

TDC's south regional head, new warden to be welcomed

The regional director for the Texas Department of Correction's Southern Region and the newly named warden for the Price Daniel Unit here will be in Snyder Thursday.

Both men will take part in activities associated with the second graduating class of TDC correctional officers trained through Western Texas College.

Scheduled to arrive here around noon Thursday are Michael Moore of Rosharon, TDC regional director who will be over Snyder's Daniel Unit; and newly named warden Leslie Woods, currently the assistant warden at the Coffield unit in Anderson County.

The two men are scheduled to be here for two days and will receive tours of the community as well as the prison site.

Moore will be the guest speaker Thursday night at graduation ceremonies for the 37-member TDC correctional officer class.

That ceremony will begin at 7 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre on campus.

Moore, 40, was named regional director for the southern region of TDC four years ago.

In addition to Snyder's Price Daniel Unit, he is the supervisor for 11 other TDC units to include Central, Clemens, Darrington, Jester I, Jester II, Jester III, Ramsey I, Ramsey II, Ramsey III, Retrieve and the TDC Hospital in Galveston.

Prior to being named a regional director, he was the

Q. — What is the status of the 911 system for Scurry County?

A. — The project is still in the planning phases. There is a regional meeting scheduled here April 27 to discuss establishment of the system throughout the area served by the Abilene-based West Central Texas Council of Governments.

In Brief

Pesticides

AUSTIN (AP) — A consumer group says many pesticides Texans apply to their lawns may cause serious health problems, but a spokesman for the lawn care industry denied the charge.

A study released Tuesday by Public Citizen — a nationwide group founded by consumer advocate Ralph Nader — says many commonly used lawn care pesticides have been linked to birth defects, liver, kidney, or nervous system damage, in addition to other health care problems.

"Why are we letting our lawn care companies poison our lawns, our kids, our pets and ourselves?" said Tom "Smitty" Smith, director of Public Citizen of Texas.

But Don R. McCullough, director of the Texas Pest Control Association, said of the report, "None of that is substantiated."

Fiesta battle

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — LULAC says Rey Feo Nick Garza's reign over the city's Fiesta celebration is over, but Garza and others say he's still the ugly king for the next five days.

Garza is defying orders from LULAC officials asking him to refrain from participating in Fiesta events.

Rey Feo reigns over the 10-day city celebration, which commemorates the victory of Texas forces over Mexican troops at San Jacinto in 1836. The celebration started Friday and ends on Sunday.

On Monday, Garza marched past an official with LULAC Council No. 2 Scholarship Fund who attempted to hand him a one-page letter from National LULAC President Jose Garcia de Lara.

The order stated that Garza would violate his contract with the League of United Latin American Citizens' Council No. 2 if he participated in the parade and he would be stripped of his title, ending his reign as Fiesta's Ugly King.

Celanese suit

HOUSTON (AP) — A former Texas Supreme Court justice will be the special master in a complex suit stemming from explosions that rocked a Texas Panhandle chemical plant and killed three people.

Former Justice William Kilgarlin was named Tuesday by State District Judge Eugene Chambers to handle the case against Hoechst Celanese, which operates the chemical plant in Pampa. Actual damages being sought total $500 million, and unspecified punitive damages also are being sought.

SAL'S GALS — These dance hall girls are part of the one-hour production "The Saga of Sagebrush Sal," a melodrama slated Saturday at the Towle Park Barn as a fund raiser for the Noah Project. It will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will include a Coney Island hotdog feast. Ad-

Spill's cleanup criticized

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bush administration faced sharp criticism today for not acting decisively enough in taking control of the Alaska oil spill, as senators called for new laws that would require the president to direct such cleanup efforts.

"There has never been a time when this situation was under control," declared Sen. Max Baucus, D. Mont., chairman of the Senate environmental protection committee, which convened a hearing on the oil spill recovery effort.

Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell said that President Bush was "slow to comprehend the magnitude of this disaster," and valuable hours were lost after the March 24 spill in Alaska's Prince William Sound when the spill might have been controlled.

Mitchell, of Maine, said federal environmental laws need to be changed to require the president to either take over oil spill cleanup efforts or specifically to declare that the cleanup is being conducted through private efforts.

Transportation Secretary Samuel Skinner, the president's point man on the oil spill recovery, who was scheduled to testify before the Senate panel later, has said that Bush rejected a federalization of the Alaska cleanup because of concern that such a move might affect Exxon's financial liabilities.

The president has said the U.S. Coast Guard is coordinating cleanup efforts.

But in a round of opening statements, one senator after another criticized everyone involved in the cleanup, especially recovery efforts in the first days after the Exxon Valdez tanker ran aground, spilling 10 million gallons of oil into the pristine waters.

"From all accounts the cleanup crews initially acted more like the Keystone Cops," declared Sen. John Chafee, R-R.I.

Meanwhile, Interior Secretary Manuel Lujan Jr., was scheduled later today to fly to Alaska for a four-day tour, his first visit to the area contaminated by the March 24 spill. Lujan's department is charged with planning long-term recovery efforts for the region's wildlife and public lands.

At least 15 perish in battleship fire

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Fire broke out aboard the battleship USS Iowa after an explosion this morning, killing at least 15 people and injuring an undetermined number, officials said.

The extent of damage was not known, said Atlantic Fleet spokesman Lt. Cmdr. Chris Baumann, who confirmed the deaths.

The explosion occurred about 10 a.m. in one of the battleship's three 16-inch gun turrets as the ship was taking part in a gunnery exercise about 330 miles northeast of Puerto Rico, said another Navy spokesman, Lt. Cmdr. Steve Burnett.

The training exercise to improve fleet readiness began April 13 and involved 19,000 people aboard 29 U.S. ships, three allied ships and shore-based aircraft, Baumann said. The ship's guns were being fired to check that they worked when the explosion occurred, he said.

The gun turret was "full of gunpowder," he said.

A gun turret is normally occupied by 27 people, but can hold up to 60 or 70 people, Baumann said. "We don't know how many people were in there at the time," he said.

There were 1,600 people aboard the ship, including Vice Adm. Jeremiah Johnson, the commander of U.S. 2nd Fleet.

The aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea was about 120 miles west of the Iowa and steaming toward it, Baumann said. He said it would arrive about 2:30 p.m.

The Coral Sea could provide additional medical assistance, Navy Cmdr. Mel Sundin said in Washington.

In addition to its massive 16-inch guns, which can fire 2,700-pound shells 23 miles, the Iowa is equipped with 12 five-inch guns and Tomahawk and Harpoon missiles. The 887-foot model for three other Iowa-class battleships, is among the most heavily armored of U.S. warships.

The Iowa was built during World War II, mothballed until the Korean War, and mothballed again. It was modernized and reactivated in 1984, and returned home last year.

Mr.-Miss honorees selected at college

Julie Roewe and Chawn Cummings were introduced as Miss WTC and Mr. WTC at the annual Western Texas College spring formal Tuesday night.

The new Miss WTC is a sophomore physical therapy major from Haskell and the daughter of Conrad and Betty Roewe. She served as captain of the WTC Lady DuSters basketball team this year and vice president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

She was named to Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges for 1988-89 and is a member of the WTC chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, a national honor fraternity for students in two-year colleges.

Cummings is a sophomore psychology major and a member of the Westerner basketball team. He is the son of Cerleatha Cummings of Richardson.

He is president of the WTC Fellowship of Christian Athletes and a member of Phi Theta Kappa. He was named to Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges this year.

Students at the college elect Mr. and Miss WTC each year. All nominees were introduced as campus favorites at the spring formal.

Other nominees for Miss WTC were Cathy Crowder of Ira, Shondra Robinson of Snyder, Lorre Moser of Iowa Park, Mary Lee Hicks of Roby and Zane Bentsen of San Angelo.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "It's basic economics—as outgo exceeds income, the upkeep results in the downfall."

A certain preacher called recently to pass along what he described as a "gem" of a story. We have to agree, but before the minister would relate the story, we had to agree to protect his anonymity. We think that's a fancy word for not telling his name.

He said he was recently in a meeting where someone said they had conclusive proof that there would be no women in heaven. The speaker quoted Revelation 8:1 which says, "And when He broke the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour."

As promised, we won't tell you the name of the minister, but he is a tall guy who wears a 10-gallon hat.

That reminded us of the story about the Bible class teacher who claimed that the early Christians drove Hondas.

"Yep," he said. "It says in Acts that they 'were all in one accord'."

While on the topic of ministers, we also heard about one sermon in which the minister referred to the Bible story about Balaam and his talking donkey.

The preacher explained that God made the talking donkey tell Balaam how to better do the Lord's work. "You might say," the preacher added, "that the donkey was God's Better Business Burro."

Galveston officials are still bitter over the decision to scrap homeport plans

GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — Construction activity on a 50-acre site along this island city's port is not what local officials had in mind when they thought they won a $41 million piece of a Navy pro-

Devil worship subject of police-sponsored seminar

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A Satanism expert is teaching police at a five-day seminar that has drawn about 80 participants to recognize signs of devil worship.

The State Police-sponsored seminar on cults and the occult was planned before the discovery earlier this month of a ritual mass slaying blamed on drug smugglers in Matamoros, Mexico.

Even before that discovery, "we had inquiries from law enforcement groups from throughout the state wanting to know if we had any seminars on the topic," State Police Lt. Dan Ducoite said by telephone from Baton Rouge, where the seminar is being held.

"There's a lot of interest. A lot of officers had read in the news media about areas with animal mutilations and such. They wanted some knowledge on how to recognize the signs," said Ducoite.

The five-day seminar, which began Monday and involves law enforcement officers from around the state, is taught by Tom Wedge, author of "The Satan Hunter." He has been a guest on several national television talk shows.

"I wanted to know the difference between fact and fiction, what's rumor and what's fact in what's occurring in Satanism," said Trooper Bob Buckley, a homicide investigator.

"I have felt that on two or three major crimes, there was a possibility the suspects were involved in Satanism. I want to be able to go to a scene and tell," Buckley said.

ject to base a battleship on the Gulf of Mexico.

Now, instead of getting ready to build, construction crews are restoring the land to its natural condition.

A Pentagon-recommended proposal affecting 145 military installations, including the Galveston homeport project, was approved by the U.S. House 381-43 Tuesday.

The vote officially slammed the door on any hopes the project could be saved.

"There's no warehouse or factories — no buildings out there," said Curtiss Brown, administrative aide to Galveston County Judge Ray Holbrook. "It's not like the stories we've seen about communities which lose a base and later find a pot of gold at the end of a muddy rainbow."

"The fact of the matter is all we're finding is more mud."

The project would have made Galveston home to five Navy ships, and would have brought the economically struggling area a $16.5 million annual shot in the arm when completed in 1991.

Crews now hope to have the site restored by mid-June.

"We had done a lot of digging and moving of earth," said Navy spokeswoman Sue Lawley. "We're grading now and putting the site back to its original shape."

"They had physically changed the shore line to accommodate ships," Brown said. "But, of course, there's not going to be any ships now."

The five naval vessels and almost 900 military and civilian jobs are earmarked for Corpus Christi.

Although graders and bulldozers are working feverishly at the site and a sign optimistically proclaims the work as "Ship Support Complex — Galveston," the fate of the land at the east end of the island just inside the Galveston seawall is uncertain.

The Army Corps of Engineers, which donated some of the parcel, would like it back. The Coast Guard, which had an agreement with the Navy that they would be able to use the finished homeport facilities, wants land back, according to Brown.

City and county officials both have indicated they would like some kind of economic development project on the site.

"It's a great piece of property right in the middle of a military complex," Galveston Mayor Jan Coggeshall said. "It's between the Corps of Engineers disposal area and the Coast Guard. What we don't want is for the government to take it over."

Local officials dedicated $8 million for the project, then froze that account when the federal government tried to make its first withdrawal to pay for work already completed.

"The county has the $8 million," Brown said. "We still have that money tucked away for a naval base in Galveston. Should any efforts be successful to realize the navy base as a reserve center or something along those lines, I think those funds could be looked at as a possible source of support."

"If they want our money, they've got to build a project."

The Navy still needs to buy its way out of a $21 million first-phase construction contract rendered obsolete Dec. 29 when a Pentagon commission recommended the Galveston project be scrapped. That came four years after the city first put in a bid for the project, 10 months after a groundbreaking celebration and three months after construction already had started.

"It's pretty wild," Ms. Coggeshall said. "I felt betrayed on Dec. 30. The city put four years of economic effort and someone just pulled the plug."

WTC offering swimming tests on Thursday

Students interested in enrolling in a course for lifeguards at Western Texas College are invited to a free swim skills test at the college at 7:45 Thursday night.

The American Red Cross has made changes in prerequisites for lifeguard training, Mike Harrison, instructor for the new training course, noted. Students must demonstrate swimming skills and the Thursday night session will give them that opportunity before they go further toward enrolling.

The cost for the lifeguard course is $113 including the required books.

CPR and first aid instruction are included in the lifeguard course and these can also be taken separately. Persons who wish only the CPR or standard first aid course will pay $20 for book costing $7.50 for each course.

Police chief says...

Drug-smuggling clan disintegrated

MATAMOROS, Mexico (AP) — One of the region's primary drug-smuggling families is feeling the squeeze because of an investigation into the deaths of 15 people found buried west of Matamoros, the city's federal police commander says.

The extended Hernandez family has been well-known to police on both sides of the border for years, police said. Nine family members are known to be involved in drug trafficking, Mexican federal judicial police commander Juan Benitez Ayala said Tuesday.

But with the arrests of three family members and a search on for two more, the clan has all but been put out of business.

"The family is disintegrated," Benitez said, lacing his fingers together, then slowly and dramatically unlacing them and drawing his hands apart.

The first to be arrested were Serafin Hernandez Garcia Jr. and his uncle, Elio Hernandez Rivera. Mexican police took them into custody after 12 mutilated bodies were unearthed last week at Rancho Santa Elena, 20 miles west of Matamoros.

Three more bodies were found later in the week, and police said a marijuana-trafficking occult sect had performed human sacrifices on some of the victims in the belief it would make the organization invincible. Elio led police to the ranch, which he owns, after he sped through an Army checkpoint believing he was invisible and the troops wouldn't see him.

On Monday, Serafin Hernandez Garcia Sr. was arrested in Houston on a federal warrant charging him with marijuana importation, possession and conspiracy. Authorities said Serafin Sr. was not involved in the cult because he had joined it Benitez said federal police are looking for Brigido Hernandez Rivera, who had owned Rancho Santa Elena before giving it to Elio. Authorities on both sides of the border are looking for Ovidio Hernandez Rivera, son of Brigido and brother of Serafin Sr. and Elio.

Benitez said the family is well-known as being one of the region's chief drug-smuggling organizations. Oran Neck, agent in charge of U.S. Customs in Brownsville, said Customs has files on the Hernandez clan going back to 1977.

The cult that Serafin Jr. and Elio belonged to was responsible for smuggling a ton of marijuana a week into the United States, Neck said. But Benitez said it's likely the Hernandez clan has been put out of business for now.

When the family started disintegrating is hard to determine. It could have been when the alleged leader, Saul Hernandez Rivera, was shot to death in January 1987 in a drug-related killing in Matamoros. Saul had owned a 250-acre marijuana plantation in southern Mexico that Benitez helped raid in 1986, Benitez said.

Another sign of disintegration came last Aug. 12, when Ovidio and his 2-year-old son, Ovidio Jr., were kidnapped at Amigoland Mall in Brownsville, police said.

Elio and Serafin Jr. told police Ovidio had been kidnapped by a cousin who was asking $800,000 ransom. "It became apparent that the root of these problems was a botched narcotics transaction," Brownsville police chief Andres Vega told the Brownsville Herald.

Ovidio and his son were released the next day, police said, and no charges were filed. Lt. Victor Rodriguez said the investigation tied Ovidio to money-laundering transactions involving three vehicles and $38,000 cash.

At about the time of the kidnapping, Serafin Jr., Elio and Ovidio became involved in a cult led by Adolfo de Jesus Constanzo and Sara Maria Aldrete Villarreal, who introduced the men to their occult rites, police said.

Constanzo and Ms. Aldrete are at large and are the objects of an international hunt.

Your Birthday

April 20, 1989

Large organizations, clubs or groups could be rather lucky for you in the year ahead. If you don't belong to any at present, it might be wise to request a few application blanks.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your mate or partner might feel obligated to make all the big decisions today. Be firm and let your counterpart know you're also entitled to a voice. Trying to patch up a broken romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker can help you to understand what to do to make the relationship work. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Don't put additional strains on your physical well being today. Observe sensible eating and drinking habits and try to avoid all forms of overindulgence.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Complications with friends could develop today if they are too determined on having their way. If companions are rigid, you be flexible.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A very ambitious associate might try to prod you to do something today that will benefit him more than it will you. Let him know from the start you're aware of his plot.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) What starts out as a friendly discussion on philosophy or politics could turn into something rather serious causing you and your opponent to get hot under the collar.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) A joint venture in which you're presently involved could pose a problem today if one of the parties feels the other is not contributing as much financially or intellectually as possible.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You could be on an extremely shaky ground today when you have to deal with others on a one-on-one basis. Be guarded in your reactions and try not to be arrogant or dictatorial.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) If there is something essential that you are honor or duty bound to do today, don't neglect to take care of it. What you ignore could produce unpleasant ripple effects.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) In your social involvements today make it a point to share the stage with others. You'll make a poor impression if you don't let all of the characters have at least a few lines.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Outsiders and in-laws should both be outlawed today where confidential family affairs are concerned. If they are allowed to participate they could turn a bad situation into something worse.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) An associate with a forceful personality might attempt to downgrade your ideas and suggestions today. Don't be intimidated just because this guy has a big mouth.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't let a user outmaneuver you today when it comes time to pay the check. Have another cup of coffee and wait until the stallier picks up the share.

Daphne de Maurier dies in her sleep at her home

LONDON (AP) — Dame Daphne de Maurier, whose mixtures of romance and the supernatural made her one of the century's most popular novelists, died today, her family executor said. She was 81.

Monty Baker-Munton, a family friend, trustee and executor, said he did not know the cause of death. "For the last fortnight (two weeks) she'd just been in a gentle decline," he said.

The author of such popular classics as "Rebecca," "Frenchman's Creek" and "The Birds" died in her sleep at her home in the village of Par, in Cornwall, southwest England, he told The Associated Press.

Baker-Munton said that at the novelist's own request her funeral would be private, with no memorial service or flowers, and only close family and friends attending. He said the place and venue were not yet being disclosed.

He said she would be cremated.

Funeral held for slain police officer

DUNCANVILLE, Texas (AP) — More than 500 friends and family members gathered for the funeral of a Dallas police sergeant who was fatally shot by police as he tried to enter his suburban home brandishing a gun.

Sgt. Larry Wise was remembered Tuesday as a "father to everyone" at the Southwest Division, where he led a sector of 10 patrol officers.

Wise, 39, was killed early Sunday by a Duncanville officer who was summoned by a relative who was concerned for the safety of one of Wise's children after the Dallas man argued with his ex-wife.

"He held the station together and was kind of like a father to everyone," said Linda Dillon, a secretary at the Southwest Division. "He was probably the most well-loved sergeant there."

The image friends and colleagues painted of Wise contrasted with the history of conflict with his ex-wife, Cynthia.

The couple, who were divorced two years ago but had been living together for the past year, went to a country nightclub Saturday night to celebrate her birthday. They got into an argument and Mrs. Wise went to spend the night with her sister, Brenda Smith.

Mrs. Smith asked Duncanville police to be present when she picked up Wise's teen-age son and a friend from the Wise home early Sunday. The police, Mrs. Smith and Wise arrived at the home at the same time.

Wise pointed his gun at the officers, but they convinced him to lower it

LAFF-A-DAY

DENNIS THE MENACE

Tiger winning streak continues...

Pecos becomes sixth victim

Snyder's Tigers got four first-inning runs, including three on a Tommy Lane homer, then went on to defeat Pecos 8-3 here Friday for their sixth straight vic-followed with a solidly-hit ball that cleared the left-center fence and gave the Tigers a quick, 4-0 advantage.

That was the end for Love, who has been suffering rotator cuff problems this season. Pecos brought in Bo Chatfield to replace him and the freshman pitcher fared better, despite also giving up four runs.

Bert Otto singled off of Chatfield to keep the rally going, but Pecos got out of the inning when Bert Merritt hit into a double play.

Snyder added two more runs in the third inning, ignited by Wright's lead-off double. Lane walked. A couple of ground balls took care of two outs, but Lane came in on a double-play attempt when second baseman Gabriel Gonzales' throw to first base was off the mark. Then Lee Hamilton, also making his first district start, singled to drive in another run.

The Tigers bought a little more insurance in the fifth stanza with two more. Lane was a key figure again. He slapped Chatfield with a hard-hit ball to right field that bounced off the fielder's glove and rolled to the fence. Lane never slowed down, but rounded the bases and scored.

The final run came when Otto walked, took second on a wild pitch and ran home on Hamilton's second single of the game.

Pecos' bats were stymied through five innings as Tiger pitcher Kevin Dollins worked another good game. Dollins allowed just two hits before tiring in the sixth.

The senior right-hander got Gonzales out on a line drive to second baseman Jason West to lead off the sixth, but walked Tommy Valdez and gave up a double to Chris Gomez. At that point, Coach Albert Lewis brought Bart Morton to the mound.

Morton gave up a run on a ball-four, wild-pitch to Cruz Abila that scored Valdez. He then got Filepe Orozco to fly out to right field. Gomez was able to tag up and score Pecos' second run on the play.

Pecos' final gasp came after Morton walked Ricky Flores. Abila stole third and Flores took off for second. Morton tried to get the runner going to second but his throw was low. The ball rolled into the outfield and Abila came home. Morton got out of the inning himself by striking out Chatfield.

Lee Fletcher came on to pitch the final inning. He gave up a bad-hop single and a walk, but got the next three batters in order to close out the win.

The victory pushed Snyder to 14-6 for the season and Dollins to 4-1 overall; 3-1 in district play.

Unofficially, Snyder came up with nine hits, including two apiece from Wright and Hamilton. Wright took over as designated hitter as coaches moved regular DH Goodwin into the lineup at first base. Hamilton took over in the outfield for Israel Hinojos, who was experiencing some aches and pains following a collision at home plate last week that left him hospitalized overnight. Hinojos did see action as a courtsey runner, however.

Snyder pitching allowed just four hits.

Friday's game with Andrews is scheduled for a 7 p.m. start.

Friday's Game: Snyder at Andrews, 7 p.m. Saturday's Games: Big Spring at Pecos, 2 p.m.; Sweetwater at Fort Stockton; Monahans at SA Lake View.

The win knocked Pecos out of a three-way tie with the Tigers and Fort Stockton for first place in the District 4-4A baseball standings. Snyder and the Panthers stand alone at 6-2 now while Pecos slips to 5-3 and into a tie with Big Spring for third place. Andrews and Monahans are locked together for the fifth spot with 4-4 records.

Fort Stockton kept pace with the hot Tigers by clipping San Angelo Lake View 6-5. Big Spring edged Andrews 13-12 in eight innings and Monahans ripped Sweetwater 14-4.

Action this weekend has Snyder playing at Andrews on Friday. The other 4-4A games - Big Spring at Pecos, Sweetwater at Fort Stockton and Monahans at Lake View - are set for Saturday.

Here Tuesday, Snyder greeted Pecos starting pitcher Lance Love with authority. Toby Goodwin and Randy Morris opened with back-to-back singles and Tracy Odom reached on an error to load the bases. Next-up John Wright, playing in his first district ballgame, cranked a long fly ball to center field to send Goodwin racing home. Lane

IV squad wins two loses one in outings

Snyder junior varsity fell to San Angelo Central 13-9 in baseball action earlier this week.

The young Tigers, now 6-7, will host Midland Lee for their next outing at 1 p.m. Saturday on Moffett Field.

Daniel Espinosa took the loss against Central in five and two-thirds innings. Jamey Morton won one and one-third in relief. Espinosa allowed 12 runs on nine hits, walked four and struck out seven. Snyder managed five errors. The 'Cats had eight hits and 12 walks offensively.

Leading the bats were John Wright, who went three-for-five with a double and two RBI; Mark King, two-for-three with an RBI; and Ronnie Pruitt, one-for-three with an RBI. Justin House had a hit and an RBI and Les Rinehart added a single. Espinosa and Rios both slapped a sacrifice fly.

In JV results from last week, Snyder defeated Brownfield 17-13 and 24-9.

In the first game, Snyder managed 14 hits, including two doubles and a home run from Pruitt. Also hitting were winning pitcher Morton, a single and a triple; King, two doubles; Rios, a single and a double; Wright and Rinehart, two singles each; and John Conger and Chad Fox with one single each. Pruitt had four RBI while Morton and King accounted for three each.

Rios took the second win over the Cubs in three innings of work. Hitting for Snyder were Wright, a home run; Justin House and Brian Crawford, a double and a single each; King and Rios, two singles each; Pruitt, a double; and Crawford, Fox and John Conger, one single each. Wright had five RBI and Pruitt three.

Rangers sold

NEW YORK (AP) - Baseball owners unanimously approved the sale of the Texas Rangers and Baltimore Orioles.

Rangers owner Eddie Chiles sold the team in March for $46 million to a group of Texas businessmen headed by George W. Bush.

KEITH PORTER - Western Texas early signee Keith Porter was in town over the weekend to attend an all-star basketball shootout. Porter, 6-7 from Dickinson, signed in September with WTC. Lady Dusters point guard...

Smith signs with SW State

Stacy Smith, floor leader this past season for Western Texas College's Lady Dusters, has signed with perennial NAIA stalwart Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

Smith, a 5-11 sophomore from Amarillo, was recruited as a wing player but moved to point guard this past season. She was a key player on the Western Texas team which was co-champion of the Western JC Athletic Conference and won the Region V Tournament to advance to the NJCAA National Tournament. Smith averaged 8.1 points, 4.3 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.8 steals a game for Coach Kelly Chadwick during the regular season.

Smith will be leaving one highly successful program for another.

Southwestern Oklahoma, located in Weatherford, won the NAIA in 1982, 1983, 1985 and 1987 under Coach John Loftin. The Lady Bulldogs were 22-5 in 1988-89 and runner-up District 9 champion to eventual NAIA champ Southern Nazarene University.

Loftin, with a 224-27 record, is the winningest active women's basketball coach in the NAIA.

Lucille Ball has open heart surgery

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lucille Ball, the zany redheaded queen of comedy, was in guarded condition today after seven hours of emergency high-risk cardiac surgery during which she received heart tissue donated from a 27-year-old man.

The 77-year-old comedian suffered a heart attack at her fashionable Beverly Hills home Tuesday, and arrived at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center with her husband, Gary Morton.

"She came out of the surgery OK," said Ron Wise, the hospital's spokesman.

Miss Ball suffered a tear in her aorta, the main artery in the body, said her surgeon, Dr. Robert Kass.

During the operation, her heart was stopped for two hours, said Kass. With the heart stopped, blood was pumped through her body by a machine as Kass replaced part of her aorta and aortic valve. The donor was a 27-year-old man, Kass said. No other details were released about the donor.

Miss Ball was listed as guarded after the "high-risk procedure with a fairly substantial mortality rate," the surgeon said.

"The fact that she came through this leaves me optimistic," Kass told reporters late Tuesday. "The major risk is in the operating room, at least initially."

Miss Ball probably will be in intensive care for several days and remain hospitalized for weeks, Wise said.

As word of Miss Ball's heart attack spread, the hospital's switchboards were jammed with calls from well-wishers and news organizations around the world. Wise said that flowers also were arriving.

Miss Ball, who has been in ill health in recent years and suffered a mild heart attack May 11, was conscious when she arrived at the hospital. She complained of moderate chest pains and shortness of breath.

"I told her the nature of the condition she had, that it was life-threatening and that we had to operate immediately," Kass said.

Her last public appearance was introducing a production number with Bob Hope at the March 29 Oscar presentations. Wearing a slit skirt, she appeared to be in good health and giggled throughout a brief routine.

"Lucille Ball is one of the most wonderful women I have ever known," Hope said Tuesday night.

"I'm shocked, especially since we worked together so recently at the Academy Awards and she was so full of energy. There's only one Lucy. You don't meet many people like her. Like the rest of the world, Dolores and I are praying everything will be all right," he said of his wife.

Miss Ball and her late former husband, Desi Arnaz, starred in "I Love Lucy," one of the most popular TV shows of all time, from 1951 to 1957. The show is still seen around the world in syndicated reruns.

In 1950, Miss Ball and Arnaz

started their own production company, Desilu, on a shoestring budget of $5,000. The Arnazes were divorced in 1960, and two years later Arnaz sold his share of the studio to Miss Ball for $3 million.

SHS students give to Noah Project

Deanie Francis Mills, representing the Noah Project, spoke to the homemaking classes at Snyder High School on April 14. The students in the "Individual and Family Living" and "Child Development" classes heard her speak about dating violence and family violence.

Class members and Future Homemakers of America members contributed to the needs of the Noah Project with household products, baby and child care items and food. Mrs. Carolyn Limmer and Mrs. Carolyn Derouen are the teachers for the classes.

Suicide ruling clouds memorial service

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — A coroner ruled Abbie Hoffman died from a combination of drugs and alcohol but his brother insisted the 1960s radical's death was an accident rather than a suicidal surrender.

"I just think he took a little too many (pills) and he took a good slug of booze," Jack Hoffman said. "My brother had a very strong love and affection for me and he wouldn't have left me alone like this."

Abbie Hoffman, 52, was found dead at his home near New Hope, Pa., on April 12. A peace march and memorial service were planned for today in Worcester, where he was born Abbot Hoffman, the son of a pharmaceutical supplies salesman.

"I want it to be a celebration," said Jack Hoffman at a news conference Tuesday in this Massachusetts city 40 miles west of Boston. "I want everybody to be singing and swinging and swaying."

The peace march from their childhood home to the service at Temple Emanuel, which Hoffman attended as a child, was to be led by folksinger Pete Seeger.

On the eve of the service, a coroner ruled that Hoffman's death was a suicide caused by an overdose of barbiturates mixed with alcohol.

"I can only conclude that he took a huge amount of pills all at once," said Thomas Rosko, Bucks County, Pa., coroner.

Rosko said he detected about four to five grams of phenobarbital in Hoffman's stomach, the equivalent of about 150 pills, several times the lethal dose even without the presence of alcohol. In addition, Rosko said, Hoffman's blood alcohol level was 0.20, twice the legal limit in Pennsylvania.

"I think it is likely that he literally fell asleep and died in his sleep. Other than that, what occurred in his last hours is strictly speculation," the coroner said.

Phenobarbital is a long-acting sedative and an anticonvulsant.

But Jack Hoffman denied his brother was suicidal, despite having earlier admitted that the founder of the Yippie movement had been showing signs of disenchantment in recent months.

Obituaries

Ethel Malone

Services for Ethel Christene Malone, 80, a Snyder Oaks resident, are set for 2 p.m. Thursday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel with Tom Holcomb, a minister at East Side Church of Christ, officiating. Burial will follow in Snyder Cemetery.

She died at 7:11 a.m. Tuesday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital. She was born March 13, 1909 in Nashville, Ark. She was a longtime Hermleigh and Snyder resident and was a retired nurse and had worked at the old Battenfield Jones Hospital and area nursing homes.

She was a member of Hermleigh Church of Christ. She married James Jasper Tolleson in 1933 and he died in 1953. She later married Odell Malone in 1954 and he died Sept. 13, 1988.

She is survived by a daughter, Verla Holmes of Snyder; four sons, Billy Tolleson of Odessa, Henry Tolleson of Snyder, Gus Tolleson of Rohnert Park, Calif., Dennis Tolleson of Garland; one step-son, Jerry Malone of Omaha, Neb.; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Services for Wagie Graham, 82, of Irving, former longtime Scurry County resident, will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel with the Rev. David Hestand, pastor of Union United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will follow in Lone Wolf Cemetery.

She died at 2:40 p.m. Monday in Irving Hospital.

She was married to E. R. Graham on Dec. 31, 1977 in Scurry County. He preceded her in death Aug. 19, 1970.

She was a Methodist.

She is survived by a daughter, Amy Birch of Irving; one grandchild, Pamela Gilliland; and two great-grandchildren, Charissa and Christopher Gilland; one sister, Pearl Cox of Stanton; three brothers, George Phillips of Stanton; Willie Phillips of Big Spring and Ernest Phillips of Odessa.

Services for Martha Frances Huddleston, 54, of Clairemont Road, are pending at Bell-Cypert-Seale Funeral Home.

She died at 7:20 a.m. Wednesday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital. She was born July 13, 1934.

She is survived by her husband, Billy; three daughters, Rebecca Baldwin of Fort Worth, Roxanna Huddleston of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Felicia Huddleston of Dallas; two granddaughters, Gay and Robin; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stoker of San Angelo; and one brother, Richard Stoker of Snyder.

College president's home auctioned off

WACO, Texas (AP) - Two homes owned by Paul Quinn College, including that of its president, have been sold at auction by the Internal Revenue Service in an attempt to collect delinquent taxes owed by Texas' largest black private college.

The homes were auctioned Tuesday after the IRS filed $303,129 in liens against the school in January.

McLennan County resident Gene Chapman purchased Paul Quinn President Warren Morgan's residence and 14 acres for $60,000. The minimum bid was $37,910.99. Chapman declined to comment on his purchase.

Elizabeth Price, also a local resident, bought the school's other residence for the minimum bid of $29,332.91. That residence is home to Van Allen, Paul Quinn's assistant to the president and director of federal relations.

Price said she hopes the school would be able to buy it back from her in the next six months.

"I'm an investor, but I do hope they can possibly buy it back," she said.

Paul Quinn College has 180 days to buy back the properties at the prices the new owners paid, plus 20 percent interest.

Morgan and Allen have six months before they must leave the properties unless Paul Quinn buys them back, according to the IRS, which will issue the deed at the end of 180 days.

School business manager Joe Fortson, declined comment on what the home sales mean for the college or what the school is doing to raise money to pay the IRS.

Paul Quinn Trustee Monte Hulse of Waco said he is disappointed the IRS went through with the auction.

"We had hoped something could be worked out with the IRS and that we could avoid this action," he said. "But Paul Quinn is still optimistic that it can get financing and needs worked out. Maybe within the six-month period the college can get its affairs in order."

Park wreck noted

At 9:08 p.m. Tuesday in the Kiddie Park area of Towle Park, a 1986 Chevrolet pickup driven by Roseana Alarcon of 606 24th St. struck a parked 1985 Dodge owned by James Bishop of 3720 Austin Ave.

Sparks ignite local grass fire

Sparks from a transformer started a grass fire that kept firefighters busy from 1:45 to 3:15 p.m. Tuesday six miles north of Snyder off the Clairemont Hwy.

The property owner was unknown, a department spokesman said.

Two smoke scares started the day with one at 9:35 a.m. Tuesday at the 1212 Eighth St. home of Wanda York and the other at 12:30 p.m. at Ave. E and the Santa Fe Railway.

An air conditioner caught on fire when its motor shorted out at 11:05 p.m. Tuesday at the 3004 42nd St. home of Elaine Harlan, where firemen worked until 11:45 p.m.

Hoist stolen at TDC site

Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft of an electric hoist at the Texas Department of Corrections construction site northeast of town.

Wade Warren of Hinson Detention Services reported at 9:40 a.m. Tuesday that the hoist, a yellow or orange half-ton Boise that had been left 30 feet off the ground on a window panel, was last seen at 3 p.m. Sunday.

The hoist belongs to D&L Masonry of Lubbock, Warren said.

Gloria Myers of 3601 Irving Ave. reported the theft of a black go-cart at 2:45 p.m. Tuesday, saying it was taken sometime within the past two weeks.

Principal nixes article about valedictorian

HOUSTON (AP) — The 1989 Jack Yates High School valedictorian, who has one child and is pregnant with another, may not get her story told in the school newspaper but she will get to participate in graduation ceremonies.

Yates Principal Chester Smith vetoed publication of an article about Carrie Mae Dixon, 17, saying Tuesday that the report was too personal for the high school paper.

The article, written by a student reporter and titled, "Against all odds ... Student becomes valedictorian despite motherhood," documents Miss Dixon's personal life and scholastic achievements.

Miss Dixon is a straight-A student who carries a full load of honors classes, including physics, calculus and economics. She also takes computer math and word processing — an elective she chose so she could learn to type faster than her boyfriend, who also is a senior honor student.

After graduation, she plans to study chemical engineering at the University of Houston. She has two scholarships.

But she also was shuffled among relatives after her mother died and her stepfather deserted her and eight siblings.

Since she has no one to baby-sit her 18-month-old daughter while she studies, Miss Dixon said she keeps the child occupied with paper and pencil.

"She writes while I write," she said.

Now, at five months pregnant, Miss Dixon dreams of a "middle-class home and a middle-class life."

A school reporter first tried to do a story about Miss Dixon last year after she was spotted on a cold, rainy day standing at a bus stop, holding an umbrella over her daughter, Terrisha KeAndrea while she was studying a math text. A school official nixed the story idea.

Miss Dixon said she had doubts she would be allowed to give the valedictorian address June 10 because of her pregnancy, but Houston Independent School District Superintendent Joan Raymond said Tuesday that she can make the speech and participate in any graduation activity.

According to newspaper editor Shuronda Robinson, Smith rejected the story last Thursday when she submitted the newspaper for approval. On Friday, Smith made his final decision to reject the story during a meeting with Miss Dixon, the woman with whom she lives, the journalism teacher, and the editor, Miss Robinson said.

warden at the Darrington Unit in Brazoria County. Also, he held warden posts at the Ramsey II and Ramsey III units. He began employment with TDC in 1967 as a correctional officer.

He was promoted through the ranks, being named a major in January of 1981 and as an assistant warden in March of that same year.

Woods, 36, is a 16-year veteran of TDC. He has been the assistant warden at the Coffield Unit since January of 1984. He began his career with TDC as a correctional officer in November of 1972.

He has worked also at the Beto I and the Wynee Units.

He is a native of Anderson County and graduated from Sam Houston State with a degree in criminal justice.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren
1989 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: You will be blessed from coast to coast if you publish this open letter to all grandmothers:

DEAR GRANDMOTHERS: Please don't play favorites. If you buy a gift for the children of your daughter, please buy a gift of equal value for the children of your son. These children are cousins, and cousins play together, and when they see the expensive toys, books and clothing that Grandma has given their cousins, they become jealous because Grandma has never given them such grand gifts. She gives them cheap little trinkets — or nothing at all.

I am the mother of the cousins who get very little from Grandma, and I have looked into the sad eyes of my children when we visit their cousins who have been showered with expensive gifts from Grandma. It is always the daughter's children who are favored. I have friends who are in the same situation, so I am not imagining this.

I realize that there are some grandmothers who are fair to all their grandchildren, but I am sorry to say that they are the exception.

I hope that this letter will cause the grandmothers who are guilty of this kind of favoritism to change their ways. Most children don't "need" anything — but they are hurt when their cousins always get the peaches and they get the pits.

Thanks for listening
YOUR SON'S WIFE

DEAR ABBY: We have a very kindly neighbor who makes jellies and jams all summer long and gives them out to everyone she knows. We appreciate her generosity; however, we do not eat her gifts because she doesn't can properly. She just cooks the fruit and puts it in any old glass jars she has around. She doesn't sterilize them — no seal, no waterbath, nothing. Of course, most of it is already spoiling by the time her neighbors get it.

Our concern is that she puts so much effort into it, we haven't the heart to tell her she might poison someone — much less tell a 60-year-old woman that she doesn't know how to can properly.

Please help us, as she is such a dear sweet friend.

ELSIE AND LOUISE
(NOT OUR REAL NAMES)

DEAR ELSIE AND LOUISE: Can't you offer to "help" her can one day? Then introduce her to some "newfangled ideas" such as special jars, sterilized sealing, waterbath, etc.? You would be doing her an enormous favor and, who knows, you might even save a life!

DEAR ABBY: When I met the man I later married, I told him I was born in 1925. Actually, I was born in 1919. Throughout my life, I have used 1925 as the year of my birth on everything.

Now I want to file for Social Security. (I could have done so years ago, but didn't.) Will it make any difference which year I use? My husband would be shocked and disappointed if he knew I lied. Please help me.

DESPERATE IN SKOKIE

DEAR DESPERATE: Don't be so sure your husband would be "shocked and disappointed" if you told him the truth now. I advise you to come clean, starting with the people at the Social Security office.

Official says...

Most victims were drug traffickers

MATAMOROS, Mexico (AP) — Only four of the 15 men found buried in a rural area just south of the Rio Grande were randomly chosen human sacrifices of a drug-smuggling ring, an official said.

The rest probably were drug traffickers the violent organization found necessary to eliminate, said Juan Benitez Ayala, commander of the Federal Judicial Police in this border city.

"I have information about only four people who were sacrificed," Benitez said, adding that "the great majority were drug traffickers."

Eleven people were indicted by a federal grand jury Tuesday in McAllen in connection with the case, including the reported cult leaders, Adolfo de Jesus Constanzo, 26, and Sara Aldrete Villarreal, 24, who remained at large Tuesday night.

Four of them also were formally arraigned Tuesday night on federal Mexican charges in Matamoros. City police armed with pump shotguns closed off both ends of the Calle Gladiolas, the street where the district court is located.

Many of the victims unearthed at the ranch were horribly mutilated. Hearts, brains and other organs were removed and boiled in rites designed to bring magical protection to the organization, according to confessions from four men in custody.

Benitez said the investigation has shifted to Mexico City, where officials believe several murders are linked to the Constanzo, known as the drug cult's "god-father."

Chaplain pleads guilty to 8 charges

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The top chaplain at Brooke Army Medical Center has pleaded guilty to eight charges of sexual misconduct and faces up to 18 years in prison, but an agreement with prosecutors may keep the Vietnam veteran out of prison.

A spokeswoman for Health Services Command said Tuesday Col. James Moody will be sentenced May 20 at Fort Hood. Moody pleaded not guilty to two additional charges that the government will not pursue, spokeswoman Marla Jones said.

"The government is not going to present evidence on those two charges," Ms. Jones said. "The punishment on the guilty charges is yet to be decided."
