Ask Us

Q—Is it true that it is illegal for commissioners to ask about state funds used to supplement the secretary's salary in the DA's office?

A—A spokesman in the attorney general's office said all salaries are public record and that anyone may ask. DA Ernie Armstrong agreed his statement made to commissioners in a recent county court meeting was not correct on its face. It was his opinion that commissioners are not to consider the existence of such funds in setting or adjusting the secretary's county salary. He said to do so would be contrary to the statutes which have as their purpose to increase funds available for prosecution, including supplementation of a secretary's salary.

In Brief

Old Texas

AUSTIN (AP) — A Texas Panhandle lawmaker, protesting a budget and tax bill, said today he wants to separate his region to create a new state.

Rep. David Swinford, R-Dumas, said the proposed 26-county state would be called "Old Texas" because the current state government costs too much.

Swinford, a freshman legislator, said he is serious about his proposal, but doubted it would pass the Legislature.

Bill is signed

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Ann Richards today signed an environmental bill that she called "only a beginning."

Richards said the bill, which was criticized by environmental, consumer and health groups, on balance "moves the state in the right direction."

The bill would establish for the first time in Texas a central agency to enforce state pollution laws.

It contains authorization Texas needs to comply with the federal Clean Air Act.

"Without this new statutory authority, Texas could face federal sanctions such as the loss of highway funds, and the EPA could take over the clean air enforcement program," Richards said.

$2.2 billion tax increase...

Senate adopts budget

AUSTIN (AP) — House leaders counted votes today after the Senate brushed aside Republican opposition to approve a record $59.45 billion budget and $2.2 billion tax increase to pay for it.

House Speaker Gib Lewis said he thought he had a majority of 76 votes to pass both measures on the final day of the special legislative session. Lewis said he would hunt for the 100 votes needed to give the tax hike immediate effect.

"I have to go back to the House now and hope I have 76-plus votes tomorrow (today), which I think I do have to pass the appropriations bill and also the funding bill and get out of town," Lewis said.

The Senate on Monday passed the budget and tax bills by identical votes of 24-7, with seven Republicans opposing both. Two Republicans joined the Democratic majority.

Senate finance chairman John Montford said: "The important commitments we make, particularly on this biennium and the one to follow in terms of where Texas is, are probably the most crucial decision in our development as a state that we've had in literally a hundred years."

The tax vote overrode protests by Sen. John Leedom, R-Dallas, who said the bill includes the first corporate income tax in modern Texas history by taxing either corporate assets or income, whichever is larger.

"Any way you add this up, it's our first effort in the state of Texas to have a corporate income tax," Leedom said.

But the tax bill's sponsor, Sen. Bob Glasgow, D-Stephenville, warned that failure to approve the increase would result in "major, major, major problems" since the current budget expires Aug. 31.

"We've got to fund prisons. We've got to fund state schools and state hospitals ... School starts in about two weeks in Texas, and those schools have no idea how they're going to hire teachers or what their budgets are going to be," Glasgow said.

He chided the Republicans who voted against the tax bill at every turn.

"I wish you would search your

Scattered rain showers soak southern half of the county

Heavy thunderstorms dumped over four inches of rain across the southern portion of the county Monday, causing motorists to detour from at least two farm-to-market roads flooded by a swollen Canyon Creek.

District approves purchase

Scurry County Appraisal District board of directors approved the purchase of a fax machine and heard informational items as they convened for their August meeting today.

Approved was the purchase of a Xerox 7032 fax machine for use at the appraisal office. The equipment will be purchased from local bidder Stephen's Office Supply at a cost of $2,964.

Under informational items, Donald Tate of the district's review board stated that the board had met July 15 and 16 to review tax appraisal protests. Chief Appraiser Ray Peveler informed the board that the district would be purchasing liability insurance in regard to its work with the County Education District. Peveler explained the CED would reimburse the district for the costs at a later date.

In other action, the board approved the minutes and paid bills.

John Reed presided at the meeting. Also present were Juluis Roemisch and Bill Voss. Absent were Doug Flynn and Mickey Sterling.

County road 1606, commonly known as the Ira-Union road, was blocked off just north of Ira by county workers Monday evening. Also impassable was FM 2835 just off the Ira-Dunn road, FM 1609, about 2.3 miles east of Ira.

Residents in the southern portion of the county also reported other low-lying areas which were flooded for a short period of time.

Commissioner C.D. Gray Jr. reported 4.7 inches of rain fell between Ira and Dunn on Monday. Two residents of Dunn reported four inches there, while Ira residents reported between 3.2 and 3.5 inches.

Snyder water pump and filter plant recorded only seven-tenths in the city, and rainfall reports in the northern portion of the county ranged from a half-inch to almost an inch.

While the area received significant amounts of rainfall, Lake Thomas recorded only minimal benefits, according Colorado River Municipal Water District officials. As of noon today, the lake had caught a mere 200 acre feet over the past two days. The lake is currently holding some 31,800 acre feet, just under 16 percent of its capacity.

Forecasts for West Texas call for mostly cloudy skies with widely scattered showers and a few thunderstorms today and tonight with locally heavy rain possible. It should remain partly cloudy Wednesday with a chance of thunderstorms. Low temperatures tonight are expected in the 60s with highs Wednesday projected in the 80s.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "A paranoid teen is one who refuses to make out-going calls for fear of missing an in-coming one."

By the middle of August, most West Texans are looking forward to the first frost, but the recent rains and cool weather have made for an unusual month, so far.

Back in May and June, banker Joe Jackson recalled us grumbling about the wind blowing. He predicted that in August we'd be happy for even a slight breeze in the dog days of summer.

With the last half of the month remaining, Jackson will probably be correct. People will be looking for a place to cool off. However, one might be careful about the chosen place.

It seems that an insanely jealous husband just knew his wife was fooling around, but the wife denied it all.

That's when the husband got the idea of keeping a close watch. He left work early one afternoon, raced home and threw open the door.

WTC board okays computer study; hires coordinator

Western Texas College board of trustees approved the hiring of a special needs coordinator with federal funds and gave the green light to a committee to take a more in-depth look at three computer systems Monday.

The board also set a budget workshop for 5 p.m. Monday, Aug. 19, and a hearing on the budget for Monday, Aug. 26.

Trustees met in executive session to discuss personnel prior to the open meeting, but took no action.

The board approved hiring Bob Scott to provide career guidance and counseling services to special populations who are interested in or enrolled at the college. These individuals would include the handicapped, educationally and economically disadvantaged and individuals of limited English proficiency. Scott, who received his master's degree from Abilene Christian University, will also assist in recruitment activities, vocational assessment, testing and the placement of special population individuals into appropriate occupational training programs.

The position of special needs coordinator was made possible through a federal grant of $96,000. These funds pay for salary, child care assistance, recruitment and special workshops. Administrators said they hope through the position to see an increase in enrollment of 75 to 100 students by the fall of 1992.

Scott comes to WTC from Eastern New Mexico University where he served as program director, heading the vocational training program for the developmentally disabled as well as having taught child development, independent living/job skills, adolescent psychology and abnormal psychology.

He has worked for the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, Association for Retarded Citizens, Texas Department of Human Resources and Big Country Youth Services.

Trustees gave a computer committee the go-ahead to further research three computer systems Monday after committee members reported

Coliseum promoter, budget, boundaries, topics for meetings

A promoter for Scurry County Coliseum will again be the subject for county commissioners as they meet with city officials and local business people for a 1 p.m. Wednesday meeting at The Shack.

The meeting will be a continuation of week-long budget discussions as county officials work through the county's proposed 1992 budget of $5.6 million.

During a budget session last week, commissioners addressed the feasibility of hiring a promoter for the county coliseum. The promoter would seek events to be held at the facility, which some have said is being utilized only 10 percent of its potential.

During Wednesday's meeting, county officials are expected to ask the city to help fund the salary; although no formal action is anticipated. Local business people have expressed a desire to help fund expenses for the promoter.

In other business, commissioners were scheduled to meet at 1 p.m. today to resume discussions on the county's proposed budget. Among items to be studied will be projected revenue figures to fund the budget.

A public hearing has been scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday at the county courtroom to address a proposed county redistricting plan. All interested county residents are invited to attend.

Monday afternoon, Scurry County commissioners canvassed election returns and approved budget transfers for the sheriff's office as they met for a continuation of their morning meeting.

Blood drive underway at park until 7 o'clock

Cogdell Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and Scurry County Advisory Council for United Blood Services are sponsoring a blood drive until 7 p.m. today at Towle Park Barn.

The drive, which began at 10 a.m., features "friendly competition" between the city's financial institutions.

Each financial institution — American State Bank, West Texas State Bank, Snyder National Bank, Snyder Savings & Loan and AmWest Savings — is being recognized on a percentage basis. Members of the community who donate may designate which institution they wish to serve. A trophy will be awarded to the winner.

In appreciation for voluntary blood donations, each participant will receive coupons for a DQ Sundae from Dairy Queen, a malt or milk shake from Sonic, a medium drink with the purchase of any dessert from Whataburger, a small soft drink and order of potatoes ole' from Taco John's, a medium drink with any food purchase from Wal-Mart, a medium drink with the purchase of any meal from Long John Silver's, a dollar credit at Golden Corral and a "Be Our Guest" selection from McDonald's.

In addition, every fifth donor will receive a six-pack from the Dr. Pepper Bottling Co. and every other donor will receive a coupon for a regular order from Gill's Fried Chicken.

Seven $5 gift certificates from Jaramillo's restaurant and seven from Spanish Inn will be allotted by drawings. A Sunday buffet-for-two at Willow Park Inn will be awarded by number drawing.

Cookies will be provided by Lawrence IGA. Orange juice will be furnished by Cogdell Hospital Auxiliary.

Creditors support Greyhound's reorganization

DALLAS (AP) — Greyhound Lines Inc. is near the end of bankruptcy road.

More than 80 percent of the company's creditors voted to support its Chapter 11 reorganization plan, chief executive Frank Schmieder said Monday.

The vote, completed last Tuesday, and $600 million reorganization plan itself still face approval by U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Richard Schmidt of Corpus Christi, who has scheduled a hearing Aug. 27.

Schmieder met with creditors in New York Monday to map a strategy for Greyhound to emerge from bankruptcy. Under the plan, Greyhound would become a publicly-traded company largely owned by creditors.

The Amalgamated Transit Union, which represents Greyhound's striking drivers, and the National Labor Relations Board objected to the reorganization, Schmieder said.

The union is involved with an investor group that may present a purchase offer for Greyhound at the Aug. 27 hearing.

But Schmieder said the investor group, which includes former Greyhound chairman James Kerrigan and Richmond Corp., have not asked for the company's books.

"We're in concert with the creditors. If someone were to make a viable offer, they'd have to consider it," he said in a telephone interview. "But no one has asked us for information."

He expressed confidence Schmidt would confirm the Greyhound plan. "We're looking forward to getting back to the land of the living," Schmieder said.

The company has operated under protection from creditors since June 1990, three months after its more than 5,000 drivers went on strike. Greyhound blamed the Chapter 11 filing on costs it incurred because of the strike.

The company's reorganization places back-pay claims of striking drivers near the bottom of those against the company.

The union and the NLRB have asked a Milwaukee administrative law judge to rule Greyhound illegally forced the strike by declaring an impasse in contract talks.

The judge, who heard from the union and NLRB earlier this summer, will take testimony from Greyhound Sept. 10, when the proceeding resumes.

The union and NLRB contend striking drivers are owed back pay of more than $120 million.

But Judge Schmidt, who is overseeing the bankruptcy, disallowed the back-pay claim to $31.5 million.

The union and the company will meet in Washington today for the first time since May to try to settle the strike. The last meeting broke up when the sides could not agree what order striking drivers would be recalled to work.

The company finished the second quarter with its first profit since the drivers' strike began, spokeswoman Liz Dunn said.

Greyhound earned $369,000 on revenue of $182 million during the period. For the first half of the year, the company lost $16.5 million on revenue of $347.3 million.

Bankruptcy-related costs to the company were $9.86 million during the six months.

Greyhound's load factor, the average number of people on one of its trips, was 28.8 in June, three passengers higher than in the same month two years ago. The load factor fell back to 27.3 in July, which was still above the 1989 level, Schmieder said.

He became chief executive officer of Greyhound July 2 after Fred Currey's sudden departure in May. Currey took Greyhound private when he bought the company in 1987.

He said the company will use that computer base to put a reservations system in place by next summer.

Official rules cocaine as the cause of death

AUSTIN (AP) — State Rep. Larry Evans suddenly collapsed, suffered cardiac arrest and died after using crack cocaine, the Travis County Medical Examiner has ruled.

Dr. Roberto Bayardo on Monday said Evans' death last week was accidental and was caused by a reaction to the cocaine.

"It's my opinion that Mr. Evans came to his death as a result of an adverse reaction to cocaine intoxication," Bayardo said.

Bayardo said his opinion was based on the results of toxicology tests completed Monday. The body of Evans, a Houston Democrat, was found last Wednesday.

Police said they collected 3.44 grams of crack cocaine from the South Austin apartment where Evans' body was found.

An autopsy on Evans, 42, was completed Thursday. But Bayardo said he could not determine the cause of death until the lab tests were complete.

The tests revealed 0.18 milligrams of cocaine per liter in Evans' blood, Bayardo said. He said that was "a relatively small amount," not enough to cause an overdose.

"It had nothing to do with the amount," Bayardo said. "It's not from taking too much. It's just one of those unexplained reactions to the cocaine."

Although Bayardo said Evans had used crack cocaine before his death, cocaine intoxication is not a reaction particular to that form of the drug, he said.

"We find cocaine intoxication in any kind of use — intravenous, snorted, smoked. This was smoked," he said.

Asked about the coroner's findings, House Speaker Gib Lewis on Monday said, "It's just unfortunate that happened. I feel for the family. It's a very unfortunate situation."

"We realize we have a plague in this nation, and that is drugs. You hope no one gets involved in drugs, but unfortunately from the lowest scale of our society to the top level of our society we do have people from time to time that do get involved."

Couple's 44 Years of Bliss Began in Ladies' Lounge

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1991 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Can you stand one more letter about crazy wedding nights? My mother and dad have repeated this story often. Dad had relied on close friends to reserve the bridal suite in the Mallory — a lovely old residential hotel in Portland, Ore. As it turned out, the friends didn't think it was necessary to make reservations, so they didn't bother. Well, as luck would have it, there was a plumbers' convention in town that week and, needless to say, every hotel was filled to capacity.

The manager of the Mallory was gracious enough to find them a place to sleep for the night. The first "room" they were offered was a closet under the stairs with no ventilation. The second option was the Women's Lounge located on the main floor of the hotel right off the lobby. They chose the lounge.

The management brought in two roll-away beds and hung a "CLOSED" sign on the door. Dad said he unscrewed hundreds of light bulbs from around the vanity mirrors because he couldn't find the light switch to turn them off.

My folks said there were about eight toilets in the room, and they never used the same one twice.

All night long women were knocking on their door — trying to get in to use the restroom. They didn't get much sleep, but they had a lot of laughs and made the best of the situation.

Their union produced five children, and lasted until mother's death six months ago — one month short of their 44th anniversary.

Dad's name is Leo Kacena. Mother's name was June. I'm their daughter.

JOY SPRINGER,
BELLFLOWER, CALIF.

DEAR ABBY: I read with sorrow your reply to "Forever a Baby" who couldn't understand why parents worry so much. You said, "It's every parent's nightmare that their child will be badly hurt or killed in an automobile accident." How true.

We worried about our two sons. One was fairly cautious — the other was a speeder. We got them through high school and thought we were home free.

On April 8, our youngest son decided to ride to town with a friend who had been drinking. The friend drove too fast, and both were killed in a one-car accident.

To "Baby" I say, "Be glad you have parents who worry about you and have rules."

We will never be the same.
HEARTBROKEN IN TEXAS

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: Please accept my condolences on the tragic loss of your beloved son. Perhaps your letter will serve as a reminder to others to be cautious about those with whom they choose to ride.

I recall an impressive ad promoted by Mothers Against Drunk Drivers: "Good friends don't let friends drive drunk!"

Lowrance gives ABWA program

Courtney Lowrance related her experiences as a Rotary Club Foreign Exchange student to France last summer in a program at the Scurry Charter Chapter of American Business Women's Association's recent meeting.

She stayed with the Denis Verley family that had two girls and one boy. The couple owned a textile company and had an office in their home. Miss Lowrance kept a journal of each day's activities while there. She celebrated her 18th birthday in France.

Miss Lowrance thought it was interesting that teenagers do not drive in France until they are 18 years old. The roads are very narrow there and they drive 80 miles per hour, she noted.

Ruby Deavers, an employee at Snyder Health Mart Drug for a little over 40 years, gave the vocational talk. Snyder Health Mart Drug has a post office, window service for prescriptions, school supplies, cold drinks, cosmetics, cards, jewelry, over the counter medicine, snacks and many other items, she related. In conclusion, she said her work was in any area where she is needed.

Chapter president Jessie Scarborough announced dates for the upcoming holiday meetings to be on Nov. 14 and Dec. 5 at the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

She also presented perfect attendance charms to Jo Ann Prince, one year; Carol Young, two years; Maxie McNew and Inez Teaff, seven years; Barbara Scrivner, 12 years; and Ruby Deavers 15 years. Carol Young was presented a past president pin.

Barbara Williamson and Judy Bynum were recognized for having July birthdays. The door prize was won by Leona Wiggins.

Who is the oldest regular bridge player in the world? My guess is Julia Chadwick of England.

Mrs. Chadwick's first love was tennis, for which she won many trophies. She was introduced to bridge at her tennis club in 1916. But bridge stayed in the background until 1950, when she and her husband retired. She has been a regular duplicate player ever since, winning many tournaments.

Today's hand is her favorite. If you avoid glancing at the East-West cards, you can test yourself. Following South's strong jump shift, North's jump rebid of four spades indicated a solid suit. After that, Blackwood led to seven no-trump. West led the heart jack. Now it's up to you.

If the spades were running, there were 14 tricks. But Mrs. Chadwick wanted to allow for the possibility that an opponent held jack-fourth. Before testing the spades, she played off her six red-suit winners, discarding a spade from the dummy, while both opponents followed throughout. Next came the spades, East's discard on the second round being a blot.

The clubs would have to be brought in without loss. How were they lying? Let's see — East had one spade, at most four hearts and at most five diamonds. If he had the club king, it couldn't possibly be doubleton. There was only one chance: Mrs. Chadwick led a club to her ace, and West unwillingly contributed the king.

How old is Mrs. Chadwick? She was 105 at her last birthday, crediting her longevity to a daily tot of whiskey and four sessions of bridge a week.

Marinovich passes L.A. past Cowboys

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Kenny Stabler became an NFL legend throwing left-handed passes for the old Oakland Raiders. Now the Los Angeles Raiders have another left-handed quarterbacking wonder in the wings.

Todd Marinovich made a smashing NFL debut Monday night, even if it was an exhibition game.

He looked every nickel worth the three-year, $2.25 million contract he signed after being drafted in the first round by the Raiders.

Marinovich, of Southern California, threw his first professional touchdown pass early in the fourth period, and it was a game-winner in a 17-12 victory over the Dallas Cowboys.

"He can throw the ball on the money," said Los Angeles coach Art Shell. "For the first time out he did a very good job. He had good command in the huddle and he threw the ball well when he had to throw it. He can go deep and he has the touch for the intermediate routes."

Marinovich took the Raiders 80 yards in eight plays, helped along by a 28-yard interference penalty against Robert Williams. After a yard loss, Marinovich hit Gregg Bell with a 2-yard scoring pass.

"That felt good, moving the team like that," Marinovich said. "It was a good way to break in."

Marinovich hit 3 of 4 passes for 16 yards in his first NFL action.

The Raiders (1-2) built a 10-9 halftime lead against the Cowboys (1-1) on a 6-yard scoring run by Marcus Allen and a 24-yard field goal by Jeff Jaeger.

Ken Willis kicked field goals of 26, 30 and 33 yards for the Cowboys, who got to the Raiders' 6-, 12- and 15-yard lines but couldn't score a touchdown in the first half. He also kicked a 22-yarder in the fourth period when Dallas got to the Raider 2.

"We weren't sharp, but the Raiders had a lot to do with that," said Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson.

U.S. wrestler upsets Cuban

HAVANA (AP) — He's no Hulkster, and if Haystacks Calhoun ever sat on him, he'd just be a grease spot on the rug. He wouldn't even make a decent meal for Andre The Giant. But here comes Brad Penrith, 125½ pounds and the biggest thing in wrestling.

Penrith pulled off one of the biggest upsets of the Pan American Games on Monday, beating world champion Alejandro Puerto of Cuba in freestyle wrestling and leading the U.S.

team to seven gold medals.

"This is probably the most phenomenal performance in wrestling during the games, and, considering where it happened, maybe the most phenomenal performance in U.S. wrestling in the last two or three years," said U.S. world champion wrestler John Smith, also a gold medalist.

The United States won two of three matchups with Cubans and, along with a five-race sweep by U.S. swimmers, led the onslaught on Cuba's gold-medal advantage in the games.

"Everyone — the wrestlers, the baseball team, the divers, the trainers — is saying, 'I'm glad the swimmers are here. We need more gold,'" said Ashley Tappin, a 16-year-old U.S. swimmer who opened the competition by winning the 100 freestyle.

With six days left in the games, the United States led Cuba in overall medals 266-223, but still trailed in golds 113-99.

The U.S. men's basketball team took another step toward the gold with a 114-68 victory over Uruguay, earning a spot in the semifinals against Puerto Rico on Thursday. The other semifinal will match Cuba against Mexico. The gold medal game will be played Saturday.

America's baseball team beat Nicaragua 5-4, and the United States also had two boxers in action. Patrice Brooks won at 132 pounds and Aristed Clayton lost at 119. The United States still has seven of 12 boxers in contention for medals.

Penrith, who went through 26 days of rehabilitation for a drinking problem four years ago, had a 6-1 lead 3:53 into the five-minute match against Puerto and coasted to a 6-4 victory in his first major international meet.

"I was talking to myself through the whole thing," he said. "And when I scored first, I said, 'God, that was easy.'"

Kevin Jackson, at 180½ pounds, also beat a Cuban, Orlando Hernandez, 2-0, while Chris Campbell, a 36-year-old lawyer who wrestles at 198 pounds, lost a 2-1 decision to Cuban Roberto Limonta. The Cuban scored a 1-point takedown for the victory with 23 seconds gone in overtime.

The other U.S. winners were Smith, 136½ pounds; Bruce Baumgartner, 286; Mark Coleman, 220; Olympic champion Kenny Monday, 163, and Townsend Saunders, 149½. Saunders scored the only pin of the gold-medal round, ending his match against Daniel Navarrete of Argentina with just 16 seconds gone.

The United States' five gold medals included Pan Am records in the men's 200 freestyle by Eric Diehl and in the women's 800 freestyle relay. Diehl's time of 1 minute, 49.67 seconds shaved .22 off the record, and the team of Natalie Norberg, Barb Metz, Jane Skillman and Lisa Jacob broke the other mark by nearly two seconds in 8:11.47. Tappin and Megan Oesting scored the only 1-2 U.S. sweep, in the women's 100 freestyle.

Chris Roberts homered for the U.S. baseball team. Tony Phillips came on for John Dettmer with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth inning, struck out Julio Medina and got the next batter on a grounder to preserve the victory.

Canada's softball team scored its second victory over the United States, this time 8-3.

By Michael Squires, Range Conservationist

"It takes quality cotton to produce quality products" stated from the AGRI-BRIEFS from the Potash and Phosphate Institute (PPI). So the quality of cotton fiber is very important to textile manufacturers. No surprise here says PPI.

For the cotton grower, producing quality fiber is even more important today than ever before. This is because HVI is here. HVI stands for "High Volume Instrumentation" classification. It is the USDA's system by which all cotton grown in the United States will be graded beginning this year.

With HVI, each bale can be evaluated according to strict quality standards. And those standards are the same regardless of location. So Alabama cotton can be compared with that from Oklahoma, and that from Texas can be compared to cotton grown in California. It is all the same to HVI.

What does this mean to the cotton grower? Plenty, according to PPI. Premiums and discounts based on HVI classification will be emphasized in future marketing. Quality cotton will be rewarded as never before. And on the flip side, poor quality will be penalized as never before.

According to PPI, here is where potash fits in. Potash has been regarded as the "quality" nutrient. This is certainly true for cotton. Potash fertilization can increase fiber quality in many ways... length, micronaire, index, strength, elongation, and uniformity ratio. In a recent California study with two varieties of cotton, PPI stated that each and every one of these quality factors was improved with potash fertilization for both varieties. Many other examples of quality improvements, in many locations, could also be cited.

Cotton also benefits from needed potash in other ways. Boll size and final yield are larger. Plant tolerance to nematodes, Verticillium wilt and Fusarium wilt is increased. Water use efficiency is improved. And the crop matures more uniformly which facilitates harvest.

The benefits from potash to cotton and other crops are many because potash affects many different essential plant processes. When it is in short supply, photosynthesis, trans-location, and numerous enzyme systems function poorly.

HVI classification of cotton can be viewed as an opportunity. The grower producing high quality cotton will be rewarded.

BREAKFAST, FELLOWSHIP — Scurry County Ranch Breakfast organizers reported a good turnout to last Wednesday's event, held at the W.C. Hart ranch, south of Snyder. W.C. Hart and his wife, Juanita, took time to pose for a "Take Pride In America" conservation award presented on behalf of the ranch. A road marker will be placed along Hwy. 208 soon, designating the ranch and the award. The breakfast was sponsored by the Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District and Ezell-Key. ## ASCS Report

By Joe Hefner
County Executive Director

Scurry County wool producers are eligible to vote in a referendum August 19, 1991.

The National Wool Act of 1954, as amended, provides that a referendum may be conducted to determine whether wool producers approve of a new agreement between the Administrator, AMS and the American Sheep Industry Association. (ASI) for the advertising and sales promotion of lamb and wool. If producers approve of the new agreement, deductions will be made from wool and unshorn lamb payments for 1991 through 1995.

The referendum will be conducted from August 19, 1991, through August 30, 1991. Local ASCS offices will be mailing ballots to eligible producers by August 19, 1991. Ballots must be returned to County office by close of business on August 30, 1991.

If you do not receive a ballot and feel you are eligible to vote, please contact your local ASCS office.

Low-Fat, Low-Cholesterol Cooking

Try these tasty tips to keep the lid on your total fat and calorie intake. Remember, it is not always what you eat that gets you in trouble, often it is how you cook it.

1. In casseroles and main dishes, cut back or even eliminate added fat. For example, browning meat in added fat is unnecessary because some fat will drain from the meat as it cooks. Use a non-stick pan or cooking spray.

2. Reduce fat by one-fourth to one-third in baked products. For example, if a recipe calls for 1 cup of oil, try 3/4 cup. This works best in quick breads, muffins, and cookies.

3. Sauté or stir-fry vegetables with very little fat or use water, wine, or broth.

4. To thicken sauces and gravies without lumping, eliminate fat and instead mix cornstarch or flour with a small amount of cold liquid. Stir this mixture slowly into hot liquid you want to thicken, and bring it back to a boil.

5. Decrease the proportion of oil in home-made salad dressing. Try one-third oil to two-thirds vinegar.

6. Chill soups, gravies, and stews and skim off hardened fat before reheating to serve. This will save 100 calories per tablespoon of fat removed.

7. Select lean cuts of meat, chicken, fish or turkey and trim off visible fat before and after cooking. Remove skin from poultry before cooking and bake, broil, grill, steak, poach or microwave meat, poultry, or fish instead of frying fat.

8. Use reduced-calorie sour cream or mayonnaise. To reduce fat further, use plain low-fat or nonfat yogurt, buttermilk, or blended cottage cheese instead of regular sour cream or mayonnaise for sauces, dips, and salad dressings. If a sauce made with yogurt is to be heated, add 1 tablespoon of cornstarch to 1 cup yogurt to prevent separation.

9. Use less whole milk products, including less cheese and eggs. Use skim or low-fat milk instead of whole milk. For extra richness, try evaporated skim milk. Eat live cultured low-fat yogurt and low-fat dairy products. Avoid non-dairy creamers that have coconut oil, palm oil or palm kernel oil. These contain high levels of saturated fatty acids. Consider using substitute cheeses. Remember, however, that some substitute cheeses are high in sodium.

10. Use vegetable oils instead of solid fats. To substitute liquid oil for solid fats, use about one-fourth less than the recipe calls for. For example, if a recipe calls for 1/4 cup (4 tablespoons) of solid fat, use 3 tablespoons of oil. For cakes or pie crusts, use a recipe that specifically calls for oil because liquid fats require special mixing procedures and different proportions of sugar.

11. Use two egg whites or an egg substitute product instead of one whole egg. In some recipes, simply decrease the total number of eggs.

12. Use margarine instead of butter. While both have about the same calories, butter is higher in saturated fatty acids. Look for margarines in which liquid vegetable oil is the first ingredient. Avoid those margarines which are higher in saturated fatty acids, and lists its first ingredient as hydrogenated oil rather than at liquid vegetable oil. The process of hydrogenation turns an unsaturated fatty acid into a partially saturated fatty acid.
