

Floyd County's First Quota is Sixty-Six Men

STATE OF TEXAS WILL FURNISH 29,314 MEN ON FIRST DRAFT TO COLORS

Floyd County will furnish under the Selective Draft a total of 66 men to the colors. The quota for Texas as announced from Washington on first call will be 29,314 men. This is based on a new estimate on population issued by the Census Bureau, which credits Texas with a total population of 4,397,097, and Floyd County with 9,882. The 1910 census gave Floyd County a population of 4,639, which is an increase in seven years of 113 per cent. The Census Bureau estimates the increase in the state at large at 13 per cent.

Dispatches indicate that the Provost Marshal General's office estimates that 50 per cent of the total number called will be exempt, and it is expected, therefore, that 136 names will be chosen from the 924 persons registered in this county, in order to obtain the 66 persons.

Credit will be given each county for the present enlistments in the National Guard, the Navy, the Army and other branches of the National Service, which will cut the draft in this county to about 50 persons to be chosen. In many counties the volunteers far exceed the number which would be called under the draft.

The population of ten counties (Hockley and Cochran combined with Lubbock) including Floyd, and the number of registrants estimated to be taken (on a basis of two-thirds of one per cent of the population) follows:

Co.	Pop.	No. to Draft
Floyd	9,882	66
Crosby	7,865	58
Hale	12,039	80
Motley	4,399	30
Swisher	4,582	31
Briscoe	2,854	19
Dickens	5,944	39
Lubbock	11,792	79

THE SELECTIVE DRAFT DRAWING

It now appears certain that the War Department will draw all the numbers covering the entire registration of 10,000,000 men in the United States, and that these men will be called before the exemption boards in the order in which their numbers are drawn. This will mean that every man in Floyd County who registered will have his number drawn and that he will know as soon as it is made public in just what order he may be expected to report to the County Board.

Just as soon as the War Department completes the drawing and makes it public, The Hesperian will publish it in its entirety in such a shape as to show at a glance the consecutive order in which they are drawn, so that any registered man can pick out his number,—that is, the number that has been assigned to him on the registration lists, and then tell instantly what number in the drawing his registered number represents.

By preserving the issue of The Hesperian of July 12, containing the serial registration numbers and the issue that will contain the results of the drawing you will have a complete record of every registered man in the county and the order in which each will be called.

A parade of the members of the Floyd County Auxiliary of the Red Cross was staged on the principal streets of Floydada Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, calling attention in a marked way to the work which the organization is undertaking.

These were followed by a number of members of the Red Cross dressed as Red Cross nurses, and floats and autos followed presenting in tableau and decorative effect the various forms of relief work the Red Cross is doing and the need existing for assisting the cause.

RAINS CONTINUE; 1.7 INCHES OF RAINFALL HERE

Rains over Floyd County, and the south plains, which, however, still lack some of having given all the moisture needed in a few sections of the country, have proven highly valuable to grass and growing crops and late planting. Stubble breaking has also been given a big impetus. In portions of the county the season has been thorough, though this is not true in the immediate vicinity of Floydada.

One and 7-10 inches of rain fell during the period from Sunday afternoon until Wednesday morning. Several miles northeast of Floydada, a strip of hail did considerable damage to crops, about six farms being in the strip.

Wheat threshing, for the most part, has been delayed by the rains.

Central, south, southwestern Texas and the south portion of the South Plains, have not reported rains in the daily papers. A strip apparently 100 miles wide north and south by 500 miles east and west across the state has been the principal recipient of the rains, which have not filled all the requirements of good general season.

Taken as a whole, the state is drier than it has been in many years.

Common School District Trustees First Convene

JUDGE THOMPSON SPEAKING AT FLOYDADA, VENUE AUGUST

What is considered a new feature in school circles of this state is the convention of the common school district trustees of Floyd County, which has been set for August sixth at Floydada. At this meeting round table discussions of the problems of school work viewed from the trustees standpoint will be the main feature. Officials of the independent school districts in the county are not included in the list of persons who will be asked to take part in the days' discussions. These boards do not come under the supervision of the county board and in many ways the problems of the rural school are not in common with the problems of the independent districts.

The program for the day has been arranged and is being mailed out this week to the ninety-three common school district trustees in the county, and each is being urged to attend the convention. Superintendent Thompson, secretary of the county board, who is sponsoring the movement, thinks that the convention should prove of unusual value to the school interests in the county. The board has not announced the details of the meeting arrangements, except as to the program, which is given herewith:

1. Opening Address, A. J. Blackwell
2. Purpose of and benefits derived from trustee meetings, E. C. Nelson.
3. Efficiency, inefficiency of our schools, (round table discussion) led by, Homer Howard.
4. What we may do in order to bring about a better unity of our schools in the County (round table discussion) led by, C. C. Krause.
5. What we demand of our teachers, and how we assist them in meeting our demands. (Round table discussion) led by, J. A. Weathers.
6. Does the present curriculum meet the issues of the times? (Discussion) led by, C. P. Julian.
7. Are High Schools in reach of our children? (Discussion) led by, Earl Rainer.
8. A systematic plan giving every boy and girl in the County an opportunity for an industrial education, R. E. L. Muncy.

RECESS WAS CALLED

A real estate agent was testifying in court recently in a case involving the exchange of a picture show for a farm. It was contended that the theatre was not worth what it was represented, owing to its locality. The attorney asked the witness to state what the surroundings of the theatre were. "Next door to it was a shoe shining place," he answered, "then came a garage, and next was a saloon, and that's as far as I got." When the excitement subsided, the judge observed that that was a good place to stop, and the customary mid-session recess was called.—Indianapolis News.

How often is this question asked, not only of the small, but the big business man?

If you have a small account at the bank mind to increase it. You cannot tell when you may need extra cash to extend your business. If you are right at the bank you not only have the cash at hand, but the bank will help you with a loan. A community is judged by the number and the standing of its banks. LOCKNEY BEACON EDITOR OUT OF POLITICS

Ben F. Smith, of Lockney, publisher of The Lockney Beacon, has retired from politics. Differences with the administration as to the manner in which the West Texas A. & M. College was given to Abilene is the cause. In a statement issued through The Beacon last week Mr. Smith declares that the school was not fairly given to Abilene, and especially criticises the action of Messrs. Fuller, Hobby and Davis.

Mr. Smith had given his support to Snyder in the campaign for the location of the school. That town received two votes on the now famous second ballot, Abilene two, and Amarillo one, according to statements of members of the board; to which he calls attention in the article. Simultaneously with the appearance of the article in his paper Mr. Smith wired his resignation to the State Fire Insurance Commission as State Fire Inspector. As an appointee of Governor Ferguson we do not feel like giving the vote to the people, but as a humble newspaper man, free and untrampled by political alliance, we will continue this fight against the West Texas A. & M. locating board in the interest of West Texas and the Panhandle. The writer has lived in West Texas 14 years, we love this country, we love the people, and their interest is above the matter of personal interest. We are giving up voluntarily a good salary, but as a newspaper man we propose to untie our hands that we may handle men and measures untrampled. It is our intention to never again accept personal service of a political nature, and devote all our time to West Texas and the Panhandle, in the advocacy of moral issues, material development, etc."

PERSHING URGES THAT TROOPS BE COURTEOUS

Paris.—General Pershing wants his men to be not only perfect soldiers, but equally perfect gentlemen.

In one of the first army orders the American commanded-in-chief issued on French soil, he appeals to the chivalry of his troops, urges them to treat the French people, especially the women, with the greatest courtesy and consideration. The laws and customs of France, he says, must be faithfully observed. The order, which was issued Saturday night, is as follows:

"It should be a point of honor for each member of the American army to avoid doing the least damage to any property in France which would stain the good name of the United States.

"The maintenance of cordial relations between the United States and France requires perfect deportment on the part of the soldiers.

"The valiant deeds of the French army and the unusual sacrifices of the civilian population command our profound respect."

Gen. Pershing had some words of warm praise and appreciation Saturday for the hearty response accorded him and his force in France. He spoke particularly of the Fourth of July celebration.

"This celebration," he said, "testified to the deepest feeling. It was almost overwhelming to see how women and children clung to the arms of our soldiers, during the march, treating them as though they were their own men.

"Everything is proceeding in the most satisfactory manner."

Last Friday afternoon the residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Reeves and owned by Uncle Wash Nichols, caught fire from the explosion of an oil stove and was completely destroyed, together with its contents. A Victrola and a few other articles were saved.

The citizens responded as soon as the alarm was given and did all they could to save the building, but to no avail, as the fire had gotten too far under way. It took good work by the bucket brigade to save the home of Sam Farnsworth.

Insurance was carried on both building and contents.

"HOME CARDS" WILL AID IN FOOD CONSERVATION

GENERAL RULES FOR SAVING IN THE HOME ANNOUNCED BY COMMISSIONER HOOVER.

Washington, D. C., July 10.—The food economies which Herbert C. Hoover of the food Administration desires to suggest to the American people were officially promulgated today.

They constitute the cardinal principles of the Food Campaign and are set forth in clear type on a small card in terms so definite and concise that all will know exactly what and how to save.

The reading of the card, which is printed in full below shows that to follow its suggestions entails no real hardships. The rules are concise and simple. Less wheat, meat, milk, fats, sugar and fuel. More fruit, vegetables, foods that are not suitable to be sent to camps or firing lines. No limiting the food of growing children: not eating by anyone of more food than is needed. Buying food that is grown close to the home.

Is any of these too hard? United States Food Administration. Win the war by giving your own daily service.

Save the wheat—One wheatless meal a day. Use corn, oatmeal, rye or barley bread and non-wheat breakfast foods. Order bread twenty-four hours in advance so your baker will not bake beyond his needs. Cut the loaf on the table and only as required. Use stale bread for cooking, toast, etc. Eat less cake and pastry.

Our wheat harvest is far below normal. If each person weekly saves one pound of wheat flour that means 150,000,000 more bushels of wheat for the Allies to mix in their bread. This will help them to save Democracy.

Save the meat—Beef, mutton or pork not more than once daily. Use freely vegetables and fish. At the meat meal serve smaller portions, and stew instead of steaks. Make made-dishes of all left-overs. Do this and there will be meat enough for every one at a reasonable price.

We are today killing the dairy cows and female calves as the result of high prices. Therefore, eat less and eat no young meat. If we save an ounce of meat each day per person, we will have additional supply equal to 2,200,000 cattle.

Save the milk—The children must have milk. Use butter milk and sour milk for cooking and making cottage cheese. Use less cream.

Save the fats—We are the world's greatest fat wasters. Fat is food. Butter is essential for the growth of children. Use butter on the table as usual but not in cooking. Other fats are as good. Reduce use of fried foods. Soap contains fats. Do not waste it. Make your own washing soap at home out of the saved fats.

Use one-third ounce less per day of animal fat and 375,000 tons will be saved yearly.

Save the sugar—Sugar is scarce. We use today three times as much per person as our Allies. So there may be enough for all at reasonable price. Use less candy and sweet drinks. Do not stint sugar in putting up fruit and jams. They will save butter.

If every one in America saves one ounce of sugar daily, it means 1,100,000 tons for the year.

Save the fuel—Coal comes from a distance and our railways are overburdened hauling war material. Help relieve them by burning fewer fires. Use wood when you can get it.

Use the perishable foods—Fruits and vegetables we have in abundance. As a nation we eat too little green stuffs. Double their use and improve your health. Store potatoes and other roots properly and they will keep. Begin now to can or dry all surplus garden products.

Use local supplies—Patronize your local producer. Distance means money. Buy perishable food from the neighborhood nearest you and thus save transportation.

GENERAL RULES

Buy less, serve smaller portions. Preach the "Gospel of the Clean Plate."

Don't eat a fourth meal.

Don't limit the plain food of growing children.

Watch out for the waste in the community.

Full garbage pails in America mean empty dinner pails in America and Europe.

If the more fortunate of our people will avoid waste and eat no more than they need, the high cost of living problem of the less fortunate will be solved.

United States Food Commissioner.
