Rain welcome sight for area

From local, wire reports
Concerns about Snyder and Scurry County's meager rainfall this year were partly allayed early today when thunderstorms moved through the area, leaving various amounts of rainfall behind.

Rain reports following the storm brought totals which ranged from a high of 3½ inches east of Snyder, Hermleigh and east of that city to a scant .20 in Ira and nothing at Lake Thomas.

Snyder received .88 of an inch early this morning, upping the year's total to 3.49. This time last year the local accumulative rain total was 10.52 inches.

Rain amounts in excess of two inches were reported north of Hermleigh and at the Price Daniel Unit which both received 2.30 inches. Some 2.40 inches of rain were reported three miles north of Hermleigh.

A total of 2.20 inches was reported along the Roby

Highway, east of Snyder. Camp Springs received 2.50 inches of rain.

Lloyd Mountain received 1.60 inches and an area to the north of Snyder reported 1.25 inches. Polar in Kent County received nearly two inches, 1.80 inches, during the storm.

Other rain totals included Fluvanna, .60 of an inch; Dunn, .50 of an inch; and Dermott and west of Snyder, .50 of an inch each.

Today's forecast calls for partly cloudy conditions with a low in the lower 60s. Isolated late afternoon thunderstorms are possible Thursday but the chance of rain is only 20 percent.

Elsewhere, thunderstorms pelted northern and central Texas overnight and this morning, with some tornadoes and large hail in the west and heavy rain and flash flooding in Bell County.

Paroles chairman Granberry resigns

AUSTIN (AP)—The chairman of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, which has been under fire for paroling inmates convicted of murder and other violent crimes, has resigned.

James Granberry criticized lawmakers Tuesday for using "Band-Aid" solutions to the state's crime problem, and urged Gov. Ann Richards and lawmakers to make comprehensive changes to the criminal justice system.

Granberry, a former Lubbock mayor, was appointed in 1989 to a six-year term on the board by then-Gov. Bill Clements, who named him chairman last year when the board was merged with other criminal justice agencies.

Granberry said he wanted to return to private life and was not resigning under pressure.

In recent weeks, the Pardons and Paroles Board has been criticized for paroling several high-profile murderers.

One of those paroled was Leonardo Ramos Lopez, who served 16 years of a life sentence for the 1971 execution-style slaying of three sheriff's deputies in Dallas.

But board members have defended their actions, saying that they were following parole laws written by the Legislature, and that because of prison overcrowding they are forced to parole 150 inmates per day.

"The parole board is the saddle horse for all politicians who want to ride it. Whenever something goes wrong, the politicians blame the parole board," Granberry said.

Granberry called for Richards to bring "some semblance of order to the criminal justice system in Texas."

"Long-range planning is desperately needed," he said.

A comprehensive approach, emphasizing education and substance abuse treatment, will provide an "overall solution of the many problems that exist today rather than trying to deal with them through a Band-Aid or one-bill-at-a-time approach," he said.

Bill Cryer, a spokesman for Richards, said the governor agreed a far-reaching study of the criminal justice system was needed. Cryer said Richards plans to appoint an interim committee to complete such a task.

RETIREMENT RECEPTION — Aline Parks, who has announced her retirement as director of publicity at Western Texas College after 18 years of service, was honored with a reception Tuesday

ADN program honors grads

Seven graduates of Cogdell Memorial Hospital's Accelerated Associate Degree in Nursing program (ADN) will be honored at ceremonies starting at 7 p.m. today in the Western Texas College Fine Arts Theatre.

Guest speaker for the program will be Thomas Hochwalt, former CEO of Cogdell Memorial Hospital who is now senior vice president of St. Mary of the Plains Hospital in Lubbock and president of its Rural Outreach Program.

Diplomas will be presented by Sue Ann Hicks, dean of nursing at Howard College in Big Spring, and Velma Clay, instructor for the program at Cogdell Hospital.

Receiving diplomas will be

Jeanie Baker, Judy Ballenger, Elida Gonzalez, Jo Beth Hardegree, Vernadine Harris, Janice Stelzer and Sallie Wilson.

Master of ceremonies will be Dr. Andrew Hicks, vice president for instruction at Howard College. The invocation will be given by Chris Bane, ADN coordinator at Cogdell. Lana Chambers, director of nurses at Cogdell, will recognize guests. Special music will be by Donna Ryan pianist, and Denise Blythe, vocalist.

Cogdell Hospital sponsors the 12-month ADN program through an agreement with Howard College. It enables licensed vocational nurses who wish to become registered nurses to take all of the RN coursework and obtain most of their clinical experience in Snyder. They also do clinical studies at St. Mary of the Plains Hospital. Classroom lectures are held at WTC under the direction of Mrs. Clay. The ADN program is designed to compliment the one-year vocational nursing program at WTC.

The current program was approved in May of 1990 by the State Board of Nursing Examiners and tonight's graduates are the first to complete the course.

Persons wishing information about the ADN program are invited to contact Mrs. Bane or Mrs. Chambers at Cogdell Hospital.

Rattlesnake Rodeo shoot-off set Thursday in Clairemont

CLAIREMONT — Thursday marks the 43rd meeting of the Caprock Peace Officers Association and Rattlesnake Rodeo here.

The Caprock Peace Officers Association was founded in 1949 by Cecil Fox, now a retired Texas

Parks and Wildlife Department Game Warden, in order to kindle a closer sense of comradeship among professional peace officers, everywhere, especially in West Texas. The association is not made up solely of peace of-cers. The general public is also invited to join.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and includes a membership card, an association decal and steak dinner. Riot gun trap shooting will begin at 9 a.m., as will the horse shoe pitching contest. The first round of the rattlesnake shoot-off is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m.

Top prize for this year's winner will be a $150 pair of boots.

Shooting judge and judge of the Rattlesnake Rodeo will be Scurry County Deputy Sheriff Joe M. Cheyne. Master of ceremonies will be Kent County Judge Mark Geeslin.

Lunch will be held at noon with the Rattlesnake Rodeo scheduled for 2 p.m. An awards presentation will be held at 3 p.m.

This year's event is being dedicated to Clyde Clifton, long-time resident deputy sheriff of Motley County. He is also a long-time director for the association.

Guests and visitors are welcome to attend the day's activities and compete in the Rattlesnake Shoot in a special group reserved for them.

The play was adapted for the stage by Brad Vincent, former Snyder High School performer and a December graduate of Baylor University. Vincent also directed the production.

Senior Michael Hall plays the title role and is joined by other seniors Julie Franklin as Aunt Polly, Jenni McIntire as Mrs. Harper and Ryan Byrd as Mark Twain. Jammers are Kiron Kemp as Joe Harper and Jason Bynum as Huck Finn. Sophomores in the play include Sara McDonald as Mary Sawyer, Stephanie Davis as Sarah Harper and Wes Everett as James Harper. Freshmen are Emily Gillespie as Widow Douglas, Stacy Wright as Becky Thatcher, Jody Fitzgerald as Sid Sawyer and Craig Row as Sam Sawyer.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Someone who thinks a million dollars is only peanuts probably lives in Washington."

We ran across some trivia that told us that peanuts really are not nuts. Unlike pecans, walnuts, etc, peanuts are actually a kind of pea or legume which bears seed in containers called pods.

Sometimes peanuts are called ground nuts, and they are also called goobers, monkey nuts, earth nuts and pinda. They are also called good and fattening.

Origin of the peanut is unknown, but we suspect Jack Smartt was there to eat one of the first ones, leaving the hulls in someone's floorboard.

Some peanut facts: Americans consume more than five million pounds each day; there are about 540 peanuts in a 12 oz jar of peanut butter; and there are 30,000 peanut butter sandwiches in an acre of goobers.

There are more than 300 uses for peanuts including paint, shoe polish and shaving cream.

The request wasn't peanuts.

We heard about a visitor to the big city who was approached by a street person who asked, "Could you spare $10 for a cup of coffee?"

The startled West Texan responded that coffee is only 50 cents.

"I know," said the begger. "But coffee always makes me hungry."

Both sides jockey for votes on current gun control issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gun control advocates are trading last-minute volleys with the National Rifle Association as the House heads for a showdown on a proposed seven-day waiting period for handgun purchases.

Both sides are hunting for the handful of votes that will decide whether the House will ditch the so-called Brady bill in favor of an NRA plan to allow instant computer checks of criminal records of prospective gun purchasers.

A vote on the amendment was expected late today.

"If I were going to bet all my money — which isn't much — I wouldn't know what to do. It's that close," Rep. Charles Schumer, D-N.Y., a leading Brady bill advocate, said Tuesday.

An influential opponent of the bill, Rep. John D. Dingell, D-Mich., said the measure was losing support as people looked at it more closely. "It is my expectation that when the vote is cast, we'll win," said Dingell, chairman of the House Energy and Commerce Committee.

House Speaker Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., and other House leaders decided Tuesday to allow Rep. Harley O. Staggers Jr., D-W.Va., to offer the NRA plan as a substitute to the Brady bill. If it passes, lawmakers may not get a direct vote on the waiting period.

Schumer said the vote still would present a clear choice to lawmakers.

"A vote against Staggers will be a vote for Brady," he said.

Schumer said the Brady bill would win House passage by 10 or 12 votes if members were allowed to vote on it directly. However, since some lawmakers could vote for both, the Staggers measure could pass, he said.

The Brady bill is named for former White House press secretary James Brady, who was shot in the head in a 1981 attack on then-President Reagan.

The waiting period would give authorities time to run checks on prospective gun purchasers, but would not require it.

Brady, who is permanently disabled, and his wife Sarah have traveled nationwide touting the legislation and have won endorsements from police organizations and Reagan himself, a longtime NRA supporter. It also has been endorsed by former Presidents Nixon, Ford and Carter.

The Bradys on Tuesday attended a rally on the Capitol grounds in advance of the vote. NRA supporters held a news conference Tuesday to criticize the Brady bill.

But Brady backers maintained that a national computer check system is years away, and that the Staggers amendment was just a way of blocking their bill.

Staggers told reporters that while a "perfect" record check system might be five or 10 years away, an initial system could be operating six months after enactment of the legislation.

The NRA on Tuesday placed new full-page ads in Washington newspapers, listing hunting and sporting groups and others nationwide who supported their position.

The White House, meanwhile, said President Bush could eventually support either measure, depending on the circumstances.

Dear Abby: Stepdaughter and Her Baby Are an Unwelcome Prospect

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1991 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I am a 36-year-old woman with a wonderful husband and a terrific 4-year-old son. I also have a very immature, unmarried 21-year-old stepdaughter, "Dolly," who is expecting a baby any minute. The baby's father disappeared when Dolly announced her pregnancy. She wants to keep the baby, and I have been getting a lot of pressure from my husband's family who think the logical place for Dolly and her baby is with her father and me.

Abby, I don't want Dolly and her baby moving in with us because Dolly has always been lazy and irresponsible and I'd have to take care of the baby. Also, I had planned on returning to college in the fall when our son will be in school full time.

I feel strongly that since Dolly decided to have sex, decided not to have an abortion and decided to keep her baby, the baby is her responsibility — not mine. Need I tell you how unpopular my decision has made me with my husband's family? He does not blame me, but his mother and sisters think I am selfish, cruel and unreasonable — although they did not offer to take her in. How do you vote, Abby? Sign me
... THE WICKED STEPMOTHER

DEAR "WICKED": I'm voting with you. There is no reason why you should postpone going back to school because your husband's daughter decided to keep her baby.

Dolly is old enough to accept responsibility for her actions and decision. And she's lucky to have a grandmother and aunts who are so concerned about her welfare, because if she's as immature as you say she is, she'll need all of their assistance in learning to shoulder the emotional and financial responsibilities that go along with single parenthood.

the IRS would consider them to be still in a "singles" tax bracket — was both inaccurate and unkind. Wanting to have the church sacrament of matrimony without the IRS's unspeakable tax penalty for married persons is not "crooked," Abby. It is reasonable and moral. It is also easily achieved in Texas.

As a Texas lawyer and church member, I sympathize with your reader. "Holy matrimony" and "legal marriage" are not the same thing. There are thousands of Christian clergymen in most denominations who consider their Christian function more important than their governmental one, and the two are unrelated. They will not require a state marriage license, nor will they report the ceremony to the state, since they are performing a sacrament involving only the couple, God and the church.

If the couple desires a legal marriage, after living together and establishing themselves as a married couple, in time, they are indeed legally married by common law. In Texas, such a marriage need not be recorded, yet both parties and their children enjoy all the legal rights of a formal marriage before a judge. (They should, of course, not lie on their tax returns.)

If either of these arrangements hurts the feelings of the folks at the IRS, too bad. They weren't invited to the wedding, and wouldn't have sent a gift if they had been invited. The government loses nothing but its chance to encourage and reward "living in sin."

Campus slaying shocks students

AUSTIN (AP) — The stabbing death of a student at historic Huston-Tillotson College was the first campus slaying in the school's 116-year history and left students and school officials shocked.

Lonnie Oliver Jr. 22, of Dallas, was charged Tuesday night with murder in the stabbing death of James Mix, 18, of Glenwood, Ill., police said.

Oliver, who was arrested shortly after the afternoon stabbing, was being held late Tuesday in Travis County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bond.

Students said the two students, both believed to be freshmen, hardly knew each other before an argument at a party Friday night.

The students, police and college faculty still were trying to understand what provoked the slaying.

"It has indeed shocked this close-knit family," said Huston-Tillotson President Joseph McMillan. "The tragedy is shocking, devastating and most unfortunate."

"We will go forward to heal the wounds on campus," he said. "I like to think of the campus to some extent to be an enclave."

"Violence is all around the world, and it is naive to think it would not touch us," McMillan said.

The college has an enrollment of about 700 students, who are preparing for exams to be given next week.

Students were called to the school's chapel shortly after the slaying to say a prayer for the students and the school, which is affiliated with the United Methodist Church and the United Church of Christ.

Classes were to continue today with counselors available, McMillan said.

Damage noted to craft

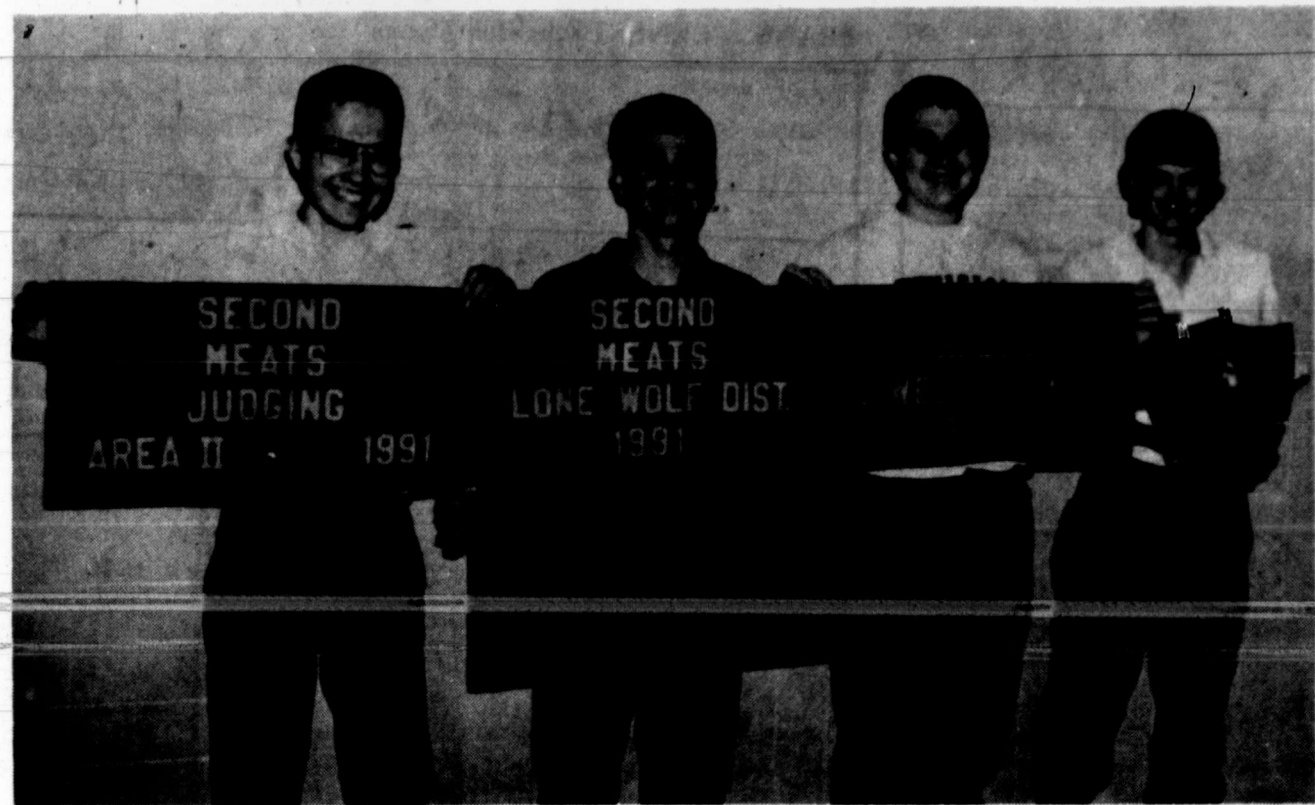

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Space shuttle Discovery completed its Star Wars research mission with tire damage and more scorching than usual of the material that fills the gaps between the orbiter's thermal tiles, NASA said.

One of the four main landing gear tires — the outer right one — was shredded when Discovery landed Monday at Kennedy Space Center. Three of the tire's 17 layers were worn through, said NASA spokeswoman Lisa Malone.

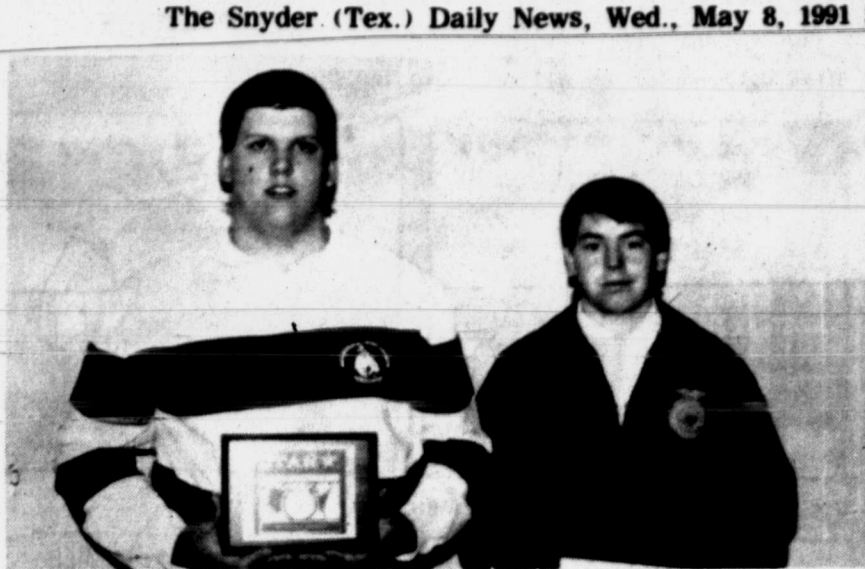

"It probably looked a lot worse than it was," center director Forrest McCartney said Tuesday.

McCartney said it was too soon to know whether the damage resulted from the way the shuttle landed — the right main gear touched down a second sooner than the left — or from a test in which commander Michael Coats applied extra pressure to the brakes to see how they would react on the concrete landing strip.

Twice as much fiberglass thermal tile filler will have to be replaced than is customary after a flight, Malone said. At least 10 of the approximately 27,000 tiles on the shuttle also will be replaced because of heat damage.

Court-martialed doctor says he's finding lots of support

AUSTIN (AP) — An Army doctor court martialed in Saudi Arabia after seeking a discharge as a conscientious objector says he has found many people supportive of him.

"I have a whole book of phone numbers and addresses of people who want to get in touch with me.

Lots of people, lots of officers who supported me through the trial and testified in my defense at the trial," said Dr. David Wiggins.

Wiggins returned to the United States this week after being convicted in Saudi Arabia on three charges, dismissed from the Army and fined $25,000.

The doctor said he fears that many Americans have been "fooled into thinking that it was a 'clean' war."

"I'm glad that there was not many casualties on our side," Wiggins said. "I'm not qualified to comment on the strategy ... (but) it really wasn't a clean war."

"If you talk about civilian deaths and casualties, the damage to the environment, the damage to these countries, the instability that was caused in the region and the damage to our own economy ... What did we accomplish?"

During a news conference Tuesday at the American Friends Service Committee office in Austin, Wiggins said he was happy to be getting out of the Army and would try to find work so he can pay his fine.

"I was willing to pay back the Army all the money they ever gave me," he said.

A native of Waverly, N.Y., Wiggins is a West Point graduate who attended New York Medical College, interned at Walter Reed Army Medical Center and was serving with an air cavalry unit at Fort Hood when Iraq invaded Kuwait last August.

considered eccentric but years later became accepted. One such bridge player was Norman Squire, a Londoner who died recently, aged 84.

Squire won many national titles in Britain, including the Gold Cup, Britain's premier team championship, in 1946, 1954 and 1958. He was a regular contributor to the British "Bridge Magazine" and edited its Bidding Competition for many years.

Involved with many aspects of bidding theory, Squire was an architect of "fourth suit forcing." He was also known for a great sense of humor, once writing that "The man on the right rises to his feet, climbs upon his chair, takes a small Union Jack from his pocket, waves it about his head three times, and says in stentorian and decisive tones, 'I double two spades — whose lead is it?'"

Squire summed up today's hand correctly. To use his own word, he and his partner "staggered" into six clubs, and West led a spade. There was a potential diamond loser and a trump problem. If declarer could afford a loser in clubs, he would start with the ace. But if he had to lose a diamond, he couldn't afford this safety play.

Squire won with dummy's ace of spades, ruffed a spade and played a diamond to dummy's jack. East won with the queen and returned a spade. Squire ruffed, played a heart to dummy's king and a club back to his queen. The ace of clubs dropped the king and jack, and Squire claimed.

Drexler leads Blazers to 117-97 victory

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A warning to Portland Trail Blazers opponents: Don't get Clyde Drexler upset.

The Utah Jazz did, and the result was a 117-97 Portland victory Tuesday night in Game 1 of their second-round playoff series. Game 2 is Thursday night in Portland.

Drexler got a knee to the stomach from Karl Malone with 5½ minutes left in the third quarter and no foul was called. As Drexler lay on the court in pain, Utah cut the Blazers' lead to 68-66.

The sight silenced the Portland crowd.

"It was quite scary," Williams said. "It was like Bird going down in Boston. You don't want to play the playoffs without Clyde Drexler because he is the heart and soul of this team."

Fortunately for the Blazers, Drexler only had the wind knocked out of him. And he was not pleased.

"It probably woke me up," Drexler said. "It fired up the whole team."

"I just saw that look in his eye that something was going to happen," Portland coach Rick Adelman said. "He was mad."

The inspired Blazers went on a 24-5 run that gave them a 21-point lead, wrapping up their most one-sided victory thus far in the playoffs.

Drexler scored six of Portland's next 10 points after the blow from Malone. Drexler finished with 20 points and a playoff career-high 15 rebounds.

In Tuesday night's other playoff game, Detroit won their Eastern Conference semifinal opener against Boston 86-75.

The Los Angeles Lakers, leading 1-0, play host to Golden State in tonight's only game. The Bulls-76ers series, which Chicago leads 2-0, doesn't resume until Friday night at Philadelphia.

Terry Porter added 19 points and Jerome Kersey had 17 points and 13 rebounds as six Blazers, including all five starters, scored in double figures. Walter Davis scored 12 on 6-for-9 shooting in his first extensive action of the playoffs for Portland.

John Stockton had 23 points and 16 assists for the Jazz. Jeff Malone scored 17.

Pistons 86, Celtics 75

Two-time defending champion Detroit was outshot 39.4 percent to 38.4 percent at Boston, but the Pistons took 15 more shots thanks to a 17-7 rebounding advantage on the offensive boards.

The Celtics took a season-low 71 shots and made a season-low 28 as Detroit held them to their lowest playoff point total since the start of the 24-second shot clock in 1954. They lost to New York 82-75 in 1953.

"If we could get the rebounds," Celtics rookie guard Dee Brown said, "we could get easier shots instead of shooting jumper after jumper after jumper."

Boston played without Larry

Bird, hero of their fifth-game victory over Indiana Sunday, because of back spasms and lost center Robert Parish to an ankle injury late in the game. Detroit's Isiah Thomas left the game midway through the final period and was taken to a hospital for X-rays of his right foot.

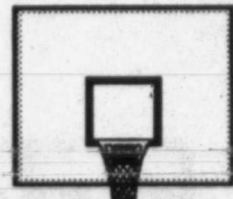

Detroit led 40-37 at halftime and Boston, the regular-season leader with a 51.2 shooting percentage, made just seven of 20 shots in the third quarter as the Pistons opened a 64-53 lead.

"We want to attack the glass as much as possible and set up our halfcourt offense," Detroit's James Edwards said.

Vikings RB Walker is hospitalized

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Minnesota Vikings running back Herschel Walker says a favorite song made him sit in his car in a closed garage, causing him to suffer carbon monoxide poisoning.

The former Dallas Cowboys player was taken by ambulance to Irving Community Hospital about 3 a.m. Sunday after his wife, Cindy, found him unconscious in the garage of their home, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram reported today.

Walker said he had started his car in the closed garage and was preparing to leave when he paused to hear a favorite song on his cassette deck.

A tiring weekend of travel may have contributed to his falling asleep, Walker said, adding that he also has been under stress because his grandparents are sick.

Walker said he has been asked if the incident was an attempt to take his own life.

"People will make something out of nothing," he said. "But suicide? It wasn't anything like that."

WTC's Edmunds inks with Schreiner College

Western Texas College sophomore Tracy Edmunds has signed a letter of intent to play basketball at Schreiner College, an NAIA school in Kerrville.

"I think it's a good atmosphere," Edmunds said of Schreiner.

"I think I can have a lot of success there."

"I will miss WTC. I've learned a lot from (women's) coach (Kelly) Chadwick."

Chadwick said, "It was a great opportunity for Tracy. She's done a great job for us for two years, now she can go down there and do a great job for them."

Edmunds, a native of Hawley, was the Lady Dusters' free throw leader for 1990-91, completing 80 percent from the line. She was also named the team's best defensive player at the WTC awards banquet recently.

Joining Edmunds as WTC signees to 4-year colleges are Midland freshman Monica Ramirez, who inked with UTEP, and Becky Hinojos of Lorenzo, who will play next season with Lubbock Christian University.

TRACY EDMUNDS

Brandon, Clay vie for state 4A honors

Snyder seniors Katina Brandon and Vinnie Clay head into Friday's state Class 4A track meet with some of the top distances in their respective events.

Brandon, who finished second in Texas a year ago to Flour Bluff's Heather Rykard, boasts a 133-8 personal best this season. Her top effort was achieved at the Region I meet week before last.

Rykard, defending champ in Class 4A, carries a personal best of 132-3, into Friday's competition.

Clay, a qualifier in the shot put with a 40-11 effort at regionals in San Angelo, will have to watch for Santa Fe's Jennifer Oliver, who registered a 42-2 this season, and Sheila Sims of Sulphur Springs, who turned in a 41-5½ at regionals.

Brandon will compete in the discus at noon Friday in Austin's Memorial Stadium while Clay will begin her quest for a shot put title when the event starts at 7 p.m.

Besides the Snyder duo, District 2-4A will be represented by two other competitors, both from Levelland.

All-everything Twylana Harrison is favored in each of her four events, the 100 and 400 meter dashes, the triple jump and the long jump.

She also has a 100 meter 11.79 time to her credit in 1991 and a 54.70 personal best in the 400 meters.

Levelland's Tami Fine, a high jumper, hopped 5-6 at an early season meet for her top effort.

Playoff tilts are postponed

The Class 4A baseball bi-district playoff contest between District 2 runner-up Frenship and District 1 champion Pampa was postponed Tuesday due to high winds and threatening lightning.

The Harvesters held a 3-2 advantage with one out in the bottom of the third when play was called.

Play will resume at that point Thursday at 4:30 p.m. with Tiger starter B.J. Krier facing a bases-loaded situation against Pampa.

Weather also caused a District 3 tilt between Big Spring and Sweetwater to be halted after five innings with the score tied at 2-2.

That game will resume today at Big Spring's Steer Park at 5 p.m.

Girl Scout volunteers praised for their effort

Camp Boothe Oaks celebrated its 40th anniversary April 27

By Shirley A. Gorman
SDN News Editor

More than 250 people attended Camp Boothe Oaks' fortieth anniversary celebration April 27 in Sweetwater. Four decades of progress were noted as those who helped make the Girl Scout camp what it is today were recognized and honored, including current and former Snyder residents. Special recognition was also given to camp volunteers and supporters who are now deceased.

Information about the day-long celebration, Snyder contributors and camp history were provided by long-time Girl Scout volunteer, Lou Voss, who served as chairman of the anniversary celebration. Voss' 27 years as a Girl Scout volunteer were profiled in the Feb. 17, 1991 Scurry County Folks Column in the Snyder Daily News.

Many persons recognized were able to attend the anniversary celebration, Voss said. Dr. Ed Barkowsky of Snyder introduced the mayor, camp ranger and Board members of the West Texas Girl Scout Council. The celebration featured a flag raising and lowering ceremonies, introduction of honorees and silent remembrance of the deceased.

Snyder volunteers who were present Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Winkles, Peggy Vernon, Debbie Alford, Larry and Elsie Andersson and her mother, Minnie Minor, Dr. and Mrs. Ed Barkowsky, Zola Schegel, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dan Jones, Mr. and Mrs. David Shifflett, Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Bredemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chastain, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Westmoreland, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Robby Cearly (who were profiled in the Jan. 29, 1991 Folks column), Billie Teague, Dennis Meurer, Dianne Scott, and Ila

Ruth Newton, who served as the first business manager.

Also recognized was Mrs. Tommy Defebach of Abilene, former Snyder resident, who served as one of the first cooks.

Mrs. Wimmer is a former cook for the camp and her husband, Alvin, was a long time member of the West Texas Girl Scout Council and camp committee.

Dr. Barkowsky is the current president of WTGSC.

Former Snyder residents who supported the Girl Scout program recognized were Sig and Mike Line who now live in Ruidoso, N.M.

Other Snyder people who helped when the camp first opened are Bula Richardson, who served as the first camp nurse, and her twin sister, Eula Williams, who also served as a camp nurse. Neither was able to attend the anniversary Saturday but both will be profiled in a future Folks column.

Also serving as early volunteers were Irving Loeb and Milton Baldgen.

Others recognized who helped start the camp included Rigdon and Mary Emma Edwards, Foy Dooley, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Jones Jr., Janie Graham, Brownie Roberts, Eleanor Poe, and Margaret Lloyd, first camp director.

Also volunteering their services were Newt Newberry, camp chairman and later council president, whose skill as an architect also aided the camp's growth and improvement, and Jack and Keva Hancock are camp rangers.

Besides Newton, other camp chairmen have included Jack Holden, Ray Alexander and Dick Burton.

Volunteers who could often be seen working at the camp not mentioned previously included Larson Lloyd, C.B. and Xan Oates, Cliffie Graham, Herman and Laura Seale, Helen and Johnny Morgan, Bill and Doris Ransburger, Gracie May Craig and others.

Xan Oates was the first camp chairman followed by Rig Edwards and Herman Seale.

Louise Ward of Boerne, former staff executive for the WTGSC who served the Snyder area for 10 years, was a special guest of honor. She also served as camp director and was in charge at one time of arts and crafts and nature studies.

Current camp director is Pam "Dusty" Caudill.

Camp Boothe Oaks can accommodate more than 1,000 girls with lodging available for about 150 girls in each week or two-week camp held each summer. Camps for 1991, begin June 9 and continue through mid-August.

Camp activities include swimming, archery, canoeing, crafts, backpacking, cookouts, overnight camping, primitive camping, and various nature studies.

Activities at Camp Boothe Oaks provide Girl Scouts with the opportunity to grow in leadership, respect for the environment and appreciation of others.

In 1989, a pilot program — Teenage Mom Camp — was created for teenage mothers and their children through a grant from the Hogg Foundation and the efforts of Dr. B.J. Estes of Abilene.

Maxine Cockerell, a member of the Girl Scout council is currently in charge of this program. She also handles public relations work and is in charge of fundraising activities.

A Brownie-Dad Weekend was started in 1980 as an award of excellence in cookie sales. Through this program, first and second grade Brownies and their fathers are introduced to nature.

Third grade Girl Scouts have also become a part of the resident camp program.

Cookie sale proceeds, which then sold for 50 cents per box, were used to purchase the first 40 acres in 1952. During the past four decades many improvements have been made including an additional 72.38 acres added in 1985 of which 20.58 acres were purchased and 11.81 acres were donated.

The original acreage in 1952 was purchased from Walter and Mattie Boothe at a cost of $100 per acre. The additional acreage was purchased in part from Mrs. Ray (Tommye) Boothe who also donated the 11.83 acres.

Throughout these past 40 years, many Snyder residents and former residents have played a significant part in the creation, development and upkeep of Camp Boothe Oaks.

Funds to support Camp Boothe Oaks have come from Snyder, Sweetwater, Abilene and Big Spring. Ground was broken for the dining hall in March of 1953. Several area businesses aided the project.

The swimming pool was built in 1954 and in 1955 a swing bridge, some 100 feet long, was built across Sweetwater Creek. This favorite camp feature was rebuilt in 1980.

Other additions include a staff house, a caretaker's home, an infirmary, a craft house, three platform tent units, a concrete block house unit with four screened cabins, an incinerator, a flag area, and a country store.

Besides Brownie winners and third graders, Girl Scouts from the fourth through the 12th grades are eligible to attend the camp.

Some 2,300 Girl Scouts are members of the WTGSC.

"We Change the World" was the theme for the 40th anniversary celebration.

Services have been set for 10 a.m. Friday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Funeral Home Chapel for Mrs. Billie Lock, 61, a longtime Snyder resident. The Rev. Charles Day, pastor of North College Ave. Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will follow in the Ira Cemetery.

Mrs. Lock died Tuesday at Mother Frances Hospital in Tyler following a lengthy illness. Born Aug. 29, 1929, in Snyder, she had worked at Stinson Drug and the Food Basket. She was married to Henry Carrol Lock on June 4, 1948, in Snyder. He preceded her in death Oct. 6, 1975.

She was also preceded in death by her mother and father, John E. and Christine Davis, and a brother, Larry Davis.

Survivors include a daughter, Carolyn Jenkins of Tyler; two sons, Jimmy Wayne Lock of Rosenberg and Douglas Lock of Snyder; two sisters, Margaret King of Snyder and Peggy Newcome of Lueders; and four grandchildren, Steven Lock, Trina Lock, Casie Jenkins and Kevin Jenkins.

Videotape crucial in investigation

HOUSTON (AP) — An officer who was present when police shot Roger Biedanski five times during a roadside standoff says Biedanski refused to hand over his gun and suddenly aimed it at the officers before they opened fire.

The version provided by the officer — who spoke to the Houston Chronicle on condition of anonymity — differs from interpretations of enhanced television videotapes of the incident last Friday.

The videotapes, which appear to show that Biedanski was holding the gun down at his side when he was shot, were subpoenaed Tuesday by a Harris County grand jury.

Biedanski, 19, and an unidentified woman were riding a motorcycle, allegedly speeding, when police began to chase him.

Rain

More than 6 inches of rain fell near Salado, where a section of Interstate 35 was closed for about two hours Tuesday night because of high water.

Tornadoes and large hail were reported Tuesday night in several counties from north and east of Lubbock to north of Midland. Some property damage was reported in rural areas south of Lamesa in Dawson County, and west of Ackerly in Martin County.

Showers and thunderstorms continued this morning over a wide area of northern and central Texas as far south as the Hill Country and San Antonio area, and eastward to near Huntsville and Victoria. Storms also were reported offshore of High Island.

The rain is expected to end in the western part of the state today, with thunderstorms continuing tonight and early Thursday in East Texas, some possibly severe with heavy rain in the southeast tonight.

Hospital Notes

ADMISSIONS: David Hoops, 3203 Hill Ave.; Salvador Garza, Snyder Oaks Nursing Center; Kelly Smith, Sweetwater; Sidney Lloyd, Colorado City.

DISMISSALS: Gonsalo Gueman. Census 53 (Med.-15, CCU-1, Long-Term Care-30 OB-4, Nursery-3).

In 1778, the American ship "Ranger" carried the recently adopted Stars and Stripes to a foreign port for the first time as it arrived in France.

Thyroid problem blamed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush, saying "I feel good," fled to the hospital this morning for the first test on his overactive thyroid gland, which doctors now blame for the irregular heartbeat he suffered last weekend.

Bush's doctors said he underwent a background scan at Bethesda Naval Hospital, then swallowed a diagnostic dose of radioactive iodine before leaving the hospital.

Dr. Burton Lee, the president's physician, said Bush will return Thursday for another scan that will allow doctors a closer look at his thyroid problem.

It takes a day for the iodine "cocktail" to sink in, White House spokesman Marlin Fitzwater said.

The procedure took only a few minutes, and Bush returned immediately to the White House, barely 45 minutes after his Marine One helicopter whisked him off to the medical appointment.

Bush was still dressed casually in a green shirt and blue jacket when he returned.

Morning mishaps blamed on rain

This morning's rain showers are being blamed for at least two motor-vehicle accidents worked by local police.

At 6:39 a.m. today, an officer was called to the scene of a minor accident in the 2100 block of 41st St. Involved was a parked 1968 Chevrolet owned by Paul Tovar and a vehicle owned by Travis Babcock. Damage to the Tovar vehicle was listed as minor.

A second accident was worked by police at 7:28 a.m. at 27th St. and College Ave. Involved were a 1989 Chevrolet driven by Lonnie Thompson of 3901 Ave. O and a 1989 Cadillac driven by Cade Walton of 2508 34th St. Damage to both vehicles was described as minor.

Another morning accident was worked by a Texas Department of Public Safety trooper one-half mile south of Dunn. No immediate details were available but initial reports of the accident indicate it was a hit-and-run and occurred around 7:15 a.m. on Hwy. 208. No injuries were reported.

In activity Tuesday, a minor accident was reported at 1:29 p.m. in the parking lot of Spanish Inn. Involved were a 1984 GMC pickup owned by Jerry Dean Holloway of Route 2 and a 1989 Mercury owned by Vicki Lynn Martin of Sweetwater. Damage to both vehicles was described as minor.

Sexual assault investigated

At least two incidents of sexual assault involving a 12-year-old girl are being investigated by Snyder police.

Police were notified by a local teacher Tuesday morning of an incident involving the girl. An investigation revealed that the first offense may have occurred as early as 1986 and the latest assault in 1990.

As of this morning, no charges have been filed.

Officials say that Child Protective Services are involved in the on-going investigation.

Other police activity included the investigation into a criminal mischief report at Western Texas College. A report for Class A criminal mischief was filed and a Texas Department of Highways sign reading "Colorado City 14" was recovered.

Clues sought in missing students case

CLOUDCROFT (AP) — Two New Mexico State University students were reported missing after they failed to return from a weekend camping trip near Cloudcroft, N.M., state police said.

Leonda Wisdom Armstrong, 21, of Clayton and Kathleen Ford, 21, of El Paso, Texas, planned to camp at Silver Lake in south-central New Mexico, but police said there was no indication the women registered at any of the area's campgrounds.

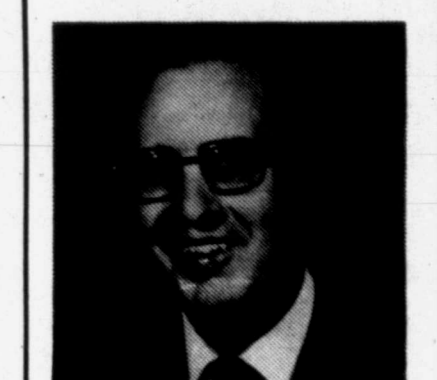

Avis Knapp of El Paso, a friend of the Ford family, said Ford's father, Wayne, was searching the area. Knapp said workers at a Cloudcroft grocery store reported seeing the women Saturday night and Sunday morning.

State police were investigating and trying to narrow the area of a possible search, said Martha Julian, state police dispatcher in Alamogordo.

"It's not a search and rescue because there's a whole mountainside to cover. We need a more definite point to start at," Julian said Tuesday.

The women were driving a faded beige 1978 four-door Ford with Texas license plate 826KVR.

Astrograph

By Bernice Bede Osol
Your Birthday
May 9, 1991

There should be a notable improvement in your financial circumstances in the year ahead. However, there are also indications that you may be a little too careless in the management of your resources.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you're negotiating anything of importance today, be sure to dot all your i's and cross all your t's. Carelessness on your behalf could unravel what had started out as a good deal. Trying to patch up a broken romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker can help you understand what to do to make the relationship work. Mail $2 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Personal gain is a distinct possibility today, but you may have to work harder than usual to acquire it. This could be due, in part, to the individual with whom you're involved.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be socially aware today, or else you may unintentionally slight an old friend for a new one you've recently met. If you do, your excuses might not be accepted.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Others cannot be counted on today to help you achieve a personally significant objective. Unless it benefits them equally, you'll have to go after it alone.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A side issue you feel strongly about could be adamantly opposed by someone with whom you're involved. Don't let your disagreement ruin the reason you two got together in the first place.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you make a purchase of consequence today, be sure to get all guarantees and warranties covering this merchandise. If it's defective, you don't want to get caught holding the bag.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You may have to deal with an individual who takes an unyielding position rather than makes a compromise for mutual advantages. Diplomacy is definitely required.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) This can be a very productive day for you, provided you don't take on more than you can handle, especially toward the end of the day. You're not at your best when operating under pressure.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Social arrangements could have their ups and downs today. Someone you like may include another whom you dislike to join your planned activities. Make the best of it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) An old, resolved issue could create domestic complications again today — if it is made a focal point in a family discussion. Don't be the one who brings it up.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If you're trying to promote or peddle something today, it's imperative that you know when to stop selling. Overemphasizing could create serious doubts in your prospect's mind.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be careful managing your resources today, yet be doubly careful if you're handling anything of a financial nature for someone else. If things don't work out, you could be held accountable.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: How much exercise is considered to be healthful?

DEAR READER: This is a very good, although disarmingly simple, question. Recently researchers have discovered two interesting facts.

First, in order for exercise to lower the incidence of coronary artery disease and heart attacks, the physical activity must be vigorous and on-going. Dancing, golf and gardening are not strenuous enough to protect against heart disease.

Furthermore, a history of vigorous sports activity (performed 25 to 40 years earlier) is not protective. The rate of heart attack in such a group of men (reported in the British Health Journal) was similar to that in a group of sedentary individuals. Therefore, frequent aerobic exercise — such as running, brisk walking or swimming — is necessary to reduce the incidence of heart disease.

Second, regular exercise stimulates the release of growth hormone. This release can significantly increase lean body mass (primarily muscle) and bone strength, as well as improve circulation. Even in the elderly, brisk walking has been shown to produce beneficial effects.

In answer to your question, regular exercise to the point of refreshing tiredness does have positive consequences, regardless of age. Intermittent activity is not as effective because the body doesn't have time to adapt to the high activity level. In other words, for the greatest health benefits, don't knock yourself out. It's better to plan a program of regular, vigorous activity — such as brisk walking, running, cycling or swimming — that you feel comfortable with and are willing to continue.

DEAR DR. GOTT: In a recent column you indicated you hadn't heard of constipation-induced migraine headaches. As someone who has experienced them, let me tell you they are for real. I've also discovered that milk and milk products aggravate the condition. Perhaps a suggestion of avoidance might help your readers.

DEAR READER: OK, I take you at your word, although the relation between milk products/constipation and migraine suggests to me that your "migraine" may actually be due to a sensitivity to something, such as lactose, in the milk. Food allergies can often trigger vascular headaches, including migraine. Is it possible that the milk, not the constipation, is the cause of your symptoms? Why not try eliminating milk and milk products to see if the headaches stop?

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Headaches." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

'Dallas' goes out with ratings bang

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Dallas" went out with a bang, finishing its 13-year run on CBS with its highest ratings since 1987.

The two-hour finale was the No. 2 show on television last week, garnering a 22.0 rating for the Ewing clan, the A.C. Nielsen Co. reported Tuesday.

Each rating point equals 981,000 homes.

The highest-rated show of the week was Part Two of the NBC Monday Movie "Switched at Birth," which garnered a 23.1

rating. Friday's two-hour show was the end of the trail for the saga, which for 13 seasons titillated viewers with tales of the Ewing family's ambition, adultery and even assassination.

Network officials hoped the success of the "Who Shot J.R." episode on Nov. 21, 1990, would rub off on the final show. That show was the most-watched single show in TV history until the final episode of "MASH" on Feb. 28, 1983.

A Bright Spot in our hometown...
Dean Cochran

Starting this month, Snyder National Bank plans to pay tribute to a Scurry County citizen whose individual efforts have contributed to the quality of life in our hometown.

Our first certificate of appreciation goes to one of Snyder's homeless. Even though he lives on 17th Street, Dean Cochran is rarely at home. He usually is out doing one of his many good deeds.

Dean is a people person. He spends his time making life happier and more cheerful for others. There is no way to estimate the number of sticks of gum that Dean has handed to his many friends.

Daily, Dean runs errands for people, provides transportation, visits the hospital and shut-ins, or calls to check on a sick friend. He is a regular at the Senior Citizens Center, and he plays in the Kitchen Band that provides entertainment for the two nursing homes.

Each Friday, Dean comes by the bank and fills his box with popcorn and then delivers it to residents of the nursing home. Dean is a seven-day-a-week Goodfellow.

Dean has lived in Snyder since he was 14 years old. He attended school in Polar and was in the grocery business for a number of years. Despite all of his volunteer work, Dean still finds time to work part-time for Bell-Cypert-Seale Funeral Home.

Snyder National Bank is proud to present May's community service award to Dean Cochran. He's a bright spot in our hometown.

SNB Vice President Jack Gorman presents May's Certificate of Appreciation to Dean Cochran.
