MIKE'S MUMBLINGS

By MIKE CAMPBELL.
The Knife Swappers are beginning to assemble on the courthouse lawn, which is a sign of warm weather.
Some folks lavish their friendship on those that are wealthy, but the friendship is extended to those suffering from adversity.
What is the difference between a cow chewing her cud, and a girl chewing gum? The cow looks like she's thinking about something.
Our friend, Al Hinds, has fallen heir to the editorial helm of The Free Press. Among other duties he is proof reader, news-getter, and more or less general shock-absorber. Anyhow, what he does, he does it well.
Shortly after the turn of the century, the Texas Central Railroad was built from Waco to Stamford, and it was affectionately known as the "Tin Can."
A boomer fireman blew in and was immediately hired, as a "boomer" knew his stuff no matter what line of endeavor he followed. After he had worked several weeks he was called on a freight run from DeLeon to Stamford. He was told by members of the crew that the engineer was mean, and that when they hit Nine Mile Hill, "he'll turn the water in the boiler, and shove the reverse lever forward to the last notch down to work the daylight out of you." "Oh, that's O.K., I've fired for a few of them kind before," the nomad railroader replied.
Coming out of Albany to Stamford, with a full tonnage, they started the long climb on Nine Mile Hill, and the fireman was heaving in the coal, keeping an eye on the gauge, and the engineer. Sure enough, when they reached the heavy grade, the old man turned on the injector, and dropped the "Johnson bar down." The fireman saw all of his hard work undone, as the steam gauge was falling rapidly. He dropped his scoop, stepped to the tank, picked up the hose, and shot a stream of water into the firebox. He looked at the astounded engineer with a grin, and said: "By golly, if you want to kill 'er, I'll help you," and picking up his bundle from the seat box, he climbed down, and started down the track to Albany. The result—a train was dispatched from Stamford and the boomer paid. The boomer's way, seeking profit.

"I'm cured of cancer"

Says MRS. ALICE HARDEN, nurse and housewife of Atlanta, Ga. "Five years ago a 'Pap' test, part of my routine health check-up, revealed an unsuspected cancer of the uterus. Today I'm alive and well because my cancer was diagnosed early and treated properly."

KIM SAWILSKI, 10, of Glen Ellyn, Ill. Her mother says: "When Kim was three weeks old, we learned she had an internal cancer, and treatments were begun. In three months she was back to normal and has been free of cancer ever since."

JACK DELKERS, 37, a dairy farmer of Urbana, Ohio says: "In 1950 I developed a soreness in my jaw. My dentist sent me to a specialist. The diagnosis was cancer, and I underwent immediate surgery. Since then I've remained free of cancer. I urge everyone—know the danger signals and have annual health checkups to save more lives from cancer."

The Give And The Take

The government has a habit of taking away with one hand what it gives with the other.

Take, for instance, this observation an economic letter of the Morgan Guaranty Trust Company makes of current tax proposals: "The recommended cut of $1.75 billion in some excise taxes is disappointingly small. In fact, it is fully offset on a whole-year basis by proposed increases in some trust fund levies, including a recommendation for a hike in social security tax rates and enlargement of the wage base to which the tax rates apply."

In other words, minor tax reductions will give those who buy certain articles a little more money in one pocket, which is certainly desirable. But tax increases in other areas will take that much money—and perhaps more—out of another pocket. So the victim, the taxpayer, is no better off, and probably is worse off, than he was before.

It's unfortunate that tax cuts, no matter how modest, are customarily surrounded with much more fanfare, of government indignation, than are tax increases. And, still worse, the fact is obscured that real, overall tax reduction can only be accomplished without run-away inflation by calling a halt to government welfare programs of astronomical cost.

Let's Not Forget the Patient

Unfortunately, the medicare issue is surrounded by an emotional atmosphere. It is obvious, from polls on the question, that great numbers of people who say they are for it believe that it would do a great deal more for the elderly than is actually the case and are simply unaware of its many inadequacies and bad points.

Here are two examples of provisions that would seriously compromise the quality of health care available to those coming under the King-Anderson Bill:

One provision too narrowly defines the medicines that would be available to patients under the Bill. It would, for example, exclude many important drugs, including 17 of today's 50 leading prescription drugs. Thus, patients over age 65 would be subject to limited medical treatment, and doctors would be forced to apply a double standard in prescribing remedies under the present bill.

Any sound medical plan should use the same definition of "drugs" as appears in the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. This broader definition permits the necessary latitude for doctors to prescribe whatever medicine they feel is needed for the treatment of their patients.

The second provision fraught with hazards would allow the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare to determine "reasonable costs" of medical services for the hospitalized aged. On the surface such a provision may seem wise, but the danger here is that the cost of services, rather than their quality or need, could become the prime consideration in the long term administration of this program.

Again, any sound medical plan should insure that the costs for items or services furnished to a patient shall be considered reasonable if they are ordered or prescribed by the patient's physician, and if the costs do not exceed the amount customarily charged persons not covered by the King-Anderson Bill.

There is no certainty that medicare, in any form, will become law. Alternative plans, much sounder in concept and broader in benefits, are offered. Whatever plans are finally adopted, the best ought to be available. That is not true of King-Anderson.

RECREATION PROJECTS MAY BE NEW SOURCE FARM INCOME

Texas farms and ranches hold a great potential in the field of recreational development.

Private recreational facilities have increased landowners' income from property in many states, and there is no reason why the same can't be true for Texas, says Boyd Andrews, Extension resource development specialist at Texas A&M.

Since the use of farm and ranch land for recreational purposes is a completely new venture for most landowners, careful consideration should be given to recreation requirements prior to investing cash for recreational development.

The attitude and adaptability of the individual or family is probably the most important factor to consider. A recreational enterprise can be similar to the operation of a small business. Personal characteristics are extremely important to the public.

The availability of resources to be used for recreation is a second important factor. The landowner must decide what type of recreational enterprise would be best suited in his geographic area, utilizing the existing natural resources.

Distance from population centers is a third major factor. Research data shows that the most successful recreational enterprises are usually within two hours drive of at least one large population center.

If these three factors are satisfied, the particular farm or ranch possesses the basic characteristics for a recreational enterprise, says Andrews. However, additional information should be obtained concerning investment, planning, construction, unfavorable characteristics and management, since all can have great effect upon the success of the enterprise.

Texas Highway Department Supplies Travel Service And Information

The odd and the ordinary—they're all part of the everyday routine encountered by the Texas Highway Department in supplying travel services and information. For many years, the Highway Department has offered such services to spur travel to and within the state.

A slim, sandy-haired travel counselor, Nancy Head, is the one who bears the brunt of questions—and questioners—at the Information Booth located in the Main Highway Building lobby, Austin. The booth is operated by Travel and Information Division.

Married and mother of two children, Nancy has been with the Department since September and enjoys her work.

"You'd be surprised, though, how much personal information people volunteer," says Nancy, shaking her head in wonderment. "If they're worried about the weather, they give you a big spiel on why they have to reach such-and-such place... a sick relative, a family reunion, a special party, whatever."

Nancy could have probably supplied that old radio show, "People Are Funny," with material. She'd need a crystal ball or powers of a soothsayer to answer some questions put to her by the public. Some even expect her to predict the weather and cost of a trip.

To answer such questions, Nancy displays poise and patience, tact and diplomacy. Such traits prove helpful, too, when she faces an eager traveler-to-be who started marking his own route, but got stuck.

"The person hands me his half-marked map, a list two pages long of sights-to-see, and wants the itinerary marked for the shortest mileage!" Nancy says.

If she could have her 'druthers', Nancy prefers to handle each routing request from scratch.

Fortunately, most people prefer this, too, and allow enough time for processing. However, some, apparently, are too attuned to instant this, instant that—and demand instant service.

"During the summer season, when the rush is on, two weeks is almost a necessity," cautions Nancy. "And packages should be picked up in plenty of time to avoid that last-minute rush feeling."

Marking routes is just one of Nancy's many duties as a travel counselor. She also is receptionist for the Main Building. She staffs the booth from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., each working day and on holidays while the Legislature is in session. A travel-oriented substitute alternates with Nancy.

The Information Booth has been operated as a public service by Travel and Information Division for the past six years. It has been aging gracefully, with a steadily increasing clientele. Approximately 76 requests are handled daily at the booth. About two-thirds of these requests are made in person; the rest, by telephone. All told, more than 18,000 requests were received in 1964. Well over half the queries pertained to travel services or information, while the rest were from those wanting to find certain offices or people in the Department.

Nancy is just one of the 27 travel counselors employed by Travel and Information Division. The others staff the seven tourist information bureaus throughout the state and the tourist center in the capitol. All are open seven days a week and the counselors do their best to aid the traveler and to promote extra travel to and within the state.

The counselors are trained in the technique of stimulating travel to and within Texas, giving directions, and all must develop a storehouse of information on points of interest, highways, events and issuance of overweight vehicle permits.

This information is put to good use. Last year alone the Travel and Information Division received 197,000 requests for descriptive literature, maps and travel information. Besides this, approximately 492,000 people visited the tourist centers and obtained travel assistance.

That the hospitality centers and travel counselors are doing a good job may be witnessed by a resolution passed by the Texas Legislature in January.

The resolution recognized the Department's long-time role as the official state agency for dissemination of travel information and its operation of the tourist bureaus. The resolution

A WINNER FOR THE FIFTH TIME

For the fifth consecutive year West Texas Utilities Company has been awarded first place in the Bureau of Safety Motor Vehicle Accident Prevention Contest. The 1964 award was presented to WTU President S. B. Phillips (right), by Ray Gillan of the Bureau of Safety at the annual management conference in Abilene.

WTU's frequency accident rate for the past 5 years is three accidents for every million miles driven. The national average for electric utility companies is twelve accidents for every million miles, or four times that of WTU.

In 1964 WTU vehicles were driven a total of 5,397,374 miles with only 25 chargeable accidents.

also contained praise for the Capitol Tourist Bureau for "being effective in promotion of travel in Texas and beneficial to state capitol visitors."

In essence, the Legislature has said, "Well done."

IN APPRECIATION

We sincerely desire to thank friends and neighbors for their many deeds of kindness at the time of the loss of our loved one. Words are inadequate to express our appreciation for the many considerate acts and comforting words, for the beautiful floral tributes, for the food prepared and served and for everything done to help lighten our burden of grief. Time will never erase the many acts of kindness and words of consolation that were so comforting during our hours of grief. May God bless you all. The children of Rev. C. Jones. 12p

Magazine Club Members Hear Mrs. Wilkinson

Leisure and Values was the subject introduced by the program director, Mrs. Jack Pippin, at the Magazine Club on Friday, March 19.

Following Mrs. Pippin's definitive remarks, the subject was further explored by the speaker for the day, Mrs. H. T. Wilkinson.

"This passing from the Industrial Age into the Nuclear Age brings more so-called leisure time and demands a re-evaluation of morals and ethics," Mrs. Wilkinson said. She concluded, "We must decide:

Washable Fabrics Are Very Popular This Spring

Cottons and cotton blends are among the feminine fabric choices for spring, says Lynn Parks, Texas A&M Extension consumer education specialist.

These washable favorites are brightened by print on texture this spring. Cotton crepes are crinkled for texture and spotted with woven dots. Patterns range from interesting water colors or vivid splashes of warm colors and bold primitive prints.

Knits are bubbled and crimped - or woven with both thick and thin yarn to add interesting texture.

Many of the new fabrics have built-in boons for home sewers. Ribbon effects on solids, or tiny patterns and cording on delicate sheers, help create an illusion of hand-sewn trim. Many knits are backed for added firmness and easy handling.

It is important to remember that washable fabrics make washable fashions only if the bindings, facings and trimmings are also safe in soap or detergent suds. Some trims benefit from pre-laundering before sewing in order to avoid subsequent shrinkage, Miss Parks says.

Mrs. Gene Overton Hostess To The Garden Club

The Haskell Garden Club held their plant and seed exchange program at the home of Mrs. Gene Overton, on Wednesday, March 17. A salad plate carrying out the St. Patrick's Day colors of green and white, was served by the hostesses, Mrs. E. L. Wyche and Mrs. Overton.

In the business meeting plans were made to complete the year's projects of landscaping the Capt. Marcy monument on the highway, and planting 12 crepe myrtle plants at the corners of the Fink Lady's Park across from the Haskell Hospital. It has been decided not to have a spring flower show since the fall show was such a large one and fulfilled the club's obligation as a "regular" Garden Club. Plans to help landscape the Depot Museum grounds was tabled until the Museum is further along toward restoration.

The Club ends its year with the April meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Hester, and a garden pilgrimage and installation of officers for the new year is planned. One highlight of this year was the February 11 program given by the Rev. Hubert Foust of Graham who demonstrated some of the ways he had preserved and exhibited different driftwoods. The program was a night meeting at the Haskell National Bank Community Room, with club members' husbands and some interested friends as invited guests. Mr. Foust's woods are beautiful and his arrangements proved him to be quite an artist. His talk contained many

MEDICAL CARE

OR

WHICH DO YOU WANT?

TEXAS today has one of the nation's finest, most comprehensive programs of medical care for the aged. These programs—the Texas approach, we call it—include medical benefits to Old Age Assistance recipients and extensive health cost protection through the use of special insurance plans for the aged. The Texas legislature is also expected to implement a medical care plan for those who are not on Old Age Assistance but who do need help in meeting medical expenses.

Consider these facts:

- 229,000 needy aged, representing 30 percent of Texas' entire aged population, now have a Blue Cross-Blue Shield health insurance policy paid for by the State,
• This State program provides hospital, medical, surgical, x-ray, and nursing home benefits,
• 72% of the aged in Texas now have one or more health insurance policies,
• Through the "Texas 65 Health Insurance Plan," Blue Cross' "Senior Texan Service," and other special programs offered to the aged by private companies, health insurance is available to all who want it at a reasonable cost,
• Studies by Belden Associates indicate that only a small percentage of the aged actually still need and want help in paying health costs (these aged would be covered by the program now being considered by the Texas Legislature).

In view of these facts, the national "medicare" tax proposal (the King-Anderson bill,

H.R. 1 is not needed. "Medicare" is very limited, covering about one (25%) of the total yearly health cost of the average aged person. "Medicare" would not cover physicians' services, hospital charges, nor would it cover the cost of drugs outside of institutional care.

The "medicare" proposal is an expensive one. While we all are expected to enjoy a reduction in federal income taxes as a result of action by Congress last year, the "medicare" program would cost an estimated $1.7 billion dollars in additional taxes the first year. "Medicare" would increase roll taxes to cover everyone over 65 the wealthy. The employee who now pays a maximum tax of $174 annually would pay the amount for Social Security benefits "medicare" increased to $291 by 1970. Employees would pay a similar increase each employee, thus resulting in higher prices for goods and services.

The Texas approach of providing medical and hospital care to those who are in need is a more comprehensive, more economical program than "medicare," and it provides more benefits. If you object to the higher payroll taxes for an unneeded program, write your Congressman today. Ask him to oppose the "medicare" tax proposal, mentioning the program now available in Texas. Ask him to support the Herlong-Curtis Bill (H.R. 3727), which would make possible the broadening of the existing Texas program to provide medical, hospital and home care for those few remaining who are still in need of help.

Computation Shows How Teacher Salary Bills Would Affect Districts

The Texas Education Agency this week released to the authors of the two teacher salary increase bills a computation showing how each bill would affect every school district in the state.

This official computation developed by IBM machines from the records of the Texas Education Agency confirms that the '45 for '65' program would make available to teachers a salary increase more than twice as great as that provided under the alternate proposal recommended by Gov. Connally.

It also reveals that the local districts, through the requirement in the alternate bill that they pay a portion of the cost of textbooks and of matching funds for teacher retirement deposits, would be required to pay an average of 60 percent or more of the inadequate salary raise which would be made available.

For example, the two programs would affect Dallas County in this way: S. B. 124 by Sen. Strong would provide for all the districts of that county an increase of $419,263 for Foundation Program salary raises, and the taxpayers of the combined school districts of Dallas County would increase their local support $1,413,384.

Local districts would match increase their local fund effort by $28,367.

Every superintendent in Texas should request from the Texas Education Agency a copy of the computations for his district so that he and his board may determine for themselves exactly what effect the two programs would have on their individual districts.

This would give them objective, official information, and they can make up their own minds as to which program offers the most to the teachers in improved salaries and which program will require additional local funds collected from taxes on homes, businesses and personal property to pay for textbooks and teacher retirement.

There are at least two districts in Dallas County which would receive less money under S. B. 124 than they would receive under the present law, with no salary increases provided for teachers.

In Wood County, the computation reveals that all the districts combined would receive $23,875 for salary raises under S. B. 124, and the local district would raise its effort by $41,537.

Under the Aikin-Hinson program, Wood County schools would receive $58,570 and would

Muenzler Urges Attendance At Investors Congress

As part of the industrial development effort of the Chamber of Commerce, Chamber President Don Muenzler is urging all inventors and manufacturers in the community to attend the first Texas Inventors Congress to be held in Galveston on April 1 through April 4, 1965.

Gov. Connally has named the Texas Industrial Commission to sponsor the Inventors Congress, in order to help in the creation of home grown industry and to encourage the expansion of existing manufacturers.

You sort of float in perfect body-fitting comfort. (Now open your eyes)... Here's why Beautyrest gives the best rest a body ever had.

Comparison of ordinary and Beautyrest mattresses. Ordinary mattresses have about 300 wired-together springs that sag down together under weight. Push one down and the others sag down too. Beautyrest is different. Over 800 springs are not wired together. They are separate - independent. Push one down and the others aren't affected. Illustrations show a person lying on an ordinary mattress vs. a Beautyrest mattress.

Since independent Beautyrest springs are separate and independent each adjusts to your weight and gives firm, body-fitting comfort. No sag - no curved spine. In a Beautyrest double bed there are "His" springs and "Her" springs - those in between are not affected. Result. Single bed comfort in a double bed. No sag - no rolling together. Another comforting thought. Beautyrest lasts longer - outlasts other mattresses by 3 to 1 according to rigid tests by the Nationwide Consumer Testing Institute. Costs only a penny more per night than so called "Bargains" too.

Come in and make an "eyes-closed" Beautyrest test... Just lie down on it. After that you won't be satisfied with other mattresses. Beautyrest, standard sizes, twin or double... $79.50 Beautyrest, Queen Size (20% more sleeping space)... $199.50 per set Beautyrest, King Size (54% more sleeping space)... $299.50 per set

PAINT CREEK . . . COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

One would have thought he were in Las Vegas or on the Great White Way in New York last Wednesday and Thursday nights driving down the Paint Creek farm-to-market road to the lake. Paint Creekers were trying to save their fruit trees by burning smudge pots in the orchards. The Ray Perrys, the Velton Middlebrooks and the Billy Garland Middlebrooks put diesel in 5-gallon buckets and burned them all night long in their orchards. The peach blossoms on the lower branches still were fresh on Thursday, although the top branch blooms looked rather droopy. But by Friday night, all the blossoms looked pretty sick, and Perrys were afraid they lost their fruit for this year. I forgot to ask if they thought the trees themselves were badly hurt. Wasn't that the coldest cold you ever felt? And who would have believed that such a cold spell would come the middle of March.

The Garden Club bought a redbud tree to plant near the Marcy Monument out on the highway, and it got too cold to plant it by the time club was over Wednesday, so the poor thing, with its roots bare and wrapped only in loose straw, has stood out in our garage for three cold days waiting to be put in some warm ground. All I knew to do was keep water on the straw and it really seemed foolish to pour water on any-west farm-to-market road from the Stamford highway, and has a son, Steve, in the 8th grade. Homer was reared here, and his family was one of the pioneers of the Post community. He and Fern have a son, Edwin, who graduated last year and is a freshman at Texas Tech. Homer, too, is a thrifty businessman and a good Paint Creeker. I taught him and his twin sister, Hope, Texas history back in the Post School and his family then always took such an interest in every community project, and furnished some pretty fine young people for the community.

Ray Perry has just completed and moved into a new home on the farm-to-market road. He and Amelia have a daughter, Milla, and a son, Ricky, in our high school and the entire family work for a better school and community. Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Perry.

Glen Walton lives in the northeast part of the community and he and Faye have a son, Larry, in high school and a daughter, Terry, in the elementary grades. They, too, have two daughters who graduated from Paint Creek and have both gone on to earn Bachelor and Masters degrees in college. Glen has served two terms on the board, being appointed to finish Clarence Raughton's unexpired term, and being elected one term.

There they are — five good prospective members. Now your problem is to choose only three of them on Saturday, April 3rd. Be sure and vote.

Allan Isbell was at home on Thursday and Friday visiting his daughters, Jeannine and Janice at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mickler. He says Danny is still slowly improving, and the therapist is pleased with his progress. He can fold his fingers on his left hand into a fist, but his right hand is not able to do more than bend the fingers a little. With a spoon strapped to his hand he feeds himself, and he can ring the bell for a nurse and bend both knees and push his legs forward. When lifted into his wheel chair, he can manage it and ride down the halls of the hospital. He can now attend church in the hospital chapel although sometimes his legs become painfully tired, and he can't stay for all the service. He is in therapy 4 or 5 hours a day, and is working very hard to teach his paralyzed muscles to work again. He is awfully homesick, and wants so badly to be home for his 17th birthday, April 21, but nobody has mentioned any date that he can come home. His room is 443, Baylor Hospital, Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer spent the weekend in Midland with their daughter, Mrs. Sam Chaffin and Mr. Chaffin, Sam has been working for a Public Accountant firm in Midland since graduating from Texas Tech in January. Margaret works for an oil company.

Our Paint Creek girls have been competing in college athletics against each other this winter. Paulette Fischer played forward on the Texas Tech girls' basketball team, and also played on the volleyball team. Last month Tech played in a volleyball tournament at El Paso State University and she played with Margie Earles on their team. Margie was voted one of the All-Tournament players by the coaches and referees of the tournament. Margie was one of the hostesses at West Texas State Regional Meet early this month when Paint Creek represented this district. She represented WTSU at Texas A&M in a bowling tournament in February, also.

Mike Overton represented Texas A&M as one of the delegates to the National Physical Education Convention in Dallas last weekend. Texas has not had the National meeting in 15 years, so all the colleges tried to have Texas Universities and colleges well represented. Paulette Fischer represented Texas Tech at the convention, as a delegate.

The Haskell Garden Club met in the home of the Gene Overton's last Wednesday afternoon. The Paint Creek seniors sponsored a domino tournament at the school gym last Friday evening and had 20 tables of dominoes. Winners were Raymond Davis and Sam Fought of Haskell.

Mrs. M. B. Powell, Home-making teacher at Paint Creek, attended the State Homemakers' Convention at Tarleton College in Stephenville last weekend. Representing the local chapter of Future Homemakers of America were Jeannine Isbell and Linda and Brenda Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Earles have had their two little grandchildren visiting them for the past two weeks. Their daughter, Sandy and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Erwin, are in Nassau for two weeks. Mr. Erwin won the trip after being top salesman for the Prudential Insurance Company for the third straight year.

Vern Howard of NTSU of Denton spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Howard.

The Good Earth

by MRS. B. F. COBB

After several weeks of being confined to the house because of illness, I have a great desire to dig in the "Good Earth" once more. I can even take our sand storms with a little more tolerance.

Tender plants and shrubs will need protection for a few more weeks. According to the long weather forecast, there are to be about 20 or more days of below normal temperatures, however, there is one bright spot to their predictions. They promise a wet April.

We had to cover our potatoes

Former Haskell Man Stationed In France

EVREUX FAUVILLE, France — Capt. Emory E. Smith, formerly of Haskell, has arrived with his unit for a temporary duty tour at Evreux AFB, France, a U. S. Air Forces in Europe installation.

Capt. Smith, a pilot, came from Lockbourne AFB, Ohio. His unit normally operates there under direction of the Tactical Air Command (TAC), which provides firepower and other air support to U. S. Army forces.

The captain, a graduate of Haskell High School, received his B. S. degree from Texas A&M University. He was commissioned there upon completion of the Air Force ROTC program in 1950. He is married to the former Billie W. Merck.

TAC units are rotated frequently to overseas bases to a high degree of flexibility and combat readiness. Upon completion of the rotational tour, Capt. Smith will return to his home base.

with cotton burs to protect them from this last hard freeze. The plants are just peeping out of the soil.

Carrots, parsley, radishes, English peas and onions all stand cold weather well. I hope the full moon prevented roses from getting killed back this bad cold spell.

Carrots can be grown here the year around. We still have lots of these luscious yellow roots in our garden from August 20th planting last year. Our new crop has been up about a week.

Cabbage is another thing that does well here in the winter, as well as in spring. My husband sowed Wakefield cabbage seed in mid-September and the sharp-pointed heads withstood our lowest temperature this winter. No insects bother the plants. There is nothing quite so good as winter cabbage.

Swiss chard has provided us with greens all winter. This is a cut and come again vegetable. An established bed lasts a year, as Swiss Chard is a bi-ennial. I mention these vegetables so you can plan this summer for a winter garden started this fall.

The Haskell Garden Club met this week at Mrs. Gene Overton's for a seed and plant exchange. Each member plans on helping Haskell to be a prettier place in which to live. The Haskell Garden Club is also helping to beautify our highway by landscaping the grounds around Capt. Marcy's monument.

With so many sordid things happening around the world, we need all the beauty we can create. There is nothing like beauty to ease the tension.

How fortunate we are to live in a world where we can plan our yards and landscape our homes in any way we see fit. Let us count our blessings.

Our lettuce and mustard that had just broken soil, is still green in spite of the fact that the radishes were planted during World War II.

On July 21, 1944, the Marine Division, Guam, to mark the liberation of the island, planted lettuce and mustard during World War II.

If you think you're seeing more and more Plymouth Furys on the road, you're right.

This is the hottest-selling Fury in history.

Here's why:

Fury for '65 is the biggest, plushest Plymouth ever... but still solidly in the low-price class. Big on the outside, its wheelbase is a whopping 119 inches. Big on the inside, plenty of headroom, legroom and hiproom. And new curved-glass side windows add to Fury's contemporary styling. The plush part is the beautiful interior. There's rich upholstery to compliment the exterior finish, wall-to-wall nylon carpeting and a smart, readable instrument panel. No wonder you're seeing more and more Plymouth Furys on the road. If you want more good reasons for buying Fury, see your Plymouth Dealer. He drives one too.

In less than two weeks qualified voters of the City of Haskell will march to the polls to elect two councilmen. If you are interested in your city government, then on Tuesday, April 6, you will head for the polls to voice your choice. VOTE as you please, but PLEASE VOTE.

There is no opposition in the Haskell Independent School Trustee Election, Saturday, April 3. But it would certainly show you are interested in your school system, if you would go to the polls and let the two incumbents for re-election know that you are behind them.

A woman has many faults; men have but two: Everything they say, and everything they do.

I just completed reading the "Cub Reporter," by Boyce House, thanks to our pal, Mike Campbell. In the front of the book were these lines: "To my friend, Mike Campbell, with best wishes—Cub Reporter, first edition of 1,001 copies numbered and signed by the author No. 379—Boyce House."

Mike has the distinction of having the 379th copy of the first edition of "Cub Reporter" by Mr. House.

Despite the fact that our stores are "chock-full" of top-quality foods... such as meats, breads, cereals, fruits, vegetables, dairy products, etc., and their cost is within the reach of American families... dietary deficiency is rampant in America.

There is irony in this. In much of the world, inferior diet is unavoidable because of inadequate production and low income levels... but this is not true in America, however, according to surveys the American youngsters just don't eat properly. Thus in this land of plenty, the percentage of young people with poor diets increases sharply.

Sometimes the way to straighten a youngster out is to bend him over.

How soon can we expect a cure for cancer?

It is a disease of tremendous complexity, yet research gains already made have led some scientists to predict we will see the problem solved within our lifetime.

There is reason for this hopeful outlook. Within the short span of 25 years, we have made such progress as this:

A drug has been developed in treating a rare type of cancer found in women. It is the first solid tumor ever to respond favorably to chemotherapy.

At present, there is no preventative or cure for leukemia, but the lives of patients are being prolonged with new combinations of drugs, and many scientists believe that cures will be found for this type of cancer sooner than for any other cancer.

Hundreds of scientists in many branches of cancer research are working long hours in laboratories across the country to find new clues to fathom the mysteries of a disease which takes the lives of more than 800 Americans a day.

The head of one of the largest research centers has said, "People think there is a lot of money available for cancer. There really isn't. There are many things we wish could be done."

This is worth keeping in mind as you are asked to contribute to the American Cancer Society when the house-to-house canvas Crusade against Cancer gets underway in Haskell County. The pace of support for cancer research must be stepped up to bring closer the day of victory. Your dollars can help.

When a woman lowers her voice, it's a sign she wants something. When she raises it, it's a sign she didn't get it.

When you talk you say something you know, but when you listen, you learn what someone else knows.

Food for Thought: It's the easiest thing in the world to forgive yourself the sins you condemn in others.

Have you noticed those beautiful illustrations in the new spring catalogs? They just show you what the stuff would have looked like if it had come up.

It isn't what you learn... it's what you do with what you learn.

JOHNNY MULLINS "SLAPPED" WITH 15-YEAR SENTENCE

Johnny Mullins, 61, was found guilty of the December 12 knifing of C. W. White, last Wednesday afternoon in 39th District Court. White died suddenly 10 days after appearing to be on the road to recovery. A jury took two hours and 20 minutes to convict Mullins, of murder with malice, and set his punishment at 15 years in prison.

Mullins showed no change of expression at hearing the verdict and his family retained its composure. After the jury filed from the courtroom, Mullins lit a cigarette and heard Judge Ben Charlie Chapman declare he could remain free on his same $10,000 bond.

Mullins' lawyers, Davis Scarborough and Dennis Ratliff, who pleaded self-defense for their client, are expected to appeal. The all-male jury panel, headed by foreman Earl Alvis of Rochester, hinted it was considering a prison term by a note sent out to Judge Chapman, about an hour before a verdict was reached.

The note asked how many years a person would have to serve if he reached five years, or 10, or 15, or 20 or 25. Judge Chapman said under the law he could not answer such a request.

Jurors had a choice of five verdicts: 1. Not guilty, 2. Guilty of murder with malice, 3. Guilty of murder without malice, 4. Guilty of aggravated assault, and 5. Guilty of simple assault.

Haskell Indians Place 8th In Field Meeting

The Haskell Indians, Division I, placed 8th in the second annual Mid-Texas Track and Field meet held at Hufford Field, in Coleman, Saturday.

Haskell was the defending champion over the high school division last year, but met officials divided it into the Division I, for class AAA and AA schools and Division II for class A and B schools this year.

Here is how the Indians "stacked-up" in Saturday's Field Meet:

440-Yard Relay: Haskell, 5th; 100-Yard Dash: Second, Joe Joeslet; fifth, Ronnie Joeslet; 120-Yard High Hurdles: 4th, Perry Turnbow.

Team Totals: Andrews, 66; Breckenridge, 41 3/5; Brady, 30; Winters, 25; Coleman, 21 3/5; Fort Stockton, 15; Graham, 10; Haskell, 9; Lake View, 7; Hamlin, 5 3/5.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deep appreciation for the kindness shown at the loss of Papa. Especially do we thank you for words of sympathy, cards, food, flowers, and for the ones who sat at the funeral home. When sorrow comes to you, may you find the same consolation is our prayer. The Children of Rev. L. J. Frost. 12p

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere gratitude and heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors for the lovely flowers, words of cheer, visits, foods brought into our home, and all the other wonderful acts of kindness during our periods in the hospitals and convalescing home. A special thanks to our doctors and nurses, the First Baptist Church and Bro. Nobles for their visits, prayers and flowers, and to Mrs. I. N. Simmons and the Martha Sunday School class for their many kindnesses. Also, thanks to the Haskell Volunteer Firemen and the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges. You don't know until it happens to you what these things mean. May God bless and keep each and everyone of you and return to you a hundred-fold for your kindnesses, is our prayer. Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Dumas. 12p

H. T. Wilkinson Rotary Speaker Thursday Noon

Hooper T. Wilkinson, superintendent of schools, spoke to members of the Rotary Club at the noon-day meeting, last Thursday.

Wilkinson discussed the legislation concerning the educational program, and pointed out the two programs which will be up for study and to come before the Legislature. These were which would give the teachers raises according to their educational standing and accomplishments so far as years of service are concerned.

"However, in doing this it seems there would be a greater load placed upon the local district," Wilkinson said.

"The T.S.T.A. is offering a plan whereby every teacher would get $45.00 a month raise straight across the board so far as they are classified. This would cost the local district much less, in that the State would assume more of the cost," Supt. Wilkinson pointed out.

"Further information may be obtained from your school superintendent," the speaker said. "Read the two bills closely that are proposed, and use your own judgment, and let your representative and senator know how you feel. It is very important that we show our concern if our representatives and senators are to truly represent the people," Wilkinson said.

Roy Johnson, president, called the meeting to order, and the invocation was given by Rev. J. V. Patterson.

Matters of business were discussed and introduction of guests was made by Ira Hester as follows: R. A. Shaeffer, of Rochester; Lester Barry, C.T.A., from the downtown Rotary Club, Abilene, guest of Carl Anderson; Monty Wayne Frierson, student guest, sponsored by Howard Perry and Douglas Finch.

The Haskell Rotary Club ranked 12th in the district this past month.

A district convention was held Friday and Saturday in Abilene, at the Windsor Hotel, with a good representation from the Haskell club present.

White threw one brick which struck him on the head, missed with the second and was trying to bludgeon him with the third one.

Adkins labeled jealousy as the motive for the knifing. Mullins denied this under 22 minutes' cross-examination by Adkins and also denied he knew Mrs. Newton particularly well or that he had shown her a chain intended for White's neck. Mullins admitted having "two or three drinks" that morning, but no more.

"If I'd wanted to hurt him, I had a shotgun in the truck," Mullins countered. Adkins contended that White actually was using a brick to defend himself against Mullins' knife attack.

An 11-year-old witness, Donny Stewart, said he saw Mullins lunge at White first, followed by White's blow with the brick. He testified he never saw a brick thrown and, although he never saw a knife either, he saw blood on White after Mullins lunged.

The boy witnessed the fight from across the street. Dr. Bill Brooks, Abilene pathologist, testified that White died from a blood clot between the heart and lungs. He attributed the cause of the clot to the knife wound 10 days earlier.

The abdomen wound, testimony showed, was five inches wide and at least 2 1/2 inches deep. The metal zipper on the trousers White wore was cut in half.

Dr. James F. Cadenhead, Haskell physician who treated White on the emergency table, said the wound would have required a knife or razor "wielded with force."

Other jurors were Leonard Kieck and J. M. New, both of Sagerton; Sam Johnson, A. A. Cox, L. A. Covey, and S. J. Reeves, all of O'Brien; Paul Bell, Sam Turner and James R. Barbee, all of Rule; Glenn Caldwell of Weinert, and John Ben Glover of Rochester.

West Texas Utilities Sponsoring All-Day Conference In Abilene

Outstanding high school students from the Abilene area will attend a symposium on atomic energy featuring some of the nation's leading scientists to be held April 2 on the Hardin-Simmons University campus.

The all-day conference will be sponsored by West Texas Utilities and Hardin-Simmons.

It is the hope of WTU that this program will not only prove to be extremely informative to the high school students but will also be an inspiration to those students who may be considering science as a career.

The program has been arranged by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation of which WTU is a member. The Foundation, which is composed of 10 investor-owned electric utility companies in Texas, is engaged in a program of nuclear fusion research with the General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation, seeking to harness the energy process of the hydrogen bomb for peaceful purposes, including the generation of electric power.

An outstanding nuclear scientist, Dr. Martin Stern, will appear on the program. He is from General Atomic's John Jay Hopkins Laboratory in San Diego, Calif., where the fusion research is being carried out. Other speakers at the conference will include Dr. W. T. Guy, Chairman of the department of math at the University of Texas; Dr. B. H. Amstead, Associate Dean, College of Engineering at the University of Texas; Dr. Harold P. Hanson, Chairman of the department of Physics at the University of Texas; and Howard R. Drew, Executive Vice President for the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

W. D. Larned To Receive "Top Hatter" Award

Walter D. Larned of Bill Wilson Motor Co., Haskell Ford dealership, has been selected as one of the nation's leading Ford dealership salesmen during 1964, and will receive Ford Division's Top Hatter Award at a banquet at the Marriott Hotel in Dallas, Saturday, March 27.

The Top Hatter citation, which is the highest sales honor accorded by Ford Division, will be awarded nationally to approximately 200 salesmen who represent 3% of the nation's Ford dealership salesmen. There are 38 such award winners in the Dallas district.

J. W. Mendel, Dallas District sales manager, said the purpose of the Top Hatter Award is to focus attention on the outstanding Ford dealership salesmen of 1964, and on car and truck selling as a profession that performs a "valuable service to the national economy and the local community."

At the banquet, in addition to Top Hatter recognition, Sales Awards will be presented to 69 salesmen for achievements almost at the Top Hatter level, and 300-500 Club membership awards will be presented to Ford dealership salesmen in the district for excellent performance based on the size of their dealerships. Special recognition also will be given three salesmen who have qualified for 300-500 Club membership in each of the 15 years the club has been in existence.

Mr. Mendel said the average 300-500 club member sold more than $400,000 worth of automotive merchandise in 1964, to qualify for the national honor.

D. J. Strickland has qualified for 300-500 Club membership.

Chevle Malibu Sport Coupe

No matter how you look at it, this car makes a lot of sense. If you're interested in value (and who isn't), the eleven features above give you a good idea why more intermediate-size car buyers are thinking Chevelle.

If you're looking for a wide power choice, Chevelle starts out with a standard 120-hp Six, an ideal city performer. After that you may order from a variety of engines that turn it into an even greater highway performer. Room? Large door openings. Wide curved side windows for extra shoulder room. Great front and rear leg room. Those four, six passengers have it made. And so do you. Chevelle may seat like a big car but it handles like a smaller car.

Comfort? Thick wall-to-wall carpeting in Malibu models. Foam-cushioned seats. Easy-to-use instrument panel. The whole interior looks like those in cars costing far more.

Come on down to our show rooms and take a drive soon. Chevelle begins to make even more sense after you've driven a couple of miles.
