Museum board airs funding concerns

Scurry County Museum Board members made an impassioned plea to the board of trustees at Western Texas College on Monday, urging that funds to the museum not be cut.

Museum board president Charles Anderson, and board members Drew Bullard, Jon Derouen, Polly Echols and Gary Sisson met with the trustees during the college's April board date. Trustees also accepted three resignations and one retirement and approved 63 professional contracts. They also approved the 1991-92 catalogue, okayed an umbrella policy with USF&G and hired Kelly Green as the new men's basketball coach.

Trustees accepted "with deep regret" the retirement of Aline Parks, and accepted the resignations of former men's basketball coach Tony Mauldin, developmental math instructor Janice Mauldin and assistant coach Don Clay.

College administrators had told museum board members that the college is considering cutting some $22,000 in funding it provides the museum in the 1991-92 budget. The funds pay benefits to the museum director and curator, and provide benefits and salary for a part-time employee. In response to the proposed cuts, board members attended Monday's meeting to voice their opposition.

In a prepared statement,

Anderson outlined the history of Scurry County Museum and its association with the college and county.

"Our budget has been cut in

'We see it as more than cutting fat; we see it as cutting into the existence of the museum.'

past years and we have continually worked hard to take up the slack...At the present time, we are having to dip into our insurance money in order to hire a part-time person to maintain records," said Anderson.

"We feel that if funds have to be cut from a college budget that the vast majority of taxpayers had much rather that you look at other programs for cutting expenses...According to my calculations, a $22,000 cut is over 90 percent of what we were receiving from the college

"A few years from now, we may be able to have the type endowment we need and can take some cuts in funds. Right now, however, we feel that a reduction in funds will kill the museum in Scurry County."

Administrators questioned the museum board's figure of a 90 percent cut, noting that the college also pays an estimated $40,000-$43,000 in utilities, custodial services, maintenance and supplies, garden upkeep and administrative costs.

"We're talking about the difference between cutting and wiping out an institution," said Bullard. "If you cut out these funds we're not going to be able to maintain anything close to the level we have now...We may keep the doors open but it will be a long way from being the museum it is at this time."

Trustee John Fagin responded, "That is not the intent of any member of this board. The college receives its money from a limited area. Yours can come from grants, endowments, user (see MUSEUM, page 8)

Green to run cage program

Western Texas College board of trustees named Kelly Green as the institution's new men's basketball coach Monday — a move which brought opposition from one longtime board member.

Green, who has coached the past two years at Frank Phillips College in Borger, will begin his duties immediately. Trustees have set his salary at $30,930 for a 10-month contract. He replaces Tony Mauldin, who resigned March 12 to accept the men's basketball position at Abilene Christian University.

Green was unanimously endorsed by a five-member search committee, but not by the board of trustees.

"I make a motion we table consideration of a men's basketball coach until we can more clearly see what funding we are going to receive from the state," said Trustee Bill Wilson Jr. "I think our primary objective is academic, and I believe it might be wise to hold up on this program."

In discussion which never became heated, several trustees rebuffed Wilson's motion.

"We can't do that, Bill, if we are going to have a program this (next) year we have to hire someone now so he can begin recruiting. We can't wait several months and expect to have any kind of team next year," said Howard Sterling.

"I made my motion," responded Wilson, an original member of the board of trustees. "I've only been working for this outfit since 1957. I just feel it's the wrong thing to do at this point."

Board President Bob Hargrove, a long-time supporter of athletics at WTC, voiced his support, noting, "I think athletics is a part of this community college. I think it draws support for the college. I don't think we want to drop athletics."

"I didn't say athletics," countered Wilson. "I said men's basketball. I'm not talking about women, golf or rodeo. A goodly portion of the program (expense) is men's basketball. I think the next three-four-five years we will be continually confronted with (financial) problems. If we get this program out of the way it will help give us a little room."

Carl Williams, a trustee and a member of the search committee, noted, "A lot of time has gone into selecting a coach. Several people came here (to interview) at their own expense. They acted in good faith."

After further brief discussion, the board accepted and seconded a motion to hire Green. Trustees voted 5-1 with Fagin, Hargrove, Williams, Sterling and R.C. Patton casting "yes" votes and Wilson voting "no." Trustee John Gayle was absent.

"I want to say this (vote) has nothing to do with Kelly," Wilson noted, explaining he was voting against the program and not against the coach.

Green guided Frank Phillips College to a 17-13 record for the 1990-91 season, the school's first winning season in 10 years. His

2 arrested on charges

A Snyder couple, indicted earlier this month for aggravated sexual assault of a child, are free after posting $20,000 bond each.

Antonio Perez Silva, 27, and his 25-year-old wife, Ofelia Martinez Silva, were taken into custody at 12:25 p.m. Monday at their residence in the 600 block of College by a Snyder police officer.

The two were indicted by a Scurry County grand jury April 1 for the aggravated sexual assault of an 11-year-old girl. According to the indictment, the incident occurred in 1989.

The offense was first reported to police in March by the girl, now 13.

'THE TEMPEST' — Western Texas College drama department's production of William Shakespeare's "The Tempest" will be presented at 8 p.m. April 11, 12 and 15 and at 2 p.m. on April 14 in the Fine Arts Theatre of WTC. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students and senior citizens and can be reserved by calling 573-8511, extension 234. Pictured are cast members Kenn Kern, left, and Brad Vincent. (WTC Photo)

Public schools budget hit with $400,000 in expenses

Snyder public schools board of trustees learned Monday of an estimated $450,000 to $500,000 which will have to be added to next year's budget.

Trustees met in a three-hour workshop to discuss budget items, problems with the bell and clocks systems at the high school and replacement of the junior high school boiler. Also discussed were first period seventh and ninth grade athletic periods.

The workshop preceded the board's April regular meeting, originally scheduled this Thursday, but which has been changed to Tuesday, April 16, due to conflicts.

Assistant Superintendent Tom Scannicchio, addressing State Compensatory Funds, noted that new guidelines will not allow those monies to pay for general salaries of teachers next year. Snyder ISD received some $450,000 in compensatory funds last year — funds which are based on the free lunch program.

The district will be able to use an estimated $200,000 to $225,000 of the funds as they are currently being distributed. However, the additional $225,000 to $250,000 will have to be used differently — for newly implemented programs and salaries only — under the new guidelines. This means that some $225,000 to $250,000 which has been used for general salaries in the past, will not be available for that purpose next year.

Dr. Scannicchio will be presenting ideas to the board as to how to use the funds during upcoming meetings.

Superintendent Dalton Moseley also informed the board that step pay increases as mandated by the state would amount to approximately $207,000 next year. In a related item, the board was told that Business Manager Lee McNair is in the process of visiting all of the campuses in the school district to explain "step" pay raises and answer other salary related questions.

Maintenance Director Lawton Taylor addressed the board for permission to write specifications and take bids on a sectional boiler for the junior high school. The low pressure steam boiler is estimated to cost between $25,000 and $30,000.

Also discussed were new clocks and a bell system for the high school. Inaccurate clocks and a malfunctioning bell system are being blamed in part for a high rate of tardiness at the school. Taylor said an electronic bell system which would connect with

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Love is blind, but marriage is an eye-opener."

During the past 10 years, rumors have circulated that Proctor and Gamble Company was hooked up with the Church of Satan.

The rumors have again surfaced, and we've received a couple of inquiries here at the newspaper.

One person had received information that the president of the soap company had appeared on the Phil Donahue Show and admitted that a large portion of the company's profits go to Satanism.

The Wall Street Journal recently reported that Proctor and Gamble won a $75,000 judgment against a couple who had passed out literature stating that Proctor and Gamble was linked to the forces of evil. According to the business journal, no Proctor and Gamble executive has ever appeared on the Donahue Show.

The couple's literature said that the corporate symbol, a moon and stars, could be seen as 666, a satanic number.

As a result of such rumors, the company says it has spent considerable resources and time answering more than 150,000 calls and letters about the falsehoods.

It's a good story, but it just ain't so...

We tagged along to the grocery store on a recent Saturday and observed people buying goodies for Easter dinner.

One rather heavy-set woman was trying to make a decision. The matter under discussion was a terrific-looking cake that was hot out of the oven.

"These are really good," the clerk said. "And they are one of our best sellers."

The woman agreed that it looked great. But with a sigh, she said, "But I had better not get it."

"You'll be sorry," said the clerk.

"I know, but I have a problem with rich desserts. For some reason, they make my clothes shrink."

Blood drive today

Cogdell Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and Scurry County Advisory Council for United Blood Services are sponsoring a blood drive until 7 p.m. today at Towle Park Barn.

The goal for the drive is to collect 150 pints.

In appreciation for blood donations, each participant will receive coupons for a DQ Sundae from Dairy Queen, a malt or milk shake from Sonic Drive In, a medium soft drink with the purchase of any dessert from Whataburger, a small soft drink and order of potatoes ole' from Taco John's, a medium drink with any food purchase from Wal-Mart, a medium drink with any meal purchase from Long John Silver's, a dollar off from Golden Corral and a dessert from McDonald's.

Every tenth donor will receive a six-pack from Dr. Pepper Bottling Co. while every other donor will receive a coupon for a regular order from Gill's Fried Chicken.

Fourteen $5 gift certificates will be awarded — seven from Jaramillo's and seven from Spanish Inn. A Sunday buffet for two at Willow Park Inn will be awarded by number drawing.

Gifts from UBS include an assortment of iron-on transfers for T-shirts or neon colored sunglasses or water/squeeze bottles.

Cookies will be provided by Lawrence IGA and orange juice will be furnished by Cogdell Hospital Auxiliary.

Classmates didn't know Smith was a Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Willie Smith spent his first year at Georgetown Medical School so quietly that one friend said "no one even knew he was a Kennedy."

"He's the least political of all of them," said classmate Kathleen Albrecht. "He doesn't flaunt the fact that he's a Kennedy at all."

But that cloak of anonymity was lifted last week when police in Palm Beach, Fla., named William Kennedy Smith a suspect in an alleged rape on the beach outside the Kennedy family compound.

Today Smith, 30, is in seclusion, refusing to communicate with investigators beyond giving them a sample of his hair and blood.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who was at the Florida family compound with his son, Rhode Island state Rep. Patrick Kennedy, and Smith, returns to the Senate today clear of any suspicion he was involved but, once again, under the cloud of scandal.

Through a week-long flurry of publicity, Smith issued only one, terse, written statement in his own defense: "Any suggestion that I was involved in any offense is erroneous."

Meanwhile, Smith is avoiding his home in the fashionable Georgetown neighborhood of Washington but still reports for a required hospital internship, according to friends.

"That's why this is so hard on him," one classmate said.

Friends and fellow students describe Smith as quiet, funny, hard-working, dedicated to helping the underprivileged and incapable of committing rape.

"The whole school is really shocked. Nobody thinks he could have done it," Albrecht said. She described herself as "good friends" with "Willie."

The Georgetown University telephone directory lists Smith as William K. Smith, leaving little clue that he is the son of Stephen Smith and Jean Kennedy Smith, sister of Edward Kennedy and the late President Kennedy.

The elder Smith was considered the guardian of the Kennedy family name. A suave New York businessman, it was Smith to whom Edward Kennedy turned in 1969 after the Chappaquiddick incident in which the senator failed to report for several hours the drowning of Mary Jo Kopechne in his car.

William Smith apparently harbored no political aspirations of his own, friends say. But in 1980 he took a year off from Duke University to work for his uncle Edward's presidential campaign.

"He was a liberal, progressive Democrat, very fond of the family philosophy and proud of his uncle," said Mark Mirkin, Smith's college roommate and now an attorney in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Other than the occasional game of tennis, Smith had only a passing interest in sports. Mirkin recalled bringing Smith along to basketball games at Duke, a pastime closer to religion for many students at that North Carolina campus.

After an education that included the best prep schools in New York and Connecticut and then Duke, Smith went to Wall Street to work at a brokerage firm. That lasted only briefly, and Smith followed his passion for travel.

He took a train trip across China, the Soviet Union and Europe and spent enough time in China to become fluent in the language, Albrecht said.

He accompanied his mother on her overseas and cross-country trips for the group Very Special Arts, a cultural version of the Special Olympics.

David Horowitz, coauthor of "The Kennedys: An American Drama," noted that in the late 1970s and early '80s, Smith was not one of the "Hyannisport Terrorists," the name given the Kennedy cousins who frolicked and partied at bars and clubs on Cape Cod, Mass. Horowitz said the rape allegation was difficult to reconcile with Smith's medical career.

At 6 feet 3 inches tall and better looking than his pictures indicate, "He has a lot of women friends," Albrecht said. "He doesn't suffer for dates." But Smith has no particular girlfriend at the moment, she said.

"He's a very nice guy. He's quiet. He has a good sense of humor; he's very funny. He's a little on the moody side," Albrecht said.

Kids need to watch their cholesterol

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controlling cholesterol isn't just for adults anymore.

The government is recommending that children adopt a diet that is low in fat and cholesterol to avoid heart disease when they get older.

Man charged with rape fired as state school employee

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Lubbock State School officials have fired an employee accused of raping and fathering the child of a severely retarded state school resident.

Lubbock State School Superintendent Lonnie H. Willis Monday said Russell A. Griffith had been fired as a worker at the school.

Griffith was arrested April 2 after DNA blood tests identified him as the leading suspect in the rape of a 26-year-old state school resident, who is known only by the initials "T.S." The victim has an IQ of 7.

Experts say genetic blood testing can determine paternity with 99.99 percent accuracy.

"After reviewing the findings and recommendation of the Client Abuse and Neglect Committee (CANC), this individual's employment with Lubbock State School was terminated," Willis said.

"Experts acknowledge it's tough getting kids to eat right but they say healthy food doesn't have to be boring. And no one's even suggesting a ban on childhood favorites like ice cream and hot dogs."

"You don't have to be perfect every week or even every month," said Dr. Laurence Finberg of the American Academy of Pediatrics. "If you work it out over a period of years, it will have some effect."

The National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute issued recommendations Monday on children's fat and cholesterol intake. The guidelines for youngsters were the same as those already recommended for the general population, but new federal officials are placing new priority on children.

The guidelines call for limiting saturated fatty acids to 10 percent of calories, limiting fat intake to no more than 30 percent of calories and holding cholesterol to 300 milligrams a day.

The new federal guidelines also recommend that children from families with a history of premature heart disease or high cholesterol have their blood cholesterol levels tested.

That would result in testing about 25 percent of children and adolescents, or about 14 million youngsters. About half of those tested would need follow-up attention, mainly through special diets, the panel said.

Parents can steer children toward good foods "without being overbearing or trying to hold their noses and force it down their throats," said Dr. Scott Grundy of the Center for Human Nutrition in Dallas.

Health experts also hope fast-food restaurants, school lunch programs and food manufacturers will start offering kids healthier choices. Most children, for example, would jump at a healthy school lunch that featured tacos made with beef that was well drained, they say.

The new recommendations don't apply to infants age 2 and under, since babies need more fat in their diets than older children.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What can you tell me about the new, implantable contraceptive?

DEAR READER: Wyeth-Ayerst Laboratories developed a new method of birth control, which was recently approved by the Food and Drug Administration. Called Norplant, it provides reversible, five-year protection.

The device consists of six thin Silastic tubes (containing the female hormone progesterin) that are implanted under the skin of the upper arm. The hormone then diffuses through the tubes and prevents ovulation. Norplant insertion is an office procedure; the capsules can be removed at any time. The method has few complications (primarily, menstrual irregularity) and is highly effective.

Because Norplant has just been introduced in the United States, American doctors have no experience with it. However, judging from preliminary reports of its success abroad, it will probably achieve widespread acceptance here. Ask your gynecologist for details of this innovation.

DEAR DR. GOTT: The mental capacity of my bright and intelligent 85-year-old mother deteriorated over a period of only 11 weeks until her death. Will you please share any information regarding the rare Creutzfeldt-Jakob brain disease? Can it be caused by stress, and is it inherited?

DEAR READER: Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease is a progressive, inevitably fatal brain affliction caused by a virus infection. It is not inherited or stress-related, the mode of transmission is unknown. The disease affects men and women equally and has a peak incidence in the late 50s.

The disorder begins as a dementia (self-neglect, apathy and disorientation) and rapidly progresses to profound intellectual defects, poor balance, tremor, weakness, rigidity and visual problems.

The diagnosis is suspected in any patient with accelerated dementia, and is confirmed by brain biopsy or by identifying the virus in the spinal fluid.

There is no treatment. Death occurs within a year, usually from pneumonia.

To give you additional information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Alzheimer's Disease," a similar neurological disease. Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Tasty apple quiche

NEW YORK (AP) — Apple Raisin Quiche is a variation of the classic quiche, combining eggs and cheese with apples and raisins.

The recipe is from Bunny Hagemeyer, co-owner of Seattle's Chambered Nautilus Inn. She suggests serving the quiche with sausage or Canadian bacon.

APPLE RAISIN OUCHE
Pastry for one 9-inch pie crust
3 3/4 cups Granny Smith apples (about 3 medium), peeled, cored and thinly sliced
1/2 cup raisins
1/4 cup packed light brown sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
3 cups (12 ounces) shredded Monterey Jack cheese
3 eggs
1 cup whipping cream

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Line a 9-inch pie plate with pastry. Crimp edge and prick bottom and sides with fork at 1/2-inch intervals. To prevent shrinkage, set an 8-inch round cake pan into pie shell, or line snugly with aluminium foil. Bake in a 400-degree F oven for 6 minutes. Remove cake pan or foil and continue to bake shell until lightly browned, about 10 minutes. Remove from oven.

Layer one-half of the apples, raisins, brown sugar and cinnamon in pie shell; repeat layers. Cover completely with cheese.

Beat eggs with cream. Make a small hole in cheese; pour egg mixture into hole. Cover hole with cheese. Bake in a 400-degree F oven about 1 hour, or until top is browned and apples are tender when tested with pick. Cool 10 to 15 minutes before cutting into wedges. Makes 6 servings.

Subscriptions for magazines sought

In an effort to supply the public a large variety of magazine titles, the Scurry County Library solicits magazine subscriptions at this time each year.

People who are interested in donating a subscription are asked to plan on doing it on an annual basis, says Janice Mitchell, Scurry County Librarian. This provides continuity which is helpful both to people interested in certain magazines and for paperwork purposes also, she noted.

The County Library is interested in magazines that help broaden the subjects covered by the library, and are of a general nature.

"The cost of giving a subscription can be small ($15 to $25) and yet will give a year's worth of pleasure to many people," said Mitchell.

Some magazines needed at the library are Brides Magazine, $18; Field & Stream, $15.94; Golf, $15.94; Cycle, $16; and Car & Driver, $20.

For a complete list or other ideas, contact the Scurry County Library.

Mitchell suggests using this method of community involvement for clubs or organizations; or as a living memorial. All subscriptions will be purchased through the library.

rather than two hearts? West led the king of spades. Rixi ruffed in the dummy and called for the king of clubs. East won with the ace and returned his trump, but Rixi won in the dummy and made the key play: she ruffed a club in her hand. She finessed the queen of hearts successfully, cashed the ace of hearts, ruffed a heart in hand, ruffed a spade in the dummy and trumped another heart in hand. She had brought home eight tricks: the ace of diamonds, the A-Q of hearts, one club ruff and two heart ruffs in hand, and two spade ruffs in the dummy. The queen of clubs was a mirage.

20th Century plans breakfast

The Twentieth Century Club met at the Lois Bartels' Merry Heart Collectibles for its April meeting.

During the business session, presided over by the club president, Henrietta Dupree, members voted to end the year with a May breakfast.

For several years, the club's last meeting of the year was a breakfast. For a while, members met in the park to cook their breakfast. Later, members met in the home of the hostess for breakfast. To end this club year, members plan to have breakfast together at Willow Park Inn on May 7, and those on the social committee will serve as hostesses.

"A Time To Plant" was the program topic and members discussed ways of gardening and landscaping that helps protect the earth's ecology. April is Earth Month, and in observance of Texas Arbor Day on April 27, club members plan to plant a tree and encourage everyone to do so.

"I DON'T KNOW WHAT I'LL DO WHEN MY MOM GETS TOO OLD TO TIE MY SHOES."

FPC's Kelly Green...

WTC board hires new coach

Frank Phillips College mens' basketball coach, Kelly Green, was hired Monday to take the vacant Western Texas College job at the regular monthly meeting of the college's board of trustees.

Green replaces Tony Mauldin, who left WTC in mid-March to accept the head coaching post at Abilene Christian University.

"I'm looking forward to the job there," Green said in a phone interview from Borger this morning.

"I think it's a super situation. Coach Mauldin brought the team to a very competitive level and, hopefully, I can get them to the next level."

"I think WTC has the best tradition in the conference," he continued.

"I like being at a place that is hungry for a winner."

"He's coached Frank Phillips to a pretty good record the last couple of years," said Gay Hickman, WTC vice-president for business and finance and a member of the search committee that recommended Green for the job.

"He also seems to have a real concern for academics as well as for the skills of his players."

"Hopefully he'll have time to make some recruiting contacts and put a good team on the floor for the basketball season."

Green served as head basketball coach and physical education instructor at FPC in Borger since 1989.

He is a 1985 graduate of Northwestern Oklahoma State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business.

His coaching career began in 1985 at Oklahoma City university where he served as graduate assistant and assistant intramural director.

He left there in 1987 with a Masters in Arts and Teaching.

From 1987 to 1989 Green was assistant basketball coach at West Texas State University in Canyon.

WTSU finished second in the Lone Star Conference both seasons with records of 29-9 and 20-7.

Green guided the 1989-90 Plainsmen to a 12-19 season mark before helping them to their first winning campaign in 10 years, 17-13, in 1990-91, including two conference wins over Mauldin's Westerner crew.

The new WTC skipper was named Western Junior College Athletic Conference all-star coach and runner-up Coach of the Year following his first season with Frank Phillips.

Green said his basketball philosophy would depend largely on his personnel.

"We'll do whatever it takes to win."

"Here at Frank Phillips this season we averaged over 95 points per game, so I like to get the ball up and down the floor. That kind of basketball is fun to coach and it's fun for the kids to play, but if you look at the top teams in the conference, the ones that went to the regional tournament, they were the best defensive teams."

Green is unaware of the status of the six freshman that are on the Westerners' roster.

"I'm really not sure about the players that are there," Green stated. "I'm hoping to get down there in a couple of days and meet with them and we'll just go from there."

About academics: "It's the most important part of a junior college's job."

"These kids that we'll get from recruiting will come to a junior college for a couple of reasons."

Randy Underwood took second, R.L. Higdon claimed fifth and Davis grabbed seventh in the standing broad jump while Johnson captured third, Cerda took fourth and Castelon and May finished eighth in the running broad jump.

Farmer came in second in the 400 meter race walk Saturday followed by Underwood in third and Higdon in fourth.

The 400 meter relay team of Cerda, Butler, Castelon and Cotton wound up fifth at the meet.

Athletes advancing to the state games in San Marcos May 21-24, due to their showing here, include Crowley, Underwood, Tim Collins, Wesley Collins, Cotton, Mullen, Farmer, Mirales, Guererro, Davis and Vasquez.

Coaches for the Snyder Go-Getters are Mickey Kitchens, Thomas Pyburn, Tommy Cotton, Lillie Raschke, Elois Davis, Ruth Banks and Juanita Glass.

Chaperones to the San Angelo event were Johnnie Pyburn and La Verne Kitchens.

Tigers hope to extend district winning streak

The Snyder Tigers will attempt to build on a 2-game winning streak today when they battle the Estacado Matadors in a District 2-4A baseball matchup in Lubbock.

The Tigers rolled to a 6-1 win over Dunbar in their district home opener last Friday behind junior pitcher David Patrick.

Patrick went the distance for the SHS crew, striking out 14 and allowing just two hits.

The Mats will present some problems according to Snyder coach Albert Lewis.

"They are always tough," he said. "This year they are kind of like we are so far, searching for consistency."

"They have the hitting and they have some speed. They might be a little suspect in their pitching."

Estacado, 8-11 on the season and 2-1 in loop games, is coming off a 6-2 defeat of Lamesa Friday on the arm of pitcher Albert McBride.

The Matadors are expected to send Danny Bryand (2-2, 4.45 ERA) against the Tigers today.

Snyder will counter with Terry Stephens (2-2). Stephens' most notable appearance this season was a complete game win against Brownfield in the Snyder Baseball Tournament.

The Tigers are set to return home for a 3-game home stand beginning Friday at 7 p.m. against Lamesa.

In other district games tonight, Frenship is at Lamesa and Dunbar hosts Levelland.

Anderson declares for NBA draft

ATLANTA (AP) — All-America guard Kenny Anderson said he's skipping his final two seasons at Georgia Tech to enter the NBA draft.

Anderson reportedly considered staying another season at Tech after a poor shooting performance in the Yellow Jackets' second-round loss to Ohio State in the NCAA tournament.

But the 6-foot-2 sophomore said he decided to turn pro after speaking over the weekend with his mother and Tech coach Bobby Cremins. Anderson averaged 25.9 points, 5.8 rebounds and 5.8 assists last season.

Shoemaker critical after accident

SAN DIMAS, Calif. (AP) — Bill Shoemaker, the winningest jockey in thoroughbred racing history, was in critical condition today with internal injuries suffered in an automobile accident.

"His condition is critical," Kay Threlkeld, the public relations director at Glendora Community Hospital, said late Monday night, some three hours after the accident occurred. "That's about all I can say. He is in surgery at this time."

"I just know he was in an automobile accident and suffered major internal injuries. The paramedics brought him in here."

California Highway Patrol officer Joe Flores said Shoemaker, 59, was alone in his 1990 Ford Bronco II, a four-wheel-drive vehicle, when the accident occurred.

"We think he was under the influence of alcohol because there was an odor of alcohol on his person," Flores said. "He has been arrested."

Flores said the accident occurred near San Dimas about 8:30 p.m. PDT as Shoemaker was driving westbound on State Route 30, the connector road to the southbound 210 Freeway.

San Dimas is located about 30 miles northeast of Los Angeles. "The vehicle went over the side ... down a 50-foot embankment," Flores said. "It rolled over several times and landed on its wheels. It appears to have rolled over at least two times."

Henderson named NFL labor VP

NEW YORK (AP) — Amtrak official Harold Henderson was named executive vice president of labor relations by the NFL. Henderson, 48, becomes the highest-ranking black in the NFL's 72-year history. He also will direct the NFL Management Council, commissioner Paul Tagliabue said.

He succeeds Jack Donlan, who resigned in February after 11 years as executive director of the Management Council.

Coach rejects disciplinary measures

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — It was Arkansas basketball coach Nolan Richardson's decision to reject a top school official's recommendation for swift, tough discipline for four players involved in a sexual incident, athletic director Frank Broyles says.

That incident was the subject of a report issued Monday by a university judicial board. The report was given to the players involved, but not made public. The board has authority to discipline students.

"He made the decision about what to do, but we discussed things together and I was in complete agreement with what he did because he wanted and I wanted due process to take place," Broyles said of Richardson in a telephone interview from his office.

Richardson declined comment, through UA spokesmen. The spokesmen said Broyles was speaking on Richardson's behalf. Richardson was recruiting in Texas during the weekend, but was back in Fayetteville on Monday.

A 34-year-old Springdale woman told police she was sexually assaulted in the athletic dorm in February. Four basketball players said they had sex with her, but that she had consented.

The woman did not press charges, and prosecutor Andrew Ziser said there was not enough evidence to file charges.

fees, many other areas. Maybe you could receive help from the chamber through the hotel-motel tax fund."

Fagin noted that the museum budget is $87,600 for 1991, which does not include the estimated $40,000 in maintenance and utilities provided by the college.

"We see it as more than cutting fat, we see it as cutting into the existence of the museum," said Bullard. "If you could cut out activities that would be one thing, but this (action) is cutting out people."

Both Fagin and Dr. Harry Krenk, college president, questioned the museum's worth to the college.

"This board member thinks the worth of that to the overall college program is almost disproportionate to the amount of cost," Fagin noted.

Krenk later added, "At this point, and at least for the past four or five years, the value of the museum to the college and to our instructional program, has been virtually nil."

Museum board members stressed the value of the museum to the community and college, and to the history of Scurry County.

"Last year, we lost one of the best museums in the country — the Diamond M," said Anderson. "That museum was worth millions and brought many people to Snyder. There is no hope of ever getting that museum back to Scurry County. If we let our museum die, I see little hope of the community ever bringing it back."

In conclusion, museum board members were told that no action could be taken on the college's 1991-92 budget until late summer.

"We're gathering budget information now. But basically we have to wait two or three months to hear from the state. At that time, we will make the budget and at that time, this will be considered again," said Krenk.

The board approved $6,389 in premium costs for vehicle liability insurance through USF&G and agreed to take a tour of the college farm on the date of its next meeting, scheduled for May 13.

The only other items of business were past minutes and the financial report, which were approved.

the school's paging system could be purchased for about $1,420, and 56 battery-operated quartz clocks could be obtained for approximately $2,000. Those items and the boiler are expected to be acted on during the May 16 board meeting.

Athletic Director David Baugh discussed implementing a seventh grade athletic period during first period, and also moving the freshman athletic period to first period.

Trustee Sam Robertson pointed out that band is also held first period for freshman students and Baugh said that students in band could participate in athletics during the afternoon.

"I don't have a problem with that, if a kid has the opportunity to do both," said Robertson. "My concern is that kids understand they can do both."

Under Baugh's plan, students enrolled in football and band would work out in the afternoon with the junior varsity football team. Gary Patterson, who will be high school principal next year, suggested that this could be explained to students and noted the school might also send a letter of explanation to the parents.

The morning athletic period would be only for the sport in season. It was noted that this would free up gym space during basketball season, and allow varsity coaches time to work with freshman athletes. It would also even out class scheduling by having some coaches teach during sixth period.

"We'd like to implement this program on a trial basis and evaluate it after next year," Mosley noted.

Board members learned that the high school ceramics instructor has asked to be assigned to a vacated position in the industrial arts department. In response, Supt. Moseley recommended the school drop ceramics and instead hire another English teacher. Trustees, noting that 80 students are enrolled in ceramics and that the school has an "excellent" ceramics facility, instructed Moseley to consider hiring both an English teacher and a ceramics instructor.

Also discussed was the need for a girl's golf coach, the 1991-92 calendar and high school curriculum. Trustees were told that honors classes would be added in calculus, English and biology at the high school.

Diversified

By Mike Morrow,
County Extension Agent

About this time of year home lawns need a boost to get them in shape for the upcoming season. A couple of operations can get your lawn off to a good start...scalping and fertilizing.

Scalping a lawn in early spring can serve to revitalize it and promote early spring green-up. When scalping the lawn, lower your lawnmower blade to 1/2 to 1-inch below the normal setting. Mow the lawn in two directions and remove the clippings after each mowing. These clippings are good to use for compost or to use as a mulch around garden and landscape plants.

Around April 14, fertilize your lawn with a complete fertilizer — one containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium. Use a fertilizer with a 1-1-1 ratio or 2-1-1 ration at a rate equivalent to one pound of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn. Generally, this application should carry the lawn through early to mid-summer. Between June 1 and June 15 fertilize the lawn with a nitrogen source such as ammonium sulfate at a rate of one pound of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet. This should provide enough nutrition for your lawn through the remainder of the summer months.

Fall fertilization is the key to prolonging fall color and promoting early spring recovery of lawns. It also helps to produce a dense turf which resists winter weeds. Around mid-September, apply a complete fertilizer with a 2-1-2, 3-1-2 or 4-1-2 ratio of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium at a rate of 1.5 pounds nitrogen per 1,000 square feet.

Always water your lawn thoroughly after fertilizing. Water as needed to prevent severe wilting, but water thoroughly when irrigation is necessary. After watering, check the water penetration. The soil should be wet to a depth of at least four inches. It sometimes helps to operate the sprinklers for 15-20 minute periods at one hour intervals. This allows the water to infiltrate the soil and not run off into the street.

SYMPOSIUM

With current livestock prices better than normal, some ranchers may be seeking to maintain or reclaim pastures for sustained productivity. A Brush Management Symposium will be held May 7-8 in Abilene on the Abilene Christian University campus. The program will begin at 8:30 a.m. each day and will conclude by 5 p.m. on May 7 and 3 p.m. on May 8. Field exercises will be conducted the afternoon of May 8.

Topics to be covered in the symposium include new brush management technologies, prickly pear and juniper management, methods for determining cost effectiveness of brush treatments as well as broadcast control methods and individual plant control methods.

The program is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and is open to the public. Cost is $20, and includes a noon meal each day. For further details, contact the Scurry County Extension Office.

THREE WAYS TO MAKE RECIPES LOW-CALORIE

Most of us could benefit by modifying what we eat. One way to modify your diet is to make adjustments in the types and amounts of ingredients in recipes so that the end result is just as satisfying but fits better with recommended dietary guidelines.

Very few recipes need to be followed exactly to assure a good quality product. Your chances for success are best if you understand when and how to modify recipes. Instead of giving up your favorite recipes, modify them by following these three principles:

1. Eliminate non-essentials: Leave out all non-essential ingredients. For example, butter on broiled fish can be eliminated or salt can be omitted from the water when boiling foods.
2. Reduce contents: Use less fat, sugar, or salt as much as possible by reducing the amount in preparation.

3. Substitute ingredients: Use more healthful ingredients or a lower-calorie cooking method. Replace whole milk with low-fat or skim milk. Try steaming rather than frying.

Don't be too quick to change your recipes, however. Take a look at your recipes and see how they measure up to your plans to make positive changes in your eating habits.

1991 FARM PROGRAM SIGN-UP DEADLINE NEAR

Sign-up for the 1991 Farm Program ends April 26. Farm operators who desire price support protection and deficiency payment eligibility must enroll their farms by this deadline.

There are only 14 working days left to sign up, so call for an appointment. Once the farm is enrolled, landowners and other tenants have two weeks additional time to furnish needed signatures and necessary forms to determine payment eligibility.

If you intend to participate in this year's program, a producer must reduce his plantings of program crops by the following: cotton, 5.; sorghum, 7.5.; wheat, 15.; and oats, 0.. An acreage, known as Normal Flex Acreage (NFA) which is 15 percent of the Base will be ineligible for payment. The NFA may, however, be planted to any crop other than fruits or vegetables. An additional 10 percent of the Base may be "flexed" with the same requirements as the NFA. This acreage is known as Optional Flex Acreage (OFA). The maximum payment acreage (MPA) is computed as your crop base, less the required reduction, less the 15 percent NFA. Limited and offsetting compliance provisions are not in effect for 1991.

0/92 and 50/92 Programs are in effect for 1991. Wheat and feed grains are eligible to participate in 0/92 while cotton is eligible for 50/92. Payment rates for these programs are guaranteed to be no less than the projected rate for the crop. The required eight percent unpaid acreage is calculated as eight percent of the maximum payment acres (MPA).

Advance payments will be made in cash, based on 40 percent of the estimated payment rates. These rates are: cotton, $.10 per lb.; sorghum, $.56 per bu.; wheat, $1.40 per bu.; and Oats, $.15 per bu.

Bug Report

By Deanna Holladay,
County Entomologist

BOXELDER BUGS

The boxelder bug is primarily a nuisance pest. They are flat-backed, narrow bugs about one-half inch long. They are brownish-black with three longitudinal red stripes on the thorax or shoulders and red veins on the wings. The nymphal or immature stage is bright red.

There are usually two generations per year in Texas. They overwinter in the adult stage in buildings or other dry, sheltered places. Eggs are laid on the bark or leaves of host plants. Eggs hatch in eight to 14 days and the young nymphs begin feeding. Feeding preference is shown for the fruit of host plants, especially boxelder.

These sucking bugs often feed on flowers, fruits, foliage and tender twigs of several trees, especially boxelder and ash. Very little damage results from their feeding in most cases. They are often nuisances during fall and warm winter days when they swarm into houses or congregate in great numbers on tree trunks, porches, walls and sidewalks. These insects do not bite or harm food, clothing or other household articles.

Unfortunately, boxelder bugs show tolerance to available insecticides and live through many insecticidal applications. Removal of the host trees is the most effective control which is unacceptable to most individuals.

Wool producers get $105 million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wool producers will get about $105 million from the Agriculture Department to help make up for low prices last year.

The payments will begin April 10, officials said. The 1990 support price level under the longstanding subsidy program was $1.82 per pound of wool. But the average market price was only 80 cents per pound.

In addition, mohair producers will collect about $60 million for their 1990 sales. Mohair supports were slightly more than $4.53 per pound, while the market price averaged only 93 cents, officials said Monday.

Wool production declined last year but so did prices. The 1990 average of 80 cents per pound compared with $1.24 in 1989 and $1.38 in 1988.

Annual tour set April 16

The second annual denim mill and cotton oil mill tour, sponsored by the Scurry County Farm Bureau, will be held April 16.

Cost of the day-long event is $7.50 per person for members and includes the bus tour and meal.

New farm bureau members who sign up after April 1 will not be charged for the tour.

The deadline for the tour sign-up and fees is April 12. Sign-up will be held at the bureau.

For more information, contact the bureau at 573-9963.

Couple's Anniversary Party Celebrates Generous Friends

By Abigail Van Buren

1991 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Here's a suggestion for "Anonymous, Please," the man who will be celebrating his 50th wedding anniversary soon and wanted to request that the guests bring no gifts.

Last year we were confronted with the same situation for our 25th. Knowing that guests would bring gifts anyway, we suggested they bring canned goods for the needy. Our invitations read:

"Your love and friendship is the only gift we need. However, if you wish to bring something, please make it an item of food that will be donated to the needy."

Abby, we were overwhelmed by the generosity of our friends! We hauled 10 boxes of canned goods and almost $200 in cash down to the local "soup kitchen" that feeds the homeless and needy.

What a great party we had — filled with family and friends who made it all the more beautiful by sharing with those less fortunate. You may use my name.

ELEANOR BURLEY,
STERLING HEIGHTS, MICH.

DEAR ELEANOR: That suggestion appeared in my column two years ago, but it's worth repeating periodically. Thank you, Eleanor. And may you celebrate many more happy anniversaries.

DEAR ABBY: I'm writing to offer some advice to younger readers regarding dating:

I am 27, and ever since I was in high school, I adopted my own personal code for dating. It is: Any guy who asks me out I will go with at least once — unless I have reason to believe he could be dangerous.

Since then, I have helped some very shy guys develop their self-confidence, and I've established some good friendships and a few meaningful relationships.

Not every date has been great — a few have been real duds — but if a guy asks me out, at least I give him a chance. (Accepting a date doesn't mean you have to marry anyone.)

Also, after the first date, I generally insist on paying my share of the tab. I'm not rich — I'm a middle-class working woman — but I know how expensive dating is for most guys.

I haven't met Mr. Right yet, but in the meantime, I'm enjoying myself.
CYNTHIA IN GEORGIA

DEAR CYNTHIA: It's easy to see why you're not sitting at home, waiting for your telephone to ring. You're a giver, not a taker. You appear to be a young woman who likes herself and is comfortable to be around.

There are two kinds of people in the world — those who walk into a room and say, "There you are!" — and those who say, "Here I am!" You belong in the "there you are" category. You could give lessons.

"How to Be Popular" is for everyone who feels left out and wants an improved social life. It's an excellent guide to becoming a better conversationalist and a more attractive person. To order, send a long, business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: Dear Abby, Popularity Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

Harlingen, San Benito...

Flood water keeps people out of homes

SAN BENITO, Texas (AP) — It took only about two days for more than 17 inches of rain to soak the area, but it's taking a lot longer for the water to go away.

Thousands of people still had water in their houses Monday, three days after storms drenched the South Texas cities of Harlingen and San Benito.

Some flood victims stayed in emergency shelters, some stayed with relatives or friends and some went home despite the water, officials said.

San Benito Mayor Gilbert Galvan estimated damage to public and private property at about $102 million. In neighboring Harlingen, officials have estimated damage at $20 million to $25 million, but the figure could increase, said Roger Riojas, city emergency management coordinator.

The mayor said up to half the residents of the city of 25,000 probably still had up to five feet of water standing in their homes Monday.

Gov. Ann Richards has asked President Bush for emergency federal disaster assistance, which could include loans and grants.

Officials with the governor's office, the Federal Emergency Management Agency and Small Business Administration toured the area Monday to survey the damage.

Many people with no flood insurance apparently have lost their homes or suffered extensive damage to homes and businesses, officials said. Soggy carpeting ripped out of houses in the two flooded cities piled up on front lawns.

Mario Maya stood at the edge of his flooded San Benito neighborhood Monday waiting for the water to recede. Maya, 40, who is unemployed, said his house will be "a total loss. It's a real old house. I don't think there'll be much to repair."

Residents of his La Palma subdivision said it never flooded so badly, even during hurricanes, and they blamed the city for filling in a drainage canal a year or two ago.

Galvan and other city officials blamed nature for the flooding. "The federal government needs to respond to this just like they would to a national emergency," said Bill Maples, a city commissioner in San Benito.

They must be homemade...

Not just any tortilla will do

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — They take their tortillas seriously at the Bexar County Courthouse and Justice Center and not just any tortilla will do.

They have to be homemade, county commissioners said Monday in announcing they will terminate the five-year contract of the cafeteria operator.

In addition to no homemade tortilla, commissioners complained that Southwest Dining Service did not have a sufficiently varied selection of Mexican food.

The termination came after a 60-day probationary period.

"You don't say, 'A tortilla is a tortilla,'" in San Antonio," county purchasing agent Charles Eads said.

"He's right," cafeteria manager Bud Mills agreed.

During a recent Commissioners Court meeting, Ed Jenkins, vice president for operations of Dallas-based Southwest Dining Service, made what is now called "the tortilla comment," saying "A tortilla is a tortilla."

The comment was the last straw.

"I was raised on Mexican food," Eads said Monday. "It's not something you say in San Antonio."

Eads said county commissioners directed him to present them with a request for proposals Wednesday seeking a new cafeteria concessionaire to replace Southwest.

According to the proposal, Southwest would vacate the cafeteria May 31, and a new vendor would take over June 2.

Southwest, which has operated the cafeteria since the Justice Center opened last year, has made some strides in meeting the needs of its customers, but apparently not quickly enough.

A mobile concession cart in the Justice Center's courtyard for the sale of fajitas and other light lunch foods would be a huge success, Eads said, adding Southwest has balked at investing in such a service.

Officials have drafted new language in the concession project to make certain that the new operators know what is expected of them.
