At Western Texas...

Candidates speak out during forum

A standing-room-only crowd of 220 people listened as county and area candidates in the March 13 primary elections presented themselves and their ideas Tuesday night at Western Texas College, with some figurative fireworks going off near the end of the two-hour event.

All seats were filled and people sat up and down the aisles of the WTC Fine Arts Theatre as the chamber-sponsored "Meet the Candidates" night began at 7:30 p.m., and there were two verbal confrontations of candidates when moderator and chamber director Bill Moss opened the floor for questions at the end.

Gail Dixon, chief deputy in the county auditor's office, pressed State Rep. David Counts about which gubernatorial candidate is proposing a state lottery after Counts had said he does not favor establishing a lottery.

"That's a real good loaded question, and I understand what you're asking it for," Counts said, adding that he did not "wish to stir up a fight" within his own party.

Because he does not have a race until this fall against Sweetwater Republican John Pennington, the Knox City Democrat said, he will continue to concentrate for now on serving his constituents.

All three Democratic candidates for governor, Jim Mattox, Ann Richards and Mark White, have proposed instituting a lottery, although Mattox claims the idea was his first.

The forum opened with Pennington, like Counts an insurance man, saying Texas now has 300,000 men on parole from prison and that penitentiary inmates should be kept incarcerated longer.

"I say, no new money for old ideas," Pennington said.

Counts, who is seeking a second two-year term, said one of his primary concerns is creating rural jobs, and he said public school finance is another concern because 30 of the 33 school districts in his district are classified as "poor districts."

County judge candidates then spoke, with Republican Bob Doolittle saying the Texas Commerce Department's "Enterprise Zones" program to stimulate rural economies should be explored for Scurry County.

Doolittle also said county road and bridge departments should "united" in one central location.

Greg Crawford, who opposes Doolittle in the GOP primary, said he is "not satisfied with the

In Brief

No survivors

PUTNAM, Texas (AP) — A private plane registered to a company owned by Republican gubernatorial candidate Clayton Williams crashed in a rural area south of here this morning — killing all on board — but Williams' campaign officials say Williams was not on board.

There are "no known survivors," of the crash of the small plane, said National Transportation Safety Board Regional Director Tommy McFall.

Probe widens

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A widening investigation of Ku Klux Klan activity in the Fort Worth area has spread from the sheriff's department to Carswell Air Force Base, where six security officers have been relieved of duty.

Five guards were suspended this week for alleged Klan involvement. The action follows last week's suspension of Air Force Sgt. Timothy Hall, 24, who had secretly operated under the alias J.D. Calhoun while serving as Kleagle, the chief Klan recruiter in Texas.

First lawsuit

AUSTIN (AP) — When Greenville minister Robert S. Turnipseed first became ill last June, he was told an allergy may have caused the hives and rash that appeared on his legs.

Then he developed muscle soreness so severe that he couldn't stand on his own and he lost 60 pounds.

By October, he was diagnosed with the rare and deadly blood disease eosinophilia-myalgia syndrome, a disorder that Turnipseed says may be linked to the amino acid L-Tryptophan.

Task force adopts school finance plan

AUSTIN (AP) — A public school finance reform plan endorsed by the Task Force on Public Education would raise state funding by $234 million the first year and by $1.6 billion in five years.

"The path to get equity is very rapid under this plan," said Houston businessman Charles Miller, chairman of the task force.

But Rep. Ernestine Glossbrenner, who heads the House Public Education Committee and is a task force member, called the plan put forth Tuesday insufficient.

"It's not an adequate model... I'm not going to say it's a good model when it doesn't put enough money into the system," said Ms. Glossbrenner, D-Alice.

The task force was created by Gov. Bill Clements to make legislative recommendations after the Texas Supreme Court, finding glaring disparities between rich and poor school districts, ruled the current school finance system unconstitutional. (see SCHOOL, page 11)

City sales tax rebates down; county figures show increase

Snyder's city sales tax rebates were down 14.76 percent from a year ago, according to the state comptroller's office, which recently sent out checks reflecting taxes collected on December sales.

Snyder received $93,258.61 as compared to $109,412.80 during December of 1988. Year-to-date figures show the city has received $151,100.83, or 3.68 percent less than that of $156,874.94 a year ago.

Scurry County, which collects rebates on its 1/2-cent sales tax, received $60,388.66 for the month, or 19.46 percent more than the previous December when it received $50,551.34. Year-to-date figures compare favorably, with $93,862.66 for the current year as opposed to $78,144.39 a year ago — an increase of 20.11 percent.

The state comptroller's office sent checks totaling $156 million in sales tax rebates to cities and counties. The month's total is the second-highest monthly rebate in the state's history with last February's payments of $157 million setting the record.

Houston received $24 million this month, the state's largest payment.

Among area communities, monthly and year-to-date totals indicated:

—ABILENE received $1,088,438.12, down 4.41 percent. Year-to-date: $1,616,383.32, down 2.43 percent.

—ANDREWS received $74,987.49, up 2.21 percent. Year-to-date: $129,769.33, up 14.56 percent.

—BIG SPRING received $193,526.62, down 4.77 percent. Year-to-date: $289,795.05, up 0.71 percent.

—COLORADO CITY received $45,222.48, down 15.76 percent. Year-to-date: $69,320.49, down 10.17 percent.

—LAMESA received $67,651.12, down 14.35 percent. Year-to-date: (see SALES, page 11)

Snyder girl, 16, dies of injuries suffered in weekend accident

A 16-year-old Snyder girl died Tuesday evening from injuries sustained in a automobile rollover accident last weekend.

Dora Gonzales Martinez, of 100 37th St., Apt. 49, died at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday at St. Mary of the Plains Hospital in Lubbock, where she had been air-lifted following a Saturday accident in which she suffered head and internal injuries.

DORA GONZALES MARTINEZ
1973-1990

The accident occurred at 9 p.m. Saturday near the intersection of China Grove Rd. and County Road 4127, south of the city. According to the Department of Public Safety, a 1986 Lincoln Continental in which Martinez and three other teenagers were passengers went out of control and overturned, coming to rest upside down.

Martinez and 16-year-old Amy Ramirez of 1805 Scott Ave., were ejected from the car. The other victims were the driver, 15-year-old Heath Hodges of 2214 43rd St., and 16-year-old Greg Robinson of 2718 48th St.

Hodges and Robinson were treated and released from Cogdell Memorial Hospital after 23-hour observation. Ramirez was released from the hospital (see MARTINEZ, page 11)

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Married men have better halves but bachelors have better quarters."

Young and old alike enjoy Valentine's Day. One can have a good time by simply standing in front of the greeting card rack and reading the various humorous messages.

On this special day, it's hugs, kisses, sweets for the sweet and—for some—even mushy notes of endearments. Three of the four are okay, but the surgeon general is considering a warning with regard to kissing.

According to researchers, it may be more healthful to kiss Fido and to get a wet tongue on the cheek in return.

According to Dr. Gary White of the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, "There are some bacterial organisms in animals' mouths, but the number is low compared to people." The researcher further noted that the chances of getting a disease, orally, from an animal would be considerably less than the possibility of getting one from a human.

This finding may cause radical changes in youthful dating. Young men may have to pat her on the head and give her dog a goodnight kiss.

- Some special Valentine messages:
 - From a landlord, "Roses are red, orchids are white. I'll release your family if you'll vacate by tonight."
 - A card from an obvious bureaucrat. It came in triplicate.
 - The IRS agent got stopped by airport security. His heart set off the metal detector.
 - Several years ago someone sent Candy for Valentine's Day—and she won't go away.
 - Artificial hearts are popular on this day—to send to artificial friends.
 - Valentine's Day Massacre needs to be changed to coincide with April 15—taxpaying day.

Seed and grain dealers give to Hightower's campaign

DALLAS (AP) - Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower's campaign received $6,600 from seed and grain dealers when their chief regulators visited them with a consultant who solicited the donations, the Dallas Morning News reported today.

In a copyright story, the newspaper said financial disclosure reports show that virtually all of the donations were made within a day of the visits by Bill Quicksall, the interim director of the Texas Department of Agriculture's grain and seed warehouse division, and lobbyist Bob Boyd of Austin.

The newspaper quoted some of the dealers as saying they agreed with Mr. Hightower's policies and intended to contribute to his re-election anyway. Some of the others, however, said they felt an implied threat: Ante up, or it could be bad for business.

Hightower told the newspaper he was unaware of the solicitations and said Boyd does not work for his campaign.

The commissioner also said he did not know that Boyd, a frequent consultant for the department, was soliciting money while accompanying a chief regulator for his department.

Hightower said that had he known about these kinds of solicitations, he would have stopped them.

It is illegal for state employees to collect political contributions while on state business.

"I don't want any kind of contribution brought to me under any kind of duress," said Hightower, who faces six other Democrats in the March 13 primary.

Hightower sent letters to the contributors who were identified by the newspaper, along with a check reimbursing them.

Fund-raising "should not be done in tandem with any official status with this office," he said.

He disputed the claim that similar solicitations have occurred in the past.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would you please comment on why the weight of food consumed is not related to body weight. I love peanut butter and could go through a pound a week, yet this means a 3-pound weight gain. My friends don't understand.

DEAR READER: Some food is rich in calories, whereas other food isn't. When you eat calorie-rich food, such as sugar and fats, the calories are either burned for energy or converted by the body into adipose (fat) tissue. On the other hand, low-calorie foods — for example, vegetables — have a high fiber and water content, so what little weight they may add will be temporary.

Most people will not gain 3 pounds of weight by eating 1 pound of food, unless the food is salty and causes fluid retention. There are other exceptions, of course, such as high-calorie candy, that may produce weight gain out of proportion to the amount consumed.

Eating a pound of chocolates, for instance, would be imprudent and cause you to be violently ill. I know because I once did it as a child and couldn't stand the sight or smell of chocolate for years. But that's another story.

I suggest you keep a diary of what you eat. Such a record would give you interesting information. At the end of each day, estimate the number of calories you have eaten by using a calorie list; these lists are readily available in most diet books.

A pound of body-fat contains about 3,500 calories. The diary, providing it's an honest and complete record of your intake, will show you the calorie content of your diet, which you can compare to your weight. Therefore, you'll be able to calculate how much the various types of food contribute to your weight, and how much you will have to cut back your intake to lose — or to maintain — an ideal weight.

In order to lose a pound a week — an acceptable goal for long-term weight control — you would have to eat 500 calories a day (3,500 divided by 7) less than you need for your basic metabolic requirement. This basic metabolic requirement varies from person to person and appears to depend on genetic influences, as well as activity level and other factors.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Weight Control Through Calorie Control." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I have diabetes at the age of 72, and my doctor indicates taking insulin makes one sexy. Why? Sign me wondering.

DEAR READER: Wonder no longer. Insulin has no effect on sexual interest. However, diabetes is a common cause of sexual dysfunction, especially in males, because the disease leads to premature hardening of the arteries. This arterial blockage can result in impotence, which is difficult to treat.

Police said man would kill

ABILENE, Texas (AP) - An Abilene man charged with murder in Las Cruces, N.M., was paroled from a Texas prison in November after serving about five years of a 35-year sentence for attempted murder, officials said.

When James Hayes Lane was released, Abilene police predicted he would kill someone within three months. On Sunday — about three months after his release — Lane was arrested and charged with murder in the fatal stabbing of 26-year-old Timothy Johnson of Las Cruces in a drug deal gone bad, police said.

"That doesn't surprise me," Abilene police Sgt. Roger Dickey said. "I told you it would probably be within three months. I'm not surprised at all."

When Lane was released in November, police, the district attorney, the sheriff and state Rep. Bob Hunter pleaded with the state not to free him.

"We consider him an extreme danger," Dickey was quoted as saying in a Dec. 6 article in the Abilene Reporter-News.

Las Cruces police said Lane had the article folded and stuffed into a pocket when he was arrested.

"This is the very thing you hope you won't hear," Hunter said of the murder accusation. "But obviously, our worst fears have come true."

Lane's legal troubles began at 18, when he pleaded guilty to burglary and was placed on probation, officials said. After violating probation, he was sent to Taylor County Jail in Abilene, where he set a jail cell on fire and tried to escape, officials said. He was sent to prison on 12-year sentence for arson and a 10-year sentence for violating probation.

He served three years and was paroled in October 1983. He was charged with attempted murder less than three months later, and pleaded guilty to stabbing the owner of a car he was burglarizing, officials said.

Lane was sentenced to 35 years for attempted murder and 20 years for burglary and was imprisoned for almost five years before being released on parole in November, officials said.

Hunter said the state Board of Pardons and Paroles told him last summer that Lane wouldn't be eligible for parole until 1991.

Astrograph by Bernice Bede Osol

Your Birthday

Feb. 15, 1990

In the year ahead it looks like you will establish several important material objectives. Your possibility for achieving each appear very good.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) An opportunity of a fleeting nature may be presented to you today. If you are too coy and dilly-dally, you might watch it being disassembled before your eyes. Trying to patch up a broken romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker can help you to understand what to do to make the relationship work. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH, 44101-3428.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Someone who is separated from you geographically but not in spirit has been very anxious to hear from you. A call or note on your behalf today will be appreciated.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) This could be an advantageous day for joint ventures. Something extraordinary might occur that both parties involved will pick up on and use in ways that will compound benefits.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Even though your present plans look pretty good, keep an open mind regarding the suggestions for revisions by others. Another's concept might be superior to yours.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) An unexpected development might occur at this time that will enable you to reap greater rewards than you're presently receiving for something on which you're now working.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be alert for spur-of-the-moment happenings that could brighten and liven up your day. However, a flexible schedule is necessary to permit you the latitude you'll need to participate.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You can accomplish a lot of little things today that you have left unfinished in the past. If you're motivated to do so, this time you'll complete each job.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A system that works extremely well for a friend of yours can be applied to your own problems today. Try to use the same procedures with as little variations as possible.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your possibilities for adding to your resources look extremely encouraging in this cycle. Chance could play a rather unique role in your affairs.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Don't be reluctant to discard old, unworkable ideas if you come up with a raft of fresh thoughts today. Occasionally it makes sense to switch horses in midstream.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Someone you have treated with consideration recently is looking for a way to reciprocate. Today he/she might figure out a way to do it.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You'll recognize a good idea when you hear one today and you might be exposed to several. Later you'll have chances to use them to your advantage.

Topless dancers stir flap over public access channel

AUSTIN (AP) - Mayor Lee Cooke says the city should review cable program standards after two topless dancers performed a striptease act and exposed their breasts early Tuesday morning on a local public access channel.

The dancers were on an all-night music video show that aired live from 1:30 a.m. until 8 a.m. Tuesday. The program, called "Dull-A-Vision," is locally produced and appears three times a week.

"My wife started taking calls at 6 a.m. this morning," Cooke said. "I want to look at our contractual arrangements and see what sort of standards these shows have to meet. We will look into this."

Cooke refused to say how many complaints he received and declined further comment.

Scott Spurlock, producer and host of the show, said he invited the women to appear on the show and that they danced several times between 5 a.m. and 6:30 a.m. Tuesday at the request of viewers.

Spurlock said the women work at Zigfield's, a topless bar, and wore torn black dresses and G-strings, he said.

Cooke called him to complain about the show at 7 a.m., Spurlock said.

"He said this was not the kind of access television that he supported and that he would be looking into it as soon as possible," Spurlock said. "That led me to believe he will try and get it taken off the air. It seems kind of a cheap shot, but who am I to say?"

Spurlock, 27, also said he received several complaints "from a couple of old ladies, but we kind of expect that. If we don't get those, we aren't doing our job."

Nudity is not new to the show, Spurlock said, noting that last week cameras showed him as he took a shower.

Austin Cable TV spokeswoman Lynda Lieberman says the non-profit organization which manages the city's three public access stations has little control over the content of the shows on the channels.

Producers sign a contract that states their program will not contain libelous or slanderous material and will not violate state and federal obscenity laws, Lieberman said.

"We remain neutral about the content," she said. "We are here to provide the public access to free speech. That doesn't mean we necessarily support or advocate the content of the programs."

"If people don't like it, they can change the channel," he said. "And if they are upset because they think their kids are watching it, all they have to do is unhook their TV from cable."

Wilma Dillard earns nomination for award

Wilma Dillard, patient relations coordinator at Cogdell Memorial Hospital, has been nominated by St. Mary of the Plains Hospital for the St. Joseph Health System's 1990 "Values in Action" awards program.

Established in 1987 by the system's Board of Trustees, the Values in Action Awards recognize and honor individuals for their outstanding contribution to the system's health care ministry.

St. Mary is one of seven hospitals which make up the St. Joseph Health System.

Mrs. Dillard was eligible for the nomination as a result of St. Mary's management agreement with Cogdell Memorial through its Rural Outreach program. Any person associated with St. Mary may be nominated for an award.

She is St. Mary's nominee for the "Opportunity to Serve" Award, given to an individual who has demonstrated a commitment to service by contributing to the quality of life in the community.

Mrs. Dillard brought more than 12 years involvement in the Snyder community when she became Cogdell Memorial's first patient relations coordinator in March 1988.

In that position she makes daily rounds to determine patient, family and physician needs, working closely with the nursing staff to promote patient satisfaction.

At Cogdell she has also been a member of the hospital auxiliary since 1973, and was instrumental in the development of a Medical Student-Scholarship Fund which has raised more than $200,000 and brought five physicians to the community.

She also helped raise $62,000 for the hospital's mammography unit, is currently vice-chairman of the Senior Center Advisory Board, and is a long-standing member of the Scurry County United Way Board of Directors.

Mrs. Dillard has also been president of the United Blood Services and helped raise blood drive totals from an average of 40 to more than 170 units per drive.

Montana signs contract

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Super Bowl MVP Joe Montana is endorsing a new line of sports shoes and jeans that will put millions in his pocket.

L.A. Gear Co. plans to release a signature line of men's jeans called "The Montana" this fall. Montana's name also will appear on cross-training shoes, the company announced Monday.

Montana's contract is estimated to be worth between $3 million and $5 million. Entertainer Michael Jackson, former Los Angeles Lakers star Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Houston Rockets center Akeem Olajuwon also advertise for L.A. Gear.

Zoo won't accept 3 cheetahs

HOUSTON (AP) — A gift of three rare South African cheetahs has been rejected by the Houston Zoo because a city councilman expressed concerns that acceptance of the endangered animals would violate the spirit of the city's anti-apartheid ordinance.

The ordinance bars Houston from buying goods from South Africa, from dealing with firms that have loans in South Africa and from selling to agencies in South Africa that enforce apartheid.

Councilman Ernest McGowan said that although the cheetahs were purchased with private funds by the donor group, Zoo Friends, he felt that accepting the animals, bought from a South African zoo, would violate the intent of the ordinance.

A clever alternative

By James Jacoby

How can you make a trick from K-10-5 facing 6-4-3? You can lead up to the king and hope the ace is well placed. And you can also lead toward that K-10 and hope that the Q-J is in front of the king. So sometimes the 10 will force the ace, and at other times the ace will be in front of the king. Finally you might be able to eliminate some of the defenders' side-suits and get a trick by means of an endplay.

After three spades was raised to four, West led the heart 10. Declarer could readily see that the contract would depend upon making a club trick, but touching that suit could be postponed. So declarer played the jack of hearts under East's queen. East returned a heart. Declarer won, played to dummy's diamond ace and ruffed a diamond, and then led a spade to dummy's ace and ruffed another diamond. A spade to dummy's king was followed by a heart ruff. At this point declarer would have liked to ruff dummy's last diamond, but that was simply not possible. Declarer had to hope that the partial elimination was enough. So declarer played a club and put in dummy's 10-spot. East won the jack but unfortunately had no more diamonds. A heart from East would allow declarer to sluff a club from his hand while ruffing with dummy's jack of spades. And a club from East would be away from the ace, making a trick for dummy's king. Kudos to declarer for playing for the chance that East had started with only three diamonds.

Murder defendant's statements conflict

DECATUR, Texas (AP) — Sharon Green gave police conflicting accounts of her part in the deaths of two women in rural Wise County, according to statements entered as evidence in her murder trial here.

Prosecutors introduced statements on Tuesday that Mrs. Green made to Tarrant County investigators in April after a drug counselor told them a patient had information about four slayings.

Tarrant County sheriff's investigator Wayne Boggus testified that Mrs. Green implicated her husband in four unsolved slayings — the two women in Wise County, and two men in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Green, who is on trial in the death of Betty Jo Monroe, told investigators her husband, Ricky Green, tried to get her to stab both women, but she refused because she feared her husband would kill her if she did not.

Boggus said Mrs. Green said numerous times that she was afraid of her husband's family, and that one time Green choked her into unconsciousness.

Big Spring ends SHS season

Lady Tigers fall, 67-62, in playoff to decide second place

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor
COAHOMA — The Lady Steers of Big Spring ended the SHS girls' season in a one-game basketball playoff here Tuesday, 67-62.

The game was necessary to establish District 4-4A's second post season entrant as the two squads were tied with identical 9-5 loop records.

"We didn't get on the boards at either end," said coach Kenneth Housden after the game.

"We were getting one shot each trip down and we gave them two or three.

"We didn't block out well on free throws, but that goes back to rebounding," he concluded.

Snyder appeared to be on a roll as they took an early 12-4 lead by the 4:00 mark.

The lead had dwindled to 14-13 on a three-pointer by Stephanie Smith with 1:20 left in the first quarter.

Giselia Spears, the Lady Steers massive center, looped a shot over Anne Osborn to complete the momentum swing in Big Spring's favor and give the Lady Steers their first lead of the contest at 15-14.

The quarter ended with BSHS holding a 16-14 lead.

Osborn tied the score early in the second stanza with a short jumper and Teena Braziel gave the lead back to the Lady Tigers on a bucket with under seven minutes left in the half.

Spears scored again from inside the paint to knot the score at 18-all.

Braziel was relegated to the Snyder bench at 5:20 in the second as she had collected three personal fouls.

Dessie Ware brought the crowd to its feet with a beautiful three-point bucket to put Snyder in front, 21-18.

Jennifer Hendleman went to the back door for a Big Spring basket closing the gap to 21-20.

Peggy Smith went the three-point route for the Lady Steers setting the score at 23-21.

Smith scored four more before halftime as did Osborn.

The tally rested at 32-27 at intermission with the Lady Steers on top.

Big Spring came out of the dressing room full of vinegar and quickly expanded their advantage to nine points on a crawl-over bucket by Spears.

Snyder fought back to within three points at the 3:20 mark on a deuce by Osborn off a feed in the paint from Ware.

Spears drew her third foul of the contest sandwiched between a looping jumper in the lane and a pair of free throws from Osborn.

Osborn's heroics had put Snyder back to within a point at 43-42.

She wasn't through, either.

On the Tigers next possession she drew a foul from the ever-present Spears and sank both ends of the one-and-one to tie the battle at 44 apiece.

Osborn and Spears met again with :04 remaining in the third period.

Spears again fouled the Snyder senior who, once again, connected on both free throws and the score stood at 49-46 with the Lady Steers still leading.

The fourth quarter was one of desperation shots and little defense for Snyder.

Robbie Braziel tied the score at 50 with a two-pointer with under seven minutes left in the season.

Peggy Smith put Big Spring up by eight with time running out on a leaning lay-up.

Teena Braziel scored with 3:28 left followed by Robbie Braziel's hoop at 2:50 to narrow the margin to 61-57.

Bridget Black hit a pair of shots from the charity stripe to move Big Spring out in front by seven, 66-59, with 1:15 to go.

The game ended with Snyder's offensive rebound looking like a volleyball as ten eager cagers took turns knocking it in the air as Snyder's season ended with the sounding of the horn.

Osborn, to no one's surprise, was the high scorer in Tuesday's game hitting for 24 points including a 10 of 11 performance from the line.

Tigers pop Sweetwater, 61-43 to take lead in District 4-4A

SWEETWATER — Snyder's Tigers clinched a spot in post-season play with their 61-43 win over Sweetwater Tuesday.

The SHS victory, coupled with Pecos' 48-47 loss to Andrews puts the Tigers in the playoffs.

"It was a fun game for us," said Coach Larry Scott.

"We played excellent defense, especially in the third quarter," he continued. "That was the difference in the ball game."

The Tigers allowed Sweetwater just four points in the third period while scoring 21 to put the game out of reach for the Mustangs.

Snyder, now 12-1 in District 4-4A competition and alone at the top of the standings, was led offensively by Tracy Braziel and Lee Hamilton, each with 19 points.

Ed Rios contributed nine to the Snyder cause.

The Mustangs' leading scorer was 6-4 post Tim Taylor with 20 points.

"He scored 20," Scott said of Taylor, "but most of them were off rebounds."

"We fronted him, trying to deny him the ball and we gave up a little rebounding position and he had some easy shots that way," the coach explained.

Snyder was ahead 32-26 at the half before the third quarter seige began.

The Tigers will still need to beat Pecos Friday to claim the loop title outright.

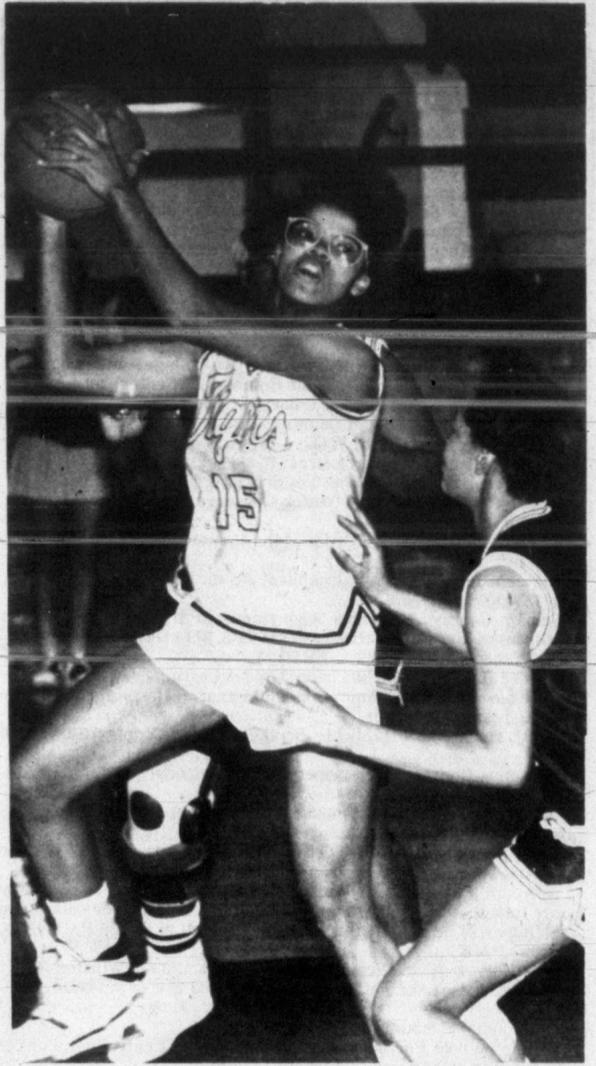

Should Snyder win in Pecos, the Eagles and Andrews would meet to decide second place.

If Pecos were to win, Snyder and the Eagles would have to play a third time to decide the post-season seedings.

In other action in Sweetwater Tuesday, the Tiger junior varsity fell to the Mustangs 46-42.

Paul Anderson scored 16 for Snyder while Eric West and Jerry Don Tippins tossed in nine apiece.

Both squads will be in action Friday night as the JV tips off at 6 p.m. and the varsity at 7:30 p.m.

Seventh grade nabs top spots in event

Snyder's seventh grade boys claimed top spots in the Snyder Tournament last weekend at the junior high school here.

The seventh grade "B" team won their division and the "A" squad captured second place among other "A" units.

Each squad placed two players on the all-tournament team.

John Clinkinbeard and Ricky Post were the Snyder representatives in the "B" team category, while Reagan Key and Jeremy Wells made the all-tourney team for the "A" bunch.

Each team faced Sweetwater in the opening round of the tournament with seventh grade "A" taking a 43-39 win and the "B" teamers winning 23-18.

Key and Lee Idom paced "A" with 12 points apiece and Clinkinbeard scored 10 to lead "B".

Colorado City was the next victim for each team. The "A" team routed the Wolves 57-29 as Lionel Aviles tossed in 11 points and Key added 10.

The "B" team outscored Colorado City 54-45 as Clinkinbeard poured in 19 followed by Post with nine.

Both teams faced Lamesa for the tourney championship with the seventh graders making up the "B" team coming out on top 47-40 on the strength of a 19-point performance by Clinkinbeard and 18 points from Post, and the "A" team losing to the Tors, 67-17.

In the seventh grade's last game of the season the "A" squad fell to Merkel, 37-35, while the "B" teamers beat the Badgers 44-9.

Jeremy Wells and Reagan Key had six points each and Greg McAden tossed in five for the "A" team.

Ricky Sosa led the "B" barrage with 10 points followed by Ricky Post with nine and John Clinkinbeard with seven.

Snyder's seventh grade "A" ended the campaign with a 5-9 mark while the "B" crew boasts a season record of 11-2.

SJHS cagers win tourney

Snyder's eighth grade Tigers claimed a pair of championships in the Snyder Tournament last weekend.

The "A" team beat Sweetwater in the first round, 48-44, followed by a 60-27 trouncing of Colorado City.

The young Tigers edged Lamesa, 63-58, for the title.

Eric Braziel tossed in 18 points against Sweetwater, 12 versus Colorado City and 20 in the title matchup against Lamesa.

Jon Patrick shot for 13 against Sweetwater, nine against C-City and six versus Lamesa.

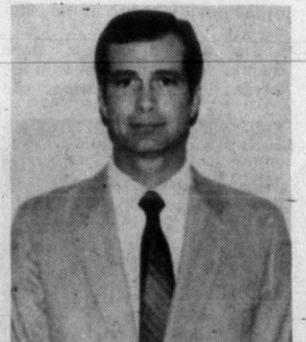

Jim Pat Griffin poured in eight, nine and 15 points, respectively. Braziel, Griffin and Patrick were named all-tournament in the "A" division.

In the "B" team category, Jimmy Henry and Jeremy Gross received all-tourney honors.

Henry scored 10 points and Gross 10 as the "B" teamers defeated Sweetwater, 30-19, to open the event.

Colorado City lost to Snyder in the second round, 46-39, on the strength of Brian Upton's 19 points and Gross' 10.

In the championship tilt against the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes Gross contributed 12 points and Henry tossed in 11 to pace the Snyder club to a 36-35 win.

COACH LARRY SCOTT

Scott tabbed for July tilt

Snyder boys' basketball coach Larry Scott has been named to coach the north all-stars in the Texas High School Coaches Association All-Star Game to take place in Hoffheinz Pavilion on the university of Houston campus.

"It is a real honor," said Scott. "It is voted on by member coaches across the state and it means a lot to be recognized by your peers."

Scott will be working with the top senior basketball players in the state for the July 30 contest.

Jerrel Hartfiel of Alies Elsik was tabbed to guide the south squad.

Aggies set to sign schoolboy recruits

by The Associated Press
The Texas A&M Aggies were prepared to reap the biggest harvest of Texas schoolboy football talent today, the first day colleges can sign players to football letters of intent.

The Aggies planned to sign Orangefield's Jeff Granger, one of the state's top quarterback prospects, and two of Aldine MacArthur's top players, quarterback Steve Emerson and running back Jonathon Walker.

Huntsville quarterback Steve Clements, the state's top quarterback prospect, planned an early morning signing with the Texas Longhorns, his coach and father Joe Clements' alma mater.

Houston Yates' defensive end Aubrey Beavers, the state's top-ranked player, said he would sign with the Oklahoma Sooners today.

Plano's Jeff Savage, the state's top running back prospect, was expected to sign with Arkansas after earlier committing to Tennessee.

Clements committed on Jan. 21 to the Texas Longhorns, where his father was a quarterback in 1955-57.

Clements completed 177 of 293 passes for 2,583 yards and 26 touchdowns last season and finished his career with a state record, 8,204 passing yards.

Clements also set state records for 589 career completions and 1,009 career attempts.

Ty Detmer, now the starting quarterback at Brigham-Young, held the previous passing record of 8,005 yards while playing at San Antonio Southwest in 1983-86.

Beavers, following a legacy of outstanding Yates defensive ends, led the Lions with 99 tackles, 14 sacks and eight fumble recoveries last season.

He was a three-year starter and finished with 33 career sacks and 20 fumble recoveries.

Pro's Dexter Manley of the Washington Redskins and John Roper, a 1989 second round pick of the Chicago Bears, are former Lions defensive ends.

Savage gained 1,080 yards last season despite missing two games with an ankle injury.

Arkansas also has a commitment from Edmond, Okla., quarterback Jason Allen, who led Edmond to a 23-3 record over the past two years.

He completed 98 of 178 passes for 1,402 yards in leading Edmond to the 1989 state title.

The Razorbacks also moved to fill graduation holes in their offensive line left by losses of starting tackles Jim Mabry and Rick Apolskis and center Elbert Crawford.

Junior college transfers Dwight Atterberry of Tyler Junior College and Jerrol Skinner of Fort Scott, Kan., Junior College already are in school and will give quick help in the offensive line.

Tiger Sharks grab awards

Amy Herrera and Jared Rinehart of the Tiger Shark Swim Club were among swimmers receiving awards at the ABC Swim Meet in Abilene recently.

Herrera won fourth in the 100 free "A" division, the 200 back "B" division and the 50 free "A" division.

She also captured sixth in the 100 breast "B" division.

Rinehart finished in seventh place in the 50 back and 50 free "C" competition.

Ashley Herrera, K.C. Harrison and Kevin Taylor also attended the meet for the Tiger Sharks.

The local swimmers competed against 150 swimmers involving eight other teams according to club coach Mike Harrison.

As manager of the Dodgers in Brooklyn and Los Angeles, Walter Alston won 20 World Series games and lost the same number.

Rotan beats Roby in loop showdown

The Rotan Lady Yellowhammers whipped Roby, 48-38, in Scurry County Coliseum Tuesday night to claim the District 25A championship.

Terri Johnson and Cathy Jones combined for 33 points for Rotan. Johnson hit for 18 and Jones was good for 16 on the night.

Lorissa Edmondson scored 20 points for the Lady Lions followed by Shana Feagan with 14.

Roby took an early 10-3 lead but the advantage was trimmed to 20-18 by halftime.

The Lady Lions led by just a point after a 13-12 third period in favor of Rotan.

The Lady 'Hammers exploded for 17 in the final quarter while holding Roby to just six to claim the win and the loop crown.

Both squads will advance to the Class A playoffs with opponents, times and sites to be announced.

In a pre-playoff practice game following the girls' matchup, Sundown's boys slipped past Roby 64-62.

Roby, the second place finisher in District 25A, was led by Eddie Onofre with a game-high 24 points, including four three-point buckets.

Both Roby and Sundown will advance in the post-season with games still to be scheduled.

Tigers tag Dunbar in diamond action

The Tigers' baseball team claimed a 6-2 win over Lubbock Dunbar in the first scrimmage for both squads Tuesday at Moffett Field.

Snyder pitching combined for 13 strikeouts and just five hits in the six-innings played.

Bart Morton, starting pitcher, tossed 2 1-3 innings of no hit ball before giving way to senior Tommy Lane.

Lane was not to pitch because of a football injury but decided to throw a few in the scrimmage.

He ended up fanning six, walking two and taking the win for Snyder.

The Tigers opened the game strong as Bert Merritt and Randy Morris each rapped base hits.

A sacrifice from David Patrick advanced the SHS baserunners and a hit by Wright scored the first two hitters.

Bats were quiet for both teams after that until the bottom of the third when the Tigers scored as Morris was driven in on a walk and a wild pitch.

Dunbar pushed a run across in their half of the fourth inning on a trio of base hits wrapped around a strikeout, a walk and two ground outs.

Snyder's big inning was the fifth as three runs scored on a double by Terry Stephens and walks by Patrick and Daniel Espinoza.

The Tigers scrimmage schedule continues with a contest against Midland Lee at Moffett Field Saturday at 1 p.m.

Snyder begins regular season play against Lubbock Estacado Feb. 27.

Bulldogs fall in scrimmage

ROSCOE — The District 25A Champion Ira Bulldogs dropped a practice game against Eula, 61-57, in Roscoe Tuesday night.

Shane Bearden scored 21 points for Ira followed by James Sturdivant with 17 and Jason Withers with 12.

Eula's Craig Smith scored 14 in the win.

Ira will play another practice game before starting the Class A playoffs against Westbrook next week.

The Bulldogs will face Sands in Stanton in another warm-up for the post-season Friday at 7 p.m.

NBA roundup...

Bird's free-throw string ends

By The Associated Press
Not even Larry Bird could explain his miss.

"I just missed it," the Boston Celtics star said. "There's no explanation."

Bird sank his first three free throws against the Houston Rockets, running his streak to 71 in a row, seven short of the NBA record set by Houston's Calvin Murphy in the 1980-81 season.

"This sort of thing builds excitement," Bird said. "Any time history is in the process of being made, it creates even more fan excitement."

But with Murphy in the stands watching, Bird missed with 4:17 remaining in the third quarter.

"The game was really too close to think about it," Bird said.

It was one of the few shots Bird missed Tuesday night as he led the Boston Celtics to 107-94 victory over the Rockets. Bird scored 38 points, grabbed 14 rebounds and had eight assists.

In other NBA games, it was Chicago 107, Miami 95; New York 114, Atlanta 109; Detroit 106, Denver 96; Indiana 128, Charlotte 105; Dallas 103, San Antonio 96; Utah 110, Minnesota 104 in overtime; Portland 110, Seattle 106; Phoenix 118, the Los Angeles Clippers 96 and Sacramento 106, Washington 98.

Bird scored 25 points in the first half, when he didn't shoot a free throw, and the Celtics led 55-49. Houston pulled ahead at 72-71 with 2:49 left in the third quarter, but the Celtics held a 79-77 advantage going into the fourth quarter.

Bird hit seven of his first nine shots and finished the game hitting 15 of 30 from the field. After Lady Tigers.

Spears led the Big Spring squad with 17 on the evening.

The Lady Tigers finish competition with a 9-6 record against District 4-4A foes and 16-10 in all games played.

Big Spring will advance to the playoffs facing either Canyon Randall or Levelland in the first round of action.

Sweetwater's Lady Mustangs are the district champion by virtue of their 14-0 record in circuit play.

way our county government is being run."

Crawford said county governmental officials have not made the proper adjustments to cope with the declining oil tax base.

Incumbent County Judge Bobby Goodwin, a Democrat, said his purpose was "to convince you that I can do a better job of governing Scurry County than anybody else."

Goodwin emphasized that his job is heavily judicial, with responsibilities for presiding over criminal and civil courts and probate court, where wills are interpreted and settled, or probated.

He said all of a county judge's actions should "exemplify dignity."

Goodwin's primary opponent, Marlin Terrell, opened by referring to the Jan. 20 tax roll-back election, when "the taxpayers spoke loud and clear."

Terrell said he has been asked to elaborate on how county expenditures could be reduced, adding, "I think you can make promises in a campaign that can be hard to carry out, so I'm no making any promises."

He did say, however, that county finances could be managed in a "more prudent" manner.

District clerk candidates Elois Pruitt and Patsy Williams both spoke, with Pruitt arguing that her 12 years as chief deputy in the office have qualified her for the post.

Pruitt said she has been working primarily in the office's domestic department, supervising the collection and disbursement of more than $750,000 in child support payments last year.

She pledged to continue outgoing District Clerk Polly Underwood's longtime practice of reducing or holding the office's budget at the same level each year.

Williams said her long experience in business and as a public school teacher would be useful as district clerk. Williams said she would bring "a fresh approach" to the office and would save money by reducing its use of part-time employees.

Pruitt is a Democrat and Parked car hit

Police are looking for a motorist who hit a parked car in the Western Texas College dormitory parking lot Tuesday.

They said damages to a parked 1985 Pontiac owned by Frances Pilsner of Roscoe were discovered at 12:24 a.m.

Williams a Republican, and they will face each other in the November general election.

There was some friction between Democratic county treasurer candidates Rita Staton and Polly W. Echols as Staton, the incumbent, saying she was appointed last year "over 10 other applicants, including my opponent."

Staton criticized Echols' proposal to reduce the treasurer's staff to one by computerizing the office, saying she asked for computerization last year but was turned down by the commissioners court.

She said there is enough work to keep her and her assistant, Janet Merritt, busy.

Echols said her background as a Wadleigh, being heavily involved in Wadleigh Construction Co., and as head bookkeeper at Tri-State Construction Co. qualify her for the job.

Pct. 2 commissioner candidates Roy Idom, a Republican, and Tommy Pate, the Democratic incumbent, gave their positions, with Idom saying county equipment should be "unitized" at one location and the total number of county roadgraders reduced from 14 to "six to eight."

Idom said water trucks could

Fuel theft investigated

Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft of a large amount of diesel fuel from a tank belonging to SACROC west of Snyder.

C.W. Warren of the corporation reported at 9:10 a.m. Tuesday that 600 to 800 gallons of the fuel was probably stolen Monday, off County Road 1607 near the old magnesium plant.

Police took two theft reports Tuesday, one involving a license plate that was stolen from a car belonging to David Ridgeway of 2426 Sunset Ave.

Ridgeway told officers at 1:44 p.m. Tuesday that the rear plate had been taken from his 1978 Plymouth, license number 438-MGA.

In a second Tuesday theft report, Radio Shack manager Steve Whittenburg told police at 5:28 p.m. that a scanner had been stolen from the 3707 College Ave. store.

Bobby Burnett of 2611 El Paso Ave. reported at 5:14 p.m. that someone had broken into his home, and an investigator said the incident would be worked as a criminal mischief case.

be used to wet road for grading if there were not enough machines to get over the county's 680 miles of dirt roads in the two or three days that they stay wet after a rain.

Pate, who is seeking a second four-year term, said each precinct needs three machines to get over the roads in time and that using only two would cause the roads to get narrower.

Don Tucker, Pate's primary opponent, did not attend the forum.

Pct. 4 commissioner candidates Bill Kimmel, Jack Greene Sr. and Jerry Gannaway, all Democrats, all said they

Tuesday. Rosary for Martinez will be said at 8 p.m. Thursday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel. Services will be held at 4 p.m. Friday at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church with Fr. Bill Costigan officiating. Burial will follow in Snyder Cemetery.

Born July 31, 1973, in Snyder, she was a junior at Snyder High School.

Survivors include her mother, Josefina Martinez and her father, Emeterio Martinez, both of Snyder; two sisters, Gloria Gutierrez and Anita Tovar, both of Odessa; three brothers, Bennie Martinez of Lubbock, and Max and Johnny Martinez, both of Snyder; and several nieces and nephews.

would support centralizing county equipment.

Kimmel said his corporate experience with a "five-year rolling forecast" of revenues could be applied to county government so that revenue shortfalls would not create an emergency.

Greene argued that his 32 years with Jack's Roadboring & Pipeline Construction qualify him to apply business principles to governmental operations.

Greene said his three sons are taking over the family business and that he wants "to step up and help the county" in its strained financial circumstances.

Gannaway said his experience as a nine-year member of the Hermleigh School Board and 12 years on the China Grove City board would help as a commissioner.

"I have looked at several budgets," Gannaway said, adding that Scurry County taxpayers "want taxes reduced."

Outgoing Pct. 4 Commissioner Ted Billingsley is seeking election as Pct. 1 justice of the peace, and he pledged to be called out "at any hour" to perform his duties and to pursue check collections and small claims settlements.

Billingsley said he would render "honest judgments" as a peace justice.

Local motel owner Art Feinsod took Billingsley to task for what Feinsod said was Billingsley's unresponsiveness to a culvert that washed out near Feinsod's home.

"I hope he will work a little bit harder than he did as commissioner," Feinsod said. Billingsley did not respond to Feinsod's criticism.

Wanda Rushing, his Democratic primary opponent, said her 11 years as Justice of the Peace Dan Callaway's assistant have prepared her for the office.

She said a third of Texas peace justices are women and that they are performing all the duties of the office, including inquests into deaths. "They can, and I can, and I will," she said.

Democratic County Chairman Earl "Hassie" Sneed urged the crowd to take part in the precinct conventions that will follow the March 13 election, noting that that is where the delegates to the county convention are selected.

John Thomas, who is running for Republican county chairman, and Hermleigh peace justice candidate H.M. Lomax did not attend.

School finance plan

Lawmakers meet in special session beginning Feb. 27 to work toward a court-imposed May 1 deadline to change the approximately $1.1-billion school finance system, which relies on a mixture of state and local funds.

Rep. Jim Rudd, head of the budget-writing House Appropriations Committee, said lawmakers could escape without a state tax bill in the special session if new education money is held to less than $200 million the first year. The special session begins two weeks before the March 13 primary elections, making talk of a tax increase politically sensitive.

"At this point in time, my goal is to get through next year without a (state) tax bill," said Rudd, D-Brownfield, a task force member. "That doesn't mean there's not going to be a local tax bill. That's a local decision."

Births

Todd and Lynn Dunham are the parents of a baby boy, Dustin Lee, born at 8:45 p.m. Jan. 30 at Mitchell County Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces, and was 19½ inches long.

Dustin's grandparents are Donnie and Debbie Thigpen of Stanton and Herman and Catherine Dunham of Jayton. His great-grandparents are Lee Thigpen of Stanton; O.D. and Vera Summers of Wingate; Mary Dunham of West Covina, Calif.; and Mary and Mart Weaver of Hamlin.

Manuel and Dawn Molina of Colorado City are the parents of a baby girl weighing 7 pounds, 3 ounces, born at 8:09 a.m. Thursday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Richer districts are not going to get as much state aid as districts without property wealth if the state is to achieve equity, Rudd said. That makes it likely the wealthier districts will have to raise local taxes, if they want to keep the same level of spending.

Clements, who visited the task force meeting, is opposed to raising state taxes to address the Supreme Court ruling.

Dear Abby

Woman Less Than Flattered By Her Co-Worker's Imitation

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1990 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I work with a woman in her mid-30s who came to our company about a year and a half ago. From the moment she met me, she started telling me how much she liked my clothes, hair, jewelry, etc. She wanted to know where I could have possibly found such good-looking clothes. I told her I bought the dress I was wearing at a little shop not far from the office. I didn't give it another thought until the following week; she walked into the office wearing a dress exactly like the one she had admired on me. I was flabbergasted!

It didn't stop there. She had asked someone in the office where I bought my eyeglasses. Within a week, she was wearing glasses exactly like mine — the same frames, and slightly tinted.

She asked where I got my hair cut. You guessed it! She had her hair styled like mine. Pretty soon we were looking like twins! Of course, everyone noticed. It became the office joke. I became very irritated and deliberately had my hair restyled. I even changed the color. You guessed it — she followed suit! I finally came right out and told her how much this look-alike thing irritated me. She acted shocked, then she trotted out that old saw: "Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery."

Please print this, Abby. I want her to know how sick I am of being her unrelated "twin."

WANT TO BE ME

DEAR WANT TO BE ME: Don't count on it. The woman obviously admires your taste, but her brazen imitative behavior makes her appear both nervy and foolish.

She's more to be pitied than ridiculed. Offer to go shopping with her to help her select some clothes — unlike yours, but suitable for her. And perhaps your hairdresser could dream up an individual hairstyle for "Miss Monkey See, Monkey Do."

DEAR ABBY: You recently ran a letter from "Assertive and Glad of It," dealing with how to put drop-in guests in their places to keep from being imposed upon. Having been raised in the South, I have a hard time with this type of behavior.

If I dropped in on friends and was told, "I'm sorry you didn't call first — we're awfully tired this evening," or, "We have a lot of housework to do tonight — we'll talk to you tomorrow," they wouldn't have to worry about talking to me tomorrow — or ever!

Southerners have a saying as their friends leave, or when saying goodbye. We say, "Y'all come." We do not say, "Y'all make an appointment," because we mean, "Y'all come anytime." (I make appointments with dentists and doctors.)

Abby, anybody that I count as a friend can come to my house at any time. If I'm sleeping, I'll get up. If I'm working on my car, I'll stop. If I'm in the middle of doing something I have to finish, I will invite the drop-in friend to visit while I work. If I'm gardening, I'll put down my tools. If my plants die while I'm visiting, so what? Plants are cheap; friends are priceless.

It's a sad world when a friend drops by and is told to come back later.

PEOPLE LOVER

DEAR PEOPLE LOVER: I admire you. You sound like a wonderfully friendly person who takes the time to smell the flowers. Just don't drop in on a busy editor who's fighting a deadline.

DEAR ABBY: For your information, Thomas Crapper was indeed the inventor of the first flush toilet. However, in any future references to him, he should be addressed as "Sir Thomas Crapper," as he was knighted by Queen Victoria.

FRANK J. BURKE,
GLENDIVE, MONT.

What teen-agers need to know about sex, drugs, AIDS and getting along with their peers and parents is now in Abby's updated, expanded booklet, "What Every Teen Should Know." To order, send a long, business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus a check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: Dear Abby, Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

Junanne Brock Winters... Former resident lands lead in Midland play

MIDLAND—Former Snyder resident Junanne Brock Winters has the lead in Midland Community Theatre's season opener, "Pippin." She plays the role of Catherine in this musical romp through the Middle Ages. A lyric soprano, she sings "Ordinary Kind of Woman," "I Guess I'll Miss the Man," and the duet "Love Song." She also performs in the show's big production numbers.

Winters is on staff at the theatre as coordinator of volunteers. She works with hundreds of volunteer performers and stage hands who are involved with all the aspects of the productions.

Midland Community Theatre debuted "Pippin" February 9 and performances will continue through March 11. The music was written by Stephen Schwartz, whose hit "Godspell" was performed by MCT in 1988.

"Pippin" ran on Broadway from Oct. 23, 1972 to June 12, 1977. It had more performances than almost any other musical in Broadway history, passing up the long-running "South Pacific" with 1,944 performances.

Pippin, the son of King Charlemagne, is searching for the meaning of life and looks for it at war, in the castle, and by the side of the woman who loves him. Although the story is set in the Middle Ages, the dancing, stage setting, music and costumes are very modern and very exciting. Pippin's friends are all a part of the traveling theatre troupe, and they entertain with magic that includes dazzling fire tricks. Hit songs from the show include "Corner of the Sky" and "Magic to Do."

According to Midland Community Theatre's executive director Don Bachmann, the show is rated PG and could be enjoyed by young people over the age of 10. Memberships and single tickets are available. There are Sunday matinees as well as Sunday 8 p.m. performances. The "Reach Out" performance, which is free for people who are handicapped or disadvantaged, was held Sunday, Feb. 11. For reservations or information call the box office at 682-4111.

Remaining show dates include Feb. 16, 17, 18, 23, 24, 25, March 1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 9, 10, 16, and 17. Matinees are also slated for Feb. 25 and March 4 and 11.
