Hostage Accused In Paternity Case, Reports Iran Newspaper

By The Associated Press
A female Iranian student was hanged by her brother, because she became pregnant by one of the Americans being held hostage at the U.S. Embassy in Tehran, the Tehran newspaper Kayhan reported today.

Moslem militants holding the hostages confirmed they were aware of the case and were "prepared to hand him (the hostage) over to the revolutionary prosecutor's office to be questioned."
The newspaper quoted the brother as saying: "The spy must be executed. I only killed my sister in order to save the honor of my family."

The militant spokesman said the American was a "military man," but neither the students nor the newspaper identified him.
In Washington, State Department officials said they were not aware of the reported incident.

It was unclear whether the alleged affair took place before or after the U.S. Embassy was seized by the militants last Nov. 4.
The newspaper identified the woman only as "A.A.," a 23-year-old language student at Tehran's teachers' college.

Her brother, identified as Abdulnaser A., a student from Baluchistan, turned himself in to police after the hanging, reported to have occurred Thursday.
Her brother was quoted as saying he had come to Tehran for the Iranian New Year holiday last week and saw that his sister was pregnant.

HERMLEIGH SCRAPBOOK—Displaying a scrapbook that records the highlights of the past year's achievements in Hermeleigh are Foster Watson, chairman of the Hermeleigh Improvement Organization and Jervia Farr, reporter. The scrapbook will be judged by a panel from the rural electric cooperatives in Texas who are sponsoring a contest that encourages communities to take on improvement projects. The panel will select towns for final judging on the basis of their scrapbooks. Carole Haynes was chairman of the scrapbook committee in Hermeleigh. (SDN Staff Photo)

History Appreciation Week Activities Begin

County residents are invited to join in paying tribute to local history during History Appreciation Week from March 30-April 5.
The observance is being sponsored by the Scurry County Historical Commission, the Junior Historians from Snyder High School and the high school history department.
A social planned for Tuesday night in the Senior Citizens Center is open to the public, and visitors may also join students from Snyder High School for tours of both local museums and historical markers around the courthouse square on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Scurry County Girl Scouts, who are marking their 50th anniversary, will join the observance with an exhibit in the Scurry County Museum opening Sunday.
The Western Texas Genealogical Society has planned a workshop in the Scurry County Library on Thursday evening starting at 6 p.m. Persons interested in beginning family research or in becoming acquainted with the reference materials available at the library are invited to attend.
A film entitled "Main Street U.S.A." is scheduled for showing several times during the week. The film stresses the adaptive use of historic buildings, a project which many communities are finding beneficial for a variety of reasons. The film will be shown at the Tuesday night social and for civic clubs. Other groups who would like to see the film may contact Mrs. Jess Everett, Historical Commission chairman.

She had told him the newspaper claimed a fetus was found in the dead woman's womb and blood tests are being carried out, apparently in an effort to determine paternity.
Kayhan printed a photograph of a woman it said was the slain student. The photo showed a woman with marks on her neck. Her head was turned away from the camera. Another photograph showed a man it identified as her brother, accompanied by police.

Weekend update

Wreck Victim

Don Bradshaw, an Anson resident, was killed in a one vehicle traffic accident early Saturday morning on the Bowden Ranch, approximately 28 miles northeast of Snyder in Kept County.
Although sketchy, reports indicate the vehicle Bradshaw was driving left the road and crashed into a gully near a rig site where he was employed. The accident was discovered about 5:30 a.m.
Funeral arrangements were pending with Lawrence Funeral Home in Anson.

More Cutbacks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Carter is preparing to announce a further cutback in Iranian diplomats in the United States and new economic restraints to try to gain the release of American hostages, administration sources say.
Ruled out, according to a senior official, is any U.S. military action or any other "belligerent" moves against Iran.
However, the official, who refused to be identified, said Friday that "the military options are not permanently excluded."

To Present Elvis Autopsy

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Shelby County prosecutors say they will present Elvis Presley's autopsy report on Monday to a special session of a grand jury investigating the rock 'n' roll star's personal physician.
Chancellor D.J. Alissandratos ordered the autopsy material turned over to the panel, which is looking into the practice of Dr. George Nichopoulos.

Volcano Spews Anew

COUGAR, Wash. (AP)—A fresh plume of volcanic ash and gas erupted from Mount St. Helens Saturday, after activity had subsided during the night. On Friday, rocks and boulders were lobbed hundreds of feet into the air and soot spewed as far as 50 miles.
Observers in a U.S. Geological Survey plane reported that a plume of volcanic ash and gas rose to an altitude of 12,000 feet for about five minutes shortly after daybreak today.
It was the first sign of activity in about seven hours from the craters and fissures near the cloud-shrouded summit.

Shah Stable After Surgery

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The deposed shah of Iran was in "stable condition and doing very well," said the American surgeon who removed his enlarged spleen at a military hospital near Cairo.
Dr. Michael DeBaKey of Houston, who performed the surgery Friday night, today told a hospital news conference he could not confirm that the spleen was cancerous, but said Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi would have died without the operation.

In Saturday Elections...

Tuesday Final Day To Cast Absentee Ballots

Tuesday is the final day to cast absentee ballots in next Saturday's local elections.
So far, absentee voting has been light, indicating moderate voting likely next Saturday when area residents will choose new school board members, college board regents and members of the Snyder city council.
In the city of Snyder election, Milton Ham is unopposed for mayor. However, there are three contested races for city council.
For Place two, H.D. Hines will challenge incumbent councilman Bryce Booker. For Place 4, Donald P. Gressett and Donald Osborn are running for the vacated seat.
For Place 6 on the council, Charles Anderson and Jerry Webb are seeking that seat.
In the Snyder School board election, there are two contested and one uncontested race. Michael Reed is the lone candidate for Place 3. For Place 4, incumbent Jerry Rice is being challenged by Larry Bills. For Place 5, Jan McCathern and G.A. Parks Jr. are on the ballot.
The Snyder Junior College district has three places up for grabs, but only the incumbents are on the ballot. Seeking reelection are Wacil McNair, Howard Sterling and Dr. Robert Hargroves.
Voting also will be held Saturday in Ira and Hermeleigh school board elections.
At Ira, five persons are seeking two seats on the board. Candidates are Donald Ray Crowder, Floyd (Bud) House, Travis Wayne Withers, Travis R. Brown and Leland H. McCarty.
Two vacancies are on the Hermeleigh school board, but only two candidates are listed on the ballot. They are Jack West and Donald Tate.

Panel Against Employee Cut

AUSTIN (AP)—A House study committee wants Texas legislative leaders to take a strong stand against Gov. Bill Clements' State employee reduction program.
"This climate has turned worker against worker and created an atmosphere of fear," Rep. Mary Jane Bode, D-Austin, told a news conference Wednesday.
West Texas: Partly cloudy with cool nights and mild days. Chance of rain or snow north and rain south Tuesday and Wednesday. Lows mid 20s north to mid 40s extreme south. Highs upper 40s north to low 70s Big Bend.

In Bid To Win Contest... Improvement Projects Keep Hermeleigh Busy

by John Dunnam
HERMLEIGH—This community has been busy since this time last year. A new water well has been drilled, street signs constructed and erected and a map of the townsite and area has been drawn, printed and is now being distributed. And there have been people projects too. A cardio pulmonary resuscitation class was organized. During the Christmas season there was caroling and food sacks for the elderly and shut ins of the community. The youth of Hermeleigh raised over $1,000 for the American Heart Association.

against rabies. A rodent control program. There was also a massive cleanup day held to clear off vacant lots and haul away trash and eyesores. The Hermeleigh Boy and Cub Scouts were drafted into this mission and performed admirably, said Mrs. Farr. Streets were named in the area. This along with the maps and street signs, will aid emergency vehicles when they are dispatched into the area. To pay for many of these projects it was necessary to raise money. Thus, bake sales, rummage sales, and bazaars were held. Funds were also raised to defray the medical expenses of the seriously ill in the community. Timing means a lot. A week ago, a sudden and timely change of wind directions resulted in a much better crop forecast than had been expected from the annual Taba'na Yuan'e rites at Posk. In this annual ceremony, which is conducted at sunrise, Frank (Chief) Runkles does an Indian dance, stopping just as the first sun rays become visible to kneel before a fire and point in the direction the wind is blowing from. The wind's direction at this precise moment is the basis for a crop forecast that is said to be amazingly accurate over the years.
This time, the wind had been blowing steadily from the south, which would have meant a "poor" crop for this year, based on the traditional ceremonial formula. But just about the time the sun was making its presence known this time, the wind moved over to the southwest, which, according to the legend, means a "fair" crop year.
It must have been one of the most dramatic situations to occur during the annual event in the Garza County capital. ★ ★ ★
Usually good timing is developed by making advance preparation. It doesn't help if opportunity knocks, unless you are prepared to open the door. And the reverse is true—you can avoid some unpleasant situations if you prepare to head them off at the pass. Like the story of the woman who always kept her coat draped across a chair in her living room.
"It's for unexpected visitors," she explained. "When someone I don't care to see drops in, I point to my coat and say, 'What a shame, I'm just on my way out.' But if it's someone I enjoy seeing, I can say, 'How lucky, I got home just in time.' ★ ★ ★
Don't be surprised if you look out these days and discover that your Dumpster container has changed positions. The containerized garbage collection service here grew rapidly after it started several years ago and has been firmly established almost from the beginning. Recently, city officials decided to make a study of the system with a view toward economy and energy conservation. They found some complications and some places where locations of containers could be changed and reduce the mileage for the trucks significantly.
The full impact has not been determined, but some "ball park" estimates indicate that the reshuffle could save in the neighborhood of $25,000 per year. ★ ★ ★

Summer Holiday Set For Senior Citizens

The Senior Citizens Center will sponsor a summer holiday to Durango, Colo., from July 28-Aug. 2. Gloria Shaw, director, has announced.

Senior Citizens who would like to make the tour must make reservations by April 14. The cost will be $210, which includes transportation, motel accommodations, side trips and two special meals. Costs of other meals and personal items will be paid by each person. Half the $210 cost must be paid when the reservation is made. Reservations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

The group will travel in vans, leaving Snyder at 8 a.m. on July 28. They will spend the night in Santa Fe, N.M., and plan to arrive in Durango about 1 p.m. on July 29. A barbecue at the Bar D Barbecue guest ranch that evening will highlight the day's activities.

On the following day, the group will ride the narrow gage railroad to Silverton, then see melodrama at the Diamond Circle Theatre in the Strater House in the evening. Thursday will feature a tour of Mesa Verde and the Durango Kids Dinner Show. Leaving Durango on Friday, the Senior group will have lunch in Montrose, visit Salida and Canon City, see the Royal Gorge Bridge, and spend the night in Pueblo. The final night will be spent in Amarillo, with the travelers' to arrive back in Snyder about 7 p.m. on Aug. 2.

Brochures about the trip are available in the Center for Senior Citizens who would like further details.

Broadcast, Power Outage Cause Panic

PORT ALBERNI, British Columbia (AP)—A realistic radio documentary about a 1964 tidal wave combined with a power outage to frighten many residents of this Vancouver Island town, officials said.

"One man left work to get to his family," after hearing the Friday evening broadcast, said Wayne Moore, an announcer for radio station CJAV. "One man tried to charter a plane."

The station was broadcasting a documentary on a tidal wave that hit 16 years ago. The program began with a simulated news report on the approach of a wall of water, and at that instant a failure at a local power substation blacked out the Alberni Valley. Power was restored five minutes later, but by that time a lot of people were jittery.

"I know that MacMillan Bloedel (a pulp company) was making plans to evacuate," said Mike Kindratsky, an auxiliary constable of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Moore said company employees began moving trucks to higher ground.

Officials said they didn't know whether anyone actually left town after hearing the tidal-wave report. CJAV employees said the 35-minute documentary was promoted in advance, although it appeared some people had not heard about it. Moore said the station switchboard "was lit up solid for about 15 minutes."

After power was restored, CJAV began the program again from the beginning. However, 10 minutes later it was forced to interrupt the show again to offer reassurance that there was no tidal wave and that the program was a dramatization.

Train Engine Fire Doused

Snyder firefighters were dispatched early Saturday morning to extinguish a fire in a Santa Fe train engine.

The fire, reported at 4 a.m., occurred about 15 miles north of Snyder along Highway 84.

Scuba Class

Set April 7

Scuba Diving will be offered as a Community Services course at Western Texas College in a series of seven lessons beginning April 7.

Classes will meet from 6:10 p.m. April 7-9 and April 14-17 in the indoor pool at WTC. An open water checkout is planned April 19-20 at Possum Kingdom Lake.

Fees will be $80 per person and students will need to furnish their own fins, snorkel, mask and scuba gear. The instructor, Jerry Bell, will provide tanks and oxygen.

Persons wishing to enroll in the course are to call Lee Burke, physical-education director, or the Community Services office at 573-8511.

Special Musical Drama Presented

"Acts" a musical drama by Beryl Red and Ragan Courtney will be presented Sunday and Monday evening by a group of Youth and Young Adults of First Baptist Church.

"Acts" tells the story of some of the experiences of the early-day Christians, their struggle and their victories, says Jerry Neill music director at First Baptist.

"The play begins with the Christians gathering for worship in secret to avoid persecution. To capture this effect, the entire stage area of the church has been transformed into a huge cave, or catacomb. Each of the almost 50 cast members will be dressed in full Biblical costume. The music is both exhilarating and exciting," he says.

The drama cast includes: Bobby Wells, as Peter; Ross Sawcum, as Luke; Gary Miller, as Paul; and Toby Black, as Sitas. Also, Kay Hooper, as Lydia; Barbara Perkins, as Helena; Randy Perkins, as Ananias; and Bart Haley, as the jailer. The entire production is under the direction of Neill.

The first performance of "Acts" will be tonight (Sunday) at 7 p.m. in the auditorium of First Baptist. A special community performance is planned for Monday night, at 7:30 in the auditorium. There is no charge for either performance, and everyone is invited to attend, said Neill. Nursery will be provided for both performances.

CHARLES SCHULTZE, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, warns that the 1980 inflation rate will remain in double digits despite the administration's recently announced plans to cut federal spending, tighten consumer credit and curb gasoline consumption. Prices can be expected to rise 11.75 percent to 12 percent this year, predicts Schultze.

ACS CRUSADERS-Mrs. Howard Sterling (standing) and Mrs. Herbert Reed, leaders in the local American Cancer Society crusade, invite the public to a meeting Monday to see a film on Interferon, the new cancer fighting drug. ACS Crusade Meeting Set

A kickoff meeting for the local American Cancer Society Crusade has been set for 2 p.m. Monday in the Snyder Savings and Loan Community Room. A special film on the new cancer-fighting drug, interferon, will be shown and crusaders' packets will be distributed to those participating in this year's crusade.

"Everyone interested in working with the Cancer Crusade is invited to attend," said Mrs. Howard Sterling, Scurry County Crusade Chairman for the society, along with Mrs. Herbert Reed, special gifts chairman.

"Many people still think that American Cancer Society volunteers' only ring doorbells to raise money for research. One of the least understood of our functions is education. Our pamphlets are not just frosting on the cake. They are important tools that save lives," stressed Mrs. Reed.

"Many volunteers are former cancer patients themselves who help effectively because they know what it is like to have the disease," Mrs. Sterling commented.

"The American Cancer Society is an organization where participation really counts."

The placement of the wedding band originated in the belief that the vein in the third finger of the left hand went directly to the heart.

Senior Citizens Show Off Bonnets

Easter bonnets took the spotlight in the Senior Citizens Center Friday in the annual Easter Bonnet Contest. The highly original creations were modeled by their designers, Marie Bratten, Ellen Burney, Stella White, Emma Huffman, Mildred Lewis, Ermelinda Gaona, Louise Vaughan, Bessie Newcome, June Deen, Frances Martin, Jessie Pryor, and Myrtle Mae Gibbons. Kathleen Glover and Aline Parks, contest judges, selected Mrs. Deen's grass-covered entry first place winner and gave Honorable Mention to Mrs. Gaona for a novel headpiece of calico and straw. An Easter egg hunt preceded the contest, with prize eggs found by Prentice Glass, Mrs. Deen, Lillie Archie, Margaret Nichols and Jimmy Gifford. Special Easter programs are planned in the Center on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Center will be closed Thursday and Friday for an Easter holiday. Gloria Shaw, director, has announced.

Floral Design Course Set

A popular Community Services course in Floral Design will be offered again at Western Texas College in evening classes meeting from April 14-May 19. Classes will meet from 6:30-9:30 p.m. on Mondays with Sue Travis as instructor. A minimum of 12 persons will be required to form the class and fees will be $25 per person. Students will also furnish their own supplies, and will work on arrangements, corsages, etc., which they will keep. Materials to be used will include silk and other artificial flowers as well as cut flowers. Reservations for the class are to be made by calling the Community Services office at 573-8511, extension 240.

With Up To 2 Feet Of Snow...

Storm Hits Plains States

By The Associated Press
As a storm dumped up to 2 feet of snow on parts of Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas and Iowa, ranchers struggled through drifts to save new-born calves and hundreds of motorists were stranded when dozens of highways closed.

In Colorado, a husband, wife and their 4-year-old son died when their car got stuck in deep snow at a Union Pacific crossing and was hit by a coal train. In the South, thunderstorms caused flooding that forced about 100 families from their homes in southern Mississippi. In northeast Alabama, 70 mph winds toppled trees and utility poles. A tornado hit two trailers and a house in the Florida Panhandle but caused no injuries.

The storm, which was reported moving east Friday night, hit central Nebraska in the midst of the calving season, and agricultural officials said thousands of calves could die if they were not brought to shelter and dried off.

"I'll be up all night bringing calves in," said Leonard C. Beel Jr., whose ranch is some 35 miles southwest of Valentine.

Five years ago on Friday, a spring blizzard killed some 56,000 calves, causing about $4 million in losses to cattlemen.

"This storm's been a brewin' for four or five days, and we've been getting ready for it," said Sutherland rancher William "Stew" Coker, 72. "I was out in my hip boots all day bringing them in. It was hard to get through with a tractor."

The heavy snow began Thursday in Nebraska, closing roads and schools and halting mail delivery in the western two-thirds of the state.

There were reports of 24 inches of snow in Ogallala, 18 in Mullen, 14 in North Platte and a foot in Valentine, with drifts up to 5 feet.

Interstate 80 was closed for 125 miles from North Platte to Sidney. Some stretches of U.S. highways 26 and 30 in western Nebraska also were closed.

In Colorado, snow whipped by winds left 4-foot to 8-foot drifts, closing 10 highways, delaying plane flights and stranding more than 200 motorists.

Julesburg police said a Brush family, Ronald and Sharon Waguestack and their child, were killed when a train rammed their stuck car Friday afternoon. Another car got stuck at the same crossing on Colorado 385 late Friday, but the occupants fled before a train struck the auto.

The snowstorm caused four-hour delays Friday for flights at Denver's Stapleton International Airport.

Flint's Eagle Back In Coop

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—The eagle is back and a Flint Fire Department official says steps will be taken to see it never flies the coop again.

The eagle, which had perched on a pedestal above the door of a fire station for 67 years, disappeared six months ago.

When an article about the eagle appeared in a newspaper recently, however, the police department received a call from a man. The man said the eagle had apparently been blown off the pedestal. He found it in the street, he said, and picked it up and took it home. The eagle, made of wood and coated with tin, is believed to be worth $5,000.

After winning his grand slam of golf in 1930, the U.S. and British Opens and the U.S. and British Amateur tournaments, Bobby Jones retired from formal competition at the age of 28.

Boosters Pick Officers, Discuss Season Success

Western Texas College Booster Club members elected a new president and savored memories of a National Junior College Basketball championship at a dinner meeting Friday night in the WTC Cafeteria.

Mal Donelson was elected 1980-81 president of the club, and Dr. Jim Tully was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Other officers for the coming year will be elected at a later meeting.

Donelson succeeds Judge Wayland G. Holt as president.

Plans were discussed for events to honor athletes with special recognition for both the men's and women's basketball teams suggested. Dr. Robert L. Clinton, WTC president, advised that the college's all-sports banquet is set for April 15 and that Booster Club members and other fans are invited to participate.

"If necessary we will move it to the coliseum," Dr. Clinton said when the question of adequate space was raised.

After some discussion, it was decided that the club would provide suitable awards for Coach Nolan Richardson and Mrs. Richardson at the banquet, all booster club members and other fans are being urged to contribute to the award fund. Money may be turned in to Dr. Tully or to Mrs. Joe Cushing.

George Gang, food service manager at WTC, proposed that a special dinner be held honoring members of the women's basketball team, which went to the regional tournament and set a number of school records during the past season. This proposal was referred to the executive board.

Dr. Tully reported that the Booster Club also had its best year ever financially. The organization began the year with $128,74 on hand. Receipts for the year, including the small carry-over from last year, totaled $14,717.74. Expenditures for scholarships amounted to $9,710.80 and other club expenses totaled $2,586.64 leaving a balance of $2,520.30.

McLennan won both divisions with a par 288. Western Texas' 301 was second in the junior college bracket, followed by Midland with a 302, Paris with a 304, Grayson with a 305, San Jacinto with a 306, Wharton with a 307 and Weatherford with a 308. Fourteen schools entered the division.

Host Sam Houston State University led among the larger schools, though the Bearcats' 219 was three strokes off the pace set by McLennan. In overall standings, Western Texas was third, followed by Midland College, Stephen F. Austin (303) and Sam Houston No. 2 (303). Twenty-seven schools entered the tournament.

Other Western Texas College players' scores were an 80 by sophomore Scott Barrett, and an 85 by freshman Richard White. The four low scores from each five-man team were used for the final tally.

The Sam Houston Intercollegiate completes the non-conference scheduled for Coach Bob O'Day's Westerners. Western Texas will begin its spring schedule of Western Junior College Athletic Conference tournaments April 11 at Hobbs, N.M.

At SHSU Intercollegiate Meet... WTC Golfers Second

ELKINS LAKE--Western Texas College carded a 301 to take second place in the junior college division and finish third overall at the rain-shortened Sam Houston Intercollegiate University Golf Tournament held here Friday.

The Westerners, who open conference play April 11, were led by sophomore Ken Lawrence, who fired a one-over par 73 to place fifth among 70 golfers competing in the junior college division. Golf mates Chris Johnson and Jeff Wagner, both freshmen, turned in a 74 each, finishing sixth in the bracket. Greg Aune, from the champion McLennan Community College (Waco) was medalist in both the junior college and university divisions with a 70, two-under par.

The tournament, played at Elkins Lake Country Club near Huntsville, was scheduled for 36 holes - 18 Thursday and Friday. Two-inch rains Thursday prevented first-round competition and the tournament was trimmed to 18 holes, all on Friday. Friday's weather conditions were good through the course was wet from six inches of rain since the Saturday before.

Snyder High School varsity baseball team begins the District 3-AAA season here Tuesday, taking on Lamesa at 4:30.

The Tigers have won the conference for the past three years under Coach Albert Lewis and were bi-district champions last season.

This year's district race may be the most competitive in recent seasons. Lamesa and Brownfield, the only other schools with teams playing baseball, promise to give the Tigers a run for the crown.

Snyder, 4-16 on the season, has been blessed with good fielding and hitting, but lacks experience in the pitching department. In most of their losses, the Tigers took leads, but were unable to hang on. Big Spring illustrated the point well this past week, defeating Snyder 14-13 in a slugfest which had 32 hits, including five home runs, two triples and three doubles. The Tigers led late in the game but Big Spring came up with a pair of seventh-inning runs to fake the victory. Snyder went through five pitchers in the losing effort.

The Tigers, who have lost four games this season by a single point, averages 5.07 runs a game to their opponent's 6.5. Ironically, Snyder averages 7.4 hits a game, while giving up 6.6. Unfortunately, its opponents have managed the hits when it counted.

"Entering district play could help us, because it will mean we will be playing only two games a week," said Lewis. "This will give our pitchers time to rest between games."

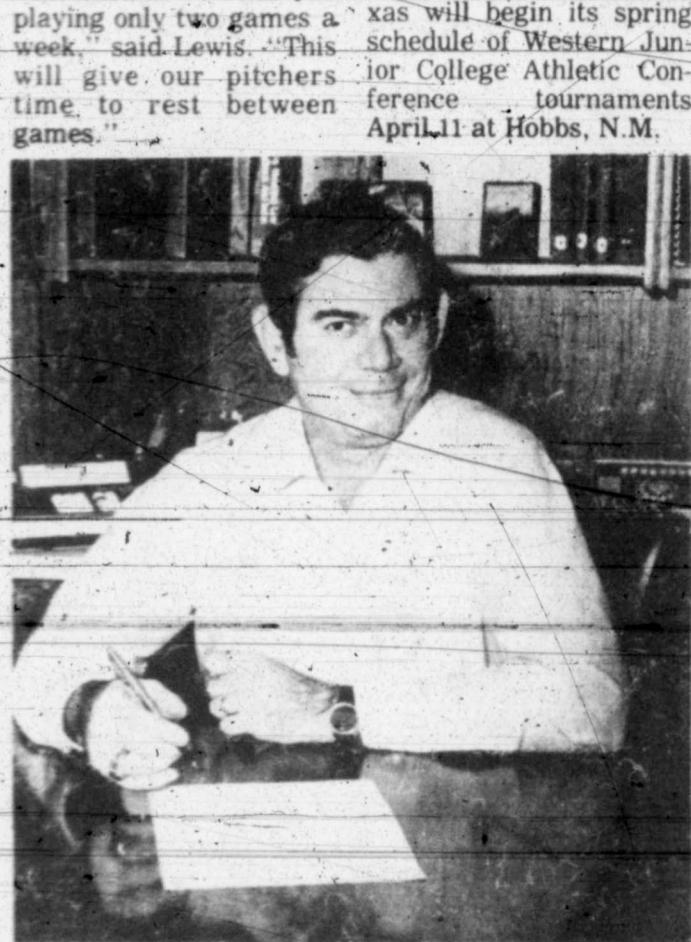

SEMINOLE-Host Seminole nipped Snyder's Little Dribbler All-Stars 36-34 in first-round practice tournament play here Friday.

Snyder was to continue tournament action at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, taking on Seagraves.

The meet serves as a warm up to the April regional Little Dribblers tournament. Other teams here represent Kermit, and Hobbs N.M. among other area cities.

Ray McDonald's 14 points led the Snyder Stars. Mike McWilliams and Don Osborn had seven points each.

PROCLAIMS APPRECIATION-Mayor John A. Fagin signed a proclamation naming March 31 through April 6 as Appreciation Week in behalf of the residents of Mineola, Meade and Plains, Kan. who provided shelter, food and peace of mind for a number of Western Texas College players, officials and fans snow-stranded in their communities last Sunday.

Staubach Clowns; Serious Decision Promised Monday

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
 AP Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP)-The voice on the other end of the telephone was muffled in a heavy foreign accent. Secretary Jerri Mote strained to hear the caller to the offices of the Dallas Cowboys.

"Es Roger Staubach going to play threes year?" the caller demanded.

"Mr. Staubach is supposed to make an announcement Monday," Mote replied.

"Eye gonna cancel my season teekets if Roger Staubach no play for the Cowboys," the voice threatened.

"Sir, we just don't know," Mote said.

With that the caller broke into laughter and said "Mote, you're so dumb. Don't you know me by now?"

The practical joker, of course, was Roger Staubach, who will announce Monday whether he retires after 11 years in the National Football League.

Staubach is milking the suspense to the last minute. "Roger is kind of enjoying the buildup" to Monday's 11:30 p.m. press conference at Texas Stadium, said (see Staubach, page 7A)

It's nervous time for Dick Motta.

"Tonight was like the sixth game of the playoffs, when you're trailing 3-2," said Baltimore Coach Dick Motta after a 100-80 victory over the Atlanta Hawks Friday night. "Now it's on to the seventh game - do or die."

tripped San Antonio 127-122, New Jersey whipped Philadelphia 99-92, Kansas City edged Milwaukee 116-114, Seattle defeated Golden State 108-82, Los Angeles walloped San Diego 126-88 and Phoenix stopped Portland 114-110.

Elvin Hayes scored 29 points, grabbed 16 rebounds and blocked eight shots to pace Washington's conquest of Atlanta. Kevin Grevey, who scored 24 points, made three three-point baskets in the first quarter to give the Bullets a lead they never lost as they beat the Hawks for the third straight time at the Capital Centre.

Celtics 130, Cavaliers 122

Larry Bird scored 33 points and Rick Robey added 25 as Boston beat Cleveland. The victory insured the Celtics of the best record in the league (61-20) and gave them a first-round bye in the playoffs. Boston survived a fourth-quarter scare by the Cavs to earn the victory.

Holmes Begins To 'Grow Up'

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Larry Holmes wants it to be known he doesn't have a stamina problem. But the World Boxing Council heavyweight champion admits he did have a motivation problem.

Holmes defends the title Monday against hulking Leroy Jones. It will be his sixth defense, and he has not been particularly sharp in the last three, although he won them all by knockout.

The 30-year-old Holmes wilted against Mike Weaver and had to reach back to win in the 12th round. He appeared very tired against Earnie Shavers and he seemed dull against Lorenzo Zanon, who wasn't much of a challenger.

Leonard will defend the WBC welterweight title against Dave "Boy" Green at Landover, Md.

GETTING SOME PRACTICE — Snyder's All Star Little Dribblers team traveled to Seminole over the weekend for a warm up meet before the regional tournament set for April 16-17-18 in Kermit.

Doug Todd, the Cowboys' public relations director.

As of mid-week, Staubach hadn't cleaned out his locker at the Cowboys' practice field on Forest Lane. Dozens of shoes were in there along with a windbreaker. A shelf held a prize supply of a Staubach staple, peppermint sticks.

"Roger has told me he was going to retire for the last three years," said fullback Robert Newhouse. "He told me again the other day he is going to retire. I will say this is the first time he has ever called a press conference."

"I'd say 90 per cent of the players believe he is going to retire. But he could still change his mind - that's just the way he is."

Staubach was knocked unconscious five times last year - one such a stunning blow that his legs were momentarily paralyzed. He underwent a series of tests recently from a number of specialists in New York City and Dallas. Staubach has joked that the tests proved he was capable of calling his own plays, a luxury never allowed by Coach Tom Landry.

Should the 38-year-old Staubach retire the Cowboys would be in good shape at quarterback with Danny White and Glenn Carano.

"We'll miss his leadership," said Newhouse. "We always knew Roger would find some way to win."

Should Staubach retire his storied career will close with two ironies.

He never made All-Pro although he was a Super Bowl MVP, played in four Pro Bowls, and led the Cowboys to two Super Bowl championships.

He completed his last pass to an offensive guard.

A reporter said it looked like Holmes' legs were gone in the Shavers bout last Sept. 28.

"If I didn't have my legs, I wouldn't have gotten up," said Holmes, who was knocked down in the seventh round by a smashing right to the head.

He said one reason he might appear that he fades in later rounds of fights is "because I average 80-90 punches a round. I go out to fight."

He also said that he had been trying "to change for some people. They said I couldn't punch, so I tried to show them I could instead of setting a guy up."

"I think I lost my desire to fight at one point," he said again. "But now I feel good again."

The Holmes-Jones fight at Caesars Palace is one of four title fights that will be televised live by ABC from 7 p.m. to midnight. In the other three Weaver will challenge John Tate for the World Boxing Association heavyweight title and Marvin Johnson will defend the WBA light heavyweight title against Eddie Gregory in Knoxville, Tenn., and Sugar Ray

HEALTH TIP from DEAN

Studies have found a 28 percent lower heart attack rate among men living at 7000' ft. (mountain) altitudes than at 3000 or 4000 ft. altitudes. In thin mountain air, any exercise, even routine activity, involves greater effort than at lower altitudes. The study confirms a belief among many physicians that regular exercise is an essential factor in preventing heart-attack deaths.

Only Marked Cars To Pull Over Motorists

AUSTIN. (AP)—Rest assured Rita Clements: your women friends who drive along on Texas highways do not have to quickly decide if that unmarked car trying to pull them over is a Department of Public Safety vehicle. It probably is not a state police car, DPS Col. Jim Adams, assured the First Lady on Friday.

Mrs. Clements told Adams some of her widowed and divorced friends are concerned with the DPS new unmarked car program aimed at curbing speeding. The governor's wife said her friends wanted to know how to identify the unmarked cars. Adams said it should not be necessary to pick out the calandestine DPS vehicles. The unmarked cars are used to house the radar. Adams told Mrs. Clements, but the speeding vehicles are stopped by marked DPS units.

"Everything possible is being done to insure they will not be stopped by someone else," Adams, told reporters after chatting with Mrs. Clements in the governor's reception room.

The DPS chief said there are rare cases when unmarked cars must make the stops, but that is mostly limited to trucks barreling along well above the 55 mph limit.

Texans continue to be the nation's worse offenders of the national speed limit, according to Adams. He said the unmarked car program has been effective. The truckers' citizens band radio network is abuzz with word of the "unmarked Smokies," he said.

"Texans have a history of driving fast and have had good roads to drive on," he said.

"The reports I'm getting show we're stopping a large number of trucks," he said. "And out in West Texas the major advised me we pulled over three cars doing over 90 miles per hour."

An old Thunderbird nestled on the side of a highway near Austin picked off 50 speeders in a recent two-hour period, he said.

"The DPS boss said radar detectors have not negated the value of the radar used for speed detection. We can work around it," he said. "I'd like to see it outlawed."

Adams said he anticipated no major effort to ban radar detectors during the 1981 Legislature. A similar effort failed in the 1979 Legislature.

Two Pedestrian Accidents Here

Two minor car-pedestrian accidents occurred here Friday afternoon.

In the first, which occurred at 1:40 p.m. near Snyder National Bank on 25th St., Eugenia Victoria Henderson, 71, of Rt. 2, Hermleigh, was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital. Late Saturday morning she was listed in good condition with an arm injury.

The mishap involved a vehicle driven by Waymon Holmes of Snyder. Investigating policemen were Sgt. Bill Wright and Don Whittenburg.

In the second mishap, 5-year-old Locadio Luera Jr. was taken to Cogdell where he was treated and released. That accident occurred about 6:20 p.m. in the 1300 block of College Ave.

Driver of the vehicle involved in the mishap was Jack Clark of Stamford. The accident was investigated by Don Whittenburg.

One other accident was also worked. It involved a 1972 Chevrolet driven by Sanjuanita Boulware and a 1975 AMC driven by Leona Holloway.

The accident was at 6:55 a.m. Friday at the Northern Electric plant. It was worked by Kerry Fritz.

Rebels Continue Fighting Soviets

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Fierce anti-Russian rebel activity, including bloody ambushes and the burning of government buildings, has been reported in Afghanistan's northern Kunduz Province, which borders the Soviet Union.

The violence in the countryside, described Friday in a report from a Kabul source that has proved reliable in the past, contrasted to the tense quiet in the Afghan capital itself. The Soviet troops and tanks who entered Afghanistan in late December have tried to seal Kabul off from the rest of the country following a week of anti-Soviet protests in the capital last month that left hundreds of persons dead.

No independent confirmation was possible for the report of intense rebel activity in Kunduz Province and its capital, Kunduz City—135 miles north of Kabul and 37 miles south of the Soviet border. According to the report reaching New Delhi, 6,000 or 7,000 insurgents virtually took control of Kunduz City after setting fire to several schools, government offices, textile mills and vegetable oil presses on March 19. Two days earlier, the report said, the rebels freed 450 male and 64 female prisoners and burned down their jails.

Rebel sources estimated that 30 Soviets were killed and about a dozen were missing and more than 200 Afghan soldiers and policemen Kunduz and Baghlan, the capital of Baghlan Province, 40 miles to the south. There was no word of rebel losses.

HISTORY

(Continued From Page 1) Education at North Texas State University, and Glenda Morgan, field consultant for the Texas Historical Commission, will present workshops for public school teachers during an in-service program on April 3 and 4.

"We welcome everyone to join in History Appreciation Week," Mrs. Everett stressed. Mrs. B.J. Bartels and Peggy English are serving as co-chairmen of the observance and additional details about the activities may be obtained from them or Mrs. Everett or other members of the History Appreciation committee, Jimmy Fancher, DreW Bullard, Aline Parks, Dubb Tubb, Margaret Drum, Sharon Sutton and Mickey Nunley.

The week has been dedicated to the late Mrs. Wayne Boren, a long-time member of the county Historical Commission. A memorial fund in Mrs. Boren's honor has been started by the Historical Commission. Mrs. Boren received recognition on numerous occasions for her leadership in the work of the local organization.

MIR AND MRS. DAVID JONES

Couple Repeats Vows In Granbury Church

Melody Jackson became the bride in David Jones' second wedding ceremony, officiated by Rev. James L. Emley in the First United Methodist Church of Granbury, on Feb. 24.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jackson of Tyler. The groom, also of Tyler, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Gibson of Granbury and the late Dr. Frank Jones.

The vows were repeated before an altar framed with an ornate candelabra complemented by a bouquet of blue iris, miniature daisies, baby's breath and Scotchbroom.

David Ray was the organist and Mrs. Gibson, sister of the groom, sang a solo arrangement of the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride's gown was designed of candlelight quana with Italian beaded lace accents. The finger tipped veil was accented with the same lace and embroidered with pearls. Her colonial bouquet had a lace backing to complement blue iris, miniature white carnations and tea-timed baby's breath tied with lace streamers.

Melody Jackson of College Station, sister of the bride, served as the maid of honor, and Dianna Brown of Dallas was the bridesmaid.

The bride's attendants wore ice blue polyester crepe dresses designed with a cape effect and carried a darker blue iris with ice blue streamers and baby's breath.

Danny Jones of Granbury was best man and Dr. David Gibson, also of Granbury, served as groomsmen. Jamey Williams of Austin, Kerry Milay of Tyler and Donnie Brown of Granbury were the ushers.

The groom's mother wore an ivory quana dress with pettipoint lace border and long tapered sleeves and was highlighted by a blue and her bridal colors.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of John Tyler High School, Tyler, and is a 1979 graduate of Texas Eastern School of Nursing, Tyler. She is a registered nurse employed by Mother Frances Hospital, Tyler.

The bridegroom is a 1975 graduate of Granbury High School, Granbury. He attended Tyler Jr. College and Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacadoches. He is presently employed by Hoses Construction Co., Tyler.

They are making their home at Route 8, Tyler. The groom is the grandson of Mrs. Dan Gibson, Claremont Route.

At the reception following the ceremony Penny Moore of Granbury and the maid of honor, Mrs. Jackson, served. The bride's table was covered with candlelight crepe with light blue overlay. The cake was framed by a large brass tray and covered with flowers highlighted by white doves and blue birds. A centerpiece of white majestic daisies and blue iris completed the table decorations.

As her going away suit the bride chose an ensemble of blue and white.

TEN IMPORTANT THINGS IN MARRIAGE
Incorporate these ten important values into your marriage to enrich that relationship.

LOVE
Love, defined as caring, intimacy, loyalty and trust during good times and bad, heads the list. Love means the simple things: really liking each other as well as romance and passion.

LAUGHTER
Marriage partners may have to learn when and how to laugh, but it is the funny things about situations which ease the way from crisis to crisis.

TALK
Be interesting—the key to interesting conversation is a willingness to communicate. Don't be afraid to reveal your true feelings.

INVOLVEMENT
Share involvement by working together on projects outside the home—this will help make time at home together more special.

FRIENDSHIPS
Have friends, space, privacy, interests and hobbies of your own.

Also, have friends you enjoy together.

INTEGRITY
Live the life that is right for both of you. Don't change it because someone thinks you should.

TOLERANCE
Be accepting. Everyone is entitled to a little craziness, tiredness, forgetfulness and error.

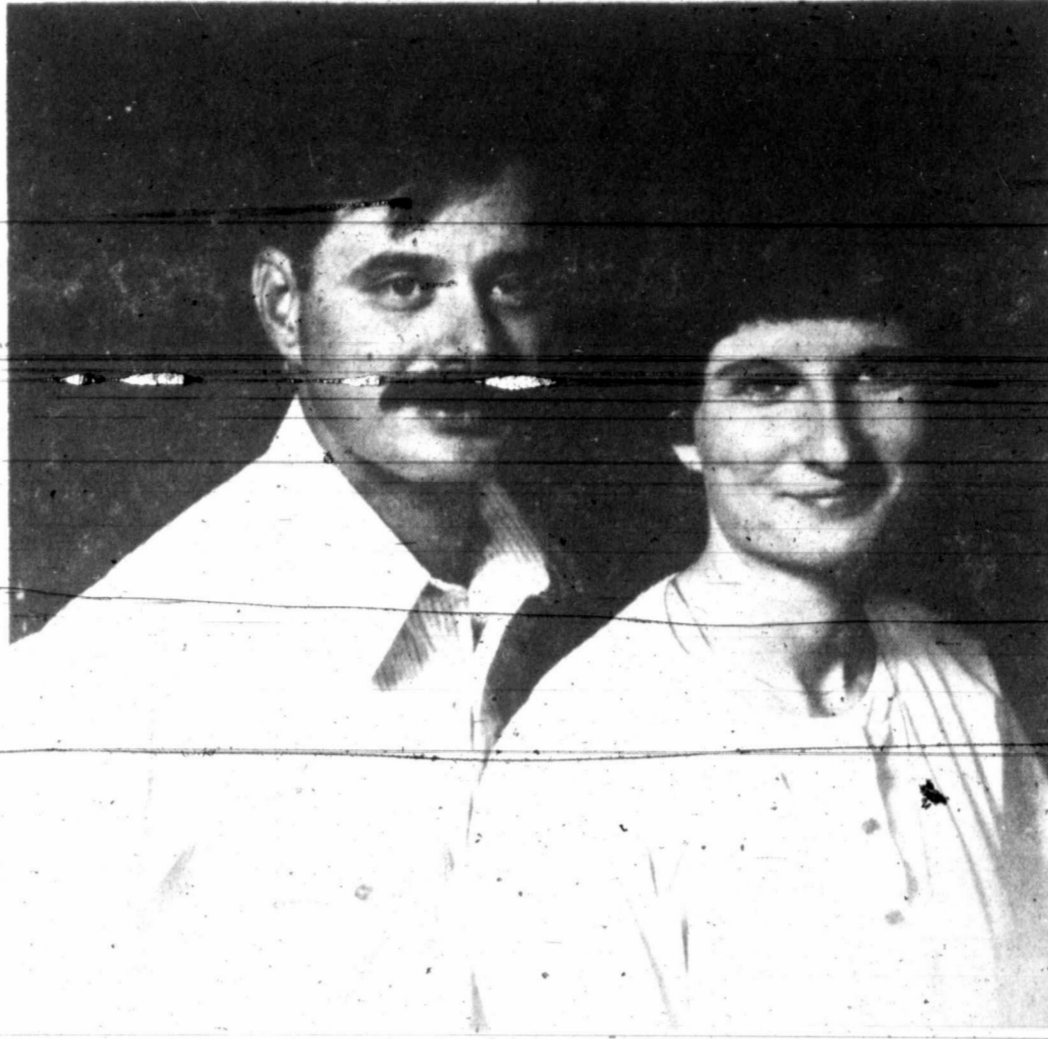

Express displeasure gently and kindly.

ADAPTABILITY
Accept your partner as he/she is. Be mature and accommodating.

SEX
Sexual fulfillment includes a variety of expressions of intimacy as well as physical sex.

SHARING
Share the pleasant, as well as the unpleasant, aspects of marriage.

HERMLEIGH NEWS

By Adala Drennan

The Hermleigh Association met Thursday evening at the community center at 7:30 for the regular monthly meeting.

Entertainment was provided by Miss Cheryl Hines dance and twirling students from Loraine, Colorado City, Westbrook and Hermleigh.

A decorated cake made by Mrs. Jane Ramey was auctioned off and Billy Haynes received it for the highest bid of $14.

The drawing for the Cardinal quilt, given by Mrs. Rachel Lassiter and quilted by the Needlecraft Club members, was held and Mrs. Jackie Roemisch received the quilt. Proceeds from the project totaled $250.

Reports were given on the street signs that have been erected, the maps that are being printed which will sell for $1 each, the scrapbook that is being prepared and the financial report was given.

Mrs. Joy Fuqua gave a report on the bake and rummage sale which totaled $600.

Thanks were extended to Commissioner Ted Billingsley, the Scurry County employees and all others who helped in the clean-up project of the townsite.

Cookies and punch were served to approximately 75 persons.

Attending Timothy Stahls' birthday celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rose and Mitzi of Abilene, Jackie Williamson, Patricia and Bert Stahl.

Mrs. Donna Traweck, daughter of the Ray Wrights and children, of Bryan visited relatives Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O.W. Richburg visited the Virgil Richburgs in Sweetwater Thursday evening. Mrs. W.E. Richburg of Dallas joined them there.

Jackie Nachlinger, who has been ill, is out of the hospital and doing good.

Sarah and Tinsey Higgins of Snyder visited Rachel Lassiter and Adala Drennan Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ocie Vest visited the Needlecraft Club Tuesday. Members attending were Roxie Soules, Rella Young, Oleta Jackson, Leta Lloyd, Elree Baremore, Rachel Lassiter and Adala Drennan.

Mrs. Raymond Lloyd received word from Mrs. Jess (Florence) Henley formerly of Hermleigh and Snyder now residing in Big Spring, telling of her son Jess Jr., who lives in Clyde, has recently had a second severe heart attack.

Mrs. Eva Mae Brackeen joined her granddaughters Mrs. Jerry Helm and little Jeremy of Ira and visited

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brackeen in Midland from Wednesday to Thursday. There, they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. W.K. Brackeen Jr. and family of Pecos.

Bidding semi two suiters

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag

Semi two-suit hands is a term applied to hands with one five- or six-card suit and one four-card suit. The easiest one to handle from the standpoint of the opening bidder is five clubs and four spades. You open one club and if partner bids either red suit you can rebid one spade. Let's look at some possible sequences.

1. S-K-Q-9-8-H-J-5-4-D-6-C-A-Q-10-6-5

You open one club. If partner responds one diamond, you rebid one spade and plan to pass if partner's next bid is

Art To Be Taught At Senior Center

The art of liquid embroidery will be taught in a new four-session series of class beginning at 1 p.m. Monday in the Senior Citizens Center.

Paula Fox will be instructor for the lesson, and she is donating the materials to be used. The finished craft items will then be added to the items to be sold during the Center's May Day fund raiser.

All-senior citizens interested in participating in the classes are asked to meet in the activities room at the center following the noon meal Monday.

Newcomers

Reschedule Meetings

Newcomers Club has cancelled their next luncheon meeting set for April 3 and their regular meeting April 10. An "old timer" luncheon has been planned for April 17 in the garden area of First Baptist Church. This event will highlight Newcomers Week, April 14-18, and they invite all former members to attend.

Margaret's Inc. will present a style show previewing the new spring fashions.

Use Snyder Daily News Classified Ads 573-5486

not a strong one. If his response is one heart, you still bid one spade. But if he rebids to two hearts, you have a real problem. You should pass unless you have a very conservative partner who plays the dummy well. Then you can raise to three hearts, but keep your fingers crossed.

2. S-K-Q-9-8-H-J-5-4-D-A-C-A-Q-10-6-5

Same as example one, except you hold the diamond ace so you have a good hand. You still rebid one spade over a red suit, but plan to bid again except when his response is one diamond and his rebid two diamonds or one notrump.

The toughest hand is five spades and four clubs. The response is likely to be one notrump and the response might be made with something like: S-2 H-K 9 7 3 2 D-K J 8 4 C-7 3 2, or lots of other hands which are too strong to pass with and not strong enough for a bid of a suit at the two level. With a minimum five spade-four club hand, it is probably best to pass at one notrump — with a good hand, rebid two clubs.

If partner responds at the two level and you have a minimum type just rebid spades or raise to three if you have three cards in your partner's bid suit. With a good hand show your club suit.

There is one important responding rule here. When your partner opens one spade do not respond in hearts unless you have at least five hearts or good spade support you can show later.

Summer Preview Given For ABWA

Dorris Minton, manager of Ann Lee's, presented a "Summer Preview" style show at a dinner meeting of the American Business Women's Association Jan. Lanier introduced Mrs. Minton, Kathy Landes, Sue Ferguson, Faye Layne and Kathy Byington who modeled dresses, sportswear and jeans.

Verne Beasley gave a report on the regional meeting held in Lubbock last weekend. Those attending from the Scurry Chapter were Leona Wiggins, Pat Snider, Ruby Dever, Barbara York, Dorothy Dorch, president, Kathy Byington and Mrs. Beasley.

Sue Travis, chairman for the ways and means committee, reported there had been 33 applicants to "Our Little Miss" Pageant which is to be presented April 12 at the Snyder High School auditorium. This pageant is being sponsored by the ABWA as a fund raising project with the proceeds to be used for scholarships to Western Texas College. The age groups for the pageant are 3-6 years, La Petite; 7-12 years, Our Little Miss; and 13-17 years, Ideal Miss.

Each girl must have a sponsor who pays her $35 entry fee. This includes insurance and entry fee for the winners to the state contest. For this fee, sponsor receives acknowledgement in the program. A sponsor can be family, friends, business or a civic organization. For more information, contact any ABWA member or go by Travis Flowers, 1912 37th St.

Plan Square Dance Monday

The "Promenader's Club" will have a special fifth Monday night dance March 31, 7 p.m. at the National Guard Armory. Bert Whitaker of Big Spring will be the caller. A salad supper will follow the dance. All square dancers are invited to attend.

A 10 percent reduction in meat consumption by North Americans would provide enough grain to feed 60 million people.

Book To Encourage Child's Good Health

By Gaynor Maddox

Once children master the basics of eating right, they set off on the path of good health and growth.

We started our son at age 4 on the study of food. He accompanied his mother to the supermarket every Saturday and was gradually made familiar with all the foods she selected.

Soon he was able to distinguish between a good and a bad orange, between a well-formed, baking potato and a poorly shaped one. He learned to smell melons for freshness.

He developed an interest in foods that has continued through this day.

"What's to Eat?" is a new 144-page book published by the Agriculture Department as its contribution to International Year of the Child. The 8 1/2-by-11-inch paperback is designed to arouse children's interest in foods.

Did prehistoric kids eat bugs? That question is answered affirmatively in the first paragraph.

How old is farming as we know it today? Do kids in other lands eat the same things we do? These are some of the other questions answered in lively but simple English.

Here is an introductory excerpt from "What's to Eat?"

"What do you think your life would have been like if you had lived 35,000 years ago? Actually, the people who lived during that time were not much different from the people of today, at least in the way they looked. But their day-to-day lives were greatly different.

The idea of farming had not come about. And without farming it was difficult sometimes impossible to find enough food for people to eat. Many people died of hunger. Few people ever reached the age of 25.

"People have been fishing for a long time" About 25,000 B.C., people started using bait on a bone fastened to a line. This was called a fishing gorge. Fish would take the bait, and the gorge would become stuck in the fish's mouth. Later, people learned to use hooks from the bones and horns of animals.

"What's to Eat?" is available for $4.50 per copy from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Department 39-C, Washington, D.C. 20402. Members of Congress may have limited numbers for free distribution to constituents.

BOYS RECITAL—Seven boys from Bethel Studio of Music will be presented in recital today at 3 p.m. First Baptist Church. Participating will be kneeling, Charlie McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude McCormick Jr.; seated, Paul Marble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Marble; Don Osborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Osborn; standing, Judson Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.O. Morrison; Sam Raborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Raborn; Virgil Feinsod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Feinsod; and (not pictured) Randy Cook, son of Mrs. Georgia Jones. Their repertoire will include four memory pieces ranging from boogie to Bach to blues. They will also play in the National Piano Guild Auditions to be held here May 20-26. A reception will follow the recital. (SDN Staff Photo)

Junior Historians Seeking Members

Students at Snyder High School who have a special interest in history are invited to become members of the Junior Historians club.

Robert Adams is faculty sponsor for the group, which was organized last October and presently has 17 members. Jimmy Fancher is club president. Other officers are Jennifer Floyd, vice president; Cindy McCormick, secretary; Carmen Rodriguez, treasurer; Nancy Brim, historian, and Jane McNulty, reporter.

Serving as co-sponsors are Mike Jenkins, Albert Taylor, Virginia Sleeper, Brenda Otto and Peggy English.

The club meets monthly and officers are elected for terms of one year. Chapter dues are $4 per year, which includes a subscription to the Texas Historian magazine.

A primary purpose of Junior Historians is to stimulate interest in the history of Scurry County and Texas, and to work with local museums and the Scurry County Historical Survey Committee in preserving county history.

The group has prepared an exhibit to be entered in competition at the state convention and they will be displaying it during the social Tuesday night at the Senior Citizens Center. The public is invited to attend the social to enjoy music and refreshments, and to become acquainted with the work of the Junior Historians. The club is cooperating with the county Historical Commission and the high school history department in the sponsorship of the week-long History Appreciation observance.

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

To understand depression

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB: I'd like some information on manic depressive illness. Is there a cure? What causes it? Can it be prevented? How is the brain or mind affected and is it a nervous breakdown? Does it lead to insanity and how does drinking beer and wine, etc., affect a person with this problem? Is there any real hope for someone who is on lithium because of an imbalance of blood chemistry? Is there some pamphlet to help someone try to understand this problem?

DEAR READER: Perhaps the best way to describe this disorder is to point out that we all have mood fluctuations. On some days we have more energy and are happier and then, on other days, our energy disappears and we may feel unhappy. Minor swings in mood are normal but if these get more and more exaggerated, they reach the state of being abnormal.

The true manic depressive person has very severe swings. In the manic stage, a person may have very unrealistic ideas. Often these are ideas of grandeur. It's in this phase that the person may be very active. He may drive his car fast, have enormous amounts of energy and do all sorts of illogical things as if he suddenly had lots of power or was extremely wealthy. An individual can be dangerous in this stage.

As the cycle turns, such an individual may go into a severe depression. All energy is gone and the person may hardly move and be unresponsive. That, of course, is the extreme stage.

It's normal, for people to have mood swings but it's unusual for a person to have manic depressive cycles. In between there are a large number of people who have depressive episodes. I am sending you The Health Letter number 10-10, Depression: The Ups And Downs Of Life. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. It will help you sort out the different problems related to simple mood swings, grief and depression.

Yes, there are lots of things that can be done to treat people who have depressions these days. Some of them are modern medicines which are extremely helpful. Lithium has been used for this purpose but there are other medicines as well. The modern use of electric shock treatment is still extremely useful in selected cases of patients with severe depressive episodes. There are things we can all do to help prevent the more common forms of depression. These are outlined in The Health Letter I'm sending you. But a person who has actually developed a real depressive episode usually requires professional help to get over it. Such problems should not be ignored because you can never tell when a person who has a depression may actually have suicidal tendencies. It's too much of a responsibility for an untrained "good friend" to undertake. With the mild depressions, usually medications and professional counseling can do a lot to provide some relief from the situation rather quickly.

Texas Pair Pays Most For Coin

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—The most expensive silver coin ever sold will be displayed in a Texas museum by the pair of El Paso coin dealers who paid $400,000 for a silver dollar at an auction here, spokesmen said.

Bidding opened at $175, and increased in $25,000 increments for a 1804 U.S. silver dollar sold on the first night of a three-day rare coin auction Wednesday at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, said publicist Roger Beck. The silver dollar sold "in about 60 seconds," Beck said.

The buyers, Larry Hanks and Bill Pullen, both 31, said they will display the silver dollar in an El Paso museum before possibly reselling it.

"It's the highest price ever paid for a silver coin in the world," Beck said, "and the second-highest ever paid for any coin."

DeGarmo Gets Death Penalty

RICHMOND (AP)—It took 40 minutes for jurors to return the death penalty against a convicted murderer who warned them he would kill them if they didn't.

"This is not an idle threat. I don't make idle threats. This is a promise," 25-year-old Roger Leroy DeGarmo said in a 10-minute address to the jury from the witness stand Thursday.

The jury had deliberated an hour Wednesday before agreeing on a guilty verdict on a capital murder charge filed against DeGarmo, who forced a 20-year-old Houston secretary into the trunk of her car on Jan. 8, 1979, and later shot her in the head.

In demanding the death penalty, the auto mechanic and part-time entertainer told the jury it returned the proper verdict.

ASTROGRAPH

Your Birthday

Bernice Bede Osol

March 31, 1980

This coming year you could find most everything you do will involve partners, even though you might prefer to do your own thing. However, you'll soon discover there are many advantages to be gained through teamwork.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Think twice before making new agreements or breaking past commitments. Your trouble spots lie in either of these areas today. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

AURUS (April 20-May 20) Something you promised to do for someone you care a great deal about and have thus far neglected may be brought to your attention today. Produce. Don't make excuses. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Those of the opposite sex find you quite attractive today, but don't wander out of your own bailiwick. An innocent flirtation can get out of hand.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Have a clear-cut understanding with friends today for activities requiring cash. You may end up on the short end if things are not spelled out. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Be wary today of making unreasonable demands on one you love. Excessive requests will push this person away instead of drawing them to you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A situation may arise pertaining to someone who is in a tough spot. You can be of help materially if you let your heart rule your head. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Others like you for yourself, so pretending to be something you're not is unnecessary. Pretenses will have an effect opposite from what you hoped to project. SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Occasionally we all feel we don't get appropriate attention from those we love. Today this may happen to you, but don't let it make you jealous.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be enthusiastic and optimistic regarding new projects, but don't kid yourself into believing they are more than what they really are. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) In competitive situations today, make the encounter fun, not an act of war. Being first is important, but doing it in a classy manner is even more so.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) A loved one may not react to a given situation exactly as you had envisioned. Make allowances for his right to freedom of expression. PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) The temptation to cover up mistakes today may cross your mind, but it won't solve the problem. Others will help if you bring your plight out into the open.

ARE YOU TOO BUSY?

By Miller F. Robinson
Colonial Hill Baptist
Tomorrow I have a thousand things to do! Have you ever said that? All of us have said similar things. A certain woman feeling the pressure of a very busy schedule went to see her medical doctor.

She said to the physician, "Doctor, I am all run down!" The doctor corrected her by saying, "No, you are all wound up!" There is a definite need today for many people to simplify their lives by slowing down their pace of living.

Some people attempt to do too much. Moses had this problem. Moses attempted to be the only judge for the 650,000 Israelites in the wilderness. The people with cases to be tried had to stand in line from morning until night. The people grumbled about the slow judicial process. Moses' father-in-law suggested a plan to help the tense situation.

He suggested Moses appoint honest and responsible men to judge the minor cases, and Moses would judge only the more serious cases. This plan helped both the people and Moses.

There are a number of reasons why one should not attempt to do too much. One reason is that trying to do too much produces shoddiness. When we try to do too much we don't do anything very well. This is true in running a business, baking a cake, or preparing a sermon. We do inferior work when we try to do too much. A second reason we should not attempt to do too much is that such living neglects the major duties of life. A man made a speech. When he finished the speech he asked a friend, "Did I do good?" The friend candidly replied, "You did good, but it wasn't worth doing."

Jesus was an extremely busy man. He had only three years to do his work. He set a great priority for his life. He said: "But seek first His kingdom and His Righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well."

Youngest Grad At Seventeen

WARREN, Mich. (AP)—At 17, Christ Xiromeritis is probably the youngest graduate they've ever had, say Macomb County Community College officials.

Xiromeritis, a high-school senior, holds a general business degree. He is not the youngest student in the college's history, however. His brother, Nick, 13, has been a student there since last year, when he was 12. Another brother, John, 14, is also a student.

Karl Wagner, dean of student services at the college's South Campus, says, "We don't recruit under-age students because we try not to compete against the local high schools. But they come to us for admission and as long as their schools don't object, we let them register for courses."

George Xiromeritis, the boys' father, who is an automobile firm, said he had no objection, either, to his sons' nighttime and weekend college studies.

Consider buying airline tickets in advance — fares will continue to rise.

For now, the government forbids additional charges on tickets already bought, advises Bonnie Piernot, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service; The Texas A&M University System.

Family History Workshop Set

LUBBOCK—A workshop in family history research, featuring well-known area genealogists, will be presented by the South Plains Genealogical Society, 9:30 a.m. — 4 p.m., April 19 in the Community Room of Mahon Library, 1306 9th St., Lubbock.

The event is open to the public and no registration fee is charged, stated Dr. John M. Anderson, SPGS president.

Schedule for the day is as follows: 9:30 a.m., registration; 10-11 a.m., "Migration Trails" by Mrs. Owen Egger of Plainview; 11-11:45, Beginners Class by Dr. Anderson; 1:30-2:30 p.m., "Using Census Records in Genealogical Research," Eugenia Butler Toland; and 3-4 p.m., "Finding Family History in Military, Church and Land Records," Marleta Childs, C.G.

Mrs. Egger conducts special courses in genealogical research at Wayland University, Plainview, and lectures throughout the Panhandle Plains region. A former public school teacher, she holds a master's degree in history from the University of Texas. Dr. Anderson is an experienced genealogy instructor who assists with classes for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Lubbock. Mrs. Toland is a guest lecturer on family and local history for Lubbock Christian College as well as for primary through high school classes in area public schools. She is a graduate of Texas Tech University. Miss Childs, a Certified Genealogist, is the author of several genealogical record books, numerous articles, and currently writes a weekly column entitled, "Kinsearching" for the Sunday edition of the Lubbock Avalanche Journal newspaper. She holds B.A. and M.A. degrees in history from Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacogdoches, Texas.

Dear Abby

If Friend Thinks Gift Is For the Birds, Give Him One

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I've been going with this man for the past year and I am very fond of him. I met him in church. He is thoughtful, kind, spiritual, generous and very honest. He also has a beautiful garden.

Last Christmas I gave him a statue of St. Francis of Assisi in a small grotto, and I had our finest nursery plant ivy and holly in it. They also added a plastic leaf of poinsettia. The entire gift was about 30 inches tall. My friend had just returned from a church retreat, and I thought because of his spiritual interest my gift would be appropriate for his garden.

When I gave it to him, he said, "Well, in the first place, I don't like religious statues, and in the second place, I hate fake flowers. I can't believe you actually would spend money to get that tacky thing planted. How much did you pay for it?"

Abby, I was shocked. All I could think of to say was, "I love St. Francis of Assisi, so if you don't want it, I'll keep it, and you can go pick out a birdbath for your garden." He seemed to like the idea.

Now I am having second thoughts: Should I keep the statue for myself and let him pick out a birdbath? Or should I tell him this is his gift — he can take it or leave it.

DEAR J.D.: You may have second thoughts, but you've already offered to keep St. Francis and let your rude and ungrateful friend pick out a birdbath, so I think you're stuck for the birdbath.

DEAR ABBY: I've read that Vitamin E is supposed to work wonders in boosting a person's sexual performance. Is there any truth in that?

On a scale of 1 to 10, I'd say I'm about a 2.

DEAR NEEDS HELP: If you believe Vitamin E will "work wonders" — it could.

DEAR ABBY: I am planning my wedding and have a very important decision to make. I am 28, and this is my first and (I hope) only wedding, and I want it to be perfect. I am having six bridesmaids, a maid of honor and a matron of honor.

All the girls in my wedding party are either a size 8 or 10 — with the exception of the girl who should be my matron of honor, who is at least a size 20. I was her maid of honor when she was married four years ago. She has always been a little on the plump side, but since her marriage she has gained about 40 pounds.

I hate to exclude her from my wedding party, because we grew up together and she has been my closest and dearest friend, but I don't want to embarrass her or myself on what should be the most beautiful day of my life.

What do you think?

UNDECIDED BRIDE

DEAR BRIDE: Ask your closest and dearest friend to be your matron of honor and don't give it another thought. True beauty comes in all sizes.

DEAR ABBY: If a baby is born on February 29, when should we celebrate his first birthday? On February 28 or March 1?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: The day following February 28, which would be March 1 — unless it's a leap year.

Do you wish you had more friends? For the secret of popularity, get Abby's new booklet: "How To Be Popular; You're Never Too Young or Too Old." Send $1 with a long, self-addressed, stamped (28 cents) envelope to Abby, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Hearing Set On 'Marriage Tax'

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The House Ways and Means Committee today announced that it will hold hearings on legislation sponsored by Rep. Millie Penick (R-N.J.) that would eliminate the "marriage tax" currently facing two-earner married couples.

The hearings on the bill, which has 211 cosponsors in the House, are scheduled for Wednesday, April 2, and Thursday, April 3, beginning at 10 a.m. in the main committee hearing room, 1100 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, D.C.

"I am delighted that the Ways and Means Committee has finally recognized the need to examine this serious inequity in our tax system," Mrs. Penick said. "It simply doesn't make sense to penalize working couples simply because they are married." The New Jersey legislator's bill, H.R. 3609, would allow working married couples the option of being taxed as if they were single.

The Ways and Means Committee expected to receive testimony from representatives of the Department of the Treasury, Members of Congress, and members of the general public who have requested to be heard. The April hearings will also examine the issue of the higher tax burden imposed on a single person compared to a married couple with the same income.

Penick stressed that the scheduling of hearings could spell the first step toward relief for the 38 million Americans who currently face a marriage tax penalty. She noted that this figure represents over half of all the married couples in America, because more than half of all married women now work outside the home.

Howard Hughes' last will and testament may still be eluding his heirs and the revenuers, but there's no possibility of concealing one thing he left behind. The Spruce Goose. You remember it. That is the huge, eight-engined flying boat constructed entirely of wood that was a Hughes project of the 1940s. The largest flying machine conceived up to its time and for quite a time thereafter - it was to be the prototype of a fleet of transports capable of carrying tanks and troops to the world's distant trouble spots. After initial enthusiasm, the Pentagon cooled and dropped the project. Hughes, however, continued with his own money - lots of it. In 1947, with the determined millionaire at the controls, it finally took to the air - a few feet of it above the Long Beach, Calif., harbor, which it skimmed for slightly more than a mile. That was its test (and only) flight. For more than 30 years it has remained grounded - or watered - in a special hangar. The cost of upkeep has been $1 million a year for the climate-control system alone. Now the Hughes estate has acknowledged the Spruce Goose to be a white elephant and is disposing of it, donating it to a California museum to be specified. It has to rank as one of the most costly write-offs of a bad investment in history. But it could have been worse. The Pentagon could have bought it for all of us.

you are worth more

Don't say inflation isn't doing anything for you... It's raising your net worth - physically. Thanks to the soaring prices of metals and minerals, those that compose the human body are currently up 643 percent from 10 years ago. Back then, the average individual would have gone for 98 cents on the commodities market. But according to the calculations of Dr. Harry Mosen of the University of Illinois College of Medicine, as reported by the Health Insurance Institute, we're all much more valuable properties now. So the next time anyone says you're good for nothing, promptly inform him it isn't so. According to Mosen, you're worth $7.28.

a war we can win

There is more than one kind of war. This is about a kind of war we can win! World War III could be fought over oil. There are several ways we can fight it.

The feller on Deep Creek says. The optimist is a man who believes that whatever happens, no matter how bad, is for the best. The pessimist is the fellow to whom it happens.

Someone left the following story on our desk, and we found it much more amusing prior to Ted Kennedy's upset victory over President Carter in the New York primary.

It seems that a radio station in Emmetsburg, Iowa, conducted what it called "Cess. Poll" that revealed that Ted Kennedy's bid for the presidency has been "flushed out of contention."

The station owner, broadcasting remote from the city's water treatment plant, asked all Democrats who intended to support Carter to immediately flush their toilets.

The water level in the tower dropped one-tenth of a foot, and this indicated 300 flushes, according to the city's director of public works.

Five minutes later, all those Democrats who were either undecided, or had no plans to back either of the two candidates, were asked to flush. The water level dropped two-tenths of a foot, indicating 600 flushes.

Noticed the other day that the federal Indian Affairs people are trying to get low-cost housing built for some of their charges out in Arizona.

Architects have come up with plans by which the Indians can build nice houses by utilizing adobe brick, which they have been making themselves for years.

But not so fast there with the practical solutions, says the Housing and Urban Development. HUD, of course, has to approve the plans, and HUD finds that adobe is a non-qualifying building material.

Somewhere, history seems to have revealed that adobe housing has been in use for hundreds of years, and there are sound adobe buildings standing in the same area that have been in use for 700 or 800 years.

Of course, that was before HUD. This must be conclusive proof that federal red tape will even ruin mud.

GROWING OLDER

Harold Blumenfeld

Let's go to the polls

1980 could be the year when we older citizens show we have come of age politically.

On Nov. 4, we will be able to wield a powerful weapon. That's the day when we will vote for president of the United States, all of the House of Representatives and one-third of the Senate. Some states will also be selecting governors and other state and local officials.

Most of the 24 million Americans 65 or older are qualified to vote. And we do vote.

In 1978, the percentage of older Americans voting was 10 points higher than that of the voting-age population as a whole. In the 1976 presidential election, 62 percent of people over 65 voted compared to 48 percent of those 18 to 24.

If you're not a registered voter, you probably still have time to become one before Election Day. And then be sure you vote.

During the next few months, you will hear a lot of campaign rhetoric. Listen to what the candidates say and find out how they voted in the past.

Then exercise your political muscle. Tell them what we expect them to do for us if elected. A candidate is more apt to listen when campaigning than when comfortably seated for a long term in office.

I have made my own checklist of issues that are important to the older population, including me. I will keep it in mind as I listen to and read the campaign promises of the thoughts

The ancient Egyptians were familiar with the manufacture of pottery, but the art was not fully developed by the Israelites until after their settlement in Palestine. The thought of the potter molding his clay at will is found in many Bible verses.

"Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay." - Isa. 29:16

WASHINGTON (NEA)—I've been here quite a while and I thought I'd seen just about everything, but I've never seen anything to compare to this. This administration is in a shambles."

The speaker is a career White House employee who has been in the executive branch under the last three presidents and in the government since the day of Camelot.

His perception, that the Carter administration is out of control, is becoming common in this town.

Take foreign policy, for example. The administration's carefully laid plan to win the release of the hostages through the use of a United Nations commission has fallen apart. So certain was the White House that the commission would gain the release of the 50 U.S. nationals that no fallback position was even considered. Thus, when Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini pulled the rug out from under his own government, something he as a proclivity for doing, White House officials were left running around in circles.

Or take the matter of the U.N. vote on Israel's West Bank settlement policy. One would be hard pressed to find a single knowledgeable person in this town - whether a member of the administration, an agency bureaucrat or a foreign diplomat - who actually believes the renunciation of that affirmative vote was for any reason other than domestic political considerations.

The story that is heard virtually everywhere is that Secretary of State Cyrus Vance, who favored teaching Israel a lesson, was given very specific criteria for what would be an acceptable resolution.

It was not until 48 hours later, after some very influential Jewish organizations beat down the door of Carter campaign chief Bob Strauss, that the "error in communications" was discovered.

This episode has left morale at the State Department at a very low ebb and has left observers wondering how either Vance or U.N. Ambassador Donald McHenry can continue to operate effectively.

Of take the suddenly out-of-control inflation crisis. In early December, working drafts of the fiscal year 1981 budget pegged total spending at about $600 billion. But this would have meant that a number of ongoing programs would not have kept up with inflation. In the last month of budget talks, therefore, an additional $15.8 billion was added so as not to offend any important interest group.

Suddenly, however, inflation has boiled over and the president has declared the moral equivalent of war on his own FY 1981 budget. But has he returned to the earlier budget draft? No. Instead, he became engaged in marathon sessions with the congressional leadership, that will result in budget cutting by political horse trading and interest-group power. And he refused even to hint at what programs he would cut until after the New York primary.

As for the deeper economic problems facing the nation, President Carter proclaims "our current policies sound" - and then announces a new task force to review economic policy. And who is named to head this study? Vice President Walter F. Mondale, sending morale plummeting at the Treasury Department and leaving Treasury Secretary G. William Miller wondering where he fits.

Some smaller things also signal that this is an administration in trouble: -The new Department of Education. It was to have opened its doors on April 2, but now we are told it will be at least June. Six months after Congress gave the go-ahead, many of the most important department posts are still unfilled.

-The current gasoline situation. The Department of Energy says consumption is down while supplies are at an all-time high and climbing. During the last three months, however, the average per-gallon price at the pump has increased 17 cents. DOE officials simply cannot say if the increases are justified. Privately, they admit the pricing guidelines are almost too confusing to administer.

The danger with the growing perception that Carter has lost control is that it will become a self-fulfilling prophecy. Various interest groups and Congress will begin to smell blood and, in an election year, the workings of government could grind to a swift halt.

To prevent this, the White House will have to come up with some quick solutions to problems that are not readily solved.

They call 'em "bureaucracies" because someone is always getting the socks in the wrong drawer and no one else can find 'em.
