

SNOOTER KNOWS

LITTLE ABOUT EVERY THING AND NOT MUCH ABOUT ANYTHING

The large crowd of people attracted to Stanton by Trades Day and the Martin County Clothing Contest, provided a "playground" for county and district candidates. Cards, announcing the candidacy for the office aspired to, were handed out freely, as well as lots of "free air" boosting the aspirations by those seeking the office.

Five weeks until primary day, and as the time approaches, candidates are becoming more vigorous in their campaign for votes. Little interest is manifested at this time in the race of state candidates. The voter seem to have no preference, if so, they are keeping it under their hat. There is a tendency to vote against the candidate who has been affiliated with past political rings.

State candidates, or at least some of them, are riding on the old "swayed-back" hobby horse of lowering taxes, if elected. None espousing that doctrine is able to give a clear cut idea how they are going to lighten the heavy tax burden now carried on the shoulders of the taxpayer. That old-time worn theory has been hurled into the ears of the taxpayers by politicians, and nothing done about it when the candidate got in office. The theory has worked just the opposite to a decrease in tax rates—they have gone higher with each change of administration. It's an easy booming to send buzzing around the heads of the voters to catch votes.

To the members of the Martin County Home Demonstration Clubs goes the honor of staging one of the most constructive programs ever brought to Stanton. The event happened Saturday when many women from the farms in the county assembled at the school building for entertainment and to match their prowess in a friendly contest of who had made the best dress from material selected by them and constructed with needle and thread by the nimble fingers of the individual.

Of the several clubs entered in the contest each had been directed by a wardrobe demonstrator on whose shoulders was placed the responsibility of the successful outcome of her club members. These demonstrators proved by the exhibits displayed Saturday that they were quite proficient in the modeling and converting the raw material into the finished product. The garments made for the wardrobe of the country home, were so fashioned the most fastidious inclined would find a prominent place in her wardrobe.

The demonstration clubs of Martin county have been in operation the past year under the direction of Miss Myrtle Miller, home demonstration agent for Martin and Midland counties. They have progressed rapidly from every angle, all due to the aggressive and punctual work of the demonstration agent. Aggressive, we say, in that Miss Miller laying out a program of work for each club, she put forth all her energies to carry the project along to a successful ending. Punctual, in that her regular visits to the clubs were at the appointed time of meeting, though it necessitated the agent many miles of travel from her headquarters in Midland.

The success of the Martin County Home Demonstration Clubs, aside from the efficient work of the agent, is traced to the fact that the members are imbued with the finest of cooperative spirit, coupled with an almost inexhaustible supply of vim and vigor in going about their duties to perform. The club members are doing most valuable work for the farm homes of the county. They are learning to take advantage of every opportunity to make life in the farm home more inviting from the angle of eliminating the drudgery of the housewife by more conveniently arranging the interior to save footsteps, and to raise gardens and conserve the products in such a way that the family table will be supplied with good things to eat, both in and out of season.

The fruits of the work of these clubs has interested the men folks on the farms to the extent they are improving their method of carrying on farm operations—building a new fence,

FOURTH AT HAND: DANGERS OF CARELESS CELEBRATING

Taking note of the approach of the great National patriotic holiday, July 4, which this country has celebrated for one hundred and thirty-eight years, Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, calls attention of the people of Texas to some of the dangers of careless celebrating. Each year on the 5th of July one reads of the appalling number of accidents which occurred over the Fourth.

It is not alone the wounds received from explosives that increase our death toll. Injuries from automobile accidents, splinters, nails, and other penetrating wounds in which dirt may be carried into the skin heighten the hazard of tetanus or lockjaw. Such wounds should be promptly treated by a physician.

If the day's pleasures include a swim, caution should be used and no attempt made to do more than your strength will permit. If a drowning takes place, artificial respiration should be started at once and continued until a doctor arrives. Automobile accidents have usually one of three causes—exceeding the speed limit, driving on the wrong side or failing to grant the right of way. It can be seen that the chief factor in auto accidents is the judgment of the "machine" with the machine. Caution should guide the holiday activities so that the day may be remembered with joy instead of sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Davis of Bedias Grimes county, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Whitson.

repairing the old, adding a new board to the barn where one had been kicked off by a mule, pipe water here and there to turn on the family garden or into the trough in the cow lot. Lots of other improvements they are making to lighten the load and save time in doing his outside work. This has come about from seeing the results of the work that has been accomplished by the lady members of the county clubs.

The past two years, perhaps more than any two years in many, have made it more the important that the women folks of the county be banded together in clubs that have for their purpose of bringing about a better condition on the farm, and to sponsor such plans, cooperatively, that will provide a living at home and put home-made clothes in the wardrobes

Drouths have materially affected every phase of the farming industry. It has brought about a state of affairs that means strict conservation of farm work. Hard work and the method to be employed to carry on this system of conservation has to be taken, and the work of the demonstration clubs in Martin county the past year has demonstrated a powerful lot of good can come from their labors in these trying times through which we are now passing.

All hail the Martin County Home Demonstration Clubs for the inestimable work they have performed the past year.

WHO OWES US A LIVING?

"Walt Disney, re-creator of the famous Three Little Pigs, has a new story out—that of the Grasshopper and the hard working Ants," says the Hollywood Tribune of Portland, Oregon. "Its moral deals with our present problems so completely that it is worthy of serious consideration now."

"The story is about a Grasshopper who plays and sings all day, 'Oh, The World Owe Me a Living.' He wastes his food and time and is continually bothering the hard-working Ants, who are laying away food for the coming winter."

"Finally winter comes. There is no food for our happy Grasshopper. Snow falls and our Grasshopper friend turns blue with cold. He staggers to the door of the warm and happy Ants, who drag him in and thaw him out. As the Grasshopper returns to normal he is informed that all who eat the Ants' food must work. Dejected, he is about to leave when he is informed he may fiddle for his share. Happy again, he ends the story by singing, 'Oh, I Owe the World a Living.'"

"Have we been like the Grasshopper, happy in the thought that the United States owes us a living? Can the Government spend millions and even billions of borrowed money without our having to pay it back?"

We, like the Grasshopper in the fable, can live as parasites—for a time. But a day of reckoning inevitably comes, precisely as the cold weather follows the warm. The public treasury is not a bottomless pit, irrespective of the views of politicians who would have us believe it is. And some chill morning we will awaken to find that the national theme-song has changed to "We Owe the World a Living."

Did you ever stop to think EDSON R. WHITE

J. L. Foster, advertising manager of the Connersville, Ind., News-Examiner says:

"Local merchants are approached almost daily in these days by men who are promoting some scheme or plan under the guise of advertising. Sometimes merchants buy this unthoughtedly and later wake to the fact that it was 'just another scheme' which cost them money to the profit of the promoter only, who, by the time the advertising is supposed to reach the public, has gone to other fields anew, seeking whom he may interest in 'advertising' to the profit of himself."

"You can always trust your newspaper with paid circulation; it can't afford to string you on any proposition that is not of value. Your bought-and-paid-for newspaper has a mailing permit from the government for which the government guarantees delivery of all the papers deposited in the mails."

"The bought-and-paid-for newspaper sacrifices thousands of dollars as 'fly-by-night' advertising. This is annually by refusing what is termed 'fusal' at a loss to the newspaper is for the express purpose of protecting the home merchants. The newspaper realizes the value of the home merchants as advertising patrons. This protection is valuable to the advertising merchant and the non-advertising merchant. The man who enjoys his home newspaper sit back and watches it fight the battles for a bigger and better community and head movements where concerted action is necessary to put over something for the benefit of the whole city and community."

"If you did not even need advertising, if you did not even believe in advertising, if you had more business than you could take care of, even then advertising in the bought-and-for newspaper would be one of the finest things you could do because you would be giving your support to an institution that is more powerful for city and community good than anything in the community. However, no legitimate newspaper asks for business other than on a business basis and along the line of giving the merchants value received for their money."

Lenorah Wardrobe Demonstrator Enters The State Contest

Mrs. Foreman To Represent Martin County At A. M. Short Course

MYRTLE MILLER, H. D. A.

With a score of 87, Mrs. B. Foreman, wardrobe demonstrator of the Lenorah home demonstration club, will represent Martin county in the State contest at A. and M. College at the annual Short Course, July 30 to August 3, and the outcome of the County Clothing Contest held Saturday at the Stanton high school.

Mrs. S. P. Myrick was second with a score of 84 and Mrs. Claude Donham of Flower Grove, third, scoring 79. Miss Emma Hunter, Mitchell county home demonstration agent, commended the work of Mrs. Donham highly in that the Flower Grove club was organized in February while those scoring higher had been working a year.

The score card used for Texas Wardrobe Demonstration is as follows: Book and record, 30, Foreman 27, Myrick, 20, Donham, 20.

Narrative of work including help given others, 20, Foreman 18, Myrick 19, Donham 15.

Picture, 10, Foreman 9, Myrick 7, Donham 6.

Foundation Pattern, 10, Foreman 8, Myrick 8, Donham 9.

Dress, 30, Foreman 25, Myrick 30, Donham 29.

Totals, 100, Foreman 87, Myrick 84, Donham 79.

Of the fifty cooperators tailored dresses made by club members, Miss Vestal McClane was first, winning on a tan dotted percale, costing $1.77. Second was a print dress pattern bought last year costing 45c, made and modeled by Mrs. S. J. Foreman. Miss Ima Kelly and Mrs. Grace Spray berry tied for third place.

As explained by Miss Gunter, the object of the contest was to try out individually fitted patterns. A cloth pattern is more lasting and may be altered more easily as one gains or loses in weight.

Entrants were commended on the fit of the dresses and materials selected which were cotton costing not more than 50c a yard for cooperators. Demonstrators were not limited in the price of cotton material used. None cost more than the cooperators price limit.

An old time basket dinner was spread in the corridor of the school building, where more than 300 mingled and ate.

A one-act play, "Neighbors," directed by Miss Chuck Houston, gave entertainment between the lunch hour and clothing review in which each woman modeled a dress.

Mrs. John Haley of Midland, spoke to the women in the interest of her candidacy, as did Mrs. S. H. Gwyn of Midland, in the interest of a county federation.

Tommy Lee, owner of the Little Cafe here, purchased a cafe in Andrews last week, he and George Davis loaded up some fixtures stored in Stanton and hauled them to Andrews to be added to the equipment at his new location.

Jesse Lee, a brother of Dallas, will operate the cafe here while Tommy handles the Andrews business.

The fact that some oil wells have been developed in Andrews county makes the prospects bright for the cafe business.

TRUCK LOAD CANTALOUPE

Last week a truckster was in Stanton from Carrizo Springs, Dimmitt county, with 2,000 cantaloupes on his truck which he was selling at 5 cents each. He said that he raised them on his own irrigated farm, and that he couldn't sell them at any price down in his country, the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Hard luck those boys are experiencing—hardly any price can they get for their products, and having to pay high taxes.

HOW BIG A LUBRICATING JOB CAN A QUART OF OIL DO?

HERE is a record of motor protection and low consumption that conclusively proves how big a lubricating job a quart of oil can do. Six strictly stock cars, with one fill—five quarts only—of six different, nationally advertised motor oils were run to "destruction" at the Indianapolis Speedway under AAA Supervision. Under exactly similar conditions the cars were operated until their motors failed. Here is the result: Oil No. 4 went 1713.2 miles; Oil No. 6 went 1764.4 miles; Oil No. 5 finished 1815.9 miles; Oil No. 1 completed 2266.8 miles. Oil No. 3 totalled 3313.8 miles. Oil No. 2, New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, piled up the amazing total of 4729 miles! That was 3000 miles farther than the first oil to go out, and 1400 miles farther than the last oil to fail.

Such demonstrated superior qualities of greater film strength, ability to withstand increased heat, resistance to dilution—such proved performance should guide your future oil purchases. Be safe—look for the Red Triangle Sign.
