Israel Calls For Talks

By The Associated Press
Israel called on Egypt to resume stalemated Palestinian autonomy talks because of "the urgent need of solving the problems." Egypt said it was preparing a formal reply but claimed the Jewish state was creating "almost impossible" conditions.

Town Threatened By Fire

URANIUM CITY, Saskatchewan (AP)—About 700 people in this northwestern Saskatchewan community of 2,500 were evacuated Monday night as a 1,000-acre forest fire threatened the town, a Royal Canadian Mounted Police officer said.

In a telephone interview, the officer, who declined to give his name, said 750 to 800 people might be evacuated later. He said some evacuees went to the site of a proposed mine site about seven miles from Uranium City.

AJRA STARTS—Although the regular performances of the national finals of the American Junior Rodeo Association get under way tonight, the slack performances began yesterday. There's an adage that "a penny saved is a penny earned," but County Commissioner Hassie Sneed thinks you can take it too far.

He was displaying a statement from a firm with which the county does business. It showed that Scurry County owed the firm one cent and the bill was stamped with a reminder that prompt payment helps keep a good credit rating.

It developed that the county actually had a small credit remaining with the firm prior to a recent purchase, which amounted to one cent more than the credit. It appeared obvious that a computer had disgorged the statement for one cent and it got into an envelope and into the mail.

If the county mails the one cent shown on the statement, it means a total expenditure of 30 cents for postage, plus handling charges and computer time to clear a one-cent transaction.

Mark Twain would have loved it.

Another season is on the horizon, with schools due to launch new terms later this month. So, we were not surprised the other day when we came across a new list of "ins" and "outs" in the fashion and social world.

To begin, anything "cowboy" is still in—hats, boots, shirts, music, movies, etc. That puts a lot of people in style during the AJRA National Finals.

But there were some unexpected listings. Hand-painted T-shirts are in, but printed ones are out.

Short hair is in for both sexes, but for men the blow-dry is out.

Long skirts and claw-finger nails are out, while polka-dots and bright pink lipstick are in.

As for food, India fare and chilli are in.

And, in what may be the biggest turnaround of the decade, being married is in.

Governor Says Texas Fortunate

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Two people died, thousands were twice forced from their homes and damages will probably exceed $200 million. But Gov. Bill Clements said today it was "amazing" that the damage was not more extensive from Hurricane Allen.

Clements, Sen. John Tower, R-Texas, and other officials toured by helicopter the mid-coast area around Corpus Christi.

Clements then announced he would ask that Hidalgo, Brooks and Aransas counties be added to the federal disaster declaration previously issued.

The governor said that while the damage was significant, it was considerably less than officials anticipated as Allen bore down on the coast.

"It's surprising if not amazing how little damage our coast has experienced," Clements said. "Even though we suffered significant damage, it was no where as extensive as we thought it would be."

anticipated a disaster declaration from publicly owned facilities such as highways and bridges after each county commissioner court requested it.

Frank Cox, head of the state disaster relief office, said "the immediate needs are people needs so we are going with individual assessment first."

He said that centers will be set up throughout the disaster area to aid individual citizens. Teams have begun surveying public damage, he said.

Clements and his party met with local officials after the tour.

Robstown Mayor Ricardo Rodriguez of Robstown said he hoped that "we don't get strangled in the state and federal-paper shuffle."

Allen, downgraded from a gargantuan hurricane to a soggy tropical depression as it meandered over northern Mexico, flung drenching rains and flooding as far as the Hill Country of Central Texas and the Big Bend of Southwest Texas Monday.

AJRA National Finals Opening Here Tonight

The preliminaries are over and young cowboys and cowgirls will get on with the real thing tonight as the American Junior Rodeo Association's National Finals begin in the Scurry County Coliseum.

The first performance will get underway at 8 p.m., which will be the starting time for shows each night through Saturday.

The young riders are competing for national titles in the various rodeo events.

Ticket sales were reported brisk this morning at the chamber of commerce. Adult general admission tickets sell for $3.50 each and children's general admission tickets are $2.50, while the reserved box seats have been sold at $5 each at the chamber office. There will be tickets on sale at the door tonight.

This is the fifth year in a row for the AJRA's National Finals to be held in Snyder, and this year's show may well be the most exciting ever, AJRA observers have reported. The organization has more members than ever be-

IN RACE FOR AJRA QUEEN—Sande Miller of Odessa is a nominee for the title of "Miss AJRA 1980." The winner will be selected by a vote of the American Junior Rodeo Association members and will be crowned during Friday night's performance of the organization's national finals rodeo in the Scurry County Coliseum.

Food, Tax Service On School Agenda

Snyder School Trustees are scheduled to discuss a proposed tax collection contract with the county and the school food service contract at a meeting tonight.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m. in the board room of the school administration building.

The current school food service contract with Greyhound is for one year, with two one-year options.

The county recently approved a fee of six-tenths of one percent for collecting taxes for other taxing entities. At present, the county-wide appraisal office and the county tax office are adjacent to each other on the first floor of the county courthouse, and this year, the county is collecting taxes under contract for all of the other entities. The proposal under consideration is for the following two years.

Several resignations and new personnel are up for formal board consideration, and teacher aides for the coming school year are up for appointment. Also, several in-district transfer requests will be presented to the board, as will several policy revision proposals.

With Kennedy...

Carter Seeks Reconciliation

NEW YORK (AP)—President Carter, his path turned to the Democratic Party platform today in search of reconciliation with his vanquished rival, Edward M. Kennedy, before a tough fall campaign against the Republicans.

Convention delegates convened at 11:20 a.m. EDT for their second session with the campaign platform the principal item on the agenda, and with Kennedy vowing to press his fight "for a truly Democratic platform."

Kennedy planned to address the convention tonight, during a prime-time televised debate of the platform plank on the economy—the issue on which he and Carter disagree most sharply.

Carter and Kennedy aides met early today to discuss procedures for negotiations that White House press secretary Jody Powell said would be held today to try to resolve remaining platform issues.

But even while professing optimism about an eventual reconciliation, two top Carter aides reiterated that there were still serious differences between the two sides.

Hamilton Jordan, the president's campaign manager, said in an interview on NBC-TV's "Today" Show he is confident that "with hard work in the next few days," the party will come out of the convention unified. But he said of Carter:

"Both he and Sen. Kennedy realize that some of the real differences between them cannot be lightly glossed over."

And Jack Watson, who succeeded Jordan as Carter's chief of staff, said the administration was still adamant about rejecting Kennedy-backed minority platform planks calling for a $12 billion job program and wage and price controls.

However, former United Nations Ambassador Andrew Young hinted in a CBS-TV interview that the Carter forces might be willing to go ahead with a compromise that generally supported a massive jobs program but without specifying Kennedy's $12 billion price tag.

Kennedy, meanwhile, made it clear in ending his presidential bid that he would continue fighting to put his mark on the platform and was going ahead with plans to address the Democratic National Convention tonight during the debate on the economic planks.

Today's convention session, starting at 11 a.m. EDT, was being devoted almost entirely to debating the platform.

College Board Accepts Bids For Equipment

Routine personnel actions and approval of two bids highlighted the meeting of the trustees of Western Texas College Monday night.

New employees approved by the board are Beverly Cross, secretary-typewriter; Darla Doty, director of residence halls; Bob Doty, assistant residence hall director; and Jerry Summers, director of Baptist Student Center.

The board also approved the resignations of Buddy and Christine Foster as directors of the residence halls.

The board accepted the bid of $16,966.50 from Compugraphic for typesetting equipment. Two other bids were received, including one lower than the Compugraphic bid.

However, the Compugra-phic bid was recommended for approval after an investigation of the equipment and obtaining information from present users, according to Dr. Robert Clinton, WTC president.

The new equipment will be used to do typesetting of all college publications, and the equipment will be paid for by funds normally paid out for typesetting. Dr. Clinton projected a minimum two-year pay out. Dr. Clinton said Mrs. Cross, who is familiar with the equipment, will be used as typesetter in addition to her secretarial position in the administration building.

The board also approved bids for electronic motor controllers for use in petroleum technology classes. One bid of $2,900 was approved from Square D Corp., and a $558 bid was approved from Westinghouse.

Rex Hopkins, director of maintenance, presented the board a study of electrical demands for various buildings on campus. The information will be used in setting policy for use of buildings on campus. For example, it was estimated that total cost for having the entire campus open during the summer is $445 per day.

The board also set Sept. 22 as the next regular meeting of the board. At that time, the board is expected to set the tax rate for 1980-81.

Board president Edwin Parks presided at the meeting. Other board members present were Howard Sterling, R.C. Patton, Dr. Robert Hargrove, Bill Wilson, Bill Jones and Wacil McNair.

Marijuana Seized Here

A Coleman St. raid last night netted police a sack full of marijuana and three arrests.

Seized were about one pound of marijuana, about a half-dozen marijuana seedlings, and marijuana seeds. The raid was conducted about 10:30 p.m. at 1914 Coleman, police reported.

Taken into custody at the scene were a 49-year-old man and a 22-year-old woman. A third suspect, a 22-year-old man, was taken into custody early this morning. The 49-year-old man has been released after posting a $2,500 bond, but the younger man and the woman remained in custody late this morning.

Credibility in recent years has been strained so often in so many components of the American way of life that plain old Citizen John Doe has come to expect exposures of the errands and never anymore seems to be surprised at who or what is involved.

It was refreshing to note that the board of directors of the Texas Press Association, which has a large membership among the state's newspapers, recently voted to discontinue all sponsored programs, events and awards at all future TPA meetings.

Your Birthday

August 13, 1980

Something which has been a long time coming to fruition may be completed this coming year, and your rewards will be good. However, take time before impulsively wasting your efforts in a helter-skelter manner.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Things at home won't be running like a well-oiled machine today. If you're prepared for the unexpected, you'll not get flustered if mishaps occur. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph, Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Hunches, yours or someone else's, aren't that reliable today. You could be dismayed if you follow one impulsively, so don't look for shortcuts.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Revolutionary or progressive products have a special appeal to you today. You could buy a white elephant unless you fully investigate the new-fangled items beforehand.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You operate effectively today so long as everything goes as you expect it to, but let a setback occur and you may throw in the towel without even trying.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Check everything out thoroughly, especially as the hours get late and you get tired. A mental mistake could slip through, which would create a problem.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're sticking to your promises today, so there's no reason to let someone else off the hook just because this person doesn't want to live up to an obligation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) All your hard work may be for naught today if you bank more heavily on a rather undependable ally than you should. Don't expect miracles from non-producers.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You may get cooperation from one who is difficult to convince, but unless this person has his heart in it, he may not be as methodical as the work calls for.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) When you are tending to your business and doing your chores, everything goes fine today. It'll be your social plans that later prove disappointing.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Domestic tranquility could be disturbed when an unexpected situation occurs today. Unless you're prepared to be quite flexible, it could be frustrating.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) The lamp may be burning quite late in your house today when you find out a necessary chore can't be put off until tomorrow.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be careful in whom you place your trust today, especially if money is involved. Just because someone is trustworthy in one area doesn't necessarily make this person reliable in everything.

Celiac sprue is rare

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I'm very upset about your column that you wrote advising the woman who had frequent bowel movements that she should eat more bulk. You told her to include bran in her diet. Don't you know that people who have celiac sprue have to avoid gluten that comes in wheat and bran? Some of us celiac sprue patients have to run from one doctor to another for years before we are correctly diagnosed. Then when we are diagnosed, we're not always treated properly. If more of you doctors understood celiac sprue, we wouldn't have so much trouble.

DEAR READER — May I suggest that if you knew more about irritable colon, you wouldn't have made the remarks that you did. The column you referred to was about a woman who had had diagnostic tests by her physician. Her doctor had made a diagnosis of irritable and spastic colon, as was indicated in the column.

Now if you're going to get upset every time a doctor recommends increasing bulk in the diet for the large number of people in the general public who have irritable and spastic colon, you're going to be in a constant state of turmoil and that's not going to help your diarrhea.

The two conditions are entirely different. Celiac sprue is a very rare cause of diarrhea — its principle manifestation. Estimates run as low as three in 10,000 of the general population. The highest incidence in all the world is in western Ireland where it does occur in one in 300. In contrast, irritable and spastic colon is a frequent complaint. And in many of those people dietary changes are extremely helpful, specifically those that involve increasing the bulk in the diet through addition of bran and other foods that provide bulk.

Celiac sprue is caused by a toxic reaction of the lining of the small intestine to a protein called gluten, found in all of the cereals except corn and rice. It's not found in soybeans either. People with this problem have to avoid all of the gluten-containing cereals and any foods that might be made with them. Since flour and cereals are found in such diverse things as hot dogs, ice cream and cream soups, the list of things that have to be avoided is rather lengthy. Since you can't be sure what is in prepared foods, many such individuals resort to preparing all of their food at home from standard known items such as meat and vegetables. Rice flour and corn starch are often used for thickeners since flour is forbidden.

Now I'd like to point out that sprue is only one of many causes for diarrhea. I'm sending you The Health Letter number 13-8, What You Need to Know About Diarrhea, so you'll have a better understanding of the problem. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

One of the valuable aids in determining whether a person has celiac sprue as a cause for chronic severe diarrhea is to eliminate all foods containing gluten, which I mentioned above. If the diarrhea problem disappears in two to three weeks, that is at least strong presumptive evidence that the gluten may be an important factor in causing the diarrhea.

Says New Prime Minister...

Iran Cabinet 10 Days Away

By The Associated Press
Iran's new hardline prime minister, Mohammad Ali Rajaie, said he should be able to form his Cabinet in 10 days, removing the last obstacle to parliamentary debate on the American hostages.

But he indicated no softening in attitude toward the 52 Americans, who spent their 283rd day in captivity today, saying his government would give unbending loyalty to Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini. Rajaie told reporters after receiving the approval Monday from the Parliament, or Majlis, that according to the constitution he has 10 days to form and introduce his Cabinet and that this period would be sufficient.

The Majlis, which meets again Saturday, must approve the Cabinet just as it did Rajaie, and little opposition is expected. "In forming the Cabinet, I would seek assistance and cooperation from all revolutionary foundations and rely on these institutions," the official Pars news agency quoted Rajaie as saying.

He said so far he has not chosen any Cabinet member, but that the criteria for such selection would be those stressed by Khomeini, Iran's revolutionary leader and Shiite Moslem patriarch who has said the hostage debate cannot begin until a government is installed.

"The only condition I add is that a person who is appointed should accept the religious leadership of the Imam," Rajaie said. "In the private session of the Majlis this morning, I talked briefly about my programs and policies and said that I follow the Imam and this would mark one of the characteristics of my government."

He said President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr — pressured into nominating Rajaie by the Moslem fundamentalists who dominate the Majlis — "has no opinion on the selection of the Cabinet ministers and has given me freedom of action in this respect." But Rajaie insisted. "I belong to the masses and am brother with the president and together we will serve the nation."

Bani-Sadr last month was forced to withdraw his first nominee for prime minister because of objections from the fundamentalist Islamic Republic Party which dominates the Parliament. The IRP then appointed a select committee which came up with Rajaie's name, which Bani-Sadr reluctantly accepted.

The hostages and the U.S. Embassy in Tehran were seized Nov. 4 while the ousted Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi was undergoing cancer treatment in New York. Pahlavi died July 27 in Egypt, and the Iranian regime is still demanding his wealth be returned as part of the ransom for the hostages' release.

Iranian mobs demonstrated outside the British Embassy in Tehran for a third time Monday night and early today, demanding that 68 of their countrymen jailed in London be freed. The Iranians were jailed after a violent demonstration outside the U.S. Embassy in London last week. Tehran Radio quoted Fakhruddin Hejazi, a member of the Majlis, as telling the mobs that Britain should release "our brothers and sisters as soon as possible. If a hair of the children of this land is missing, we shall destroy all their (Britain's) interests in the Middle East."

New York's Metropolitan Opera House was inaugurated in 1883.

Cotton Production To Drop 22% From 1979

Conference On Alien Count Postponed

AUSTIN (AP)—Secretary of State George Strake said Monday a Capitol news conference Tuesday with U.S. Director of Census Vincent Barraba on the counting of aliens has been indefinitely postponed.

"Complications arising from law suits involving the census bureau required Mr. Barraba to cancel his Texas visit," Strake's statement said.

A spokesman for Strake said the suits involved Detroit and New York but did not have details available.

Strake called the news conference last week said he and Barraba would meet with reporters in the governor's reception room.

Brown blamed the drought for the decrease in production of summer crops.

Only rice, with a total harvest of 25,872,000 hundredweight, is expected to exceed last year's production. In 1979 the rice harvest totaled 23,481,000 hundredweight.

from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service did not include possible damage from Hurricane Allen.

He said as of Aug. 1 grain sorghum production was expected to fall off by 28 percent from 1979, the smallest grain sorghum crop since 1956.

From 6.7 million acres of cotton, a harvest of 4.3 million bales is expected, a drop from 389 pounds per acre last year to 308 pounds per acre this year, Brown said.

Brown said surveys by the Reporting Service also show:

-The corn harvest will be 108 million bushels, down 25 percent.

-A peanut harvest of 420 million pounds, with a yield of 1,400 pounds per acre, compared with 1,725 pounds per acre in 1979.

-A soybean harvest of 14,040,000 bushels, down 33 percent from last year.

-Oats will be down 25 percent from last year with production of 12,580,000 bushels.

Less Damage Than Feared From Storm

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas farmers and ranchers came out better than expected in Hurricane Allen, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown said Monday.

He stressed that damage estimates so far are based only on areas not blocked by flood waters.

"It may well be the latter part of this week before accurate estimates of the damage can be made," Brown said in a statement.

"Considering the potential for damage from one of the most severe storms of this century, we came out better than first expected," he said. "We certainly do not want to downplay the damage that has been done, however."

Brown said "roadside estimates" indicated that citrus may be the hardest hit crop, "with reports of from 5 to 50 percent of the fruit lying on the ground in many groves in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. The heaviest losses will occur at the edges of the groves which took the full brunt of winds, since the inner trees will be more protected. Damage appears to be restricted mainly to the fruit, with no reports so far of damage to the trees themselves."

Some damage has been reported to the $16 million Rio Grande Valley sugar cane crop but there are no total estimates available.

Much of the South Texas cotton crop has been harvested, but up to 30 percent remains to be picked.

In drought-stricken Duval and Jim Hogg counties, heavy rains were welcomed, Brown said, but the rains came too late to substantially increase this summer's hay crop.

He noted that many areas of North and West Texas did not receive much-needed rains that had been expected from early forecasts of the inland path of Hurricane Allen.

The country of Iraq was known historically as Mesopotamia.

Hurricane's Path Viewed From Air

OVER SOUTH PADRE ISLAND (AP)—Hurricane Allen chewed at least four 50-foot cuts through Padre Island and the water flowed from the Gulf of Mexico right through to Laguna Madre.

From the air, the damage appeared minimal to the resort villages of Port Isabel and South Padre Island. Sets of power lines were leaning at 45 degree angles but roads were dried and people were driving around. The same was true in Port Isabel where clothes were drying on the lines behind several houses.

The wierdest thing was the damage to Park Road

100 that goes by Andy Bowie Park on the northern end of South Padre. The concrete was just not there in several places. One car was overturned and lying on its back.

And several mobile homes left at the park were demolished. Use Snyder Daily News Classified Ads 573-5486

Final Effort Launched To Reach All In Census

Were you counted in the 1980 census? If not, officials of the Census Bureau, city and county are urging that you fill in the accompanying blank form and mail it to the U.S. Census Office, 1220 Broadway, Suite 405, Lubbock 79408.

The forms were sent to City Manager John Gayle and County Judge Preston Wilson for use in making a final effort to assure that all Snyder and Scurry County residents are counted in the census.

Judge Wilson said that his office has received calls from more than 20 persons who were not counted, or were uncertain whether they were counted. A check revealed that some of these had been included already, but most of them had not been counted.

"It ranged for one to nine per household," said Wilson. "So, we added some to the count.

The preliminary census total indicated that Scurry County averaged 2.77 per-household. Thus, 100 dwellings missed in the count would involve 277 people.

Both Gayle and Wilson said they expect final local figures to be significantly higher than the preliminary totals which showed 12,301 in the city and 17,570 for the entire county.

Also, both hope that anyone who is uncertain as to whether he or she has been counted will complete the form and mail it to the Lubbock address. It will be checked there, and if the sender has not been counted, it will be added to the totals.

Suggests Solution To Wino Problem

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP)-Police Chief Otis Adkins believes that one way to rid downtown Huntington of vagrants and winos is to lead them to the waterfront.

And Adkins thinks he's found a way to make them drink there.

During a city council meeting Monday night, Adkins suggested that wine bottles be buried along the banks of the Ohio River as an enticement to the bums who have been loitering around downtown.

Merchants have been complaining, and Adkins says that because the city does not have a law against loitering, he can't arrest the vagrants.

Another solution, Adkins suggested, would be to give the troublemakers one-way tickets to Florida.

The council is to study the problem further.

Snyderite In New Vet Class At TAMU

COLLEGE STATION—Mark S. Leavell of 3504 Jacksboro in Snyder has been selected for the fall 1980 entering veterinary class at Texas A&M University.

The class will be the first to follow as a single group the new four-year program implemented last year. Only half the 1979-80 entering class is following the new program while the rest continues on the three-year system that had been in effect for 15 years.

The new class, chosen from almost 500 qualified applicants, includes 46 women.

Texas A&M College of Veterinary Medicine, the nation's largest, annually produces about 9 percent of the practitioners in the United States.

In the Middle Ages, mince pies were baked in an oblong form representing the manger, on top of which was figurine of the Christ child.
