Trustees to review contracts, approve 'Effective Schools'

Snyder public schools board of trustees will meet this evening to review and approve contract extension recommendations, give their go-ahead on the Effective Schools concept and discuss the purchase of band uniforms and a special education bus.

The meeting will convene at 5 p.m. in executive session to allow trustees to review the contract recommendations and will be followed by the regular board meeting at 7 p.m.

Other agenda items include hiring two instructors, selecting an outside auditor, approving of a Texas Association of School Boards policy update, finalizing a summer school curriculum and a review of past minutes and payment of bills.

One-year contract extensions are being sought for elementary principals Geraldine Parker, Wayne Kennedy, Jim Erwin and Bob Travis, and vice-principal Lee Presswood and assistant principal Ned Underwood. Two-year administrative contracts will be reviewed for David Baugh, athletic director; Barbara Granato, director of special programs; and Janice Brown, director of testing and curriculum. One-year administrative contracts will be considered for Keith Gentry, transportation director; and Lawton Taylor, maintenance director.

Effective Schools is a definition of a school's mission or statement of purpose and goals and includes key elements which are

Friday is final day of voter registration for March 13 election

Friday will be the last day to register to vote in the March 13 primary election, the county clerk's office has noted.

State literature indicates that the final day to register is Feb. 11, but that is a Sunday. The clerk's office is also closed on Saturday, the 10th.

Voters will go to the polls March 13 to cast their ballots in the state-wide party primary election. There are nine races of direct interest to Scurry County.

The most contested races in the county are those of county judge and county commissioner. Incumbent Bobby Goodwin is running against Marlin Terrell on the Democratic ticket for county judge. Running for the post in the Republican primary are Greg Crawford and Bob Doolittle.

Tommy Pate, incumbent commissioner representing precinct 2, is being challenged on the Democratic ticket by Don Tucker. Running alone on the Republican ballot will be Roy L. Idom.

Ted Billingsley, current commissioner representing precinct 4, has announced his intentions to run for justice of the peace. Jerry Gannaway, Jack Greene and Bill Kimmel will challenge for Billingsley's vacated post on the Democratic ballot. There is no Republican running for the office.

In running for justice of the peace, precinct 1, Billingsley will oppose Wanda Rushing on the Democratic ticket. Dan Callaway, current peace justice, decided not to run for office again. The position of justice of the peace in precinct 2 has only one candidate — Democrat H.M. Lomax.

Also running unopposed for office are incumbent Lealand "Pete" Greene, for county attorney, and incumbent County Clerk Frances Billingsley. Both are on the Democratic ballot.

In the race for district clerk, Elois Pruitt is running unopposed on the Democratic ballot while Patsy Williams is the only Republican candidate.

In the only other county race, incumbent Rita Staton is being challenged on the Democratic ticket by Polly Wadleigh Echols for county treasurer. There is no Republican candidate in the race.

In-person absentee balloting in the March 13 primary will be held Feb. 21 through March 9.

Crews labor to contain oil slick off Huntington Beach

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Emergency crews worked under spotlights early today to contain a spreading slick of more than 290,000 gallons of oil as it headed toward a wildlife estuary and popular beaches, authorities said.

The hull of the fully loaded 811-foot American Trader tanker apparently was gashed by its own anchor, creating the spill of heavy Alaskan crude oil, according to Coast Guard spokesmen.

Early today, the leading edge of the 1 1/2-mile-by-100-yard spill was within a mile of beaches and an estuary surrounding the Huntington Beach Harbor, officials said.

"Those wetlands and wildlife preserves are so very precious," said Dorothy Green, president of Heal the Bay, a local environmental group.

The spill occurred Wednesday afternoon as the ship was docking at an offshore pipeline terminal within two miles from shore, Coast Guard Capt. James Card told reporters late Wednesday.

The tanker was fully loaded with 21 million gallons of crude oil and rested more than 40 feet deep in the water, said Sanford Schmidt, president of American Trading Transportation Co. Inc. of New York, which operates the ship.

The American Trader was leased by British Petroleum Oil Shipping Co. USA, said Joe Braderich, manager of BP's Los Angeles field office.

British Petroleum has assumed responsibility for the spill, and

A—The former Beatle's only currently confirmed concert appearance in Texas will be on Friday, April 6, at Texas Stadium in Irving. The other closest announced date at the present time is April 3 in Phoenix, Ariz.

In Brief

Phone rates

AUSTIN (AP) — The Public Utility Commission has approved a request by AT&T for lower long-distance phone rates on Valentine's Day to make up for problems customers experienced during a widespread outage Jan. 15.

AT&T won approval Jan. 28 from the Federal Communications Commission to offer the discounted Valentine's Day rates on interstate and international calls as well.

First boater

HOUSTON (AP) — A Southeast Texas man has become the first Texan convicted of the new misdemeanor offense of operating a boat while intoxicated.

Harris County Court-at-Law Judge Shelly Hancock sentenced Roy Henry Maghe, 43, on Wednesday to 75 days in the county jail and fined him $350.

The new law went into effect July 1. Maghe was arrested July 2 after his boat and another vessel collided on the San Jacinto River, injuring 12 people in the boats or skiing behind them. Four people, including Maghe, went to hospitals.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "A business crisis is getting there with all your hardware and software, but forgetting to pack your underwear."

We don't understand all the fuss about Nolan Richardson walking off the court in Austin last Sunday when it appeared that his Razorbacks were about to experience their first Southwest Conference loss.

Trailing by a point with just 14 seconds left and with an intentional foul called against his Hogs, Richardson headed for the dressing rooms—or at least that's what everybody thought.

Shoot, Snyder fans have seen that strategy before—and it works. Local fans have fond memories of Nolan Richardson when he led the WTC Westerners to the National Junior College championship in 1980.

It was in that perfect, 37-0 season that we remember Nolan leaving the court in an effort to fire up his players. It happened during the first half play against Howard College in Big Spring.

WTC had played a lack-luster first half, and Richardson took to the showers. While his team thought the coach had given up on them, we happen to know that Richardson was simply out of sight and was viewing all the action. WTC came back in the second half to take an impressive victory.

Nolan is one of those coaches who knows just the right time to get a technical foul. We also remember one evening in the Scurry County Coliseum when Richardson became frustrated because, despite a terrific acting job—the refs simply wouldn't call the T-foul.

Against the Longhorns, Arkansas came back for a 103-96 victory in overtime. Those of us who have had the privilege of watching Richardson up close know that—despite the appearance—the Razorback coach was in complete control.

In other basketball notes, we noticed where Gilmer and Atlanta played their district basketball game without any fans. Because of a brawl earlier in the year, the two schools decided to bar all spectators—including the press.

Now the next big question: Does an UIL event fall under the Texas Open Meeting Law?

Progressives say new Soviet reforms do not go far enough as yet

MOSCOW (AP) — The Communist Party leadership has blazed the way to a brave new world of Soviet politics, where it will be forced to compete with other parties and people will directly choose the nation's leader for the first time.

"There will be a multiparty system. There will be a normal democracy," is how Communist Party member Svyatoslav Fyodorov, a noted eye surgeon, approvingly summed up a three-day meeting of the party's Central Committee.

Progressives, however, said today that the committee did not go far enough when it agreed Wednesday to end the party's 70-year legal monopoly on power and ask the national parliament to restructure the government into a presidential system partially based on Western models.

Army takes back 14 medals

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army, in an embarrassing admission, is taking back Combat Infantryman Badges from 14 wounded soldiers who were mistakenly granted the coveted awards within days of their involvement in the Panama invasion.

Some of the awards were incorrectly bestowed because the wounded men were still under sedation when the medals were pinned to their pillows and couldn't be queried about their duties during Operation Just Cause, according to Army spokesman Maj. Joe Padilla.

Gen. Carl Vuono, the Army chief of staff, awarded the medals during a visit to two military hospitals in San Antonio, Texas, on Dec. 22.

The chief of staff awarded 186 medals — such as Combat Infantryman Badges and Purple Hearts — during his time at the hospitals, Padilla said.

"There were 14 non-infantry soldiers awarded the CIB in Operation Just Cause. However, the awards have since been withdrawn and the affected soldiers notified," Padilla said.

Although the awards apparently were given with some haste and without the usual review, the spokesman said the decision was not made to grant the medals just for publicity's sake.

"This was not a photo op for Gen. Vuono," Padilla said. "This was an honest mistake."

"It was thought to be an opportunity for the men to be decorated by the chief of staff of the Army. ... It was an effort to distinguish those soldiers thought to be deserving, and allow those who were wounded to wake up with the award on their pillow," Padilla said.

A pool of reporters was permitted to accompany Vuono to Wilford Hall Medical Center for the presentation of medals to just three soldiers. The general also visited nearby Brooke Army Medical Center.

policemen, artillery soldiers, communications specialists, truck drivers and specialists in psychological operations, the spokesman said.

"The soldiers that were incorrectly awarded the CIB were part of the initial 236 wounded soldiers evacuated out of Panama during the first 48 hours of Operation Just Cause," Padilla said.

"Because of time constraints, the personnel records weren't available to verify the eligibility of each soldier," he said. "A decision was made to give the wounded soldiers the benefit of the doubt regarding the award of the CIB pending a final review of eligibility. It was during this review that the incorrectly awarded CIBs were discovered."

The spokesman said he didn't think a soldier would be disappointed when he awoke and found he wasn't eligible.

"Every soldier knows what awards they're eligible for. They would know immediately that was a mistake," he said.

The medals have been the source of some controversy in recent weeks because the women who came under fire in Panama will be ineligible for the award, since they are barred under Army policy from serving in infantry units.

Tip leads to woman's arrest

DALLAS (AP) — A tip from a television viewer helped authorities arrest a 25-year-old woman sought for three years in connection with her husband's prison escape, an FBI official says.

FBI spokesman Woody Specht said Wednesday that Shelly Rose Godwin is to be arraigned today before a federal magistrate on charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution and aiding escape.

Specht said the arrest resulted from an anonymous tip from a viewer of Fox Broadcasting show "America's Most Wanted," which recently featured a segment on Ms. Godwin and her husband, Glen Godwin.

"Someone who watched the show called in some information that was passed to our office in California, and they contacted us on the tip that she might be in the Dallas area," Specht said.

Dallas agents went to an address furnished by the tipster and arrested the woman, he said. She had been working at a club in suburban Mesquite. Specht said authorities are not certain how long she had been in the Dallas area.

Ms. Godwin had been sought since June 5, 1987, when her husband escaped from Folsom State Prison in Sacramento, Calif., by crawling through a 1,000-foot storm drain, authorities said.

Prison officials said Godwin made his way to a river where an accomplice had left an inflatable raft.

Godwin had been serving a term of 26 years to life for the 1980 stabbing death of a man. After his escape, he was captured and convicted of drug charges in Mexico. He is now serving a seven-year prison term in Guadalajara.

The Combat Infantryman Badge is granted only to officers or enlisted personnel with specific infantry specialties who have "satisfactorily performed their duty" in an infantry unit while it has engaged in combat, Padilla said.

The Purple Heart is awarded to members of the armed forces wounded or killed in action.

A formal review of the CIB awards found 14 were incorrectly given to soldiers who weren't infantrymen or did not have infantry specialties, Padilla said.

The badges had been granted to men who were military

DEAR MARJORIE: Rumor has it that Sir Winston Churchill had always slept in his birthday suit, but through the Blitz he wore pajamas in case he had to leave the house in a hurry. You British are very proper people.

DEAR ABBY: May I address that small portion of your readers who are insensitive to the point of being cruel?

Why do you think that:
(a) the parents of a new baby want to hear about your neighbor's 6-month-old son who was a victim of crib death?
(b) the wife of a man scheduled for surgery wants to hear about "this fellow at work" who went into the hospital for a minor operation and died when they gave him the wrong medication?
(c) the son of a woman recently admitted to a nursing home wants to hear about the dreadful home your Aunt Tillie lives in, and how miserable she is there?

Abby, we all deal with our anxieties in our own ways. Please tell your readers that if they have no words of encouragement, kindly shut up!

DEAR ANXIETY: Thanks for a "gentle" reminder to people who shoot from the hip without realizing how their words can affect others. mind-altering substance with a potential for addiction. The active ingredient, THC, is stored in the body's fatty tissue for months or years. THC has a particular affinity for the brain and can cause chronic mental changes, including poor concentration and memory, moodiness and disordered thinking; it can also cause bronchitis and heart ailments.

DEAR READER: Spinal stenosis, narrowing of the spinal cord in the low-back region, is an uncommon condition causing sciatica, painful pressure on the nerves to the legs. The condition can result from osteoarthritis, Paget's disease of bone (marked by areas of rapid bone destruction and regrowth) or edema (swelling of the spinal cord).

I advise you to seek help in giving up your marijuana habit, because you are smoking too much too frequently. You may already be experiencing problems with your heart, brain and lungs, but you cannot recognize them because of the effects of the drug.

Conservative treatment with rest, heat and physical therapy often relieves discomfort. In more severe (or persistent) cases, surgery to correct the narrowed spinal portions may be necessary. This is the same operation used to repair herniated discs in the back. Such operations are commonly performed by neurosurgeons and orthopedic specialists.

Someone who has a mixed drink or beer each evening is not in your league. You are consuming the probable daily equivalent of four to six ounces of spirits, or a six pack. I know I am coming on strong, but an increasing number of studies show that physical and mental harm can occur in people who regularly use mind-altering drugs, including alcohol and marijuana. Don't be a statistic.

If you do not improve with non-surgical treatment, you will have to consider an operation to release the pressure on the nerves. Even after successful conservative therapy, you will have to continue a life-long program of exercises to prevent a recurrence.

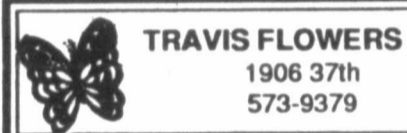

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm 44 and have smoked marijuana for the last 18 years. What is the long-term effect of smoking three to four joints a day after work, as opposed to someone who might have a mixed drink or a beer? I don't drink, smoke or use other drugs, yet I am concerned about the problems I might suffer in the future.

You're likely to fair better in the year ahead if you operate as the lone eagle. Others won't be able to do anything for you that you can't do better by relying on your own intellect, experience and imagination.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Of all the negative things you do today, procrastination could be the most counterproductive. Don't let this time waste put you behind the 8-ball.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Using the hard sell could gain you compliance from your peers today, but the results won't be worth it. Coming on too strong could incur long lasting rancor in the ranks.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Guard against involvements today in situations where you have to compete against established odds that favor the other party rather than you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Be careful not to pour salt in an old wound today. If you feel a certain subject or issue could rankle a friend, make sure it isn't injected into your conversation.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) This might not be the best time to make critical decisions affecting your property or other assets. If you feel unsure in this area, postpone matters until a later date.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A person with whom you'll associate today might be a trifle more domineering than usual. However, let him play her game unless you feel she's placing you in a subservient position for ulterior motives.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your performance level is likely to be dependent upon the amount of supervision you have today. You'll work best if you don't have someone constantly peering over your shoulder.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) A friend with whom you have a special arrangement might be in need of extra assistance today. Even though he should be doing things for himself, it might be kind to at least offer to help.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) A wise superior strives to temper power with compassion. You'd be well advised to act like a Solomon today if you want to avoid grumblings among those who must do your bidding.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) If you choose to march to a different drummer today, that's your decision. Don't be disappointed, however, if you look back over your shoulder and no one is following.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It takes harmony of purpose to function well in partnership arrangements today. In collective endeavors, make sure the wait is equally distributed between you and your counterpart.

Here is another deal from Mike Lawrence's "How to Play Card Combinations." The first problem is the action by South. Two no-trump is best because it describes the general strength and shape of the hand. A take-out double would be less effective because it would leave South guessing after a minimum response from partner.

After North raises to game, South must devise the best way of taking a ninth trick. If declarer had enough time, he could simply play for a 3-2 club split to set up a long trick in that suit. But the opening lead has stolen a tempo. Give up a club, and the defenders knock out declarer's other high heart. Give up another club, and East cashes out, setting the contract two tricks.

So declarer must try to make a second trick in spades. There is no 4-3 division of spades that helps declarer, so South must hope that spades are 5-2 or 6-1. The 5-2 division is of course more likely, and if the doubleton spade includes the king or queen, declarer has a chance. And who is more likely to hold a doubleton spade? Of course that player who has already announced a six-card heart suit. Therefore, declarer wins the first heart and cashes four rounds of diamonds ending in the dummy. Then a low spade is played away from the ace. If East plays low, the jack loses to West's king. Subsequently the ace drops East's queen, and the spade 10 is the game-going trick. If East rises with the doubleton spade queen, declarer later plays the jack of spades through West, finessing. Yes, bridge is an easy game ... sometimes.

Coterie to participate in national celebration

The promotion of American music is a foremost objective of the National Federation of Music Clubs. Participation in the parade of American music offers the opportunity to serve the cause locally.

The goal is to present a program in February of high caliber music by American composers; contemporary concerts; works of local, state and women composers; National Federation of Music composers; and choral and stage works.

Musical Coterie will observe Parade of American Music during February with a Valentine tea in the home of Lynn Bethel Saturday. Members and guests are invited to participate in the playing of love songs by American composers at five pianos.

Parade of American Music Chairman Barbara Tune will moderate the program. This is observed by the local, district, state and national organizations throughout the United States.

Snyder Musical Coterie is affiliated with the State and National Federation of Music Clubs.

On Sunday, Vivace Junior Music Club will have a Valentine tea in the home of Emily Zeck. Mothers and grandmothers will be honored with music by American composers.

WTC faces Plainsmen

Westerners and Dusters at Frank Phillips

Western Texas College cagers will hit the road for a WJAC contest with Frank Phillips College in Borger tonight.

The Westerners and the Lady Dusters got an unexpected open date when their Monday game was postponed due to problems with the Clarendon College gym floor.

With the extra rest the Westerners face the Plainsmen, a team they pounded, 105-81, in early December.

The men's game was stopped that night when FPC post, 6-7 Gerson Leyser of Brazil, was injured under the basket in a collision with WTC's center Kenneth Critton.

Leyser was on the floor for about 18 minutes as he was attended by emergency medical personnel and transported to Cogdell Hospital where he was kept overnight and released.

The Westerners will be without the services of 6-1 guard Alfredo Porter who has been suspended for at least the FPC matchup for disciplinary reasons by Western Texas College.

Porter, a Dallas South Oak Cliff product, ranks among WJAC leaders in assists, with almost five per game, and three point shooting, connecting on 32 of 96 attempts for an average of about 35 percent.

They are led by scoring machine Dominick Byrd who scores an average of over 18 points every time out.

Byrd and Critton are one-two in the conference among rebounders pulling down 10.2 and 10.1 per tilt, respectively.

The Plainsmen are currently 9-12 in all games played and 2-6 within the league.

The Lady Dusters have been off for two weeks letting muscle pulls to point guard Carla Gladden and forward Bobbie Brown heal.

WTC lost to Frank Phillips in their last meeting, 69-48.

Sophomore post Patricia McDonald from Kingston, Jamaica, led the Lady Plainsmen with 20 points and effectively blocked the lane from Duster intrusion all night.

The 6-4 talent went out for several minutes near halftime and WTC was able to draw to within six points, but fell back into a double-figure deficit when McDonald came back into the fray in the second half.

One bright spot in that game for Western Texas was the play of Tami Wilson. Wilson contributed 21 of the Dusters' 48 points on the evening.

The last game for the Frank Phillips women was a 83-52 thrashing of New Mexico Junior College Monday night.

WTC, 2-4 within the conference and 15-7 overall, lost their last game, a 58-55 thriller in Big Spring to No. 13 Howard College.

The Dusters are anchored by Wilson, averaging 18.1 points per game this season, Brown, who is hitting an amazing 52 percent from three-point land, and Gladden who as the team's floor general manages almost six assists per contest.

The contests begin at 6 p.m. as the women square-off first followed by the 8 p.m. meeting of the men's squads.

In other games in the WJAC tonight, Howard College is at Odessa College in both men's and women's action and South Plains College battles Midland in a men's only tilt.

NBA roundup...

Philadelphia's streak halted

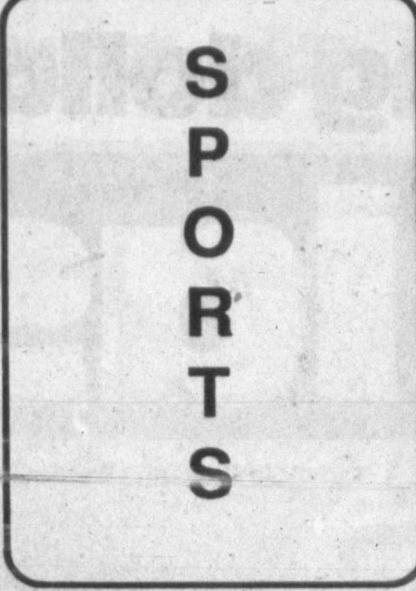

by The Associated Press
Given an opportunity to choose their next victim, the Philadelphia 76ers couldn't have been blamed for thinking of the Golden State Warriors as the perfect prey.

After all, the 76ers hadn't lost to the Warriors in Philadelphia since Jimmy Carter occupied the White House. So, extending the NBA's longest winning streak of the season figured to be no big deal.

But Golden State made it a little deal, little as in using no players taller than 6-foot-7 for most of the game. It gave the Warriors quickness that led to 20 Philadelphia turnovers in a 113-112 victory that ended the 76ers' 12-game winning streak.

"A very small team played very big tonight, and that was a gutsy win," Golden State coach Don Nelson said. "Sometimes David does slay Goliath."

Mitch Richmond scored the winning basket on a last-second

UT, Arkansas win in SWC matchups

by The Associated Press
The Texas Longhorns had a tough time while the Arkansas Razorbacks had fun as both were victorious against Southwest Conference foes.

to lead the Texas Longhorns to a 96-91 victory over Baylor.

The victory allowed the Longhorns to end a skid where they lost three of four games and it ended a five-game winning streak for Baylor.

Texas is now 8-3 in SWC play and 15-6 overall. Baylor dropped to 4-6 in conference play and 12-9 overall.

The game was close throughout, with 12 ties and 11 lead changes. The game was tied at 85-85 with 3:17 left before Blanks and forward Benford Williams drove for consecutive buckets. Bear guard Dennis Lindsey put in a three-pointer and Texas guard Travis Mays answered with another three-point shot.

Baylor pulled within one with 45 seconds left when forward Julius Denton scored a three-pointer over a leaping Travis Mays to pull the Bears within one. Then Blanks and Mays hit four consecutive free throws to ice the victory.

Todd Day, whose 22 points helped lead the third-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks to a 100-77 victory over Texas Tech, says he and his teammates enjoyed themselves.

"We had fun tonight," he said. "I think we played harder than we've ever played."

But Arkansas coach Nolan Richardson said the spread of offense that Gerald Myers' Red Raiders used early in the game gave the Razorbacks a hard time until they tightened up with a press.

Arkansas is now 11-0 in SWC play and 20-2 overall. The Red Raiders dropped to 0-10 in conference play and 5-15 overall.

"Gerald had a good game plan," Richardson said. "He spread us out and made us chase the ball. We got hungry and they made some easy baskets."

Texas Tech took a 19-18 lead midway through the first half. But the Razorbacks' press forced six consecutive Tech turnovers midway through the first half, allowing Arkansas to get ahead 30-19 before ending the first half on top 49-41. Two driving layups by Lee Mayberry fueled the Arkansas surge.

Wake Forest slows Tech star but loses

by The Associated Press
Wake Forest and Auburn devised special gimmicks for Georgia Tech's Dennis Scott and LSU's Chris Jackson. As a result, they won the battles but lost the wars.

Wake Forest threw a triangle-and-two at Scott, who was nursing a bruised right shoulder, so Brian Oliver stepped in and scored 31 points, including seven of 10 3-pointers, to lead No. 16 Georgia Tech to a 79-70 victory Wednesday night.

"I thought it was a smart gamble because at times Oliver doesn't shoot very well," Georgia Tech coach Bobby Cremins said. "But the kid just showed some guts tonight. He stepped forward and made the shots (12-for-16). If he doesn't make those, we lose."

Oliver also had five rebounds and six assists. Auburn slowed the pace against No. 11 LSU and held Jackson to a career-low nine points on 3-for-11 shooting. But 7-footers Shaquille O'Neal and Stanley Roberts took over and led LSU to an 82-71 victory.

"I think Chris Jackson showed a great deal of restraint tonight," Auburn coach Tommy Joe Eagles said. "It was not one of his better scoring nights, but he saw where the opportunities were and got the ball to the big men."

In other Top 25 games, it was No. 2 Kansas 83, Oklahoma State 76; No. 3 Arkansas 100, Texas Tech 77; No. 5 Georgetown 97, Pitt 81 and No. 13 Oklahoma 86, Iowa State 81.

It was the third straight victory for Georgia Tech (15-4, 5-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) and the 10th consecutive regular-season conference loss over two seasons for Wake Forest, which got 25 points from Chris King.

"We took a calculated risk," Wake Forest coach Dave Odom said. "We knew what we were doing. They have three great players (freshman point guard Kenny Anderson was held to 11 points and five assists). I respect all three of them equally. Dennis Scott is a proven quantity at any level."

No. 11 LSU 82, Auburn 71
O'Neal had 19 points, 10 rebounds and three blocked shots and Roberts had 15 points, 10 rebounds and four blocks. Ronnie Battle had 29 points for Auburn. Auburn milked the shot clock until the final 4:30 of the game when the Tigers had to foul to get the ball. But LSU hit the foul shots, widening a 65-59 lead to 72-59.

No. 5 Georgetown 97, Pittsburgh 81
Dikembe Mutombo had 17 points, 15 rebounds and eight blocked shots and Sam Jefferson scored a career-high 16 points as Georgetown moved into first place in the Big East. Alonzo Mourning scored 20 points and Mark Tillmon 17 for the Hoyas, who led by 18 at halftime and never let the margin shrink below 12. Bobby Martin scored 27 points for Pitt.

Critically burned woman's tape played for jury

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - A tape in which a critically burned woman gave a detailed statement about how her husband allegedly stabbed her and set her on fire twice has been played for a Tarrant County jury.

Janice Stovall was gasping for air and apologizing for memory lapses as she made the dying declaration after refusing medical treatment until she could tell a security officer at Parkland Memorial Hospital in Dallas what happened to her.

The dramatic four-minute tape ends with a plea for hospital officials to "protect my children, please."

Martin Lee Stovall, on trial on a murder charge in connection with his wife's death last Sept. 29, buried his head in hands when prosecutors finished playing the tape Wednesday.

Stovall had told Fort Worth homicide Detective Larry Stefler that his wife's injuries were accidental.

Stovall, 39, then changed his story, admitting that he doused his wife with gasoline, set her on fire and then repeated the process as she begged him to help her, according to a statement from Stovall that was read to jurors.

Defense lawyer Travis Young says he will attempt to prove Stovall was under the influence of several prescription drugs when he killed his estranged wife.

Young said he will attempt to prove that Stovall's acts were based on sudden passion, making the killing voluntary manslaughter instead of murder. Voluntary manslaughter carries a penalty range of two to 20 years instead of the five to 99-year range for murder.

Janice Stovall, 39, a nurse, was living with her four children at the time of her death. The Stovalls had separated earlier in the month after a 17-year marriage.

The woman said her husband attacked her when she went into the garage of her home.

Soviet reforms fall short

To release the Communists' grip on society, "it is necessary to eliminate the party organizations in the army, the police, the KGB, the courts, in all the state institutions," Yuri Mityunov, a spokesman for the independent Democratic Union, said in a telephone interview.

Mityunov said the pressure for reform is moving to the streets, noting that party secretaries had recently been removed in four cities following public outcry over abuses of power.

Wednesday's decisions are the boldest steps yet in President Mikhail S. Gorbachev's campaign to get the party he heads out of the day-to-day business of running the country and provide greater freedom for political action.

They won't assume force of law until they are adopted by the Soviet legislative system, a process that could begin next week.

A Central Committee source said the new platform calls for a president elected by the people instead of the Congress of People's Deputies or another legislative body — a revolutionary transformation for Soviet politics.

That would allow Gorbachev to bypass the entrenched Moscow bureaucracy and take his case directly to the people.

hired a private contractor to assist government cleanup efforts, said Coast Guard Rear Adm. William Kime, commander of the 11th Coast Guard district.

A diver found a 3-foot hole in the bottom of the No. 1 forward compartment, which held more than 1 million gallons of crude, Card said. No other damage was found.

The Coast Guard initially reported the tanker had struck a submerged pipeline, but Huntington Beach spokesman Dave Kelly said the anchor swung back into the bow, apparently breaching the forward compartment.

Multiple vehicle accident

Two motor vehicle accidents happened at the same time in the same block during the noon hour Wednesday on College Ave., as a driver slowed to observe the first mishap and was rear-ended.

Police said the first accident took place as a 1986 Chevrolet driven by John Jowers of 313 34th St. was in collision with a 1979 Volkswagen Rabbit driven by Tammy Voss of Arah Rt. at 12:16 p.m. in the 3600 Block of College.

Then a 1979 Chevrolet pickup driven by Charles Townsend of Rt. 3 was rear-ended by a 1976 Oldsmobile driven by Janelle Pollard of Rt. 1, police said.

Townsend complained of neck pains and went to Cogdell Memorial Hospital, where he was treated and released, a hospital spokesman said.

In yet another noon-time traffic mishap, a 1985 Ford Escort driven by Matt Haynes of Rt. 2 was in collision with a 1980 Cadillac driven by Cynthia Sinclair of 100 East Hwy., No. 68, at 12:02 p.m. in the 2800 Block of Ave. E.

Police are investigating a vehicle burglary reported by Tracey Bollinger at 7:27 a.m. Wednesday in the 2300 Block of 30th St.

Bollinger told officers that a work apron and her purse were taken from a parked vehicle.

Melissa Boone of 4503 College Ave., No. 5, told police at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday that she had been assaulted by a Snyder man.

Officers said an offense report was taken for misdemeanor assault.

Schools

essential for school accreditation by the Texas Education Association. The Effective Schools concept stresses that all children are capable of learning and includes six key correlates: 1, progressive, goal-setting instructional leadership; 2, a safe and orderly school climate; 3, high teacher expectations of student abilities; 4, testing and evaluation; 5, instructional focus; and 6, parental involvement.

Administrators are expected to ask for funds to initiate the Effective Schools concept in the Snyder school system. Some of the funds will be necessary to send instructors to Effective Schools workshops. The amount of funding necessary has not been determined.

Band Director Walter Reneau is scheduled to present a proposal for new high school band uniforms. Reneau has previously requested the purchase of some 180 uniforms at a cost of $265 each.

Trustees will also discuss a proposal by Superintendent Dalton Moseley to purchase a bus with federal funds for special education students. The bus would contain a lift, which would meet the needs of a current SISD student who is confined to a wheelchair.

The board will also select a firm to provide the year-end financial audit, which in recent years has been conducted by Joe Morren, CPA from Colorado City. Trustees have expressed their confidence in Morren but decided at an earlier meeting to allow local firms to have an opportunity to make proposals as well.

Laubach training workshop date change reported

A two-day Laubach-Way-To-Reading workshop is planned for Feb. 23 and 24 at the Aspermont Library in Aspermont. (Please note that the dates have been moved back a week from Feb. 16-17 as originally scheduled.)

Sponsored by the Scurry County Library and the Aspermont Literacy Council, the workshop will be presented by Joan Nettles of Lubbock.

Friday's session will begin at 5:30 p.m. and conclude at 8:30 p.m. Saturday's session will last seven hours. Each workshop involves some 10 hours of instruction.

Janice Mitchell, Scurry County librarian, is organizing a car pool so volunteers from Snyder can travel together to Aspermont on both days. Anyone interested is asked to contact Mrs. Mitchell either on or before Friday, Feb. 16. Please indicate whether you will need a ride or if you can drive and how many you can take.

The purpose of the Laubach program is to teach adults to read. It is estimated that one out of five adults in Scurry County cannot read.

The literacy program is aimed at teaching non-reading adults, through free and confidential one-to-one instruction. But to accomplish this, Mrs. Mitchell said volunteer literacy tutors are needed.

All volunteers need to take the Laubach training and become certified. Tutors also need to commit at least six months to one year of their time to meet with their student for two 1-1/2 hour sessions each week.

Tutor training is free and all materials are supplied by Scurry County Library. Each student-tutor meets in the library or other designated location at a time convenient to both.

Illiteracy crosses all economic, cultural and ethnic lines, and the causes of illiteracy are varied.

The tutoring program helps illiterate adults help themselves.

NEW YORK (AP) — Campaigning to free her brother, Terry Anderson, the longest-held Western hostage in Lebanon, Peggy Say will meet Friday with U.N. Secretary-General Javier Perez de Cuellar to launch what she called a "journey of peace, reconciliation and hope" to Europe and the Middle East.

The mission coincides with the fifth anniversary of Anderson's abduction in Beirut. Anderson, chief Middle East correspondent for The Associated Press, was seized March 16, 1985.

Seventeen other Western hostages — seven Americans, four Britons, two West Germans, two Swiss, an Italian and an Irishman — are being held in Lebanon.

"I want to appeal for an end to the suffering of all people in the Middle East, including these innocent hostages," said Say, of Cadiz, Ky.

"In Terry's last videotape in October 1988, he asked that the United States use its influence in a positive, not a negative way. I intend to make that same appeal to all of those who may have influence in this hostage situation."

During the tour, Say and AP executives will meet with Pope John Paul II in Rome; the archbishop of Canterbury, Robert Runcie, in London; the European Parliament's Committee on Human Rights in Strasbourg, France; and the International Committee of the Red Cross in Geneva, Switzerland.

The group will also visit UNESCO Director General Federico Mayor in Paris and Syrian Foreign Minister Farouk al-Sharaa in Damascus. The AP delegation includes photographer Donald Mell, who was with Anderson when he was kidnapped in Beirut, and Larry Heinzerling, who has been serving as a special assistant to AP President and General Manager Louis D. Boccardi on the Anderson case.

In regard to the tour, Boccardi said:

"The approach of the fifth anniversary of Terry's captivity carries with it the clear message that there is no point in continuing his cruel ordeal. "Our group will try to convey publicly what we have tried to convey privately, that is, that in the name of humanity it is time for Terry Anderson to be allowed to come home."

The group also hopes to meet with Palestine Liberation Organization chief Yasser Arafat. Say said efforts to meet with Iranian officials received no response. Sheik Mohammed Hussein Fadlallah, spiritual head of Hezbollah, the pro-Iranian Shiite Moslem movement in Lebanon, declined to meet with the group outside Lebanon.

Anderson is being held by a group calling itself Islamic Jihad, or Islamic Holy War, generally believed to be one of several groups operating under the umbrella of Hezbollah.

Public and private efforts throughout the world, involving scores of governments, organizations and individuals, have failed to set Anderson free. Most visible in these efforts has been Anderson's sister, who has traveled widely and campaigned tirelessly on her brother's behalf. The Associated Press has supported Mrs. Say's efforts, financially and logistically, and pressed its own efforts, governmental and non-governmental, to win Anderson's release.

Say said church groups in Buffalo and Batavia, N.Y., plan to organize a nationwide fast and prayer through March 16 "for an end to the suffering of the people of the Middle East." Anderson graduated from Batavia High School.

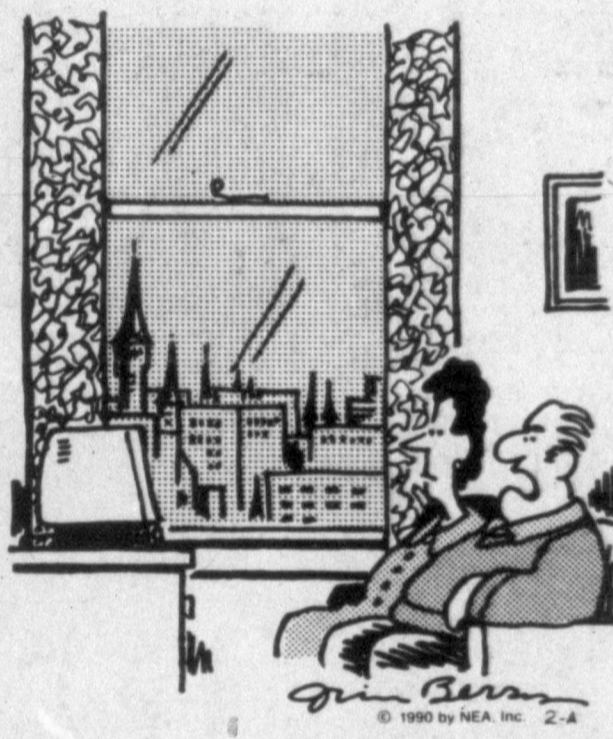

The Buffalo Area Metropolitan Ministries have issued a statement calling on Americans to select a day or days of fasting and prayer in support of the hostages, culminating in a 24-hour fast beginning the evening of March 15.
