UIL moves Snyder to new district Opponents are Lamesa, Dunbar, Estacado, Levelland and Frenship

The University Interscholastic League, in its two-year realignment of school districts, announced today it has lifted Snyder out of the old District 4-4A and put the Tigers and Lamesa in with Lubbock Dunbar and Estacado, Levelland and Frenship in a new District 2.

In another UIL realignment of area interest, Borden County will jump back into a six-man football district with Hermleigh and Ira, as well as Loraine, Highland and Trent. Borden County had been district football rivals with Sands, Dawson, Wellman and others to the west in recent years.

The 4A realignment surprised most coaches, who see a cutback in travel time as its greatest benefit to the Snyder program.

"Obviously the travel aspect will be to our advantage with the new alignment," said Larry Scott, SHS boys' basketball coach. "Our longest trip will be about two hours and fifteen minutes to Levelland."

Scott said there is little new about playing the teams that will be his new district foes.

"We've been playing Estacado, Dunbar, Levelland and Lamesa for years," he said. "In fact, we've played them all this season (in basketball). We had tentatively scheduled a game with Frenship next year. The level of competition in that group will be just as high, maybe more so."

Snyder High School athletic director and head football coach, David Baugh, was in Lubbock in a scheduling meeting and was unavailable for comment.

It had been predicted that Lamesa would rejoin Class 4A after a two-year stint in 3A, and that Monahans would drop down to 3A. The Lobos, however, stayed in Class 4A.

Snyder was the only school to be omitted from the old 4-4A — "old" because its new designation is now 3-4A. The district now includes Andrews, Big Spring, Fort Stockton, Monahans, San Angelo Lake View, Sweetwater, Pecos and Fort Stockton.

Mishap knocks out electrical power in some areas of city

TU Electric workers scrambled to restore power after a tractor-trailer rig mishap at 25th St. and Ave. Q knocked out electricity in parts of the downtown area for 65 minutes Wednesday afternoon.

TU Distribution Supt. Frank Beights today said the outage occurred when a derrick on a 1978 Kenworth rig driven by Earl Hardy of Ira and owned by Snyder Brick & Stone knocked TU and Southwestern Bell wires together.

"When the lines slapped together, they caused some of our fuses down the line to blow and interrupt this downtown area," Beights said.

The boundaries of the outage were north to south from 23rd to 29th Sts. and east to west from Aves. Q to T.

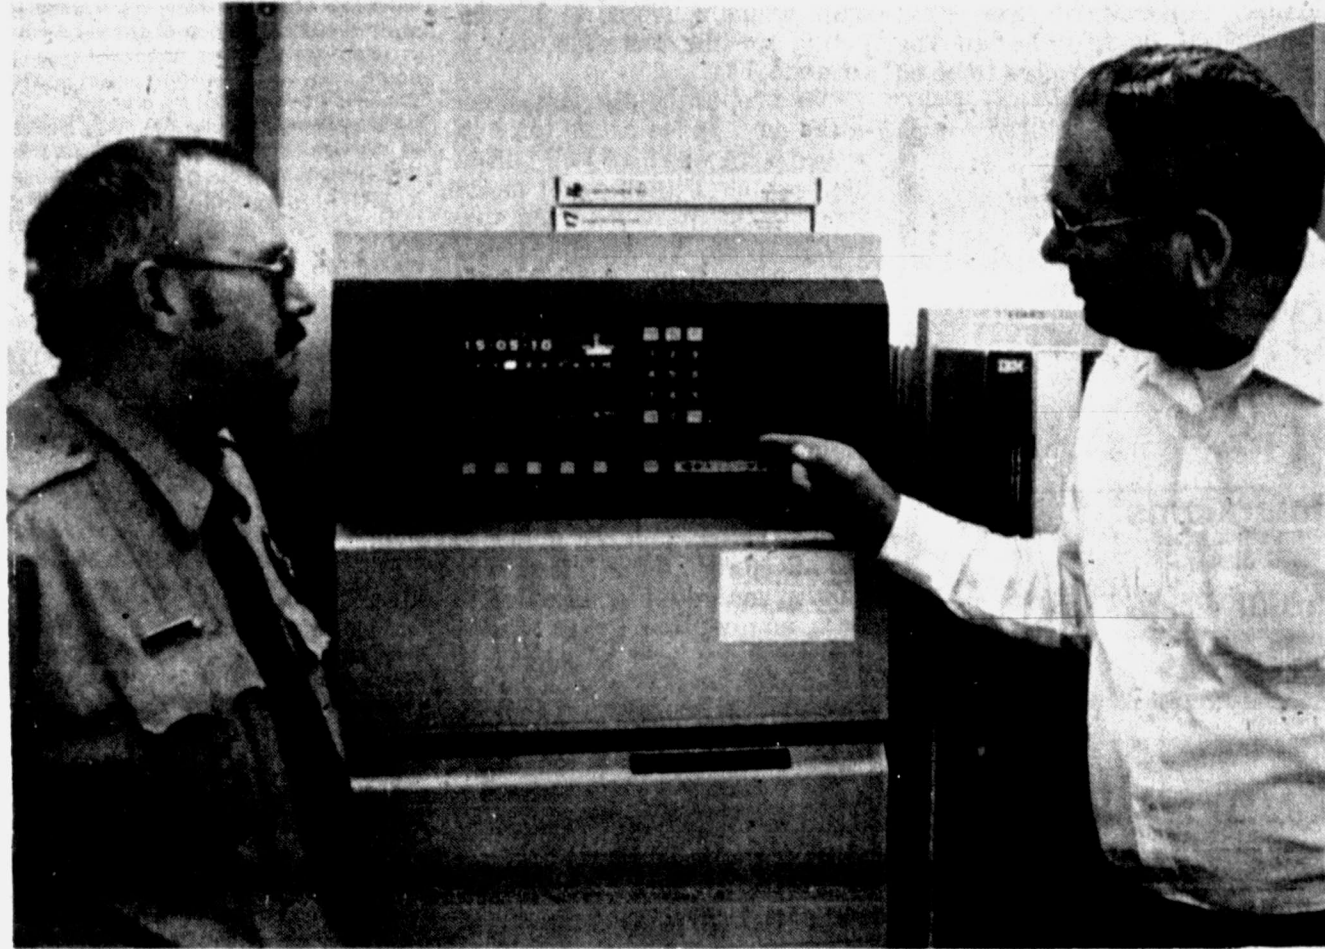

A total of 167 TU customers were without power, including West Texas State Bank, Snyder National Bank, City Hall, the police and fire departments and the county courthouse.

Beights said 152 of those customers had electricity restored in 20 minutes, but SNB and the north side of the downtown square were darkened for an hour and five minutes.

He noted that the whole town's electricity went off for an instant and then came back when the lines hit, explaining, "All of the Snyder area feeds from one transformer at the sub-station at Ave. E and 37th St., and any time there is a major failure in voltage at the transformer, it will drop severely for an instant until the device is cleared."

"If we had had a broken pole, we could have been out for a considerably longer period of time, probably about three hours. The protective devices worked and turned the power off and kept anybody from getting hurt, because we had wires on the ground."

"It wasn't as bad as it could have been."

Modern system major asset for local police

By BOB CAMPBELL
SDN Staff Writer

City police until early last month were handicapped with an obsolete and worn-out telephone recording system, but now are at the opposite extreme with some of the most modern equipment available.

City councilmen last year approved a $29,000 expenditure, at a 27-percent discount through the Houston Area Council of Governments, to buy a Dictaphone 9000 system, which has a number of features that Police Chief William E. "Bill" Stone says are a boon to police work.

"It helps us in many ways," he said. "One of the best is if you don't understand an excited caller, you can replay the tape immediately."

"It also helps train our dispatchers, to make sure they are getting the proper information."

The police chief cited an investigation detectives were conducting recently, when an anonymous caller named a local man as the culprit in a car theft. "We played him (the suspect) the tape, and he said, 'I know who that is. I stole the car, but let me tell you what he has done.'"

"That way, we made a case on both of them."

The installation of the system was supervised by Sgt. Jerry Parker, who noted that the old system had been used for 15 years.

Seniors, parents urged to attend aid workshop

Snyder High School seniors and their parents are encouraged to take advantage of a financial aid workshop scheduled at 7:30 p.m. today in the high school student center.

Corky Swanson, director of financial aid at McMurry College, will help inform students and their parents about college scholarships, grants and loans that are available, and the process of applying for them.

"This is a very important informational meeting for all high school seniors and their parents," said a school spokesman. "Many times, people are not aware of what is available to them. This meeting will help inform them."

Bush seeks major US, Soviet troop cutback in Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush, winning bipartisan acclaim in Congress, is proposing further deep cuts in U.S. and Soviet troop strength in Europe and declaring "that time has come" to swiftly conclude agreements limiting conventional, strategic and chemical weapons.

"Today, with communism crumbling, our aim must be to ensure democracy's advance," the president said Wednesday night in a State of the Union speech that blended his new troop withdrawal proposal with a pledge to withdraw the remainder of the U.S. invasion force from Panama by the end of the month.

In a surprise overture, Bush proposed cutting military manpower in Europe to 195,000 troops on each side, down from the 275,000 figure that was the U.S. bargaining position at conventional force negotiations in Vienna.

The president said he called Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev earlier in the day to inform him of the offer, which already had been endorsed by NATO allies. The move, Bush said, was a response to "the revolution of '89" in which he said (see BUSH, page 8)

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "A lot of people don't put their best foot forward until the other one is in hot water."

It ought to be a national holiday. Few days are more important than Ground Hog Day. Congress and the state legislatures should take more notice of this annual observance.

Tomorrow is Ground Hog Day, and only a few calendars even mention this key date. Ground Hog Day should be worthy of a day off, a Washington ceremony and perhaps even a parade.

What could be more important than learning if winter is almost over? Such news has a tremendous impact on the economy, and it is a tipoff to those in industry and commerce about the change in seasons and buying habits.

Folks in rural America have long known the importance of Ground Hog Day. If the ground hog emerges from his hole and sees his shadow on Feb. 2, he'll go back down and n... for another six weeks. If there's no shadow, then you can count on an early spring and summer.

Only elementary school children really have a feel for the importance of Ground Hog Day. In almost any classroom, there will be 20 to 25 perfectly-traced hogs on brown construction paper. In school, anyway, ground hogs get equal billing with George Washington.

Even though there is no "official" government observance, the "official" ground hog on which weather forecasters base their prediction is located in Pennsylvania. For those of us who like warm weather, we're glad the official ground hog is not located in the Sun Belt.

Personally, we prefer more government holidays. In fact, that may be one way to reduce the federal budget deficit. In lieu of pay raises, simply give the bureaucrats another federal holiday. The government needs out of the hole, and Ground Hog Day would be a symbolic starting place.

Q—Is there a law in Scurry County against poaching?

A—There is a law against poaching in Texas, which includes Scurry County. If you are aware of poaching going on you should contact your local game warden or "Operation Game Thief" at 1-800-792-GAME.

In Brief

Officers shot

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Two Fort Worth Police officers were wounded while attempting to serve a search warrant at a home in the city, a police spokesman says.

Spokesman Doug Clarke said Charles Lewis, 37, was in good condition at Harris Methodist Hospital early today. Ronald Brown, 34, was in fair condition, hospital spokeswoman Joan Mertz said.

Officers said two men and a woman were arrested after the shooting Wednesday. Their names were not immediately available, Clarke said.

Probation set

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge today placed Iran-Contra figure Albert Hakim on two years' probation, fined him $5,000 and announced that the businessman has agreed to surrender his claims to "millions of dollars" taken in the affair.

U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard Gesell said the Iranian-born Hakim had secured the release of David Jacobsen, a U.S. hostage held in Lebanon, and is cooperating with Iran-Contra prosecutors in a new criminal investigative matter.

To unify?

EAST BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's Communist premier today urged talks with West Germany toward an eventual "united fatherland" that would be independent of military blocs and governed by a joint parliament in Berlin.

The two Germans must work out a common approach to reunification to calm the unease of their European neighbors.

El Paso drug ring is linked to organization in Canada

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — Twelve marijuana bales seized in Spokane, Wash., were the first an El Paso family had contracted to deliver to a Canadian drug ring, federal officials said.

Authorities on Wednesday accused the members of the Dudley family of El Paso of attempting to negotiate multi-ton marijuana shipments from Mexico to a Montreal-based organization called the West End Gang. Other shipments, as much as $11 million worth, were to be flown into southern Alberta, prosecutors said.

Last week officials seized 252 pounds of marijuana at a Spokane motel and arrested members of the Dudley family.

"El Paso was to be the nexus of a major marijuana distribution organization, which was in the process of extending its operations to western Canada," said Debra Kanof, assistant U.S. attorney. Investigators released details Wednesday after a detention hearing for another member of the El Paso family.

Kenneth Dudley, 49, and his brother, Donald, 39, were arrested in Spokane Friday night.

They are scheduled for a bail hearing in Yakima, Wash., today.

Championship play to begin in Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Millions of finger-twitching Nintendo enthusiasts will test their skills in a nationwide Nintendo playoff that will begin in Dallas next month.

The Nintendo World Championship is expected to draw more than 40,000 video game enthusiasts, promoters said Wednesday.

Competition nationally could involve more than 1.2 million fantasy enthusiasts when it expands to 29 other cities.

Those who attend the competition will be able to test Nintendo of America Inc.'s latest software, called "Super Mario Bros. 3" at locations throughout the hall. The software is not expected to be on retail shelves until later this year.

"This game has more intricate and improved play features," said Dan Owsen of Nintendo, a self-described game wizard. "It also has better graphics — in fact, the best so far. It's (Mario) the most popular character we have."

The competition game will also combine the games Rad Race and Tetris.

Calling the championship "the Super Bowl of video games," Dallas promoter Danny Eaton said it will be held in 30 cities, with winners from each competing for the championship in Orlando, Fla.

"We are, in the current jargon of the day, Texas proud to be involved with what we feel will be the premier Dallas event of the year," said Mark Lee, another promoter.

Eaton said Nintendo is sponsoring the contest, but local promoters are arranging competitions in their towns.

The Nintendo World Championships will be March 8-11 at the Automobile Building in Fair Park, Eaton said.

A ticket to the championships costs $9.50 for children under 18 and $12.50 for adults. Those who want to compete pay an extra $3 for a competition ticket, Eaton said.

Your Birthday

Feb. 2, 1990

Exciting developments could be in the offing for you in the year ahead. Several projects which were last year's losers could be the big gainers in this time frame.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Persons with whom you'll be dealing today are likely to be as anxious to protect their interests as you are to protect yours. Don't expect concessions. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences which are governing you in the year ahead. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today by mailing $1.25 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Your first evaluation of developments is likely to be your most accurate today. This diminishes the longer you weigh and balance. Don't be afflicted with paralysis from overanalysis.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) If your material motivations are strong today, your chances for acquisition look reasonably hopeful, provided you're as good at closing as you are with your opening gambit.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Assessing matters realistically is not apt to be your problem today. Your headaches could come from your failure to act in accordance with your better judgment.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You'll be relatively astute in commercial matters today, but perhaps not quite as shrewd as a person with whom you'll be doing business. Be sure to keep your powder dry.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Don't make promises to a friend who request a favor today unless your intentions are serious. This person is counting on you and hard feelings will result if you renege.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) An individual who had no hand in one of your recent accomplishments might try to take bows today for your efforts. Set the records straight, so that he/she won't try to do it again.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This is one of those days when you might be judged by the opinions expressed by your companions. If you're not in accord with their views, make your own position clear.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Put the interests of your family and loved ones above all others today, even if you are put in a rather awkward position to where you have to make a choice.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Certain morals and principles by which you abide could be unpopular with your peers today. Don't dilute or lower your standards just to fit in with the group.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You might not receive everything to which you are entitled if you fail to stand up for your rights today. Being timid will feather the other guy's nest, not yours.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) In involvements today where teamwork is essential be sure to link up with individuals who can pull their weight. The endeavor will fail if you're harnessed with a weakling.

Coleman wins

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Gary Coleman defeated his mother's effort to take control of his $7 million fortune, despite her claim that she only wanted the best for the diminutive 21-year-old.

Edmonia Sue Coleman had asked a court conservator to take over Coleman's finances, saying the former "Diff'rent Strokes" star was unable to make decisions rationally because of the effects of a kidney disease and what she viewed as the bad influence of a close friend.

But on Wednesday, Superior Court Judge Martha Goldin disagreed.

"The very things you claim he doesn't have, he's got," Goldin told an attorney for Coleman's mother.

Coleman's attorney, Charles

Wake, said the actor was pleased.

"It was an emotional experience for him," said Wake.

Coleman, who played the precocious Arnold Jackson on the hit TV show, has filed a separate lawsuit alleging his parents and former business manager mishandled his money and funneled away more than $1 million for themselves. The lawsuit has yet to come to trial.

Coleman's mother said she is worried that her son is getting poor advice from his friend and former chauffeur, Dion Mial, with whom he lives in Denver.

"Gary is my son and I love him very much, regardless of what Mr. Wake says," said Mrs. Coleman. "And what I have done has been in Gary's best interest."

Dr. Gott Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Six months ago, I supposedly suffered congestive heart failure and was put on Lanoxin. Since then, I've suffered from diarrhea, headaches, excessive salivation, skin rash, vomiting and other symptoms. My former doctors were quick to point out I've had diabetes for 20 years, which probably caused the symptoms.

I researched Lanoxin and found it could produce all the effects I experienced. My doctor took me off it immediately, and things are returning to normal. Can a patient exhibit toxic effects of any medication that might not reach a dangerous level in the blood?

DEAR READER: Absolutely. Some people are highly sensitive to the effects of drugs and will experience many symptoms of toxicity — even though the drugs are properly administered in the appropriate quantity.

Lanoxin, purified digitalis, is a heart stimulant. It is a beneficial medicine that has a narrow therapeutic range, meaning there is little difference between the effective dose and the toxic dose.

For many patients with heart failure, newer drugs — such as enalapril — that reduce the work of the heart are more readily tolerated than older compounds, such as Lanoxin.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Consumer Tips on Medicines." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Is there any help for double vision? I'm an 80-year-old non-insulin diabetic with pernicious anemia. A brain scan revealed a mild stroke this past year, which left me with poor balance.

DEAR READER: The type of diplopia (double vision) you describe is probably due to an imbalance of the ocular muscles that control eye movement. You could be helped by using prism-lens glasses that correct for the inappropriate "wandering" of one eye, or you may need to use an eye patch — sometimes on one eye, sometimes on the other — to prevent the double image from disrupting your vision.

You should be examined by an ophthalmologist who will test you to find the precise cause of your problem and suggest a remedy.

Remember to pay attention to your medical afflictions, because diabetes, anemia and stroke can, if untreated, worsen your double vision, as well as cause other visual difficulties. You will need to follow a diabetic diet and the instructions given by your physician.

Also, vitamin B-12 injections are an antidote for your pernicious anemia and may help your diplopia. Finally, many stroke patients can avoid another attack if they take one aspirin a day; ask your doctor about this safe and inexpensive therapy.

School tax base holding steady

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas school districts in 1989 had as much of a property base from which to draw taxes as they did in 1988, officials say.

The tax base had fallen during the three previous years but held virtually steady in 1989, the State Property Tax Board said Wednesday.

"This occurred mainly because of improving business conditions and the gradual recovery of Texas real estate markets from previous overbuilding," said Tim Wooten, the tax board's deputy director for valuations.

The agency's preliminary 1989 property value study estimates the taxable value in Texas' 1,053 school districts at $644.3 billion as of Jan. 1, 1989, a drop of less than three-tenths of 1 percent from the level a year earlier. Taxable values rose in 479 school districts and fell in 574 others, the survey found.

State law requires the tax board to estimate taxable property values for each school district annually. The Texas Education Agency uses the estimates, among other factors, to determine the amount of state aid allocated to school districts for the upcoming school year.

Some types of property increased in value in 1989, while others declined further. Business equipment and inventories registered the biggest jump at 13 percent.

The value of oil, gas and minerals declined 5 percent, while that of rural real property was down 4 percent.

The State Property Tax Board also reported that statewide property tax appraisal levels improved for the fourth consecutive year in 1989.

Randy Travis gets nominated

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Randy Travis swept into the finals for five country music awards, including entertainer of the year and No. 1 male singer.

His other nominations announced Wednesday were for single of the year, "It's Just a Matter of Time," best music video, for the same song; and album of the year for "No Holdin' Back."

Travis dominated the balloting among readers of the Music City News, a monthly country music publication in Nashville. Winners will be determined in a second round of voting and will be announced at the TNN-Music City News Country Awards show at the Grand Ole Opry House on June 4, to be broadcast on cable TV's The Nashville Network.

McCormick tells of visit to India

The Scurry Charter Chapter of American Business Women's Association met Jan. 25 at Martha Ann Woman's Club. Genetha Payne led the group in the invocation.

Pam Murray, program chairman, introduced Barbara McCormick who spoke of her trip to India in December of 1988 and January of 1989. Mrs. McCormick told the group that India is divided into three states and some of them look like Mexico.

Jewelry is inexpensive in India, according to Mrs. McCormick. She said paper is not used in the schools and the houses are made of mud with glass roofs and no running water or indoor restrooms.

She said that in India, water must be boiled before consumption. They do not have soft drinks, but lots of rice. They have many bicycles but no cars, and town markets are open on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Indians used a large amount of brass until some five years ago when stainless steel was introduced to them. Some two years ago, plastic took the place of stainless steel.

As in several foreign countries, people must take off their shoes before entering a house in India, then they must sit on the floor.

Shirley Miller, vocational chairman, introduced Barbara Scrivner who is employed at Snyder Daily News and K-Mart.

She told the group about the different jobs she does at the newspaper office. Her duties include answering the telephone, taking advertisements, and receiving subscription payments.

She also gave members an idea of the prices for different size ads.

Ruby Deavers, vice president, introduced Shirley Miller, who is employed at West Texas State Bank, as member of the month.

Mrs. Deavers also reported on the spring tea which will be held March 22. Deborah Rodgers is the spring tea chairman.

American Business Women's Association members are planning to sell tickets for a raffle with $100 worth of groceries as the prize. For more information, contact any ABWA member.

Ted Bigham PHOTOGRAPHY 573-3822

My name is Jack Greene. I am a candidate for County Commissioner, Precinct 4. I was born in Snyder, Texas and am a life-long resident of Scurry County. I served in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

I started Jack's Welding Service in 1958. In 1979, the business was incorporated as Jack's Roadboring and Pipeline Construction, Inc. with my sons Jack, Jr. and Larry. We have now been joined by my youngest son, Jerry Don. Today our company has grown from its meager beginnings to the point that we employ thirty plus employees and perform work throughout West, Central, and South Texas, as well as Oklahoma, New Mexico, Kansas, Nebraska, and Arizona.

As a business man who has survived the oil field crash, I feel I have knowledge and experience to offer my county. Jack's Roadboring survived the hard times of the 80's by tightening our belts, by being willing to look at new ideas, and by learning to operate more efficiently.

It is time for all of us in Scurry County to take a hard look at the way we conduct business at the county level. Oil is depleting, property values are down, and our residents are feeling the tax bite. We must conduct county business in the most efficient manner possible.

As I see it, one of the most obvious things we need to do is go to the Unit Road System. At this time our four precincts operate 14 motor graders, 3 dozers, 5 loaders, and 10 dump trucks. The Unit Road System would employ a central yard, centralized maintenance, and a construction group made up of equipment and man power from the present four precincts. This system would allow us to reduce our current equipment inventory approximately 50%. We could put more hours on our machines and make more efficient use of our man power.

If I am elected as your Commissioner for Precinct 4, I will cooperate with all government entities in an effort to gather information and implement programs that can help us to operate in the most efficient manner possible. Every effort must be made to get the most out of the fewest tax dollars.

LET YOUR VOTE BE COUNTED MARCH 13.

Hornets fire Harter

by The Associated Press
The Charlotte Hornets, with fewer victories than any team in the NBA, are trying to solve the problem the time-honored way — by changing the coach.

The Hornets might be better advised to try the San Antonio Spurs' way. They changed the players and kept the coach, and already have won 29 games, eight more than all of last season.

Terry Cummings scored a career-high 52 points as the Spurs posted a franchise-record 18th consecutive home victory Wednesday night, beating Charlotte 129-95 to spoil the coaching debut of Gene Littles.

Cummings, acquired by the Spurs in the offseason, made 19 of 32 shots and 14 of 17 free throws and also had 11 rebounds.

"I didn't figure I would get that many," Cummings said. "I just wanted to come out and play my game. We played kind of ugly at the start, but things got better."

Cummings scored 19 points in the first quarter, but the Spurs led by just two points at halftime. San Antonio outscored the Hornets 32-15 in the third quarter to turn the game into a rout.

Elsewhere in the NBA, it was Detroit 133, Washington 109; Philadelphia 112, Indiana 108;

Littles was appointed coach of the Hornets, who have lost six consecutive games, a few hours before tipoff after Dick Harter was fired.

"I think the guys had a lot on their mind," Littles said. "It was really a tough day for them considering everything that happened. If we had lost by four tonight, it still would have been a loss."

Cummings said Spurs coach Larry Brown let him stay in the game to get 50 points.

"I thought they would pull me after I hit 40. But Larry asked me how long I wanted to stay in and I told him as long as he needed me. He told me he wanted me to get 50 so I stayed in."

David Robinson added 19 points and 15 rebounds for the Spurs. Armon Gilliam paced the Hornets with 19 points and Rex Chapman had 17.

Tod Murphy had consecutive three-point plays during Minnesota's 21-0 run in the third quarter.

Minnesota led 63-49 when guard Tony Campbell, who scored 20 points, scored on a layup with 5:11 left in the third quarter. The Wolves' scoring binge didn't end until 11:08 of the fourth quarter.

Derrick McKey scored 16 points for Seattle.

Celtics 97, Knicks 91
Larry Bird scored the game's last six points on free throws.

Robert Parish led Boston with 26 points and 11 rebounds and Bird added 19 points and 10 assists. The Knicks were paced by Patrick Ewing with 21 points.

Pistons 133, Bulls 109
Mark Aguirre scored 12 points and Vinnie Johnson 10 as Detroit outscored Washington 39-16 in the second quarter.

The runaway period gave the Pistons a 68-45 halftime lead.

Jazz 120, Clippers 101
Utah coasted to its 10th victory in 11 games, with Karl Malone scoring 29 points and Mark Eaton blocking eight Los Angeles shots.

Jones among unprotected Cowboy vets

DALLAS (AP) — Jimmy Johnson made good on his promise that the Dallas Cowboys would retain all the draft picks obtained from Minnesota in the Herschel Walker trade.

The Cowboys on Wednesday exercised their rights to all eight draft picks in the trade meaning they will have Minnesota's first-round pick in April.

They offered the Vikings two mid-round picks for linebackers Jessie Solomon and David Howard and cornerback Isaac Holt. Minnesota had until noon today to make a decision.

The trade agreement between the teams states that neither the Cowboys nor Vikings can re-sign the three players even if the players are not signed by another team during the two-month Plan B free agent period.

Johnson also announced that defensive end Ed "Too Tall" Jones, defensive back Everson Walls and center Tom Rafferty will be Plan B free agents by virtue of being left off the roster of 37 protected players submitted to NFL headquarters today.

"We have exercised our rights in the Minnesota trade for Walker and the ball is in their court," Johnson said. "The Vikings have until noon Thursday to decide or Solomon, Holt, and Howard will become free agents."

Dallas now has Minnesota's first-round pick in the upcoming draft, two more first-round picks in 1991 and 1992, three second-round picks, one third-round choice and a sixth-round selection.

The trade with the Vikings stipulated that Holt, Solomon, and Howard must be released by Feb. 1 in order for the Cowboys to receive all the draft choices from the Vikings.

WTC battles Midland Westerners, Chaps meet in WJCAC contest

The Westerners of Western Texas College resume Western Junior College Athletic Conference competition as they host the Midland College Chapparals tonight in an 8 p.m. contest at Scurry County Coliseum.

WTC is fresh and should be rested after an open date Monday.

The Westerners' last outing was a 123-96 loss to nationally ranked No. 3 Howard College a week ago.

The Westerners are 16-6 on the season and 5-3 within the conference going into tonight's match-up.

Midland's last contest was a 97-85 win over Frank Phillips College Monday.

The win puts the Chaps at 3-3 in league games and 12-7 overall.

Midland won the initial meeting of these two squads Nov. 30 with a 110-99 decision in Midland.

At the time the Chapparals were ranked No. 15 in the country.

WTC's Dominick Byrd, averaging 18.1 points and 10.7 rebounds per game, paced the Westerners in the first Midland meeting with 23 points.

Midland boasts 6-8 post Fred Campbell of Salisbury, N.C. and 6-5 post Tim Owens of Houston Yates High School.

Both are sophomores and each scored 24 points against the Westerners in the first encounter.

Besides Campbell and Owens, MC weapons include Kethus Hanks, a 6-3 guard from Houston who scored 384 points during last season for Midland, and 5-11 guard, Gym Bice who set steal, scoring and assist records at Andrews High School in District 4-4A, leading the Mustangs to a semi-final berth in the '89 state playoffs.

"We need to keep their big guys off the boards," said WTC coach Tony Mauldin. They have Campbell who is about 6-8 and Owens who is 6-5 and we need to shut down these guys inside."

"Kethus Hanks is a good outside shooter for them, too," said Mauldin. "He had something like 40 points against New Mexico JC."

"A lot of people will remember Bice, their point guard, from Andrews. He is doing a good job of running the club and shooting," Mauldin commented.

In WJCAC men's action Monday, The Thunderbirds of New Mexico Junior College beat New Mexico Military, 99-90, Odessa swamped Clarendon, 82-70, and the South Plains-Howard battle was suspended with about 10 minutes left in the second half after a backboard was broken on a rebound attempt by SPC.

The game will be finished at a time to be announced late with South Plains holding a 73-70 advantage.

Howard's women picked up a 61-57 win over the Lady Texans of South Plains and Odessa pounded hapless Clarendon, 94-58, in women's Monday games in the conference.

Matchups tonight include Clarendon at South Plains, Frank Phillips and Howard, and Odessa at NMJC in men's and women's battles.

New Mexico Military is open. The game is set to begin at 8 p.m.

The Lady Dusters have the night off and will resume competition Feb. 5 when both squads travel to Clarendon.

Area schools see changes

Ira and Hermleigh will remain in District 6A under the new realignment plan issued by the University Interscholastic League today, as will loop foes Loraine, Trent and Highland.

The new wrinkle added to the district athletic contests will be the addition of the team from Borden County.

Further north, the Jayton Jaybirds will be in District 9, Region III according to the UIL, with Aspermont, Benjamin, Goree, Paint Creek, Rochester and Rule.

"Not much has changed for us," said Hermleigh coach Doug Cook.

"We've dropped Blackwell and added Borden County in football and our basketball didn't change a lick."

"We look forward to playing Borden County," he concluded.

The changes will take effect in the 1990-91 school year.

YUGOSLAVIA
Yugoslavia, once the shining light among Eastern Bloc nations, is on the verge of being left behind with a disintegrating economy as reform and change sweep Eastern Europe. Yugoslavia was formed after World War I from remnants of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. The country fell to the Nazis during WWII, and a partisan army under Josip Broz, "Marshall Tito," fought the Nazis during the war. Tito emerged as the country's leader in 1946. Although Yugoslavia was aligned with Moscow, Tito was able to retain enough autonomy to maintain good relations with the west. As a result, the nation fared better economically than other Eastern Bloc countries.

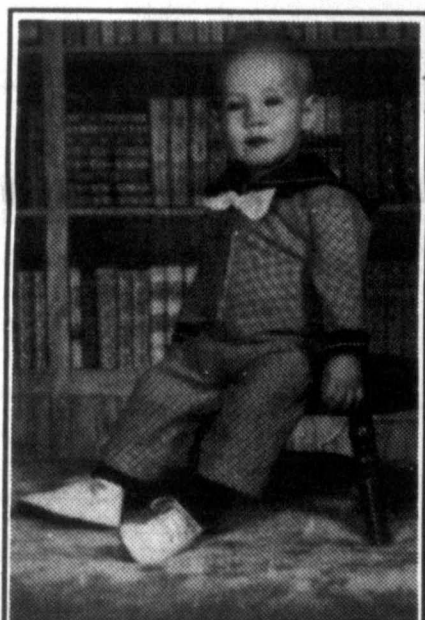

But in recent years inflation has been out of control. Two years ago 2 million Yugoslavian dinars were worth about $3.00. Today two million are worth $30. The government is trying to restructure the economy and do away with massive and unprofitable state run businesses that are the nation's primary employers. However, if they try to turn these into profit-making ventures, thousands may be out of work. One answer would be to attract massive amounts of Western capital, but now Yugoslavia must compete with the emerging economies of other Eastern Bloc nations for Western investment. Right now, the country's future looks bleak.

Ethnic conflict worsening in South as rallying Slavs vow to take up arms

PRISTINA, Yugoslavia (AP) — Protests by ethnic Albanians in the province of Kosovo have sparked a backlash in other parts of the country, including demands by thousands of Slavs to be given weapons so they can go fight the Albanians. State-run television said the situation was on "the verge of civil war." Three ethnic Albanians were reported killed Wednesday in Kosovo, bringing to 19 the death toll in rioting that began eight days ago in the poor southern province governed by the Serbian republic. Aside from the 18 demonstrators, one policeman has been killed in the rioting, said Jorgovanka Milojevic, a spokeswoman for the provincial government. She also said 54 demonstrators and 44 policemen have been injured. Authorities warned that "traveling through Kosovo is extremely dangerous." Young ethnic Albanians, armed with guns, were reported to be stopping cars and checking identities. The ethnic Albanians, who outnumber Slavs 9-1 among Kosovo's 1.9 million inhabitants, want to regain the autonomy lost when Serbia took control of the republic's police, judiciary and education system last year. The ethnic Albanians are demanding an end to political trials, the release of political prisoners and the lifting of a year-old state of emergency. The province's Slavic minority, mostly Serbs and Montenegrins, contends the Albanians are trying to force them from their homeland, which borders Albania. Yugoslavia is a loose, multi-ethnic Balkan federation of six republics and two semi-autonomous provinces.

OCAW rejects Amoco contract; strike looms

DENVER (AP) — Leaders of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union have delayed an industry-wide strike but say they will strike in individual companies should impasses develop in contract negotiations. "It is our intention not to call a national strike," said Robert E. Wages, vice president and bargaining coordinator for the 40,000 member union. "We may give strike notices to certain companies," he said, referring to some 300 contracts which expired at 12:01 a.m. today. The union rejected the oil industry's two-year contract offer Wednesday and continued talks with all companies on a 24-hour strike-notice basis. The 40,000 oil industry workers covered through OCAW include 5,000 workers in the Rocky Mountain region, including 250 at Conoco Inc. and Total Petroleum Inc. refineries in Commerce City. Calls to OCAW's Lakewood-based headquarters and officer's homes late Wednesday night were not answered. In San Francisco, two OCAW locals agreed to a 24-hour rolling contract extension, with talks to continue until one party or the other gives 24-hour notice. The agreement was confirmed by Jim Payne, secretary-treasurer of OCAW Local 1-5, representing workers at Chevron, Tosco and Shell, and by Rick DeLege, president pro tem of OCAW Local 1-326, which represents Unocal Workers. Chevron and Unocal officials were unavailable.

years and recorded only seven channels, not including the fire department or ambulance service.

Now, the 10-channel system includes radio and telephone traffic to and from the fire department and ambulance service, in addition to the police department's main and inter-city channels. The main logger is in the dispatch area, where everything goes in and is recorded. Two 10 1/2-inch reels of half-inch tape record the same thing, one for playback and the other for archive purposes.

There is a reproducer or playback machine separate from the main unit, to review tapes and re-record onto cassettes. "It permits us to review a call immediately or review one later," Parker said. "It will search by sound or by time on any or all channels at one time. This is a digital system, so we don't need a channel to record the time."

He said calls were often hard to find with the old system and that officers sometimes found it had not even been working when an important call came in.

The Dictaphone 9000 had a special appeal because it has everything that will be needed when the sophisticated 911 emergency calling system that is being planned for the city and county is installed, the officers said.

bypassed Sweetwater, which lies east south-east of Snyder and is farther away from Pecos and Fort Stockton, for instance, by about a hour's drive.

Snyder girls' basketball coach Kenneth Housden said of the changes, "We've heard the rumors, of course, but you always hear the rumors at realignment time. "I'm really pleased and I know it will help our program as far as travel is concerned."

"As far as girls' basketball is concerned," Housden continued, "the level of competition among those schools is really high. Levelland has a good program and Lamesa will finish first or second in their 3-A district with a team of mostly sophomores."

With just five other teams in the new District 2-4A, Snyder will have to come up with five non-district opponents for football. Obvious choices include former district rivals Sweetwater, Big Spring, San Angelo Lake View and Andrews because of the travel aspect. Scheduling, of course, was an up-in-the-air situation until the UIL announcements.

While Ira, Hermleigh and Borden County will be grouped again in the same district (6), they will not be basketball foes. Ira and Hermleigh will stay with Rotan and Roby in District 25 for the hoops season while Borden will continue playing Sands, Klondike, Grady and O'Donnell in 16A.

In other alignments of area interest, Abilene High, Abilene Cooper, Midland-Lee, Midland High, Odessa High, Odessa Permian and San Angelo Central remain grouped in District 4-5A; Brownfield, Denver City, Lubbock Cooper, Lubbock Roosevelt, Seminole and Slaton make up District 3-3A; Colorado City, Reagan County, Crane, Kermit, Midland Greenwood and Sonora make up District 6-3A; and Albany, Anson, Hamlin, Haskell, Hawley, Stamford, Jim Ned and Winters make up District 6-2A.

For Class A football, Roby, Roscoe, Robert Lee, Bronte, Rotan, Sterling City and Garden City comprise District 9-2A while in six-man, Jayton is paired with Aspermont, Benjamin, Goree, Paint Creek, Rochester and Rule in District 9.

Learning to be flexible

By James Jacoby

"Do you play five-card majors?" is a common question when new partners sit down to discuss their system. The question of course refers to the method of bidding in which an opening bid in a major suit shows at least five cards in the suit. In fact, in today's deal, East-West were playing just such a method, so the bidding proceeded as shown. Do you need to know the result in four spades after the opening lead of the six of clubs? It's no surprise that South made 12 tricks. And what would happen with a heart lead? Four spades would be set one trick.

Peter Kichline in "Bridging the Gap" makes the point that even those who play five-card majors should open the bidding with the East cards with one heart — a practical bid, unlikely to result in disaster. Today most expert partnerships that subscribe to five-card majors will still open with a four-card major suit in third or fourth position when they hold a minimum hand with strong cards in the major. Why not try it yourself? Incidentally, if your partner is rabid about never opening a four-card major suit, don't look for arguments when you violate his rule. Just tell him that you were tired and had a diamond mixed up with your hearts.

James Jacoby's books "Jacoby on Bridge" and "Jacoby on Card Games" (written with his father, the late Oswald Jacoby) are now available at bookstores. Both are published by Pharos Books. © 1990, NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.

Woman files assault complaint

A Snyder woman came to the police station Wednesday and filed a misdemeanor assault complaint against a man she said had assaulted her Tuesday night.

Melanie Bradley had told officers at 9:53 p.m. Tuesday that she had been assaulted in the 3000 Block of 38th St., and she came to the station at 10:55 a.m. Wednesday to sign the complaint.

Police are investigating a Snyder man's report that his vehicle was vandalized in the 3000 Block of 37th St.

Brian Fowler reported at 8:17 p.m. Wednesday that the air had been let out of his tires and his windshield had been marked with shoe polish.

the United States "stands at the center of a widening circle of freedom."

Bush said Gorbachev seemed "receptive" to the idea and was studying it. The surprise overture was the centerpiece of an address that also promised to "invest in America" through savings incentives, research and improved education, and called on citizens to "confront and condemn" racism and hate.

Bush also renewed his call for a capital gains tax cut, slapped down by Democrats last year, and called on lawmakers to pass clean air, child care, crime and drug legislation.

Ticket Deal Has Readers Calling for Scalpers' Heads

DEAR ABBY: Sorry, I disagree with your compliance with the pair who wanted to sell $100 tickets to a sporting event to their co-workers for $400.

First of all, people who buy more tickets than they need to a sporting event, theater, rock concert, etc., are preventing others from acquiring tickets at the stated price. This may be OK under laissez-faire capitalism, but it strikes me as unconscionable and greedy.

Second, some cities have "ticket scalping" ordinances that make it a misdemeanor to sell tickets above the stated price.

Your comment, "The early bird gets the worm," was off the mark. It would have been better to suggest that the co-workers simply treat the "early birds" to a nice dinner to compensate them for their legwork, rather than encourage the early buyers to seek an unscrupulous profit.

JERRY P. IN SEATTLE

DEAR JERRY: Where were you when I needed you? Yours was one of the few printable letters I received in response to my inspired (?) answer in which I failed to mention that in most states, "scalping" is illegal.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl. A few months ago, my 13-month-old brother, Ricky, had a life-threatening accident. Managing to get out the front door unobserved, he walked behind my mom's van just as she was pulling into our garage. Mom didn't see Ricky, so she pressed the button to close the garage door, then she went inside.

After looking for Ricky for about five minutes, we heard my sister who was outside scream. Mom and I ran out to see Ricky's head sticking out from under the garage door!

When we got him out, he was limp, blue and not breathing. We thought he was dead.

After a two-week ordeal at Loyola University Hospital, Ricky came home and is as alive as ever. He was expected to die or at least have severe brain damage, but he is perfect.

I would like to thank the Loyola University Hospital staff, our neighbor, Sue Waite (who administered CPR), all our friends and relatives — and most of all my Heavenly Father for giving our family of seven a second chance with our littlest.

Abby, please tell your readers to be careful with their garage doors and to always watch them go down. I don't want anyone else to have to go through what we did. You may print my name.

LINDSAY MITCHELL, NAPERVILLE, ILL.

DEAR LINDSAY: Thank you for writing. I alerted my readers to this hazard a few years ago, but your letter will remind them that electrically operated garage doors can kill a child, or a pet.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow. After 46 years of marriage, I lost my precious husband.

Now, on the issue of what I prefer to be called, I couldn't care less. I don't care what people call me — just so they call me, come to see me and include me. I have never known such loneliness in my entire life. So, call me what you will, but please call me!

Triggerman awaits new trial

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (AP) — Harris County officials said they will fight the release of a death row inmate convicted a decade ago as the triggerman in the slayings of a Houston couple and their infant son.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals voted 5-4 Wednesday to order a new trial for Allan Janecka, who was convicted of being a hired hitman in the July 5, 1979, slaying of 14-month-old Kevin Wanstrath. He also was indicted in the deaths of the boy's parents, Diana and John Wanstrath, but was not tried on those charges.

The high court, which previously upheld the conviction in 1987, said the indictment against Janecka did not include the name of the person who allegedly paid him for the murder. The majority opinion said that affected his defense.

"They had strictly a murder case and not a capital murder case," Janecka said Wednesday from death row. "They didn't prove who hired or supposedly paid me any money or promised me any money."

But prosecutors were not as convinced about the merits for a new trial.

"I think the court is mistaken in saying that Mr. Janecka was not placed on notice of what he was charged with sufficient enough to allow him to prepare a defense," said Harris County District Attorney Johnny Holmes.

"I'm not questioning the ruling," said Johnny Bonds, a former Houston police homicide officer who doggedly pursued the case. "I'm disappointed in the ruling, but I just wish they'd done it sooner."

He said another trial could be difficult since some witnesses have died and others have relocated. But both Holmes and Bonds said they do not want Janecka released pending a new trial. Holmes called the possibility of Janecka's release are "slim and none."

"He's a dangerous person," said Bonds, now an investigator with the district attorney's office. "I've said before; I equate him to a loaded gun, cocked, and if its in the right hands, it will go off."

'Beeg Maks' rattle Moscow

NEW YORK (AP) — Mixing the golden arches with the hammer and sickle may be a better combination than two all beef patties, special sauce, lettuce, cheese, pickles and onions on a sesame seed bun.

McDonald's in Moscow is more than just the opening of another hamburger stand. It's West meeting East, capitalism flourishing in the heart of communism, an American icon dazzling ruble-paying Soviet masses.

"It represents a common ground. Soviets now have something that's quintessentially American," said Harriet Kuhr of the Friendship Force of Atlanta, which pioneered exchanges between U.S. and Soviet citizens.

"In a way, it's one of our imperialistic beliefs that everybody wants to be American but they haven't been allowed to," Kuhr said. "That's not necessarily true, but it makes us feel good. It's like, 'Wow, McDonald's. What's next? Maybe they'll start building Fords.'"

The Moscow McDonald's opened Wednesday with the most fanfare of any of the 11,201 franchises in the late Ray Kroc's empire.

The restaurant rang up 30,000 meals on 27 cash registers, breaking the opening-day record for McDonald's worldwide, officials said.

Over 70 billion burgers have been served since Kroc flipped his first patty 35 years ago, and 22 million people in 52 countries eat at McDonald's every day. That's more people than live in Australia and New Zealand.

The fascination with a McDonald's on Alexander Pushkin Square, named for the father of modern Russian poetry, went far beyond the opening of a business venture, however.

It was front page news in The New York Times and was featured on all American networks. The nation somehow found it comforting to know that its former Cold War foe now is more likely to have Beeg Mak attacks rather than nuclear ones.

"It's the equivalent of selling Russian meat pies in Times Square," said Ethel Dunn of the Highgate Road Social Science Research Station in Berkeley, Calif.

We're Growing on You, Texas.

With our roots firmly planted in Texas, Olney Savings has become a growing force in Texas banking. We've prospered. We've expanded to 80 locations. And we're adding new products and services to meet your needs.

The fact is, today's Olney Savings has a whole new personality. Which is why we're changing our name to AmWest Savings. We think it better reflects what we've become and, more importantly, where we're going. Because even though we're as much a part of the Texas heritage as the legend of The Yellow Rose, our energies are directed to the future. To keeping Texas communities strong by keeping Texas money right here in Texas.

We think our new name suits us and hope you come to know it well. AmWest Savings. We're Texas grown and growing stronger every day.

Put Your Money on Texas.
