

ONLY REAL FARMERS' APPLICATIONS TO BE TAKEN

Federal Land Bank Says Only Emergency Loans Can be Considered Suitable for Land Bank Loan

Declaring that recent press reports indicating that the Federal Land Bank of Texas has available $15,000,000 for loans to Texas farmers has greatly increased the number of requests for application blanks for farm loans through local associations and that, as a matter of fact the Land Bank has far more applications at present than can be cared for, John V. Van DeMark, secretary of the Federal Land Bank of Houston in a letter forwarded Saturday to local secretary Jas. K. Green says that loans for the purpose of buying land, financing of purchases recently made, making improvements, purchase of livestock, etc., can wait until the emergency loans are made, and additional loans to those who already have one loan should be postponed until other eligible and as worthy farmers are served once.

The letter takes up in detail the situation as follows:

"You may have noted in the press an article given out as an interview with Congressman Briggs and referring to a letter which he had received from Mr. A. F. Lever, member of the Farm Loan Board, to the effect that $15,000,000 is being loaned out by the Federal Land Bank to the farmers of Texas.

"This $15,000,000 would be available to us under the bond sales for the period May 1921 to May 1922. Of this amount nearly one-half has already been paid out, and we have approvals and applications accepted and sent to the appraisers amounting to approximately the balance of the $15,000,000. For the first seven months of the period we have already received applications to an amount approaching $25,000,000.

"We are receiving numerous letters referring to this article, stating that inasmuch as this district is now to get $15,000,000, the associations would expect a large distribution of blanks, and asking us to send to the Secretary-Treasurer anywhere from half dozen to a hundred. Many Secretary-Treasurers advise that they would have no difficulty in taking applications for fifty or more loans of the emergent class, and we have no doubt that if blanks were distributed freely without limitation we would have $100,000,000 in applications within the next two months.

"We realize the earnestness of the Secretary-Treasurers' appeal and are eager to offer every possible office of this bank, as adequately as possible to meet the heavy demands of the present period of financial stringency. The above facts, however, reflect very clearly the present condition, and we feel the Secretary-Treasurers should follow us in an intelligent appreciation of why we cannot send them more blanks."

"It must be apparent that the number of applications is reaching a volume almost commensurate with a practical limitation measured from the funds we expect to get, and we must contemplate, with a view to keeping the volume of applications within reasonable excess of funds available from bond sales, a date in the early future when we shall have to advise that no more applications be sent in. Some counties have already exceeded what we think is an equitable amount to them and they are being sent no more application blanks.

"Do not take applications from those who are not real farmers. Loans for the purpose of buying land, financing of purchases recently made, making improvements, purchase of livestock, etc., can wait until the more emergent loans are made. Additional loans to those who already have one loan should be postponed until other eligible and as worthy farmers are served once.

"Emergency loans for the purpose of taking up and extending pressing past due or maturing note against farm land, or personal indebtedness incurred for agricultural purposes, such loans as will protect the farmer against foreclosure should receive your first consideration."

He is expected home the latter part of the week.

FINE ARTS CONCERT PROGRAM TOMORROW NIGHT

Teachers, Students and Other Local Talent Will be Presented

The Fine Arts Concert tomorrow night at the City Park Auditorium gives promise of being one of the most brilliant of the season and the interest, as indicated by advance purchases of tickets, is already such as to insure a full house. The concert is to be given under the auspices of the Mothers' Club.

Among the numbers promised are readings, pianologue, musical comedy sketch, piano solos, violin solos, vocal solo, choral songs, and vocal duet and the program will be closed by ensemble singing of "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny."

Mrs. Ted Chowning, Miss Marie Henry, W. K. Jackson, Miss Naomi Harmonson, The Floydada High School Choral Club, the Misses Long, Truett Butler and E. G. Wood, are on the program.

The fact that the performance is to be a benefit affair, the proceeds to be used in further improving and beautifying the park, and that the performers are all home talent will add considerably to the attendance, and interest. However, those who have seen and heard the rehearsals are unanimous in declaring the entire program will be enjoyed for itself as well.

The program will begin at 8 o'clock.

NORTH SIDERS SHOW TALENT IN TABERNACLE PROGRAM

Pupils of the North Side School, with every grade represented, Wednesday afternoon gave a program that was heard by a large crowd of patrons and friends of the school. The program was given as a benefit affair, the proceeds to be used for the purchase of needed equipment at the school.

There were twenty-two numbers, all successfully presented to a crowd which comfortably filled the City Park Auditorium.

MDMES. BAIN AND DAVIS ENTERTAIN WITH 84

Mesdames Kenneth Bain and Lon M. Davis entertained last Thursday evening at the Bain home on South Main Street with 84 nine tables being arranged for the games, and thirty-six couples enjoyed the evening.

The near approach of Thanksgiving was suggested in the decorations and score cards, and the refreshments: Creamed turkey in pastry cups with cranberry jelly, cheese sandwiches, olives, blanched nuts, and supreme salad with whipped cream and hot chocolate were served.

SCHOOL KIDS WILL HAVE TWO HOLIDAYS THIS WEEK

Tomorrow and Friday students in Floydada Public Schools will have two full holidays.

The fact that the Thanksgiving holiday breaks the last half of the school week and will practically spoil Friday's work is responsible for the decision to give two days holiday instead of one.

F. H. S. WIN FROM LOCKNEY HIGH 18 TO 0

Floydada High School football squad added another victory to their collection for the season last Friday when they played Lockney High on Lockney school grounds.

The score was 18 to 0.

The Spur High School team was to have played Floydada here but cancelled the game.

POULTRY SHOW OPENS TODAY AT LOCKNEY

The Floyd County Poultry Association's Annual Show which opens today in Lockney and lasts through Saturday is expected by its sponsors to be one of the biggest sectional shows in this territory this season.

A number of local breeders of standard bred fowls are entering their prize winners and other breeders of the south plains are also getting in the competition. Some five hundred fowls are expected to compete.

Among the local poultry fanciers who are going to have birds entered are: Allen & Trammell, J. S. Dunavant & Son, Earl Coward, Mrs. W. M. Massie and C. B. Meador.

J. H. Ratjen, prominent citizen of Providence Community was a business visitor in Floydada Tuesday.

EXAMINATION DEC. 10 FOR APPLICANTS POSTMASTER AT LOCKNEY

N. W. Williams, secretary of the County Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, has been notified that he will be expected to conduct the examination in Floyd County on December 10th of applicants for the position of postmaster. The examinations will be held simultaneously at various points in Texas and a large number of commissions for postmaster will expire in December and January. Among these is the post office at Lockney, and applicants for the postmaster's commission there will likely be examined at Floydada.

The commission of Mrs. Dell Fowler, present postmistress at Lockney will expire on January 24th.

To be eligible for the office of postmaster the applicant must have been a patron of the office to which he aspires for a period of two years prior to the date of the examination. Thus persons who did not get their mail at Lockney for a period of two years prior to this coming December 10th will not be eligible as applicants.

The Lockney office pays $2100 per year.

HOLIDAY BEING OBSERVED BY EVERYBODY HERE

Thanksgiving this year in Floydada is to be practically a 100 per cent holiday, many of the local stores closing for the day to allow clerks and proprietors a day of rest and recreation.

This forenoon many of the community gathered together in a Thanksgiving Service at the Methodist Church while others are out of town at football games or on a day's hunting expedition.

TOWN AND HI BOYS LOSE TO WAYLAND AT PLAINVIEW

A team of town and high school boys hurriedly patched up played Wayland College team at Plainview Saturday afternoon, losing 7 to 0.

Wayland made its only touchdown and goal in the early part of the game. Several local football fans went to the game.

LIGHTING TROUBLES OVER BELIEF OF MANAGER

Officials of the Texas Utilities Company believe the lighting troubles in Floydada due to the breaking of high lines on the circuit are over.

The correction of the trouble was completed Wednesday afternoon late and while for a short time it is possible the trouble will recur the worst is past, it is thought.

For the time the lines have been under re-construction the high tension wires have snapped repeatedly from contraction due to the colder nights, and have been the cause of much consequent grief both to the light people and to patrons in Floydada and Lockney. Prior to that time repeated line trouble between Lockney and Floydada had occasioned much dissatisfaction for several days.

F. H. S. HIGH FOOTBALL SQUAD PLAYING AT PLAINVIEW

Floydada High School finally had to accept an out of town date for their Thanksgiving Day game and accordingly are in Plainview today for the closing season classic. They are to take on the Plainview High School Team at three o'clock this afternoon.

In the early season the two teams were about evenly matched. During the latter part of the season they have not met but both have made good showings against Lubbock. The latter is tied by the Floydada team and has defeated Plainview. Plainview, however, has defeated Amarillo twice, while Amarillo defeated Lubbock early in the season.

The football squad, the best the High School has ever had, have been unfortunate the entire season in matching games, having to invade foreign territory for most of their games.

Elmer Mickey returned Monday from Clovis, New Mexico, where he has been the past few months working with his brother.

F. F. F. ENTHUSIASM FROM FT. WORTH TO LAS VEGAS

Judge Curtis Hancock, chairman of the Highway Committee of the Automobile Club of Texas, who with Hardy Sammons, business manager of the club, passed through Floydada westward the first of last week on a logging tour of the F. F. F. Highway, passed through again Tuesday on the return trip.

Judge Hancock said their reception was cordial and enthusiastic at every stop from Fort Worth to Las Vegas, the co-operation 100 per cent for financing the work of logging and marking, and in every way their mission met with complete success. With the highway sold to the people on the route he is certain it will not be difficult, with work, to "sell" the route to the auto tourists of the country.

Mr. Hancock personally is much taken with Floydada. He declares it the cleanest town in the panhandle and one of the liveliest. Paraphrasing the name of the new highway he says he is "F. F. F.—For Floydada First."

COMMISSIONERS RESCIND REFUNDING WARRANT ORDER

What is taken to be the last of the Refunding Warrant issue in Floyd County for this year at least was the order entered by the Commissioners' Court last Friday rescinding the order passed on Tuesday of last week for the sale of $45,000 worth of county warrants to G. L. Simpson & Company. The order reads: "On this the 18th day of November, 1921, on motion by Earl Rainer and second by J. B. Teaff, the court does hereby rescind the orders accepting and adopting the orders with G. L. Simpson & Co., of Dallas, Texas, in the matter of refunding $30,000 of Road and Bridge Fund and $15,000 of General Fund warrants which was passed by the court November 15th, 1921."

During the term the quarterly reports for quarter ending October 31st, 1921, of Mrs. Lillie Britton, County Treasurer, Miss Lola Walling, County Clerk, and G. C. Tubbs, District Clerk, were approved, as were the butcher's reports of Frank Dodson and Virgil Teaver, of Lockney.

The court also accepted the work of Van Chapman for Austin Bros., of Dallas, on the Linguish Creek Bridge in the northeast part of the county.

The court was in session again yesterday for the consideration and passage of routine business of the county.

GINS PLAN TO CLOSE FOR SEASON DECEMBER 1ST

Floyd County's cotton crop is practically all out of the fields and local gins have announced their plans to close for the season on December 1st. This will be some sixty days earlier than the gins have ever closed before since cotton has been a crop of the county. However, it is believed that the remaining portion of the crop can be gathered by next mid-week and the gins close without any inconvenience to their customers.

The guesstimators who set their figures at 1500 bales when the season opened, did not miss the mark far. The total ginnings to Tuesday afternoon of this week were 1362 bales. The unusually good season for maturing cotton this year has held the grade and sample up very greatly and over three-fourths of the crop has been middling.

The value of the crop marketed locally has been in the neighborhood of $150,000.

HOPE IN SOUNDNESS OF PRESENT CONDITIONS

Underwood Tells C. of C. Rebuild on Character and Integrity to Succeed

Declaring that international relations are the direct cause of the low prices of products of the soil and urging that the people of the plains accept their losses of the post-war period, mark them off the slate and forget them, and build over with work, character and integrity as the foundation, R. A. Underwood, banker, of Plainview, told an audience at the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last Friday evening some of the things he thought needed to be considered in the present and future financial plans of the people of this territory.

The meeting was well-attended, the county court room being comfortably filled. Several ladies were in the audience by special invitation and a good attendance of the organization membership was present.

Mr. Underwood's address came at the close of the transaction of the regular business affairs of the body. The civic committee, good roads committee and Fair Committee having reports besides two or three special committees whose work was completed. He was preceded by F. M. Butler, also of Plainview, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, who in a short talk told of the delight he had taken in watching the good work of the organization since he had moved, mentioning especially the F. F. F. Highway Association convention, and the cleaning and beautifying of the Floydada Cemetery, the latter now being in the hands of a Cemetery Association organized through the instrumentality of officials of the Chamber of Commerce while Mr. Butler was its president.

Floydada Cemetery, he suggests, is perhaps the best-kept on the plains with the possible exception of the Amarillo Cemetery. Referring in a brief way to financial conditions the speaker expressed the belief that the cow, the hog and the hen are the solutions of the financial problems of the plains territory. The one-crop idea is all wrong, he says, and though plains counties boast of their millions of bushels of wheat annually, even now the poultry business in profit to the farmer is only second to wheat, and poultry with hogs and dairy and stock cattle are going to be the mainstays of the financial community if we expect to prosper in the greatest degree.

Jas. M. Anderson, here in company with Messrs. Butler and Underwood, expressed his appreciation of the courtesies of the Chamber of Commerce and lauded the work it is doing.

Opening his address Mr. Underwood pointed out that in seeking for things which would give a degree of hope for the future, we must keep in mind that the prosperity of this section is dependent upon the soil, and that the marketing situation, torn up by international relations and the havoc following the war must not be expected to right itself. One result of the armament conference, he said, might be better stabilized markets. At least the progress of the conference todate gives hope of such a culmination.

There is hope, he said in the soundness of present conditions. No instances are on record of any banking troubles of the plains, more property being behind the credits banks of this territory have extended than most any other portion of the United States. There is also hope in the fact that "the darkest hour is just before the break of day," and since all the "water" has been squeezed out of the securities of this section, its people may well consider the worst as past. This is primarily a stock-farming country, he pointed out, and the cotton and wheat crops must be looked upon not as the crops from which we shall expect our living but as surplus cash crops.

The courage to meet the situation as it now is and not as it was before the days of deflation began, and the courage to economize are two of the things to which Mr. Underwood looks to aid the people of the country during a period of lower prices which may continue for a number of years. Wall Street, the speaker said, has sounded the first keynote of optimism ahead of the southwest in the same manner the street sounded the first warning of the crash a year before.

G. V. SLAUGHTER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Was Among Early-Day Merchants of Floydada and Reared Family Here.

G. V. Slaughter, early-day merchant of Floydada, died at his home on East Kentucky Street Friday night of last week at eight o'clock. His death was not unexpected and all of his family, except one son, were with him at the time of his death. He would have been sixty-three years of age today, having been born in 1858.

The funeral service was held from the Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. C. B. Meador, pastor of the Methodist Church. A very large number of friends and former business associates attended the funeral and burial service which followed at Floydada Cemetery. The burial rites of the Woodmen of the World were observed at the interment. Deceased had been a member of the Floydada Camp of that order for many years. He was also a member of the Methodist Church. Local banks and retail stores were closed for the hour of the funeral service out of respect to the deceased.

Besides his widow, Mr. Slaughter is survived by one daughter and two sons who reside with their mother, a son, Ray Slaughter, now of Anaheim, Cal., Leslie Slaughter of Crosbyton, and two married daughters who reside here, Mesdames W. L. Fry and Cyrus Wright. Two brothers also survive him. They are E. C. Slaughter, formerly a resident of Floydada, now of Roosevelt, Oklahoma, and John Slaughter, of Megargel, Texas. Both were here at the time of their brother's death.

G. V. Slaughter moved to Floydada with his family in the early 1900's. He resided on a farm east of Floydada a few years, after which he entered the mercantile business here as a partner in the Floyd Mercantile Company. Later he re-entered business as a grocer and was engaged in that business when he became too ill for active business life four years ago. During the past year his health became increasingly poorer and ten days ago it became apparent he could live but a few days.

CHALK TALK ARTIST OPENS CITY PARK AUDITORIUM

The first entertainment to be given in the new City Park Auditorium was held Saturday night under the auspices of the Floydada Lyceum Committee, when Frank B. Logan, chalk talk artist, appeared before a good crowd. His program was excellent, his talk and work with the crayon being equally entertaining.

At the opening of the program the Floydada Boys' Band gave a brief concert, and their work indicated much progress in band music.

G. A. Linder, secretary of the Lyceum Committee, told in detail of the efforts to put the auditorium in condition to accommodate large audiences in comfort and asked for the full cooperation of the citizens of the town in maintaining the excellence of the lyceum programs now being given, and also said a good word for the band, asking for the support of that organization in Floydada.

The Board of Control of the Gatesville Training School for boys have whitewashed the officials of the school and have retained Superintendent King. The latter has dismissed the teacher in the school whose evidence was unfavorable to him and to the official in the school by whose hand Dell Thomas was killed. Only one member of the Board, Johnson, dissented in the decision. He recommended to the governor that King and a majority of the employees of the school be dismissed. All of which has aroused a storm of protest over the state, apparently backed by ample proof. That a situation so unworthy of Texas should go unnoticed is unthinkable. Anything the governor may be able to do to correct the situation will certainly have the backing of the majority of the people of the state.

While the "desert" in West Texas goes serenely along with an ample water supply at every man's door the richly blessed sections in East Texas have the pleasure of hauling water many miles for stock and human beings. Legislator Rountree, arguing against the panhandle's desire for an A. & M. College spoke of the Plains as a country "barren as a granite rock." They who know least say most. The plains can furnish our east and central Texas brethren with water, if they get in need, in the same manner as we have shipped them their wheat, hogs and other foodstuffs these many years.

It would be a wise move by the people of the state of Texas, if, as suggested by an organization in San Antonio, the state legislature be reduced from its present membership to a total of forty men, if, in addition to cutting down the number of men, all of the money now expended for legislative services, were paid these forty and the jobs thus put in the competitive class for real talent.

The delinquent tax list of Lubbock Independent School District is being published and it is said the expectation is to realize considerable money for the schools of the district from unpaid back taxes. It is manifestly unfair that those citizens who pay their school tax every year should have to help pay the burden for those who do not. The list in that school district had not been published and efforts thus made to collect back taxes since 1916.

Mayor Fry of Floydada and the mayors of all other West Texas towns and cities have been invited to be the guests of the Kiwanis Club of Fort Worth on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, November 29th on what they term "Mayor's Day." A reception of large proportions is planned with an afternoon of entertainment and addresses in the evening with music following dinner on Top o' Texas at 6:30.

According to The McLean News the farmers of that community are taking advice of the Department of Agriculture and are burning corn instead of coal for fuel. Corn at the present price, Secretary Wallace says, is cheaper than coal for fuel at its price. "Under such conditions it will pay both farmers and people in country towns to use corn instead of fuel," the secretary is quoted as saying.

Frank R. Jamison, for the past three years secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce, has resigned the secretaryship and is now in newspaper harness again. Mr. Jamison for some years was editor of the Canadian Record. By his latest change he becomes business manager of the Amarillo Tribune. Ray H. Nichols continues as editor of the Tribune.

The liquor laws are in such a tangle now that it is going to be exceedingly difficult to secure convictions for making or selling whiskey until a change is effected in them. In the meanwhile the bootlegger and illicit whiskey maker will circulate their poisonous goods more freely than ever.

SANATORIUM TREATMENT EFFECTIVE FOR TUBERCULOSIS

Austin, Texas, Nov. 21.—The Texas Public Health Association states that in the 36 years since Dr. Edward Livingston Trudeau started his Sanatorium in the Adirondacks for the treatment of tuberculosis, the idea has spread until today there are 689 sanatoria throughout the United States.

The important fact has been established that sanatorium treatment for tuberculosis is effective in any climate and in almost any altitude, exploding the old idea that a patient had to go certain sections of the country. The Texas Public Health Association with its affiliated organizations is constantly working to present the idea to the public that the average person who has tuberculosis can best be treated in a sanatorium near his home.

Education as to the prevention of tuberculosis and the best means of treating it is disseminated by the Texas Public Health Association and its affiliated organizations with the result that the number of sanatoria is increasing yearly. Funds for carrying on this work are obtained from the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals, and the 14th Annual Christmas Seal Sale will start Thanksgiving Day.

KANSAS CITY MARKET

Kansas City Stock Yards November 21st.—Packing house employees late last week decided to accept a wage reduction of 5 to 10 per cent without a strike. Today receipts were light for this season of the year, and with Thursday, Thanksgiving holiday, supplies for the week will be below requirements. These conditions improved demand materially and the market ruled strong to higher. Cattle were strong to 25 cents higher, hogs up 15 to 25 cents and lambs strong to 15 cents higher.

Of Canvas and Ribbon

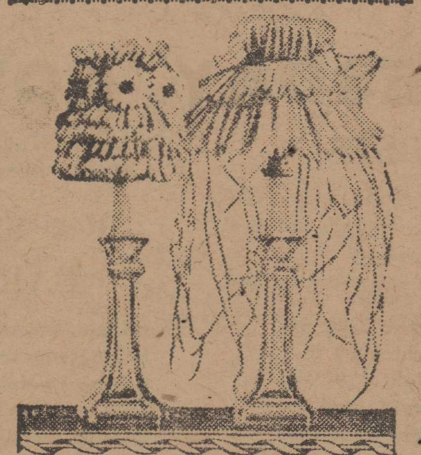

It goes without saying that bags of all sorts are among those gifts that are always welcome. There are many new ones this year made of coarse canvas, or unbleached linen and trimmed with narrow satin ribbon and ribbon flowers. Baby ribbon may be drawn through the interstices of the canvas. Drawing threads out of either the canvas or linen makes it possible to weave wider ribbons over and under the remaining threads, in borders or ornaments. Flowers cut from cotton or linen, in various colors, are applied to the linen bags and buttonholed along their edges with cotton floss or yarn. A case for holding playing cards and a bag which may be put to various uses are shown above in gifts suited to either men or women.

Sweets for Christmas

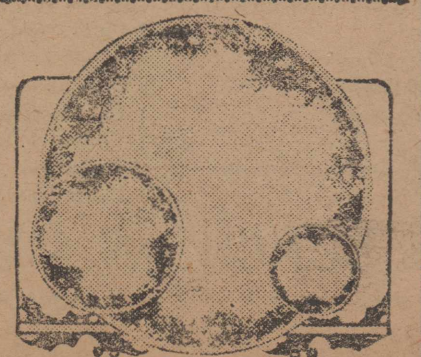

You cannot think of anyone who will not be delighted to receive a gift like that illustrated here. It is a half-dozen glasses filled with jelly, preserves and marmalade, very attractively arranged in a wicker basket. The tin covers of the glasses are lacquered with black lacquer and a white gummed letter is placed in the center of each one. A spray of fruit or blossoms painted on the lid with sealing wax, together with the letter, tells the kind of jelly or preserves the glass contains, as apple, with a spray of apple blossoms and the letter "A," or currant with a cluster of currants and foliage and the letter "C." Sealing wax in several colors simulates shirred ribbon on the center glass which contains marmalade.

Christmas Candles

This year's candle shades made of gay silks or of crepe paper are shown in such variety that every one may be pleased. Sparkling silver tinsel strays over some of them, adding a holiday glitter to the pretty colors through which the light gleams. A shade decorated in this way is shown at the right of the two pictured. At the left a foundation of plain paper is covered with ruffles of crepe paper in two alternating colors. In this case white and green, and has daisies made of paper set about it.

Oil Cloth Table Sets

No housewife will fail to enjoy the new table sets of oilcloth with their cheerful borders of gay flowers and fruits. They are much handsomer than the stenciled pieces and many women use them for the dinner as well as the breakfast table. These sets consist of a centerpiece, plate doilies and smaller doilies. The fruits and flowers in the set are in their natural colors and the cloth in a deep cream.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

Floyd County Poultry Show

Every one should avail themselves of the opportunity to visit the big poultry show to be held at Lockney the last of the week. This show will continue for three days and will probably be the largest ever held in Floyd County. The entries are to be there Thursday afternoon and remain till five Saturday evening. Get your birds in on time and help make this show a good one. If you do not have any entries go any way and see what others have. The poultry business is one of the leading industries of the plains. The net income from poultry is equal to our wheat crop. There are a lot of fine fowls of different kinds here.

On Saturday at 2 p. m. we shall hold a poultry school in the show room and you should not miss this phase of the work. There will be some good addresses on the practical poultry business. Different subjects will be discussed at that time: including the importance of culling out non-layers, feeding hens for winter egg production, and other kindred subjects. The speakers will probably be Mr. Lipscom, the judge, Mr. Miller both of Plainview and T. Scott Wilson, County Agent, and perhaps other local speakers.

Also the boys and girls club show will be held there at the same place and every club member in the county is urged to come and bring his exhibits, pigs, chickens, turkeys, sheep, calves, grain sorghums, and other things you have to enter. It does not make any difference whether you have finished your record book or not we want your exhibits there and we want you there on Saturday. Also we want the others who are not members to come and see what we have and next year join us. Club members should bring record books complete.

Club Stories

If all the boys and girls in Floyd County had the same encouragement that two of the club members have the county agents troubles would be over with respect to the club work. These two youths are to be congratulated. These two are so lucky as to be the son and daughter of J. E. Lee, of Lockney. Louis has one of the best Poland China gilts in the county. This studious farmer of only 14 years takes as much interest in his father's pigs as his own. His sister Ellie, 11, has ten fine red chickens and is putting them into this show. She can catch these giants at will and knows every one from the other. These two club members have cared for these animals according to instruction and have kept them in pens so that they have accurate records.

I know a boy who bought a pig for $25.00 for the club. This boy's father declared to the county agent that the boy could not join the club any more as he had no place to keep the pig but this pig heard the conversation and she won a $5.00 and a $25.00 premium. The last in the form of a pig for next year. So the boy is in again. This big gilt was offered the show for $75 but did not sell. She later sold in public sale for $212.00. This boy is Albert, the son of Sheriff Grigsby.

From Dallas News

"One half million pounds of wool to date, and all the mohair in its possession, have been sold by the Farm Bureau Wool Association, according to Walton Petzet.

"The mohair was sold on a basis of 23 cents and the straight kid was sold for 50 cents. Some of the wool was sold as high as 63 cents per pound, whereas the same wool last spring, before being turned over to the association and being graded was offered by growers at 9 cents.

"The wool has been sold direct to the mills in the Northeastern States. The association is said to have on hand 800,000 pounds in addition to the 500,000 pounds already sold."

Since more than two cars of this wool in the pool is from Floyd county it is of great interest to us. It is anticipated that those who have wool in this association will receive about twice the amount of those who shipped individually to commission houses. A Kansas City firm has just recently remitted for last years clip which has been held for more than a year. Many of the Floyd county wool growers being the recipients of the pittance which is not much in excess of the cash advance allowed the growers this year who had the faith to pool with the Farm Bureau. For the first time our wool sold according to grade. Cotton From Floyd in Farm Bureau Pool

The Farm Bureau's first shipment of cotton from Floyd county was loaded onto the platform Friday. This shipment consisted of 23 bales grown by Mr. L. A. Williams and A. W. Dunn and son Joe. This cotton will go to Lubbock where it will be compressed and thence to Galveston for export. The growers were allowed to draw $25 per bale and after it is loaded by the expert they will receive another $25 cash advance per bale and when the cotton is sold they will receive all it brings less the cost of handling it. Any cotton and wool grower may well investigate the results and profits by joining the Farm Bureau. This organization is busy all the time making the members money and can do a vast deal of good if properly supported and the more members the association gets the more it can do.

Of course, the cotton and wool buyers knock it and say all kinds of things against it but do you blame them? It is taking away a large share of their fat profit. Legitimate buyers and other business men are necessary but they do not abuse their advantages. A good business man does not fight his competitor but gets his share of business by giving the best service in his power.

Co-operative marketing is here to stay. When founded on good business principles and continued in an altruistic method there is nothing to prevent success. The farmer is entitled to cost of production plus a reasonable profit. The power in union will give him this, but this power must not be abused for obtaining an exorbitant price for products or failure will be

By taking the good points from other organizations and profiting by the several years experience in California this organization has many advantages. GOOSE HUNTERS HAVE GOOD LUCK ON TUESDAY

Tuesday is the best day to go goose hunting and preferably the Tuesday before Thanksgiving.

A party of Plainview, Lockney and Floydada hunters Tuesday afternoon bagged nine big Mallard ducks and two geese northeast of Lockney. The hunt is "newspaperstuff" on account of the geese, duck stories being too numerous to get under the wire.

The party was comprised of P. B. and K. Barker of Plainview, A. P. Barker and R. C. Ramsey of Lockney, R. C. Henry, B. K. Barker and R. E. Fry of Floydada.

As a possibly interesting part of the story it should be mentioned that the two geese, very large ones, unusually large, were killed at one shot by B. K. Barker, who presented one to his father for Thanksgiving and one to Mayor Fry. Other local hunters, likely, envious of Mr. Barker's prowess and the fact that he is the first to bring down a goose this season, will hoot at this story. However, it is admitted by the hero and vouched for by Mr. Henry and the mayor.

LEARN BUSINESS AT WEATHERFORD

It is no longer necessary for young people of this part of Texas to travel long distances to reach a school qualified to teach them practical office methods. There is now a school at Weatherford, the Texas Business College, that offers every advantage of Eastern schools in preparing young men and women for well paid office positions. A unique feature of the training is a special course in "How to Market Your Services." This instruction teaches students how to get and hold the better class of positions and no extra charge is made for this novel service. A Home Study Department is another new feature for those who find it impossible to go to Weatherford. The new term opens just after the Christmas holidays. Write the President, T. H. Ever Welcome Gifts

If a Christmas were to come and go without leaving with us pincushions, pin-holders, garters and other pretty furbelows made of ribbon, it would be remembered with something of disappointment. A heart-shaped pincushion, a small bag for holding pins and a pair of ribbon-covered garters represent a few of many ribbon novelties for the holidays.

For the Hostess

Gifts that every woman who entertains will delight in are pictured here and they will be all the more appreciated because they are made by their donor. A set of numbers for card tables is attractive and easy to make. They are cut from white cardboard and have gummed figures in black placed on one side. On this black and white background graceful sprays of gay flowers are painted and the cards are supported by small wire holders.

Bits of Splendor

Plain wide satin ribbon and narrow fancy ribbons, with handsome metallic mounts, are used to make these elegant shopping bags. Ribbons in the richest qualities and most brilliant patterns are chosen for them and they are lined with gay and equally good silks. Besides being bits of the splendor dear to women these bags have the additional value that belongs to a gift made by its donor.

Gay Bungalow Caps

NEWS OF MATADOR

Motley County News: Known as the Floyd County of the Baptist Church, Miscoe, Floyd, Crosby, of Hale counties, regular monthly meeting at Matador Baptist Church, Tuesday week. as a gathering of the church and more particularly in the of the Seventy-Five Million sign. out thirty of the sixty organiza- tions to the association were ed and others sent encourag- ing. Of the churches report- ed at one or two had gone over in raising the quota of the had been assigned to them. interesting program was and a big feast afforded at hour. The visitors, about number, were entertained in of the members of the lo-sion this week, and in addition to transacting the regular routine of business has been engrossed in the consideration of several matters of more or less import.

The much discussed proposition of the route of the cardinal road leading from Matador to the Floyd county line was up for disposition and contending interests were fully presented. The question involved was whether or not the route now in use, which is known as the Northern one, or that on a direct, or section lines should be pursued.

It was finally decided to start the whole proposition anew and it is our information that a petition will be circulated, asking that the Northern route be declared the public highway.

After a brief interruption, the cause of which was quickly removed, work on well No. 1, at Whiteflat was resumed Monday, and it now looks like nothing can stop the development from being pushed to completion.

The November term of the District Court of Motley county, has been accompanied by considerable interest, but no important jury cases have been tried.

G. W. Ellis and family, of Floydada, were here attending the Workers' Meeting at the Baptist church, and visiting at the home of Mrs. Ellis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cook Harris.

W. K. Jackson, teacher of violin in Wayland Baptist College at Plainview, is giving a portion of his time to violin pupils in Floydada each week.

Mr. Jackson was here last week and arranged for his classes. He will appear in the benefit program tomorrow night at the City Park Auditorium.

Judge J. N. Stalbird, of Lockney, was a business visitor in Floydada Saturday for a short time.

WHO IS THIS?

"Bix" in Lincoln Journal: The other day we received a telephone call. "Who is this?" inquired the operator at the other end of the line. "Whom do you want?" we responded without hesitation. This is the courteous thing: When you call a number and someone answers, first state who you are and then name the one with whom you wish to converse. And don't for the love of heaven and your own self-respect as an intelligent being in stating who you are, add to that bit of information that you are "speaking". It is a thing so damnably obvious, so brutally apparent, as it were, that to say you are speaking to those who hear you speak, reflects upon their intelligence and brings your own into serious question.

TEXAS PRINTER GETS BACK AT DOCTOR IN HIS OWN COIN

Charley Harris, a printer of Fort Worth, got slightly peeved at a letter from a doctor who wanted bids on several thousand letter heads, different sizes, different grades and different colors, and wanted the printing form held standing. So Charley took his typewriter in hand and wrote as follows, according to Kansas City Post:

"Am in the market for bids on one operation for appendicitis. One, two, or five inch incision—with or without either—also with or without nurse. If appendix is found to be sound, want quotations to include putting same to be in the market for an operation for gall stones at that time and want to save the cost of cutting."

Judge at Memphis Releases Prisoners Held Illegally Under High Court Ruling

At a hearing held here Sunday night, granted under a writ of habeas corpus, District Judge Nabers held that four of the men recently arrested in a raid on Pin Creek in this county and held under bonds, after an examining trial, charged with unlawful possession of whiskey-making apparatus, were illegally restrained of their liberty and issued an order commanding Sheriff Pressley to release them.

The order also called for the release of A. O. Yancey held on the additional charge of unlawfully possessing intoxicating liquor.

The proceedings were the result of a decision by Justice Lattermore, of the Court of Criminal Appeals, who held that the Dean law, as amended by the last legislature does not make it illegal to possess whiskey making apparatus and that it must be proved that the possession of liquor is for the "purpose of sale."

The evidence in the case of the men liberated showed that the officers, after laying in wait all night near four barrels of mash located in canyon, arrested four of the parties who were approaching the mash each carrying separate parts of a still and that Yancey was found in possession of 11 1-2 gallons of whiskey, which he was preparing to bury in a cotton field. No denial was made of this evidence in the examining trial or in the habeas corpus proceedings.—Memphis Democrat.

Sheriff J. A. Grigsby spent the first of the week in Colorado City on official business.

Milder temperatures and sunshine have followed in the wake of the cold wave.

BIG PLANS FOR POULTRY SHOW AT LOCKNEY

Opening Today Many Birds to be Shown—Other News Items of Interest from The Beacon

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 24, 25 and 26, will mark the dates for the fall show of the Floyd County Poultry Association.

There will be three days of the biggest poultry exhibit ever inaugurated in the South Plains. There is expected to be five hundred birds on exhibit. Poultry raisers from every section of Floyd county will be here, and every variety of chickens raised in this country will be on exhibit.

They will exhibit everything from bantams to turkeys, all varieties and sizes. There will be some stuff shown here, not only of state-wide reputation but out of state reputation. Mr. H. Coleman will exhibit his Dallas Fair first premium cockerel, in the Partridge Wyandotte class. The writer is after him, and will have here Ohio's State Fair premium cockerel, which is coming with a pen of five, four pullets and one cockerel, we have purchased from one of the national breeders.

Mr. J. M. Lipscom, an expert poultry judge, of Plainview, will judge our chickens. He will be here two days and will give out any information desired as to poultry raising, judging, etc. Thursday is entrance day, Friday the judging day and Saturday the show day proper.

In addition to the Poultry Show County Agent Wilson will conduct a show for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Floyd County. This show will be independent of the County Poultry Show. The Clubs will have their own prizes and their chickens will be judged separately. Their chickens will not compete in the Association exhibits.

During the three days show Mr. Wilson will conduct a poultry culling exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sams returned Wednesday from Greenville, and we understand that they will be with us from now on. Uncle Andy has lots of friends in this section who will be glad to know that he and his most estimable wife are back home. They are both enjoying reasonable good health this winter.

Miss Mary Bosley of Floydada is here this week visiting with her uncle, Marshall Davis.

FIRST REAL COLD FOLLOWED BY GOOD WEATHER

The first real cold of the winter came last Friday when lower temperatures followed a cold wave which swept down from the north. Early Friday appearances indicated possible snow, but no moisture fell, and Friday night was clear cold. Temperature was around 20 degrees above zero Saturday morning early.

Why Buick Valve-in-Head Motors Have More Power

Internal combustion motors are heat engines. The more heat retained in their cylinders, the more power they generate.

Water-jacketing space absorbs heat.

Buick Valve-in-Head motors have about 20% less water-jacketing space than the L Head type and about 15% less than the T Head type.

That is one of the reasons why Buick Valve-in-Head motors have more power.

Thanksgiving Week!

Everybody in the country, and especially in Floyd County, ought to be sincerely thankful this year.

There are hundreds of reasons for being thankful and mighty few for NOT being thankful. The man without a bank account is about the only one who has a reason for not being able to celebrate properly, and his isn't a REASON—it's an EXCUSE!

Will there ever be a better time to start one? WE THINK NOT!

Will there ever be a better place to keep your account than with the FIRST STATE BANK?

people of our territory would admit such a possibility. Government bonds are higher, securities of all kinds show an improved market and sound conditions prevail. Failures in this territory have been few and these failures largely among those who failed to recognize the laws of economics, accept their losses, cut off their liabilities, quit paying too much interest, and start rebuilding on a basis of character and integrity.

The lack of housing facilities for schools, needs for more public facilities and extensions of improvements in this respect, all pressing problems of every community on the plains, the speaker declared should receive attention only after considering the taxation burden, which has grown greatly in the period of inflation. Moderation in these improvements should be the keynote.

Paying a tribute to man's wife Mr. Underwood declared that home building should be encouraged and pointed to the fact that the disturbances following the war have not come from the class of people who own their own homes. His talk was received with hearty applause.

A particular interest among the reports, was the report of the roads committee which stated that all roads leading into the county with one exception are in good condition. This road will not be a trouble except in the case of heavy rains. A new road connecting Floydada over a highway with Spur 10 in the southeast is one of the possibilities of the near future. Approximately twelve miles of new road must be opened to complete this road in the southeast part of the county. A report of view is expected to report on opening of the road to the next session of the Commissioners' Court in the county. The commissioners with favor on the project, it was declared. Some sections on the F. F. F. highway, outside of Floyd county, need attention and the committee composed of Chas. Trowbridge, Ira D. Gamble and L. C. McDonald are going to use their influence to get these in condition before spring.

The Civic Committee, after a tour of inspection, made a written report in which attention was called to some neglect in maintaining Floydada's reputation as the "cleanest town in the panhandle." Several cleaning jobs were called to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce and will be referred to the city officials.

Messrs. Underwood, Butler and Anderson were guests of the Chamber of Commerce by special invitation and their addresses were highly valued, it was declared following the adjournment of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Stanley spent last Thursday and Friday at Bovina, Texas, visiting G. T. Wakefield and family.

CHINOOK JARGON STILL CURRENT IN NORTHWEST

The Chinook jargon, the prevalent means of communication in pioneer days between traders of all nations and the Indians, is still heard in the Northwest when old settlers meet in reunion or at pioneer picnics. The jargon is said to date back to the early part of the eighteenth century, when English and Spanish navigators adopted certain vowels and consonants to convey their meanings to the Indians. The dialect grew in the course of the years, until finally words were evolved to express almost every idea that might occur. It was the universal language during the early trading period, and was known by Indians, English, French, Spaniards and Americans alike. One of the first things a settler did when coming to the Northwest was to learn Chinook so that he could converse with the Indians. Each tribe had a language of its own but all knew Chinook.

Some of the most common Chinook expressions and their meanings are as follows: Klahowya, good morning; kahtah mika, what ails you; kumtux mika Boston wawa, do you understand English; kah mika klap okeke opalo, where did you catch that trout; kahta mika, how are you; chaoc yah-kaw, come here, friend; abba, very well; Boston man, American; chil, stars; chuck, water; ki-nooti, tobacco; cultus, worthless; moo-lok, elk; tilikum, friend; tintin, musical instrument; siwash, Indian; skookum, strong, and suk-wal-al, gun.

Some of these words have become fairly current in the Northwest. In ordinary speech a man often refers to a dear friend as his "tilicum," a person who is of little account is often called "cultus", and "skookum" is often applied to a man of great strength or physical vigor.

BABY IN WELL IS SAVED BY SHOE STRINGS

Athens, Nov. 20.—The 1-year-old baby of Bruce Hall, who lives near Mabank, Texas, fell into a well while Mr. Hall was drawing water. The well was a bored one and as the bucket was half way up the child's body could not pass. Grab hooks were made and they succeeded in catching a shoe string on the child's shoe and pulled it out. It was unhurt except for a few scratches.
