Rainfall possible tonight

Colder days said due with weekend

The Snyder area could receive its first moisture of 1989 Wednesday night with a 40 percent chance of showers listed.

Thursday should see partly cloudy conditions with the possibility of morning showers in the forecast.

The temperatures are forecast to be above normal, however, wih afternoon highs predicted in the 60s through Thursday.

The rain chances for Thursday are now listed at less than 20 per-

Windy conditions should be present both days with wind speeds of from 20 to 30 mph likely Thursday. Lake wind advisories will be required.

Most of West Texas is expected to be cloudy Wednesday night with showers spreading northeastward. Partly cloudy skies are forecast by noon Thursday for most sections.

In general, highs Thursday will be mainly in the 60s. Lows Wednesday night will be mainly in the 40s.

For all of West Texas, fair skies and mild temperatures are forecast by Friday but colder temperatures are likely for the weekend.

Partly cloudy and colder conditions are predicted Saturday and Sunday.

For the Snyder area, low overnight temperatures during the weekend should be in the mid to upper-20s. On Saturday, the daytime high is expected in the 40s and, on Sunday, in the 30s

Q. — What's the difference between cable ready, cable compatible and cable capable and which is best?

A. — A cable ready television or VCR will adapt to preset channels in numbers most often in excess of 100. A cable compatible TV or VCR normally will only accept up to 12 pre-set channels. Because of this, "cable ready" is the superior system. The local TV sales rep we contacted had not heard of cable capable systems and the designation likely varies according to the brand. Regarding cable ready, he noted most units built within the last two to three years are this type.

School money

AUSTIN (AP) — The 3rd Court of Appeals, which earlier upheld the state's school financing system, today denied a request for a rehearing in that case.

Poor school districts that filed the original lawsuit against the state financing system sought the rehearing last month after the Austin-based 3rd Court issued a 2-1 ruling in favor of the state.

Today's rejection clears the way for an appeal to the Texas Supreme Court.

Lawyers for both the state and the poor school districts have said they expect the case to go to the high court.

The 3rd Court of Appeals on Dec. 14 overturned a 1987 ruling by District Judge Harley Clark, who had declared the system unconstitutional.

Beef prices

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — The tighest beef supply in 27 years and higher shopper demand are being credited with beef prices that have Texas ranchers cautiously smiling.

The ranchers are smiling because in 1988 they enjoyed record or near-record average annual prices on all beef cattle and calves statewide.

But ranchers remain cautious about the trend continuing.

Carl Anderson, an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University in College Station, said consumer demand and lingering drought will be the pivotal factors in 1989 cattle and retail beef prices.

One deputy is shot to death

DALLAS (AP) — A 33-year-old Dallas County sheriff's deputy was fatally shot by a recently released prisoner early today at the Lew Sterrett Criminal Justice

It was the first slaying at a Dallas jail since Jack Ruby shot accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald to death Nov. 24. 1963 in the basement of the Dallas city jail, authorities said. Oswald had been arrested two days earlier in connection with the shooting of President John F. Kennedy.

The slain deputy, who was shot several times with her own gun after trying to stop a 37-year-old man from entering an area off limits to the public, was identified by authorities as Suzanne

Woman Finds It Hard to Tell Her Friend Not to Look Easy

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Every year for the last several years I have asked my friend "Zelda" to join my family and a few close friends for Thanksgiving dinner. Zelda is a kind, considerate, unmarried woman who is treated rather coolly by the women and is ogled by their husbands. She doesn't understand the problem - but I do. As my husband puts it, "She dresses like a streetwalker." Her clothes are too tight and her necklines are too low. I have seen her in more modest attire but not often. Abby, what do you make of her behavior? She is quite defensive when advice is proffered (on any subject). She is a wonderful friend and I don't want to hurt her feelings, but I wish I could tell her how others perceive her manner of

Do you have any ideas? Maybe one of your readers has had this problem and knows how to handle

STUMPED IN TEXAS

DEAR STUMPED: There is nothing quite so risky as telling a friend something "for her own good," but since you have seen Zelda in more modest attire, when you next invite her, ask her to wear "that little black dress" she looks so great in. And if she shows up again looking like a hooker — well, at least you tried.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to respond to the church organist in Cincinnati who said, "Applauding in a house of worship is disrespectful and unacceptable behavior.'

I would question a society that applauds vigerously for a hard tackle in a football game, but thinks it's inappropriate to applaud a minister's sermon, a choir's inspirational hymn or a couple's first kiss after a marriage ceremony vehagui

I am sure I am not the only person who has had the desire to clap or cheer after a touching moment in church. Why should it be considered disrespectful? The Bible states: 'Make a joyful sound to the Lord ... break forth into joyous song and sing praises ... Let the floods clap their hands; let the hills sing for joy together before the Lord." (Psalms

As for me, I applaud people who are willing to commit themselves to someone they love in this day and age of cohabitation. CLAP-HAPPY IN RICHMOND

DEAR CLAP-HAPPY: I'm with you. Applause indicates appreciation, and what better place to make a joyful sound than in a house of worship?

DEAR ABBY: The Holy Family School in Redmond, Wash., presented a drug-alcohol educational program, after which each student was asked to write an evaluation of the program.

I am enclosing one written by a 10-year-old student. His thinking is much better than his spelling. I wish more parents thought the way this boy thinks.

I hope you can find space for it in your column, Abby. FLORENCE C.

DEAR FLORENCE: Find space? I'll MAKE space:

"My evaluation of the Drug-Alkol Education program: I don't think that I learned anything new. The way I think the program should work is that you should learn from your parents. After all, there the ones you go home to every night. There the ones that put the roof over your head and besides if somebody has a drug problem, it is the family who is in charge of it.

The whole school isn't your family physically, is it? No! If you have a problem, you would usualy go to your parents, right? Yes!

"And I am pretty mad that you have to learn it from your teacher rather than from your parents."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Physiabuser. cians who treat women are being enlisted in a nationwide effort to aid battered women and help break a generational cycle that has caught some American families in a web of violence.

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists is sending information to its 28,000 members to heighten their awareness of the problem of domestic violence and better enable them to help abused women.

Surgeon General C. Everett Koop, who joined the group for its announcement of the campaign Tuesday, said stopping violence against women is a major part of the effort to end family violence, a cycle that often begins when someone is the victim of abuse and then grows up to become an

"It's obvious that if you're going to break that chain ... you've got to start with child abuse," Koop said. "But you can't just wait for the three generations to work themselves out. You've got to take care of the elderly abused and you've got to take care of the battered women."

The physicians' campaign is aimed at the estimated 15 million women who have been beaten, raped or suffered other forms of physical and sexual assault, a total that Koop says grows by 1 million a year.

"It is an overwhelming moral, economic and public health burden that our society can no longer bear," Koop said. "In this country, no man has a license to beat, and get away with it. And no woman is obliged to accept a beating, and suffer because of

Koop noted that help is available from state and national coalitions and social service organizations, law enforcement agencies and the courts, and he encouraged doctors to become part of the crusade against violence.

Koop said, however, he did not advocate mandatory reporting by doctors of abused women.

Logic, not sorcery

By James Jacoby

Perhaps South should have swallowed some conservative medicine and stopped below slam when his partner denied holding an ace. After all, even though North might hold good spades, no defender worth his salt is going to take the spade ace right away, and that holdup could well leave declarer with a club loser. But South had a touch of slam fever, and for all he knew his partner had the club queen anyway, so he bid six hearts. Sure enough, the club queen appeared at trick one. Unfortunately it was led by West rather than held by North. Cover the defenders' hands and ask yourself how you would play to make 12 tricks. Mind you, the contract can and should succeed with proper play. The easiest way would be to draw trumps and then lead a spade while mesmerizing East into taking the first spade trick. But today's defenders cannot be mind-controlled, so what is there to do?

Declarer won the club and drew five rounds of trumps, discarding from dummy a club and three spades. Then he cashed the A-K of diamonds and played a spade. West signaled that he held two spades by playing the five, and East let dummy win the trick. We now see why declarer had not discarded a diamond from dummy. He ruffed dummy's remaining diamond, cashed his second high club and then led another spade. Poor East could take the spade ace, but because his last remaining card was a small spade, he had to give up the last trick to dummy.

Man charged after shootout

JOURDANTON, Texas (AP) -A South Texas man has been charged with attempted capital murder in connection with a shootout involving Atascosa County Sheriff's Capt. Steve Gonzalez, son of U.S. Rep. Henry B.

Ray Alaniz, 41, was being held Tuesday in Atascosa County Jail in lieu of $125,000 bond after being charged in connection with the Monday night incident.

Shots were fired at Gonzalez, 38, son of the Democratic congressman from San Antonio, during the incident in the Primrose subdivision, about 10 miles north of Poteet, authorities said.

Atascosa County Sheriff Tom-my Williams said Gonzalez had been called to a house in the subdivision after residents said a neighbor was shooting at them from his back yard.

"He (Gonzalez) said, "This is Deputy Steve. The guy knew him and said, 'Yeah, I know who it is.' He cussed at Steve and fired three to five shots at him." Williams said.

Gonzalez was not injured. Chief Deputy David Soward said Gonzalez got behind a tree and returned fire with his shotgun, striking the man with several pellets. "It was real foggy," Soward said. "They were about 15 yards apart."

In a front-page announcement, Izvestia said the two pages of ads from European and U.S. companies were the first in a weekly effort "to give Western businessmen the possibility to enter into direct dialogue with future Soviet partners who are trying to set up contacts with the foreign market."

West Germany's Dresdner Bank, the first Western bank to open an office in Moscow in 1973, had a quarter of page six with a green stripe matching the splash of green on the eight-page paper's front.

The ads represent a sharp turnabout for the central press. Soviet newspapers usually consist of four to six broad sheets of small type crammed from top to bottom of each page. They have not accepted any advertising.

BIG SPRING - Big Spring took That's who gets the ball." advantage of Snyder's makeshift Tiger team here Tuesday, earning a 76-68 victory in District 4-4A hoops competition.

"We're just not very consistent and part of that is due to instart to get everybody back somebody else gets hurt. It's hard to get anything going."

Snyder opened the season with back-to-back victories over Class guard Lewis Wesley went out with a knee injury. Jason West, Wesley's backup at the position, went out soon after, though only for a week. Then last weekend, senior post Dewayne Wesley has returned from arthroscopic surgery, but is not yet 100 percent.

Clinkinbeard is on crutches and could be out for some time.

The constant battle with injuries means a consant battle with consistency - one the Tigers aren't winning at the moment.

"We're still not to the point where we are doing the little things all the time. Things like screening off, hitting our free throws, getting into the right defenses," said Scott. "We might be in a full court man defense and have three or four players covered but leave one wide open.

UTEP checks Colletto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) - Ohio State football offensive coordinator Jim Colletto will interview Wednesday for the head coaching position at Texas-El Paso.

"They have expressed an interest in talking with me, so I will go down there and talk with them," Colletto said. UTEP is looking for a head coach after Bob Stull left to become the head coach at Missouri. The Miners went 10-3 this season, including a loss to Southern Mississippi in the Independence Bowl.

Colletto, 44, was head coach at Cal-Fullerton from 1975 to 1979, but left after the school went through a reevaluation of its program. Since then, he has served as offensive coordinator at Purdue, Arizona State and Ohio State.

Stanford hires coach

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) - Dennis Green is leaving a reasonably stable job as an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers to become the first black head coach at Stanford University, an institution beset by racial incidents.

Big Ten Coach of the Year when leading the Northwestern Wildcats in 1982, the 39-year-old Green said Tuesday he hoped to follow in the footsteps of 49ers coach Bill Walsh, who reshaped a struggling San Francisco team into consistent winners after taking it over in 1979.

Green is replacing Jack Elway, who was fired in early December after a 3-6-2 season and rumblings of player discontent. Elway posted an overall 25-29-2 record during five years at "The

Walsh called Green "clearly the outstanding man in the country

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

FOR WATER SUPPLY AND SANITARY SEWER IMPROVEMENTS CITY OF SNYDER, TEXAS

NOTICE TO BIDDERS Sealed proposals addressed to the Honorable Mayor and City Council of Snyder, Texas, will be received at the office of the City Secretary, City of Snyder, Texas, until 2:00 p.m., January 19, 1989, for furnishing all necessary materials, machinery, equipment, superintendence and labor for constructing water supply and sanitary sewer improvements including pipeline, boring of highways and railroad, booster pump station, lift station and associated improvements for the City of Snyder, Texas. The sealed bid shall clearly state on the face thereof: "Proposal for the City of Snyder, Texas, Water Supply and Sanitary Sewer Improvements."

Immediately following the closing time for receipt of bids, proposals will be publicly opened and read aloud. Any bid received after closing time will be returned unopened.

Bidders must submit a Cashier's Check or Certified Check issued by a bank satisfactory to the Owner, or a Proposal Bond from a reliable Surety Company, payable without recourse to the order of THE CITY OF SNYDER, TEXAS, in an amount not less than five percent (5%) of the largest possible bid submitted as a guaranty that the Bidder will enter into a contract and execute bonds and guaranty in the forms provided within ten (10) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without the required Check or Proposal bond will not be considered.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a Performance Bond and a Payment Bond, each in the amount of the contract, written by a responsible Surety Company, authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and satisfactory to the Owner. All lump sum and unit prices must be stated in both script and figures. In case of ambiguity or lack of clearness in stating the prices in the bids, the owner reserves the right to consider the most advantageous construction thereof, or to reject the bid. The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive formalities, and to accept the bid which seems most advantageous to the City's interest. Bidders are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves regarding all local conditions under which the work is to be done.

Payment for the work performed on this project will be paid for in cash by the City of Snyder, Texas. WELLER HOLDS

What is causing urination problem?

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Sometimes I feel as if I have to urinate all the time, but can't. Other times I have to go about every half-hour. Could this be due to the Seldane I take for allergies, or the lactase/renin tablets I take to help digest lactose? I'm male and only 34.

DEAR READER: Urinary urgency and frequency have many causes ranging from the body's normal periodic tendency to excrete excess fluid to the effects of drugs, especially kidney stimulants (diuretics).

To begin with, the kidney's ability to excrete water depends on the amount of blood circulated through these organs. When we lie down, more blood reaches the kidneys and more urine is formed. This fact may explain why, as we age, we tend to urinate more at night.

Also, since the fluid lost in perspiration is not available to the kidneys for excretion, we form less urine in hot weather - unless, of course, we drink more liquid to make up the balance. Urinary infections cause frequency of urination — and, often, burning. Diabetes can cause increased urine flow because when the body is forced to excrete sugar, it must do so by increasing the excretion of water.

In addition, alcohol will increase urine formation because the substance interferes with anti-diuretic hormone, a natural compound that prevents the body from losing fluid.

Finally, diuretics stimulate the kidneys to extract more liquid from the blood reaching them. These medicines increase urine flow. Caffeine is a mild diuretic; hence, many people experience urinary frequency if they consume coffee, tea or cola - irrespective of the amount of fluid in these beverages. Seldane, an antihistamine, has been reported to cause frequent urination in some people. Drugs, such as lactase/renin combinations to aid digestion, do not ordinarily affect urine formation.

You should have a medical examination to determine the cause of your symptoms. You need to be checked for diabetes, infection and other conditions that stimulate urine flow. If everything checks out, you may Herman Wouk's war novel choose to reduce fluid consumption, particularly alcoholic beverages and caffeine-containing drinks.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My podiatrist removed an ingrown toenail on my big toe. Then he said he would like to do a permanent procedure in which a chemical called phenol is injected to make the nail grow straight. It sounds good but is it safe?

DEAR READER: I don't know. Phenol is highly irritating to living tissue and certainly could alter the . growing portion of the nail. I am unaware of any serious side effects of phenol used in this manner, but even without the substance, removal of the in-curving part of the toenail usually produces a satisfactory result. © 1989 NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.

Car fire, grass occupy firemen

Firemen spent an hour at the scene of a 6:40 p.m. Tuesday car fire seven miles west of Snyder on U.S. 180.

The 1974 Buick, owned by Jerry Beard, sustained extensive damage to the engine compartment, a department spokesman said, adding that he was not certain what caused the blaze.

A 2:19 p.m. Tuesday grass fire four miles east of town on Pleasant Hill Rd. was mostly out by the time firemen arrived, having been contained by bulldozers employed by property owner Jack Greene Sr.

The fire had been started by a man using a cutting torch, the spokesman said.

A child playing with sparkler fireworks started a fire in the backyard at 2808 Ave. T at 5:20 p.m. Tuesday where firefighters vere occupied for 15 minutes.

Shultz on Sunday is to meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard A. Shevardnadze in Paris, where they will be attending a conference of more than 100 nations on ways to halt the proliferation of chemical weapons.

The start of conventional arm reduction talks between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw Pact has been awaiting completion of a 35nation review in Vienna of human rights in the Soviet Union and in Eastern Europe.

What is causing urination problem?

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Sometimes I feel as if I have to urinate all the time, but can't. Other times I have to go about every half-hour. Could this be due to the Seldane I take for allergies, or the lactase/renin tablets I take to help digest lactose? I'm male and only 34.

DEAR READER: Urinary urgency and frequency have many causes, ranging from the body's normal periodic tendency to excrete excess fluid chemical called phenol is injected to to the effects of drugs, especially kidney stimulants (diuretics).

To begin with, the kidney's ability to excrete water depends on the amount of blood circulated through these organs. When we lie down, more blood reaches the kidneys and more urine is formed. This fact may explain why, as we age, we tend to urinate more at night.

Also, since the fluid lost in perspiration is not available to the kidneys for excretion, we form less urine in hot weather - unless, of course, we drink more liquid to make up the balance. Urinary infections cause frequency of urination - and, often, burning. Diabetes can cause increased urine flow because when the body is forced to excrete sugar, it must do so by increasing the excretion of water. In addition, alcohol will increase urine formation because the substance interferes with anti-diuretic hormone, a natural compound that prevents the body from losing fluid. Finally, diuretics stimulate the kidneys to extract more liquid from the blood reaching them. These medicines increase urine flow. Caffeine is a mild diuretic; hence, many people experience urinary frequency if they consume coffee, tea or cola - irrespective of the amount of fluid in these beverages. Seldane, an antihistamine, has been reported to cause frequent urination in some people. Drugs, such as lactase/renin combinations to aid digestion, do not ordinarily affect urine formation.

You should have a medical examination to determine the cause of your symptoms. You need to be checked for diabetes, infection and other conditions that stimulate urine flow. If everything checks out, you may choose to reduce fluid consumption, particularly alcoholic beverages and caffeine-containing drinks.

For more information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report Bladder and Urinary Tract Infections." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.
