

Billy Now Saying Cable Given Him

WASHINGTON (AP)—Billy Carter, reversing statements he made a day earlier, acknowledged today that someone in the White House gave him a State Department cable concerning his 1978 trip to Libya.

President Carter's younger brother told reporters in Plains, Ga., this morning that he did indeed receive a copy of a cable from the American charge d'affaires in Tripoli saying "that he appreciated me coming there and that it helped his job."

Asked who gave him the cable, Carter replied, "I assume I got it from someone in the White House." Asked if that person was the president, he replied: "I won't comment on that directly. It was over a year ago and I don't remember."

He said the cable is now in his lawyer's possession.

In Americus, Ga. on Thursday, Billy had strongly denied that he had any government cables, that the president ever gave him any or that he ever said otherwise to Justice Department investigator Joel Lisker.

"I have State Department copies of nothing," the president's brother said at the time. "Jimmy has not shown me anything."

Asked today why he had initially denied receiving any cables, Billy replied, "I didn't realize you were talking about it (the charge d'affaires' memo)."

Billy Carter also, had denied lying to Lisker last January about receiving any money from Libya. Today, Billy said Lisker never asked him directly about the money.

"The record speaks for itself," Lisker, who heads the Justice Department's foreign agents registration section, said Thursday.

Also on Thursday, the White House released seven apparently innocuous State Department cables on Billy's visit to Libya and sought to discount any suggestion that the president gave his brother sensitive government information.

White House Press Secretary Jody Powell upbraided members of Congress and the news media for their handling of the disclosures of the cables earlier this week.

"I just think that when you're dealing with the integrity questions about the conduct in office of a president of the United States, members of Congress and everybody else ought to know what they're talking about before they leap to conclusions."

Powell, interviewed on ABC-TV's "Good Morning, America" program, said he saw no impropriety in the president sharing the cables with Billy, especially since they had been made available to syndicated columnist Jack Anderson 14 months ago.

Carter Won't Free Delegates

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Carter today described efforts to open the Democratic National Convention as a "travesty" and vowed he would not release his delegates to vote as they choose.

Carter made the declaration at a White House meeting with Democratic members of the House of Representatives, lawmakers who attended the session said.

Rep. Thomas Downey, D-N.Y., said after the meeting that he told Carter that opening the convention would allow the delegates to "affirm their support for you." Otherwise, he said, "the party will be split apart."

Carter, the congressman said, responded "Tom, I understand that, but this is a matter of principle with me."

Downey said that the president described the open convention movement as a "public relations effort and he used the word 'travesty' to initiate that sentence."

At the meeting, the president was urged to allow his delegates - 315 more than are needed to win the Democratic presidential nomination - to ignore commitments made to support him.

On Thursday, independent presidential candidate John B. Anderson said he would think about dropping his election bid if Carter does not become the Democratic presidential nominee.

Defying Predictions....

Unemployment, Jobs Both Rise

WASHINGTON (AP)—In defiance of economic predictions, the number of Americans holding jobs in July rose sharply for the first time in five months, but the unemployment rate crept back up to 7.8 percent, the government said today.

In a report laden with encouraging but also mixed economic signals, the Labor Department said total employment based on its survey of American households rose by 459,000 jobs, reversing four straight months of declines brought on by the recession.

At the same time, unemployment, which had dropped from 7.8 percent in May to 7.7 percent in June, returned to 7.8 percent last month as the number of jobless Americans increased by 201,000.

The department said unemployment rose in July despite the gain in jobs because people entered the labor market at a faster rate than jobs were created.

The figures, combined with a positive Commerce Department report on economic trends issued earlier this week, suggested that the recession is bottoming out sooner than economists had expected.

In fact, the government had been looking for another drop in employment in July accompanied by a larger rise in the jobless rate, which had surged from 6 percent in February.

Only two weeks ago, the Carter administration predicted in a revised economic forecast that unemployment would peak at 8.6 percent by early 1981 and remain there throughout the year. The prediction, however, was based on the very rapid deterioration in economic activity during the spring, a trend that appears to have slowed significantly in the past month.

But department economists also pointed to a conflicting report suggesting that the government may have overestimated the rise in employment in July.

FM Station Going On Air Here Soon

A new FM radio station in Snyder is expected to go on the air soon, possibly by Sept. 1. Mel Gilbert, executive vice president of KSNY Radio, has announced.

Gilbert said the equipment of KSNY-FM will be undergoing tests this month and consulting engineers have indicated that it will be ready for operation by the end of the month.

The station will operate at 101.7 on the dial, which, for all practical purposes is 102. Gilbert said. It will feature an "easy listening" format, which means that some 70 percent to 80 percent of the music will be instrumental and about 60 percent will be familiar to most listeners. It will be a computerized operation, but operators will have the capability of simulcasting with KSNY-AM. The FM station normally will carry about 40 percent less news than the AM station, concentrating on its music.

The process of launching the FM station here began in the fall of 1976, but was delayed initially by FCC procedure changes and later by problems in acquiring equipment.

Ask Us

Q—Why doesn't Snyder have a housing project mostly for blacks like those in other places such as Colorado City, Sweetwater and Big Spring?

A—The only answer we have found is that no developers have elected to go into such projects here and there has been little, if any, interest expressed here in public housing.

C-C Pays Off Building Note

The Snyder Chamber of Commerce has gained a total of 44 new members this morning as a result of a 1½-day drive conducted by its board of directors.

Meanwhile, chamber officials paid off the note on the chamber office building, which means that funds formerly earmarked for that purpose can be used now in the chamber's operating budget.

One of the purposes of the membership drive was to clear the debt on the building and Charlie Henderson, chamber president, and Bill Warner, manager, made the payment Thursday afternoon to Roger B. Mize, president of Snyder National Bank. Mize had contributed the lot for the chamber building and helped arrange for financing the construction of the building six years ago.

The membership drive conducted by the directors on Wednesday and Thursday increased the roll from 382 to 426.

Added to the list since the Thursday noon report were Bill Voss Farms, Tiger Barber Shop and Atwood Construction Co.

An individual membership announced Thursday was for Hank Davis, rather than Hank Williams as erroneously reported in yesterday's tabulation.

Chamber officials said they were pleased over results of the membership drive, and there is a possibility that some of the contacts made during the 1½ days will result in still more additions to the membership list.

JERRY WEBB
Jerry Webb To Join Firm In Denver

Jerry Webb, superintendent for Mobil Oil Corp. here, has resigned to accept the position of production manager for Dome Petroleum Corp. in Denver, Colo.

Webb said his last day on the job here with Mobil will be Aug. 8.

In the meantime, he was preparing a letter of resignation as a member of the Snyder City Council. He was elected to Place 6 on the council last April 5. He has lived in Snyder a total of 15 years, having once moved from here to Midland and then returned in 1977 as district engineer for General Crude. He became superintendent when General Crude merged with Mobil in July of 1979.

"It was a tough decision," Webb said of his acceptance of the position with Dome Petroleum. However, he said he felt that he could not turn down the opportunity.

Third Night Of Violence

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Riot-equipped police met little resistance early today as they swept through a predominantly black neighborhood following a third straight night of sporadic violence.

Two officers received minor injuries and at least 30 people were arrested as police and troopers cordoned off a 20-square-block area of this Florida city.

Early this morning, police were "putting away the riot helmets, so it looks like it's coming to an end," said Orlando police spokesman Michael Burns. But increased patrols would continue in the area all night, he said.

'Hottest' Month Has Made Debut

By The Associated Press
Temperatures were expected to reach or pass the 100-degree mark across all of Texas today as August, traditionally one of the hottest months, began.

And the outlook for the next few days shows no indication of improvement.

Forecasts called for continued cloudless skies and searing heat.

At Del Rio, Dallas-Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and Waco highs never fell below 100 during the entire month of July.

Wichita Falls was again the state's hot spot Thursday with 108. It was 106 at Dallas-Fort Worth and 103 at Waco.

Early morning temperatures were mostly in the 70s and 80s. Extremes ranged from 61 at Marfa in the mountains of Southwest Texas to the mid 80s across much of North Texas and North Central Texas.

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Thursday, 98 degrees; low, 66 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. today, 71 degrees; precipitation, none; total precipitation for 1980 to date, 10.77.

West Texas - Clear and hot through Saturday. Highs 100 to 105. Lows 58 mountains to 76 south.

Friday update

Auto Layoffs Increasing

DETROIT (AP)—The number of auto workers on open-ended layoff is increasing, U.S. car-builders have reported.

Four domestic automakers issued reports Thursday showing that a total of 250,175 workers were on indefinite furlough, compared with 247,650 off the job last week. There are no layoffs at the fifth major U.S. automaker, Volkswagen of America.

Both GM and Ford Motor Co. said they had workers classified as temporarily off who soon would be added to the indefinite rolls.

Alaska Suing Government

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Alaska is suing the federal government over its "arbitrary and capricious" decision to sell offshore oil and gas leases in Bristol Bay, a prime world fishery, state officials said today.

Gov. Jay Hammond and Attorney General Wilson Condon said they expect California officials to announce a similar challenge over offshore leases scheduled in that state.

Soviets Foil Afghan Coup

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Afghan army forces apparently planning a coup against the Kremlin-backed regime of President Babrak Karmal were foiled by Soviet troops after word of the plan leaked to the Soviets, according to reports from Kabul.

The reports, which could not be independently confirmed, were quoted Thursday by a diplomatic source who declined to be identified by name.

He said the plot was said to have been planned by Afghan forces stationed at the Pul-i-Charki army base near Kabul, the Afghan capital. After the Soviets heard of the plan, they surrounded the base on July 18, according to the reports.

Musicians Join Strike

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—With talks at an impasse and a strike deadline passed, the film industry's musicians apparently went on strike today, compounding the woes of producers who lost 60,000 striking actors 11 days ago.

Negotiations reached a "total impasse" and broke down just two hours before a midnight PDT strike deadline.

Neither the union representatives nor officials of the producers association could be reached for comment after the deadline passed, but the halt in talks virtually assured the musicians would go on strike.

There were no announced plans by the musicians regarding the use of picket lines.

Plane Wreckage Found

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A police helicopter located the wreckage of an airplane that apparently crashed as it approached the Mexico City international airport early today, police said.

2 Lubbock Cops Wounded Today

LUBBOCK (AP)—Two police officers were wounded during an exchange of gunfire with a man they were trying to arrest in connection with a motel burglary today, officers said.

The man police arrested also was wounded, and is hospitalized in a serious condition with a gunshot wound in the abdomen, authorities said.

The SDN Column

Walt Finley of the Big Spring Herald came up with this observation:

Politician: "I have decided to stay in my present office rather than seek higher office because I have important business to finish and I can best serve the people by staying where I am."

Translation: "The polls show I can't win."

Commenting on the draft registration, Craig Nieman of the Lamb County Leader asks what will happen to those who say they won't sign up.

"Canada has stiffened its immigration laws and refuses anyone who isn't already guaranteed a job there. Maybe some of our bureaucrats should take note of that. Our present immigration laws seem to say to anybody that can float, swim, run or walk, 'Come on down.'"

Perhaps we could fill a few vacancies in our armed forces with some of them.

Sweetwater residents are going to vote Aug. 9 on whether to contract with the Colorado River Municipal Water District for the purchase of 3,000 acre feet of water (nearly a billion gallons) per year. It would come from Lake Spence, the CRMWD's reservoir at Robert Lee, where the quality of water is something less than that in Lake Thomas. Some Sweetwater citizens have commented unfavorably on this, but industrial leaders there have a different view. The Sweetwater Reporter quoted an official of Flintkote, a gyboard manufacturer with a plant at Sweetwater providing a payroll of around $1.5 million per year.

"We can't make board without water. We have to depend on the city for a sufficient supply. I hope the community will see fit to approve the vote on Lake Spence. I know one thing, it's wet!"

Orlin Brewer of the Vernon Record, quoting Congressman Jack Hightower on efforts of some Democrats to change the rules at their national convention and conduct an "open" convention: "I have not been in favor of the primary system, but when a person wins under established rules, I do not think it is fair to change them after the games have begun. We might ought to change the deleterious binding rules and perhaps the others before the next presidential election, but I am certainly not in favor of changing them at this time." WACIL McNAIR

Sometimes in politics things can go so wrong that they turn out right.

Such as for Japan's Liberal Democratic Party, which has just emerged triumphantly victorious from the first of a string of potentially pivotal elections in the great democracies.

The other two are not so easily dealt with. Corruption is primarily the problem of the LDP itself — one of its powerbrokers, former Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka, still faces court action in a payoff scandal — and calls for a housecleaning which it is questionable the party is up to.

It did not appear to be shaping up that way. Distracted internally by factional infighting and its public image tainted by a tangle of political corruption cases, the LDP had been having a run of distinctly bad luck.

As for inflation, Japan is in essentially the same economic boat as its Western partners. The most dependent of all on imported energy, any government's room for maneuvering without bringing on a recession — signs of which are appearing — is limited.

It lost ground in elections last October, ending up barely in command of the Diet's lower house and with the signs pointing to loss of the less powerful but still important upper house in follow-up voting this June.

So an election that turned out right for the Liberal Democrats, has not resolved their or Japan's long-range problems. Which probably makes no difference at all to some highly interested Western observers — Jimmy Carter's U.S. democrats, Helmut Schmidt's West German Socialists and Valery Giscard d'Estaing's French center-right coalition.

Then a no-confidence vote brought down the LDP government to the surprise of all, most of all the opposition Socialists who introduced it. The defeat, necessitating unwanted new elections, was not their doing but that of defecting LDP deputies angered by the "arrogance" of their own prime minister, Masayoshi Ohira.

Of diverse political faiths, they share a preoccupation with approaching elections. And they will be quite satisfied if their electorates settle for what the Japanese did.

Within weeks Ohira had died, leaving the party leaderless in the parliamentary campaign and Japan likewise, to its official embarrassment, on the world scene. With international attention briefly focused on the Venice economic summit, the country had to be represented by a clutch of cabinet ministers rather than a full-fledged head of government.

More of the same.

There was considerable campaign talk to the effect that the country's and party's problems might be in great part the product of the LDP's very success in holding uninterrupted power for a quarter of a century. Perhaps Japan had reached the time for a change.

In the incoherent world of government giveaway, perhaps the most imbecilic programs are those that bestow tax-supported largess on convicts.

Knowing a good thing when they see it, many prisoners have applied for and received payments from federal programs meant to help the poor and the disabled.

Between the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) and Social Security the dregs of society are accumulating a bundle.

Earlier this year it was reported that the federal government was paying millions to convicts through the CETA program. Many of the CETA-funded prison jobs once were tasks prisoners were expected to perform as part of their punishment. Now murderers and other violent offenders are able to have their room and board paid while accumulating up to $13,000 from this federal bon-doggle.

No attempt is made to see if the prisoners are paying taxes or supporting the families that they left outside the prison walls. The taxpayers, through welfare, end up paying the expenses of the families as well.

Rep. John Cavanaugh, D-Neb., has been leading a fight against CETA money going to prisoners. On finding out about the ridiculous practice in 1978 he complained to the Department of Labor: nothing was done. Last year, well after Cavanaugh's complaint, the number of prisoners receiving CETA funds actually increased and the labor Department claims it does not even know how many convicts are involved in the program.

The latest tax-supported obscenity involves Social Security disability payments going to one of this nation's most brutal murderers, David Berkowitz. Berkowitz is the infamous "Son of Sam" killer who ruthlessly murdered six people in New York City. He is now serving a 315-year sentence in Attica State Prison.

The Social Security Administration, offering no apologies, is giving this monster $300 per month in disability payments. It is all perfectly logical from a bureaucratic point of view. Berkowitz is mentally unable to hold a job. Right?

But if David Berkowitz is coherent enough to apply for Social Security his lack of employment obviously is not a result of mental disability. Today it is becoming increasingly profitable for the foulest members of this society to claim they are actually crazy and therefore not responsible for their actions. Such a plea in court may save them from execution. Once in prison it can be, as David Berkowitz is finding, a goldmine.

Payments to criminals is but further evidence that the United States is now going through a period of government gone mad. David Berkowitz seems far more sane than a government that taxes victims of crimes to make payments to criminals.

A Virginia congressman investigating such Social Security payments believes that up to $60 million per year is going to convicts.

Yes indeed; something is crazy.

My mother calmly announced to a group of us the other night that every time she turned on her organ to play "Alley Cat" she heard voices.

I immediately made some smart remark about piped-in music lovers registering a formal complaint. When no one laughed, I hit 'em with the line about the author of "Alley Cat" trying to get his music back. Still no laughs.

Finally, my husband said, "Hearing voices isn't too unusual. I used to hear conversations coming out of my electric drill all the time. For a long while, until it became popular, I didn't tell anyone about it."

"There was a guy down the street," said my dad, "who had one of those remote controls for his television set and every time a plane went over his house, the channel would change. Sometimes, during a peak evening, he could follow as many as three shows at a time."

A neighbor piped in, "I guess you all heard about the guy who lived near a highway with an electric garage door? Every time a C'Ber would go by, his garage door would zip up and down. No one thought anything of it after while. I couldn't believe what I was hearing. "The vacuum sweepers are the worst," said my mother.

"A lot of people hear voices from their sweepers."

"What do they say?" I asked hesitantly.

"It's not nice to eavesdrop," said Mother. "After all, if someone wanted to talk with you, they wouldn't call you on your vacuum sweeper, they'd call you on the phone."

"That's true," I said. "The one I felt sorry for was the woman who was on some kind of a wave length with a transistor and heard music from the fillings in her teeth."

"Oh, c'mon," I said, "you're all putting me on." They looked at me like they were seeing me for the first time. "Are you telling me you've never heard voices from your toaster or your electric toothbrush?" asked my husband.

"No," I said, trying to grin.

"That's really weird," said my dad. "You haven't told anyone about the 'no voices' have you?"

I shook my head numbly. "Doesn't anyone else not hear them?" I asked.

"Of course we don't," said my husband. "And it'll be our little secret."

When no one else was around I turned on the organ and picked out "Alley Cat."

I heard voices. Five of 'em in the kitchen laughing themselves sick!

The exploits of some crime fighting organizations have earned them recognition all over the world. Everyone has heard of Scotland Yard, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the FBI. Also in this elite society are our own Texas Rangers.

I got a refresher course in Texas Ranger History last weekend when I had occasion to spend the night in Santa Anna, home of the old Texas Ranger Museum. It is now a motel but still big on those colorful characters out of our past.

In their early days these guys established such a ferocious reputation that when World War II came along and a group of servicemen known as the American Rangers arrived in Europe word spread like wildfire throughout occupied France that the Texas Rangers had landed. It caused such a stir that Herr Goebbel, Hitler's propaganda chief, had to take to the radio to deny reports that the Texas Rangers were marching across Europe.

The early rangers never minded their fierce image. In fact they encouraged it. Their many whiskers, snake skin vests, brace of Colt sixshooters, and mustang horses made them the kind of lawmen that the most untamed desperado could respect.

In fact their shoot-first-and-ask-questions-later tactics earned them the title of Diablos Tejanos, the Texas Devils.

Stephen F. Austin, the father of Texas, also sired the rangers when he created a paramilitary force to protect the colonists from the lawlessness of the frontier. Before a man could be a ranger he was asked three questions: "Can you cook, can you ride and can you shoot?"

These men had little use for drill and conventional military tactics and even discipline was relatively unimportant in contrast to courage, initiative and self reliance. A ranger received a $1.25 a day for pay, rations, clothing and horse service. He slept on the ground and had no uniform except for boots on his feet, a hat on his head and whatever he chose to wear in between.

Over the years his blunt manner of upholding the law often proved in itself enough to deter would be crimes.

"Nothing will do any good here but a first class killing, and I am the little boy who will do it to them if they don't let the fences alone," warns a ranger sent to Navarro County in 1888 to ferret out nighttime fence cutters. The snipping abruptly stopped.

On another occasion, rangers were ordered to Laredo after World War II to prevent bloodshed from erupting between two armed political factions. Word sent ahead that: "We'll do all the carrying of guns, we'll do all the enforcing of the law, we'll do all the fighting and if there is any killing done, we'll do it." There was no trouble.

The modern ranger still carries a side arm but relies more on modern crime detection equipment like fingerprint kits and helicopters to help him solve everything from murders to rustling.

But there is still a bit of the old breed evident in him. Recently, a ranger needed his patrol car repaired and took it to a garage. The owner said he couldn't do the job for at least two weeks. When the ranger protested, the man replied: "Sorry, but I've got to treat you like everyone else."

The ranger left and an hour later the man called and said: "Come quick, there is a man down here mad about his bill and threatening to beat hell outa me."

"Is that so," the ranger rumbled. "I'll be there as soon as I can but looking at my schedule I see I got 26 burglaries and one attempted murder ahead of you. It will be at least two weeks before I can get there."

NEW YORK (AP)—The trouble with the misery index — that's a combination of the inflation and jobless rates — is that it doesn't tell just how miserable things really are. It doesn't measure taxes.

An improvement, it seems, would be the infidelity index, a simple combination of inflation, idleness and the rate of tax increases.

President Carter might not like that, but he is the one who started the whole business when, as a candidate in 1976, he devised his misery index to show how poorly Gerald Ford was handling the economy.

Back then the index stood at about 12 percent. Under Carter it soared to as much as 24 percent and even now stands at 19.7 percent, enough for him to wish he had never been so clever in the first place.

But, clever as it was, the misery index failed to take into account those tax increases, which in recent years have been a growing cause of discomfort, regardless of all that political talk about tax cuts.

In the period from 1976 to the fall of 1979, for example, it appears that federal income and Social Security taxes, to say nothing of other taxes, rose faster for most families than did prices as a whole.

In many cases, however, this knowledge was hidden from the public because there has been no easily understood measure of tax pain, as there is for the discomfort of unemployment and inflation.

Instead, you might recall, we blamed our vague distress on the middleman or unions or corporate greed or unfair foreign competition or a malaise of the spirit or a dozen other scapegoats.

Finally, however, an easily understood measure of tax increases has been developed by economists at the Tax Foundation, thus filling in the important missing ingredient in the old misery index.

You may, therefore, add to the 12 percent inflation rate as measured by the consumer price index, and the 7.7 percent jobless rate, a 13 percent tax-inflation rate, for an infidelity index of 32.7.

For the time being, it is probably best to round these numbers off, for a couple of reasons. First, inflation and joblessness are fluctuating. Second, that 13 percent is really the rate for 1979.

However, the rounding won't change the picture. It is unlikely that inflation or idleness will improve much over the next couple of months, and it is unlikely also that 1980 tax increases are less than in 1979.

Later this year it will be possible to use a more precise figure for taxes, because the Tax Foundation promises to compute its index on a quarterly basis in order to allow more up-to-date comparisons.

As of the end of 1979, the foundation's index of federal, state and local taxes stood at 336.4, a jump of 39 index points or 13 percent over 1978. The base year of 1967 was given an index of 100.

From 1975 through 1979, it reports, the upward sweep of taxes has been enormous. "The tax index jumped 65 percent, more than twice the 30 percent rise in prices, and over three times the 21 percent rise in the real output of the private business sector," it states.

The first trademark ever issued in the United States was granted to the Averill Chemical Co. of New York in 1870.

Wedding Dinner May Require Separate Checks

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is being married to a young man whose parents we have met only once, when the couple announced their engagement last June. They live 90 miles from us.

I wrote to the mother of the groom, explaining that we planned a catered reception and dinner, but because we are on a very tight budget she should limit her guest list to 100 people. (Our list is also limited to 100.)

She sent a list that numbered 130, explaining that she couldn't possibly trim it because they "owed" so many people. (Her guests were mostly friends — not relatives.)

I wrote back saying our budget would allow for only 200 and no more. She phoned to say that she could eliminate only two, and that was final!

Abby, the invitations must be mailed soon. I have two choices: Either trim my own list to 72 so she can have her 28, or trim her list myself and take the consequences. In view of her unreasonable attitude, would I be justified in doing this?

WEDDING HEADACHE

DEAR HEADACHE: Don't trim her list unless you want to start World War III.

Tell her you regret that your budget doesn't allow for any more than 200 guests, so she will either have to trim her list to 100 or pay the tab for the extra guests who cannot be eliminated.

DEAR ABBY: Can a girl get pregnant from kissing with her mouth open?

NEEDS TO KNOW IN JUNEAU

DEAR NEEDS: No. But it's a good beginning.

DEAR READERS: Sheila Cole, formerly of England, and now of Mulga, Ala., sent me a poem from "This England," an English publication. She wrote, "I hope you think it's good enough to share with your readers."

I do, and I shall:

IF GOD SHOULD GO ON STRIKE

How good it is that God above has never gone on strike, Because He was not treated fair in things He didn't like.

If only once He'd given up and said, "That's it, I'm through!"

"I've had enough of those on earth, so this is what I'll do."

"I'll give my orders to the sun — cut off the heat supply!"

"And to the moon — give no more light, and ruin the oceans dry."

"Then just to make things really tough and put the pressure on."

"Turn off the vital oxygen till every breath is gone!"

You know He would be justified, if fairness was the game.

For no one has been more abused or met with more disdain

Than God, and yet He carries on, supplying you and me

With all the favors of His grace, and everything for free.

Men say they want a better deal, and so on strike they go.

But what a deal we've given God to whom all things we owe.

We don't care whom we hurt to gain the things we like:

But what a mess we'd all be in, if God should go on strike.

ANON.

Do you hate to write letters because you don't know what to say? # Warner Speaks To ABWA

"Our ancestors have earned and passed on to us all the rights and privileges of citizenship and freedom. They can no longer defend it for us, but they have left behind the tools with which we can preserve it," Bill Warner, manager of the chamber of commerce, told the group of American Business Women at their dinner meeting July 24.

Appliances Can Save Energy

COLLEGE STATION—Small appliances save energy — if you use them creatively!

And if they're used in place of other cooking methods, says Lillian Chenoweth, a family resource management specialist.

Mrs. Chenoweth, on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says "Be creative!"

Go to the use-and-care booklets that came with your appliances for creative ideas.

For instance, think of an electric skillet as more than a frypan. Use it to roast, pan-broil, bake or simmer...and fry.

With it you can prepare items as diverse as baked potatoes, pot roasts or cakes — really.

Potential energy savings are substantial, Mrs. Chenoweth promises.

Here's a savings example — bake a box-cake mix in a portable appliance rather than in a conventional oven, and save almost 60 percent in energy.

Pizza offers similar savings — 68 percent in energy savings when you make pizza from a mix in an electric skillet rather than the oven. And results are just as great.

More comforting news — since almost seven of every 10 homes already have an electric skillet, most of us can save energy without rushing out to buy a new appliance.

Don't overlook your "special-use" small appliances, either.

Some pizza makers will bake potatoes, heat frozen convenience foods or even grill foods. A wok will double as a steamer soup kettle or a punch bowl. Your waffle iron will make brownie dessert waffles — try that one, for sure, instead of baking brownies sometime. And don't forget your blender for making salad dressings from homemade mixes.

These are ideas to start you thinking, and, of course, every idea won't work with every appliance.

ness Women at their dinner meeting July 24. "We were born with citizenship which cannot be taken from us. We can give it away or forfeit it, but it cannot be taken," he said.

"Thomas Paine once said, 'These are the times that try men's souls... What we obtain too cheaply we esteem too lightly... and it would be strange indeed if so celestial an article as freedom should not be highly rated.' Warner concluded. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Dorothy Dortch. She announced that Pat Snider has qualified for the hand of friendship pearl guard by enlisting five new members.

Anita Felan, employee of West Texas State Bank, gave the vocational talk describing the duties of her job.

Shirley Leftwich, owner of Granny's, was installed as a new member. Her sponsor was Mary Starnes.

Mary Faver was hostess for the meeting held at the Martha Ann Woman's Club. The next meeting will be Aug. 28.

Inman Reunion In Crosbyton

The children and grandchildren of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.P. Inman, long-time residents of the Snyder area, met at Crosbyton, July 27, for their annual family reunion. Ten children, numerous grandchildren, other relatives and friends were in attendance. One sister residing in Oregon was unable to attend.

Jack Inman, was honored by his son and daughter and their families, and his sisters, for a belated 80th birthday. A new suit and other gifts were presented to him by his family.

A sister, Mrs. M.M. Shearer of Lamesa, was also honored on her 82nd birthday.

Pre-nuptial Courtesies

Mrs. Stan Hackfeld, nee Karen Lambert, was honored at several pre-nuptial parties. She was honored at a salad luncheon and kitchen shower July 19 given by Lisa von Roeder, Sheila Collier, Jeana Duke and Connie Collier.

She was also honored at a supper that same evening in Sweetwater hosted by Mr. and Mrs. David Green and Mr. and Mrs. Boley Green.

Prior to the couple's July 27 wedding, Mrs. Hackfeld was honored with a lingerie shower in Lorraine hosted by Mrs. Jeff Merket and Mrs. Ted Petty.

PROGRAM SPEAKER-Jan Lanier, American Business Women's Association program chairman, introduced Bill Warner to members at the chapter's recent dinner meeting at the Martha Ann Woman's Club. Mrs. Lanier is shown giving Warner, chamber of commerce manager, a gift of appreciation for presenting a program on citizenship. Below, new member Shirley Leftwich, owner of Granny's is welcomed by her sponsor, Mary Starnes.

It is a matter of diagnosis. He feels great study is needed in studying a patient's problems — and he considers a bridge hand is similar to a patient.

In any event when he had finished the diagnosis, John led the five of trumps.

South played his king, West won with the ace and led back a low trump.

John's jack forced South's queen and established the 10 as a second trump trick while the removal of dummy's two trumps insured that South would lose another diamond trick.

Bobby Van Is Cancer Victim

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor-singer Bobby Van, a 25-year veteran of show business, has died following a long battle with cancer, a spokeswoman said. He was 47.

The boyish-looking performer died Thursday at UCLA Medical Center, said publicist Nancy Strauss.

In a contest to find the strongest one-spade opening of the year, the South hand might well win first prize.

When North passed, South held his breath. But East came through by reopening with two diamonds and now South bid four spades.

West opened the three of diamonds. East took his trick with his king and went into one of those periods of defensive meditation.

With some people the longer the huddle, the greater the chance for an error. But this East was Dr. John Fisher of Dallas. John is one of the slowest of the world's great bridge players.

July Figures Indicate...

Groceries Rose Only 1/4 As Fast As In June

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
Grocery shoppers got some relief from rising prices last month. An Associated Press market-basket survey shows the increase during July was less than one-fourth as steep as it was during June.

There were several discouraging notes, however. Among them:
-Egg prices went up - an apparent result of the heat wave that killed millions of chickens - and caused hens to lay fewer eggs.
-Summer barbecues got more expensive. The price of chopped chuck went up in more than half the cities checked and the price of frankfurters rose in almost as many places.

The AP drew up a random list of 15 commonly purchased food and non-food items, checked the price at one supermarket in each of 13 cities on March 1, 1973 and has rechecked on or about the start of each succeeding month. One item, chocolate chip cookies, was dropped from the list when the manufacturer discontinued the package size used in the check.

The latest survey showed that the market-basket bill rose at the checklist store in eight cities during July, up an average of 2.3 percent. The bill dropped at the checklist store in five cities, down an average of 1.8 percent. Overall, the average marketbasket bill was seven-tenths of a percent higher at the start of August than it was a month earlier.

In contrast, during June, the AP marketbasket bill was up in 11 cities and down in only two, for an overall increase of 3.1 percent - almost 4 1/2 times as big as the July rise. The marketbasket bill at the checklist stores has gone up an average of more than 7 percent this year and is about 12 percent higher than it was at the start of August 1979.

Food items accounted for a disproportionate share of the July price rise. Foods represented 79 percent of the items checked by the AP, but accounted for 89 percent of the increases. Eggs and chopped chuck each went up in seven cities; frankfurters increased in six cities.

No attempt was made to weigh the AP survey results according to population density or in terms of what percent of a family's actual grocery outlay each item represents. The AP did not try to compare actual prices from city to city. The only comparisons were made in terms of percentages of increase or decrease.

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade-A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, milk, frankfurters and granulated sugar. The cities checked were: Albuquerque, N.M., Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Providence, R.I., Salt Lake City and Seattle.

If Carter Isn't Picked Anderson Might Drop Out

WASHINGTON (AP)—Independent presidential candidate John B. Anderson, following an unusual meeting with Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, says he would think about dropping his election bid if President Carter does not become the Democratic presidential nominee.

Anderson said Thursday after the hour-long session that if the Massachusetts senator or someone other than Carter were nominated by the Democrats, "it would only be prudent ... to perhaps consider what my position then would be."

Previously, Anderson had always insisted that he was in the race to stay, no matter who became the Democratic nominee.

The Kennedy-Anderson meeting, at Kennedy's invitation, marked a discussion between political "odd fellows," a conservative-to-moderate House member for 20 years and a liberal Democrat who believes government has a major role to play in solving many social and economic problems.

Kennedy said if he pulled off an upset at the Democratic National Convention and won nomination, he would direct the Democratic National Committee to cease its current legal efforts to keep Anderson off the ballot in some states.

He also pledged that, unlike the president, he would agree to a three-way televised presidential debate with Anderson, Kennedy and Republican presidential nominee Ronald Reagan.

Both men had effusive praise for the other, but they also said no deal had been made regarding support of one for the other.

Kennedy aides said, however, that the Anderson statement would send a signal to Democrats that there might not be an independent candidate to siphon votes in the fall election should Kennedy be the party's nominee.

Later Kennedy said he was "increasingly hopeful and optimistic" that he would win the open-convention rules fight that is his last chance to take the nomination from Carter.

Kennedy phoned Reagan and got his agreement to debate Kennedy, should he be the Democratic candidate, and an aide said Kennedy told the Republican: "I plan on being the nominee."

However, The Washington Post reported in today's edition that it had taken a survey that showed 54 percent of Democratic delegates against the open-convention rule favored by Kennedy and 41 percent for it. The Post said it surveyed 591 of the 3,321 delegates between July 22 and 29.

There were also these political developments:

-Reagan provided the first peek at his personal finances by releasing copies of his 1979 income tax returns. They showed he paid $230,886 in federal income taxes and $32,050 in California income taxes last year on an income of $515,878.

-Anderson asked a federal court to order the Federal Election Commission to declare him eligible to receive federal campaign funds after the election.

In 1327, Edward III was crowned king of England at the age of 13.

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Symptom should be checked

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB - I'm writing for my male cousin. He's having trouble with his balance or equilibrium. When he gets up to walk, he may walk backwards. He fell one time and broke some of his bones. His doctor told him it was his equilibrium but he would like more information from you. He's over 90 years old and is otherwise in good health.

DEAR READER - Our sense of balance depends upon many things including input from eyes for visual reference, input through little balance canals that are in the ears and sensations we get from nerves all over the body to tell us the position of the feet and rest of the body.

This all occurs so automatically that we are unaware of it. Finally, all these impulses have to be integrated in the brain. Often people in your cousin's age group have disease of the arteries that affects balance centers in the brain itself. These vary somewhere from difficult to impossible to treat when the artery disease to the lower part of the brain is severe.

In any case, your cousin should have a careful examination. He may have some disease in the arteries that could be corrected. I'm sending you "The Health Letter" number 9-10, "Dizziness and Vertigo," which discusses this type of problem. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Such a disorder should simply be regarded as a symptom. An examination will be required to determine whether it's caused by the ears, such as in the balance canals, or something related normal. Is there something wrong with my health?

DEAR READER - I can't tell from your brief description. Drinking a lot of water is not necessarily harmful. In fact, most people would do well to drink more water than they do. Normally, if your body gets more water than it needs, it eliminates it.

There is a medical condition called diabetes insipidus which can cause a person to drink large amounts of water. This condition is completely unrelated to diabetes mellitus, commonly called sugar diabetes.

In diabetes insipidus there is difficulty in concentrating the urine because the kidneys are obligated to eliminate a lot of dilute urine. You have to drink a lot of water to maintain your water balance.

Of course, when sugar diabetes is uncontrolled and in a severe stage, it can cause you to lose a lot of sugar in the urine which, in turn, will cause you to pass a lot of water.

These are about the only two conditions that might be involved in your need to drink lots of water.

Of course, it may just be a nervous habit and the only way you'll find out is by medical examination. The doctor can easily check your blood sugar and also measure your kidneys' ability to concentrate urine, if your history suggests any real possibility of diabetes insipidus.

Gearing Up For Political Work...

Robinson Urges Pastors To Get Flocks To Polls

IRVING (AP)—Stepping away from the traditional Baptist separation of church and state stance, evangelist James Robinson has made an emotional appeal for 600 pastors to get involved in the political arena this fall. Robinson appealed to preachers from the Dallas-Fort Worth area that met here to get instructions on how to rally enough support through out their congregations to insure the election of Bible-believing, God-professing candidates to Congress.

Robinson, a Baptist pastor and Fort Worth television evangelist, is the vice president of Religious Roundtable, a national organization trying to get church leaders involved in defeating liberal congressional candidates.

Sponsoring an Aug. 21-22 National Affairs Briefing in Dallas, Robinson's group initiated the Wednesday meeting to garner delegates from the churches for the upcoming briefing, designed to instruct ministers in getting Christian voters to the polls.

Course Set For Pastors

Snyder Holds Off Braves, Wins Teen Title

CISCO—One more time now. What was that again about chickens, eggs and counting?

Snyder's Oilers, who rode a seventh inning rally to edge Eastland 3-2 and gain the finals of the District 2 Junior Teenage League Tournament here Wednesday, almost had the tables flipped yesterday.

Ahead 10-1 going into the bottom of the seventh, Snyder suddenly found itself groping for the end of a nightmare which saw the Commanche-Braves score eight runs on six hits, four walks and an error to come within a point, 10-9, of upsetting the favorites.

Snyder did choke off the rally however, earning a spot in the Texas Junior Teenage League State Tournament which begins Monday in Sweetwater. The Oilers are scheduled against an unknown District 1 champion at 3 p.m.

Commanche got into trouble at the start of Thursday's championship game as pitcher Scott Nicklaus walked the first four batters he faced. David Gee—who went three-for-four for the game—slapped a left field single to make it 2-0, and more walks to Gerald ceive winning pitcher honors, allowed only three Braves' hits throughout the first six innings. The Oiler hurler struggled in allowing baserunners in all but two innings, but came up with the clutch strike out to retire the side on at least three of those occasions.

Snyder appeared to have the victory in hand in the seventh stanza as Cotton scored on a bases-loaded ground out by Overton; Boone made it home on an error; DeBerry found paydirt on a double steal and Bollinger scribbled in on an error to the short stop.

Commanche obviously had different thoughts.

Ron Williams led off the bottom of the seventh with a walk, and after Scott Hall slapped the Braves' fourth single of the game, he stole home for a 10-2 tally. Kelly Feist and Mike Feist followed with back-to-back singles which scored Hall, and Ricky Roberts challenged with a hard-hit double to drive in the third run of the inning. Next-up Scott Nicklaus was hit by a pitch to load the bases, and Oiler manager Charly Freeman decided Hicks deserved a rest.

Brent Roemisch, who had already won two games here, came in to relieve, but also found the going tough. Floyd Ballard lashed his first pitch for a two-run single and teammate Rodney Hardin found another basehit to reload the bags again.

Roemisch walked Stevenson to punch in Commanche's seventh run of the evening, but began to find his mark moments later as he struck out Pope and Hall in succession.

Kelly Feist temporarily kept the Commanche challenge alive by drawing four straight balls to nudge home Ballard from third and put the winning run on first base. Mike Feist then hit a bad-bouncer to short stop Bollinger, and Commanche was only one run down 10-9.

But the excitement was to come to an end on the next pitch. Third-bagger Roberts—who had doubled and later scored in the inning—swatted a fly ball to the edge of the infield. Second baseman Overton made his call, camped under the crucial out and tucked it in to preserve the district championship.

Pitching-wise, Hicks gave up seven runs on seven hits, walked four and fanned four in six innings. Reliever Roemisch allowed two runs on two hits, walked two and struck out two in one inning.

Commanche utilized four pitchers in the contest. Loser Nicklaus gave up four runs on no hits, walked four and struck out none. Stevenson allowed two runs on three hits, walked five and fanned two in three and one-third innings. Kelly Feist saw three runs on two hits, three walks and four strikeouts in two and two-thirds, and Mike Feist gave up one run on one hit, no walks and one strikeout in the final frame.

An all-tournament team was not selected at the district level, though officials did present Snyder's Barry Davis with a baseball. Davis became the first Junior Teenage Leaguer to hit a home run out of City Park in Cisco, when he lashed a two-one count over the left field fence on Monday.

Ann-Andy Set Here Saturday

Sixty teams will compete in the annual Raggedy Ann and Andy Partnership Golf Tournament, to be held Saturday and Sunday at Snyder Country Club.

Activities were to begin today with free practice rounds for the golfers. The tourney gets underway Saturday at 8:30 a.m. with a shotgun start. Players will tee off at 8:30 and 2 p.m. both days and will be flighted after Saturday's rounds.

A cocktail party, dinner, dancing and special entertainment will be held Saturday evening. Sunday's play will conclude with an awards presentation.

The Women's Golf Association is sponsoring the event. Next on the agenda at Snyder Country Club is the Ladies Club Championship, to be held over three days, Aug. 12, 13 and 15.

The rookie-of-the-year in the NFL in 1938 was Byron "Whizzer" White of the Pittsburgh Steelers, who is now a Supreme Court Justice.

Jenkins Leads Rangers Past Baltimore, 7-4

ARLINGTON (AP)—From his postgame comments Thursday night, it was evident Ferguson Jenkins, hasn't forgotten what Oriole manager Earl Weaver said about him the last time the Texas Rangers visited Baltimore.

"I ain't got nothing to say except we won and that midget ain't never going to beat me," the 36-year-old righthander said after he scattered seven hits in a 7-4 victory over the Orioles, evening his record 9-9 and raising his lifetime win total to 256.

After Jenkins beat Baltimore 7-1 on July 20, he told writers he would have won 400 games long ago if he had been playing with a team like theirs.

To that, Weaver had suggested Jenkins has as many wins as he does only because umpires let him rub mud from his shoes into the seams of the ball and called strikes on balls outside the strike zone.

Jenkins struck out seven and walked four in Thursday night's win, but unlike some times in the past, he got plenty of help from the Ranger bats.

Mickey Rivers, Al Oliver and Jim Sundberg got three hits each in a 14-hit attack that chased Baltimore's Steve Stone in the fourth inning and ruined his chances of tying the American League record of 16 straight victories set 68 years ago.

Stone, the league's winningest pitcher with a 16-4 record, had won 14 straight going into the game, but Mickey Rivers led off with an infield single. Bump Wills got aboard when catcher Dan Graham got in the way of his swing, and Al Oliver laced a line drive to right field that loaded the bases with nobody out.

Stone moved shortstop Kiko Garcia toward second base, and Buddy Bell responded with a 2-run single through the hole, followed by Rusty Staub's broken bat single to center that made it 3-0.

Landry Names Starting Corners

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP)—Dallas Cowboys coach Tom Landry says second-year veterans Aaron Mitchell and Steve Wilson will be starting cornerbacks in the pre-season opener Aug. 9 against Green Bay at Texas Stadium.

Richard May Be Victim Of Stroke

HOUSTON (AP)—J.R. Richard, the Houston Astros' hard-throwing right-hander, has a weakness in his left arm and left leg that doctors caution may persist despite emergency surgery to remove a blood clot.

Surgeons who performed the two-hour operation late Wednesday night said in a statement Thursday that Richard may have suffered a stroke when he collapsed during a workout at the Astrodome.

"There were apparent signs and neurological symptoms indicating impairment of circulation to the brain which would be suggestive of a stroke," the doctors' said in a statement released by team spokesman Rick Rivers.

Drs. Charles McCollum III and George Noon determined after their examination that immediate surgery was required to restore "good circulation to the arm, neck and brain," Rivers said.

Richard, the major league's strikeout king, was listed in stable condition late Thursday. But the doctors said that while the operation was a success, "there is an obvious weakness in his left arm and left leg."

S'water Win

SWEETWATER—Sweetwater's Tigers won the District III Senior Teenage League best-of-three Tournament here Wednesday, stopping Haskell's Indians, 15-1.

Tuesday, the Tigers won a 14-1 decision over the Indians. The victories earn Sweetwater a berth into the State Tournament, to be held Aug. 4-7 in Midland.

Mike Roemisch, a pick-up from Snyder, was the top hitter in Tuesday's win. Roemisch belted two home runs for the Tigers. William Robinson, another Snyder pickup, was a top hitter also. Winning pitcher was Vance Sims. Robinson hurled in relief.

In an interesting side note, Roemisch and Sims will oppose each other in upcoming football wars, both as quarterbacks for their respective high school teams.

In Wednesday's win, Greg Reed and Glen Ellison, teamed for the win.

Offices Of Sun Gas Now On Square

Sun Gas Liquids, a part of Sun Gas Co., has relocated its local office. The office formerly located at 27th St. and College Ave., has been moved to 2515-A College Ave., next door to Rosser, Armstrong and Terrell law offices on the west side of the courthouse square. The move was completed about the first of July.

The local office is headquarters for an eight-state region, said Wayne Bethel, manager of the firm's southwest area.

"We kind of like it here on the square," said Bethel. "We can look out and see what's going on."

Disaster Loan Money Now Available

LUBBOCK-T.A. Aboussie, branch manager of the Small Business Administration/Lubbock Disaster Office, announced today that money has been received for disaster assistance to farmers, ranchers, and agriculture-related businesses who have filed applications for losses sustained during the 1979 crop disasters covered under SBA declarations.

"Since April 25, 1980, when the program's coffers were emptied due to the number of nation-wide natural disasters which have occurred, approximately 430 approved loans have been on 'stand-by' status. When disbursed, these approved loans will bring $28 million into the Texas economy," stated Aboussie. "There still remains approximately 1350 applications filed from the 1979 declarations to be processed which we plan to have completed within the next ten to twelve weeks."

It was also announced the deadline for agriculture-related businesses to file for Economic Injury Disaster Loan assistance for injury sustained during the periods covered under declaration No. 1744 is Sept. 26, 1980. All other filing deadlines for declarations handled through the Lubbock Disaster Office have expired.
