

Long Delayed Game Set For 2:30 Tomorrow

Game Set for District Championship Clash Between Floydada and Lubbock Hi Football Squads

The thrice-postponed clash between the squads of the Floydada High and Lubbock High football teams will be played tomorrow afternoon at the Floydada Baseball Park. The stage is set and the classic for which the fans have been waiting will be started at 2:30 according to the announcement.

Coach J. C. Wester, who declared at nothing would delay the game, except the failure of the visiting team to show up on the grounds.

For three weeks the two teams have been wanting to get at each other. Both are confident of representing the district as champions, although there are two other undefeated teams contending for the district honors—Lockney and Ralls. About the day the two teams should have settled their argument the rains began to fall. The games were not prevented so much by inability to play in the mud as by inability to get from one town to another to play.

Coach Marr, of the Lubbock Westerners, is maintaining somewhat of a mysterious silence as to his team. Over the telephone Tuesday he declared he would have several changes probably in his lineup and, on this account, he said, he could not give the press his probable lineup or the weight of his team. Coach Wester, however, says the team Lubbock Hi will tackle the Whirlwinds with will be just about the same team they have been playing over the district, with the exception that C. Hensley, who has been out with a weak ankle will be on the end and his brother in the backfield. The Lubbock line will be heavier than the Floydada line, it seems probable.

W. E. Lockhart will not referee. The schedule of his team, the Yearlings (W. T. S. T. C.) will prevent his coming. Allen, Coach of Plainview Hi, will officiate with A. I. Edwards, Matador Superintendent, former coach of Coleman Hi, as umpire. Hale of Canyon will be head linesman.

A whale of a crowd is expected to see the game, although the Lubbock contingent may be reduced by the heavy roads. F. H. S. is going to be there strong with its "pep squad" leading the rooting for the Green and White worn by the Whirlwinds.

"F. H. S. has the best team it ever put on the field," Coach Wester said yesterday. "If Lubbock wins over them I'll concede them the honors without alibi. However, as I have said before, I expect a mighty few points to mark the difference between winners and losers. My boys are going in there to fight for that extra point."

W. J. Hancock and family of Deport, Texas, reached Floydada Monday and are preparing to make this their home. Mr. Hancock has bought the G. P. Craig farm east of Floydada.

Mrs. Will I. Allen Died Tuesday Morning

Mrs. Will I. Allen, for 17 years a resident of Floydada, died Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock at the Allen home on South Main Street, her death being due to Bright's disease. She suffered only a brief illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock, conducted at the Allen home by Rev. G. W. Shearer, of Amarillo, assisted by Rev. J. L. Henson, pastor of the Methodist church of Floydada, and interment was made in Floydada Cemetery at 2:30, the same day.

The deceased was a native of Texas, having been born in Bastrop county, in 1867. She would have been 57 years of age next March 11th. The family came to Floyd County in 1906 from Crawford, Texas.

Surviving her are her husband, Will Allen, three daughters and two sons. The children are: Oliver Allen, Willie Allen, of Floydada; Mrs. J. C. Parker of Lorenzo; Mrs. H. S. Sparks of Long Beach, Cal.; and Raymond Allen of Lubbock. One sister and two brothers survive her. They are Mrs. Lula Cowser of McNeal, Ariz.; Mat Keaton, of Bisbee, Ariz.; J. A. Burdett, of Childress. All the children were at the funeral except Mrs. Sparks. The brothers and sister were unable to be here.

Lockney And Ralls Hi Teams To Fight It Out

Lockney and Ralls High School football teams will help Floydada and Lubbock Hi reduce the number of contestants for district honors in District No. 2 tomorrow afternoon in the Interscholastic League Football title scrap, when they will fight it out between them which is the better football squad. Their game will be played at Lockney.

To date both teams have been victorious in every game, Lockney's loss to Matador 6 to 0 recently having been protested and the Lockney contention upheld. The Lockney team quit play with the ball on Matador's one-yard line 10 seconds before time was up, according to the report which is accredited among the football boys here.

Ralls is given an edge over Lockney by the dopesters, who believe that experience and weight will win the game. The Lockney team has been spilling the "dope" right and left this season, however, and will be strong contenders.

The winner of the Lockney-Salls tilt and the Floydada-Lubbock tilt will be pitted against each other as soon as possible next week, it is thought.

Unknown Young Man Held On Lunacy Charge

A young man, probably 26 years of age, is being held in the Floyd County jail on a charge of lunacy. He was arrested by Sheriff J. A. Grigsby Thursday afternoon late a mile or two east of town, after he had created some disturbance by his peculiar activities.

The young man is about 6 feet tall, weighs about 190 pounds. He has brown eyes and has light hair and complexion. To date officers have been unable to learn his name or the probable place of his residence. He has served in the army, it is thought probable.

From the best information obtainable the man arrived in Floyd County sometime last week, riding the blind baggage as far as Aiken, where he was discovered and put off the train, probably Tuesday. He was seen in Lockney and reached Floydada Wednesday night.

The lunacy charge was filed after he was taken in charge by Sheriff Grigsby.

REV. G. W. RUSHING PASTOR OF CUMBERLAND CHURCH

Rev. G. W. Rushing, of Abilene, is here acting as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church until the church calls a permanent pastor.

He arrived last Friday and preached for the first time here Sunday. He will conduct the services at the Cumberland Church next Sunday morning and evening.

POULTRY SHOW PLANS ARE BEING FORMULATED

It is time for the annual poultry show to be held in Floyd County this fall. It has been the custom to hold this poultry show in Floydada one year and Lockney the next, and this year it is Lockney's time to hold the show. Mr. Coleman has asked us to call the attention of the people of Lockney to this fact, and requests that arrangements be made for the holding of the show. The Lockney Community Chamber of Commerce has been asked to formulate plans for the holding of the show.—Lockney Beacon.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICE OFFICER CALLS MEETING OF COTTON RAISERS

Richard Hudson, in charge of the United States Employment Service office in Plainview, this morning issued a call for a meeting of representatives of cotton farmers over this territory to be held in Plainview at the City Auditorium on Monday, November 12th, at 2 p. m. Representatives of towns and communities all over this territory who are interested in getting more laborers into the country are invited to the meeting.

Mr. Hudson feels sure he can get the laborers if they are to be had. On the other hand there is danger, he fears, of getting men into the country whom he cannot place. The meeting is for the purpose of getting an accurate gauge on the number of cotton pickers and farm laborers in general needed in this section.

C. OF C. OFFERS AID TO GET COTTON PICKERS

Floyd County farmers apparently will be in need of many cotton pickers for a few weeks at least, if the weather stays good. With the return of better weather conditions the Chamber of Commerce is preparing to renew its efforts to get cotton pickers for those who want them.

Maury Hopkins, secretary, is of the opinion that the Chamber of Commerce can aid materially in getting more pickers into this territory if farmers will advise of her needs.

His suggestion is that individual farmers call the office of the Chamber of Commerce and advise what their needs will be, price to be paid and give any other information that might be worth while.

COTTON HAS CONTINUED TO CLIMB DURING BAD WEATHER

With just a few off days to make the advance more pronounced when it did come, the price of cotton in the primary markets has kept climbing by degrees every week since the bad weather set in in October, and the farmer who marketed a bale of cotton about the 20th of last month will find that the same grade of cotton will bring a considerably better price this week.

For instance, W. B. Close had a good bale of cotton on this market Tuesday noon. It brought him $32.75 per hundred. It was a middling bale or possibly better, and likewise had the advantage of the good market that is being maintained by the buyers at Floydada.

Bales of cotton not so good, however, brought 30 cents and better Tuesday.

The bad weather to October 25th, according to the government estimators, had reduced the crop for the year by 767,000 bales and on the first few days of November following the announcement the price of cotton climbed steadily.

J. M. HUGHES BUYS BACK INTO DAY AND NIGHT

J. M. Hughes, for a number of years manager of the Day & Night Garage until two years ago when he leased to Lee Faulkner & Son is again in the garage business, having re-purchased the equipment effective November 1st.

Mr. Hughes has owned the building since its construction.

Lee Faulkner, former lessee, is retiring from the garage business to give all of his attention to other affairs including his farm.

SOOT IN FLUE CAUSE OF NEAR FIRE IN DANIEL HOME

The fire department made a run Friday morning to the home of J. V. Daniel on West Missouri Street, where soot in a flue caught fire at the joint for the stove pipe.

The fire was extinguished before the department reached the scene.

COTTON STARTS MOVING WITH DRY WEATHER

Dry weather once more has started cotton moving to market. Although the fields and roads are heavy cotton raisers have gone into the fields and are gathering the staple. Some cotton moved as early as Monday and a bale or so was ginned Saturday.

Gins had fair runs yesterday and several bales have reached town this morning again.

The highest street price paid to date for cotton was for a bale Wednesday afternoon, which brought 34 cents per pound.

Killing Frost Fell In Floyd November 5th.

A killing frost fell over Floyd County the morning of November 5th, some ten to fifteen days later than usual.

Frost falls in normal years in this section about October 20th, it appears, the earliest ever known being on October 8th and the latest about the middle of November.

Farmers who had feared a hard freeze with the heavy rains of the latter part of October are of the opinion that the frost coming first will have a tendency to season the feed-stuffs and possibly keep it from falling so badly as if it had been struck by a hard freeze when full of sap. Cotton will all open in a hurry now.

FATHER OF W. N. PASCHALL DIED MONDAY AT BOYD

W. N. Paschall and son, Roy, left Tuesday morning for Boyd in response to a message telling of the death of the former's father, J. T. Paschall.

J. T. Paschall is also the father of Clayton Paschall, who at this time is making his home with his brother, W. N., and was unable to attend the funeral of his father.

Two Dollar County Apportionment Made

An apportionment of $2 per capita, based on a scholastic population of 2,846 in Floyd County, was made by E. C. Nelson, Jr., County Superintendent, this week, from the county school fund.

The apportionment was made from interest received from the purchasers of the Floyd County School Lands in Bailey County.

GEO. T. MOORE, KANSAS CITY FINANCIER, HERE

Geo. T. Moore, Kansas City banker and financier, is in Floydada on his semi-annual visit, having arrived Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Moore has long been interested in Floyd County, having at one time owned the F. Ranch, northeast of Floydada.

TEACHERS' ASS'N MEETING SATURDAY NOV. 17th

J. J. Wilson, of Lockney, president of the Floyd County Teachers' Association, has called a meeting of the association to be held on Saturday, November 17th in Floydada.

The meeting hour is 2:30 and the meeting place the county court room. Important business is given as the reason for the call for the meeting.

TURKEY MARKET

The Thanksgiving turkey market opened this week at 20c. Dealers are not very optimistic as to the future market owing to the fact that there are over seven million pounds left over from last year, now on cold storage and there is an unusually large crop of turkeys this year, it is stated.

Indications are that the price will not be as good as it has been in the past few years. The Thanksgiving market will close this year on November 17th.

ATTENDANCE AT WORKERS' MEETING IS LIGHT

Attendance at the Workers' Meeting of the Floyd County Baptist Association, held in Floydada Tuesday of this week was light on account of the heavy roads over the association.

Out-of-town attendance was limited to members of churches within a close radius of Floydada.

S. B. McCLESKEY SAVES CANE IN SPITE OF MUD

S. B. McCleskey demonstrated Monday of this week a good way to save feedstuffs while it is standing in the fields of mud and water. With the assistance of E. E. Johnson Mr. McCleskey spent Monday gathering cane.

Using ashort handled hoe Mr. McCleskey gathered many a shock of cane, that would have been too dry to save without great loss, when he waded into mud and water to get something for the cow to eat and furnish milk and butter this winter. Neighbors who saw the amount of feedstuffs saved in one day by this method say that it beats mighty bad letting the forage crop stand and go to waste.

Community Dinner Planned For Nov. 29

Big Dinner Planned by School Folks For School Benefit Thanksgiving Day

A big community dinner, at which it is hoped to interest several hundred people to eat, for the benefit of the North Side School library which was burned in September, the South Side Library which is in dire need of more scientific books and the senior class annual fund, is announced by Supt. J. N. Johnston and members of the faculty this week.

Tentative plans for the unusual feature for Thanksgiving Day include readings, music and other numbers that will be interesting and entertaining. However, the feature pars excellens, will be turkey with trimmings. Mr. Johnston said Wednesday morning that 100 pounds of baked turkey and 100 pounds of baked hen had already been arranged for and those who will now begin making their plans to eat with the school folks on Thanksgiving Day may expect to find all the trimmings when they sit down at the festal board. The place for the feed and entertainment has not been definitely chosen as yet.

The plans for the Thanksgiving Day feed are announced at this early date, Mr. Johnston said, to keep those who will, from making other plans including home dinners. "It is a little unusual to ask folks not to eat dinner at home on Thanksgiving Day, I admit," Mr. Johnston said. "However, we believe that when it is realized that our boys and girls at the North Side have not a semblance of a library since their burned recently, that the South Side student body is in need of books badly and in addition to this our senior class is making an effort to raise funds for their annual next spring—when these needs are taken into consideration, we can't help thinking that we are going to get lots of patronage from interested people in the community. We will not be surprised to have several hundred people eat with us. At least we hope to have them."

The dinner will be served following the Thanksgiving morning sermon or sermons, and those who attend some service on that day can go from the church directly to the place where the dinner is to be served.

8 LOADS OF CATTLE AND HOGS SHIPPED TO MARKET

Eight carloads of cattle and hogs were sent to market out of Floydada Saturday morning of last week, the Kansas City market getting six of the eight.

N. A. Armstrong shipped two cars of hogs to Fort Worth and one car to Kansas City.

The other shippers were T. H. Armstrong who had two loads sent to Kansas City and Hooser & Stribling, who had one load consigned to the same point.

Young Lady Found Hanging In Barn

Miss Ruby Golden, daughter of Taylor Golden of the Weathers Community, was found by her father and family Sunday morning of this week hanging by a rope from a rafter in the barn at their home dead, indications pointing to suicide, which was the verdict of A. J. Crager, justice of the peace at Lockney, who held the inquest.

The body was warm when found by her father, the girl having been missed from the house for only a few minutes by a sister, with whom she had been sleeping. The death occurred about daylight. The body was still warm when found by her father.

The young lady would have been 22 years of age on December 2nd of this year.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Lockney at 2:30, where the remains were buried.

The Golden family have resided in this county for some years. They came here from Hill county, and are known to many persons residing in Floydada, who were neighbors or friends of the family in former days. Sheriff J. A. Grigsby, and Deputies J. R. Maddox and Harve Bolin visited the scene of the death, reaching the Golden home Sunday afternoon over very heavy roads.

ARMISTICE DAY

All the phrases susceptible to use in connection with such a subject will be used up this week by editorial writers in the discussion of Armistice Day.

But the short and simple story of how glad we were at home and how glad the boys were on the battlefields to learn that the fighting was over, is the biggest story about it all—perhaps all the story there is to be told.
For although we imagined that wars and rumors of wars would cease when people came to their senses and realized the terribleness of wars, we now know that the same martial spirit which prevailed in Germany during the days preceding the World War, still exists and the smouldering hatred of hundreds of feudal centuries are burning as deep as ever, awaiting "the day." Perhaps such an outcome is far distant in Germany. Now that Japan is on her knees it is far away as between that nation and the United States. But somebody—maybe in the Balkans, perhaps east of the Suez—will strike the tinder and the fat will be in the fire again some of these days.

Meanwhile, it behooves America to keep its spirit young, and its vision clear. Europe does not see things like we do. There are no such neighbors as Canada in any other continent of the world, and although Old World diplomacy has a sugar-coated tonage it carries a sting.

ROADS ARE BAD

Never, perhaps, since the days of the automobile, have the roads in Floyd County been so bad, the best roads in the county having been reduced to long stretches of mud "lob lolly," and the less-travelled roads, not being as well drained, are more nearly impassable. Poorly drained spots in the roads have resolved themselves into bog holes or mud dips and during the heavy rains this week going has been extremely heavy for cars.

Of course, the commissioners will get on those roads with crews as soon as weather will permit. At least, they'll get on them or there'll be nothing to get on. And meanwhile we are left to ponder whether the State Highway Department means its exact words when the commissioner announces that the department has interpreted the word "maintain" in the new Highway Law to mean "to maintain in as good condition as they found it" the road which may come under their supervision. Floyd County has forty miles of this kind of road. If the department maintains it in as good condition as the rains have left it, and no better, we shall have a good time opening up a new road that folks can travel. The road lies partially in three districts. Doubtless, the commissioners will make a strenuous effort to get it in first class condition by January 1st. But they have a considerable job trying to do so.

REGISTERED BABIES

A newspaper in a panhandle county, commenting on the fact that the doctors evidently are not complying with the Vital Statistics Law, which makes it mandatory on doctors to report births and deaths, calls attention to this failure and prompts parents to see that their family physicians do register the children born into their families.

The idea is well taken. Not that doctors of Floyd County are remiss in this duty. Apparently they have been careful during the past few years to register all births and deaths. At least the figures for this county of registered births and deaths are in the neighborhood of what the actual births and deaths in the county should be. But the increasing population of the country, the growing complexities of our civilization and the possibilities of travel from one country to another are such that a child, registered at birth, will have an advantage over a child not so registered. At a future time, it is possible indeed that a child born in this year may suffer heavy financial or other loss through the failure of the physician to register the child's birth.

Since no one hardly can be expected to have more interest in a child than its own parents, it might be well for the latter just to see that the fact of a child's birth to them is recorded.

Dr. Richard Robertson, of Montreal, is credited in newspaper reports with declaring that church hymns are causing suicides in this country.
"Personal" religion inspired by such songs as "When the roll is called up Yonder," is the cause of many suicides. Rather than believe that the eminent doctor said any such we are sure that the tale they have gotten out on him is just another libel on a good man's name. Blind but happy Fanny Crosby, Charles Wesley and others saints now gone on are having to answer for a lot of "personal" religion they inspired throughout long lives, if the doctor is quoted correctly and if so be the doctor is right in his contention.

CLOUDY DAYS AND SUNSHINE

The month of October, 1923, will long be remembered by the residents of Floyd County as the month when the sun shone very few days in the month and very few hours in these few days. At least that is the first impression. As a matter of fact there were ten days of partially or wholly clear weather in the period. On the other hand there were nine days when the sun shone for less than three hours, the nine days ending October 31st.

That the rain which fell during the period made a good "bottom" season and proved highly valuable to wheat ground and to wheat already planted, is overlooked by the average person who sees only the fact that some cotton and feedstuffs have been damaged, rather seriously in spots.

The average westerner—West Texan, we'll say—must have his sunshine and his breeze. He's lost without them, although a proverbial howler for rain and a grumbler about too much wind. The way we want our rain is to have it cloud up and rain at night and then be clear and sunny and dry the next day so we won't miss any time. And the wind—we want it to blow hard enough to keep the windmills going at a good clip twenty-four hours in the day and not hard enough to kick up any dirt; at the same time no lulls so we'll never be out of stock water.

An announcement of great importance and highly interesting from many Business men—with whom the runabout has always been very popular—are well pleased with the changes embodied in this model.

Always rugged, the car has been made decidedly trimmer and

This result is obtained by raising the radiator and enlarging the more leg room.

A well designed top and slanting windshield do their share toward adding a finished, clean-cut appearance.

Wreck Occurred on the Quanah & Pacific Railroad at the 61st Mile West of Paducah

A wreck occurred on the Quanah & Pacific railroad at the 61st mile west of Paducah, Ky., on the morning of Monday, Nov. 12, 1923. The exact cause for the wreck is not known, but the engineer's opinion is that it was caused by a bolt or tap falling from the cars, catching under a box car and causing the box car to leave the track and others to follow. A passenger was reported to be seemingly pretty badly. His condition could not be learned from the agent, neither could the extent of injuries be ascertained. He was taken to Paducah on the train the following morning and given treatment. The train left the track about four miles in the afternoon. The first to leave the road was full of coal, and it turned completely over. Then followed another box car, baggage car and a passenger car, making four cars all together off the track, only one of which was turned over. A wrecking crew was sent out from Paducah to place the train back on the track and get it to going again. They worked all Monday night and completed the work about six o'clock Tuesday morning. The train was then pulled into Paducah.

To this wreck there was no rain until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, it being due here at 10:30 p. m.

PAY TOURIST CAMPS ARE NOW WANTED BY TOURISTS

During the past two or three years the cities of the West have established hundreds of tourist camps. These camps have been free for all, tourists or the home people. During the past year quite a rivalry has grown up among towns and cities as to which could have the best camp site. But during the past few months there has arisen a desire among many towns to have these camps, but to charge a small fee for their use. The managers of the Red Book, at San Antonio, have made an auto trip over the West and have come to the conclusion that "pay" camps will be better patronized in the future and that in a few years there will be no free camps. These men say the tourists are willing to pay for accommodations and where the camp is rightly conducted, with latest improvements, the tourists will remain for several days and are of real benefit to the communities. It is another evolution in the auto game.—Plainview Herald.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

Poultry Culling Demonstration
Next Tuesday, November 13th, at 2 p. m. the county agent will hold a poultry culling demonstration at Mrs. Wm. Massie's place west of town. It is getting rather late to cull poultry but it can be done this month. It is a good plan to cull the hens now and if you do not want to sell them the ones you want to mark and keep can be distinguished from the culls and then when you are ready to sell the culls when the price is right you can do so. Everyone is invited to attend this demonstration.

Hold Your Turkeys
On account of the low price for turkeys at present and the better outlook for Christmas market you are advised to hold all the turkeys you can till then and especially the light weights. The market is not very encouraging at this time but when the cold storage turkeys are off to some extent the price should get better.

Way to Save Feed
One farmer was talking to the writer a few days ago about saving the feed in the quickest way. He says he intends to make a wide sled with knives on it to cut the feed down with and then make a revolving stalk rake as is used in East Texas for raking the feed up and it can be stacked in small shocks to dry. Most of the farmers from that part of Texas have used or seen the kind of rake referred to and can make one. If you have not we can soon tell you how to make one. It is claimed that 15 or 20 acres can be put up in a day with this kind of machinery.

Another good way would be to turn out schools for at least one week and all the people in town who can get out go and help the farmers save the feed. This feed is very good if it can be saved and will prevent the farmers having to buy feed. But if it is not saved many of them will have to buy feed and pay freight on it.

Select Cotton Seed Now
There will no doubt be a large percent of the cotton seed from this late picking which will not grow if planted. It is important to know whether your seed will grow because one of the main phases of cotton growing is getting a stand. All those who have not saved seed from the early picking and who want to plant at least part of their crop from home grown seed would do well to test their seed before planting. The best method of testing seed is by means of the rag doll method. Take, say 300 seed just as they come, and spread them out on some thick layers of cloth. Then roll the cloth and dampen and keep in a warm place. After about four days you can count the seeds which did not sprout. You should count the weak sprouts as failures. By this means you can determine what percent of your seed will grow. For example, if thirty out of 300 seed fail to sprout you have seed which will test 90 per cent germination and you may plant an extra amount of seed according to the percent of failures.

Farmers Plan to Make Crop Every Year

If the farmers of this great plains country could make a good crop every year there would not be any more "hard times" cry. Such an idea is no "pipe dream" but will be a reality within a very short time. By means of terracing we can conserve the rainfall and store it in the soil. It is a well known fact that the reason why we failed to make a good crop for the last two years was because we did not have any "underground season". By making low terraces and working over them we can keep the water from leaving the fields and going to the lakes where the water can not be used for making a crop. Every one knows that we have good crops in the low places this year and had the same condition last year. There is another aspect which should be of interest to those who are trying to travel the highways at this time, namely, the keeping water in the fields where we need it and preventing it from collecting in the low places, and making such places in the roads impassable.

CLARENCE FOSTER
Candidate for
COUNTY CLERK, FLOYD COUNTY

A large number of farmers over the county are planning to do some terracing this fall and if these demonstrations prove of as great value as we think they will, this will be one of our biggest projects for fall and will be of inestimable value to the country.

Floyd County Needs Better Seed

It is apparent that Floyd County needs to get some pure seed of the grain sorghums. It is getting difficult to select heads of these grains which will win at shows and if they will not win at the fairs they are not good seed. The same principles which makes a head of maize win in the show makes it good for seed. Our bigari being a rather new crop has not run out as badly as our maize and kaffir. The fact that Floyd County won second at the State Fair at Dallas is no credit to our grain sorghums for these exhibits did not win even second. If we had been growing the best types of grains and peanuts we should have won first. Neither did Hale county win first on grains. It is hoped that the farmers of Floyd County will get some better seed before another planting season. It will pay you in the long run to get a few pounds even of the best and keep it from mixing till you get the seed to plant your whole crop.

We are planning to try to get some seed of these grain sorghums from Lubbock Experimental Station. Any farmers who want some of the seed should see the county agent at once. If we can not get it there we want to try to get it from some of the other counties where it is better than here. We can get it through the other county agents.

Miss Nell Kirkpatrick, of Wichita Falls, came in Tuesday for a few days visit with the family of W. N. Paschall.

Miss Prudie Mae Hamilton left Wednesday morning for Long Beach, Calif. She joined the G. T. Abney family at Plainview and the party will motor cross country.

Poultry Culling Demonstration
Next Tuesday, November 13th, at 2 p. m. the county agent will hold a poultry culling demonstration at Mrs. Wm. Massie's place west of town. It is getting rather late to cull poultry but it can be done this month. It is a good plan to cull the hens now and if you do not want to sell them the ones you want to mark and keep can be distinguished from the culls and then when you are ready to sell the culls when the price is right you can do so. Everyone is invited to attend this demonstration.

Hold Your Turkeys

On account of the low price for turkeys at present and the better outlook for Christmas market you are advised to hold all the turkeys you can till then and especially the light weights. The market is not very encouraging at this time but when the cold storage turkeys are off to some extent the price should get better.

Way to Save Feed

One farmer was talking to the writer a few days ago about saving the feed in the quickest way. He says he intends to make a wide sled with knives on it to cut the feed down with and then make a revolving stalk rake as is used in East Texas for raking the feed up and it can be stacked in small shocks to dry. Most of the farmers from that part of Texas have used or seen the kind of rake referred to and can make one. If you have not we can soon tell you how to make one. It is claimed that 15 or 20 acres can be put up in a day with this kind of machinery.

Another good way would be to turn out schools for at least one week and all the people in town who can get out go and help the farmers save the feed. This feed is very good if it can be saved and will prevent the farmers having to buy feed. But if it is not saved many of them will have to buy feed and pay freight on it.

There will no doubt be a large percent of the cotton seed from this late picking which will not grow if planted. It is important to know whether your seed will grow because one of the main phases of cotton growing is getting a stand. All those who have not saved seed from the early picking and who want to plant at least part of their crop from home grown seed would do well to test their seed before planting. The best method of testing seed is by means of the rag doll method. Take, say 300 seed just as they come, and spread them out on some thick layers of cloth. Then roll the cloth and dampen and keep in a warm place. After about four days you can count the seed which did not sprout. You should count the weak sprouts as failures. By this means you can determine what percent of your seed will grow. For example, if thirty out of 300 seed fail to sprout you have seed which will test 90 per cent germination and you may plant an extra amount of seed according to the percent of failures.

Farmers Plan to Make Crop Every Year

If the farmers of this great plains country could make a good crop every year there would not be any more "hard times" cry. Such an idea is no "pipe dream" but will be a reality within a very short time. By means of terracing we can conserve the rainfall and store it in the soil. It is a well known fact that the reason why we failed to make a good crop for the last two years was because we did not have any "underground season". By making low terraces and working over them we can keep the water from leaving the fields and going to the lakes where the water can not be used for making a crop. Every one knows that we have good crops in the low places this year and had the same condition last year. There is another aspect which should be of interest to those who are trying to travel the highways at this time, namely, the keeping water in the fields where we need it and preventing it from collecting in the low places, and making such places in the roads impassable.

CLARENCE FOSTER

Candidate for
COUNTY CLERK, FLOYD COUNTY

A large number of farmers over the county are planning to do some terracing this fall and if these demonstrations prove of as great value as we think they will, this will be one of our biggest projects for fall and will be of inestimable value to the country.

Floyd County Needs Better Seed

It is apparent that Floyd County needs to get some pure seed of the grain sorghums. It is getting difficult to select heads of these grains which will win at shows and if they will not win at the fairs they are not good seed. The same principles which makes a head of maize win in the show makes it good for seed. Our higrari being a rather new crop has not run out as badly as our maize and kaffir. The fact that Floyd County won second at the State Fair at Dallas is no credit to our grain sorghums for these exhibits did not win even second. If we had been growing the best types of grains and peanuts we should have won first. Neither did Hale county win first on grains. It is hoped that the farmers of Floyd County will get some better seed before another planting season. It will pay you in the long run to get a few pounds even of the best and keep it from mixing till you get the seed to plant your whole crop.

We are planning to try to get some seed of these grain sorghums from Lubbock Experimental Station. Any farmers who want some of the seed should see the county agent at once. If we can not get it there we want to try to get it from some of the other counties where it is better than here. We can get it through the other county agents.

SCHOOL NOTES

To the patrons of the Floydada Public School:

Several times in these columns I have stated that Floydada Schools have too many failures in class work. The third that fails is a loss to the taxpayers, the state and the pupils. No business is a success with a third loss each year. It is not the salary of teachers, it is not insurance on property, it is not the janitor, it is not the fuel expense. Neither is it all of these combined. A large part of the cause may be the teacher, a large part may be the pupil and still a larger part may be the parent. It may be all.

Now, the school has planned to reduce this loss. The pupils should plan to reduce. The parents should help to reduce this loss.

The school has the plan of dismissing all who have made their grades at 3:15. The teachers will give special help to those who need help in their lessons. This is a special effort the teachers make. This special help will continue till 4 o'clock. All who make the work are dismissed in order that those who remain may have special help in the most effective way. The pupils are not retained as a punishment, but for work.

Those who fail to make the required grade to pass will not have any grade put on the report card till the grade is raised above the failing grade. This is done to prevent erasures on the cards. This prevents fraud on report cards. No child is punished in any way solely for failure in class work. The child may be punished for willful disobedience in matters connected with his class work.

Many of the pupils who fail are trying to make up their work. They take their books home and study at night. Other pupils neither study at home or at school. If the parents will co-operate with the teachers many of the failures will be no more.

Our work with the parents should be a mutual affair. The real teacher always invites a full investigation of her work. The fullest sympathy and co-operation should exist between the teacher and the parent. Every parent who feels that something is wrong should go directly to the teacher with the complaint. They should have a confidential conversation about the matters. The real teacher's heart goes out in great sympathy and courtesy to the parent who has heartaches or disappointment about the work.

The teacher should never ignore, or treat slightly, any matter that the parent has an interest in, regardless of its importance. Now, parents, if your child is not making the work, provide the child with its needs, a place for one to two hours for study at night. Call in the teacher for an explanation. Be a friend to your child's teacher for the teacher takes your place while the child is at school. All work for peace, harmony and unity.

J. NEIL JOHNSTON.

School Difficulties

This is the most trying year in the history of the Floydada schools. The heaters at the South Side School are about all burned out. Many of them have been in the school ten or more years.

The board decided last March to install steam heating. The contract was let at the July meeting. The installation was to have been completed by September 10th. The factory and the railroads failed to deliver the material on time, hence the work was completed this week.

The school, in the meantime, has needed better heating conditions. There have been many other hindrances in this connection. Ten days of the work had to be done while the school was in session.

The greatest calamity was the burning of the North Side School September 30th, three weeks after the school opened. This disaster resulted in a great loss to almost 400 pupils. Three hundred seats, eight heaters, two thousand dollars worth of books, piano, teachers' desks, and many other fixtures were burned. The total loss was at least $12,000 in property, besides the loss of time. The board rushed a nine room house to completion during rains and storms, equipped it with new seats, new blackboards, teachers' desks, chairs, etc. This was the best and quickest action in the state, under the conditions.

Walks had to be made, the debris had to be removed, drinking fountains restored. A full line of school books had to be provided. The state can not supply all the books, hence Abilene, San Angelo and Memphis came to our assistance. Book shipments are to be checked and receipts furnished for books stored, etc. All this requires time and money. New covers were supplied by one of our business concerns to the value of $65.00.

The work was made difficult by the continuous heavy rains. Men could not work in the mud and water. Several men have worked several hours each night.

The board gave several days time to the work, the teachers have been patient and the children have been loyal through all these hardships. No one has suffered more than the children.

Let us encourage all the children to attend every day possible.

J. NEIL JOHNSTON.

Mrs. S. F. Smith and daughter, Opal, of McCoy, are at home again after spending nearly two months in Floydada for Opal to go to school. She is attending school at McCoy, the school having started on October 29th.

Robs Calomel of Nausea and Danger

Medical Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotabs."

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity,—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water,—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs. (Adv.) 29-36c

BLANCO NEWS

Blanco, Nov. 6th.—We are enjoying the beautiful sunshine over in this part of Floyd County, very much so after so many cloudy days. Several in the community killed hogs Monday.

Mrs. Nora E. Jones, of Canyon, is spending a few days on the farm with her children.

We are sorry to lose our faithful postman, R. L. Harrell, as he has transferred off Route One, Floydada, to a man from Corpus Christi and expects to move there soon. They will find him faithful and obliging, and we hope our new man will be, also.

A nice crowd enjoyed the entertainment and pie supper at Blanco last Friday night. Despite the heavy roads, something over $16 was realized from the sale of pies, which is to be used in the improvement of the school house.

Loda Burnett, of Electra, is working for J. W. Haney for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Childers, of Allmon, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haney.

PANHANDLE PROSPERITY

Denison Herald:

The Panhandle people believe in their country as no other people in these United States believe in theirs. Despite drouths in summer, hot winds six months in the year and cold blasts for the other six months, they cling to the plains territory as the land of milk and honey. If their crop burns to a crisp one year, they trust the next year to make it all back. If the blizzard gets their cattle, they look forward optimistically to the calves and yearlings that escape death as their sure reward for the sacrifice.

And this Panhandle country is some inviting land to any man who will take it all-in-all, and not judge it by hot blasts or freezing temperatures. It is just about the most healthful section of Texas. It is absolutely free from malaria. Its skies are as clear as those of Italy. It is peopled with folks whose hospitality is as cordial as a brother's and lavish like a banquet. Big-heartedness goes with the plains country. It is as free of selfishness as it is of mosquitoes.

DOR LANDS SOON TO GO ON MARKET?

Interview at Quanah, Credited Murdo McKenzie, Says Land Will Be Sold

Press Post:

In a recent interview with Murdo McKenzie and other stock-holders of Matador Land & Cattle Co., Ed Harry Koch of the Quanah Tri-County Chief claims to have learned that valuable lands of this great community will soon be placed on sale to actual settlers.

In this extensive cattle range there are hundreds of sections of very fine farming lands and there is little doubt that when the lands are placed upon the market some arrangement will be made for the farmers to get homes with small cash payments and the balance on long time with small payments.

The reason for this decision is a logical one, the same as has long been predicted. The lands have grown so valuable for agricultural purposes that they no longer yield a dividend as a grazing ground for cattle. The depressed cattle markets have doubtless hastened this decision. Land that will sell for $30 to $50 per acre is too valuable for beef raising at present prices and the Matadors are doubtless seeing this point after many years of waiting. Having bought their lands at 50 cents per acre many years ago, this company of English and Scotch people have tenaciously held intact. Figuring on the 50-cent basis for their lands, they doubtless have made money, but it is a very different thing when the lands are figured on a $40 basis, and when they find themselves taxed on a valuation of $10 to $20 per acre.

The opening up of this fertile domain would mean a great deal to this part of the country and would supply good farms to thousands of people. It would probably mean a great growth and wonderful development for Matador, Roaring Springs and other towns adjacent to the big ranch.

MIXED NUMBERS CAUSE AMUSING FAIR PRIZE AWARDS

Minister and Travelling Salesman Have to Ride in Same Seat Account of Weather

Motley County News:

It would seem that some one, or combination of individuals, got all "balled up," and have since been "bawled out" in connection with the arrangement and publication of the list of awards of merit made at the recent county fair.

Some rather ridiculous, if not embarrassing positions were thus innocently assumed. The young lady who had the most artistic piece of embroidery was given a prize for the best span of draft horses; the champion goat roper got the ribbon for the best cream puffs; the lady who had the most inviting mince pie found she had won a pair of spurs for having the best saddle horse on exhibition; Tom Cudd was supposed to get a dress pattern for the best piece of tating; the young lady with prettiest dressed dollies was shocked to learn that her bronze turkeys had run second in the poultry exhibit; Henry Ford was awarded a pair of crutches for having the largest family on the grounds; Bill Pipkin run first as being the fattest, and L. Hope the leanest man in the parade.

Anyone could tell from these few examples that there was a mistake, or misprint somewhere. The facts are that each entry was listed by number, and some way the numbers became transposed, the mistake not being discovered until it was too late. Anyway, anyone should have felt proud to be credited with winning any kind of a prize at that fair.

The bad weather has played havoc with the auto line service in this section the past week. So acute did the situation become Tuesday, that a minister of the gospel and a travelling salesman for a chicken remedy house rode in the same seat from here to Floydada.

BE ON ALERT FOR BOLL WEEVIL, ADVICE OF GOUGH

"It behooves the farmers of the Panhandle to be on the alert for the boll weevil," said Judge L. Gough, yesterday. Judge Gough has recently returned from the National Boll Weevil Conference at New Orleans, where he represented the Texas Farm and Ranch publications.

"When the boll weevil first appeared in Texas in 1882, his nature was such that he could not have lived in the northern part of the state, but in the years that followed his nature changed until now we find that he has penetrated practically every portion of the state and even at this time is just below the rim of the caprock," said Judge Gough. "A few weevils have been found at Sweetwater but none have ever been found as far north as Spur."

"It was brought out at the conference that enough is known about this enemy of the cotton farmer and methods to successfully combat him have been proven so that if the farmers even in the heart of the weevil districts will work as a single unit that the menace can be controlled and splendid cotton crops raised without damage from this pest."—Amarillo Daily News.

HOPKINS HOME, WILL SUBMIT EXPENSE STATEMENT

Maury Hopkins, secretary of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, reached home the latter part of last week, and has been busy since straightening out the neglected details of the home office, collected during his absence at Oklahoma City and Dallas.

While delighted with the showing made by the Floyd County Exhibit at the Texas State Fair, where it won second money in a sweepstake race among 32 counties, and was highly pleased with the judge's scoring, he was disappointed, nevertheless, in not having returned with the first prize.

A statement of the expenditures made during the trip to the State Fair is being prepared, he stated Tuesday, and will be submitted to members of the Chamber of Commerce and those who assisted in financing the exhibit to Dallas. The largest expenditure made was for advertising matter, a portion only of
