

SNOOTER KNOWS

LITTLE ABOUT

EVERY THING

AND

NOT MUCH ABOUT ANYTHING

RAINS have ventured into Martin county after an elapsed time of several months. The soil of the agricultural lands is soaked, and the range lands have enjoyed a season that will make the grass and other green vegetation come a-whoopin'.

The wide-spreading smiles on the faces of Martin county people brought there by the rains, we suppose will soon give away to long and dry ones as the flea and the boll worm gets in the cotton and the chinz bug reveals himself nibbling away on the corn stalk. Perhaps, the gloom will have come from too much rain, keeping the farmer out of the field, or rain will not be forthcoming at the proper time. There'll be something wrong it seems to be human nature with the most of to have something to grow about. But who in heck could be satisfied with a drouth that destroyed crops coupled with a depression that has played whaley with everything.

Two and a quarter inches of rain, general in its scope, and falling gently, all within a week's time, on a country that had escaped any rain to speak of in a year, is cause sufficient for great rejoicing among the people. It puts a better spirit in the people—more confidence—a confidence that the country is coming back into its own—better times are on the way, encouraging the fellow who has had a dollar stuck away in hiding and fearful that the "worst was yet to come" to pry it loose from its moorings and spend it. With a drouth, little or no work for hire and little pay he received when he did work, he saw little hopes for him to get hold of another dollar and the one he did have he "salted it down." But since the rains with his lands full of moisture for his crops, and a general feeling of optimism prevailing among the people of the county, he becomes confident that the times are changing for the better and that the next dollar will not be difficult to get hold of.

WHILE Martin county cannot as yet boast of an oil well, the day is not far distant, if present signs do not fail, when the county will see one or more tests going down. Ear-drum information reveals that before, or on, or about the time the thermometer registers mid-summer heat there will be an oil test made in this county and the location will not be far from the townsite of Stanton. New oil wells have been developed in Andrews county to the north and west of Martin, new wells discovered in Glasscock county, to the south and east, and in Howard county on the east, disclosing to the oil scouts that it is possible that the connecting link between these developed pools is in Martin county.

NUMBER TWENTY-NINE

CLYDE BRADFORD FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Clyde Bradford, of Grandfalls, was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday evening, enroute to Big Spring on a business mission.

He authorized the Reporter to announce him as a candidate for Representative of the 88th district.

From his home county newspaper the Monahans News, we learned this about him:

"Mr. Bradford has been serving as county commissioner of Ward county from the Grandfalls precinct for the past two years.

"He is a native Texan born in Palo Pinto county, and has been a resident of this section of West Texas, for several years, connected at present with the oil business as an independent operator. He is familiar with the needs of the district he seeks to represent in the House of Representatives, and is quite well qualified to render the kind of service it needs. This district comprises seventeen counties, one of the largest based on square miles in the State and as a consequence the interests of the big district are varied, including farming, live stock raising, oil, etc., and as this candidate is familiar with the needs of all of these from a practical standpoint his qualifications peculiarly fit him well for the job. He is a man of splendid judgment, conscientious, and quite popular. He expects to cover the entire district during the next few months, learning the needs of the people and presenting his claim for support."

Then from the Fort Stockton Pioneer, former home of Mr. Bradford, this is said about him:

"Clyde Bradford, a former Fort Stockton resident and Pecos County oil operator, who for the past eight years has resided at Grandfalls, was born on a farm in Palo Pinto county, and during his early life was engaged in the farming and ranching business and is therefore familiar at first hand with the needs of these two great basic industries, which combined with his knowledge of the oil industry, gained during the eight years' operation in the oil fields of Pecos, Upton and Ward counties, especially fits him to represent this section of the State, where they are the leading industries.

"At present Mr. Bradford is serving as commissioner of precinct No. 3 of Ward county, and in addition to his duties in that office he has done much work on the Red Bluff project, which should be of material advantage to him and to the people served by this great project."

Mr. Bradford stated to the Reporter that he was greatly interested in the farmers getting their boll worm refund, and that he had made several trips from his county to the Legislature when in session in behalf of the measure passing for this relief.

Since Mr. Bradford has been commissioner of Ward county he has succeeded in reducing the taxes from 10 to as high as 35 per cent. He is an ardent supporter of schools, and is working industriously to the betterment of that industry.

Ready Reception Given to the Bonds of Fed. Farm Corp.

BONDS ARE SELLING READILY IN MARKETS ABOVE PAR

S. D. McWhorter, secretary-treasurer of the Stanton National Farm Loan association of this place, recently received word from the governor of the Farm Credit Administration, Wm. I. Myers, telling him of the ready reception which farmers and their creditors are giving to the bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation which are now being tendered by the Federal Land Bank of Houston in place of cash in settlement of farmers' debts.

"These bonds have been selling in the large markets at a little above par, indicating a ready market for them. Just a week after the banks began using bonds instead of cash, the first bonds to be sold on the New York market were purchased at 100-1/4. We anticipated these bonds which bear 3 1/2 percent interest per annum would sell at par or above at the time we set the interest rate, for government bonds maturing in 141, bearing the same rate were selling above par."

Mr. Myers pointed out that these bonds were not only exempt from local, state and Federal taxation with the exception of surtaxes, inheritance and gift taxes, but that they are as readily salable as government securities. He said they are being quoted in the metropolitan papers but if such quotations are not available readily to farmers that they will be given the quotations if they will write to the Federal land bank of this district.

THE BEST RAIN IN 12 MONTHS VISITS COUNTY

TOTAL RAINFALL IN TWO WEEKS TWO AND QUARTER INCHES PUTTING RANCH AND FARM LANDS IN GOOD CONDITION.

The people of Martin county are in the midst of a jollyfication meeting since the fine rain of last week, if we are to judge from the happy smiles seen on their faces.

The rain set in Friday night and continued up to a late hour Saturday afternoon. It came down slow and without hardly so much as an interruption in the fall Friday night. The rainfall amounted to 1 1/4 inches, and added to the one inch the week before gives the county 2 1/4 inches, an amount that has given the farm lands a general good soaking and placed the range lands in excellent condition for growing grass and other green vegetation for livestock.

Just the exact date when a rain visited Martin county covering the area the one did that fell last week, is a problem that seems to have several answers from various individuals. Some say it has been a year, the second guessers say fourteen months, and the third group of "statisticians" (?) say it was the first good rain in two years. The writer is not so concerned over past history as he is with the present. Who gives a hang how long it has been since we had as good rain just so the present time finds the county with a most excellent season in the ground.

The general impression prevails among the old timers of the county that since rains have begun to fall the first days of April, we are due to have plenty this spring and summer to pull through a good crop of everything planted in the ground, and place a good growth of grass on the ranges. So far the weather has been kind to the ranchmen. The calf and the lamb crops are reaching an excellent percentage.

Stanton Sand Belt Loses First Game To Snyder Team

LOSS OF THE GAME WAS BY A NARROW MARGIN—22 TO 18

T. F. HAYNIE

The local Sand Belt golf team journeyed to Snyder last Sunday and was defeated by the narrow margin of one low ball.

Playing on a beautiful day and a course that was rolled and well kept, the local golfers put up a hard fight on a foreign course trying to start the season off with a win, but the fate ruled it not to be so. We are well pleased that we held them to as low score as we did.

In qualifying Snyder's golfers were scattered with good men all down the list. Earl Fish, who is by far the best player was "paired" against "you're truly" in the fourth position.

They have not had time yet to lift their best men to the top, which goes to make the games more evenly contested.

E. J. Adams playing No. 1, won his match over Wilmeth.

B. Henson won his match.

J. Burnam and the writer won both their personal matches on the 13th hole, but lost the low ball in the four-some on the 18th hole.

Poe Woodard and C. Burnam had an off day and lost every point in his third flight. B. Purser won his personal match with a fine round of golf and assisted by M. F. King they won the low ball in the 4th flight, which was the only one we won.

King shot an unusually good game but caught on e of Snyder's strong players in the 8th position and lost his personal match.

The local Kat Klaw team will go to Hobbs, N. M., Sunday for a game with a team that plays as well as any of the Sand Belt teams, so don't expect Stanton to win.

OFFICIAL REPORT ON SCHOOL CONDITIONS IN STANTON

March 29, 1934

The following is the official report from Mr. J. T. H. Bickley, Deputy State Superintendent:

"In order that the schools may be properly certified it is essential that minimum requirements be met. To that end the supervisor who recently visited your school makes the following recommendations:

1. That a broadening of the transportation system be considered in order that a larger number of the upper grades of the county have access to high school work.
2. That a careful budgeting be introduced and an intensive study of the financial conditions be made by the Board in order to avoid financial conditions usually encountered by debts of the previous year.
3. That the school continue the policies of paying teachers promptly and of assuming the obligation when small discounts must be paid.
4. That Stanton High School be classified as a first class high school of four years.

Commendations are due the people of Stanton, the school board, teachers, and pupils:

1. For the improved attitude toward school conditions.
2. For the payment of school taxes in the face of financial difficulties in order to assure the school nine months.
3. The payment of teachers' salaries by the school board up to the present time and the continued payment of cash monthly for the present session.
4. The patient attitude of loyalty of the teachers to the school during the period of financial depression.
5. The attitude of the school officials toward meeting standards, cooperating with the State Department of

6. The general observance of standard work being done by teachers and pupils.
The Deputy State Superintendent desires to express his appreciation to Superintendent Limmer and Mrs. Limmer, the faculty, the pupils, the school board, and the citizens of Stanton for the many courtesies extended to him during his numerous visits to Stanton this year.

Official Report of School Conditions in Stanton, March 9, 1933

The supervisor who recently visited your school makes the following recommendations:

1. It is to be regretted that this school must be referred to the Classification Committee for reasons following:
 - a. A term of eight months only
 - b. Failure to pay teachers' salaries.
2. Serious consideration should be given the matter of failing to keep work on file in all classes, (see Bulletin 305, page 46); grading too liberal for quality work done; no diagnostic tests given in English, (see Bulletin 305, page 50); and per cent of failures entirely too great. In the latter case, either students are improperly classified, or teachers fail to present their subject matter according to standard.
3. Due to financial conditions it would be more practicable to replace some of the sciences, that is, physiology, physiography, biology, chemistry, and physics with more vocational courses. The list now includes agriculture, I, home economics III, commercial geography, and commercial arithmetic. At least chemistry and physics might be omitted at present.
4. In spite of the unfortunate financial conditions, a commendable spirit prevails. More gracious hospitality has not been met in any school, and special appreciation is expressed to Superintendent and Mrs. Sone for their kindness.

Speaking of double standards, there are times when it is difficult to tell which is the worst.

If you don't think motorists can get accustomed to anything in this year 1934, just consider the calm and majestic attitude in which they received the news that the government would favor them with another tax on gasoline, the price of which is already lost in the skies. But then, perhaps, they had nothing to say because their repertoire of cuss words is already exhausted.

DEFINES BANKERS' PART IN RECOVERY

Head of American Bankers Association Assures the President of Confidence and Desire to Cooperate Among Bankers

WASHINGTON, D. C. — President Roosevelt in his address before the NRA conference here on March 5 announced that he had received the following telegram from Francis M. Law, President of the American Bankers Association.

"On this your first anniversary please allow me in behalf of the country's banks to express our full confidence and our sincere desire to cooperate in your courageous efforts to bring about recovery. The banking structure of the country is sound and liquid and banks have never been in stronger position to function effectively. Conditions have improved to the point where it is no longer necessary for banks to be super-liquid. There is a definite call now for banks, not to extend loose credits or to make improper loans, but for a most sympathetic attitude toward legitimate credit needs and for a recognition of responsibility for their proper and vital part in the program of recovery."

The Soundness of Banking

In an address before a recent trust conference of the association's Trust Division in New York, Mr. Law said: "A depression cannot long survive a sound banking structure if the banking structure is responsive to legitimate needs and functions in a way that is virile and alive. The most cheering fact of the present situation is the knowledge that banks are in strong position. Recovery, even to the most pessimistic, is no longer a myth or a rumor, nor is it merely psychological. Abundant evidence and proof lie on every hand—tangible proof. With a return of confidence the wheels have begun to go round and a great many well managed businesses may look for a profit during this calendar year with fair assurance at least. For what has been achieved let us thank the President, who has labored with courage and patience and vision. Let us thank the Congress, whose members during the emergency have put the public welfare above partisanship. Let us thank one hundred twenty-five million of our own citizens who have refused to be stampeded, but rather who have kept alive the divine spark of faith and hope."

Cause for Confidence

"We may reasonably expect that the recent action of the government in stabilizing the dollar will have a marked tendency to encourage industrial and other business commitments. Business men need not be so exclusively engaged in taking counsel of their fears now that uncertainty does not haunt them. Much has been said about the loosening of credit by banks. During the acute period of the depression banks for the most part have not been lending normally, nor should they be blamed. With public confidence shattered the banker was properly concerned in liquidity, having in mind his primary obligation to pay off deposits. The situation has improved to the point where super-liquidity no longer seems necessary. Conditions have materially changed. Banks will desire, for every reason, to return to a more normal lending policy. This means a sympathetic attitude and a recognition of responsibility for his proper part in the program of recovery by the banker as he passes upon and meets sound credit requirements of business as it swings into and continues on the upward turn."

Public Confidence Returns

Direct information indicates conclusively that the banking situation is showing definite and steady improvement. J. F. T. O'Connor, Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, said in a recent address. He pointed out that the decided drop which has occurred in money in circulation shows the public has largely ceased hoarding.

On March 1, 1934, the Federal Reserve Board reported that the volume of money in circulation amounted to $5,355,000,000, which was a decline of $1,077,000,000 since March 1, 1933. It was a drop of $2,226,000,000, or over 29 per cent, from the all-time peak of $7,581,000,000 reached on March 13, 1933. About one-half the decrease, it was pointed out, reflected the return of currency from the public.

Money in circulation declined rapidly after the reopening of the banks in March, 1933, and has continued since to decline from week to week, "notwithstanding the increase in the demand for currency arising from enlargement of pay rolls and increase in the volume of retail trade," the Comptroller said, which, he added, "indicates a continued return of money from hoards as banking facilities were reestablished."

About Bank Loans

"As for the charge that the banks will not extend credit, the first and obvious reply is that the banks themselves are made up of the very bone and sinew of the industrial, commercial and agricultural interests of the country. Bank directors, and, to a large extent, bank officers, are drawn from the business and farming population. If they do not feel at any given moment that it is wise to make a particular loan, it is more than probable that there are sound reasons for not making it," says an editorial in the Saturday Evening Post.

Thousands have Ended their Bowel Worries

by taking this advice!

Can constipation be safely relieved? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say the many thousands who have followed their advice and know.

You are not likely to cure your constipation with salts, pills, tablets, or any of the habit-forming cathartics. But you can correct this condition by gentle regulation with a palatable liquid laxative.

THE LIQUID TEST:

First: select a properly prepared liquid laxative. Second: take the dose you find suited to your system. Third: gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving of their own accord.

Simple, isn't it? And it works! The right liquid laxative brings thorough bowel action without using force. An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as in the case of mineral drugs.

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. The dose can be measured, and the action controlled. Pills and tablets containing drugs of violent action are hard on the bowels.

If there are children in your household, don't give them any fad form of laxative, but use a healthy, helpful preparation like Syrup Pepsin. Its very taste will tell you it is wholesome, and agreeable to the stomach. Delightful taste, and delightful action; there is no discomfort at the time, or after. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, all ready to take.

begins where your Telephone is made

The men and women who furnish your telephone service here could not do their job so well without the help of Western Electric Company, supply unit of the telephone service.

SKILLED WORKMEN at the lathes and furnaces of Western Electric Company turn raw materials from the far corners of the world into the 100,000 delicate parts and appliances needed for the telephone service.

These parts are sold to the 24 operating companies of the Bell System — of which the Southwestern Company is one — at a cost that, as a proven fact, is below what they would have to pay in the competitive market.

Western Electric, the purchasing and manufacturing agent of the Bell System, is one of a specialized group of organizations that plays an important part in giving you good telephone service at a fair cost.

This policy has been chosen deliberately as the course that will in the long run prove soundest for the telephone company. We believe that in an organization planned like the telephone service for the long pull, what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the policy that will bring us the surer, more certain success. New Sweet Corn For Texas

Dr. F. C. Mangelsdorf, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station corn breeder, has contributed a type of corn combining the good qualities of sweet corn and field corn. Because of its long, tight shuck it is not damaged as severely by the corn ear worm as the true sweet corn. The ears are of good length, having 12 to 16 rows of plump, white kernels. This sweet corn has been named Honey June. Dr. Mangelsdorf is distributing small trial packages of this sweet corn to county and home demonstration agents in those counties where corn can be grown successfully.

If You Want Tomatoes Plant the Right Variety

Every home garden in West Texas should have some Cherry Tomatoes. It is true that they are rather smaller but they bear. The fruit is excellent for canning, for juice and for salads. Their small size is their only handicap. The red cherry or Red Peach varieties are the best.

Feeding For Egg Production

Feeding for egg production begins with the pullet. Poorly developed pullets seldom make a profit even with the best of care and feeding. Likewise, scrubbens poorly managed are unprofitable regardless of the feed given them.

In addition there are other important factors such as breeding, culling, housing, control of parasites, etc., that must be considered when attempting to get the largest number of eggs for the least amount of money.

A good poultry ration should contain about one-fifth (19 to 21%) protein in both animal and vegetable form. Proteins are made up of much simpler compounds, corresponding to the bricks in a house, and no two proteins are exactly alike. Animal proteins are more complete and are therefore more desirable than vegetable proteins. This explains why it is essential to add milk or meat scraps to a mash of ground grains. Other satisfactory sources of protein are fish meal, green cut bones, tankage, etc.

Ollie Cook, Prop.
First Door North Tommy Lee's Cafe

Milk is an excellent source of protein and usually the cheapest. It may be fed in any form, although whole milk is not economical since the fat is worth no more than equal amount of corn or other grain. Skim milk, buttermilk, clabber or dried milk products can be used to replace the most expensive part of the feed, the meat scraps. When the birds are actually consuming as much as 4 gallons of milk per 100 birds a day, no meat scrap is necessary.

Either sweet or sour milk may be used but it is preferable to feed one kind or the other and not change from day to day. In as much as milk will always sour, it is usually more practical to feed it in this form. Care should be taken, however, to keep the vessels clean and feed it in earthenware, aluminum or wooden vessels. The acid in sour milk acts on iron, tin and zinc vessels to produce slightly poisonous substances. Sour milk is also a control factor in various diseases.

From 45 tomato plants, Mrs. F. C. Tate, Home Demonstration club member of Overton, Howard county, last year, added 100 cans of tomatoes to her pantry which is now supplying a part of vitamin C. in the diet.

A clothes closet 2½ feet by 4½ feet with shelves in each end and a rod run through lengthwise for hanging clothes was built last week for Mrs. S. P. Myrick, wardrobe demonstrator for the Courtney home demonstration club, Martin county.

An individually fitted pattern is a part of the wardrobe demonstration carried on by the women clubs of Martin and Midland counties.
