Member To Host Highway Session

Tuesday, May 12, a meeting of highway enthusiasts will be held at 7:30 p. m. at the home of John W. Bartley, 277 in a get-together of kindling interest in the potential linkup of a proposed Expressway.

John W. Bartley, 83, a resident of Haskell for the past 40 years, died at 6:50 a. m. Wednesday in Haskell Convalescent Home. He had been in failing health for several months.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Holden's Funeral Home here. He will be buried in Willow Cemetery beside the grave of his wife, who died in 1933.

Both February 6, 1881, in Tennessee, Bartley came to Haskell in 1919, and was a farmer in this area for more than 40 years. He and Martha Frances Fraley were married August 1, 1902, in Waynesburg, Tenn. He was a member of Haskell Christian Church.

Survivors include three sons, R. C., Olen and John Bartley all of Haskell; 20 grandchildren, and 38 great-grandchildren.

Reasons for the delay in the Haskell 84.4 mile Bailey opened last Saturday. It was a four-lane road.

Rule's Chamber of Commerce on Saturday, June 13, will stage a communitywide get-together which the directors have decided to call the "Wild Horse Prairie Roundup" and are planning to make it an annual summertime event, Clyde Grice, president, announced on Wednesday.

Similar to Haskell's "Hey-Day" jamboree, the Chamber of Commerce at Rule "hopes to get off the ground" with the celebration this year on June 13, and expand its activities in future years, Grice reported.

Various committees of the projected event met Tuesday night in the Bluebonnet Cafe at Rule to crystallize planning of the roundup this summer, which is but one month away.

The territory in which Rule is the geographic hub, situated between Haskell and the Brazos River to the west, was long known to oldtimers as "Wild Horse Prairie." Hence, the name for the event expected to be an annual celebration now in the final planning stages of its first observance.

Mop and Broom Slated Friday
Friday, May 15, will stage their mop and broom cleaning day. The board of directors, including chairmen, door and many other useful house.

Jo Nell Anderson And Derrel Davis Awarded Honor 'Peerless' Parade At 4 p. m. Today

Two Haskell Junior High School students were signally honored at an awards assembly here Thursday as recipients of coveted American Legion School Awards annually bestowed by Rogers Cox Post 221 of the American Legion in Haskell.

Jo Nell Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Anderson and Derrel Davis, son of Mrs. Louella Davis, were the honored students. Both are 8th graders.

The awards, tangibly conveyed with a medal and attendant pin, are voted by the entire student body and faculty to the boy and girl deemed most worthy among them on the basis of scholarship, leadership, courage, citizenship and moral character.

Royce Adkins, district attorney, and member of the Americanism Committee and Awards Committee of the American Legion, joined R. V. Black, commander of the American Legion post, in making the presentations before the student assembly.

In a speech at the occasion, District Attorney Adkins explained the background, aims and objects of the Legion, an organization "comprised of men who have fought for their country," and told his youthful audience, "We want you to know we are interested in you."

Adkins said, "The Legion is interested in the future worthwhile citizenship of boys and girls." He called attention to the Legion's sponsorship of Boys' State, its annual presentation of awards such as this, and to the Scout Hut recently completed at the rear of the Legion Hall here. It is one among many locally backed Legion projects benefitting our youth, Adkins pointed out.

Pair Arrested In Burglary of Old Coleman Home

Speedy arrest of two men late Monday after a break-in at a farm residence about 5 miles southwest of Haskell led to the filing of burglary charges against the pair Tuesday by Haskell County Sheriff Garth Garrett.

Sheriff Garrett picked up 2 men identified as Jesse Sanchez, 25, and Gregory Diaz, 44, of Tahoka, at the former's home in the vicinity of the burglary about an hour and a half after a pickup load of furniture was removed from the old J. C. Coleman home near the Plainview School.

Lodged in Haskell County Jail overnight Monday, both Sanchez and Diaz were charged in warrants sworn before District Attorney Royce Adkins Tuesday morning. Sanchez executed a $1,000 bond, and Diaz remained in jail. Both cases await action of the Haskell County Grand Jury.

2 Travelers Hurt In Head-On Crash South of Weinert

An Oklahoma man and one from Missouri were in Haskell County Hospital Wednesday morning after a head-on collision between the cars they were each driving alone on U. S. Highway 277 three miles south of Weinert at 5:30 a. m.

W. J. Asbury, 56, of Independence, Missouri, suffered several fractured ribs and chest injuries, and his condition was described as fair by hospital authorities.

Kenny Amos Blaylock, 19, of Calvin Oklahoma, was in satisfactory condition with a knee injury, scratches and bruises.

Sheriff Garth Garrett and State Highway Patrolman Jesse Priest, who investigated, said Asbury was headed north toward Weinert returning to his home in Missouri from El Paso when Blaylock's southbound car was in collision with his vehicle. The Sheriff said the Oklahoma man's automobile had veered over into the wrong lane, and that Blaylock apparently had dozed at the wheel. Both cars were badly damaged.

Bunting bedecked Haskell will become a haven of horseflesh, snortin' stock, and parthenosis-legged, leather poundin' cowpokes Thursday through Saturday as the annual three-performance run of the Jaycees-sponsored Rice Springs Roundup and rodeo exercises squatter sovereignty here.

Paced by a "parade of the peerless," which will sweep through Haskell at eyeball level Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, three rambunctious rodeo shows will be staged in Jaycees-renovated Rice Springs Arena on successive evenings, beginning at 8 p. m.

The stage-setting parade through town will be headed up, and out, by the crack 71-piece Haskell High School Indian Band and at least a dozen riding clubs from a wide area of Texas. Among them will be Haskell's own Sheriff's Posse, famed palomino mounted and crimson shirtd cavalrycade which has claimed many a trophy over the past five years and brought acclaim from afar.

Jetty V. Clare, head wrangler of the Sheriff's Posse, C. O. Holt, secretary, and Buddy Lane, of the Jaycees, will be the "hot shooters" for getting the parade column on the move promptly at 4 p. m. Thursday.

Thursday night's grand entry at the rodeo grounds promises to be a memorable event as will the belly laugh producing, funnybone tickling gyrations of the following evenings Friday and Saturday.

Jesse Priest, president, and Waymon McBroom, chairman of the rodeo committee, have announced a greased pig chase for Friday night when eight plump porkers will be turned loose to become the property of the 8 to 10 year old boys entering them. On Saturday night, boys 11-12 years old will endeavor to close in on five goats at large in the arena grounds.

The Jaycee officials emphasized that boys entering the

CANCER GROUP HAS ANNUAL MEET, INSTALLATION MAY 21

Annual meeting of the Haskell County Cancer Society honoring the corps of volunteers who made possible a record-smashing 1964 Cancer Crusade in this county, and to install officers for the coming year, will be held Thursday night, May 21, at 8 p. m. in the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank here.

Mrs. R. A. Shaver Jr., of Rochester, outgoing president, has announced.

All volunteers of the 1964 Cancer Crusade, which saw a total of $3,418.87 contributed this year, almost $600 more than the previous record high, will be special guests at the meeting. Other interested persons have a cordial invitation to attend, Mrs. Shaver said.

Dr. Charles Meadows, lungs and heart surgeon, of Abilene, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting.

Under the leadership of Felix Mullino, of Rochester, crusade chairman in the county, and W. O. (Bill) Holden, chairman of the cancer effort in the town of Haskell, a $3,000 goal in the 1964 Cancer Crusade was reached and substantially exceeded.

Mullino has directed an educational campaign on cancer and the methods for battling it, taking the program to every corner of Haskell County.

Mrs. Lee Brown has directed the work of a dedicated group of women who work every Thursday afternoon at the Haskell Cancer Center on the third floor of the Courthouse preparing bandages and other needs to assist cancer patients in the area.

A RUN FOR THE ROSETTES—70 of them in various classes, both performance and halter, plus 18 gleaming trophies, seven of which may be seen on display here, are what horse enthusiasts from a wide area will be reining for in Haskell Saturday at the Eighth Annual Haskell Horse Show, Quarterhorse Division, which is American Quarter Horse Association sanctioned. Here, Jetty V. Clare, left, president of the Haskell Sheriff's Posse, famed riding club here, sponsors of the annual popular horse show, and Felix Mullino, of Rochester, right, superintendent of the show, inspect the dazzling array of trophies and rosettes which go to possessors who will cherish them Saturday.

"VARMINT DROWNING" RAIN IN MILLION-DOLLAR CLASS HERE

Haskell country was "Frog Heaven," and the smiles on the faces of the people were as broad as a West Texas horizon Friday after a "varmint drowning" rain saturated this area most of last Thursday night.

Moisture amounts ranged from 2.75 at the U. S. Weather Bureau Station here to near four inches in a belt of territory bounded by Anson on the south, Seymour to the north, and 20 miles either side of Haskell.

Weatherman Sam Herren said it was 99 here Thursday afternoon before the rain came.

Some hail damage was reported in the Rule area, but otherwise, farmers, ranchers and the general populace had everything for which to be thankful in exclaiming over the moisture which has been a very shy commodity here for the past two months.

Only .27 of an inch was received here during the entire month of April. An additional .30 fell earlier last week. The half inch or so total was all this territory had been able to muster in the way of moisture since mid-March.

The rain was a "life saver," and in the million-dollar class, according to Frank Martin, Haskell County agricultural agent. "It came a little too late to help the wheat crop, but the good will over balance the bad," Martin added.

Rain started here soon after 7 p. m. and continued until past 11 p. m. An additional half inch was recorded in mid-town Haskell between 3 and 5 a. m. Friday, to boost the measurement in town to 3.30. A 2.80 total had been recorded up to 11 p. m. at the City Hall here.

The normally dry draw which runs northwest to southeast through Haskell and winds through Rice Springs Park in town, was bank full, 12 feet wide and about three feet deep early Friday morning for the first time this year.

Twenty-five members and three guests attended the recent installation ceremonies.

Mrs. Foote reported the improvement of the Auxiliary-initiated park development program across the street from (See Mrs. R. L. Foote, P. 12)

Eighteen civic minded individuals and business establishments in this area have joined hands and hearts with the enterprising Haskell Sheriff's Posse, famed riding club here, to sponsor what, according to advance indications, will be the greatest horseflesh spectacle in these parts in years when the eighth annual Haskell Horse Show, Quarterhorse Division, "goes to the post" here next Saturday.

County Democrats 'Resolute' For LBJ And His Program

Haskell County's Democratic Party, in convention Saturday afternoon in the 39th District Courtroom here, invoked the unit rule instructing its delegation to vote for a Texas delegation to the Democratic National Convention "to work to secure the enthusiastic nomination of Lyndon B. Johnson" as party nominee for the Presidency "and his program for the nation."

R. W. Herren, rancher-businessman was elected permanent chairman of the convention and chairman of the delegation to the state convention. Porter Oakes, editor of the Haskell

Free Press, was elected permanent secretary.

The Haskell County convention passed three additional resolutions which will be presented to the state convention— one memorializing the life of the late President John F. Kennedy, one commending Charles M. Connor, Democratic county chairman for the past 12 years, for dedicated and faithful service to the Democracy; Party; and one supporting Precinct No. 3's convention that the County A.S.C. office should be required to inform all operators and land owners by mail and designate a time and public place to meet for each individual community in the county, where they themselves can nominate the candidates' names for committeemen that wish to be placed on the ballot.

The convention also went on record recommending to the Commissioners Court that a study be made by the Court to consolidate some of this county's precincts dating back to "horse and buggy days."

County Chairman Connor, who is retiring from the position, presided at the meeting (See County Demos, Page 12)

Across our desk these last fleeting, festive and frenzied days of school have come stacks of information galore on subjects that set this old mind, or what's left of it, to meandering. Graduation time... recital time... reunions... the Kentucky Derby... rodeoing.

All of 'em set us ambling down Memory Lane. Together with it being Spring, and all that... makes it hard for a feller to tend to the chores.

If you'll indulge us one nostalgic nod, we'd 'prishate it, as Andy Griffith says. It has to do with recitals. We logged a few of them on the "pie-annet" ourselves. And that spelling for our type of playing about sums it up.

When we were taking piano lessons, and practicing nightly, the folks were upstairs, and this overwhelming, foreboding instrument was downstairs. The kitchen was conveniently nearby. We'd race off between "rendering (and that's what we did—not only rendered, but quartered and drew!)" "The Rustic Dance" and "Camel Train" ... to the kitchen. Our patient, understanding and all too lenient Mother learned one could sure store a lot of vittles in the recesses of a Baby Grand.

The recital we will never forget is the one in which we didn't forget our piece or slay the music. We just couldn't find a stopping spot. We were playing "Stars and Stripes Forever." Got to the last few bars and couldn't recall exactly how to wind it up without an abrupt finish. So we just kept playing! We finally made it. Our Dad said afterward that was a well named selection for me, because it looked like I was going on "forever."

Our attention has been called to mention of the plight of the country editor in Dr. Granville Walker's tremendous book, "The Greatest of These..." We think it hilarious, and worth passing on.

The story is told about the country editor who got "tired of being told that he did not report the news without bias." Some of his disgruntled subscribers "charged him with being a liar. In angry retort, he announced that in the issue of the following week he would tell the full truth about everybody and everything."

It need hardly be said that this edition of the paper was awaited with fearful anticipation and when it came off the press, here are a few of the items the townspeople found printed there:

"Dave Conkey died at his home last Friday evening, and there was a big funeral Sunday afternoon. The minister said it was a loss to the community, but I doubt it. The community is better off without him. The doctor said he died of a heart attack. Nonsense—Whiskey killed him."

"The Wednesday Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Gadabout. The program stated they were going to study Shakespeare's play, 'Much Ado About Nothing.' Well, they

Laying It On the Line

A personal friend of ours, we say with pride, who has served with distinction as Congressman from the Texas Panhandle with one of the largest geographic areas to represent of any member of Congress, is a man who knows whereof he speaks on a subject close to his and his constituents' hearts ... WATER.

In his most recent newsletter, the Honorable, and astute, Walter Rogers has plenty to say on the subject and every word of it "holds water." We here in Haskell, and this area, NEED TO TAKE COGNIZANCE of these remarks, which capsuled, we present here as words of wisdom from one who knows:

We Americans now use more than 300 billion gallons of water each day—an amount equal to about one third of the average daily streamflow in the United States, exclusive of Alaska and Hawaii. Our water requirements are expected to DOUBLE by 1980, to triple by the Year 2000. As population increases and industrial demands grow, water problems are becoming more and more acute. In one form or another, water problems exist in every part of the United States.

And the challenges posed by these problems MUST be met. We of this area are as "water conscious" as any regional populace in the nation. Rain, or its absence, has a dramatic way of affecting our lives and our fortunes. And certainly the citizens of some 10,000 American cities who each summer experience "waterless" days, when reservoirs or ground supplies run dry, are well aware of our water problems. But many of our fellow citizens DO NOT AS YET REALIZE THE EXTENT OF THE PROBLEM; MANY ... ASSUME THAT WATER IS AS FREELY AVAILABLE AS THE AIR THEY BREATHE.

The challenge we face in the United States IS TO MAKE THE BEST POSSIBLE USE of the "manageable" water supply available to us. If the total amount of rain and snow that falls on the United States in an average year was spread evenly over the country, it would stand 30 inches deep.

But of that 30 inches, 21 inches return to the atmosphere. Our manageable supply consists of the 9 inches that drain from the land or seep into the ground. From this supply we now withdraw 3 inches of water, of which, after use, one inch returns to the atmosphere, and 2 inches return to the stream network. Of the 3 inches we use from the supply available, we obtain about 80 percent from lakes and streams, and the other 20 percent from wells.

Clearly, if we are to provide for the needs of the future, we must find ways to INCREASE OUR ABILITY TO TAKE LARGER AMOUNTS FROM THE 9-inch total potentially available.

But national averages such as cited above are misleading. As we in our area know only too well, some areas of the country receive more precipitation than others. The problems, thus, differ from one area to another. In some areas, as most West Texans would recognize quickly, a combination of these problems HEIGHTENS THE CHALLENGE AND QUICKENS THE NECESSITY for solution. In some areas, the TOTAL problem could consist of these factors: short supply, variability in the supply, distribution of the available water, and control of chemical and sediment deposits.

To meet the demands of the future, Federal, State, and private water resource development programs must concentrate on five specific kinds of activity, the first named being: REGULATING STREAMFLOW THROUGH CONSTRUCTION OF SURFACE RESERVOIRS AND THROUGH WATERSHED MANAGEMENT.

We must increase our understanding of the role of water in its many uses and explore new and better ways of conserving precious water supplies while using them to best advantage.

Increasing demands on our limited water supplies have brought conflicts in planning between Federal, State, and local agencies. The primary need NOW is for some better means of orderly planning, coordinated effort and a sensible division of responsibilities.

In planning such a program, AND ONE MUST BE PLANNED, for the good of the people as a whole, coordination and cooperation are ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL. We repeat, CONFLICT OVER WATER RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT IS A LUXURY WE CANNOT AFFORD. The time that conflict consumes will find us with too little ... too late.

FIVE GENERATIONS SPANNING 81 YEARS—There were five generations represented when members of the K. D. Simmons family gathered recently for a family reunion in Haskell. Mrs. Simmons, second from left, was 84 Sunday, May 3. A birthday reunion gathering was held in her honor recently in the family home in Haskell she has occupied for 56 years. Left to right here are Mrs. W. G. Alderson, a daughter, formerly of Haskell, now of Lubbock; Mrs. Simmons; Mrs. Pete Baker, great-granddaughter, whose husband is an SMU law student from Anson; Gene Alderson, grandson of the octogenarian, who is a city commissioner in Lubbock; and the sole great-great grandchild, William Eugene Baker, 3½ months.

Mrs. K. D. Simmons, Matriarch Of Family, 84 Years Young

Thirty-eight members of her family, with five generations represented, attended the 84th birthday observance recently of Mrs. K. D. Simmons, the pert, keen-eyed and sharp-witted matriarch of a family which came to Haskell in a covered wagon 63 years ago, in 1901.

The Simmons family reunion was held here at 407 North Avenue B, which has been the family home for 56 years, since 1908.

The honored octogenarian was born Bertha May McClanahan on May 3, 1880, in Lee County, Texas. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McClanahan.

She attended school at Lexington, Texas, and Mary Hardin-Baylor College at Belton.

On October 20, 1897, Miss McClanahan married Kias Dee Simmons in Lexington, and together they made the covered wagon overland trip to Haskell in 1901.

Mrs. Simmons has been a member of the Baptist Church for 73 of her 84 years, having joined the church in 1891, and has been a member of the First Baptist Church of Haskell 60 years, since 1904. She was an active worker in the Sunday School and Woman's Missionary Union until her health forced her retirement.

Her late husband, K. D. Simmons, had farming interests all his life, and owned and operated a livery stable from 1906 to 1917 where the present Haskell City Hall is located. He was a rural mail carrier from 1918 to 1942. Mr. Simmons died in 1944.

This grand old lady of Haskell has three living daughters and one son. They are: Mrs. W. G. Alderson, of Lubbock; Mrs. Conner Christian, Mrs. Trav Everett, and Harvey Simmons, all of Haskell. Three of her children have died. They were Mrs. Mae Wright, Mrs. Kyrene Morris and Kias Dee Simmons, Jr.

A granddaughter, Mrs. James Jones, of Rule, was raised by Mrs. Simmons.

Mrs. Simmons has 9 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandson, a majority of whom were here for the important mile-post on life's highway observed here on a recent Sunday.

Scott Stupovers Mrs. H. G. Scott, of 600 So. 12th, had as her Mother's Day visitors her daughter, Mrs. Norman L. Nichols, son-in-law,

Mr. Nichols, and their four children, all of Lancaster, Texas. One of the highlights of the visit was a family picnic at Lake Stamford.

The Good Earth

As the rays of the sun A gay pattern weaves, Violets are peeping Up through the leaves, by MRS. B. F. COBB

We went to Galveston April 30th and I was enthralled by the wild flowers we saw on the trip.

Between San Saba and Llano we stopped at a roadside park, climbed a stile and up some steep craggy rocks where we could see for miles in every direction. The meadows were dotted with bluebonnets, wild phlox, blackeyed susan, Indian blankets and yellow daisies.

Climbing the hills to the edge of the trees were blue salvia, purple catclaw, yellow and brown cone flowers, pink shamewaves and orchid balmo-

nia. As we journeyed on, we passed miles and miles of white poppy thistle, with pink primroses dancing in the wind. Milkweed, the low growing kind that arrangers of dried material are so fond of, sprawled along the road embankment.

An old rock fence, with yucca peeping through, made a beautiful frame for the dusty miller, yellow buttercups, purple verbenia and fucia colored hollyhocks, that sparkled in the meadow.

Balmunia or campanula stayed with us on most of our journey. As we approached the low flats they gradually disappeared.

Patches of bluebonnets and salmon colored godeta showed their faces all along the way. We passed white spider lilies, blooming in the bar ditches as we neared the coast. They seek swampy low moist places to grow. The foliage of this type spider lily lives all summer and dies down in winter like any other bulb. They will grow and thrive in this dry country; but require lots of water. My bulb survived the winter and the broad green blades are about six inches high.

The lush pastures of the low lands were so covered with yellow buckwheat, prim roses, wild larkspur and Queen Ann's lace they looked like grandmother's patchwork quilt.

As we crossed the West Bend River, the dense undergrowth so amazed me I didn't even notice the water. Wild roses honeysuckle, trumpet vine and briars formed an impenetrable barrier to the river. Swamp dogwood, red haw and elder berries peeped up through the tangled mass to show their clusters of white flowers. The white, pink, orange and yellow flowers presented a breathtaking picture against the green foliage. Their fragrance permeated the air.

We crossed to Boliver Rhodes to do some fishing. The fog was so thick the ferry was constantly blowing its horn. All among the rocks on the coast grew the green money plant sprinkled with clumps of Indian blanket.

As we started home by way of Temple wild larkspur, Indian paint brush and Queen Annie's lace were waving in the mist.

As we journeyed nearer home purple pines of lobelia and yellow thistles made their appearance. Indian paint brush turned the roadside into a thing of beauty from the coast to Cross Plains. Bluebonnets and sweet alyssum covered the countryside in many places.

We only saw the pink Texas star in one meadow, it was a little early for it to make its appearance. Wild phlox of almost every hue showed their faces for miles. Near Milano, fucia hollyhock turned the hills into velvet carpets.

Tall stately bear grass stood like sentinels guarding the blackeyed susans and yellow buttercups, that graced the hill side.

The sun sank just as we left Cross Plains, but we could still see the hills between there and Abilene, that were blanketed with orchid and purple campanula, mingling with brown cone flowers and yellow buttercups. An occasional patch of bluebonnets showed their smiling faces along the right of way.

With all the beauty of our trip, there was a certain fascination about West Texas, beckoning us on to home sweet home.

We arrived at Haskell tired, but with the feeling that truly "the good earth" is a wonderful place to live.

ies E savings bonds and gave the Scottish Rite Crippled Children's Home of Dallas $28,000 in cash late last year. In February of this year, she gave $44,500 in face value interest-bearing H-bonds to the Methodist Orphan's Home in Waco. Miss Crouch lived on the farm with her brother, W. P. Crouch until his death in 1953 when she moved into Haskell. Oil and gas were discovered on the farm in 1949. She lived in an old home alone here until about six months ago when she moved to the Rice Springs Nursing Care Home.

"She always lived frugally," despite her income, Ratliff said. Her only surviving relative here, O. L. Crouch, a nephew, appraised his aunt simply as "a good woman."

Last year, and again early this year, Miss Crouch called in Charles Swinson, former cashier of the Haskell National Bank here, and without prior solicitation from anyone, asked him and Ratliff to make the necessary contacts and arrangements for presentation of the gifts to her chosen charities.

Funeral services were held last Thursday in the First Methodist Church here, of which she was a longtime member. Burial was in Haskell's Willow Cemetery. Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Imogene Bishop, of Hearne, and Mrs. Lina Graham, who is in a care home in Houston.

Known as an orderly woman always, Miss Crouch had made all her funeral arrangements, down to the last detail.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Monday from the Utter-McKinney Mortuary, 3719 West Slausen Avenue, in Los Angeles, and burial will be in Endlewood Cemetery there.

The Pete Riches were a pioneering Weinert family who came to North Haskell County soon after the turn of the century and lived there until the early 1940's. Mr. Rich is buried in Weinert Cemetery.

Mrs. Rich's survivors include four sons, Ben of Merkel, John and Jack of Burbank, Calif., and Bob of Oklahoma; and two daughters, both of whom live in California.

Eighth Graders Book Drive Nets 3,150 Volumes

A community-wide book drive here initiated as a competitive project of two Eighth Grade classes in Haskell Junior High School taught by Mr. Lee Musselwhite, has ended with 3,510 books collected to benefit the Junior High and Haskell County libraries.

A contest was waged with a spirit reported to be without precedent at the junior high school between two class sections taught by Mr. Musselwhite. The competitive groups canvassed the town with enthusiasm. The Fifth period students won the contest, obtaining 3,276 books.

Team leaders in the organized effort to secure books were Pam Reeves, daughter of County Clerk and Mrs. Bill Reeves; Brian Dulaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Dulaney; Jo Nell Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Anderson; and Patrick Pace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Pace Jr. Many of the books collected are in need of mending, repair and restoration before being catalogued and placed on the shelves of the two libraries. This project also is being prospected with enthusiasm and it is anticipated that most of the books brought in during the highly productive canvass can be utilized.

Tom Barfield Talks On Parliamentary Law At DA Group

Tom Barfield, Haskell businessman and civic leader, was the principal speaker last week at a special meeting of the 17th District Dental Assistants Society in the Woman's Club in Abilene.

Some 50 members of the organization heard Barfield discuss parliamentary law and rules of order.

Opal Smith, of Haskell, dental assistant in the clinic of Dr. William J. Kemp here, was program chairman for the meeting. She is a member of the By-Laws Committee of the national dental assistants' society.

Mrs. Barfield attended the Abilene meeting at which her husband addressed the group.

Cancer Center Urgently Needs More Materials

Volunteers at the Haskell Cancer Center, who regularly service a number of cancer patients in the area with necessities, are in urgent need of sheeting 35x25 inches in dimension with which to continue taking care of patients' needs.

Any torn sheets or pillow cases, or worn out bed linens can be put to good use for a charitable and tremendously important cause, said Mrs. P. C. Spenny, one of the volunteer leaders at the Cancer Center.

Contributions of this type will be welcomed at the Haskell Cancer Center, Courthouse, Haskell.

Volunteers work on bandages and other needs of cancer patients at 2 p. m. every Thursday on the third floor of the Courthouse here. More help also would be welcomed.

Serving thus far in May have been: Mmes. Spenny, John Brock, J. H. Montgomery, R. E. Overton, J. R. Davis, J. B. Edwards, M. E. Wilson, H. Russell, Alice Mayes and J. A. Cain. Mrs. W. G. Pope sewed on a home project.

HD Leaders In County Attend Area Sessions

Haskell County home demonstration leaders have actively participated in two district meetings last week at Crowell and Benjamin.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Mary Jo Leverett, county home demonstration agent, was one of 15 women with similar county executive assignments at Benjamin for a District 3 planning meeting.

At Crowell, Mrs. Leverett presided over the morning agenda. Fern Hodge, the district home demonstration agent headquartered in Vernon, was in charge in the afternoon.

The previous day, a district meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association members was held in Crowell at the First Methodist Church.

Attending from Haskell County were Mmes. Albert Hannz, T. M. Patterson, Paul Cothron, Bill Fouts, H. E. Bland, O. W. Whitaker, W. B. Guess, Scott Hutchens, W. C. Winchester and county home demonstration agent, Mrs. Leverett.

Former residents of the almost extinct northwest Haskell County communities of Pinkerton, Whitman and Foster, 106 in number, assembled at the American Legion Hall here recently for their annual homecoming.

In addition to representative groups from all towns in the immediate area, the returnees for the reunion were from Johnson, Kansas, Weatherford, Waxahachie, Brownfield, Big Spring, Clyde, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Paris, Austin and Abilene.

A sumptuous feed was spread and all participants reported that American Legion Hall "ran knee deep in nostalgia" as old-timers recalled events of yesteryear in this territory.

Henry Smith, of Weinert, and Mrs. Claude Ashley, of Haskell, were elected president and secretary, respectively, of the reunion, succeeding Claude Norman, of Rule, and Mrs. L. H. Gibson, of Haskell, who have served for the past two years.

Plans were discussed to make next year's reunion coincide with the annual district singing convention, a traditional spring event here.

Rule Seniors Are Feted With Event By First Baptist

Rule High School seniors, their sponsors, teachers and workers in the Young People's department of the church, were entertained Tuesday night, April 28, with their annual smorgasbord in the banquet room of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. A. D. May, Mrs. R. C. Pool and Mrs. Joe B. Clod greeted guests. Baby pictures of the seniors were on the walls, and the guests tried to identify them.

The banquet room and tables were decorated with silhouettes and cut-outs of graduates in caps and gowns.

The Rulettes, comprised of Paula Pinkard, Jana Kile and Virginia Westbrook, accompanied by Mrs. Jerry Estep, furnished music for the evening. Rev. Rodney C. Dowdy served as master of ceremonies and gave a short devotional on "Doors."

200 Turn Out For "Work Day" At Rule Cemetery

More than 200 people equipped with garden tools converged on the Rule Cemetery recently for a "work day" during which most of the business establishments in town cooperated by closing.

Bill Dunnam and Lonnie Martin comprised the committee to see that lemonade aplenty was consumed by the citizen volunteers.

Many from out-of-town came to Rule for the work-day to clear graves of grass and stubborn weeds. The work of the volunteers was supplemented by "hands" some citizens paid to help with the project.

Rams And Tigers Deadlocked For League Lead

Haskell's Little League settled down to some salty sessions on the diamond during the past week of this young season.

Last Thursday's scrap between the Cubs and Tigers was gully-washed out.

On Friday, Cliff Morris' Hawks edged Dude Mercer's Lions 3-2 in one that was about as evenly matched as you can get. Each nine collected 5 hits and made 3 miscues. Darrel Crouch for the Hawks, and Randy Stone, for the Lions, each smashed a 4-ply blow. Pringle was winning hurler, while Wilcox, who went all the way, lost a heartbreaker. Santos Rodriguez caught for the Lions; Gibbs was Pringle's battery mate. Saturday night, Bill Reeves' Rams pounced on Allen Rieve's Cubs for a 9-2 victory. The Rams had 7 hits off Cub slammers Hal Spain and Andy Gannaway. Wayne Davis kept the situation well in hand pitching for the Rams. Gary Mayfield and Randy Foster were his backstoppers.

Volley Ivy's Tigers clawed the Hawks 11-2 Monday night behind the 2-hit pitching of Billy Wiseman. Roy Pitman and Gary Felker were the behind-the-plate strategists.

Among the 11 safeties rapped by the Tigers were 2 towering homers by Lanny Ivy, who also flashed afield with an unassisted double play. Pringle took the loss on the record books, although the Hawks paraded 3 to the mound. Gibbs was the Hawk catcher.

At presstime, the Rams and Tigers were deadlocked with 2 wins and no losses to lead the 6-team major league. The week's schedule: Thursday, Cubs and Hawks; Friday, Tigers and Rams; Saturday, Lions and Cubs; Monday, Tigers and Cubs; Tuesday, Lions and Rams.

PAINT CREEK . . . COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

Wasn't the rain fine? Our gauge showed 2.4 inches. The Frank Underwoods just east of the school, received 2 inches; the Hoyt Perrys just this side of the south end of the lake, received 2:20, so it must have been practically all over the community. Maybe it will help the wheat some, but it is so near Harvest that it may not do much good. It will be wonderful for the young feed and cotton. On the way to College Station this weekend we saw people chopping their little cotton, and the corn was about a foot high.

The Gene Overtons and Walter visited their son, Mike, at College Station for the Parent's Day ceremonies. We were made proud when Mike was given the medal for the Best Drilled Sophomore in Company A-3.

and he carried the guidon in the Sunday morning ceremonies at Kyle Field. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Underwood spent Sunday in Weinert with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Colon Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Overton, Dwight and Marcia, spent Saturday night in Abilene with her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Opitz and sons.

At the organizational meeting of Paint Creek Explorer Post 8 at the Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, Danny Isbell was elected president; Randy Wiseman, vice president; Phil Coleman, secretary; Bob Earles, treasurer; Dorell Davis, quartermaster, and Mr. Roy Wiseman, Explorer advisor. The Explorers of the North-ern District bowled at the Stamford Lanes on Friday night and for the Paint Creek Post, Danny Isbell was high, with Randy Wiseman second. Stamford won first place. Explorers attending are Phil Coleman, Dorell Davis, Danny Isbell and Randy Wiseman and Mr. Roy Wiseman, Advisor.

Mrs. Charles McBeath of Amarillo, Mrs. Jimmy New, of Lubbock, and Mrs. Doc Jones, of Rule, spent last Tuesday in the home of their sister and aunt, Mrs. Gene Overton, Mr. Overton and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Overton were in Highland Friday, May 1, where they visited their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. James Merle Raughton. The Raughton children, Jean Ann, Jimmy and Janie, came home with them and spent the weekend while their parents went to Alpine to find a place to live this summer while they are in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perry and children and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Earles and Bob, were in Abilene Monday night and Ricky and Bob went before the Eagle board, at the Scout office.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mickler had their son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mickler and children, from Fort Worth, to spend a weekend with them two weeks ago, and I failed to mention it. Leon Hokanson has gone back to work for the same company in Abilene where he worked before going into the service. He spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albin Hokanson.

Mike Overton, Tracy Lackey of Muleshoe, and Gary Gosney, of Forest Hills, Fort Worth, spent last weekend with Mike's parents and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton, Wallar and Bill. The three boys are sophomores in Texas A&M.

Mrs. Mary Hyde, Homemaking teacher at Paint Creek, spent last weekend in Gainesville with her parents. Mrs. Hyde has been in hospital with strep throat. She and Shirley Gibbs were to have gone to Austin for the state FHA meet, but Mrs. Hyde became ill.

Mrs. Thelma Bricker and her mother, Mrs. Wayne Perry spent a week in Fort Worth recently visiting their brother and son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Press Perry.

I don't believe I have ever done this before, but I must make a retraction of a retraction of a news story on William Overton. We received a hurriedly written letter as he left for a bivouac telling us that he had won the Fort Polk Talent contest. So we take the letter to Mr. Oakes and he writes a flattering story about it, and we got another letter from William after the story was printed saying he really won one division of the contest.

because it was judged one of the best two of 69 entered in the Playhouse in the Park contest for children's plays in Philadelphia recently. So there is the retraction—William has had a lot of fun being in talent shows and working the officer's clubs at Fort Polk, but only his mother thinks he is the greatest talent this side of the Mississippi.

Incidentally he left for Fort Polk and the remaining four months of his army career last Thursday. He spent Friday at Garland visiting Bobby Sego. Supt. Pat Morrison and daughter Jo spent last weekend in Lubbock with the Sam Chaffins. Mr. Morrison attended the track meet, Edwin Livengood also was in Lubbock to see about attending Texas Tech next fall.

Mrs. Thelma Bricker and Mrs. Wayne Perry are visiting in Albuquerque, New Mexico this week with Mrs. Perry's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Radean Grewset and children of Plainview and Capt. and Mrs. Ervyn Logan of Lubbock spent Mother's Day weekend with the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walton were in Mrs. J. F. Caddenhead's piano recital at the Baptist Church in Haskell Friday night.

Mrs. James Merle Raughton and children of Highland spent the Mother's Day weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Overton while James attended the track meet in Austin.

Mrs. Paul Fischer is a surgical patient in the Haskell Hospital. She underwent major surgery last Tuesday and her daughters, Paulette Fischer and Mrs. Sam Chaffin of Lubbock, came and returned to school Wednesday.

Mrs. Glen Walton underwent a tonsilectomy at the Haskell Hospital last Monday. She is recuperating nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sandifur and children of Fort Worth spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Kuenstler.

Mr. and Mrs. Twain Mickler and Mr. and Mrs. Roddy Kuenstler are spending a few days in Corpus Christi vacationing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and sons, William and Wallar, attended the Golden wedding anniversary reception for Mr.

and Mrs. Charles Sunday, May 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorell Davis. Mrs. Sunday attended the reception at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earles.

Mrs. Glen Walton attended the track meet in Austin last weekend and visited in San Marcos with his brother, Raymond Medford, Mrs. Medford and their son.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cockrell and children spent the weekend in Abilene visiting relatives.

Old coins never die... they just "fade away" into collector's piggybanks!

However, as most collectors already know, the age of a coin has very little or no relation to its worth. Some coins dated hundreds of years ago, may have only a small value, while on the other hand some coins dated after 1900 may be in demand as great prizes.

I heard of one fellow who offered to trade his wife for a rare collection of coins on the basis he could get another wife.

Just another reminder, tomorrow, Friday, May 15, Haskell Lions will stage their big, annual mop and broom sale, including many worthwhile and useful household items for the home.

Funds obtained from the sale will benefit the Texas Light-house for the blind, and also help to provide needed cash for the Lions Goodfellows Fund. Be a good fellow, and when a Lion knocks on your door, purchase your brooms, mops, etc., from him.

Haskell will be host this weekend to scores of visitors from this area attending the annual Jaycee Rice Springs Rodeo which opens tonight and continues through Saturday night.

Also on tap during rodeo weekend is the big, annual horse show which will be held Saturday, with the Saddle Tramps, sponsors. The rodeo and horse show should fill Haskell with hundreds of spectators this weekend.

A full slate of rodeo contests will be presented each night with some of the best ropers and riders in this section competing. Cowboy sports are rough and exciting, providing the spectator thrill after thrill as the different contests are presented. And no matter how many steers or broncs have seen ridden, there's always a thrill and new excitement every time the chute opens.

Haskell Jaycees and the Saddle Tramps have worked hard in promoting this weekend events. See the rodeo parade this afternoon, then make plans to attend the show each night, and the horse show on Saturday.

Texans, who marched to the polls in the first primary and gave Senator Ralph Yarborough such a large vote of confidence proved that voters do not fall for "mud-slinging," and false statements as the "Old Scotsman," Gordon McClendon tried to cram down the throats of Texans.

In the General Election in November, Sen. Yarborough will face either George Bush or Jack Cox, Republicans (Bush or Cox will be eliminated in the Second Republican Primary June 6). This scribe does not think Yarborough will have much trouble with Bush or Cox, whoever he is pitted against. He will have less trouble with Cox who has played both sides of the fence... running as a Democrat and as a Republican in past campaigns. Jack Cox has run so many times and has racked up such a wonderful record of defeats, that I doubt if he could win even a place for sewer custodian.

It is about the time high school graduates are asked to indicate their potential. Their place in society, 10 or 20 years from now will be largely determined by the road they set out upon at this point. Friends and family can be very helpful. The adult years of experience can illustrate certain practical axioms.

Thinking about graduation, reminds me of this one: A father was buying a watch for his son's graduation gift. "I suppose," said the clerk, "that it's to be a surprise." "I'll say it is," replied the father. "He's expecting a convertible."

June, the month of weddings, is just around the corner and I am reminded of this one: At a 25th wedding anniversary party, the husband seemed very morose, so a friend tried to console him. The husband explained, "On our fifth anniversary I wanted to kill my wife but my lawyer told me I'd get 20 years. Just think! Today I would be a free man!"

Thought for the day: All people smile in the same language.

When asked what her father was doing, the little girl replied, "He's listening to the Ignited Nations."

Lady driver to mechanic: "Fix my horn, my brakes don't work."

Tuesday's Program

Bill Estep presented the program at Tuesday's meeting and showed a very timely film, "High School Drop Outs." The film pointed out the need of higher education, and the situations young men and women find themselves in when they drop out of school.

Lions will meet next Tuesday noon, May 19, at the Legion Hall at which time Highway 277 plans will be discussed.

Junior Class to See TEC's Film Friday On School Dropouts

"When I'm Old Enough, Goodbye," the dramatic story on film of a dropout, will be shown members of the Junior Class of Haskell High School in two separate groups in order not to interrupt their regular classroom schedules on Friday.

Bill Estep, manager of the Texas Employment Commission office in Haskell, procured the film and is showing it to all interested groups. The film is sponsored by the TEC in cooperation with the United States Employment Service.

One of the principal reasons for showing the film is the increasing concern of the public employment services over the high rate of unemployment among school dropouts, the rising proportion of youth in the labor market, and the fact that the "hard core" of today's unemployed are the dropouts of 10, 15 and 20 years ago.

The film depicts the problems encountered by a youth who drops out of school to work. Estep said he would accept invitations to show the film to interested groups who contact his office in the Haskell County Courthouse here.

HHS' FLEET FOOTED FOURSOME COLLECTS 20 POINTS AT STATE

A fleet-footed foursome of courageous eindersmen from Haskell High School collected 20 points and a respectable 9th place near the top among the cream of the 1961 track crop at the State Inerscholastic finals in Austin last Saturday.

One tenth of one second separated the fearless flyers, Haskell's 440-yard relay team, composed of James Brown, Joe Josselet, Wayne Perrin and Joe Thigpen, from the glory tape at the finish of a tremendous duel with Liberty, the top school in the meet.

Carlos Berry's boys clocked 42.9, their fastest time this year, behind Liberty's 42.8. Haskell's superb effort beat out a highly touted Brady and Lake Highlands, which had outrun the Indians twice earlier in the season.

Although he sped the 100 in a blazing 9.9, James Brown had to content himself with fourth place honors in the state tournament in his sprint. Again, it was that one-tenth of a second. Three competitors turned in 9.8 times, one of them breaking the tape first to win.

All in all, it was a scintillating season on the cinder paths for the Indians, and a credit to their school and their community.

Rule 1-Act Play Ranked Second In Entire State

Rule High School's one-act play, "The Heritage of Wimpole Street," directed by Mrs. C. W. Dunnam, placed second in the State of Texas among Class B schools in the Texas Interscholastic League meet last weekend in Austin.

Louetta Barbee and Brent Davis, members of the cast, were named to the all-star cast in the state competition. Three boys and three girls are selected for this honor. Other members of the Rule play cast were Janice Hertel, Jana Kile and Joe Cannon. Patsy Clark and Hal Oulvey served as alternates and stage hands.

Menard placed first in the state meet with presentation of "Ralph Roister Doister," a comedy. It was Menard's fifth win of a state one-act play title.

A total of 136 Class B schools participated in the 1-act play contests, beginning at district level, the top six, Rule High School among them, competed in Austin last weekend.

Annual Banquet At First Baptist Salutes Seniors

Haskell High School's 1961 graduating class will be honored at a banquet at Fellowship Hall in the First Baptist Church of Haskell at 7:30 p. m. Friday, continuing an annual event on the pre-graduation schedule here.

Gordon Lam, a Hawaiian student at Hardin-Simmons University, will be the principal speaker for the festive occasion. He will be introduced by Charles Merritt, director of youth activities at the First Baptist Church of Haskell.

Theme of the annual banquet given the Seniors here will be "Around the World in Eighty Minutes."

Jackie Clay Harvey Will Be Graduate Of Cisco Jr. College

Jackie Clay Harvey, of Haskell, is one of 30 graduates of Cisco Junior College who will be presented a certificate of achievement at commencement exercises in the First Baptist Church in Cisco Thursday night, May 21, at 8 p. m.

Dr. T. M. S. Spencer, president of San Jacinto College, Pasadena, Texas, will be the commencement speaker.

Dean E. W. Mince of the college will make certification for the class at the exercises, and Dr. H. C. Brown will award diplomas to Harvey of Haskell and other members of the graduating class who represent 14 other Texas communities.

4-H, HD Leaders Report Activity To Judge, Court

Four-H Club adult leaders and home demonstration chairmen, appearing before County Judge James C. Alvis and the Haskell County Commissioners Court in session here Monday, reported comprehensively to the commissioners on accomplishments of the activity year now drawing to a close at the end of the school year.

Mrs. Sonny Denson, of Rule, told of the organization and operation of 13 4-H clubs in the county during 1962-63, with 265 enrolled. More than 50 took part in recent countywide competitions to determine the right to enter district contests.

With 29 Haskell County youths going to the District 2 contests on May 2 in Wichita Falls, the county won three first places, three each second and third places, four fourths, and five fifth place recognitions.

Two first place winners are advancing to state 4-H contests at College Station this weekend.

A total of 24 4-H adult leaders were active in the program, Mrs. Denson said.

Home demonstration key personnel added a club at Sagerton, to the four already in existence, and sent 10 of its number to the recent district Texas Home Demonstration Association sessions in Crowell.

Mrs. Paul Cochran, in a home demonstration activity report, emphasized the special project of 51 members of four county HD clubs, principal among them being assistance with the Abilene State Hospital program, sponsorship by the New-Mid Club of a boy at the Abilene State School, contributions to the soft drink fund at the State Hospital, and operation of a speakers' bureau.

Mrs. Thurman Howeweth, chairman of the Triple-E program of 4-H and HD clubs (Education, Expansion and Exchanges) briefed County Judge Alvis and the Commissioners on the countywide training sessions held this year, including a weight control clinic in January, "Meal from freezer" demonstration in February, and council training session. 4-H adult leaders had six training sessions during the year. The 4-H and HD agents of the county averaged direction of at least three training sessions per month.

Judge Alvis was high in praise of Mrs. Mary Jo Leverett and Frank Martin, the agents

They Came to the Campbells Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Campbell, of Weibert, entertained 41 persons in a family reunion at their home Sunday. Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Parks and children, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thompson and son, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Thompson and children, and Mrs. Clarence Thompson, all of Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Burdine and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Arbuckle and children, of Big Spring.

3 New Nine Teens Named; Rainbow Concert Is Near

The "Nine Teens," Haskell High Schools widely traveled popular choral group directed by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bell, are losing three Seniors by graduation, and their replacements were chosen from among 14 who tried out recently.

The choices for inclusion in this select singing circle are: Peggy Thigpen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joe Thigpen; Pamela Druesedow, a freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Druesedow; and Bobbie Kimbrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kimbrough. All three new "Nine Teens" are freshmen, and all three are members of the Haskell Indian Band.

Peggy will sing soprano, Pamela, 2nd soprano, and Bobbie is an alto.

All three have begun practice immediately with the 1963-64 Nine Teens in preparation for their annual Rainbow Concert, at which the departing seniors will sing their swan song and the new members inducted in a ceremony that has become a nostalgic institution at Haskell High School. Nine Teens from former years come for this occasion.

Departing Seniors will be Jo Helen Elliott, Karen Brown, and Ruby Kay Alvis.

The nucleus of the 1964-65 Nine Teens will be Andrea Baird, Judy Anderson, Jerri Sue Couch, Eloise Watson, Millie Holden, Diane Hester, and Rita Woodard, the latter accompanist, all holdovers in the highly regarded choral aggregation which is consistently in demand for civic and social functions over a wide area.

The annual Rainbow Concert will be held this year on Baccalaureate Sunday afternoon, May 24, at 3 p. m. in the Haskell High School auditorium. Mr. and Mrs. Bell have announced.

Summer Plans For Cubs Given At Ceremony

Cub Scout Pack 36, of Haskell, at an awards presentation ceremony here recently, heard plans announced by two Scout- ing leaders detailing an activity- packed summer agenda for area Cubs.

John Smith, former cubmaster still active in the program, and Troy Boone, district Scout executive, reported that Cub Pack 36 here and other area packs will make a trip to Camp Tonkawa at Buffalo Gap June 27; a family picnic will be held in Rice Springs Park here as part of the Strengthen American Heritage program on July 18; and Cub Scouts and their Dads will camp out overnight in the park here on August 22.

Several Cub Scouts here received prizes for their superior- ity in ticket sales at the recent Scout Exposition in Haskell. Among them were James McCoy, who received a Cub Scout ring for selling 25 tickets; Ricky Phemister, a model kit, for 12 ticket sales; and several boys got slides for selling 5 tickets each.

The 150-mile stretch of U. S. Highway 277 between Wichita Falls and Abilene, have been whetted to improve this traffic artery by the time the Interstate System is completed in order to be a strategic part of a coast-to-coast linkup.
Summing up the acceleration of interest on highway improvement in this territory, Hoback, at the Bailey Turnpike opening in April, declared "When this route is completed (the one outlined above from Waterville, Maine, to Los Angeles), it will offer a year-round, transcontinental expressway route to the traveling public. With the route so nearly complete from Maine to Texas, the race is now on for the first continuous, coast-to-coast, four-lane, divided expressway."

We drove 3,243 miles to make a point about our Super Turbine transmission

You can do it on the way to the grocery store

Would we drive a Buick with a Super Turbine transmission* all the way from Pasadena to New York City just to win Class C in the Mobil Economy Run? Of course, and just in case anyone failed to get the message, we did it twice again. And won Class D and Class G. In all, Buick entered 4 classes, and won 3—more than any other make of car. (Remember when people used to think Buick used a lot of gas?) Did we make our point about the Super Buick Motor Division

Turbine transmission? You bet. Obviously you aren't planning 3,243 miles to prove your new Buick economical. And you can't expect as many miles per gallon as the Mobil Economy Run. Still, it is nice to see you can win the economy run award with a Buick. And the good looks prize at the same time. See your Buick dealer about it. You'll think of a number of other Buicks. *Optional
