Iraqis MiGs Raid Airport...

Iraq, Iran War Escalates

By The Associated Press
Iraqi MiGs raided Tehran's international airport and at least a half-dozen other Iranian air installations today and Iraq's state radio said three weeks of air, ground and sea hostilities had "escalated into a full-scale war."

In Ankara, Turkey, a spokesman for the Iraqi Embassy told The Associated Press Iraq has declared war on Iran. Baghdad said its warplanes hit nine airstrips in the midday strikes and lost two of its Soviet-made MiG jets. A top Iranian military official said "several" air bases were raided, and an Iranian revolutionary guard commander claimed six MiGs attacked seven air installations.

A thick column of smoke rose from the Tehran airport area and the sound of explosions rocked the capital, but Iranian Radio continued its ordinary programs. Reports of the airport bombings came one day after Iraq and Iran each claimed heavy damage to the other in a naval and artillery battle at the head of the Persian Gulf. It was the heaviest fighting so far in the border conflict between the two oil giants.

Iran and Iraq have been sparring along their borders for months, but the fighting escalated last week after Iraq cancelled a 1975 treaty. The treaty ended the late Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi's support of a Kurdish rebellion in northern Iraq and in return put the last 60 miles of the boundary between the two countries down the middle of the Shatt-al-Arab waterway. In abrogating the treaty, Iraq said it was resuming sovereignty over the eastern half of the estuary, which is formed by the union of the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers and connects Basrah, Iraq's chief port, as well as Iran's Khorramshahr and Abadan with the Persian Gulf.

Ayatollah Seyyed Ali Khameni of Iran's Supreme Defense Council, military representative of Iranian leader Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, today said: "the puppet and mercenary Iraqi government has started air raids against Iranian territory... the Iranian army will not tolerate aggression... and shall give a bitter lesson to (Iraqi President) Saddam Hussein," according to Tehran Radio.

An Iranian revolutionary guard commander said MiGs bombed airports at Ahvaz, Hamadan, Tabriz, Dezful, Tolumbeh Sabz near Ahvaz, Boushehr, as well as Tehran. Another person called a Western reporter in Tehran and reported the airports in Tabriz, Ahvaz and Boushehr were bombed concurrently.

An earlier report from a witness to the Tehran airport bombing said an Iranian Phantom jet fighter bombed Mehrabad Airport and was shot down by other Iranian fighter planes. He quoted a friend at the airport as saying "many have been killed." There was no immediate explanation of how an Iranian Phantom jet could have been involved.

Parliament Visits Embassy

By The Associated Press
An Iranian parliamentary delegation entered the U.S. Embassy in Tehran today and the speaker of Parliament said it was possible some deputies may talk to some of the American hostages held captive there by Iranian militants for 322 days.

"The deputies may talk to the hostages if they feel it is necessary for getting more information on the hostages," speaker Hashemi Rafsanjani told a news conference before the first group of 30 deputies went to the embassy.

Rafsanjani also said the Iranian-Iraqi war "will not be without effect on the fate of the hostages." He did not elaborate. Border fighting between the two countries has intensified over the past week.

Explosion Kills Six

OLATHE, Kan. (AP)—A gift-wrapped box delivered to a home here may have contained the bomb that exploded and killed six people in a slaying allegedly motivated by revenge, officials say.

Danny E. Crump, arrested after the weekend explosion in this Kansas City suburb, was being held by authorities. A prosecutor said he would be formally charged today with six counts of first-degree murder. Crump's ex-wife, Diane, was one of the six family members who died in the blast. Police said the 27-year-old Crump was divorced this summer.

"It appears that it was a revenge motive," Jim Brightwell, assistant special agent in charge for the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms in Kansas City, said. "It appears to be a domestic situation."

Anderson Rated Winner

WASHINGTON (AP)—Independent presidential candidate John B. Anderson scored a sweep of his debate with Republican Ronald Reagan Sunday night, according to a panel which rated the event for The Associated Press.

The panel of seven forensic experts, using the standard scoring procedure for scholastic competition, gave Anderson a point total of 169 and Reagan 154.

Six members of the panel declared Anderson the winner, while a seventh scored the debate a draw on the point system but said he was more impressed with Anderson's performance.

Dr. James J. Unger of Georgetown University, chairman of the panel and the one judge who scored it a tie, said it pushed to chose between the two beyond the point system. "I would have voted for Rep. Anderson on a very narrow basis of superior content triumphing over superior style."

Tape Of Moore Played At Trial

HOUSTON (AP)—Labor leader L.G. Moore, in a secretly taped conversation with an FBI informant, said if "we can get the speaker, I think we can put this thing together."

That tape was played to a federal court jury today as the second week of the Texas Brilab trial began. In the tape-recorded conversation, Moore and FBI informant Joseph Hauser were talking about the multimillion-dollar state employees' health insurance package.

Moore told Hauser that he was "having breakfast with the speaker soon and I think I can get it."

House Speaker Billy Clayton and Austin attorneys Donald Ray and Randall Wood are on trial, charged with extortion, racketeering, conspiracy and bribery, all arising from the undercover Brilab operation. The tape recording revealed that Moore told Hauser that the speaker "is laying all his plans now to run for governor. He's going to run for speaker one more time and we have him both ways there."

Moore added, "If we can get the speaker we'll just let him use his influence." The recordings made during a Sept. 20, 1979, meeting also had Moore making this statement: "That state thing can be put together. One of the wires is the speaker."

Lida Lane, a county resident, was recognized as an area resident who was born in a dugout. It was learned that others in attendance had also been born in dugouts, one of which was James Dowdy, also a longtime resident.

Move Nuclear Warhead From Blast Site Today

DAMASCUS, Ark. (AP)—A convoy of eight military vehicles led by a security van left a Titan II missile site today, apparently transporting a nuclear warhead inside a canister labeled "Do Not Drop."

The convoy, escorted by two helicopters, arrived about 1 1/2 hours later at Little Rock Air Force Base in Jacksonville, Ark. The Air Force continued to maintain tight security over the operation, refusing to confirm the widely held belief that a warhead was blown hundreds of feet into the air from the silo in a fuel explosion last Friday. The blast, that occurred when a wrench was dropped in the silo, killed a sergeant and injured 21 other men.

Despite the secrecy, an Air Force colonel directing the convoy smiled and gave a thumbs-up sign to an AP reporter who asked, "Is that what you wouldn't confirm or deny?"

The convoy was led by an Air Force pickup truck and a security van with flashing blue lights. State police patrol cars escorted the convoy, and two helicopters flew ahead to report traffic conditions on U.S. 65 and Interstate 40. At one point, the convoy was ordered to slow from 55 mph to about 40 mph.

Members of the convoy could be heard on radio monitors asking for "security check."

There was a flurry of activity at the site shortly before the convoy left at 7:30 a.m. CDT. Arkansas State Police cars and patrol cars from the Van Buren County Sheriff's office gathered outside the gate and an Air Force helicopter arrived a short time later.

Tax Rate On Agenda For College Board

A budget for auxiliary services and a tax rate will be considered tonight at the regular meeting of the Scurry County Junior College-District board of trustees.

The meeting is set for 5:45 p.m. in the conference room of the Western Texas College Administration Building.

It will be the first meeting of the college board since the county tax roll was certified, which clears the way for taxing entities of the county to set their tax rates.

Also up for consideration at tonight's meeting are bids for the purchase of several items, including vehicles, copy paper and audio visual equipment. Reports are due on enrollment in WTC and on the possibility of additional campus housing.

Following action on the agenda, the board is scheduled to go into executive session to discuss personnel matters.

Fall Expected To Bring Cool Spell

Autumn was scheduled to make its entry today and appropriately forecasts called for a cold front to move through Texas.

The autumnal equinox was to occur at 3:09 p.m. Snyder time.

As the hour approached, a strong cold front was reported moving down from the Panhandle and it was expected to drop temperatures in the north half of Texas to the lowest levels since the heat wave grasped the state in June. The front had already made it into the Panhandle before dawn.

Blowing dust and wind gusts of up to 38 mph accompanied the front as it moved through Dalhart. Temperatures behind the front were generally 10 to 15 degrees cooler than those ahead of it. Dalhart fell to 60 degrees by 4 a.m.

The system was expected to move into central Texas by late today, bringing thunderstorms and widespread rain to most of Texas.

Beyond the front, Texas skies were clear to partly cloudy today, with some low morning cloudiness from Corpus Christi northward to the Hill Country near San Antonio and into central Texas near Waco. Gusty southerly winds were reported over most sections of the state. A few light showers fell ahead of the front between Big Spring and Pecos.

Most early morning temperatures were in the 70s and 80s, with the highest 84 at Wichita Falls. Afternoon temperatures were expected to range from the 70s in the Panhandle to the 90s over central and southern parts of Texas.

PORTER KING RECOGNIZED—The Scurry County Historical Commission recognized several county residents at a coffee Saturday held during the Scurry County Reunion. Among those were Porter King, recognized for being in business the longest in the county. Shown with King is Brud Boren, a past president of the commission and emcee for Saturday's awards program. Q—Can the city hire an old-timer (retiree or RSVP volunteer) to ride in ambulances to help them locate places where they are called for service?

A—The city does not hire ambulance personnel. It grants a franchise and leases equipment to an operator who provides the staff. The operator, or franchise holder, may hire anyone that he/she feels to be needed to provide service.

WASHINGTON (NEA) - State Department insiders are not optimistic that quick freedom for the hostages will result from Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini's latest list of conditions for resolving the 10-month-long crisis. In his Sept. 12 address, Khomeini said the hostages could be released if the United States guarantees it will not intervene in Iran, unfreezes Iranian assets in this country and cancels all claims by Americans against Iran.

billions. So, even if the shah's assets could be seized - and they probably could not - there is that difference of at least $1.7 billion.

All of this could amount to a price tag in excess of $5 billion to get the hostages back.

As one State Department official noted: "We have thought all along that what it would eventually come down to was ransom. It has long been the policy of this country not to pay even one cent of ransom in a hostage situation. We have had diplomats killed because of this policy."

"Now comes Iran asking for billions in ransom. I don't think we will agree to pay it, and I don't think the Iranians are going to be satisfied with freeing the hostages and then waiting for matters to work their way through our courts."

"I really don't see any resolution of this thing very soon."

A larger-than-usual income can be gleaned this coming year from progressive projects or enterprises. If you have something new to bring to the marketplace, by all means seek ways to get there.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your earning potential is very good today, but your performance may not justify your compensation. Be fair to the person who gives out the paycheck.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) When it comes to managing a small clique you'll operate masterfully today, but you could fall short when handling a large group. Seek assistance.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Left to your own devices today you know how to get things done, but where you're overly concerned as to what others might think, you tend to get off on the wrong track.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Too much worrying about what might never occur could greatly impede your progress today. Don't be fearful of things that haven't yet happened.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Share today, but restrict your generosity to the deserving. Let the unentitled find ways to feather their own nests.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Something you hold a very strong opinion about may be in conflict with another today. Don't be swayed from truths that you know work.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Treat kindly all those you encounter today, but by the same token be wary of being taken advantage of. One with sly motives might attempt to use you.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Use discretion in social situations today. Behave in a manner that cannot later be gossiped about. Even your smallest acts will be closely scrutinized.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your success may be limited today in areas where a second effort is required. If you don't grab the brass ring initially, you might not try again.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) In a conversation today you may be tempted to embellish the truth a bit. Exaggerations or false claims will be recognized for what they are.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) This is not a good day to invest your time or resources in people or things you know little about. Either one could do you in.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Cherish your own views today, but not to the extent where they could block out wiser counsel.

a lot for nothing

The Department of Energy has taken a few broadsides lately for its wastrel ways and it likely deserves the punishment it has absorbed.

One of the most vocal critics has been the Permian Basin Petroleum Association, which has had the agency in its sights since it was organized. Here are some examples of the waste, inefficiency and non-productivity of the department, as cited by the Permian Basin Petroleum Association:

It was recently disclosed at a congressional hearing that 85 percent of $10,200,000,000 of DOE's $12,000,000,000 budget is spent on outside consultants - people and firms not employed by the agency. By doing this, DOE is admitting its own 20,000 employees don't know what's going on and they have to rely on outside help. Why not hire people, the PBPA asks, who know something about the energy business and save the taxpayers $10,000,000,000?

According to "First Monday" magazine, $10,000,000 worth of the strategic petroleum periodically cannot be accounted for.

Some $300,000 were wasted when DOE destroyed eight million copies of a mileage guide because they were bound in the wrong colors.

According to the DOE Inspector General, 126,000 pieces of mail are lost each year by the department, even though the mail has the correct names and address on them.

DOE employees have made personal long distance calls to the extent that it has cost taxpayers $500,000. One employee called a "Dial a Dirty Joke" number in St. Louis 42 times.

AMERICANS HAVE reduced their gasoline consumption by about eight percent this year. The Federal Government, on the other hand, has increased its use of gasoline by 10.7 percent.

The PBPA, taking a stand that the Department of Energy should be abolished, are finding that an increasing number of people - sickened by mindless direction the bureaucracies are taking in Washington - are agreeing with it. Perhaps the last signs of life in this once-great nation will be some bureaucrat signaling toward Capitol Hill that more funds are needed to keep his agency going until new appropriations can be voted.

lame duck season

A new Congress will be elected Nov. 4, but we aren't going to be quite finished yet with the old one.

Senate Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd is calling a special post-election session of the outgoing 96th Congress beginning Nov. 12. The West Virginia Democrat says there is too much unfinished business before both houses to be taken care of before the scheduled election recess Oct. 4.

Since Congress habitually runs late, there is no question but that he has a point. But according to other quarters on Capitol Hill, he is missing several others.

Critics of the Republican persuasion see postponement until the special session of voting on the administration's latest budget as a calculated election assist for Democrats seeking re-election. It enabled them to go to the voters without first having to go on record on an unbalanced budget that is itself a campaign issue.

Possibly worse, defeated senators and representatives returning for the lame-duck session will be able to vote on the budget and other hold-over issues without serious consideration of their constituents' real interests.

When you think about it, the relationship between parents and children breaks down into three little words: a poker game.

Take the case of a teenager who wants to borrow the car.

He opens with a pair of promises: "I'll go to the store for your eggs and pick up the cleaning on the way home."

Mother: "I'll raise you taking your sister to the orthodontist."

Teenager: "Okay, I'll raise you a full tank of gas and be home by 10...no later."

Mother: "What have you got in mind?"

Teenager: "Look, either raise me or call."

Mother: "Okay, here are the keys...whatta got?"

Teenager: "Just what I opened with, a couple of promises and a date I'm picking up in half an hour."

I've seen it happen a thousand times. The give and take, the emotions when the stakes are high... the breathless anticipation as parents and child get down to their last card.

I thought I was the world's greatest player in the game until God sent me the natural enemy of poker players everywhere—a kid that could not be bluff.

Even when I was 36 inches taller, 26 years older, 114 pounds heavier and played by my own rules, I couldn't beat him. I'd say, "Do you know what I'm going to do if you don't turn off that hose right now? I'm going to call off your vacation and put you in your bedroom without food or television and Mommy is going to sit here in the kitchen and cry until she gets sick!"

Without so much as a flinch or a moment's hesitation, he'd look me in the eye and turn on the spigot full force. The rest is too humiliating to dwell upon...I mean it, the I'm going to tell you one more time, this is absolutely your last chance, I'm not kidding, and finally, I am going to leave the room and when I get back I want to see that water off.

In retrospect, there were many hands I'd have played differently. I would never have drawn on sympathy to fill an inside straight. I would never have paired my wild card with something insignificant. I would never have counted my winnings until the game was played.

But mostly, that first day when he turned the hose on, I'd have called off our vacation, put him in the bedroom without food or television and sat in the kitchen and cried until I got sick.

NEW YORK (AP) - The Senator with the poorest voting record, from the viewpoint of an association that claims to speak for small and medium size business, is Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis.

What makes this interesting, if not surprising, is that Nelson is chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Small Business, which some small business people had assumed was in their corner.

The National Federation of Independent Business, based in San Mateo, Calif., said Nelson recorded a score of just 22 percent, compared with 89 percent scored by five other senators, all Republicans.

In all, it said, 195 representatives and 30 senators, nearly half the 96th Congress, received grades of 70 percent, which qualified for the federation endorsement and the "Guardian of Small Business Award."

In the words of James "Mike" McKeivitt, NFIB legislative director, the award is a badge of honor for those who "have the courage to stand up and vote against the pressures of big labor and big business."

At times it isn't easy to vote for small business concerns, McKeivitt says, "and we know it." But it's important to vote, he argues, because "it's small business which makes this country go."

The federation isn't alone among business scorekeepers. The National Small Business Association, the Business Roundtable, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, and the National Association of Manufacturers also keep scorecards. So do specialized associations, in housing, for example.

But associations of small and medium size businesses seem particularly zealous in watching whatever happens on the floors of the House or Senate, and they are urging members to vote on the basis of one issue.

There is a reason for it, they say. They insist that small and medium business are destined to be squashed if they cannot elbow away the bulks of big government, big unions and big business.

For years, their spokesmen say, Congress didn't even distinguish between big and small, and that as a result many rules and regulations aimed at bigness were applied with often fatal results to them.

Federal contracts were written with big business in mind, they say. They claim regulations that cost big firms relatively little, because of volume, almost suffocated them. Paperwork, they say, buried them.

They gathered volumes of statistics to support their cause, and encouraged others to help. A study at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology demonstrated that small businesses, not the Fortune 500, were the big job creators. A House subcommittee showed a steady concentration of manufacturing assets among the top 200 manufacturers.

Early this year a White House conference on small business was convened, and scores of proprietors, entrepreneurs and managers paid their way to it. While critics now say little was accomplished, it did help to get the various small business associations to work together.

Plant Bulbs In Fall For Spring Blooms

"April showers bring May flowers" may be true in some cases, but if gardeners want tulips, crocus, daffodils, and hyacinths blowing in the breeze next spring, the time to plant is now.

These bulbs which bloom into color in early spring need the chill of the winter to be healthy, blooming plants.

Soil is one of the most important factors for fall bulb planting. It must be porous to drain well. If the soil is high in clay and stays packed, add sand, peat moss or vermiculite. If it is too sandy, add peat moss or compost.

Bulbs in clusters look the best, so have plenty of bulbs for the garden space. Plant large bulbs six inches deep and six inches apart. Smaller bulbs should be planted three to four inches deep and three inches apart.

Setting each bulb with the pointed ends up, cover the bed with soil and water thoroughly. A layer of mulch leaves, peat moss or wood chips adds a protective covering for your bulb's winter sleep.

Or if you are facing the winter months with a dreary distaste, plant your bulbs in pots and force them to bloom in late December-early January or February.

To force blooms, you will simulate winter by either putting them in a cool, dark closet or the refrigerator.

Using porous potting soil, fill a pot half-full. Place the bulbs on top of the soil and fill in around the bulbs with soil, leaving just the tips peeking out.

For the best results, fill the pots with as many bulbs as possible. Four to six tulips, or daffodils, three hyacinths or 10 crocus can fit easily into an six-inch pot.

Water the pot, then place it in a cool spot for 8-12 weeks. Be sure no light is reaching the pot while it is in cool storage.

After the cooling period, the bulbs are ready for an artificial spring. Move them into a cool room for a couple of weeks, watering but allowing no light.

In two weeks, the plants should have bulbs. Move them into a warm, well lighted room. In a few weeks, spring has come.

'Tickle Your Regrets With Flower Bouquet

SOUTHFIELD, Mich. (AP)-Florists have created a new, small bouquet, called the "Tickler," they suggest as the perfect gesture to take care of ticklish social situations.

"We've all at one time or other committed gaffes that we relive many times," says Victor Levy, president of Florists Transworld Delivery here. "One way you can eliminate or at least diminish such prickly memories, is to make immediate amends, both in writing and with this gesture."

Levy suggests sending the handful of fresh cut mixed flowers the morning after to apologize for any of these misdeeds:

"I'm sorry I sat on your cat."

"I'm sorry I fell into your aspidistra."

"I'm sorry I called your beautiful new baby girl a boy."

Oswald: "Today's hand is one of the simple ones in a book by Hugh Kelsey and Geza Ottlik entitled, 'Adventures in Card Play.'"

Alan: "The contract is a cinch unless West holds all four spades. You win the heart in dummy, come to your hand with a club and lead a low spade. West must duck to dummy's queen. East shows out so you have some sort of problem about the king of diamonds. Kelsey and Ottlik solve it simply by showing the hand and claiming irrespec-monds is." Oswald: "It is a matter of just cashing all your hearts and clubs in the right order. You start by cashing dummy's second high heart. East shows out of hearts this time so you run all four clubs and discard your queen and jack of diamonds. Somewhere along the way, West will either chuck all his diamonds or let a heart go."

Alan: "He must hand on to all three of his spades. Otherwise, you will be able to run all the spades but the ace."

Oswald: "If he chucks all his diamonds you simply cash your ace of diamonds and make him throw one heart. Now you cash both your high hearts, discard a spade from dummy and play your king of spades. He takes his ace but must lead away from the ten to give you your third spade trick."

Alan: "The key to the hand is that you never have to worry about taking the diamond finesse. You come to twelve tricks without it."

I LOST 85 POUNDS

QUICKLY & SAFELY AT DIET CENTER

JoAnn Mack tells how Diet Center has changed her life...

"Diet Center worked for me" I had tried every diet imaginable before coming to Diet Center. None of them had allowed me to lose weight fast enough to keep me excited and motivated to stay with it. Soon, I would lose interest, go off the diet and gain back what little weight I had lost. I was really fed up with the way I looked and I didn't feel like doing anything or going anywhere. One day, I was looking through the phone book for some kind of reducing program and came across an ad for Diet Center. The idea of private daily counseling and sound nutrition appealed to me so I gave them a call. That call was the start of a whole new life for me.

In the first 6 weeks, I lost 26 pounds and a total of 26 inches. I was really pleased with my accomplishment and already I was receiving a lot of compliments from my friends and family. I never even considered stopping short of my goal. I went on to lose a total of 85 pounds, and reduced my dress size from a snug 18 to a perfect 8. That was nine months ago, and since then I have taken up tennis and snow skiing and for the first time in 8 years I can get up on water skis! The Diet Center program is fantastic, I've never been happier or felt healthier and I know I'll never be heavy again!

JoAnn's story is typical of thousands of men and women all across the United States and Canada who have changed their lives at Diet Center. Call your local Diet Center counselor today, it could be the most important call you ever make!

Bootmaker Would Like To Fit A Pair For Pope

NOCONA (AP) — Miss Enid Justin's boots have graced some of the richest, the hardest-working, the largest, the smallest, the most famous and, undoubtedly, the smelliest feet in the world.

But there's still one pair the 86-year-old chairman of Nocona Boot Co. would like to make.

A pair for a pope.

During an audience with Pope Pius XIII, she longed to fit His Holiness with a pair of Noconas bearing the papal crest.

"The poor little fellow was standing there in a pair of thin red slippers," she said.

But there are just some feet that don't cotton to hand-tooled leather.

Even Miss Enid doesn't wear her creations anymore.

"Does a doctor take his own medicine?" she asked, eyeing a sore toe.

Miss Enid doesn't dance anymore, either. But not because she wouldn't like to. A stroke put her in a wheelchair some years ago, but she remembers fondly that it was dancing that gave her a start in the boot-business.

"Yep. They kicked me out of school for dancing," she said, her blue eyes twinkling with mischief.

"I never drank or smoked, but some folks around here thought you'd go straight to the boogerman for dancing."

When the school board found out about her turn around the living room, they suspended her for three weeks. She never went back to the classroom.

"Well, there are a lot of educated fools running around. I just came to the office with Papa Joe, her father, the late H.J. Justin, founder of the firm and never went back to school. I did ordering and shipping for him and learned the business."

The years have been eventful for the little woman who never wanted to leave her home on the edge of the Oklahoma border.

She started designing boots when she was 14 and a couple of dozen boot-makers turned out a pair a day of Nocona's "two offerings: black and brown.

Now, the 352 employees

here turn out 1,500 pair a day in alligator, veal, bull, steer, buffalo, calf, pig, kid, kangaroo, caribou, lizard, shark, ostrich and eel.

Papa Joe was a cobbler who started the boot company more than a century ago at Spanish Fort, near a crossing on the Red River. He agreed to make a pair of boots for a cowboy passing through the trail town and the cowpoke liked them so much he told Papa Joe he would get mail orders if Justin could figure out a way to take measurements by mail.

Justin could and did, and the orders rolled in.

Cameron gained its independence from France in 1960.

Variety On Police Menu

An assortment of incidents, ranging from a criminal mischief complaint to minor traffic accidents and including a theft and an auto burglary, were reported to city police during the weekend.

Early Saturday morning, police were told of a theft involving a $40,000 tester truck taken from White's Testers. A second phone call, however, told officers the truck had been in a traffic accident at a Fina gas station west of the Pondersa Motel and abandoned. That incident is still under investigation.

Also Saturday, Robert Brazier, 1010 32nd St., reported that his 1969 GMC pickup truck had been attacked by vandals. Damage was estimated at $320. Taking that report was officer Kerry Fritz.

Early Sunday morning, Jimmy Neblett told police his vehicle had been broken into and a cassette case, about 30 stereo tapes, and a 20-gauge shotgun had been stolen. That incident is alleged to have occurred in the parking lot of the Club Sundown. Working that case is Bill Armstrong.

Fritz worked a theft reported about 6:45 a.m. Sunday at the parking lot of K-Bob's Steakhouse. There, a boat owned by Yachts Unlimited of Gordonville had been stolen. Value of the boat was estimated at more than $200, making the offense a felony.

Fritz also worked a traffic accident Sunday about 2 p.m. at the Fina Truck Stop. In the mishap, a 1975 truck-trailer owned by York Transport struck a guardrail. Damage to the guardrail was pegged at $25.

At 6:10 p.m.—Sunday, Buz Woolsey worked a two-vehicle collision at Huffman and Clairemont Highway. In that accident, a 1973 Pontiac driven by Simon Quiras was in collision with a 1977 Chevrolet driven by Anthony Shane Dawson. Only minor damage was reported.

Firemen Called

Snyder firefighters doused a car fire Sunday morning.

The fire occurred in a 1968 Pontiac owned by Julia Ramirez. It was reported at 10:20 a.m. at the intersection of 24th St. and Ave. M.

Smoking vs. weight gain?

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Often I hear people say that they're afraid to quit smoking because they will gain weight. My mother is a pack-a-day smoker and says that's the reason she can't quit. I realize obesity is a risk factor for several diseases but isn't cigarette smoking more dangerous than being a bit overweight? How does smoking affect a person's appetite? What causes a person to gain weight when she stops smoking? Is there a way that the weight gain can be prevented? Do people really have withdrawal reactions when they stop smoking?

DEAR READER — The basic law of conservation of energy applies to smokers and nonsmokers. Specifically, energy in equals energy used plus energy stored. That means simply that the number of calories consumed in your diet is either used by your body for energy or stored as fat energy.

The principle reason that people gain weight when they quit smoking is that they eat more. Not everyone who quits smoking gains weight. If a person has adequate will power to control the nervous habit of eating, she is not so apt to gain any weight when she quits smoking. Now, it is true that there are some physiological changes in the body that are associated with improved health that may account for a few pounds put that's about it.

One thing that can help a person avoid this problem is to start keeping a daily dietary diary while they're smoking. This means to list everything she eats or drinks every day. If you know enough about calories you can calculate the calorie consumption on a daily basis. Then when a person quits smoking she should make a very strong point of not increasing her calorie intake. In other words, stay on the same diet that she had before she quit smoking. Many people smoke because they have to satisfy an oral urge. It's a mistake to substitute eating for smoking.

Yes, it's true that moderate or heavy cigarette smoking is more dangerous to the health than being a few pounds overweight. Obviously, the best of all possible worlds healthwise is to not gain weight and to quit smoking, too.

One of the best ways of avoiding gaining weight when you stop smoking is to increase your exercise. Whenever there is an urge to smoke, it's a good time to take a short walk. The exercise helps to dissipate the nervous energy and it also uses a small amount of calories.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 2-6, Tobacco: Cigarettes, Cigars, Pipes. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I rub my face, neck and shoulders with 70 to 90 percent rubbing alcohol after shaving and showering to help in the control of acne pimples. Is there a danger to my lungs in the continued daily use of this alcohol since I usually cough after I've applied it to my face?

DEAR READER — No, it won't harm you. The cough is in response to irritation of the upper respiratory passages so it's unlikely that any significant amounts of the fumes would ever reach your lungs. I'm not sure what you mean by rubbing alcohol since this means different things to different people. But what you really need is plain alcohol that has no other substances, such as wintergreen, added to it.

Bystanders Aid Elderly Escape Rest Home Fire

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Eight persons have been hospitalized after being helped from a nursing home fire that officials say was started by a cigarette left in a trash can.

"It could easily have been a multiple death fire," said Wichita Falls Fire Department arson investigator Rod Beadle Sunday after the blaze hit the Southwest Memorial Nursing Home and forced 59 residents to evacuate.

He said the fire started about 3 p.m. Sunday and soon filled the nursing home with dense smoke.

"There was so much confusion," said fireman Gary Bumgardner, who said he saw two teen-age boys helping the elderly residents from the home.

"I don't know how many people they saved," he said, "or how many windows they broke, but every time they went in, they came out with someone."

The Rev. John Payne, pastor of a church across the street from the nursing home, said members of the congregation rushed to help the fire victims when they saw smoke pouring out of the building.

He said the yard in front of the burning building was strewn with elderly people who had been pulled out of the fire to safety.

About 25 firefighters brought the blaze under control within an hour. An estimated $25,000 was done to the building.

None of the eight residents hospitalized was believed seriously injured. The other residents were moved to another nursing home.

WTC Rodeo Team Has Good Weekend

Western Texas College rodeo teams had a good weekend at the Eastern New Mexico State University NIRA rodeo, Bob Doty, rodeo advisor, said.

The men's team took second place overall, while the women's team won fourth overall.

Sul Ross State University captured first place in the men's events. Tarleton State was in third place.

Calf roping was dominated by men from WTC. Troy Reynolds, a freshman student from Hudson Falls, N.Y., was first. Gary Hickox, sophomore from Lawton, Okla., and David Stewart, freshman from Salisbury, N.C., were third and sixth respectively.

In saddle bronc riding, freshman Tim Gradous from Hephzibah, Ga., won third with a score of 69. First was won with a score of 70.

James Garlick, sophomore transfer student from Van Horn, won the bareback riding with points to spare, marking a 75.

Mandy Tubb, Snyder sophomore, ran an 18.06 to win third in the barrel race. Nannette Fine of Monahans ran 18.99 to split fifth and sixth place.

"All in all, we had a real good outing," Doty commented. "Our bull riders did not draw very well; neither did most of our bareback riders. Sul Ross is tough, but after this weekend I am convinced that we can beat them, even though most of their team members are seniors."

The next outing for the WTC teams will be on Oct. 2-4 in Pampa where South Plains College and Clarendon College will co-sponsor an NIRA rodeo.

Hornets Hold Off Card Comeback; Take 36-28 Victory

HERMLEIGH - The Cardinals almost made it stick here Saturday, but an early 29-0 lead by Blackwell was just too much to overcome.

Perhaps inspired by the homecoming activities, or maybe it was a halftime speech by Coach Clarence Speiker - the Cardinals rallied to cut Blackwell's lead to eight points, 36-28, before time simply ran out.

The Hornets, 2-1, survived a fumble and an opening Hermleigh drive that reached the Blackwell 10-yard line before they went to work in the afternoon contest. Hermleigh fumbled at the 10, the first of four in the first-half that hurt the team dearly.

Later in the first period, Edgar Drake fell on a loose ball at the Hermleigh 21-yard line, and the Hornets went to work. With 3:11 left, Randy Trull hit Steve Eldred on a 21-yard pass play for the first TD of the game. Lawrence Wilson's PAT kick made it 8-0.

Drake came up with a third Card turnover late in the quarter and Blackwell again cashed in the miscue. Held to a fourth down situation, Drake hit Joe LaPrade for a pass to the Card 6-yard line and Wilson went over on the next play to make the score 14-0. Wilson's kick was good again.

Trull later found James Chew on a 1-yard toss to stretch the totals further, then hit Eldred on another pass for the conversion.

Hermleigh fought back by taking the ball to the Hornet 8-yard line, but was once again plagued by the fumble-bug. From there, Blackwell marched the distance, scoring on a pass from Trull to Bluford Holland with 11 seconds remaining. Melvin Wallace blocked the PAT attempt.

Hermleigh stiffened its defense and cranked up offensively in the second half. With 6:41 in the third quarter, Anthony Roa scored on a 3-yard run. Holland retaliated for the Hornets by running back the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown, and Trull's one-point conversion pass to Eldred made the score 36-6.

But Hermleigh was to keep Blackwell out of its end zone for the rest of the afternoon, while putting up 22 points of its own. A 77-yard run by Dennis Jones - on a pitchout from Kenny Riley - gave Hermleigh 12 points, and Wallace's kick was good for a 36-14 score.

Several times Blackwell was able to gain yardage, eating up valuable time on the clock, but Hermleigh stood firm when the Hornets were within striking range. Jones ended one threat when he intercepted a Trull pass and returned it from his 35 to the Hornet 14. Two plays later Jones got the call from the 7-yard line. He started right, but finding no room, reversed his field and cut for the left corner to make it a 36-20 ballgame. Wallace kicked the PAT and Blackwell's lead was cut to 14 points.

Blackwell's next two possessions ended in no gains - one in minus yardage - and the Hermleigh defense grew stronger and stronger. The wind was with the Hornets in the final period however, and punts that should have left the Cardinals in good field position caught the 30 mph breezes and soared.

With time running out,

Jones pulled in a 40-yard toss to get the Cardinals down to the Blackwell 20. Riley snared a pass to the 17, and Jones picked up yardage to the visitor's 6 one play later. Blackwell held the hosts for three downs, but on fourth, with only 2:07 remaining, Jones slipped tackles and raced over from the 6. The PAT kick failed, but Hermleigh was only eight points down.

The key to the final moments however, was a major first down, run by Blackwell's Holland with only 1:21 showing. It exhausted Hermleigh's time outs, and set the Hornets in motion for the victory. Hermleigh, 0-3 on the season, will take next Friday off before beginning district 2-A battles on Oct. 3.

Houston Leads West Division

By The Associated Press
Vern Runie, who started the year with a mediocre 30-38 major-league record, has been a key member of the Houston pitching staff that has been strong even without J.R. Richard. He now has a 10-4 record, including Sunday's three-hit, 5-1 victory over the San Francisco Giants in which he flirted with a no-hitter for 7 2-3 innings.

Coupled with Cincinnati's 7-2 victory over Los Angeles in 11 innings, the triumph gave the Astros a one-game lead in the NL West - one-half game better than they were after Richard's last appearance July 14. The Reds are 3 1/2 behind Houston.

In other NL games, Montreal's lead in the East was cut to one-half game over Philadelphia when the Expos lost 4-1 to St. Louis and the Phillies beat Chicago 7-3. Pittsburgh climbed to within four

Oilers Handle Baltimore 21-16

HOUSTON (AP) - The bottom line on Houston running back Rob Carpenter, who has played his career in the shadow of Earl Campbell, has always been "he's good enough to start for many teams in the National Football League."

And Sunday, when Campbell re-injured a groin pull, Coach Bum Phillips discovered Carpenter was even good enough to start for the Oilers.

In a rare burst of playing time, Carpenter replaced Campbell in the first quarter and rushed for 114 yards on 24 carries and scored on a 1-yard plunge to lead the Oilers to a 21-16 victory over the surprised Baltimore Colts.

Carpenter became the first Oiler runner other than Campbell to rush 100 yards since Campbell joined the team in 1978. The victory also tied Houston for the American Football Conference Central Division lead with Pittsburgh, who lost to Cincinnati, 30-28.

White Carpenter was filling in for Campbell, quarterback Ken Stabler was picking the Colt secondary to pieces. He directed the Oilers to a 14-9 halftime lead on a 3-yard pass to Rick Caster and Campbell's 1-yard run.

Stabler opened the third quarter with a textbook ground drive that kept the Colt defense off balance the entire 80 yards. It ended with Carpenter diving one yard for the score and a 21-9 lead.

Stabler finished by completing 18 of 21 passes for 219 yards and two interceptions.

Baltimore had to settle for first-half field goals of 30, 23 and 39 yards by Steve Mike-Mayer and an 18-yard touchdown pass from Bert Jones to Joe Washington late in the fourth quarter after the contest was decided.

The Oiler defense contributed to the victory by sacking Jones for 36 yards in losses and breaking his nose in the second quarter.

Tigers Mark Up Monahans

MONAHANS - In a fine showing of depth, reshuffled Snyder High outlasted 1979 state volleyball champ Monahans here Saturday, 15-10, 5-15 and 15-10.

The victory, Snyder's second 2-AAAA win, puts the Tigers at 15-0 for the season. The team has an opportunity to stretch another remarkable record Tuesday when it hosts Snyder junior varsity also won, 6-15, 16-14 and 15-6. Susie Lee scored for 15 points. Sabrina Robinson, 11, Becky Pylant 6, Lisa Loyola 3 and Lisa Waller 2. Snyder JV, which entertains Sweetwater at 6:15 Tuesday, is 5-1 on the season.

Toni Elrod is expected to be out for two to three weeks.

while Melton had 7, Lisa Cobb 6, Shana Koonsman 5, Kathy Northcott 3 and Rich 3.

Elrod also praised the effort of Mayes, Northcott and Cobb on "front line offense" and Koonsman and Northcott on "back-line defense." She also noted the front line blocking of Cobb and Mayes, adding, "I think that is what kept us in the game."

Sherry Mayes served for 11 points for the Tigers.

Cowboys Stop Tampa; White Has Good Day

IRVING (AP) - Danny White never gave the Texas Stadium boo birds a chance to stir from their roosts Sunday. Heavily booed in the Dallas Cowboys' final exhibition game, the fourth-year quarterback threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to Butch Johnson on the Cowboy's first possession and they rolled to a 28-17 victory over previously unbeaten Tampa Bay in a National Football League home opener.

White, replacing the retired Roger Staubach as Dallas quarterback for the first time in regular season play before the hometown crowd, completed 24 of 33 passes for 244 yards and three touchdowns.

"It was great to have the crowd behind you," White said. "I hate to be booed ... it hurts."

White hurt the Buccaneers with a 72.7 percent completion ratio. Besides the scoring pass to Johnson, he completed two 9-yard touchdown passes to tight end Billy Joe DuPree.

Veteran fullback Robert Newhouse, beaten out by Ron Springs, also had a big day when Springs sprained an ankle.

Newhouse ran 2 yards for a touchdown and made a 9-yard run on fourth and one late in the game as the Cowboys ran out the clock.

Highlights Of Sunday Debate

BALTIMORE (AP) - Here are the highlights of the debate between Ronald Reagan and John Anderson.

ENGERY REAGAN: "I think it is the government, and the government with its own restrictions and regulations, that is creating the energy crisis."

ANDERSON: "Mr. Reagan, once again has demonstrated a total misunderstanding of the energy crisis that confronts not only this country but the world."

TAX CUTS REAGAN: "Inflation today is caused by government simply spending more than government takes in. I don't see where it is inflationary for people to keep more of their earnings and spend it."

ANDERSON: "I oppose an election year tax cut, whether it is the 10 percent across-the-board tax cut promised to the taxpayers by Reagan or whether it is the $27.5 billion tax cut promised ... by President Carter."

ABORTION ANDERSON: "Governor Reagan is running on a platform that calls for a constitutional amendment banning abortion. I think that is a moral issue that ought to be left to the freedom-of-conscience of the individual."

REAGAN: "With regard to the freedom of the individual for choice with regard to abortion, there's one individual who's not being considered at all. That's the one who's being aborted. And I've noticed that everybody that is for abortion has already been born."

MX MISSILE ANDERSON: "I do not support a boondoggle like the MX missile. I've just gotten a report from the Air Force that indicates the 30-year lifecycle cost of that system is going to be $100 billion."

REAGAN: "We need the missile because we are so out of balance strategically that we lack a deterrent to a possible first assault."

ABSENT CANDIDATE ANDERSON: "Governor Reagan is not responsible for what has happened over the past four years, nor am I. The man who should be here tonight to respond to those charges chose not to attend."

REAGAN: "We have criticized the failures of the Carter policy here rather considerably and there might be some feeling of unfairness about this because he was not here to respond. But I believe it would have been much more unfair to have John Anderson denied the right to participate in this debate."

Man Wounded By Gunshot

An accidental shooting and a felony theft were reported to the Scurry County Sheriff's Office during the weekend.

Husband's Graveyard Shift Sets Off Wife's Siren

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a policeman working the graveyard shift from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. I'm not very happy about this setup, but I've accepted it. What really bothers me is this: About three months ago a woman partner was assigned to work with him. (Squad car duty.) I've met her. She's cute, single, bright and funny, and I object strenuously.

I've asked my husband to request a male partner, explaining that I find it difficult to sleep nights knowing that he is riding around all night with another woman, but he refuses to put in a request without giving me any reasons for his refusal.

Abby, I admit I'm jealous, but how many other women would like their husbands riding around every night with another woman — just the two of them with a lot of boredom?

We have a good marriage otherwise, but I don't feel like lying awake nights for the rest of my life. What should I do?

JEALOUS

DEAR JEALOUS: Quit nagging your husband. And quit viewing that "cute, single, bright, funny" partner who works with your husband as a threat to your marriage. She's not. She's an intelligent, courageous, hard-working police officer who had to go through the same rigorous training as your husband in order to qualify for the job. And if you really believe there's a lot of boredom in police work, ask your husband if you can ride along one night, and you'll soon learn his job is no joyride.

DEAR ABBY: I am Jewish, 33, was raised in the Jewish faith and had the bar mitzvah when I was 13. However, I do not attend services except on the high holy days once a year. Last year I fell in love with a wonderful gentile girl. Connie is 29 and an atheist. I want to marry her, and out of respect to my parents I want to be married in our synagogue by the rabbi who has been a family friend for many years. The problem is, the rabbi can't marry us unless Connie converts to Judaism.

She is willing, and even agrees to raise our children in the Jewish faith providing I become a practicing Jew. She says if she takes the Jewish faith she will follow it, but she's not going to be the only Jew in the family. This means attending services every Friday night and observing all the holidays.

What do you think?

DAVID

DEAR DAVID: I think she's terrific. Grab her!

DEAR ABBY: You have printed letters from telephone operators, salespeople, secretaries, doctors, waitresses, etc., so how about one from postal branch managers and window clerks?

When someone calls on and says, "I am going on vacation; please hold my mail," please don't get mad if I ask for something in writing, as my station serves over 65,000 people, and I don't know everyone personally.

If there are two people ahead of you in line, please don't yell if I don't open another window. Chances are I don't have another clerk to wait on you; and my boss thinks I have too many employees as it is.

If you pound on the door after we're closed, please don't cuss me out if I don't let you in. Our business hours are posted, and you can't get into a bank after it is closed.

One more thing. If we have a blizzard this winter and nobody can get to work, please don't get mad if your delivery is late, or you don't get one. My mail carriers do not drive snowplows.

If the price of postage keeps going up, please don't blame me. I only work here. Be a pal, Abby, and print this.

OFF MY CHEST IN INDIANA

DEAR OFF: That's the least I can do for the Postal Service. Look at what it's done for me!
