

Social Security To Rise... Prices Continue Soaring

WASHINGTON (AP)—Consumer prices rose a steep 1.4 percent for the third consecutive month in March, eroding the buying power of all Americans but insuring a higher "catch-up" raise for Social Security recipients, the government reported today.

Although gasoline and fuel oil price increases slowed somewhat last month, food and clothing prices surged and home ownership costs continued to rise sharply, the Labor Department said.

As a result, prices in the first three months of the year rose at a near-record annual rate of 18 percent. Carter administration officials have said they do not expect inflation to slow much below this double-digit pace before mid-year.

Prices last year went up 13.3 percent.

The latest inflation report means that the nation's 35 million Social Security recipients will get a hefty 14.3 percent increase in their benefit checks starting in July to make up for the department inflation has made in their buying power.

The benefit increase, based on the rise in prices in the first quarter this year compared with the first quarter of 1979, will boost the average retiree's check $41 to $330 a month, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare said.

Benefits also will be adjusted for the 4.1 million aged, blind and disabled people who receive Supplemental Security Income.

In a companion report released today, the Labor Department said inflation continued to cut deeply into the earnings of the nation's workers.

A 0.9 percent increase in average weekly earnings in March was more than offset by inflation and a drop in the hours worked, leaving workers with inflation-adjusted weekly earnings 0.7 percent below the February level.

At the same time, spendable earnings—that a married worker with three dependents has left after Social Security and federal income taxes—dropped 0.8 percent last month. It was the 10th consecutive decline, pushing workers' buying power nearly 8 percent below the level of March 1979.

Patrick Jackman, a Labor Department economist, said that although overall prices went up in March as much as in January and February, the underlying causes were different.

July Checks To Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's 35.2 million Social Security beneficiaries will get a 14.3 percent increase in their checks in July to catch up with the inflation of the past 12 months.

The automatic cost-of-living increase will cost the Social Security trust funds $16.8 million. It was triggered by today's announcement of the Consumer Price Index for March.

Texaco Earns $1 Billion

PORT CHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Texaco Inc., the nation's third-largest oil company, on Tuesday reported that its first-quarter net income totaled just over $1 billion.

The earnings included an extraordinary gain of $402.3 million which Texaco recorded on its sale of a 17 percent interest in Belridge Oil Co. to Shell Oil Co.

Before accounting for the Belridge sale, Texaco reported net income of $600.6 million, or $2.21 per share, a 97.6 percent gain from earnings of $303.9 million, or $1.11 per share, in the first quarter of 1979.

The report of the burglary of a rural home should be a danger signal to those who live in remote areas and find it necessary to be away from time to time.

There have been outbreaks of such burglaries in various regions; some in this area a few years ago. At one time, the burglars seemed to concentrate on lake cabins and vacation homes when the owners were not using them.

More recently, they simply use trucks to quickly strip a dwelling of items that may be easily sold to customers who don't ask many questions. And burglars usually are well organized and do their home work before "pulling a job."

We were advised recently that in some areas, rural homes had been burglarized during church service hours on Sunday. It doesn't take long for an experienced crew to strip a home of valuables. In most cases it is difficult and time-consuming for law enforcement officers to trace the burglars. We have heard of some items reported taken in Texas burglaries turning up as far away as Mississippi.

They like television sets and small appliances, but some of them use big trucks and take everything they can cram into them. They obviously familiarize themselves with the target neighborhoods and the habits of possible victims.

So, if you are in a daily or weekly scheduled routine, it might be wise to break your pattern occasionally, or take any action that might cross up a potential burglar.

The past weekend brought the most pleasant weather in many months, and a lot of people responded by taking to the out-of-doors. We were out of town over the weekend, but heard reports that all tables were taken in Towle Memorial Park and some brought their own tables for picnics.

As we were on a brief trip, we noticed a lot of vehicles towing boats on the highways. Now, if we could get a good rain, we could declare that spring is here indeed.

Olympics To Go On

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—The International Sports Federations agreed unanimously today that the Summer Olympic Games must go on in Moscow as planned.

Leaders of the 26 Olympic federations met with the Executive Board of the International Olympic Committee and confirmed they will carry out their obligation in the Olympics and will not support any alternative Games.

Among the federation leaders who drew up a resolution to this effect was Prince Philip, husband of Queen Elizabeth II and president of the International Equestrian Federation.

As he left the meeting for a lunch break, the prince made it clear to newsmen that he will not go to the Games himself.

"There is no way I can go to Moscow," Prince Philip said. "I cannot tell you whether I have advised the International Equestrian Federation to go."

Asked whether he personally would like to go to the Games, he replied: "That is beside the point, isn't it?"

The prince is caught between his federation duties and his position as a member of the British royal family. The British government has strongly urged its athletes to join the boycott sought by President Carter following the Soviet intervention in Afghanistan, but the British Olympic Association has defied the government and decided to go.

Daughter Says Reagan To Run Well In Texas

Maureen Reagan, daughter of Republican presidential candidate Ronald Reagan, brought her father's campaign to Snyder Monday afternoon as she spoke to a group of supporters at The Shack restaurant.

A campaign aide claimed that Texas, a traditionally Democratic state, is showing a 51 percent following for Reagan, and that the remaining 49 percent are split between Jimmy Carter and George Bush. Miss Reagan said as much by noting, "We're very hopeful about Texas," in reference to the upcoming May 3 primary.

She added, however, "We're not taking for granted, but we think we'll do well."

A rapid-fire speaker, Miss Reagan said, "I think Jimmy himself can do more to hurt himself than any Republican can."

Citing a recent campaign swing through another state, Miss Reagan noted that inclement weather had blocked Carter supporters from traveling from one city to another, but the Reagan forces had made it through.

Laughingly, she said, "The difference between the Carters and the Reagans is that the Carters try real hard and the Reagans do it."

Serious Cutoff Of Oil Possible

WASHINGTON (AP)—CIA Director Stansfield Turner said today that a serious cutoff of oil supplies from the Middle East over the next decade "certainly can happen."

In rare public testimony before the Senate Energy Committee, Turner painted a gloomy picture for worldwide oil supplies through the 1980s.

"Because the Soviet Union will go from being an oil-exporting to an oil-importing nation over the next few years, Soviet leaders face 'extremely painful' economic, political and military choices, the Central Intelligence Agency chief said.

The oil crunch, he said, will put pressure on Soviet leaders to use "forceful action, ranging from covert subversion to intimidation" and military action.

Drum, Wiman To Head Drive

Margaret Drum and Frances Wiman were named co-chairmen of the 1980 Scurry County United Way Campaign at a meeting of the organization's directors Monday afternoon as they launched plans for their annual autumn effort to support participating agencies.

They succeed Brenda Hedges and Mike Reed, who were co-chairmen of the successful 1979 campaign.

The board also has set May 5 as the deadline for participating agencies to submit their budgets for United Way consideration.

Members of the United Way budget and admissions committee are Ed Barkowsky, Lois Bartels, Lyle Defebach, Wilma Dillard, Joe Flack, L.E. (Doc) Griffin, Brenda Hedges, James Jackson, James Palmer, Mike Reed, Earl (Hassie) Sneed, Rodger Sullenger, Jerry Vestal and Joe Williamson.

The committee has scheduled its first session for May 12. At that time, subcommittees will be formed and assignments will be made to study agency requests.

The budget and admissions committee is due to present its report to the board of directors at its June meeting. This report will include the campaign goal, division goals and agency allocations.

poerner endorsed

It's political time again, and with elections just weeks away we concluded it was time to consider some of the candidates. One of the most important races for oil producing counties like Scurry is that of railroad commissioner. Commissioner John Poerner, chairman of the Railroad Commission, is seeking re-election to a full six-year term. He was appointed in 1977 by Gov. Dolph Briscoe and he was elected in 1978 over three other Democrats and a Republican candidate. His performance on the Railroad Commission has proved to be fair and informed. Two recent events underscore the need to re-elect John Poerner. His opponent has been endorsed by the AFL-CIO who proudly informs us that Buddy Temple has voted "right" on 54 key labor issues and "wrong" only 12 during his tenure in the House of Representatives. In the past legislative session, Mr. Poerner's liberal opponent cast a negative vote to allow the free enterprise system to solve the nation's energy crisis. John Poerner has a fine record as a businessman, conservative member of the House of Representatives and service on the Railroad Commission. It's an important race, not only for Scurry County, but for all of Texas. We enthusiastically recommend John Poerner on May 3.

a scary new word

The Great New York City Transit Strike of 1980 has come, gone and possibly left behind something permanent. Not the skateboard as preferred transportation to the job, but an addition to the language - "gridlock." This is the term that has become current among traffic engineers to describe that urban doomsday, the moment the jam becomes total and all vehicular movement ceases throughout a city. Press and broadcast reports made the public all too familiar with it during the two weeks of no bus and subway service. Its origin is in pre-strike planning that included dividing the city for traffic control purposes into a series of grids composed of blocks of intersecting streets. Emergency efforts focused on the intersections, keeping traffic moving through and avoiding blockages that would halt movement on streets feeding in. The feared worst case was a domino effect, blockage of one intersection rapidly spreading to others throughout a grid - hence gridlock. The term apparently has been in use for some time among traffic engineers. But the G&C Merriam Co., the dictionary people, says it does not appear in any of that authority's dictionaries or reference files, which contain entries dating back more than 100 years. As far as Merriam is concerned, the strike gave public currency to a totally new word - "and a very descriptive one at that." As a consequence, gridlock is going into the files and stands a very good chance of making it into the dictionary as a part of the everyday language. Fine, just so long as it's the word and not the situation described that becomes a synonym.

When the price of copper goes to a dollar and a half your penny will be worth more melted. While world attention has been focused on the soaring prices of petroleum and gold and silver the Soviets have quietly been stockpiling some other essentials. So you won't run out of things to worry about - the next painful pinch you feel will come when our foreign mineral supplies are squeezed. It will hurt less if we anticipate it. The United States economy is inexorably intertwined with the resources of other nations. However much we might sometimes prefer to turn our back on the world, it's no longer possible to do so and maintain our economic equilibrium. We import 98 percent of our manganese, 97 percent of our cobalt, 93 percent of our aluminum, 91 percent of our chromium. And we import much or most of our copper and lead and zinc and molybdenum. Harry Gray of United Technologies says, "The United States is a have-not nation when it comes to certain critical metals." Russia is some better off in this respect than are we. Where the United States must import all key metals with the exception of seven, the Soviet Union is entirely self-sufficient in all metals except five. And even those metals of which the Soviets have more than enough, they continue to stockpile. Chromium and manganese are indispensable to our steel industry - but are produced mostly in Russia, Rhodesia and South Africa. We also rely on Russia and African nations for most of our cobalt, titanium and platinum. Any global conflict bet-

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The big question these days is: What price will unleaded gasoline be by year's end? Shortly before 1979 faded into history, the price of unleaded gasoline had crept above the $1-per-gallon mark. At the time, a memorandum circulating at high levels of the Department of Energy forecasting 1980 gasoline prices predicted that unleaded gasoline would hit $1.50 a gallon by Christmas. When the forecast was leaked to the public, the DOE refused to acknowledge it. Rather, a department spokesman called the $1.50 forecast a "lose guesstimate" - and said it was meant for "internal analysis purposes only." Last month, though, DOE finally published its official unleaded gasoline guess for the end of the year. The price? $1.52 per gallon. But this is only April and, as any driver can testify, the price of unleaded gasoline already has leapt to $1.30 per gallon. Thus, a new memo has begun working its way around the DOE, which concludes that unleaded will be somewhere between $1.75 and $2 per gallon by Christmas. Although the DOE isn't acknowledging this memo, either, its experts are willing to explain how the end-of-year figure was reached. By May 1, they say, the average price of unleaded will be somewhere between $1.30 and $1.35 a gallon. On May 1, President Carter's new excise tax takes effect and, by

May 15 unleaded will go up another 10 cents a gallon. Add to this 5 cents per gallon in increases between Mid-May and July, bringing the average price of unleaded at the pumps to $1.50 by July. Industry and government experts are still debating where it will go from there. Certainly the price will continue to climb; the only question is how much, how fast. Most surveys show that gasoline consumption is down considerably; yet production continues at high levels. We actually are in an oversupply situation, with more oil being produced than is being consumed. World oil prices have continued to climb because many Western nations are building up their reserves against the possibility of a major supply disruption during the second half of the year. This frantic buying has kept demand and prices high. During the 1980 second half, however, this kind of buying should slow down because the reserves will be filled to overflowing. With production high and consumption falling off, prices should begin to stabilize. Don't bet on it, though. Many of the major supplying countries hurt by inflation want prices to continue upwards in order to keep pace, ignoring the fact that ever-higher oil prices play a major role in inflation. The best guess of the DOE experts is that unleaded will zip up to $1.75 during the second half of the year. However, several industry experts warn, if consumption back in the city

NEW YORK (AP)—A generally welcome effect of inflation and gasoline uncertainties has been to force buyers back into some of the city's inner regions, where sound housing had been neglected or abandoned. The result is badly needed aid for city taxes bases, new support for city institutions and a spread of cultural and academic activities. Most of those who have been buying are young. Some are single. For those who began their search early, when nobody was certain the cities would come back and therefore the risk was still great, the reward has been an incredible appreciation in values. During the past 5 years to 8 years, prices in typical rebuilt neighborhoods in almost every city have tripled, and in some areas the gains have been far greater. One national survey revealed these astounding gains: -In Houston's Heights area, houses that were $5,000 in the early 1970s are now selling for $55,000 to $80,000 in their unimproved state, and between $100,000 and $120,000 after modernization and improvements. -In Denver's Capitol Hill, old rooming houses have risen from $15,000 to $18,000 in 1972 to $100,000 in 1979. Restored, they bring $200,000 to $250,000. -In Chicago's Lincoln Park, single-family homes with up to 16 rooms sell for $50,000 or more. In 1972, when operated as rooming houses, they sold for $72,000 to $90,000. -On Seattle's Capitol Hill, extremely large homes in need of repairs sold for $50,000 as late as 1975. Now, after renovations, they sometimes

Husband Forces Split Decision

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 14 months and a problem came up that has me completely baffled. Last night my husband told me that I had to make a choice between him and Nan, my girlfriend. Nan has been my best friend all through school. She stood up for me at my wedding, and I stood up for her at hers. We are as close as sisters, and I can't see ending our friendship just because my husband doesn't like her. He refuses to give me any reasons. He just says it's either him or Nan. Knowing that my husband didn't especially care for Nan, I've never asked him to socialize with Nan and her husband in the evenings. I see Nan only during the day when my husband is at work. So what is your advice? Don't suggest talking to him. I have, and he walks out of the room.

BAFFLED

DEAR BAFFLED: I don't know how old your husband is, but he has a lot of growing up to do. Tell him that unless he gives you a better reason for insisting that you end your friendship with Nan, you intend to continue it. And if he would actually terminate your marriage on such flimsy grounds, either he is looking for an excuse to do so, or something is wrong with him.

DEAR ABBY: I am a recently widowed woman who is in the process of moving to another town due to a job transfer. One of my best friends (female) is also a part-time realtor. When I put my house on the market, I told her that I was going to live my house with a realtor I didn't know personally because my late husband told me never to mix business and friendship and I wholeheartedly agree. I made it very clear to her that it was no reflection on her ability as a realtor, and I hoped it wouldn't affect our friendship.

Well, was I ever wrong! This woman who had been my friend for years suddenly wants nothing more to do with me. She avoids me, and when I call her she's always too busy to talk to me. When I run into her, she barely says hello and rushes away. I feel terrible about this. How can I patch things up?

HURT

DEAR HURT: I doubt if you can, and judging from the way your friend (?) reacted, a friendship that fragile isn't worth patching.

DEAR ABBY: My 22-year-old daughter, who has led a sheltered life, wants to marry a 36-year-old man who told her that he's had so many women in his life he can't count them. He says he's ready to settle down now and become a respectable family man.

Abby, I say you can't change the spots on a leopard — that this lad's man is too used to playing the field to ever settle down. I think he's a poor risk.

Our daughter disagrees. She says he has all the playing around out of his system now, and will make a true and faithful husband. What do you say?

FRANNY'S DAD

DEAR DAD: I say he could be a poorer risk if he just came out of a monastery. There is no way to predict a man's fidelity. Men are like snowflakes: Each one is different. (And that goes for women, too.)

Problems? You'll feel better if you get them off your chest. For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Please enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Here is a hand that is worth a lot of study. As a starter there are lots of ways for North and South to get to, three notrump which is a lead pipe cinch, but they land in four hearts.

West leads his king of clubs and continues with the ace after East drops the five. East completes the echo with the deuce, but West decides not to give his partner a ruff since South will overruff. He shifts to the eight of spades. South wins and has to attack trumps. He can afford just one trump loser. He knows that West has the king of hearts as West opened the bidding. If you look at all the cards you see that South has two ways to get out with only one trump loser. He can lead a heart and play dummy's 10 to East's jack. His next trump play will be to play dummy's ace and drop West's king. The danger here is that if West's eight of spades was a singleton, then East will give his partner a ruff. Thus, South plays dummy's ace, leads a second trump and plays low from his own hand, whereupon West will have to play his king. That is just what South planned to do. But when South led that second low trump, East made an amazing play. He put up his jack of trumps. Now South played his queen. That play looked ironclad. Obviously West held the king-nine. Why would East play the jack when he could see the 10 in dummy unless he had to play it? Now West led another club, and since South had already played the queen of trump, East's nine set the contract. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Britain Has

Dallas Addicts

LONDON (AP)—More than 18 million Britons are anxiously waiting with their American cousins for the fall to bring them the answers to two burning questions: Who shot J.R. and was he killed? The British Broadcasting Corp. which sent American TV audiences "The Forsythe Saga" and "Upstairs Downstairs," is reeling from the success of "Dallas," America's chief contribution to the British cultural scene during the 1979-80 season. "It is undoubtedly the most popular American TV series ever shown in Britain," said BBC-TV spokesman Keith Samuel. "I would say we now have a nation of 'Dallas' addicts on our hands."

Wants hair replacement

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am writing you concerning the various modern hair replacement methods. Like many other young men, I am losing my hair on the top of my head slowly but surely. I am not familiar with all of the available hair replacement methods and would appreciate your ideas on which method is the most successful and worthwhile. I've seen advertisements about surgical skin graft replacements which graft a second scalp onto one's own scalp. Any comments or information that you could give me concerning what to do would be greatly appreciated.

Send your request to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. It will give you more information about what can be done to help prevent and manage balding.

At the present time I think the hair transplant, in which little plugs are taken from the side of the head and moved to the bald area, is really the best method for men. You can have a complete surgical flap taken from the side of the head but this requires a series of operations and is relatively complex.

If you've been reading the newspapers and magazines, you probably know that the idea of sticking plastic hair into the scalp for an instant full head of hair has turned out to be a total disaster. There are innumerable advertised claims for such techniques and other devices for baldness which are really public ripoffs. I do not understand how many of them get past the Federal Trade Commission.

You've told me you have the typical male pattern baldness, but if a person has loss of hair for any reason and isn't absolutely sure what's causing it, he should see a dermatologist first and let him find out what the cause might be. He could also be a reliable source to refer you to a local physician to do hair transplants if that's what you should decide to do.

Two Mishaps Reported Here

A pair of two-car collisions were reported to police Monday night. The first was at 7 p.m. in the 2700 block of Ave. L. Involved in it were a 1970 Chevrolet driven by Cody Harkins and a 1978 Dodge driven by Darrell Robertson. The accident, which resulted in minor damage, was worked by Buddy Kinney. Sgt. Ed Covington worked the next accident, which occurred at 10 p.m. at Gill's Fried Chicken. Reports show a 1971 Olds mobile driven by Robert Jones was in collision with a 1971 Ford driven by Jeanette Minter.

Wants To Hike Postage Rate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Postal Service, citing rapidly rising labor and energy costs, wants to increase the cost of sending a First Class letter 5 cents—the biggest jump in history.

But it could be next year before the 20-cent First Class rate takes effect.

Postmaster General William F. Bolger announced Monday that the request to raise rates would go before the independent Postal Rate Commission, which can hold hearings on the proposal for up to 10 months.

If the commission approves, as expected, the Postal Service then would have to formally approve the increase.

Seventy-five workmen died when the Quebec Bridge on the St. Lawrence River collapsed in 1907. The bridge, near Quebec City, was started in 1900 and was then the world's largest cantilever bridge. In 1916, another 13 construction workers lost their lives as two completed cantilever spans were being hoisted into position and the center span fell into the river.

Coach To Keep Action Basketball At Western Texas.

By BILL McCLELLAN

Western fans came to expect their basketball spicy hot under Coach Nolan Richardson, and new Western Texas College men's basketball coach, Larry Dunaway, doesn't plan to let them down.

Looking for all the world like one of those big city used car salesmen coming to you courtesy of the late-late show, Dunaway the man possess an air of confidence and no less than a grain of mustard seed worth of faith. He also likes exciting basketball.

"I believe in speed and quickness, and shooting the ball," said the 37-year-old coach yesterday morning after being named to replace the Tulsa University-bound Richardson.

"If you have big kids to go along with that, it's a plus. But I like kids that get up and down the floor," he grins. "I think the most important thing is quickness."

Like Richardson, Dunaway believes in tough defense, too. In fact, his district championship San Marcos team allowed its opponents only 47.4 points a game in conference play last season. The team also led the conference in scoring. "I like to see the scoreboard move, yes. But that 47 points is impressive. I was elated over that. Usually my teams give up 60-65 points. We figure if we can hold an opponent to 70 points a game we should win."

Beyond coaching the game, Dunaway will have to recruit for Western Texas. No problem there, he's already on the job with a list of 25-30 national talents, including seven or eight blue chippers. He hopes to bring a share of them to WTC when the fall session rolls around.

A former recruiting coach from the University of Oklahoma, where he earned his masters in Human Relations, Dunaway has taught the game in three states. His recruiting connections are nation wide, he says.

He's written 10 articles which have been published in national coaching magazines. One was picked as one of the five best articles written for 1973. He is currently in the process of authoring a coaching book on basketball, and has given lectures throughout the Southwest on the full court press, fast break and multiple defenses.

Rodgers Finds Happy Moment

BOSTON (AP)—Bill Rodgers, one of the world's foremost distance runners, can mark down 1980 as a year of both bitter disappointment and personal triumph.

The 32-year-old former school teacher trained months in hopes of a shot at Olympic Gold, but settled Monday for a third consecutive, and fourth since 1975, Boston Marathon championship.

"I'd rather be in the Olympics than anything, but I don't even know if I would have made the team," Rodgers said after becoming only the second runner ever to win the 26-mile, 385-yard jaunt from Hopkinton to Boston's Back Bay three years in a row.

Controversy marked the women's race as officials feared a possible hoax. Rosie Ruiz, a 26-year-old office worker in New York, running only her second marathon, originally was declared the winner in a course record of 2:31:56, breaking the mark of 2:35:15 set by Joan Benoit in 1979.

However, race director will Cloney said later there were "grave doubts" that Ruiz had run the entire course and officials would investigate in the next few days. Ruiz later said she was upset, claiming she had run the route.

Rodgers, now a wealthy sportswear tycoon in Boston, trained during the winter in Florida and Arizona to prepare for the Summer Olympic marathon in Moscow. He sharply criticized just about everyone for the U.S. boycott of the Games.

However, he cooled his temper in a hot sun, ran his chief rivals into the pavement, overcame cramps and won the 84th Boston marathon 2 hours, 12 minutes, 11 seconds, defeating Italy's Marco Marchei by about 500 yards. In the 70-degree weather, Rodgers' course record of 2:09:27 last year was not threatened.

New Mexico Native Replaces Richardson...

Search Concluded, Dunaway New Coach

by the SDN Sports Staff
Western fans can stop their worrying. Western Texas College has named a successor to Nolan Richardson. And if he produces the way he believes he can, it won't be long until the door to the trophy case swings open again.

Larry Dunaway, a native of New Mexico who hails most recently from San Marcos, has been chosen to take the men's basketball coaching position at Western Texas.

The 37-year-old coach was named to the post yesterday after a meeting with the college board.

The first thing one notices about Dunaway is his self-confidence.

"My goal is to not miss a beat—go out there and get the type of basketball players we need to compete. I'm not apprehensive at all," said Dunaway, who told the board his goal is to get Western Texas back to the national tournament next season.

In the last seven years as a high school coach, Dunaway's teams have averaged 20 wins a season. This past year he led San Marcos to the District 32-AAAA championship with the best win-loss record in Central Texas, 27-5. The team set 21 school records and had the lowest defensive average allowed of any 4A team in the state. Dunaway was named Central Texas "Coach of the Year."

The list of achievements goes on and on, including a year as assistant varsity coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma University, 185 school records and four state records in nine years as a head coach; author of 10 articles published in national coaching magazines and being the first coach in New Mexico history to receive "Coach of the Year" honors in consecutive years at two different schools.

Almost more impressive is what his players have accomplished. Dunaway has produced 22 all-district players, six All-State players, three All-Southwest players, three All-Americans, and two professional players.

Former achievements aside, the bottom line is what Dunaway can do to keep winning basketball a tradition at Western Texas. Trying to follow Nolan Richardson's 101-13 act would humble most individuals, but Dunaway eyes it with eagerness.

"I like the fact that we have the No. 1 junior college basketball program in the nation. I like the element of pride in being associated with that. I'm not apprehensive at all. I'm hoping to step in and do as great a job as they did (Richardson and Mike Mitchell). These people here have a right to expect that. I don't plan on giving them second best," Dunaway said.

"The pressure doesn't bother me as much as the pressure I'll put on myself. No one will be hurt as long as I plan for us to win."

The new coach noted he has a recruiting list of 25-30 players with "about seven or eight of those priority recruits. If we can get half of those seven or eight, we should be in good shape."

Western Texas, 37-0 last season with a largely sophomore squad, left only five freshmen. Dunaway was expected to get a look at the group yesterday afternoon, and begin evaluating their status for the upcoming season.

Tigers Welcome Brownfield Today

Snyder's Tigers were looking to begin second-round District 3-AAA baseball action with a victory over leader Brownfield here today at 4:30.

Brownfield won the first round with a 5-1 record. Snyder won one game, short at 5-2, followed by Lamesa at 0-6. To have a chance at the District 3-AAA title again this year, Snyder will have to win the second round. Coach Albert Lewis would like to see his team jump in the driver's seat immediately by defeating the powerhouse Cubs here today. Snyder travels to Lamesa on Friday as the round continues.

Texas Rangers Edge Past Hapless Detroit Tigers, 3-2

ARLINGTON (AP)—Is it unfair, one writer asked Detroit manager Sparky Anderson, that the Tigers should be "teased" yet again, only to be turned away with another loss? "Nobody cares about unfairness in this game," Anderson said after his team fell 3-2 to the Texas Rangers Monday night on a double play with the bases loaded in the ninth inning.

The loss dropped Detroit to 2-9 and kept the Tigers in the cellar of the American League East while Texas raised its mark to

8-3 in the AL West. Things will continue to go sour, Anderson said, "until we can get a big base hit or stop making errors."

The Tigers didn't make any errors, but they couldn't deliver the timely hit, either.

Detroit hurler Milt Wilcox, 0-1, matched Texas pitcher Jon Matlack, 2-0, in giving up only six hits. But Al Oliver and Bump Wills stole bases to get into scoring position and race home with key runs that gave the Rangers an early lead they never lost.

Jim Sundberg followed with a seventh inning homer that proved to be the decisive run.

Liberia Executes 9 More

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP)—Nine ministers and top officials of the ousted regime of President William Tolbert were executed by rifle and machine-gun fire before a large crowd on a Monrovia beach today. The nine prisoners, including Tolbert's elder brother, Frank, and former Foreign Minister Cecil Dennis, had been sentenced to death by a summary military tribunal for "high treason, rampant corruption and gross violation of human rights." Liberia's new chief of state, Master Sgt. Samuel K. Doe, rejected last-minute pleas from the American Embassy and other Western diplomatic missions to spare the prisoners' lives.

Arsonist Kills Twenty

SAINT-JEAN-DE-LOSNE, France (AP)—Twenty residents of an old people's home in central France were killed during the night in deliberately set fires, one of them fueled by a Bible, a crucifix and a chalice cover that were laid out for morning Mass, authorities said today. Police said they found clear evidence the fires had been set on purpose. There was speculation the arsonist was a mentally disturbed resident of the home, though authorities said none was known to have mental problems.

Chemical Warehouse Burns

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP)—A plume of black smoke from a fire in a condemned chemical warehouse wafted 15 miles across heavily populated urban areas today, and officials closed schools and urged children and old people to stay indoors. At least 17 people were injured in the fire which burned throughout the night at the Chemical Control Corp. warehouse where 35,000 barrels of toxic and explosive chemicals were stored. It was brought under control this morning.

Idaho Fire Injures 29

FORT HALL, Idaho (AP)—A fire at a chemical factory routed 600 residents from their homes in Fort Hall township early today and sent 29 people to the hospital suffering smoke inhalation. The fire, which broke out late Monday night, destroyed a large shed where liquid and powdered chemicals were stored at the Russett Chemical Co. plant. It was under control but still smoldering this morning.

CBS Nudges ABC For 1st

Britain Recalls Man In Tehran

LONDON (AP)—Britain's ambassador to Iran was on his way home today after being recalled to receive instructions as a result of the Luxembourg meeting of European allies, the Foreign Office said. "There is no question of closing the mission. A charge d'affaires and a small staff will remain in Tehran," said a Foreign Office spokesman in quoting an aide to Foreign Secretary Lord Carrington in Luxembourg. "The Embassy has also been instructed to prepare to make substantial reductions in staff pending the outcome of the meeting," the spokesman said.

Foreign ministers of European allies of the United States were meeting in Luxembourg to decide what actions they can take to support U.S. efforts to obtain release of 50 Americans held hostage in Tehran.

Homeowners near London's two big airports now qualify for free noise-proofing. About 31,000 homes around Heathrow and Gatwick airports will qualify for grants that cover the full cost of noise-proofing two living rooms and all bedrooms.

CBS claimed victory by the narrowest possible margin, one-tenth of a point, in what may have been the closest ratings race in the history of the medium. The outcome was contested by ABC, which began its prime-time season a week ahead of the competition. ABC said the season had ended in a "virtual tie."

Steam, Ash Continue From Mt. St. Helens

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP)—Still obscured by clouds, Mount St. Helens was spewing ash and steam, but University of Washington scientists monitoring earthquakes at the volcano reported little change in seismic activity.

The mountain apparently is in "another plateau type of situation," said Craig Weaver, a U.S. Geological Survey seismologist at the university in Seattle.

Weaver said there had been no harmonic tremors, the kind of quake signaling movement of molten rock within the volcanic cone, for about a week.

Between midnight and 8 p.m. Monday, he said, the only quakes exceeding 4.0 on the open-ended Richter scale registered 4.6 at 7:13 a.m. 4.5 at 11:52 a.m. and 4.1 at 12:34 p.m.

Subway Riders Sprayed With Gas In Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army scientists tested the potential for biological warfare by spraying "harmless" bacteria onto New York City subway riders in 1966, says a newly released government report. The report, obtained by the Church of Scientology under the Freedom of Information Act and released Monday, said the tests showed that subway systems were ripe targets for biological attack.

The 71-page report by the Army's Special Operations Division at Fort Detrick, Md., said "small quantities of a 'harmless simulant agent' were inserted through sidewalk gratings, producing briefly visible aerosol clouds in the subway stations below.

"When the cloud engulfed people" the report said, "they brushed their clothing, looked up at the grating and walked on." Rushing trains quickly drew the substance through subway tunnels throughout the area. But the Army said it was able to disseminate even larger doses by throwing light bulbs containing the bacillus from moving trains.

These tests were conducted without the knowledge of either the New York police or the city's transit authority, the report said.

Summer is just around the corner.

So here are some tips to get ready for it.

- 1. Have a qualified serviceman inspect your home's air conditioning unit. His help before summer arrives can save you money later on. 2. Trim grass and shrubs away from the outside compressor. Without obstructions, your unit can operate more efficiently and for less money. 3. Check your air conditioner's filter. It should be cleaned or replaced once a month. 4. Caulk and weatherstrip around doors and windows. The cool air will stay in, and the hot air will stay out. 5. Make sure your attic has adequate insulation. No sense letting the cool air you pay for escape through the roof.

We all know how good it feels to go out and get in a car that is sparkling clean with a nice shiny paint job and freshly waxed. But we also know that it takes a lot of time and effort to keep our car in this condition. Jerry's Sparkle Shop, located at 2411 25th St., can keep that auto in sparkling condition — and at a reasonable price.

One of the most sought-after services at Jerry's is a custom wax job that is guaranteed to last 18 months. They can also plastic coat your car's finish — and this is a professional job much better than that you see advertised on television, says owner Jerry Cline.

Cline points out that the shop does all kinds of paint and body work including custom paint and detail work. They do glass etching, where an image is sandblasted onto the glass. The shop also does custom fiberglass work.

If you have an older auto, Jerry can do restoration on 30's, 40's, and 50's models. He also has a good line of parts for many of these older cars.

If you're looking to buy a classic car, Jerry says that they have several to choose from.

The shop is open from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and in addition to having that hard-to-find premium gas they also change oil, grease, steam clean and paint motors.

Other things that the shop specializes in are custom paint jobs for pull tractors, pinstripe and detailing work, and scotch-guard treatment for upholstery. They will also tune-up your engine.

Whether you need a fill-up or a custom paint job or anything in between, the place to go is Jerry's Sparkle Shop, 2411 25th St.
