

Iraqi Jets Striking Iranian Oil Centers

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Iraqi jets today strafed fuel depots and the television station in the Iranian refining center of Abadan, a military communique here said, in possible preparation for a thrust deeper into the oil-rich sector of Iran.

Western correspondents reported Iraq's capture of the port area of Khorramshahr, Iran's chief port a few miles north of Abadan. Both are on the disputed Shatt al-Arab border waterway.

The Iraqis claimed 29 Iranians killed and six wounded in fighting Monday along the 300-mile invasion front. The Iraqis put their own casualties at seven dead and 16 wounded.

The Baghdad communique said the Iraqi raid left the Abadan fuel depots in flames. It also said a satellite ground station in Asadabad, 200 miles west of Tehran, an airfield in the army garrison town of Dezful, and a silo, railway station and fuel depots in the neighboring town of Andimeshk were hit.

The communique also said Iranian warplanes raided civilians targets in Kirkuk and Penjuin, in Iraq's Suleimaniya province, leaving two civilians dead and nine wounded.

An Iranian communique said two Iraqi planes were shot down by anti-aircraft defenses around Abadan. Iran claimed bringing down 10 Iraqi warplanes and killing 80 Iraqi soldiers in Monday's fighting. Iraq claimed to have shot down two Iranian bombers and a helicopter and destroyed five tanks and three armored troop carriers.

Iraq's air force attacked Tehran, the Iranian capital, on three sides Monday, and there was an unconfirmed report that the local oil refinery was hit, the official Iranian news agency Pars said. Tehran Radio said the raiders killed four people, wounded 60 and damaged a factory and the airport.

Meanwhile, Jordan's King Hussein became the first Arab chief of state to declare open, concrete support for Arab Iraq in the 16-day-old war. He ordered mobilization of all transport vehicles to carry food and supplies to the Iraqi army, was reported lending bases to the Iraqi air force and in a broadcast urged all Arab nations to support the Iraqis against the non-Arab Persians of Iran "because a victory for Iraq will be a victory for all Arabs."

A Kuwait newspaper reported Jordan has massed 40,000 troops on its border with Iraq, awaiting word to join the battle against Iran. There was no immediate comment from Jordan.

Sources in Beirut said the Soviet Union, Iraq's chief supplier of arms, was shipping ammunition, spare parts and other war materiel to its ally via the Jordanian port of Aqaba. The sources said the shipments were coming from Soviet stockpiles in South Yemen and Ethiopia.

Syria became the first Arab country to criticize Iraq publicly. The official newspaper of the ruling Socialist Baath Party said Iraq launched the war on orders from the United States to divert attention from the Arabs' struggle with Israel.

If you think the pace is going to slow down any time soon, look around. Industry experts expect the number of fast food outlets to double in the next decade. They say more and more restaurants are adding drive through windows to make it easier to fill carry-out orders.
Still they are not fast enough for an even speedier clientele. The most grumbling we've heard recently was in an establishment that normally features instant service. The crush of a pre-football game crowd anxious to get a bite to eat before the kick-off had over-taxed the kitchen and people were having to wait at least five minutes to get their orders filled.
We suddenly realized that even we were becoming somewhat irritated over the five-minute delay. We wanted to walk up to the counter, hand the attendant the money with one hand and receive our order simultaneously with the other.
A few years ago we would have planned far enough ahead, or else reconciled to waiting until after the game before taking on nourishment.
But everything is instant these days, and we have come to expect it.

County Clerk Beverly Ainsworth says a lot of people rushed to make certain that they were qualified to vote during the last hours before the registration deadline for the general election, but a check revealed that many of them had already signed up months ago. This resulted in some duplications, and these must be weeded out before a total can be determined. Still, a number of new voters came into the qualified voter fold before the deadline. Mrs. Ainsworth said she would have us a total on the number of qualified voters soon.

By Grand Jury... 17 Indictments Returned Here

Seventeen indictments were returned Monday by a Scurry County grand jury.
Five of the indictments involved charges of aggravated assault. Named in them were Billy Norris Cobb, 3407 Ave. M, Juan Gonzales Sr., Rt. 2, Box 203, and Anjela Martinez Johnston, 2703 Ave. J. Together, the cases involve four shootings and one stabbing.
Cobb is alleged to have shot Gary Durst and Jimmy Brandon in a Sept. 1 altercation. The case was first submitted to the grand jury convening in September, but Cobb was then no-billed. The shootings involved a shotgun. Durst, according to reports, received extensive eye injury.

Gonzales, too, is alleged to have shot two men. That incident occurred outside a local convenience store Sept. 13 and involved Bobby Thompson and Mitchell D. Smith. The weapon allegedly used was a pistol.
Ms. Johnston reportedly stabbed Jessie DeLao Sept. 3.
Four of the indictments involved charges of forgery by passing. Named in them were Rebecca Inez Franks, 306 28th St., Apt. T, and Vickie Shaver, 306 28th St., Apt. U. Two indictments were returned against each woman.
They are alleged to have passed two reportedly forged checks on the account of Dot Bowman. Both incidents occurred Sept. 4. One check was drawn for $200 and the other for $369, according to the indictments.

Named in a drug case was James Jasper White, Rt. 1, Box 58. White is alleged to have had cocaine in his possession Sept. 8.
Steven Ray Harris, 2904 Ave. J, was indicted on a charge of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle. He is alleged to have taken without permission a vehicle owned by Lill Crawford.
Hasten Earl Nelson, 2807 Ave. K, was indicted on a charge of criminal mischief. He allegedly vandalized a vehicle owned by Robert Brazier.
Indicted on charges of driving while intoxicated were Richard Hernandez, 2105 College Ave.; Alfred C. Totty of Spur, U.M. Tadlock III of Midland, Luis Ray Fuentes, Rt. 3, Box 440, and Florencio Lopez Valadez, 1907 Coleman St.
One case that did not go before the grand jury involved a theft charge. District Attorney Pete Greene said restitution had been made in that case.
Serving on the grand jury were Orval Mathis, Maribeth Thomas, Ila Ruth Newton, Frank Ortegon, Mickey Carrasco, Nona Morrison, M.P. Herring, Tony Perales, Peggy Vernon, Sonny Harrell, Robert Stewart, and Billy Wayne Williams.

UNITED WAY DIVISION CHAIRMEN—The divisions of the United Way gave progress reports Monday morning noting that $13,125 of the goal of $56,669 had been reached. United Way Drive Takes First Reports

The United Way drive is advancing toward its goal according to division reports given during a United Way meeting Monday morning.
Co-chairmen Frances Wiman and Margaret Drum called for reports from each chairman.
Joe Jackson of the Advance Division reported that $13,125 has been received toward the goal of $56,669.
Other division chairmen reported almost 100 percent delivery of their packets to workers.
United Way officials are urging local businesses to distribute their cards to employees to allow employees to help the firm reach the goal.
According to the local officials, every indication seems to point to a wide community support toward reaching the goal in six weeks this year.

One Rate Hike Okayed, Another Put On 'Hold'

The Snyder City Council last night approved one rate increase, put another on "hold" and passed on first reading an ordinance setting the city tax rate at 40 cents per $100 valuation.
Lone Star Gas Company's application for a rate increase to hike its revenue here by 6.5 percent was suspended for 120 days. The application had been filed on Sept. 29. Wedge Turner, Lone Star's local manager, told the council that the company needed the increase to realize a fair return on its investment here. Even with the increase, inflation likely will knock the actual return well below eight percent, which the firm considers acceptable, Turner said.

The council and city staff will study the application further during the 120-day suspension.

Snyder Community Antenna Television was granted an increase in rates. The new schedule hikes the residential rate from $8.50 to $9.50 per month, the apartment rate from $4.25 to $4.75 per month, the motel rate from $1.75 to $2 per month, and the connect fee from $8.50 to $9.50.
Snyder National Bank was named city depository. Bids by the two banks were somewhat similar over-all, except that Snyder National offered the city the opportunity to purchase money market certificates with funds held over a sufficient period of time. These would be available to the city at two percent below the maximum rate allowable. Heretofore, the city has not had money market certificates available, but has received lower interest rates for funds that are unused over periods of several months.
Action was delayed on a contract for health and life insurance for city employees. Only one bid was received, and it came from Blue Cross-Blue Shield, the present carrier.
The bid of Austin White Lime Co. was accepted for the purchase of 15 tons of lime for the water treatment plant. Its bid of $1,570 was the lowest of five received. Approval came

Trooper's Killer Object Of Search

SLATON, Texas (AP) — Lawmen across Texas today were looking for a Lorenzo man named in a capital murder warrant issued in the shooting death of a young Texas Department of Public Safety trooper here this weekend.

Trooper Jerry Don Davis was found by colleagues slumped over the steering wheel of his patrol car shortly before midnight Sunday.
The 25-year-old officer had been shot once in the head and was clutching a driver's license in his hand, investigators said.
Billy Wayne Alexander Jr., 21, was named in a capital murder arrest warrant issued by Peace Justice Arvin Stafford.
Two witnesses to the shooting were located by other identification found in Davis' car, said a spokesman in the Lubbock County District Attorney's office who asked not to be identified.

"That was the last contact," said DPS spokesman Larry Todd in Austin.
The dispatcher sent other officers to the scene when Davis failed to check in after the initial call, Todd said.
The trooper's service revolver still was holstered, Todd said.
The vehicle Davis had stopped, a stolen automobile with stolen license plates, was later found abandoned at a deserted farm house, investigators said.
Friends and relatives of Davis, who was single, said he had been obsessed with becoming a highway patrolman, even as a 12-year-old boy.

After working in several Texas cities in various facets of police work, Davis' wish came true. He was commissioned a DPS officer in May 1979 and was assigned to Slaton as a highway patrolman a year later, Todd said.
Funeral services for Davis were slated for 3:30 p.m. in Lubbock today. Law enforcement officers from three states were expected to attend, Todd said.

The city manager was authorized to seek bids for cleaning the digester at the sewage disposal plant, for constructing additional pits at the sanitary landfill, for three police patrol cars, for a fire chief's car and for two sanitation trucks and 300 containers.
The Snyder High School Student Council was granted permission to hold a homecoming parade at 6 p.m. Oct. 16.
The city manager was authorized to put two used

The two men were questioned and released on bond as material witnesses, the spokesman said.
A search of a Lubbock residence where Alexander was believed to be living turned up about 30 pounds of suspected marijuana and his checkbook, he said.
DPS Director James Adams went to Lubbock Monday to coordinate the search.
Davis called his dispatcher by two-way radio late Sunday to say he was stopping a car for speeding on U.S. 84, inside the Slaton city limits.

After working in several Texas cities in various facets of police work, Davis' wish came true. He was commissioned a DPS officer in May 1979 and was assigned to Slaton as a highway patrolman a year later, Todd said.

Three Misses Wins Money In Grid Game

An out-of-town entry through the mail captured first prize in last week's Snyder Daily News football contest. Jerry L. Hunt of 1705 E. 12th St., Sweetwater came up with only three misses to win the $12.50 first prize money.
Guy Staton of Rt. 1 Box 200 will take home the second place money with only four incorrect guesses. His $10 includes $5 held over from last week, which ended in a multiple tie.
You may enter the contest by picking up an entry form from any participating merchant and selecting the winners from the games listed on Page 12 of today's SDN.

Approval came on a 3-2 vote with Councilmen Joe Reaves and John Best voting against, both indicating that they preferred to award the contract to a local bidder at a slightly higher figure.
Southern Electric Co. was awarded the contract to install an emergency warning system in the city. Its bid totaled $4,230.28 and was the only proposal received.
A contract for painting three highway signs was awarded to Martin Sign Co. of Sweetwater. Its bid of $1,740 was the only one received.
A request by Palmer EMS for an increase in its subsidy was rejected, but the council will review ambulance rates at its next meeting. Kerry Palmer, operator of the ambulance service, had requested that the subsidy be increased from $1,550 to $2,050 per month so that an additional employee could be hired. She said the additional employee was needed to comply with Texas Health Department regulations for operation of three ambulances. Council members noted that the city's contract calls for only two ambulances.
An application for water service from Source Service Co. was approved. It will tie onto a line already extended to the area near its building on the Lamesa highway.

Carter Toughens Talk

CHICAGO — President Carter, toughening his already tough rhetoric against Ronald Reagan, is charging that the Republican's election could tear the United States into factions by race, by religion and by region.
In the Nov. 4 election, Carter told Chicago Democrats on Monday, "You'll determine whether this America will be unified or, if I lose the election, whether Americans might be separated black from white, Jew from Christian, North from South, rural from urban."
The statement came one day after five major news organizations released surveys showing Reagan well ahead in the electoral college vote that will actually decide the election.

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Monday, 77 degrees; low, 54 degrees; reading at 7 a. m. today, 55 degrees; precipitation, none; total precipitation for 1980 to date, 23.28.
WEST TEXAS: Fair north and partly cloudy south tonight with widely scattered showers or thunderstorms mainly in the southwest mountains. Mostly fair Wednesday. Highs in the 80s, except 92 in the Big Bend. Lows in the 50s, except 48 mountains.

Now that Robert S. McNamara has announced his retirement after 13 years as president of the World Bank, he obviously feels free to speak his mind. He did just that in an emotional speech bitterly condemning the United States for its "disgraceful" contributions to alleviating poverty in the Third World.

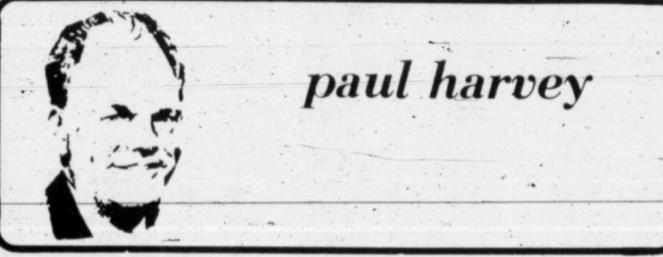

Strong stuff, and not the kind of thing most Americans want to hear, or believe. The popular conception of Uncle Sam as the pre-eminent global philanthropist is ingrained in the national consciousness. Americans grumble about foreign aid and urge that tax dollars be returned to their rightful owners, those who earned them in the first place.

While it is true that this country's most recent foreign aid appropriations represented a fractionally smaller proportion of the gross national product than those of most other non-communist industrial nations, it is true also that the United States is currently providing nearly 20 percent of all developmental aid donated by the industrial democracies.

Obviously, McNamara prefers to see the glass as half empty. But it is wrong to suggest, as McNamara did recently, that the United States is somehow indictable for the poverty in the Third World. And it is just plain silly for McNamara to imagine that global poverty could be eliminated if only the affluent countries would double or triple their foreign aid budgets.

More than a few Third World countries are their own worst enemies when it comes to using aid wisely, or, more importantly, creating an economic climate favorable to growth. That may explain at least part of the public's resistance in this country to spending more on foreign aid. Prizing Third World pumps is a useless gesture when the pumps themselves are so designed to be unworkable. Besides, it has never been demonstrated that foreign aid is a proper use of taxpayers' money.

Instead of flaying the United States, McNamara and those in the Third World who cheer him on would be well advised to examine the reasons for the remarkable success stories in countries like Taiwan and South Korea. What they would find is that growth and prosperity are the products of the very capitalistic policies so roundly denounced by those who now demand a massive redistribution of global wealth.

Have you ever noticed that how good the late movie is varies directly with how badly you need to go to bed early?

And it is so easy to get hooked on a movie that is obviously mediocre. You think, "I'll just watch until the next commercial and if the tempo doesn't pick up, I'm off to bed." It improves just enough to keep you bleating at the screen until the next commercial.

Finally, you think, "I've stuck it out this long, I might as well see how this dog ends. Of course the later it gets, the more commercials they splice in and the show gets progressively worse."

But there is no stopping now. You feel challenged to watch the entire thing to prove you can do it. "It can't last much longer," you wrongly reason.

Monday night football is the same way. After sticking it out for three quarters and the cowboys are behind 29 to nothing, you intuitively know that if you stay up you will have to watch the Pokes bomb another one; but if you throw in the towel, the headlines the next morning will read something like: "Cowboys Win 51-49 With 4th Quarter

Fantastics"

My brother-in-law once fell asleep in his chair and remained there until my sister found him the next morning.

"Wake up honey," she said, shaking him. "It's 20 to 7 already."

"What!" he said, snapping awake. "In whose favor?"

If we didn't have such busy days maybe we could take more time to enjoy the fruits of our labor. However, while taking a few time outs to smell the roses might help, it doesn't guarantee happiness and tranquility.

Consider the fellow who dropped out of the rat race and joined a monastery. The cloistered life was anything but hectic, still, he wasn't happy.

One of the rules of the place was a vow of silence. He could only speak two words every ten years.

"Bed hard," he told the top monk after his first decade. Ten more years passed and he said: "Food cold." After 30 years he went to see the monk in charge again and said: "I quit."

"I'm not surprised," he was told. "All you've done since you've been here is complain."

In the official magazine of the Food and Drug Administration there is a feature article entitled, "Letter to A Young Saccharin User."

It purports to be a letter from one Terry Jacobs which says, "I am 21 years old and drink at least two cans of diet soda a day. I don't particularly want to drop dead on my 22nd birthday. Could you send me information about recent rumors regarding saccharin?"

There follows a two-page personal response from the commissioner of the FDA, Jere Goyan, in which the commissioner explains that, despite the disagreement among scientists, the FDA believes saccharin might cause cancer, that Terry may be "flirting with trouble."

There is no Terry Jacobs. He was invented by the FDA to dramatize the commissioner's point of view.

The FDA defends this fiction by insisting that similar letters have been received—but some spokesmen for soft drink companies are understandably indignant.

The FDA persists in trying to get Congress to ban saccharin from all foods and drinks, but Congress, noting conflicting scientific opinions, has so far refused.

Now we come to cyclamates—another artificial sweetener disallowed by the FDA.

After an astronomically costly seven-year fuss with the FDA, Abbott Laboratories has given up and will make no further effort to market cyclamates in the United States.

Here's why:

The FDA asked the National Cancer Institute to evaluate whether cyclamates cause cancer. The NCI reported no evidence in the lab or in the clinic that cyclamates do, in fact, increase the risk of cancer.

The NCI said that to try to remove all doubt would require tests involving hundreds of thousands of rodents—51,000 each species—and that even these tests might require repetition.

In all the world, there is no laboratory available for such a gigantic undertaking; if there were, there are not enough pathologists and toxicologists to properly conduct and evaluate such an experiment.

Nonetheless, the FDA's last recommendation to Congress was that such testing be required—or no cyclamates be allowed in the United States.

Abbott Laboratories is not the loser. Abbott continues to market cyclamates in Canada, West Germany and Sweden and Norway and France and most Latin American nations. And the total cyclamate market is comparatively infinitesimal.

If the United States market were opened, all pharmaceutical houses could make and market cyclamates because the patent expired years ago.

So, Abbott is not the loser. We are—dieters who want a sugar substitute and diabetics who need it.

It could be merely coincidence that the American steel industry is concentrated in a few vote-rich Northeastern states crucial to the presidential election.

But even if not, the aid package the Carter administration has proposed for the ailing industry should be analyzed on the basis of economic merit, not political potential. After all, steel's problems antedate this election by quite a bit, and the consequences of this or any other attempt is history.

It is quite a package. It includes tax breaks and other financial incentives to reward the massive investment in new plant and equipment necessary to modernize an obsolete industry. Plus relaxation of environmental protection standards steel-makers claim hamper production and boost costs. Plus billions of federal dollars in aid for workers and communities hit by plant shutdowns. Plus protection for U.S. producers from cheap foreign steel flooding the home market; this by means of an update version of the "trigger mechanism" and trade-regulating procedure that activates import restrictions measures when foreign steel is found to be unfairly underselling the American product.

All necessary, the president informs us, to "meet foreign competition, reverse the decline of productivity, protect the environment and provide jobs for the constantly growing work force."

As a package, the Carter proposals - or for that matter, a very similar set earlier issued by the campaign workshop of Ronald Reagan - wrap up just about everything except a basic problem of the American steel industry: Its problems are not limited to the American steel industry.

They cannot be dealt with in isolation from a larger world problem over which neither the American industry nor government has control. And that is surging steel production and proliferating producers.

The story is in the statistics. In 1969, according to figures of the International Iron and Steel Institute in Brussels, world crude steel production totaled 574.6 million metric tons. Ten years later, the total was 747.5 million tons - up by almost a third.

The American contribution to that total is declining. In 1969, U.S. plants produced 128.2 million tons of steel, almost a quarter of 1969 world output; 1979 production was down to 123.3 million tons, about a sixth of sharply increased world production.

Some of that increase came from established industrial nations. Japanese production went from 82.2 to 111.7 million tons during the decade; West German from 45.3 to 46 million.

But more came from an aggregate of smaller and newer producers. Brazil's steel output almost tripled during the 10 years from 4.9 to 13.9 million; Taiwan, 5 to 4.2 million; Iran, not even recorded as a producer in 1969, turned out an estimated 1.4 million tons of steel in 1979.

The outpouring has been encouraged by the worldwide drive for economic development; a steel industry having become the mark of a country's coming of industrial age. This has meant the loss of old markets and new competition the once-dominant U.S. industry, at a multiple disadvantage because of older plant, higher costs and a large and vulnerable home market that invites penetration by lower-cost foreign steel, sometimes dumped at below what it cost to produce.

Under the circumstances, it may be beyond the powers of a Carter, Reagan or any other package to restore American steel to competitiveness on the fragmented world market. And there may be no practical alternative for survival at home to an openly protectionist policy, raising barriers against foreign steel with the inevitably inflationary consequence of higher prices for American consumers.

Interestingly, the feature of the Carter package that initially has attracted the most favorable reaction from the steel industry itself - the "trigger mechanism" to restrict imports - is headed in this direction.

It is probably no coincidence.

jack. South ruffed with the deuce of spades, played the king of hearts, ruffed a heart in dummy, cashed two of his clubs and then proceeded to ruff a diamond with the three of trumps.

Don't think this was done quickly. There was much thought involved, but South had worked out the exact East-West distribution.

Now it was a wrap-up. The last heart was led. West had to ruff. He was down to nothing but his five trumps while South was left with the ace-jack-eight and six.

It didn't matter if West ruffed with the 10 or four of spades. He could only collect two trump tricks in either event.

Here is another tied board from this year's Spingold Cup. The bidding in the box was the same at both tables.

A king of spades lead would beat both declarers, but each West led his deuce of hearts. Identical play brought home the contract at both tables.

East took the ace of hearts and led back the king of diamonds. South knew that if East held a spade he would have led it, so South immediately led back a diamond from dummy. East ducked since West had played his

Common Sense Cooking

By RUTH McDANIEL

I must confess I've been using canned pumpkin for many years and it tasted pretty good!

Then I got this note from a Doctor in Fort Dodge, Iowa, and just had to try it.

Believe me, there IS a difference in the taste. It's worth every little bit of extra time it takes to fix. You'll find when pumpkins are in season they're inexpensive and you'll save quite a sum by fixing your own. You may even want to plant pumpkins if you have a garden. I'm giving you a recipe for Roasted Pumpkin Seeds so nothing will go to waste.

Ruth

Dear Ruth, I'm sending this recipe if you care to use it:

I slice a portion off the top of the pumpkin and save the lid. Then remove the seeds. Put the whole pumpkin in a pan, place the lid back on and pour a cup or two of water in the pan. Bake in a 350 degree oven for an hour or hour and a half, depending on the size of the pumpkin. Remove from oven and peel off the skin or cut pumpkin in half and scrape out the inside. You'll have

PUMPKIN PIE

1 unbaked 9 inch shell
2 cups cooked pumpkin
1 can sweetened condensed milk
1 egg
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. ginger

Blend all ingredients. Pour into pie shell. Bake at 375 degrees 50-55 minutes. Cool and then refrigerate at least one hour.

ROASTED PUMPKIN SEEDS

2 cups pumpkin seeds
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 Tbsp. butter
Clean pumpkin seeds but don't wash. Spread on cookie sheet and pour over melted butter and add salt. Bake one hour at 250 degrees till brown and crisp. Stir occasionally.

I'm bowled over by the weight I lost at Pat Walker's: 32 pounds!

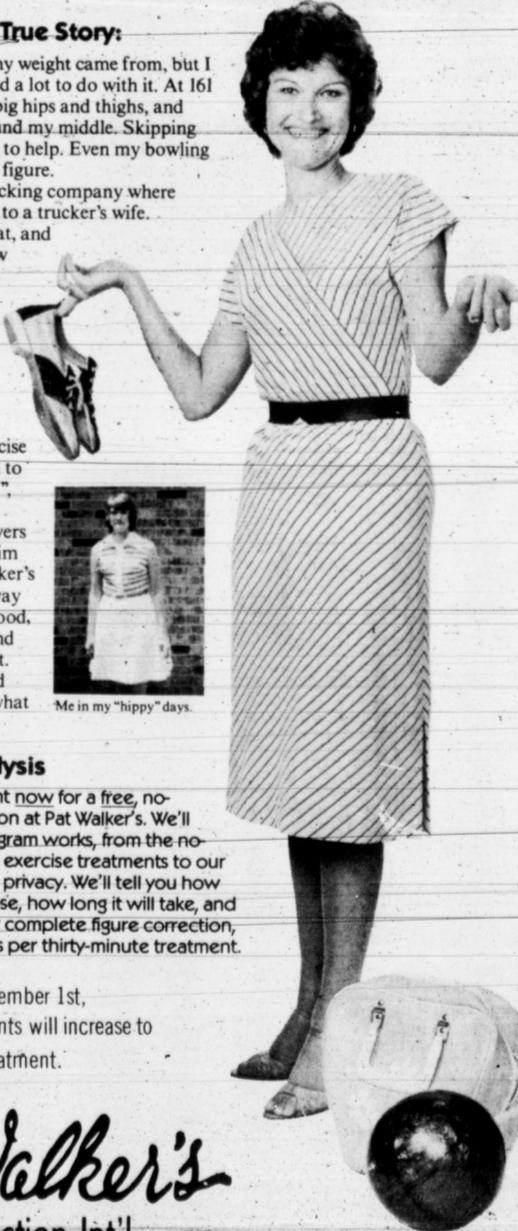

Shirley Brank's True Story:

I don't know where my weight came from, but I guess my snacking had a lot to do with it. At 161 pounds, I really had big hips and thighs, and about three rolls around my middle. Skipping breakfast didn't seem to help. Even my bowling wasn't improving my figure.

One day, at the trucking company where I work, I was talking to a trucker's wife. She used to be very fat, and I couldn't believe how much weight she had lost. When she told me she'd been going to Pat Walker's, I went right on over and started my own weight loss program.

Now, with Pat Walker's passive exercise treatments, I'm down to 129 and, for my 5'9 1/2", that's almost perfect. (One of the truck drivers told me that I'm as slim as a model!) Pat Walker's taught me the right way to eat, too—I eat a good, big breakfast now, and feel much better for it.

I really recommend Pat Walker's. Look what they did for me!

Me in my "hippy" days.

Make an appointment now for a free, no-obligation consultation at Pat Walker's. We'll explain how our program works, from the no-rush, no-fuss passive exercise treatments to our belief in your right to privacy. We'll tell you how much you need to lose, how long it will take, and the total cost of your complete figure correction, based on four dollars per thirty-minute treatment.

Effective November 1st, the price of treatments will increase to $5.00 per treatment.

Pupils Work On Job Seeking Skills

Ira—Students in the junior and senior classes at Ira High School are involved this week in activities designed to assist them in job seeking and job retention.

The program is especially designed to assist students as they enter the job market skills for securing the very best job they can get with what they have to offer an employer.

The program, known as Building Employability Skills in Teenagers (BEST), is conducted two hours a day for five days and emphasizes the concept of learning by doing. Activities are developed to make the experience as realistic as possible and as close to the real working world as can be done in the classroom.

On the first day of the program, students are organized into working crews with foremen selected to "boss" each crew. To increase realism, students punch a time clock each day and those clocking the full 10 hours will be awarded a certificate of achievement on Friday.

The second day is devoted to leading the students to take a closer look at themselves and their interests and goals. The third day covers communicating with others and "selling" themselves to the employer on the day of the interview. The fourth day is devoted to developing skills in decision making, especially those employed in career selection.

The final activity on the fifth day is a "role played" interview with a real employer from the community, with each working crew entering an applicant contestant for the job. The employer then selects the best applicant based on his completed application form and personal interview. These interviews are video-taped and played back to the students. At the end of the 10-hour block, certificates of achievement will be presented to successful students by Jay Martin, superintendent of schools.

The program is sponsored jointly by Randy Gillum, vocational agriculture teacher; Nell Marquart, homemaking teacher, and Marilyn Thelkeld, school counselor.

The program was developed by Larry Dooley of the Region 14 Education Service Center. Dooley and personnel from the ESC, assisted by local school people, make the daily presentations.

K-Bob Burglars Steal Cash Register And All

Not content to steal just money, the burglars who broke into K-Bob's Steakhouse late last night or early this morning ended up stealing the cash register.

Although the burglars made off with only about $200 in cash, the register was valued at $2,600, according to a report filed by investigating officer Keith Ward. Entry to the building was gained by taking a door off its hinges.

Police and deputy sheriffs were also alerted to a possible rape early this morning, but reports indicate the incident took place in Fisher County. A 22-year-old woman reported she was stopped by the roadside with a flat tire when two men raped her. The matter is still under investigation.

Mrs. Clara Land, 607 North Ave. T, told police someone entered her house and stole four guns, collectively valued at $300. The burglary is reported to have occurred since the middle of August. Investigating that complaint is Sgt. Dale Burns.

Otherwise, it was traffic accidents as usual for police.

The first accident occurred about 1:20 p.m. at Varsity Square Shopping Center and involved a parked 1979 Dodge pickup owned by Anniece Trujillo and another vehicle which left the scene. The accident was investigated by Sgt. Jerry Parker.

The next accident occurred Oct. 2, but was not reported until yesterday at 4 p.m. It involved a 1979 Buick owned by Louisa Turner that was parked in the 2300 block of Ave. R and struck by a vehicle which left the scene. Working it was Buz Woolsey.

Woolsey also investigated a hit and run at Northern Electric. It was reported at 5 p.m. and involved a parked 1972 Chevrolet owned by M.L. Chandler and a vehicle which left the scene.

A hit and run was also worked at 500 East Highway. There, the Quick Car Wash was bumped by a vehicle which left the scene. That was reported at 6 p.m. Working it was Sgt. Dale Burns.

The final wreck of the day was reported at 8:35 p.m. at the intersection of 42nd St. and College Ave. It was worked by Woolsey and involved a 1964 Ford driven by Henry M. Wells of Fountain, Colo., and a 1976 Chevrolet driven by David Sherman Luker.

Sir Isaac Newton, discoverer of the laws of gravity, was not considered exceptionally bright when he was young. He was allowed to attend school only because he had made such a mess of running the family farm.

GUEST SPEAKER—Dr. Ben Brock, right, vice president of Western Texas College, was guest speaker for the Scurry County Museum's brown bag luncheon Monday. Dr. Ed Barkowsky, left, was among those attending. Dr. Brock told the group about handwriting analysis, a hobby of his for many years. The museum's next brown bag program is scheduled for Oct. 20 and is open to the public.

Dear Abby

Fire Statistics Are Cause for Alarm

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1980 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR READERS: It's Fire Prevention Week again, and I have had so many requests to repeat my column on fire prevention that it has become a tradition. So here it is, with updated figures:

First the bad news: In 1979, 8,893 Americans died, and nearly 34,000 civilians, plus 100,000 firemen, were seriously injured in 2,845,500 fires. And now for the "good news": We've improved. In 1978, 10,500 Americans perished in over 3,500,000 fires.

A large percentage of the dead were children, elderly persons and invalids who had been left alone "for just a few minutes."

The chief causes of fires, in order of the toll taken, were:

1. Smoking
2. Electrical wiring
3. Heating and cooking equipment
4. Children playing with matches
5. Open flames and sparks
6. Flammable liquids
7. Suspected arson
8. Chimney and flues
9. Lightning
10. Spontaneous ignition

The total fire loss last year totaled $5,750,000,000 in the U.S.

Now for some tips that could save your life: Be sure your cigarette is out. Matches, too. Never leave matches and lighters within the reach of children.

Don't run cords under rugs or over radiators where they may get damaged. Replace a cord if it is frayed. Never leave small children or invalids alone in the house. Not even for a few minutes.

Have your wiring and electrical installations done by a professional.

Store oily rags and paints in a cool place in tightly sealed metal containers.

Never use flammable liquids for dry cleaning indoors.

Never smoke in bed.

Have a fire drill in your home to be sure everyone knows what to do in case of fire. Designate a specific meeting place outside so you will all know who's outside of the house.

Remember: Fire extinguishers put out 97 percent of all fires on which they were used, and most large fires start as small fires. So, invest in a compact, easy-to-use fire extinguisher. Keep it handy in your kitchen, or be prudent and buy one for your cottage, car, boat and the back bedroom.

Some excellent smoke, heat- and fire-detection systems are available to homeowners. Shop around and buy the one that suits your needs.

Now, in case of fire: If you suspect fire, alert the rest of the household. But first feel the top of the door. If it's hot, don't open it. Escape through the window.

If you can't open the window, break it with a chair. Cover the rough edges with a blanket; sit on the window ledge with one leg hanging outside and one inside, and wait for help.

The phone number of your fire department should be taped on every telephone. If it isn't, don't fumble around trying to find it. Get out and call from a neighbor's house.

If you live in an apartment building, use the stairway. Don't take a chance on the elevator. If it fails, you're trapped.

Once out, stay out. No treasure is worth risking your life.

It took less than three minutes to read this column. Was it worth it? I hope so.

Economy Runs Like Roller Coaster

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

Coping with the ups and downs of the economy for the past 12 months has been a lot like riding a roller coaster: You feel awfully dizzy when you get off, but you, end up pretty much where you started.

"Nothing much has changed," said Fabian Linden, an economist with the Conference Board, a research group sponsored by business. "I think the consumer's in a somewhat better condition, but there's no 'gee-whizz' change."

A year ago today, the Federal Reserve Board announced a major anti-inflation campaign. The first move was an increase in the discount rate — the amount the board charges its member banks who want to borrow money.

The roller coaster ride began.

Interest rates of all kinds went up. The prime rate — the amount banks charge their very best customers — hit a record 20 percent in April. It got harder and harder to find someone willing to lend money for a mortgage. In March, the Federal Reserve imposed controls on consumer borrowing and credit card use. Credit dried up. The cost of buying now and paying later increased.

The economy slowed. It slowed so much there was a recession. During the second quarter of this year, the gross national product fell at an annual rate of 0.6 percent.

Prices stopped rising so quickly. By July, interest rates had dropped. The prime rate was below 11 percent. The Consumer Price Index was unchanged for the first time in years. At the same time, however, unemployment was rising. The housing and auto industries — which depend heavily on borrowing — were in trouble.

The controls on consumer borrowing were lifted. Interest rates started rising again. So did installment debt. And the Consumer Price Index. Last month, the Fed increased the discount rate — which had dropped to 10 percent by a full percentage point, a move President Carter called ill-advised. By the end of last week, the prime rate was at 14 percent, almost where it was a year ago.

What does it all mean? Has anything changed?

A Kansas woman, who didn't want her name used, wasn't sure. Rising prices are still a problem, she said.

Richardson's Home Center Is Earth Stove Dealer In Snyder

Richardson's Home Center, located at 1902 37th St. is the authorized dealer in Snyder for THE EARTH STOVE.

THE EARTH STOVE was designed and constructed so that you can get maximum heat from a minimum amount of fuel. It was developed to fully utilize the heating efficiency of air-tight controlled combustion.

A patented preheating down-draft manifold replaces the primitive "hole" draft common to most wood stoves. By means of this duct, air is drawn down the hot back of the stove and super-heated before it enters the combustion chamber. This method, long used by solid fueled power plants, now brings amazing combustion efficiency to home heating.

THE EARTH STOVE also features its famous thermostatic draft control. Since all the air entering the stove goes through the draft valve, it's bimetal sensing control can be set to automatically regulate the stove's heat, maintaining an even room temperature throughout all the varying phases of combustion.

This combination of features allows THE EARTH STOVE to be completely filled with wood without danger of overheating, while it burns for as long as 14 hours. This complete combustion, of course, leaves much less ashes to remove.

But, when you add to all this the fact that THE EARTH STOVE has a designer's beauty all its own, it becomes a particularly desirable heating unit. It is not an ugly black box hulking among your furnishings but it has a charm which contributes to any decor.

Jerry Richardson invites you to visit Richardson's Home Center and examine THE EARTH STOVE, the

Phillies Seem To Have Edge Over Houston In Opener

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies, knocking on the door of the World Series for the fourth time in five years, opened their best-of-five game National League Championship series tonight against the Houston Astros.

Steve Carlton, a 24-game winner, will pitch for the Phillies, who won the East over the weekend in a three-game set with the Montreal Expos.

Ken Forsch (12-13) is Houston's reluctant choice after the Astros were forced to a one-game playoff with the Los Angeles Dodgers to win the West. They had to use ace Joe Niekro, (20-12) to get the Houston Astros, who would be Houston went into Los Angeles with a three-game lead, needing just one victory to complete their first championship season in the franchise's 19-year history. But they lost all three, forcing the playoff, which they won, 7-1.

against the West Division champions, 5-1 at home and 4-2 in the Astrodome. Houston, however, has defied the odds and won the series.

Phillies Manager Dallas Green declined to announce his lineup until before game time (8:15 p.m.), but Virdon is expected to go with the team that finished off the Dodgers in the fifth playoff in NL history.

Art Howe should be at first base, with the veteran Joe Morgan at second, and shortstop Craig Reynolds and third baseman Enos Cabell rounding out the infield. Alan Ashby probably will catch.

In the Houston outfield, expect Terry Puhl, Cesar Cedeno and Jose Cruz.

Green did say he would use veteran Bob Boone to handle Carlton, but left unsaid whether he would go to

Game Film

The Snyder-Lake View varsity game film will be shown tonight at 8 in Room 116, near the Student Center, at Snyder High School.

All interested fans are invited to attend.

JV Locks It Up With Lake View

SAN ANGELO—Snyder junior varsity played San Angelo Lake View to a deadlock here Saturday, 0-0. The Cats, 1-1-2 on the season, will entertain Lamesa at 7:30 Thursday for their next outing.

"We played good defense," reported Coach Winfred Shipp, "we just couldn't score."

Snyder turned the ball over five times, three on interception and twice on fumbles at the Lake View 10-yard line and at the 2-yard line.

The Cats came up with four interceptions and two fumbles, Ronny Lindsey, David Delce, Tracy Neves and Keith Wallace each bagged an interception and Darryl Boone and James Caldwell both recovered fumbles.

Shipp praised Snyder's kicking game, citing in particular one instance in which with 45 seconds remaining in the game, Jessie Guzman booted a 55-yard punt to get the Cats away from their own end zone.

Snyder had 161 total yards offense while Lake View came up with 104. Leading ballcarriers for the visitors were Raymond Jeffery, 36 yards; Wallace, 26 yards; Neves, 24 yards; and David Gee, 10 yards. David Miller had 34 yards in pass completions.

McKay Displeased With Buc Show Against Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — When asked about his team's execution in a game long ago, Tampa Bay Coach John McKay deadpanned, "I'm all for it."

Admittedly, he'd have to go a ways to top that line. But standing in the catacombs of ancient Soldier Field and drawing inspiration from the surroundings, McKay shook his head and gave it a try.

"We must have set Monday Night Football back 2,000 years," he said after Tampa Bay absorbed a 23-0 defeat by the Chicago Bears, who have shut out the Bucs in their last three meetings. "They beat us in every phase of the game — passing, running, kicking, special teams and coaching. They even beat us coming out of the tunnel."

But the way both teams played the opening half, most fans probably weren't sure they had come out. Neither side seemed capable of a sustained drive until Chicago took over at its own 42, marched to the 9-yard line and settled for the first of three field goals by Bob Thomas, this one a 37-yard effort that spelled the 3-0 halftime margin. He added field goals of 29 and 44 yards in the second half.

"That first half was not my favorite kind of football game," said Bears Coach Neill Armstrong. "I can't explain it. We had electricity in our warmup but it didn't show up until the second half."

That's when Mike Phipps commandeered an offense that had earned countless boos and just 77 total first-half yards and began playing it like an orchestra. On third-and-13 at the Buc 42, Phipps picked up a Tampa Bay blitz and hit Brian Baschnagel with a 37-yard pass to the 5. Phipps then rolled right, and finding the corner free, rambled into the end zone himself, the first time he has rushed for a TD since 1974, when he was quarterbacking Cleveland.

"Any time we cross the goal line it feels good," said Phipps, who scored the Bears' other touchdown on a 1-yard run and finished 10-for-21 for 110 yards. "I just hope this turns us around."

"I only wish the fans could have had their way earlier and got Phipps out of there," snapped McKay.

The Bucs probably felt the same way about defensive end Alan Page, who was in the Tampa Bay backfield for everything but the huddles. Page notched one of the four Chicago sacks of Williams, recovered a fumble, blocked Yeprenian's field-goal effort and intercepted a deflected pass in the final minute to set up Phipps' 1-yard TD sneak.

"You do what you have to do," said Page. "We have the capability of shutting people out and we proved it tonight."

The Phillies, meanwhile, clinched on Saturday without using Carlton, who starts tonight with seven days of rest. Forsch has had just three days between starts.

If that's not enough of a handicap for the Astros, Carlton, the league's strikeout king and owner of the second best ERA in the league, has a 2-0 record against Houston this year and a 28-9 lifetime.

Also, the Phillies during the regular season were 9-3 against the West Division champions, 5-1 at home and 4-2 in the Astrodome. Houston, however, has defied the odds and won the series.

Phillies Manager Dallas Green declined to announce his lineup until before game time (8:15 p.m.), but Virdon is expected to go with the team that finished off the Dodgers in the fifth playoff in NL history.

Art Howe should be at first base, with the veteran Joe Morgan at second, and shortstop Craig Reynolds and third baseman Enos Cabell rounding out the infield. Alan Ashby probably will catch.

In the Houston outfield, expect Terry Puhl, Cesar Cedeno and Jose Cruz.

Green did say he would use veteran Bob Boone to handle Carlton, but left unsaid whether he would go to veterans Greg Luzinski and Garry Maddox in the outfield. Boone, Maddox and Luzinski all were scratched part of the first week of the season for weak offense. Maddox resented the move, pouted and one night scratched himself from the lineup, claiming an injured little finger affected his batting.

Cougs-Aggies May Get Sunday 'Astro-Game'

HOUSTON (AP) — Aggies and Cougars may be running up and down the Astrodome turf early Sunday.

A fourth game Saturday, if needed, in the National Baseball League playoff series between Philadelphia and Houston would delay the scheduled 7:30 p.m. start of the Southwest Conference football game between Texas

A&M and the University of Houston until 10:30 p.m.

A fourth game in the best-of-five baseball series would not begin until 3:15 p.m. After baseball, more than three hours are required to convert the Astrodome to a football configuration.

A fifth baseball game

Sunday, if needed, would not start until 7 p.m., giving groundskeepers more time to make the switch.

A&M and Houston officials chose the late start option over suggestions the football game be played Friday night or moved to Rice University Stadium.

Felines Take On Lamesa Tonight

LAMESA—Snyder's top-ranked varsity volleyball team goes looking for the first half of the District 2-AAAA crown here tonight, meeting No. 10 rated Lamesa at 7:30. A junior varsity match will be held at 6:15.

Lamesa, perhaps the Felines' strongest rivalry year-in, year-out, is 5-1 in the first round of conference play, while Snyder is 6-0. Monahans, ranked No. 5 in the class AAAA coaches' poll, is also 5-1.

A loss for Snyder tonight would throw the district into a three-way, first-round tie. A victory would give the Felines the half-way crown outright.

Snyder, 20-4 on the season, has won 37 straight district games over the past several years. Coach Joyce Elrod, who also has 50 consecutive at-home victories to her credit, hopes the girls can extend that district record to 38 tonight. But it won't be easy.

"Lamesa is very tough in their gym," she said. "They do whatever they can to beat you. We'll have to play very well to beat them over there."

Last year Lamesa offered a packed house and its cheerleaders came out throwing frisbees to the crowd in an attempt to sway momentum — a major factor in volleyball — to the Tornados. The play did not keep the favored Felines from winning, but it's no secret: Snyder can expect a similar welcoming this evening.

Snyder will be without the services of starting setter Toni Elrod again tonight. Elrod has missed the past several matches after minor surgery two weeks ago. She may be back by Saturday, when the Felines entertain Monahans for the beginning of round two. Snyder is actually 1-0 in round two play already, having stopped Fort Stockton in a double-header back on Sept. 27. The first game of the twin-bill counted towards round one, the second towards round two.

Listed as questionable was defensive end Harvey Martin, who has a bruised thigh.

Strong safety Charley Waters has a hairline bone fracture on his left hand and is probable.

An important message for customers of Texas Electric:

Electricity will cost more next year, partly because our biggest contract for low-cost natural gas expires this December.

Next year, the gas we'll need to use to make your electricity will cost more. The chart below shows how this will affect your electric bill.

We're helping hold down costs by making as much electricity as possible in plants built to use lignite coal — a cheaper fuel.

You can help hold down your bill by conserving. Learn how at one of our Operation Tighten-Up workshops. Call us for information on a workshop in your neighborhood.

FAMILY AFFAIR-Open house at East grader Brian Stansell with younger brothers Jeremy and Jason, and his parents Beverly and Joe. (SDN Staff Photo)

OBITUARIES

ORRAN FRAENZL

Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tonight at Bell-Seale Funeral home for Orran Ross Fraenzl, 28, who died early Monday following a one-car accident east of Snyder.

The body will be taken Wednesday to San Diego, Calif., where funeral rites will be held at Goodbody's Boulevard Chapel.

The family will be at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Fraenzl, 13460 Highway 8 Business, Space 119, Lakeside, Calif., 92040.

In addition to the parents, survivors include four sisters, Ann Fraenzl of Mission Diejo, Calif., Clare Fraenzl of Pittsburgh, Pa., Catherine Fraenzl of Sandy, Ore., and Margaret Fraenzl of Lakeside, two brothers, John Fraenzl of Woodland, Wash., and Gerry Fraenzl of LaMesa, Calif.

H. D. Mason

H. D. Mason, 84, long-time resident of Hermleigh, died at 2:35 p.m. Monday in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Big Spring.

Funeral services have been set for 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Bell-Seale Funeral Home Chapel, with Kevin Mayhew, minister of Hermleigh Church of Christ, officiating. Burial will be in the Pyron Cemetery, under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

A retired farmer, Mr. Mason was a native of Clyde, but had lived in the Hermleigh community since 1897.

Surviving are a son, Harold Mason of Hermleigh, and a brother, Jack Mason, of Sweetwater.

Villareal Infant

Graveside rites were to be held in Snyder Cemetery for Rosalio Villareal Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosalio Villareal. The child was stillborn at 12:40 a.m. today at Cogdell Memorial Hospital. The Rev. Thomas Jordan was to officiate at the rites, and the time was to be announced by Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

One Hurt In Mishap Here

A two-vehicle traffic accident early this morning sent one man to Cogdell Memorial Hospital for treatment.

The wreck occurred on 37th St., near Lou's Kiddie Cottage, and involved a 1971 Chevrolet driven by Curtis McGloughlin and a 1973 Ford driven by Frances Jones. Percy Hurst, a passenger in one of the vehicles, was taken to Cogdell where he was treated and released.

The accident occurred about 7:30 a.m. and was worked by Buddy Kinney.

Inflation Reflected In State Fair Prices

DALLAS (AP)—It costs 50 cents more to get into the State Fair of Texas this year. And the buck doesn't stop there.

With inflation acting like a rollercoaster that can only go straight up, fair prices are, well, fairly-padded.

To pass through the State Fair gates costs an adult $3, compared to $2.50 last year and $2 in 1978. Children aged 5 to 12 get in for 100 pennies.

In 1980, it was only two bits for anybody over 12 years of age "whether in carriage, on horse or foot."

Then fork over $2 for official State Fair parking.

The increased prices of the fare at the fair may be hard to digest too. With a nickel more here and a dime addition there, lunch on a budget goes begging.

Wholesale meats prices are up 18 percent this year, fair officials say, and hence the slightly-upped food costs.

Hamburgers jumped a quarter to $1.50 and corny dogs increased from 80 cents to 90.

If you take a cotton to cotton candy, expect to pay 80 cents, 20 cents more than 1979. And the traditional ear of corn costs an untraditional dime more at 90 cents.

A typical fast-food meal for two parents and two children — four hamburgers, four fries and four small drinks — runs $11, a price that may be hard for some families to swallow.

Admission into the fair gates is just that — admission. Cash or coupons are required for entrance to rides and other attractions.

Rides cost from 60 cents to $1.50 each, or coupons can be purchased in books of 18 for $5 and 40 for $10.

A try at the brass ring on the merry-go-round costs three coupons or 90 cents — the same amount buys you a peek at "Little Ricky Donovan," billed as the world's smallest man. In what may be sexist price-setting, fairgoers can see the world's smallest woman for small potatoes, two coupons or 60 cents.

One merchant, who travels from fair to fair hawking her wares, sells huge hats for $15, $20 if you buy two. She calls fairs her "business." And business here at the world's largest state fair is good, she said.

Adult Classes

Adult education classes are now being held at the education center of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church as well as at Western Texas College.

Adult education is a program for adults who have not completed high school and it helps them prepare for GED tests or to improve basic knowledge of English, reading, science, and math for personal needs.

Now Meeting

Classes meet from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday at Our Lady of Guadalupe. Classes meet from 6:30 to 9 on Tuesday and Thursday nights in the Learning Resource Center at WTC.

Students may enroll at any class meeting and work on the subjects they choose. There is no charge for the classes and materials are furnished.

Persons who would like details about adult education are invited to call the continuing education office at WTC, 573-8511, extension 240.

Brothels Closed After 100 Years

DEADWOOD, S.D. (AP) — Circuit Judge R.E. Brandenburg said he didn't see much harm in keeping Deadwood's historic brothels open, but he had "a job to do" and closed them permanently. He expects "a little static on the golf course on Sunday" since his decision Monday is bound to be unpopular with some Deadwood citizens who believe the four brothels helped the town maintain its Wild West flavor.

The brothels had been operating for more than 100 years even though prostitution is illegal in South Dakota. Deadwood citizens tolerated their well-known bawdy houses and even credited them with boosting the town's economy, which relies heavily on tourism.

Brandenburg granted a state request to declare three of the brothels a public nuisance and close them permanently.

House Fire Extinguished

A house fire in China Grove was doused last night by Snyder firefighters.

The fire gutted and heavily damaged the house of Louis Garcia. Firefighters reported, however, that Garcia was moving out the house, preparing to move into town, when the fire broke out and had already removed the bulk of his household furnishings.

Cause of the fire was still being investigated.

The call was received at 8:15 p.m.
