crews on the main line it was found that an emergency connection could be made that would put gas into the mains in sufficient quantities for demonstrations of gas stove and appliance dealers at the fair grounds. "We urge every person who is going to attend the fair to see these demonstrations of dealers and learn how to handle natural gas to the best advantage," Mr. Mays said this morning. "Turning the gas into the mains will not be made a matter of ceremony although it will be an epochal occasion in the history of the city."

Material Shortage Causes Delay
Because of a shortage in materials, natural gas from the North Texas gas fields will not be turned on in this city until Monday of next week, according to H. F. Mays, local agent. Gas was first said to have been turned on in this city by September 20, but in this statement, officials overlooked the smaller details in installing the long gas line. However, gas will positively be turned into the local lines by Monday of next week, Mr. Mays stated.

Final test of the entire system will be made this Thursday and after the city pipes have been thoroughly tested, gas will be turned on, officials stated. The minor tests were made last week and the test being made today, termed the fire test, is the last before the gas is turned on.

There will be no danger, whatsoever, of not having sufficient pressure, to serve this city Mr. Mays stated. Up to the present time there are thirty-eight homes and business houses which have been piped for gas. This number is very small considering the size of the city, although Mr. Mays expressed belief that many others would install for gas as soon as the pressure was turned into the lines.

A meter deposit of $10 for domestic use and $25 for commercial and industrial use will be made necessary, it was stated. This stipulated amount is interest bearing at the rate of 6% per annum, it was pointed out. Those who are ready to install gas are asked to get in touch with Mr. Mays at the F. C. Harmon store in order to make arrangements for their contract which is necessary before gas can be supplied to the customer.

F. H. S. Eleven Makes Record In '26 Season

Here is the remarkable record set in 1926 by the Floydada High Whirlwind gridsters:

Floydada, 6	Plainview, 14
Floydada, 20	Tahoka, 0
Floydada, 16	Lockney, 2
Floydada, 20	Ralls, 6
Floydada, 14	Spur, 13
Floydada, 68	Matador, 0
Floydada, 41	Texico, 0
Floydada, 20	Littlefield, 0
Floydada, 19	Slaton, 8
Floydada, 0	Anson, 17
Floydada, 28	Clarendon, 0

The football season of '26 was considered the most successful in the annals of the school. A total of 252 points was made by the Whirlwinds, to 66 points scored by their opponents.

The red letter day of the season was Thanksgiving Day, when the F. H. S. warriors defeated Slaton in a thrilling fight for the District championship. Clarendon fell victim to the Green and White as they annexed the bi-district title for the first time in history.

Following is the program arranged for F. H. S. on the gridiron for the '27 season:

- September 23—Plainview at Floydada.
- September 30—Lubbock at Lubbock (Fair date)
- October 7—Tahoka at Floydada.
- October 21—Hale Center at Floydada
- October 28—Spur at Spur.
- November 4—Ralls at Ralls
- November 11—Post at Floydada
- November 18—Lockney at Floydada
- November 25—Slaton at Slaton

New rulings that have been added this year make important changes in the game this year. They are stated in substance as follows:

If the crowd rushes over the side lines the home team will be penalized fifteen yards. If it is a visitor rooting for the opposing team, that team will draw the penalty.

This year if the safety man drops a kick, opposing players, coming down the field, can recover the ball and it is theirs, but they cannot run with it. While this somewhat changes the play it does not do away with the fair catch. Probably the last important change for 1927 is the backward pass.

On a fumbled backward pass, the ball belongs to the team where the ball fell, and is not carried back to the point of origin as in the forward pass.

The United States Department of Agriculture always advocates the use of both purebred sires and dams in raising hogs for market. While a good purebred sow will cost more than scrub or grade, experience has shown there is a distinct saving of feed in fattening purebreds as compared to grades.

Fur farming, or the raising of fur animals in captivity, has steadily developed until the investment in the business in the United States and Alaska is about $30,000,000 and in Canada about $11,000,000. There are more than 4,000 fur farmers in these countries most of them raising silver or blue foxes. Fur farming is also being undertaken in European countries and in Japan, where it is having a steady growth.

Sight-saving classes to the number of 265 are conducted in the United States to provide instruction for children with seriously impaired vision.

D. M. WILLSON HEADED BACK TO THE PLAINS TO COOL OFF

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Willson are headed back toward the plains of Texas from Asheville, N. C., to cool off, a card from Mr. Willson received Wednesday night by The Hesperian said.

"We have just finished a drive over the wonderful estate of the late George Vanderbilt," he wrote. "It is a great country and lots to see, but the hot wave hit us and we are starting back to the plains to cool off."

Mr. Willson divides his time between Colorado, Floydada and Fort Worth each year, with an occasional side trip such as the one to North Carolina.

JOEBAILEY HAS GINNED EIGHT BALES OF COTTON TODATE

Joe Bailey gin is leading all the gins of the county to date in number of bales of the early staple turned out. Fred W. Nickels, manager of the gin today said the gin had turned out eight bales so far this season.

The crop in the Joe Bailey territory is the earliest in the county, generally speaking. A number of the gins of the county have not turned out any cotton yet.

LESLIE SLAUGHTER AND MRS. CARTWRIGHT MARRIED SUNDAY

Leslie Slaughter and Mrs. May Cartwright, both of Crosbyton, were married in that city Sunday, September 11. Mr. Slaughter was reared in Floyd County. For the past fifteen years he has made his home at Crosbyton.

Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter spent Sunday in Floydada as the guests of his sister, Mrs. W. L. Fry.

350 Bu. Sweet Potatoes Per Acre, Record Made

W. E. Rawlings has demonstrated this year that sweet potatoes are a good garden crop to plant, his record of production on a plot ninety yards long by seven rows wide showing around 350 bushels per acre.

"We have just completed digging one of the ninety-yard rows," Mr. Rawlings said Wednesday afternoon. "And from the row we got five bushels of large picked sweet potatoes and one bushel of good eating potatoes to use at home." On this basis the production per acre would be 350 bushels per acre or better.

Mr. Rawlings called attention to the fact that the sweet potatoes had had only one rain during their growing season, the unusual early season this summer accounting for the fact. He irrigated the potato vines only twice.

VOCATIONAL ACTIVITIES IN AGRICULTURAL HIGH SCHOOL

Hog sanitation, potato and corn yield contests, sow, sheep, and other projects are among the activities of the agricultural department of Hartford (S. Dak.) High School. In addition to the regular course in agriculture, 6 culling and 4 caponizing demonstrations have been given since last fall, 222 samples of milk were tested by the boys, balanced rations were worked out on home farms, and 15 cream separators were tested and adjusted by the instructor and the class. A cattle and sheep shed for a farmer has been built by the class in shop, and plans were made for the building of 14 individual hog houses. Two centers have been developed for evening instruction of adults, where dairying has been made a special subject of study. Community meetings to the number of 22 have been held, some of them of a popular character, with an attendance of 3,375 persons.

Two thousand trees are added each year to the forest established several years ago by Cold Brook public school in the town of Russia, Herkimer County, N. Y. School forests are exempt from taxation in New York State, and many schools are acquiring tracts of land to be wooded by pupils.

Attendance regularly two hours a day upon instructional and physical training classes is requisite to unemployment relief for single men under 30 and for married men under 25 years of age, under recent ruling of the board of guardians of Salford, England, an industrial center. English, geography, history, and arithmetic are included in the studies offered, and facilities are available for training in handicraft.

Dickens County did the judging in the ladies' department.

W. M. Gurley, vocational agriculture teacher in Silvertown schools and M. T. Leaming, county agent of Motley county are judging the agricultural exhibits.

Big Hall Filled

By 6 o'clock this Thursday afternoon every available inch of the space in the city park tabernacle had been taken. Hundreds of people visited the booth before the hall was formally thrown open to the public at 4 o'clock. "The crowds here today are only the advance guards of the big crowds we are expecting Friday and Saturday," fair officials said.

On the right side of the entrance to the exhibit hall is the Starkey booth, the first of a series of nine arranged around the north and west sides of the tabernacle. A clever arrangement in the form of a giant key made of grains tells the visitors that the products were grown at "Star Key," both the star and key emblems being attractively together in the background.

Sunset community occupies booth number two and Blanco number three. Sand Hill, last year's winner of first place has one of the most distinctive arrangements again this year. Rose-land comes next in the order of display and Campbell is sixth.

Booths Are Beautiful

In every instance, unusual care has been taken in preparing the displays of Floyd County's products. Every community has a beautiful exhibit and predictions indicate that the judges will have no easy time of selecting the winners.

Perhaps to Campbell goes the honor of having the most unique idea incorporated in their exhibit. A rainbow made of colored cotton has at its end the pot of gold and surrounding it and extending to the foreground are prize winning, maize heads, peanuts, potatoes and the many other selections made from diversified farms.

Pleasant Hill has exhibit number seven, Harmony number eight and Prairie Chapel, number nine—all well prepared and arranged.

Business firm booths occupy the center of the hall and on the south, east, and half of the northern portion of the hall are the flower show, 4H clubs and home demonstration club exhibits.

The flower show under the direction of Mrs. M. F. Husky and Mrs. E. C. Henry has some beautiful entries. As one visitor said, "This flower show is in itself a treat worth the trip to the tabernacle."

Entries in the demonstration work include the following communities: Campbell, Lakeview, Starkey, Rose-land, Harmony, Pleasant Valley, Providence, Sand Hill, Blanco, Erick and Sunset. In the agricultural exhibits, Starkey community entered their products for display only and are not in competition for prizes. This was the only community placing in the hall that did not compete, the residents entering mainly to show their spirit of co-operation in a county undertaking.

Fairview did not enter, informing Secretary Bishop that they were unable to fill their score card.

The business firm booths included: Fuller Brush Company; Community Supply Company featuring H & K Coffee and cocoa with Mr. and Mrs. Presley with headquarters at Ft. Worth in charge; Floydada Insurance Agency with Clifford Tubbs in charge; F. C. Harmon, Furniture, featuring Quick Meal Gas Ranges and popular phonograph hits, with Lloyd Paschall in charge; Arwine Drug Co., with Mrs. L. Newell in charge; Baker Mercantile Co., featuring De Laval products.

At 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon over four hundred individual articles being shown in the exhibit hall, according to figures kept by Edwin Heatr, in charge of the entries.

Fails In Effort To Regain Fistic Honors

JACK DEMPSEY

The world's most colorful boxing champion who failed in his effort to regain the title from Gene Tunney at boxing Field, Chicago, in a fight for honors and the biggest purse ever paid two pugilists to enter the roped arena.

DEMPSEY-TUNNEY

ROUND EIGHT

Dempsey bobbed in pursuit of Gene. Gene crossed a right and left to body. Jack punched a low left to the body. Dempsey played for the body and Tunney jabbed him in the face. Dempsey pounded Gene in a clinch. Tunney sank a right to body. Tunney was on the run again. Jack caught him on the ropes and played for the body with both hands. Tunney rocked Jack a left to jaw, but he bounced up without a count. Tunney forced the fighting and put Jack on the ropes. Jack was slowed up now. Tunney drove in left to the face. Both Jack's eyes were badly cut.

ROUND NINE

ROUND TEN

They shook hands and Jack wrest led Gene to the canvas after an exchange of left hooks. Tunney did not go down from a punch. Tunney crossed two rights to the face. Both were swinging wildly for a knockout. Jack put a left to body. Jack was groggy. Tunney crossed to the face. Jack put a right to body. Gene cut Dempsey's face with a hard right. Jack was very weak. Tunney punished him with both hands. Gene rocked three hard rights to jaw as the bell rang.

The announcer raised Tunney's hands in signal of victory and Jack Dempsey as bloody and battered as last year shook hands with the victor.

Who Will Win Chevrolet Coach Here Saturday?

Final Drawing to Award Automobile Will Be Held Following Community Parade.

Who will win the beautiful new Chevrolet Coach next Saturday afternoon? That is the question that is facing nearly every citizen of Floyd County and will be determined in a public drawing on the afternoon of the last day of the Floyd County Fair. The automobile, fully equipped, is being presented to the holder of the lucky ticket by the Floyd County Fair Association.

The drawing which will determine the winner of the car will be held directly following the parade. The parade of community and business floats will start promptly at 1 o'clock and will lead to the Fair grounds where the car will be awarded.

Ten numbers will be drawn from the tub of tickets, according to the plans for the awarding, and the holder of the tenth number will be the lucky winner. In case the holder of the tenth ticket is not present at the Fair grounds, the holder of the ninth ticket will be the winner.

Somebody will have a new Chevrolet next Sunday. Who will it be?

Heavyweight Title Changed Only Twice By Referee's Call

Since the immortal John L. Sullivan went down to defeat before James J. Corbett, there have been twenty-four heavyweight championship battles and only twice has the crown changed hands on a referee's decision.

The first time Marvin Hart, to whom the honors had been given by James J. Jeffries on his retirement, lost to Tommy Burns in twenty rounds at Los Angeles in 1906.

Twenty years later Jack Dempsey lost his title to Gene Tunney after ten rounds, by the decision of the referee and two judges.
