The Definition Of A Managing Share Tenant

According to the cotton reduction contract a managing share tenant is . . . "a share tenant who furnishes the workstock, equipment and labor used in the production of cotton and who manages the operation of this farm."

Paragraph 15 of the Administrative Rules clearly defines the duties of a County Committee in regard to contracts where such managing share tenant is not a party of said contract. Paragraph 15 follows:

"If the County Committee has reason to believe that the farm to be covered by a 1934 and 1935 cotton acreage reduction contract is to be rented to a managing share-tenant for 1934, no contract shall be considered by the County Committee until such managing share-tenant has been obtained. No contract shall be recommended by the County Committee for acceptance by the Secretary of Agriculture where the Committee has reason to believe that the status of a tenant has been changed for 1934 from that of a managing share-tenant for the farm covered by such contract, in order to deprive such tenant of a share of payments under the contract or where the Committee has reason to believe that the owner or landlord has adopted any device for the purpose of depriving such tenant of his share of such payments."

It has been brought to the attention of the Committee that a number of landowners have not included their managing share-tenants in submitting contracts. Any managing share-tenant who has reason to believe that a contract has been submitted without his signature and to which he should be a party is advised to communicate with the County Committee or the County Agent at once.

TO CONTINUE CWA WORK ANOTHER WEEK, ANYWAY

Thursday, of this week, was the date set for all activities in the CWA to cease, but in conversation this Thursday afternoon with Ray Simpson, County Administrator for Martin county, it was learned Mr. Simpson had received a message to continue the work another week, anyway, and employ the same number of men.

To have this work abandoned at this time would work much hardship on the people, and it is hoped that by the time of the extension to expire word will come that the CWA movement has been extended indefinitely.

cate a "needle in a haystack." The nice voting strength shows conclusively that those eligible to vote had declared that selecting candidates to handle the affairs of nation, state and county, was too serious a matter for them to allow the election polls to close without them having a voice in the matter.

THE Reporter is preparing to "hitch on" sideboards to its waste baskets to care for the avalanche of free publicity from candidates for state offices that has started to flow into this office. This political dope, along with the batch of free advertising received from outside business concerns, is going to bend the back of many office janitor as he totes out waste baskets to the trash heap.

It is to be hoped that the government authorities will weigh well the conditions as they exist in the drought stricken area of West Texas, and points in the district that have suffered a total crop failure, with no moisture to date that would enable the farmer to prepare his land for another crop, liberalize their order to the point that CWA funds will not be abandoned, and if possible, restore the 30-hour per week schedule, until another crop is made. It is the opinion of all Martin county citizens that much suffering has been avoided in this county through the CWA.

GEORGE W. TOM PROMINENT RANCHER SHOT TO DEATH

C. JOHN WARD, FORMER EMPLOYEE ON THE TOM RANCH, ARRESTED AND CHARGED WITH MURDER.

The resultant effect of a shot fired from a .22-long revolver, at about 9 o'clock Saturday morning, sent a shock wave over this community that stilled the hand of every citizen, for the time being, who worked at his task, when the news reached him that George W. Tom, one of the most prominent ranchmen in this area of West Texas, had been the bullseye of a target that received the fatal shot.

The expression from one of the old time ranchmen and intimate friend of Mr. Tom, immediately following the shooting: "I never heard any opinion advanced or a remark expressed by Mr. Tom in all the years that I have known him that would cause one to hold any ill feeling against him, and I have heard expressions from him and seen his actions which revealed to me that Mr. Tom was a noble character," voiced the unanimous sentiment of the people of Martin county, who knew Mr. Tom and who had any business dealings with him.

As was his custom every morning to drive in from his ranch home three miles southeast of Stanton, to get his mail, Geo. W. Tom went into the post-office here, Saturday morning at about 9 o'clock. As he arrived at the door of the postoffice returning with his mail, Mr. Tom was accosted by C. John Ward, from it was said by an eyewitness, Forest King, of the King Feed & Fuel Co., directed these words:

"Mr. Tom, get ready," to which Mr. Tom replied: "John what's the matter?"

To this remark Mr. King said that Ward replied: "Get ready. You know what's the matter."

Mr. King stated that he was approaching the postoffice for his mail when he met Mr. Tom coming out of postoffice, and also Ward coming toward Tom, following which the above conversation took place, according to Mr. King. Following this Ward pulled a long barreled revolver and fired it from the hip. King said that Tom beckoned to him to: "Grab that man, Forest, grab him." King immediately complied grabbing Ward around the arms just as a second shot fired, this bullet taking effect in the right thigh of Mr. Tom. King succeeded in pushing Ward down the street from the scene of the shooting, when King reported Ward as saying: "Turn me loose, you don't understand."

Mr. Tom walked toward his car about 20 feet away, assisted by Elbert Sale, an employee of the Stanton postoffice. He slumped to the ground just before reaching the car and according to Mr. Sale Mr. Tom said: "I'm killed, I'm killed."

Mr. Tom was rushed to the Burnam Funeral Home where a doctor was summoned and such other assistance rendered, but death had already overtaken him.

Officers rushed Ward to the courthouse from where he was immediately whisked out of town to the Lamesa, Dawson county jail.

In questioning the prisoner by District Attorney Bob Hamilton, a charge of murder was assessed against Ward about 5:30 o'clock Saturday evening. In the statement given Mr. Hamilton, Ward said: "Tom didn't ask any questions when he fired a man, so don't ask me any questions about why I killed a man."

Ward gave his home as Jacksonville, Texas, 40 years old, married, three children. Reported he said he left Jacksonville, Thursday morning, rode a freight train to Sweetwater and a bus from there to Stanton.

Ward had worked for Mr. Tom on his ranches in Martin and Andrews counties several years, up to some five or six years ago. It is said that because of ill health incapacitating him for the work Mr. Tom desired on the ranch, he was discharged.

Ward is a son-in-law of B. C. Cook, who with his family, at one time lived on the Tom ranch and farmed, but who now resides on a farm near Midland.

SCARED MAN CLAIMS GANGSTERS ARE AFTER HIM

With the consent of Sheriff Milt Yater, the lady reporter of this newspaper, was allowed to see a prisoner in the Martin county jail, Wednesday noon. Of course the whole idea of the interview was for the purpose of finding out why he had elected to get off a transcontinental bus in the little town of Stanton and call it home.

Clad in trousers and undershirt, barefooted, he paced the cell in which he is incarcerated and refused to divulge any information regarding his home or destination.

The reporter was greeted with the words: "I don't want to see any woman. I never saw one I would trust. She may be a good woman but I don't know her." When asked where his home was he said if the reporter would furnish the sheriff with the money to take him home he would tell the place and all the details. His idea seems to be that Mr. Yater will take him home for seemingly he fears something will harm him if he ever leaves the protection of the sheriff.

Mr. Yater is much in the same condition as that of the old man of the sea around whose neck was tied the dead albatross—he doesn't want the prisoner but seems to be compelled to keep him for he is afraid to turn him loose. All the man's money has been invested in bus fare tickets on which he has never reached his destination. These tickets are from New York to California with Oklahoma City thrown in.

The man, who gave his name as Anthony Martucci, got off a Golden Eagle bus here Monday morning at about 9:30 and seemed in terror that gangsters were on his trail. He is of medium height, about 38 years old, and impression the lady reporter gathered was that he was afraid, very much afraid of something, but what that something is we never learned.

Sheriff Yater wired Wednesday afternoon to an address in Brooklyn, N. Y., where the prisoner claimed they lived, or anyone else connected with the Fourth Estate, never had enough money to send anyone, anywhere. We couldn't have sent him if he called Marietta home, so we came away and left him in Mr. Yater's care, which, after all, that is his trouble, not ours. He has no business being a sheriff.

HOG REDUCTION PROGRAM TO GET UNDERWAY

The corn-hog reduction work in Martin county is to start this week, according to information furnished by County Agent Debnam. This program has been delayed because of the stress of the cotton reduction campaign but it is necessary to get under way at once in order to receive the benefit of this reduction program. Everyone who has maintained two or more sows during the years of 1932 and 1933, and who wishes to participate in the payments for reduction, should write the county agent at once. Due to the fewer numbers who will participate in this it will be impossible to work the entire county as was done with the cotton campaign and those interested should send their name to Mr. Debnam so that they can receive additional information.

If both corn and hogs were produced a contract for both must be signed and payments may be received on either or both.

McCLINTIC LINE H. D. C. MET WITH MRS. H. FISHER

The Home Demonstration club of the McClintic-Line communities met at the home of Mrs. H. Fisher on Feb. 7th. Miss Miller was present and gave a demonstration on the Foundation Pattern. The cheese, Miss Miller made, in January, was sampled and found to be good and just needs aging another month or two. A new member has been added, Mrs. C. A. Brown.—Reporter.

MANY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF 50c SIX MONTHS OFFER

The past week has seen many new subscribers enrolled on the Reporter's subscription list, taking advantage of the 50-cent for six months' offer.

At one "setting" we took the names of four new subscribers from Patricia, on the north boundary line of Martin county. They were Chas. St. Clair, F. C. Collins, R. T. Hightower, and E. M. Ross.

One of the party of Patricians we recognized as having seen somewhere. Now, don't get it into your head that this "somewhere" we allude to, was a jail. The party was R. T. Hightower, formerly of near Frost, Navarro county, from a family of the finest people in any man's country. We appreciate these new subscribers and hope more will take advantage of this low bargain offer before it expires soon.

Also, remember, you can get The Reporter, one year for $1.00 under the low rate offer which will expire with the 50-cent rate.

Mr. Sale was the first to receive a check in the cotton plow-up campaign and he received the first check on the option plan.

Balloons To Drop In Stanton Saturday

Saturday afternoon at about 3:30, an airplane will fly over Stanton and drop a number of balloons on which will be attached tickets to the Yucca Theatre at Midland, for the showing of "Son of Kong." Be on the look out for the plane and remember if you recover one of the balloons you will also get a ticket to the theatre.

Hal Grady, manager of the Yucca informed the Reporter if a suitable place was found the plane may land for a few minutes.

TREE PLANTING TO BE SPONSORED BY SERVICE CLUB

BOTH SIDES HIGHWAY IN CITY LIMITS, SCHOOL GROUNDS, AND ENTIRE CITIZENSHIP TO BE ASKED TO GET IN ON DEAL

Stanton, with its 100 per cent citizenship behind President Roosevelt in his New Deal, the Stanton Service Club, at its luncheon, set up a New Deal to which it is hoped that 100 per cent of its citizenship get behind.

The New Deal is one for Stanton alone, and it is a tree planting campaign.

The club decided to sponsor this movement, and as a good start in that direction agreed to purchase 100 trees right off the bat to be set out along both sides of the highway in the city limits, the school grounds, and on other plots as the committee may designate.

The highway department agrees to set out the trees, and care for them if the consent of property owners along the highway is secured and the trees furnished. Word from this agency bears the information that it is "rearing to go," now!

The city of Stanton, so it was learned at the meeting, agreed to provide 7,000 gallons of water for $1.75, to water the trees, and an additional 2,000 gallons to be used for that purpose during the year.

The committee appointed by President Hall, to formulate plans for setting out the trees, the purchase of same, solicit the consent of all property owners in the town to plant them, confer with CWA officials to secure labor in assisting to set them out, is composed of Rev. Garnett, chairman; Ray Simpson, C. F. Gray, M. F. King, W. E. Whitson.

The inauguration of this campaign of beautification is going to cause a varied form of beautification to follow. The neighbor is going to clean up all about his premises to make it look tidy, set out a lawn and plant a flower garden, and this is going to make his neighbor wake up and not permit his neighbor to outdo him. The city, too, will catch the fever, and see that vacant lots are freed of all rubbish, and that all the trash piled at the back of residences, is carted off to the dumping grounds. In fact, when the Stanton Service Club gets through with its tree planting campaign we expect to see the town come out of the wash looking like a freshly laundered white shirt.

A most excellent undertaking the Reporter says, and hopes that the club's move will gain the support of a 100 per cent of the citizenship.

The program Tuesday was sponsored by the oil interests of Stanton. In that body of oil men was found Andrew Mellon Willis Whitson, of the Gulf; J. D. Moran Henry Hull, Continental Oil Co.; Cosden Horace Blocker, Cosden refinery interests and Harry P. St. Claire Harvard, St. Claire Oil Co. If John D., of Standard Oil fame was there he wasn't pointed out to the reporter. Whitson was chairman of the oil group, and he introduced Miss Mary Helena Price, who gave a reading "For Men Only," claiming that for "7 stages man was a base deceiver," and produced the evidence in such a forcible manner that at the conclusion she received the unanimous applause from all present. Her encore was on "co-operation," the two readings being greatly enjoyed by the club.

Henry Hull, local agent for Conoco wholesale, made a brief talk relative to the cooperation that existed among the various oil agencies of the town.

A. M. Limmer, superintendent of the Stanton schools, spoke cheerfully of the outlook for the school, in that a check-up of the taxes that had been paid in the Stanton Independent School District, was 85 per cent, a figure that placed cheer in the faculty and the school board. He brought out the fact that such good showing in the face of the bad condition prevailing in the section for the past year, was a high compliment to be passed on to the taxpayers of the district. The speaker felt sure that the Stanton school would be restored its full quota of credits. He complimented the people of the school district for their loyalty to the school.

The groccymen of Stanton will have charge of the program at the next meeting.

farm at Jacksonville. Conversation led Ward to inquire of Wheeler the conditions around Stanton, and that at one time he had worked for George Tom. This led to the question asked Wheeler by Ward if Mr. Tom got his mail in the mornings and at what time. Ward inquired of Wheeler if there was a place open in town he could find a fire to warm. Later a cook at one of the local cafes came down to open up. Ward was acquainted with the cook and in the course of conversation Wheeler heard Ward make the remark to the cook that "he had come to settle up some old accounts." Wheeler said that during the conversation Ward showed no signs of emotion. At no point in the conversation with Wheeler or that heard by Wheeler when talking to the cafe led Wheeler to believe Ward was satisfied with the way that he was getting along, and that there was no sign displayed by Ward that he was laboring under some ulterior motive.

Large Funeral Perhaps the largest gathering of people at any funeral held in Stanton, was that assembled Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at St. Joseph's Catholic church to pay their last respects to George W. Tom. A requiem mass was conducted by Father Sirois at 9:00 o'clock Sunday morning. The church was crowded to overflowing with some 200 or more people forced to stand on the outside. Rev. Edw. P. Harrison, O. M. I., St. George's church, Midland, assisted Rev. Sirois in conducting the funeral services.

The beautiful floral offerings at the church altar and the grave, necessitated the services of two floral wagons, one from Big Spring and one from Midland.

The remains were conveyed from the home of the deceased's daughter, Mrs. Sam Wilkinson, to the church, followed by a very long procession.

The following sermon at the bier was delivered by Father Sirois: "There are occasions, when the human language fails to supply proper words, to express the deep feelings of the heart; this, I experience at this moment. When I see before me the dead body of so dear a friend, who only yesterday, was full of life and hope in the future, I can not but cry out with the Apostle: 'Oh, God, how incomprehensible are thy judgments, how unsearchable are thy ways.'"

"We may indeed say that a shining light has been put out in our midst, a good life, with its bright examples of christian virtue has been unexpectedly ended, a void has been made in the circle of his many friends, and above all, a home has been robbed of a devoted husband and of a loving father.

"We read in the 16th Chapter of St.

John, that our Blessed Lord, once speaking of His death and resurrection, said to his apostles: 'A little while and you shall see me again, a little while and you shall see me.' How well these words express the present occasion; but a little while ago our dear friend was among us, going around with a smile and a kind word for every one, and now he is no more. He is gone, never to return in this world. But in a little while we shall see him again.

"Death is only a temporary separation. St. Paul reminds us that we have no permanent home here below, but that we are all seeking one that is to come, where we shall meet again all our dear ones never to be separated any more.

"This is one of the consolations that I can offer to the family in their great sorrow. But there is an other and greater consolation, it is to be found in the fact, that on the very morning, hardly one hour before he met his death, he was at the foot of the altar where he received, in holy communion, his Blessed Redeemer, the One who, so soon, was to be his merciful Judge. What has passed between God and his soul, we will never know in this world, but we are sure that a great and special favor was granted him.

"Now, dear friends, the death of our brother teaches us what is so often repeated in the Sacred Scripture: put order to thy house; watch and pray; be ready, for you know not the day nor the hour that death shall come. Today is his turn, tomorrow will be yours and mine.

"Experience teaches us that our life here below is indeed very short, and faith tells us that the only real purpose of this life is to prepare for our eternity. Upon the use that we make of it, depends an eternity of happiness or an eternity of miseries.

"Take, dear friends, these parting words from the dead, bring them home, meditate upon them and above all, try to lead such a life that you may be ready, at any time, to answer the call of your Master and Creator.

"Now, to the children and relatives of the deceased, I have one very special request to make. It is that you forgive from the bottom of your hearts, the unfortunate author of that sad death. This request, I make it in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given you the example, while dying on the cross. He prayed for those who were crucifying Him. I make it in the name of our religion, which imposes it upon you. I make it in the name of the deceased, who, I am sure, has already forgiven him. Let your forgiveness be the noblest monument erected to the memory of the spirit of true christianity, that has always characterized the life of your dear father. God, in his secret designs has permitted such a death, the only thing for us to do is to say 'Thy Will be done, O God.'

"To you all dear friends, I have also one request to make, the only one that the dead would make if he could speak now. Please, in your charity, say a little prayer for the repose of his soul; charity and brotherly love ends not at the grave. Pray then that God, in His mercy, may hasten, if it has not already taken place, his final admittance into the eternal peace and rest."

Denton Announces For County Judge

This week appears in the announcement column of The Reporter, the name of Wm. E. Denton, as a candidate for the office of County Judge and ex-officio County Superintendent. Mr. Denton was born in Greer county, Okla., in 1907, residing in that state until 1925, when he moved to Littlefield, Texas. The following year he graduated from the Littlefield high school. Because of financial condition he wasn't able to enter college for the next two years. During the period of time between 1926 and 1928, Mr. Denton was engaged in construction work for the purpose of making sufficient funds to go to college, and in 1928, he entered Texas Technological college, attending that institution for two years. At the end of that time his funds were exhausted and he had to withdraw from school and go back to the building work. Money derived from this last adventure was sufficient only to carry him through three months more of college work. In 1931, he secured the position as teacher of the school at Goldsmith, Martin county, which position he has held for two years and three months, and now on his third year. During this time he has been studying law and believes that he is qualified to serve the people of Martin county as County Judge and Ex-officio County Superintendent in a most capable manner.

Mr. Denton is 27 years old, has taken a part of high junior year in college has had experience in gin and contracting work, and has taught school in Martin county two years prior to this term.

He states that as soon as his school is out in May he will start to make a personal canvass of the voters in the county, and asks your support and influence from now until the Democratic primary July 28.

Garland Brewer Seeks Re-election Co. Treas.

Garland Brewer, serving his first term as County Treasurer of Martin county, announces this week that he is seeking the second term in that office.

His name appears in the regular announcement column of the Reporter this week.

Mr. Brewer has made a fine record in the office for the first term, and the experience gained in the two years amply qualifies him to discharge the duties of the office in an able and efficient manner.

In his statement to the voters he states: "Should you see fit to further reward me with your confidence and esteem by electing me to serve you a second term in this office, I promise you to do my very level best to handle the affairs of the office with satisfaction to all. I shall appreciate your help wherever you can give it without jeopardizing your own interests."

SUBJECTS FOR SERMONS

The subject for the sermon at the Baptist church Sunday morning will be, "The origin, character, and power of the Devil." It will be shown that the Devil was once a powerful angel in heaven; that he was cast out of heaven for his rebellion against God; that this earth is now his home, and that his business is the destruction of man. It will also be shown that in wisdom and power he is next to God, and that his wickedness is beyond human comprehension.

The subject for the Sunday night sermon will be "The Devil's methods in Deceiving Men."

1.00 year bargain rate on the Reporter will close soon.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and you get constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you. But don't take salts, mineral waters, chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all. Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel, mercury, or Carter's. Only one, mild vegetable extract. If you would bring back your personal charm in win form, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. New Superintendent Of SW. BELL Tel. Co For West Texas

J. B. Patterson has been appointed Divisional Commercial Superintendent of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for West Texas, effective March 1, according to word received here today by W. G. Riddle, district manager. Patterson will succeed M. P. Caldwell, who retires after forty-one years of service.

Patterson was born and educated at Sweetwater. A printer during vacations and after class hours while going to high school, he followed the printing trade for some months after graduation, and then leased the Roby Banner, which he published for about a year. In August 1918, the telephone company needed a manager at Roby and Patterson left the newspaper business to join the ranks of those who have for a creed, "The message must go through."

Promotions came frequently to young Patterson, as he received assignments in Anson, Sweetwater, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Amarillo, and again at Dallas. For the past five years he has been Connecting Company Agent, a job which required him to handle business matters with more than 300 independent telephone companies throughout Texas.

As Division Commercial Superintendent he will have charge of all Bell business offices throughout West Texas, offices serving 83,000 telephones.

Question For Debate Has Been Decided On

RIGGS SHEPPERD, DIRECTOR,
GIVES OUT INFORMATION

The question for debate in the Interscholastic League this year is:

Resolved, That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation."

"This question," according to Mr. Riggs Shepperd, who has been elected director of the debate contest in this county, "has the great advantage of enlisting the interest of the pupils from the outset. Everybody, old and young, is a radio 'fan,' almost without exception. The debate involves the discussion of the best use to which the radio may be put. It is necessary to examine the various plans different nations have adopted in seeking to make radio of just as much social service as possible. England has one plan, Germany another, France another, and so on. The pupil who studies this question will have his vision enlarged by making a world-wide survey of radio control and operation and making critical comparisons with the method used in this country. It is a vital public question.

"The Bureau of Public School Interests, Extension Division, of the University of Texas, has collected several publications, copies of which are distributed to member-schools. First comes the official Debate Handbook of more than 200 pages, next the Reference Shelf and Radio Control, a cloth bound volume of 300 or more pages, and third, the Congressional Digest issue in which the pros and cons of the question are set forth by the best authorities.

"Final entry date for the debate contest is set for February 1, and each school in this county expecting to enter debate should notify me before that time."

Stanton Scouts to Hear President's Address

THE TROUP WILL ASSEMBLE IN FRONT OF HALL DRUG STORE

President Roosevelt will address the Boy Scouts of America over a nationwide radio hookup on next Saturday morning, February 10th, at 11 o'clock.

In this address the President will assign to the Scouts some task to do, and all Scouts are to be prepared to go at once to the task. No one will know in advance what that task will be.

Throughout the nation the Boy Scouts will be assembled in troupes to hear the message. Reports will be wired immediately to district, state, and national headquarters, so that a report of the total number of Scouts listening in will be received at Washington within a few hours. It is expected that the number will reach into the millions.

The Stanton troupe will meet in front of Hall's drug store, where Rev. Sharp has consented to set up his loud speaker and amplify the message for the Stanton troupe.

The Tree Planting Committee Reports

SOLICITS SUPPORT OF STANTON CITIZENSHIP IN CAMPAIGN

The committee appointed at the meeting Tuesday of the Stanton Service Club, met and have the following report to make:

Plans are being made by the Stanton Service Club to sponsor a campaign of tree planting in Stanton and Martin county.

They hope to secure the cooperation of the property owners in setting out Chinese elms on both sides of the Bankhead highway within the city limits, also on the highway leading out toward Lamesa, and along all of the streets and alleys of the city.

Arrangements have been made whereby good trees can be bought for 15-cents each, or a little less, depending upon the number that are bought.

The State Highway Department has agreed to set the trees along both sides of the Bankhead highway and also keep them watered, provided the property owners will buy the trees.

It is hoped that arrangements can be made for the CWA to dig the holes and set out the trees along the streets of the city if the property owners will pay for the trees. This cannot be decided, however, until after the 15th of February.

In the meantime, all property owners, or others who may want trees, are asked to see Willis Whitson or French Gray as soon as possible and pay them for the number of trees they want. Large trees, costing from 25c to 50c will be bought for those who want them.

The privilege of buying trees at this club price is extended to any one living in the Stanton territory, and it is hoped that farmers, country schools, and churches will avail themselves of this opportunity to get trees at a bargain and help beautify the town and county.

For further information see any of the following members of the committee: Willis Whitson, French Gray, M. F. King, Ray Simpson, W. S. Garnett.

THIS COUNTY TO DEMONSTRATE BETTER BEDS-BEDROOMS

Better beds and bedrooms will be the demonstration at the Martin County Home Demonstration clubs in February. As approximately 25 years are spent in bed if one lives to be 75 years old, and as medical authorities say that 6 hours of good sleep is better than 8 hours of poor sleep, and as the bedroom is the hospital room of the home during illness, bedrooms are important.

The first demonstration will be at Courtney, the third Thursday, Feb. 15, at 2:30.
