Embargo-weary Iraq threatens all-out war

by The Associated Press
In their most bellicose statement yet, Iraq's leaders have warned the U.S.-led forces arrayed against them that they would launch an all-out war before allowing the U.N. trade embargo to "strangle" the Iraqi people.

Countries hit hard economically by the gulf crisis can expect some help soon from the International Monetary Fund. The IMF today approved an accelerated effort to supply billions of dollars to help poorer nations hurt by the trade embargo against Iraq.

Meanwhile, diplomatic sources in Saudi Arabia said today that a break-in at Saudi Arabia's biggest oil company two weeks ago was believed part of an alleged effort by Jordanian and Yemeni diplomats to gather information about strategic Saudi installations for Iraq.

The sources, speaking on condition of anonymity, said the break-in was one of a number of suspicious activities that led the Saudi government to demand Saturday that most envoys of Iraq, Jordan and Yemen leave Riyadh.

Also today, Iran's official Islamic Republic News Agency said Syrian President Hafez Assad was extending his stay in Tehran.

Town plans to move to higher ground

ENGLISH, Ind. (AP) — The people of English, fed up with floods, are packing up Main Street and moving to higher ground.

In one of the most ambitious projects of its kind, the town plans to tear down or move more than 70 homes as well as the library, the bank, the newspaper and about 30 other businesses.

A new downtown is planned a mile away on a hillside now covered by cornfields and trees. The town of 650 people in one of the state's poorest counties hopes to raise $6 million for the move from a half-dozen state and federal agencies.

"The town's made the decision to move and we're going to move. We don't blink an eye to anyone when we say that," said Tony Pappano, a community developer hired to plan the move.

About 75 percent of the town will be affected by the move, Pappano said.

Five inches of heavy rain to the north can wreak havoc in English, where three creeks merge to form the Little Blue River.

Each of the creeks normally is quiet and shallow enough for children to go wading without getting their knees wet. But the streams can rise 20 feet in hours when thousands of acres to the north begin draining toward English.

Floods have struck occasionally during the town's 150-year history. The worst on record sent 13 feet of water down Main Street in 1979.

"It was a flash flood that struck early on the morning of June 7, forcing evacuation of more than 100 residents, that convinced Town Council President John Merriales.

"We're going," he said. "There's too much lives and property at stake not to."

Other flood-prone towns have moved. But English is planning one of the largest such projects in the country, said Bill Powers of the Federal Emergency Management Agency's Chicago office.

The three-member Town Council voted last week to condemn property in the flood plain that covers the heart of town. Residents who live there will be forced to sell their homes to the county.

The next step is annexation and zoning of about 600 acres to the northeast, doubling the town's size. The area should be annexed within two months, Pappano said.

An FEMA architect and a $44,000 planning grant from the agency helped English come up with plans for a new downtown. It would be connected to the buildings left behind by a new road.

The town would like to make the flood plain area into a park, possibly with a golf course and tennis courts, Pappano said.

All that depends on how much money can be obtained from the state, FEMA, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Commerce Department and anyone else willing to help.

Dr. Gott Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm a 32-year-old male and have consumed about a dozen beers every Friday night for 15 years. I recently became very lightheaded and faint. I sometimes feel disoriented, but my doctor can't find anything wrong with me. Could my problem be related to the beer?

DEAR READER: Two six-packs of beer in a night is certainly enough to get a buzz on. While I hesitate making a judgment about your drinking habits, this amount of beer has the potential for causing health problems — if not now, then later.

To begin with, the alcohol in beer is just as potent as the alcohol in liquor; it's simply more dilute. Over time, it can affect your brain (poor judgment and addictive behavior), your heart ("beer drinker's cardiomyopathy," a weakness of the cardiac muscle), your pancreas (inflammation), your liver (cirrhosis: inflammation and scarring) and your stomach (erosive gastritis, stomach inflammation that sometimes bleeds). In my view, you should give up alcohol (beer included) completely for a few weeks to determine if your Friday-night habit is the cause of your health problems. If it is, abstinence will make you feel better.

In reading between the lines of your question, I sense you are concerned about a potential drinking problem. You may be interested in learning that alcoholism is not a disease that just affects skid-row bums or daily drinkers. Many alcoholics control their drinking for years, may abstain for weeks, or prefer so-called binge drinking, when they periodically and predictably over-imbibe.

Therefore, alcoholism comes in many forms. In some people, the pattern of drinking is important; in others, the reason for drinking is paramount. But for every alcoholic, alcohol causes problems of one kind or another: poor health, inappropriate behavior which is repetitive, and an attitude that the drug is a vital part of normal living. The alcohol, then, monopolizes the alcoholic's life, unlike the normal, social drinker who can take it or leave it without a thought.

The fact that you have had health problems and took the time to write me, asking about beer, indicates that you may suspect alcohol-dependency. Pay attention to what your body is telling you and stop drinking.

Obviously, if your symptoms persist or recur, you should seek medical attention, preferably from an internist, a physician trained in diagnosis. Let me know what happens.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Help II — Mental/Substance Abuse." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Hope's tour may leave women out

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Bob Hope may break his custom of taking a bevy of beautiful women along if he goes to Saudi Arabia to entertain the troops.

"The Saudi Arabians, they don't like a girl unless she's wearing a veil," Hope said Saturday. "I can't see Madonna wearing a veil."

If he does go, he said, it will be during the Christmas holidays. But he won't take his golf clubs. "I don't need a sand trap that big," he said.

During a performance at the Kansas ExpoCenter, Hope also reminisced about President Eisenhower. He met Eisenhower, then allied commander, during World War II and was called into his office in Algiers while preparing a 1943 radio show.

Eisenhower promised him there wouldn't be any bombings, but the city was bombed that night for the first time in years.

Decision to admit tapes has psychotherapists worried

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A court decision allowing audio tapes of counseling to be used in a murder trial has mental health professionals worried that the ancient tradition of patient confidentiality is in danger.

California courts opened the door to the psychotherapist's office a bit wider with a decision Aug. 6 allowing tapes of counseling to be used against brothers Lyle and Erik Menendez in the slaying of their parents.

Jose and Kitty Menendez were shot repeatedly at close range in their Beverly Hills mansion in 1989. Six months later, police arrested Lyle, 21, and Erik, 19, alleging the young men coveted their parents' $15 million estate.

Prosecutors argued that tapes of the brothers' counseling sessions with therapist L. Jerome Oziel, in which they reportedly confessed to killing their parents, could be used as evidence.

Superior Court Judge James Albracht agreed, saying the tapes were not covered by laws guarding patient-therapist confidentiality.

These statutes are an extension of the right of privacy between doctor and patient that dates to Greek philosopher Hippocrates, the founder of modern medicine. The Hippocratic oath, still taken by new physicians, binds doctors to secrecy about their patients' cases.

Many psychotherapists say the courts are eroding this vow when the need to protect society clashes with an individual's right to privacy.

Off-duty cop shot in Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — An off-duty police officer struck by birdshot in a drive-by shooting was "extremely lucky" to survive, a police official says.

Robert Bernal, 27, was struck in the face and shoulders early Sunday as he questioned the driver of a car in the parking lot of a fast-food restaurant where Bernal was working as a security guard. He returned fire.

Bernal, a three-year veteran, was struck about 2:30 a.m. Sunday after a crowd gathered in the parking lot. The 16-year-old youth Bernal was questioning was struck in the back of the head.

Dear Abby

Brotherly Love Can't Match Man's Disapproval of Sister

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have a sister who taught at the local high school until she was found guilty of fornication with some of the students. She lost her teaching credentials, her husband left her, and she moved in with a man she just met. Now she's announced that she's going to marry him in December.

Abby, Jesus states plainly in Matthew 5:32 and again in Matthew 19:9 that remarriage under these circumstances would be considered adultery. My sister claims to be a good Christian, but her conduct shows otherwise. I realize that sins can be forgiven if the sinner repents and prays (Acts 8:22), but true repentance would require that she first get out of her adulterous marriage. I have asked her to read the Scriptures to see if they apply to her situation, but she refused, and accused me of judging and condemning her.

Should I persist in trying to teach her the truth? Or should I butt out and leave her to wallow in her sins?

Also, should I attend her wedding? If I did, I would feel obligated to do my Christian duty and voice my objections to this adulterous marriage before man and God.

I love my sister and want her to have a chance at heaven.

HER LOVING BROTHER

DEAR LOVING BROTHER: God knows you have done your part to try to save your sister. If you truly love her, and would feel obligated to voice your objections to her marriage publicly, please do not attend her wedding.

DEAR ABBY: I am appalled at the attitude of "73 and Resigned" who lamented about having no grandsons to carry on the family name. Don't his three granddaughters count for something? They are descendants of the same Hudson River fur trader as he is, and they should be just as proud to have that heritage. The family surname may eventually become a maiden name for them, but that doesn't change their ancestry. It will always be there, and those granddaughters will be able to pass it onto another generation, no matter what surname is attached.

The roots of George Bush and Franklin Delano Roosevelt can be traced back to John Tilley, who came over on the Mayflower, and yet those presidents do not carry the Tilley name. Many people can detail their lineage back to the other Mayflower passengers and Revolutionary War soldiers, too, without currently having the same surnames as those colonial Americans did. The difference in names certainly does not negate the relationship — it just means that some female lines are involved. I hope "73" is not such a chauvinist that he would want to ignore those relatives, past or present, simply because they're female.

My advice to "73" is to have him talk with his granddaughters and to share the whole family history with them as soon as possible. Years from now, those girls won't have to wonder about their heritage and say, "Gee, I should have asked Grandpa about that. He would have known."

PENNSYLVANIA GENEALOGIST

DEAR GENEALOGIST: You weren't the only one who was "appalled" by the attitude of "73 and Resigned." Read on:

DEAR ABBY: Several years ago, I lost my one and only brother in a tragic accident. My father's comment: "Now there is no one to carry on the family name."

Then I got to thinking, "What am I, chopped liver?" Had I been the one to die, it wouldn't have been such a big tragedy; after all, I was only a female.

I hope "73 and Resigned" doesn't close the book on the family tree just because there are no grandsons. There are spaces to be filled in for granddaughters, great-granddaughters and great-great-granddaughters. Perhaps if he tried, his daughter's line could be traced back to Eve!

Astro-graph

By Bernice-Bede Osol

Your Birthday

Sept. 25, 1990

Financial trends will be moving in a more lucrative direction for you in the year ahead, but there is also possibilities you might extravagantly squander some of what you gain.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Sometimes the kindest thing we can do is to let our hearts rule or heads, but today if you do so, you might be taken advantage of by someone who is a shrew manipulator. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Match-maker instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Guard against inclinations today to get too emotional about insignificant issues. If you let your imagination run rampant, you'll make mountains from molehills. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) This is not the day to drag your feet or coast in matters where there is something important at stake. However, there is a possibility that is just what you might do.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Negative apprehensions should not be mistaken for intuitive perceptions or hunches today. One is self-inflicted, the other is a constructive form of enlightenment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Even though you might feel you capable of doing it artfully, this is not the right day to mix business with pleasure. One ingredient could spoil the other.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Don't count too heavily on promises made to you by others today. Someone who doesn't want to hurt your feelings might make you a commitment she has no intention of keeping.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't allocate assignments of an artistic nature today to anyone who lacks aesthetic taste. Such a person is likely to produce something garish.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) What to you is a harmless flirtation today might be taken seriously by the object of your attention. Be very, very careful at whom you bat your eyelashes.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Today if you are reluctant to make decisions for yourself, someone who doesn't have your best interest at heart might make judgments for you. You're better off calling the shots.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You might be much better at rationalizing today than you will be at being productive. Instead of doing what needs doing, you're apt to find reasons why things should be temporarily shelved.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) This is one of those days when you might not be too adept at managing your resources or the resources of others. Be extremely careful in both cases.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Usually you're cognizant of your demeanor and social graces when dealing with others on a one-to-one basis. However, today these attributes might not be operative and you could do something offensive.

Sheriff; investigation into 3 slayings may take awhile

PONTOTOC, Texas (AP) — The sheriff says it could be several more days before a grand jury is presented with evidence in a triple slaying that sparked the biggest manhunt in Mason County history.

Lucas angry about 'Henry'

DALLAS (AP) — Henry Lee Lucas says his life isn't remarkable enough for a movie or a book, despite the 600 murders he's confessed to committing.

Lucas was first arrested in June 1983, on-a firearms charge, he said. Montague County sheriff's deputies took the opportunity to question him on the disappearance of Kate Rich, an elderly Ringgold woman who had befriended him.

But this month, a controversial movie, "Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer," opened in Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston — a fact that has angered Lucas.

Questioning continued for days. He said he decided to tell the officers what they wanted to

"I eventually told (authorities), 'Yeah, I committed 60 of them,'" Lucas said. "That's when all hell broke loose."

Suspect apparently took his own life

The movie, which depicts a murderer methodically plying his craft, is so graphically violent and dark that it drew an X rating from the Motion Picture Association of America, prompting the producers to release the film without a rating.

Troopers searching in Waller County Sunday morning found the body of Richard Jordan lying on his back with a .44-caliber revolver lying against his body, said Department of Public Safety spokesman David Wells.

Wells said it was unclear when Jordan may have killed himself. The Harris County Medical Examiner was to examine Jordan's body today, Wells said.

Although he has not seen the movie, Lucas has heard and read enough about it to know that the level of violence is outrageous, he said.

Kevin Kennedy of Baytown and Maurice Neubauer of Texas City found Jordan's body near railroad tracks that run parallel to the road where the car was

Juvenile crime on the rise

HOUSTON (AP) — State authorities are using tough sentences and counseling to stem the sharp increase in murder, rape, assault and other violent crimes by juveniles here and across Texas.

A recently approved state law, drafted to handle the rising violence among children, may also encourage rehabilitation while putting teeth into juvenile justice, officials say.

Officials blame the increased crime on easy access to handguns and the spread of crack cocaine.

Homicides by youngsters reached an all-time high in Texas last year with 150 killings. In Houston, homicides rose by 75 percent in the first seven months of this year — faster than any other major juvenile crime.

Called a determinate sentencing law, it allows a juvenile court judge to sentence youngsters to up to 30 years incarceration, including possible time in state prison.

Setting up overtricks

By James Jacoby

The Junior Bridge Championships were held in Boston in July to determine the United States team for the World Junior Championship in 1991.

He won the opening club lead with his queen over East's nine-spot, and led a club right back. East took the 10 and shifted to a heart. Declarer played low. West won the queen and continued with the king. Holtz won that trick and proceeded to cash out four rounds of spades, discarding the 10 of hearts from his hand. West could not discard.

It was correct technique in squeezing out an extra trick to give up a club and a heart trick early. Then, with declarer having all the tricks but one, it became impossible for West to guard both the club and the diamond suits.

'Skins edge Cowboys

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mark Rypien was forced out with an injury, but Troy Aikman's fate wasn't much better. He had to endure the Washington Redskins' defense for the whole game.

Washington was outgained by the Cowboys but got four field goals from Chip Lohmiller before Green's 18-yard touchdown return in the fourth quarter provided what proved to be the winning points.

Gibbs will likely need another quarterback this week after Rypien's sprained knee sent untested backup Stan Humphries into the game in the second quarter.

Washington was outgained by the Cowboys but got four field goals from Chip Lohmiller before Green's 18-yard touchdown return in the fourth quarter provided what proved to be the winning points.

Washington (2-1) has defeated its first two NFC East Division opponents. Dallas is 1-2.

A week after allowing Joe Montana 390 yards passing in San Francisco, the Redskins gave Aikman only 143 net passing yards, forced one fumble and got two interceptions in the fourth quarter to protect a slim lead.

"We felt that they were going to come after us practically every play," said Aikman, who was 23-of-43 for 207 yards. "And they just about did that."

Said tackle Tracy Rocker, one of seven Redskins to record sacks, "This would have been their third straight win here, and we didn't want that to happen."

But this was no repeat of the 13-3 surprise at RFK Stadium that gave the Cowboys their lone win last year. Dallas had 19 first downs to Washington's 11, and Ken Willis field goals of 33 and 41 yards made the score 6-6 in the third quarter before the turnovers caught up with Dallas.

"I like this football team," said coach Jimmy Johnson, whose NFL record fell to 2-17. "I like the people because I can see this team getting better. If we can keep this group together and keep them working as hard as they are working, we are going to end up being a good football team."

The sacks helped set up field goals of 37, 23, 24 and 55 yards by Lohmiller. The last, the longest of Lohmiller's career, fell just over the cross-bar after Aikman's fumble at the Dallas 46 and gave the Redskins a 12-6 lead entering the fourth quarter.

Green followed by stepping in front of Kelvin Martin with 13:24 left as Aikman threw from his own end zone, taking the pass and zig-zagging in for his first score since 1984.

"We thought the receiver was mugged pretty good," said Johnson. "We thought it was going to be an automatic pass interference call, but we didn't get the flag."

Aikman shrugged aside the lack of protection, rallying the Cowboys from 19-6 down by completing seven straight completions in a 71-yard drive that was capped by rookie Emmitt Smith's two-yard scoring run.

Washington accepted a safety on a punt attempt from their own 2 with 1:56 left, and Aikman drove to Washington's 40 before safety Todd Bowles intercepted Aikman's last pass with 1:13 to go.

"I'm upset," said Aikman. "We've got to learn what it takes to win those games down the stretch."

Rypien said he would know more about his injury Tuesday.

Lady Tigers upset Dunbar spike crew

LUBBOCK — Snyder's Lady Tigers, behind a 14-point effort from senior Dayla Church, upset Dunbar, 15-13, 15-10 in the District 2-4A volleyball opener for both clubs Saturday.

"This was a good day for us to start," Snyder coach Patty Grimmett told the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal after Saturday's win.

"We've been playing a lot of 5A schools and we've had a lot of bad breaks. We needed this win."

"Dayla served a great game," said Grimmett Monday. Church was credited with three aces.

Snyder's Amber Bowlin hammered out four aces and six points followed by Robbie Braziel's four points and an ace.

Liz Greathouse, who also carded three offensive kills, served three points and an ace and Camille Thompson scored three.

Katrina Brandon managed a pair of kills and Daisy Braziel added one for Snyder.

Church, who had five consecutive points to open the match, put Snyder in front before a Lady Panther rally that put the SHS spikers down 7-5.

Snyder whipped off four straight points to take the lead again but only momentarily.

Dunbar's Tina Wiley nailed a block to set Dunbar on top 10-9 before another four-point SHS rally.

The Lady Tigers finished off the first game as Daisy Braziel and Vinnie Clay blocked a spike attempt from Tonia Walker.

Dunbar took a quick 7-4 lead in the second game before Snyder came back to claim 11 of the battles' final 14 points.

In other 2-4A varsity action Saturday, Lamesa defeated Lubbock Estacado, 15-4, 15-7.

Snyder's junior varsity spikers moved to 12-2 on the season and 1-0 in loop play with their 15-3, 15-4 whipping of Dunbar Saturday.

Angela Good served nine points and Julie Johnson added seven, three of which were aces, to lead the offensive charge for Snyder.

Joellen King was named team MVP in the win.

Snyder's next outing is set for Tuesday when the Lady Tigers host Seminole beginning with the JV at 6:30 p.m. at the SHS gym. The Lady Tiger freshmen host Seminole at Snyder Junior High at 6:30 p.m. also.

SHS netters bounce Dunbar in loop tilt

Snyder's girls' tennis team handed Lubbock Dunbar a 6-1 loss in District 2-4A net action Saturday in Snyder.

The Tiger boys were idle because Dunbar only brought a girls team to the match.

Gayle Henderson edged Dunbar's Cynthia Vega 6-4 in their opening set before taking command and ripping through the second set 6-1.

Snyder's Racheal Wilson smacked Deann Johnson, 6-1, 6-2, in the No. 3 girls' singles match followed by Robin Cave earning a 6-0, 6-1 victory over the Lady Panthers' Yvette Contreras.

In the final singles match of the day, Leslie Sandoval of SHS pounded Jennifer Adams, 6-1, 6-0.

The Tigers only loss on the day was suffered by No. 1 singles player Kathy Ogburn who was beaten 6-2 in the opening set by Anissa Jones and falling short in a 7-6 comeback bid in the second.

Doubles scores were just as lopsided in favor of the Snyder girls as Cave and Kathy Ogburn trounced Vega and Contreras, 6-1, 6-2 and Wilson-Henderson notched a 6-4, 6-1 win over Jones and Johnson of Dunbar.

Snyder netters will be in action Saturday against a tough Levelland squad on the Lobos home court.

SWC roundup...

Conference teams net 5 wins

by The Associated Press
Fourth quarter drives against Arkansas and Texas prevented the Southwest Conference from a 7-0 weekend sweep over non-conference opponents.

The victories included Texas Tech's 34-32 victory over New Mexico on Lin Elliott's 37-yard line drive field goal in the rain with 24 seconds left; 12th-ranked Texas A&M's 40-8 romp over North Texas and Rice's 31-14 triumph over Big 10 foe Northwestern. Also, Baylor defeated Sam Houston State University 13-9 and Texas Christian defeated Oklahoma State 31-21, the Horned Frogs' second consecutive comeback victory over a Big Eight Conference team.

No. 13 Arkansas lost a 21-17 heartbreaker to Mississippi and No. 22 Texas fell 29-22 after a gallant struggle against No. 20 Colorado.

"It was a tough loss, but we can learn from some things in this game," said Texas coach David McWilliams. "I think we showed we can compete."

Tech may have found a star in freshman backup quarterback Robert Hall.

Hall, subbing for Jamie Gill who suffered a knee injury, threw two third-quarter touchdown passes and guided the Red Raiders on a 58-yard drive to the winning field goal.

"Robert did a great job coming off the bench," said Tech coach Spike Dykes. "He saved our bacon."

Lance Pavlas threw three first-half touchdown passes for the second week in a row as A&M rolled. The Aggies are 3-0 for the first time since 1984.

Darren Lewis became A&M's career rushing leader when he gained 132 yards. His 3,711 yards breaks Curtis Dickey's record of

3,703. "We're getting in a good groove running the ball," Lewis said. "Now we have a big game coming up."

A&M has always had difficulty beating LSU in Baton Rouge.

Greg Evans' 41-yard touchdown interception return sealed Texas Christian's victory.

"It was another incredible comeback," said Frog coach Jim Wacker. "I'm very proud of our kids. We got a sweep against the Big Eight."

Donald Hollas threw for two touchdowns and ran for a third as Rice defeated Northwestern, extending the Wildcats' losing streak to 14 games.

It was the first time Rice has been 2-1 after three games since 1972.

Baylor got two big plays from wingback Lee Miles to rally from a 9-0 halftime deficit to defeat the Bearcats. Miles caught a 46-yard pass to set up the winning touchdown.

Texas showed it has a much-improved team although the Longhorns' defense couldn't stop the Colorado wishbone.

Arkansas got to the two-yard line but time ran out as the Hogs lost to Ole Miss.

In week five, Rice is at Houston, Baylor is at Texas Tech and Southern Methodist is host to Texas Christian in SWC action.

Non-conference games include Colorado State at Arkansas, and

Texas A&M at LSU.

SWC Superlatives:

BEST PASSING — Robert Hall, Texas Tech, 15-31-0, 316 yards and two touchdown passes. Lance Pavlas, Texas A&M, 10-15-0, 160 yards, three touchdowns, Donald Hollas, Rice, 17-27-1, 157, 2 touchdowns.

BEST RUSHING — Trevor Cobb, Rice, 18-118, Darren Lewis, Texas A&M, 26-132.

Through the 1989 season the Dodgers drew more than 1 million home fans per season in Los Angeles and Brooklyn for 45 straight years.

In the decade of the 1950s, the St. Louis Cardinals won the Eastern championship three times, the most for any team.

'Al Capone' law said to pay off

AUSTIN (AP) — It's no joke. If you get caught with drugs in Texas, you'd better have paid your taxes on that illicit haul.
 The "Al Capone" law was enacted one year ago. It requires all containers of illegal drugs to carry a silvery tax stamp, emblazoned with either a skull and crossbones or the image of the Grim Reaper and the words "Death" and "Taxes."

News Brief

Kuwaiti currency declared insolvent
 NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Iraq today declared the Kuwaiti currency, the dinar, invalid and withdrawn from circulation. It said it would reimburse holders of the currency with Iraqi dinars.
 Iraq will reimburse those who possess Kuwaiti dinars with the Iraqi currency on a one-for-one basis, the official Iraqi News Agency said.
 The exchange of currency will be carried out until Oct. 6, after which the Kuwaiti dinar will be considered illegal tender, the agency quoted the government's Economics Committee as saying.
 Iraq has methodically dismantled Kuwaiti institutions following its Aug. 2 seizure and subsequent annexation of the neighboring oil-rich emirate.
 Baghdad authorities have officially disbanded Kuwait's government, military, foreign embassies and national airline.
 They refer to Kuwait as Iraq's 19th province, but the United Nations recognizes Kuwait's deposed al-Sabah family as the country's rulers.

Mrs. Mandela arraigned; trial date set
 JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Winnie Mandela, looking grim and tired, was arraigned today on charges of assault and kidnapping stemming from a 1988 incident when four youths were allegedly taken to her house and beaten.
 Mrs. Mandela, holding hands with her husband, African National Congress leader Nelson Mandela, said nothing as she arrived at a city magistrate's court. She stood silently in the courtroom as her lawyers conferred with the magistrate and a trial date was set for Feb. 4.
 Mrs. Mandela, wearing a black outfit, was greeted by about 30 cheering and singing ANC women supporters as she left the court. "Winnie, Winnie!" the women chanted as they tried to touch Mrs. Mandela.
 She smiled briefly before being whisked away by lawyers and aides.
 One youth was killed and the former head of Mrs. Mandela's bodyguards, Jerry Richardson, has been convicted of murder and sentenced to death in the same case. The sentence is being appealed.
 Mrs. Mandela has denied any wrongdoing.

Suspects in slayings remain jailed
 GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — Two men have been charged in connection with the beating death of a 29-year-old Galveston postal carrier.
 Thomas Michael Gump, 21, of Galveston and Richard Dexter Cannon, 22, of Live Oak, Fla., were charged with murder and auto theft Sunday in the slaying of Andres DeLaGarza, said Galveston Police Sgt. Rick Singleton.
 Both were being held today in lieu of $100,000 bond.
 DeLaGarza's battered body was found in the surf at the west end of Galveston Island by a passerby shortly before midnight Friday. The death at first was thought to be a drowning.
 Gump and Cannon were arrested as they drove DeLaGarza's vehicle through a Randall's supermarket parking lot Saturday morning. Police said apparent blood stains were found in the back seat of the car.
 An employee at Gerland's supermarket had called police earlier Saturday after one of the men tried to cash DeLaGarza's payroll check at the store. The clerk told police he knew the postal carrier and refused to cash the check.

Convicted pastor returns to pulpit
 DEVINE, Texas (AP) — A pastor convicted with two church members of falsely imprisoning a man to exorcise the devil out of him returned to his pulpit, speaking of persecution.
 The Rev. James D. Price, past of the First Assembly of God Church, and two of his followers, brothers Robert L. Nixon Jr., 43, and Alvin R. Nixon, 32, all of Devine were convicted Friday by a Hondro jury of the false imprisonment charge.
 Evert "Ray" Weimers, 44, testified that the three restrained and beat him, inflicting facial scratches and contusions and a separated right shoulder.
 The minister mentioned the trial several times Sunday during his sermon, calling it a "time of storm, the trial we're gone through." and said he felt he had "been brought to the Lord and came to know him."
 He also quoted a Bible verse as saying, "Blessed be they who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."
 Price, 42, often wiped tears from his eyes after saying at the start of the sermon, "I may need a box of Kleenex before I get through today."
 "We hold nothing against anyone, the judge, Mr. Weimers, anyone," the pastor said following the sermon.

 came to Iran for talks that were to include inquiries about the Western hostages in Lebanon and Iran's intentions regarding the U.N. trade embargo against Iraq. Iran has hinted it might circumvent the sanctions.
 Iraq's anger at nations enforcing the sanctions boiled over Sunday. In a statement, it seemed for the first time to threaten a first strike, and mentioned Israel and Mideast oil fields as potential targets.
 "America must realize clearly that it is pushing the entire region ... in fact, even the whole world ... to the brink of a bottomless abyss, from which the region will never see light for dozens of years," the Iraqi communique said.
 It was signed by the Revolution Command Council and the ruling Baath Party but bore the rhetorical imprint of President Saddam Hussein — studded with references to "poisonous wasps," "evil-doers" and "Zionist usurpers."
 "We will never allow anybody, whoever he may be, to strangle the people of Iraq without having himself strangled," the communique said.
 Last year, Iraq imported 75 percent of the food its people consumed. Now, an international trade embargo ordered by the U.N. Security Council in response to Saddam's Aug. 2 seizure of Kuwait has prompted the Baghdad government to begin rationing some staples.
 The Security Council is expected to vote Tuesday on an eighth resolution punishing Iraq for refusing to relinquish Kuwait. The strictest yet, it would block all air traffic in and out of Iraq but planes carrying humanitarian aid.

Stevie Ray's last project set for release

DALLAS (AP) — The much-awaited release this week of the album "Family Style" will mark a bittersweet day for fans of the late Texas blues guitarist Stevie Ray Vaughan.

The album "Family Style," set for release Tuesday, is the only full release on which Stevie Ray and his brother, Jimmie, collaborated. Stevie Ray Vaughan died Aug. 27 in a helicopter crash in Wisconsin following a concert with Eric Clapton.

It was not the first time the brothers recorded together. Jimmie joined Stevie Ray's band for two tracks on "Couldn't Stand the Weather" and they performed together on Bob Dylan's newest release, "Under the Red Sky."

But those few weeks spent recording "Family Style" were really the first time in their adult lives the two spent a lot of time together.

The brothers meshed schedules and careers to record in Memphis, Tenn., New York and Dallas from mid-May through the summer. Jimmie quit his band, the Fabulous Thunderbirds. Stevie Ray passed up the opportunity to make an album with the band Double Trouble to follow up their last collaboration, "In Step." Critics called the work Stevie Ray's best.

For both men, the costs were well worth the chance to work together, said Charles Comer, the brothers' publicist and longtime family friend.

"Tick Tock," by Stevie Ray, was co-written by Jimmie, Nile Rodgers, the record's producer and Jerry Williams. It was first played in public at an outdoor memorial service for Stevie Ray on Aug. 31 in Dallas.

ROBSTOWN, Texas (AP) — You know times are hard when a city official submits a budget that includes his job among the 15 that would be eliminated.

"I'm stunned," said Councilman Manuel B. Lopez Jr. "Not many people would want to recommend removing themselves from a good job to help the city out of its financial crisis."

Not only is City Secretary Ricardo Rodriguez offering to slash his job, he also wants to sell City Hall.

The city's administrative offices would be moved to the utility system's building.

"We're getting near the death of this city," Rodriguez said. "I didn't come in here for the city's funeral. I came here to provide options."

Rodriguez's proposal, presented Saturday, is the second of four budget-balancing options he will present to the council before the 1990-91 budget is adopted next month.

Council members plan to meet Oct. 1 to discuss Rodriguez's third proposal and possibly the fourth.

Drastic budget cuts are being contemplated because the city has a deficit of $1.1 million, Rodriguez said.

The first belt-tightening option, presented last week, calls for sanitation rates to increase nearly 100 percent.

The second calls for the elimination of 20 city positions, five of which are currently vacant, Rodriguez said.

Since the city secretary position would be eliminated, Rodriguez said the city utility superintendent would have to manage the city.

"There are some legal obstacles we'd have to overcome," Rodriguez said, "but it's a viable option." Rodriguez said he had discussed the idea with the city attorney but had not approached the utility.

Magic act proved popular

LAS VEGAS (AP) — Illusionists Siegfried & Roy mark their 10,000th performance at the Mirage Hotel tonight 20 years after being told that magic would not work in Las Vegas.

Siegfried Fishbacher and Roy Horn are now the top draws in a city of stars, rank No. 27 on Forbes magazine's list of highest-paid performers and are forecast to earn $28 million in the two-year period ending in December.

It was a different story two decades ago when the two illusionists, who met and formed their act on a cruise ship, tried to break into the Las Vegas market.

"Don't tell me you're a magician because magic doesn't work in Las Vegas," a Tropicana Hotel official told the pair before reluctantly giving them a short contract.

"All my confidence was gone."
