Car Insurance Hike Denied

AUSTIN (AP) - The State Insurance Board stunned insurance companies and delighted consumer groups Tuesday by refusing to raise Texans' automobile rates.

A 3-0 vote, with Chairman Bill Daves taking the lead, left auto insurance rates at 1979 levels pending an advisory committee study of the entire rate-making process.

It could be as long as a year before the board again considers a rate increase.

Hostage Crisis Unchanged

By The Associated Press

Resolution of the 319-day-old hostage crisis appeared no closer today after the Iranian Parliament put off debate on the issue and President Carter tempered what seemed to be an expression of optimism on prospects for the 52 Americans' release.

The Parliament, or Majlis, voted in a stormy session Tuesday to select a committee to make recommendations on what should be done with the Americans. The session produced calls for the execution of the "spy-hostages", as well as demands for, and objections to, a closed session for discussion of the matter.

Embassy Hit By Grenades

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) - Leftist guerrillas fired three Chinese-made rocket grenades at the U.S. Embassy from the roof of a building about 50 yards away and two of them hit, but damage was confined to the roof and a vacant office and no one was hurt, witnesses and embassy spokesmen said.

Shortly after the 1 p.m. attack Tuesday, a radio station reported the people's Revolutionary Army fired the anti-tank devices at the heavily fortified embassy. The Salvadoran army quickly surrounded the building with 100 soldiers.

It hasn't been much of a year for agriculture in these parts, but there will be a Scurry County Fair as usual. In fact, it may be considered something of a miracle that any type of farm vegetation survived the long string of 100-degree days during the summer.

But the Scurry County Fair is firmly established now, and this is not the first year that it has encountered unfavorable weather, and we predict that a lot of people will be surprised at the quality of some of the exhibits, just as they have been in the past.

The fair serves more than one purpose, of course. It has become something of a social event, much like the annual July 4th celebration, except that it is perhaps a little less hectic. And now that the Scurry County Historical Commission has its reunion scheduled at the same time, the fair has a bigger base for attracting people.

Incidentally, if you have been waiting for this hot summer to end officially, there are a few more days to go. Our almanac says that the autumnal equinox (the beginning of fall) will occur at 3:09 p.m. our time Monday, Sept. 22. And according to the almanac, the official changing of the season will not necessarily mean an immediate cold spell. But come October, temperatures are expected to be some three degrees below average in this region. That's straight out of the almanac.

The weather makes conversation, regardless of whether it is unusual, and sometimes, when there's a streak of the "bad" kind, a person may hope that it will go away if people talk about it. But talk is not necessarily an asset, despite what some of the politicians may think.

It is said that some years ago a young member of Britain's House of Commons made a long-winded address and finally took his seat beside Winston Churchill. Then, he remembered something he had forgotten to say and he lamented, "I had my opportunity to speak and I missed it."

Said Churchill, "You missed, an even greater opportunity to remain silent."

Another Jet Hijacked

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) - A Delta Air Lines jet carrying 111 people was hijacked to Cuba early today by two Cubans who commandeered it just minutes from Columbia, its original destination, officials said. It was the tenth U.S. hijacking in little more than five weeks.

Flight 470, a 727 en route from Atlanta to Columbia, refueled here after taxiing to a remote spot of the airport while families of the passengers waited for word of their relatives.

There was no immediate word on what weapons the hijackers may have used, said Federal Aviation Administration spokesman Jack Barker.

It also was not determined immediately whether the Cubans were refugees who had come to the United States in the Freedom Flotilla boat-lift.

Barker said more details would be available when the plan returned, probably to Miami.

Delta spokesman Jim Ewing said in Atlanta the plane was in the Columbia area when the flight captain called at about 1:30 a.m. EDT to report that the jet was being hijacked. He said the captain gave no further details.

Somoza Killed In Ambush

ASUNCION, Paraguay (AP) - Former Nicaraguan President Anastasio Somoza, his driver and bodyguard were killed today by assassins who blew apart his automobile with explosives and automatic weapons fire, U.S. officials here reported.

An Asuncion radio station said a fourth person, unidentified, was also killed.

Some reports, not confirmed immediately, said the exiled leader was attacked by three men who fired a bazooka from a house in central Asuncion as Somoza's Mercedes-Benz passed by. Other reports said the assailants tossed bombs.

"Somoza was killed instantly, and his body is still in the car. The car is really rather blown apart," said Donna Marie Oglesby, a public relations officer at the U.S. Embassy in Asuncion.

"Somehow bombs were involved. Either the Somoza car had weapons that exploded, or they were bombed as well as bazookaed," she said.

An Asuncion radio report said the Nicaraguan's body was "virtually shredded" in the attack.

Paraguayan authorities have not arrested any suspects, and no one claimed responsibility immediately, Mrs. Oglesby said.

Paraguayan authorities have not arrested any suspects, and no one claimed responsibility immediately, Mrs. Oglesby said. Paraguayan radio reports said the explosion occurred at about 10:30 a.m. about eight blocks from the luxurious home Somoza occupied. The site was just two blocks from the U.S. Embassy.

The bodies of Somoza and his two companions, believed to be his chauffeur and a body guard, were later taken to a hospital, radio reports said.

The 54-year-old Somoza was overthrown in July 1979 in a revolution led by leftist Sandinista guerrillas. He had been in exile in this South American nation since August 1979.

Asuncion's Primero de Marzo radio station, quoting unidentified police sources, said the assassins belonged to "a rather large international terrorist group hired for the job." It gave no further details.

Scurry County Fair To Open Thursday At Noon

Activity in and around the Scurry County Coliseum was picking up today as opening of the annual county fair approached.

The fair is scheduled to be opened to the public at noon tomorrow.

In the meantime, booths and other exhibits were being prepared for judging on Thursday morning. The carnival moved in the first of the week, and work was proceeding on all other fronts.

Two special events are scheduled this year in connection with the fair.

The Scurry County Historical Commission has scheduled its annual reunion for Friday and Saturday in Room A of the coliseum, and a youth horse show is set for 1 p.m. Saturday.

Anyone with animals which might be included in the Kiddie Barn Yard exhibit is urged to bring them to the livestock-agriculture exhibit building adjoining the coliseum, reminded Ernest Sears, chairman of that division. Any type of traditional barn yard animals that might interest youngsters are welcomed.

The fair will be open on Friday and Saturday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Officers of the Scurry County Fair Association are Max von Roeder, president; W.J. Fuller, first vice president; Leon Sterling, second vice president; Mrs. Roy Hanson, secretary, and Mrs. Bert Stahl, treasurer.

Directors are Carl Williams, Mrs. Stahl, Kent Mills, Buddy Drum, Mrs. Jeff Martin, Mrs. Billy Huddleston, Mrs. C.D. Patterson, Sterling, Mrs. Doyle Wemken, Fuller, Mrs. Johnny Richardson, Mrs. Fred Bullard, Mrs. Hanson, Roy Kidd, R.C. Eoff, Mrs. S.L. Terry, Jerry Baird, von Roeder, H.W. Cargile and Mrs. Bob Dupree.

Historical Panel Set For Reunion

A final report on plans for the second annual Scurry County Reunion was given at a noon meeting of the Scurry County Historical Commission Tuesday.

The reunion is being held in conjunction with the Scurry County Fair. All activities will take place at the coliseum. Registration will be going on from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday in Meeting Room A. Antique quilts are to be displayed there and quilters from the Senior Center will be working on a quilt during both days.

A coffee is planned from 10 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday, with a brief recognition program starting about 11 o'clock.

Tickets are selling well for a chuck wagon supper planned from 5-7 Saturday evening. Tickets are $4 each and are to be purchased in advance at the coliseum box office, Texas Electric Service Co., the Scurry County Museum, the Senior Center, Hugh Boren & Sons Insurance, or from members of the Historical Commission. Proceeds from the supper are to be used for special projects being planned by the Commission.

"We invite everyone to come by to see the quilts and a slide show on Friday and Saturday," Mrs. Jess Everett, Commission chairman, said. "We hope the reunion will give people a chance to visit friends, and we would appreciate everyone taking time to register."

No Action In C-C Session

The lack of a quorum forestalled any formal action last night at the regular meeting of Snyder Chamber of Commerce directors.

Several informal reports were discussed briefly, and Chamber Manager Bill Warner said action items on last night's agenda would be held over until the October meeting of the board.

The only major action item up for consideration last night was the nominating committee's report.

OPEC Leaders Fail To Agree

VIENNA, Austria (AP) - Ministers from the world's oil cartel ended their meeting today without agreement on long-term price and production strategy or on proposals to aid the Third World, Indonesian Oil Minister Subroto told reporters.

Subroto said a final communique was being drafted.

The price plan, which calls for small oil price hikes every three months, will be submitted to a meeting of oil ministers from the 13 members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries on Oct. 13 or 14 for further discussion, Subroto said.

Council In Tax Session

The Snyder City Council set a special session for 1 p.m. today at city hall to consider a tax rate.

The tax roll was certified following the board of equalization session held last week, clearing the way for the taxing entities to take action on their rates. All taxing entities will assess taxes this year on valuations established by the county-wide appraisal district.

Ask Us

Q-What is the procedure for appearing before the Snyder School Board with a complaint?

A-All school board meetings are open to the public, except executive sessions prescribed by law. However, anyone who wishes to present something for action by the board must request a place on the board's agenda. The agenda must be prepared far enough in advance that it can be posted three days prior to the meeting. The board cannot take action on any item that is not listed on its posted agenda. You may get on the agenda by calling the superintendent's office.

Woods Claims Crime Unfolds In FBI Tapes

HOUSTON (AP) - Assistant U.S. Attorney Ron Woods told the jury in the Brilab trial of Texas House Speaker Billy Clayton today that secret FBI tapes "will give you an insight into Texas politics and let you hear this crime unfold."

Woods, in opening arguments in the trial of Clayton and Austin attorneys Randall Wood and Donald Ray, said, "You will hear some very interesting tapes. You will hear attorneys Ray and Wood coach L.G. Moore and Joseph Hauser on how to pay money to the speaker of the Texas House of Representatives."

He said that tape recordings also will prove that Clayton had informed Moore, a Deer Park labor leader, that "the insurance thing had been turned around," indicating that an effort would be made to reopen bids on the $76 million a year state insurance contract.

The assistant U.S. attorney said testimony from Russell "Rusty" Kelley, executive assistant to Clayton, would prove that the speaker had lied to FBI agents and had planned on telling the same story to a federal grand jury.

Woods said, "Mr. Kelley is still a loyal employee but he couldn't lie before a grand jury."

The 12 jurors and four alternates were picked Tuesday from an original panel of 104.

One juror is Hispanic, the others Anglo. All of the alternates are women, including one black.

U.S. District Judge Robert O'Connor has ordered that only the jurors' names and occupations would be made available to reporters.

The judge, giving no explanation, refused to reveal ages or hometowns. And he gave an oral order that forbid anyone, "public or press," from contacting "any juror selected in this case."

Gerald Goldstein, a San Antonio lawyer defending Wood, would say only that the jurors ranged in age "from kids under 30 to those over 60."

The jurors are Mary Lou Lesseraux, secretary; Sylvia Solomon, homemaker; Margaret C. Hudock, homemaker; Ronnie R. Rodriguez, welder; Robert J. Blackwell, construction foreman; Sharon Sternadel, clerk; Ruth A. Barton, statistical assistant; Debbie A. Brady, no occupation listed; Tye Yates Holman, Jr., retired rancher; Charles G. Sivealls, Jr., retired school superintendent; Lala Mae Messerly, licensed vocational nurse; and James P. Haynes, restaurant manager.

Drought Relief Urged By Southern Governors

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) - Southern Governors' Association today called on the federal government and the private sector to explore ways to soften the drought-caused agricultural crisis by relieving farmers of loan payments.

The governors, in their resolution, specifically urged the secretary of agriculture, the Small Business Administration and private lending institutions to "work with their farm customers to cushion the adverse impact of this year's drought."

They asked the federal government to find a way of giving qualified farmers additional low-interest or no-interest loans equal to the difference between average yield and the yield after this summer's drought.

Governors also adopted resolutions asking the federal government to develop a policy on long-term care for the elderly and chronically ill, and for each state to be responsible for disposal of low-level radioactive waste generated within its borders. That resolution duplicated one adopted by the National Governors' Association and the Southern Regional Energy Advisory Board. They urge Congress to authorize an interstate agreement to carry that out.

Gov. Carlos Romero-Barcelo of Puerto Rico was elected chairman of the association and Gov. Richard W. Riley of South Carolina was elected vice chairman.

a change in tactics

Once upon a time, and not such a very long time ago, the matter probably would have been handled with the dispatch of a gunboat. Today, Britain simply calls home its diplomats and closes the embassy. It is the low-keyed response to a typically keyed-up performance by revolutionary Iran. With the U.S. hostage crisis on hold until the new Iranian parliament can decide who is supposed to be running the shop, the British have become a primary target for militant Iranian rage. In part because of their past role as the leading foreign interest in Iranian affairs and in greater part because of their present close association with American interests, Tehran radio's currently favored term for the British role is "satellite." While relations have been touchy for some time, recent weeks have brought the arrest on espionage allegations of several British residents in Iran, most affiliated with the Anglican church. Things really heated up with the British reaction to August's anti-American demonstrations by Iranian students in London. Some 70 were arrested, prompting warnings from Tehran of a consequent jeopardizing of British interests in Iran. That was enough for London, which responded with the embassy closure. It is also going ahead with legal action, including deportation proceedings, against the arrested Iranian students. There wasn't much to close in Tehran; the embassy staff was down to four and the ambassador had been called back to London in June. The Swedish embassy will look after British interests, what remains of them. Fewer than 100 Britons are still in Iran. Considering the wrath such a confrontation likely would have provoked in Britain's imperial past, London's moves may give the impression of the lion turning tail. But in the much-changed present, they look more like the most effectively diplomatic way of dealing with a regime that does not respond to diplomacy, and against which the use of force is all too likely to be counterproductive.

In the new China, men and women are supposed to enjoy complete equality in the labor force. Except that as it works out men appear to be more equal than women. But in the new atmosphere of limited freedom of expression in China, one publication not only does not approve of the situation but feels called upon to denounce male factory managers who "run amuck" imposing their personal will as law upon unhappy female workers who fear to protest. "China Youth," according to a wire report of what looks suspiciously like an experiment in Western-style investigative reporting, has uncovered a situation at a Shanghai fish-processing plant in which women who make up two thirds of the work force were being denied promotion and much worse - Communist Party membership. The effect was predictably depressing to morale, dampening the women's interest in their work and Marxist studies. Sexual harassment? Not quite, but certainly a serious case of male chauvinism. What brought it on was the permanent wave - the preferred hairstyle of most of the women but offensive to the tradition-minded managers. "China Youth" points out that nothing in the party constitution connects hairstyles with jobs or party cards and suggests that the factory leaders "correct their mistakes in the shortest possible time." They are getting off lucky. If there had been any Norma Raes among those women, the chauvinists might already have been compelled to agree to grievance committee meetings - on work time - under the driers.

It's been explained to me a thousand times and I still don't understand it. Why is it that men embarking on fun-filled, pleasure-seeking, leisure-paced vacation feel obliged to start at four in the morning? I ask you, what good are breathtaking colors of the Smoky Mountains in the dark? How can I feel the pulse and excitement of New York City where David Hartman going to work and a passed-out wino are the only things on the street? What good is a vacation if you can't keep awake through lunch? We were the first family ever to "See America First" by headlights. Every morning before hitting the road the alarm would go off in the middle of the night. Picking my way through the darkness, I'd guide arms and legs through clothes. It was like threading a needle with wet spaghetti. As the kids continued to sleep, I'd walk them to the car and arrange them in the back seat. I'd wait until the motor was running and we were ready to leave before I did my last dastardly deed on those still sleeping... flush! My children never awoke asking, "Where are we?" It was always, "What time is it?" They could never play games other children played, like "Count the Chevies" or "Out-of-State-License-Plate Rummy." There weren't any other cars on the road. We'd sit there like zombies, listening to the hog and grain markets on the car radio, trying to figure out if we ate a candy bar what meal we would spoil. Once as we stopped at a roadside park, a potty break and I hooked my sweater over the hood ornament to keep from falling, a station wagon pulled in with another family. They looked terrible. The kids stumbled along with blankets dragging on the ground, their hair uncombed, their eyes puffy and glazed. The woman and I didn't say anything at first. Our eyes met in that rare moment of understanding without words. Finally she said, "Would you have married him if you had known he was nocturnal?" A few weeks ago on vacation the alarm went off at 3:30 as my husband whipped out of bed and began to dress. "Why are you doing this?" I mumbled. "I've told you before, the children travel better by

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- With the recent passage of the Rail Act of 1980, Congress has now taken significant steps toward deregulation of our three primary transportation industries: air, trucking and rail. Two years after the deregulation of the nation's airlines, we are all aware of the many changes in that industry, particularly the increased competition by which small commuter airlines are serving the public well with increased service at competitive costs. Now, only four months after passage of the trucking deregulation bill, we are beginning to hear of initial effects of competition on that industry. Members of the trucking industry have reopened contract negotiations with the Teamster Union this week, a move thought by many to have been brought about by the increased competition by non-union firms after deregulation. In both cases, I applaud that increased competition, feeling that it supports my strong belief in the Free Enterprise System, even though there may be economic dislocation of major importance in the short-run. In the case of rail deregulation, however, it is the lack of competition in many areas that may lead to trouble. Many areas and industries of our state are served by only one railroad and must depend solely on that transportation for the movement of such bulk commodities as grain, steel, coal, auto parts and chemicals. The Rail Act of 1980 may have failed to provide a balance in railroad ratemaking with respect to those captive shippers. I supported a provision, the Eckhardt Amendment, which would have given the Interstate Commerce Commission greater flexibility for review of rates where railroads enjoy monopoly power and can extract exorbitant rates from these captive shippers. The City of San Antonio presents a representative case of the problems caused for captive shippers: After being locked into plans to convert the city-owned electric utility from oil and gas to coal, the city has seen a 260 percent increase from the transportation rate initially proposed in 1973. That amendment did fail (296-83) and I subsequently supported the compromise legislation because it was the best we were going to be able to pass. There can be no doubt that the railroads need increases in rates to be

News reports would have us believe that the actor's strike is a ploy by the actors to get more money for the work they are doing. But I think it is a plot against television by educators and the anti-television movement. Tired of children spending more time with the boob tube than the books, tired of fifth graders dressing like miniature Fonzie, educators across the nation have conspired the actors strike. They figure that if students get so fed-up with re-reuns, they'll study just out of sheer boredom, or turn and watch an educational program on PBS. And the conspirators are aiming at the parents, too. Thinking that parents either use TV as a babysitter or spend too much time watching it themselves, the plotters are out to make fall entertainment impossible. I had a professor at the University who warned me this would happen. He said that people in his profession were tired of getting blamed for things that really was TV's fault. He was tired of making assignments that never were turned in because students were too busy watching "The Incredible Hulk" or "Laverne and Shirley." He told me that educators were conducting meetings across the land to plot their revenge against television. He added that the plan would only include "junk" television, not news programs, news magazines and other shows. ACS Directors Have Meeting

The board of directors of the Scurry County American Cancer Society met recently at the chamber of commerce room with Margaret Drum, president, presiding. The meeting was attended by approximately 12 members and two guests, Mrs. Hubert Reed and Mrs. Drew Clark. Also attending was Jennifer Nicholas, district representative from Abilene. A financial report by H.W. Cargile showed the yearly contributions to total $16,900. This included the crusade and the memorials. New officers were elected for the year and include

Jo Sterling, president; Margaret Drum, vice president; Trudie Wood, secretary, and H.W. Cargile, treasurer. Mrs. Sterling introduced one new board member, Wanda Falls, who will serve as the coming year's crusade chairman. Ruby Butts, service and rehabilitation chairman, told of plans to have a fair booth displaying health care items available to cancer patients. The announcement was made to remind citizens that memorials may be given at both local banks or to Cargile. The group will meet again in November.

Retired Teacher Associates Discuss Benefits, Activities

"Benefits of Retired Teachers" was the topic of the Scurry County Retired Teachers Association first meeting of the year Thursday at the Senior Center. Jewel Summers, local president, presided. She introduced Marie McCollum, assistant director to the state president from San Angelo, as guest speaker. Ms. McCollum stated minor benefits and special benefits for retired teachers with special emphasis on government. She told the group that local and state lawmakers must be kept fully informed of the needs and problems of retired educators. The speaker told the group that all retired teachers in the state should join RTA if they want help from lawmakers. She added that other issues such as inflation, medical care, taxes and crime affect all senior citizens directly, and that RTA is an organization with considerable administrative clout. Reviewing the activities of RTA, the speaker noted that the organization sponsors programs that take preventative measures against crime, burglary and fraud — all crimes which victimize older people. The organization also sponsors programs which are educational in nature. Hostesses for the meeting include Maxie McNew, Laura Holladay, Edna McCollum, Lou Wiman, Mary Devenport and the president. There were 32 members and guests in attendance.

The Scurry County Fair which gets underway Thursday will again feature the livestock division. Superintendent is Roy Kidd, with Ernest Sears and Charlie Henderson as assistant superintendents. According to the rule book, this year's division will be confined to exhibits only by breeders or feeders in an attempt to revitalize the livestock division. All animals should be in place by 9 a.m. Thursday and will stay through 10 p.m. Saturday. All animals should be picked up no later than 3 p.m. Sunday. Categories for the livestock division include beef cattle and dairy cattle, swine, sheep, horses and steers.

South had thought of making 12 tricks when he saw dummy. Now he was going to have to struggle to get nine. East led back a diamond. South held back dummy's king, but he had to win the trick when the suit was continued. Then he led a low club to East's queen. West who had discarded the four of hearts on the first club discarded the 10 of hearts this time. East led a spade and South hopped up with his ace while West dropped the 10. Dummy's last four clubs were cashed while South discarded down to the ace-queen of hearts and queen of spades. West came down to king of spades and king-four of hearts. West had made a valiant effort to look like a man who had blanked his king of hearts, but South was not to be fooled. He decided that West had been dealt four cards in each major. So South led a spade to West's king and made the last two tricks with his hearts. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag
South was one of those players who follow bidding rules rigidly. He never opened four-card major suits and employed a 15-17 point notrump. Hence he opened one club. This gave West a chance to make a takeout double with his fine distribution after which North and South arrived at their very sound notrump game. South won the diamond lead in his hand, led the nine of clubs and let it ride to East's jack after West showed out.

DENNIS THE MENACE

According To Ratings Figures...

ABC 1st For 4th Straight Week

NEW YORK (AP)—ABC, which wrestled first place in the prime-time ratings, race from CBS nearly two months ago, was No. 1 in the ratings last week for the fourth week in a row, according to figures from the A.C. Nielsen Co. ABC, which led the TV competition for six of the last seven weeks, compiled a rating of 19.1 for the period Sept. 8-14, nearly four full points ahead of CBS. NBC was third with a rating of 12.7. The networks say that means in an average prime-time minute during the week, 19.1 percent of the nation's TV-equipped homes were watching ABC. CBS ended the 1979-80 season in first place by a tenth of a point over ABC. The start of 1980-81 programming has been delayed by the actors' strike in Hollywood, which began July 21, and the networks have been confined to broadcasting shows completed before the strike, those not affected by the labor dispute and repeats. ABC's most recent triumph was due in part to a big audience for "The Women's Room," a movie not previously broadcast. The rating for the made-for-TV movie based on the novel by Marilyn French was 28.2. Nielsen says that means of all the homes in the country with television, 28.2 percent saw at least part of the movie. ABC listed a dozen of the week's 20 most-watched shows, including "Three's Company," in second place and the "Monday Night Football" game between Dallas and Washington in third. Another professional football game broadcast by ABC during the week, a Thursday night contest between Los Angeles and Tampa Bay, was 18.0 in the ratings, while a baseball game on NBC Tuesday night between Los Angeles and Houston did not do as well - 4.3rd. "Dallas," in fifth place, was CBS' highest-rated show, while NBC's most watched program, "50 Years of Country Music," was No. 12. NBC had all five of the week's lowest-rated programs, including "Disneyland's 25th Anniversary," an original show, in 56th place. The Disney program was followed in the ratings by "Me and Maxx Special," "A Man Called Sloane," "Six O'Clock Follies" and "Good Time Harry." Here are the week's Top 10 programs: Movie, "The Women's Room," with a rating of 28.2 representing 21.9 million homes, "Three's Company," 25.2 or 19.6 million; "NFL Monday Night Football," Dallas vs. Washington, 23.4 or 18.2 million, and "That's Incredible," 21.4 or 16.6 million, all ABC; "Dallas," 21.2 or 16.5 million, CBS; "Laverne and Shirley," 20.7 or 16.1 million, ABC; "M-A-S-H," 19.4 or 15.1 million, CBS; "Pearl," Part 1, 19.2 or 14.9 million, and "60 Minutes" and "The Jeffersons," both 19.1 or 14.8 million, both CBS. Use Snyder Daily News Classified Ads 573-5486

Bipartisan Marriage May Lead to Split Ticket

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1980 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I am a registered Republican considering marriage to a Democrat who is every bit as loyal to his political party as I am to mine.

We love each other and have music, religion and many other things in common, but I wonder if marriage between us could ever work out. Have any studies been conducted that might give me an idea of what our chances are? If anyone knows, you do, Abby.

GRATEFUL G.O.P.

DEAR GRATEFUL: I know of no studies concerning mixed marriages between elephants and donkeys, but I personally know of very few successful unions between these diversely different political animals. Should you elect to team up with a donkey, I suggest you keep your trunk packed.

DEAR ABBY: Several years ago I took an inexpensive pin from a blouse in a department store. I didn't pay for it. I was even brash enough to wear it for years!

Even though I "got away with it," in the long run I was the loser because it has been on my conscience ever since. The regrets years later are not worth a moment of possession, and that single act could have led to taking bigger things.

Enclosed is a $10 bill. Please donate it to your favorite charity, Abby. It cannot repay for what I have done, but please tell your young readers that stealing anything — regardless of how cheap it is — leaves its mark on a person, even if she is never caught.

NO NAME OR TOWN, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: I appreciate your desire to clear your conscience and give others the benefit of your experience, but sending me a $10 bill for my favorite charity is not appropriate restitution for the stolen article. Had you told me the name and location of the store, I would have sent the money to them. Perhaps it's not too late.

DEAR ABBY: After reading the letter you received from the dad whose 15-year-old son hid racy girlie magazines in his room, I decided to share the way I handled the same problem with our three teen-age sons.

When I find a magazine of that type in their rooms, I remove it and in its place I leave a 3x5 index card with a Bible verse covering that very subject. I've never had a complaint from any of them, as they know from the verses that they are to "abstain from fleshly lusts."

Two or three cards per boy usually get the message across.

MOM IN PUYALLUP, WASH.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LOIS K. IN MANHATTAN: "Luck" is often a well-planned accident." — Charles Nelson Reilly.

Do you hate to write letters because you don't know what to say? Thank-you notes, sympathy letters, congratulations, how to decline and accept invitations and how to write an interesting letter are included in Abby's booklet, "How To Write Letters for All Occasions." Send $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents), self-addressed envelope to: Abby, Letter Booklet, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Man Arrested In Exposure Complaint

A 25-year-old man was arrested last night on a charge of indecent exposure. The suspect was picked up about 8 p.m. and released after posting a $25 bond. Officers said the man was arrested in connection with the recent indecent exposure reported at the East Highway Dairy Queen. Making the arrest were Lt. Steve Warren and Ed Neeley.

Man Acquitted

Paul Allen Norred of Midland was found not guilty Monday in a justice of the peace court trial of running a stop sign. Norred had been issued a citation by troopers of the Department of Public Safety July 4.

In Traffic Case

Indecent exposure is a Class C misdemeanor. In other reports, Greg Crawford told officer Buddy Kinney someone had stolen his 1977 Bonanza pickup, and with it his $150 30-30 rifle and $100 hunting bow. That matter was reported at 8:40 p.m. at Go-Wireline. The pickup is described as copper and tan in color and bearing a 1NB472 license plate.

The case is being investigated by the Scurry County Sheriff's Office.

Found Abandoned

A 1974 GMC pickup truck, reported stolen from Snyder Farm and Ranch Supply Tuesday morning, was found last night, abandoned in front of Top Aciders on the Lamesa Highway.

Four other cities had been in the running, but Queen Victoria chose Ottawa because of its safe distance from the U.S.-Canadian border.

Lower Grades Enroll Most Illegal Aliens

DALLAS (AP)—Three-quarters of the illegal alien children registering for school in Dallas have enrolled in kindergarten or the first three grades, school officials said.

That concentration in lower grade levels has surprised school officials, but Deputy Associate Superintendent Robby Collins said it should make it easier to educate the children.

"An even spread of students through all grade levels would have caused more manpower and equipment problems," he said.

"With a concentration of students in lower grades, we can just go ahead and create new classes where they're needed," he said.

Dallas school officials estimate 1,000 undocumented children will enroll by the end of the week.

Healing an ulcer

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Can you tell me something about duodenal ulcers? Are they recurring and what can happen if they do not heal completely? My wife has some pain that comes and goes. She went to the doctor and found out that she had a duodenal ulcer. He gave her some pills and told her that she would always have problems because of her personality. She worries a lot. She took the pills for the prescribed period of time and they helped a little. She didn't change her diet other than drinking decaffeinated coffee. No tea and no soft drinks. Her doctor told her that special diets helped very little and she still drank alcoholic beverages.

When I asked her to go back to her doctor to get some more pills, she said there isn't any sense in it, that they're only masking her problem. A fellow I work with had a duodenal ulcer and his first treatment didn't work. Then the doctor put him on a bland diet for eight weeks plus no alcoholic beverages. The second treatment completely healed his ulcers and he says he never felt better.

Upon finding the ulcer, my wife's doctor told her that she was fortunate because this type of ulcer is not cancerous. From what I've read, any ulcer can lead to cancer. Please give me some information so I can help her. I'm really worried about it.

DEAR READER — I'll assume that the diagnosis is correct — that your wife does have a duodenal ulcer based on her doctor's studies. Yes, ulcers do tend to recur and while it's perfectly true that some aspects of diet are not as important apparently as they were once thought to be, that doesn't mean that you can eat and drink anything you want to and heal your ulcer.

Your wife's first mistake was in drinking decaffeinated coffee. Even the decaffeinated form of coffee does stimulate the formation of increased amounts of acid digestive juices in the stomach. So she should stop decaffeinated coffee as well as regular coffee. It's also wise not to drink tea, colas or use chocolate.

Now I'm sure her doctor did not mean that it was all right for her to drink alcoholic beverages. Alcohol is a strong stimulant to the production of increased stomach acids. Physicians do not recommend alcohol for people who have ulcers.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 15-10, "Understanding Ulcers and Acidity." It will explain in greater detail what you need to know about ulcers. Life style is important in promoting the healing of an ulcer, although it's debatable whether there is such a thing as a real ulcer personality. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

The danger of an unhealed duodenal ulcer is that it will produce enough scarring and damage to cause an obstruction at the outlet of the stomach. Or it can perforate or it can bleed.

Duodenal ulcers do not become cancers. There is a controversy about the relationship between stomach ulcers (not duodenal) and cancer. Part of the problem stems from the fact that the stomach cancer may develop an ulcer on its surface, causing some confusion.

From Recent Rains...

Lake Spence Has Its Third Biggest Catch

Lake levels had about stabilized early this week from last week's rise, and the Colorado River Municipal Water District was about 50,000 acre feet of water to the good.

Although there was still some minor flow into Lake E.V. Spence Monday, 48,000 acre feet of good quality water had coursed into that reservoir, raising the level 9.1 vertical feet to an elevation of 1863.18. Lake J.B. Thomas did not share in the big rains, but it did pick up .78 of a foot to elevation 2220.34, a net inflow of 1,800-acre feet. It is two feet ahead of where it was on the same date a year ago.

Aside from the welcome supply, quality of water will be a big benefit, said O.H. Ivie, general manager of CRMWD. Water flowing past the Lake Spence pump station now is very low in chlorides, and thus cities are benefiting from this immediately. In time, the new water will mix with that already in the basin and not be quite as good as now, but in any event will still be at least a third better quality than before the rise.

Another bonus from the inflow is that it will affect water quality next summer when CRMWD has to draw from Moss Creek Lake, the on-line storage southeast of Big Spring, to meet peak demands. During the past summer CRMWD pulled the level of Moss Creek down about 10 feet, and as this 2,000-acre feet of water is replaced from Lake Spence during autumn months, it will be of much higher quality than was withdrawn last summer.

The rise at Lake Spence has brought to 64,000 acre feet the gain this year, the third largest on record since closure of the dam in 1969. The peak was 109,500 acre feet in 1971, followed by 75,600 in 1974. Together, Lake Thomas and Lake Spence have caught 88,000 acre feet this year.

Opportunity Slides By For Houston's Astros

HOUSTON (AP) - A pessimist would look at the Houston's plight and wonder why the Astros haven't gained any ground on the Los Angeles Dodgers, who have lost two straight road games.

Astros manager Bill Virdon looks at the standings and wonders what everyone is worrying about.

"It means that we are still tied for first place," Virdon deadpanned Tuesday night after the Astros had lost to the lowly San Diego Padres 4-3 for the second straight night.

"I'm sure anyone in our position would say they would have wanted to gain some ground on the Dodgers, but it didn't happen and nothing can change that."

For the second straight evening, the Dodgers lost on the road and the Astros lost at home, leaving the National League Western Division race in a deadlock.

It would have been a good time for the Astros to gain a little cushion on the Dodgers, but nobody is ready to panic.

"We've got 18 games left," Astros spiritual leader Joe Morgan said. "We've got to go out and get them now. We shouldn't be guarding against anything. We can't be defensive, we've got to be aggressive and go out and play the best baseball we can."

Starter Vern Ruhle yielded run-scoring hits to Jerry Mumphrey, Randy Bass and Broderick Perkins for a 3-0 lead in the first inning.

Houston tied it on a two-run double by Rafael Landestoy in the second and a single by Gary Woods in the sixth inning.

One More Arrested In Shooting Incident

DENTON (AP) - A second man has been charged in the shooting death of North Texas State University football player, Bernard Jackson, but police say they still don't know why the young man was killed.

Sammy Ricky Crockett, 22, surrendered to police Tuesday afternoon accompanied by his attorney. He later was charged with Says Cowboy Coach...

Philadelphia A Cinch

DALLAS (AP) - Tom Landry says about the only things that could keep the Philadelphia Eagles out of the playoffs are injuries or fatigue from carrying Dick Vermeil off the field.

The Eagles have jumped a game ahead of defending National Conference East Division champion Dallas, and Landry was asked about fast-start Philadelphia at his weekly press luncheon.

"I've never seen a coach (Vermeil) carried off the field in September before," said Landry. "Usually you wait until a little later in the year for that. I'm just glad we don't play the Eagles for awhile."

Vermeil was hoisted to the shoulders of his players after last Sunday's 42-7 drubbing of Minnesota - the same day Denver blasted the Cowboys 41-20.

"If the Eagles can avoid injuries, they will be a cinch for the playoffs. They are out in front and their schedule isn't real tough," Landry said.

Dallas doesn't play the Eagles until Oct. 19 in Philadelphia.

The Cowboys must face unbeaten Tampa Bay Sunday in Texas Stadium which will be a sauna at the 3 p.m. kickoff if the current Texas heat wave continues as predicted.

"We'll start working out (Wednesday) in the hot weather at 3 p.m. ... we'll work through the heat," said Landry.

Temperatures reached 100 degrees or higher on 68 days in Dallas this summer and Landry has varied the workout schedule to get around the blistering Texas heat.

He said it was tough to condition the team as hot as it has been. He cited tailback Tony Dorsett as an example.

"Tony missed the last two preseason games and, because of the heat, it's been hard for him to get back into condition," Landry said.

Landry also said if it's extremely hot Sunday - the long range forecast says it will - "We will substitute a lot."

He said the Denver whipping was not setting well with his players.

"It got their attention. Not many players on this team have been with us when we got beat that bad," Landry noted.

Breck Unanimous Choice In Class 3A

By The Associated Press
 The easiest choice for voters in The Associated Press Schoolboy Football Poll came in Class 3A this week where Breckenridge received the unanimous support of all 18 sports writers and sportcasters.

Breckenridge defeated Iowa Park 20-6 in its season opener and came back last week with a 21-7 victory over perennial Class 4A power Brownwood to earn the unanimous selection.

Meanwhile, Temple in Class 5A, Bay City in 4A and Pilot Point in 2A rolled on as the No. 1 ranked teams in their classifications.

Bay City shutout Dickinson 10-0 to remain the Class 4A leader and Pilot Point waxed Whitesboro 20-6.

The Class 5A ranks suffered three losses last week including No. 6, Lewisville No. 8 San Antonio Churchill and No. 10 Texas City. Churchill, which lost to San Antonio Highlands 16-13, was the lone loser to survive, retaining the No. 9 position.

No. 6 Paris, No. 7 Brownwood and No. 9 McKinney suffered losses among the 4A rankings with Paris dropping to No. 8 and Brownwood and McKinney dropping from the top 10 Corsicana, No. 9, and Andrews, No. 10, are the 4A newcomers.
