they were pointed out as probable con-

and now their battles for these honors, as well as higher honors, seem assured.

EAST WARD TEACHERS ENROLL
100 PER CENT IN T. S. T. A.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 3.—Mrs. A.
H. Thornton, principal of the East Ward School in Floydada, has reported the teachers in that school enrolled 100 per cent as members of the Texas State Teachers Association for 1927. Faculty of the East Ward School includes:—
Vera Hamilton, Mrs. Ernest Hughes, Mrs. G. F. Klebold, Emma Lou McKinney and Lela F. Swain.

Every teacher in Floydada is expected to become a member of the Texas State Teachers Association by the time of the annual convention to be held in Houston, November 24, 25 and 26.
Speakers of national reputation will appear on the program of the convention and will also address group meetings of teachers to discuss special problems.

What's Doing In West Texas Today

EL PASO—In recognition for the services rendered to the El Paso Country, the Border City, numerous towns in its trade territory, and a number of New Mexico cities have taken record affiliations with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. This the first time that the section has come in with membership support in line with that given in other districts. El Paso's affiliation is approximately 500, ranking her next to Fort Worth in point of numbers. Fabens, Tornillo, Van Horn and Presidio, Texas, Hot Springs and Las Cruces, New Mexico, and Juarez are the other new towns numbered as West Texas Chamber of Commerce members.

SWEETWATER—Governor Dan Moody will be the featured speaker at the West Central District Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held here some time during the middle of November, Monte E. Owen,

SICKLY, PEEVISH CHILDREN

Children suffering from intestinal worms are cross, restless and unhealthy. There are other symptoms, however. If the child is pale, has dark rings under the eyes, bad breath and takes no interest in play, it is almost a certainty that worms are eating away its vitality. The surest remedy for worms is White's Cream Vermifuge. It is positive destruction to the worms but harmless to the child. Price on plans for the meeting.

ABILENE—Fire prevention week is to be observed in Texas from October 9 to 15. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is calling attention to this observance in line with their aim to show that fire insurance companies should reduce losses and physical fire hazards rather than attempt to raise insurance rates.

CHRISTOVAL—Christoval will be host to the thirty-fifth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans of Texas October 7. The three day convention meet at San Angelo, beginning October 6, but their second day session is to be held in this scenic beauty spot of the West.

LAWN—Conditions are very good around this place for sowing winter grains, and a number of farmers are contemplating planting oats and wheat.
Cotton picking is well underway here.

RICHLAND SPRINGS—Engineers and surveyors are at work looking over the right-of-way for a proposed branch line of the Gulf Colorado and Santa Fe Railway from Richland Springs to Coleman.

RISING STAR—Secretary Frank Robertson of the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce has completed collection of the fund subscribed by local business and professional men and firms for the work on the new May-Rising Star road, and settlement has been made for it.

NEWCASTLE—A record crowd greeted the Graham fair boosters who visit ed this city October 1 in the interest of the annual Young County Fair.
Newcastle merchants reported a fine trade day.

CANYON—Canyon is now using natural gas as fuel. Several hundred homes are enjoying the new convenience and others are being piped.

CLARENDON—The greatest exhibit of diversified products that Donley County has ever shown will feature the annual free fair to be held here October 14 and 15. One of the most outstanding displays will be that of the Cruse and Reynolds truck farm of Lela Lake.

BOWIE—November 21 is the date that has been set for the 1927 Red River
District Convention of the West Texas
Chamber of Commerce to be held here.
The 1926 convention was successively rained out, being scheduled to meet at Henrietta several different times. A large attendance is expected for this year's meet.

Nearly 100 prisoners each year during the past four years have enrolled in courses offered to inmates of Rockview Penitentiary by the engineering extension department of Pennsylvania State College. Ten courses were given during the year just ended, and at recent final exercises of the night school educational classes 70 inmates received special certificates.

NEW ONE ON GEORGE

Junior is seven and Dick is six. The former is rather quick-witted and has been escaping his just desserts for many of his mischievous pranks. It was George Washington's birthday, and a visitor was asking about the great man, particularly about the cherry tree incident.

"Why did little George tell his father he cut down the cherry tree?"
"I suppose it was because he didn't have a little brother to blame it on,"
was the unexpected reply.

T. M. Noland and family returned home Monday from Abilene, where they visited their daughter, Miss Effie, and friends for a short time.

The Dramatic Club will present "For the Love of Johnny" here soon with the special permission of the Dennison Publishing Company. Watch for further announcements of its appearance.

McCOY LITERARY SOCIETY

The McCoy Literary Society rendered a program last Friday evening, Sept. 30.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and an interesting talk was made by the president.

Another program will be rendered on Friday, October 7.

NOVEL ADVERTISEMENT

Of all the unusual means of advertising we think one of the most amusing methods is that used by a friend of ours, a large button manufacturer. He wears a very large diamond necktie pin. He has the five-carat diamond stone dangling from the necktie in such a way that it seems just about to fall off. People who stand next to him on the sidewalk are quite likely to stop him and say: "I beg your pardon, but you are losing your tie pin." "Well that is very good of you. I am very grateful. Will you not accept my card?" The card bears his name and an advertisement of his button company. He keeps the diamond hanging by an invisible chain at all times and feels that this is his best method of introducing himself and his product.—The Outlook.

With The Churches

AT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

Ira L. Sanders, Minister
Everyone was delighted with the services at the City Park Church last Lord's day. The house was well filled at both hours, with several new faces in the audience. Bro. Stell preached both morning and night.
There was also a nice crowd out to hear Bro. Stell on Monday night. All are invited to be present again next Lord's day, as there will be preaching at 11 o'clock a. m., and 7:45 p. m. Subject at 11, "Some Great Things," at 7:45 "The Five States of Man." Bible study begins at 10 o'clock a. m., so let us all be on time.

BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES

Rev. W. R. Hill, Th. M., Pastor
Sunday School, for Bible-study at ten o'clock. Qualified teachers for all classes.
Memorial Supper Service of the church at 11:00 o'clock. All the members are admonished to come to this service.
B. Y. P. U. meetings are at 6.30.
This is Standard Month, and our B. Y. P. U. is trying to get all our homes to subscribe for this very valuable church paper. Give them a hearty response when they see you about taking our paper.
The evening worship is at 7:45. We try to make the service brief, bright and brotherly.
The midweek praise and prayer service is on Wednesday night at 7:45. The subject for September 14 is, "Is God's Child Safe?"
Visitors are cordially invited to worship with us. Come and welcome.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

F. L. Davis, Minister
Last Lord's day was a great day for the old First Church. The Sunday School and preaching services were good. The dinner was fine and the fellowship in eating and visiting together was a great help to all.
The reports given during the afternoon were indeed encouraging. All were really surprised at the splendid reports. The treat the minister had promised was a great delight to all.

In Memory of 'Buffalo Bill'

The city of Denver erected this memorial, which was visited by the National Parks Chevrolet on its circuit of the parks of the West, to William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody, great showman and romantic figure of American pioneer days. The memorial stands just outside of Denver on Lookout Mountain on the summit of which is the grave of "Buffalo Bill". The memorial contains relics of the days when Cody was the hero of real battles on the plains and sham battles beneath the canvas tent.

present. It was a reading given by Mrs. F. L. Davis, of Springfield, Mo., and the selection was entitled "The Neighbor." It was a modern interpretation of the Bible story of Dorcas. It was in close keeping with the work of the church and all present were greatly benefitted and resolved to be better neighbors. Mrs. Davis showed rare ability as a reader. In fact, we have heard no better in the town.

The election of officers for the Sunday School resulted in the selection of W. Ed Brown as superintendent and Lon M. Davis, assistant superintendent; Miss Artie Newell, secretary, and Miss Bernice Gresham assistant secretary and C. T. Stevens was selected choir-leader for both Sunday School and church.

The election of officers for the church resulted in the election of J. T. J. Dawson, J. F. Ruddick and Lon M. Davis as elders; J. B. Jenkins, L. H. Dorrell, deacons; Ted Probasco, Dr. W. M. Houghton, R. C. Scott, G. E. Lewallen, J. H. Tribble and W. T. Massie, deacons; Mrs. Sam Berry, Mrs. W. Ed Brown, Mrs. J. N. Johnston, Deaconesses; J. T. J. Dawson, W. Ed Brown, C. T. Stevens, trustees; F. L. Davis, Mission treasurer.

We believe that these officers will direct the work in a great way during the year. The elders and deacons will be ordained soon, likely a week from Sunday.

The services next Lord's day will be as usual with the exception that it will be "Every Member Visitation." The visitors have been selected and will visit the entire membership in the afternoon. We are asking the members to remain at home until after the visitors come. We hope all will do this for it will greatly assist in the work.

Sunday school and preaching in the morning at usual hours.
The Endeavor will meet at 6:45 p. m. Preaching service will begin at 7:45 p. m.

The junior Endeavor will meet each Tuesday at 4:00 o'clock p. m. Weather and roads permitting we will fill our appointment at Mayview in the afternoon. It may be we will not arrive until 3:30 but we will try to be there by 3 o'clock.

Ask Me Another Question

1. How can the malarial mosquito be differentiated from other kinds of mosquitoes? (D. B. R., Greenville)
2. Does the malarial mosquito also transmit the germs of dengue?
3. What are the symptoms of hookworm in children? (S. N., Bay City)
4. What is the cause of whooping cough? (Mrs. A., Belton)
5. What is the cause of measles? (Mrs. A., Belton)
6. How is measles transmitted? (Mrs. A., Belton)
7. Is salt necessary to life, and how much salt is needed annually by the human body? (Schoolboy, Bonham)
8. Give what you think is necessary for the good care of the feet. (A. J. M., Henderson)

ANSWERS

1. The Anopheles mosquito which is the malaria carrier, is dark brown in color, slender, and has spotted or dusky wings. It is larger than Culex, the pestiferous, small mosquito that bites at any and all times, and when biting the malarial mosquito has the appearance of "standing on its head."
2. The mosquitoes that are dengue carriers are different from the malaria carriers. The dengue carrier is known as the Aedes mosquito, and is also the carrier of yellow fever germs.
3. The usual symptoms of hookworm in children are: sallow complexion, lack of energy, mental dullness, and bloated abdomen.
4. Whooping cough is caused by a small bacillus which reproduces itself on the mucous surface of the trachea. This disease is most common up to the sixth year of life, and declines rapidly after this time. Adults rarely suffer an attack.
5. The infectious agent causing measles is as yet unknown, but it is an "infection" of the respiratory tract.

6. Measles is contracted through direct personal contact or direct contact with fresh nasal or throat discharges from a measles victim. It is the most easily transmitted of any of the communicable diseases. The infectious agent is present in the blood of a patient as well as in the secretions of nose and throat, even before the rash appearance. Then, too, the disease is most contagious during the few days just preceding the appearance of the rash, which is a big factor in its rapid spread through a community, as numbers of children are often exposed through contact with a child, who is thought to be suffering only from a cold.

7. Every living thing would perish without salt. This is true because every tissue of the body has a small content of iodine, and this is renewed by the consumption of salt. Perhaps a conservative estimate of the amount of salt required by each person for a year's time, is 16 to 18 lbs.

8. The feet are marvelously built and if well treated, will give marvelous service. Faulty shoes cause more foot misery than anything else. Shoes should be fitted to the feet and not the feet forced into shoes to which they are adapted. Ordinary care of feet require a daily bath, frequent change of hose, with hose and shoes both well fitted, and good care of toe nails, which should be cut straight across, and not slanting at the sides, as this tends to cause ingrowing toenails.

SAVE TIME WITH OVEN COOKERY

(Editor's Note: This is one of the series of cooking articles by 6 famous cooks running exclusively in this paper. Paste it in your cook book.)

When days are fullest, and time is most precious, try an oven-cooked meal. You will save yourself many minutes in preparation and watching. And you will be able to serve a tasty meal—the kind which will make your family exclaim, "Let's have this again soon!" The menu given today is by Mrs. Belle DeGraf, San Francisco, home economics counsellor.

A Delicious Oven Meal

Beef and Macaroni, San Francisco
Baked Lima Beans, Paprika
Pineapple and Cheese Salad
Stanford Prune Whip Pie
Beverage

The actual cooking time for this meal is three hours. But, with a reliable stove, the cook does not need to stay in the kitchen more than half an hour!

First, heat the oven well for 9 minutes to 425 degrees, while you make a pie crust. Bake for 10 minutes. Then put meat and beans into oven, and reduce heat to "moderate," or 350 degrees. You need pay no more attention to this cooking for 3 hours, when meal is ready to serve.

A heat regulator takes the guesswork out of baking. It registers the exact degree of heat. One, made especially for oil stoves, may be fastened easily to practically any glass-door oven.

Beef and Macaroni San Francisco

Select about 2 pounds of lean beef, cut into pieces suitable for serving. Sprinkle each piece with salt and dredge with flour.

Heat drippings of fat, flour, salt pork in a frying pan, then add meat and quickly brown each piece on all sides. When browned, place in a large casserole and pour over 2 cups of tomato sauce, or pureed tomato, one teaspoon of salt and enough hot water to cover meat. Add 12 or more ripe or stuffed olives. Cover casserole.

Place in a moderate oven and cook about 3 hours. An hour before meal is to be served add 1 1/2 cups elbow macaroni or macaroni broken into inch lengths. If more liquid is needed add either tomato or stock.

Baked Lima Beans, Paprika

Soak lima beans overnight, or at least for several hours. Drain, cover with fresh cold water and set over flame, bringing slowly to the boiling point. Drain again, and place in a casserole or bean pot.

Cover with water, add 1 teaspoon of salt, 2 teaspoons paprika, and 2 tablespoons butter. Cover and cook with the meat, allowing about the same time.

Is your oven so built that you can cook fish, cake, and onions in it at the same time with no blending of flavors? One manufacturer is selling just such ovens. They have such perfect air circulation that all odors are carried away. There is not the slightest blending of flavors.

Pineapple and Cheese Salad

Allow one slice of pineapple for each service. Place a tablespoonful of well seasoned cottage cheese in the center of each slice or make cheese balls with butter ball paddles. Make a French dressing with lemon juice.

A good French dressing is made as follows:
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon mustard
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 cup lemon juice or vinegar
1/2 cup olive oil (or other good salad oil)

Oil and juice should be cold. Put all ingredients into fruit jar and shake well.

Stanford Prune Whip Pie

Bake a pie crust, then add the prune whip:
1 cup prune pulp
1/2 cup sugar
2 egg whites unbeaten
1/2 cup finely shredded almonds or walnuts

Rub stoned stewed prunes through a coarse sieve. Put sugar, prune pulp and unbeaten egg whites in a bowl and beat with a whip egg-beater until stiff enough to hold its shape. Fold in part of the nuts, then heap mixture in the baked pie crust. Sprinkle nuts on top and place on top grate of oven until nuts are delicately browned.

This is a good, substantial meal which hungry folks will relish. There are innumerable combinations which may be oven-cooked, too. For example, roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, potatoes browned in the pan, onion souffle and custard pie. You can readily think of many others.

If you wash rice in two warm waters instead of cold, it will remove the starch much quicker.

TEACHING FORCE RECRUITED FROM THE FARMS

Sixty-five per cent of all students in the five State teachers' colleges of Missouri came from farm homes. In the Louisiana State Normal College 36 per cent, and in the four Michigan State normal schools 34 per cent of all students gave farming as the occupation of their parents. Even in the industrial States of Massachusetts and Pennsylvania 8 per cent and 19 per cent, respectively, of normal-school students are farmers' children. Of the students granted masters' degrees in the department of education of the University of Chicago during the period 1924-1927, 42 per cent of the 197 reporting on this matter gave farming as the occupation of their parents.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT... BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

You Need Never Change Your Oil if You Own a Buick

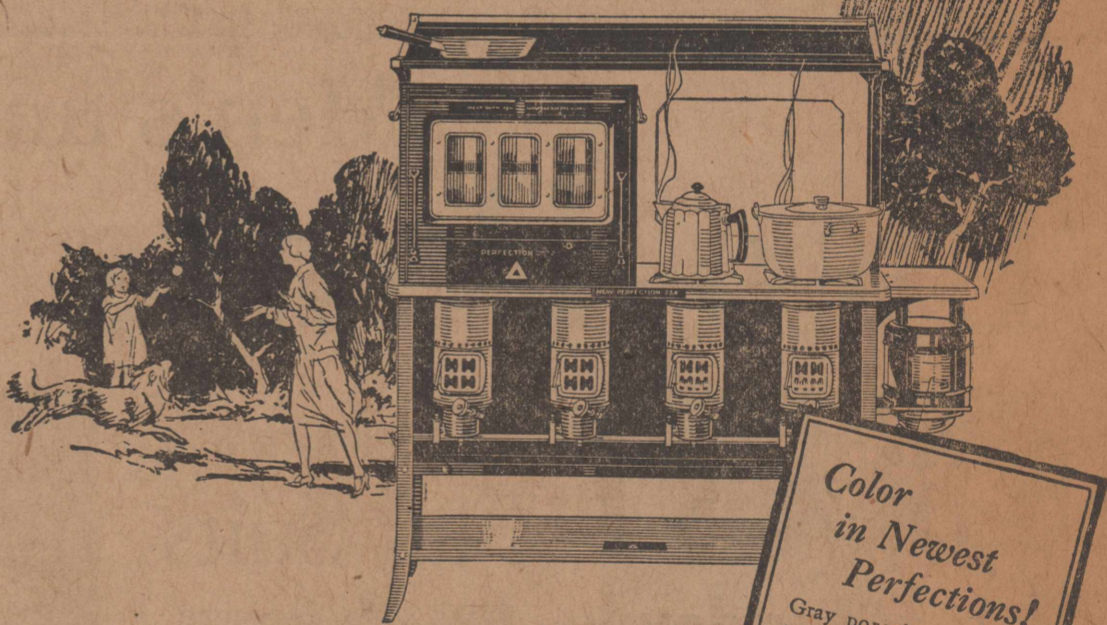

Last year Buick said: "Change your oil only four times a year." Buick tests at that time had shown that oil changes would never be necessary, with the Oil Filter to remove impurities, and with the Crankcase Ventilator, Thermostatic Circulation Control and Automatic Heat Control to prevent oil dilution. Now, more than a year has passed, and Buick owners in every section of the world—under every climatic condition—have also proved that you never need change your oil if you own a Buick—replenishment and inspection of the Buick Oil Filter only are required.

GENE STRATTON PORTER'S LAST NOVEL SHOWS HERE NEXT WEEK

The best is the last! This phrase came weirdly true in the case of Gene Stratton-Porter, the noted novelist who met her death in a tragic automobile accident in Los Angeles some two years ago.

Early in 1924, the famous writer planned a novel that would outstrip all her previous well-loved books, such as "Laddie," "The Girl of the Limberlost," "The Harvester," "Freckles," and "Michael O'Halloran." The combined sales of which had mounted into an impressive number of millions. This new effort was to be an ethereal romance, of a different type from her former works, with a basic theme of a childhood love-affair persisting through the years.

Slowly it grew and developed; the first draft was finished early in the fall, and the final version was completed and the last page type on December first. Her comment was that this was her last novel.

And then, five days later, while motoring through town, a street-car crashed into her machine—and she was instantly killed.

But her story lived on. Appearing in McCall's Magazine in serial form last winter, and with the publication of the book by Doubleday, Page and Company, "The Magic Garden" made an instantaneous hit with her immense public, and attracted more widespread attention than any of her previous works. FBO's magnificent screen version of the book directed by the late writer's son-in-law, J. Leo Meehan, is responsible for much of the interest in the new story, as it is a remarkably faithful reproduction of the atmosphere and characters of the book. The picture will appear at the Royal Theatre on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

CARD OF THANKS

We cannot find words to express our thankfulness for the good friends and loved ones, who, through kindness and sympathy, aided us during the illness and death of our dear mother, and grandmother. Only those who have lost a mother can understand how hard it is, but we know she is asleep in Jesus, and we should not grieve so hard. We also wish to thank you for the beautiful floral offering. We pray God you may have just such friends in your hour of sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jones returned Monday of this week from Lawton, Okla. where they had been several days with Mr. Jones' father, who is seriously ill of infirmities incident to old age.

BOY SCOUT TROOP NO. 43 WINS CONTEST DRILL ON SATURDAY

Boy Scout Troop No. 43, the Baptist church troop, were victorious over troop No. 44, Methodist organization, in a contest drill held last Saturday afternoon on Main Street. The winning squad was presented with a large, fringed American flag as a trophy of the event.

Both scout troops went through the regulation army drill, which was very closely contested. Practically all forms of the army drill were carried out in the contest and the scouts showed evidence of long strenuous training. The three judges of the contest made the statement that the drills performed were indeed the best they had ever witnessed by a group of boys.

The Methodist boys, under the leadership of W. A. Gound, were entertained with a weiner roast and out-door supper on Blanco canyon Saturday night following the contest. The winning troop with E. F. Eastridge acted as hosts to the losing group.

Locals and Personals

Mrs. Geo. Lider, Mrs. A. P. McKinnon and Mrs. Lon V. Smith, made a business trip to Plainview Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alexander and baby of Brownfield, were here Saturday night on a visit with Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Alexander, and in company with Mrs. Alexander spent Sunday at Paducah with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Shipley, of Clovis, New Mexico, have been here this week visiting Mr. Shipley's mother, Mrs. W. A. Shipley, while Mr. Shipley has transacted business.

E. B. SCROGGINS, MCCOY, BUYS LEWIS CAFE LAST SATURDAY

E. B. Scroggins, of McCoy, on Saturday of last week purchased the Lewis Cafe from Lonnie Lewis, proprietor of the establishment for the past year. The business located on the north-west corner of square changed hands at about 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Scroggins and family are moving to Floydada this week from the McCoy community, where they have been living for a number of years.

Mr. Lewis stated Wednesday that his plans for the future are indefinite, although he plans to remain here.

HENRY GOLLYHON BURIED AT SILVERTON CEMETERY MONDAY

Henry Gollyhon, 62, of the Blanco community died Sunday morning at 6:05 o'clock at the home of his son, C. R. Gollyhon, after an illness of only a few days. He became ill with pneumonia Wednesday night of last week, it was stated.

The deceased had resided in the Blanco community for several months. He was born in Lee County, Virginia, on March 20, 1865. He was married in 1885 to Miss Lucie E. Durham, who died some few years ago. He was a member of the Baptist church for over twenty-five years.

Funeral services were conducted at the Silvertown cemetery Monday afternoon with Rev. Lollar, pastor of the Baptist church at McCoy in charge.

Surviving members of the family are three children, C. R. Gollyhon and Miss Bertha Gollyhon of Floydada and Mrs. Grace Dixon of Guitma, Texas. Mrs. Linie Mabrey of Estelline is a niece of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. McCleskey, of Big Spring, were guests of Mrs. Ino. Farris and children, Saturday.

SANITARIUM NOTES

Mrs. R. C. Carter, of Silvertown, underwent an operation at the Smith and Smith sanitarium on September 26. She returned to her home on September 28.

H. L. O. Riddle, of Silvertown, also underwent an operation on September 16. He was dismissed September 22. Homer Jenkins, of Matador, underwent an appendix operation on September 24, and returned to his home on October 1.

Velma Moore, of the Baker community, was in the sanitarium September 16 to September 23 after undergoing an appendicitis operation.

Mrs. S. G. Topping, of Silvertown is convalescing after undergoing an appendicitis operation at the hospital on September 14.

Phillip Dunavant, city, underwent an appendix operation on September 25.

Miss Lillie Dee Robertson, of the Sand Hill community, is at the sanitarium this week after undergoing an operation for appendicitis on September 27. She is reported improving.

C. H. Featherston, of Wichita Falls, is here this mid-week on business.

Good dairy cows while milking should not be overly fat. They can well be fed enough to put on some flesh during the dry period and should be fed so as to keep in good condition while in milk. The general principles for correct feeding are (1) feed a balanced ration, (2) feed according to production—all the good roughage that the cow will consume and generally 1 pound of concentrate for each 3 to 3½ pounds of milk produced. If a balanced ration is fed and the cow gets too fat, the amount of feed should be reduced somewhat. If she is producing heavily and getting too poor in flesh she is either not receiving enough feed or the ration is not properly balanced.

Furniture wood at the time of manufacture should have a moisture content of about 6 per cent. This is about the average of the moisture it will contain during its life, although this fluctuates with the seasons and with the humidity in the atmosphere.

For able and earnest students who desire to prepare for college entrance examinations, a special class is maintained each term in intermediate algebra and in plane geometry in Morris High School, New York City; and subjects, including the history of mathematics, not embraced in the regular curriculum are studied in a "mathematics club."

Mrs. Joe M. Day was hostess to the members of the Embroidery Club at the regular meeting Thursday, September 29. Each of the ladies came in the morning and brought their lunches which was spread together in the usual manner at noon. A very delightful day was spent in conversation and fancy needle work.

The guests included: Mmes. Roy Snodgrass, Jack Henry, Homer Steen, Rip Snodgrass, W. L. Fry, Jno. Hammond, C. Y. Carter, Leon Collins, G. V. Slaughter, John Reagan, Frank Moore, and E. E. Brown.

Quarterly Zone Meeting Held At Carr's Chapel.

After being postponed from Tuesday, September 27, on account of the rain, the Quarterly meeting of Zone Four of the Methodist Missionary Societies was held Tuesday, October 4 with Carr's Chapel Auxiliary as hostess. An unusual representation was had from the various auxiliaries in the zone. At the noon hour a bountiful dinner was served by the Carr's Chapel Auxiliary.

The program rendered was very interesting and instructive. Mrs. Wynth Griffith, of Lockney, who is an ex-student of the Scarritt Bible school gave a very splendid talk on the school. The morning devotional was ably led by Mrs. M. P. Hinds, of Petersburg. Mrs. Ben Hardy for the afternoon devotional gave a lesson on the Lord's prayer. Mrs. J. L. West discussed the Gibson auxiliary in a very able manner. Mrs. T. J. Rea, of Lockney brought a good message on the "Missionary Voice." Other very splendid talks were given by Mrs. E. B. Massie, Mrs. J. M. Willson and Mrs. Harold Porterfield. A very beautiful consecration service conducted by Mrs. D. T. Scott closed the program.

Those from Floydada who attended were Rev. and Mrs. Ben Hardy, Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Brown; Mmes. A. L. Moore, Ella Johnson, R. M. McCauley, J. M. Willson, J. L. West, I. S. Webb, E. B. Massie, W. M. Colville, C. R. Houston, W. A. Robbins, L. G. Mathews, A. H. Porterfield and Ona Mitchell.

Calendar Party Monday At Mrs. Smith's.

Between ninety and one-hundred guests were entertained Monday afternoon when Mrs. Lon V. Smith was hostess at a calendar party at her home. Each guest who came brought an offering for the new Baptist church fund, $90.00 in all was received.

As well as being a benefit affair the party proved to be a very delightful social event. The guests wore tacky costumes and Mrs. John H. Reagan was given the first prize, Mrs. J. T. J. Dawson, the second and Mrs. W. Ed Brown the third.

Various games were played and refreshments were served during the evening. The guests in their comical costumes formed a parade and marched down town.

M. E. Society Holds Meeting.

A business and social meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church was held Monday afternoon at the church. During the business session the society decided to resume their vanishing parties next week.

Monday afternoon, October 10, a lesson will be had from the Missionary study, "Moslem Women," the last chapter. Mrs. L. G. Mathews will lead the lesson.

East Ward P. T. A. Holds Business Session.

A special called business session of the East Ward Parent-Teachers' Association was held Friday afternoon at school building for the election of two officers to take the place of two resigning members. Mrs. Clay Johnson was elected president and Mrs. Nora Cox secretary.

The next regular meeting will be held Friday afternoon, October 14.

Mrs. Henry Hostess To Bridge Club.

The Wednesday Bridge Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Jack Henry as hostess. The home was very artistic with a profusion of cut flowers. The tables for the games were very attractive with unique covers and score cards.

In the games, Mrs. T. P. Collins received high score. Mrs. A. B. Keim and John Reagan were guests of the club. The hostess served a delicious salad course to the guests and following members: Mmes. Luther Fry, Homer Steen, S. W. Ross, Leon Collins, T. P. Collins, Bert Barker, Jno. Hammonds, Mrs. Aubrey Bishop, Roy Snodgrass and Miss Ruth Collins.

The club will meet October 19, with Mrs. Aubrey Bishop.

Lockney Attorney Married Here Wednesday.

Mr. Russell Allen of Lockney, was married to Miss Vernie Chalke, of Dallas, in Floydada Wednesday evening, September 28, at 7:30 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ben Hardy. The young couple was accompanied by a friend, C. E. McMath, of Matador.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chalke, of Dallas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Allen, of Crosbyton. He is well known and quite popular in that city. Mr. Allen is a former Texas University Law School student and just recently opened a law office in Lockney and is a promising young attorney of that city.

Given Surprise Dinner On Birthday.

A surprise birthday dinner was given Lloyd Paschall by his relatives and friends Sunday. The dinner was a complete surprise to the honoree and proved to be a very pleasant one.

The dinner given at the Paschall home in the south part of town was served to a number of guests. Those enjoying the feast were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Travis Mitchell, L. G. Mathews and son Charles, W. N. Porterfield, Riley Holmes, Verlon Harmon, Mrs. J. A. Awtrey, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Paschall, Mrs. Lloyd Paschall and the honoree.

WORKERS' MEETING AT MCCOY WELL ATTENDED BY BAPTISTS

McCoey Baptist Church was the hostess church to the meeting Tuesday of the monthly workers' meeting of the Floyd County Baptist Association and the all-day session was largely attended by pastors and laymen in the church of the four counties comprising the association.

At noon dinner was spread for all present.

Rev. R. E. L. Muncy, of Muncy, moderator of the Floyd County Baptist Association, presided. The general theme of the day was "The Church and her Activities."

At this meeting, the executive committee voted its approval of the plans for building a missionary's home in Floydada on lots now owned by the association, and it was decided to begin the construction of the home as soon as $1,000 has been contributed of the $5,000 proposed to be expended for the purpose.

The next workers' meeting will be held in connection with the Fifth Sunday Meeting of the Association, which comes on October 30. The Center Baptist Church six miles northeast of Floydada, will be the hostess church.

Among those present at the meeting Tuesday at McCoey from Floydada were: Rev. G. W. Tubbs, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bullard, Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Evans, Mrs. E. Ray Smith, Mrs. Pete Leat'erman and Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Hill.

Mrs. Jno. Farris and children and Miss Jessie Mae Wood, accompanied Judge L. S. Kinder and family of Plainview, visited at Quitaque Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stroup.

PERMANENT FAIR GROUNDS

Five thousand flies swooped down on the home demonstration club exhibits here at the fair recently and spent two nights there. Beautiful specimens of needlework were practically ruined, representing more than a financial loss to the exhibitors.

Even under adverse conditions, the Floyd County exhibits were declared by many to compare with those at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. Given attractive backgrounds for the various divisions of the fair, the display, should indeed represent a true picture of a premier county of the Plains.

A showing of the agricultural and home products of the county readily illustrate through the comments made here at the fair this year that all effort, time and money were well invested for the advancement of community co-operation, interest and exchange of ideas.

But the fair was not complete; it did not represent Floyd County as it should be represented. There should be a livestock division and it would be worse than foolish to invite the owners to bring their pedigreed animals here for exhibition in the open air where they would be exposed to atmospheric elements more or less severe. To erect temporary quarters for the products and the animals would be only a makeshift method that would exact the makeshift price, which, in every phase of life is always the highest toll.

There is at present one solution to the problem—the erection and maintaining of a permanent fair ground with exhibit halls, livestock building and athletic grounds. There is one logical, business-like method of attaining this end—form a permanent association and sell stock that will represent a receipt for an investment and not a memoir for a donation. Make it a county wide proposition and ask the entire populace to assist in the construction work.

Today is the time to begin. Floyd County needs an annual fair, in order to have a fair there must be suitable accommodations for its staging; in order to have permanent fair grounds an association must be formed and stock sold; the formation of the organization will require effort on the part of the entire county. Volunteers for the first activities are needed—that of getting things started. Are you listed as a community builder?

A DANGEROUS CURVE

There is only one really dangerous curve in the entire road system of Floyd County and that is in Blanco Canyon on the Floydada-Ralls highway. Just after the bridge which spans the small ravine on the north side of the canyon there is a little knoll of ground that rises to obstruct the view of the motorist at a very quick turn.

A car coming down the north side of canyon gathers momentum as it descends and unless there are some real brakes to check it, the auto will be moving at a fast clip by the time it reaches the dangerous curve. A car coming from the south is completely at a disadvantage and the driver can only sound his horn and hope that the other fellow who may be behind the knoll has applied his brakes effectively.

Dynamic might be the best remedy for the situation. Anyway, to the ordinary fellow it looks like a simple matter to blast away the little hill that represents a big danger to the motoring public.

THE 'LONE EAGLE'

Texas has welcomed the 'lone eagle' of the age. Tribute and a welcome unparalleled in history by their sincerity and magnitude have been accorded to Colonel Lindbergh who is making a tour of the United States.

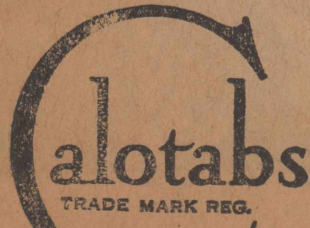

After his great achievement last May of flying across the Atlantic in his plane the Spirit of St. Louis, Lindbergh has undertaken an even greater test of man and machine—to make an air tour of the nation. He has risen to the occasion with the same resourcefulness, daring and courage that was demanded of him on his world-renowned flight of the 'lone eagle.'

Truly is he a hero who has proven himself worthy of praise.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Texas will observe fire prevention week from October 9 to 15. It serves as a reminder to every citizen to inspect his residence and business premises to

Your tongue tells when you need make sure that all fire hazards are eliminated.

It is an opportune time to complete the much-delayed-resolution to begin using a trash burner that will protect the other fellow's investment as well as your own when you go to destroy refuse matter.

Clean streets and alleys go hand-in-hand with any progressive community. They are something, too, that Floydada will continue to point to with pride.

'Round The Square

The football business, one of the country's greatest industries, is now opening up again after being closed down for several months. Things 'round the square are buzzing every Friday with gridiron news. Sure sounds good, for football days bring days of action, harvest time and days of business activities.

Good losers are not to be found anywhere. With the coming of the football season this fact is pointed out more plainly than before. A football player, as well as any kind of athlete, should be trained that the referee's word is the law, and by this law they must abide. The same is true with everyday life. If a fellow does not receive the breaks of life's game, he should be so trained that he will not spend most of his time grumbling about it. Let's all be good losers as well as good winners.

With school in swing again, the annual revelations of the dumb make their appearance. An English teacher in one of the local schools asked her students to compare the word "well." The answer was "well, sick, dead."

The biggest business now in movement 'round the square is the gas stove business. Now that natural gas has been turned into the local mains and a cool snap has come, everyone wants one.

But if the worst comes to the worst, folks can plant their entire yards in watermelons and raise their own water.

One fellow round the square made the remark last week when it was announced that gas had been turned into the mains that "if it's not one thing it's another." Why, of course, if Floydada and Floyd County is not making advancement in one way it is in another. Ever moving forward, co-operation and progressiveness will make this county stand out as the liveliest in the state.

A business man round the square was asked if he attended the Lubbock-Whirlwind football game. "Of course" was the reply, "if I went all the way to Chicago to see a forty minute fight, do you think that I would not go fifty miles to see a two hour football game?"

Wonder just how far the Whirlwind eleven will go if they don't get over-confident? They are a mighty good team but over-confidence is as great an enemy as any eleven, and much depends upon it.

PATTERSON-McGEHEE GINS THEIR FIRST BALE SATURDAY

Patterson-McGehee Gin Company Saturday turned out their first bale of the 1927 crop of cotton, ginning the bale for J. A. Hartsell who lives seventeen miles southeast of Floydada.

Although quite a few bales of cotton are reaching Floydada from various gins over the county, little cotton has been handled by the local gins as yet.

Scott McGehee is manager of the Patterson-McGehee Gin. He was for three years assistant manager of one of the Lockney gins. He is a nephew of Judge Wm. McGehee and a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. McGehee, who have resided in the Lone Star community for many years.

Locals and Personals

L. H. Lewis attended the Motley County Fair last week at Matador. BORN—to Mr. and Mrs. Mitt Bullard, at the Smith & Smith Sanitarium September 30, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell left the first of the week to make their home in Hale Center, where Mr. Mitchell will operate a filling station. He has been employed here with the Arwine Drug Co.

Nurse Advises WEAK, RUN-DOWN WOMEN To Take Cardul

"I have known of Cardul for nearly twenty-five years," says Mrs. Selma Meissner, 1072 Harrison Ave., Beaumont, Texas. "During that time, I have taken it several times and have frequently recommended it to others, for it is a splendid medicine and I am glad to give people the benefit of my experience."

"I have been a nurse for several years and have often come in contact with patients who were run-down and weak. Often I have told sufferers of Cardul, and the way I, myself, had been helped after taking it, and advised them to give it a trial. Many of them have since thanked me for what I told them, so I am willing that other women should know about it, too."

"I first took Cardul because I was awfully run-down. I had no appetite, and was weak and listless. It was hard to keep going under such conditions, and I looked for something which would help me."

"I had read of Cardul and decided to try it. After taking it, I improved so much that I have taken it since whenever I needed a tonic."

14 YEARS AGO IN FLOYD COUNTY

New items taken from the Floyd County Hesperian files published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

ISSUE OF OCTOBER 9, 1913.

Chas. Trowbridge, manager of the local gin said Wednesday that they would gin 1,000 bales of cotton before the season is over. The gin has already turned out 133.

Wm. McGehee this week sold his ensilage consisting of 940 tons to John Francis of Briscoe County.

Tuesday, while loading a car on the industrial switch, A. D. Hare, of the Blanco community, was rather badly hurt. He was in the car door when the team started to run. He attempted to leap to the wagon, barely missed his footing and struck his head on the wagon. He was unconscious for an hour until medical attention was called.

H. D. Bartley, of Cone, was in Floydada transacting business last mid-week.

Last year Floyd County produced over 25 carloads of broomcorn much of it in close proximity of Floydada, but the price of this product went 'all to pieces' and this year the farmers have planted very little. L. A. Marshall estimates that there will not be more than four carloads shipped out.

Silliman Evans, the Star-Telegram's correspondent, was in Floydada the latter part of last week on a periodical visit in the territory. He was accompanied by Dr. H. H. Ball, of Lockney, the two spending some two hours here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Barker, of Lockney, were visitors in Floydada Friday of last week.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Spider corn bread is so-called because it is baked in a heavy iron spider or skillet instead of in an ordinary baking pan. Custard corn cake and spoon bread are variations in the proportion of the different ingredients, resulting in breads of different consistency, all of which are soft enough to be served with a spoon and eaten with forks.

A SPLENDID FEELING

That tired, half-sick, discouraged feeling caused by a torpid liver and constipated bowels can be gotten rid of with surprising promptness by using Herbine. ONE-DAY

Here is a stunt you can try, but be sure you want a one-man dog before you start.

Take a puppy, and after he is four months old, do not let any one touch him or feed him but the owner. I suggest, however, you let the rest of the family in on the deal.

At about ten to fourteen months the puppy ought to show considerable dislike to having anyone handle him or to follow strangers.

My experience has been that it is harder to do this with hunting dogs than other breeds, due to their tendency to follow a gun. However, I recall two large fox hounds that I raised as one-man dogs that were splendid examples of one-man loyalty. One was broken for coon, and strange lanterns, shooting or a bunch of mouthy trailers had no effect on him, let alone mixing with strange people.

Have tried the one-man stunt with great Danes, Airdales, Irish terriers and fox hounds, and believe it will work with most breeds the majority of times tried.—Herb. R. Wunder, in Adventure Magazine.

There have been a number of accidents caused by persons coming in contact with electric light wires.

Radio season is here and many people are getting their radio in shape to receive the seasons programs, most everybody will be putting up aerials. (Antenna wires should be installed in such a manner that they could not come in contact with the electric light wires. Recently there was a very serious accident caused by throwing the antenna over a 2300 volt line and then picking up the end that fell on the ground.

This Company in promoting safety and service, earnestly requests that everyone use every precaution to keep from making this contact, and should anyone see broken, loose or dangling electric wires anywhere, notify us at once. TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY. 321tc.

PROVIDENCE CLUB

The Providence Club met at their club room on September 21. There were sixteen members present and all brought articles that were taken to the fair on September 22.

Mrs. T. E. Cowart, Mrs. R. J. McLaughlin and Mrs. K. Sammann were chosen to go to Floydada to decorate the Providence booth, which was very successfully done and we are well pleased to stand second in club booth exhibits with nineteen points and about eighteen prize ribbons, we think that is doing well considering the dry season Providence has had this year. Our prizes were on canned preserves, relishes and jellies; on the articles of hand work the ribbons were on a luncheon set, ladies night gown, dresser scarf, rug, girl's dress, boy's suit and eight ribbons for community exhibits of corn, wheat and grain seeds of different kinds.

Our next meeting will be on October 11. All be present as Miss Bass will be with us and we will have our regular lessons again now that the fair is over. Our subject for this lesson is "Pastry and pies." A demonstration will be given by Miss Bass.

CIRCUS TRAVELS IN CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN ANNUAL TOURING

When the circus comes to town—if it happens to be Downie Bros. Wild Animal Circus—it comes by Chevrolets. Seventy-five of them—sturdy one-ton trucks—make up the train that transports this entire show, wild animals and all, from the time in early spring it leaves its winter quarters at Harve de Grace, Md., until it returns there late in Autumn.

Andrew Downie, head of the show, fixed on Chevrolets after trying other methods of transportation during his 42 years in the show business. He experimented with horses and wagons, canal barges, steam tractors hitched to trailers, motor trucks and railway circus trains.

Now the 75 Chevrolets carry the entire show, consisting of 200 clowns, musicians, tight-rope walkers and other employees, as well as lions, tigers, the "big top," side shows and complete equipment everywhere on the circuit from inaccessible mountain hamlets to seaside towns. One truck used by General Manager Harron as a summer home provides him with a residence en route. Another carries a complete electric lighting plant.

HORSES AND MULES IN WAR

Motors take an important part in modern warfare, but it is virtually necessary that horses and mules be provided to assume the burden of transportation in places that motors cannot go. Soft ground, by-roads and paths are traversed by animals that are impracticable for automobiles. The Clydesdale, the Shire, the Percheron, the hackney and the trotters are used for artillery and transportation while the thoroughbreds, the Kentucky saddle horse, the Morgan and the Arab are the breeds which furnish the cavalry with riding horses.

Strong alkalis dissolve both wool and silk and even washing soda or strongly alkaline soap often seriously injures these fibres. The only alkalis that should be used in laundering or removing stains from wool and silk are the milder ones like borax or dilute solutions of ammonia. With the exception of nitric acid, dilute acids do not attack wool and silk readily. Bleaching agents containing chlorine are very destructive to both wool and silk and should not be used. The use of very hot water should also be avoided. Excessive rubbing felts wool and shrinks it, while silk fabrics are likely to be torn. The removal of stains from wool and silk must be done with great care.

A decision rendered recently by three Federal judges at a conference at Los Angeles, Calif., upholds the Government of the United States in its right to take any necessary steps to protect all growth on Government lands by any method within its discretion. This decision is the climax to a controversy lasting for three years between Forest Service officials and the State of Arizona with respect to depredations of deer herds in the Kaibab National Forest. The condition of the deer in this forest has been investigated by the Biological Survey in cooperation with the Forest Service. The cause of the controversy was the plan of Federal officials to arrange for the killing of deer within the forest in large numbers and at seasons and under conditions not in conformity with the laws of Arizona, in order to check the damage of the increasing herds to forest growth and to limit their numbers to the forage available. The present decision affirms the right of the Federal Government to make its own rules within the forest. Hunters are not licensed, however, to transport deer killed on the Kaibab to places outside in violation of the State game laws.

"INSIDE INFORMATION"

Bring in the milk bottles as soon as possible after delivery. Wash them, especially the mouth and cap. Place at once in the refrigerator, which should be 50 degrees F or less, never more.

The color of canned salmon is no indication of its quality. It indicates variety. There are several kinds of salmon and these vary in color after canning from a bright red to almost white.

Try a stuffing for green peppers made of equal parts of fresh corn, cooked macaroni (in small pieces), and tomato, seasoned with butter, salt and pepper. Any minced cooked meat on hand may be added.

In serving a vegetable plate include one food that contains some protein, as for example, green peppers or tomatoes stuffed with a meat mixture, califlower or potatoes scalloped with cheese, spinach with hard-boiled eggs, or sweet corn pudding made with milk and eggs.

Corn fritters may be made from leftover corn on the cob. To 4 tablespoons fresh corn add 1 teaspoon melted fat, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk, 1 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt. Mix to a batter and fry in deep fat.

Curried veal is a good dish to serve when lima beans are in season, because the flavor of curry goes well with lima beans. Cut 2 pounds of stewing veal into small pieces and simmer in water enough to cover until almost tender. Then add 2 cups of fresh lima beans. In another pan cook 1 medium-sized onion, chopped fine, and 1/2 a green pepper, chopped, in a small amount of butter. Add to the meat. When the beans are done, thicken the liquid slightly with a little flour which has been mixed with 1/4 teaspoon curry, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, and a little cold water. Add 1 cup diced cucumber and cook a few minutes longer. Sprinkle chopped parsley over the top when serving.

CARE FOR THE DRY COW

The condition of the dry cow in regard to flesh should determine the amount and kind of feed to give her. Cows producing 10,000 pounds or more of milk will need a considerable amount of both grain and roughage during the dry period. Cut down on the roughage considerably a week or ten days before calving as too much bulk may add to the discomfort of the animal. At this time feed a laxative grain ration. High producing cows, when dry, should have plenty of good legume hay or pasture, which is rich in protein and lime, and the grain ration should contain considerable quantities of bran and linseed-oil meal, which are rich in phosphorus.

The total number of cattle in herds fully accredited as free from tuberculosis exceeds 1,885,000. The work of tuberculosis eradication is going forward systematically in all States. During the last month of the fiscal year the inspectors engaged in tuberculosis testing applied the test to more than 800,000 cattle, of which approximately 24,000 were found to be affected with the disease. The removal of such reactors from contact with healthy cattle, followed by the slaughter of diseased animals under Federal inspection, is gradually reducing the extent of bovine tuberculosis throughout the country and benefiting both the livestock industry and public health.

THE QUICKER WAY

One way to improve a herd of hogs is to use a purebred sire with grade sows. "But why," asks E. Z. Russell, swine specialist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, "spend from 7 to 10 years of valuable time in breeding up, when a start can be made with the best there is? Hogs multiply so rapidly that if only one purebred sow were purchased as a start, a good sized herd could be produced in a very short time. If one will take one good sow and keep her and save her sow pigs, breeding them regularly, he can produce more than 300 hogs in 3 years."

Forests reduce erosion. Any vegetable cover tends to reduce erosion, but forests usually perform this function more effectively and permanently than any other type of vegetation. This is because of the thick mulch of leaf litter and branches which they drop upon the ground. Furthermore, they are constantly feeding humus into the soil itself, increasing its porosity and binding its mineral constituents.

The nighthawk, formerly wantonly shot for sport, is really one of the most useful of birds, and an insect catcher of great value. These birds scoop their prey out of the air on the wing. Biological Survey experts examined stomachs of nighthawks and have found more than 50 different kinds of insects, representing thousands of individuals, in a single stomach.

FLOYDADA STEAM LAUNDRY

The longer a broody hen is allowed to sit on the nest the longer it requires to get her back into laying condition, and consequently the greater the loss in egg production. To break the hen from sitting put her in a broody coop where she can be properly fed and watered. The broody coop should have a slat bottom in order that the air may circulate from beneath, thus keeping the body of the hen cooler, thereby tending to break up the hen's broodiness.

The best method of feeding salt to dairy cows is to mix 1 to 2 pounds of salt per 100 pounds of grain, or from 20 to 40 pounds of salt per ton of grain. In addition, have salt available so that the cows can get more if they desire.

Co-operative Plan Will Triumph Say Hill And Others In Praising Bureau

"Because its principle is ethical and sound, the co-operative marketing plan is right and will triumph in the end," was the summary statement here Saturday of President J. A. Hill of the West Texas State Teachers College in addressing members of the Floyd County Farm Bureau Cotton Association and the Farm Bureau organization from seven counties of this section. President Hill, who is a director at large of the Wheat Growers Association, maintained his point with the illustration that the farmers' organization was contributing to the happiness and welfare of the producers of the raw materials of the nation through a combination of better prices, intelligence in marketing and spirit of fellowship.

Over two hundred people attended the all-day session. Lunch was served at the noon hour by the Harmony Demonstration Club. Frank L. Triplett of Hale Center presided at the afternoon meeting, which was held in the District Court room at the court house. W. B. Jordan, president of the Floyd County Farm Bureau delivered the welcome address of the session, which was the second district convention held in this section. The next meeting will be held at Matador on January 1.

Many Prominent Speakers

Prominent out-of-county Farm Bureau officials brought inspiring messages to the assemblage, the outstanding of which was by John T. Orr of Dallas, president of the Farm Bureau Cotton Association, and Mrs. M. S. Hudson of Hale County. J. D. Coglein, State Field Representative for the Cotton Association; Lynn Stokes, Manager of the Farm Bureau Gin Corporation and R. E. Overstreet, Director of the Cotton Association from Lubbock County also made talks.

J. S. Hathcock, of the Division of Co-operative Marketing, and Geo. O. Gatlin with the same division of the United States Department of Agriculture were in attendance and in brief talks assured the local bureau members and others present that the Government was fully supporting the farmers' organization.

Judge L. Gough, President of the Wheat Growers Association, brought out a few brief points connected with the operation of grain and cotton markets.

The dedicatory ceremony for the new bureau gin here which was to have been observed aturday afternoon was postponed because the plant was not completed.

Mrs. M. S. Hudson extended an invitation to the local organization to send three delegates to attend with representatives from Hale, Briscoe and Motley counties a meeting to be held at Plainview at 3 o'clock Wednesday, October 5, for the purpose of completing plans for a poultry association based on the plan used by the Central California Poultry Association. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Christian and A. B. Muncy were named by President Jordan to represent this county.

In making a resume story of her trip with 35 other women students of co-operative marketing in Colorado, Utah and California this summer, Mrs. Hudson described the beautiful farm conveniences enjoyed throughout the districts where farm bureau memberships were large in proportion to the rural population.

"IT SPEAKS!"

On March 10, 1876, in a noisy machine shop at Boston, the telephone was born.

Alexander Graham Bell, the young teacher of deaf mutes, had dedicated his life to restoring the precious gift of voice to his pupils.

During his experiments he discovered a new principle of sound transmission which brought the hope that some day men might hear each other's voices though separated by hundreds of miles.

That dream has come true. Today you may send your voice—you—to anyone anywhere in the United States by Long Distance telephone. It will carry you to your family and friends; it will bring them to you.

Ask the Long Distance operator about Station to Station calls, particularly the low rates prevailing after 8:30 p. m.

Praises California System

"There were painted houses on every side; beautiful church structures, modern schools, fine paved roads and signs of prosperity everywhere, especially in California where the farming and fruit growing interests are signed up from seventy to ninety per cent," she said. "California has set a model that all of us should follow," Mrs. Hudson continued. "We are in Texas just where they were twenty years ago and with the same amount of preservice we can reach the same goal that they have attained. Without co-operation there would be no production in California.

"They have taken their crops, which are perishable fruits and vegetables and eggs and have placed them on the market in such a manner and by such a method that they practically control the whole situation. Years ago they found their fertile land loaded with fruits and there were no means of getting them to the consumer. Co-operative systems were planned and now everything works in perfect unison.

"Why, they can ship their eggs across the entire continent and get a higher market price in New York than those from New Jersey. That's what organization has done for California growers."

President Orr urged the local members to "sell" their organization more thoroughly, pointing out that a more general understanding of their aims and purpose would encourage endorsement where there might be opposition.

He praised the business-like methods used in the establishment of the Floyd County Cotton Farm Bureau gin plant. "If you will just put on that fine building the words, 'Dedicated to Service' you will have placed there the idea for which we are all striving. It is the emblem and the monument that your childrens children will point to with pride."

"Keep up your excellent spirit and disregard all petty jealousies. The Farm Bureau has given the farmers cheap money; it has protected your cotton and insured the bales. We must carry on this work in such a way that we will all be proud of each other when we meet again."

He discussed the cotton situation thoroughly, outstanding the steps which the bureau association was taking to care for the lint and told in detail of the plans now being put into operation for better prices to be obtained with a standardized producing, ginning, selling processing and shipping system.

President Hill of Canyon talked on "The How and Why of Co-operative Marketing." "History shows," he said, "that any successful nation must have a happy, contented, industrious and successful group of producers. In order to realize this state, there must be a fair and equitable return or reward, if you please, for their work. A man ought to be producing something for society. When he becomes only a consumer then he becomes a burden to society.

"If the producers are not industrious and successful then two things may result: first, the producers may forsake humanity and it will fall; second, the lack of foodstuffs will endanger further activity.

New Business Ethics

"No group of men have the right to organize themselves for their own selfish interests if those interests are contrary to the good of all society. They have the right to protect the legitimate interests of their product. A new form of business ethics is taking the world—a system of fair play to the other fellow who is engaged in a similar kind of business.

"This is the principle of co-operative marketing, as I see it. It is right and you had just as well join it or get out of the way. (Applause). When something is socially right, I believe it will triumph, for right will finally prevail. The co-operative plan is right because it protects alike the interests of the producers and the consumers of the raw materials.

"The co-operative marketing principle demands the highest type of intelligence. It is a social law that the man who lives successfully with his fellowmen is, highly intelligent, if he cannot be ignorant.

"Business men and farmers should encourage every move that tends toward educating the people, for he who works on the problem of economics of agriculture is working at the foundation of civilization. It is well that you producers get together and study these problems.

"In this modern age of science and invention we are living on a higher plane of civilization and we need more intelligence. Put the emphasis on intelligence and virtue for on that alone is the salvation of humanity."

At the close of the session here at 4:30 o'clock it was voted just before adjournment that each member of the Floyd County Farm Bureau would pay $2 annually for the operation of local organizations and carrying out their undertakings. A meeting of the local board will be held on the second Wednesday of each month, President Jordan announced.

McKnight, Briscoe And Daniels Given Permit

W. F. V. Daniels, John McKnight and P. A. Briscoe were given a permit to operate a bus line from Floydada to Vernon over Highway No. 28, dispatches contained in the daily press Monday said, and at the same time the commission turned down the application of Parker, Porter & Sparks.

In the contest between the parties asking for the permit to operate the line much interest was indicated, several towns having representatives present and testifying in the hearing, which was conducted by the Railway Commission of the state two weeks ago.

This application, together with others heard at the same time, was the first case to be heard in the west part of the state under the new law putting the bus lines under the jurisdiction of the Railway Commission.

$4,000 BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED SINCE SEPTEMBER 30

Three permits for building repairs and new construction, totalling slightly more than $4,000 have been issued by City Secretary Burl Bedford since September 30, the largest item being for $3,000 issued to Willson Lumber Company.

The permit to the lumber company calls for the construction of a brick veneer front on the south wall of the lumber yard.

Mrs. Ida Thomas was given permit to construct a brick and tile garage to cost $400 on Lot 2 in Block 91; and Lon M. Davis to construct a frame gin office on Lot 7 in Block 50 to cost $350. This office will take the place of the office heretofore used by Mr. Davis at the gin.

Masons Hear Addresses By Grand Chapter Heads

Masterful Discourses Heard by 250 Local and Visiting Masons in Floydada Monday Night.

What are termed as three of the most masterful addresses on Masonry ever delivered in Floydada, were heard at the Masonic Hall Monday night by 250 local and visiting Masons, on the occasion of the visit here of Dr. D. N. Cushing, of Houston, Grand High Priest; Sam H. Helm, of Corsicana, Past Grand High Priest; and Thomas M. Bartley, of Waco, Grand Secretary of the Royal Arch Chapter of Texas.

The visiting officials of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter made a deep impression on the fraternity members present, Dr. C. M. Thacker, past grand master of the A. F. & A. M. Lodge here, said Tuesday morning. It was one of the most inspiring occasions in the recent history of the local lodge, he said.

The date for the visit of the grand chapter officials was announced last week by R. C. Scott, secretary of the local organization. Besides members of the Floyd City Lodge, several neighboring lodges were represented including Lockney, Matador, Plainview and Ralls.

New Home For Laundry Planned By Messick's

Negotiations for the purchase of Lot 6 in Block 50 by A. W. and F. A. Messick, proprietors of the Floydada Steam Laundry, were completed the latter part of last week and A. W. Messick said Monday that if their plans went through a brick structure to house their laundry would be erected on the location.

"We are figuring on a building twenty-five by eighty feet to house our laundry, closer in to the business district, which will furnish a greater floor space and make it possible for us to handle the increasing volume the public is giving us," Mr. Messick said.

The Messick brothers have been operating their laundry some two years here and have made an enviable record for handling their business well.

Dr. W. H. Alexander returned home Wednesday afternoon after being absent since Sunday, when he went to Abilene as a District Court witness. He returned by way of Seymour and Paducah, making brief visits with relatives at those points.

New models in the famous New Process line have all the features you have admired in previous patterns, and many new advantages. Now you can do all your baking in the Lorain Self-regulating Oven without watching, without anxiety, and with no chance of failure. Next summer you can can fruits and tomatoes in the oven, and you can cook Whole Meals in the oven while you enjoy yourself where you please for hours at a time.

Let us show you these remarkable values. You owe yourself a New Process stove—and these new prices make it possible for you to have one.

NEW PROCESS Gas Ranges

Unless the Regulator has a RED WHEEL it is NOT a LORAIN

LORAIN OVEN HEAT REGULATOR

NEW PROCESS Gas Range

We are demonstrating New Process Gas Stoves this week under the direction of the State representative of the New Process Stove Company. The gas is now turned on and you can see how it works and get a lot of useful information on how to PROPERLY use gas by attending our demonstration.

We are giving 30 days free trial on our gas stoves and are making attractive prices on all models.

We sell stoves for cash or on installments and will trade for your old oil stove.
