

SNOOTER KNOWS

LITTLE ABOUT EVERY THING AND NOT MUCH ABOUT ANYTHING

CONSIDERABLE oil activity is now under way in Ector county to the southwest of Stanton. The city of Midland hands out the information that there are now more oil men located in the city than since 1929. The same news comes from Odessa, proof that this section of West Texas is facing an era of extensive oil play. Whatever prosperity the oil activities bring to this section, Martin county and Stanton will share in some measure.

The office boy for the Reporter is complaining considerably, and says if the Monday morning waste basket continues to be so weedy in carrying out to the trash can, he will be compelled to call on the office to provide him with bachelor button as the strain on his suspenders is bustin' off the sewed on ones. The boy was advised he would be doing well if he had any pants by the time the July primary rolled around if the office continued to get free dope to run for candidates. As the campaign progresses more and more candidates for state offices are announcing, and more and more free political dope is finding its way to this office and to the waste basket.

With every request for publishing his dope the candidate states his expense account is so limited by the state and there are so many newspapers in the state, he is not in a position to pay anything for his announcement. The money the candidate pays out to a publicity man, stationery, stamps, etc., would go a long way to pay for his announcement in the country papers over the state.

This columnist has observed that the metropolitan daily newspapers are supplied with a pretty good "hunk" of revenue for carrying publicity of state candidates. We infer from that procedure that the candidate is more anxious to get the big city votes than those in the rural districts. The country weekly newspapers get the crumbs that fall from the political table of the "big ones," and that means there are not any crumbs—they are gobbled up.

EDITOR HAYDEN of the Big Spring Weekly News, typed out more and better news material for his paper than usual last week, and the advertising "hustler," who is another Hayden, rustled in more advertisements than usual, and another Hayden, who is the mechanical genius of the News, set up the ads in a more neat and artistic manner and made up the paper with more care than usual, all this accomplished by the News' force because an ardent supporter of the paper came in and plunked down a $10 bill on the editor's desk to pay his subscription and have it extended into the future as far as the "change coming" permitted.

It is said when the $10 bill hit the desk of Editor Hayden, the report was heard all over the News office, making it impossible for the editor to tuck the bill down his jeans without the other Haydens knowing about it. Hence, the extraordinary joyful atmosphere that permeated the News office and the unusual pep displayed by the force in issuing the week's paper.

The incident happened as a big rain was falling in Howard county. It had revived the spirit of optimism in the mind of the subscriber. He wanted to make someone else happy, and he knew of no man in the world that would appreciate a $10 bill more, or was in need of it more, than the editor of his home town paper.

The Hayden affair reminded this columnist of one of a like nature happening to the editor of the Reporter one day last week, only the "stake" wasn't so large. A farmer dropped into the office and said he wanted to give us some money. Accompanying the remark he commenced peeling off some dollar bills from a roll. We thought it possible that he was an agent who had come to pay us our share of an estate left us by a rich relative in Scotland. But not so. It was one of Martin county's substantial farmers and a loyal supporter of the Reporter. He remarked: "I was afraid you would discontinue my pa-

NUMBER THIRTY

Candidate Travels 700 Miles In 36 Hours

Mrs. John A. Haley, candidate for State Representative of the Stanton district, which is the 88th, expects to be here again soon to meet friends and make new acquaintances.

Mrs. Haley is a vigorous campaigner. Six hours after announcing for the office she had her announcement in a daily and weekly newspaper and within 36 hours had traveled 700 miles to push her campaign. Within three weeks she visited every county in the huge 88th district and also during that time made a speech at the Sixth District Federation of Women's clubs in Sweetwater; spoke at a meeting in Midland and attended a meeting of the board of regents of Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Mrs. Haley said while on a recent visit to Stanton she would make a study of the needs of this area and when she got to Austin would be able to represent this area just as well as any part of the district. She says she is in a position to devote all of her time and energies to work for this district when elected.

BETTY HOUSTON CIRCLE MET WITH MRS. FORREST

The Betty Houston Circle of the Missionary Society, met Monday with Mrs. Arlo Forrest. Mrs. James Jones was elected Circle leader; Mrs. Keno Davis, social service superintendent; Inez Woody, reporter.

Mrs. Berry directed a very instructive hour of study. We meet next Monday with Mrs. Berry, and extend a cordial invitation to all of the westside ladies to meet with us.

The following members were present: Mmes. Hall, Jones, Ebersol, W. Y. Houston, Smith, Forrest, Limmer, Berry, Keisling, Hill, Sadler, Davis, Claude Houston, Woody.

B. Y. P. U. TRAINING SCHOOL TO BE HELD BAPTIST CHURCH

Beginning Monday of next week at 7:45 and continuing through Friday evening, a B. Y. P. U. training school will be held at the Baptist church for all ages and departments.

There will be a class for every member of the family, regardless of age. Teachers will be secured from Big Spring and other neighboring churches.

per when I got a year behind, and I hastened in with the very first money I got hold of to pay the obligation. Here's the money to pay for the year I am behind and a year in advance. I can't do without the Reporter." This last sentence did us about as much good as had he plunked down a $10 bill on our desk, because we like to have subscribers who are interested enough in the paper they can't get along without it.

THE oldest Representative in Congress, in point of service, has been laid to rest in North Carolina. His achievements as a statesman may be forgotten, but the world should not forget the epitaph which he prepared for his tomb: "I know not what record of sin may await me in the world to come, but this I do know: I was never mean enough to despise a man because he was poor, because he was ignorant, or because he was black."

WD. RISER, editor of the Crane County News, has announced as a candidate for County Judge of his county. If our memory fails us not Mr. Riser represented Upton county in the state legislature when he lived at McCamey and edited the McCamey News. Those were in the halcyon days of Upton county, when they were developing oil wells about as frequently as a dog scratches his "fleece" back on a hot summer night in August, and when it required brawn as well as brains to edit a newspaper in a rapidly growing oil town. Riser is a practicing attorney which fits him admirably for the office of county judge where so many legal matters come up for disposal. He will make his county an excellent official if elected. If there is any fellow that is deserving of a seat at the public's pie counter it is a country editor who works 366 days every year besides the Sundays to give his people a creditable newspaper.

LENORAH TAKES THREE 1ST PLACES AT DISTRICT MEET

WINNERS THOMAS GREGG, BOBBIE HAGGARD AND ROXIE BASS GO TO BI-DISTRICT MEET THIS SATURDAY.

Midland won championship of the district, comprising ten counties of which Martin is one, at Midland last Friday and Saturday.

Lenorah, Martin county school, won three first places: Thomas Gregg, extemporaneous speech; Robbie Haggard, rural declamation (senior); Roxie Bass, rural declamation (senior). The winners will go Saturday to the bi-district meet. A box supper at which many candidates were present was held at Lenorah Thursday night, the proceeds to go to defray the expense of the contestants.

The three winners with the help of Jaunita Wozencraft, won second place in debate in the county. Teachers of the Lenorah school are T. H. Bass, principal; Frank Harvard, Mrs. Maymie Foreman, Mrs. Estell Willingham. According to Mr. Bass there will be only three more weeks of school at Lenorah.

In the declamation contest for senior girls, Ruth Eidson of the Stanton high school, won second. Declaration for junior high school girls, Norma Lee Hull of Stanton won third place.

NOW THAT SPRING IS HERE AND SUMMER 'ROUND CORNER

Now that spring is here, and summer just around the corner, the minds of millions are occupied with plans for vacationing.

This is an unusual year for the traveler. The mysterious exigencies of international exchange have made tremendous changes so far as paying for one's wanderlust is concerned. The current rate of exchange with most of European currencies, for example is much less favorable than a year ago. That American dollar which used to be so potent has literally shrunk in size. A hundred and fifty or two hundred of them are needed to do the work that a hundred used to do.

The result is that where travelers used to first think Europe, they are now looking elsewhere. They're going either to countries where the money rate is favorable—or they are going to follow the old adage and really see America.

Seeing America is an especially excellent idea. It's a big country—and a very few of its citizens have more than a cursory acquaintance with it. Take, for instance, Alaska, which is attracting a steadily increasing number of people who want a real vacation at a moderate cost. Most of us think of it in terms of ice—not knowing that certain sections produce giant strawberries and flowers. We think of the Arctic circle as being as far away as the north pole—yet a little way south of it, at Fairbanks, there is a first-class school of mines and an agricultural college. We think of the seas bordering it as being perpetually torn with storms—and the fact is that sailing to Alaska is almost always calm—with dancing on deck in warm evenings.

Yes, it's a fine year to look over your own home—the United States. And you'll find a satisfaction in knowing that the money you spend will go to American workmen and industries—and help us toward recovery.

MRS. CHAS EBBERSOL HOSTESS MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The west circle of the Methodist Missionary Society, met Monday, April 9th with Mrs. Chas Ebersol. Mrs. Phil Berry, study leader for the circle, had charge of the program and a very interesting study hour was held.

A short business session followed. It was decided to name this circle the Betty Houston Circle.

Members present were: Mmes. Sadler, Cal Houston, Jesse Woody, Chas. Ebersol, James Jones, W. Y. Houston, Dan Renfro, A. M. Limmer, R. H. Herrington, A. W. Keisling, Phil Berry, B. F. Smith, Arlo Forest, Claude Houston.

VANDERFORD SENTENCED TO 2 YEARS IN PEN

DISTRICT ATTORNEY BOB HAMILTON FIGHTS SINGLE HANDED AGAINST AN ARRAY OF THREE PROMINENT ATTORNEYS.

The case of the State of Texas vs. Tom Vanderford, went to trial Monday afternoon in this session of the 70th district court, testimony and arguments completed Tuesday afternoon and case went to the jury late Tuesday evening. After being out all night the jury returned its verdict of guilty Thursday morning and sentence of two years in the penitentiary for the defendant followed.

At the last term of district court the trial was held and the jury was hopelessly hung.

Wednesday, July 5, 1933, John Bowser, 65, was shot in the stomach with a .32 caliber Colt's pistol at his farm on the outskirts of Stanton. He was rushed to a hospital in Big Spring where he died in the evening of the same day. Tom Vanderford, a neighbor, was arrested, charged with the shooting. The shooting was the result of a dispute in which Vanderford claimed Bowser's cow had been trespassing on his, Vanderford's place.

District Attorney Bob Hamilton, at the trial of the case this week, fought the case clear though single-handed, against three prominent Big Spring attorneys, Thomas and McDonald and Judge Littler.

No notice of appeal by Vanderford's attorneys had been made at the time this was written.

WARDROBE SCHOOL TO BE CONDUCTED IN MIDLAND

Wardrobe demonstrators of Midland and Martin counties will attend a wardrobe school to be conducted at the assembly room of the courthouse in Midland Friday, under the direction of Miss Dora Russell Barnes, extension specialist in clothing from Texas A. and M. college.

Individually fitted patterns will be studied in detail. The school begins at 9 a. m. and will be broken briefly at noon, when a covered dish luncheon will be served.

NEW BOOKS FOR THE MARTIN COUNTY LIBRARY

The Martin County Library is indebted to several Stanton citizens for new books and wish to publicly extend their thanks to the donors. Louie Harrell brought three books; Ilmae Sadler gave seven; Rev. Garnett swelled the list with thirteen books of classics. Every book given helps just that much and the members of the Study Club and especially the library committee, are very grateful.

The Club gave a bridge tournament recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the library for the rest of the year, and as usual, met with a grand response from all solicited. Six tables played and Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Forrest were winners of high scores. Refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches, cake and coffee, were served.

COAST TO COAST BUS TIED UP HERE FOR REPAIRS

A Golden Eagle bus, traveling on the coast to coast line, broke down Monday morning in Stanton as it was on its eastward trip. The passengers were delayed here several hours waiting arrival of a relief bus.

The broken parts had to come out of Tulsa, Okla., and arrived Thursday morning.

Tuesday the bus was hauled in off the highway by Edmund Morrow in his big truck, and stationed at John Whitson's Gulf station.

COAHOMA COUPLE MARRIED

Rev. W. S. Garnett, pastor of the First Baptist church of this place, reported that at 12:15, Wednesday afternoon, at the parsonage, he united in marriage Mr. J. G. Martin and Miss Louise O'Daniel, of Coahoma.

PLANNING BIG THINGS HERE FOR NEXT TRADES DAY

DELICIOUS EATS SERVED BY THE LADIES OF SOUTH CIRCLE OF METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY. MANY VISITORS.

What the ladies of the South Circle of the Methodist Missionary Society didn't have for the Stanton Service Club members and their guests to eat at the Tuesday luncheon there is no use for a queen of any country to think up a menu. And how the club members and guests did consume the food—Cannibals on a week's fasting wouldn't have been in it.

Candidates, preachers, and just common folks, made up the out of town guest list at the luncheon.

What the program the club will have to offer for the next trades day will be announced later. Committees are now at work on the arrangements.

Those making brief talks were: Clyde E. Thomas, Big Spring, candidate for district judge 70th district; Chas. L. Klapproth, Midland, present district judge of the 70th; H. E. Kime, district manager Continental Oil Co; C. P. Boone, Midland, court reporter; Rev. C. A. Long, Sweetwater, presiding elder Sweetwater district.

Mr. Carpenter of Midland, a guest at luncheon of Jesse Woody, favored the club with a song with guitar accompaniment.

At the next luncheon the club dining hall will be hooked up with a loud speaker to hear the program relayed from the Lions club at Big Spring, a program especially arranged for Stanton.

It was brought out at the meeting that some of the citizens were staking their cows too close to the young trees that have been set out by the club this year, and it was that these citizens be advised to be careful and stake their cows so there would be no danger of damage to them.

Higher Standards For Teachers Approved

DR. LEWIS B. COOPER, Director (Editor's Note: This is a first of a series of articles released by the Research Department of the Texas State Teachers Association, Dr. Lewis B. Cooper, Director. This series will appear regularly in the Reporter).

The new requirement of higher standards for teachers in four-year high school systems is approved by superintendents throughout the state, according to a report released by Dr. Lewis B. Cooper, Director of Research of the Texas State Teachers Association at Fort Worth this week.

The data show that 91 out of every 100 superintendents approve the December action of the committee on classified and accredited high schools in requiring higher standards of teachers. Dr. Cooper said that one-fourth of the 7,786 teachers included in the study were affected by the ruling.

Teachers who do not meet the new requirements now will have periods of three years in which to make a minimum of eighteen semester hours credit in some standard college. No teacher will have to be eliminated from any school system on account of this ruling, provided, progress is made toward the objectives set up by the committee.

The new regulations which require higher qualifications of teachers are reported by many superintendents from every section of the state to be the most advanced step the profession has ever taken, a step which will be beneficial both to the teacher and to the children of Texas.

SCATTERED SHOWERS FALL IN MARTIN OVER THE WEEK

SOME PARTS OF THE COUNTY REPORT 1 1/2 INCHES, SOME NOT ANY OF THE WEDNESDAY DOWNFALL.

Wednesday afternoon, the rain statistician of this newspaper with the assistance of the local operator of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, caught the official rain guager, N. Kaderli, napping on the job when we called to get the rain measurements. Answering the stern voice of Mrs. Kaderli, the husband jumped to the phone and answering our inquiry said 1/2 of an inch had fallen but another shower was falling. Before the wire had hardly cooled from the 1/2" conversation Mr. Kaderli phoned back that since the last shower had just passed his water bucket measured an inch.

Answering our inquiry what he meant by sleeping at that time of day Mr. Kaderli said: "It was raining like hell and there was nothing else to do." Mr. Kaderli is a good Baptist and what the reader might infer the word he said was not the word at all, he hesitated in the conversation and said "well".

Out in the Lenorah section where little rain to speak of had fallen, it is reported that about half an inch fell. On the Son Powell ranch, 20 miles south of Stanton in Glasscock Son Powell reported Wednesday afternoon that he figured he received approximately 1 1/4 inches.

A good rain fell 15 miles north of Thursday morning N. Kaderli awoke from another "nap" and came to this office to inform us that the total precipitation for Wednesday was 1 1/4 inches. Another shower had fallen since his last report. The total amount of rainfall for Stanton so far this month is 3 3/4 inches.

Stanton, to the east and west of town. Many acres in the area that received good rains last week, have been planted to cotton and feed. Last year the farmers didn't plant any cotton this early and they didn't figure in on the cotton plow-up campaign. This year they are planting early and with the early rains coming many are going to have to plant over.

THE DAY OF THE CHILD

By proclamation of the President of the United States, the first day of May will be observed as National Child Health Day. The President suggests that every community ought to conduct on that day some sort of exercises to at least impress upon everybody the importance of individual and community effort to preserve the health of the children.

We are heartily in accord with this idea. Child welfare has become such an important part of every program for social betterment that many folk sort of take it for granted, and do not realize the amount of time, effort, study and money that has been expended all over the country to make health conditions for children safer and better everywhere.

One does not have to be very old to remember when more than half of all the children born died in infancy. Look at any old graveyard and see the number of tombstones inscribed to the memory of little ones who passed on before they were hardly able to talk. That is not the case today. Every child born has many times better chance to live to grow up than we older folks. Everybody who is thirty or past is one of the minority of children of his birth year, the majority of them died, and we are the survivors.

The interesting figures published at Washington a short time ago that show that the increase in the nation's farm population is due to the excess of births over deaths, are set off by the decline in the birthrate in the larger cities. It is true that in the United States, by and large, births are only a little ahead of deaths, but the time is likely to come when this country, like France, will have to offer prizes for large families in order to keep the population stationary from year to year. But we think it is better, on the whole, to bring fewer children into the world and surround their infancy with every care so that they have a chance to grow up, than to breed twice as many and let them die.

We have learned, too, that healthy children make healthy men and women. The average length of life in America has increased by nearly ten years in the past generation. That

HARDIN ZIMMERMAN CELEBRATED 7th BIRTHDAY

Last Saturday afternoon, Hardin Zimmerman, celebrated his seventh birthday with a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Zimmerman. Forty-five little friends lent their presence for a very enjoyable afternoon. Refreshments of ice cream and tiny cakes were served.

The following little folks and older ones were present:

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the right dose of a properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It gently helps the average person's bowels back to regularity.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store, ready for use. Member N. R. A.

Match the Performance of the FORD V8 for 1934 against any Car at any Price

THE car that flashed down a Florida beach to the world's land speed record was powered by the V-type engine.

The V-type engine knifed an Italian plane through the air at the record-smashing speed of more than 420 miles per hour. On the St. Clair River, the V-type engine swept a speed-boat to the world's record of 124.8 miles per hour.

And that's the type of engine that powers the Ford V-8 for 1934. It's the only V-8 engine in a car selling for less than $2,395.

That's why the Ford V-8 will streak down a highway at 80 or better. That's why it will purr along at 50 or 60 without the slightest effort. And why it is unsurpassed in acceleration by any American car!

Despite its power, the new Ford V-8 is the most economical car that Ford has ever built.

The new Ford V-8 gives you the riding ease of free action for all four wheels—with the safety of strong axle construction.

Before you buy any car at any price, drive the new Ford V-8.
