Vote For Contempt Citation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee wanting to question the wealthy Hunt brothers about silver speculation voted unanimously today to seek a contempt-of-Congress citation after they failed to comply with its subpoenas.

Roger Goldberg, attorney for Nelson Bunker Hunt and William Herbert Hunt, told the House government operations subcommittee that his clients wanted to cooperate but the multiplying requests for their appearances threatened to make them professional witnesses.

Storm Slows Boatlift; 2 Dead.

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Gov. Bob Graham declared a state of emergency in counties struggling to cope with 3,500 Cuban refugees as Coast Guard officials found dozens of deserted boats and two bodies and feared more people may have died when a storm hit the "Freedom Flotilla."

The Immigration and Naturalization Service dispatched 100 more Border Patrol agents to deal with the seafaring and customs agents seized three shrimp boats Monday, slapping heavy fines on the owners who brought 507 illegal aliens into the United States.

In Miami, immigration officials locked up more than a dozen Cubans who fellow refugees identified as criminals, and INS officer Kent Wheeler said there were sighs Cuban President Fidel Castro was "sending his incorrigible..."

No Shooting, Says Pentagon...

Iran, U.S. Jets Clash In Air

By The Associated Press. Iran claimed two carrier-based U.S. fighter jets "started to shoot" at an Iranian patrol plane over the Gulf of Oman today in the first U.S.-Iranian military confrontation since the American hostages were seized nearly six months ago. The Pentagon denied there was any shooting.

In Washington, the Defense Department said: "Two F-14 aircraft from the aircraft carrier Nimitz made a routine intercept of an Iranian C-130 aircraft near the Strait of Hormuz. The U.S. aircraft escorted the Iranian plane back to Iranian air space. It was a routine intercept. There was no firing of weapons."

Washington officials said the Iranian airplane came within approximately 50 miles of the Nimitz and the two F-14s were launched to look it over. The Nimitz is one of about 30 U.S. warships station in the Indian Ocean following the takeover of the U.S.

Embassy in Tehran last Nov. 4 by Iranian militants and the December Soviet thrust into Afghanistan.

The official Iranian news agency Pars quoted the Iranian army joint staff as saying the two American planes started to shoot at the Iranian plane but four Iranian jets were sent up and they "warded off the attack." Pars quoted the army as saying the U.S. planes "changed their direction as the four Iranian jetfighters escorted the patrol plane" back to Iran. Tehran Radio reported the Iranian army joint staff has warned the armed forces to "expect extensive action by the U.S. Army" in the wake of last week's abortive attempt to rescue the American hostages in Iran.

The Gulf of Oman, 350 miles long and 200 miles wide, lies on the southern shore of Iran and separates the Arabian Sea from the Persian Gulf. Iran has two major ports on the Gulf of Oman, Jask and Chah Bahar, and must use this body of water in exporting its oil. Meanwhile, Iranian Foreign Minister Sadegh Ghotbzadeh escaped unharmed from what appeared to be an assassination attempt in Kuwait, Iran's army mobilized for a major offensive against Kurdish rebels in Sanandaj, and a controversial churchman arrived in Tehran to take charge of the bodies of the U.S. commandos killed in the abortive U.S. hostage rescue.

Kuwait's news agency said a hail of bullets fired from at least two cars hit a motorcade taking Ghotbzadeh to a meeting with Kuwait's ruler at Assaf

Palace, slightly wounding a Kuwait security guard. The palace is the home of Sheik Jaber Al-Ahmad, Kuwait's ruling emir. The Kuwait Interior Ministry said police located two cars used in the attack, but made no mention of arrests.

The Iranian news agency Pars said one of the cars was found outside the Iraqi Embassy in Kuwait and claimed "the passengers of the car left the vehicle and entered the Iraqi Embassy." Pars also said two suspects had been taken into custody.

There was no Kuwaiti confirmation. Iran and Iraq have been having a dispute along their border in recent weeks.

The SDN Column

One of the best kept secrets around town last week was Beta Sigma Phi's Woman-Of-The-Year award recipient, but it created something of a mystery for Jo Ann Nunley, the SDN Woman's Editor. Several times during the week, she marveled that her husband, Mickey, had agreed to accompany her, to the Beta Sigma Phi banquet without any arm-twisting. When the Nunleys arrived, Jo Ann, knowing Beta Sigma Phi's custom of honoring someone outside the organization, looked around the banquet room and failed to see a likely recipient.

"They must have decided it was time to honor one of their own," she said, and then didn't give it another thought until her name was called. "I couldn't believe it," she said. "But everybody else could."

Mrs. Elva Lemons Germaine of Estes Park, Colo., sends word that she received a copy of the recipe for stuffed camel the SDN published some time ago. It was sent by her sister, Mrs. Howard Hogue. She says she has six Colorado mountain trout in her freezer and when she catches 94 more, she will be ready almost to try the recipe.

In exchange, she sent us her favorite recipe for elephant stew, which we are happy to pass along.

Here goes:
One medium sized elephant.
One ton of salt.
One ton of pepper.

200 bushels of carrots.
4,000 sprigs of parsley.
500 bushels of potatoes.
Two small rabbits (optional).
Brown gravy.

Cut elephant meat into bit sized pieces. This will take about two months. Cut vegetables into cubes (another two months). Place meat in pan and cover with 1,000 gallons of brown gravy. Simmer for four weeks. Shovel in pepper and salt. When meat is tender, add vegetables. A steam shovel is useful for this. Simmer slowly for four more weeks.

This will serve 3,800 people. If more are expected, add the two rabbits. This is not recommended, as very few people like hare in their stew.

On Trip To Texas...

Kennedy Visits Hurt Commandos

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Sen. Edward Kennedy, the underdog in Saturday's Texas Democratic presidential primary, today visited four American commandos injured in last week's aborted Iranian rescue mission.

"He expressed his gratitude for the brave actions the men took," said Stuart Shapiro of Kennedy's campaign staff. "This was something the senator had wanted to do since Saturday. These men are heroes. They appreciated his visit."

Kennedy's visit to the Brooke Army Medical Center came on the heels of a visit by President Carter, the overwhelming favorite in the May 3 balloting among Democrats.

Carter's two-hour visit Monday was described as nonpolitical, but Kennedy campaign officials felt the president was attempting to help himself in the Saturday primary in the wake of the unsuccessful rescue attempt and the resignation of the secretary of state.

Earlier in the day Kennedy told a small gathering of Texas farmers he would correct the "failed and flawed" economic policy he said was burdening agriculture. He pledged he would see that America's farmers do not bear an unfair economic burden.

"I think that the belt tightening should be felt across out society," Kennedy said, attacking oil companies for their escalating profits.

Awards Made At DE Banquet

Thirty years of distributive education in Snyder was celebrated Monday night at a banquet held at The Shack.

The banquet program was highlighted by the presentation of the outstanding senior and junior DE students in Snyder High School this school year.

The plaques were presented to Tammy Justice, outstanding senior DE student, and to Carrie Ainsworth, outstanding junior

DE student, by Jim Rosson, local DE coordinator. Rosson also presented other awards during the banquet, which was attended by Snyder High DE students and their employers. The employer-employee banquet is an annual event.

Local DE students who represented Snyder High School in competitive events of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) were recognized. Snyder High had DE students in both area and state-level competition.

Bobby Hataway was recognized as the top sales producer in the club's fund-raising event.

Cronkite Denies VP Aspirations

WASHINGTON (AP)—CBS anchorman Walter Cronkite flatly denied today that he would consider running for vice president on a ticket with presidential hopeful John Anderson.

Cronkite, named in polls as one of the most popular and highly trusted men in America, was quoted in the May 3 issue of New Republic magazine as saying he would be honored to join Anderson in the 1980 presidential race.

"However, in a statement issued through CBS, Cronkite said: 'The New Republic reporter has misinterpreted our conversation.'

"I have no interest in entering politics in any capacity," the Cronkite statement said. "I have never endorsed a political candidate and I have no intention of endorsing a political candidate in the upcoming campaign, including Mr. Anderson."

"The short statement concluded: 'It is not the first time a political career has been suggested for me and my answer is the same as it has always been - not interested.'

Cronkite, who is currently on vacation, was earlier reported to be sailing off Florida today. But the CBS statement said he was "reached in North Carolina," apparently by ship-to-shore radio.

Cronkite was quoted in the magazine as saying the Illinois Republican congressman, who recently embarked on an independent campaign for the White House, had not yet invited him to run on the same ticket.

But if he did, "I'd be so honored to be asked, I wouldn't turn it down," Cronkite was quoted.

Air Fares Going Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Domestic air fares are going up again this week for the third time this year.

The Civil Aeronautics Board approved a 5.4 percent rate hike Monday, effective on Thursday. That's on top of a 2.5 percent increase approved Jan. 1 and a 3.3 percent increase granted on March 1.

The airlines say the increases are needed because of the continuing rise in the cost of jet fuel. The CAB said last month that fuel rose from an average of 40 cents a gallon in January 1979 to 85.79 cents a gallon in March.

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Monday, 82 degrees; low, 44 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. today, 54 degrees; precipitation, none; total precipitation for 1980 to date, 2.10.

West Texas: Fair north, partly cloudy south today with scattered thunderstorms in the extreme west. Increasing cloudiness tonight with scattered thunderstorms Wednesday with possibly a few severe thunderstorms central and eastern sections during the afternoon. Cooler, most sections Wednesday. Highs today upper 70s north to upper 80s south and middle 90s. Big Bend valleys. Lows tonight upper 40s mountains and northwest to lower 60s southeast. Highs Wednesday 68 northwest to 82 southeast and upper 80s lowlands of Big Bend.

Absentee Vote Total Growing

A last-minute flurry was adding substantially today to the absentee vote totals for Saturday's primary elections.

By noon today, the 200 mark had been passed in absentee ballots for the Democratic Party Primary, and 12 persons had cast absentee ballots in the Republican Primary.

The ballots for absentee ballots continued and no "let-up" was expected during the afternoon, said Joan Bunch, deputy county clerk who is overseeing the absentee voting at the clerk's office.

The deadline for casting absentee ballots is 5 p.m. today, closing time for the clerk's office in the county courthouse.

The primary elections will be held Saturday, with polls scheduled to open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. Democrats will be operating polling places in all 13 voting precincts in the county, while Republicans will have single voting place at West Elementary School.

However three of the polling places for the Democratic Primary will be in different locations from those used in general elections held by the county. The South Snyder polling place (15) will be in the Snyder School administration building. This voting box uses the Towle Park Barn for general election voting. The North-west Snyder box (17) will be at city hall, instead of the county library where it is operated for general elections. The Southwest Snyder voting box will be at the junior high school. It uses the school administration building for general elections.

All other voting precincts will use the regular polling places for the Democratic Primary.

Ask Us

Q—Is it against the law or some regulation, for young children three and four years old to be left unattended at the Kiddie Park?

A—There is no law concerning this—it is strictly responsibility of the parents to see that a child is properly supervised in the park. However, if a small child should be left unattended and appears to be in danger there, or anywhere else, it might be referred to the Child Welfare Office.

Probably Warren Christopher...

Carter Prepares To Pick New Secretary Of State

WASHINGTON (AP)—Back from a quick trip to express his personal thanks to the servicemen injured in an aborted attempt to rescue American hostages in Iran, President Carter is preparing to name a secretary of state to replace the one who quit in protest to the mission.

The man most commonly mentioned as the likely successor to Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance was his deputy, Warren Christopher.

Carter was expected to reveal his choice to congressional leaders before announcing it at a 9 p.m. EDT nationally televised news conference from the East Room of the White House.

Weeks before Vance resigned in a rare public clash of view on the failed rescue mission, Carter's top national security adviser, Zbigniew Brzezinski, said he expected Vance to be replaced by Christopher early next year. Brzezinski, long pictured as a Vance rival, said he did not want the job and reported that Carter was favorably inclined to Christopher.

There have been various reports that other officials would follow Vance and resign because they disagreed with the rescue attempt, but White House press secretary Jody Powell said Monday he would try to talk them out of it.

The Iran rescue mission wasn't the first time Vance had expressed his disagreement with Carter.

Earlier this year, the departing secretary of state made a formal, written dissent to Carter's intention to ban food exports to Iran—a plan that never was implemented. In Texas after his hospital visit to the injured survivors of the rescue mission—the president's first trip outside the Washington area since the hostage crisis began Nov. 4—Carter called Vance "a fine and dedicated man who has served this nation well."

But he said Vance's departure—and the circumstances that prompted it—could not have any adverse effect at all on the efforts to rescue the American hostages nor will it have any impact on the future.

The White House said Carter was acting as commander-in-chief on his trip to San Antonio, and Powell said he knew of no plans for Carter to take up campaign travels as long as the hostages remain in Iran.

tale of two countries

Tucked away on business pages recently was an item of only passing interest to even a small segment of the public.

Poland is seeking help in managing its foreign debt. Economically hard-pressed, as usual, and politically trapped, as frequently, by worsening U.S.-Soviet relations, it needs it. The Poles owe a whopping $18 billion to Western creditors.

They are hoping for a sympathetic response from countries that have helped in the past - the United States, Canada, France, West Germany, Italy and Austria.

Austria? The Alpine country does not usually leap to mind in discussions of the world's financial powers. But in recent years it has posted one of the better records for economic stability.

Quite an achievement considering its resources. It has ore, some oil and fertile land in the east. Plus for tourists draws spectacular mountain scenery and a capital, Vienna, that may well be the world's most livable great city.

Austria has come a very long way since the end of World War II, from which it emerged an economic basket case. Not so devastated as Poland, to be sure, but the latter had as much or more to work with once the recovery effort began.

Poland today has its hand out for help. Austria is one of those in a position to extend a helping hand. Reasons for the discrepancy between the two countries are many and complex, but one stands out: Poland has that Soviet connection, Austria does not.

Ezzell merits support

On Saturday, May 3, Democratic voters in Snyder and the remainder of the 63rd District have the opportunity to return experience and proven ability to the Texas legislature.

A look at the record clearly indicates that Mike Ezzell is an easy recommendation in this election. This record indicates a consistently conservative voice and a conservative approach to state government.

While state government has grown, we are relieved that we have legislators like Rep. Ezzell who ask the tough and sometimes unpopular questions. We need more legislative calls for agency and staff justifications.

Rep. Ezzell has been an able lawmaker with regard to representing true views of this area. His voting record clearly indicates that his philosophy is in tune with that of his district.

Seniority is important in the Texas House, and Rep. Ezzell now has the experience and the seniority to be influential for the benefit of this district.

This seniority has resulted in several key committee appointments. One such appointment is his chairmanship of the Health Services Committee. He also has served on the House Education Committee—important to the educational institutions of this district.

Rep. Ezzell has taken a no-nonsense, no-frills approach to state government, and in current economic times, we find it desirable that Rep. Ezzell be in Austin to help influence and offset those from more liberal parts of the state.

Rep. Ezzell has the special qualifications and experience that make him the logical choice for re-election as state representative from District 63.

Powers Boothe had reservations about taking the part of Jim Jones in the Guyana Tragedy, the season's best watched mini-series.

"My friends warned me not to take it, said it would ruin my career," Boothe said in a conversation with Tom Brokaw in Monday's edition of NBC's Today Show.

Boothe is a 1965 graduate of Snyder High School. He portrayed the maniacal leader of People's Temple, a cult who received worldwide notoriety when 900 of its members committed mass suicide in their jungle commune in 1978.

"My first reaction was not to take it, Boothe said of the role. But when he saw that it did not deal with just the sensation, but the unfolding story of the enigmatic Jim Jones and the loyalty he evoked from his followers, he accepted.

"Everyone knew how it was going to end and had the show just dwelled on the murders, the drugs and the sex I would not have done it."

Brokaw asked Boothe if his own personal background helped him understand his role, assuming that since he was raised in a small town in Texas he would be familiar with faith healing and tent revivals and such on a first hand basis.

"Yeah, I saw things like that on Sunday morning television," Boothe said. A lot of actors these days cannot resist the urge to capitalize on the misconceptions people may have about certain areas of the country. I can't count the guests on Johnny Carson who have described their hometowns as the stereotyped barefoot backwoods American hicktown. Besides being entertaining I think they believe that the public will interpret their rise from hillbilly land to Hollywood as further testimony to their greatness.

Boothe, however, seems to have no such inclinations: When Brokaw identified his home town as Snyder, Texas Boothe corrected him with "Snyder, Texas period."

Boothe again declined an opportunity for a regional slur when Brokaw noted that during Boothe's senior year in high school he did not play football so he could be more involved in drama productions.

"Didn't this cause your manhood to be suspect?"

"School boy football is a way of life in Texas, Boothe conceded, "but I knew very early that I was not going to make my living butting my head against others' and besides, plays were more fun."

Speaking of stereotypes, Boothe doesn't fit the mold of the capricious and insecure show business person either. He comes across as thoroughly professional and dedicated to his craft, acting.

women and the draft

President Carter wants to register men and women for military service. He has the authority to proceed with the registration of men unless Congress should withhold the necessary money. Mark Hatfield and others are considering that possibility.

The President needs the concurrence of Congress to register women. There is no way he is going to get that.

Congressmen will submit their sons to a military draft, but never their daughters!

The day the President registers men for military service - without registering women - a challenge will be launched in the courts claiming "discrimination." It's inevitable.

Professor of constitutional law at Yale Thomas Emerson says, "Whichever way it goes in Congress a suit will be filed; there is no way the courts can avoid it."

Attorney David Landau of the Civil Liberties Union says, "The day the President signs male-only registration, that day we will be in court."

Incidentally, the Supreme Court of the United States has never heard the military draft challenged on constitutional grounds. I believe the high court has never heard any draft case. It will now.

Even President Carter is having trouble with the "women in combat" question. He says women should register, but he cannot envision women in combat.

Inevitable legal challenges are certain to contend that equal rights impose equal responsibilities, that an equal right to live equates with an equal right to die.

UPI's Cheryl Arvidson says that "true believers in equal rights should demand to be on the front line."

Jackson Jimmy-Ward says, "Any woman wanting military service for herself can sign up now."

But there has been no rush to recruiting offices. The men-women consideration is peripheral, it seems to me, to the central issue. Mobilizing manpower and/or womanpower indicates that our leadership is anticipating fighting any next war hand-to-hand between trenches. That, of course, would be suicidal for our minuscule American minority.

I'm hoping that women will be included in any contemplated registration and/or draft because I am convinced that women are more practical than men. Instead of romanticizing war, as generations of men have, women will see through and reject the senselessness of a tradition that says stay line, march step, forward - whatever the enemy's numbers.

Women, reading history, will not be enamored with vain heroics.

They realize that while Gen. Custer was very brave - he was not very smart.

WASHINGTON (NEA)— It was exactly 15 years ago this month that 405 U.S. Marines landed in Santo Domingo, ostensibly to rescue American citizens caught in the crossfire of a civil war that suddenly had erupted in the Dominican Republic.

And it was exactly one year ago this month that more than 1,000 residents of Kerala, a small town in Afghanistan not far from the Khyber Pass, were massacred by Afghan troops acting under orders from Soviet military "advisers."

The two anniversaries are worth noting because they provide evidence of both the similarities and the disparities in the military adventures of the United States and the Soviet Union.

Within a few days after the Dominican rebels launched their offensive against the military-backed civilian junta then ruling the Caribbean nation, the rebellion erupted into open warfare in the streets of Santo Domingo.

The lives of Americans and other foreign nationals living in that capital were indeed endangered, thus justifying President Lyndon B. Johnson's decision to dispatch the Marines on April 28, 1965, to protect and evacuate U.S. citizens.

But long after that task had been completed, American troops continued to pour into the country. Within a month, there were almost 24,000 uninvited Marines and members of the Army's 82nd Airborne Division.

Those forces were not fully withdrawn until 18 months later - after the rebels' presidential candidate and their bid for restoration of constitutional government had been rejected in ostensibly free elections.

Vietnam offers another Afghanistan analogy. Beginning with 900 military "advisers" in 1960, the United States engaged in a massive buildup that peaked in 1969 with 541,500 troops committed to a vast land, sea and air operation that carried hostilities into neighboring Laos and Cambodia.

Overshadowing the 50,000 American fatalities were the 1.5 million Asian lives lost, many the victims of B-52 carpet bombing, napalm attacks and other brutal forms of modern warfare.

But the United States never resorted to the inhumane use of chemical or biological warfare. That contrasts with reliable claims from intelligence sources that the Soviets have unleashed in Afghanistan a nerve gas that produces nausea, convulsions and then death within 15 minutes.

Moreover, in a little-publicized memo recently sent to Sen. Lloyd M. Bentsen, D-Tex., Director of Central Intelligence Stansfield Turner outlined a series of alleged atrocities committed last year by Afghan military forces, at a time when that country's government was under Soviet control.

In Kerala, a column of 30 Afghan tanks and armored personnel carriers ringed the community on April 20, 1979, then pointed their guns toward the center of town.

When local residents defiantly shouted Muslim religious sayings instead of the demanded pro-communist slogans, approximately 1,170 men and boys were forced to crouch together, then were slaughtered by Afghan troops under Soviet direction.

In another village where residents refused to cooperate with the pro-Soviet regime, Afghan troops mutilated children in front of their parents, then killed the adults and destroyed the town.

In a third incident, 300 residents of a village were slain by Afghan troops. In other cases, aggravated rape by Afghan soldiers has led to the victims' deaths.

A modest observation: The United States is somewhat more humanitarian than the Soviet Union in its military adventures (although "humane warfare" probably is a contradiction in terms) but has not been markedly less disposed to military meddling on foreign soil.

If President Carter's Olympic boycott and export embargoes are part of a propaganda campaign to embarrass the Soviets, that's a legitimate undertaking.

But if the president actually believes his sanctimonious rhetoric, he lacks even the most elementary understanding of recent history and contemporary geopolitics.

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Wise to exercise

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I'm a 24-year-old female and I'm very concerned about my health and preventing heart problems. My grandfather and uncles had histories of heart attacks at very young ages. My father died of a heart attack at age 52. He was in excellent health and had no previous heart problems.

With this family background, I want to do as much as I can to prevent these. I know that exercise and diet are important. I jog three miles about three times a week and swim three to five miles a week. I try to keep as active as possible. Please advise me about a sensible diet, especially foods that are wise to cut down or avoid. What are the chances of my developing a heart problem with the family background I have?

DEAR READER - You're wise to take cognizance of your family history. It's true that some families have a tendency to have heart attacks early in life. You have one big advantage - being female: It's uncommon for women during the childbearing years to develop heart disease. The exceptions are women who have diabetes, high blood pressure or kidney disease usually associated with high blood pressure.

Nevertheless, once a woman passes the childbearing years, her tendency to develop fatty-cholesterol deposits in the coronary arteries often increases markedly. Eventually, she has just as much of a problem as a man does.

You are wise to exercise. The real value of exercise is that it helps in weight control. This, in turn, often helps to lower cholesterol and blood pressure - two important risk factors in causing heart disease.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 154, "Diet To Prevent Heart Attacks and Strokes." It includes the general principles of low-fat, low-cholesterol diets that people should follow for dietary help in lowering cholesterol to help prevent heart disease. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

The ultimate measure of whether the steps you're taking to prevent heart disease are successful or not really are the effects your life style has on your risk factors. If your diet and exercise program is adequate for you, you should have a normal or low normal blood pressure with normal or preferably low normal cholesterol level. In addition, of course, you should not smoke but I presume that you don't.

In the event that a person's blood pressure and cholesterol or either one remain high after adequate dietary and exercise measures have been initiated, then medicines may be in order. I prefer for people to try adequate weight control, diet and sensible exercise, however, before resorting to using medicines. If these are successful, very often medicines are not necessary.

Applications Taken For GS Wider Opportunities

Interested Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts and adult volunteers are being offered a once-in-a-triennium opportunity to go on the "Our Cabana Mexico City Wider Opportunity," a trip sponsored by the West Texas Girl Scout Council each third year. Sixteen girls and adult sponsors will be selected for the June 11 - 23, 1981 tour. The girls and four alternates will be chosen May 18 at Camp Boothe Oaks, in Sweetwater.

Interested girls should apply by May 12. A registered Girl Scout who will be 14 by June 1, 1981, may go, but many girls and adults will be applying for this opportunity, therefore, it will be necessary to select candidates at the May 18 interview.

"Our Cabana" is a World Center owned and operated by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. It is 47 miles southwest of Mexico City near Cuernavaca, Mexico. The girls will spend one week at the residential program center learning arts and music of Mexico, helping with local community service projects and going on sight-seeing tours to Taxco and shopping trips to Cuernavaca, said a WTGSC spokesman. The girls will participate in an international cultural exchange program assisted by the staff at Our Cabana.

Also, on a two-day stay in Mexico City the group will visit the Cathedral, the Presidential Palace, Zocalo, Chapultepec Park and Castle, Teotihuacan Pyramids, City of Mexico Museum, University of Mexico, bullfights, the Folkloric Ballet, the Shrine of Guadalupe, Xochimilco Floating Gardens, and other places of interest.

Each girl will earn some of the expenses of the trip through money-raising projects or donations. Additional council support is available from the annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale.

Adults wishing to serve as council representatives and trip sponsors may request applications through the Program Services Committee, WTGSC, Box 5386, Abilene, Texas 79605 no later than May 31.

The WTGSC is a participating agency of the United Way.

HERMLEIGH NEWS

BY ADALA DRENNEN

Little Miss April Martin at Snyder spent Thursday and Friday with her paternal grandparents the Anson family.

Mrs. Anson Martin was treated to supper at the Bonanza in Abilene Saturday evening by her son, Michael, of Sweetwater and his friend Miss Sandra Williams. They also attended the Dallas Cowboy and Abilene Police basketball game at the coliseum. Sunday night the Anson Martins had as dinner guests at Cross Ties in Sweetwater their children, daughter Mrs. and Mrs. Jay Thurman and little Tanner of Snyder. Later they all visited with Anson Martin's father, Carl Martin, who is hospitalized at Bulling Plains Hospital in Sweetwater. He is reported to be much improved.

The Hermleigh Quilting Bee, which meets each Monday at the Hermleigh Community Center had five members attending. They were Ophelia Hays, Della Young, Roxie Soules, Ota Groves and Bertie Mae Hervey. Mrs. Hazel Hunkback was a guest.

Rev. and Mrs. D.D. Smith attended the funeral service of his sister, Mrs. Jettie Field, at Floyd's Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Beavis Groves, Kay Williams, Jerry Vernon, Waurine Wall, Thaba McMillan, Ruby Reeves, Kathy Gansaway, Julie Hays and Jamie Boesch, were co-hostesses for a shower honoring the Julie Groves, recent newly-weds. The serving table was decorated with a lovely white lace trimmed cloth, holding a white carnation and a red carnation in the globe centered in multi-colored flowers, with red predominating. Punch, cookies, and nuts were served.

Mrs. Thaba McMillan left last week for a visit with relatives in Dallas. While there she attended the ice Capades where Dorothy Hamil starred. In Fort Worth she also visited with other relatives and attended the "Spring Thing," similar to our fairs, the Japanese Gardens, and went shopping.

The Needlecraft Club met Tuesday with six members attending. They were Oleta Jackson, Josie Maule, Roxie Soules, Dorothy Martin, Rachel Lassiter, and Adala Drennan. Hue Mason is much better from surgery and Mrs. Bobby Mason is doing nicely after having two heart surgeries.

The Hermleigh Community Association met last Thursday night for their regular business meeting and the election of officers was held. Joe Ramey was elected president, Tommy Henry, vice-president; Mrs. Barlene Peel, secretary-treasurer; Jerry Clift, assistant secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Nell Henry reporter; and Mrs. Ruth Davis, assistant reporter and refreshment chairman. The next meeting will be held at the center May 22.

Mrs. Edna Richburg of Dallas is visiting the O.W. Richburgs and Herman Richburgs.

Boy Scouts of this area met last Saturday at the Armory in Snyder for an Exposition. Several booths were set up to show what they were doing, and the Hermleigh scouts gave basic first aid methods under the supervision of Scout Master, Rev. Charles Gray.

For anyone who has not visited, the prairie dog town at the Towle Park recently, it is suggested to do so. There are many little prairie dogs now and they are so cute and playful as well as putting on quite a show for the visitors. For a town the size of Snyder, this park is one of the most beautiful in West Texas.

Mrs. Rex (Carol) Mitchell of Tye has returned to her home after visiting her parents the Victor Beinbauer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Wall have returned from Amarillo where they visited their daughter Mr.

and Mrs. Marty (Jane) Jones and in Pampa where they were guest of their son Mr. and Mrs. Dick (Ann) Wall.

Here is a really silly bridge problem. The question is: "How did South make two notrump?" The defender did not revoke and actually made just one real mistake.

South might well have passed as dealer, but he was in a bidding mood and opened his 12 balanced points with one club. North elected to respond one diamond and East got into the business of silly bidding with one heart.

South bid one notrump with his rock-bottom minimum. This ended the auction.

You can't blame West for opening his fourth-best spade. South won with the jack and played his queen of hearts. East took his ace and led the seven of diamonds. Dummy's nine took that trick. South cashed dummy's king of hearts, continued by finessing the nine in his hand and cashing the jack. Meanwhile, West had thrown the three of spades so South knew that East did not have a spade to Exercise while ironing.

Next time you're at the ironing board, try the great exercise for toning the buttocks. With heels straight and feet 12 inches apart, bring one leg out to the side, then tuck it back and hold for a count of five. Return to starting position, then repeat with other leg, concentrating on really toning those muscles. Do this five times for each leg.

The trend in makeup today is to use a sheer, natural-looking foundation during the day and a skin-perfuming base at night. If you have just the beaver kind and want to

Cold Turkey Method Best For Quitting

NEW YORK (AP)—Trying to kick the cigarette habit "cold turkey" may be the hardest and most severe method, but it is also the most effective, according to two University of California scientists.

Saul M. Shiffman and Dr. Murray E. Jarvik, of the Neuropsychiatric Institute of the UCLA School of Medicine in Los Angeles, say that smokers who quit suddenly suffer less withdrawal symptoms than those who choose other methods.

The scientists say about 90 percent of the smokers who tried to gradually stop puffing suffer from a "severe craving for tobacco," that lasts about two weeks.

On the other hand, they said withdrawal symptoms seemed to ease during the first few days for those who quit "cold turkey," making it easier to hold out until the craving pains run their course.

Your electric bill has something in common with your grocery bill---inflation.

Inflation has made every can of corn, every carton of milk cost more today.

Everything it takes to produce and deliver groceries—fuel, equipment, etc.—is increasing in price.

The same is true of electricity. The cost of fuel to generate electricity is going up. So are the costs of power lines, transformers, poles and other equipment.

We're helping fight the effect of inflation on your electric bill by building new power plants that use cheaper lignite coal and nuclear fuels.

There are things you can do, as well. By using electricity wisely, just as you shop for groceries wisely, you can help hold down your electric bill.

By attending one of our free "Operation Tighten-Up" workshops, you can learn effective ways to conserve electricity. Call us and arrange to attend a workshop in your neighborhood.

The drill is divided into four parts. Two involve quotation drill and completion drill, using 25 scriptures and references memorized, and two

Dear Abby

Viewing Childbirth: Why Not Hire a Band!

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When APPALLED IN K.C. wrote that she was dismayed that her married daughter was going to let her 3-year-old son and 19-year-old unmarried sister witness the birth of her second child, you said, "It should be a fascinating and educational experience."
My wife and I are contemplating having a child. I would like to invite her 11-year-old nephew and members of his Little League team to witness the conception of the child. I also think it would be a "fascinating and educational experience" for the neighborhood kindergarten class to watch. My wife is appalled at this idea. Would you please tell her that she is a prude — that the best way to learn about the miracle of life is to witness it from its very beginning? Signed

AS CRAZY AS YOU

DEAR ABBY: Surely you weren't serious when you approved allowing a 3-year-old to watch his mother give birth! I am a registered nurse who has assisted in at least 5,000 births, and every time one of those supportive husbands, scrubs and dons a gown to be with his wife during childbirth, I hold my breath for fear he will faint. Men in the delivery room are a pain in the neck. The bigger they are, the harder they fall. Abby, please don't encourage making childbirth a family affair. We don't need fainting daddies and hysterical kids while mama is panting, puffing and pushing.

MARTHA AT ST. JOHN'S

DEAR ABBY: When I was 9, my mother gave birth prematurely to my brother. I was the only one present — not counting my little sisters who were 4 and 6 at the time. It took me years to get over it. I'm not sure I ever did. I am now 36 years old, married, but

NO CHILDREN IN CANADA

DEAR ABBY: Allowing a 19-year-old unmarried girl to witness the birth of a baby might cause her to go on the Pill for the duration. But a 3-year-old child! Abby, that's sick! According to the Bible, Elizabeth hid herself for five months before John was born. Births should be sacred and private — not a sideshow.

M.S.F. IN BELPRE, OHIO

DEAR ABBY: I think that a young expectant mother who wants to watch a new life come into the world... And so are you for agreeing with her... "learning experience," why not invite her to a nursery school class, and serve ice cream and cookies... yet, why not hire a hall and sell tickets?

MAC IN PASADENA

DEAR ABBY: I've read and reread that letter 17 times, and still can't believe my eyes. Abby, as a nurse (obstetrics and surgery) for 23 years, and mother of five, I think even a normal birth is not for the eyes of a 3-year-old. Can you guarantee that the birth will be quick, quiet and uncomplicated? Seeing his mother moan, scream and yell could be traumatic for the youngster. And heaven forbid there should be complications! To expose a child to these facts of life at such a tender age could give him psychological problems for life. This is child abuse! Where were your brains on this one, Abby?

R.C. IN RICHMOND, VA.

DEAR ABBY: I'm all for youngsters learning about the miracle of life through family discussions, school films and pictures, and even seeing animals giving birth, but I don't think they should witness the actual delivery of a child until they are old enough to place the order!

WTC Schedules Theatre Workshop

A theatre workshop will be offered at Western Texas College during the summer session scheduled from May 29-July 23. James Rambo, WTC speech and drama instructor, will direct the workshop, and encourages adults interested in theatre to join the class. Most of the activities will be planned during evening hours, with some technical work done in the afternoons.

Early admissions students, high school seniors who have the permission of their school principal, are also invited to enroll. Rambo plans to produce a musical comedy through the workshop, with auditions to be held soon after May 29. Opening date for the show has tentatively been set for June 26.

Community residents interested in auditioning for the show are invited to contact Rambo at his office at WTC for details. The course is listed as Drama 235 on the summer schedule. Registration for all summer courses will be held on May 28.

West Virginia's New River — despite its name is actually the oldest river in North America. It has maintained its ancient course for a hundred million years. It is also probably the most concentrated dose of white water in the United States — with 21 major rapids in one 15-mile stretch.

ASTRO-GRAPH Bernice Bede Osol

April 30, 1980

Bonds of friendship and/or your marriage will be strengthened this coming year. For those of you who are unwed, there is a good chance you'll find your one and only.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If a situation arises today to put you in the position where you must take a side, support your long-standing pals, no matter how awkward it appears. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Tackle all those unfinished projects you've got lying around the house. The staying power needed to complete them is with you today.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) It may take courage, but today is the day you might find it in order to say something difficult to a friend.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A way may open today to acquire something you've been wanting for a long time. Take advantage of it. Chances are it won't be there tomorrow.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) It will make things easier if you can see the humor in a weighty situation. In fact, it could help lessen its gravity.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You might finally see some material gains today from a project on which you've worked. Your reward will be worthy of all your efforts.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) The practical avenues you take to develop an idea today will be the reason for the success of your project. Those down-to-earth ways are winners.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You'll get much further today by staying behind the scenes and letting someone with experience take the reins — and the load off your shoulders.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) An older acquaintance may come into the picture today and show you how to find the answers to a puzzling situation. Follow his or her advice to the letter.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) The fruits of your labor may be ready to harvest today. Your yield will be in proportion to the size of the field you plowed and the number of seeds you sowed.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Be philosophical and take the long-range view if you have a problem, and things will work out very well today. The hard, cold facts will show you the way.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Joint participation is the way to conquer any difficult project that might be confronting you. Combining your talents with another's makes short work of the task.

'Mature' People Honored

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Comedian George Burns, syndicated columnist Jack H. Smith and presidential adviser Nelson Cruikshank were honored here Monday night by the National Association of Mature People.

The organization for persons 55 and older, which claims 100,000 members nationwide, named the three to receive its Evergreen Award for distinguished public service at the NAMP biennial convention that began Monday.

Burns and Cruikshank,

President Carter's adviser on aging, were unable to attend.

Smith, 67, of El Paso, Texas, writes the twice-weekly column "Time of Your Life" that appears in more than 100 newspapers.

"My honor in receiving the Evergreen Award is deepened by the gratitude I feel toward NAMP for recognizing mature people and can continue to be constructive, well-adjusted forces in neighborhood, community and national life and not objects of pity or disuse," Smith said.

Burns sent his regrets by telegram, saying he had a previous show business commitment that prevented him from attending.

49ers Eye Henderson... Hollywood To California

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas Cowboys, without a first-round choice in the National Football League draft for the first time since 1967, mulled the possibility today of acquiring a third-round pick from San Francisco in return for linebacker Thomas "Hollywood" Henderson.

Henderson told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Monday night the vice president and head coach of the 49ers called him earlier in the day and told him he'd be wearing a San Francisco uniform next fall.

Henderson had talked with Henderson by telephone Monday about a possible contract. However, he added: "We are uncertain at this time if we will be able to meet Henderson's demands."

Walsh said he wanted a weak side linebacker, and he said it was the best in the business at playing man-to-man coverage on running backs. Henderson said.

Lions Pick Sims First

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Sims, the exceptional halfback from Oklahoma, was picked—as expected—by the Detroit Lions today, the No. 1 selection in the National Football League's annual college player draft.

The Lions, who shared with San Francisco the worst record in 1979 at 2-14, officially picked the 24-year-old Sims 3½ minutes after NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle called the draft to order.

San Francisco had the No. 2 choice in both the first and second rounds of the draft, but the spokesman ruled out the possibility the club would trade away either of

League Lists Teams For New Age Group

May 10 will open action for Snyder's nine-year-old baseball league this year. The league, which will play on the Farm League Field at 5 p.m., has been formed due to the large number of boys wishing to play Little League and Farm League this year.

Tigers Host Lamesa Today

Snyder's Tigers, 2-0 in round two District 3-AAA baseball action, are scheduled to play Lamesa High School here today at 5:30. The Tigers, 10-11 on the season, have met Lamesa four previous times this season, winning each game. Snyder looks for a fifth win here today, to keep hopes of a fourth consecutive 3-A title alive.

Local Pullers Vie In Artesia Event

ARTESIA, N.M.—Snyder's David Shifflett took second place in the 5500 modified and third in the 9500 modified classes at a tractor pull held here recently.

Wells averages 16 points, 10 rebounds and four steals a game. "Valerie has a lot of potential to be a great one. She has a lot of ability that just hasn't been exploited," said Cushing.

Whether he will, in fact, sign with Detroit still is open to question. His agent, Jerry Argovitz of Houston, and the Lions' management have thus far been far apart in contract talks and Argovitz has talked about taking his client to Canada.

The 49ers then swapped their pick to the New York Jets for the Jets' two first-round choices, Nos. 13 and 20, in the opening round. The latter was obtained from Denver in the trade that sent quarterback Matt Robinson to the Broncos.

With the No. 2 selection in the first round, the Jets selected Johnny "Lam" Jones, the speedy wide receiver from Texas who won a gold medal in the 1976 Olympics as a member of the U.S. 400-meter meter relay team.

Relief Pitcher Mike Marshall Finished 84 Games For The Minnesota Twins In 1979. It Was A Major-League Record.

Feds Turn Surface Mining Control Over To Texas RRC

AUSTIN (AP)—The federal government has turned over to the state Railroad Commission primary control of surface mining in Texas, and commissioner Jim Nugent noted federal bureaucrats "will have less control over Texas business."

Texas is the first state to gain federal approval of its proposed program to regulate surface mining. Approval was granted

Feb. 16 but Director Walter Heine of the federal Office of Surface Mining told a news conference he had not had a chance until Monday to attend a commission ceremony.

Texas ranks first in the nation in the production of lignite, or heavy coal, and was No. 10 in total coal production last year with 27 million tons. Coal production is expected to rise to as high as 90 million tons a year by 1985. The Commission estimates Texas has 12 billion tons of lignite within 200 feet of the surface and reserves of 12 billion more tons of light coal. Texas ranks third among the states in uranium ore reserves, and total production this year is projected at 6.3 million tons, which would rank Texas among the top four states.

"Our lignite and other surface mining operations in Texas have left few scars on our land. Under our present laws, reclamation is conducted in a manner which requires restoration of the land to as good, or better, productivity than before the valuable mineral was mined," Nugent said.

Commissioner Wallace said, "While some environmentalists have taken this agency to task for a portion of the strip mining program, other citizens have recognized it as being a sound program."

Heine said the federal government would finance 50 percent of the cost of regulating surface mines. Although the state will be in charge of daily regulation, he said, the federal government will make certain that federal funds are being properly spent, make periodic inspections of mines and respond to citizen complaints.

Wallace said the commission also had asked the federal government to approve the state's proposal for reclaiming abandoned mine land.

"We expect to have as much as $20 million available to the state within the next five years for reclaiming these lands," he said.

Heine was asked if it worried him that the ceremony comes so close to the election. Nugent and chairman John Poerner are candidates in the Democratic primary.

"When is the election?" Heine asked.

"Saturday," he was told.

"That's interesting," he said.

Jim Bryant, freshman son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bryant of Wink and grandson of Mrs. Esther Weaver, 3749 Ave. V, Snyder, won second place in overall physical fitness in the ACE Texas State Convention at Fort Davis recently.

He was among a group of students competing from Kermit Christian Academy. Some 275 students from El Paso, Odessa, Midland, Amarillo, San Angelo, Wheeler, Wichita Falls, Lazbuddie, Pecos, Brownfield, Del Rio, Eagle Pass and Kermit were involved in the competition.

$164 Million In 1st Quarter...

Ford Reports Highest Loss

DETROIT (AP)—Citing inflation and the slumping American car market, Ford Motor Co. reported a record $164 million first-quarter loss and said high interest rates, increasing energy costs and the weakening economy could cause more problems later in 1980.

The No. 2 automaker said Monday its second consecutive quarter in the red resulted from a $473 million deficit in domestic operations, its worst loss from North American business ever.

That was about the loss some have predicted for tottering Chrysler Corp., which has yet to announce its first quarter results, and was substantially more than industry analysts had expected from Ford.

In last year's first quarter, Ford earned $595 million, or $4.97 a share worldwide. Profits in that period totaled $220 million in the United States and $375 million from foreign business.

The loss this quarter amounted to $1.36 a share. Ford's worst previous three-month period loss came in the fourth quarter of 1979 when the automaker lost $109 million worldwide. The previous record loss from domestic operations was $299 million in the third quarter last year.

Lower volume, increased marketing costs, more small vehicles in the product mix and the impact of inflation were responsible for the record loss. Chairman Phillip Caldwell and President Donald E. Peterson said in a statement.

The small vehicles that have become popular as gasoline prices rise generally carry smaller profit margins. In addition, domestic auto sales were down 21 percent in the first three months of 1980 as compared to the year before.

Other factors, including the probable recession, are expected to aggravate Ford's losses at least in the near term, Ford said.

Helping to offset the domestic loss was a $309 million, or $2.58 per share, profit in foreign operations. But this was 17.9 percent below the same period in 1979, a decrease attributed to reduced sales.

Revenue for the latest quarter fell 24 percent to $9.61 billion from $12.6 billion in the same period last year.

Ford has closed two assembly plants permanently this year and imposed heavy layoffs, including 6,500 white-collar workers. Ford said the actions, similar to those taken by other U.S. automakers, would result in annual savings of $1.5 billion by the end of 1981.

Ford is the third U.S. automaker to report first-quarter results. General Motors Corp. profits fell 85 percent from the first quarter of 1979, to $155 million. American Motor Corp. earnings declined 96 percent to $1.2 million.

Ford's foreign profit in the latest quarter was given a boost of $91 million from a tax treaty with Great Britain that gave Ford a refund of half the taxes paid on its behalf in Britain since 1975. Before the new treaty, Britain, to avoid double taxation of profits, gave refunds to British shareholders for taxes paid on their behalf by the companies. Overseas shareholders could not get refunds. Now, overseas shareholders get a refund for half the amount.
