Seeks Freedom For Survivors

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The Legal Aid Society is planning a court battle to keep the Immigration Service from expelling 12 Salvadorans who survived a desert trek into the United States that killed 13 illegal aliens.

Meanwhile, Sen. Dennis DeConcini, D-Ariz., Thursday called on U.S. Attorney General Benjamin Civiletti to grant the aliens permission to live in the United States, and another politician announced plans to raise funds for bail.

Kissinger Edging In

WASHINGTON (AP)—Much to the chagrin of some of Ronald Reagan's most conservative supporters, former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger appears to be edging his way into Reagan's circle of foreign policy advisers.

Kissinger will deliver one of the main speeches at Tuesday night's Republican convention session, and recently he began to offer advice indirectly to Reagan, through meetings with the chief of Reagan's foreign policy advisory group, Richard V. Allen.

Consumers Buying Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—Consumers apparently have taken to heart the Carter administration's advice to start buying again.

The Commerce Department says retail sales rose 1.4 percent in June, ending a four-month decline caused in part by the government's campaign to tighten credit as a brake on inflation.

PUC Seeks Higher Wages

AUSTIN (AP)—Chairman George Cowden of the Texas Public Utility Commission told budget examiners today low salaries and a "two-year rule" make it hard for the agency to compete with major utility companies.

Cowden spoke to examiners from the Legislative Budget Board and the governor's office at a hearing on the PUC's 1982-83 budget request.

"If we are to hire and maintain qualified people for the state agencies and our agency, salaries are going to have to go up," Cowden said. "We've lost some well qualified people because they can go to other places and make a lot more money."

Adding Four To Zip Code

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Postal Service, with an eye toward reducing cuts through increased mechanization, plans to add four digits to the five-digit zip code system next year.

"We'll start notifying business mailers probably next February of their new codes and we'll begin notifying individual customers shortly after that," a Postal Service spokesman said today.

The first five digits of each zip code will remain the same after the new system goes into effect.

The spokesman, who asked not to be identified by name, said the additional four digits will be used to pinpoint the location more precisely, identifying a street or a side of a street, a building with many tenants, or a department in a university.

"The main benefit of the ninth-digit zip code will be primarily that it will enable the Postal Service to cut costs considerably," he said. "We have to become more mechanized."

To Pray For Relief

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—South Texas Archbishop Patrick Flores has asked priests to include special prayers for rain and drought relief when they celebrate Mass.

Flores asks for the special votives in the current edition of "Today's Catholic," a newspaper covering the 32 counties in his archdiocese.

Clayton Trial Set Aug. 18

HOUSTON (AP)—Texas House Speaker Billy Clayton and three others indicted by a federal grand jury in the FBI undercover Brilab investigation are to stand trial Aug. 18.

U.S. District Judge Robert O'Connor set the new trial date after a hearing in federal court Friday.

The trial was to begin July 21, but defense attorneys said more time was needed to listen to the hundreds of hours of tapes that prompted the charges of fraud, conspiracy and racketeering against the veteran Texas legislator.

Also scheduled for trial in August are L.G. Moore, a Houston labor leader, and two Austin attorneys—Randall B. Wood and Donald W. Ray.

O'Connor said all motions should be filed by July 28. Another pretrial hearing would be held Aug. 4.

K-Mart Issued Building Permit

The City of Snyder has issued a $1,250,000 building permit for the construction of a K mart store to be located on College Avenue.

Site work has been underway for more than a month, and work on the foundation and 40,000 square foot building will get underway soon.

Undergoing Medical Tests...

Hostage Flown Out Of Iran

By Hanns Neuberger Associated Press Writer ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—Richard Queen, the first American hostage freed from Iran in more than seven months, arrived in Switzerland today and was whisked off to a Zurich hospital for treatment of a reported psychological or neurological problem.

Iran's revolutionary leader Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini ordered the 28-year-old vice consul's release because of his illness. But an official in Tehran said this did not mean any change in Iran's attitude toward the 52

Americans who remained behind, in their 251st day of captivity today.

A U.S. Embassy official said doctors at the hospital immediately began putting Queen through a series of tests.

"It's very difficult to make an immediate medical prognosis," he said. An embassy spokesman said the freed American would remain at the hospital for an indefinite time for treatment.

Queen's parents flew out of New York this morning for London, where they were expected to connect with a flight to Zurich either late tonight or Saturday.

Queen, who grew up in Scarsdale, N.Y. was met by the U.S. ambassador to Switzerland, Richard Vine, when the scheduled Swissair jetliner touched down in Zurich at 11:16 a.m. - 6:16 a.m. EDT - after a six-hour flight from Tehran.

The young man was immediately placed on a stretcher, taken to an ambulance that had been waiting on the tarmac, and driven off to the hospital.

Security guards kept reporters from talking with Queen. Fellow passengers said they had not noticed anything unusual aboard the plane and did not recognize Queen.

He was accompanied to Zurich by an official of the Swiss Embassy in Tehran, which looks after U.S. interests in Iran.

The U.S. Embassy spokesman, Peter Reuss, said he had no idea about Queen's condition but that U.S. doctors would be flown to Switzerland from Germany or Austria to join Swiss specialists, in examining Queen, reportedly suffering from some sort of psychological problem.

A reporter for station KEZY in Anaheim, Calif., said a doctor at the Tehran hospital mentioned paraplegia - paralysis - in a telephone interview.

Ask Us

Q. How many people are buried in the old Snyder Cemetery?

A. Alton Davis, caretaker at Snyder Cemetery, estimates there are 8,000 graves there.

By EDITH LEDERER Associated Press Writer KABUL, Afghanistan (AP)—Afghan rebels are fighting more effectively now than at any time since the Soviet military intervention last December but need anti-tank and anti-aircraft weapons badly, according to informed sources.

The rebels reported killing 25 to 30 Russian soldiers in a 22-mile-long valley between two mountains stretching south of Kabul, the Afghan capital, into Paktya Province over the past two weeks, the sources said. They said rebel spokesmen also reported the downing of dozens of Soviet helicopter gunships and at least one Antonov transport plane last week in Panjsher, about 45 miles north of Kabul.

Most observers believe the claims are exaggerated but that the rebels have acquired some anti-aircraft weapons, including a Czechoslovak ZK-1, according to one well-informed source. Still, the observers said the rebels are no match for the Soviets because of the lack of more such weapons.

The sources said the anti-communist Moslem rebels are fighting effectively because thousands of Afghan soldiers have defected from the country's regular army and are giving them sophisticated Soviet-made small arms and badly-needed military training.

The mass desertions, which have depleted the Afghan army's regular strength of about 80,000 to an estimated 30,000, included field-grade Soviet-trained officers who are training the rebels in tactics and weapons use, the sources said.

At rebel camps in Lalander, about 15 miles south of the Russian-occupied Darulaman air base south of Kabul, the Afghan capital, and at another camp about 18 miles southeast of the capital, witnesses quoted rebel spokesmen as saying their greatest obstacle was a lack of anti-tank and anti-aircraft weapons.

Pope Speaks For Indians

By DENIS REDMONT Associated Press Writer MANAUS, Brazil (AP)—Pope John Paul II, winding up a 12-day visit to Brazil with a flight to this steamy Amazon jungle town, spoke up for his "Indian brothers" in their fight for survival against the forces of a spreading civilization.

"I made this trip specially to meet you whose ancestors were the first inhabitants of this land," he said, defending their "right to live in peace and serenity without the fear or the nightmare of being expelled to the benefit of others and be assured of a vital space which is essential for your survival and the preservation of your identity of a human group."

As sweat dripped from his face in the humid tropic heat, John Paul listened intently to the Indians' grievances and asked them to put them in writing.

The Indian chiefs, bare-chested and wearing feather ceremonial head-dresses, gave the pope necklaces, an Indian headdress and handicrafts from the various tribes. In return the pope gave them one of his paper miters, the conical hat he wears when celebrating Mass.

"We are being massacred, we are being exploited," Luis Pereira, a Micanha Indian from northern Brazil, told the pontiff in an impromptu meeting Thursday night on the porch of the local bishop's house.

independents - is emerging in American politics.

Reagan has defined this community as a coalition of people who share moral values, a belief in family and in a need to curb government involvement in their lives, as well as a disenchantment with the economic and defense policies of the Carter administration.

The former California governor often said during the primary campaign that he believes blue-collar workers are breaking traditional ties to the Democrats, and John Anderson, the independent presidential candidate, also is calling for a coalition involving those of all political stripes to support him.

Reagan will fly to Detroit on Monday, the opening day of the Republican National Convention.

Next Wednesday Sen. Paul Laxalt of Nevada will deliver the speech nominating Reagan for president. Reagan almost certainly will be the only candidate presented to the convention and should officially receive the nomination that night.

It's Still Hot...

Cooler Here Than Before

If you think you are finally getting accustomed to the heat, don't breathe a sigh of relief yet. A glance at the records show that, while still plenty warm, the temperatures in Snyder have dropped back to only seasonably hot.

We have not experienced a day in excess of 100 degrees since July 3 when the mercury reached 106.

How much longer we will be spared the searing kind of heat that baked us before and has claimed hundreds of lives is uncertain. The national weather service forecast another hot day today and scorching heat with no rain for the entire weekend.

Highs around Texas Thursday were mostly in the 90s and slightly above the 100 degree mark. Snyder recorded 99 degrees for the third day in a row. Wichita Falls had 108 for a high Thursday and Dallas-Fort Worth recorded 104. It was the 18th day of 100 plus heat for the metroplex as the area closed in on the old record of 26 straight days set almost 30 years ago.

The heat wave that has baked much of the Southwest and Plains has been blamed for almost 300 lives in 14 states.

Health officials say elderly people living in poorly ventilated houses are the most frequent victims of the triple-digit temperatures, which also have taken a heavy toll of crops and livestock.

Through Thursday, heat-related deaths numbered 87 in Texas, 83 in Arkansas, 33 in Oklahoma, 27 in Tennessee, 16 in Missouri, 12 in Mississippi, 10 each in Georgia and Kansas, six in Illinois, five in Louisiana, four in Alabama, two in Kentucky and one each in Indiana and Nebraska.

The number of deaths is an unofficial tally by The Associated Press compiled from reports by health authorities.

Some state officials contended the latest death figures were exaggerated. Arkansas state medical examiner, Dr. Fahmy Malak, said in most cases other health factors were more significant in the deaths. But other medical officials argued the heat could not be discounted as a factor in the deaths.

James Hankins, coroner of Leflore County in Mississippi, said six elderly people who died in his area since Sunday had various illnesses, but "the heat had to be a contributing cause."

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Thursday, 99 degrees; low 70 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. today, 74 degrees; precipitation, none; total precipitation for 1980 to date, 9.81 inches.

West Texas - Fair and hot through Saturday. Isolated thunderstorms southwestern mountains. Highs lower 90s mountains to near 100 Big Bend. Lows lower 60s to near 80.

Despite big increases in the Social Security tax, initiated and scheduled, officials of the retirement system concede that there will not be enough money to pay benefits beginning in 1982.

A workers earning $25,900 or more this year will pay $1,587.67 in Social Security taxes. By 1987, the maximum tax - on an earnings base of $42,600 - will be $3,045.90.

But benefits have continued to increase since the system was established in the 1930s. Disability provisions of the program are costly and controversial. Social Security critics were shocked to learn that many prison inmates are receiving disability payments because they have been ruled mentally disturbed.

Congress has been patching the system here and there. Disability payments will be reduced to those entering the program after July 1. Disabled persons are being offered incentives to return to work if they are able to do so. Expenditures will be reduced by about $2.6 billion over the next four years.

But that's less than an overhaul.

The president's Commission on Pension Policy has stressed the need for the program to bringing in all American workers. At present, about 10 percent, mostly government employees, are outside the system.

The inequity is apparent.

The government worker, who enjoys his own pension plan, pays nothing into Social Security. He can retire early, however work briefly in a Social Security covered job and reap benefits far out of proportion to his limited participation. Such cases cost the Social Security fund about $1.9 billion last year alone.

And much of Social Security now is a form of welfare for which 10 percent of the people are not taxed.

Something more, obviously, must be done before the next crunch comes in 1982. The most simple answer would be to reduce benefits.

But the 36 million recipients - the retired, the widows, the orphans, the disabled - won't stand for that.

The real tragedy is that government in all its benevolence has deluded millions of Americans into thinking they did not have to worry about an income during their twilight years because Uncle Sam would take care of them.

Social Security is not a retirement system, it is a form of taxation which the government has levied against the working taxpayers with a promise of giving part, not all, of it back to them on small monthly installments when they become too old or unable to work.

Ironically, since Congress has yielded to short-sighted pressures to broaden the scope of the system to provide benefits to practically everyone who sticks out his hand, there just is not enough money to go around. And don't forget that the bureaucrats always skim their part off the top to take care of "administrative" costs and other causes conceived in Foggybottom.

IT DOESN'T SEEM FAIR TO MAKE US WAIT UNTIL FALL TO FIND OUT...

I THINK IT SHOULD BE SETTLED RIGHT NOW...

...BUT, THAT'S THE SYSTEM...

at wits end

by erma bombeck

I was gathering up old newspapers this week when I came across a paper dated April 29.

On the front page, Walter Cronkite was being considered by John Anderson as a running mate. In sports, the NFL opened their 1980 draft. In domestic news, Ford lost $164 million in its first quarter. In the comics, Charlie Brown was explaining to Snoopy the rules of tennis. In IV, ABC was interviewing for a new "Angel." In the ads, Wig City was running a huge ad for the "mother who is active."

In general news, Trisha Regy of Fort Roméu, France, stopped sneezing after 204 days, and a small headline proclaimed, "TODAY IS THE LAST DAY, RELIGIOUS GROUP CLAIMS."

The story went on to explain that a group from Montana and followers from several other states were in shelters awaiting the destruction of the world by a nuclear war. They had been preparing for doomsday for months and before going underground had met for "a lot of good food, a few speeches, and a little entertainment at a local restaurant."

I know what happened to Walter, Snoopy, and the Ford Motor Company, but what happened to the group in the fallout shelters waiting for the end of the world?

Are they still sitting in the bunker getting a little tense with all that togetherness?

"I can't stand it anymore, Dwight. I've got to know what's going on up there. I'm going out and get a paper."

"You and your calculations! I told you the world would never end on the same day Appliance City is having an EOM clearance."

You know the trouble with our marriage, Claude? The only time you take me out to dinner anymore is when the world is coming to an end."

"I do trust you, Lionel, and I love you, but I still say we could have told my mother where we were going."

"Okay, so I forgot to pack your tripod. It isn't the end of the world, you know. I don't know why I said that."

I must admit I sat there for a while wondering what I would do if the story had been on the front page with a Washington dateline with quotes from the president. Would I have grabbed my "Chorus Line" album? My pots of Erase and lip gloss? The picture of me in high school when I weighed 113 pounds? Would I have stopped the paper? Left the garage light on and locked the doors? Canceled my hair appointment? Had the kids clean their rooms?

April 29... what was I doing on April 29? It was a Tuesday... day after garbage day... two days after my son's birthday. Tuesday... maybe I made a note on my calendar. Wouldn't you know it? I cleaned the oven!

my turn

The 45th Annual Scurry County Rodeo is coming to town next week and I suggest we hold it at the old rodeo grounds on West 30th St. instead of in the coliseum. Why? Simple, we need the rain.

Every year the rodeo was held out in the open, we could depend on a good soaking at least once during the four-day affair. Even with it indoors, we usually get a shower but its to the point around here now that we need a good old-fashioned frog-floater.

I realize that sports people are suckers for any kind of statistic but our man has gone too far. I don't know if it is the heat, too much little league or a dire need of diversion, but sports editor, Bill McClellan, figured out, all by himself, on the typewriter, what has to be the most useless bit of information I have ever come across in my life.

Did you know that the Texas city with the most letters, that can be typed with the keys assigned to the left hand, is Sweetwater? Try to work that into the conversation sometime.

What led to this trial and error discovery of the previously undocumented fact was when another newspaper employee asserted that Seagraves was the longest. Doesn't it make you feel secure knowing that your reporters are using their investigative talents to ferret out such important things? Bill's vacation starts Monday and not a moment too soon.

before we will need a government permit to buy an ax? The recent homicides involving such an instrument could not have escaped the notice of the gun control crusaders. Some would argue that people kill, not axes, right. Chainsaws, extension cords and a certain desert in Arizona should also be added to the list.

Speaking of murder, the mystery of who tried to knock off J.R. continues. Theories abound. Everybody from Howard Cosell to the Ayatollah Khomeini has been accused. People in this newsroom also have ideas about who did it except for John Long who maintains that only Sherlock Holmes could solve the crime.

Roy McQueen thinks Lee Harvey Oswald did it. Myself, I believe it was a conspiracy, and I have this theory about more than one gunman...

NEW YORK (AP)—Americans have decided to battle inflation, said a stock market analyst on reading that consumer installment debt fell a record $3.43 billion in May.

He might as easily have phrased it another way: American buyers were overcome by rising prices. Using that viewpoint, the credit decline is seen not so much as a battle as a defeat.

Whichever viewpoint suits best, the conclusion is the same: There has been a marked change in consumer attitudes, from buying quickly before prices rose to avoiding purchases in hopes that prices will fall.

The Federal Reserve helped foster the change, particularly by making credit harder to obtain but also by promoting the notion that unless buyers restrained themselves the economy was going down the drain.

It might still, and some will blame the Fed's tight money policies, but consumers in the meantime have lessened their personal liabilities, albeit by the revolutionary policy of lowering their living standards.

Yes, some Americans at least are getting back to fundamentals. They are actually committing the un-American crime of doing with less, which is contrary to all they have been told and taught about America.

But in many instances they are doing so not as an exercise in restraint, not as a battle against enemy inflation, but simply because they have little other choice. They have been priced out of the market.

This elimination from the marketplace has been achieved not simply by high prices, but also because of high taxes. Pay increases often push people into tax brackets that take most of the increase.

Unofficial estimates now suggest that the federal take of the nation's total output is close to the highest ever, nearly 23 percent, or more even than during the days of wartime mobilization in the 1940s.

U.S. News & World Report estimates that if tax laws aren't changed, and inflation continues at the 7.8 percent annual rate of the past decade, a family that earned $15,000 in 1970 will need $87,708 in 1990.

Have Americans decided to do battle against recession by withdrawing from the market? Maybe. But the evidence seems to indicate that, instead, and for the time being, they have been defeated by it.

Crochet For Baby

By Judy Love

What's warmer than soup on a cold day? What's softer than a little kitten and even more playful than a puppy? What lights up your life more than fireworks in the sky? Many mothers — and proud grandmothers, too — would automatically answer, "a newborn baby."

If there's a new baby in your family, or about to be, welcome him or her into the world with a present you can make yourself. What better way to keep baby warm and happy than with this very special granny square bunting.

Worked with a size "F" crochet hook in yellow and white Wintuk sport yarn by Coats & Clark, it's a gift the baby won't outgrow immediately. There's plenty of room for him or her to move freely and the ample 16-inch zipper allows mother to make quick and easy changes.

The bunting is a simple project, which requires a minimum investment in time and money. You will need only four ounces of yellow and three ounces of white yarn, in addition to the zipper, 1 1/2 yards of grosgrain ribbon and a hook and eye. It won't take you long, yet it is a beautiful piece to treasure and pass along after it is outgrown.

As always, be sure to check your gauge before starting the garment. Each motif should measure 3 3/4 inches square. If the size "F" hook doesn't work, use any size to obtain the correct motif measurement.

KNIT KNACKS

Dear Judy Love, I have just crocheted a baby sweater and would like to finish the neck so that a ribbon can be run along the edge and tied in front. Can you tell me how to do this? — G.L.R., Bronx, N.Y.

Dear G.L.R.: To do this, work two rows of single crochet along the edge of the neck. At the corner, work three single crochets for a square corner, one single crochet for a rounded corner. On the second row, end with a multiple of three stitches. Row 3: Chain 5, * skip 2 single crochets, 1 single crochet in next single crochet, chain 4, repeat from * across and end 1 sc in last sc. Run the ribbon in and out the eyelet holes and tie in a bow at the center front. Happy needleworking, Judy Love.

"Do Not Disturb" Son Denies Best Gift for Mom

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1980 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Now that Mother's Day and Father's Day are gone, and lots of June weddings have taken place, please say something about children who get married and never ask their parents to their apartment or home.

Most parents would appreciate an invitation to visit their kids, and if the kids don't want to bother preparing dinner, they could take their parents out. It would mean so much more than flowers, cards or a fancy gift.

Our son has been married for two and a half years, and we have never been asked to his place. I have hinted plenty. Is it OK to just drop in?

BEWILDERED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If after "hinting plenty" for two and a half years, you haven't been invited, you can assume that there's still a "DO NOT DISTURB" sign hanging on their door. And I agree, most parents would consider an invitation the best gift their kids could give them.

DEAR ABBY: My husband never did any work around the house, primarily because he was never home. He was always involved in running his own place of business. Consequently, the painting (inside and out), window washing, carpet cleaning, housekeeping, cooking, plus all the yard work and gardening, were done by me all our married years. The children helped me when they could, but they have their own homes now, so I have to do everything myself.

We are building a new house, and I just finished painting the interior. (I laid all the brick for the patio.) We live on a ranch, so feeding and looking after the cattle is my job.

Now my husband wants me to start going to the office with him every day and be a steady office hand. As it is, I take care of all his bookkeeping and do the taxes.

Just stay home and sew for the grandchildren. Don't you think I have earned a little rest?

PUSHING 60

DEAR PUSHING: Earned it? I'd say you require it! I'm exhausted from just reading your letter, lady.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 35-year-old married woman. I am 5 foot 5, weigh 240 — down from 294 — and after wanting a child for nine years, I find that I am two months pregnant.

I am thrilled, but at the same time I have some fears because of my age and weight.

I understand that you have access to the very best medical advice, so would you please find out what my chances are for having a healthy, normal, full-term baby? Also, what are the risks involved with my own life?

Some of my friends have told me that I'll have a heart attack and never make it through delivery. Others say that women over 35 should not risk having a baby because the older the mother, the higher the risk for an abnormal child.

Please hurry your answer. I have only been to a clinic to confirm my pregnancy, and if you think I should continue this pregnancy, I will go to my own physician. Thank you. OVERAGE, OVERWEIGHT AND OVERJOYED

DEAR OVER: No competent physician would venture an opinion without first examining you. Simply knowing your age and weight is not enough. Don't listen to the tales of your friends. Instead go immediately to your own doctor. Fortunately, today it is possible to determine (by amniocentesis) whether the fetus is normal. Good luck and God bless.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SIOUX CITY SUE: "Mutual orgasm" is when both parties reach a climax during sex relations. It is not an insurance company in Omaha.

North showed one ace over Blackwood and East tried again with five spades. Declarer was now certain his original theory was correct and bid six clubs which was promptly doubled by West. East reluctantly passed.

After the opening heart lead was "trumped" by East's spade ace, South tabled his cards. He now knew East's exact distribution. The contract was cold. West informed South that anyone who bids Blackwood and then goes to slam without a control in the opponents' suit should take some bidding lessons. South just smiled.

Plans Reunion

The L.W. Parker family has planned a reunion for Saturday and Sunday, July 12-13 in Towle Park Barn. Many descendants and relatives are expected.

Parker, a native of Parker County and a resident of Scurry County for over 50 years, has recently celebrated his 95th birthday. Mrs. Parker passed away in 1976.

Earl Parker, spokesman for the group, invites friends and relatives to attend.

East had probably never had a 9-4 hand before and he plunged ahead with it at every opportunity. That is, until West doubled East, by this time, felt compelled to pass. His partner said the opponents had erred and East believed him.

South's decision to bid six clubs was magnificent, not just lucky. He, of course, could simply have bid five clubs as his first turn. But he liked his hand and reasoned that East, who was vulnerable, had at least eight spades for his four-spade bid. In the event that North had no spade control, if South's original assessment was correct, then West would be void in spades and declarer could make a slam.

Delta Kappa Gamma State Convention In Lubbock

Local members of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International joined 1,045 of their sister members from throughout the state of Texas in Lubbock in mid-June. The occasion was the state's 51st anniversary observance of the founding of the now international society in Austin on May 11, 1929.

Mrs. Mary Rowlette of Lubbock, state president of the key women teachers, selected Shakespeare's familiar quotation from Hamlet as her convention theme: "To thine own self be true."

A bus tour of Lubbock included a walking tour of the Ranching Heritage Center the opening day of the convention. That evening a special Lubbock night featured entertainment by students representative of a variety of arts engaged in the public and private schools and colleges of Lubbock.

Newly-elected presidents of 270 chapters met with area coordinators in a Leadership Development Workshop to train them for their two years in office. Miss Bernice Conoly of Portland, Oregon, international president, discussed special challenges of this decade. Mrs. Ruth Johnson of Dallas chaired the workshop.

Miss Sarah Tobolowsky of Dallas, nominee for international president and current southwest regional director, addressed the convention during the annual Birthday Luncheon.

State and international scholarship recipients were introduced by Mrs. Donna Van Hoove of Austin, scholarships chairman. She also recognized honors chapters contributing extra funds to the scholarships program. Mrs. Betty McKinney of Houston, achievement awards chairman, Johnny Abbey (Tyler) of the state achievement award for the current year. Shaped like the state of Texas, with a diamond marking the location of state headquarters, the award is given for outstanding service of a member on state and chapter levels.

An original birthday ceremony conducted by state ceremonies chairman Mrs. Cathy Baldarach of Dallas concluded the luncheon with the lighting of the candles on individual birthday cakes and the singing of the official Society song.

A necrology service honored the memory of Texas members who died during the past year. Mrs. Betty Roberts of San Angelo conducted the service in the First United Methodist Church. The Alpha State convention choir, under the direction of Miss Josie Champion of Austin, sang Mendelssohn's "I Waited For The Lord."

State officers and committee chairmen met with chapter members in instructional sessions the final day of the convention. State business was conducted in both executive and general sessions.

A formal banquet honoring founders and presidents ended the official convention activities on Saturday evening. Miss Conoly brought international greetings and addressed members and guests on the subject, "This Above All."

A special ceremony honored the dozen women who founded the Society 51 years ago in Austin. Gaily-wrapped souvenirs marked each place at tables decorated with roses and brass candelabra.

A planning session for the next state convention took place following the regular convention. Members also discussed plans for a Texas Bluebonnet Breakfast set for the international convention in Detroit in late July.

At that time, members representing nearly 150,000 members in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Puerto Rico, Norway, Sweden, Finland, The Netherlands, Iceland and Costa Rica will hold a biennial meeting.

Local members participating in the anniversary celebrations include ElWanda Nail, Durelle Gorman, Virginia Grove, Helen Mock, LaNelle Ramin, Johnnie Harber, June McGlaun, Georgene Gallaway, Carol Miller, Gerri Parker, Donna Stehley, Philomen Kelly, Jo Alyce McMullan and Jean Sealy.

Yankees Batter Texas; Score 10 Runs Early

ARLINGTON (AP) - Three runs were already in. Trying to escape further damage, Texas Ranger pitcher Ferguson Jenkins walked dangerous Ruppert Jones intentionally to load the bases for New York catcher Rick Cerone in the first inning Thursday night.

"It didn't insult me," said Cerone, the No. 8 batter, who has seen opposing pitchers intentionally walk the batter 10 times this season to get to him.

Cerone fouled off a few pitches, worked the count to 3-and-2 and finally walked to force in another run, and the next four batters drove in six more runs as the Yankees exploded for 10 first-inning runs and coasted to a 13-5 victory over Texas.

It was the 13th RBI for the Yankee catcher this year after pitchers had walked a teammate to get to him.

"It's a matter of percentages. It's been against a right-handed pitcher every time with a left-handed batter in front of me. I've been successful in situations like that, and I just try to concentrate and do the best I can. I wasn't trying to walk. I wanted a hit if I could get it," Cerone said.

Jenkins faced the entire Yankee lineup the first inning and got only one of them out. After Cerone walked, shortstop Bucky Dent singled to left for two more runs for a 6-0 lead, and that was all for the veteran righthander.

Jenkins, 7-7, gave up two other walks and five hits, including a bases-loaded double by cleanup hitter Reggie Jackson, who usually is putty in Jenkins' hands.

"A good night for me against Fergie is usually

Dodgers Get Past Ryan

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Dave Lopes' infield tapper with the bases loaded and two out in the bottom of the ninth knocked in Ron Cey to cap a two-run rally and lift Los Angeles to a 4-3 victory over Houston Thursday night, as the Dodgers regained first place in the National League West.

Bill Russell, who doubled home two runs in the seventh, drove home the tying run with a one-out, two-base hit in the ninth. Steve Garvey launched the Dodgers' winning rally with a leadoff single in the ninth, and one out later, Cey singled to center. Russell followed with his ground-rule double that scored pinch-runner Derrel Thomas with the tying run.

Dave Smith replaced starter Nolan Ryan and after walking Mike Scioscia intentionally to fill the bases, struck out pinch-hitter Pedro Guerrero, but gave up Lopes' tapper in front of the plate that Smith fielded and threw home late.

Ryan, 5-7, who gave up only three hits the first six innings, took the loss, his sixth straight against Los Angeles. Steve Howe, 3-4, the fourth Los Angeles pitcher, took the victory.

Enos Cabell's RBI single in the top of the eighth had given the Astros a 3-2 lead.

0-for-2 with two walks. He didn't look the same tonight. He looked like something was bothering him. I don't know if it was the umpires or what," said Jackson, who went 3-for-5 and drove in four runs, the other two coming in the third inning on his 21st homer.

The only other time New York has scored 10 runs in an inning was in the fifth inning of a 12-4 victory over Oakland on July 21, 1979.

It was the most runs the Rangers have yielded in an inning since the California Angels scored 13 in the ninth inning here in 1978.

Sparky Lyle and four other pitchers mopped up after Jenkins' departure. Lyle gave up a two-run homer to third baseman Graig Nettles for the final two runs of the first inning and Jackson's two-run smash in the third.

The Yankees were held to just two hits in the last six innings - Dent's fourth-inning single and Jim Spencer's ninth-inning solo homer.

Package Tour Includes 10 Games...

Baseball Lover's Dream

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Here's a vacation idea for the baseball junkie in the family.

A young man in Fremont, Ohio, has put together a 10-day tour to see 10 major league baseball games involving 19 teams in 10 different stadiums.

At a cost of $849 ($969 for single occupancy), those taking the 3,000-mile bus tour will be able to see teams from Chicago to Boston, plus the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, the Babe Ruth Shrine in Baltimore and any other baseball-related attraction along the way.

"We're even going to try to stop at the homes of some old ballplayers," says Chuck Laterza, 26, organizer of the tour. "The public relations guys with some of the teams are going to try to line those visits up for us."

"We'll be going to any place that has anything at all to do with baseball." The Aug. 1-10 trip starts and ends in Toledo. Because of the tight schedule, two nights will be spent on the bus, but there also will be two days in New York City. The bus will be supplied with keg beer and baseball movies, Laterza said.

The price of the trip includes 21 meals, tickets to the 10 games and motel accommodations for seven nights.

Laterza, who played football at the University of Toledo, said his only promotion has been a small ad in The Sporting News. Since placing it, about 85 people from as far away as Arizona and Florida have sent in deposits.

"We've heard from people in California and a lady from Jacksonville, Fla., is going to send her husband away for 10 days. She said when he gets back, he might not want to watch any more baseball games."

Aug. 1—Leave Toledo for Detroit, where the Tigers host Seattle; 2—Oakland at Cleveland; 3—Houston at New York Mets; 4—Texas at New York Yankees; 5—Milwaukee at Boston, plus all-night bus trip to Cooperstown; 6—Morning visit to Hall of Fame, St. Louis at Philadelphia at night; 7—Morning visit to Babe Ruth Shrine in Baltimore, Chicago White Sox at Baltimore at night; 8—Philadelphia at Pittsburgh; 9—Los Angeles at Cincinnati, plus all-night bus trip to Chicago; 10—Montreal at Chicago.

More information can be obtained by calling Laterza at 419-332-0149.

If the trip is successful, Laterza says he may organize one for football during the Thanksgiving holiday involving both pro and college games. And for next summer, he's thinking about a grand tour that will allow baseball fans to see all 26 teams.

3 Killed, 20 Injured In Suicidal Rampage

WANTAGH, N.Y. (AP) — "My kids are in there, my kids are in there," cried Maureen Murphy as a young man sped away in her car. Before the car came to a halt, three people were dead and 20 were injured. The driver, who police said was trying to commit suicide, was badly hurt but survived.

Robert Kabolowsky, a 20-year-old Long Island man whom a neighbor called "a beautiful young man, always with a smile on his face," was in critical condition after the incident Thursday. Police said he would be charged with murder, assault and grand larceny if he lived.

Police said the rampage started when Kabolowsky, despondent over losing his job at an automotive repair shop last week, got into an argument with his father, Murray, 50.

After smashing his head against a plate-glass sliding door, the younger Kabolowsky apparently went into the kitchen, ripped out a drawer full of knives and tried to kill himself with them. When his parents tried to stop him he cut his father and bit his mother, Lillian, officials said.

Police and neighbors reported that Kabolowsky then raced into the street, wearing only his underwear, and stole a car from Stephen Masurkewicz, who was loading his boat onto the car's trailer.

"I had the rope from the electric winch in my hand when I heard someone yell, 'Bob, don't take that car, it's not yours,'" Masurkewicz said.

According to officials, Kabolowsky drove on and collided with a car driven by Frances Mastrelli, 29, of Wantagh. With her were her 4-year-old son and Jane Donahue of Wantagh and her two sons.

All five were in serious condition, police said. Maureen Murphy, of Massapequa, was driving by when she saw the crash. She stopped, and Kabolowsky allegedly pulled her from the driver's seat and sped off with her two children, Dennis Jr., 4, and Jennifer, 8, and another child, Jennifer Laprae, 8, in the back seat.

David Briggs, another bystander, gave chase in his car, and Mrs. Murphy went with him. "All she kept saying was, 'My kids are in there, my kids are in there,'" said Briggs.

At speeds police estimated from 70 to 80 miles an hour, the Chrysler careened around curves in Wantagh Park, jumped a curb, crashed through a fence and plowed into a one-story concession stand where patrons were waiting for hot dogs and soft drinks, officials said.

One child at the stand, Michael Grimes, 10, of Wantagh, was killed instantly, police said. Another, William Lewis, 7, of Wantagh, was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Marvin Blumberg, 51, of Levittown, who was sitting at a nearby picnic table, was slammed some 200 feet across a patio and crushed to death against a cigarette machine, police said.

"There was a body over there, another body there, two kids' bodies, there was an old man's body. The car was wrapped around this pole and there was a body in the car... it was unbelievable. I've never seen anything like that in my life," said John Gordon. Arlene Cawley, 42, of West Farmingdale, who sustained multiple fractures of her leg, was reported in good condition. At least seven others were injured but refused treatment, according to police.

Masurkewicz raced to the scene with police and went to the wreckage where Kabolowsky was lying.

"He was a bloody mess. His jaw and mouth were turned open. The guy wanted to kill himself. I wish he would have been able to do it and not hurt anybody else," Masurkewicz said.

The two Murphy children were admitted to hospital, with cuts and bruises and were in fair condition Thursday. The Laprae girl was released from the hospital.

Police said Kabolowsky would be charged with three counts of second-degree murder, two counts of assault and two counts of grand larceny.

Rosemary Maniet, a neighbor of the Kabolowskys for 10 years, said the family was the kind "you say you like to live next door to."

"The boy was delightful, respectful to young children and old people. I don't know what went on with him," said Mrs. Maniet.

DWI Offenders Losing Licenses

AUSTIN (AP)—The Department of Public Safety is sending bad news to 2,800 drivers who thought their licenses were safe even though they had been convicted of drunken driving.

Attorney General Mark White said Thursday a new law requires suspension of the licenses of persons convicted of DWI after Aug. 27, 1979 even though they received probation.

His legal opinion told the DPS its decision to suspend licenses only if a conviction occurred on or after April 1, 1980, was illegal.

The DPS said it would immediately suspend the licenses of 2,800 drivers who received probation for DWI between Aug. 27 and April 1, 1980.

White held on Jan. 29 that DWI cases come under a new law which says a probated misdemeanor conviction is a final conviction. The lone exception is a "deferred adjudication of guilt" in which a judge may postpone a verdict and dismiss a case after a defendant successfully completes probation. State law requires an automatic one-year suspension of driver's licenses upon a final conviction of DWI.

White noted there had been "widespread disagreement" about the meaning of the new misdemeanor law, and "it appears that many attorneys in good faith advised clients to plead guilty in the belief that a grant of probation would prevent the suspension of their driving privileges."

He said that "in recognition of such reliance," the DPS had announced it would record only DWI

Content Census Count Too Low

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
The early returns from the 1980 census are in, and local officials across the country are crying that the count is too low. Census takers, they say, missed individuals, households, even whole neighborhoods.

"We have 4,000 or 5,000 people that either disappeared or something," said Wally Jahraus, the assessor in Aberdeen, S.D. According to the preliminary figures, Aberdeen has a population of 25,007 - down 5.5 percent from 1970. Jahraus had estimated the population at near 30,500.

The Census Bureau began distributing figures on population and housing units to 39,000 municipalities last week. The figures are not final. Counting is still going on. The bureau says it expected an outcry and wants local authorities to look at the preliminary statistics and help them catch any mistakes. Billions of dollars hinge on the outcome of the national count. Federal funds often are allocated on the basis of population.

Spokesmen in regional census offices estimated that a city can get up to $200 for each resident. A population loss of 1,000 would mean a monetary loss of nearly a quarter of a million dollars. Critics of the census have complained about its cost and its heavy reliance on the mail. Director Vincent Barabba accused one major critic, Rep. Robert Garcia, D-N.Y., of having "reached a verdict on the 1980 census without waiting for it to be finished."

An Associated Press survey showed no geographical pattern to the accusations of undercounting.

WTC Professor Finds Fun With Bio-Rhythms

What have Texas Instruments, calculators, and bio-rhythms in common? Texas Instruments, a manufacturer of electronic gadgetry, also manufactures calculators, so the relationship between those two is clear. But bio-rhythms? The bio-rhythm belief is the belief that an individual's mood and general performance are subject to certain subtle changes in bio-chemistry in a cycle of days. Randy Mosley, head of the engineering technology department at Western Texas College, discovered the relationship among the three when he recently bought a calculator. In a book of games that accompanied the calculator were some charts to calculate a person's highs and lows in bio-rhythms. The book, "The Great International Math on Keys Book," is copyrighted by Texas Instruments. The bio-rhythm charts are for use in calculating one's physical, emotional, and intellectual states.

Mosley performed the calculations on himself and on several of his colleagues. "I don't remember anybody's coming out low," he said. Mosley declined to say whether he believed the simple tests to be accurate. He did say, however, "It's fun to play with."

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Help for hiatal hernia

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB— I was told by my doctor that my X-rays show that I have a hiatal hernia. Every day after a meal it's either heartburn or some pain. I take all kinds of antacids, liquids or wafers. I don't get much relief. I was told there was a reason for that sort of problem. It gets worse at times. Could you give me some advice on what this is and what kinds of medicine I should take to relieve the problem? I understand an operation is not advisable.

DEAR READER— A hiatal hernia refers to a rupture of a portion of the stomach through the hole in the diaphragm. We all have the hole in the diaphragm that permits the esophagus (food tube) to pass through the diaphragm to join the stomach. When this hole becomes enlarged, a portion of the stomach may slide through it into the chest. Now, the hernia isn't always there. The fact that it slides in and out is why it's called a sliding hernia.

Such a condition is often associated with leakage of the acid digestive contents of the stomach back into the lower esophagus. This can cause burning and pain in the pit of the stomach just at the lower tip of the breastbone.

Individuals who have this problem and have symptoms with it can obtain a great deal of relief by eating small, frequent meals. It's important to avoid lying down until a couple of hours at least after eating so the stomach will have a chance to empty. Most people who have symptoms at night have learned that if they prop the head of the bed up so they're not lying flat that will help, too.

There are many other things that you can do to minimize your problem. This includes not wearing a tight belt around the waist or any other tight garments.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 4-8, Hiatal Hernia, Esophageal Reflux, to give you more information about what you can do for yourself. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

This is a fairly common problem and is particularly frequent in individuals past middle age. Women seem to be bothered with it more than men. Pregnancy seems to be a major factor in increasing the chances of having a hiatal hernia. Obesity will contribute to the problem in both men and women. That's because fat accumulates in the abdomen and increases the pressure inside the abdominal cavity. This helps to push the stomach through the hole in the diaphragm.

Any factor that increases the pressure inside the abdominal cavity can cause a portion of the stomach to slide through the enlarged hole. That includes abdominal distention with gas.

Coffee, tea, colas and chocolate can also cause heartburn, even in people who do not have a hiatal hernia. These beverages should be avoided by anyone with this symptom.

Antacids help to neutralize the acid material in the stomach and in that way may prevent burning. But the other measures listed in The Health Letter I'm sending you are also extremely helpful and important in management of such conditions.

Dallas Electric Bills Go Up 50-90 Percent

DALLAS (AP)—Summertime, and the living's uneasy—especially now that electric bills are putting Dallas consumers in the financial hot seat.

What price comfort? High. Very high. Dallas Power & Light officials estimate the bills for the month of June will be 50 to 90 percent higher than last year.

"Some of the bills are as high as 94 percent greater than the same billing period for 1979," DP&L's Jim Lawrence said Thursday. "But you have to keep in mind that last summer was extremely cool—for Dallas—and we had a rate increase (9.7 percent) last October."

Dallas thermometers have shot past 100 every day since June 23 and 105 to 113-degree readings have shattered long standing temperature records 17 days in June and July.

But during the same period in 1979, the average temperature was a balmy 97 degrees. The mercury reached 100 only three days in that fortnight. Most of the weather records broken this summer have stood since the heat waves of 1954, 1936 and 1917, years when air conditioning was either a dream of the future or an innovation beyond the reach of most household budgets.

In 1936, the year of the Texas Centennial Exposition, sweltering residents escaped 110-degree heat by flocking to the new "air-cooled" art deco exposition buildings at Fair Park. According to newspaper accounts at the time, the buildings were the first "to take advantage, on a large scale, of modern science that regulates weather conditions." Today, DP&L estimates more than 80 percent of the homes in Dallas have air conditioning, and all residents have to do to escape the heat is turn down a thermostat.
