Militants Ignore Khomeini's OK

By The Associated Press. The young militants holding the American hostages in Tehran refused again today to let the U.N. investigating commission meet with their captives even though Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini gave his implied approval to the meeting.

"Our position has not changed. We will not let the meeting take place," a spokesman for the militants occupying the U.S. Embassy told a reporter by telephone.

The spokesman said Khomeini's agreement to the meeting had not been confirmed.

Foreign Minister Sadegh Ghotbzadeh, who favors the visit, accused "communists and Zionists" of trying to foil the commission's mission, an apparent reference to leftists among the captors. The foreign minister's comment was in an interview with the Tehran newspaper Azadeghan.

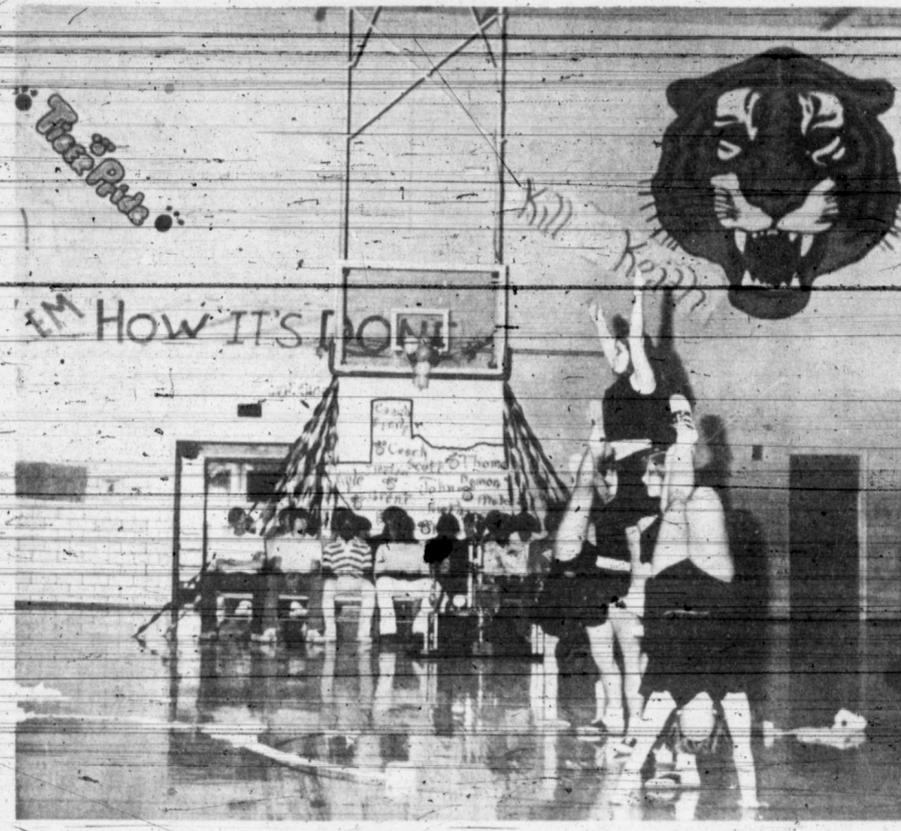

Khomeini's son, Ahmad, who in the past has acted as a liaison between the embassy militants and his father, was quoted as saying he believed the meeting would be "useful."

"It doesn't hurt anybody and this was part of their (the commission's) work," he was quoted as saying in an interview with the official Pars news agency.

The five members of the U.N. commission met with Ghotbzadeh to try to nail down arrangements for the meeting with the hostages. They returned to their hotel an hour later, and a spokesman said they still expected to see the Americans.

President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr told reporters Tuesday night that Khomeini had given him and the Revolutionary Council, which Bani-Sadr Khomeini had given him and the Revolutionary Council, which Bani-Sadr heads, jurisdiction over the matter of the proposed meeting between the U.N. group and the captives. He said the council decided the meeting should take place, and it would be held.

But Khomeini, the 79-year-old religious leader of Iran's revolutionary regime, apparently did not issue a direct order to the young militants to permit the meeting on Bani-Sadr's terms. This apparently emboldened them to defy the president and the council, as they have successfully done in the past.

The SDN Column

Youngsters can ask some tough questions. There's the little boy who watched the ballet dancers perform on their toes all evening and finally asked his mother, "Why don't they just hire some taller people to play those parts?"

And another tyke who was conferring with his father on financial matters: "Dad, do you remember when you told me I should start learning to appreciate the value of a dollar? Well, I've been giving a lot of thought to that, and, from now on, I think I'll take my allowance in gold."

Then there was the woman who was reading to her little granddaughter about how a chicken is hatched. "Isn't it wonderful how baby chicks get out of their shells?" said the grandmother.

"But what I don't understand," said the little girl, "is how they get in?"

And to top it all is the request of the youngster who asked his mother, "Can I help Dad put on the snow chains? I know all the words."

It may come as a surprise after our 9-degree weather the past weekend, but people down in the Highland Lake area are getting ready for their annual Bluebonnet Trail events. The big weekends for Bluebonnets around the Lampasas, Burnett, Marble Falls, Llano and Austin areas has been pinpointed for April 12-13 and 19-20 this year.

Some things we wouldn't know if we didn't read the papers:

A common herring lays about 25,000 eggs; a big halibut 3.5 million and a single turbot about 14 million. No endangered species here.

Will Not Resign After Reprimand

DENTON (AP)—State District Judge Bob Scofield said he did nothing improper and will not resign after being publicly reprimanded by the Texas Commission on Judicial Conduct.

Scofield also hinted Tuesday that an investigation into a leak about the reprimand, in violation of the commission's confidentiality rules, might be in order.

The judge said the commission's executive director, Maurice Pipkin, handed him the reprimand Monday following allegations he berated a jury, accepted a loan from an attorney and accepted about $8,000 in baseball tickets from a businessman.

Baker Withdraws From GOP Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Howard Baker withdrew from the 1980 Republican presidential race today, saying "it's pretty clear the campaign isn't going anywhere."

He said it was clear that the "principal competition is between others."

Chamber Sets Fun Breakfast

The Snyder Chamber of Commerce is planning its first "Fun Breakfast" for members for Monday, March 10.

The breakfast session will be held in Room A of the Scurry County Coliseum, beginning at 6:30 a.m. The cost will be $3 per person.

"We're hoping to stimulate a lot of interest among our members," said Bill Warner, chamber manager.

There will be prizes and special awards during the breakfast.

All members of the chamber are being urged to make plans for attending the breakfast. It will be strictly an informal gathering designed to help chamber members start their week on a pleasant note, said Warner.

Those planning to attend are being asked to telephone the chamber office at 573-3558 by 4 p.m. Friday to make reservations. They must know in advance how many will be on hand so that the caterer can prepare the proper amount of food.

Member sponsors of the first fun breakfast are E.D. Walton Construction Co., the Snyder Daily News, Sullivan-Stanfield-Fowler Insurance Agency, and Penny Lane Restaurant.

Juveniles To Get Hearings

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Supreme Court said today a juvenile judge must hold a hearing, if requested, on the mental condition of a juvenile before binding him or her over for trial as an adult.

Without writing a new opinion, the court upheld a 5th Court of Civil Appeals decision requiring a mental hearing for a Dallas 16-year-old accused of clubbing a friend to death.

The boy, identified as T.P.S., was certified for trial as an adult, and the trial court denied his application for temporary mental hospitalization.

The appeals court remanded the case to juvenile court.

BOSTON (AP)—Republicans George Bush and John G. Anderson were locked in a dramatic Massachusetts standoff today after Ronald Reagan inched to victory in Vermont. The two tight New England contests point to the kind of stalemate that might entice former President Gerald Ford into the GOP presidential race.

Sen. Edward Kennedy got a lift for his Democratic challenge with a landslide victory over President Carter in home-state Massachusetts. Carter buried Kennedy by an even more lopsided margin in Vermont.

Kennedy won by better than 2-to-1 in the campaign year's first big-state primary, winning enough nominating delegates to offset the lead Carter built up earlier. Carter took Vermont by 3-to-1.

As the final votes were tallied early today, Anderson trailed by margins so tiny that they represented virtual dead-heats.

Bush led by little more than 600 votes out of more than 373,000 cast in the Republican primary in Massachusetts with 96 percent of the precincts reporting. Reagan's margin was 616 votes with 99 percent counted in a Vermont primary that drew more than 62,000 GOP ballots.

Tax Board Sets Meeting Dates

The Scurry County Appraisal District established regular meeting dates, approved an office location and approved routine bills during a meeting last night.

Board members agreed to set aside the first Tuesday of each month as their regular meeting date. Still to be worked out, however, are the time and place of meeting.

Its office will be located on the first floor of the county courthouse, in the office facilities formerly occupied by the sheriff's department. The office area consists of 750 square feet and is rented for 38 cents per square foot, bringing the monthly rent to $285.

The firm of Anderson and Anderson was selected to perform the auditing work of the appraisal district.

Chief Appraiser Ray Peveler was authorized by board members last night to purchase a metal map case and book case for use in the new office.

Routine bills totaling $15,566 were also approved. The greatest of that was a $14,875 sum that went to Thomas Y. Pickett, Inc., the valuation engineering firm hired recently by the board.

In personnel policy, board members agreed to credit employees coming to the appraisal district with one-half of the sick leave they would have accumulated from the agency or entity where they have worked.

In discussions last night, board members were called upon to consider candidates for a three-member equalization board (board of review) for the appraisal district.

The Scurry County Appraisal District was created this past January. It is given the authority to assess property values for all taxing entities in the

Attending the meeting last night were board chairman John Reed and board members Ross Blanchard, Pete Hester and Bill Hairston, as well as County Judge Preston Wilson and Chief Appraiser Ray Peveler. Board member Kenneth Wilson was absent.

The militants agreed Monday to a meeting between the U.N. panel and the hostages but only on terms that were unacceptable to the U.N. group, Bani-Sadr and the Revolutionary Council.

The militants said they would let the commission meet with all the hostages to determine their condition only after the panel issued its report and "convicted" the United Nations of U.S. crimes in Iran and those of Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi.

Q—Why are Puerto Ricans allowed to vote in our "presidential" elections? Isn't Puerto Rico an independent nation?

A—Puerto Rico is a self-governing commonwealth in union with the United States. Its people were granted voting privileges by Congress. Some Puerto Rican citizens have campaigned for independence and some have urged statehood. However, none has gained sufficient support to result in action so far.

Says Education Now Cheaper

HOUSTON (AP)—It will ultimately cost much more to deal with the uneducated children of illegal aliens than it will to educate them, according to a Rice University sociology professor.

"These are innocent children now, not a real problem to society," Patricia Brams said Tuesday as she testified in a federal court trial challenging a Texas law requiring undocumented children to pay public school tuition.

"But if they developed into a cadre of uneducated adults, that has a greater long term cost," she said.

Mennonites Still Waiting

SEMINOLE (AP)—Three years after they bought land here, hoping to fulfill their dream of a family farming community, 140 Mennonite families are still waiting for someone to tell them where they stand in this country.

The rural-oriented Mennonites came to this area of the Texas Plains from Mexico, moving families to a 6,400-acre ranch they planned to farm. Revenue from their crops were to pay off the annual $250,000 payments.

But three years, $2 million dollars and hundreds of heartaches later, the Mennonites are without land, unable to farm, unable to visit family and friends outside the United States and still unsure of their fate.

Ex-Tarzan To Replace Parks

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Former television Tarzan Ron Ely is going to succeed popular Bert Parks as emcee of the Miss America Pageant, sources say, but he won't be crooning his predecessor's trademark "There She Is" to tearful beauties.

The 42-year-old Ely, now host of "Face the Music," a syndicated TV game show, was to be named as the pageant's new master of ceremonies at a news conference today, the sources said.

five-finger discount

One out of every 12 shoppers reportedly is fighting double-digit inflation with what is sometimes called the "five-finger discount."

The National Retail Merchants Association reports that out of 500 shoppers kept under surveillance in a large metropolitan department store recently, 42 had shoplifted by the end of the day.

According to the FBI Uniform Crime Report, 615,781 persons were apprehended for shoplifting in 1977. However, department store security firms estimate that no more than one in 20 shoplifters is caught and less than half of those caught are prosecuted.

A spokesman for Americans United to Rediscover America, a voluntary organization dedicated to rediscovery of the traditional American values of honesty and integrity, thus leading to crime prevention, said shoplifting is a major contributor to rising prices.

"For every $10 theft, enough additional merchandise must be sold to pay that $10 out of profits before the normal cycle can be resumed," he said. "If a store makes 5 percent profit on that $10 item, for example, the merchandise. The additional cost is passed along to the honest customer who pays for the dishonesty of the others."

The Department of Commerce says shoplifting is one of the fastest growing crimes in the nation. Since 1972, it has increased 50 percent. Forbes magazine estimates that it's now increasing at a compound rate of 15 percent a year.

Last year, retailers lost $7.2 billion to shoplifters. But that may be just the tip of the iceberg.

The Commerce Department says crime costs Americans business more than $30 billion a year. The U.S. Chamber of Commerce, which adds white collar crime by employees and executives of businesses, puts the price tag at $40 billion yearly.

Inventory shrinkage, a polite term for stealing from one's employer, is estimated at more than $6 billion a year by the Commerce Department. For every dollar's worth of merchandise that a shoplifter grabs, a store employee will take three, according to surveys. Much of what is taken seldom gets into statistics, but even the penny ante losses total in the millions, not billions.

Thefts committed by employees, a Commerce Department report says, are behind at least 60 percent of all crime-related losses. Thirty percent of all business failures are attributable to dishonesty by employees.

It's important to keep in mind that shoplifting costs are passed on in the form of higher prices for goods. A social climate where stealing is an accepted part of life will lead to personal restrictions and inconvenience.

Americans United to Rediscover America suggests that individuals can take positive action to reduce shoplifting:

- 1. Speak out when someone talks about their great "bargain" that was stolen.
2. Teach children that shoplifting is a crime, not a game.
3. Take an active interest; tell store personnel if something suspicious is sighted.
4. If you own or manage a business, adopt codes of ethics for employees; make workers feel a real part of the business; use security equipment to take away temptation; and buy only from known vendors - unknown purveyors may be offering stolen goods.

In January of this year, I made a resolution to balance my checkbook every month when the statement comes in. In years past, I have resolved, the problem by switching banks every time I don't balance. No error was too large or too small for me to close out the account and take my business down the street. Phoenix is a big city. In the telephone directory, there are five yellow pages listing banks and three and a half pages of savings and loans. I'm down to my last two banks. Last month when I tallied up my deposits, with draws, and outstanding checks I was off 19 cents in the bank's favor, of course. I would rather be off $600 than 19 cents. When you're off $500, you can walk right into a bank with your self-respect intact, go to a teller and say, "See here, Miss Madlinger, could you possibly give me a few minutes of your time? I've clumsily misplaced $500 and was hoping your trained eye could isolate the error for me." Try that with 19 cents and they'll laugh themselves into a hernia repair. The only way you can find a 19-cent error is to devote the rest of your life to it, like the fellow who slip-covered the Grand Canyon or rode a bicycle across the United States backwards. It's a situation you either accept or fight. I chose to pick up the gauntlet. Every night after dinner for the last three weeks I have fruged to the dining room table, turned on the calculator, and gone over every figure from the beginning. For all of you bookkeeping quarterbacks, I did not: (a) Make a 7 like a 9. (b) Forget to deduct a bank charge. (c) Record a check on a breath mint and eat it. (d) Subtract instead of add a 19-cent deposit. (e) Forget I couldn't subtract nine from zero without borrowing one. (f) Record my checks in round numbers. (g) Write check for $1.76 and record it for $1.57. This morning, I knew what I had to do. I got in the car and drove to the last institution, in Phoenix that has never had an account in my name - the Godfather Savings and Loan. It's a rather unique institution. There are no wine glass preparations. The tellers are all men and have cotton stuffed in their cheeks. The entire bank is on wheels attached to a truck. But their brochure said, "No more balancing a checkbook! We tell you how much you've got!" The piece of mind is worth 19 cents. Copyright 1980 Field Enterprises, Inc.

Gardening can be fun for kids, too. With spring on its way, we turn our thoughts to outdoor activities. Many adults begin planning gardens. Many young people don't get the enjoyment of gardening because it all seems so dull. A garden of standard kitchen vegetables - onions, peas, beans, radishes, artichoke, usually means a lot of work. Too many times they only remember the weeding considered by most kids a terribly boring job. It's not easy to convince them that this kind of work "builds character."

With garden time approaching, a different type of gardening could interest the young and promote their interest in an outdoor activity. Herb gardening is different, useful in cooking, and adds a spark of enthusiasm for gardening. The younger set seems to be more interested in cooking these days, not just those involved with Girl Scouts or 4-H or other organizations dealing with the subject. So, perhaps if garden space is not available a flower bed could be dedicated to rows of favorite herbs in place of the usual perennials.

For added interest, mark the rows of planted herbs with its use, under its actual name. A row of basil could be marked "for spaghetti sauce," a clump of dill can be tagged "pickle plants," a patch of oregano can be labeled "pizza plants," a cluster of parsley named "turkey stuffing," and so on.

If possible the herb plot can be near the kitchen so the children can do the picking when an herb is needed for the cooking pot or salad bowl. Herbs such as basil which grows fast and needs picking often, can be rewarding. While waiting for the dill to produce seeds for pickle-making, they can pick the leaves to use in soups.

If supply is plentiful dill can be frozen well. The freshly picked herb can be placed in ice-cube trays to freeze by youngsters; then they can drop the frozen dill cubes into plastic bags to be stored in freezer and thawed as needed. Oregano, parsley and some other herbs can be dried. The dried seed plants can be used for cooking or stored to be used later during holiday season. Herbs wrapped in decorative containers can be given to relatives as gifts. This hobby has possibilities of lasting through the following winter. They'll be exceptionally proud of each use, because they did it themselves.

business mirror sandra balmer kidnap insurance

CHICAGO (AP) - There's big money to be made in international terrorism. And insurance companies are out to capitalize on that premise by selling kidnap and ransom insurance - or K&R insurance, as it's known in the business. International terrorism mushroomed in the politically volatile 1960s and 1970s and ransom demands have grown too easily into millions of dollars. And the K&R insurance business has burgeoned along with demand. The industry writes an estimated $55 million in premiums annually. Businessmen are prime candidates for political terrorism because their firms can and will pay huge ransom demands, said Roy Tucker, president of Risk International. The Alexandria, Va.-based computer firm compiles information on political terrorism world-wide.

American International Group, Inc., which has offered K & R coverage for eight years, also closely guards the names of its clients, but for practical reasons - kidnapers are far more likely to collect ransom money from an insured victim, and it's the insurance firm that pays, of course. Firms in this fiercely competitive industry also refuse to disclose premium rates, although representatives will discuss their services. "We can insure a corporation for any ransom demands or any extortion monies, for any type of reward which might be offered," said Claude Galleto, Midwest regional manager for American International Group. He said his coverage can also provide money for expenses for consultants who advise how to negotiate the safe return of executives and when to pay the ransom demands. Galleto said a ransom insurance of up to $20 million is probably readily available to most corporations. Ransom demands have ranged much higher than that, however. For example in 1977, political terrorists in Argentina asked $61 million in ransom when they kidnaped directors of an Argentine corporation, Galleto said.

Berry's World

No, I didn't have a tough day at the office. I'm up-tight about Jarie Fonda again.

"Those in biggest danger of being kidnaped are expatriate employees of American corporations - those who have lived in a country for two or three years," Tucker said. "They are prime targets because their habits are established and easily put under surveillance by terrorists groups." Kidnap insurance is not a new idea, but its existence has been kept quiet for a number of reasons. Some executives cite ethical reasons. "The more emphasis you place on kidnap and ransom insurance, the more you incite people to act on it," said John R. Cox, executive vice president of Insurance Company of North America.

WASHINGTON (NEA) - That monument to financial restraint and responsibility, President Carter's fiscal 1981 budget is beginning to look like it is something else again.

The administration, for example, is trumpeting the fact that overall spending is up only a "little" - 9.3 percent, which is less than the inflation rate - it would be more accurate, however, to say that overall spending is up 18.2 percent, or almost double the White House number.

It's not that Carter's puffsters are being untruthful; it is just that they are paid to ignore reality when necessary.

When the administration sent the fiscal 1980 budget to Congress last year, it estimated spending of $532 billion. When Congress passed that budget, spending was upped to $548 billion. Now, due to "in-process adjustments," the administration puts actual fiscal 1980 spending at about $564 billion - $31.8 billion more than originally estimated.

In the fiscal 1981 budget, spending is set at $616 billion. The much ballyhooed 9.3 percent less-than-inflation increase is based on final adjusted fiscal 1980 spending, meaning with the extra $31.8 billion added. Compared to the original fiscal 1980 budget, however, that comes to an 18.2 percent increase. Put another way, over the two-year period 1980 through 1981, total federal spending will be up $122 billion, or 25 percent.

Another bit of White House puffery is over the $15.8 billion deficit - one of the lowest in recent memory, we're assured, and 60 percent down from last year. Trouble is, it only can be held at that if administration estimates of tax collections and spending also hold - and both are very iffy.

Reality dictates that fiscal 1981 spending totals will far exceed current estimates (as happened last year, the year before that, etc.) If oil prices, for example, merely stand still at the current $30-a-barrel world market average, one would have to add about $5 billion just to the Defense Department's fiscal 1981 budget share. (You see, the Carter budget estimates its oil at an average of $24 a barrel.)

Most important, the fiscal 1981 budget operates on the assumption that Congress will agree to slash some $9.7 billion from such vote getters as the school lunch and child nutrition programs, not to mention a major Capitol Hill reversal on hospital cost containment. For Congress to do that in an election year would be an act of political courage not seen in the capital city since President Andrew Johnson thumbed his nose at Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton, knowing that to do so could cost him his high office (as it very nearly did).

So there seems very little point in taking Carter's fiscal 1981 spending figure seriously. Most experts, in fact, say that the actual spending will be at least $15 billion more than the current administration estimates.

As for the budget's revenue estimates, those are based on the assumption that Congress will pass modifications in the tax law that will speed up collection of certain business taxes. If that does not occur, then revenue will fall $5 billion or so below administration estimates.

Then there is a windfall profits tax. The budget estimates that $13.9 billion will come in from this tax in fiscal 1981 and that Congress will allow the administration to spend the money as it pleases.

Congress, however, has other ideas about that money. Leaders on both sides and in both houses, hungrily eyeing the ballots of November, are now talking about sending half the windfall tax money back to We the People in the form of a tax cut. If this happens - and it is likely, because common sense, not courage, is required - the administration's revenue projections could be at least $12 billion short.

If, then, spending indeed is $15 billion higher and revenue collections $12 billion lower, the fiscal 1981 deficit will be closer to $42 billion, about the same level as the current fiscal year and nowhere near $15.8 billion.

Which brings us to the matter of the new budget's much-touted look of "austerity." But we will save that for a future column.

Although South had a reasonable seven-card heart suit, his lack of high-card points should have prevented his aggressive leap to game. An invitational sequence allowing North to be declarer would have been ideal. If North-South had been playing transfer bids, South could have transferred to hearts and then invited the heart game by raising to three hearts. North, with a minimum, would sign off. But this was rubber bridge, and these players were not using the Jacoby transfer. South ducked the opening spade lead and East won the King. At the second trick East cashed the ace of diamonds and continued them. South ruffed and West dropped his king. The only problem now was the trump suit. Barring an incredible mistake by the opposition, declarer still had to lose two trump tricks to the ace and king.

South, mentally, conceded defeat, but of course at rubber bridge money was at stake. South didn't want to lose three trump tricks and go down an extra 100 points.

If declarer carelessly leads a low trump toward the 10, East will win the king of hearts and promote an extra trump trick for the defense by playing another diamond. If South ruffs low, West over-ruffs. If South ruffs high, West refuses to overtrump and will later score two trump tricks. South took a precaution against this occurrence. West's play of the diamond king at the third trick indicated East was very long in diamonds and, therefore, probably short in hearts.

Declarer crossed to dummy with a spade and led the four of hearts, losing to East's King. Because the heart 10 was still in dummy, South was able to ruff East's diamond return with a high trump without fear of later losing to that annoying nine of trump.

Sometimes down one can be good bridge. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Westerners Win Big Over Amarillo...

Badgers Battered; Cooke Follows

BAG A BADGER—Western Texas College's David Brown scores two points over the upraised arm of Amarillo's Victor Mitchell during quarter-final action of the Region V Tournament last night. WTC won the game 121-92 and will meet Cooke County tonight at 9. Also shown for Amarillo is Kevin Parker. See related article at right. (SDN STAFF PHOTO)

MIDLAND — Western Texas College's Westerners rocked Chaparral Center with a 73-point first-half display, then coasted to a semi-final berth in Region V basketball tournament action last night, skinning Amarillo's Badgers, 121-92.

The Westerners, 31-0 for the season, take on Cooke County College tonight in the late game at 9 o'clock. The other semi-final pits host Midland College against McLennan at 7. Winners of the two games will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. for the Region V championship.

Last night's Western-Badger clash was expected to be a close game all the way. In two earlier meetings, Western Texas had come away with scant seven-point wins. But Coach Nolan Richardson's bunch—who have been dreaming of a return trip to the national tournament ever since their fourth place finish last year—made sure Amarillo didn't get in the way.

The Westerners made it 8-0 before the Badgers ever got off a shot in the contest, and led 12-2 before Amarillo's scoring sensation Victor Mitchell finally got cranked up. Mitchell, who tallied 55 points here Monday night to aid the Badgers past Hill County College, put Amarillo within five in short order, 12-7.

With 15:34 left in the first half, Richardson put in a fresh battalion, and Westerner Donald Warren immediately ripped off seven points for the nation's No. 1 ranked team. It left the score at 25-12, and from that point on, the contest was never in question. The game plan was to wear the Badgers down, and it happened more quickly than most expected. Amarillo began dragging from the first few minutes on, and it left the door wide open for the Westerners.

Phil Spradling garnered 16 points in the first half to lead an effective Western Texas fast break. Bill Patterson had 11, David Brown notched 10, Franklin Bennett 9 and Freddie Davis 8 as the Snyder-based troops out-pointed Amarillo 27-8 during a five minute stretch to make it 58-20.

Mitchell, a 6-10, 245 sophomore, had 21 of the Badger's 35 points. The second-half was a repeat of the first, though Richardson played his starting unit even more sparingly. Fifteen Westerners—the entire team—say action in the contest, and a dozen managed to light the scoreboard.

Spradling's 24 points led the effort, followed by five others in double-figures. Davis had 16, Brown 14, Patterson 13, Paul Pressey 12 and Greg Stewart 10. The Westerners hit 60 percent from the field, accentuated by Spradling's 12 of 13 figure. Stewart led from the charity stripe, hitting six of six, while Bennett managed seven of eight.

Mitchell, which had broken the tournament scoring record the night before, came away with 44 points. Raymond Horton added 12 and Kevin Parker scored 11 for the Badgers.

Dusters Begin Region Competition Thursday

BIG SPRING—While Western Texas College's Westerners are in Midland searching for a fourth straight Region V championship, its women's team, the Dusters, will be here Thursday.

Different sites, but the same ultimate goal is in mind. Joe Cushing's Dusters take on Weatherford College in a quarter-final round of the women's Region V Tournament at 4 p.m. The winner plays again Friday at 8.

"Be sure and tell people that they can come by Big Spring and see our game at 4 and then go to Midland and catch the Westerners at 8," said the coach.

If Western Texas men defeat Cooke County tonight, 9 o'clock at Chaparral Center in Midland, they would advance to Thursday's 8 p.m. championship game.

It is said history repeats itself, and a good example would be the 4 p.m. Duster-Weatherford game here Thursday. But Cushing hopes his team can alter history by just a few points.

"We beat them three times in the regular season last year, and they beat us in overtime in the regional tournament," he recalled.

Like last year, WTC has already defeated Weatherford twice this season, and now must face them again.

Cooper Edges Tigers In Close Encounter, 9-8

ABILENE—Snyder's Tigers, behind 8-3 in the top of the seventh inning, tied Abilene Cooper with a five-run display here yesterday, but couldn't quite hold on as the Cougars won it in the bottom, 9-8.

Snyder, 1-1 on the season, is scheduled to play Ector High School in Odessa, 4 p.m. Thursday. Cooper jumped out to a 3-0 lead and extended it to 6-0 in the third inning before Snyder got back-to-back home runs from Tony Degrate and Toby Neves in the top of the fourth. Sam Willis socked another homer in the fifth to make it 6-3.

But Abilene retaliated with two more runs in the fifth inning for what appeared to be a comfortable five-run lead, and the victory.

Snyder however, keyed by another Willis home run and a pair of singles from Shawn Ragland and Mike Roemisch, scored five across the plate—with two outs—to tie the totals at 8-8.

Willam Robinson was tagged as the losing pitcher. He went 5 2-3 in innings while Steve Tate pitched a third. Snyder gave up 10 hits and struck out seven.

Cooper allowed 11 hits and fanned nine.

"We did pretty well," said Coach Albert Lewis. "We were hitting better, but had problems with our pitching. We're coming along, though," he added.

In a game played in Snyder yesterday, Cooper junior varsity edged the Cats 9-7. Casey Peterson

Talks Continue; Strike Probable

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Arrived with a resolution directing him to seek strike authorization if a new contract is not reached by the start of the season, Marvin Miller, executive director of baseball's Players' Association, today resumed talks with Ray Grebey, chief negotiator for management.

Miller met for nearly five hours Tuesday with the executive board of the players' association, briefing them on what he considers a lack of progress through 23 negotiating sessions over a period of 16 weeks.

"In that period of time, you should have narrowed the issues," said Miller. "Normally, it is not a difficult matter to say 'Here is where we are, can't do that at this point. There are no agreements on anything. It's almost like the first week.'"

That was the essence of his report to the union's executive board and the result was the authorization for possible strike action.

The players' board will convene another meeting April 1 in Dallas to consider further action. Miller said that if the action is ratified by the players on the 26 major league teams, but would be taken after April 1. The season is scheduled to begin April 9.

Grebeby said he had no immediate comment on the action of the players, but he disagreed with Miller's assessment of lack of progress.

"I think the bargaining sessions have been very

Myers Checks Iowa State

LUBBOCK (AP)—Texas Tech basketball Coach Gerald Myers is in Ames, Iowa, today to check out the head coaching job at Iowa State.

Iowa State Athletic Director Lou McCullough was here Feb. 26 to discuss the vacancy with Myers and the coach agreed to visit the campus. Myers has been a successful coach in the Southwest Conference the past 10 years. His record is 102-48 in the league and 175-91 overall. He holds a series edge over all other SWC members except Arkansas, where Myers is 10-11.

productive," he said, "both sides have exchanged proposals and ideas. I think there is no need for any concern at this time."

Miller said his group remains hopeful that an agreement can be worked out.

The union chief pointed to record attendance levels and television income enjoyed by baseball since the last basic agreement was signed in July, 1976.

Ali Figures He'll Return

NEW YORK (AP)—"I'm gonna shock the world." It sounds like an echo. But it was a statement made in the present that hinted at the future.

It was Muhammad Ali talking by telephone from his training camp in Deer Lake, Pa.

On Feb. 14, Ali told The Associated Press there was a 75 percent chance of his fighting again.

Tuesday, Ali said he would spend three months at his camp to get ready to try and win the heavy-weight championship of the world for the fourth time.

Today, promoter Bob Arum was to meet with Ali's manager, Jabir Muhammad (formerly Herbert Muhammad) and attorney Charles Lomax to work out a contract.

Here we go again.

Arum wants to match Ali against John Tate, the World Boxing Association champion, in late June in the New Orleans Superdome for an unnamed (dream up one and it might be too low) purse.

Of course, Arum must reach an agreement with Tate and Tate must dispatch Mike Weaver March 31, the same night Larry Holmes defends the World Boxing Council title against Leroy Jones.

All says he's not worried about Weaver or Jones upsetting his plans.

"I'm going to be a quintuple champion," said Ali, who on his first day in camp, already was looking past Tate to Holmes. The man who retired last year after becoming the first three-time heavy-weight champ by outpointing Leon Spinks Sept. 15, 1978 then explained that he would consider himself a five-time champion by beating both Tate and Holmes.

Virgins Had Misconceptions

By Abigail Van Buren
 1980 by Chicago Tribune N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column that a girl could become pregnant without going all the way. Thanks for printing it. That is what happened to me.
 Before we were married, my fiance and I had gone together for 2 1/2 years. We were very much in love, and just like the kids do today, we did a lot of hugging, kissing and cuddling, but I swear we did not go "all the way!" Nevertheless I found myself very much pregnant.
 I couldn't believe it, but the doctor explained it to me exactly how you explained it: "All that is necessary is for the sperm of the male to meet the ovum of the female, and this can be accomplished without actual penetration."
 Even though WE knew how it happened, it was hard to explain to others. We are now in our 60s, and we still kid about it, and call each other...

"DUMB BELLS"
 DEAR ABBY: I am one of those "unusual cases" of a woman being a pregnant virgin. I conceived with my hymen intact.
 When I went to the doctor, suspecting that I might be pregnant, he examined me and said I most certainly was. When it came time for me to have the baby, the doctor had to deliver me surgically. I never would have believed it, but I am living proof that a girl can become pregnant without going all the way.
 MRS. W. TORRINGTON, CONN.

DEAR ABBY: I was very happy to see the item in your column about the girl who got pregnant and had a baby though she was still a virgin. The same thing happened to me when I was 17. He married me, and we have five children, the oldest is now 18.
 People never believed me when I told them that, that is what really happened. My doctor confirmed it.
 B.P.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 39-year-old mother of four, and I was just as innocent as that 55-year-old grandmother who asked you to explain how a girl could get pregnant and still be a virgin.
 It's a shame how people can go through life half ignorant because they're too embarrassed to ask questions.
 I sent for your booklet, WHAT TEENAGERS OUGHT TO KNOW, for my two sons, 12 and 14, and they thought it was terrific. So did I. And my husband agreed with me. I never could have told them about drugs and sex the way you did.
 Thank you for having the courage to write something so straightforward and easy to understand. All parents want their kids to know how to keep from getting VD, and how to avoid getting pregnant, but nobody wants to tell them.
 The chapter on drugs and what they can do to you was great.
 I'm sorry I didn't have something like that to read when I was a teenager.
 MRS. R.J.L. IN ORLANDO, FLA.

Are there questions you can't ask your parents? Get Abby's new booklet: WHAT TEENAGERS OUGHT TO KNOW. Drugs, sex and alcohol are plainly discussed. Send $2 and a long, stamped (25 cents) self-addressed envelope to Abby, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Stacy Dam Report Due At Session

Status reports on the Stacy reservoir project will highlight a meeting of directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District at 10 a.m. March 13 at the district headquarters in Big Spring.

Arguments will be heard March 17 by Judge Herman Jones on a form of final judgment to be entered in 53rd District Court in Austin affirming the Stacy permit issued by the Texas Water Commission. Other matters related to the project, including an application for a U.S. Corps of Engineers 404 permit, and interim steps leading toward construction will be discussed by the board.

The report of O.H. Ivie, general manager, will touch upon completion of work to insure an additional 10,000,000 gallons of water being available from Lake E.V. Spence for the west end of the district system this summer. Also on tap are several routine matters, including a request from the Buffalo Trails Council of the Boy Scouts of America for a lease of land at Lake J.B. Thomas.

Israeli Farmers Storm Parliament

JERUSALEM (AP)—Police turned water cannons on thousands of irate farmers trying to storm the gates of Israel's Parliament today to protest farm policies they say are ruining Israel's small farms.

The farmers hurled dead chickens, tomatoes, eggs and snowballs at police defending the Knesset, or Parliament building in full riot gear.

A police spokesman estimated the crowd at 10,000 but the state radio said more than 20,000 turned out for one of the largest demonstrations seen outside the legislature. "It was the most violent demonstration I've ever seen," said one veteran photographer.

A police spokesman said there were no injuries, and the state radio reported only one person hurt. Police said they did not make any arrests.

A last-minute 15 percent retail price hike for milk products and frozen meat, announced late Tuesday, failed to satisfy the farmers or prevent the demonstration.

The best way to prevent human brucellosis (undulant fever) is to eradicate brucellosis in livestock. People usually get brucellosis, an occupational disease, through contact with infected animals or their carcasses. They may also get it from consuming raw milk from such animals.

With 8 Shows In Week's Top 10...

CBS Renews Challenge In Ratings

NEW YORK (AP)—After struggling for two weeks in the face of ABC's Winter Olympics coverage, CBS surged back in the week ending March 2, and renewed its challenge to the front-runner for season-long supremacy.

With eight of the week's 10 top-rated programs, CBS finished No. 1 in the prime-time ratings race by more than four ratings points over ABC, figures from the A.C. Nielsen Co. showed.

CBS finished behind both ABC and NBC the previous week, making the rebound that much more significant. It was CBS' widest winning margin over ABC this season.

For the season, ABC's edge over CBS is two-tenths of a ratings point—though there is some disagreement among the networks over the averages for that competition.

The difference in the week for CBS was the three-part miniseries, "Scruples," and the network's broadcast of the 22nd Grammy Awards program.

The week's No. 1 show was CBS' "Alice," with "60 Minutes" second, but "Scruples," based on Judith Krahtz's best-seller, was stronger each evening in its three-part run. Part III was fourth in the ratings, with Part II in 10th place and Part I ranked 16th.

CBS' ratings for the week was 22.4, to 18.3 for ABC and 17 for NBC. The networks say that means in an average prime-time minute during the week, 22.3 percent of the homes in the country with television were tuned to CBS.

The rating for "Alice" meanwhile, was 30.8. Nielsen says that means of all the TV-equipped homes in the country, 30.8 percent saw at least part of the program.

A good part of CBS' ratings strength for the week was concentrated on a single evening—Sunday night. Of the six CBS shows that night, five were in the Top 10 for the week, and the sixth, "Archie Bunker's Place," finished 13th in the ratings.

NBC and ABC each had a single show among the 10 highest-rated. NBC, "Little House on the Prairie," 28.3 or 21.6 million; "Dallas," 27.1 or 20.7 million; "The Jeffersons," 30.2 or 23 million, and "Scruples," Part III, 29.1 or 22.2 million, all CBS; "Little House on the Prairie," 28.3 or 21.6 million; NBC, "Dallas," 27.1 or 20.7 million; "One Day at a Time," 26.3 or 20.1 million, and "Trapper John, M.D.," or 19.8 million, all CBS; "Three's Company," 25.6 or 19.5 million; ABC, and "Scruples," Part II.

The week's Top 10: "Alice," with a rating of 30.8 representing 31.5 million homes, "60 Minutes,"

20.5 or 23.3 million, "The Jeffersons," 30.2 or 23 million, and "Scruples," Part III, 29.1 or 22.2 million, all CBS; "Little House on the Prairie," 28.3 or 21.6 million; NBC, "Dallas," 27.1 or 20.7 million; "One Day at a Time," 26.3 or 20.1 million, and "Trapper John, M.D.," or 19.8 million, all CBS; "Three's Company," 25.6 or 19.5 million; ABC, and "Scruples," Part II.

2nd Man Arrested In Kidnapping

MERCED, Calif. (AP)—A second suspect has been arrested on suspicion of kidnapping in the abduction of 14-year-old Steven Stayner, who for seven years lived with one of the men as his son, police said.

The Bill Bailey of the Merced Police Department identified the new suspect in the 1972 abduction as Ervin Edward Murphy, 38, a night janitor at a lodge in Yosemite National Park.

Authorities said Murphy was taken into custody at the park, and was then returned to jail in Merced, some 90 miles away, for booking.

Meanwhile, Kenneth Parnell, the quiet ex-convict once described by a psychiatrist as a "sexual psychopath," pleaded innocent Tuesday in Ukiah, about 200 miles from here, to kidnapping a 5-year-old boy, Timmy White.

Authorities here said they were preparing charges against Parnell in connection with Stayner's abduction in December 1972.

"At this time, we have nothing to tie him (Murphy) in with the White case. Needless to say, we will be pursuing this further," Bailey said.

Stayner told police someone named "Murray or Murphy" was involved in his abduction, the officer said, and police had a photograph of the suspect. Bailey and Murphy revealed during interviews with police that he had once worked with Parnell at the lodge.

Merced County District Attorney Pat Hallford said the statute of limitations on kidnappings is only three years and he was unsure if courts would permit a kidnapping trial in the Stayner case.

As a precaution, Hallford said he would file additional charges of child stealing and concealment, which he believes is a continuing offense.

Stayner lived with Parnell during a seven-year odyssey that ended Saturday night when Stayner and the White boy hitchhiked 40 miles from Parnell's dilapidated mountain shack to the Ukiah police department.

White also contended a second man took part in his kidnapping as he walked to his babysitter's house after school Feb. 14. Police said they planned to hypnotize the youth in a bid to verify his story.

No sooner had Parnell pleaded innocent Tuesday in Ukiah Justice Court to the kidnapping of White than his attorney said he would move to close a preliminary hearing and request a change of venue. "I am worried about the pretrial publicity this case has generated," Mendocino County Public Defender Scott LeStrange told a crowd of reporters outside the tiny courtroom.

LeStrange said Parnell probably could not get a fair trial in Ukiah because the boy he allegedly abducted has become "a very popular young man. Timothy White is a household word."

The preliminary hearing in the White case was set for March 13.

The German dirigible Graf Zeppelin completed a round-the-world flight in 1928.

Blood sugar rises

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB: Does sugar show up in the urine with any other illness besides diabetes and does it need any special treatment? I've had a lot of blood tests and urine tests for years but nothing has ever shown up. I test my own urine and recently it showed sugar in the urine.

Thirty-four years ago I was declared to be a diabetic and stayed on a strict diet for one year. In a week's time I became sugar free and my doctor said I never need to take insulin if I watched my diet.

Now I'm 79 years old and don't have much endurance to walk and must lie down to rest after 15 minutes of work. I take blood pressure pills and also circulation pills and aspirin to relieve arthritis. I eat Graham crackers and angel food cake occasionally.

DEAR READER: Under normal circumstances, if the blood sugar gets above the 160 to 180 range, some sugar will spill into the urine. This can happen to a person who eats a lot of sweets that are rapidly absorbed into the bloodstream. Some people will have this occur with the glucose tolerance test for blood sugar.

The spillage in the urine by itself doesn't mean that a person has diabetes. I think you should regard the urine test as a screening device.

Now that you've had a positive test, you might want to see your physician and let him examine your blood. The blood glucose tests are much more accurate in assessing whether a person has diabetes and if it is significant.

I am sending you The Health Letter number 3-11, Diabetes: Diagnosis, Prevention and Management. It will give you more information about the problem. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Some authorities feel that as you get older it's normal to have higher blood sugar readings. I'm not sure I agree with this. It may be like a lot of other changes in the body that we assume are normal because they're common as you get older. That doesn't mean they're necessarily good for you or representative of optimal health. It's common to have heart attacks but I don't think that anyone would agree that's good for you. It makes a lot of difference what you mean when you say normal.

I wouldn't get excited about doing anything until you have your doctor test you. There are some medicines that will alter the results of urine tests for diabetes. If a person is taking large amounts of vitamin C, that can also affect the test for sugar in the urine.

Other readers might want to know that you can have a negative urine sugar test and still have an abnormally high blood glucose level. This is particularly likely to happen if the kidneys are diseased and there is a change in how they filter glucose. That is another reason that the final diagnosis is usually based upon carefully done blood studies.

Astaire Reveals Matrimony Plans

NEW YORK (AP)—As in one of his movies where the dashing dancer marries the gorgeous girl, Fred Astaire says that after 26 years as a bachelor he will waltz down the aisle with jockey Robyn Smith.

The 80-year-old song and dance man and Miss Smith, 35, met in 1972 through their mutual interest in horses. At the time, she raced them and he raised them.

Astaire revealed his marriage plans in an interview with ABC-TV's Barbara Walters on Tuesday but said no date had been set.

The entertainer said the 45-year age difference between him and his betrothed "never occurs to me." He added, "I don't even think about it that way. It has nothing whatsoever to do with it."

When Astaire and Miss Smith met and became what he called "very, very good friends," they had more than a mutual interest in horses in common.

Miss Smith had studied acting before she began her successful career as a jockey in 1969.

By 1973, the 5-foot-7, 104-pound Miss Smith was dubbed the world's leading female jockey, with five triumphs in 17 win, place or show finishes.

Astaire, who was married to Phyllis Potter in

FRED ASTAIRE To waltz down aisle

1933, has two children from that marriage, Fred Jr. and Ava, a step-son Peter, and seven grandchildren. His wife died in 1954 at age 46 from lung cancer.

The ex-hooper hung up his dancing shoes in 1976, after one last duet with his good friend Gene Kelly in MGM's musical cavalcade "That's Entertainment, Part 2."

Astaire crooned romantic songs to some of Hollywood's loveliest leading ladies during his multi-decade career including Ginger Rogers, Joan Crawford, Rita Hayworth, Joan Fontaine, Audrey Hepburn, Leslie Caron and Cyd Charisse.

Oil Leader Says Oilcade Useless

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An official of the Independent Petroleum Association of America in Washington, D.C., said an oil field equipment caravan that was to leave Oklahoma today for the nation's capital to protest the windfall oil profits tax will do little or no good.

"I don't see how an equipment parade is going to turn this thing (the tax) around," said Lloyd Unsell, executive vice president of IPAA. "They're not going to do it with a brass band and drilling rigs."

His remarks were reported here by the Washington Bureau of The Daily Oklahoman.

Unsell said he saw possible similarities between the oilcade and last year's American Agricultural Movement tractorcade "that alienated more people in a shorter time than anything I've ever seen done by someone trying to influence government."

Sen. Henry Bellmon, R-Okla., who helped organize the oilmen's protest during a trip to eight cities in the Southwest last week, took issue with the pessimism of Unsell and others in the industry. He said revision of the legislation is possible and that farmers last year made a good impression at first, but stayed long.

As to Unsell's suggestion that a protest won't change legislation, Bellmon said, "Their way didn't work too well."

Sen. David Boren, D-Okla., said revision of the tax in favor of the oil industry is a long shot.
