

Food, activities to highlight 'Buffalo Days'

HANNAH PHILANA ONASSIS

Food, games and entertainment highlight this year's White Buffalo Days, an annual event scheduled here Saturday.

The day will begin at Winston Field where a fly-in, hosted by the Scurry County Pilot's Association, is set for 7 a.m. A complimentary breakfast will be provided for pilots, and will be available to the public for $3. Snyder Jaycees are hosting the breakfast, slated from 7:30-9:30 a.m.

Plane rides will be available to the public for $6 from 9 a.m. until noon.

From the air field, activities move to Scurry County Coliseum where arts and crafts booths open at 9 a.m. Food and activity booths will begin opening at 10 a.m.

Featured events and activities include the Pete Snyder Store, a school art display and the annual Calico Cutie and Buffalo Bill Contest.

At 1 p.m., entertainment — featuring local acts as well as country singer Hannah Philana Onassis — begins in the coliseum. Onassis, a native of Dallas, has opened for Loretta Lynn, Shelly West, Joe Stampley and others.

She has recently completed an album "Don't Mess With This Texan." She is tentatively expected to perform between 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. Joining her will be another artist, Bennie Prince.

Events in the ag complex adjacent to the coliseum include a turtle race at noon, a buffalo chip toss at 1:30 p.m., the Mayor's Cup Race at 2 p.m., a remote control car race at 3 p.m. and a stick horse rodeo at 5 p.m. An awards ceremony will be held in the coliseum at 5:30 p.m., followed by a dance from 7-9 p.m.

One other activity is a BB shoot, scheduled all afternoon Saturday.

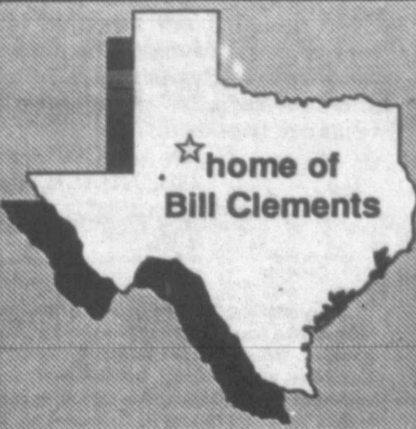

Events will also be taking place Saturday at the Cornelius Dodson House and the Dermott School, located southwest of the coliseum. From 10:30 a.m. until noon, Central Elementary students will have a program at the Dermott School. Stanfield students will hold a program from 3-3:30 p.m. In addition, Jerri Parker will conduct a special program on antique silverware at the Dodson House.

Among the booths for White Buffalo Days goes to visit will be a Merchants Booth which will sell items donated by local merchants. Proceeds will be used to help promote the annual Shop In Snyder program during the Christmas holidays.

As conservation directors...

Stirl, Sterling to repeat terms

Walter Stirl and Leon Sterling were re-elected as Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District directors Thursday evening.

Following the brief election process, local farmers and ranchers heard from Joe Hefner of the ASCS office and federal crop insurance representative Billy Roach.

Because of the questionable situation of the federal budget, the two were unable to tell the group much about the coming year except that there would be cuts in agriculture programs.

Hefner did say that the situation "looked serious" and that the "Department of Agriculture is going to take big hit."

Roach said in the current proposal the Department of Agriculture would be cut by $13 billion over the next five years — $1.3 billion for 1991.

The only guarantee Roach could make is that small grain crops could be insured in 1991.

During the election, both Stirl and Sterling were re-elected by acclamation. Stirl serves Zone 1, which includes all of Scurry County east of Highway 208 and south of Highway 180.

Sterling serves Zone 2, which includes all of Scurry County west of Highway 208 from Snyder to the Garza County line.

The entire district covers Scurry and Borden Counties and is divided into a total of five zones.

Other Zone directors are Charlie Henderson, Zone 3; Burl Belew, Zone 4; and W.L. Wilson, Zone 5.

Soil and water conservation district directors serve four-year terms.

The meeting was held at Reta's Cake Shop and Texas Barbecue.

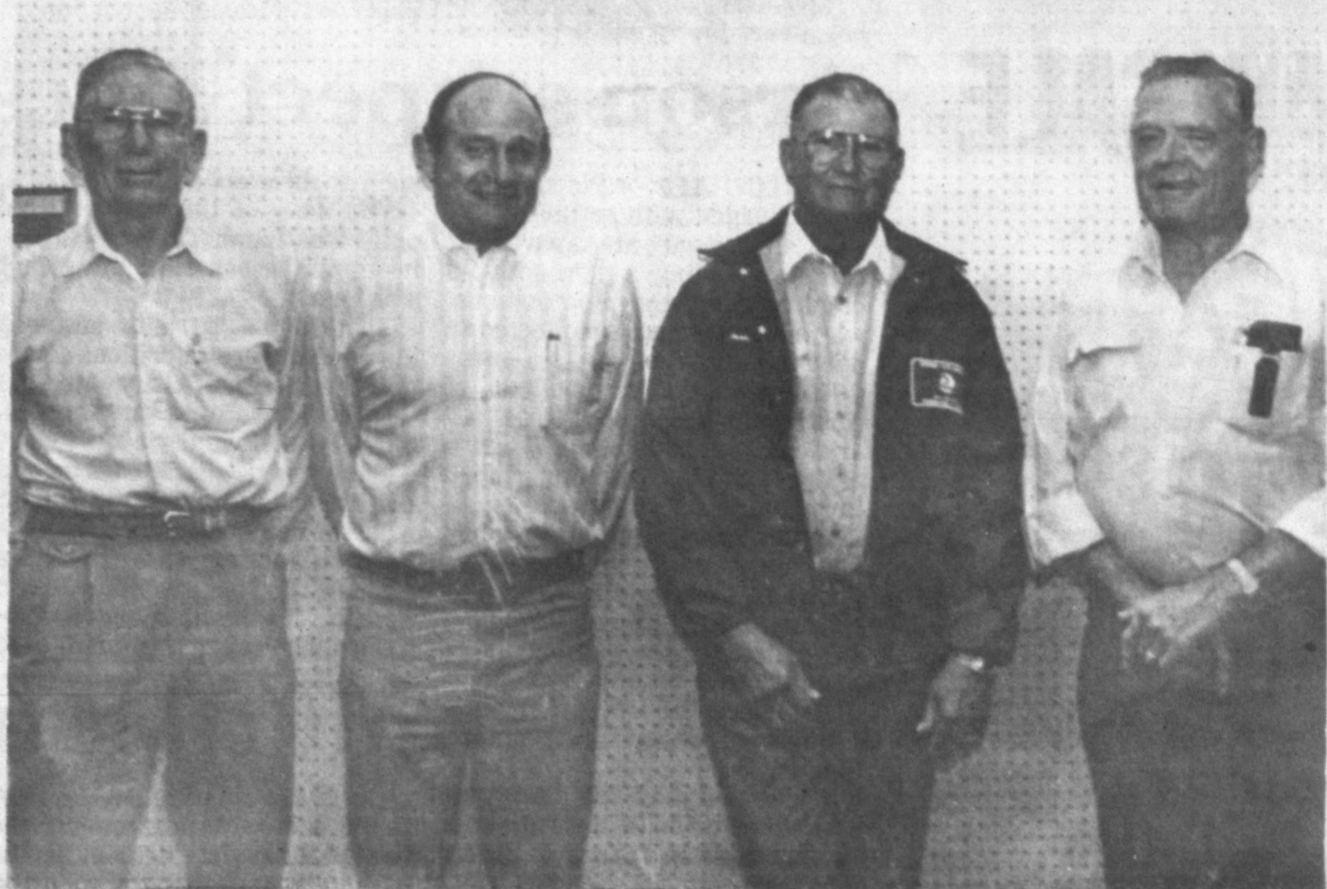

Basketball tickets on sale at WTC

Season tickets for Western Texas College's home basketball games are on sale now in the athletic department on campus.

Individual tickets are $20 each. Married couples can purchase a pair of tickets for $30. Additional tickets for children living at home are $5 each.

The athletic department, located in the HPE building at the east end of the campus, is open from 8 a.m. until noon and from 1-5 p.m. Monday through Thursday. The department is open until 4 p.m. Fridays.

The Lady Dusters will play their first home game of the season Nov. 5 when they host Cisco Junior College at 6 p.m. The Westerners will host Cisco at 8 p.m. on Nov. 12.

In Kuwait...

More missions close

By The Associated Press
In Washington, State Department spokeswoman Margaret Tutwiler said U.S. officials have received reports that Iraqi authorities are now barring American men 55 years and older from leaving Iraq and Kuwait.

She said previous indications were that Americans males of that age were allowed to leave by Iraqi authorities, along with those under 18.

Recent State Department estimates indicated more than 600 Americans were stranded in Kuwait and more than 300 in Iraq. Some are being held at strategic Iraqi installations to deter possible attack.

The U.S. military, meanwhile, looked to safety concerns in the Persian Gulf after separate accidents this week killed 12 American servicemen. The Air Force on Thursday completed a 24-hour grounding of all gulf training flights.

However, Capt. A.C. Roper, a spokesman for U.S. Central Command, said in Saudi Arabia that the Air Force "has not changed anything" in flight operations as a result of the suspension of flights.

More than 170,000 U.S. troops are deployed in Saudi Arabia and on warships in the gulf region. They are backed by vessels and soldiers from other Western and Arab countries. An estimated 460,000 Iraqi troops are stationed in Kuwait and southern Iraq.

In today's editions, the Washington Post said Saudi Arabia plans to increase crude oil production 10 percent more by the middle of next year and will speed up expansion plans to reach peak output of 10 million barrels a day by 1995.

Saudi Aramco, the state-owned oil company, now produces 7.7 million barrels a day, a 45 percent increase from the 5.3 million daily barrels it was producing before Iraq invaded Kuwait.

Germany and Belgium said today their last diplomats have left Kuwait, leaving only the U.S. and three other Western missions open there. Iraq reportedly has barred elderly American men from leaving Iraq and Kuwait.

A French news magazine reported today that U.S. military officials have drawn up plans to free Kuwait and defeat Iraq in a four-day offensive in November that would leave Saddam Hussein's armed forces in ruins.

Firemen's convention is planned Saturday

Pumper races, an evening barbecue and a dance will provide entertainment for firemen and their families from 17 area fire departments as Snyder hosts the Midwest Texas Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Biannual Convention on Saturday.

Registration will open at 10 a.m. at the Central Fire Station, followed by a lunch prepared by the local Firemen's Auxiliary. A business meeting will follow.

Local merchants have donated door prizes, which will be awarded during the meeting.

The pumper races are tentatively scheduled for 4 p.m. on the west side of Moffett Field.

The barbecue, prepared by local firemen, will be held at the National Guard Armory, followed by dance for some 250 firemen and their registered guests.

The convention is being hosted by Snyder Fire Department.

September permits reflect over $132,000

Building permits from the city building inspector's office reflected $132,405 in construction for the month of September.

The valuation brings to $812,117 the year-to-date total. Last year's total at the same time reflected $1,724,301.

September's permits reflected the following:

- a roof alteration for Permian Communications at 2403 25th St.;
- an addition at 4516 Fredonia, owned by J. Eric Fitzhugh;
- a new building at 1312 Ave. R, owned by Grimmett Brothers;
- a mobile home at 707 16th St.,

- owned by Mamie Eubanks;
- a move-in at 2904 Ave. J, owned by Eula Fae Williams;
- an addition at 2903 32nd, owned by Charles Anderson;
- an addition at 307 33rd, owned by Mary Garcia;
- and a garage at 312 28th St., owned by Sebastian Jaimes;
- Total building permit fees amounted to $193,25.

The inspector's office performed 24 plumbing inspections, 8 electrical inspections and 59 miscellaneous inspections. Total permit fees for the month amounted to $425,37.

60% say Congress is doing poor job

NEW YORK (AP) — With the November election less than four weeks away, Americans are dissatisfied with Congress in general but more favorably disposed toward their own representatives, according to a New York Times-CBS News poll.

Sixty percent of those polled said they disapprove of the way Congress is doing its job, with 27 percent saying they approve, the Times reported today.

The approval rating was down sharply from January, when 42 percent said they approved of Congress' job performance.

Asked whether most members of Congress "are more interested in serving the people they represent, or more interested in serving special interest groups," 71 percent said special interest groups and 20 percent said the people.

The respondents appeared to be less critical of their own representatives than of the rest of Congress.

Forty-four percent said their representative deserves re-election, while 40 percent say they would prefer somebody new.

Asked about Congress in general, 67 percent said it is time "to give new people a chance," and 20 percent said most members deserve re-election.

The results are based on a telephone survey of 960 adults between Monday and Wednesday.

There remain some skeptics about the positive economic impact of the 300 jobs at the Price Daniel unit. We still contend a paycheck is better than no paycheck — and 300 paychecks...well.

Our editor neighbor in Rotan, Kim Pease, recently put in a plug for the prison when he wrote:

"A Real Windfall: I don't have a full listing, wish someone would prepare one, of all the Fisher County residents working at the Snyder prison."

"I never dreamed it would have this big of an economic impact locally. One more instance of an area business industry providing jobs and keeping home folks at home."

Gene Dow, in the Seminole Sentinel, said Eric

Dickerson's refusal to take a physical exam in order to continue to play for the Indianapolis Colts reminded him of another story.

The Colts' owner fined Dickerson $625,000 and would not allow him to be traded until after the deadline. Dickerson responded, "If I had known they wanted me to take a physical, I would have taken it."

Dow recalls a company employee who refused to sign up for a pension plan that required 100 percent employee participation. Sam's boss and fellow workers pleaded and urged, but to no avail.

Finally, the boss called the employee into his office and told him to either sign the papers or clean out his desk.

Sam signed the papers immediately. "Now," said the boss, "would you mind telling me why you couldn't have signed earlier?"

"Well, sir," Sam answered, "Nobody explained it to me quite so clearly before."

Q—I understand that the Nov. 6 general election will include one amendment. What is the amendment?

A—The amendment makes no basic changes, but simply clarifies the particular law which pertains to requirements for the gubernatorial nomination and senate confirmation of persons to fill vacant state and district offices.

In Brief

Retail sales up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retail sales jumped 1.1 percent in September, artificially inflated by the soaring cost of gasoline, the government said Friday.

Sales rose $1.6 billion to a seasonally adjusted $151.2 billion, the Commerce Department said. That followed a revised 0.4 percent decline in August, which had previously been reported as a 0.6 percent drop. September's gain was the best since an identical rise four months earlier.

Boy recovers

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A 13-year-old boy who suffered a critical brain injury following a freak baseball mishap was scheduled to return home today, following a four-month hospitalization.

Jason Barnhart vowed to regain his strength and return to Little League baseball where, during a June 2 game, his head hit a teammate's knee and he suffered injuries that have hospitalized him at Cook-Fort Worth Children's Medical Center since.

"I'm going to play baseball, again," he said. "That's for sure."

Jason's parents said the boy, who has remained in high spirits throughout the summer, is active but cannot yet run.

Insurance firm has to stop AIDS test

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — In the first case of its kind in New Jersey, the state is ordering a Texas-based insurance company to stop selectively testing for AIDS when issuing policies.

State Insurance Commissioner Samuel Fortunato ruled Thursday that the Midland National Life Insurance Company must end a practice that requires prospective customers in certain parts of New Jersey to take a blood test for AIDS, or Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome.

Midland's requires the blood test for those living in communities within 10 zip codes in northeastern New Jersey, portions of central New Jersey, eastern Monmouth County, and parts of Ocean County.

Fortunato said Midland ordered the screening for prospective customers in those areas who applied for policies exceeding $100,000.

Gov. Jim Florio criticized Midland's policy as discriminatory.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1990 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Prior to my marriage, my wife-to-be told me that she was not a virgin. (I was.) We now have been married for more than 20 years and have a wonderful family. My problem is that I have never forgotten that my wife did not wait for marriage before sharing her bed. Even though I have had counseling, I still feel pain in my heart when I think of my wife in the arms of other men. To this day, I would marry my wife again, but I wish that God would have granted her the wisdom to keep silent as to her earlier men. Please do not disclose the city I mailed this from, as I do not want to embarrass my family. Just sign me ...
TORN HEART

DEAR TORN HEART: Please quit torturing yourself. Perhaps the following letter will do for you what counseling did not. Read it twice. Then read it again:

DEAR ABBY: I am happily married to the finest man who ever walked in shoe leather. My childhood and adolescence was not a very pretty one. I had been sexually abused by family members and had been in four different foster homes by the time I was 17. I grew up very fast, if you know what I mean. I waited on tables to put myself through college. It took me five years, but I graduated — but I'm getting off my story.

I met a beautiful young man who was studying for the ministry. We were exactly the same age. Within a year, he asked me to marry him. I thought I had died and gone to heaven.

We've been married for three years. On our wedding night, I told him I would answer any questions he had, and started off by telling him I wasn't a virgin.

He said, "As far as I am concerned, you were born the day we met. What you have done before we met has nothing to do with me."
I MARRIED AN ANGEL

DEAR ABBY: This afternoon, when the newsboy delivered our paper, my husband invited him in, in order to tip him. I happened to be in the room, so my husband said to the boy, "Meet my wife — but don't laugh!"

Over the 40-some years we've been married, he's used this kind of introduction innumerable times, and everyone laughs. I do not think this kind of introduction is amusing and have told him time and again, to no avail.

Today, however, I felt that I had really had enough and I told him so. His defense: "You have no sense of humor."

Abby, how would you judge this?
HAJ ENOUGH IN WISCONSIN

DEAR HAD ENOUGH: It's your husband who has no sense of humor. But that's not all he lacks; he also lacks sensitivity, compassion and respect for his wife of more than 40 years.

People sometimes laugh out of embarrassment, shock, or the inappropriateness of a remark. Dear lady, if your husband has some positive qualities to offset the obvious negative ones, please rush them to me so I can sleep better tonight.

DEAR ABBY: This letter is in response to the poor beleaguered mailman who was embarrassed by the scantily clad housewives who try to entice him into the house with a cold (or hot) drink.

I really sympathize with him. Even though I am a retired letter carrier, I would make the supreme sacrifice to relinquish my retirement and take over his route. After all, what are friends for?

Arson suspect arrested in Austin fire

AUSTIN (AP) — Police say a man charged with setting a fire that destroyed an apartment complex, killing a 15-month-old child and injuring nine persons, was angry over an uncollected $8 debt.

Bruce Wayne Campbell, 30, of Austin was jailed on $75,000 bail and charged with arson. The fire early Thursday morning ripped through the La Villita apartment complex and left about 50 people homeless.

Police believe the fire was sparked by a flare gun belonging to Campbell, who had been seen arguing with tenants over an $8 debt before the fire began, said homicide detective Michael Huckabay.

Police said they would continue searching through the rubble of the complex in search of others who were unaccounted for. They said charges against Campbell, a former tenant at the complex, may be increased to homicide.

Witnesses told police they had seen Campbell, who had been a boyfriend of a former manager at the complex, with a flare gun outside the apartments minutes before the fire broke out just before 2 a.m.

Firefighters said a flare gun fired into kerosene could cause such an intense fire.

The body of the 15-month old child was found Thursday afternoon. Witnesses said the infant was a girl.

The child's parents suffered burns and were in critical condition at Brooke Army Medical Center's burn unit in San Antonio, officials said.

They were first taken to Brackenridge Hospital in Austin where officials identified them as Emmett Jackson, 34, and Diathia Reeder, 35. Spokeswoman Robin Griffin said the man and woman were burned over 75 percent to 80 percent of their bodies.

Terri Valko, a resident at the apartments, said she saw Ms. Reeder running away from the apartments. "All of her skin was on fire," she said.

Fire officials used shovels and even got on their hands and knees looking for victims, witnesses said.

Sally Muir of the city's Emergency Medical Service, said reports from the scene had identified four others who could not be accounted for, "but that is not to say they were in the rubble."

Ms. Muir said investigators were using a diagram drawn by a resident of the complex to try to account for occupants.

Two people were admitted to Brackenridge. Ms. Griffin identified them as Jesus Silva, 26 who was in fair condition and Blanca Gonzales, 19, who was in serious condition.

Ms. Muir said Ms. Gonzales, 6½ months pregnant, and Silva jumped from a second-story window. She said the woman suffered from smoke inhalation, and Silva had a fractured wrist.

Murder trial may be moved

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — A judge is considering moving the trial of a convicted rapist accused of killing six young women and burying them in the desert.

But attorneys for David Leonard Wood said Thursday they believe their client can indeed get a fair trial in El Paso, despite widespread news coverage of the case. Prosecutors did not object.

State district court Judge Peter Peca said he would file his own motion and make a ruling by Oct. 26 on whether the trial should be moved.

Wood was indicted in July on a serial murder charge that accuses him of killing six women whose bodies were found in a stretch of El Paso desert. The decayed remains of the victims were found in the desert between Sept. 4, 1987, and March 14, 1988.

The victims were between ages 14 and 23 and all had been missing at least two months before their bodies were discovered. All were buried in shallow graves within a half-mile of each other.

Wood has been serving a 50-year prison term for the 1987 rape of a prostitute who said she was assaulted near the area where the bodies were found. A Texas Department of Corrections cellmate said Wood gave him graphic details of how the victims were tortured and killed. Wood has pleaded innocent to the charge.

Wood's attorneys had said in July they would ask for a change of venue. But defense lawyer Dolph Quijano said Thursday he left that up to his client.

Wood's wife and sister were in the courtroom but refused to comment. Victims' relatives also were in the courtroom.

Peca also ordered the District Attorney's office to turn over several documents and test results from fluid and blood analyses that he had ordered the district attorney to provide the defense in July.

Waste site proposal still controversial

FORT HANCOCK, Texas (AP) — Proponents of a nuclear dump site have asked two utilities that will use the site to consider funding local community improvement projects as a gesture of goodwill.
 The request has angered dump foes who consider the effort an attempt to bribe them into dropping their opposition to the radioactive waste disposal site.
 "Basically it's just a way of bribing us to deter us from our opposition to the dump," Fort Hancock resident Mary Alcorn said Thursday. "And for anybody to imagine there could not be strings attached, it's incredible. There are lots of strings attached. You don't get something for nothing."

In a memo dated Sept. 27, a group called the Fort Hancock Citizens Improvement Committee asked a Texas Utilities Electric Lighting and Power Co. official to "assure the residents of Fort Hancock that benefits will accrue from a placement of a low-level radioactive waste disposal being located in the Fort Hancock area."
 The memo addressed to Tom Locke, TU Electric vice president of public affairs, lists five projects, in order of priority, that the committee hopes TU Electric and HL&P will fund.
 The committee wants the utilities to buy playground equipment and fund the renovation of the community center and swimming pool, a satellite for the Fort Hancock Community Library, a monument to commemorate Fort Hancock High School winning the 6-man Football State Championship in 1986 and 1988-89 and a Christmas party for Fort Hancock children and elderly.

 "All of the things we requested were for the children of the community," said Samuel Bray, a former Hudspeth County judge and one of five members of the committee.
 The Texas Low Level Radioactive Waste Authority wants to build a facility near Fort Hancock to store the state's nuclear waste. TU Electric, HL&P, state universities, colleges and Texas hospitals will pay to store waste at the site.
 El Paso and Hudspeth counties challenged the authority's plans in court last month alleging the state did not follow its own rules when it picked the Fort Hancock site.
 Locke was not in his office Thursday when called by The Associated Press for comment. Questions were referred to Robert Waldrop, HL&P vice president for public affairs.

 "We felt if there was something we could be doing now, it ought to be done. If the site is never established there, then it would end up with some good being done for the community," Waldrop said.
 Waldrop said the utilities have not made any specific offers, but simply asked the community what they thought of the idea of future dump users participating in community improvement. He said the idea still must be considered by higher officials at both utilities.
 Plans for the city of Chicago were laid out in 1830.

Advisory Council hears SHL report

Ruth West, Scurry County Silver Haired Legislature representative, presented a report on the SHL Wednesday during the regular meeting of the Advisory Council to the Senior Citizens Center.
 Mrs. West will be one of the members of the SHL returning to Austin in January to testify before the state legislature concerning resolutions which have been passed by the SHL. She will also be in Austin on Nov. 30 for a meeting of the executive committee.
 In other business, the council voted to purchase new ovens for the Senior Center kitchen with money from the Memorial Fund. The ovens will replace equipment in use since the center opened in its present location in January, 1979.
 New officers for the Advisory Council will be elected at the November meeting.

jack, and the high trumps. Even though the unlikely 5-1 club split existed, declarer still made his contract.
 At the other table, after East had jumped to four hearts, South doubled, and that was one away. Better to play and make four spades, but for South to stick his neck out with a vulnerable four-spade call would be somewhat indiscreet. Furthermore, experts do play that the double of four hearts shows general cards, not specifically trump tricks. That means that occasionally North might still bid four spades, even after the double.

Bank required extra insurance

DALLAS (AP) — A bank controlled by Texas Republican gubernatorial candidate Clayton Williams required car buyers to purchase unneeded credit insurance through the bank in order to get car loans, a loan officer for a Houston auto dealer says.
 George W. Campbell, a loan officer at Mike Calvert Toyota, said that in a deposition stemming from a class-action lawsuit that was filed last month by car buyers in Dallas and Houston who alleged that the bank forced them to buy the insurance, which the buyers said they didn't want or need.

Sophisticated backfire

By James Jacoby
 Sometimes sophisticated methods can backfire. After passing, East jumped to three clubs over the takeout double — an artificial bid showing a raise to three hearts with a defensive trick. (A jump to three hearts would have been completely pre-emptive, and East thought it inappropriate to jump to four hearts.) But South was now able to risk a three-spade bid. North raised to game.
 When West led king and another heart, declarer ruffed in dummy and cashed the A-Q of spades. When East showed out, it looked easy to play another high spade, come to hand with the jack of clubs, pull the remaining trumps and run the clubs.
 But declarer was Paul Soloway, and he realized that a rare 5-1 club split would wreck the hand. He also knew that East's three-club bid promised a defensive trick. What could that be but the ace of diamonds? So, keeping the spade jack in dummy, he played a diamond. East played low, and declarer rose with the king. Now came a spade to dummy's jack, a club back to the

Run for league crown begins

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

Football teams in District 2-4A begin loop play this week with a somewhat scattered schedule.

Estacado defeated Snyder, 10-3, Thursday night to open the league slate while Lamesa is at Frenship today at 7:30 p.m. and Dunbar hosts Levelland Saturday at 2 p.m.

Lamesa (3-1-1) at Frenship (3-2)

The Golden Tornadoes slipped from the ranks of the undefeated last week in a 28-14 loss to upstart Greenwood.

Lamesa, just up from the 3A football ranks this season, rushed the football for 238 yards last week against the Rangers.

Keene Hunter and Tony Brown provided long-distance strike capabilities to the Lamesa attack. Hunter finished the night with 74 yards on seven carries, including a 61-yard touchdown jaunt and Brown rambled for 57 yards and a TD on a 32-yard run.

The LHS offense as a whole is leading the district averaging almost 290 yards per game.

The Tors' defense is rated third allowing just over 220 yards each game to their opponents.

Frenship is paced by a defense that brushed past Andrews to open the season, 12-7, played Lubbock Coronado to within six points, 13-7, and finally got some offensive support last week in the Tigers' 38-14 rout of Canyon Randall.

Senior quarterback, defensive back and all-state candidate as a kicker, Brad Cade, passed for a touchdown, ran for another, kicked five extra points, booted a 25-yard field goal and blocked a punt and went 40 yards for another TD to account for most of the FHS point production.

Cade is 46-101 on the season as the Tiger trigger man for 547 yards and three touchdowns.

The defensive unit of Frenship allowed just 48 rushing yards against Randall but seemed to leak somewhat in the secondary as the Raiders passed for 143 yards.

As a team, FHS averages 224.2 yards allowed per outing.

Levelland (3-2) at Dunbar (3-2)

Levelland outlasted Hereford a week ago for a 9-7 victory to put the Lobos over .500 for the first time this season heading into league play.

Steve Salazar snagged a Craig Black pass for a 45-yard touchdown and kicked a fourth quarter 23-yard field goal to ease the Lobos past the 5A Whitefaces last Friday.

Levelland was picked in Texas Football, a preseason magazine, to take second place in the district behind Estacado.

Coach Otha Woodard's Dunbar Panthers fell hard the last two weeks after bolting to an early season 3-0 mark.

Dunbar lost to lowly Borger last week, 14-12, and to Pampa, 34-22, two games back.

The Panther offense is led by speedy Typhail McMullen who has amassed 544 yards in 60 rushes from his tailback slot.

McMullen has run the 40-yard dash in a scant 4.5 seconds.

The defensive crew from DHS in Lubbock gave up 159 yards on the ground against the Borger squad last week.

SHS tennis squad to host Tornadoes

Snyder and Lamesa will battle on the tennis courts for District 2-4A supremacy Saturday beginning at noon on Snyder Junior High courts.

The Tigers were bounced in a three-way practice match last Saturday, 16-9 by Abilene Cooper's JV and 13-12 by Monahans.

Among the winners for Snyder was boys top seed Marcus Best who claimed a victory over Cooper No. 1 player David Robertson, 6-3, 6-3 and outlasted Raymond Villa of Monahans in three sets, 6-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Best and doubles partner Kevin McMillan notched a pair of match wins Saturday, also.

The SHS duo whipped Chris Proctor and Kevin Priestner of Abilene, 6-3, 6-2 and then pounced on Monahans' Villa and Orlando Ortega, 6-3, 6-1.

Christina Gonzales was the Snyder girls' leader a week ago with her 6-4, 6-3 beating of Brenda Curbow of Monahans and a three-set victory over Suzanne O'Laughlin of Abilene, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3.

Gonzales and Leslie Sandoval made short work of O'Laughlin and Kathleen Allen in doubles play, 6-2, 6-3 before taking a three-setter from MHS netters Janice Phillips and Brenda Watson, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.

The winner of the Saturday match will advance to regional play as district champion. Saturday's loser will still make the tourney, but will face a loop champ in opening round action as second seed from District 2-4A.

The regional tournament is slated for Oct. 26 and 27 in Lubbock.

SHS volleyballers battle Brownfield

Snyder's Lady Tiger volleyball squad takes a break from District 2-4A competition Saturday with a 12:30 p.m. meeting featuring freshmen, junior varsity and varsity teams.

Snyder's varsity is fresh off a 15-8, 15-6 drumming of loop foe Lubbock Dunbar Tuesday.

The win put Snyder in second place with an 8-8 overall record and a 4-1 district slate.

The Lady Tigers trail Lamesa, 18-3 and 5-0, by just one game but appear to have locked up at least the second playoff spot for the loop with a two-game pad over third-place Dunbar and just three district matches to go.

Angee Crawford served 17 points in Snyder's Tuesday win followed by Robbie Brazier's five, two apiece by Dayla Church and Amber Bowlin and Liz Greathouse, Camille Thompson and Freda Clay with one each.

Snyder's JV is also coming off an impressive win over the Lady Panthers taking a 15-2, 15-10 match decision Tuesday.

Cook nabs 1st at Vernon JC

VERNON — Western Texas College's rodeo team had a good night Thursday with three riders placing high in the first performance of the Vernon Regional Junior College rodeo.

Coach Bob Doty reported today that Darrin Cook earned an outstanding 81 for his bull ride Thursday for first place in that event while saddle bronc specialist Shane Gulbrandsen hammered out a 67 that was also good for first.

Dwayne Evans took second place as a bareback rider with a first-go score of 64.

The National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association event continues with Friday and Saturday night shows at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday's short go, which will include the top ten times or scores from each event, is set for 1 p.m.

The Westerners placed fifth at Eastern New Mexico to start the fall season three weeks ago and took third last week at Sul Ross State University.

The final rodeo on the autumn schedule will be at Texas Tech Oct. 18-21.

Cards-Borden tilt is featured Friday

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

Area six-man teams begin District 6-A(6) competition tonight as Hermleigh visits Borden County and Ira travels to Highland. Last week saw Hermleigh fall, 73-30, to a tough Grady squad in the Cards' annual homecoming game while Borden County was nipping Klondike 26-25 in the Coyotes homecoming contest. Ira's winless streak continued as the Bulldogs slipped to No. 7 Sands, 36-20.

In other action within the district today high-powered Trent is at Loraine.

All games kick off at 7:30 p.m.

Hermleigh (2-3) at Borden County (2-3)

The Cardinals lost last week to Grady in spite of Andrew Sanchez' three touchdowns.

Sanchez wriggled into the Grady end zone on a 75-yard kickoff return, a 25-yard pass from Felix Martinez and a Chris Velasco touchdown heave that went for 52 yards.

The Cardinal defense gave up 204 yards rushing to Grady running back Gilbert Cortez last week. Cortez accounted for four GHS TDs on the game.

Hermleigh held its own through a quarter as the teams tied 22-22 after one before Grady took control and a 20-8 advantage in the second period.

Borden County's Jimmy Rios ran for 143 yards last Friday including a pair of touchdowns. He also hit John Paul Harris with a third-quarter scoring toss that nailed down the win.

Klondike rallied from a 26-13 deficit in the last period but a pair of unsuccessful extra-point conversions led to Borden County's one point victory.

Ira (0-5) at Highland (2-3)

The Bulldogs are a victim of a brutal pre-season schedule which included No. 3 Guthrie, No. 7 Sands, No. 8 Jayton, the top rated private school in Texas, Midland Christian Academy and the same Grady squad that scored 73 points on Hermleigh Friday night.

Ira, picked in summer football publications to challenge for the loop crown, will battle a Highland team that defeated Novice 57-20 last Friday.

James Sturdivant, having an all-district-type year thus far, scored three TDs for the Dogs in their homecoming loss.

He caught a 7-yard Brian Martinez pass to give Ira the early 6-0 lead and then went in on a 42-yard toss from Martinez and a 42-yard run, both in the fourth quarter.

In District 2-4A opener...

Matadors nudge Snyder, 10-3

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

LUBBOCK — Snyder's Tigers put up a valiant defensive effort against the No. 2 ranked Estacado Matadors in District 2-4A football action Thursday night, but came up short offensively in a 10-3 loss.

"We played well enough to win," SHS coach David Baugh stated.

"We should've beat them. We got down there and we couldn't ever score."

"We finally made that field goal in the third quarter and that relieved some of the pressure and we moved the ball fairly well after that."

"This game never was to decide whether we go to the playoffs or not, even if we'd won. The next four games will decide that."

"We've just got to take care of business and stay focused."

Snyder took the opening kickoff and, following a 10-yard return by Paul Anderson, the Tigers were in business on their own 27 yard line.

Anderson got the call on first down and was stuffed for a 4-yard loss. On second and 14, quarterback Ed Rios found a wide-open Hayward Clay who made the catch and rumbled downfield for a 54-yard gain.

Fullback Bryan Brunson gained a yard on first down from the Estacado 23 and Anderson picked up nine on two carries for the first down at the Mats' 17.

Brunson made four more before Rios was sacked for a loss of seven to set up a third and 13 situation.

Wingback Shelby Bufkin took a nifty option pitch from Rios and scooted for six forcing a 27-yard field goal attempt by Brunson that went short and was returned by Estacado's Malcolm Davis to the EHS 15.

The Matadors, 6-0 on the season and 1-0 in loop play, took a 3-0 lead on their initial possession of the night with a seven-play, 85-yard drive that culminated with the three-pointer by Albert McBride.

Patrick Williams, Estacado fullback, broke loose on a 42-yard gallop down the left sideline. His dash was halted by defensive end Will Clay's TD-saving tackle from behind at the Tiger 15.

The Black and Gold stiffened and allowed just four yards on the next three plays bringing in McBride for the field goal attempt.

Snyder mounted a scoring threat on their longest drive of the evening at the end of the second quarter.

The Tigers accepted a punt from the Mats' McBride and set up at their own 35.

Anderson picked up eight on first down and Brunson exploded for 14 through the middle followed by another option play to Bufkin that gained nine.

On third and 10 from the Estacado 30 Brunson ground out nine and Rios got the first down with his two-yard effort on fourth and one.

The running game featuring Anderson and Brunson bulled the pigskin down inside the one-yard line where, with just :07 left on the clock before the half, Brunson tried a second field goal on fourth and goal.

The 18-yard kick was wide to the left preserving the Mats' 3-0 lead at intermission.

Brunson got a third chance early in the third period and made good on it to knot the score at 3-3.

Davis took the kickoff to start the second half for Estacado and was hit hard by a trio of Snyder tacklers who jarred the ball loose. One of the tacklers,

GETTING SET — Snyder quarterback Ed Rios brings the Tigers to the line as tight end Hayward Clay goes in motion to the left. The Tigers lost their District opener to No. 2 ranked Lubbock Estacado Thursday, 10-3, in a defensive battle. Snyder faces loop opponent Levlland next Friday at Tiger Stadium as the race for playoff position resumes. (SDN Staff Photo)

Locadio Luera, pounced on the football at the Matador 23.

Rios was tossed for a 6-yard loss on first down and Brunson was limited to just one on second and 16.

The Tigers blew down to the EHS 18 on a pass to Brunson good for 10 yards bringing on the field goal unit for the successful 35-yard shot.

The scoring wound down on the ensuing Estacado drive as the Lubbock school went 65 yards in 10 plays to take a 10-3 lead that would hold up for the remainder of the game.

Johnson did the honors for the Matadors, going over from four yards out with 4:47 left in the third quarter.

The Tigers went back to work on offense but couldn't get untracked and punted the ball back to the Mats who regained control at their own 20 after a 53-yard Brunson punt, his only punt on the night.

Estacado went into what appeared to be another sustained drive, taking time off the clock and munching chunks of turf in the process before Will Clay again stepped to the fore for Snyder.

On second and three from Snyder's 28 yard line Clay sailed into the Estacado backfield and sacked quarterback Zebbie Lethridge for an 8-yard loss then combined with noseguard Damien Haywood on a QB trap on the very next play that netted a minus 13 for the home team forcing a punt.

The Tigers were unable to rally as time ran out with Lethridge kneeling on the ball.

Rios for Snyder completed four of 10 passes on the evening for 92 yards and Brunson was the Tigers' leading rusher for the second week in a row picking up 64 yards on 16 attempts.

Johnson was held to 56 yards on 15 carries for Estacado but fullback Williams gained 82 on 10 tries.

Lethridge didn't miss as a passer, nailing four completions on as many attempts for 64 yards.

The Tigers' leading receiver was tight end Hayward Clay who snagged two tosses for 62 yards.

Highly touted tight end Ricky Smith came down with two passes for the Matadors for 41 yards to pace their receivers.

The Tigers, now 3-2-1 and 0-1, return home next week to face Levlland as district action continues.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My husband has been taking Tenormin daily for about five years. Do the pills cause impotence or lack of sex drive?

DEAR READER: Sometimes both. Tenormin (atenolol) is a beta-blocker used for hypertension and heart disease. Although impotence is one of its side effects, some patients also experience loss of libido (sex drive). Because these complications can be devastating, I advise patients to request alternative therapy from their physicians. For example, calcium channel blockers, such as Calan or Isoptin, are excellent drugs for hypertension and might be suitable substitutes for the Tenormin.

I should add that many medicines often interfere with sexual interest and performance. Therefore, I believe your husband should discuss his problem with the doctor, who should not only re-evaluate his medication but also investigate other causes, such as circulatory disturbances.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Impotence." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to my attention to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: For many years, I've been bothered with painful ejaculation, increasing in intensity as time goes by. I've asked local doctors for an explanation, but they all have shown little interest. Can you offer any advice?

DEAR READER: Painful ejaculation can be calamitous to a healthy male. The condition is almost always due to infection or irritation of the genital tract: for example, prostatitis or inflammation of the ejaculatory muscles.

Because this affliction is unusual, your local doctors may be stumped in arriving at a diagnosis. You may be misinterpreting their confusion as lack of interest in your problem. See a urologist. Such a specialist should be able to identify the source of your problem and suggest treatment.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What is Ice, and what are its effects?

DEAR READER: Ice is smokable amphetamine, the newest addition to the long list of illicit and dangerous drugs, including cocaine and other narcotics. Many crack (smokable cocaine) users prefer Ice because its effects last longer (hours instead of minutes). Unfortunately, its toxic effects also last longer; nerve damage from Ice may be present for at least six months. Chronic Ice smokers become paranoid, anxious and too confused to be productive.

Lawmakers are tailoring own budgets

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lawmakers of both parties are churning out their own budget plans, and Democrats and Republicans seem headed for a fight over how America will bear the pain of deficit reduction.

Budget proposals sprouted all over Capitol Hill on Thursday as members of Congress, frustrated by President Bush's blurry position on taxing the rich, began honing packages on their own.

House Democrats worked on a plan that would hit the wealthy hard, while Republicans refined a proposal that included a cut in the capital gains tax.

"It's up to Congress," said House Budget Committee Chairman Leon Panetta, D-Calif. "We're kind of moving on that kind of approach."

The frenzy of budget-writing was aimed at finding $500 billion worth of tax boosts and spending cuts for the next five years that Congress could send to Bush by Oct. 19. The government's legal ability to spend money ends that day, and the president has vowed to allow a government shutdown like the one that occurred last weekend unless lawmakers send him a budget he likes.

Just a day after the full House Ways and Means Committee produced one plan, the panel's Democrats worked on another that raised income taxes on the rich and eased the burden on the poor and middle class. It contained no reduction in the capital gains tax, but Democrats said they might add one.

"This plan is both bold and fair," said committee Chairman Dan Rostenkowski, D-Ill.

House Republicans crafted their own measure. It would lower the capital gains tax rate to 15 percent and boost the income tax rate on the wealthy from 28 percent to 31 percent. The capital gains tax — applied to profits on sales of property and other investments — now is handled the same as other income and has a top rate of 33 percent. Bush said he favored the swap, but was giving up on it because of tenacious opposition by Democrats.

"The meter is running, but look, I can't dictate to Congress," he conceded.

That sent Republicans back to the drawing board.

"We've got to give our guys something to be for," said House Minority Leader Robert Michel, R-Ill.

The Ways and Means plan, and the Democratic and Republican alternatives, seemed headed for a clash on the House floor next week. Speaker Thomas Foley, D-Wash., said Democrats and Republicans were itching to show what they stand for.

County officials say...

Appellate ruling may prompt federal prison cap review

HOUSTON (AP) — Harris County officials say an appeals court ruling could bring a review of a federal order limiting the state's prison population and alleviate overcrowding in county jails.

A three-judge panel of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals on Wednesday lifted its Sept. 21 stay prohibiting the release of state prisoners from Harris County Jail, saying it was "no longer necessary."

"This is a major victory for us," said Harris County Judge Jon Lindsay.

Harris and other Texas counties have said a federal cap on the number of prisoners in the state system has caused a backlog in county jails of convicted felons.

The ruling indicated that a federal ruling in a state overcrowding lawsuit may be "a potential impediment to the flow of state prisoners from county facilities."

But an official with the state attorney general's office downplayed the significance of the order, saying it returns Harris County's situation to the status quo.

U.S. District Judges James DeAnda and William Wayne Justice set the cap on Harris County Jail population on Sept. 7.

DeAnda and Justice limited to 4,750 the number of county inmates and to 1,350 the number of convicted felons, or state prisoners. The order called for awarding "good time" to inmates once the cap for exceeded for 15 straight days, leading to their early release.

More than 250 county prisoners were allowed early release last month because of the federal limit. Most of those prisoners were awaiting trial or serving time on misdemeanor charges, but 13 faced third-degree felony premiums paid by Medicare beneficiaries to rise more slowly than budget summit negotiators had proposed last month.

Rostenkowski's plan would impose a 33 percent income tax rate on the wealthiest Americans — the same tax rate already paid by those who are almost as well-to-do.

The rich would face a 10 percent surtax on income surpassing $1 million. The minimum tax paid by the wealthy after all exemptions and deductions, now 21 percent, would rise to 25 percent.

The plan also would increase the gasoline tax by 3 cents per gallon, 8 cents less than the full Ways and Means proposal. The federal tax on gasoline now is 9 cents per gallon.

More missions closed

L'Express said it obtained an outline of the plan from an unidentified adviser to U.S. Defense Secretary Richard Cheney.

U.S. planners estimated the offensive might cost 20,000 American lives, the magazine said. It gave no estimate for dead of other nations.

In other developments:
—Prime Minister Toshiki Kaifu of Japan was greeted by hoots and catcalls today when he opened a special session of parliament by urging support for his plan to deploy Japan's Self Defense Forces overseas for the first time. Lawmakers are deeply divided over whether to create the force.

—Iraqi President Saddam Hussein was to speak to the world's children today, apparently as part of his public relations campaign to win over world opinion on Iraq's Aug. 2 invasion of Kuwait. Baghdad Radio, monitored in Nicosia, said the speech would mark Iraqi Children's Day and would be carried by all radio and television charges.

The 5th Circuit stopped the release of any state prisoners from the county on the early release order, pending considerations by the panel.

State Assistant Attorney General Robert Ozer said the appeals court's action would result in little change because DeAnda has indicated he will hold a hearing before granting additional good time to felons.

In a previous ruling, Justice ordered a 95 percent population cap on the number of inmates at state prisons. The lawsuit, named for lead plaintiff David Ruiz, claimed the overcrowded conditions in the state prisons violated inmates' constitutional rights. That cap went into effect in 1987.

Since then, county jail officials statewide have claimed the backlog of untransferrable state prisoners have overburdened county facilities.

Ozer said the 5th Circuit's ruling on Wednesday does suggest that some orders in the Ruiz lawsuit be reconsidered.

—The U.N. Security Council was seeking to end a stalemate between the United States and the Palestine Liberation Organization over how to condemn Israel for allowing police to use force that killed at least 19 Palestinians during riots Monday. Diplomats said they hoped for a vote later today.

The dispute could drive a wedge between the United States and its Arab allies in the Persian Gulf crisis.

—Attackers on motorcycles today shot and killed Egypt's parliament speaker, Rifaat el-Mahgoub, outside a Cairo hotel, police and witnesses said. The attack came after Egypt's interior minister warned of possible terrorist reprisals for Egypt's stand against Iraq in the gulf crisis. No one claimed responsibility for the killing.

Police send case to DA

Local police officers finished their investigation Thursday into a case involving property damage to the Snyder Junior High School campus.

Questioned in the Sept. 24 incident were a 16-year-old male and his two 16-year-old companions. The campus lawn and trees were damaged when they were run over by a vehicle. The case will be forwarded to the district attorney's office.

Police also investigated a minor accident at 1:51 p.m. at 30th St. and College Ave. Involved were a 1986 Chevrolet driven by Dorothy McInnis Hill of 2311 27th St. and a 1990 Oldsmobile driven by David Pope Strayhorn of 2801 32nd St.

At 9:42 p.m., officers were called to Western Texas College by campus security. A report for Class B criminal mischief was filed involving damage done to car belonging to Kevin Murdock.

A 47-year-old male was arrested at 11:25 p.m. in the 1400 block of College Ave. for driving while intoxicated.

This could be an important year for you socially, romantically and where travel is concerned. If you are presently unattached, this situation is slated for change. If life has been dull, adventurous interludes might be in the offing.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You're a very good student today and what you learn you will be able to use later in an advantageous manner. Your knowledge will not come from books, but from your personal experiences. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Follow your hunches and instincts today and your commercial dealings, especially if you have to contend with someone who has a reputation for being shrewd and tough in business matters.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Your enthusiasm and initiative will be determined to a great extent today by the company you keep. If your companions are shakers and movers, you'll easily match their efforts.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're in a good achievement cycle and your ambitious objectives have splendid chances of being fulfilled. Your thrust will lose some of its effectiveness, however, if you're too self-serving.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You're up to coping with the full spectrum of today's developments, either good or ill, if you treat what occurs philosophically. Remember triumph and failure are both impostors.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If you get involved in something today that is meaningful to you financially, make this your priority objective. Your chances of concluding it to your satisfaction are better than usual.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) In an important partnership arrangement today it's imperative you supply the initiative while your counterpart provides the backup. It'll be up to you to determine the course of action.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Conditions in general look rather good for you today, but your most substantial gains are likely to come from your material affairs. Greater benefits usual could come from a familiar source.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) It looks like you might become involved in something advantageous today that will require bold strokes in order to be brought to fruition. You'll do what's needed.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Do not be discouraged today if your initial attempts do not yield the types of results you desire. Your chances for success are excellent, but a second effort may be required.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your greatest gift today is your ability to effectively convince others that what is of immediate concern to you is also of equal significance to them.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) If your objectives are clearly defined today, success is almost a foregone conclusion. Your easiest goals to establish will be of a financial or material nature.

Texas newspapers urge candidates to have debate

By The Associated Press
As the debate over a gubernatorial debate continues between the candidates, Texas newspapers are saying the voters deserve to hear the nominees before the Nov. 6 election.

Despite months of haggling, Democrat Ann Richards and Republican Clayton Williams have so far failed to agree to a face-to-face debate.

Each blames the other.
The Houston Chronicle noted that 1990 could be the first year since 1974 in which voters wouldn't be able to view a debate. "Neither Williams nor Richards is entitled to be governor. But the voters are entitled to a fair chance to see them together and evaluate them accordingly," the Chronicle said.

JANE WOMACK

Womack to present concert at FUMC

Jane Womack, assistant professor of voice and piano at Western Texas College, will perform in concert at the First United Methodist Church on Sunday, Oct. 14, at 2 p.m.

The concert will be held in conjunction with the FUMC "Lord's Acre Festival." The festival will also showcase the many varied talents of members of the congregation on Saturday, Nov. 2.

Mrs. Womack has been on staff at WTC for the past 14 years. She is the organist at FUMC and in the past has also been the choir director at the church.

Accompanying Mrs. Womack as mezzo soprano, will be Gladeene Lee. Mrs. Lee is a graduate of Hardin Simmons University and held a teaching position in Fort Worth for several years. She has studied voice under Virginia Seelig at the Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth. She is the sister of Bob Womack.

Piano accompanist will be Donna Ryan. She and her husband, Jerry, transferred here in August from Houston. They have two children. She has studied piano for the past 27 years and is currently studying under Mrs. Jane Womack.

A freewill offering will be taken to support the youth ministry at FUMC. A live recording will be made and if they are successful, copies of the tapes will be sold at the "Lord's Acre Festival."

Quarterly sales for firm increase

DALLAS (AP) — Kimberly-Clark Corp. reported record third quarter earnings, including $1.6 billion in sales, an 8.4 percent increase from a year ago.

Operating profit was up 10.6 percent from 1989 to $196.5 million for the quarter ending in September with a 13.3 percent net income increase to $123.3 million, the company announced Thursday.

The quarterly earnings were "an all-time high" for the company, said Tina Berry, a Kimberly-Clark spokeswoman.

Operating margins were better than forecast because of those product lines, particularly diapers and feminine hygiene products, and the elimination of Spruce Falls Power and Paper Company, Ltd., which the company is trying to sell.

Fundamentalist, moderate Baptists meet

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Four Southern Baptist leaders from two radically opposed factions, meeting in a rare debate, clashed over the politics of the nation's largest Protestant group and the interpretation of specific passages in the Bible.

Texas appeals Judge Paul Pressler, who in 1979 helped found the fundamentalist takeover of the Southern Baptist Convention, charged Thursday night that the current split in the SBC is the fault of moderates.

"If they would admit that we have been sincere in our concerns, if they would admit there was validity in them, and if they would work together with us to rectify problems where they exist," then the convention would be unified, he said.

But the Rev. David Montoya, a former fundamentalist ally now in the camp of Baptist moderates, charged that fundamentalist leaders are using a doctrinal creed to threaten the jobs of Baptist employees. Referring to a statement of belief fundamentalist leaders want to use in the hiring of missionaries, agency and seminary employees, Montoya said, "You have a document in place people are going to be forced to sign. That is a creed, Judge Pressler, there's no way to get around it, and we have violated historic Baptist principles."

Pressler founded the fundamentalist movement to halt what he viewed as the teaching of liberal theology at Baptist colleges and seminaries. Fundamentalists believe in a strict interpretation of the Bible, while moderates believe in a less-rigid viewpoint.

The church leaders participating in the "Hope for Reconciliation" forum at Samford University did agree on some basic Christian tenets, such as the virgin birth of Jesus Christ and Christ's role in human salvation. Pressler quizzed panelist Randall Fields, a trustee at the Baptist-affiliated Baylor University in Texas, about his beliefs.

In response to Pressler's questions, Fields affirmed that seminary teachers should be Christians who believe in the virgin birth and the deity of Christ.

But when asked if Adam and Eve were real people, Fields said that after much thought, he believed they "may not have been." Fields said that to insist every passage of Scripture is literal would be to miss such literary nuances as parables, and to give in to "a myopic view that destroys much of the meaning of Scripture."

But Pressler said such views could lead to challenges of the basics of Christian faith.

"If Adam and Eve were not real, what keeps you from saying the Lord Jesus Christ was not real?" the judge said.

Also participating in the debate was the Rev. Wayne Dorsett, the fundamentalist-aligned pastor of Central Park Baptist Church in Birmingham.

Dermott School and Dodson House slate Saturday activities

Antique silverplated flatware from the collection of Gerri Parker will be displayed in the Cornelius-Dodson House on White Buffalo Day Saturday and she will be present to talk to visitors.

The house will be open from 1-4 p.m. The Dermott School nearby will be open from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and visitors are also invited to stop there. Wanda Hudgins, who teaches fourth grade at Central Elementary, will bring students from that school to the Dermott classroom from 10:30-11 a.m. and Debra McNair, Stanfield fourth grade teacher, will bring students from there to Dermott School from 3-3:30 p.m.

There is no charge for admission to either the Cornelius-Dodson House or the Dermott School but donations are welcome to help with the expenses of upkeep on the buildings. Call June McGlaun at 573-9742 for more information.

Wheat farmers: lower yields, prices

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas wheat farmers will get a double whammy from lower prices and lowered yields, farm specialists say.

Wheat futures fell sharply Thursday afternoon amid rumors that Jordan was seeking non-U.S. wheat after the Agriculture Department rejected wheat bids from Jordan on Tuesday and Wednesday.

At the close, wheat futures were 2½ cents to 5¼ cents lower with the contract for delivery in December at $2.71 a bushel.
