Iran Jets Raid Baghdad

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Iranian warplanes raided Baghdad this morning, witnesses said, after Iraqi MIGs attacked seven cities in a 500-mile swath of Iranian territory. Both Persian Gulf oil giants also claimed victories on the ground, and an Iranian firing squad executed 15 people for espionage and treason.

Anti-aircraft gunners and surface-to-air missile batteries opened fire at the U.S. built Iranian jets for about 10 minutes and explosions were heard in the south and west of the Iraqi capital. But there was heavy fog and no immediate word on what was hit during the 6 a.m. raid.

It was the first Iranian air raid on Baghdad since Tuesday when Iranian Phantoms attacked a nuclear research center and an electric power plant in the Iraqi capital.

The Tehran command said this morning's raid came hours after Iraqi MIGs attacked the helpless people of Tabriz, Dezful, Khorramshahr, Abadan, Masjed-e Soleyman, Khorramabad and Sahneh. Some losses resulted.

Tabriz is about 100 miles east of the Iraqi border and 500 miles north of Iran's major port of Khorramshahr.

Tehran Radio said a firing squad in Susangerd, 100 miles north of Khorramshahr, executed "15 Iraqi intelligence service elements and traitors" before dawn after a trial conducted by Ayatollah Sadegh Khalkhali, Iran's sternest judge.

Iraq said Friday its troops were holding on to Khorramshahr and other "liberated territory" in Iran's oil-rich Khuzistan Province, but Iran claimed "complete superiority on all fronts" and said its air force was dropping propaganda leaflets on Iraq along with bombs.

The Iraqi command said its troops, spread along a 300-mile front as deep as 50 miles inside Iran, "continued to crush the enemy's counterattacks, maintaining a firm hold on liberated territory and inflicting heavy losses on the enemy."

Tehran Radio dismissed the claim and said Iranian forces reopened a strategic railroad reported cut by Iraqi forces near Dezful, 150 miles north of Khorramshahr, and that a train left Tehran for Ahwaz, the Khuzistan capital 70 miles north of Khorramshahr and the nearby refinery city of Abadan.

The enemy thought that the roads to our towns would be open to him, but the heroic resistance of the people of these towns has forced him to retreat. We have achieved complete superiority on all the fronts opened by the enemy, Iranian President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr said.

IRA QUEEN — Marla Phillips was crowned homecoming queen Friday night during halftime ceremonies at the Ira-McCauley football game. The high school junior is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Phillips. Robert Mitchell presented her with roses. Ira won the ballgame 58-12 (see game details, page 8-A) and faces tough Borden County next week at its homecoming. Queen runner-ups were Dee Dee and Lisa Dunn. (SDN Staff Photo.)

Weekend update

Brilab Resumes On Tuesday

HOUSTON, AP — The Texas Brilab trial, after three weeks of testimony, has recessed for a long weekend with the prosecution nearing the end of its case against House Speaker Billy Clayton and two Austin attorneys.

The trial will resume Tuesday and is expected to last at least three more weeks, with Clayton and lawyers Donald Ray and Randall Wood to testify in their own behalf.

The three, along with labor leader L.G. Moore, were indicted June 12 by a federal grand jury on charges of extortion, bribery, conspiracy and racketeering.

The indictments arose from the 10-month FBI undercover Brilab investigation that reached into several states and pointed to the Texas defendants for taking or agreeing to accept kickbacks in an alleged insurance scheme.

Moore will be tried later.

During the past two days, the prosecution has called three witnesses, but all of them eventually ended up praising Clayton for his honesty, fairness and determination to report or return all campaign contributions.

Fire On Cruise Ship

JUNEAU, Alaska, AP — Fire broke out aboard a luxury cruise ship early today, forcing all 300 people aboard to abandon ship for lifeboats about 120 miles off southeast Alaska, the Coast Guard said.

There were no reports of injuries aboard the disabled Dutch vessel, Princess of the Holland America Cruises. Jan Boeren, a spokesman for Holland America in New York City, said most passengers were Americans on a 30-day cruise. He said that based on information received in New York as of 4 a.m. PDT, there was no danger to the ship's passengers.

They are now abandoning ship, and the fire is spreading. Massey said. "We're looking at ways to get them off the vessel."

The SDN Column

A couple of friends, both of whom we hold in high esteem, called the past week "one destined by fate and circumstances for a recent local event and the other to register dissatisfaction with actions of a state without gazetteer."

Katherine Rodwane said she wanted to commend J. K. Ward for taking care of the practice dogs that almost perished during the heavy rains of last weekend.

I think it's great that he handled this situation the way he did, said Miss Rodwane, who also said she was letting some extra clipping of the SDN's story and picture of Ward and the practice dogs to a number of her friends and relatives who are interested in the practice dog town.

These little animals, once considered a nuisance to farmers and ranchers over West Texas, attract attention of more people than we realize, sometimes some of the requests made by the Texas Wildlife group, which held a rally here recently was for more information about our practice dog town.

Our other call came from Vico Birdwell, a local teacher. She is upset about the big hullabaloo over recent announcements about endorsement of candidates by the Texas State Teachers Association.

I just hope that people will realize that the decision to make these endorsements was made by the executive committee and not by any vote by the teachers themselves, said Miss Birdwell.

The way they make these announcements, a person might think that they have polled 250,000 teachers, and that simply is not the case, she continued.

We suggested that some of these endorsements might be handed down from the National Education Association, NEA, and Miss Birdwell agreed. TSA members now are automatically in the NEA as well and this has caused some dissatisfaction among many teachers, especially in Texas.

The week had its usual spots, however, Congress shut down and Cassius Clay, Muhammad Ali, got his mouth closed all within the space of a few hours. Now television can concentrate on football and the upcoming election.

But all was not joy on the local front. Dr. Robert L. Clinton's announcement that he plans to leave Western Texas College caught a lot of people by surprise.

"It is something like Tom Laney leaving the Dallas Cowboys," was one comment we heard.

Then we noted that the SDN was the first to remind that Dr. Clinton is "the only president WTC ever had."

Deposits Here In Slight Increase

Snider financial institutions recorded a slight gain in deposits, but loans were off slightly in their third quarter reports.

Deposits in the city's two banks and two savings and loan firms aggregated $100,000,258, a gain of a little over three quarters of a million over the last quarter. However, it represented a huge gain over the same quarter of last year when over all deposits amounted to $120,811,985.

The all-time record for deposits here was set in the first quarter of this year when the total hit $142,772,369.

Loans on the third quarter report amounted to $80,003,587, compared to $80,447,690 for the second quarter this year and $80,914,365 a year ago.

West Texas State Bank listed deposits of $43,292,969 for the third quarter this year, and loans of $26,182,574.

Snider National Bank had deposits of $47,610,247 and loans of $20,914,972.

Snider Savings and Loan had deposits of $29,663,278 and loans of $26,403,887.

First Federal Savings and Loan had deposits of $20,403,824 and loans of $11,902,154.

'Open House' Set At Grade Schools

Snider elementary schools will have their annual fall open house events Monday at 7 p.m.

Purpose of open house is to afford parents and friends of pupils to meet faculty members and staff in the rooms of their children.

The programs will begin in the auditoriums at all schools, except Northeast Elementary, and their parents and other visitors will go to the classrooms to inspect the classroom materials, view student work, and be briefed on expectations for the year.

Parents at Northeast Elementary will go directly to their children's rooms to meet the teachers and see displays of new library acquisitions, learning centers, and charts prepared by bus students.

Football fans are urged to attend the open house events with assurance that they can be back home in time to watch most of Monday Night Football.

Area Lakes Make Spectacular Gains

Runoff from late September rains has revolutionized the water outlook for this area of West Texas.

Reservoirs supplying cities from Sweetwater to Odessa to Snyder to San Angelo picked up 244,000 acre feet of water during the week of rainfall.

Cities supplied by the Colorado River Municipal Water District were the greatest beneficiaries in terms of volume, but Sweetwater had the greatest blessing in terms of relieving pressure.

Lake J. B. Thomas and Lake E. A. Spence together picked up 122,000 acre feet of water for the week. Of this, 39,200 acre feet flowed into Thomas, putting it to elevation 2133.40 and 11.3 per cent of capacity with a content of 94,000 acre feet. Vertical gain for the week was 11.4 feet, and from the low point of the year 123 feet. September gain was 42,300 acre feet for the year, 64,200 acre feet.

Lake Spence gained 83,170 acre feet and may pick up a little more during the week to reach elevation 1874.56. This is six feet higher than it has ever been before and with a content of 212,200 acre feet, it is 47.34 per cent of capacity. Vertical gain for the week was 11.3 feet, and for the year 22 feet. Almost as important as the volume is the improvement in quality of Spence water, which will come up about 50 per cent from the September inflow.

Moss Creek Lake and Powell Creek Lake, small reservoirs which fit into the CRMWD supply, picked up 2,000 acre feet for the week. Moss Creek gained half of it by raising seven feet to elevation 2132, making a content of 2,650 acre feet. This lake also serves as an on-line intermediate storage for water from Lake Spence to Big Spring. Quality of the water more than doubled. Powell rose 10 feet and gained 1,000 acre feet to reach 1,450 in storage. It will be pumped into Moss Creek Lake and the catch by the two lakes will result in a substantial electric power savings over water which otherwise would have had to be pumped from Lake Spence.

Lake Colorado City, which has been snake bit for years, jumped 15 feet to elevation 2073.80 and went 31.2 feet over the service spillway. This was the first time since 1969, when it flowed over the spillway for 24 days, that the lake had spilled. Friday it still had a foot to go, or some 2,000 acre feet, before leveling off. It contained 31,900 acre feet, not counting the spill, an increase of 16,400 acre feet for the week. The companion reservoir, Lake Champion gained seven feet and 16,400 acre feet to reach elevation 2065. It is only about half full. Both of these lakes belong to Texas Electric Service Co., but Colorado City gets its water from the lake bearing its name.

Sweetwater, which had a desperate situation with rationing all summer, got great relief. Lake Sweetwater gained 3,000 acre feet to a content of 4,000. Lake Trammel gained 2,000 to a maximum content of 3,000 acre feet, and best of all, Oak Creek Lake picked up 13,800 acre feet to put 20,000 acre feet in storage, about half the capacity.

San Angelo also had good news. The Twin Buttes lakes came up by 20,000 acre feet to leave 72,000 acre feet in storage, and Nasworthy gained around 2,000 acre feet, to 11,000 acre feet capacity, but 7,000 acre feet had to be released from Nasworthy to avert flooding.

Lake Spence, which has never had a month or a year of runoff such as resulted from the heavy rains, may pick up a couple of thousand feet more water, even considering bank soakage, but Paschal Odum, assistant general manager of CRMWD, doubted it would hit the 1875 mark. Spillway level is 1898, and the rated capacity is 488,000 acre feet.

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — Police used tear gas to disperse some 200 youths marching in what they called a "demonstration against the prohibition to demonstrate."

Fields, Ranges Recover Rapidly From Rainfall

"I've never seen anything like it," said Billy Roach, Scurry County extension agent, referring to recent rains.

"I have never seen as much rain go into the ground so fast and do so little damage," the county agent continued.

Roach said if anyone had told him earlier that area ranges and fields could be rejuvenated so rapidly, he would have thought they were dreaming.

Pastures have recovered miraculously. Stock tanks have been replenished. Fall grain has received a tremendous boost and there is little or no damage to fields, Roach said. Usually in this country when you get the volume of rainfall that fell here the last week in September, there is considerable erosion, but the fall rains this time came so slowly that little damage occurred.

The agriculture picture was not too pretty bright, are gearing up for the more than 3 million people expected to jam the fairgrounds before the giant State Fair of Texas closes on Oct. 19.

in some hicks on fall wheat crops. Roach said that army worms are eating the lush wheat in the fields.

Wouldn't you know that something like that would happen in the first ideal weather situation we've had for wheat in many years?" he asked.

Cool weather is expected to slow the army worms down, and of course, they will die off when a good hard frost comes. But in the meantime they are causing a problem.

Roach doesn't expect much activity in area cotton fields before frost. Virtually all cotton farmers are expected to wait for Mother Nature to do their defoliating for them this year. The cotton crop is going to be extremely light, and producers do not want to put any more money into what is going to be a disappointing harvest, to say the least.

Still the fall rains have been encouraging, and they have raised hopes for the coming year.

In Dallas...

State Fair Opens Today

DALLAS, AP — Officials are gearing up for the more than 3 million people expected to jam the fairgrounds before the giant State Fair of Texas closes on Oct. 19.

Gov. Bill Clements was scheduled to officially open the 95th State Fair of Texas today.

The theme of the 1980 fair is "Around the World in 80" and exhibits from foreign countries will be available for viewing.

Even the annual State Fair musical is draped in British history. Fair officials are boasting an almost sold-out production of "Camelot" — the musical fable of England's King Arthur — starring Richard Burton.

The Swiss Skyride will not be in operation this year. Two gondolas fell to the ground last year in an accident that killed one man and injured 17 people.

Fair officials said they shut down the ride because of pending lawsuits.

"The big towers used in the ride are still spaced out across the middle of Fair Park, but the wires that guided the cars are empty."

Officials said they stepped up promotional efforts to offset the skyride tragedy.

"We always do a lot of promotions," spokesman Bob Halford said. "But this particular year we just decided to do more of them."

Judge Orders Decrease In Prison Population

STARKE, Fla. (AP) — Alarmed by an "intolerable" level of prison violence including four inmate murders in five months, a judge has ordered the population of the Florida State Prison here cut by a third in 10 days.

The transfers may create hardship for the state's prison system, but the situation at Starke was an "emergency," Circuit Judge R.A. Green said Friday.

"The violence still continues. The present situation is intolerable," said Green. He ordered that 372 of the 1,122 inmates at the maximum-security prison be moved, and limited the prison population to 750 inmates. He said he was particularly alarmed by the slayings of four inmates at the prison since June.

No transfer plans have been made and the deadline "doesn't give us much time," said Prison Superintendent C.G. Strickland.

The state Corrections Department plans to appeal the order, which came in connection with a suit Green is hearing from nine inmates who contend they have been subject to cruel and unusual punishment at the prison and that the prison's staff is unable to protect inmates from each other.

The judge's ruling also followed by two weeks the release of a stinging report by a panel of four penal experts whom Green had appointed to investigate the allegations in the suit.

The report said there were not enough guards to keep the inmates under control, which was a major factor in the violence.

It also said fights generally were caused by disputes over homosexual partners.

Violence, the report said, "occurs routinely and predictably at meal times," when the staff shortage is at its worst.

The experts said staff training should be improved and better treatment should be given to mentally disturbed inmates.

Prison officials denied most of the charges in the report and called the panel's recommendations unworkable.

Green said he ordered the transfer because of the correction department's response to the report.

"The population cap is the result of the department's inability to comply with the committee's recommendations," he said.

The population limit might be raised if prison officials can show they can keep the inmates under control, Green

Woman Sentenced Eighteen Years

HOUSTON (AP) — A 27-year-old Houston woman was given an 18-year prison term Friday in the attempted murder of a teen-ager, now paralyzed, who was shot as he begged for his life.

Brenda Joyce Anderson was sentenced by visiting State District Judge C.V. Milburn of Odessa after prosecutors argued she tried to kill Edric D. McGee, 19, last February.

Assistant District Attorney John Holleman said McGee, carrying a sack of groceries to his father's house, asked Ms. Anderson for a cigarette while they waited at a downtown Houston bus stop.

The woman refused, kicked over the bag and became belligerent when McGee told her to pick up the groceries, Holleman said.

Ms. Anderson, who testified the teen-ager had assaulted her, pulled a gun on the teen-ager, shot him in the stomach and then chased him for several blocks where she shot him in the neck as he pleaded for his life, Holleman said.

The gunshot wounds paralyzed McGee from the neck down, he said.

He gave the state 30 days to submit a plan for putting committee recommendations into effect, and held out the possibility of more orders for changes.

Green also said that within 10 days he wanted a list of all inmates, their prison numbers, offenses and other prisons where they can be sent.

Shon Saxon, one of the lawyers for the inmates bringing the suit, said Green's order to reduce the prison population was "the first step toward dealing with the violence there, which is the whole point of the suit."

The prison, home of Florida's Death Row, holds 149 inmates awaiting execution in the electric chair.

President Takes FRB To Task For Increasing Interest Rates

NEW YORK (AP) — The political, if not economic consequences, of the recent increase in interest rates were underscored this past week as President Carter took the Federal Reserve to task for its recent tight-credit policies.

"It would obviously be much better for me as a candidate if interest rates were going down," he told a television interviewer while campaigning in Philadelphia.

Whether it would be much better for the rest of us — in economic terms — is something that is being debated these days.

On the one hand, it is feared that high interest rates will increase borrowing and business costs so much that the struggling economy may suffer a setback in its hoped-for recovery from the recession.

Said Carter, "I think the Fed ought to look at the adverse consequences of increased rates on the general economy as a major factor in making their judgment."

But the other side of the argument is that something must be done about inflation which has continued to rise at double-digit levels all year despite a business recession, which normally would be expected to slow inflation.

The nation's basic money supply — representing cash and funds in various checking and savings accounts — has been rising much faster than the Fed policy-makers would like.

Commercial banks, saying their costs of acquiring funds were higher because of rates in money markets, raised their prime lending rates to 13.5 percent or 14 percent this past week.

The prime is the rate banks charge on business loans to their best corporate borrowers. Smaller, less credit-worthy businesses usually pay one percentage point or more above the prime.

Although the prime does not apply to consumer loans, many economists consider it a guidepost of trends in all kinds of interest rates. When the prime changes, other rates often follow in the same direction. Home mortgage rates, for example, have been climbing in recent weeks and now stand at more than 14 percent in some regions.

Even at a 14 percent level, the prime is far below the 20 percent record high it reached in early April, and interest-rate analysts don't expect it to go that high in the current surge.

In other business developments this past week:

—The nation's unemployment rate declined in September to 7.5 percent, from 7.6 percent in August. It was the lowest unemployment rate since 7 percent last April.

—Wholesale prices fell 0.2 percent in September, their first drop in four and a half years, largely because of a change in the index's measurement of auto prices.

—A number of government and private economists said higher oil prices could result from the Iran-Iraq war if it continues for a long time.

—The government's index of leading economic indicators showed a 1.9 percent increase in August, following increases of 3.7 percent in July and 1 percent in June.

Captain Kangaroo On 25 Years

NEW YORK (AP) — It was just another day for the millions of kids in the audience, but for Captain Kangaroo, the broadcast was special.

Bob Keeshan's "Captain Kangaroo" premiered Oct. 3, 1955. Twenty-five years later, it's going strong.

"I will keep it going, the good Lord and CBS willing," Keeshan said in a recent interview, "and I must say, I have never felt more support from the network than I do now."

"The idea is," the 53-year-old Keeshan said, "if you can motivate a child, make the child feel good about herself, or himself, the child will learn."

IRS Auctions Possessions
 NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Flashy cars and diamonds belonging to entertainer Jerry Lee Lewis will go on the auction block to satisfy a tax lien, the Internal Revenue Service says.

IRS spokeswoman Eve Miller said Thursday the agency will auction 64 items, including five motorcycles and seven cars. Among them are a 1935 Ford sedan, two Lincoln Continentals and a 1954 Cadillac.

The property seized by IRS agents Feb. 27, 1979, at Lewis' 30-acre ranch in Nesbit, Miss., also includes two diamond rings, one with 16 stones totaling 14 karats. Watches, stereo equipment, coins, an organ and 22 guns will also be sold.

The IRS hopes the sale will cover $274,000 that Lewis and his wife, Jaren, owe for four years in back taxes, the spokeswoman said.

On Women's Rights...

Feminist Says Reagan Reactionary

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Republican presidential nominee Ronald Reagan is a "reactionary" who pretends he supports equal rights for women while backing anti-female issues, the head of the nation's largest feminist organization said.

"Mr. Reagan, frankly, is in a generation that cannot possibly understand the aspirations of young women," said Eleanor Smeal, president of the National Organization For Women. "I think he's clearly out of tune with our time."

Robber Takes $1500

A ski-masked bandit made off with approximately $1,500 from a man early Saturday from a man early Saturday who was preparing to make a nighttime deposit at a local bank.

A.M. Humphrey told police he was preparing to make a deposit at Snyder National Bank when he was accosted by a gun-wielding, ski mask-wearing assailant who relieved him of $1,400 in cash, plus another $130 in checks. The incident occurred about 1:23 a.m.

The robber was described as a white male, approximately six feet tall and weighing about 165 pounds, according to police reports. The reports indicate he was wearing a black ski mask, a pull-over blue shirt with possibly two-tone colors on the sleeve as well as Levi-type jeans and tennis shoes. He also carried a small gun in his left hand.

He was last seen going north toward the post office on foot.

"I don't believe in age discrimination and NOW has a very strong position on that.... But this person (Reagan) has a belief system that is quite dated when it comes to females. He has not kept pace with the times."

A statement on the current presidential campaign was one of the priorities of the 1,500 NOW delegates who opened their annual issues conference Friday. They also planned to discuss official strategies on the Equal Rights Amendment, abortion, lesbian rights and other feminist issues.

Although praising the Democratic Party for its pro-ERA platform and sharply criticizing the Republican platform, the so-called "moral majority" and Reagan — Ms. Smeal said NOW's official stand on the presidential campaign would be determined after a series of workshops and hearings.

A resolution on the matter was scheduled for floor debate at Sunday's closing plenary session.

She noted there was some sentiment among NOW members for independent presidential candidate John Anderson, who supports ERA and opposes the proposed "human life" anti-abortion amendment supported by Reagan.

She charged the Human Life amendment would set women, back to the 19th Century while the rest of the nation was entering the 21st Century.

Some of the delegates also might prefer to concentrate on congressional and state legislative elections where they believe feminists could be more effective, said Ms. Smeal, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

She said most feminists feel that Carter, although less objectionable than Reagan, should take a more "aggressive" stand on feminist issues during the remainder of the campaign.

"In the presidential race, his position on women's rights is costing Reagan some," she said. "In the polls, Carter shows about a 10 percent increase in women's support. If, in fact, that is a close race, I think it could be a determining factor. There is no question the candidates are courting us. I think they view us as a political factor."

She accused Reagan of "trying to double-talk right now because he sees the polls and he knows this issue is extremely popular. So he constantly says he's for equal rights, then starts all the 'buts.' My feeling is he has not fooled very many people and the question is, will this be a big enough factor in the campaign. It certainly will be a factor and we're determined to make it more so."

Westney Concert First On Fine Arts Schedule

A piano concert by William Westney on Oct. 14 will open the first season of the new Fine Arts Association at Western Texas College. Westney is resident artist at Texas Tech University and performed the Rachmanoff Concerto with the Tech Symphony Orchestra here last year.

Association, including the opening night performance of "Becket" by the WTC Theatre department on Nov. 13, a performance by the Southern Methodist University opera group on Nov. 21, and the Westney concert. Programs in 1981 are to include the WTC dinner theatre, The Texas Little Symphony from Fort Worth is tentatively scheduled to perform in the Snyder High School Auditorium. A sixth program is yet to be set.

Membership in the Fine Arts Association is open to the public, with a limited number available. Memberships cost $30 each. A $100 patron membership is also available, with $70 of that amount being tax deductible.

Inquiries about membership are invited, and interested persons are to call the WTC Fine Arts Division office at 573-8511, extension 234.

The new Fine Arts Association will not attempt to bring famous artists to Snyder, since it will be operating on a limited budget. However, there are many artists and groups available through colleges and universities which can be booked by the association at very little cost. Touring professionals performing in the area can also be added to the association's program.

financing, and this is the reason the patron memberships were included. The extra contributions would enable the association to secure more and better-known performers.

Dear Abby

No Sailing into Sunset With 'Someday' Man

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1980 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Six months ago I met a lovely gentleman while traveling with a tour group through Europe. He is 65 and I am 63. I've been a widow for a number of years, and he lost his wife a year ago.

All our waking hours were spent together, so consequently we came to know each other very well during those months. We discovered that we had just about everything in common and loved being together.

Neither of us believes in a "spend-the-night" relationship, yet the chemistry between us is unmistakably electric. So what do I do with a man who says he loves me, but prefaces every remark about marriage with a "maybe, someday, when and if?"

Abby, I care deeply for this man and he says he loves me, yet here we are, two lonely people with so much to give each other, while I'm in my house, and he's in his.

His concern with the calendar and making sure a proper length of time elapses before he remarries astounds me. How many years does he need? And how much time do we have left?

Sometimes I think I'm wasting my time on this "someday" man, and I should try to make a new life for myself while I'm still attractive enough to find someone who could fill this lonely void in my life. What do you suggest?

LIVING ON PROMISES

DEAR LIVING: Come Thanksgiving, talk turkey and let him know that all you want for Christmas is a little gold ring. And if this man who says he "loves" you isn't ready to make a commitment, tell him it was nice knowing him — then book another tour.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 28, recently married to a man who is 51. OK, so there is a rather "ugly" (to some people) story behind this. I went to work for him two years ago. We fell in love. He was married, but I did not break up his marriage. It was a marriage in name only for several years, but he saw no reason to get a divorce until after he met me. I will give him credit for being honest. He didn't ask me to sneak around and see him for an hour in hotel rooms. He simply told his wife he wanted his freedom, paid her off, and that was it. The day his divorce was final we were married.

So what's my problem? He has a 24-year-old daughter who hates my guts. This little snip calls me "Mom" every chance she gets when others are present. Abby, I am only four years older than she, and she calls me "Mom" just to make me seem older. I find this very irritating.

I'd like your opinion.

IRKED

DEAR IRKED: If I were you, I'd settle for "Mom."

DEAR ABBY: A young couple, who became my neighbors last year, have asked me to be the godmother of the child they expect in three months. (I am a childless widow in slightly better than moderate circumstances.) At first I was flattered, then I asked them exactly what a godmother was expected to do.

I was told that she usually starts a bank account for the godchild and keeps adding to it until the child is ready for college. Also, she remembers the godchild with gifts on his birthday, confirmation, Christmas, Easter and all gift-giving occasions. All the emphasis was placed on money and gifts, but what irked me was a reminder to remember my godchild in my will!

I may have done this on my own, but to be told that it was "expected" didn't set too well with me.

I have already been more than generous with gifts and favors for the young couple and would probably have done so for the child, but I feel as though I was chosen for this "honor" for mercenary reasons.

Now that I have agreed but have changed my mind, how do I graciously get out of it without causing hard feelings?

RECONSIDERED

DEAR RECONSIDERED: I can't guarantee that there will be no "hard feelings," but the best way to get out of it is to tell them that you have reconsidered, and think they should "honor" someone they have known longer.

Getting married? Whether you want a formal church wedding or a simple, "do-your-own-thing" ceremony, get Abby's new booklet. Send $1 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped (28 cents) envelope to: Abby's Wedding Booklet, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

In the early 1800s, phrenologists believed they could determine each function of the brain area by feeling the bumps on a person's head.

Threatens To Terminate Striking Bus Drivers

DALLAS (AP)—The board chairman of the Dallas Transit System says some of the striking bus drivers in this city will be fired starting Sunday if they do not get back behind the wheel.

Ken Milligan said Friday DTS will not seek court action forcing workers back to work.

City drivers and mechanics walked off the job Wednesday to protest salary and working conditions, crippling the city's only mass transportation service, and caused massive traffic snarls.

Milligan said the basic work agreement between DTS and its employees provides for dismissal of any employee who stays off the job for five consecutive days or more.

He said the striking drivers, mechanics and cleanup crews can retain their jobs if they return to work.

DTS Manager Cliff Franklin said Thursday the board of managers had authorized him to seek court action if the transit workers had not returned to work by Friday morning, but officials said 53 bus drivers reported for work in the face of the court threat.

Eight fewer than the previous day.

Officials with Amalgamated Transit Union Local 1338, which represents many of the idle bus workers, said they believed the job action was gaining strength, despite threatened counter-measures.

DTS officials said 72 of their 404 buses rolled for Friday commuters, more buses than were put on city streets Thursday or Wednesday despite a drop in the number of drivers who crossed picket lines and reported for work.

The drivers, mechanics and cleanup crews voted early Wednesday to stage individual work stoppages against DTS, to protest what they termed an "inadequate" 7-percent pay raise voted for DTS workers by the city council. State law prohibits strikes by public employees in Texas.

They Decided To Change History

"Now I start my personal plot to kill by pistol either Richard Nixon or George Wallace. I intend to shoot one or the other while he attends a champagne (sic) rally for the presidential primary." — Author Bremer, March, 1972. By Tom Tiede

BALTIMORE (NEA) — Until someone discovered a hidden portion of his assassination diary recently, Arthur H. Bremer was fading into obscurity here in the Maryland State Penitentiary. It's been eight years since the one-time Milwaukee busboy shot George Wallace and three others during a political canvass, and what with the passing of time, and a litany of other horrors to contemplate, many Americans have forgotten his presence.

And Bremer apparently wants it that way. Always a loner, in prison he has virtually become a caged hermit. He lives by himself in a cell, talks with no one, eats with no one, and has no friends. His keepers say he doesn't seem to like the world, and, as a result, "he would rather not be a part of it."

But he is a part of it. And a part that's appropriate to remember as political leaders again campaign for the presidency. Men like Bremer are as much a piece of the American political stump as balloons and lapel buttons. This year, as usual, the kooks and the killers are out there lying in wait.

In fact they may be out there as never before. Already a woman has tried to stab Edward Kennedy and a gang of self-proclaimed communists have pelted John Anderson with eggs.

The only thing that hasn't happened so far is gunsmoke. Yet nobody rules it out. By November the Secret Service agents who protect the candidates will have received 200,000 bits of suspicious information, including 1,000 direct threats. Perhaps 300 people will be considered actually dangerous.

At that, the 300 will be only part of the worry. Over the years, the Secret Service has compiled a list of more than 30,000 Americans who constitute a potential threat to political leaders. And as the leader's travel around during the campaign, agents will use the list to isolate some suspects.

But only some. For the list is by no means complete. Mostly, the 30,000 people have come to the government's attention because they have made oral threats, or written menacing letters. Real assassins are not normally so obvious. They are seldom identified until they are caught.

Unfortunately, they are usually not caught until it's too late. When Bremer stalked Wallace in a Maryland shopping center in 1972, he was merely a face in the crowd. His background was clean, he had made no threats. His loathsome intent was not known until after he had crippled his victim.

Bremer was apprehended quickly, to be sure. Not many political assassins in this country have escaped prosecution. Within three months Bremer was tried, convicted, and sentenced to 63 years. He is now serving a 53-year term in maximum security, and will be eligible for parole about 1982.

Some of his guards say Bremer doesn't mind the confinement. They believe he is so anti-social that the penitentiary is merely an extension of his walls he has erected around himself. Even so, jail has taken a toll on the gunman. For one thing he looks much different today — much worse.

A former inmate here says that Bremer, who was just 21 when he shot Wallace, is thin, pale, and losing his hair. He cultivates whiskers at various times, and they contribute to an appearance that is described as being "scraggly and unattractive." Relatives remark that he has lost his youth in a terrible way.

Bremer is not the only one of his kind nor learning that prisons are not nice places. Four other assassins (or would-be assassins) are residents of American penitentiaries. Two are men, two are women, and they've been incarcerated for a total of 32 years. Alphabetically, they are:

Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme — In 1975, the one-time disciple of cult murderer Charles Manson pulled a .45-caliber pistol from a leg holster and aimed it straight at President-Gerald Ford. The gun had four bullets in a clip, but the firing chamber was empty. Therefore, the only harm she did was to herself.

Now 31 years old, Miss Fromme is circumscribed at the federal women's prison in Alderson, W. Va. As these places go, Alderson is progressive — without walls — and inmates live in single-occupant cells. She is allowed a personal television, wide liberty with visitors, and a wardrobe of clothes of her choosing.

But she is otherwise segregated in a tight control unit designed for women who are a danger to others or who pose an escape threat. Further, since she has a habit of reproaching public officials by post, her mail is screened and censored. Officials say she complains about this, "and everything else."

Miss Fromme is thought to be uncooperative with prison authorities, often waspish with guards, and usually withdrawn. She has not publicly indicated any regrets regarding her assassination attempt. Sentenced to life imprisonment, she probably will not serve it. Her first parole hearing will be in 1985.

Sara-Jane Moore — She too tried to kill Gerald Ford, 17 days after the Fromme attempt, and she is also a member of the Alderson control unit. But the similarity between the women ends there. Mrs. Moore is 49 and twice divorced. She is reported to be outgoing and friendly in prison.

Not that she likes the place. Last year she and another woman climbed over a 12-foot security fence and tried to escape into the winter night. They hitchhiked toward the east, in very cold weather, with 6 inches of snow covering the earth, and were picked up within 30 hours near White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. Moore says she tried to escape because she doesn't think the nature of her crime will permit her parole. Prison officers disagree, but she insists the authorities are now using the escape to make her life even more miserable. She says her room in the maximum security unit is "like a corner of hell."

Mrs. Moore has repeatedly told reporters that she is not sorry she tried to kill Ford. Actually, she says her only remorse is that she did not succeed. Psychiatrists who have examined her think she had no clear reason for wanting Ford dead, but she declares she will eventually explain herself in a planned book.

James Earl Ray — Technically, Martin Luther King Jr. was neither a government official nor a candidate for office, but he was a major political leader when Ray struck him down in Memphis, Tenn., in 1968. The deed ranked among the most outrageous and controversial assassinations in U.S. history.

Ray pleaded guilty, but since his conviction he has maintained his innocence. Last year a congressional committee concluded that Ray at least did not act alone. Ironically, some of King's former associates are now trying to win a full trial for Ray, the idea being to clear up unanswered questions.

For his part, Ray, now 52,

The Snyder (Tex.) Daily News, Sun., Oct. 5, 1980 5A

waits impatiently in Tennessee's Brush Mountain State Prison. He tried to escape in 1977, so he is kept in special confinement where guards say he is a model prisoner. He cooperates with officers, and is popular with other inmates. Many white Southern prisoners think of him as a hero.

A longtime bachelor, Ray has been married in jail to a 33-year-old Knoxville woman who believes "with all my heart that he's innocent. The marriage has not been consummated, and if his sentence follows a normal course it may never be. Ray will not be eligible for parole until 1999."

Sirhan Bishara Sirhan — When Sirhan shot Robert Kennedy during a 1968 presidential primary, his counsel contended he was a "chronic and deteriorating schizophrenic" who had been under the influence of alcohol. The killer is now 34 years old, and he has not offered the public any other reason.

Other reasons are suspected, naturally. Sirhan's colleagues at California's Soledad prison say he's an Arab pawn. Inmates claim that he keeps a picture of PLO chief Yasir Arafat on the wall of his cell, and talks endlessly about the day he will "get out and deliver guns for Libya's Muammar Qadhafi."

That day may not be far off. Though Sirhan was originally sentenced to the gas chamber, the rap was changed to life imprisonment when the courts banned capital punishment. Since then, despite widespread protest, the California parole board has set Sirhan's release date for late in 1984.

So this man who may have changed history with violence will be free in four years. For now, his guards say he waits quietly in his own cell, and stays clear of all trouble. He also stays mum. "He never mentions Senator Kennedy," an officer says. "If he did we might have some real problems."

TO THE PEOPLE OF SNYDER

We wish to express a hearty THANK YOU to Snyder for being a town full of love and compassion.

In the past year since September of 1979 we have had occasions to live thru some of the worst and some of the best times of our lives. In a tremendous battle against cancer through chemotherapy, surgery, prayer, tears, laughter and love. Our lives have been blessed by God, friends and strangers.

Churches in town have prayed for Wanda and family, people have prepared food, we have received financial assistance and offers of assistance which range from baby sitting to running errands.

We have been overwhelmed by the concern shown and thank God every day for allowing us the privilege of living in Snyder. We cannot possibly remember every body that has helped in some form or another but there are many that we would like to thank specifically.

First of all Faith Baptist Church. A church led by God and filled with a love of God, our Church Home. Second Trinity Methodist Church whose prayers have been greatly appreciated.

Third, the teachers at East Elementary who hold a special place for their gifts and concern, and started an assistance fund. The boy Scout District committee, and all the others who have given and assisted.

We also want to give a special thanks to Dr. Wiman and staff for being the dedicated and concerned kind of medical team that have been a physical and spiritual blessing to us.

We thank the Hospital staff for not only doing their job but for that little something extra that makes hospital stays more bearable. Our thanks, prayers and love goes out to you all.

DELIVERY TEAMS—These RSVP members will be delivering meals to the homes of senior citizens who are shut-ins in a new program starting Monday. Seated are Lela Newton, Allen O. Snelgrove and George Montandon. On the second row are Lillian Wade, Estelle Gary, Santos Ortiz and Earl Cary. On the back row are Mrs. D. V. Merritt, John Wiman, Mae Brush and Evelyn Elliott.

Meal Deliveries To Start Monday

The Scurry county Senior Citizens Center will get its home meal delivery program underway on Monday.

Members of the Retired Senior Volunteers Program (RSVP) will work in teams to make the deliveries to senior citizens who are unable to prepare meals in their homes or to go to the Senior Center for the noon meal there.

The food will be prepared in the Senior Center kitchen and loaded into vans for delivery. One member of the delivery team will drive the van and the other will take the meal from the van to the door of the recipient. The RSVP delivery teams met for a briefing session Friday morning at the Senior Center. Directing the meeting were Marsha Krenek, RSVP director, and Gloria Shaw, Senior Center director.

This will be the first experience of the center in taking meals to shut-ins. Persons who are in need of this service may contact the office of the center for information. Persons interested in working with RSVP in delivering the meals are also invited to contact the RSVP office.

Miss Lillian Feeling Fine

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — President Carter made an emergency trip to Georgia on Friday to visit his hospitalized 82-year-old mother, one day after she broke her hip, and reported she "is feeling much better."

After Carter spent about 30 minutes in the Americus-Sumter County hospital talking with his mother, known affectionately as "Miss Lillian," and looking at X-rays, he told reporters "her heart is very strong. Very vigorous."

He returned to the hospital to have dinner with his mother and with his two sisters, Ruth Carter Stapleton and Gloria Carter Spann.

His younger brother, Billy, was also at the hospital and said just before the president emerged that the two had met for the first time in four months. Asked what they talked about, he said, "Mother."

Mrs. Carter tripped on a rug Thursday morning, breaking her hip. She was taken to the hospital and a two-hour operation was performed that afternoon.

Carter arrived at the hospital at about 5 p.m., having flown by helicopter from Warner Robins, where the presidential jet landed.

The president reported that his mother wanted to thank everyone for their telegrams, letters and flowers, but that she ask that no more flowers be sent because she needed room to breathe.

He reported that doctors said the operation had been "very successful" and that his mother was likely to be able to sit in a wheelchair by Saturday or Sunday, although she will remain immobilized for about three months.

The president said his mother was likely to be in the hospital for two or three weeks, but that she might be able to do some political campaigning by telephone from there.

Battling For Holiday Dollars...

Mail Order War Nears

DALLAS (AP) — Merry Christmas. Get ready for the Texas mail-order wars and if you don't have a pair of mink-trimmed, Malaysian crocodile cowboy boots, order them.

Neiman-Marcus, Sakowitz, Horchow and Cutter Bill are fighting for your holiday trade.

You don't have to be rich to shop these stores, but it helps. Three of the four retailers offer a version of the outrageous, Dallas-based Neiman-Marcus pioneered the idea with its 20-year-old tradition of His and Hers esoterica. Sakowitz of Houston entered the fray 12 years ago with "Ultimate Gifts."

Houston's Cutter Bill, a specialty western wear shop catering to the man who wants a Le Baron suit with a yoke, is the newest combatant with a three-year-old series of "Super Items." The Horchow Collection of Dallas, the only exclusively mail order outfit in the group, is also the only one that modestly claims all of its inventory is special, super, ultimate, etc.

Into the catalog wars. Neiman-Marcus' Christmas Book is not the most bizarre of the Texas buy-by-mail publications, but it may be the best known.

"The Christmas Book is probably the single most important thing we do each year," said Neiman's vice president Ron Foppen. "It's only one of our 19 catalogs, but it's the showpiece, the one people look forward to the most."

Begun in 1927 as a flimsy flyer, the catalog has become in 1980 a 101-page, glossy magazine produced at a cost of slightly less than $3 million and mailed to 1.3 million people in the U.S. and 139 foreign countries.

His and Hers gifts of the past have included: 1960, his and hers airplanes (his: a seven-seat Beachcraft Super G18; hers: a four-seat Beachcraft Bonanza); 1966, his and hers bathtubs ("luxurious 5-by-5-foot tubs crafted in the style of Louis XV, set in a laquered wood base with marble top and backboard, in porcelain with 24-carat gold-plated French rose scrollwork and control valves"); 1967, his and hers camels.

In 1980, he and she can buy a pair of ostriches. For only $1,500. And while he and she are at it, they can congratulate themselves on their social awareness, since Neiman's Christmas Book says that "Ecology is nothing to put your head in the sand about." A gift for the kiddies? Child's Dior nightie and robe, $83. China doll, $175.

Speaking of children, Robert Sakowitz, president of the 78-year-old family chain of department stores, instituted Sakowitz's "Ultimate Gifts" because — according to a company spokesman — he thought "Christmas, was getting so terribly involved and child-oriented that there should be some whimsical gifts for adults."

EMT Course To Be Offered

Emergency Medical Training will be offered through the Continuing Education department at Western Texas College in a 120-hour course starting Oct. 6.

Ray Dillard, assistant administrator of Root Memorial Hospital in Colorado City, will be the instructor.

Fees will be $85 per person and students will be required to purchase a textbook. Instruction will include 80 classroom hours and 40 clinical hours.

"Because We Care"

Another Day For Ali? It's Possible

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Leroy Diggs, a Larry Holmes sparring partner, was happy when the fight was stopped for Muhammad Ali as well as for his boss.

"If it hadn't been stopped and Ali had gotten hurt, Larry would have quit tomorrow."

Diggs said after Holmes retained the World Boxing Council heavyweight championship when the bout was stopped with Ali on his stool between the 10th and 11th rounds.

"So there will be a tomorrow in being for Holmes. There might be one for Ali also."

On ABC's Good Morning America television show several hours after his battling, the 38-year-old Ali said, "Don't write me off. They wrote me off after Frazier. They wrote me off after Norton. They wrote me off after Spinks. They wrote me off after the draft."

Ali, who was trying to win the heavyweight title for an unprecedented fourth time, said he might consider a bout against Mike Weaver, the World Boxing Association champion who defends against South African Gerrie Coetzee in South Africa.

But at a noon news conference Friday, Ali said of his fighting future, "We have not made our minds up yet. She (wife Veronica) said it's up to me."

In New York, Bob Arum, who has promoted Ali fights and is promoting the Weaver-Coetzee bout, was quoted as saying that anybody who promotes or licenses Ali to fight again should be jailed.

And in Johannesburg, South Africa, Weaver — who is preparing for a fight against Gerrie Coetzee — said he had no desire to fight Ali.

Jose Sulaiman, WBC president who was at ringside for Holmes-Ali, said certain conditions must be put on retired champions coming back. He did not specify what conditions he had in mind.

Ali paid the 30-year-old

Holmes a compliment by saying, "The way I look and the way he beat me, he's better than all of them (Ali's other opponents)."

The victory was Holmes' fourth title defense this year, a pace that is sure to slow for the champion who has indicated his career might not last much longer.

Promoter Don King promised a title shot to the winner of a scheduled 12-round bout between Leon Spinks and Bernardo Mercado Thursday night. Spinks stopped Mercado in the ninth round.

But Holmes wasn't making any such promises. "We don't know who is going to be my next opponent," he said, "because we're not thinking about fighting now."

Other possible opponents would include Gerry Cooney, ranked No. 2 by the WBC, who is fighting Ron Lyle Oct. 24, and third-ranked Michael "Dynamite" Dokes, who won on Thursday night.

Gridders Get Surprise Visit

KENEDY (AP) — A small private plane attempting to land at Carnes County Airport here Friday hit some power lines, plunging an entire section of town into darkness and halting a high school football game.

Initial reports indicated no one was injured in the crash, which toppled power poles.

A football game between Kennedy and Gonzales high schools was stopped by the darkness after three minutes, and game officials gave the game to Gonzalez, who had a 7-0 lead.

The airport is less than one mile from the football stadium.

Kenedy offered to replay the game, but was turned down by Gonzalez.

Westerners Finish 2nd At Conference Meet

MIDLAND — Western Texas College fired a 27-over-par 312 to lock with three other teams for second place in the 2nd Western Junior College Athletic Conference Golf Tournament held here Friday.

Host Midland College won the 18-hole tournament with a 312, ahead of Western Texas, Odessa and New Mexico Junior College. New Mexico Military Institute carded a 321 to finish fifth.

The results place WTC fourth, with 6 points, in the WJCAC standings. NMJC leads with 8, followed by Midland and Odessa with 7 each and NMMI last with 2.

Westerner Coach Bob O'Day stated he was not disappointed in the Westerners' play here, despite the high score.

played as tough as any course I have seen in the past 10 years," he said. "It played over 7,400 yards (1,500 yards longer than WTC's course) and the wind blew 30 miles an hour.

"I'm not making any excuses, but the scores were very high because of the length and the wind. Only 11 players out of 30 broke 80 and five of those scores were 79," he added.

Sophomore Chris Johnson led the team with a four-over-par 76, which also earned him runner-up medalist honors behind Midland's Steve Goetzmann (75). Phillip Jones carded a 79, while Jeff Wagner and Richard White came up with an 80 each; Gary Hodge had an 81, and Jeff Seger, an

85. "The medalist was three over par and we have quite a few excellent golfers in the conference this year," O'Day added. "We are two points back with three conference tournaments to go, one more next week (at Odessa Country Club) and two in the spring. WTC has been in this position in the past and I think we can bounce back before the year is over. Our sophomores need to play better and that is the key to winning the conference."

O'Day continued, "We go to Odessa next Friday and we'll work hard preparing for that tournament, starting tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 10. It will be an important tournament and we need to win it."

Trent Spikes Hermligh

HERMLEIGH — Trent's Gorillas defeated Hermligh here Friday night, 60-14. No information on the game was available.

The victory gives Trent a 4-0 record, 1-0 in District 2-1A six-man play. Hermligh falls to 0-4 and 0-1.

In other 2-1A play, Ira thundered past McCaulley 58-12 and Highland ripped Grady 54-8.

Borden County, 3-1 and 0-0, was idle Friday night. The Coyotes will host Ira next week.

John Paul Jones led Highland's victory by rushing for 182 yards on seven carries and scoring five touchdowns.

TAKES OFF — Ira's Wade Pierson scoots for good yardage against McCaulley in area six-man action Friday night. The Bulldogs won the contest, 58-12 and now boast a season record of 4-1, 1-0 in District 2-1A. McCaulley fell to 0-4 on the year. Next week, Ira travels to Gail to face 3-1 Borden County. (SDN Staff photo by John Dunnam)

Try Borden County Next Week...

Ira Mauls McCaulley

IRA — Ira's Bulldogs, off to their best start in several years, nailed McCaulley High School 58-12 in District 2-1A six-man action here Friday night.

The win gives the Dogs a 4-1 season record, 1-0 in conference play, while McCaulley falls to 0-4 and 0-1. Next week, Ira travels to Borden County for what should be the area's best matchup. Borden County, 3-1 and 0-0, was idle this weekend.

Ira bagged 36 first-quarter points, added 16 in the second quarter and another 10 in the third to win by the six-man 45-point rule with 8:56 still remaining in the third period. McCaulley got all of its dozen in the second quarter.

The Dogs got going early in the game when Scott Kesner scooted over from 23 yards out, James Crowder — perhaps the most outstanding player of the game — kicked his first of seven 2-point conversions.

Crowder also bagged Ira's second touchdown, running back a pass interception for 11 yards. He then tacked on the extra points kick.

Wade Pierson found Robert Mitchell on a 11-yard TD toss moments later to give the hosts a 22 point lead. Crowder again kicked the conversion.

Enter Crowder again, this time picking off another pass and returning it 63 yards to score. He kicked the conversion another time and Ira took a 32-0 first-quarter lead.

McCaulley scored first in the second period as quarterback Mike Wilkerson connected with Danny Benavides on a 3-yard toss. The PAT try was blocked.

The teams then traded touchdowns to complete the half. Pierson returned an Eagle punt 56 yards to score and Benavides crossed over for McCaulley on a 9-yard run. Crowder's kick after was good for Ira. The Eagle conversion was blocked.

Ira put the final touches on the half as Pierson found Crowder on a 26-yard pass play. Again, Crowder nailed the conversion through the uprights.

The Bulldogs made it a short game, scoring quickly in the third quarter on a 27-yard run by Kesner and on a safety when Crowder tackled a new Eagle quarterback in the end zone. Wilkerson had reportedly been pulled from the game by his family at half-time.

"There's not really a lot you can say about a game like this one," relayed Coach Tom Pierson. "We have to go to Borden County (Gail) next week. We're looking forward to it. We'll find out how tough we are then."

Friday's ballgame at Gail — Borden County's homecoming — will be held at 7 p.m.

'Big Mo' Plays Large Role In Game As...

Chiefs Tomahawk Tiger Effort, 21-14

By Bill McClellan

Sometimes a little momentum can make all the difference. But keeping the spirit up isn't easy. Friday's game between Snyder and San Angelo Lake View was a classic example.

Ahead 13-7 deep in the third quarter, Lake View appeared to have a solid victory in hand when quarterback Steve Hernandez hit teammate Jeff Galindo for a 58-yard touchdown strike. A penalty called the play back however, and instead of going in front 20-7, the Chiefs suddenly found "Big Mo" sliding in favor of the Tigers.

The hosts rallied back to score a touchdown of their own when fullback Perry Echols crossed over from 12 yards out on the first play of the fourth period. Glenn Parham's PAT kick was good, and Snyder led 14-13.

Enter momentum one more time. Lake View took good advantage of excellent field position late in the game, and keyed by a pair of Hernandez to Jimmy Marsh passes, the Chiefs went on to win, 21-14.

The loss gives Snyder an 0-4, 0-2 season and district record, while Lake View climbs to 2-3 and 1-2. Next week, Snyder travels to Lamesa, a 24-0 loser to Sweetwater, while Lake View takes an open date.

Despite the close score, Lake View dominated the contest. The Chiefs mounted 179 yards rushing and 150 passing for a total of 329 steps. Snyder, running out of the 'I' instead of the usual Veer formation this week, managed 147 of the ground and 39 via the airways, with almost all of that coming in the second and third quarters. In fact, the Tigers garnered only 5 yards total offense in the first and fourth periods combined.

The Chiefs scored first in the contest, as Hernandez found Eddie Sosa on a short pass that turned into a big play. Sosa's catch went for 55 yards, mostly on the ground, as Lake View lit the lights with 4:51 left in the opening quarter. Troy Butts' point-after kick was good.

On their next possession, the Chiefs advanced to the Tiger 10-yard line before a good Snyder defensive effort halted the drive. Butts attempted a 29-yard field goal, but it was wide.

Poor field position was no help to Snyder's sputtering offense, but the Tigers came alive to manage one of their better drives of the season midway through the second quarter.

Taking over at its own 19-yard line, the team marched 81 yards in eight plays, scoring on a beautiful run by quarterback Mike Roemisch from 42 yards out. The drive was born off of a 5-yard penalty which got Snyder its initial first down of the game, and on another 14-yard run by Roemisch. Parham kicked the PAT good to tie the contest at 7-7.

The teams traded a series of downs before Lake View's passing game began to shape into a war dance. Hernandez began teaming with the district's second-leading receiver, Marsh, and the Chiefs' momentum grew with every completion. Beginning at their own 49, the visitors moved on three straight pass plays to the Tiger 19. A fourth pass fell incomplete, and with only 19 seconds left on the clock, it appeared time would run out.

Hernandez sighted favorite target Marsh at the Tiger 9 seconds later, and hurried his teammates to the line for a last play. He called for a roll-out pass, zipping the ball to Marsh again. The Chief wide receiver tucked it in at the 6, reached the 3 as the buzzer sounded, and crashed into the end zone with the clock reading 0:00. Butts' kick-after failed, but momentum followed Lake View into the dressing room nevertheless.

Snyder literally ruled the third period. The hosts mounted 96 yards in the quarter, while holding Lake View to 26. Twice the Tigers got inside the Chief 35-yard line only to come up empty on fourth down.

It was between those two occasions that Lake View threw the 58-yard touchdown pass, only to have it called back by penalty. On the play following the miscue, Matt Davis helped turn momentum back in Snyder's favor by intercepting a Hernandez toss.

A second Lake View drive was halted abruptly on a fumble recovery by Neil Evans. Evans' alert play gave the hosts field position at the Snyder 46, setting up their final TD of the night.

On first down, Roemisch ripped to the opponent 38-yard line. Two runs by Echols moved the line of scrimmage to the 33, and Roemisch combined with Dale Jenkins for an 18-yard pickup to the 15 moments later.

With that all-important momentum clearly in hand, Snyder scored two plays later. Echols belted out three yards on the last play of the third period, and on first down from the 12, he found clear sailing on a trap play to score. Parham's kick, with 11:56 still left in the game, was good enough for a 14-13 Tiger lead.

Lake View didn't waste any time regaining "Big Mo", however. A 28-yard scamper by Butts gave the Chiefs possession on the Tiger 33 following Snyder's kickoff. But as strong as the drive began, it ended, and though the visitors finally reached the 4-yard line, they were unable to take the ball over. Derek Rushing was called in to attempt a 21-yard field goal, but his effort was wide right, and Snyder had held again.

Historically, momentum should have shifted with the Tigers then. But history can be cruel, too. After holding the Tigers to a punting situation, the Chiefs were on the march again.

A 6-yard run by tailback Garry Gonzales and two 12-yard receptions by Marsh put the Chiefs at the Snyder 13-yard line. Another pass failed, but undaunted, Hernandez came up with the needed big play on second down as he raced to the 1-yard line. From there, the visitors took the ball over - Gonzales from a yard out.

Gonzales also ran the two-point conversion after taking a wide pitchout from Hernandez.

Snyder's attempts at a comeback came up empty. Though 3:57 was left in the game and a good runback on the kickoff by Parham gave them field position at the 46, the Tigers fumbled the ball away on first down. Twice more Snyder took over possession in the game, but failed to move the ball either time.

Rutigliano Admits Worry Concerning Broncos Defense

By The Associated Press

With Brian Sipe having just picked Tampa Bay's defense to shreds, and with Denver's injury riddled secondary having been picked clean by New England's Steve Grogan, you'd think Sam Rutigliano would be expressing confidence his Cleveland Browns can beat the Broncos Sunday.

Not so. "Defensively, I think they're probably better than Tampa Bay," Rutigliano said, reflecting back on the Browns' 34-27 victory over the Buccaneers last Sunday, in which Sipe hit on 22 of 32 passes for 318 yards and three touchdowns.

"Denver's been together longer and they've been playing the 3-4 a long, long time," Rutigliano added. That 3-4 didn't help much against Grogan, the American Conference's top-rated passer, who completed 17 of 24 passes for 209 yards and a touchdown in the Patriots' 23-14 Monday night victory over the Broncos.

Sipe, Denver Coach Red Miller observed, "has been hot and cold this season, but he's hot right now. He completed 13 straight passes against Tampa Bay in the second half, so we're going up against still another good quarterback."

And they're going up against him with injuries to two key players—linebacker Joe Rizzo and free safety Bernard Jackson.

Also on Sunday it's San Francisco at Los Angeles, Baltimore at Miami, Cincinnati at Green Bay, Detroit at Atlanta, New England at the New York Jets, Pittsburgh at Minnesota, St. Louis at New Orleans, Seattle at Houston, Washington at Philadelphia, Buffalo at San Diego, Kansas City at Oakland and the New York Giants at Dallas. On Monday night, it's Tampa Bay at Chicago.

Not only was the Denver defense hurting last Monday night but the offense was, for the most part, nowhere. The Broncos tried to run on the Patriots all night, with very limited success. That, at least, has Rutigliano feeling good.

"Red likes to run the football," he said of Miller. "But very, frankly, that's what Tampa Bay wanted to do. We've been geared against good running football teams."

'Stang Pair Still Unbeaten In 2-4A

Andrews and Sweetwater remain as the only teams unbeaten in District 2-AAAAA play following Friday night gridiron action.

Andrews topped previously undefeated Pecos 31-20 and Sweetwater smashed Lamesa 24-0.

In other games, San Angelo Lake View, 1-2, handed Snyder its second district loss, 21-14 and Fort Stockton, 1-2, kayoed Odessa Ector, 0-2, by a score of 21-0. Next week's action calls for Andrews to travel to Ector. Snyder to go to Lamesa, Monahans to host Fort Stockton, and Pecos to entertain Sweetwater. San Angelo Lake View is idle.

Andrews, ranked No. 8 in the state, is now 5-0 on the year, while unrated Sweetwater is 4-1. The pair will collide Nov. 7 at Andrews.

White Looking Strong; Moving 'Pokes Well

IRVING (AP) — Danny White has become the hottest quarterback in the National Football Conference and he's doing it his way.

In his first year as a starter following the retirement of Roger Staubach, White is continuing the Dallas Cowboys winning ways but with a different style.

His early season numbers are impressive.

White has completed 66.7 per cent of his passes, seven of which have gone for touchdowns for a 102.1 per cent rating.

By comparison, at this time last year Staubach had completed 57.2 per cent for six touchdowns and a 90.0 rating.

"The receivers are getting with Danny now," said Cowboys special assistant Ernie Allen, as Dallas prepared for Sunday's meeting with the New York Giants. "And his moving the team more differently than Roger did."

"Roger would scramble and try to salvage a loss out of a trap," said Allen. "Danny won't take the trap. He throws the ball way." Allen said "Roger had a phobia about throwing interceptions. Danny tends to gamble a little more and will probably throw more interceptions."

The Cowboys, now 3-1, were 13-point favorites over the Giants, who are 1-3, in the soldout 3 p.m. matchup at Texas Stadium.

White will be playing against the Giants with a broken finger on his left hand. Luckily for the Cowboys, White is right-handed.

A splint has been placed on the finger and White says it shouldn't be any problem.

Pro golfer George Burns was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., and played football at the University of Maryland.

Drought Drowned By Heavy Rains

WATER IN A STRANGE LAND—Pastures sitting in water are a strange sight in West Texas. People will remember 1980 for two things—the drought and the floods. The hot, dusty days far outnumbered the wet ones, but by the end of September, the rainfall of 23.28 for Snyder had exceeded the annual average by more than three inches. Pastures that looked dead a month ago are now carpeted with a lush, green growth. (SDN Staff Photo by John Dunnam)

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Rains over much of Texas the past week put a dent in drought conditions that have existed since last spring, said Dr. Daniel C. Pfannstiel, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

West Texas received heavy rains, but much of East Texas and the High Plains remain dry, Pfannstiel said in his weekly crop report.

The rains will boost small grain planting and also will allow additional grazing from warm-season grasses before frost, he said. Livestock producers may be able to get a badly needed additional hay cutting in some areas. The rains also helped fill some stock tanks.

Some areas were hurt by the rains, Pfannstiel said. Heavy rains from San Angelo to Wichita Falls caused widespread flooding, and wet weather halted cotton harvesting in the Brazos Valley of South Central Texas.

In parts of the High Plains, corn is harvested and harvesting of sorghum, sunflowers and soybeans is in full swing. Some early cotton also is being harvested, with low yields.

Planting of winter vegetables continues in the Winter Garden and Rio Grande Valley, where pickle harvesting is in progress, Pfannstiel said. Sweet potato and watermelon harvesting continues in East Texas.

Supplemental livestock feeding remains widespread over the state due to lack of grazing although conditions should improve, Pfannstiel said. Auctions continue heavy in East Texas where dry conditions persist.

Reports from district Extension directors showed the following conditions.

PANHANDLE: A short cotton crop is maturing rapidly. Corn harvesting continues and is complete in some counties. Sorghum and soybean harvesting continues. A fourth cutting of alfalfa is under way in some areas. Wheat plantings vary widely.

with some farmers still waiting for rain. Some stockers are moving into the area in anticipation of wheat grazing.

SOUTH PLAINS: Cotton bolls are opening, and harvesting of dryland cotton is increasing. Corn harvesting is winding down in some counties while harvesting of sorghum, soybeans and sunflowers continues. Some wheat planting continues, with rain needed in dryland areas.

ROLLING PLAINS: Rains from 5 to 12 inches over the area brought a welcome relief from drought conditions. Small grain planting will begin as soon as fields dry. The first bale of cotton has been ginned in most counties but most of the crop won't be harvested until after the first frost. Cattle feeding continues.

NORTH CENTRAL: Most of the area remains dry despite 2 to 3 inches of rain in some locations. Small grain planting should increase where rain fell. Cotton harvesting continues, with poor yields. A poor peanut harvest is expected. Cattle feeding continues due to poor grazing.

But the practice is encouraged at the Detroit Science Center, where Angela Johnson is discovering that heredity determines whether you can roll or fold your tongue. ### Questions about milk

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB: — I would like to hear your comments on Sweet Acidophilus milk I had been having trouble with diarrhea off and on for many years. I've had some very bad experiences in hospitals and no one seemed to find my answer.

Then one day several years ago we found an article in our mail about Sweet Acidophilus milk for persons who had a great deal of diarrhea problems. Immediately we looked for it in the stores and it has proved to be almost a perfect preventive for my problem. I'm 77 years old. Is this good for me and are there any side effects?

DEAR READER: — This product has been widely advertised to eliminate the problems of milk intolerance because of an

Preparations Underway Now For Homecoming

Preparations are even now underway for Snyder's homecoming, an event observed only once every two years.

This year's homecoming will be Thursday and Friday, Oct. 16 and 17, and will include the crowning of a homecoming queen and a parade.

School officials report the parade will be Thursday the 16th. The parade will form in the parking lot of Varsity Square Shopping Center. Included in it will be floats, cars, and a special section for all youngsters who want to decorate their bicycles for the occasion. It will be led downtown by the Snyder High School band.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m., and immediately after it is over a short pep rally will be held on the grounds just west of the courthouse.

Entries in the parade will be judged. The first place winner will receive $50. The second-ranking entry will be awarded $25 and the third prize award is $15. Prizes will also be awarded in the bicycle contest.

A pep rally will also be held

Three Mishaps, One Theft

A theft and three traffic accidents have been reported to Snyder police.

Reporting the theft was Wanda Kenner. She told of finding Don Cheek someone removed $140 from her purse while she was at Leisure Lodge. That matter was reported at 4:35 p.m. Friday.

A traffic accident at the intersection of 24th St. and Ave. O sent one person to Cogdell Memorial Hospital. Reports show the accident involved a 1968 Chevrolet driven by Alan Richard Roberts and a motorcycle driven by Sterling Dale Williams. Williams, 2301 Ave. O, was taken to the hospital by Palmer EMS and is listed in satisfactory condition. The accident occurred about 5:40 p.m. Friday and was investigated by Don Whittenburg.

Whittenburg also investigated a two-car collision at 8:45 p.m. in the 2500 block of College Ave. Involved in it were a 1974 Chevrolet driven by Raymond Earl Smith and a 1976 Ford driven by Miguel Quiros.

The final accident occurred early Saturday morning at Fina Truck Stop. There, a parked 1977 Subaru owned by Josephine Shaw was struck by a vehicle which left the scene. The accident was reported at 1:50 a.m. and was worked by Keith Ward.

Friday the 17th at 2:05 p.m. at Snyder High School gym. The public is invited to it, too. Tiger Band Parents will hold a turkey supper preceding the football game that night. The supper will be served from 5 p.m. until 7:30 p.m.

The game will be at 8 p.m. and will pit the Snyder Tigers against the Pecos Eagles. During the game's halftime activities the homecoming queen will be crowned.

To conclude the homecoming festivities, the Snyder High School student council is sponsoring a dance in the high school student center. The dance will begin immediately after the game and will continue until 12:30 a.m. Admission will be $1.50 per person, and tickets may be purchased at the door.

At high school, nominations for homecoming queen will be made Monday the 13th. The election will be Thursday the 16th.

Rumor Doesn't Deter Executive

DETROIT (AP)—Bendix Corp. Chairman William Agee says he has no regrets that he publicly dismissed company rumors about a romance with a woman executive, comments which brought them unwanted national attention.

"I'll always hold employee meetings. I believe very much in candor," the 42-year-old executive said. "I only hope over time that more companies can be as candid."

Agee last week told a meeting of the suburban Southfield-based company's 600 headquarters employees that Mary Cunningham, 29, new vice president for strategic planning, was promoted because of her credentials and not because of their friendship.

Advocates Laying Down Of Arms

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Roman Catholic Auxiliary Bishop Thomas Gumbleton of Detroit says it is in the Catholic tradition to ask Americans to lay down their arms before the Soviets.

He noted the church's history of martyrdom and said, "We have to do what is right regardless of the consequences."

Gumbleton, 50, is president of Pax Christi, a nationally known pacifist and an outspoken critic of the arms race. The clergyman was one of three to visit the American hostages in Iran last Christmas.

Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation in 1863.

One Hurt In Accident

A Snyder man received what were thought to be minor injuries late Saturday morning in a two-car accident at the intersection of East Highway and Ave. F.

Taken from the scene to Cogdell Memorial Hospital was Fred Russell. Making the transfer was Palmer EMS.

Russell was a passenger in a 1962 Chevrolet driven by his wife, Carrie Strugeon Russell, 84, of Rt. 2, Box 229. Their vehicle was in collision with a 1974 Buick driven by Marion Leroy Hammond, 42. The Russell car also struck a telephone pole. Moderate damages were reported to the vehicles.

The accident occurred about 10:50 a.m. and was worked by Kerry Fritz.

MR. AND MRS. TERRY DUNHAM

McNulty, Dunham Exchange Vows

Miss Belinda Jane McNulty became the bride of Terry Lynn Dunham in a double ring ceremony Aug. 15 at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Ben Warton officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ben McNulty, 3013 38th Street, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dunham, Grandfield, Okla.

A 15 taper candelabrum decorated with greenery and blue flowers was featured at the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a full length soft Dacron organza gown graced with Venice lace on the bodice, with an embroidered neckline and an empire waist. The lace-trimmed full skirt flowed gently to a chapel length train. Her chapel length veil fell from a headband of Venice lace and pearls.

The bridegroom wore a three-piece gray suit and a boutonniere of blue baby's breath and white carnations.

Miss Jeanie Sue Nicholson of Eldorado served as maid of honor. She wore a floor length white chantilly lace dress lined with baby blue point d'Esprit softly gathered to the bodice, with a rounded neckline and long sleeves. A baby-blue satin belt completed the outfit. Small white roses and blue baby's breath decorated her hair. She carried a long stem blue rose.

Gary Wayne Dunham of Grandfield, Okla., served his brother as best man, while Ben McNulty Jr., the bride's brother, was usher.

Mark Ham was soloist with Barbara Perkins accompanying on the organ. Music selections included "Evergreen," "Wedding Song," and "Twelfth of Never."

A wedding reception followed the ceremony in the garden room of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over a blue underlay. The three tiered white wedding cake was topped with blue satin wedding bells, while white Roman columns and blue flowers separated each tier. An arrangement of carnations and roses on a crystal pedestal, a crystal punch bowl and two doves holding golden rings completed the bride's table.

Ms. Diane Dunham presided at the table. Out of town wedding guests were from Grandfield, Eldorado, and Lubbock.

The bride is a Snyder High School graduate and is attending Western Texas College.

Her husband is a graduate of Grandfield High School and is employed by Snyder Well Service.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple are residing in Snyder.

BLANCHE'S BLABS

Promote a four letter word: "work"—for health, wealth and happiness.

Work can bring these qualities if the laborer enjoys the work.

Even "workaholics"—those people who seem to live to work—are mostly happy.

Those individuals whose labors challenge, invigorate and provide a sense of accomplishment are especially happy.

There is a difference, of course, between "must" work and "want to" work.

The most meaningful and abundant human productivity comes from people who desire to work and enjoy their work.

However, there are still some hopeful options for those individuals not involved in their favorite work.

A change of career—or even a change in environment—can make all the difference.

If changing positions is too drastic, a change of attitude about work offers a more subtle route.

Successful attitude change takes a desire to change, a belief that the individual controls his own emotions, and then, patience to learn to understand and direct emotions, thoughts, and, eventually, attitudes.

October Is GS Calendar Month

The Scurry County Girl Scouts will be knocking on your door this month during their annual Girl Scout calendar sale, according to Peggy Vernon, Snyder Unit Service Chairman for Unit 46 in Area III.

The calendars show various activities of scouting in full color pictures. Cost of the calendar is $1.

Mrs. Vernon pointed out that 50 cents out of each calendar sold will stay in Snyder for the local girl scout troops.

"When we sale a calendar for $1, 50 cents will stay right here," the unit leader said. "This will go toward buying supplies, badges and fun things—none of it will go to the council (Area III council)."

To help patrons easily identify the girl scouts selling calendars, each scout will be attired either in full uniform or a girl scout shirt, or will wear the official pin.

Persons interested in purchasing a calendar but have not been contacted by a scout, may contact Mrs. Vernon at 573-3122.

4-H Challenges Youths During National Week

COLLEGE STATION—Seeing new knowledge and skills to become better citizens and leaders—that's the challenge extended to all youth by the theme of this year's National 4-H Week. "Expanding Horizons," which begins today (Sunday) through Saturday.

More than five million youth between the ages of 9 and 19 are currently enrolled in 4-H throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam and the Virgin Islands. Texas boasts a 4-H enrollment of some 140,000 boys and girls.

"4-H is the nation's largest out-of-school educational youth organization," points out Dr. John T. Pelham, state 4-H and youth leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H in Texas.

"4-H continues to offer unique learning experiences for youth through its time-tested 'learning-by-doing' approach," says Pelham. "4-

Hers become involved in a variety of practical, real-life activities that range from agriculture and clothing to health and wood science. Programs vary according to youth needs and community resources.

The theme, "Expanding Horizons," challenges all 4-H members to seek new knowledge, acquire life skills and build on personal strengths. Members are encouraged to strengthen their citizenship and leadership abilities and to assume positive roles in a free democratic society, notes the 4-H leader.

"The 4-H program involves youth from all social and economic backgrounds and gives them an opportunity to key in on such vital issues as energy conservation, better human nutrition, wise use of natural resources and combating inflation. In addition, 4-H helps youth gain knowledge and skills for their future careers," adds Pelham.

While 4-H is still a mainstay with rural youth, participation of urban youth has tripled in the past 10 years. Today, 23 percent of all 4-H members nationwide live in suburbs or cities of more than 50,000 population. Nineteen percent live on farms, 40 percent live in small towns, and 18 percent live in towns and cities of 10,000 to 50,000 population.

The 4-H program garners much of its support from a legion of volunteer leaders who give unselfishly of their time and resources to help youth grow and develop, points out Pelham. More than a half million volunteer leaders across the nation play a key role in the total 4-H program; almost 22,000 of these are in Texas.

Texas boasts a total of 1,973 organized 4-H clubs and 886 special interest clubs. The

Campbell Cookbooks On Sale At Dallas Fair

Five of America's favorite cookbooks, published by Campbell Soup Company, is available for the first time at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas which opened Friday and will run through Oct. 19.

The cookbooks, ordinarily sold only by direct mail, will be offered at the Campbell Cookbook Center, booth six in the tower building. The low prices and foolproof recipes recommend them as prudent gifts and useful additions to any home kitchen.

Four of the books will be sold at $3.95 each. The fifth, "The International Cook," published this year, will sell for $4. Sturdy, handsome and richly illustrated, all of the books contain dependable and time-saving recipes developed by the company's famous test kitchens.

The newest book is a collection of recipes from 30 countries adapted to American lifestyles, equipment, time schedules and available ingredients. Color photographs of exotic foods and romantic settings accompany the 142 recipes. Chapter introductions contain fascinating food lore and each culinary region has its own glossary of foreign food terms.

The other four books are "The Creative Cook," "Campbell's 100 Best Recipes," "Most For The Money" and "Cooking With Soup."

Miss Hildebrand Wins In Twirling

Miss Shelby Hildebrand, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hildebrand, 2101 42nd, won top twirling honors at the 27th Annual West Texas Twirling Festival of the National Open Contest in Lubbock Sept. 27.

Snyder's current "Our Little Miss," Miss Hildebrand, won a first place trophy for her contest solo routine, a third place medal for basic strut and a fourth place medal for military strut.

She has taken contest twirling lessons for one year from Sandi Pavlik.

Mrs. Pavlik has opened registration for her October twirling classes.

Originally from Dodge City, Kan., Mrs. Pavlik has taught for 15 years and has taught for six. As a licensed cosmetologist, she has also taught modeling and make up classes.

Mrs. Pavlik has won approximately 200 twirling awards, was the 1974 Miss Teenage Kansas with twirling as her talent, and has modeled for clothing and jewelry store commercials in her hometown.

Interested persons in twirling classes should contact Mrs. Pavlik at 573-3245.

Area III Girl Scouts Plan October Events

October is Indian Summer at Camp Boothe Oaks with fall-its' flurry of leaves scattering through the events taking place there in its rustic setting.

Junior badge workshop is this weekend and is being attended by over 100 Junior Girl Scouts and their leaders. Each girl will earn "troop camper" and one of four other badges to be offered: "outdoor cook," "rambler," "gypsy," or "my camera." Debbie Gunn of Big Spring is directing the event, and assistance is provided by adult consultants and Senior Girl Scouts.

Abilene Brownie Day has been set for Oct. 18 and Nov. 3 for brownie troops and their leaders. The brownies are invited to visit the West Texas Council camp. They will bring sack lunches and sit-ups. Morey the mouse wide game will help them have more fun.

Junior leader, daughter of Gunn, is also scheduled for Oct. 18, and is an opportunity for the junior troop leader and her daughter.

All troops will have an opportunity to plan their own program and to "do their own thing." The fee is 25 cents per girl and registration must be in by Oct. 13.

Family weekend at Camp Boothe Oaks begins Oct. 31 at 6 p.m. with a family picnic supper. There will be a special Halloween party Friday night and a closing campfire Saturday evening. Family weekend is for any registered Girl Scout and family. The fee is $2 per person to cover cost of the meal. Reservations must be made by Oct. 24.

BRIDGE

Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag

Opposing negative doubles

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag

If you play in bridge tournaments you will find that many of your opponents use the double of your overcalls for takeout, not for penalty.

Most of the time this double will be made with a fairly weak hand, as little as six or seven HCP at the low levels. If used against jump overcalls the minimum will be greater.

In general the fourth hand is likely to have support for his partner's suit and he should take immediate action to compete.

The general rule here should be to give weak single raises, preemptive jump raises and to use the redouble with good hands.

We will show some illustrations after the bidding goes: one club-one spade-double.

1. You hold: S-xxxxxH-A x D-A Q 8 4 C-Jxx Redouble. Your side probably has the balance of power. You plan to compete to three spades on your own and if your partner shows signs of life you want to try the spade game.

2. S-QxxxH-JxxxxD-Axxx. Bid either three or four spades right away, depending on what sort of overcalls your partner makes. Change the ace of diamonds to the king and you should jump to three spades with any partner.

3. S-xxxH-QJ10xD-xx C-Axxx. Bid two spades. Sometimes you get your opponents into a bad heart contract.

4. S-K10xH-AQxxxD-AxxC-xx. Redouble. You will bid four spades next and then will double any adverse five bid. There is no point bidding your nice heart suit. The negative doubler surely has four hearts and not much of a hand.

5. S-xxH-xxD-AK98xx C-xxx. Bid two diamonds to get a lead later on.

To finish with negative doubles, remember that a negative double of a major suit almost always shows four cards of the other major—a negative double of a minor suit shows at least 4-3 in the two majors. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Princess Pleads

Guilty To Theft

LONDON (AP)—Princess Noura Al-Saud of Saudi Arabia pleaded guilty to shoplifting costume jewelry worth less than $43 from a London department store. She was fined $1,800 and $96 in legal costs.

Police told the court Thursday the 28-year-old princess was carrying $840 in her purse at the time of the theft, and is married to a Saudi businessman who earns $29,000 a month.

The accused's relationship in the Saudi royal family was not stated.

CLASSIC JACKET—Classic good looks are a natural with this gold-buttoned navy flannel blazer—a must for any wardrobe. A dreamy cabled angora sweater is a perfect counterpoint to the delicate lace collar blouse.

Nonprescription Medications

Keep Costs Lower

WASHINGTON—A health economist estimates the United States would need 56,000 more doctors if two percent of the people who now rely on nonprescription medicines to treat minor illnesses were to consult a physician instead.

Dr. Simon Rottenberg, professor of economics at the University of Massachusetts, also calculates that the cost of adding that many physicians to the health-care system would run at least $5 billion for medical education alone.

His findings were reported to an academic symposium sponsored by the Proprietary Association, a trade group representing U.S. manufacturers of non-prescription medications.

Automakers aren't the only ones turning out a product that is a sluggish mover on the American market.

There is also the U.S. Mint. The gold pieces it began offering for sale in July have not proved the huge success that might have been expected with a supposedly gold-hungry public.

gold. Mail order may be a practical merchandising method for reaching the mass market, but it takes considerable romance out of dealing in a precious commodity.

consult teacher

If your child is having trouble adjusting to the routine and to the challenge offered in school, back off and take an objective look at yourself. So suggests the Texas Medical Association (TMA).

Many parents are afraid to let people they are not acquainted with care for their children. The offspring invariably are quick to pick up such signals and become anxious too. If parents fume about their children having to ride the bus, that serves to make their sons and daughters feel uncomfortable, especially if the parents discuss their fears in the presence of the children.

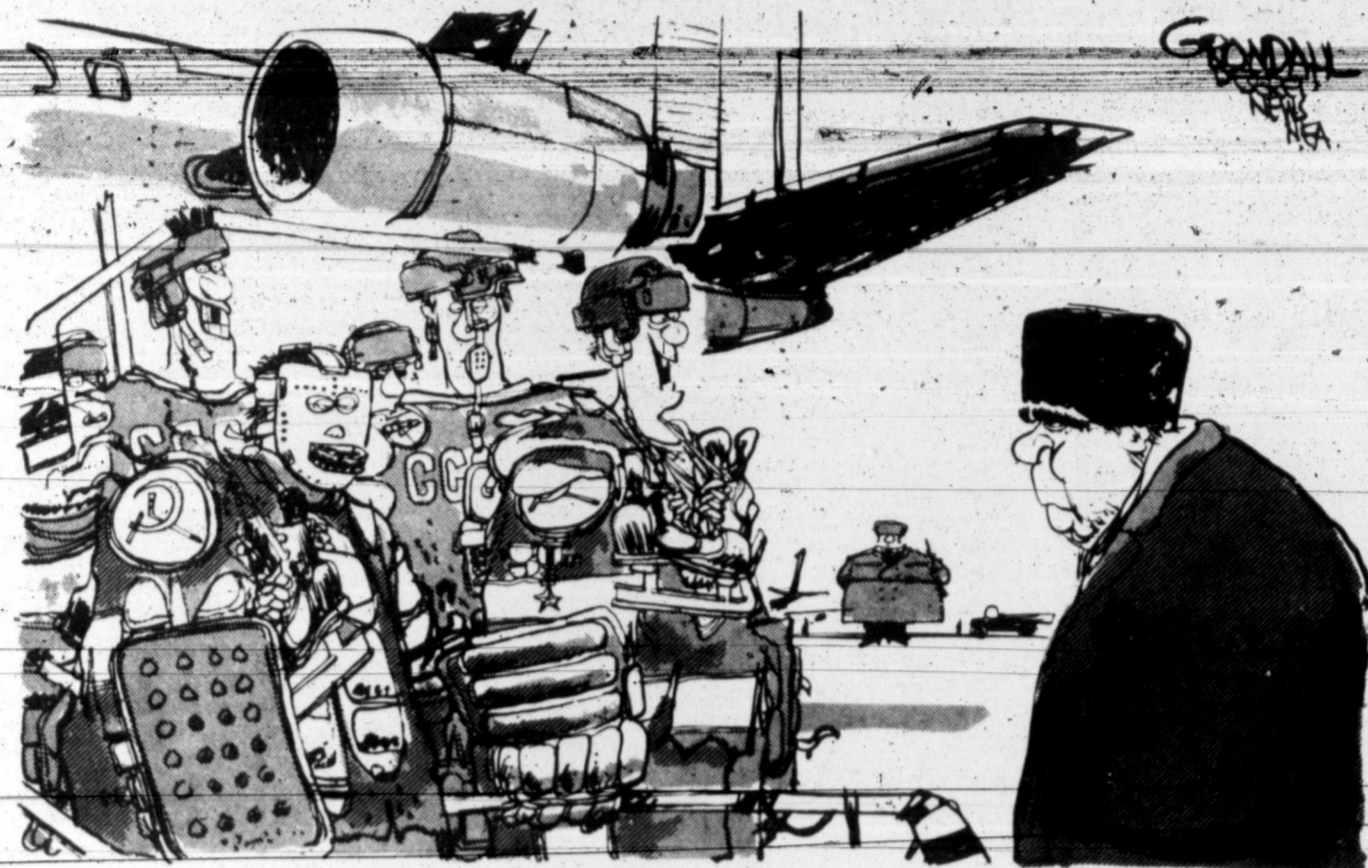

The TMA strongly recommends that parents visit schools and talk realistically with teachers whenever possible. Such discussions can familiarize everyone with the child's schedule and upcoming activities. A visit can also give parents an early opportunity to inform the teacher about the child's schedule and upcoming activities. A visit can also give parents an early opportunity to inform the teacher about the child's special abilities, problems or complicating situations such as a recent family divorce that may have shattered and bewildered the child.

Perhaps parents and children do not communicate often enough about school. Mother and dad should sit down with the child and discuss the child's involvement in school. It can help reassure the child that he or she can handle new circumstances just as in the past. Getting frequent updates about the child's progress and attitudes can help parents contribute to a child's peace of mind and make him or her feel that what they are doing is really necessary.

Persistent problems could mean the child has a learning disorder, and it happens far more frequently than parents might suspect. To find out about possible problems quickly, tests can be done to find hearing, sight or learning handicaps that can cause the child years of frustration and failure if undetected, TMA says. The teacher often can give recommendations about available testing.

No matter what the cause of poor performance in school, it is important to help the child before the troubles last too long. Help may be something as simple as aiding the child with homework. Or it may involve getting medical attention.

Regardless, TMA urges parents to take action to help keep the child from falling far behind in class.

5 YEARS AGO

Two SHS students were named semi-finalists in the 1975 National Merit Scholarship program. They were Gregory Arthur Kane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Kane, and Richard Michael Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Medford.

10 YEARS AGO

Two 1965 graduates of Snyder High School were commissioned second lieutenants in the U. S. Air Force upon their graduation from officer training school at Lackland Air Force Base. They were Lt. Richard G. Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bradley, and Lt. Frederick R. Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Finley.

15 YEARS AGO

Jan Moore, former Snyder

resident and a well-known recording star, awaited the premiere of her first motion picture, "The Forty-Acre Feud." The premiere was set for Oct. 13. Miss Moore lived in Snyder from 1950 to 1958 and attended school here.

20 YEARS AGO
New officers of the Stanfield PTA were Mrs. Mark E. Williams, president; Cecil Boren, vice president; Mrs. Charles N. Snyder, treasurer, and Mrs. H. H. Bearden, secretary. Mrs. N. F. Garland of Rotan installed the new officers.

25 YEARS AGO
Compared to the average city of its size, new statistics showed that Snyder had a favorable tax load. Snyder citizens were paying about $11.23 each in city taxes.

Twenty years ago 24 percent of young blacks were unemployed. Unemployment for whites in the same age group, 16 to 19, was only 13 percent.

Politicians offered the traditional panacea—more government. They were convinced that all we needed to do was to raise educational opportunities for young blacks, pass and enforce laws prohibiting discrimination in hiring and in promotion and provide job training for the jobless.

So we did all of those things. Yet today, instead of 24 percent of young blacks being unemployed, 37.4 percent are unemployed. While unemployment of whites in the same age group is 17 percent.

Now what do we do? Our nation's total unemployment numbers look worse than they are because of the disproportionate number of young blacks who are idle.

Nor does education seem to help. The United States Labor Department finds that among high school dropouts the jobless rate for blacks is 31.6 percent—about double what it is for white dropouts.

For high school graduates, the unemployment rate for blacks, 21.3 percent, is almost three times what it is for whites in the same category.

And among college graduates, the comparison worsens—17.1 percent of blacks unemployed to only 4 percent of whites.

Paul Osterman, a professor of economics at Boston University, says, "If a person can't get a job when he's young, his chances don't improve much when he's older."

This joblessness affects every aspect of black life—higher crime rates—higher incidence of family breakups—lifelong poverty.

Few authorities, black or white, see any evidence that discrimination has increased over the past 20 years. Then what is the cause of the disparity?

One factor is the drug cult, so established in the ghetto that many young blacks find pushing drugs easier and more profitable than any other employment.

Further, the black birth rate is enough higher than the white birth rate to put proportionately more blacks in the job market.

Competition from aliens, legal and illegal, is a factor hardly anybody wants to talk about, but increasing immigration and subsequent preferential consideration are a rude slap in the face for job-eligible American blacks.

Also, Prof. Elijah Anderson of the University of Pennsylvania says that contemporary values tend to make young blacks more prideful, more assertive, less willing to accept menial jobs.

That this explains why some unskilled young ignore help-wanted ads in favor of government handouts.

Thus ignominy of racial-related bondage is with us yet—the shackles of slavery having been replaced by the opiate of welfare.

Seek Contact With Captors

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) — The family and friends of kidnapped South African Ambassador Archibald Gardner Dunn took out advertisements in newspapers here asking his leftist guerrilla captors to renew negotiations and free him. There has been no word of his fate in months.

The ads published Thursday were directed at the Popular Liberation Forces, a leftist guerrilla group that has claimed responsibility for the Nov. 28 kidnapping.

The text, signed by Dunn's three children, said in part: "Within our capacity and resources, we have done all we can to meet your demands... we have come to the end of our limits. In the name of God, please, answer our requests."

Dunn's wife, terminally ill with cancer, is in a Los Angeles hospital.

my turn

by roy mcqueen, publisher

The feller on Deep Creek says, "True friends don't coddle your weaknesses, they encourage your strengths."

It's been an interesting but hectic week here at the Snyder Daily News. Our staff has been learning a new language, a language of computers.

Most have noticed the difference in type style the last few days, and that in itself was the start of a series of problems.

Several months ago we made the decision to computerize our typesetting function. It's much like the system seen on television's Lou Grant at the Los Angeles Tribune. The reporter writes his story on a terminal with a television screen rather than beating out his copy on a typewriter as in the past.

The copy is transferred by wire to a floppy disk which becomes the memory or storage of the system. At the proper time, the editor sitting across the room can call the story up on his screen, make necessary corrections and then either send the story back to memory or send it to a high-speed automatic typesetter.

What the system does is not only speed up the typesetting function but it also eliminates the typesetting position. The decision to go to the new system came when one typesetter decided to stay home with her family and the other decided to start a family.

We really didn't intend for the reader to notice any difference in the finished product, but as is normal in a major changeover, we got some bad technical advice.

What you are reading is actually 8-point type compared to our normal 9-point. If you find it harder to read, it is. We have ordered a new lens and have promised delivery within a week. However, we won't be surprised if it takes two weeks.

Meanwhile the staff has done a super job making the transition and learning the new system. The new front-end system can do some dandy things once we get it mastered.

It is a far cry from the old hand-spiked type of just 50 years ago. Soon after that came the line-o-type on which a good operator could get maybe 60 lines an hour.

The new typesetter can pour out some 80 lines per minute, a vast savings in terms of efficiency and employee productivity. After the line-o-type came some paper tape machines during the conversion to offset in the late 1960's. In fact, the SDN went from hot type to offset in 1970. Ten years later, the SDN now has one of the most modern and efficient systems to be found anywhere. If we can just learn to operate it.

We soon plan to have an open house and show off our new equipment, and also just to let all our readers see first hand how it all comes together each day.

Thanks for your interest and your understanding during the conversion.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) A nosy friend may try to pry into your personal affairs today. It's best to keep what you're doing to yourself, because what you tell could be misused.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You're very good today at making snap decisions, but because the answers come so easily to you, you may doubt their value.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Don't enter into any agreements today with those whose motives you are dubious about. Deal only with persons who put all their cards on the table.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Subordinates or persons you employ will not perform well today if they feel you lack faith in their abilities. Be a booster, not a critic.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You are very productive today in areas where you have a fondness for the tasks. You're apt to be quite careless, however, with chores you dislike.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Unless you're able to distinguish today between a calculated risk and a sheer gamble, you may suffer a loss. Exercise your best judgment.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Be careful today that preconceived ideas don't jeopardize your relationships with pals. They're apt to behave just the opposite from what you expect.

Actor Walks Up Broadway

NEW YORK (AP) — What does an actor do when his scene is over? Sometimes he takes a stroll up Broadway to get some air.

But the producers of the hit show "Annie" got worried when one of their performers took such a stroll Wednesday during a matinee and failed to return for the evening performance.

Luckily, a kindly woman recognized the missing actor by his bark and helped him return to the stage on Thursday.

The actor? O'Malley, a dog who has his own role in "Annie" as well as being the understudy to the dog who plays Sandy, the beloved pet of Orphan Annie.

O'Malley had darted out of an open door during the Wednesday performance.

"I was obviously awake all night," said Ellen Moscov, who trained O'Malley for the role. "Then a very nice lady called to say that she had found a dog on West 88th Street and when she saw a story in the paper about O'Malley being missing, she was sure it was O'Malley."
