WOULD START "SWAT THE ROOSTER" CAMPAIGN HERE

Fertile Eggs in Warm Weather Bad Combination—Costs Poultry Raisers Thousands

With the best poultry-breeding season practically passed and the approach of the summer months the time is nearly here this season when the roosters should be culled from the flocks and the efforts of poultry raisers confined to efforts to produce infertile eggs for the markets, according to the belief of County Agent T. Scott Wilson, who with a number of breeders and dealers is planning a "Swat the Rooster" campaign in an effort to raise the quality of eggs produced in this territory and consequently hold up the market for the eggs from Floyd County farms.

June 15th is the date set this year when the rooster will have served his purpose and should be cut out of the flock. Where the roosters are to be kept for their value to the flock or for show purposes they should be penned, if the poultry raiser wants to produce infertile eggs and command a good price for eggs and other cocks and cockerels should be marketed or eaten, these men declare.

That the loss to poultry raisers in summer months, mounting up to large figures every year, due to infertile eggs may be combated is alleged by County Agent Wilson. Although it may be assumed that eggs produced in the summer are going to be cheaper than at other times in the year because of the much greater supply, on the other hand it is pointed out that penalties for rotten eggs and for fertile eggs which will later rot, useless thrown out in the candling process, is paid to a large extent by the producers for a good and sufficient reason. This loss can be overcome or at least counteracted with infertile eggs marketed regularly and with care dealers declare.

If "Swat the rooster" during the early and middle days of June becomes sufficiently popular that it is followed in practice the individual will begin to see immediate results in the smaller per centage of bad eggs discarded by the local dealer. A sufficiently large per centage of good eggs put on the market will also react to the benefit of the market generally.

LOCAL STOCK JUDGING TEAM ARE BANQUET GUESTS

Raymond Bunch and Ivan Newberry, of Lakeview and Winston Wofford, of Lockney, Floyd County judging team at the stock judging contest held in Canyon Friday of last week were honored along with the boys from some ten other counties with a banquet given by the Randall County Commercial Club Friday night, and on Saturday the boys visited in Amarillo and were fed on ice cream at the Mistletoe Creamery and candy from the Bryant Candy Co., which plants they visited.

The team from this county made the trip in company with County Agent T. Scott Wilson. The oldest of the trio is 14, the youngest 10. They won fifth place in the judging contest, making 1012 points out of a possible 1800. The Canyon team won first place, Wheeler second, McLean third and Memphis fourth. C. M. Evans and W. P. McGee, of A. & M. College, were the judges in the contest.

County Agent Wilson declared the boys made an excellent showing considering the little coaching it had been possible to give them.

73 VETERANS OF MEXICAN WAR ARE NOW LIVING

Widows of 49 Men Who Took Part in the War of 1812 are on U. S. Pension Rolls

Washington, May 29.—The widows of forty-nine men who took part in the war of 1812 are on the United States pension roll, as made known today in connection with the memorial exercises being held throughout the country Tuesday. One of that number is Mrs. Catherine Pugh of Seminole, Texas, 87 years old, whose husband was a private in the Virginia Militia. Another is Mrs. Margaret E. Walker of Guthrie, Ok., 88 years old, widow of Corporal James R. Walker of the Georgia Militia. There is no surviving veteran of the War of 1812.

There are seventy-three surviving veterans of the Mexican War on the pension roll, nine of whom reside in Texas, two in Oklahoma, and one who resides in California, but served with a Texas outfit. The total number of survivors of this war was reduced by half during the last two years.

Among the survivors, their ages and organizations, are:

Texas—Gabriel Choat, Field, Creek, 95, Texas Rangers; Amos Clark, Bander, 96, Third United States Infantry; William K. Davis, Admiral, 94, First Virginia Volunteers; Jacob M. Fleming, Mount Pleasant, 93, Third Tennessee Infantry; Richard A. Howard, Sterling City, Ninety-first United States Artillery; David Irvin, Pilgrim 89, Second Mississippi Infantry; Thomas A. Kirk, Milano, 96, Texas Mounted Volunteers; Matthew C. Truesdale, Kemper, 97, First Tennessee Volunteers; Joseph C. Wise, Ladonia, 94, Third Tennessee Volunteers.

Oklahoma—August C. Bartleson, Muskogee, 94, Second Illinois Volunteers; Levy Flowers, Glencoe, 96, Missouri Mounted Infantry. Charles O'Neal, residing in Oneal, Cal., 90 years old, served as one of the Texas Mounted Volunteers.

SPEED RECORDS BROKEN IN INDIANAPOLIS CLASSIC

Speedway, Indianapolis, May 30.—Jimmy Murphy of Los Angeles, Calif., winner of the French Grand Prix in 1921, won the 500-mile automobile race at the Indianapolis Speedway today before a record-breaking crowd of 135,000. Murphy won $28,000 in cash prizes. The time was 5:17:30.78, an average of 94.48 miles an hour, a world's record for the distance. It was the first time in the history of the event that a winner led from start to finish.

Jimmy Murphy, driving a special eight cylinder car, grabbed the lead at the start, piloting his car around the treacherous south turn at a speed that brought the spectators to their feet. Leon Duray, driving his first speedway race was second and Ralph De Palma, a favorite with the crowd, was trailing in third place. The time for the first lap around the 2 1/2 mile course was 1:34.64, an average of ninety-five miles an hour.

Murphy continued his terrific pace and at the fifty mile mark was fully a half mile ahead of Leon Duray, who was second. The time was 31:29:33, an average of 95.27 an hour, as compared with 92.62 miles an hour last year for the same distance.

TARANTULA CATCHES CHICK FOR EVENING MEAL

One of the most unusual casualties in the frying chicken crop now coming on by the thousands in Floyd County is that reported from the Luther Rogers farm southeast of Floydada this week.

According to this report a tarantula of considerable size attacked and was holding captive a small chicken from a flock which was ranging over the pasture. When found the chicken was being held securely by the tarantula which was waiting patiently for the poison to finish his prey. The chicken was rescued but died the same night.

It is supposed the chicken stepped into the tarantula den and the latter figured it a good time to lay in a summer supply of fresh meat.

Mrs. L. G. Stewart, of Mart, Texas, is here on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Cannaday, having arrived last week.

STATE RETAILERS HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION AT FORT WORTH

Mrs. Ruby Young, Secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association of Floyd County, returned last Friday from Fort Worth after attending the three-day convention of the Texas Retail Merchants' Association, with which the local association is affiliated.

The meeting was an enthusiastic one, Mrs. Young reports, with large attendance from all sections of the state.

TAX DELINQUENTS ARE GETTING NOTICES FROM CITY

Delinquents in general are getting it these days. Following the declaration of city officials that continued slow payments for water furnished by the city would result in the discontinuance of service to the user, a drive is now being made for the collection of sanitary fees due the city. According to the sanitary code failure to pay this bill when demanded constitutes a finable offense.

The latest action being taken by the city, however, is in the collection of delinquent ad valorem taxes. A number of delinquent tax notices were sent out of the collector's office this week, notifying delinquents to pay within 30 days to avoid further penalty and the necessity of selling the property to cover the taxes.

MRS. FERGUSON'S TICKET FOR PLACE ON TICKET MADE

Waco, May 30.—Secretary Joe W. Hale of the State Democratic Executive Committee has received the application of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson for a place on the Democratic primary ticket as a candidate for United States Senator. Mrs. Ferguson is the wife of former Governor James E. Ferguson, of Temple, who is also a candidate for Senator. Mr. Ferguson has not applied for a place on the ticket, but Secretary Hale has received a petition signed by fifty qualified voters of Bell County, asking that his name be placed on the ticket. Mrs. Ferguson is the only woman so far to apply for a place on the ticket for Senator.

18 MILE LINK WOULD GIVE EL PASO PLAINS CONNECTION

Seminole, May 30.—The El Paso Chamber of Commerce, working on a suggestion of H. W. Rowe, receiver, will launch a movement for the completion of the Midland and Northwestern Railroad from this city to Seagraves, approximately 18 miles, giving the El Paso a direct connection with the heart of the Plains section.

The connecting lines would be Texas and Pacific to Midland, Midland and Northwestern to Seminole and Seagraves, and Santa Fe to Lubbock.

The Midland and Northwestern, one of the short lines of West Texas, has not operated for several months.

VINCE SAVAGE CASE SCHEDULED FOR TRIAL

The Vince Savage case, in which he is charged with the killing of his brother-in-law, Ollie Wallace on January 8th, was scheduled for trial in Tulia this week.

Ollie Wallace was stabbed to death with a knife. His small nephew was the only eyewitness to the tragedy.

SCHOOL FACULTY FOR 1922-23 IS ALMOST COMPLETE NOW

The faculty of Floydada Public Schools practically has been completed with the election last week of Misses Susie Stanley and Edna Tumlison to places in the primary grades and Miss Wanda Montague to work in the eighth grade.

FORT WORTH VISITORS DEEPLY IMPRESSED WITH PLAINS

The Fort Worth delegation of business men who attended the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Plainview and spent Wednesday on a 170-mile trip through the most productive area of the South Plains including portions of Hale, Floyd, Dickens and Crosby Counties, last Thursday sent the following telegram to R. E. Fry, Mayor of Floydada:

His Honor the Mayor:

Still under the spell of the wonder day we spent on the great plains as guests of the citizens of Plainview and the various cities and towns of that vast empire of opportunity Wednesday. The members of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce party wish to express to you and through you to the people of your community, the Chamber of Commerce, the press, and all organizations and individuals who were our hosts our sincere appreciation, and assure you that our visit in your midst and your entertainment will never be forgotten, and that we pledge you that the project of a direct railroad from Fort Worth to the plains country by some practicable and serviceable route will be pressed with all the energy at our command.

Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce Delegation by W. M. Massie, president, E. S. Shannon, secretary.

SEALE ATTENDS MEETING OF AUCTIONEERS' ASSOCIATION

Col. W. H. Seale spent Friday in Amarillo where the annual convention of the Panhandle Auctioneers' Association was held. Auctioneers from various sections of the panhandle were present and enjoyed the occasion, which Mr. Seale declared one of the very best.

W. S. Williams, of Hereford, is the new president of the association and J. W. McCreary, of Wayside is secretary.

JUG OF WATER SETS FIRE TO AUTOMOBILE CUSHION

A jug of water set fire to the cushion of an automobile driven by Walter Newell one day last week.

He drove to the field in the car, which is one of the kind said to be universal. In the back seat was the jug of water. When he stopped to begin his work the jug of water began to heat things up in the auto by forming an almost perfect prism for the sun's rays.

Fortunately Louis Newell went to the car for a drink and extinguished the incipient blaze before it did more damage than to burn a good-sized spot in the cushion.

TWO CARS DAMAGED

A car driven by Otis Abston and a car driven by S. H. Horn collided a mile northeast of Floydada Thursday night of last week. Both cars were damaged but no one was seriously injured.

Miss J. P. Officer sustained slight bruises on the arm.

CHILD BREAKS LEG

Ruth Key, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. K. Green, City, sustained a broken leg late Tuesday afternoon, while playing about an automobile at their home in northwest Floydada.

Mrs. P. D. Bartley, of Cone, visited in Floydada one day last week.

GRANDMA ANDREWS DIES AT AGE OF EIGHTY-FIVE

Wife of "Founder of Floydada" Succumbs to Short Illness at Home Monday Night

Mrs. R. C. (Grandma) Andrews, pioneer citizen of Floydada and Floyd County, died at her home on West Virginia Street at ten o'clock Monday night. She was surrounded by her four surviving children when death came.

Born in Kentucky in 1837, Mrs. Andrews was 85 years of age at the time of her death. With her husband, Dr. R. C. Andrews, who has been called the "Founder of Floydada" Mrs. Andrews moved to Floyd County thirty-one years ago. Sixty-five years ago with her husband and family she moved to Texas from Kentucky and settled in Grayson County in a pioneer settlement. They lived in that county during the trying days of the Civil War and the days of the reconstruction, Dr. Andrews serving in the Confederate Army. Later they lived in Lamar County for a number of years.

Funeral services were held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock and interment was made in Floydada Cemetery, beside the grave of her husband who preceded her in 1917. The funeral was conducted by Elder W. T. Cochran, pastor of the Christian Church and the burial rites of the Order of the Eastern Star were observed at the graveside. Mrs. Andrews had been a member of the Christian Church for almost three-quarters of a century and was a charter member of the Floyd City Chapter O. E. S.

The aged grandmother is survived by four children and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The four children are Mrs. Sarah Flynt and Dr. V. Andrews, of this city, Mrs. R. A. King, of Roaring Springs and Max Andrews of Altus, Oklahoma.

Many friends of the family and "old settlers" of this section were present at the funeral and burial service to pay tribute to the deceased, who through many years of active life in this section at a time of sparse settlement, joined her husband, the doctor, in ministering to the needs of the sick.

TRUCK LOAD OF CHICKENS SHIPPED WEIGHS 5067 LBS.

A truck load of chickens, one of the largest single truck shipments ever to leave Floydada, was forwarded one day last week by the A. D. White Produce Company.

The chickens were stacked nearly twelve feet high in coops, the net weight of the shipment being 5,067 pounds. This shipment is of particular interest in view of the fact the shipping season is really supposed to be past, this shipment representing the "hang-over" from the busy season, though it would constitute a large shipment in some sections.

BIG CELEBRATION SET FOR JULY 3-4 AT LOCKNEY

Lockney is making preparations to entertain ten thousand people at a big barbecue and celebration on July 3rd and 4th, according to announcements made from that place the past week, the plans including a big program.

Besides the barbecue which is always a drawing card things planned on the program include speaking by leading citizens of the state, amusements such as carnivals and horse races and other events.

A strong publicity campaign will be started soon, it is stated.

BAPTISTS GET TWO-GAME LEAD ON METHODIST OPPONENTS

The Baptists made it a two-game lead on their Methodist opponents on the baseball diamond last Thursday, taking the game 11 to 6.

Carter heaved for the Methodists and Kirby for the Baptists. Kirby had a good day and except for the first inning when his opponents got to him for four of their six scores, pitched a good game. On the other hand Carter, who previously has had good control in the games he started, couldn't find the plate, walked several men and had very indifferent support. Altogether it was the poorest exhibition the Methodists have made to date.

The Methodists must now win two games in succession to be even again.

The crowd was smaller than usual, and did not have a great deal of "pep"

Maurice Burke left last week for Athens, Texas, where he will spend the summer with relatives.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD FOR WORLD WAR'S DEAD

American Legion and Many Others Pay Tribute in Ceremonies at Floydada Cemetery

Commemorating and freshening again in memory the lives and deeds of three of Floyd County's dead, whose sacrifices were a part of America's participation in the World War, the McDermott Post American Legion and five hundred others Tuesday morning held Memorial Day Exercises at the Floydada Cemetery over the graves of two of these and stood with bowed heads as the death of the third was recounted. Post Commander E. C. Nelson, Jr., was master of ceremonies, which were opened by singing "America," in which all joined. Elmer Caudle, chaplain of the McDermott Post, said the invocation. Representing the American Legion, Commandant E. C. Nelson, Jr., made a short address telling of the duties we owe to our dead and T. R. Webb, for the McDermott Post, paid a memorial tribute to the Floyd County dead of the World War.

Evangelist J. T. McKissick, of Midland, principal speaker of the morning recounted many of the things America owes her known and unknown dead among those who paid with their lives in the greatest war of all times, glowingly paying respect to their memories and praising as well those who passed through the fire unharmed and those who were in concentration camps ready to enter the strife.

Following the addresses and a duet by Misses Lela Windsor and Mrs. L. M. Flanary, simple ceremonies of decorating the graves of Sgt. Horace A. Stephens and Earl D. French were held as the Legion members preceded by the colors and standard, and followed by the large assemblage, gathered about each grave and placed small American flags at the head of each and flowers on them. Sgt. Stephens, it was recounted in a few words, died four hours after landing in Hoboken as he returned home following the Armistice, while Earl French died in Floydada from pneumonia. Both had their homes here before the war. Corporal Calep F. McDermott, for whom the local post American Legion was named, was recalled to mind by the Post Commandant. McDermott's body is buried in France. His death occurred on October 9th, 1918, as he attacked a machine gun nest in the Argonne.

Color bearers during the morning exercise were R. L. Harrell and James Colville. Paul Foster and Robert McGuire were color guards and Tom Goslee bugler.

A short prayer was said as the crowd reassembled for the closing exercises and when "Abide with Me" was sung by the assemblage, Rev. J. Pat Horton said the benediction. Bugler Goslee blew "taps" and the ceremonies finished.

Many were present at the cemetery and took part in the exercises, also visiting the graves of the dead of their own and neighbor's families and spreading flowers upon them.

LOCAL RAINS SUNDAY NIGHT AND MONDAY HELP CROPS

Row and wheat crops in Floyd County were materially helped by local rains and showers Sunday night and Monday. In some sections, notably southwest of Floydada, an inch or more of rain fell and practically every section reports beneficial "cotton" showers. At Floydada three showers fell, totalling slightly better than a quarter of an inch of rain.

Control of the movies has come to be a common question among all moral and religious bodies of the country. The influence of the moving picture is one of the greatest in the world and will doubtless so continue indefinitely. That it should be required to keep within due bounds and contribute something to the uplift and refinement of the public is only right. Having reached such rank among the financial interests of the nation, there is an ever present danger that it will become depraved and immoral for monetary reasons.—Childress Post.

There are good influences and bad working on the body of the motion picture industry just as there are good and bad influences working on the publishing industry. Sometimes we think the menace to the latter is as great as is the former. However, the publishing game is, in its nature, a slower moneymaker than the picture game and is harder to monopolize. Motion pictures are in the grip of the Jews. Many believe this to the trouble with our pictures. At any rate we find our country undergoing "Jewization" in many of its functions instead of Americanizing its Jewish population. While it is difficult to discuss such a question without fanning the fire of racial dislike it must be admitted that the low depths to which the legitimate stage and screen alike have sunk has been brought about since the influence of the Jewish producers began to predominate.

The Interscholastic Leaguer, issued by the management of the Texas Interscholastic League, which has been so great an influence in raising the standards of scholastic athletics during the past four or five years, gives an instance of the way commercialism is insidiously working itself into the school system. The Interscholastic system of school athletics will bar this kind of thing if it has the backing of every lover of schools in the state. We do know that athletics are going to be a part of school life as long as the schools hold the interest of our high school boys. Likewise athletics is of growing interest to high school girls, some of our good citizens and school teachers to the contrary notwithstanding. If we were asked the ideal way to keep commercialism out of school athletics and keep the sports clean and worthwhile to the school we couldn't do better than point to the manner in which they were handled in Floydada Public Schools the past year.

It's an easy matter at a distance of 500 or 1,000 miles to criticize with all the gusto of superior wisdom. Perhaps distance also leads to the calmness of the view. Chicago is in the grip of labor terrorists and Central East Texas is having a lynching party weekly. In both instances the law is being overridden with apparent impunity. We in Texas have the racial problem, which includes the lynching problem, to solve before we can throw many rocks at Chicago's glass house dwellers. However, we can't believe the backbone of the Chicago terrorist fight is made up of good American workmen. Bolsheviki inclined foreigners are probably at the root of the evil in that city.

The praise heaped upon the people of Plainview for their wonderful entertainment of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which praise has come from every source, is not at all amiss. Their work was marvelous and can hardly be realized by the uninitiated. Newspapers all over west and north Texas are unstinted in their appreciation of the efforts put forth by the citizenry, commercial and civic bodies of Plainview. To all of which it is a great pleasure to subscribe.

Swisher County has been declared a part of the 120th Representative District by the Supreme Court of Texas in a recent decision. By applying "the rule of reason" the court settled a matter which inadvertently would have caused West Texas to lose a part of its representation in the Legislature.

The ten per cent horizontal reduction in freight rates the country over is going to amount to a great deal of saving in the aggregate to the consuming public, to whom the additional freight charges had to be charged. It is a pointer on the road to a return to normalcy unless the boomerang returns in the form of more taxes to help pay the railroad losses which may come out of it.

ONE WEEK AFTER ANOTHER

Human existence seems to be just one darned week after another. Last week was timber week, this week it's health week, next week is no-tobacco week and a few weeks ago we had hospital week and clean-up week and the good Lord only knows what. Nobody knows what it is all about but everybody seems to be doing it. It seems fair to suppose that to be perfectly orthodox one must get sick during hospital week and stay well during health week; one should take to the timber during timber week and change clothes and take a bath during clean-up week. During no-tobacco week the use of the weed should be religiously abjured, but either before or after any of these weeks, one, we presume may do precisely as one pleases without fear of being read out of order. So far as we know, there are several weeks that have not been adopted. If anybody has a particular hobby to ride, here's your chance. Pick your week, christen it after your hobby then climb right on and ride. We only ask that one of the poorest, scrawniest weeks of the year be left free. We want that one. After all others have been taken and named we are going to ask that this be made and named a mind-your-own-business-week.—The Tulsa World.

THE PRINTER'S BIBLE

Few printers know that there was an edition of the Bible known as "The Printer's Bible." It was run off in 1702, and is called the "Printer's Bible" because in Psalm 119 King David was reported to have exclaimed: "Printers have persecuted me without cause." The word "printers" should have been "princes" in the text.—Exchange.

Power Farming With the FORDSON

The Fordson Tractor is taking care of every power job; it is taking the drudgery out of farm work and solving the labor problem. Power farming with the Fordson reduces the cost of preparing land to almost one half what it would be with horses, and saves a third to a half of the farmer's time. What machinery does for the factory, the Fordson Tractor is accomplishing on the farm—it is increasing production at lower costs and making farm life attractive.

Apply this power farming idea in your threshing. More and more farmers are making themselves independent of unfavorable conditions by using the Fordson tractor linked up with a light thresher. By seizing the right moment and being able to do the job without waiting and in quick time, crop losses are avoided and profits increased.

The Fordson operates with kerosene. When used on belt work, running at full power at 1,000 R. P. M., the fuel consumption does not exceed 2.3-4 gallons per hour. It will run the electric light plant, operate the milking machines and straw baler—will take care of every kind of belt work.

The Fordson plows 6 to 8 acres in a 10-hour day, handling two plows with ease in the average soil. It requires an average of only 1 1-2 to 2 gallons of kerosene to the acre.

It is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in many ways such as road work, hauling grain to the elevator, pumping water and moving granaries.

C. OF C. MEETING WILL NOT BE HELD FRIDAY NIGHT

No regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night, the date for the first regular meeting in the month on account of the revival meeting now in progress at the tabernacle, it was announced by officials of the Chamber on Tuesday.

AN ALL YEAR SCHOOL SYSTEM IS ADVOCATED BY SOME OF THE PRINCIPAL EDUCATORS

Austin, May—J. K. Beretta, of San Antonio, a member of the San Antonio school board, advocate of an all-year school term, was here Monday. Mr. Beretta stated that the system, of which he is the author, is meeting with much favorable comment everywhere.

The system which he proposes calls for four sessions of twelve weeks each, with a week's vacation at the end of each session. This is optional both with the pupil and teacher. The pupil and the teacher can either do this or they can attend any three consecutive terms. By adopting the four sessions with a week's vacation at the end of each term. Mr. Beretta stated that it would relieve the congestion of the schools. Under the new plan a pupil can be graduated from school in eight years instead of the usual eleven or twelve years now required.

The greatest objection to the new plan comes from the mother of the pupil, who declares that the children cannot study during hot weather. The author of the new system declares that practically five months of the year is wasted under the present system. There are three and one-half months during the summer and two weeks at Christmas time and other holidays that make approximately five months of idleness. This added to the usual method of the children who have been out for over three months during the summer and who require some three or four weeks to become accustomed to working again brings the total up to five months.

It is said that the new system had met with success in some twelve cities of the United States, where it is now in operation. It is said, too, that the United States bureau of education recommends the new system both as being economical and beneficial.

The question of paying the teachers was another bone of contention against the adoption of the new system. It was pointed out, however, that the teacher would benefit by the twelve-month period by being paid for the extra time on a proportionate basis of the nine-month term. For instance, if the teacher was receiving $1200 under the old system she would receive $1500 under the new plan. This would be the procedure provided the teacher taught the entire year as some of them would do. Most teachers it is explained, usually find some kind of work during the summer months and under the new plan this would provide the means of securing added compensation.

Miss Rossie Long, who has been attending school at Kidd-Key College the past year, returned home last week for the vacation period.

"FLOYDADA" NAMEPLATE IS MARK OF CIVIC PRIDE

The Chamber of Commerce recently bought one thousand nameplates for automobiles bearing the name "Floydada" which it has been selling for twenty five cents a pair the cost on same. These nameplates fit on the front and rear of automobiles and just above or below the State license number. They not only serve the particular use of advising people what section of Texas one lives in but also they advertise Floydada. To date only about four hundred of these plates have been sold. The Chamber has six hundred left, and they may be found at either of the following places Motor Supply Co., Barker Bros., Triplett & Sparks, F. F. Service Station, B. & T. Tire Co., C. Surginer & Son, Mitchell Hardware, Brown Bros., J. U. Borum Hardware, Floydada Drug Co., Woody Drug Co., and Day & Night Garage, Quick Service Garage, E. P. Nelson Filling Station. The Chamber of Commerce believes it to be a mark of civic pride to have these nameplates on Floydada automobiles and is urging all auto owners of this territory to obtain a pair as soon as they can.

Will Colville left Saturday of last week for Los Angeles, where he plans to make his home, after visiting a short time with his sister, Mrs. Guy J. Schaeffer, and brother John Colville.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICES

The revival meeting of the First Christian Church, which is being held at the tabernacle is starting off with a great deal of interest. Rev. J. T. McKissick, president of Midland College, is preaching. Mr. McKissick is a forceful preacher, and an accomplished platform man, holding the attention of his audiences, and driving home the truths of his sermons. He is a firm believer in the plea of the church with which he stands identified, and presents that plea with earnestness and love. One of the characteristics of his preaching is the copious quotations from the scriptures, and his application of them to the subject under discussion.

Services are held in the church building at 9:00 a. m., and at the tabernacle at 8:15 each day. The music is in charge of the pastor, and local musicians.

An earnest request is made to the membership for their attendance at all these services; and a cordial invitation is extended to all others. A special invitation is extended to the singers of the town to help in that part of the service.

W. T. COCHRAN, Pastor.

KANSAS CITY MARKET

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 29—Live stock prices today were weak to slightly lower. In some cases lambs, handy weight sellers and light weight hogs were steady, though in the average buyers put up droves, lower than last week's close. A fair degree of activity ruled in all divisions as soon as declines were established. Receipts were fairly liberal, including 19,000 hogs, the largest supply on any Monday this year.

Receipts today were 10,000 cattle, 19,000 hogs, and 10,000 sheep, compared with 7,500 cattle, 14,000 hogs, and 9,000 sheep a week ago, and 8,550 cattle, 7,325 hogs, and 7,550 sheep a year ago.

Liberal supplies of fat cattle were reported at all markets today and prices averaged lower. Here some early sales were made on kinds that suited rush orders, but the rank and file of the offerings were 10 to 15 cents off. Choice yearlings and handy weight steers sold mostly at $8.25 to $8.75, and fair to good fat steers brought $7.50 up. The weakness in the steer market is thought to be only temporary and due in part to a holiday in other trade lines. Cows and heifers were weak to 15 cents lower. The best grades of veal calves were steady and others 25 cents lower.

Though prices for stockers and feeders were not notably changed, compared with last week's close demand was fairly urgent, and there was a stronger tone in the general market.

Hog prices averaged 10 to 15 cents lower. The top price was $10.55 and bulk of sales $10.25 to $10.50. As soon as the decline was established there was a free movement over the scales and closing prices were slightly better than the low point of the day. Pigs in some cases, were 10 cents higher, top $10.85, or as high as any have sold in the past few weeks.

Following a 50 to 75 cent advance in sheep and lambs last week the market today declined 15 to 25 cents. Spring lambs sold up to $14.85, clipped lambs $12.90, clipped wethers $7.75, and clipped ewes $6.35. Spring lambs though still in moderate supply are beginning to move more freely, and clipped fed grades are about cleaned up.

Demand for horses remained small with no quotable change in prices. Mules were in moderate supply and sold at firm prices.

PLAINVIEW COMMITTEE WILL COLLECT RAIN INSURANCE

Plainview Herald: An insurance policy insuring fair weather for the Chautauqua was taken with a local insurance firm by the Chautauqua Committee. The contract stated that if as much as .1 of an inch of rain should fall in Plainview between the hours of 1 and 9 p. m. the insurance company would pay the committee $300 Saturday afternoon, between the specified hours, the rain came down briskly, and when the clouds had rolled away, W. J. Klinger, the local weather observer, observed .22 of an inch in the register. This entitles the committee to collect the insurance. The committee is congratulating itself that it rained at just the right time.

Mrs. J. A. Grigsby accompanied by her daughter, Miss Carrie, returned last midweek from Ballinger. Mrs. Grigsby had an operation at a sanitarium in that city and is convalescing satisfactorily.

LOCKNEY NEWS ITEMS

From The Beacon:

Lockney took the most forward step last Saturday that it has taken in the history of the town when it raised the tax rate for the school, and fixed the future of same permanently. The town has been unsettled for the past several years, not knowing whether we would have a six months school or a nine months school, when the term began. Some people have left Lockney on account of these conditions and others doubtless would have moved here had the school situation been then as now. The majority for the tax showed an overwhelming sentiment for the maintenance of a standard school. The vote lacked a fraction of being four to one.

The little four-year-old daughter, Leota, of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Kennedy, of Lamb County, died about eight o'clock Wednesday night at Olton of diphtheria. Funeral services took place at Olton Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Kennedy is a sister of Wm. McGehee. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy lived in this community for a number of years and are well known to many of our people.

W. C. Woodburn, Miss Vallie Disson and Miss Disson's brother were in town last Saturday. Mr. Woodburn, who has been superintendent of the Happy school for the last three years, has accepted the principalship of our high school for 1922-23.

Miss Disson, a specialist in primary work, will be our primary teacher for next year.

In the presence of relatives and friends at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Miriam E. Wood, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. G. E. Wood, of Lincoln City and Otha Dale Teaff, of Newport, R. I., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Teaff of Lockney, Texas, were married in the Lincoln City M. E. Church. The bride's father officiated. The double ring ceremony was used.

Mrs. C. R. Wilkinson and children and mother, Mrs. Alford, left Tuesday for a few weeks visit in New Mexico with their relatives, Mrs. Jim Shepherd and family. They were accompanied by Guy Shepherd, who has been attending school here for the past term.

It has been suggested that a big trade and booster trip be arranged for Lockney's trade territory in a few weeks. It is also suggested that this matter be taken up at a mass meeting which might be called for other purposes, or for this specific purpose.

Prof. Wilson left Thursday morning for California for a short vacation, and sight-seeing trip. Prof. Wilson will teach in the summer school of the West Texas State Normal College at Canyon which begins its session about June 10.

A LAUGH GOES WITH THIS GAS

Did you ever drive past a filling station and amuse yourself by reading some of the epigrams chalked outside on the slate? Perhaps you have wondered who concocted all of these funny things and why he concocted them.

The boy and the slate is a nationwide institution of one of the largest refiners of oil and gasoline. The humorous sentences chalked on the slate are read all over the country by motorists and thousands of other people as well. They are the same all over the country, and they change every day. Folks in San Francisco read the same joke on the slate today that folks in New York read, and they are all coined by a man in Cleveland, Ohio, the home of the refining company.

That man is Charles L. Archibald, advertising manager of the company, and one of his duties is the origination of these sayings. He gets his ideas anywhere he finds them—on dance floors, in drug stores, garages, restaurants, hotels, offices, and on the streets. It was on a dance floor where he got his idea for the epigram which appeared on the slate some time ago, "Some love to dance, others dance to love," and another, "The future of the shimmy is shaky."

While watching an office girl powder her nose one day, an idea came to Archibald, so he sent out the epigram, "Be it ever so homely, there's no face like your own."

After attending the wedding of a friend one night he came home and wrote this one. "It isn't the first kiss that counts, it's the upkeep." In a restaurant one morning he conceived of this one, "A grapefruit is a lemon that had a chance and took it."

Some of his epigrams are funny, others are serious and they all contain a punch that makes them interesting all over the country. A garage man in a Western town recently received a letter from a passing tourist which said in part, "I was passing through your town yesterday and saw only a part of the epigram on the slate in front of your garage. I want to know what it was. Please write me all of it."

Another garage man in a Western town got "in bad" when he displayed the sign, "A bowlegged girl may be ever so pretty, but she's always in bad shape." The woman's club of the town got the police after the garage keeper, but when the police saw the sign, they doubled up laughing and declined to act.

Vaudeville actors write to Archibald every day asking for some of his epigrams to use as stage patter. His services in epigrams are very much in demand. Some of them advertise his product in a remarkable way, while others have nothing to do with the oil business. For instance, "Oily to bed and oily to rise is the fate of a man when an auto he buys" is evidently a significant epigram for the oil business, while "You can't loaf and have dough" is an example of one that is off the subject of oil completely.

Some of Archibald's epigrams are: "A rich man has a twin six, while a poor man has six twins." "The social swim is full of swells." "The public be jammed in the street cars."

"All dumb-bells are not silent." "Many are dead but they won't lie down."

"A green salesman sells more than a blue one."

"Some folks are wound up but they never go."

"The fellow who invented spaghetti used the noodle."

"It's a short road that has no detours."

They have all appeared on the boy's slate. Many of you have read them and have laughed with millions of other folks in every town in the country as you did so, and no doubt have often said, "I wonder who gets up all that stuff?" Well, now you know.—F. A. M., in Oklahoma Farmer.

COUSINS RE-ELECTED SCHOOL HEAD AT HOUSTON

President J. A. Hill received a telegram yesterday from R. B. Cousins, stating his re-election as superintendent of the Houston city schools.

This is very gratifying news to the many friends of Mr. Cousins, who was first president of the West Texas State Normal College, serving until 1918.

It will be remembered that a few weeks ago the school trustees of Houston were called in special session and notified Mr. Cousins that his services would not be wanted for the coming year.—Randall County News.

SAND HILL SCHOOL WANTS DATES FOR PLAY AT SCHOOLS

Sand Hill, April 29.—Sand Hill School's graduating class announces that they will present their graduating play, "A poor married man," at any school house in Floyd County during the next two months. Many people have said it is as good a play as they ever saw a school get up. And many say it is as good a show as many of the bills of Brunk's Comedians. It has lots of comedy. A negro in the play can say, "Well, I'll be dog-goned" until you will have to hold your sides. "Lobster salad" also plays a great part. Ask anyone who has seen it. They will tell you what it is. If you want it in your community have one of your trustees write Mason Riley (Sand Hill trustee) at Mickey, Texas, set the night and be sure to give plenty of time to advertise and we will play it for you.

The class already has plans to present the play at Ellen and McCoy and would like to play it at several other places. Admission prices will be 15c and 25c. Don't wait but have your trustees write Mr. Riley at once.

CARE AND FEED OF GROWING CHICKS

Chicks that are eight to ten weeks old demand somewhat different care and feeding to baby chicks. The house should be cleaned and disinfected regularly. We are using sand as litter for the growing chicks, renewing it once a week. We also paint inside of house and all fixtures once a week with common kerosene or Beaumont Oil to keep down mites and blue bugs. It is very important to do this if it is desired to raise strong and vigorous chicks.

Hopper Feed

One of the best ways of feeding growing chicks is to hopper feed them both grains and dry mash. These hoppers are constructed so they will shed rain and can be placed outside in the shade. Our hoppers are large enough to hold week's supply of feed. We are feeding the following dry mash mixture:

- 30 lbs. Wheat bran.
  - 30 lbs. Corn Meal.
  - 30 lbs. Ground Milo.
  - 15 lbs. Meat Scraps.
  - 5 lbs. Ground Bone Meal.
- The following grain mixture is fed:
- 40 lbs. Cracked Corn.
  - 40 lbs. Whole Milo.
  - 20 lbs. Whole Wheat.

In addition to the above we are feeding large quantities of milk. We are buying all the surplus milk from a nearby dairy at 6 1-2c a gallon. We allow this to clabber before feeding. We are also beginning to feed semi-solid buttermilk, which is a commercial product. Milk in some form appears almost necessary to get a profitable and rapid development. We have about 5000 chicks of various ages on our yards, S. C. White Leghorns, Barred Rocks and a few Reds, all are doing fine on above feed. Later we intend to increase the feeding of the semi-solid buttermilk.

Fresh water is placed before them twice a day and three times a day would be still better. Few people realize the importance of plenty of fresh water, especially in hot weather. If they could only see how eagerly they drink of this fresh water when it is provided. Provide a sufficient number of drinking vessels so they never have to crowd.

Colonizing

When the chicks are 8 to 10 weeks old, we separate the sexes. Most of the cockerels go into fattening coops for ten or fourteen days, and then are sold as broilers. Up to present time we have sold our surplus cockerels, locally at the price at 60c each. A few of the real early ones brought 75c each. The later ones we are going to have to sell at 50c each.

The pullets are placed in movable 5x10 feet coops and colonized out over the farm in the corn lot, cotton patch or pasture. The first few days in their new location we confine the pullets to the house and a small covered yard. In about a week this yard is removed and they are allowed free range. We scatter small coops all over the farm giving each flock of 125 pullets a nice place to range over. Pullet grown colonized out like this gain one great advantage, outside of developing rapidly, and that is they are so healthy and strong they seldom contract such contagious diseases as roup and sorehead.

It is indeed a beautiful view to see several thousand snow white pullets, ranging over a ten acre pasture, all enjoying themselves. Plenty of green food, grit, fresh water, shade and feed in special feed boxes. These pullets are much superior to ordinary pullets raised in the ordinary way.

Shade

It is beginning to get warm, and already we are busy building artificial shade for those not fortunate enough to have natural shade. Natural shade is much to be preferred. We have peach, plum, mulberry, fig, China berry, and several varieties of shade trees for use of the growing chicks, but not enough for our large flock; so this year we are using the shutters from off the dwelling. We place four stakes in the ground about four feet above the ground, framed together on top. We place the wooden shutters on this frame, and find this to make an excellent shade for the chickens. The drinking vessels and feed hoppers should always be placed in the shade. We use wooden shutters hinged at the top to swing out, one in each side of the building, these are not opened all day and night. We do not use glass windows.

The houses are blocked about a foot above the ground, the place beneath the house furnishing a cool and shady place for the growing chicks during the hot part of the day.

All houses have one inch mesh poultry netting over all opening. Good padlocks are used to lock the doors. It pays to add these safe guards.

Green Food

At the present we are feeding rape and turnips for green food, in addition to the green food they can pick up on a pasture. Rape is a very excellent green feed.

seed, and hope it will provide green food later in the summer. (Copyright by F. W. Kazemeier 1922)

WILL HAVE HIGH FEDERAL TAXES FOR MANY YEARS

Washington, May 27.—American taxes will remain high for 25 years longer, chiefly because Europe will be slow in liquidating the debts for war loans made by this Government, high administration officials said Saturday.

Foreign debtors offer no hope that they will be able to begin curtailing the principal of their obligations until many years have elapsed. Officials thus far have not felt confident that any of the European governments, except Great Britain, can pay even the interest on their debts for many years to come.

American taxpayers are paying about $1,000,000,000 a year in interest on the country's public debt. More than half of this debt represents borrowings from the people, later loaned to Europe. Europe's debts, therefore, will keep the tax burden heavy until a considerable proportion of the total of $11,000,000,000 due the United States is paid.

Treasury officials said that taxes necessary to pay interest on the public debt constitute about one-third of the Government's entire revenue.

JOE WEDDINGTON RECOVERING FROM PAINFUL INJURIES

Joe Weddington, who was at first thought to have been fatally injured by a horse which threw him Monday of last week, is recovering at his home at Terrell. Mrs. Weddington left Monday night to be with him.

Tuesday of last week the Terrell Transcript carried the following concerning Mr. Weddington's injury: "Anderson Undertaking ambulance made a record run to Wills Point late Thursday afternoon for Joe Weddington, of this place, who was thrown by a horse a few miles out of Wills Point painfully hurt. Dr. Echols of Wills Point attended Mr. Weddington and expressed the belief that his injuries were not of a serious nature. He was brought to his home on West Nash avenue in this city, and was resting fairly well this afternoon."

T. T. Thompson and family motored to Amarillo Thursday of last week to attend the commencement exercises of the Amarillo High School. Their daughter, Miss Dorothy Cassy, was a member of the graduating class of eighty pupils and received mention as the youngest graduate in the class. Miss Thompson returned to Floydada with her parents.

RALLS MAY GET JUICE FROM LUBBOCK HIGH LINE

Ralls Banner: Frank A. White, one of the prominent citizens of Lubbock, and connected with the Texas Utilities Co., was here this week on business. Mr. White says his company is now getting in position to erect a high power electric line between Ralls and Lubbock, in case our people should favor such enterprise. Men who have given the matter considerable thought are of the opinion that our town can be supplied with electricity in this way cheaper and in a more satisfactory manner, considering the size of our town, than by any other method.

For Ten Dollars and Ninety Cents—This 30 x 3 1/2 Usco

THE 30 x 3 1/2 tire situation today is just this—

The man who buys an USCO at $10.90 is justified in believing that his money is going farther in tire value than it ever has gone or could go before.

Naturally he appreciates the quality of USCO. That was established long ago.

It is still fresh in his mind that USCO led the national market into the $10.90 price range.

The makers of U. S. Tires always intended the 30 x 3 1/2 USCO to be the highest value in its field.

At $10.90 it creates a new classification of money's worth.

CULLEN F. THOMAS' POSITION ON ESCH-CUMMINS ACT

Candidate Calls it "Unblushing Plunder of the American People" in Answering Critics

At Itasca in Hill County, Cullen F. Thomas, candidate for the senate from Texas made the following statements in answer to critics in regard to his stand on the Esch-Cummins Bill:

"Throughout the campaign I have been arraigning the railways of the country for foisting upon the American people the iniquitous Esch-Cummins law. Once more The Dallas News challenges the soundness of my criticisms. I defer to another day my answer to some of the defenses this great newspaper makes of this monstrous measure. Today I must content myself with notice of its latest editorial, complaining of my strictures on railway ownership.

"I charged that 'a few families own a controlling interest in the chief railroads of the country.' The Dallas News questioned the correctness of my charge with the statement that the stocks of the railroads were distributed among nearly 700,000 stockholders. I made good my charge by accurate figures, showing that the majority of the stock is owned by 1-3 per cent of the stockholders.

From Official Records

"The Dallas News suspects that I got both my material and inspiration from the literature of the Plumb Pan League. I answer that I get my facts and opinions in part from official records, Government reports and hearings held by committees of the United States Senate.

"From these sources, not to be converted, I established that 20 stockholders out of 27,000 own one-fourth of the stock in the New York Central; that 20 shareholders own nearly 42 per cent in the Illinois Central; that 20 stockholders own nearly 38 per cent in the Southern Railway, and that 20 shareholders hold nearly one-fourth of the Southern Pacific Railway.

"I established the mathematical accuracy of my charge that the families of Rockefeller, Harriman, Huntington, Astor, Vanderbilt, Hill, Frick, Har- kins, Kennedy and a few others are the controlling stockholders in one-fourth of the entire railroad mileage of the country.

"The Dallas News now parries with the reply that it may be 'preferable to have the ownership of the railroads concentrated in a few rich families rather than in several million un- wealthy individuals.'

"I can not look with complacency on such a day in our country's life. I take issue with The News that the concentration of the ownership of our railroads in a few hands is to be welcomed any more than I could agree with The News that the recent Lack- awanna steel merger is a healthy condition for the body politic.

"I believe with the late Justice John Harlan of the United States Supreme Court that 'vast and increasing corporate wealth is the supreme peril of the United States.'

"I now go further and charge not only that the controlling ownership is lodged in a few families, but that the actual control of the great rail- way systems at the time of the pas- sage of the Esch-Cummins law was vested in a handful of men on their interlocking boards of railway directors.

Group of Twenty-Five Men

"To be more specific, twenty-five men sat together on the boards of di- rectors, totaling more than 200,000 miles, or more than four-fifths of the country's entire railway system. These twenty-five men held 193 railroad di- rectorships. They each average near- ly eight directorships.

"We, Texans, point with pride to the career of Col. Robert S. Lovett, with his rapid climb from country lawyer to become the master mind in the railway world, as he now leads all the rest as an outstanding director in twelve American railways.

"The thoughts of thinking men are further challenged by the open charge of a great United States Senator that 'the real power which today controls the railroads in the United States is the group of a dozen New York in- stitutions, which make up the New York banking combine.'

"These twelve New York banking, trusts and insurance companies aver- age four or five members on the boards of the principal railway sys- tems. Among them three leading New York banks control a total of 132 rail- road directorships.

"We hear much these days about the danger that comes of the con- centration of too much political power in Washington. Who does not view with patriotic concern the peril that lurks in the concentration of too much financial power in New York? And who does not tremble for the well- being of 200,000,000 of people because of the ever-growing power of the money power over our Government? And in what legislation in recent years was this power more outrageously and selfishly exercised than in the passage of the railway transportation act with its unblushing plunder of the Ameri- can people?"

DOCTORS PRESCRIBE MENTAL RELIEF FOR BUSINESS MEN

From the New York World:

With the advent of that longlooked for summer vacation getting nearer and nearer each day medical authori- ties in New York City vouch for and give instruction in a new, yet old, method of mental relief for the busi- ness man or woman of affairs who de- sires the greatest amount of relax- ation from business worries.

Golf, fishing, swimming—all of the out-of-door sports—men and women have found them practical safety val- ves for relief from mental ills. The medical profession calls it "occupa- tional therapy," and today they are prescribing it as they do any other medicine.

"Don't worry do something," is the definition of this "new medicine," which, in a word, means for the patient to do something the patient en- joys doing, just as a well manresorts to golf because he likes it, and the energy required must not be greater than one has to give. But whatever the sport or occupation may be, it will keep him or her busy both in mind and body.

The secret of the application is simply this: The doctor finds an oc- cupation that has therapeutic or cur- ative value for the particular patient in hand. Generally it is a handicraft of some sort; many times it is some well-known sport. But whatever it is it must be what the patient likes well enough to take the mental strain off the day's monotonous routine.

Dr. Thomas W. Salmon, who had charge of the neuro-psychiatric work in the American expeditionary forces recently said:

"Occupational therapy will some day rank with anesthetics in taking the suffering out of sickness, and with antitoxins in shortening its duration.

Dr. Reginald H. Sayre of the ortho- pedic service at Belleue says that in- dustrial employers are finding that it is easier and better to revamp a dam- aged man than to scrap him and train another in his place. Many of the big industries now maintain their own curative workshops, but in many hospitals a patient is discharged as soon as his fracture is mended, although he has not yet regained the use of the injured part. Seemingly paralyzed muscles can be remade, brought to function normally.

One of the hardest things to do with a convalescent patient, medical men say, is to keep him in the hospital long enough to be cured. The forced inactivity makes him restless and dis- contented to a degree that affects his cure, and often drives him impulsively to leave the hospital, trusting to luck that he will get along all right. Occu- pational therapy helps to anchor him.
