TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

By VERN SANFORD
"The first month's sugar,
The second month's pie, The third month you can work . . .
And so can I."
This ancient bit of verse, written for newlyweds, might apply to the usual pace of legislative sessions, with short meetings and long weekends in the early months, followed by an around-the-clock grind. But this year lawmakers are being urged to cut short the honeymoon.

With committees appointed and put to work, Speaker Waggoner Carr, urged House members to be "especially industrious" to save both time and money. Answers, he said, will "not be any easier to find next summer than this winter and spring."
Appropriations Committee responded by putting itself on a five-days-a-week, eight-hours-a-day schedule, aimed at having the big appropriations bill ready in 60 days. Ordinarily, other legislation is held back until appropriation decisions are made.

HOUSE COMMITTEES — After Carr defeated Rep. Joe Burkett, Jr. of Kerrville for speaker, suspense centered on how Burkett supporters would fare in Carr's committee lists.
Outcome was that Carr men, naturally, received all choice posts and approximately 86 per cent of committee chairmanships. Of the 43 House committees, 37 are headed by Carr supporters, four by definite Burkett supporters and two by persons whose vote was not known.
Top committees and their leaders are: Appropriations, W.
S. Healy of Paducah, chairman, John Huebner of Bay City, vice chairman; Revenue and Taxation, V. L. Damsey of Beckville, chairman, Frates S. Seeligson of San Antonio, vice chairman; State Affairs, Richard Cory of Victoria, chairman, Max C.

Smith of San Marcos, vice chairman; Oil and Gas, Wesley Roberts of Lamesa, chairman, Richard Slack of Pecos, vice chairman.
Constitutional Amendments, James M. Cotton of Weatherford, chairman, Frank McGregor of Waco, vice chairman; Insurance, Carl C. Conley of Raymondville, chairman, Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs, vice chairman; Motor Traffic, H. J.
Blanchard of Lubbock, chairman, Rufus Kilpatrick of Beaumont, vice chairman; Agriculture, Truett Latimer of Abilene, chairman, Harold B. Parish of Taft, vice chairman.
SENATE COMMITTEES—Less dramatic, but fully as important to legislative processes, were Lt.

Gov. Ben Ramsey's selections of Senate committees.
Top posts are concentrated among veteran Senators, experienced in government, and in accord with the conservative philosophy predominant in the Upper House. Heaviest responsibility will be in the hands of Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, State Affairs chairman, and Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria, Finance chairman.
Other committee leaders include State Affairs, Jep Fuller of Port Arthur, vice chairman; Finance, Preston Smith of Lubbock, vice chairman; Agriculture and Livestock, George Moffett of Chillicothe, chairman, Culp Kruger of El Campo, vice chairman; Labor and Management Relations, George Parkhouse of Dallas, chairman, Krueger, vice chairman.

Also Oil and Gas, Frank Owen, III of El Paso, chairman, Moffett, vice chairman; Insurance, Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford, chairman, Owen, vice chairman; Transportation, Abraham Ka-zen, Jr. of Laredo, chairman, William T. Moore of Bryan, vice chairman; Constitutional Amendments, Bill Wood of Tyler, chairman, Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, vice chairman.
GAS "EXPLOSION" DUE — Battle lines are being drawn swiftly and heavy artillery rolled up for the fight over Gov.
Price Daniel's tax program, particularly the gas severance tax.
Industry spokesmen criticize the governor's program as "short-sighted" and deplore the increasing levies on sources already being taxed. Gas men promised to fight the severance tax, if passed, all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court.
But Governor Daniel declared he'd gotten many more bouquets than brick bats for his plan.
Only opposition, he said, was from those who want to tax "everything from shirts and shoes to bassinets and baby buggies."
Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola, who introduced the gas bill in the House, said it would bring in $1.06 from out of state for every $1 paid by Texans.
HANDS OFF — Governors of 28 other states have joined him, says Governor Daniel, in a fight against President Eisenhower's proposed 1½-cent raise of the federal gasoline tax.
This tax field should be left to the states, the governor believes. Texas Highway Commission, he pointed out, is asking for a one cent raise in the state gasoline tax to help pay mounting road building bills.
Under the present federal aid formula, Daniel estimated that with a 1½-cent federal tax increase, Texans would pay $137-000,000 more in gasoline taxes than would be returned to the state for highway building.
GRIST FOR THE SESSION — Most of the bills which will be stirring up the air in the next few weeks already are in the mills. Among them are these measures which would:
PROVIDE FOR PARTY RE- GISTRATION by voters at the time they pay their poll taxes, by Rep. Jamie Clements of Crockett. Only persons registered as party members would be allowed to participate in primaries and conventions.
RAISE TEACHER PAY by approximately $900 a year, and lengthen school year to 190 days, by Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi. This follows recommendation of Hale-Alkin school study committee, of which Hale was vice chairman.
INCREASE LIQUOR TAXES from $1.40 to $2.50 a gallon, by Rep. Pete LaValle of Texas City.
This was one of Governor Daniel's recommendations to bring in an estimated $18,000,000.
TAX CORPORATION INCOME
on a graduated scale, by Rep.
Dean Johnston of Houston, to raise an estimated $20,000,000 annually.
INCREASE TRUCK WEIGHT limit from 52,420 to 72,000 pounds, by Rep. R. L. Strickland of San Antonio. Same bill was defeated after stiff fight last session.
REQUIRE OPEN MEETINGS
by all governmental agencies, except where they are now required by law to be confidential, by Rep. Truett Latimer of Abilene.
CHANGE PRIMARY ELEC- TION dates from July and August to the first and fourth Tuesday in May, by Rep. Marshall O.
Bell of San Antonio.
GIVE ALL CITIES OF MORE than 10,000 full authority to regulate wages and hours of firemen and policemen, by Rep.
Ben D. Sudderth of Brownwood.
This is a matter of sharp controversy. A counter-measure, introduced by Rep. Bob Johnson of Dallas, would reduce hours and increase pay for firemen and policemen.
PROVIDE A NEW University of Texas medical branch. Rival bills are being pushed—one by the Austin delegation directing that the school be built in Austin, and another by the San Antonians, specifying their home city.
PROHIBIT LABOR UNIONS from using regular dues and assessments for political purposes.

THE STANTON REPORTER, THURSDAY, FEB. 5, 1959—7 by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas. Unions would be required to file an annual audited financial statement with the Secretary of State.
LOAN STATE FUNDS to communities to help establish local homes for old people, a constitutional amendment proposed by Rep. Murray Watson of Mart.
SET BUTTERFAT CONTENT of milk offered for sale at a minimum of 3¼ per cent, by Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogdo-ches.
RAISE UNEMPLOYMENT
BENEFITS from $28 to $40 a week and extend pay period from 24 to 39 weeks, by Rep.
Roger Dally of Houston.
REQUIRE EMPLOYERS to recognize a collective bargaining agent supported by a majority of employees, by Reps. Clyde Miller and Robert Eckhardt of Houston.
ALLOW HIGHER SPEED limits on Texas highways. One proposal, by Rep. Bill Jones of Dallas, would raise maximum from 60 to 70 m.p.h. Another, by Reps.
Tom James of Dallas and Louis Anderson of Midland, would permit Highway Commission to regulate maximum up or down, as road conditions justify.
ABOLISH POLL TAXES as a requisite for voting, by Reps. B.
H. Dewey of Bryan and Maude Isaacks of El Paso.
HAVE DEMOCRATIC EXECU- TIVE committee members elected by direct primaries, rather than selected at the state convention, by Rep. Dewey.
REPEAL THE LAW requiring that a local vote be taken before a school can desegregate, by Rep. Don Gladden of Fort Worth.
MAKE ARLINGTON STATE College a four-year school, by Sens. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth and George Parkhouse of Dallas. Similar proposals were put forward for John Tarleton College at Stephenville and Midwestern University, Wichita Falls.
ALLOW LEGISLATORS to set their own pay by a two-thirds record vote, a constitutional amendment by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo.

Robbie Kilpatrick
Is Honored With
Bridal Shower
Robbie Kilpatrick, bride-elect of Granville Walter Graves, was honored with a miscellaneous shower at 7 p. m. Tuesday, January 26 in the home of Mrs. Roy Linney.
Hostesses were Mesdames Roy Linney, Billy Avery, C. S. Bevers, D. B. Cross, Ed Hall, Philip White, Lewis Carille, D. E. Ory, Don Hightower, J. T. Mims, Prentiss Hightower, Richard Adkins, C. E. Christopher, Clayton Burnam, L. C. Waits and Doris Stephenson.
Blue and white, the honoree's chosen colors, were featured in table decorations and refreshments. Fruit punch and white cake decorated in blue were served from a table laid with a white lace cloth over blue. A large bow of white ribbon, centered with a blue rose corsage outlined with lace and rhinestones served as the centerpiece.
On streamers leading from the arrangement was the wording "Robbie and Granville" written in gold letters. White napkins with the couple's names printed in blue completed decorations.
Judy Britton and La Rue Adkins served at the refreshment table.
Fran Britton greeted guests and presided at the bride's book.
Thirty persons attended.
Granville Graves, the future bridegroom, and Kenneth Yates, the honoree's brother, also attended.
For the occasion the honoree wore a blue satin dress, featuring a full skirt and a fitted bolero.
Mr. and Mrs. Harrell Lee Holder and Bobbie of Knott visited Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Holder.
Hardeman was a leader in the defeat of the last pay raise amendment.

Bristow Backs Bill To Change Laws On Juvenile Delinquents

Oble Bristow, state representative from Howard and Martin Counties has indicated that he will support a bill introduced by Rep. Ben Doyle Sudderth of Comanche, to amend laws dealing with juvenile delinquents.

Bristow had announced he would initiate a measure to tighten up the methods of coping with young felons. He said he realizes that Sudderth's measure falls short of completely dealing with the problem but that he believes it will offer an opening wedge which can be effectively used later to further strengthen the law.

Bristow was stirred to action by the recent series of vicious crimes in Howard County which were revealed on solution to have been perpetrated by youths 17 years of age and younger. Prime instigator of the crimes which left one man murdered, another gravely wounded and a series of robberies committed, turned out to be only 16 years old.

Under existing laws dealing with offenders in this age bracket, the 16-year-old cannot be tried for his crime in the criminal courts. If he is detained in custody until he reaches 17, he can be tried in the higher courts but the penalty which could be assessed against him for the murder he committed could not exceed life imprisonment. If tried in juvenile court, he can only be ordered committed to the state reformatory.

Principal new feature of the Sudderth bill would empower juvenile courts, if they see fit, to transfer jurisdiction to another court in certain cases where a juvenile has committed a felony. However, such juveniles which can be transferred to criminal courts for prosecution on an equal footing with adults, must be 16 years of age or older.

Local law enforcement officers find fault with the bill in this respect. They point out that many juveniles who perpetrate particularly vicious crimes, including murder, armed robbery, criminal assault and other offenses, are under 16 years of age. Most enforcement officers think that the age restriction on such offenders should be removed — that a juvenile of the age 14, for example, who murders some one, should be transferred to the criminal courts and dealt with on the same footing as an adult.

Other amendments to the juvenile code are incorporated in the bill but are not nearly so far reaching as most authorities who have to cope with juvenile delinquents believe they should be.

Bristow said that another bill, which fits into the pattern generally favored by local officers, is pending in the legislature. This bill would create a special institution to which hardened young criminals could be sent and supervised under maximum security. However, this proposal bears the provision that it cannot be activated until money is available.

Different officials believe that a special prison for juveniles and young first offenders entirely separate from existing corrective institutions is needed. Most experienced officers have no high regard for any "reform" which results from committal of a juvenile to the Gatesville or Gainesville institutions. They believe, for the most part, that boys and girls who make mistakes and are sent to these establishments usually emerge with more cunning in crime and less respect for law and authority than when confined.

MARTIN-HOWARD SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Jack Buchanan, Ollie Robertson, Bernard Houston, Larry Shaw, J. D. Crawford.

Range pitting and range seeding is now being done on L. O. Free's livestock farm four miles north of Stanton. Free is pitting and seeding about 320 acres of rangeland and plans to root-plant and seed about 65 acres of rangeland. These acres will be seeded to a mixture of native and introduced grasses at the time pitting and root-planting is done.

Furrows made on the contour are small terraces; furrows plowed up and down hill are future gullies.

W. B. Kilpatrick plans to rebuild about 10 miles of level terraces on his farm in the Valley View community. Kilpatrick's terraces were damaged by heavy rains in the spring of 1957 and he is going to rebuild them to their original size to control water erosion and to hold rainfall on his land until it has time to soak into the ground. K. F. Campbell plans to build about two miles of new, level terraces on cropland on his ranch northwest of Tarzan.

Furrows plowed up and down hill become race tracks for raindrops.

Ackerly Lions Push Incorporation Plan

Ackerly Lions Club is spearheading a move to have its town incorporated.

This Dawson County community of 300 persons has been operating for years without a charter. Now the Lions Club feels it is time the citizens got together and collectively functioned as an organized town.

Thirty-five Lions and special guests attended a meeting Thursday night to discuss the proposition of incorporation and, according to Lester Brown, one of the members of the club, the vote was three to one in favor of the proposal.

The Lions Club has already initiated what it regards as a step toward the day when the town will have its own charter and government. Working in cooperation with the electric service company, the Lions are sponsoring the installation of nine lights on the streets of the town. The Lions are guaranteeing the payment of the bill for electricity.

As a result of the meeting Thursday, a committee has been appointed to prepare the legal papers necessary, including a plat of the town. A petition will be circulated which has to have as many as 20 signers to enable the county judge of Dawson County to call an election.

Vaudry Coleman, president of the Lions Club, was chairman of the Thursday meeting. Stansel Clements of Lamesa was a special guest and speaker.

Brown said that he understood an election could be called within 10 or 20 days after the petition signed by 20 qualified voters and taxpayers has been placed in the hands of the county judge.
