Lorie Vincent named Chair of the Texas Economic Development Council

Lorie Vincent Executive Director of The High Ground of Texas recently assumed the Chairmanship of the Texas Economic Development Council. The passing of the gavel took place during the TEDC Annual Conference, which was held in Austin, on September 27, 2012. Greg Last of Southlake, Texas served as the 2012 TEDC Chairman.

Ms. Vincent has served in numerous TEDC leadership positions throughout the past twenty years, including most recently serving as the 2009 Treasurer, 2010 Membership chairman, 2011 Conference Chairman and 2012 Forward Planning Committee Chairman.

"We are excited to have Lorie Vincent serving as the next chairman of our organization. She brings a passion and enthusiasm for our industry that is unmatched. Her professionalism, knowledge and reputation for collaboration and consensus building will be a huge asset to the Texas Economic Development Council. She is very well known and popular among her peers around the state and we all look forward to a productive 2013" says Carlton Schwab, President and CEO of the Texas Economic Development Council.

"On behalf of The High Ground of Texas, we are very proud to have Lorie representing our state association in the highest leadership role. We are glad that the rest of the state will get to experience what our region has benefited from the past several years. Her record of bringing people together for a greater cause will be a positive for the TEDC. The High Ground of Texas members are very active and supportive of the TEDC and we look forward to the upcoming year" says Dan Redd of the Borger EDC, 2011-2012 Chairman of The High Ground of Texas.

Lorie Vincent has been in the economic development industry since 1992, when she became the first Executive Director of the Sherman County Development Committee in Stratford, Texas. While there, she helped to develop an award winning program, receiving recognition by the Wall Street Journal and the TEDC Community Economic Development Awards. In 1999, she became the first Executive Director of the High Ground of Texas, a regional economic development organization which had previously been administered by the staff of Southwestern Public Service. During her years as the director of the High Ground, the organization has seen considerable growth, expanding from a 54 to a 66 county region and multiplying their efforts into a nationally renowned global marketing program. The High Ground of Texas is considered one of the largest and most effective regional economic development coalitions in the United States.

Ms. Vincent is a member of the International Economic Development Council, the West Texas A&M Foundation Board of Directors and the Executive Board of the Texas Panhandle Regional Development Corporation. Ms. Vincent is also a member of the Leadership Texas Class of 1997 and is a Master graduate III of the Rapport Leadership International program. ## Project Christmas Card to Begin Project Christmas Card is a joint project between the Prospectus Study Club and the Stratford Star to benefit the Sherman County Public Library. How does the project work? Instead of sending Christmas cards locally to your friends and neighbors in the Stratford area, you are asked to make a donation to the library. Calculate how much it costs for the cards, postage and your time, add a little extra and bring your donations to the Sherman County Library or First State Bank of Stratford (or mail to the library at PO Box 46, Stratford, TX 79084). Your name and greetings will be placed on a full page Christmas card printed in the December 19th edition of The Stratford Star wishing everyone a "Merry Christmas".

Previous years donations have purchased computers, large print books, audiobooks, shelving, and e-books. Our library is one of the best of its size in this area, if not the state, so let's continue to support it.

Deadline for donations will be 3:00 p.m. on Friday, December 14, 2012. For more information, please contact Sandy Baskin at 366-2200.

Olsen Family Farm honored in Austin

The Gustav Adolph Olsen family farm was honored in Austin, November 8, at the State Capital House of Representative Chamber. Mary Frances Olsen accepted the award from Commissioner Staples. Several family members attended and were honorees at a "Barbeque under the Tent" on the Capital south lawn. Mary accepted the Citation on the House of Representative Floor with the support of Hansford County Judge Benny Wilson and State Senator Kel Seliger.

November 8, 2012, marked the annual tradition of the Texas Department of Agriculture recognizing hardworking Texas families who have kept their farms and ranches in continuous agricultural production for 100 years or more.

In a press release by Texas Agriculture Commissioner Todd Staples, Commissioner Staples stated "Agriculture is not an easy way of life. The days are long, the work is hard and even the best-laid plans can be cast into ruin by drought, floods, wildfire, pests and disease. To endure and survive the unforeseen ups and downs takes a lot of backbone and even more perseverance. To do it for 100 years or more is a remarkable legacy of family, land and heritage. To those families who surpass the 100-year milestone-and to those who make it their life's work to do so-I say thank you on behalf of all Texans who, knowingly or not, depend on you each and every day."

The Olsen farm was founded by Gustav Adolph Olsen in 1910. Born in Norway Mr. Olsen moved to Nebraska and then traveled to Guymon Oklahoma by train. He bought 320 acres in the Oslo community in Hansford County, Texas. Gustav farmed his corn, wheat and milo with horses, and raised cattle, hogs and chickens. Gustav and his wife, Johanna, had eight children. After Johanna died in 1915, Gustav moved to Goodwell, Oklahoma so the children could attend school.

Gustav Adolph Olsen Jr then farmed the land. He trained mules to harness for the use of them. Gus and his wife Helene had seven children. The children lived on the farm and attended Oslo School and Gruver School. Helene died in 1946.

In 1954 Burton Adolph Olsen and his wife Mary Frances, started farming the land. They raised sheep, cattle, hogs chickens and turkeys. Two sons Jon and Wayne were raised on the farm. They attended Gruver School and Oklahoma Panhandle State University. After Burton died in 2001, the Olsen land has been farmed by Mary Frances, Wayne, Jon and wife Mary Elizabeth.

2012 Texas CASA Annual Conference

CASA 69 recently sent 16 volunteers, board members and staff to the Texas CASA Annual State Conference in Frisco, Texas, where more than 600 CASA's from across Texas came together for the training conference.

The annual conference focused on Improving Outcomes for Children and provided outstanding speakers and a variety of workshops to help the volunteers, board members and staff provide the highest quality leadership and advocacy possible for the abused and neglected children we serve.

During the awards dinner Texas CASA presented the following awards: 2012 Jane Quantan Piper Volunteer of the Year, Excellence in Governance Board Member of the Year, Big Voices for Little Texans Judge of the Year, Outstanding Staff Member of the Year, Joseph Gagen Leadership Award and Texas CASA Go Give! Award. During this ceremony our Board of Directors President, Joe Ann Moore was recognized as one of the nominees for the Board Governance award.

Although there are more than 7,000 CASA volunteers across Texas advocating for 20,000 child victims, there are still 22,000 child victims who do not have a CASA speaking up for them.

Please contact us at casa69@xit.net if you are interested in joining the CASA 69 volunteers. Follow us on Facebook or check us out on www.casa69.org. CASA 69 is supported by United Way.

Program topic "The Arts"

Prospectus Study Club met on November 7, 2012 at the First United Methodist Church. "The Arts" was our program topic. We were very lucky to have three talented young ladies to perform their oral reading and/or prose pieces. Carlee Metcalf's piece was "Oh, Romeo! Oh, Like Wow!". It was a cute take on a present day teenager's phone conversation explaining Romeo and Juliet. Hannah Franklin's piece was titled "My Very First Kiss". As you can guess, it was about a first kiss - but with a funny twist. These two girls will compete with their pieces at UIL on Friday, November 16th. Mary Ann Spurlock's piece was from the book "My Life as the Ugly Stepsister". Also a humorous piece, it depicts some of the drama of being a teenager. Mary Ann is just starting to work on her piece and she will compete in the spring. Thank you girls for a job well done. Shown are Hannah (8th grade), Carlee (7th grade), and Mary Ann (junior).

Pointers For Parents

Help Kids Eat Healthy

(NAPS)—Good news for parents concerned about getting their kids to enjoy a healthful diet: Here are three simple steps you can take:

1. Eat together. According to research published in Pediatrics, children who eat with their families have healthier diets and are less likely to be overweight. As a bonus, they also tend to perform better in school than their peers.

2. Involve children in making their own meals. When they've packed their lunch for school or helped prepare a healthful dinner, they're more likely to enjoy it.

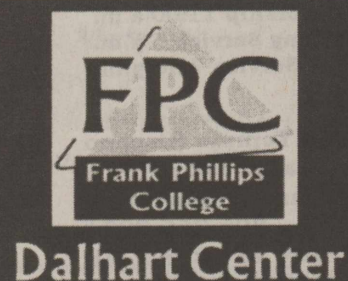

You and your family may find eating right can be fun when you get creative with condiments.

3. Dress up the meal with dressings and sauces. Mayonnaise, salad dressings and condiments are delicious ways for your family to get creative at mealtime. Hot sauce, salsas, prepared horseradish and Dijon mustard can add just the little kick to food it needs. Try salad dressing as a dip or a marinade for meats and veggies, suggest the experts at the Association for Dressings and Sauces.
