In Brief

Postal shooting

ROYAL OAK, Mich. (AP) — A woman postal employee wounded in the suicidal shooting spree by a recently fired coworker died this morning, as did the gunman, hospital officials said.

Colleagues predicted that Thomas McIlvane, who threatened supervisors and co-workers, would one day shoot up the Royal Oak post office if he didn't get his job back. One described him as a "waiting time bomb."

On Thursday, police said, the 31-year-old ex-Marine made good on his threats, spraying the post office with bullets from a 22-caliber semiautomatic rifle. Three postal workers were killed and six were wounded before he turned the gun on himself.

Drug testing policy tabled

New document will include all SISD staff

Snyder public schools trustees voted 5-1 Thursday to table a policy which would have instituted mandatory drug testing for employees who transport students or staff, opting instead to consider a policy next month which will include all employees of the district.

The dissenting vote was cast by Trustee Geraldine Parker, who favored approving the more limited policy until the expanded policy could be written.

"It will take at least one more month," to draft and approve a new policy, Parker said. "I don't think we should postpone a very important safety factor."

In other action, trustees approved a Texas Association of School Boards policy update, a resolution nominating directors to the Scurry County Appraisal District Board, a waiver request for Stanfield Elementary, and a request to include Hartford Life Insurance Co. as a participating company for payroll deductions.

The board also granted authority to Business Manager Lee McNair to obtain loans as needed to meet Snyder ISD's payroll and account payables obligation.

The drug testing policy submitted to trustees Thursday was directed at those employees who transport students or staff, but included the right to test "for cause" any employee suspected of being under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

The policy, had it been approved, would have taken effect Dec. 1.

However, trustees appeared in agreement that the policy should include all employees and not just those who are involved in transportation.

Gray trial slated for January 13

A Jan. 13 trial date has been set for Travis Dale Gray, who is charged with escaping from the Price Daniel Unit in 1990.

The 33-year-old Gray made an appearance in 132nd District Court Thursday for a pre-trial hearing and the setting of the January court date.

Gray escaped from the local Daniel Unit June 20, 1990, by hiding in a furniture truck. He eluded law enforcement authorities for almost a year until his capture in Florida on June 13 of this year.

At the time of his escape, Gray was serving a 40-year sentence for the murder of his first wife, Tammy, at Colorado City Lake in June of 1988.

Gray faces a maximum sentence of 10 years on the escape charge. He is being represented by court-appointed attorney Barry Clair.

Vehicle in lot '7 to 10 days;' provides no clues for police

A manager at Sam's Wholesale in Abilene where a missing Snyder man's Suburban was discovered Thursday told police the vehicle had been parked there for seven to 10 days.

Paul Edward Milford, owner of Fast Oil Change in Snyder, was last seen by acquaintances on Saturday, Nov. 2. The 49-year-old man was reported missing two days later when he failed to open his business at the intersection of Ave. E and the East Highway.

Police have also confirmed that a billfold belonging to Milford was found at 1234 16th St. in Abilene on Monday, Nov. 11.

Thursday, a store manager reported an abandoned vehicle in Sam's Wholesale parking lot in Abilene. A routine check on the vehicle showed it to be Milford's 1982 GMC Suburban. Snyder police were notified of the discovery about 7:55 a.m.

The manager told police the vehicle had been in the parking lot for seven to 10 days.

Snyder Police Lt. Steve Warren said today that a search of the vehicle's contents revealed no new clues to Milford's whereabouts, or to the whereabouts of two other Snyder people who have been reported missing.

Also unaccounted for are 43-year-old Arthur Lee Harding, an employee of Fast Oil Change, and 28-year-old Nina Jonell Henderson, said to be a girlfriend of Harding.

Harding and Henderson obtained a marriage license in Abilene on Friday, Nov. 1, records indicate. They were last seen in Snyder on Nov. 4.

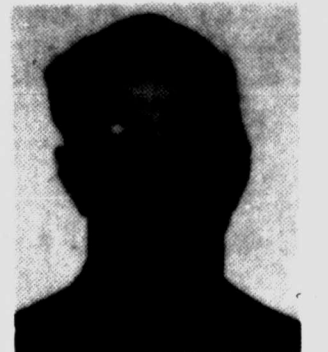

Separate acquaintances have told police that Harding and Henderson said they were going to a doctor, or that they were going to get married.

Harding's brown, two-tone 1982 Chevrolet pickup, license 5535 JK, is also missing.

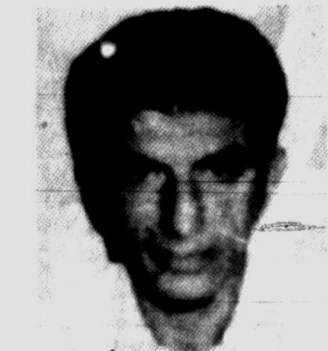

Lt. Warren also confirmed today that several checks written on Milford's bank account have been returned because of signatures which do not appear to be in his handwriting. However, he said the checks were written prior to the disappearance of any of the three individuals.

Warren said it is unclear if the apparent forgeries and the fact that (see MISSING, page 10)

50TH ANNIVERSARY — Roe's Home and Auto Store opened for business in January of 1941. The business, now Roe's Furniture and Appliance is currently celebrating its 50th anniversary.

Business celebrates 50th year

A belated 50th anniversary celebration is being observed by one of Snyder's oldest retail businesses — Roe's Furniture and Appliance.

Located in the Highland Shopping Center, the firm had its grand opening on March 11, 1941, after Myron and Verna Lee Roe had moved to Snyder just two months earlier from Clovis.

The 50th anniversary observance had been delayed because of the illness of the founders' daughter, Rose Marie Floyd.

The business opened in a 1,152-square foot building at 2110 Ave. S, south of Browning Food Market. The business was first known as Roe's Home and Auto (see 50TH, page 10)

County oks amendment

Scurry County commissioners amended the capital outlay budget in the amount of $140,000 for the purchase of a dozer during a special meeting this morning at the county courthouse.

After approval of the amendment, commissioners approved the advertising of bids for the equipment. Bids will be reviewed Dec. 2 and a Dec. 9 bid acceptance is expected.

The bid is a "total cost bid" which obligates the company who submits a bid to guarantee the repurchase of the equipment after five years.

Southwest threatens pullout of San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Southwest Airlines would be forced to pull out of San Antonio International Airport if the city uses airport funds to finance a station for Texas' proposed "bullet train," Southwest President Herb Kelleher says.

Kelleher made the remark following his annual "Message to the Field" speech to about 500 employees in San Antonio Wednesday night, an airline spokesman said Thursday.

After Kelleher finished his speech, the San Antonio Express reported, an employee asked him about Mayor Nelson Wolff's statement that San Antonio would be willing to help with financing of a rail station, but only through the use of International Airport funds. The mayor made the statement in a letter to Texas TGV officials.

Ron Ricks, vice president for governmental affairs, said an employee asked Kelleher what the airlines' reaction would be if airport funds raised through rental fees and landing fees paid by airlines to the airport were used to construct a high-speed rail station at the airport.

"Herb's reaction to that was that it could very well lead to a termination of service," Ricks said. Kelleher was not available for comment Thursday, the newspaper reported.

Ricks said the airlines could suffer "irreparable financial harm" if it were forced to compete with a subsidized transportation entity.

"Our reaction to that, in the interest of survival, would depend on how significant the negative effect was," Ricks said. "And that is speculative at this point."

"But if they are successful in building this terminal, and if they are subsidized, and if they are capable, with a subsidy, of taking the number of passengers away from us that they predict they will, then that could lead to a termination of service," Ricks said. "It's a very serious threat to the employees of Southwest Airlines."

Southwest has a 30 percent share of the airline market at San Antonio and offers 270 flights a week with 35,000 available seats, he said. And San Antonio represents 7.6 percent of Southwest's business.

Ricks also said Southwest spent $34 million in direct expenditures at the airport for fuel, rent and other items. And he said the airline has 600 San Antonio-based employees with a payroll of nearly $19 million.

The airline could lose up to 60 percent of its passengers to the bullet train.

"And then the final insult, the money that we're paying to the airport to fly there is being used to subsidize a competitor against us," Ricks said.

Southwest filed a lawsuit in August in the state court against the Texas High-Speed Rail Authority to overturn the panel's selection of Texas TGV, a French-Canadian-U.S. consortium, as the company most capable of completing the project.

Teen sentenced to 20 years in prison

HOUSTON (AP) — A 14-year-old boy who shot a man to death in a robbery attempt at an automated teller machine has been sentenced to 20 years in prison by a juvenile court jury.

The sentence was returned Thursday in the July 31 shooting death of Ronald Kurt Krejci, 31.

Ironically, the victim had failed to get any money from the ATM and had only 11 cents in his pocket at the time he was slain.

District Judge Eric Andell said that under the new "determinate sentencing" procedures used in Texas juvenile courts, the teen now will go to a Texas Youth Commission facility until he's 18.

He would then be returned to Andell's court for a hearing. If authorities prove the teen's conduct has continued to be menacing, he could be ordered to serve the rest of his term in an adult prison.

Prosecutor Bob Molder had asked for a maximum 30-year term, saying it would have given the youth incentive to mend his errant ways. Defense lawyer Wayne Hill pleaded for only a 5- or 10-year sentence.

Authorities said the boy, apparently at the urgings of older youths, got a .357-caliber revolver and went to the ATM to rob someone. Bank records show that Krejci, who had injected himself with cocaine just before he was shot, made four attempts to get money from the ATM. He also tried using another person's card to make a withdrawal, but got turned down.

Krejci, a restaurant equipment repair firm employee, was walking back to his pickup truck when he was confronted by the then 13-year-old boy.

teen demanded, according to the statement he gave police.

Told that he didn't have any money, the teen demanded the keys to Krejci's truck.

At that point, Krejci said he was "going to get something," police said.

The boy then fired a shot that hit Krejci in the face, killing him.

The youth fled and threw away the pistol, but he called the 911 himself in later the same day.

Defense lawyer Hill contended that the youth only wanted to rob Krejci.

"(The teen) stepped into the shoes of a man that night," Molder said. "He made the decision."

DEAR DR. GOTT: What causes dyslexia? Could it be hereditary?
DEAR READER: The cause of dyslexia, a primary reading disability, is unknown. Children with the disorder usually have normal intellectual capabilities but remain at least two grades behind in reading ability. Dyslexic children appear to have difficulty matching perceptions from the printed page to seeing, feeling and understanding. They reverse letters and words, cannot work out the pronunciation of new words, and have impaired handwriting and spelling. Predictably, youngsters with reading problems become frustrated and angry. They may exhibit behavioral problems in school, as well as withdrawal and alienation. Treatment consists of a multi-discipline approach: special teaching programs that take into account each child's strengths and weaknesses. To the extent that dyslexic children can, with assistance, overcome their handicap, they will achieve their full intellectual potential. However, this requires hard work on the part of parents and teachers, not to mention the children themselves.

DEAR DR. GOTT: After years of migraine headaches and various unsuccessful treatments, my doctor put me on a daily dose of verapamil. He ran routine lab studies before I started the therapy, but he doesn't seem concerned with the possibility of liver or kidney problems from the drug. What is the incidence of damage, and are there other organs that could be affected?

First step in Air Micronesia's sale approved

HOUSTON (AP) — Continental Airlines has cleared the first hurdle in its attempt to sell its Air Micronesia operation to a new investment group for $290 million in cash and stock.

The airline announced last month it would seek approval in bankruptcy court for the sale of its South Pacific operation to Pacific Air Micronesia Inc.

Since Continental is in the midst of bankruptcy reorganization, the sale must be approved by Delaware Bankruptcy Judge Helen Balick. The deal also faces regulatory approval.

On Thursday, Balick approved a motion that prohibits Continental from "shopping" the operation to other potential buyers.

In addition, prospective buyers must submit a minimum overbid of 5 percent of the original offer and of the market value of the stock. Pacific Air Micronesia also would be paid an $8 million toping fee if another buyer acquired Air Micronesia or Continental withdraws its agreement.

Continental spokesman said the motion was submitted by the Houston-based carrier, its creditors and Pacific Air Micronesia as a way to "validate the price" for Air Micronesia.

Continental's financial advisers told the judge they already had marketed the routes to more than 50 parties before reaching an agreement with Pacific Air Micronesia, which had demanded the toping fee in negotiations.

The judge also set a Feb. 12 hearing date to consider final approval of the deal, which includes $270 million in cash and another $20 million worth of preferred stock in the new entity. Continental has said it hopes to finalize the sale by the end of March.

Air Micronesia is a partnership between Continental and the Federated States of Micronesia, a republic made up of the four islands of Yap, Truk, Pohnpei and Kosrae. Continental controls more than 99 percent of the business.

Pacific Micronesia is owned by George Doubleday II, a former Pan AM executive, John Eckel Jr., president of an oil and gas producing company, and Scott Gibson, a former Continental vice president. Its primary investor is Arral & Partners, a Hong Kong-based investment firm that handles pension funds for some U.S. corporations and states.

Continental, which filed for bankruptcy protection last December, has a Nov. 28 court deadline for filing a reorganization plan.

The third rubber between Control and Kaos, the two TV-sitcom super-spy organizations, was reaching its conclusion.

In the fifth deal, Siegfried, the German assassin who is a Love Boat booking agent in his spare time, opened with two clubs, strong, artificial and forcing. Leadsid, founder of the Kaos chapter of Mensa, made the good bid of two spades, showing both his excellent suit and positive values. Siegfried's jump rebid of four clubs promised a solid suit, set the trump suit and asked for cue-bids. After three cues, Siegfried signed off in six clubs.

Harry Hoo, the Hawaiian detective, led the diamond queen. Siegfried had two lines available. He could cash the club ace, hoping the nine would drop, thus establishing the eight as a dummy entry to the three spade winners. However, Siegfried preferred to lead the club four from his hand.

Siegfried was hoping that Hoo would win with the nine. But the inscrutable detective played his club five smoothly. Now it looked to Siegfried as if Hoo didn't have the nine. Perhaps he had the seven instead. Siegfried finessed dummy's club six, losing to Maxwell Smart's seven. Smart returned his last diamond, and declarer had to lose three red-suit tricks for three down.

"Vy didn't you play zee club nine, Hoo?" demanded Siegfried.

"Well, as Confucius says, if a German offers you a Greek gift, it is probably in a Hawaiian's best interest to refuse it."

Panel recommends breast implants remain on market

GAITHERSBURG, Md. (AP) — A federal advisory panel is recommending that silicone gel-breast implants be allowed to stay on the market while their safety is studied further.

One panel member, Dr. Genevieve Matanoski, said Thursday that rigorous studies are needed to replace an "appalling" lack of hard evidence about the risks and benefits of implants, some of which have been available for 30 years.

But she added, "We haven't shown (implants) to be an imminent danger."

"There are unresolved issues," said Dr. Elizabeth Connell, chairwoman of the Food and Drug Administration panel and an epidemiologist at The Johns Hopkins University. "But the committee's unanimous vote suggests ... these are worthy products and it is necessary to keep them on the market to collect the sorts of information we've identified" as necessary to determine safety.

The recommendation concluded a three-day meeting at which panel members were presented with wrenching testimony from women whose lives had been transformed by implants — some for the better, some for the worse — and with scientific data that often raised more questions than it answered.

The implants that were reviewed are made by Dow Corning Wright, Mentor Corp., McGhan Medical Corp. and Bioplasty Inc.

In the end, committee members decided the implants were not shown to be an imminent danger and were too important to be denied to women who want them — whether for breast enlargement or for reconstruction after breast cancer surgery.

"I don't want to be in the position of having to judge a woman's perception of her need," said Nancy Dubler, a New York lawyer and ethicist.

DENNIS THE MENACE

Couple Seeks United Front Before Going Separate Ways

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are separating after six years of marriage. I am 31 and he is 33. After months of discussion and many sessions with a marriage counselor, we came to realize that we had no common goals. (He initiated the idea of separation after expressing a desire to be on his own again.)

I have cried, bargained and offered to compromise, but his mind is made up; he wants his independence. I refuse to commit emotional blackmail or entrap him with a pregnancy to continue the marriage. Therefore, I have decided the best thing to do is let him go. It hurts, but this way we can part as friends and get on with our lives.

Our problem: how to explain this to our families, friends and co-workers who have always viewed us as the "perfect couple." We rarely fought. We trusted each other, supported each other's careers, shared the work and had fun together. No one would suspect that we've been talking about separating for the past four months. It will be a shock to our families and a total surprise to everyone else.

Abby, we want to be truthful and call it a mutual decision, but I know people will look for something more scandalous than incompatibility as soon as this spreads via the grapevine.

How do we maximize understanding and minimize rumor fallout?

D.J., ILLINOIS

DEAR D.J.: First, announce it to your parents, then inform other family members and friends. To minimize rumors flying, present a united front. The message should be along these lines: "Sam and I have agreed to end our marriage. Although it may come as a surprise to all of you, this decision is mutual. Even though we care for each other, we have decided that we no longer want to be husband and wife. Please don't press us further because we both would rather not go into details at this time."

If anyone is so insensitive as to question you further, simply say, "We'd rather not discuss it right now."

"Good luck to both of you ... wherever your separate paths may take you."

DEAR ABBY: My youngest brother-in-law is getting married this spring. We live on opposite sides of the country, but we are expected to come to this wedding. We simply can't afford to go as a family. My husband thinks he should go anyway, even though his wife and kids can't. I disagree with him; I say if we can't all go, then none of us should go.

I already know what the outcome is, but I would like to know what you think about this problem, and how would you resolve it?

I also know what the outcome would be were it someone in my family getting married. I'd tell them flat out that we cannot afford to go to the wedding, then we would send them a gift and our best wishes.

Am I being selfish, Abby? Or is my husband?

FEELING ABANDONED

DEAR FEELING ABANDONED: I do not agree that since all of you can't afford to go to the wedding, nobody should go. Since your husband's youngest brother is being married and you can't afford to go with him, I think your husband should go without you.

By the same token, if someone in your family were being married on the opposite side of the country, and both you and your husband could not afford to make the trip, you should go without him.

3 arrested in assault of 11-year-old girl

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A police investigator says he doubts the existence of a so-called "rape club" ran by preteens in a low-income housing project, but authorities have arrested three juveniles in connection with a sexual assault of an 11-year-old girl.

Homicide Sgt. Billy Ewell, head of the sex-crimes unit, said Thursday officers will question three other girls about the same age who may have been victims of sexual assaults.

Two other cases in which girls claim they were raped at the Rigby Apartments have been reported to police by school officials, but investigators have been unable to substantiate them, Ewell said.

"In my opinion there is no rape club," Ewell said. "We have three youths who were involved in a sexual assault of a young female."

District Judge Tom Rickhoff, who handles juvenile matters, said last week he had heard reports of a group of preteens who used rape as an initiation rite.

The judge said Wednesday he will no longer hear child-abuse cases from the apartments because the reports had so disgusted him that he could not remain objective.

"Whether or not there is a club, I'm glad this was brought out so these boys and girls don't have to live like this," Rickhoff said, adding that he had ordered a 12-year-old boy alleged to have started the club be put into the custody of juvenile authorities.

The 12-year-old, when brought before Rickhoff, said young boys must molest a girl as part of an initiation process before being allowed to join the rape club.

A presidential address was broadcast on radio for the first time in 1923 as President Calvin Coolidge spoke to a joint session of Congress.

Some producers would face more competition from Mexico's markets

WASHINGTON (AP) — A free trade agreement with Mexico could expand markets for some U.S. growers while heightening the competition for feeder-cattle producers and some regional fruit and vegetable industries, the nation's largest farm organization said today.

In a report, the American Farm Bureau Federation said a free trade agreement could benefit U.S. dairy products, grains and oilseeds, fed cattle and hogs, and seasonal fresh vegetables and fruits such as apples and pears.

But lifting tariffs along the border could increase Mexico's competition with U.S. feeder-cattle producers and regional industries such as asparagus and frozen vegetables in California and avocados in California and Florida, the study said.

Some other U.S. farm industries — such as poultry, cotton, and most citrus fruits and horticultural crops — may not even feel the effects of a North American free trade agreement, the study said.

The study was the result of work by private consultants and several universities.

President Dean Kleckner said the Farm Bureau would use the study's findings to represent U.S. producers in the trade negotiations.

"These findings will help America's farmers and ranchers determine how to position themselves in the talks currently under way," said Kleckner, a soybean and hog farmer from Rudd, Iowa.

"The idea of creating a free trade zone in North America is exciting because of the increased opportunities it offers much of U.S. agriculture, but as our study indicates, this will also bring increased competition for some producers," he said.

Grains and oilseeds could be one of the biggest winners, the study said. Under the accord, Mexico's production of grain crops would decline as high guaranteed prices gave way to lower market-based prices. Consumption would increase more rapidly, resulting in substantial increases in imports.

The study said average grain and oilseed exports could increase by 25 percent to 35 percent, with corn and wheat exports showing increases ranging from 44 percent to 75 percent.

The study also said demand for dairy products by Mexico's large, young and growing population is expected to increase and that the United States would be in a competitive position to capture some of the market.

Reforms under the trade agreement could also support moderate increases in U.S. exports of low-cost processed meats, edible offal and high-quality beef and pork, the study said.

President James Polk triggered the Gold Rush of '49 by confirming that gold had been discovered in California.

SHS faces Pampa in playoffs

Harvesters will rely on ground offense in bi-district battle

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

The Pampa offense will present some big-yardage offensive threats to the Snyder Tiger defense in Friday's 7:30 p.m. Class 4A bi-district battle at Canyon's Buffalo Bowl.

Fullback Sammy Laury, fullback Zach Thomas and quarterback Andy Cavalier, son of PHS head coach Dennis Cavalier, are all returnees from last season's playoff team, and were all leaders in the Harvesters' 1991 District 1 championship drive.

Laury has accumulated a school-record 1375 yards this season and scored 14 touchdowns.

"He's a good back," coach Baugh said of Laury. "He runs really hard."

Laury will line up as the deep back in Pampa's I-formation attack.

The fullback Zach Thomas, is so dominating at his position that Baugh called him "the best blocking fullback we've faced."

Thomas, a returning all district performer at fullback and line-backer, has amassed 512 yards running the football and scored eight touchdowns.

Cavalier's numbers for 1991 reflect the Pampa offensive philosophy of run, run, run.

The senior signal caller completed 22 of only 51 passes in the regular season for 445 yards and five TDs.

"We can't prepare, defensively, any differently," said Baugh. "If you get ready for them to just run at you, then their quarterback will hurt you with the pass."

"Cavalier is real mobile. He scrambles well and he's not afraid to keep the ball on bootleg plays."

"They do a good job on their passing game. They run passing plays mostly off play-action, and they do it well."

Snyder's offense, under sophomore quarterback Matt Cave, will try to establish a more consistent passing game against Pampa.

Cave, in his first starting role of the season, was one of four for 15 yards last week and has hit eight of 14 for 135 yards and a TD for the year.

Playoff pairings

Class 4A Region I
Pampa (8-2) vs. Snyder (7-3), 7:30 p.m. Friday, Canyon.
District 3 runner-up has a bye.
Burkburnett (8-2) vs. Stephenville (8-2), 7:30 p.m. Friday, Maverick Stadium, Arlington.

Six-Man
Ira (6-4) vs. Wellman (6-2-1), 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Lamesa.
Borden County (7-3) vs. Sands (11-0), 7:30 p.m. Friday, Lamesa.

"We're still working on throwing the ball," Baugh reported. "We missed by just a little bit against Lamesa, so I feel like we're improving in that area."

Snyder will rely mainly on its infantry charge to grind out yardage.

Junior fullback Wayland Harrison leads the team in rushing with 683 yards this season. Harrison and a platoon of other ball carriers including seniors Daniel Espinosa and Mark King and junior Michael Fields, should see extensive action against the Harvesters.

Pampa's loop-champion defense is anchored by all-district defensive end Phillip Sexton and middle linebacker Thomas.

"I think the key matchup for the game will be between Sexton and Hayward Clay," Baugh said.

"They'll be playing across from each other the whole night and they're both good football players. It should be interesting."

Sexton, a 6-1, 213-pound senior, plays tight end as well as defensive end, as does Snyder standout Clay.

Clay, 6-3, 225, was a two-way All-District honoree in 1990.

He is the Tigers' leading receiver on offense with eight catches for 194 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Snyder fans going to the game will be seated on the east side of Buffalo Bowl, which is on the campus of West Texas State University.

Tickets to the tilt, available at the gate, are priced a $4 per person.

IT'S HARVEST TIME!

Borden Co. hopes to break Mustangs

The Borden County Coyotes, still grieving following the death of one of their teammates last weekend, will have to face the No. 3 six-man football team in Texas, the Sands Mustangs, today at 7:30 p.m. at Tornado Stadium in Lamesa.

Brandon Adcock, a sophomore standout for the Coyotes all season, was killed in a one-vehicle crash last Friday night, returning from watching Sands play Klondike.

Teammates of the 16-year-old grider served as honorary pall bearers at the Monday funeral.

The Coyotes were off last week after being awarded a forfeit win by a short-handed Highland squad.

Borden County enters the playoffs with a 7-3 record for the second consecutive year.

Last season the Coyotes represented District 6-A as loop champions. This season Borden wound up its league slate with a 4-1 record, second to Ira's 5-0 mark.

While B.C. is coming off a forfeit and an off week, the Mustangs are still flexing their muscles following a 46-0 shellacking of Klondike last Friday, in a game called in the third quarter on the six-man 45-point rule.

The Ponies took an 8-0 lead after one period, then exploded for 30 unanswered points in the second.

Heath Gillespie ended the game for Sands with his 25-yard TD sprint with 4:02 to go in the third period.

The Mustangs rolled for 321 total yards and Pank Grigg scored three times in the win.

Sands wound up the regular season with an unblemished 10-0 mark.

Borden County's foray into the playoffs was cut short last season when they lost to Grady on penetrations after a 13-13 tie in Gail.

Willie Mays made 23 hits in All-Star play, the most for any batter.

Ira to battle Wellman in post-season contest

The Ira Bulldogs claimed their first district football championship since 1974 last Friday when they bumped off Lorraine, 36-27.

Ira, District 6-A six-man champion, will take on Wellman, District 5's runner-up, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Tornado Stadium in Lamesa.

Bulldog senior Chris Haynes scored twice and threw for another TD in Friday's win and had a pair of TD punt returns called back.

He scored on a 50-yard punt return and on a 25-yard toss from junior Mike Hughes.

Senior Brian Luna crossed the goal line three times for the Dogs, including once on a Haynes pass that covered 22 yards.

Wellman, having played one game less, is 6-2-1, and coming off a 67-36 slamming of Grady a week ago.

Wellman had three running backs with over 100 yards rushing in the regular-season finale, including leading rusher Wade Rowden who amassed 305 yards and four touchdowns on 14 carries.

Rowden scored on rushes of 63, 43, 60 and 32 yards to pace the Wildcats against Grady.

WHS standout Francisco Franco rolled for 110 yards and four scores and Martin Franco added 103 yards on the ground for Wellman.

Ira is making its second straight appearance in post-season play, having been eliminated last season by Sands, 50-0, in the bi-district round.

District 6 runner-up, Borden County, will face the No. 3 Sands Mustangs today at 7:30 p.m. in Lamesa.

No. 13 Aggies seek Cotton Bowl berth

by The Associated Press
The No. 13 Texas Aggies are a two-step away and possibly less from dancing into the Cotton Bowl as the Southwest Conference champions.

Victories over Arkansas (5-4, 2-4) Saturday and Southern Methodist (1-8, 0-7) on Nov. 23 would give the Aggies (7-1, 5-0) the title with no help from their SWC mates.

But if the right dominoes fall on Saturday, the Aggies could be crowned even earlier. Should the Aggies win and No. 20 Baylor lose to Texas Tech and Texas lose to Texas Christian, the Aggies could clinch the title outright.

But don't expect to catch A&M coach R.C. Slocum engaged in such forward looking conversation. The Aggies haven't lost a game at home since 1989, when they were beaten by the Hogs at Kyle Field.

"They have quite a number of players who played on the team two years ago that beat us here (College Station) and won the Southwest Conference championship," Slocum said.

In other games Texas Christian (6-3, 3-3) plays at Texas (4-4, 3-2); Rice (4-5, 2-4) hosts Houston (3-5, 2-3) in the battle for the Bayou Bucket and Texas Tech (4-5, 3-3) plays at Baylor (7-2, 4-2).

The Aggies are 21-point favorites to defeat the Razorbacks, hobbled by quarterback injuries this season. Texas has been given a 16 1/2 point nod over Texas Christian, Baylor is favored by 12 1/2 points over Texas Tech and Houston has a 9 1/2 point edge over Rice.

Arkansas will challenge the Aggies with quarterback replacement Wade Hill, who earned a scholarship in last week's 38-21 loss to Texas Tech. Jason Allen is sidelined with injuries.

Hill will go against the Aggies Wrecking Crew defense that has 43 sacks for 324 yards in losses this season. The Aggies records are 49 sacks in 1986 and 336 yards in losses in 1988.

Anderson became the first player in NCAA history to surpass 400 points in a career. Anderson has scored 403 points and needs one field goal to move into 10th place with 69 career field goals.

Six of Houston's opponents have appeared in the top 25 this season.

Rice's Trevor Cobb regained his national rushing lead with 203 yards on 41 carries against SMU. He is averaging 159.89 yards per game.

Westerners to host basketball tourney

Western Texas College men's basketball coach, Kelly Green, is anxious to get his team back on the floor after a disappointing 87-83 loss to Cisco Junior College on Tuesday.

His squad will be the host team at this weekend's WTC-McDonald's Classic to be played at Scurry County Coliseum.

"It was a disappointing loss, to say the very, very least," said Green of the CJC game.

Western Texas, at one time in the early part of the second half, held a 27-point lead against the Wranglers that just slipped away.

After leading 43-23 at the half, WTC was outscored 64-40 in the last 20 minutes.

"It's kind of a nervous anticipation," Green said. "We play Temple first, and they press you all the time. We've had a little trouble breaking the press, but we need to forget about this game."

One part of the game the WTC men don't need to forget is the play of freshmen Brent Murphy and Terrance Ross against CJC.

Murphy, who is putting in an average of just under 19 points a game, hit for a game-high 25. Ross had his best game as a Westerner scoring 18 points.

The 3-2 Westerners will face Temple Junior College at 8 p.m. Friday, following the 6 p.m. contest between Western Junior College Athletic Conference favorite Howard College and Panola College.

On Saturday, Howard plays Temple at 6 p.m. and Panola squares off against WTC in the 8 p.m. game.

At Howard Classic...

Dusters thump Blinn, 57-49

BIG SPRING — "We can't play any better than we played against Blinn," said Western Texas College women's basketball coach Kelly Chadwick after his Lady Dusters defeated BJC 57-49 in opening round action at the Howard Classic here Thursday.

"We had been kind of sputtering," the coach continued, "but we came around. We played exceptional defense and we were going hard to the boards. It was a great team effort."

"In fact," he said, "It was probably the best team effort for a Western Texas team since the first semester of year before last."

"It was a really important win for this bunch."

Chadwick continued, "Cynthia French did an outstanding job defensively. She stayed all over their guards, some of the best around, and took them completely out of their offense.

"Another reason this is such a big game," the coach bubbled, "is that we beat a good team. They've beaten South Plains and Odessa and Panola, three pretty good teams. And they're so big."

Chadwick felt like the game's key was sophomore leadership, which, according to the coach had been lacking in previous games.

"Our sophomores realized after our game against Cisco, (a 68-59 loss on Tuesday), that it was time to step in and get it done," coach Chadwick reported, "and that's just what they did."

Second-year players Merry Brown of Del Rio and Navasota talent La Shunta Jackson scored 13 and 12 points, respectively, from inside the paint Thursday.

Also in double figures for the contest was Canyon freshman Angela Littlejohn, who hit for 13 points for the Dusters in scoring honors.

Blinn's Amy Little was her team's top scorer with 12 points on the night.

"I'd hate to point out anybody as standouts," said Chadwick. "Merry Brown had a good game. Sherry Hoffpauir had a good game. La Shunta Jackson had a good game. So did Taylor Cavnar and Angela Littlejohn. Everybody did. It was just a total team effort."

In other action Thursday, South Plains dropped Cisco, 107-69; and host Howard College handed Weatherford a 97-61 loss.

Today's games tip off at 4 p.m. with WTC battling Cisco in a rematch from last Tuesday's game. Weatherford takes on SPC at 6 p.m. and Howard plays Blinn in the 8 p.m. nightcap.

Western Texas was to have played Weatherford at 6 p.m. Saturday but scheduling conflicts forced WJC to pull out of the final round. The cancelled game will be made up February 20 at Scurry County Coliseum just prior to the WTC-Midland College men's game.

NBA roundup...

Lakers cool off Golden State

by The Associated Press
Sedale Threatt and Vlade Divac, two players closely linked with Magic Johnson, are quickly having to learn to fend for themselves.

Threatt scored 21 points and Divac had 19 on 7-for-9 shooting Thursday night as the Los Angeles Lakers cooled off the Golden State Warriors 115-112 at Oakland Coliseum.

Threatt, Magic Johnson's replacement at point guard, now has 48 points and 20 assists in the Lakers' two victories that followed a 28-point loss the night after Johnson retired last week.

Divac, whose development as an NBA player following his arrival from Yugoslavia was credited to Johnson, had his best game of the season despite continuing problems with back spasms.

"It's too short a period of time to tell if we are over it emotionally," Lakers coach Mike Dunleavy said, "but we're getting better. And I'm proud of the way the guys hung together."

"This was the first time I really felt in sync with Vlade," said Threatt, who hit two free throws with 19 seconds remaining for a 115-112 lead after Divac grabbed the rebound of a missed free throw with 35 seconds left.

Chris Mullin led all scorers with 28 points, while Tim Hardaway had 26 points and 14 assists for the Warriors, who lost for only the second time in eight games. James Worthy joined Threatt with 21 points for the Lakers.

Elsewhere on Thursday night, it was Cleveland 115, Seattle 109 in overtime; Dallas 95, the Los Angeles Clippers 88; and Sacramento 98, Atlanta 96.

Mavericks 95, Clippers 88
At Dallas, the Mavericks' three-man guard rotation sparkled offensively and defensively against Los Angeles.

Rolando Blackman scored 30 points, including five free throws in the final two minutes, while Fat Lever had 19 points and Derek Harper 16 for Dallas.

The Mavericks also held Clippers guard Ron Harper, their leading scorer with a 19.1 average, to four points on 2-for-15 shooting. Overall, Dallas' guards outscored the Los Angeles backcourt players 65-10.

Danny Manning led the Clippers with 27 points.

Kings 98, Hawks 96
Sacramento, with a 40-game road losing streak, continued to play solid basketball at home, beating Atlanta as Mitch Richmond scored 25 points, including a go-ahead 20-footer with 44 seconds left.

After Richmond put Sacramento ahead 95-93, Jon Koncack missed two free throws for Atlanta. Lionel Simmons broke away for a dunk, and his free throw with 5.9 seconds remaining put the Kings in front 98-93.

Dominique Wilkins led all scorers with 28 points for the Hawks. Kings guard Spud Webb, playing in his first game against the Hawks since being traded from Atlanta on July 1, scored 18.

NBA

Cavaliers 115, SuperSonics 109
Cleveland, 1-4 on its season-opening road trip, won for the second straight time at home behind Brad Daugherty's 23 points, 10 rebounds and career-high six blocked shots.

Daugherty sent the game into overtime by making one of two free throws with 5.2 seconds left in regulation after the Sonics pulled ahead 101-100 on Derrick McKey's bank shot with 16 seconds remaining.

The Cavaliers took the lead for good at 105-103 on rookie Terrell Brandon's 20-foot jumper with four minutes to go.

Ricky Pierce led the Sonics with 29 points, none of them in overtime.

SHS b'ball squads in scrimmages

Both Snyder's varsity basketball squads will play in their final scrimmages Saturday before starting the regular season.

The Lady Tigers will travel to Roscoe for freshman, JV and varsity games, beginning at 10 a.m.

The boys' team will host Lubbock Monterey at SHS Saturday at 3 p.m. in varsity-only action.

Snyder's girls begin the regular cage season Tuesday when Sweetwater visits. Game time is 6 p.m. for the junior varsity tilt and 7:30 p.m. for the varsity battle at Scurry County Coliseum.

The District 2-4A schedule begins Jan. 10 at Levelland.

The Tigers' season-opener is in danger of being cancelled.

The Friday, Nov. 22 game against Andrews could be called by either school's appearance in the Class 4A football playoffs.

Saturday, Nov. 23 sees the San Angelo Lake View Chiefs at the county coliseum to take on SHS in freshman, JV and varsity games, beginning at 5 p.m.

District action starts for the boys Jan. 17 at Lubbock Estacado.

Astrograph
By Bernice Bede Osol

Nov. 15, 1991

You may establish some new relationships with some rather influential people in the year ahead. Ironically, however, those who'll help you the most will be SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) This is one of those unusual days where it may appear as if everyone is ganging up on you. Your assessment is erroneous, but if you believe it, it might cause them to do so. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences governing you in the year ahead. Send for Scorpio's Astro-Graph predictions today by mailing $1.25 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You might be just a tad behind the curve today in matters pertaining to your career. Don't make the mistake of thinking your position is stronger than it actually is.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Usually, you're not a gullible individual, and you're quite good at discerning the true motives of others. Today, however, these assets might not be operating. Be careful.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) For someone who takes pride in being independent, you might be cast today in the unfamiliar role of depending too heavily on others, especially in matters that affect your material security.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) To be on the safe side today, do not let anyone make important decisions for you. Listen to their suggestions and points of view, but do the deciding yourself.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Sincere humility is an admirable virtue, but today you might humble yourself for ulterior purposes. Let at least a portion of your ego shine through.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) On occasion, it's necessary to assert yourself when dealing with others. However, you might do so with the wrong people at the wrong time today.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You may get involved in something today where you mistakenly feel you have strong support behind you. Be careful, because the ranks following you might not be as dedicated as you are.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You could be a trifle gullible today, and this might prove to be counterproductive. Instead of believing everything you hear, request verification.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Conditions are uncertain today where your commercial or financial affairs are concerned. Something that initially appears to be a bargain might be just the opposite.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A partnership you're presently involved in could collapse of its own weight at this time — if each partner does not make an equal contribution.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Do not assume today that critical situations will automatically sort themselves out to your satisfaction. You must make things happen, not leave them up to chance.

No ambulance or wrecker was needed at either accident.

In one other report, a boy's blue bicycle was found abandoned in the 1900 block of 28th St. and taken to the police department at 11:25 a.m.

Poindexter's convictions overturned

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal appeals court today reversed former national security adviser John M. Poindexter's felony convictions, dealing an all-but fatal blow to prosecution of one of the central figures in the Iran-Contra scandal.

The court, in a 2-1 opinion, said independent prosecutor Lawrence Walsh had failed to prove that Poindexter's testimony to Congress under a grant of immunity was not used against him at trial.

It was similar to the ruling that led to the dismissal of all charges against Oliver North.

SISD drug testing policy tabled spends $100 a day on the drug, ment. "If they're doing that, they are either stealing or dealing and if they're dealing, who do you think they are dealing to? That bothers me. I think we're only going half way with this policy."

Assistant Superintendent Dr. Tom Scannicchio suggested approving the limited policy, and expanding it to include all personnel at the beginning of the next school year.

"I'm not in favor of doing that," said Burleson. "I think if we are going to do it, do it now."

Trustee Terry Martin agreed, but cautioned that the policy was unclear concerning acceptable or unacceptable levels of alcohol content in the blood.

"Do we want to dismiss someone who has been taking cold medicine for three days and (therefore) has a trace of alcohol in his system? I don't think so. I think we need to establish a level for alcohol. That would be my only objection to accepting this tonight."

In approving a motion to table the policy, trustees directed administrators to address the issue of alcohol levels and to write a new document which will include all employees.

The board is expected to consider the newly written policy in its Dec. 12 meeting, but may also address it in a workshop prior to that time.

Trustees also discussed the cost of drug testing. It was noted that at least one company charges $25 for each test, as compared to the $75 figure the board had been using. If so, the district could test all of its 385 employees for approximately $10,000, instead of $30,000.

The 1991-92 budget includes $3,000 for drug testing. At the time that amount was placed in the budget, trustees were considering testing bus drivers only.

During communications and informational portions of the meeting, the board heard a report from Barbara Granato, director of special programs; recognized success in the tennis, volleyball, football, band, cross country and vocational activities.

expressed appreciation to West Texas State Bank for a donation of furniture.

The board also approved a resolution for a waiver request to be sent to the state while administrators seek to hire another second grade teacher at Stanfield Elementary. Superintendent Dalton Moseley the board he is also told looking to hire an additional fifth grade teacher for West.

Trustees also approved a resolution nominating Harold Lacik, Walter Stirl, Carl Smith and Ross Carroll for the county appraisal district board.

Martin, board vice president, chaired the meeting in the absence of Sam Robertson. Also present were Parker, Burleson, Ann Walton, Glen Clarady and Billy Bob McMullan.

Congress moved from New York to Philadelphia in 1790.

However, commissioners said they plan to take bids on the equipment from private contractors at the end of one year. During the year period, commissioners hope to stockpile a two-year supply of caliche with the dozer. By stockpiling caliche, commissioners say they will save between $10,000-20,000 already budgeted for contracting the caliche work.

The county is able to make some equipment purchases at a government discounted price, a lower price that is offered to private contractors.

"We are confident that the county will receive more than the original cost of the equipment by offering it for sale to a private contractor," commissioners said in a written statement.

Supply.

At this location for nine years, Roe's sold tires, auto accessories, small appliances and radios. In 1941, Myron Roe sold an automatic tumble-action Bendix washer to Lyle Deffebach. It had to be bolted to the floor, and was the first automatic washer sold in Scurry County.

The brisk business experienced during the first few months of operation was hurt by World War II as merchandise was hard to obtain. During the war, the business was sustained by selling, recapping and repairing tires.

The Scurry County oil boom of 1950 motivated the Roe's to expand to a new building, one-half block south of Ave. S, now College Ave.

In 1959, Roe's moved to Highland Shopping Center on South College Ave., and the store's name was changed to Roe's Furniture and Appliance.

Roe's son-in-law, A.C. Floyd Jr., is an owner and manager of the store. Rose Marie Floyd died in May, 1991.

Myron Roe has been an active civic leader. He was Lions Club president in the late 1940s and served as president of the Snyder chamber of commerce in 1949-50. The Roes are charter members of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

Bill J. Hood

1925-1991

Services are set for 2 p.m. Saturday at the First Baptist for Bill J. Hood, former superintendent of Snyder Schools, who died Thursday in Lubbock's St. Mary of the Plains Hospital following a long illness.

Officiating will be the Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor of Colonial Hill Baptist Church. Burial will follow in Hillside Memorial Gardens under the direction of Bell-Cypert-Seale Funeral Home.

Hood was a member of the superintendent of Snyder Independent School District in July, 1967, replacing Dr. Robert Clinton. A veteran of 33 years in education, he taught English and journalism at Sterling City and Rankin, and he served as high school principal and superintendent at Rankin.

Hood, who served under 23 different school trustees during his 17 years in Snyder, retired as superintendent on June 30, 1984.

Born July 25, 1925, in Brownwood, Hood graduated from Memphis High School and Hardin-Simmons University. He did graduate work at Hardin-Simmons and Sul Ross State University.

He was a life member of the Texas Association of School Administrators and served two times on the executive committee of the Texas Association of School Boards.

From 1966-79, he served on the Christian education committee of the Baptist General Convention, and he was a member of the First Baptist Church.

He was a member of the Snyder chamber of commerce and served as an officer in 1973-74. For many years, he served as chairman of the chamber's sports committee, responsible for attracting playoff games to Snyder.

He was president of the Snyder Lions Club from 1972-73 and served as district chairman of the Boy Scouts from 1969-71. He also served as a director of the Boys Club and was chairman of the United Way from 1972-73.

A Navy veteran of World War II, Hood was a Scottish Rite Mason, and he served on the steering committee responsible for the establishment of Western Texas College.

He married Mary Carolyn Clark on Jan. 29, 1950, in Abilene. Mrs. Hood died on Dec. 18, 1988.

Survivors include three sons, Bill Hood Jr. of Iraan, Bruce Hood of Thorndale and Steve Hood of Colorado Springs, Colo.; a sister, Janet Benton of Odessa; and six grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Robert Adams, Pete Bateman, Horace Bostick, Jack Gorman, Franklin Pruitt and Eddie Williams.

"DEADLY DEAL" — Troy Allen (seated), in the role of Craig Williams, is being questioned by Jared Dennis, in the lead role of Lt. Kenneth Paris, in Snyder Junior High drama department's production of "Deadly Deal," a murder mystery. (SDN Staff Photo)

SJHS drama set next week

Snyder Junior High drama students, under the direction of Janean Patterson, will debut their production of the murder mystery "Deadly Deal" Monday at 7 p.m. in the junior high auditorium.

The play will also be presented Tuesday and Thursday evening at 7. Tickets are $1.50 for students and $2 for adults and can be purchased by calling Snyder Junior High.

Charles Lansing, a devious millionaire with lots of enemies, has been found murdered at his country estate and Lt. Paris is in charge of the investigation.

Suspects include Evelyn, the third wife, married to Lansing for less than a year; Laura and Craig, the brooding stepchildren; Carolyn Bascomb, the deceased's attorney, a woman opposed to his third marriage and recent changes in his will; Madam Arcadia, a spiritualist who predicted his death; and Fenton and Minnie Marshbanks, the handyman and his wife who wish to leave their jobs. Everybody had motive and opportunity.

Cast members include Jared Dennis as Lt. Paris, Chris Post as Lansing, Selena Sutton as Evelyn, Jannica Northerns as Carolyn Bascomb, Troy Allen as Craig Williams, and Kelly Hart as Laura Williams.

Also cast are Katie Thornton as Madam Arcadia, Clark Church as Fenton Marshbanks and Melanie Gibson as Minnie Marshbanks. Understudies include Blandon Chisum and Heather Ward.

Crew members are Heather Floyd, Jeff Levens, Sonie McMillian, Jonathan Pennington, Andy Overhulser, Dustin Mills, Mary Grant, Katie Potts, Melissa Humphreys, Jennifer Hancock, Monica Harbin, Amber Duncan and Haley Ingram.

Southwest, Chicago strike last minute deal

CHICAGO (AP) — City officials said they struck a whirlwind deal with Southwest Airlines that will salvage hundreds of jobs and save the city from a serious loss of business travel after the sudden shutdown of Midway Airlines.

The city and Dallas-based Southwest announced Thursday that Southwest would begin using eight of the gates left open by Midway, which provided 60 percent of the business at its namesake Midway Airport.

"It is critical that we keep that airport operating," Mayor Richard M. Daley said Thursday in announcing the agreement.

The deal was struck as employees mourned and protested their lost jobs, passengers struggled to make new travel plans and Midway threatened to sue former suitor Northwest Airlines.

Midway, which began in 1979 and became one of the nation's largest airlines, serving 41 cities, stopped operating Thursday after Northwest called off its $153 million buyout offer.

Northwest accused Midway, which had filed for bankruptcy protection, of overstating 1990 revenues. Midway said it had been straightforward and called Northwest's action "shameful."

Trade talks hit snag

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mexico has made great strides in its enforcement of environmental laws, but still has room for improvement, the undersecretary of Mexico's environmental agency says.

"We are preparing ourselves to grow at any rate without damaging our environment," said Sergio Reyes Lujan, undersecretary of SEDUE, the Mexican equivalent of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Until recently, Mexico had a dismal record in environmental protection, Reyes said Thursday at a free trade conference sponsored by the Heritage Foundation, a conservative think tank.

But the country made an about-face with the implementation of strict laws in 1988, he said.

Mexico's environmental actions, always an issue on the border, have taken on new prominence since it began negotiating a free trade agreement with the United States and Canada.

Reyes said SEDUE is up to the challenge.

This year alone, he said, SEDUE has temporarily or permanently shut down nearly 750 industries for non-compliance with environmental laws.

Before last June, Mexico had only 50 inspectors to police the heavily-industrialized 2,000-mile border area. That amount was doubled in June and will double again to 200 by January, Reyes said.

Reyes said companies wanting to build new industries, roads or other infrastructure now must first submit environmental impact assessments and receive SEDUE permission to proceed.

Over $1 billion in tourism projects in the Cancun area remains stalled pending SEDUE approval, he said.

Reyes also said the government is trying to stimulate private sector participation in cleaning up Mexico's environment.

"We are beginning to implement a new policy of sharing with business people the problems posed by environmental degradation," he said.

An EPA official cautioned Thursday that free trade talks could be bogged down by the insistence of some groups that the pact address all environmental issues.

Daniel C. Esty, EPA deputy assistant administrator, said it is not feasible to address all environmental concerns in the pact.

Only those issues directly related to free trade will be addressed in the agreement, Esty said.

EPA is involved in some of the free trade talks, including those for the investment, automotive and services sectors, Esty said. Other issues can be handled more quickly and efficiently in parallel negotiations, he said.

Esty noted the 1988 U.S.-Canada free trade agreement contained little specific language about environmental concerns. Instead, he said, U.S. and Canadian officials separately negotiated an acid rain accord which was signed last year.

Jorge B. Haynes, senior vice president of the International Bank of Commerce in Laredo, expressed concern that some environmental groups are misrepresenting border conditions. Other groups are trying to derail the talks under the guise of environmental concerns, he said.
