Want to increase the income from your upcoming cotton crop? A proven way to do this, says H. A. Turney, area extension entomologist, is to control insects. He emphasizes the need for cotton producers to get their spray rigs in top working shape now. A breakdown during the growing season could mean dollars lost in time and cotton.

PAINT CREEK . . . COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

The recent rain was wonderful. The amount varied from 1 inch in parts of the community to 4 inches in some places. There was some hail. Several farmers may have had as much as 25 per cent damage, but most of them said the good rain would make up for the hail. The wheat is just beautiful, and let's do hope we get to save it. We have about a month to worry about bad storms and hail.

Most of the cotton land is ready to plant, and we have heard several farmers say they will plant as soon as it is dry enough. That will probably be next week. While it is wet most of us are fencing, or moving cattle to pastures from the wheat grazing, and getting combines and tractors ready for the big work ahead of us next month. May and June, and October and November are always such busy months on the farm that we wish the days were longer—or that we were two people. It is wonderful to have good tools though.

Wallar writes that the grain farmers in Germany are beginning to get their grain sowed, and they hitch their cows to a sort of drag and then broadcast their wheat by hand. He is going to get a picture of it and send us. Makes one appreciate a tractor, doesn't it?

Paint Creek lost a land owner, and honorary citizen in the death recently of Mr. O. E. Patterson. Mr. and Mrs. Pat owned part of the place that once belonged to Judge Lee, just east of our place. Mr. and Mrs. Velton Middlebrooks have worked it for them for years. Mr. Pat has contributed much to our entire county, serving as County Judge, and working with the hospital board for two years, and after retiring from the bank, he helped many individuals and organizations by lending them money when they needed it. The City of Haskell and the County too, have missed Mr. Pat since he had to retire from civic affairs several years ago, but most of all, he will be missed from the Methodist Church, and we Paint Creekers will miss seeing him and Mrs. Pat take their daily ride out this way every afternoon about four o'clock. One could almost set his watch by them, and it did not matter whether the day was sunny, or rainy, or sandy, or freezing cold, they always took their ride. They came out as far as the Jeter place usually, and then back to town. Sometimes they came out to see the crops on their place, or to Sagerton to see a-bout things there, but every day they rode out in the country. We extend our sympathy to the boys and Mrs. Pat, and we'll miss Mr. Pat, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer and their girls had as guests, Paul's cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer from New Braunfels. They are the couple who used to visit the community when they lived in Alaska. They have lived back in the states for several years, since their retirement.

Miss Billie Boshier, Home-making teacher at Paint Creek Ina Bittner and Charlotte Cook were in Dallas recently attending the state meeting of the Future Homemakers of America.

Bill Griffith attended the 25th reunion of his graduating class at Texas A. & M. last weekend. He and Mrs. Griffith visited his son, Cadet Jimmy Griffith also. Dorothy Coleman went with him and visited Jimmy, too, and attended the Junior Banquet and Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Carlton from Pasadena were recent visitors in the Lynn Carlton home. They and the Lynn Carltons and Carolyn went on to Wichita Falls where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carlton who attend Midwestern University.

Linda Grand spent the Easter holidays with her father, Alfred Grand and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Callaway. Linda works in a beauty salon in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer and daughters had Easter dinner with Mrs. Fischer's family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peiser at Mattson. The Peisers and Druessow families had a joint family dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buerger were hosts to the children of the Paint Creek Methodist Church for an Easter egg hunt in their pasture Friday afternoon.

Rita Woods spent the Easter weekend in Wichita Falls with her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carlton. The Junior class entertained the Senior class with a banquet at the school lunch room last week. The banquet was decorated in an oriental theme with a large golden Buddha on a grassy plot with a rock garden and waterfall nearby. Changeable lights played on the Buddha and the scene. A brick wall separated the garden from the oriental tea room where the banquet was held, and guests entered through a Chinese gate. Chinese lanterns hung everywhere, and tables were decorated with Chinese umbrellas, coolie hats for the boys and fans for the girls. Appetizers were served first, then a salad course which was eaten with chop sticks. Pepper steak, rice, English peas, hot rolls, tea, and cherry crepe suzettes completed the menu.

Bill Patterson served as Master of Ceremonies. The welcome was given by Jeff Smith with the response by Mike Overton. Music was furnished by the Chordettes. Ina Bittner read the will and Carolyn Livengood read the class prophecy. Pat Morrison introduced the speaker, Rev. Ed Robb of Hamlin. It was a beautiful setting.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bergstrom spent Sunday evening near Throckmorton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harris and their sons. Joy went to a M.Y.F. bowling party at Olney with Gordon Don. The Harris' moved from here about two years ago when they bought their home farm near Throckmorton.

Mike Overton attended the track meet in Abilene Saturday afternoon. He spent Sunday with Mike Eastland in Stamford and attended the dedication of the Baptist Church building.

Mr. and Mrs. Lennis W. Jones spent Sunday afternoon with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton.

The Future Homemakers of America Chapter of Paint Creek High School entertained their mothers with a beautiful banquet Monday night, April 30. The tables were decorated with red roses, the chapter flower, and white stock, with all colors of butterflies at the place markers, on the programs, and perched on the flower arrangements.

The delicious meal was prepared by the three Homemaking classes and served by the Eighth grade girls. The menu consisted of cherry glazed ham, English peas, baked potato, combination salad, hot rolls and iced tea. The Chapter president, Ann McLennan, was Mistress of Ceremonies. The invocation was by Margaret Medford. Evelyn Pustejovsky gave the welcome and Mrs. Pat Morrison responded for the mothers. The entertainment was a flute and a piccolo solo by Tee Selmon, with Judy Taylor accompanying her on the piano. Ina Bittner and Charlotte Cook reported on their trip to the state meeting in Dallas last week and it was a very interesting report.

Carolyn Carlton then introduced Mrs. J. V. Frizell from Stamford who spoke on "Values." The new officers for 1962-63 were introduced and they are: President, Charlotte Cook; Vice President, Billie Cockrell; Secretary, Dorothy Coleman, and Treasurer, Margaret Medford. Miss Billie Boshier, Home-making teacher and sponsor for the FHA chapter, made the awards. Margaret Medford received the Homemaking medal, and Paul-ette Fischer received the Crisco Homemaking trophy, as the outstanding Homemaker in the department. Billie Cockrell gave the benediction.

Mrs. Alex McLennan has had pneumonia this past week. Mr. Lynn Carlton is a patient in the Haskell Hospital this week.

PARENTS OF DAUGHTER
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. Marugg, 3008 Parkway Terrace Dr., Washington 23, D. C., are the parents of a daughter, Mikki Michele, born April 15 in that city. The little girl weighed six pounds, 15 1/2 ounces. Mr. Marugg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Marugg of Rt. 1, Stamford, is with the Navy Photographic Interpretation Center in Washington, D. C.

Progressive Study Club Has Final Meeting of Club Year May 3rd

The Progressive Study Club program theme for 1961-1962 has been a "Ledger for Living." The final meeting of the club year was appropriately titled "The Balance Sheet—Checking the Values," and was held at the First Baptist Church Annex, May 3. The room was beautifully decorated with flowers and a wishing well. A bountiful salad luncheon was enjoyed by all. The outgoing president, Mrs. Virgil Cobb, greeted the members and introduced the special guest, Mrs. Ed Fouts, Mesquite District Mother of the Year. Mrs. W. E. Woodson led the group in the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Cobb introduced Mrs. Rogers Durham and Mrs. Ray Smith, who sang "God Painted a Picture." Mrs. Durham sang "When You Wish Upon A Star." Mrs. Cobb presented the special awards to Mrs. Wilda Medford, 1st vice president, for her outstanding program for the entire year and to Mrs. Roy Everett, 2nd vice president, for her continual work as head of finance. The committee awards went to: Mrs. Don Nanny, public affairs; Mrs. Frank Martin, fine arts; Mrs. Bob Herren, international affairs; Mrs. R. A. Lane, reports, and Mrs. Allen Rieves, press-book. The second best program was the "Civil War" under the direction of Mrs. David Middleton. Outstanding program for last year was the "Japanese Tearoom," directed by Mrs. R. A. Lane. The Vogue Style Show won for the best program of this year, under direction of Miss Barbara McAnelly. It also won the best hostesses award, Mrs. Bailey Toliver. Mrs. Wayne Wainscott and

Mrs. Wilda Medford, Mrs. Bob Herren, new president of the Mesquite District, installed the new officers for 1962-63. She opened with the remarks: "As another year draws to an end, and the 'Ledger for Living' program is completed, we close our books and we can balance our ledger of achievements. As the door of yesterday closes we see the perennial miracle of hope for another year is before us. In order to open this door and set our feet upon another path, it is necessary to install our new officers." The installation was in complete rhyme, with Mrs. Herren presenting each new officer with a large capsule representing a vitamin pill. The new officers are:

President, Mrs. Arlos Weaver; 1st Vice President, Miss Barbara McAnelly; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Hess Hartfield; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Glen Sammons; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Joe Warren; Treasurer, Mrs. Howard Perry Jr.; Historian, Mrs. Edd Hester; Board member, Mrs. Virgil Cobb. After the installation, Mrs. Herren turned to the club members and said: "To the members of the Study Club organization, I now prescribe a likewise formulation. Take a vitamin Complex at each call, and I guarantee it will give pep to us all. Let our officers know our desire to serve. Our organization then can accomplish what we deserve."

Mrs. Cobb presented Mrs. Weaver with a President's Pin. Mrs. Medford presented Mrs. Cobb with a charm for her bracelet. Mrs. Weaver read a note from Sandra Letz, Girl State representative, thanking the club for making it possible for her to attend Girls State.

Women Host Banquet May 3

Lutheran Women's Guild of Trinity Lutheran Church in Haskell, Texas, held a Mother's Day Mother's Banquet at the Highway Drive Home, May 3, 1962. Miss Carolyn Fischer sang a solo "Smilin' Through," followed by a reading given by Miss Shirley Klose, entitled "To Mother." Next on the program was a duet by Miss Pauline Dick and Miss Marilyn Fischer, entitled "Savior Teach Me Day by Day." To conclude the program, Miss Pamela Druesedow played a piano number, "Son of My Soul," and Mrs. Martin Rueffer read "Space Age Mother," an article taken from The Scope. The

Member of Pioneer Haskell Family Heads Texas High School Councils

When the State meeting of High School Councils was held in San Antonio recently, Joe Murfee of Lubbock, descendant of a pioneer Haskell family, presided. He is State President of the organization and is the grandson of the late J. Louis Murfee Sr., a native of Haskell.

Young Murfee gave a report of the national meeting of High School Councils held in Williamsburg, Va., where he represented all Texas high schools. He also visited the nation's capital city.

In Washington, young Murfee was met by Congressman George Mahon, who accompanied the Lubbock youth to the House of Representatives where he was introduced to the Speaker, John McCormack; to the Senate, where Mike Mansfield gave him a pencil as a souvenir from his desk; and to the chamber of the Vice President of the United States for an interview.

In Tidewater, Va., young Murfee was carried to many historic places where his ancestors and relatives have lived since 1689. He especially liked Alexandria, Va., the hometown of George Washington, and only a short ride from his Mount Vernon plantation and country home. There he had his town house and organized the first fire department.

In Alexandria George Washington also organized the great Masonic Order which he nobly championed all his life. Young Murfee had a particular interest on this point, for it was from Alexandria that his grandfather, George W. Murfee was picked by Masons to journey to the far-off Republic of Texas, there to work for the organization of the Masons. That his mission was successful is indicated by the fact that there are some one-half million Masons in Texas now, including a fine lodge in Haskell.

On his trip from Virginia after giving his report of work in Texas, Mr. Murfee met and married a Miss Matheny, relative of President Harrison.

Geo. W. Murfee's son, J. E. Murfee, as a very young man came out to the Haskell area to cast his lot with West Texas pioneers, later bringing his family to this section. After ranching on the open range, and later as an official in bringing law and order to the country, helping build schools and churches, he later moved to the Plains which he also helped settle.

Joe Murfee and W. P. Florence, a former Haskell County school teacher, actually got cotton seed from a Haskell farm for Florence to plant out there — the first cotton grown in Lubbock County. They started something! At that time, Haskell and Jones were the ranking cotton producing counties in the state — now Lubbock has that honor.

Young Joe Murfee's grandfather, J. Louis Murfee Sr., was born in the town of Haskell, attended Haskell school and the little Methodist Church which his father and other Haskell pioneers helped to build. Louis is now head of the oldest continuous business in the city of Lubbock, the J. E. Murfee Real Estate, Loan and Insurance. He is also a director of the First Federal Loan and other business enterprises.

Because of the family background in this section, Haskell shares justifiable pride with Lubbock in the accomplishments of young Joe Murfee, fourth generation West Texan, and congratulates Lubbock High School for its State leadership with Joe Murfee as president of its student body.

Recent visitors in the home of Mrs. John Lackey were her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lackey of Fort Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. James Ursery of Farwell, Texas.

From A Pastor's Study

By DOUGLAS B. FINCH Pastor, First Presbyterian Church Haskell, Texas

Christianity, which should be the unifying factor or force in our community and society above all other forces, has become, in some communities, the source of division. This is due largely to the fact that many ministers still preach a narrow denominationalism...

Worst of all, many of these Christians feel that they have the magic key to eternity (which is a type of protracted self-righteousness: our modern Pharisaism). These self-righteous ones condemn other people to Hell because they are not "one of them"; thus they seem to claim to hold the key to Heaven and Hell - at the same time.

Of course, we all recognize that such an attitude is not a good witness to Christ, but is rather "playing Christ," trying to assume the role of God (called by psychologists a "Messiah complex"), and standing in judgment upon fellow human beings and Christians. Many persons call me "Brother Finch" as I make my way about the country-side, and this warms my heart. The term should mean that we are brothers in Christ... bound together by the love in Christ...

Is It True?

Acceptance of what has happened is the first victory toward overcoming the consequence of every misfortune. -Wm. James
