2 p.m. Saturday kickoff...

'Black Attack' targets Sweetwater

SWEETWATER — Possibly the largest Snyder crowd to witness an athletic event over the past decade will be at the Mustang Bowl in Sweetwater this Saturday for a 2 p.m. kickoff between the Tigers and the Mustangs.

Reserved seating for the contest is sold out but general admission tickets may be purchased at the gate for $6 per person.

The rivalry, which dates back to 1928, has been turned up a notch because this one — unlike the teams' previous 42 meetings — will be in the playoffs.

Overflow lines showed up for ticket sales Monday and reserved seats for the game were sold out by mid-morning. In coffee shops, THE GAME, has been THE topic all week, overshadowing Snyder's annual two-day sale.

A pep rally has been scheduled for the Tiger football team Saturday at 10 a.m. on the sophomore parking lot near the field house at SHS. From there, many of the faithful "Black Attack" fans will line up for the short trip to Sweetwater, despite the early hour. Anticipation is high.

It is Snyder's first season in the playoffs since 1978 and fans are making the most of it.

The All-Sports Booster Club is urging fans to decorate their cars and are fashioning noise makers — pinto beans in sealed cans painted black — to shake on first and third downs.

Today, booster members were insuring even more spirit by marking the already well-known route to Sweetwater with gold and black ribbons. Snyder goes into the game at 8-2-1 and as the undisputed District

2-4A champion. The Tigers are coming off a come-from-behind, 28-13 victory over Pampa last weekend, which earned them a bi-district title.

Sweetwater, which received a bye into the area round after finishing as runner-up in District 4-4A, is 8-2. The Mustangs' only losses were against 4-4A champion Big Spring and Class 5A school Lubbock Coronado.

Saturday's victor will advance to regional competition to play the winner of a game between Stephenville and Fort Worth Brewer. That game is set for 7:30 p.m. today in Fort Worth.

In other post-season tilts of area interest, Hereford, champion of District 1 at 5-4-1, is slated to meet Big Spring, 8-1-1, at Lubbock's Jones Stadium Saturday while Rotan, 6-4, faces Eden, 7-3, tonight at 7:30 in Winters.

Ask Us

A—How many people in the United States smoke and how many have stopped due to the Great American Smokeout?

Q—The American Cancer Society estimates there are about 50 million cigarette smokers and about 40 million former smokers. There are no statistics on how much of an impact the one-day Smokeout has. The Society says that at least two-thirds of all smokers have tried to quit at one time or another and that of every 100 who try to quit, 60 percent resume smoking within the first year.

Lukanov wins

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — Premier Andrei Lukanov today defeated a no-confidence motion pressed by political opponents seeking to oust his Socialist government.

The opposition won 159 votes for the motion in a secret ballot in the 400-seat Grand National Assembly, but 201 deputies voted with Lukanov.

Personnel changes made at Price Daniel Unit here

A number of personnel changes — including promotions and appointments — were announced by Les Woods, warden of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Price Daniel unit in Snyder.

Orlando Perez, a veteran of 14 years with the corrections department, has been promoted to major and assigned as the third ranking officer at the Snyder unit.

Perez replaces Major Ed Norman who transferred back to Palestine. Perez is the unit's only major, serving under Wardens Woods and Charlie Streetman.

Perez came to Snyder from the Clemens unit in Brazoria where he served for 14 months. He also worked at the Ramsey I unit in Rosharon.

Perez went to work for the department as a correctional officer after graduation from high school in Weslaco. He and his wife, Mary, have three children. Mike is a fifth grader, Cindy is in the second grade and Angel is two years old. The family attends Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

Eddie Wheeler, a native of Albany, has been promoted to lieutenant. Wheeler has been at the Daniel unit since its opening in 1989.

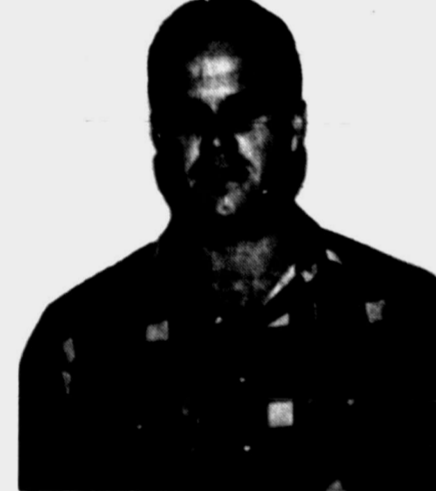

He has been with the department for five years, and transferred to Snyder from the Diagnostic unit in Huntsville. He began his career as a correctional officer at the Eastham unit in Houston County. Wheeler is single.

Leonard Dodgen, a graduate of WTC's third correctional officer class, has been named internal affairs lieutenant. At the Snyder unit for 13 months, he began as a correctional officer at Beto I in

Merchants set for Saturday activities here

Local and area residents are encouraged to bring the kids to meet Santa, take part in the lighting of the Christmas tree and vote in the merchant's decorating contest this Saturday.

Voting in the contest — in which some 35 businesses are taking part — has been extended to allow Snyder Tiger football fans to attend Saturday's 2 p.m. playoff game in Sweetwater.

Shoppers may now vote Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Ballots may be picked up at Scurry County Museum, Li'l Rascals, Classic Interiors, The Pleasure's Mine, Merle Norman's, Plaza Restaurant, Spanish Inn, Nancy's Art Style, Bar-H-Bar and Snyder Drug.

All ballots must be turned in at Snyder Drug. Santa will be at the courthouse gazebo from 4 until 5:30 p.m. Saturday and the lighting of the tree will take place at 6 p.m. Citizens are urged to bring a decoration for the tree and a toy for the annual "Toys for Toys" campaign, sponsored by Snyder Jaycees.

3 battle to succeed Margaret Thatcher

LONDON (AP) — Hailed as the end of an era that transformed Britain, Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher's decision to resign has angered supporters, pleased opponents and left three men battling to succeed her.

Ex-defense secretary Michael Heseltine, whose challenge precipitated her resignation announcement Thursday, was joined in the Conservative Party leadership race by Foreign Secretary Douglas Hurd and Treasury chief John Major.

SS personnel cut monthly Snyder trips

Due to budget restraints, the Big Spring Social Security office has announced it will no longer visit Snyder on a monthly basis.

The travel restriction may continue through Sept. 1991.

Service may be obtained by contacting the Social Security office through its toll free number (1-800-234-5772) or by visiting the Social Security office located at 501 Main St., Room 229, in Big Spring.

A new poll today indicates the party, led by Mrs. Thatcher for 15 years, stands a better chance of winning an election now that she agreed to step down when the party picks her replacement next week.

The Conservatives had lagged behind the opposition Labor Party in recent surveys as a result of high inflation and interest rates as well as an unpopular per capita tax.

Mrs. Thatcher, a staunch U.S. ally whose tough free-market policies dismantled much of Britain's welfare state and sold off government industries, survived a no-confidence vote Thursday that was drawn up by Labor Party leader Neil Kinnock.

The motion of censure, which could have brought down the government, was resoundingly defeated by a 120-vote majority in the 650-seat House of Commons, with no defectors among the 372 Conservatives.

More than 250 jubilant leftists celebrating the resignation announcement gathered outside gates leading to Mrs. Thatcher's office and official residence at 10 Downing Street on Thursday night, police said.

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "When you're in the playoffs, you have to emphasize the three Rs—rah, rah, rah."

Ole what's-her-name isn't much of a sports fan. However, if you promise to feed her, she'll attend almost any sporting event.

Last Saturday in Plainview, however, we actually saw more than one passive fan stand up and cheer. Coming from behind and winning a big playoff game has a way of motivating even the most reserved.

Winning makes eating after the game just that much more fun.

We ran into former Snyder resident Bill Line at the Pampa game in Plainview. Bill, retired Chevron jobber, now lives in Ruidoso and told us he hasn't missed a Snyder playoff game since 1938. Bill joked, "But we haven't been in that many."

Actually, this represents the 12th time since 1930 that Snyder has been in the playoffs. In 1978, Snyder advanced to the regional game, losing to Estacado after having beaten Burkburnett in bi-district.

In 1930 and 1931, Snyder won regional, but that was as high as Snyder's classification could advance.

When UIL's realignment last year sent Snyder north, fans were openly disappointed to see Sweetwater dropped from the schedule. It has been a long and fierce rivalry, and Snyder fans won't soon forget last year's heart-breaking loss after time had run out.

Snyder has had a long, dry spell with regards to the Mustangs. In fact, Snyder hasn't come out on top since blanking the Mustangs, 24-0, in 1979. Prior to 1979, Snyder had won seven consecutive times.

There's a lot of history and tradition behind the Snyder-Sweetwater rivalry. The two teams have met 43 times and Sweetwater leads the series 27-10 with six ties. A capacity crowd Saturday afternoon should get its money's worth.

It's gonna be a dandy...

Railroad names buyer for rail line

HOUSTON (AP) — The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Co. has agreed to sell its Orient Line to a Conroe company, saying a short-line operator has a better chance of keeping the tracks open.

Santa Fe spokesman Robert Gehrt said short-line operators can run the rail line more efficiently than a major railroad. "It's a very positive step in my view," Gehrt said of the purchase, announced Wednesday. Terms of the deal were not disclosed.

But the buyer, newly-created Orient Railcorp, won't guarantee to continue service on the entire 730-mile rail line, which stretches from Cherokee in northern Oklahoma to Presidio in far West Texas along the Rio Grande.

The Orient Line cuts through 18 counties in Texas, providing the sole rail service for San Angelo and more than 40 other Texas towns. "It's like any other business," said Orient Railcorp President Gary Kerley. "If your customers are not supporting your business, it's very difficult to stay in business and continue to operate."

Kerley noted that the line has been unprofitable for Santa Fe for a number of years. A Texas Department of Agriculture study found numerous sections of the line in poor condition, attracting little traffic.

Orient Railcorp plans to hire American Railroads Corp. of Chicago to manage the Texas segments of the rail line. One segment runs from the Red River south to Maryneal near Sweetwater in Nolan County, the other from Santa Anna in Coleman County southwest to the top of the Big Bend country to Presidio. Fort Worth-based Rio Grande Pacific Corp. will handle the Oklahoma segment.

State and local leaders had expressed fears the track would be pulled up and sold off for scrap, leaving farming communities throughout West Texas with no rail service.

Some treated for food poisoning returned for meal

AUSTIN (AP) — Some of the same people treated for food poisoning following a free meal at a Baptist soup kitchen recovered in time to give the Salvation Army's Thanksgiving spread a try, officials say.

But at least this time nobody went to the hospital. More than 400 people were served a traditional Thanksgiving meal complete with pumpkin pie.

"I got sick," said Olin Reem, 58. "But I got rid of it and went to sleep. I'm OK now."

A man who said his name was Mack was among the men standing in line waiting to enter the dining area. "I'm worried about food poisoning," he said, "but I've got to eat."

But Maj. John Tharp, area commander for the Salvation Army, said standard steps were taken to prepare the 59 turkeys, 80 pounds of dressing, 25 gallons of gravy, 30 gallons of corn and 1,000 dinner rolls served.

"We take precautions all the time," Tharp told the Austin American-Statesman. "We hope nobody gets sick from what they eat here today. If somebody gets sick, we hope it's because they ate too much."

Tharp said concerns about the poisoning keeping people from turning out Thursday were quickly dismissed. "In fact, we had some who came back from the hospital last night who wanted something to eat," Tharp said. They were given sack lunches.

Meanwhile, health officials say they still don't know what caused the food poisoning at the Austin Baptist Chapel soup kitchen.

Reagan praises Thatcher as she prepares to leave office

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former President Reagan thanked British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher for backing him up when other allies backed down, heaping praise on his political soulmate as she heads off into the sunset.

"Margaret Thatcher was a completely reliable ally and partner of the greatest personal integrity," Reagan said in a statement after Thatcher announced her impending retirement.

"I could always count on her wise counsel, her firm support, and her loyal friendship," Reagan said.

Thatcher on Thursday succumbed to the challenge mounted by Michael Heseltine, who resigned as her defense minister in 1986.

Reagan and the prime minister dubbed the Iron Lady formed a formidable duo in the 1980s and made no secret of their mutual regard. They often stood side-by-side at international gatherings and called each other Ronnie and Margaret.

Two years ago, as they met for the final time before Reagan left office, the president said he was leaving the White House with "considerable satisfaction in the knowledge that Margaret Thatcher will still reside at No. 10 Downing Street."

Reagan, who spent Thanksgiving with friends at his Bel-Air home, called her resignation in the face of strong opposition a "selfless and courageous decision in what she believes is the best interests of her country."

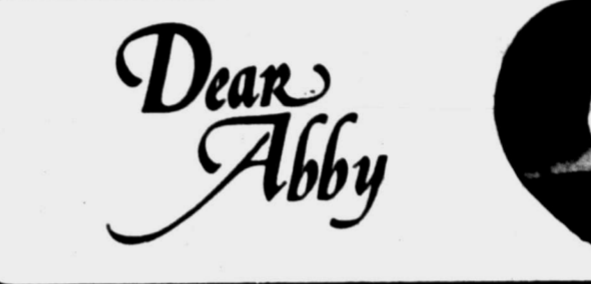

In 1986, when the U.S. bombing of Libya was criticized by world powers, Thatcher was the only ally who supported Reagan and allowed the bombers to fly from British bases.

When Britain fought Argentina for the Falkland Islands, the United States was forced to choose between two allies. Reagan sided with Thatcher.

She also encouraged Reagan's nurturing of the huge Pentagon buildup, and backed U.S. efforts to install medium-range missiles in Europe despite opposition from NATO allies.

Both leaders adopted a hard line toward the Soviet Union, but were quick to warm up to Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev as the Cold War thawed.

Reagan credited Thatcher's "resoluteness" for playing a key role in ending the tensions between the Western democracies and the Eastern Block. "She stood up to the Soviets and let them know she meant business," he said.

Dear Abby
By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I was bothered by the following, which I recently read in your column: "Confidential to Grieving in Arizona: My heart goes out to you. I can think of nothing more unnatural, nothing that leaves God with more explaining to do, than the loss of a child." (Jean Harris)

Abby, what right do we mortals have to demand an explanation from God?

I offer the following from your column in which you respond to a similar situation. It was published 12 years ago, and I think it's much better than the quote by Jean Harris:

"DEAR ABBY: My Sunday school teacher says that God is everywhere. Please put this letter in the paper and maybe he will see it. Dear God: Why did you let my brother die? When he was hit by the car, my mother prayed to you to let him live but you wouldn't. My little brother was only 2 years old, and he couldn't have sinned so bad that you had to punish him that way. Everyone says you are good and can do anything you want to do. You could have saved my little brother, but you let him die. You broke my mother's heart. How can I love you?"

PETER

DEAR PETER: Your question is one that has troubled religious men for thousands of years. One great thinker wrote a book about it. It is called 'Job' and is part of the Bible. It says that the suffering of innocent people is something we cannot understand. But this much is sure: Death is not a punishment. It is one of life's mysteries. Speak to your minister, Peter. Communicate with God by praying, and he will help you in your search for wisdom and goodness and make your mommy happy again."

Abby, I saved that because it was such a beautiful and sensitive answer to that young boy who was

Hospitals feel pinch from staff losses

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — Hospitals already suffering a nursing shortage are expecting an even tighter personnel pinch as military activation pares more health professionals from their staffs.

This week's call-up of the Army Reserve's 44th Evacuation Hospital Unit, Detachment 1, based in El Paso robs hundreds of nurses and other staffers from El Paso's six hospitals.

Some of the 200 members in the 44th's El Paso detachment are doctors in private practice. But the soldiers who are nurses add to about 200 nursing vacancies in El Paso hospitals, including William Beaumont Army Medical Center.

One hospital administrator said the call-up will make things worse, but other officials said hospital service won't be reduced by currently vacated posts.

The county-run Thomason Hospital has about 50 vacant nursing positions. The call-up adds to losses from recruiting battles won by private hospitals that can offer more money, said Jeff Barber, chief executive officer.

Memorial Medical Center in Las Cruces is losing a handful of people, including two doctors, to the call-up.

Additional call-ups could be devastating if more nurses have to leave the city, said Nancy Rout, assistant administrator for nursing services at Sun Towers Hospital.

FEAR OF THE LORD, OIL CITY, PA.

DEAR ABBY: We tell our little ones not to talk to strangers and not to take candy from strangers. But how many of us explain to them what a stranger is?

I asked my little 5-year-old neighbor what she thought strangers look like, and she said, "They wear a mask, and grab you like they do on television!"

Another child I know invited a man to come into the house while her mother was in the shower. Fortunately, he did not accept the invitation. When her mother got after her about it, she said she knew the man was OK because "the man had a clipboard in his hands."

JEANETTE HANNA, UNION CITY, MICH.

DEAR JEANETTE: By definition, a "stranger" is a person who is unknown or with whom one is unacquainted.

It's sufficient to instruct children never to talk to people they do not know. And to accept no candy or rides from anyone without first obtaining permission from their parent or caretaker.

a well-ordered partnership. When a major suit is supported, a new suit bid as a game-try may well be an artificial bid. North could raise spades very properly but should not leap beyond the four-heart level.

I also held the South cards in Geneva. My partner responded one spade to my one-heart opening. So I bid diamonds, partner supported hearts, and eventually we reached the heart game. Without the favorable diamond lead, nine tricks were the limit for the hand.

2 Forks Dam to be vetoed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the Environmental Protection Agency has decided to veto construction of the Two Forks Dam in Colorado, the largest non-federal water project in the West, it was reported today.

The Washington Post said EPA Administrator William K. Reilly is expected within a few days to announce his decision to block the billion-dollar dam, which the city of Denver had sought to increase water supplies for its suburbs.

The proposed project called for flooding much of Cheesman Canyon, a wilderness area between two forks of the South Platte River.

The Post said it obtained a draft of Reilly's decision, which said the dam would lead to "unacceptable adverse effects," including loss and damage to fisheries and recreational opportunities.

Mid East conflict casts pall over holiday

FORT HOOD, Texas (AP) — Hostilities half a world away cast a pall over Thanksgiving-Day celebrations at this Central Texas Army post, as soldiers gave thanks that they have not been deployed to the Middle East.

"I could have been one of the one's that's there, and I'm grateful that I'm not," said Pfc. Trymiko Terry, NCO Academy, III Corps. "I just wish the whole incident hadn't occurred, and everybody could be home with their families."

Sections of Capt. Tony Kaliher's 504th Military Intelligence Brigade have deployed to the Persian Gulf, leaving him in emotional limbo.

"Part of the brigade — one of the battalions — is away in Saudi Arabia, so part of the family's not here," said Kaliher, a native of Sarasota, Fla. "And that's what Thanksgiving is to me, being with family."

At the NCO Academy Mess Hall, cooks served some 975 families left behind by the deployment of 1st Cavalry troops. The celebration was tempered by the fact that loved ones were thousands of miles away.

"We had a hard time trying to decide on what type of music to play," said dining facility manager Darnetta Thomas. "We didn't want to play Christmas music, because it might make some sad that their spouse is not here, or is not going to be here with them for Christmas. So we just decided on some soft, background music."

An estimated 20,000 troops from Fort Hood's 1st Cavalry and 2nd Armored divisions have been deployed in support of Operation Desert Shield. Their presence was missed, as cooks prepared more than a half-ton of turkey and hams.

The Army cooks prepared some 900 pounds of turkey and 742 pies, said post spokesman Maj Jesse Seigel. Other holiday groceries included 160 pounds of ham, 72 pounds of fresh cranberries, 792 pounds of bridge mix, 106 cans of mixed nuts, 152 two-pound fruit cakes, 900 pounds of tangerines, 750 pounds of grapes, 1,160 pounds of bananas and 312 cans of pumpkin.

Cooks scurried around kitchens Wednesday, making cornbread stuffing, cutting onions, chopping celery and preparing the traditional holiday courses.

Dining facility manager Irvin Cruse said 30 people began work Wednesday to prepare the holiday meal.

Despite the cooking extravaganza, the chefs weren't working as hard as usual.

Funds sought for memorial tree for girl

WHITE SETTLEMENT, Texas (AP) — A Fielder Museum volunteer is conducting a fund drive to finance the placement of a large oak tree on the museum grounds in honor of Stormie Jones.

The 13-year-old White Settlement native, who made medical history as the world's first heart-liver transplant recipient, died Nov. 11 after battling organ rejection, hepatitis and other medical complications for almost seven years.

Stormie was present earlier this year when a 25-year time capsule was planted outside the museum. She donated items for the capsule and her name and landmark is inscribed in the capsule's concrete seal.

"The memorial tree will be planted alongside the capsule, and it should provide a fair amount of shade by the time the capsule is opened a quarter century from now," said museum volunteer Bill Bardin.

Contributions should be mailed out to the Fielder Museum, 1616 W. Abram, Arlington, 76013.

Suppose you held the South cards and opened one heart in third position. When North raised you to two hearts, what would you do? Perhaps you would go right to four hearts, or maybe you would mention your diamond suit. Who knows? Anything could be right. The great Brazilian world champion Gabriel Chagas, playing in the World Mixed Pair Championship in Geneva last September, bid two spades. His partner raised him to three spades, and he bid four hearts.

How well did that work? Just fine, since West led a diamond right into the A-Q. Eventually Chagas ruffed a third diamond with dummy's eight of hearts. Although that was overruffed by East, declarer's last diamond was ruffed with dummy's queen of hearts, making the game contract.

Wasn't it dangerous for South to bid spades? What if North raised to four spades? That should not be possible in

Actor returns

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Dennis Quaid is back in Hollywood after taking off a year to travel, get engaged and get clean.

"I guess I'm straight all the time. Rather than checking out of the world, I check into the world," Quaid says in the Dec. 10 issue of US magazine.

"I'm much crazier than I thought. It's all about how you go through life."

Of his battle with drugs and alcohol, he says: "You have a very hard, fast-paced life, and there's a lot of tension and pressure. And, at the end of the day, you find another way to deal with it. Which is to check out with drugs and booze."

Fluoride efforts gear up

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Five years after voters rejected a campaign to fluoridate the city's water, pro-fluoride forces will try again to convince the public of its dental benefits.

But anti-fluoridation forces, convinced the chemical poses great risks to human health, have said they will continue to oppose its use.

San Antonio is the only major Texas city without a fluoridated water supply. Proponents claim fluoridation could translate into a 40 percent reduction in tooth decay and a $6 million annual savings in tax dollars spent on public dental care.

The dentist who helped lead the 1985 drive, which was rejected by 52 percent of San Antonio voters, is armed with new research he says shows fluoride would benefit local children.

Dentist John Brown, chairman of the department of community dentistry at the University of Texas Health Science Center, spent three years in Edgewood School District elementary schools rinsing the mouths of 600 children with fluoride each week and applying sealant to young teeth. The results showed tooth decay was cut in half, he said.

The children Brown treated averaged 1½ cavities each during the three years of the study, while another group of 600 Edgewood elementary students who were not given fluoride treatments had an average of three cavities each, Brown said.

While routine dental rinses alone could prevent decay, Brown said such a program would be expensive and require considerable medical manpower. Adding fluoride to the water supply would cost less than $1 per year per resident, he said.

Brown said he will use his study results in a public education effort before moving on to a political drive to get fluoridation on another ballot.

DEAR DR. GOTT: After a week of hospital testing, our granddaughter (6 weeks old) was diagnosed with Cryptosporidium. Would you please explain this condition, its cause and the treatment available?

DEAR READER: Cryptosporidium is a tiny intestinal parasite that can cause bowel inflammation with diarrhea, abdominal pain, fever and weight loss. The parasite has been identified in outbreaks of diarrhea in day-care centers, also, it is one of the many infectious agents causing diarrhea in international travelers. Cryptosporidium is spread by ingestion. The adult parasites produce cysts that are passed in the stool and can be transferred to new victims by contaminated water, food or direct finger-to-mouth contact.

In healthy people, no treatment is necessary; the ailment runs its course. However, in patients with immune deficiency, from a variety of causes including AIDS and cancer, the infection can be chronic, leading to profuse, unremitting diarrhea that may be life-threatening. At present, no definitive therapy is available. Treatment is supportive (intravenous replacement of fluids and a bland diet).

If your granddaughter is otherwise healthy, she should suffer no consequences from the parasite.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I suffer from obsessive sexual behavior that I know is harmful. I am embarrassed to describe to you the extent of my addiction — and I'm sure you wouldn't print it even if I did. But take my word for it. I hate myself for what I am doing. Is there any help for me?

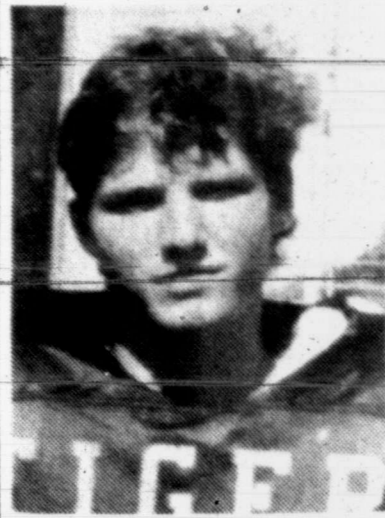

DEAR READER: Sexual addiction is being increasingly recognized as an addiction, similar to drug abuse, alcoholism and compulsive over-eating. Many sex addicts have found help in therapy and in 12-step support groups, modeled after the principles of Alcoholics Anonymous. Such resources are available in many communities.

To obtain assistance with your problem, I suggest you call the National Sexual Addiction Hotline (1-800-521-2066), which offers free, confidential information about sexual addiction and the locations of experienced therapists (and support groups).

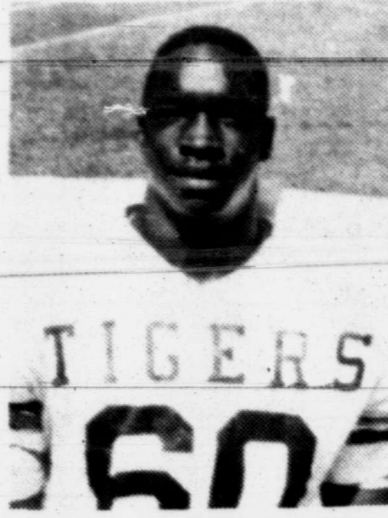

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Help II — Mental/Substance Abuse." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Dallas Museum opened

DALLAS (AP) — A Thanksgiving crowd of more than 700 observed the 27th anniversary of John F. Kennedy's assassination by touring the site from where investigators say Lee Harvey Oswald shot the president.

Bob Hays, executive director of The Sixth Floor Exhibit at the former Texas School Book Depository, said he found poignancy in the fact that the anniversary coincided with Thanksgiving.

Many of the visitors Thursday expressed their feeling of thankfulness for having a place to examine details of the tragic event, he said.

"Something that people who go through the exhibit... tend to bring up over and over again is how grateful they were to have this opportunity to look back and get in touch with some of the very painful feelings that they didn't realize they were still carrying around inside of them," Hays said.

The exhibit provides more than a sightseeing opportunity for the 765 visitors who filed through Thursday — it also represents a healing for the city that was vilified in the wake of the assassination, he said.

By marking the historic spot, the city opened itself to public inspection and the response has been "extraordinarily enthusiastic," Hays said.

Half a million people will have seen the exhibit by next month, he said.

The exhibit, opened on President's Day 1989, averages a daily attendance of about 700 — 400 to 500 during the week and 1,200 to 1,500 on weekends. The exhibit is open every day except Christmas Day.

Mustangs try to stop Snyder

Tigers, Sweetwater meet in Class 4A Area playoff contest

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

The Sweetwater Mustangs present some real challenges for Snyder's Tigers as the two squads meet Saturday in Mustang Stadium in the Area round of the Class 4A football playoffs.

"Defensively, no one has been able to move the ball on them," said Snyder coach David Baugh. "That concerns me a bunch."

"We've got to move the ball and score. We've got to be able to throw the football."

"On defense," he continued, "We have got to stop the option. We have to play assignment football. Somebody has to be on the dive, somebody on the quarterback and somebody on the pitch."

Besides that, we have to recognize the other plays they'll run at you. That's difficult on a defense."

Sweetwater will run from an I-formation using variations of the option, sweeps and counter traps in a ground-oriented offense.

Offensive standouts include junior tailback Randall Lepard, senior fullback Jeff Briscoe and the quarterbacking tandem of Gregg Ruffin, a senior, and junior David Ritchey.

Lepard has 737 yards on the season for a 5.5 average and five touchdowns. Briscoe has accumulated 357 yards and a pair of scores in the season.

Ruffin is the team's second-leading rusher with 382 yards on 76 attempts for 10 TDs.

Ritchey is the signal-caller the Mustangs turn to for passing yards. He has completed 42 of 89 passes this year for 548 yards, five touchdowns and five interceptions.

Split end David Hall leads the team in receiving with 18 receptions. He has turned those 18 catches into 249 yards, a 13.8 average and four six-pointers.

Wide receiver James Moore, a backup in the Ponies' offensive scheme, has grabbed 16 catches for 234 yards and a score.

Moore also is the Sweetwater kick return specialist.

"He is really fast," said Baugh. "And he'll return anything."

"He's the one they try to get the ball to in their starburst kickoff return formation. He'll also be down under punts for them."

Standouts on the Mustangs defense include linebacker Tony Daniel and Jimmy Norman at tackle.

Noseguard Willie Norman, out with an injury of late for the Ponies, is expected to return for Saturday's game.

Sweetwater plays two defensive schemes, according to Baugh.

"They run a 5 defense and what we call an even defense, a nickel package. They'll run in an extra defensive back for pass coverage or another player to blitz the passer. The two defenses makes them a little unusual to prepare for."

Cornerbacks Stuart Houston and Dominic Villa each have claimed three interceptions for Sweetwater this season while Daniels, safety Oubgee Jones and defensive end Bobby Ramirez have each nabbed two fumbles.

Snyder will counter with a defensive squad that limited Pampa to just 13 yards in the second half of last week's 28-13 bidistrict win.

Senior linebacker Terry Stephens paced the squad with 10½ tackles. Defensive end Will Clay added a fumble recovery and a quarterback sack and cornerback Joe Martinez grabbed an interception to give the ball back to the offense in Snyder's 21-point third quarter.

Offensively, the Black and Gold will look to senior backfield mates Paul Anderson and Bryan Brunson on the ground.

Anderson picked up 92 yards from his tailback slot last Saturday for two touchdowns. Brunson ran for an even 100 yards and a TD.

Quarterback Ed Rios and wingback Mark King put some pep into the Tigers' passing game by connecting 3 times for 87 yards, including a 65-yard TD pass and run to open the third period against the Harvesters.

Saturday's meeting of former District 4-4A foes marks the 44th time the two teams will have met with Sweetwater holding a 27-10-6 edge, including the last 11 straight.

The series goes back to 1928 when the Mustangs registered a 21-12 win. Snyder's last win was a 24-0 shutout in 1979.

Game time is set for 2 p.m. Saturday.

Cowboys take win against Redskins

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Not only do the 1990 Dallas Cowboys bear no resemblance to their hapless 1989 one-victory counterparts, they are suddenly chasing a wild card in the National Conference playoffs.

"We're not just trying to have a break-even year," said quarterback Troy Aikman. "We're looking to win the rest of our games. Our goal is 9-7."

Rookie Emmitt Smith rushed 23 times for 132 yards and scored two touchdowns Thursday as the Cowboys defeated the Redskins 27-17 for their first back-to-back victories since 1987.

Dallas increased its record to 5-7, best since the team won seven three years ago. Washington, which has lost all four of its Thanksgiving games against the Cowboys, dropped to 6-5.

Both teams are chasing the three NFC wild card berths. Philadelphia is 6-6 and Green Bay 5-5 with the only NFC records better than the Cowboys.

Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson said the Cowboys aren't going to make the mistake of thinking playoffs. In fact, he ordered conditioning work for the team the day after Thanksgiving.

"We want to stay close to our routine," Johnson said. "We'll let 'em off over the weekend. I think we're going to continue to improve."

Johnson said he knows Smith is improving.

"What can you say about Emmitt Smith?" Johnson said. "He's going to be a great player in the NFL."

Washington cornerback Martin Mayhew said Smith "is the best back we've faced this year. The turf was slippery and it affected everyone's play except his."

Smith said he wants to become more of a force in the Dallas offense.

"I got the ball in my hands enough today and I'm satisfied," he said. "I know this, winning two in a row, is really going to help the confidence of this team. It's the first time in a long time."

Washington coach Joe Gibbs said Smith "is a very, very good back. We also missed some tackles, too, that helped him out."

Dallas had lost four straight games on Thanksgiving Day. It's now 15-7-1 on the holiday.

Gibbs said Dallas is becoming a force under Johnson.

"You can see Dallas coming on in leaps and bounds," Gibbs said.

Johnson wouldn't declare the victory extra special.

"All victories count the same," he said. "But I'm extremely proud. We've gone through some difficult times."

Smith scored on runs of 1 and 48 yards.

"That last run just killed us," said Washington linebacker Wilbur Marshall.

"Smith is phenomenal, no question," Aikman said. "He doesn't have great speed but he's tremendously quick."

Washington's Mark Rypien hit 26 of 54 passes for 267 yards and a 6-yard scoring pass to Ricky Sanders, but the 'Skins were held to only 36 yards rushing, lowest total of the year.

Aikman finished with 20 of 31 passes for 222 yards and a 12-yard scoring pass to Michael Irvin.

"We beat a very good football team," Johnson said. "We just wanted to get the football to Emmitt today."

Irvin said it was the sweetest victory yet.

"I've been here three years and this is the victory of all victories," Irvin said. "They scored 17 straight points and we could have folded. But we wanted to win two in a row, win a division game and win on Thanksgiving. We did all three."

The Cowboys have 10 days to get ready for New Orleans at Texas Stadium Sunday week. Dallas is 16-6 in games after Thanksgiving.

UT to meet Baylor

WACO, Texas (AP) — National rankings carry little weight with Texas coach David McWilliams — at least when his sixth-ranked Longhorns are preparing to face Baylor.

"This game is a chance to go to the Cotton Bowl and we shouldn't be worried about anything else," McWilliams said. "Can anybody forget what happened to us last year? We need a full focus on Baylor."

Baylor inflicted a humiliating 50-7 defeat on the Longhorns last year, the worst loss by Texas in Memorial Stadium in 38 years.

Baylor's dominance is equally powerful at home in Floyd Casey Stadium, where the Bears have sent the Longhorns packing down Interstate 35 in defeat seven of the last eight times. Not since 1982 has Texas departed victorious.

On Saturday at 1 p.m., the Longhorns have a Cotton Bowl bid at stake when they meet coach Grant Teaff's Bears.

Baylor gets as pumped for Texas as the Texas A&M Aggies do.

The Texas game is one that our football team has looked forward to since the beginning of the year," Teaff said. "Every odd is against us this Saturday, but we're going to give it our best shot. If we don't play up to their caliber they might whip the tar out of us."

If McWilliams' crew falls to Baylor, it can still get to the Cotton Bowl with a victory over Texas A&M in Austin on Dec. 1.

Lions 40, Denver 27...

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — The puzzling slide continues for the Denver Broncos while the Detroit Lions have a vision of last year's dream finish.

Barry Sanders, who triggered the Lions' five-game winning streak with a big game on Thanksgiving Day in 1989, rushed for 147 yards and scored two touchdowns Thursday as Detroit beat Denver 40-27.

It was the fourth consecutive loss for the Broncos (3-8), the defending AFC champions. The Lions (4-7) ended a three-game losing streak which began when they blew a 21-point lead and lost to Washington in overtime.

Sanders gets 147 yards in win

"It gives us a boost of confidence that's been lacking for three weeks since that Washington game," said linebacker Chris Spielman, who led the Lions with seven tackles and three assists. "I went out in the huddle in the fourth quarter and said, 'We've got to redeem ourselves,' and we did."

The Broncos could muster only 283 yards against the Lions. Denver quarterback John Elway, who completed 24 of 37 passes for 243 yards, was sacked three times by a Detroit defense which has only 28 sacks all season.

"This might be the most difficult season I've played in," Elway said. "We've never been 3-8 since I've been here at Denver."

The Broncos, who played in the Super Bowl in three of the past four seasons, have not had a losing season since Elway joined the team in 1983.

The keys to the game were Sanders and the return of kicker Eddie Murray, who missed five games with a hip injury.

The Lions had come under fire, both from the fans and from team owner William Clay Ford: The feeling was that Sanders, who rushed for 1,470 yards last year as a rookie, wasn't getting the ball enough.

Sanders carried 23 times for 147 yards, including a 7-yard touchdown, and he turned one of his three receptions into a 35-yard TD.

Lions coach Wayne Fontes said there had been a great emphasis on getting the ball to Sanders more often in Detroit's run 'n shoot offense.

"It's a pass-oriented offense, but we worked all week at running the ball," Fontes said. "We ran extra offense all week and all we did was run."

Lady Dusters host Turkey Day event

Coach Kelly Chadwick's Western Texas College Lady Dusters will host the Turkey Day Classic basketball tournament at Scurry County Coliseum today and Saturday.

WTC, carrying a 3-5 season record, was defeated, 71-58, by Ranger Junior College in non-conference action Monday.

Freshman Monica Ramirez scored 14 points against RJC and Navasota native La Shunta Jackson added 10.

Angelina College and South Plains College tip-off the weekend event with today's 5:30 p.m. contest, followed by the Lady Dusters against San Jacinto College at 7:30 p.m.

South Plains College, a WJAC opponent of the Dusters, is picked to win the conference crown and are currently ranked No. 2 nationally.

Western Texas plays Angelina at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, right after the South Plains-San Jacinto tilt at 5:30 p.m.

Admission to the Classic is free.

Western Junior College Athletic Conference play begins for the Dusters on Thursday, Nov. 29, when they travel to Big Spring to meet the Howard College Hawk Queens in a 6 p.m. game.

by The Associated Press
Kenny Anderson may not enjoy being cast in a sequel.

The Georgia Tech sophomore guard, named Thursday to The Associated Press preseason college basketball All-America team, will have to carry on alone this season with the departure of his co-stars from last year's Final Four team. Gone are Dennis Scott and Brian Oliver, who along with Anderson, were known as "Lethal Weapon 3."

Don't fret for Yellow Jackets coach Bobby Cremins. Anderson is still considered deadly.

Joining the 6-foot-2 Anderson on the team were guard Steve Smith of Michigan State and forwards Larry Johnson of UNLV, Billy Owens of Syracuse and Alonzo Mourning of Georgetown. Johnson, an All-American last season, was one vote short of being a unanimous selection by the nationwide panel of 65 sports writers and broadcasters.

Anderson was second with 59 votes, followed by Smith with 46, Owens with 36, and Mourning with 31.

Anderson averaged 20.6 points, 5.5 rebounds and a conference-best 8.1 assists last season. That last number could go up as defenses will concentrate on stopping him this season. He showed the ability to play with quality big men over the summer as the point guard with the U.S. national team that won the silver and bronze medals at the Goodwill Games and World Championships. Smith started to receive his share of recognition last season when he led the Spartans to their first Big Ten title since 1978 and a school-record 28 wins.

The 6-6 senior led the conference last season with a scoring average of 20.2 while shooting 45.9 percent from 3-point range. He also grabbed 7 rebounds per game and averaged 4.8 assists. His size and driving ability only make his outside shot more effective.

The versatile Owens will be the defensive focus of Syracuse opponents this season, but don't be surprised if he improves on last year's numbers — 18.2 points, 8.4 rebounds and 4.6 assists — as he runs the show this season.

WTC cagers at Reunion

The Western Texas College Westerners' 1990 basketball season continues today as they face Navarro Junior College at Reunion Arena in Dallas in a 4:30 p.m. tilt.

The Westerners are 8-2 on the campaign and have won their last six straight including three victories in the WTC-McDonald's Classic here, and two in the Hawk Classic in Big Spring Monday and Tuesday.

Dominick Byrd led a group of six WTC cagers in double figures in the team's 131-105 win over Wharton Junior College to wrap up competition at the Howard College Hawk Classic Tuesday.

Byrd tallied 25 points versus WJC followed by Jeff Shelley's 19, 17 by Allen Smith, Michael Richardson's 16, 15 by Paul Johnson and 13 from Doug Brown.

The Westerners' game this afternoon will precede the evening's Dallas Mavericks-San Antonio Spurs regular-season NBA contest.

Former WTC standout Paul Pressey will be on the floor for the Spurs tonight.

But, with apologies to W.C. Fields, he might wind up in Philadelphia.

Lured by more money and a chance to erase his drug-tarnished past, Richardson said Thursday he will sign with the Philadelphia 76ers unless his Italian team, Knorr Bologna, matches the NBA club's offer.

Richardson met briefly with team executives in Bologna on Thursday night and they agreed to begin full-scale talks today, indicating Knorr would hold Richardson to his contract.

"The fans shouldn't worry," the 35-year Richardson said. "I'm thinking about staying. The club knows that I want to stay here. If they match the (Philadelphia) offer, I stay. If they don't, I go."

Richardson, in his third season with Knorr, is averaging about 25 points a game. He has a two-year contract that pays him $550,000 a year. He said the 76ers have offered him a guaranteed two-year deal worth $800,000 annually.

The 76ers have been searching for a point guard since Johnny

Dawkins sustained a knee injury that will sideline him for the season.

"I played that position for eight years in the NBA," Richardson said. "I know how to do it."

Sixers owner Harold Katz said that if Richardson is proven drug-free and can still play at the NBA level, "he'd be the best point guard we could get without giving up any part of our team."

But Katz told The Philadelphia Daily News that the team has had no negotiations with Richardson or his representatives.

Richardson, who played in the NBA with the New York Knicks and New Jersey Nets, was banned in 1986 after testing positive for cocaine. His right to play in the NBA was restored in 1988.

Ranger Hospital reported closed

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Employees at Ranger General Hospital awoke Thanksgiving to the realization they were out of work.

The hospital closed its doors at 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, four days after voters successfully rolled taxes back from 75 cents to 23 cents per $100 valuation.

About 50 employees were affected by the closing, said Hospital Board President Jerry Edwards.

Edwards had predicted the hospital would be forced to close if the rollback effort was successful. But the speed of the shut-down surprised many Ranger residents.

Thatcher

Scotland Yard said officers arrested 13 for minor offenses. No injuries were reported.

Mrs. Thatcher, 65, prime minister since May 1979, keeps the post until a successor is chosen by secret ballot Tuesday among the 372 Conservative legislators in the House of Commons.

She said in a surprise statement Thursday: "I have concluded the unity of the party and prospects of victory in a general election would be better served if I stood down to enable Cabinet colleagues to enter the ballot for the leadership."

On Wednesday, a day after she failed to end the challenge by 57-year-old Heseltine in a vote among Conservative members in Parliament, Mrs. Thatcher said she would "fight on" to a second round of balloting. But Cabinet members told her she could not win.

She told the Cabinet Thursday of her decision to resign, then got on with other business. It included a decision to sent 14,000 more armed forces personnel to the Persian Gulf, boosting the number of British ground troops, sailors and air crews there to 30,000.

The Independent reported today that a tearful Mrs. Thatcher told the Cabinet she had been forced out despite her three general election victories and widespread support among Conservative Party members outside the Commons.

Her journalist daughter Carol said of the Conservative legislators who had voted against her mother: "I think it is the most gutless act of treachery."

Her former treasury chief Nigel Lawson said: "History will record that Margaret Thatcher was the greatest prime minister this country has had since (World War II leader Winston) Churchill."

In a first round of balloting on Tuesday, Mrs. Thatcher needed to beat Heseltine by 15 percent of eligible voters, or 56 votes, for outright victory but finished only 52 votes ahead.

This precipitated a second round of balloting next Tuesday, in which Heseltine, Hurd and Major will battle it out, Mrs. Thatcher having withdrawn. Rebellion against Mrs. Thatcher had been building for years, but news she had walked away from a fggst surprised the world.

"I thought she'd duke it out," a U.S. Marine in Saudi Arabia told U.S. President George Bush. "So did I," Bush said.

20th St. was still undergoing treatment at mid-morning and was expected to admitted for observation.

A hospital spokesman said that it appeared that both women were not seriously injured in the accident.

Police were called to the scene at approximately 8:25 a.m. where apparently the 1981 Buick wagon driven by Guzman failed to stop at the intersection's traffic light while traveling west on East Highway and was struck by a 1988 Plymouth driven by Miles, traveling south on Ave. E.

According to officer Chip Mitchell, the impact of collision sent the Guzman vehicle into a 1977 GMC driven by Donald Culp of Hermleigh. The Culp vehicle was facing east and stopped at the light at the time of the accident. He was not injured.

Saddam boosts troops' morale

By The Associated Press

Saddam Hussein has answered President Bush's trip to the Saudi desert with his own morale-boosting mission to Iraqi troops in Kuwait, telling them he is ready to fight "the evil blasphemers" if attacked.

The United States, meanwhile, made an "urgent" appeal today to its NATO allies to help ship and fly additional U.S. troops and equipment to the gulf region. Officials said William H. Taft IV, the U.S. envoy to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, made the appeal at a meeting with his counterparts at the NATO headquarters in Brussels.

Bush flew today to Cairo, Egypt, where he met with President Hosni Mubarak, who has led Arab opposition to Iraq's Aug. 2 invasion of Kuwait. Baghdad invaded the emirate in a dispute over oil, land and money.

Iraq began calling up army reservists in their 30s today to join the country's growing force in Kuwait, a defense communique said. The communique broadcast on Baghdad radio said reservists born in 1958, 1959 and 1960 would have three days to report for duty.

The callup appeared to be part of a buildup of 150,000 reservists announced earlier this week. The communique did not provide numbers for those born in the three years mentioned.

Saddam on Thursday visited Iraqi troops in Kuwait.

Report raises questions about inmate's guilt

DALLAS (AP) — A 13-year-old police report on the slaying of a Tyler woman raises questions about the investigation that helped put Kerry Max Cook on death row, a newspaper reported.

A pair of experts, one a former police officer and the other a former FBI agent, say Tyler police apparently drew the wrong conclusions from evidence found at the scene and later presented an improbable version of events at Cook's 1978 capital murder trial.

Cook, who maintains his innocence, was sentenced to die for the 1977 mutilation slaying of Linda Jo Edwards, 21, of Tyler.

But an investigation by The Dallas Morning News has raised questions about the way authorities handled the case.

The News reported today in a copyright story that the police report cites evidence — including four hair samples — that may have pointed to other possible suspects.

One of Cook's attorneys said prosecutors never told the defense about that evidence.

"The physical evidence, particularly foreign hairs on her body, reports of those should have been submitted to us," said Jacksonville lawyer John Ament, one of two attorneys who represented Cook.

Tyler lawyer A.D. Clark III, who was Smith County's district attorney at the time, said his office turned over everything it was required to. He also supported the police theory of how the crime took place.

Police say Cook sneaked into Ms. Edwards' apartment through an unlocked patio door, saw her sleeping on the couch, picked up a statue and began beating her with it.

But two criminal investigation experts hired by The News to examine the police report, which the newspaper obtained through a confidential source, say there are other possible explanations for the crime.

"I would definitely say the wrong conclusion was reached," said Phil Ethridge, a former Tulsa policeman who teaches at the University of Texas-Pan American.

Ethridge and Jerry Dowling, a former special agent with the FBI now with Sam Houston State University's criminal justice program, say the evidence cited in the police report does not support the police theory that Ms. Edwards was sleeping when she was attacked.

The report, dated June 14, 1977, said that police found the television on with the "volume in a normal listening area" when they entered Ms. Edwards' bedroom. Officers also found a hot iron, upright on an ironing board in the bedroom, the report said.

Ms. Edwards pants, the only item of her clothing not torn or bloodstained, lay nearby. The report also noted that there was blood on the ironing board.

Holiday tinged with sadness

By The Associated Press

Americans gorged themselves on turkey and watched parades and football on Thanksgiving, but the day for family get-togethers was bittersweet for those with loved ones in the Persian Gulf.

"We'll all be aware of the empty place at the table," Vernon Hunt, 56, of Des Plaines, Ill., said before his family sat down to dinner. Hunt's son, Stephen, is a Marine stationed on a battleship in the Persian Gulf.

The holiday was gloomier for diplomats and others held captive by Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein. Embassy staff in Kuwait dined on canned tuna washed down with water salvaged from a swimming pool.

Some hostages in Iraq were treated to lavish Thanksgiving feasts attended by news reporters before they returned to detention at strategic sites or virtual house arrest in Baghdad.

President Bush was upbeat while visiting troops in the Persian Gulf. First lady Barbara Bush wore desert camouflage gear and waited in a military chow line with the president for helpings of turkey.

Stateside, soldiers destined to join those overseas enjoyed a parting taste of home cooking and family time.

"We're just really thankful I'm here for this one. We're cutting it real close here," said Marine Sgt. Gerald Pennington, a reserve from Connecticut whose unit is being activated Sunday for possible Persian Gulf duty.

More than 200,000 American troops have been sent to the Middle East since Iraq invaded Kuwait on Aug. 2, and their numbers are set to double in coming months.

Also growing are the numbers of needy as the nation's economy sours.

"We're seeing a big increase in the number of people who need food and shelter this year because of the recession and layoffs," said Maj. Carl Ruthberg of the Salvation Army in Cincinnati. "In many cases, these are people who have never been laid off before and don't know how to deal with it."

Ruthberg said his organization doubled the number of Thanksgiving dinners given out last year. Similar increases were reported nationwide.

Civil rights activist Hosea Williams estimated 25,000 people got a hot meal at his 22nd annual Thanksgiving dinner in Atlanta. The Salvation Army cooked turkey dinners for 10,000 in New York City. In San Francisco, 6,000 people showed up for a holiday meal at Glide Memorial Methodist Church.

In New York City, more than 1 million people lined the streets to watch the marching bands, floats and giant helium-filled balloons of favorite cartoon characters in the 64th annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade and thousands turned out to watch parades in St. Louis and Detroit.
