Experience of previous years has resulted in ticket sales beyond the capacity of the hall, and sales will be closed when a 300 total has been reached, Mrs. Johnson reported. This is the capacity of the New Elementary School cafeteria here where this year's banquet will be held. Tickets at $2.55 each may be obtained from any member of the Ticket Committee.

Ben H. Wooten, chairman of the board of the First National Bank in Dallas, and out-standing civic leader in the Southwest, will be the principal speaker.

Bailey Toliver, president of the Haskell chamber, Ira Hester, and Mrs. Johnson are members of the general steering committee staging this year's festivities.

Toliver and Mrs. Johnson have announced the following other committees who will assist in all the arrangements: tickets, Dr. T. W. Williams, chairman; Hallie Chapman, J. M. Crawford, E. J. Stewart, Clay Smith, Porter Oakes, Mrs. Myron Blard, Mrs. W. V. Felker, Wallace Cox, Jr., Harold Spain, Jon Baum, and Jack McAdoo.

Decorations, Mrs. Opal Adkins, Miss Nettie McCollum, Abe Turner, and Desmond Dulaney; welcoming and registration, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swinson; host and hostess at tables; Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith, chairman, with other personnel to be named; chief "starter," Dulaney; and welcoming committee at entrance to banquet, Dr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr and Mrs. Cox.

Dominoes Unlimited
A domino tournament will be sponsored by the Junior Class at Mattson Gymnasium Friday night at 7 o'clock, with first, second, and consolation prizes being awarded and free coffee for everyone. Proceeds will go for financing the Mattson Junior-Senior Banquet.

GIRL SCOUTS ACCENT ACTIVITY WITH WORSHIP, ANNUAL TEA

Approximately 150 Girl Scouts in Haskell will be among the 450 in the West Texas Council joining three and a half million Girl Scouts in the United States singing "Happy Birthday to Us" next week.

Girl Scout Week beginning next Sunday, March 10, and continuing until March 17 will celebrate the 51st anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scout movement.

In Haskell, as well as throughout the 16-county West Texas Girl Scout Council, the special week will begin with Girl Scout Sunday, and girls in uniform will begin their week with worship.

Here, each troop will attend morning church services in their sponsoring church. Haskell churches sponsoring Girl Scout troops include First Baptist, First Christian, Trinity Lutheran and First Methodist. Mrs. Don Nanny, Neighborhood chairman, declared "This is one way we can thank our sponsoring church."

Red Letter Day in Girl Scout Week in Haskell will be next Friday, March 15, when the annual Mother-Daughter tea will be staged in the American Legion Hall. The tea tables, programs, and favors will display the arts and crafts talents of the Girl Scouts, Mrs. Henry Harris, publicity chairman, reported.

Coincident with the tea, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheatley, owners of a Haskell clothing store, will present a style show, which has become an annual event to which everyone looks forward.

In connection with Girl Scout activities, the annual cookie sales recently completed here, proceeds for which go toward the development and maintenance of Camp Boothe Oaks, were 100 percent successful.

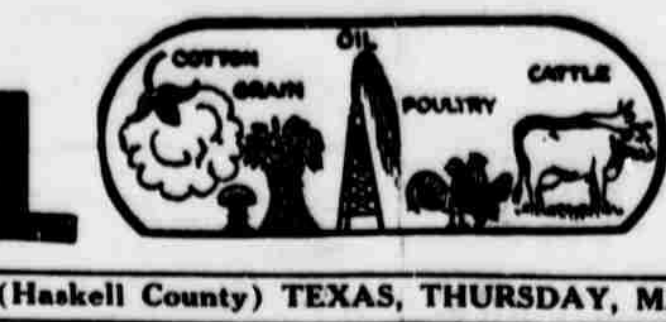

For the first time "in at least 30 years," according to school board sources, Haskell has a woman candidate for election as a school trustee in the forthcoming April 6 election here.

Mrs. B. B. Gilmore, mother of one school age son, has filed with the office of Haskell Superintendent of Schools Robert R. King for a place on the April 6 ballot.

Bulletin
Mrs. Roy Wiseman also has filed as a candidate for the Haskell School Board, the Free Press was informed at press time. She joins Mrs. Gilmore in seeking a feminine voice in school administration matters.

In connection with her candidacy, Mrs. Gilmore declared here Monday, "It is my firm belief that the school board here, or in any other community, should have one to two women on it to balance off its deliberations and determinations, and I am offering myself as a candidate in support of this conviction. I am hoping I may have the opportunity to prove my mettle in this important realm of community service which is tangible effort, stability, dependability, and preparedness among our youth."

HUNGRY, PESKY PASTURE FIRE EATS SEVERAL SMS SECTIONS

A raging fire fanned by a high wind on a bone dry prairie ate up pasture grass with acreage estimates ranging from 4,000 acres to 12 sections on the Swinson, SMS Ranch, Flat Top division, near the convergence of Haskell, Jones, and Stonewall Counties Sunday afternoon.

Units from five fire departments in the area fought the stubborn blaze described as "one that was really walking in a brisk wind," for about seven hours, according to Haskell County Sheriff Garth Garrett, and Alton Middleton, two of the fire fighters from Haskell among the 50 to 60 volunteer fire department members, ranchers, and farmers who joined in the effort. About 20 of this number manned one fire truck unit from each of the following towns: Haskell, Stamford, Hamlin, Anson and Aspermont.

Four transport trucks, including those of Wilcox Well Service, of Rule, Moyer, of Aspermont, and Bailey Tank Company shuttled water for the fire department units to supplement that drafted from stock tanks, Middleton reported.

Haskell Fire Chief Tom Watson, Don Garrett, Oign King, Jon Baum, and J. B. Gibson from here also were at the fire scene to assist in extinguishing the ferocious fire, reported by all to be "one of the hottest and most unmanageable blazes we've ever seen."

Money Put To Work By Vote Of Commissioners

Haskell County Commissioners Court, in special session last week, unanimously approved a plan to place $100,000 on special deposit with the Haskell National Bank here as a savings account upon which the County will draw three per cent interest per year, County Judge Jim Alvis has announced.

Judge Alvis said President A. C. Pierson of Haskell National Bank has notified him the directorate of the bank had approved of the move and authorized the rate of interest.

The County Judge said the Commissioners' Court decided "to put the money to work" for the County's benefit after checking its balance and obligations with the bulk of current tax money in, "although there is still some tax money due."

It was pointed out that this action by the Court would mean an additional $3,000 revenue per annum for Haskell County.

In other action by the Court in special session, the Patton Equipment Company of Abilene was low bidder to furnish a Gallon Motor Grader to the County. The contract under which the Court authorized negotiations with Patton involved the trade of old equipment, and an expenditure of $5500.00 net to the low bidder for the new road grader.

Present at the session were Judge Alvis, and Commissioners John Brock, Leon Newton, F. C. Blake, and Louis Kuenstler.

HESTER CHIEF COG IN ROTARY, TOLIVER 'TALKS TURKEY'

Ira Hester, a Rotarian since Rotary International issued a charter to the Haskell club six years ago, was elected president of the Rotary Club here Thursday for the 1963-64 term.

Other officers elected on a slate submitted by a nominating committee comprised of Past Presidents Bob King, R. A. Lane, and Tom Barfield, are: Vice President, Roy Johnson, who steps up into this slot after six years of dedicated service as secretary; Secretary, Desmond Dulaney; directors for two year terms, Henry Withers and Alvin Sherman; and sergeant-at-arms, Brooks Middleton.

President Stewart urged all-out attendance of Haskell Rotarians at the forthcoming Rotary district conference at Mineral Wells on March 10-11 in order to preserve unbroken a string of attendance plaques the club here has captured the past several years.

Bailey Toliver, Haskell businessman and president of the Chamber of Commerce, in a peppy principal talk at the meeting, described the Chamber's role in Haskell's development, citing this body as a "gauge on the enterprise, prosperity, and ambition" of a town. It is the Chamber's responsibility, he said, "to do what is best for Haskell."

Aroused Citizens Declare War On Dogs-At-Large

All-out, "open range" war has been declared in this area on free running dogs, which, traveling in packs of five to eight animals, are believed responsible for killing a 400-pound yearling calf and a goat three miles east of Haskell late last Wednesday night or early Thursday morning.

Although the calf and goat killing incidents have been traced almost beyond dispute to the dogs, some speculation here has laid the blame on coyotes, or even Haskell's mysterious mountain lion-type varmint, last seen in late December, in the general vicinity of the animal life-taking.

Following the discovery of the dead calf and goat, irate citizens here early Thursday killed three dogs running in a pack east of Haskell. The calf and goat were killed on the Garland Callaway place three miles east of town off the Throckmorton Highway.

Thursday morning, a group of citizens led by Tommy Davis brought the dead calf to Haskell as tangible evidence of the destruction.

Even prior to the events of Wednesday night, the City Council of Haskell inserted a notice appearing last Thursday in the Haskell Free Press detailing that it had been brought to their attention that stray dogs from town had been attacking, killing and maiming cattle and sheep in the area outside the city limits.

The City Council said that date for the availability here of a veterinarian to vaccinate dogs has been set for Tuesday, March 19, with Dr. David Ballard, veterinarian, on hand from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. at the City Fire Station. A reasonable period of time will be allowed to obtain a dog tag, and after this time, any dog running loose or not properly tagged will be picked up and destroyed if he needs directed.

Dogs at large in Haskell have been an increasing nuisance in recent weeks, and the latest situation of their leaving town to prey on other animals has not improved things.

There are still those here who steadfastly maintain that a domesticated animal could not have killed the calves and sheep in this territory, and that the felon is a coyote or that varmint "waist high to a tall man" seen most infrequently east, southeast, and north of Haskell. The last time was in late December five miles east of town on the Throckmorton Highway. A Maryland couple traveling through, reported seeing the varmint lunge across the road in front of their car, clear a barbed wire fence, and disappear in the wintry darkness.

Carefully prepared plans for all-out launching of the Haskell County Historical Survey project next Tuesday, March 12, were further crystallized with the announcement Wednesday by Mrs. Tom Barfield, chairman, of personnel she is asking to serve on key committees to push the program to peak fruition.

County Judge Jim Alvis, R. C. Couch Sr., Dr. T. W. Williams, all of Haskell; Jim Norman and Ed Cloud, of Rule, have been requested by Mrs. Barfield to head up the major activities of the survey.

These chairmen, together with committee members asked to give them solid support, are expected to attend the organizational meeting of the Haskell County Historical Survey next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Highway Drive-In Cafe.

Mrs. Barfield said Wednesday, "The organizational meeting next Tuesday night will be most informative and will thoroughly acquaint people with the scope of the program, its aims and objects. Particularly would we like oldtimers to take a tangible, active part in this project. They can be of tremendous help to us. If they will but signify their need to me, or get in touch with Mrs. Jetty Clare or Porter Oakes at the Free Press, one of us will see that transportation is provided to the Tuesday night meeting."

One of the major functions of the historical survey is historical marking, which includes medallion homes, the first of which in Haskell County has been petitioned by Mrs. J. U. Fields as a tribute to her late husband, and his father, Capt. W. W. Fields; historical sites, and Civil War graves. Another is archives and the compilation of county history.

Location, maintenance, and support of a museum is a "must" activity in the overall project, and legislative and publicity personnel are needed, Mrs. Barfield pointed out, for indispensable supporting roles.

One of the most pertinent points of the program is tying the Haskell County Historical Survey, the exploration and exploitation of its work, with a well-directed and workable plan to attract tourists' attention to that historical significance in this area. In addition, the aim and object is to inculcate transients with the desire to stop and see what Haskell County has in the way of historical points of interest.

For this titanic task, Mrs. Barfield has chosen Dr. Williams as coordinator of the historical and the tourism segments with the Haskell Chamber of Commerce and with the Tourist Development Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, of which he is a member.

The alignment of other working committees, the categories, chairman, and suggested personnel, Mrs. Barfield has announced as follows:

Historical Marking: Jim Norman chairman; Mrs. Mrs. Fields, who is also on the historical committee of Mesquite District, Texas Federated Women's Clubs; Mrs. R. W. Herren, president of Mesquite District, TFWC, which has a similar goal among its projects; Mrs. Ed Hester, and Claude Norman.

Museum: Judge Alvis, chairman; Oscar Oates, Tommy Davis, Mrs. Tommye Hawkins, Miss Beryle Boone.

Archives and County History: R. C. Couch, Sr., chairman; Mmes. B. C. Chapman, G. H. Henshaw, Jack Pippin, Miss Nettie McCollum, Haskell; Mrs. Felix Mullino, Rochester; Mrs. Irene Stewart, Sagerton; Mrs. Wayne Plemister, Mattson; Mrs. Knott Ballard, Rochester; and Mrs. Lewis Kay, O'Brien.

Working committees will be appointed by the board before the next meeting the last week in March, Mrs. Frazier, the president, said.

Projects include supplying a book cart, a toy cart, baby clothes and other supplies and equipment for the Haskell County Hospital to make the patients more comfortable. There will be a committee to plan for aiding the hospital staff in case of disaster; one for visitation to determine special needs of patients.

County Hospital Auxiliary Is Established Here

Responding to an appeal from hospital authorities here to organize a Women's Hospital Auxiliary for the Haskell County Hospital, a total of 82 women from throughout Haskell County met in the Haskell National Bank Community Room, elected officers and a representative board composed of citizens in all communities of the county, and outlined a program of work.

Mrs. Byron Frazier, of Haskell, was named president. Other officers elected were Mrs. A. D. May, of Rule, vice president; Mrs. Rogers Durham, recording secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Bailey Guess, Weibert, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Gene Overton, of Paint Creek, reporter.

With the officers also serving on the board, the following other board members were named: Mrs. R. C. Dowdy, Rule; Mrs. R. L. Foote, Haskell; Mrs. R. V. Earles, Paint Creek; Mrs. Ed Tilden, Fouts, Sagerton; Mrs. Wayne Plemister, Mattson; Mrs. Knott Ballard, Rochester; and Mrs. Lewis Kay, O'Brien.

Working committees will be appointed by the board before the next meeting the last week in March, Mrs. Frazier, the president, said.

Projects include supplying a book cart, a toy cart, baby clothes and other supplies and equipment for the Haskell County Hospital to make the patients more comfortable. There will be a committee to plan for aiding the hospital staff in case of disaster; one for visitation to determine special needs of patients.

The officers and board of the newly created Women's Hospital Auxiliary said they would welcome to membership any church or club group, or individual, desiring to be of service toward the development of a better Haskell County Hospital facility.

As the session opened, Reita Stewart, supervisor of nurses, and Hallie Chapman, hospital administrator, told of the need for and objectives of a hospital auxiliary.

The chairman emphasized that the personnel named comprise only a nucleus, and appealed for all interested citizens, particularly old timers, to attend next Tuesday night's meeting, that they may become conversant with the needs and goals benefiting posterity, and potentiating greater prosperity in Haskell County.

A Pencil Pusher's Potpourri
 By PORTER

Well, it's happened. It was bound to happen. But how did it happen so soon? That's what the Pencil Pusher is trying to "make a judgment" on, as JFN would say.

We have been notified that on Saturday, June 1, in connection with the 125th commencement of our alma mater, Transylvania University, Lexington, Kentucky, the oldest college in America west of the Allegheny Mountains, our grand dining class, the Class of 1942, is converging on the campus for its 25th anniversary reunion.

Can it be? It says here it is. Why, it was only a few years ago that I got out of college. Couldn't be 25. Let's see, I went into the Air Force in 1941. Not long ago. Um-mm, 25 years. Why, Jamie wasn't born until '41. Not long ago. Um-mm, 14 years. I didn't get recalled as a reserve officer during Korea, until 1951. Not long ago. Was it? Um-mm, 12 years.

I give up. Guess it has been 25 years. Wonder what all those characters look like these days. Sure was a wreck-in crew in that KA fraternity. Grand of Gang. "And together we'll bring 'til the waters of hell freeze over. That's the way the song goes."

Those out Chi Omega and Phi Kappa Phi. Wonder if they're still got their "fingers" and are still young. Like—ah—me. Ha.

It'll be an experience. Hope I can go, take the family, and show 'em off. Long time, no see for most of us, vintage of '38. Some of 'em, yes, here and there—but not the whole kit and kaboodle, like what will be there for the reunion. Should be a ball.

Did you notice which Commencement this will be at Transylvania? Yes, sure that's right. The 125th. The old school, dubbed as recently as last year by the Carnegie Foundation as one of the finest, most solid, liberal arts colleges in the nation, was founded in 1780, but four years after this country became a nation.

The Pencil Pusher always said if it weren't for Transylvania, there wouldn't have been a Texas, for a while at least. Stephen F. Austin, the Father of Texas, went to school there, you see. And it was right there on that original 14 acre campus in the heart of Lexington, under a big oak tree, on a Spring day, that Austin talked his friends into going down here to colonize the territory that became Texas. Might have been years later if he hadn't done it then.

Transylvania — 182 years young. I was there on the 175th anniversary in 1955 when President Eisenhower stood in the shadows of the columns of Old Morrison, built in 1830 and said to be the most perfect example of Doric architecture in the West, and looked out over a veritable sea of humanity that had gathered there for a historic occasion in the life of a great institution. An institution that had George Washington on its board of curators, Henry Clay on its faculty, Jefferson Davis as one of its students, and statesmen, doctors, lawyers, and men of letters galore in its stirring history. This is my alma mater. This is Transylvania if you'll forgive the nostalgia.

Its products are not doing so badly today either. The young man who ramrodded the 175th Anniversary celebration as the president of his alma mater, Transylvania, became president of the University of Alabama at age 37 and has already been there five years. That's Dr. Frank Rose. And Dr. Frank Dickey, same age, just left the presidency of the University of Kentucky to become executive director of the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities. And Dr. Wayne Braden. His father was president of Transylvania while I was there. He teaches preachers how to preach—homilies, I believe they call it—at Brice College of the Bible, TCU. The Pencil Pusher went to school with all these boys. And he daily basks his vest buttons in pride with the bare thought of their accomplishments. There are many more present-day alumni of Transylvania—A. B. (Happy) Chandler, Dr. Charles Allen Thomas, chairman of the board of Monsanto Chemical Co., Dr. Raymond McLain, president of the American University at Cairo, Egypt, and others—whose names may be as illustrious as that eighteenth and nineteenth century campus crop one of these days.

Permit the Pencil Pusher one more nostalgic nudge from the precious mists of memory. On a par with people, thoughts of Transylvania telegraph to the mind's eye a graphic picture of that forementioned building, Old Morrison that gleams white in the moonlight and in the snow on a wintry night. One of the grandest guys of my acquaintance at Transylvania, or anywhere, was Walter Brewster Greenwood, who upon graduation, wrote an immortal ode to Morrison in which he said that although he was leaving Transylvania, he was taking part of the stately old building with him, "the parts that don't need fixing." Walter had started the poem with a comment that "it was raining the first night I saw you." His conclusion, signifying his leave-taking from school was "My cheek is wet. It must be raining still." That line still puts moisture in my eye and a lump in my gravel catcher.

Musing about Kentucky reminds us of the perennial story back there about "D. Boone killed a B.?" which was always being depicted in our parades. Haskell has a D. Boone, too. And he has killed many a B.—of music.

Also on the Kentucky kick, we're thinking it's almost that time when the "revereovers", INFERNAL, type are gonna close in on us.

Bailey Toliver made a good observation about public speakers the other day. Said the pro pulpit pounder is a pitcher, and the amateur articulator a "shower."

If you want to see some snare snaking, you should see Jim Norman operate at a banquet. At the LBJ-Purcell festivities in WF, you'd have thought that Rude roostabout was a member in stellar standing of Tabletoppers International.

Josielet The Barber (no kin to Jake) says there's some consolation to everything. His car's outa date, but outa debt. Sort of like some furniture I once bought. Early Depression, but no Repossession.

See by the newspaper where they've upped the draft call for next month. This brings to mind the time the late Bill Hood, personable mayor of Wichita Falls during World War II years, went to Dallas to take a draft physical. Bill had been suffering from intestinal trouble for years and already had surgically surrendered a large portion of his inside anatomy. After his physical, which he had undergone the fourth or fifth time, he wired his wife, Mary: "Inspected. Dissected. Rejected. As Expected."

There Still is Time To Be Judicious—After the Facts Are In
 Chamber of Commerce Proxy Bailey Toliver's snappy speech at Rotary last week was measty.

He drove some well-aimed nails into the coffins of chronic complainers. We liked the way he said that the goal of the Chamber of Commerce in Haskell is not in the range of self-interest. Rather it is the wishbone for YOUR and OUR BEST INTERESTS.

It's also the show-boat, the advertising medium, for your town. It's so necessary to your best interests. The Internal Revenue people consider your membership in the Haskell Chamber of Commerce just as important a business expense as rent, light, advertising, or the company payroll. Therefore, the IRS has ruled your subscription fully deductible as a business expense, not as a contribution.

The Chamber of Commerce has unshelved one supreme goal—to do whatever is best for Haskell.

As Bailey Toliver poignantly pointed out, the complaining group usually is with us. We like to feel this group breeds in a marsh of misinformation, or the lack of it. Like the "agin-er" who was steadfast in his efforts to prevent purchasing the chandler for the church parlor. He just couldn't see it in spite of everything.

"You can't spell it in the first place," he said. "And in the second place, nobody can play it. Besides, in the third place, what we need in the church parlor is a new light fixture."

There's a mighty monumental moral to be drawn from the story. Most times in matters involving cohesive community effort, it's all a matter of misinformation, lack of it, or the improper or inadequate presentation of it which fosters doubt or dignity on a project.

And there still is time to be judicious—when the facts are all in.

Haskell, 4-H Town

Recently, the Free Press declared its desire to help promote Haskell to 4-H status as "HAVEN OF HOSPITALITY ON THE HIGHWAY."

Events of the past two weeks which have been most heartening and gratifying, judging by the tangible demonstrations of interest, suggest an amendment to our slogan.

So we offer an additional "H" for HISTORY. This would make us a 4-H Town, an "HISTORICAL HAVEN OF HOSPITALITY ON THE HIGHWAY." By this handle, we hope we may become known away out to horizons unlimited.

With the citizenship's devoted help in promoting our colorful history and our warm hospitality, this shall be.

Under Sue Pace Bartfield's leadership, as head of the Haskell County Historical Survey, and with the help of such stalwarts like Mrs. J. U. Fields who have talked in their desire to serve, we can achieve our aim. The presence of all interested Haskell Countians at the organizing meeting of the historical group next Tuesday night should be a treat. We'll see you there.

Head, Heart, Health, Hand.

Another, and equally important, type of 4-H for a long time an established toward among rural youth as an organization for accomplishment benefiting self and society is that hard-working, go-gettin' group known universally as 4-Hers.

4-H Week is being observed everywhere this week. It started Saturday, March 1, and continues through Saturday, March 8. So we salute this grand gang of guys and gals in our 4-H organizations. They already are performing nobly in the realm of service, and are, through the development of their heads, hearts, health, and hands, training to be the best of mature leadership to assure the security of America's future.

SUPER SPORTS—that's the only name for them! Four entirely different kinds of cars to choose from, including bucket-seat convertibles and coupes. And most every one can be matched with such sports-car type features* as 4-speed stick or Powerglide transmission, Positraction, tachometer, high performance engines, you name it. If you want your spice plus the luxuries of a full-sized family car, try the Chevrolet Impala SS. It's one of the smoothest road runners that ever teamed up with a pair of bucket seats. It even offers a new Comforting wheel* that positions right where you want it. The new Chevy II has its own brand of excitement, the turbo-supercharged rear-engine Monza* Spyder, and the all-new Sting Rays. Just decide how you want to get, then pick your equipment—up to 425 hp in the Chevy including the popular Turbo-Fin 340 hp for smooth, responsive city traffic.

THIS is the Center of the Southwest. The Center of the Southwest is our service area. It is called the Center of the Southwest because it is in the very heart of one of the Nation's fastest growing regions. For many months we have been engaged in an extensive expansion program throughout our service area, enlarging both generating capacity and distribution facilities. It is a far-sighted, long-range program based on one simple fact. We are convinced that the Center of the Southwest faces GROWTH UNLIMITED. Current conditions confirm the belief. Population is increasing, more businesses are moving in, new industry is coming our way, natural resources are being developed, bank deposits, spendable income and business construction all are on the way up. That is why we are investing millions to meet the present growth of the Center of the Southwest, and to be prepared for its continued development in the months and years ahead.

Harmony Club Stages "Parade Of Music" for Throckmorton Etude Group

An inter-city meeting of two long established music-minded organizations, the Haskell Harmony Club and the Etude Music Club, of Throckmorton, was held recently in the First Christian Church Chapel in Throckmorton. A program, "The Parade of American Music," was presented by the visiting Haskell group.

Mrs. Henry Withers was director and narrator of the musical, with Mrs. O. E. Patterson as pianist. The theme song, "Say It With Music," was sung by the Haskell Harmony Club members as the opening number.

Establishing the route for "The Parade of Music," Mrs.

Withers emphasized the influence of music on everything undertaken by humanity. Mrs. Al C. Williams pointed up the Indian period of American music with a piano composition, "The Buffalo Dance," stressing the drum beat rhythm.

The Stephen Foster influence was portrayed with an inter-city group choral presentation of "Old Folks At Home."

Religion through musical expression and the national airs which came on the scene in the Revolutionary War era were presented in renditions of "The Doxology," "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," the National Anthem, together with "Hail Columbia," "Yankee Doodle," and "America."

A piano solo, "To A Wild Rose," by McDowell, was the popular presentation of Mrs. J. F. Cadenhead, Sr., who also was the featured whistling soloist in the Harmony Club's singing of the southern favorite, "Anna Lee."

The Negro spiritual, "Oh What A Mornin'," was presented by Haskell's A Capella chorus, followed by "Dixie," as a piano trio by Mmes. Williams, Withers, and Cadenhead.

Throckmorton's Etude Club and the Haskell Club joined to sing, "After the Ball," from the Gay Nineties and "Over There" and "Till We Meet Again."

From the musical comedies' era came the soothing song, "Somewhere, Over the Rainbow," presented as a choral number by the Haskell Harmony group.

Peter de Rose's beautiful composition, "God Painted A Picture," was one of the climactic numbers by the visitors in Throckmorton with Mrs. O. E. Patterson at the piano.

Mrs. Patterson's projection of piano personality with "Tudor in the Straw," and with her original "Valse," were acclaimed as the work of an artist.

Texas In Music was an integral part of the theme as both clubs sang, "The Eyes of Texas" and "Texas, My Texas," by Marsh, well-known Texas composer.

The finale, a stirring one, was "God Bless America."

In her conclusion, Mrs. Withers, the narrator, said that America is only beginning to take her place in flexing her muscles through her mounting interest in universal talent and her own festivals, in addition to the establishing of worldwide reputations by our own artists.

Coffee and cake squares, nuts and mints were served to the following guests from Haskell: Mmes V W Meadors, M. Williams, Mart Clifton, Patterson, Dr. Gertrude Robinson, and Cadenhead.

Christian Church CYF Goes Skating At Abilene Rink

Fifteen members of the Christian Youth Fellowship in the Christian Church of Haskell, with 12 guests, were escorted by 11 adults in an overland outing to the Abilene Ice Center last weekend, where a two and a half hour skating session "produced no major casualties," according to Rogers Durham, Christian Church minister.

The would-be skaters compiled quite a record of lumps and spills, Durham reported, but food which followed, underwritten by funds from the CYF treasury healed a lot of wounds, he said.

Escorting the 27 youngsters ranging in ages from 8 to 13 were the following members of the Christian Church congregation: Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Dulaney, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Pace, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Pace, Mrs. Bill Ratliff, and Mr. and Mrs. Durham.

Reynolds Memorial Reunion Is Attended By 21 Fidelis Members

Twenty-one former members of the Fidelis Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church in Haskell at the time the late Mrs. R. J. Reynolds was teacher, assembled here last week for the fourth annual Hazel Reynolds Memorial Dinner reunion.

One of the principal activities of this group has been the establishment and perpetuation of the Hazel Reynolds Memorial Fund, which was organized four years ago on Feb. 9, 1960. Its purpose is to continue a fund started when Mrs. Reynolds was teacher for the education of a Brazilian girl in the training school at Recife. The student is to be selected by Miss Maye Bell Taylor as long as she is in the foreign mission field in Brazil.

In this connection, correspondence was read at the memorial dinner from Miss Taylor about the productive work being accomplished by personnel sponsored by the Fidelis Class members here.

Miss Taylor reported that, during a recent visit to Brazil, the new capital of Brazil, one of the girls sent through Training School by Haskell Baptist ladies is working side-by-side with her minister husband, who is pastor of the "Free City" where all workers have built their own homes. Miss Taylor said the couple is "winning many people to Christ," has won two priests there who had been preaching other doctrines, and is succeeding in sponsoring a third in the study of the Bible. "When I meet with these girls they are always grateful to the ones who made their education possible," Miss Taylor reports.

Miss Nettie McCollum, at the memorial dinner, as treasurer of the organization, said that out of contributions paid last year two girls were helped in the Baptist Training School at Recife instead of one as previously.

This number is to be increased to three this year, by vote of the group.

R. C. Couch, Sr., a former teacher of the class, gave the invocation and presented a short history of the class and showed pictures made at different times over the years. Mrs. R. C. Couch, Sr., was elected president, and Mrs. W. V. Felker treasurer for the coming year at a business session. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Couch, Mrs. J. F. Cadenhead, Sr., former teacher of the class; and Mmes. Frank C. Scott, Leon Pearsey, Nellie Chapman, Tommy Ballard, John P. Payne, R. A. Lane, Felker, W. P. Trice, Opal Adkins, Stanley Furrh, L. R. Burkett, Elma Guest, C. V. Payne, Walter Holt, R. L. Foote, Miss McCollum, all of Haskell; Grace Killingsworth, and Hazel Robertson Wombie, the latter two from Abilene.

Closing the meeting, the group sang "Lily of the Valley," "An Evening Prayer," and "Till We Meet Again" and were led in prayer by Mrs. Cadenhead.

Garden Club Will Plant Flowers At Elementary School

Haskell's garden club will replant the flower bed across the front of the Elementary School here, the plants from which were destroyed in last May's devastating tornado which sliced across town, also wrecking the school building which has been rebuilt.

The Garden Club here voted this project at its recent meeting, heard an Arbor Day Committee report from Mrs. L. R. Burkett and one from the president, Mrs. Ed Hester, on the district meeting at Sweetwater. Mrs. Hester displayed an informative exhibit of useful material gathered at the Sweetwater meeting.

Mrs. Porter Oakes, a new resident of Haskell, wife of the editor of the Haskell Free Press, was elected to membership in the club. She has been previously active in Garden Club work upstate.

Mmes. Fred Monke, Scott W. Greene, and John E. Fouts, discussed the growing of various plants and flowers, producing the "green thumb" fever and yen for the garden tool reach among members present.

Mrs. Hester, the hostess, served delicious cherry tarts and coffee to Mmes. Burkett, John Fouts, Greene, Monke, W. E. Atchison, Jetty V. Clark, R. C. Couch, Sr., Ed Fouts, Bailey Guess, W. E. Huss, Gene Overton, Miss Nettie McCollum, and Mrs. Frank, guest of Mrs. Monke.

Trenet Nobles, 5, Honoree At Birthday Party

Little Miss Trenet Nobles, celebrated her fifth birthday with a party at her home, 1607 North Avenue I on March 1.

The guests arrived at 3 p. m. and enjoyed games and refreshments until 4:30. Game prizes were won by Suzanne Friserson and Cindy Thomas.

Everyone enjoyed watching Trenet open the many nice birthday gifts, and she wishes to thank everyone who brought and sent gifts.

The refreshment table was laid with a Happy Birthday decor with the cake in the center. Ice cream cones were served with the birthday cake.

Mrs. Tanner Has Mission Program At Mary Circle

Mrs. Edna Tanner presented the lesson, "What Missions Mean to Me," at a meeting of the First Methodist Mary Circle meeting at the home of Mrs. Maude Allen Monday afternoon.

Mrs. C. J. Robinson and Mrs. Fannie Holt gave the opening and closing prayers. A new member, Mrs. J. E. Sanders, and a visitor, Miss Florence Crowley, were introduced.

Hot chocolate, coffee, and cookies were served to the following members: Mmes. Robinson, Allen, Holt, Tanner, Christine Spenny, Stella Webb, and Bonnie Buntyn.

Next meeting will be held on April 1.

Esther Circle Has Program On Missions

The Esther Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. Wallace Cox, Jr., Tuesday morning.

Mrs. C. J. Robinson opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Jon Baum, circle chairman, presided during the business session. She announced that the Stamford District Day Apart would be held in Rochester Methodist Church, Wednesday. This is a spiritual life meeting held once each year during the Lenten Season.

The circle program, "What Missions Mean to Me" was presented by Mrs. Wilda Medford.

Mrs. Wallace Cox, Jr., closed the meeting with prayer.

Those present were: Mmes. Johnny Medford, Jon Baum, D. H. Persons, Wallace Cox, Sr., C. G. Carney, L. M. Jeter, Ethel A. Irby, C. J. Robinson, Bob Dulaney, Wallace Cox, Jr., Wilda Medford, Kenneth Lane and Steve Stephens.

Mrs. Weaver Tells Of Early Day, DKG Observes Birthday

Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary society for women teachers, the area chapter of which includes members from Haskell, Knox, Stonewall, and Throckmorton Counties, observed the 27th anniversary of its founding Saturday with a celebration at the Knox City High School.

Mrs. Maxine Klump, of Old Glory, chapter president, was in charge of a business meeting at which Mrs. Mary Jo Leaverett, of Old Glory, was chosen as delegate to the state convention. Mrs. Sallie Wright, of Aspermont, a new member, was introduced.

A theme, "Know Thyself," was developed with Mrs. Mary Jo Lankford, of Knox City, as the leader. Mrs. Virginia Casey of Truscott, presented the retired teachers of the chapter, who discussed what retirement means to them. These included Mrs. Jo Campbell, Mrs. Sammie Carpenter, and Mrs. Gretchen Colehour, of Knox City.

Mrs. Hazel Weaver, of Haskell, was introduced as one of the founders of the Beta Chi Chapter of Knox City, who gave the chapter's history. Mrs. Weaver told of incidents of the early day life of the society.

Refreshments were served by the Knox City members who were hostesses.

Abilene Librarian, Former Haskellite, Will Address BPW

Miss Margaret Anderson, a former resident of Haskell, past president of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Abilene and a leader in the AAUW, will be the guest speaker at the Haskell BPW meeting here on Tuesday, March 12, at 7:30 p. m. in the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank. Mrs. Opal Adkins announced.

The Abilenean will discuss, "The Need of Women To Develop Community Concern," following a theme, "Challenge of Tomorrow," on a program presented by the Personal Development Committee of the local group headed by Mrs. Stanley Furrh.

A graduate of Haskell High School, Miss Anderson attended Abilene Christian College and obtained her bachelor of science degree in library science at the University of Chicago. She was librarian at ACC for a time, and was a partner in a camera and photographic supply business in Abilene for 8 years before becoming head of the audiovisual aid circulation department of the Abilene Public Library.

Miss Anderson is chairman of the college and university division of the Texas Library Association.

WEINERT NEWS

Around Town
Many severe colds and cases of flu have been reported around Weinert recently. So far, not many have had to be hospitalized.

The local fire truck was called out twice the past three days. One fire was a barn on the Wayne Josselot farm north of town, where the O. C. Raynes' residence. Only minor damage was done before the fire was extinguished. There was a grass fire in the East part of town Sunday afternoon, but no damage was reported.

A fire at the Coyt Hix farm northwest of Weinert destroyed two sheds and several hundred dollars worth of farm tools and equipment Saturday morning about 7 o'clock. There is no telephone in that area, and so no help was available to put out the blaze. The fire started when high winds scattered some debris from a trash fire near the equipment shed. Mrs. Hix was slightly injured when she fell while carrying water to try to extinguish the fire. Mr. Russell Davenport owns the farm.

Mrs. Weldon Counts will begin a Teachers Training Course at the Foursquare Church on Wednesday night, March 6. It will run for three consecutive Wednesday nights, and the time will be from 7 to 10:00 p. m.

The Weinert Foursquare Sunday School is a Gold Lamp School, there being only two of such in the whole division. One requirement to remain a Gold Lamp school is to have a training school each year for Sunday School Teachers.

Workers at the cancer unit Wednesday were: Mmes. Fred Monke, Nova Driggers, Myrtle Mathison, A. J. Sanders, M. W. Phemister, and the chairman, Mrs. O. C. Raynes. Do make a note on your calendar to be present for next week's meeting, 2 to 5 p. m.

The Weinert Matron's Club canceled their meeting Thursday, Feb. 28, because many of the members were ill. The high school students were scheduled to be guest speakers, and some of them were too ill to attend, also.

Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Andy Sanders and family of Odessa were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanders.

Visitors in the J. W. Liles home this week were Mr. Liles' niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Liles, and Mrs. Alma Kennedy of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sparkman of Haskell visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tanner on Sunday.

Mrs. Ruby Yaudell, a former resident, who now resides in Munday, was in Weinert last week visiting with friends.

Mrs. L. E. Hunter and son, J. E. Hunter of Goree, were guests in the home of Mrs. Nova Driggers on Monday. Mrs. Hunter is an aunt of Mrs. Driggers.

Weekend guests in the A. D. Johnson home were his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adkerson of Sweetwater; and Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson, Sharon Ann and Dinky Johnson, all of Lubbock. David and Dinky have recently moved to Lubbock, where they are employed with the Johnson Machinery Co. in that city.

Can Kimbrough Go Around Anderson's End of Baylor Line

Long about the fall of '64, in Dallas or Waco, a 6' 4" 230 pound (maybe more) fullback for the SMU Mustangs is going to be trying to go through, around, or over, "that good ol' Baylor Line."

And at one terminus of that Bear barricade will be a 6-foot, 185 pound end (maybe more), hollerin' to Johnny Kimbrough, "Just try it around this side, Buddy." That'll be David Anderson.

These two Haskell Indian standouts, partners now, probably will be glowering giants on the gridiron, at each other, several times in the immediate years ahead.

Last Thursday night, Johnny, who is carrying quite a name into Southwest Conference circles following the feats of his illustrious Dad, Jarrin John, of All-America fame, signed a pre-enrollment application to attend Southern Methodist University. Coach Hayden Fry, Assistant Coach Pug Gabriel, and practically the whole SMU staff converged on John Dudley last Thursday to sign him up.

Herb Zimmerman, personable young cohort and former TCU stalwart now with the Baylor coaching corps, put David on the dotted line.

We know where the routine alignment will be among Haskellites so far as the Methodists and Baptists are concerned, when SMU and Baylor tangle, but how about the rest of us folks? It'll be a time for decision, casting our lot with the Kimbrough, or the Anderson, forces!

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Boykin spent the weekend in Wichita Falls in the home of the Bob Carrolls there.

The R. S. Sanders were in Winters visiting with Mrs. Sanders' parents there. Mr. and Mrs. Raz Gideon.

Mrs. Lester Hutchinson was honoree for a birthday dinner given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hutchinson on her 24th birthday, Sunday, March 3rd. Mrs. Hutchinson is a native of Germany, having come to Texas in October, 1961. She and Lester have two sons, Dieter and Wayne, and a daughter, Debbie. They reside at the present time in Munday where Lester is employed with the Flash-o-Gas Company.

Those present for the Birthday dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hutchinson and daughter of Munday; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lynn and Tod of Goree; Mrs. Oleta Fitzgerald and Cora Jan of Knox City; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Humphries and daughters of Wichita Falls; Miss Joan Cude of Munday, the honoree and family, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hutchinson and Jerry of Weinert.

Sheriff's Posse Heads Out For Angelo Roundup
Haskell County Sheriff's Posse, a riding club of renown, will go to San Angelo Friday to take part in a parade and the grand entry opening the San Angelo Rodeo and Roundup there this weekend.

Riders from here, attired in their red satin shirts with gold and red chaps, will sit strikingly in the saddle at a 10:00 a. m. parade and at the afternoon performance of the rodeo Friday. They will join approximately 15 other West Texas riding clubs in these activities.

At least 18 horses and riders will be decked out in Haskell's colors in San Angelo in a contingent headed by Gene Hunter, president; and Raymond Liles, drill captain. Fred Gilliam is secretary-treasurer of the Haskell organization.

meetings called by Commander Arthur R. Lee of the post and Mrs. Irdie Branton, president of the auxiliary.

E. O. Morgan and Mrs. Martin Rueffer will be installed as commander and president, respectively, of Barracks 1816 and its Auxiliary.

Jim Reeves of Munday, past commander of District 13, of Veterans of WW I, and Mrs. Jane Almonrode, also of Munday, past president of District 13 Ladies' Auxiliary, will have charge of the dual installation ceremonies.

The ceremonies will be preceded by a covered dish supper, and all members of both barracks and auxiliary are asked to come and bring a covered dish.

Five From Here Attend FHA Meet At Stephenville
Five members from Haskell, including the president of the chapter here, Betty Bruton, were among the approximately 1,000 students, sponsors, and teachers representing 100 Future Homemakers of America chapters in 23 counties at a Region IV annual meeting on the campus of Tarleton State College, Stephenville, last weekend.

In addition to the president, Haskell delegates to the FHA sessions included Anita Sotelo, Teresa Galvan, Judy Hudson, and Frances Foil.

Vets Of WW I And Auxiliary To Install
Installation ceremonies for Haskell Barracks 1816, Veterans of World War I, and its Ladies' Auxiliary are set for 6:30 p. m. Friday in the American Legion Building here at

PAINT CREEK ... COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

This is a very busy week for Paint Creek School. First of all it is Public School Week and each grade has prepared an exhibit for the parents and patrons who will visit school Wednesday. Monday night the senior girl's basketball team plays their bi-district game with Rochester at the Haskell gym at 8. Friday, the teachers go to the Oil Belt District T.S. TA meeting at Wichita Falls. Should the girls beat Rochester they go to Canyon Friday to play in Regional basketball. Several Paint Creekers are planning to go to Austin this coming weekend to see the state finals in boys' basketball.

The scouts of troop 48 leave Thursday afternoon for their "Adventures in Citizenship" trip to Austin. Scoutmaster Roy Wiseman is going to make the trip with the 11 scouts who are going.

The scout troop had 10 visitors from the Rule Cub Pack Saturday. One of the requirements for the Webelos badge is for the Cub to visit a scout troop, so they came to ours. Mr. Wilburn May brought the boys and they visited every patrol and roamed around the pasture all morning. Cubs were Bill Jones, Winston May, Rudy Casey, Donnie Barbee, Newton Owens, Bobby Denison, Sammy Simpson, Jimmy Liles, Sonny Self, and Terry Weaver. Also, a new patrol was organized Saturday, and they call themselves the Mites. Randy Wiseman is Patrol Leader with Derrell Davis as his assistant. These Mites are all Tenderfoot scouts, working on Second Class. They only had four Saturday, but there are several more who are planning to belong. The Mites are Mike Brazzel, Dwight Overton, Trey Schwartz, and Jack LeFevre.

The Troop has its first Eagle Scout in two years. Randy Wiseman met with the Eagle Board of Review in Abilene on Monday night, and will receive his badge in a special ceremony soon. Randy is only 13, and the youngest Eagle Scout Troop 48 has ever had. Sonny Coleman of Ft. Sumner, New Mexico spent last weekend with his parents and his sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Cox and children from Lubbock visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cox over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Montgomery have both been very ill with flu this week. Mr. Montgomery was some better Monday. Mrs. Dan LeFevre has the flu, and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Kuenstler were ill all last week with it. That stuff leaves one so weak, and it takes ages to feel strong again. I do hope we don't have an epidemic here. Bill Griffith is ill, and Homer Livengood. Both churches had small attendance Sunday, so we may have more people ill than we have heard about.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buerger were in Abilene Friday to meet his cousin's son, Horst Buerger from Koblenz, Germany. He is 19 years old, and celebrated his 19th birthday on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lee Medford had a little birthday party for him in their home Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Buerger and children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buerger and children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thane, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buerger, the guest of honor and the host and hostess attended. I haven't met him, but Shirley said he is the nicest, finest looking boy. He plans to join the Army soon, Mr. Buerger told me.

Jackie Gilliland, of Tulsa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Estelle Gilliland is a surgical patient in the Lubbock Methodist Hospital. He underwent back surgery last Thursday. Someone said Sunday that he was getting along nicely. He would appreciate cards from friends here. His grandfather, A. J. Jesselet and an uncle, Burnell Gilliland of Haskell, went for the surgery.

Alfred Lemond and Don Hughes of Abilene McMurry College, and Janay Morrison, who sang the special, were guests at the Methodist Church Sunday morning.

The ladies of the Paint Creek Baptist Church are meeting every afternoon this week in prayer services at the church for the Week of Prayer.

Monday morning the Baptist Brotherhood had a Brotherhood Breakfast. Twelve men were present and Sammy Griffith was the speaker.

Mrs. Robert Woods who underwent surgery at the Haskell Hospital week before last is at home and recuperating nicely.

Mrs. John Nanny spent several days in the Haskell Hospital, but is at home now and feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess J. Mickler are spending this week in Ft. Stockton with their son, James Ross and his family.

Dolin Hughes, who has a broken pelvis suffered in a one-car accident several weeks ago in Denton, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hughes recuperating. Dolin was working on his Master's Degree at North Texas State and was teaching some freshman math courses at the college, had to give up his work until next semester.

Mrs. Ray Diddle and the delegates chosen to attend the State FHA meeting at Stephenville this weekend, decided not to make the trip because of the flu epidemic.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kuenst-ler visited their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. John Hisey north of Rule last week. Mrs. Hisey has been ill with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mickler had all their children home for Sunday dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mickler and children of Ft. Worth, Durward Mickler and son, Steve of Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mickler and children of Stamford, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell and children.

Word was received last week of the death of Oscar Gillespie in California. He was a brother of R. A. and G. N. Gillespie, Mrs. J. S. McKeever, Mrs. George Boldin and Mrs. Gene Martindale of this community. Oscar Gillespie moved from here in 1900.

Mary Lou and Ann McLennon of North Texas State University visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLennon, and Alex and Allan, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bounds visited his mother in Albany last week. Mrs. J. J. Bounds has been ill.

Howard Liles, Jr., Mattson Teacher, Goes Into Service

Howard Liles, Jr., member of the faculty of the Mattson School in the Mattson Community, reported for duty at Ft. Polk, La., to begin basic training with a National Guard unit there.

A native of Weinert, Liles graduated from high school in 1955, and obtained his college degree at Sul Ross, in Alpine. He taught school in Ft. Stockton for three years before coming to Mattson in 1962.

Mrs. Liles, the former Estlyn Edwards, of Weinert, is currently teaching at Mattson and will remain on the faculty while her husband is in the service.

Finch Family At Funeral Of Mrs. Finch's Mother

Reverend and Mrs. Douglas B. Finch and family have returned to Haskell from Crowley, La., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Finch's mother, Mrs. Barton W. Free-land, Sr., of that city.

Mrs. Free-land, ill for some time but thought to be improving, died suddenly of an apparent heart attack Sunday, Feb. 17, at her home in Crowley. Her funeral was held from the First Presbyterian Church of Crowley on Tuesday, Feb. 19.

Martha Jane Bynum Makes Dean's List

Miss Martha Jane Bynum, of Haskell, was one of 108 students achieving a 2.5, or B-plus grade average, and making the Dean's Honor Roll for the fall semester at McMurry College, Dr. Joe C. Humphrey, academic dean, has announced, according to word received here.

The young lady from Haskell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bynum. She is a sophomore elementary education major, is active in Gamma Sigma social club on the McMurry campus and is a member of the Student Teacher Association.

MRS. REE GARDNER VISITS IN LEFORS

Mrs. Ree Gardner spent last week visiting in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Garrett in Lefors, Texas.

Mrs. Gardner returned to Haskell Friday night accompanied by Mr. Garrett and children, Dale Ann and Alan. They were enroute from Houston and the family stayed over for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Key and Jerry Larned in Throckmorton.

ATTENTION DOG OWNERS

The City Council has been advised that packs of dogs have been killing and maiming calves and sheep in the vicinity, and it is thought that some of these dogs stray from the city.

They have been asked to take steps to help in the control and to destroy some of the stray or unwanted dogs that roam the streets and alleys.

City Ordinance provides that all dogs that run at large in the City must have a dog tag and rabies vaccination tag.

If your dog has not been vaccinated and does not have a city registration tag, please bring it to the

City Hall Fire Station

TUESDAY, MARCH 19TH
BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 9:00 A. M. & 1:00 P. M.

DR. DAVID BALLARD

will be there at that time to give the rabies vaccination. Please bring your dog on leash and keep under control at all time.

After a reasonable time after the vaccination the veterinarian will instruct its officers to begin destroying dogs running at large in the City.

Give your dog proper protection by supplying proper tags.

YOUR COOPERATION WILL BE GREATLY APPRECIATED!

on. When I pick up the telephone I know the work of Alexander Graham Bell lives on . . . when I turn on the electric light, I realize that the work of Thomas A. Edison lives on . . . and so it is with that greatest of poets, Robert Frost. He has departed from this old world, but his work lives on.

The next generation is going to need books . . . good books and the information that they contain as perhaps no other generation has ever needed them. I only hope that the schools of Haskell, and all other counties in our great country will rise to that challenge and provide not just fiction, but all kinds of good reading. Young people, I have found, will read good books if only they have the opportunity.

I would like to make a deal with "Uncle Sam" whereby I could turn over all our earnings to him . . . and in turn "Uncle" could pay our bills, and refund us anything left over to pay taxes . . . instead of the present system.

The walking craze which has swept the country of late has at least some good merits, despite the fact some people have referred to the "long walk" as "stupid" . . . and remarked, "why don't they expend their energy on some worthwhile projects," such as spading the flower beds, trimming the hedges, weeding the yard, mowing, etc.; however, I think it is a challenge for any persons now and then to see just what he or she can do—and brother, walking, or attempting to walk 50 miles is definitely a challenge.

Prattler does not have a speedometer strapped to my legs, but if I did, I am sure it would register a number of miles daily, in padding all over town, back and forth, in making my contacts. Up until the walking craze hit, many persons had lost the "art of hot-footing it," and I for one am glad to see Americans "back on their feet."

I have always done quite a bit of walking . . . even as a "tow-headed" kid I walked some three miles to school in the morning, and then back home after school.

So many, many things may be seen while walking, that a person is sure to miss in whizzing along in his jalopy. To really enjoy all of mother earth's blessings, one should take a walk now and then. Those hardy souls who walked, or attempted to walk, along with Glenn Shelton, from Wichita Falls to Vernon, recently, I am sure saw many things along the way they had never seen before, even if they had traveled the route many times in their car.

Colonel Green Of Abilene Lions Speaker

"I believe the main reason the Civil Defense Program has never gotten off the ground is due to the lack of an ideal shelter," J. N. (Pete) Green, retired Army Colonel, of Abilene, told members of the Haskell Lions Club, Tuesday noon.

Col. Green, West Texas Utilities Company Engineer, who has done extensive study on Atomic Fall-Out, was introduced to the group by C. O. Hoyt, program chairman for the day.

In the event of an explosion, we should not panic, and should take shelter," Colonel Green said.

"We should be shelter minded and if we are planning to build a home, or remodeling the one we live in, we should include a shelter," the guest speaker said.

"There has been too much talk that a nuclear war will create such havoc and explosions over the United States, and that we are goners," Col. Green said.

Lions Information
B. L. Langston presented the "Lions Information" part of the program, Tuesday noon explaining to the group the membership of the club—active, honorary and members-at-large.

Directors Meet
At the monthly meeting of officers and directors Tuesday morning, plans were made for the Soil Conservation project for April; Broom Sale, May 10 and the Ladies Night program in June.

Frank Martin is in charge of the Soil Conservation project; Dr. B. L. Langston, Broom Sale, and Wallace Cox Jr., Lions Ladies Night.

Officers and directors voted unanimously to send Wallace Cox Jr. to the Lions International Convention at Miami Beach, Florida, June 19-22.

Knox City Duo Wins Weinert Dominothon

A battle of brains and bluff was the order of the evening at the domino duel in which 84 contestants, or 42 teams, parried and thrust at the Weinert School gymnasium recently under the auspices of the Weinert Senior Class, with proceeds benefitting the class trip this spring.

The coveted "champion" title went to Sammy White and R. P. Blanchard, of Knox City. Second place trophies were awarded R. E. Hutchinson and Bill Liles, of Weinert. Consolation winners were Cecil Fitzgerald and John R. Rayburn, of Munday.

Need Is Desperate For Old Sheets For Cancer Center

An urgent appeal for worn bed sheets, any color, and old pillow cases with which to make bandages for cancer patients has been issued by the Cancer Center in Haskell, Mrs. Lee Brown reports.

The need is desperate, and materials with which to make bandages should be sent at once if service is to continue to the present patient load now being cared for by the Cancer Center.

Workers at the last session Thursday at the center included Mmes. Doc Brady, Will Pope, P. C. Spenny, Ray Overton, Alice Mayes, Courtney Hunt, Jesse B. Smith, Bonnie Cothron, Florence Darden, Jack Speer, J. A. Landess, J. W. Brock, H. Russell, Jesse L. Collier, and Lee Brown.

Weinert Baptist Will Hold Revival March 17-24

A revival meeting will be held at the Weinert Baptist Church the week of March 17-24, with the Rev. M. P. Bishop, of Arlington, bringing a series of evangelistic messages twice daily, it was announced Tuesday.

Evening services will be held at 7:30 p. m. daily. Mr. Elmo Favor, of Sweetwater, will direct singing at the services.

At the Weinert Baptist Church, the Women's Missionary Union has concluded a week of prayer in observance of Prayer Week for Home Missions. Theme of the observance was "If my People Pray," and directors of the prayer week were Mrs. Edie Sanders, Mrs. Erma Liles, and Mrs. O. W. Vaughn.

Priddy To Preach

Rev. W. T. Priddy, retired Baptist minister of Haskell, is temporarily filling the pulpit of the South Side Baptist Chapel, and will deliver the message at both services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Barelegged Boys Of Berry's Second At Iowa Park

Haskell High School's track and field barelegged barnstormers, in their first outing on the cinder paths this season, compiled a respectable 45 points to finish second in the Class AA division of the Iowa Park Invitational Meet there Saturday.

The Indians were far outdistanced in more ways than one by the hosts, Iowa Park's Hawks, who ran up 113 points, but finished ahead of three other Class AA schools in the meet, Lake Highland, Shamrock and Claco.

Johnny Kimbrough's 147 ft., 2 1/4 inch hurling of the discus was good for a first place, and David Anderson tied for a first in the high jump with McKinley, of Bowie, at 5' 8".

In the 400-yard relay, Haskell's team was second to Iowa Park which clocked a speedy 4:46 time.

Haskell's Perrin added points to the Indian total with a fourth place in the 220 yard dash, won by Mitchum, of Claco, with 21.5.

Coach Carlos Berry's tracksters will take their talents and hopes of trophies to Graham Saturday, March 9, when they will be entered in the Possum Kingdom Relays.

Volly Ivy Hoped He Would—And Did Make the Ball Club

Volly Ivy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Volly Ivy, of Haskell, has been selected as a member of the Ranger Junior College baseball team. Coach Larry Parker has announced.

Parker said Ivy was one of fourteen selected out of 22 young aspirants who tried out for the team.

Young Ivy is a graduate of Haskell High School and is a freshman student at Ranger Junior College, where he is majoring in physical education. He plans to complete his college work at North Texas State University after finishing at Ranger. He plans a career as an athletic coach.

On an early data sheet, the Ranger school's public relations office reports, Ivy furnished information for the campus newspaper declaring he "hoped to play baseball on the college team." "He made it," the PR office said.

"The Totem" Is New Haskell High Publication

Haskell High School for the first time in its history has entered the magazine publication field with its initial effort, "The Totem," now off the press.

"The Totem," edited by Pamela Baird, contains several poems, one short story, and several short articles written in the style of Time Magazine, Shakespeare, and Uncle Remus tales.

Contributors to the first issue included three Seniors, four Juniors, seven Sophomores, seven freshmen, and an eighth grader, author of the short story.

Mrs. Arlos Weaver, sponsor, said the "Totem" was born out of a need for printed production of worthwhile material sent to the "War Whoop," Haskell High's newspaper, which did not have the space available to handle the copy. So "The Totem" joins "The War Whoop" and "The Chieftain" as the high school's official publications.

Dollie Norton is Editor Baird's assistant, and there is a staff of 10 proofreaders and typists. Next copy of "The Totem," reported to be a "most worthwhile undertaking" will be out in May.

Representative Group Attends WW I Vets Meet

Eight Haskell Countians, including Commander A. R. Lee, represented Barracks 1816 here and Auxiliary, Veterans of World War I, at the recent 13th District convention held in Graham.

Attending the program on the agenda of which appeared state and national officers, in addition to the district staff, were, in addition to Commander Lee, Thomas Evans, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Morgan, of Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rueffer and Mr. and Mrs. Dave H. Persons, of Haskell.

Possum Kingdom Barracks of Graham and its Ladies Auxiliary were host and hostess organizations for the event.

Open House At Weinert

Weinert School will hold open house Wednesday and Thursday in connection with the observance of Public Schools Week and has invited all school patrons in its district to visit classes in session.

A program will be staged by students of the first six grades at 1:30 p. m. Thursday.

33 Students Post All A's In Rule Schools

Thirty-three students in the Rule schools posted all "A" averages to make the Honor Roll for the six weeks period just ended.

The honor roll includes the following: Seniors, Marguerite McQuinn, Judy Jones, Lynn Beard.

Juniors, Dolores Stryker, Carol Sue White, Eighth Grade, Mary Ann Anders, June Hill, Seventh Grade, Nan Jones, Sixth Grade, Caron Cloud, Gayle Richards, Fifth Grade, Winston May, Fourth Grade, Linda Bryan.

Roy W. Herricks Announces For Mayor of Weinert

Roy W. Herricks has resigned his post as city alderman to become a candidate for Mayor of Weinert, City Secretary R. A. Mathison announced as the deadline for filing passed.

Herricks, a well-known Weinert businessman and farmer, also serves as minister of the Foursquare Gospel Church in Haskell.

Appearing on the ballot as candidate for city alderman, according to City Secretary Mathison, will be L. J. (Bud) Adams, Herschel E. Alexander, Donald Griffin, Donald Lamb, and O. W. Vaughn.

Three of these five who garner the most votes will be elected, replacing M. R. Boykin and T. R. Boykin, whose terms expire, and filling the spot vacated by Herricks on the city council.

Wilton Davises Going to Japan on Baptist Mission

Mrs. Wilton Davis of Abilene, the former Eddy Bess Fouts daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fouts of Haskell, and her husband, better known as "Hook" Davis, vice president of the Citizens National Bank of Abilene, active members of the First Baptist Church in that city, are going to Yokohama, Japan, March 22 to take part in a "Baptist New Life Movement" program in that country.

In Yokohama, the Davises, both frequent visitors here, will assist Dr. Herschel Ford, pastor of the First Baptist Church of El Paso in a meeting he will conduct there in connection with the Baptist movement in Japan.

The "Baptist New Life Movement" is an undertaking of the Japan Baptist Convention, Texas Baptists, and the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board. Hardin-Simmons University band is going on the mission. The Davises will return in mid-April.

Exciting Climax to three centuries of superlative design

TRIUNE

THE NEW FURNITURE CLASSIC

by Drexel

From the great furniture periods of centuries past, Drexel has created a correlated classic for today! Masterful design has been blended into one magnificent collection for living, dining and bedrooms. While completely classic in form, contemporary function cleverly threads its way through all pieces. All to be found in Triune—the traditional charm of Sheraton, the elegant traces of Empire and the regal look of Regency. Designers Henry and David Warren chose genuine sable mahogany and added accents of walnut burl for unsurpassed beauty. Further touches of charm may be had by electing top insets of Italian marble. You'll treasure Triune for its design excellence and meticulous construction, always yours in furniture by Drexel.
