Pickers Protest Machines

HEREFORD (AP)—Texas farmworkers say they are angry over the use of harvesting machines at an onion field struck by pickers last month.
A spokeswoman for the Texas Farm Workers Union said 20 to 30 pickets went up Monday at the Howard Gault Co., where 200 clippers and sackers walked out over a pay dispute two weeks ago.
But Howard Gault said the machines are experimental and should not throw anyone out of a job.
"This equipment is on an experimental basis only," Gault said Monday. "All my workers were in the fields."
Machinery eventually will replace laborers because it is "much cheaper" than salaries, Gault said.
"But things like this have to be developed and tried," he said.

Workers Comp Going Up

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas business and industry will pay 4.2 percent, or $50 billion per year, more for workers compensation insurance, starting Sept. 1.
The State Insurance Board ordered the increase to cover an automatic increase in disability benefits for employees who are injured at work.
Earlier this year, the board reduced rates by a statewide average of 0.5 percent, or $6.2 million.
Under Texas law, maximum weekly benefits for disabled employees are adjusted annually and must rise by $7 for every $10 increase in the average weekly wage in manufacturing.

Heat Wave Presses On

By The Associated Press
As a deadly heat wave continued to bake the South and Southwest, the mercury soared to record highs in the Central Plains, the lower Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes region.
The heat spell has been blamed for at least 13 more fatalities, raising the total to 156.
More hot weather was in store for today, forecasters predicted, with temperatures pushing above 100 degrees from the mid-Mississippi Valley, across the southern Plains and southern Rockies to the Southwest.

Cheaper Credit Insurance

AUSTIN (AP)—Texans who borrow money for cars and other consumer goods after Oct. 1 will find it cheaper to obtain credit life insurance.
The State Insurance Board has reduced rates for the coverage by 14 percent, effective on that date.

City Accepts Land For Park

The city council agreed to accept a 37 acre tract of land to be used as a city park, declared the month of July as clean-up, paint-up and fix-up month and increased the money the city contributes to senior citizen programs last night at its regular monthly meeting.
Councilmen also approved the proposed K mart store plat as submitted by C.W. Manhattan of Houston. Construction of the store is underway on south College Ave.
A proposal by Sig Line to give a 37 acre tract of land to the city for a park, to be named Lide Park, was approved on a motion made by David Holt and seconded by Donald Gressett. The tract is located adjacent to Deep Creek and south of 30th St.

About 1300 senior citizens, those 60 and older, are registered by the center, she said. Of those, about 700 are active members.
In other routine business, the council approved a request of Richard Howard to use propane in a mobile home at 2963 23rd St. as natural gas is not available. As usual in such approvals, permission was granted with the stipulation that a switch to gas be made if it becomes available.
Also approved was a zoning change request from Mrs. Odell Sanderson Jenkins to change 251' by 150' out of section 180 block 3 from neighborhood-commercial to multi-family and mobile home.

The city manager, John Gale, was authorized to advertise for sale several items of office equipment. The manager was also authorized to receive bids on a valve inserter attachment and inserting valves to a tapping machine used by city maintenance crews.

Budget Workshop

Slated August 4

City Manager John Gale outlined the proposed budget for the fiscal 1980-81 year last night at the city council meeting and set a public hearing and workshop on the matter for 6:30 p.m. August 4 at city hall.
The tentative figure for the new budget is $3,532,011. Gale told the councilmen. This compares with $3,041,377 for the previous budget. If the money earmarked for waterline replacements, new side loading dumpsters and two new diesel trucks is taken from the budget it is within about $8,000 of the old budget, Gale noted.
Daily attendance at the meals has risen from 55 to about 120, she said. Through donations, the senior citizens pay for about half the cost of the meals, she noted, a sum of about $14,000.

In cooperation with the chamber of commerce, who sponsors the annual campaign, the council declared July as clean-up, paint-up and fix-up month. Citizens will be asked to make an all out effort this month to spruce up their homes and property.
The councilmen approved a request from Dr. Robert Clinton, president of Western Texas College, to increase the city's participation in the RSVP and senior citizens programs from $9,000 to $12,000 a year. Gloria Shaw, senior center director, told the council that the money was needed to offset the cost of increased numbers of senior citizens being served a noon meal each weekday.

Financial Institutions Show Gain At Mid-Year

Snyder's four financial institutions posted a significant gain in deposits over this time last year, in mid-year reports as of June 30.
Total deposits at Snyder's two banks and two savings and loans totaled $140,055,668 — up $18.2 million over the same period in 1979. The deposit figure was down $2.7 million from the first quarter of 1980 when an all-time record was set for deposits in Snyder.

Total loans at the four institutions, as of June 30, were $80,447,690, up $708,603 over last quarter and down $4.1 million from the second quarter of 1979.

Combined bank deposits were $91,149,356 and total loans were $43,102,736. Bank deposits were up $14.4 million over the same period last year and down $3.7 million from the quarter ending March 31, 1980.
Loans at the two banks were down $2.7 million from last year and up $310,993 over the first quarter of this year.
Savings and loan deposits totaled $48,906,312 and mortgage loans were $37,334,954. Total S&L deposits were up just over $1 million compared to the first quarter of this year and up $3.8 million

In Sweetwater....

Prayers First; Now Rationing

SWEETWATER (AP)—Although residents of this parched city received much-needed rain following a prayer session last month, city officials say a rationing plan still is needed to conserve a dwindling water supply.

The mandatory plan, which went into effect late Sunday, includes a total ban on watering lawns and gardens, filling swimming pools and washing cars. Violators face a possible $200 fine under a city ordinance that was passed last month, officials said.
Residents held a prayer service for rain on June 1, and a storm brought about three inches to the area on June 21. Officials estimated the heavy shower extended the water supply by about two months.
City Manager Joe Benton said officials have no idea how long the rationing will last.
Sweetwater residents have been using 3 1/2 million gallons of water a day, Benton said. Officials are trying to cut usage to under 3 million gallons a day.
Supplies in three reservoirs have been dwindling since August 1978, leaving the city with a 13-month supply, Benton said.

At Wholesale Level...

Second Quarter Inflation Cools

By OWEN ULLMANN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Inflation at the wholesale level moderated to a 6.3 percent annual rate during the second quarter of 1980, as an unaccustomed decline in energy costs held prices to a relatively modest 0.8 percent rise in June, the government reported today.

The June increase in the Producer Price Index was larger than price rises recorded in April and May but was substantially below the torrid price rises that shocked the economy during the first three months of this year.

As a result, the annual inflation rate at the wholesale, or finished goods, level in the second quarter fell to one-third of the 18.9 percent rate of the first quarter, the Labor Department said.

Through the first half of 1980, inflation at that level was running at a 12.4 percent annual clip, about equal to the 1979 rate.
An annual rate is determined by extending and compounding a monthly or quarterly price changes over a 12-month period.

Price changes at wholesale normally work their way up to the consumer level within a short time, and signal changes in inflation at the retail level.
The government said wholesale food prices advanced by 0.7 percent, the largest increase in three months, while wholesale prices for other goods rose 0.8 percent.
Soaring increases for energy had paced the sharp rise in wholesale prices earlier this year, but energy costs declined in June for the first time since March 1978. Energy goods declined by 0.6 percent, the largest drop in more than four years, the government said.

Gasoline prices fell 1.2 percent in June, while prices for home heating oil were unchanged from the previous month.

While the stabilization in energy prices helped limit rises at the wholesale level, economists expect food prices to begin showing large price increases later this year.

Jury Returns 13 Indictments

What may be the first indictment of its kind in Snyder was returned Monday against Tommy Jack Huddleston, 2604 25th St.

Huddleston, 24, was indicted on a charge of injury to a child, a third-degree felony. The indictment alleges that Huddleston twisted the arm of his daughter, who was three weeks old at the time of the incident, and broke the arm. The incident occurred May 13, according to the indictment.

District Attorney Pete Greene said it is the first injury to a child indictment to be returned in Snyder in recent history and may be the first indictment of its kind ever issued in Snyder.

Greene added that the child has since been placed in a foster home.
The Huddleston indictment was one of 13 issued yesterday by a Scurry County grand jury.

Four indictments were returned against Ricky Dale Slaughter, 2011 KSNY Drive. All the indictments were based on burglary charges.
Slaughter is alleged to have broken into businesses owned by James Smiley, Gary Abrahams, Murray Jackson, and Ruben Bingham. All the break-ins are alleged to have occurred June 4.

One burglary indictment was returned against Sherman H. Merritt Jr. He is alleged to have broken into the Towle Park swimming pool June 2. He resides at 2208 45th St.
William David Atkinson, an inmate at the Scurry County Jail who escaped June 23, was charged with escape in an indictment returned yesterday. Atkinson, a trusty, was released from custody long enough to attend an Alcoholics Anonymous meeting, but he never returned from the meeting. He remains at large.

D.W. Lynch of Big Spring was named in a criminal mischief indictment. Lynch, who was incarcerated in a jail cell at the city police station June 23, is alleged to have deliberately broken the jail cell's commode.

Named in a charge of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle was Edward Lee Eickenhorst of Abilene. He is alleged to have taken without the owner's permission a 1968 Dodge belonging to Michael Lee Fink. The incident is reported to have occurred May 16.

Named in three drunken driving indictments were Jerry J. Trice, 302 28th St., Melvin Lee Edwards, 1002 33rd St., and Jerry Thomas Walton of Big Spring.

One more indictment was also returned by the grand jury, but the subject named in it has not yet been arrested.

Serving on the grand jury were Joe Reaves, Beverly Clements, Mrs. James Lay, Mrs. John M. Gary, Anita Felan, J.L. Byars, William Masters, Charles Lantrip, Mrs. R.J. Kidd, Bob Watlington, and R.C. Guerrero.

Pickets Blame TV Movie For Death

NEW YORK (AP)—Charging that the CBS network should be considered an accessory to murder in connection with the death of a 4-year-old Texas girl, about 30 persons protested outside the network's headquarters here and called for restraint in programming.

Ask Us

Q—Why aren't the inmates of the county jail strictly confined to the jail?
A—For the most part they are. Scurry County Sheriff Keith Collier said only trustees are permitted to work on the jail grounds or go to rehabilitative meetings, such as Alcoholics Anonymous. By court order, some inmates are released during the day to participate in the work release program.

Carter Unveils Plan To Aid Auto Industry

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP)—President Carter huddled early today with auto industry and union leaders, unveiling a set of proposals to help the ailing industry make the expensive transition to manufacturing smaller cars.
Carter said, "We have literally worked day and night" on the plan, which included multi-million dollar loans and regulatory relief.
Carter's whirlwind, 55-minute visit to Detroit came as Republicans were gathering here for pre-convention activities. GOP leaders said the stop-over was motivated purely by political considerations. They blamed Carter for economic upheavals that have emerged as the auto industry sales plummeted, forcing hundreds of thousands of worker layoffs.

In announcing his auto aid package, Carter said, "I believe this is a major step forward in providing for the American consumer a high quality, fuel efficient auto that will be required in the months ahead."

His proposals included:
-An expedited hearing on complaints that the U.S. auto industry is being hurt by imports of foreign cars.
-Regulatory changes that would save the industry $500 million in complying with federal anti-pollution standards. New legislation might be required.
-A less costly way of (See Auto Page 9)

china down on music

You might think it is all those missiles, tanks and troops the Soviets have lined up on their side of the long Siberian border that has the Chinese worried. You might think so but, according to the Chinese press, you'd be wrong. As Beijing's authoritative editorialists currently see it, the real Soviet threat lies not so much in firepower as in music. And not Soviet music at that. Popular songs from Taiwan and Hong Kong are the problem. They are vastly popular in People's China and widely available on smuggled cassette tapes at exorbitant black market prices. This could be a large part of the real problem from Beijing's viewpoint. But for public consumption, the focus is on the peril inherent in music that has the nation's youth "wriggling their buttocks" in public parks. According to Western reports out of China, an official press campaign has targeted the tunes from Taiwan and Hong Kong as a national threat, the advance force of an invasion of decadent capitalist music capable of undermining the people's will to resist an invader. With ominous historical reference to the collapse of Europe before Hitler, popular music is linked with an "appeasement trend" said to be similarly manifest in the contemporary capitalist world. It is, in short, evidence of social rot that is the ruin of other countries and must be resisted in China. There's more, but pretty much along the same line. For all its distinctive ideological baggage, however, the campaign in its essentials might as well be one more important from abroad in China's rush to modernization. After all, Western authority figures - not least of all parents - have long taken similar critical attitudes toward the musical preferences of the young. And look where it has got them. Good luck, Beijing.

A Christian Science Monitor poll shows George Bush to be the top choice as Ronald Reagan's running mate. The greater importance of this may lie not in Bush's chance to become vice president, but in his chance to become president in 1980 or 1988. Bush ran well against Reagan in the primaries, but Reagan had built up a great deal of momentum from 1976. Should Reagan lose in 1980, that momentum will be gone. Bush would be the natural front runner for 1980. If Reagan wins, and serves two terms, Bush as vice president, would still be in the lead. A similar kind of thinking may be going on in the Kennedy camp. There can be no realistic hope of denying Jimmy Carter the nomination. Should Carter lose in 1980, Kennedy will have a running start on any other candidate. If Carter wins, he must still step down in 1984, and Kennedy will have a claim on the nomination, having tried for it earlier.

"I would never lie to you." Jimmy Carter 1976. Taking his other campaign promises about such things as avoiding unemployment, curbing inflation, and easing world tensions, and comparing them with today's situations, the above quote seems like it might have been Jimmy's biggest prevarication or smallest depending on how you look at it. It's only natural our leader should tell us what we want to hear. Lying is a way of life in America, part of our culture. Now before you become indignant or too self-righteous, ask yourself if you have ever called in sick when you're not; hedged on your income tax because you figured it was unfair anyway; or told someone her dress was pretty when you really thought it made her look like The Hulk? You get the idea. Parents start it all by telling their child things like: "I walked six miles to school when I was a kid; it always snowed Christmas when I was young; or, "When I was your age I never had it so good." And when he gets old

The German Workers' Party was founded in Munich in 1920. At first, it was considered an insignificant political group. Within one year, however, Adolf Hitler took over the party leadership and laid the foundation for the Nazi Party. Under Hitler's leadership the group changed its name to the National Socialist German Workers' Party.

capital comment

by robert j. wagman

WASHINGTON (NEA)— For the last several weeks, the president and his staff have been bitterly attacking Sen. Edward Kennedy for his attempt to woo away Carter's delegates through a rules change at the Democratic Convention. The Kennedy proposal would free delegates from voting at the convention for the presidential candidate they were chosen in their states to support. This is unfair, say White House aides. The Massachusetts senator should accept his defeat gracefully instead of "trying to change the rules in the middle of the game." But at the same time that Carter's forces are crying foul over Kennedy's effort to change the rules, they are quietly trying to do the same thing themselves. They are attempting to amend the convention rules to prevent their delegates from defecting to Kennedy. Carter's representatives have managed to insert a short paragraph into the proposed temporary rules of the convention that would allow them to kick out of Madison Square Garden any of their delegates who are about to bolt to Kennedy and to replace them with alternates loyal to Carter. The proposed rule reads: "All delegates to the national convention shall be bound to vote for the presidential candidate whom they were elected to support for at least the first convention ballot unless released in writing by the presidential candidate. Delegates who seek to violate this rule may be replaced with an alternative of the same presidential preference by the presidential candidate or the candidate's authorized representative(s) at any time up to and including the presidential balloting at the national convention." Adoption of this rule would obviously end any hope Kennedy has of stampeding the convention and convincing Carter delegates to defect. If the Kennedy forces are to have even the slightest chance of a convention victory, they must somehow prevent this proposed rule from being adopted as permanent. The Rules Committee is already beginning work on a set of "temporary" rules for the August convention. The convention will operate under these rules until the delegates, in one of their first votes, adopt "permanent" rules for the remainder of the gathering. The Carter-backed rule so far is classified as a "proposed temporary rule." The Kennedy forces will try to defeat the Carter proposal in the Rules Committee, but forces loyal to the president appear to have more than enough votes there to include the measure in the temporary rules. Thus, the best chance Kennedy has of defeating the rule is to stage a floor fight at the convention to prevent its inclusion into the permanent rules. But here arises a Catch-22 situation: Any debate and vote on the permanent rules of the convention will likely be held under the temporary rules. If the exclusionary rule is part of those temporary rules, the Carter forces could simply boot out and replace any delegates who might vote with Kennedy on the issue. Heading Kennedy's effort to prevent adoption of the rule as permanent is Jim O'Hara, a member of the Rules Committee. He says the attack on the proposed rule will be built around its "seek to violate" phrase. "What does that mean?" asks O'Hara. "Can a duly elected delegate be disenfranchised on the whim of some candidate's man because he is seen talking to an opposing candidate's staffer?" "I don't think delegates to this convention are going to buy a rule that strips them of any free choice. They are, after all, delegates to the Democratic National Convention, not the Supreme Soviet." According to O'Hara and others, you can look forward to a great deal of parliamentary maneuvering as the permanent rules of the convention are debated and voted on. Almost without doubt, any hope Kennedy has of winning the nomination will die if the Carter-backed rule is adopted.

letter to editor

Eddie Chiles just thinks he is mad. Let him take a look at some of The Veterans of Snyder and he will see MAD. Here is the reason:

On July 4th the parade opened for the first time that I or anyone I have talked to can remember without the American Flag leading. The members of the VFW who were giving the 21 gun salute were told they would have time to put up the guns and get the flags to lead the parade as they have done for many years. By the time the men picked up the empty shells from the guns (after all they are ex-servicemen and know to police the area, as they call it) and got to the cars for the flags, the parade was gone. When the parade chairman was asked about this, the only reply was "They were ready to go". Really now isn't this a little much to have to take? After all, July 4th is Independence Day. That is the main day of the year to honor our flag and country. This action not only, in my way of thinking, dishonors our flag but also dishonors these men who fought to keep our nation free so that we can observe Independence Day.

We have lived in Snyder nearly 14 years and call it home. I have always been proud of Snyder, but this makes me ashamed of some of the thoughtless people here. The only thing that can be said of this incident is that we should go down in all the records books as probably having the only July 4th parade in the entire nation not honoring the flag by having it lead the parade. As a member of a family that has had men fight for and lose their lives for the freedom of this nation from World War I through Vietnam, I take this as a personal insult to all freedom loving, and proud American people. West, by a process of elimination, hit upon the good spade lead. Leading a singleton into the notrump bidder can often be disastrous, but on this hand no other lead looked promising.

East won the opening spade lead with the ace and immediately returned the spade four, which West ruffed. West now did some addition. He had nine points and dummy had nine. South had promised 16 to 18 points for his one notrump opening bid and East had already turned up with an ace.

There was room in the East hand for at most a king. Did East have the king of clubs? If he did, West could underlead his ace to East's king and get another spade ruff. But West realized that East would have returned a lower spade than the four if he had a potential club entry. Consequently, West made a passive heart return which declarer won in his hand.

Now it was declarer's turn to think. If East had the club ace, dummy's potential diamond loser could be discarded on declarer's club king. All of this added up to a 75 percent chance. Declarer could first play clubs, and if West had the ace, later try a diamond finesse.

Then it occurred to South — how could East have the club ace? If he had it, he would have led the deuce of spades for a suit preference signal at trick two.

Declarer then found the solution. He played two more rounds of spades and pitched his low club. Then he led the jack of clubs to his singleton king which West won. West was now endplayed. Either a diamond lead away from his king or a club, which would yield a ruff and stuf, would allow declarer to make the game.

Both sides had played perfectly. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

ASTRO-GRAPH

Bernice Bede Osol

Your Birthday

July 9, 1980

Something in which you have put quite a bit of faith, but have not been able to finalize, could come to fruition this coming year. Don't toss in the towel if you suffer a few disappointments.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your desire to help persons you love today is a noble asset. However, don't make those you aid feel obligated or indebted to you for your good deeds. Romance, travel, luck, resources, possible pitfalls and career for the coming months are all discussed in your Astro-Graph, which begins with your birthday. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your hopes and dreams today may waver between wishful thinking and negative extremism. Neither is the right attitude, but a logical assessment is.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You are far more capable today than you are likely to give yourself credit for. Instead of avoiding challenges, meet them head-on.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You're apt to have a few problems today, but who doesn't? Fortunately, they are manageable if you act as you did in successful past experiences.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Joint ventures with persons who were lucky for you previously are likely to be so again today. Experiences with individuals who were unlucky will also be repeated.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) This is not a good day to request favors from one you know on a purely businesslike basis. Pals will come through for you, but other types of contacts may not.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Goals may take a trifle longer to achieve today, but they are reachable. Treat obstacles as stepping stones, not roadblocks.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) We all have faults but no one appreciates having them called to their attention in front of others. Should you feel the need to criticize one you love, do so privately.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Associates may not fully understand what you are trying to achieve today. They could get in your way. It's best to do what needs doing without assistance.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be prepared and willing to adjust your thinking today if an associate's ideas are better than yours. Results count far more than authorship.

TAURUS (April 20-May 19) Your material aspects look good today, but things won't be handed to you on a silver platter. If you're primed to work hard for your rewards, they'll be there.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) In situations where you're called upon to lead or direct others today, be neither too harsh nor too lenient. Find the proper middle ground. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

New Baby Changes Home Life

COLLEGE STATION—Plan and prepare for parenting to make the transition period smoother and conducive to rapid adjustment, says Diane Welch, a family life education specialist.

"This period involves changes in relationships, roles and lifestyles," she points out. Mrs. Welch is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Since most first-time parents receive little preparation for their new roles, many are in for a rude awakening when they find that life will never be the same. However, there are some factors that can ease and even facilitate the transition into parenthood," Mrs. Welch says.

Here are some suggestions:

- Seek information about child development, basic parenting skills and potential changes in family life. Enroll in community courses if available.
- Take advantage of supportive extra help from family and friends.
- However, try to avoid social overloads that can occur when family and friends wish to visit after the newborn arrives.
- Seek information about work policies. Check out maternity benefits available for working mothers and paternity leave for fathers.
- See if there are provisions for flex-time.
- Agree on respective roles and responsibilities, as well as division of labor.

Add tasks of parenting can overwhelm during the first month after the baby's arrival.

Channel 12 Program To Feature Local Artist

Miss Karen Sears will appear as a guest artist Wednesday on Sylvia's Chalet, Channel 12, 9-9:30 a.m. of her favorite works of art, basket weaving and hand painted eggs.

Miss Sears will demonstrate basket weaving, a skill she has recently demonstrated at the Arts and Crafts Fair at Kerrville, and other shows and galleries in the West Texas area. Miss Sears says she enjoys basket weaving which she began 1½ years ago. She uses fibers of all kinds and some are hand dyed from dye made of native plants. She will also show her hand painted eggs, an art she began as a junior at Snyder High School. One customer, Tumbleweed Smith, continues to purchase an egg annually since his interview with her some years ago.

Miss Sears can be found working on her eggs, basket weaving and other crafts in her studio at 2517½ College Ave. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sears.

Plans 1st Nude Condo

LAND O' LAKES, Fla. (AP)—A Florida developer says he plans to build the nation's first condominium complex for nudists in Pasco County. Fred Bischoff, himself a nudist, says construction will begin next month on 280 apartments ranging from $16,995 efficiency units to deluxe two-bedroom models costing $49,995. Similar development on adjacent property may make the complex the state's largest nudist camp, Bischoff said. The complex planned on a 40-acre tract in this community north of Tampa will offer nudists the first opportunity to buy their own property for such use, he said. The American Sunbathing Association, which estimates there are 25,000 nudists in Florida, says they all rent their accommodations or property at nudist camps. The camps themselves are usually owned by non-nudists.

"That's how we came onto this idea," says Bischoff, a former real estate salesman in St. Petersburg. "My family and I love living here but we feel it is a waste of our money to rent property."

The American Sunbathing Association, the official nudist organization, says the largest nudist camp in the state is now Lake Como, also in Pasco County. It claims more than 3,000 members.

The Pasco County Planning Commission and the county commission have approved Bischoff's plans, and there has been no public opposition or community resentment to the development, officials say.

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Diabetes and impotence

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — In one of your columns you stated that diabetes affects the nervous system and that's how diabetes could cause a man to become impotent. I'm 47, married and the father of two children. Three years ago I was discovered to be a diabetic. Today I'm totally impotent. Is there any treatment or cure for this? My wife tells me not to worry so much and it will go away. I don't believe this. Do you have any suggestions?

DEAR READER — You're probably correct. However, impotence frequently occurs for psychological reasons and diabetes is fairly common so there's no guarantee that a diabetic won't have psychological reasons for being impotent just the same as the nondiabetic. There are studies which can be done to determine whether your nerve mechanism is affected and causing the impotence.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 3-12, Impotence. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

The Health Letter I'm sending you explains that impotence is a symptom and discusses the numerous causes for it. Obviously, a medical examination is necessary to find out what the cause is before proper treatment can be instituted.

I did not discuss in The Health Letter I'm sending you some of the new prostheses that are available. Individuals who have damage to the nerves that cause impotence problems can be helped with an implanted device. One device is a permanent, flexible silicone rod. The other inflates and then deflates mechanically. I'm sure that if you'll visit a urologist, he will be able to discuss these recent advances with you and help you decide whether either one of these approaches is indicated in your case.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I would like to know something about lymphangitis. Four years ago I hit my thumb and it became very sore with a small blister and then a red line started two-thirds up my arm. I went to a doctor and was given large doses of antibiotics. Last year and again this past week this happened again and always it's the same thumb. Is there anything I can do to prevent this? How dangerous is it?

DEAR READER — While most people know all about the arteries and veins that comprise the main circulation, they are not so aware that we have still another part of our circulation — the lymphatic system. These are little vessels all over the body that carry a clear substance called lymph. The lymph is full of lymph cells which are one form of white blood cells.

These lymph vessels are all connected to lymph nodes, the place where lymph cells are formed. We're usually unaware of these lymph nodes unless they get infected. But you have some in the armpits, in the neck and throughout the body. When they're inflamed, they become swollen and tender.

Obviously, you developed an inflammation of one of the lymph vessels between your thumb and the lymph nodes underneath your arm. Since "itis" means inflammation and these involve lymph vessels; the disorder is called lymphangitis. I do not know why you get a recurrent infection of your thumb. In most instances, these problems can be quickly treated with antibiotics as has been done in your case.

South Caroline Beauty Wins 'Miss Universe'

By K.C. HWANG

Associated Press Writer SEUL, South Korea (AP)—The new Miss Universe is a nearly-21-year-old blonde with blue eyes from South Carolina who wants to become a sports commentator and says President Carter is the man she respects most.

Shawn Nichols Weatherly, a junior in communications at Clemson University, was crowned today after being picked over four other finalists in the Sejong Cultural Center. She won $28,500 in cash and looks forward to a year of personal appearances around the world.

Her pro-football boyfriend, Dwight Clark, wide receiver for the San Francisco 49ers, was in the crowd of 4,000. So was her father, reactor W.A.T. Weatherly of Sumter, S.C. "It's great. I am so happy. I never expected to be chosen," said the new international beauty queen, who will be 21 on July 24, stands 5 feet 8 inches and measures 35-25-35.

"It's great and it's good for her," said Clark. But he refused to predict what would happen to their romance, saying, "I will have to see after a year is over."

Entered in the contest as Miss U.S.A., Miss Weatherly was chosen from a field of 69 beauties who

Holmes Batters Protesting LeDoux

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP)—Scott LeDoux's chance of a lifetime came to an end with a bloody, half-closed left eye when his World Boxing Council heavyweight championship fight with Larry Holmes was stopped at 2:05 of the seventh round Monday night at the Met Center.

But LeDoux, who was given little chance of defeating Holmes prior to the bout, vowed to return to action. "I'll go back to work as soon as my eye heals," said LeDoux, who was apparently thumbed by Holmes near LeDoux's corner during the sixth round. "I caught a thumb by a right hand and bingo—I went down. I couldn't see for a minute but the eye was open. In the next round the ref decided I couldn't see, but I could. He wouldn't give me a test." Holmes, who successfully defended his championship for a seventh straight time, said he would give the Minnesota challenger a rematch if the occasion arose. But LeDoux was skeptical. "There's no rematch in the WBC," said LeDoux. "But I'll find somebody else to fight and I'll keep coming back. We'll keep knocking on the door."

LeDoux claimed he was never hurt during the fight and that he was slipping most of the left jabs thrown by Holmes. But LeDoux landed very few punches and both judges and the referee gave all six rounds to Holmes prior to the end. "I wasn't catching anything at all," said LeDoux. "He didn't hurt me. I wasn't tired at all. But I thought he was getting tired from missing."

Holmes, however, said he had the fight well in hand and was concerned with LeDoux's condition in the seventh. "How can a man see with blood coming out of his eye?" asked Holmes. "When I saw that I backed off because I was thinking of the Earnie Shavers fight." Shavers suffered a detached retina during a bout with Holmes Sept. 28, 1979. "No fights are easy, but I felt like I could have danced for 15 rounds and then 15 more," said Holmes, who after the fight said he would never take on former champion Muhammad Ali.

Ali, at ringside, entertained the crowd by shadowboxing between rounds. "He's like a broken record," said Holmes of Ali. "He kept saying to me 'I want you Holmes, I want you Holmes.'" "But I don't pay Ali any mind," he said. "I knew he was going to be an ass from the beginning. Let him fight someone else. He doesn't deserve it. Let him fight the No. 1, 2 and 3 contenders. He'll fade like an old man." But before leaving his post-fight news conference, the 30-year-old Holmes said, "If I get $8 million, I'll fight Ali next year." Holmes wouldn't get $8 million but he would get a lot of money and he might fight Ali next fall, not next year.

Richard, Stone Mount 'Star' Mound Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Earl Weaver managed the American League All-Stars the last time they won and he'd like nothing better than to duplicate the feat tonight after an eight-year drought. The Baltimore skipper took umbrage when Pittsburgh relief pitching ace Kent Tekulve told an audience that the National League had won the last eight and 16 of the last 17 because the players were faster afoot.

"We've had speed," Weaver retorted, and then pointed out that in an All-Star Game it's mostly pitching and hitting without too much strategy unless maybe the score is tied in the eighth inning. "Then we might try to steal," he said. Weaver named right-hander Steve Stone of his own pitching staff to start against the National League's manager Chuck Tanner picked fireball throwing right-hander J.R. Richard of Houston to start.

It was almost Mutt and Jeff when the two hurlers stood together for photos. Richard looms 6-foot-8 and Stone goes 5-10. Richard depends on his fastball because "that's what it's all about." Stone has more of an assortment. Each pitcher can work a maximum of three innings under All-Star rules, and each squad has plenty of outstanding successors for Richard, with his 10-4 record in 1980, and Stone with his 12-3.

Players Ratify Benefit Plan

The Times reported that Minnesota was the only team to turn down the Basic Agreement, rejecting it by a 17-9 margin. The Twins' player representative, Mike Marshall, was recently released by the club.

The Twins also cast the only 11 "no" votes on the benefit plan, which was passed by a 74-11 margin. The Times said the executive board also elected the association's two members and two alternates to the joint player-owner committee that will study free agent compensation.

Ceremony To Salute Youth

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The major leagues will salute amateur baseball with the first-ball ceremony prior to the 51st All-Star Game Tuesday night at Dodger Stadium. Three players representing youth, high school and college baseball have been chosen to throw first balls. Geoffrey Haag, a 12-year-old outfielder from Rancho Bernardo, Calif., will represent youth leagues. Kyle Sarosi, captain and catcher of the Sylmar, Calif., team will represent high schools, and the collegiate representative will be outfielder Stan Edmonds of the University of Southern California.

Dear Abby

Collie Almost Collared By Law's Long Arm

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I recently read that an elderly San Francisco widow died, leaving instructions in her will that "Sido," her pet 10-year-old collie, be destroyed as soon as possible. She feared that her beloved pet would not have a good life after her death.

DEAR OBSERVER: I'm for preserving Sido's life. This is another example clearly showing that what is legal is not always moral. And if the law gives an animal owner the right to destroy a healthy pet, then the law should be changed.

DEAR ABBY: A buddy of mine from work came by the house to pick me up for a weekend fishing trip. When I introduced him to my wife, his eyes lit up, and he said, "You've got to be crazy to leave a swell-looking dame like that alone for the weekend." Was I?

DEAR FISHERMAN: He could be right. The next time you go fishing, be sure to take that buddy with you.

DEAR ABBY: This summer my son, who is a Boy Scout, wants to go on a "family camping trip" sponsored by the Boy Scouts. He has asked his mother and me and his three sisters to go with him.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to thank you for your explanation as to why the ERA is a national need. May I add that the 19th Amendment guaranteeing women the vote became part of the Constitution in 1920. Louisiana did not ratify it until 1970, and Mississippi has never ratified it. In Mississippi it is introduced annually and annually voted down.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CONSIDERING REMARRIAGE IN SCOTTSDALE": If you think you need a premarital agreement, you need one.

Do you have questions about sex, love, drugs and the pain of growing up? Get Abby's new booklet: "What Every Teen-ager Ought To Know." Send $2 and a long, stamped (28 cents), self-addressed envelope to: Abby, Teen Booklet, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Anderson Courts Support Of Jews

By ARTHUR MAX Associated Press Writer
JERUSALEM (AP) — John Anderson begins a four-day visit to Israel today, courting Jewish support in the United States to keep his presidential hopes alive. It is the first and longest stop of a five-nation tour.

Anderson is working for the votes of traditionally Democratic Jews who are disenchanted with what they consider is President Carter's pro-Palestinian tilt and might turn to Ronald Reagan because of avowed support of Israel.

Ash Robinson Says He Is Seeking Solitude

HOUSTON (AP)—In the 11 years following the death of Joan Robinson Hill, Ash Robinson often stood in the center of controversy. Now, he just wants to be left alone.

"We wanted to get away from all those damn calls and sightseers coming by the house," Robinson, 82, said in explaining why he and his wife, Rhea, moved to Pensacola, Fla., 18 months ago.

Robinson, in an interview with the Houston Post, said he moved shortly after he was given a pacemaker for his heart. He said the death of his daughter has left him with a reputation he doesn't particularly care for.

"I'm notorious, that's a good way to put it," he said in an interview with the Houston Post. "Like Al Capone or some of those characters."

In part, the notoriety was self-imposed. He blamed Dr. John Hill for the death of his only child in March, 1969. Hill was indicted for murder, had one mistrial and was gunned down in 1972 before a second trial took place.

Bobby Wayne Vandiver, Hill's alleged murderer, was gunned down by police in Longview before he went to trial. Marcia McKittrick, who drove the getaway car, testified that Robinson gave Lilla Paul $25,000 to have Hill killed.

"I didn't want him Hill dead," Robinson said. "I wanted him convicted. If I wanted him killed, why in the hell did I wait all that time after Joan was dead?"

The latest round in the Hill-Robinson controversy ended in June when a civil suit, filed by grandson Robert Ashton "Boot" Hill accusing Robinson of causing the death of John Hill, was dismissed. The suit, plus Robert Hill's refusal to deed his mother's grave plot to Robinson, destroyed the relationship between the two, says Robinson.

"Well, he wanted some great big amount of money for the plot to pay off what they owed in court," Robinson said. "I told him I wouldn't do that."

"So that's when I came to the conclusion he just wasn't worth fooling with. I'm fairly convinced Boot is not worthy of our sympathy," Mrs. Robinson feels differently.

"I love him," she says simply. "He's still Joan's son and that's the way she would have wanted it."

While they differ over their feelings for their only grandchild, there is no question Ash and Rhea Robinson still love Rhea's daughter.

"We had a swimming pool there," Robinson says of the River Oaks home where they once lived, "and when Joan was living, she had a helluva lot of company."

"I mean, we had this piano in the rumpus room and we kept the icebox full of food and they'd all come over and swim and eat all day and dance and sing," he said.

Then, after she died, we'd go into the rumpus room or out around the swimming pool and we could see her sitting there with her friends around.

"It was just like a tomb," he said.

Mrs. Robinson, 80, fills her time with soap operas, shopping and eating out with friends. But she remembers her daughter.

"I can never forget," she said. "You try to escape those memories, but you never can. I'll carry it to the grave."

As in their Houston home, the memories of Joan are everywhere, memories that reveal a single-minded devotion to an only child.

Above Robinson's bed hangs a yellowing picture of a pretty young girl, sitting on the floor. More pictures of Joan, from infancy to her horse show triumphs of adulthood, giving the Robinson house the appearance of a giant scrapbook.

The years since his daughter's death have not been kind to Ash Robinson. He has contracted Parkinson's disease and is able to walk only short distances.

He eats sparingly, often having only a glass of milk and a slice of dry toast for lunch.

But the frail appearance of a once-robust independent oilman is deceiving. He does not seek pity, nor does he allow it.

John Adams went to England as the first U.S. minister in 1785.

1 Vehicle Mishap Probed

Deputy sheriffs from the Scurry County Sheriff's Office investigated a one vehicle accident late Monday morning.

The accident, which occurred about four miles north of Fluvanna on Farm to Market Road 1269, was reported about 11:30 a.m., but apparently occurred several hours before that.

Involved in the mishap was a 1974 Chevrolet pickup owned by Kenneth Rinehart, but driven by Refugio Baldez.

The pickup, reported deputies, left the road and crashed into a gully, destroying itself in the process. No injuries were reported.

Temperance Union Still On The Job

By BRYNA BRENNAN Associated Press Writer ST. ALBANS, W.VA. (AP)—Olive Bryan has a vision — a vision of hundreds of women kneeling in prayer at the portals of your local tavern.

The souls of the sinners within still weigh heavily on the minds of Mrs. Bryan and her colleagues in the Women's Christian Temperance Union, which claims 250,000 members worldwide.

In most places, the organization's century-long crusade to ban the bottle has been bombed. But as far as the 80-year-old Mrs. Bryan is concerned, "We need it as much now as ever before."

In West Virginia, where alcohol has long been a controversial political issue, the state WCTU's 1,000 members were in the forefront of this year's fight over legislation allowing sale of beer containing more than 3.2 percent alcohol.

The law took effect in May, but not until the Legislature had overridden a gubernatorial veto applauded by temperance and religious groups.

State WCTU President Dorothy Christy of Rivesville shrugs off the defeat, and gamely predicts the union "will be here as long as the world stands." As long as some people drink, she said, others will want the distinction of being different.

but the group's political influence has faded in the face of a strong liquor lobby and changing mores.

In recent years, the once-vocal union has become a soft-spoken group that quietly urges legislators to raise the drinking age to 21 and teaches schoolchildren about the evils of alcohol and how to fight intemperance among their parents.

Special loans totalling between $200 million and $400 million to help auto dealers finance their car inventories.

Speed-up of a Treasury Department proposal that should allow the industry faster depreciation tax writeoffs for plants and equipment. Carter also said that when the time is right he will propose a general tax cut and the auto industry obviously will have special consideration.

The president arrived, en route from Plains, Ga., to a memorial service in Tokyo for Masayoshi Ohira, the Japanese prime minister who died last month.

It is the Japanese who have cut most deeply into the U.S. car market. The Japanese makers have been selling smaller, more fuel efficient cars for years; as gasoline prices rose in the past decade, imports have steadily increased their share of the U.S. market.

Japanese imports accounted for 22 percent of all cars sold in the United States last month; other imports were about 5 percent. A year ago, the Japanese were about 16 percent and the others about 6 percent.

26 Guardsmen Going To Camp

Twenty-six men from the local National Guard unit will be traveling to Ft. Hood later this month to attend a summer camp.

The men, members of Detachment 2, Co. E, 111th Engineers, annually go to a summer camp. They will leave about 7 a.m. July 27, reported Sgt. Guy Ybarra. The camp lasts 15 days.

John Adams went to England as the first U.S. minister in 1785.

Pioneer Pilot Gets Award

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The man who helped perfect safe flying recently received the top award of the world's largest engineering society here, the birthplace of aviation.

Sven H. Dodington, a scientist associated with International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. for almost 40 years, won the 1980 Pioneer Award of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers for developing precise navigation equipment used in most of today's commercial, military and general-aviation planes.

Dodington holds some 50 patents in aeronautical navigation and related fields.

Today's sinners' souls could still stand saving, according to the WCTU.

Program At Diet Center Based On A 'Whole Person' Approach

The Diet Center program is based on the understanding that overweight is not JUST a physical problem, or JUST a psychological problem. Diet Center's "whole person" approach is revolutionary in concept and has proven to be very effective, not only in weight loss, but in providing the foundation for lifetime weight control through sound nutrition. THE PROGRAM...consists of: 1. A two day conditioning diet to prepare the dieter, alerting the body to begin burning body fat for energy. 2. The reducing diet, typically two to six weeks, depending on the weight loss desired. Daily counseling includes checks on food intake, recording of progress, and advice and moral support for problem days. 3. On reaching the desired weight goal, a stabilization diet, followed usually for a three week period with twice a week counseling. 4. A maintenance diet, well-balanced and designed for the individual's needs, not only helps continuous lifetime weight control, but also assists in making food choices for an appealing and satisfying diet. 5. A series of weekly nutritional behavior classes educates the dieter in the psychological aspects of weight control and encourages further study and learning in nutrition and good health. RESULTS...depend on how well instructions are followed. Men can usually lose about a pound a day, women 1/2 to 3/4 pound a day. Teenagers have lost more than a half pound per day. This can mean a weight loss of 17 to 30 pounds in just six weeks. MAINTENANCE OF WEIGHT...(is simplified by the) Diet Center Reducare firmly established. Should a gain of two pounds occur at any time, the Diet Center offers, free of charge, a two-day controlling diet to get back to the desired weight. THE DIET SUPPLEMENT...is a chewable tablet, taken four times a day while on the reduction diet. It contains an invert sugar, supplying immediate energy sustaining the blood sugar level, thus controlling hunger pangs, a B-Vitamin complex calm the nerves and gives the dieter a feeling of well being. DOCTORS...across the country not only approve, but recommend the Diet Center program because of its effectiveness and safety. Most special diets prescribed by physicians for other serious problems can be easily adapted to Diet Center's weight loss program. Dieters are encouraged to consult their family physicians, and written information about our program will be sent in response to inquiries. THE COST...will depend on the length of the program you decide to follow. Our price schedule is always explained fully along with other details about the program when you visit the Diet Center at 2425 College or call 573-8583. Information is provided entirely without obligation, of course. Use Snyder Daily News Classified Ads 573-5486
