Let's Get Crackin'

We liked what Jack Springer, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce executive, told our Chamber of Commerce town hallers last Tuesday morning.

We not only liked it. We endorse it.

Jack said most towns have their peculiarities. Most of them have influences that are dividing. Most of them have influences that are cohesive. But, he said, what we want to keep uppermost in mind is rallying around an organization, like our Chamber, and keep in communication. Through communication comes understanding and solution, even of some of the most dividing issues.

We have noted a most definite upsurge in communication among people in Haskell recently on matters of community interest. This is heartening, and it can lead to mutually beneficial social and economic development, producing a "town on the grow."

Haskell needs to put over with smashing success the program now going full tilt to raise a $13,500 Chamber of Commerce budget. It needs a strong "command post," as it were, around which to rally to work for and obtain, the Junior College proposed here through the diligent, dedicated work of Mrs. Luther Burkett, a veteran school teacher administrator for whose lifelong achievements we have the greatest admiration and respect. More of this type of leadership, that of Mrs. Burkett, is what Haskell needs.

Our Mayor and City Council are attentive to our State Highway 24 development project and other matters of urgent community interest, and leadership backed by action benefitting ALL in this area of need will get the job done.

Haskell, as a town, needs to derive a sense of well-being from two sources... its city fathers and its Chamber of Commerce... that it knows are working in behalf of its community welfare. We think we have sure signs in both these areas, of this work being initiated. Now comes the important thing... the FOLLOW THROUGH.

Let's all pitch in and help Haskell rid itself of its community "diseases," some of which were outlined last Tuesday by Jack Springer. We are not saying Haskell has all of them, but it would be well to enumerate them here, and if we need to "take a powder" for one, or several of them, let's have at it.

First, there is in some towns a "disease" called civic egotism. That's when the citizens say everything's just hunky-dory like it is. We don't need anything else.

Then there's civic stagnation, which attacks the same organs. People who have this say, "We don't want industry. It would UPSET THE PAY SCALE, create higher taxes." These are the same people who give lip service to progress, then look out the window, or hang a "do not disturb" sign on the town.

Also, some towns have civic apathy. Do we? These are the folks who say "all this hullabaloo isn't worth the effort. Our Dads and Grand Dads tried it. It won't work." These same people also can't help but notice that all the young folks who grew up in town already have, or are planning to, move away.

Then, a most "communicable" community disease is "civic factionalism," in which dividing influences sacrifice a town's potential for development on the altar of pure-D personal selfishness.

And, last, but not least, some towns are plagued with "group control," in which the entire community is made to accede to the wishes and the wills, of the "sacred cows."

These are divisive influences. All communities have them, some more than others. Of one thing we are certain. And it should be easily conveyed to the head and heart of every last citizen in Haskell... via the pocketbook!

Let's start caring for, and about our very own, as a community. Let's show the world the stuff of which Haskell is made. Let's GET CRACKIN' and become a "town on the grow." We can, you know, the people willing.

BACKBONE OF THE BATTLIN' BRIGADE—Head Coach Sonny Everett, extreme left, is shown here with the Feroocious Five returning regulars, who will provide the experience under fire for the spirited band of Fightin' Indians taking the field in the first home game of the football season against Clyde's Bulldogs here on Friday night. This group of stalwarts upon whom much will be staked throughout the season includes Tackle Dickie Frierson (67), Guard Bill Perry (60), Linebacker Gary Conner (32), Fullback James Ivy (33), and Quarterback Joe Josselet (28).

Hall Expansion And 'Ice Lifting' Has Begun

LIONS VIEW SLIDES, HEAR TALK ON CUBA; NAME COMMITTEES

Tony Rodriguez, from Havana, Cuba, a graduate of the Baptist Seminary, University of Havana, now attending Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, and serving as pastor of the Calvary Baptist Mission in Haskell, spoke before members of the Haskell Lions, and also showed slides taken in Cuba, at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting.

Rev. Ray Nobles, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was in charge of the program, and introduced the guest speaker.

The very colorful slides taken by Rev. Rodriguez showed Cuba before Castro had taken over, and after he had taken control. During showing of the slides, the guest speaker told of many incidents which happened to the Cuban people under Castro.

Rev. Rodriguez said he had an uncle in Cuba who had many factories and much wealth, but about 12 days after Castro had taken over the factories, and all the money in the banks, his uncle had died.

Latin American Baptist Crusade Starts Here Soon

Churches in the Haskell area will join in a week-long series of gospel services under a tent at South Avenue E and Third Streets here Sunday through Friday, Sept. 13-18.

A part of the Latin American Baptist New Life Crusade, the tent services will be led by Santiago Garcia, of San Antonio.

Sponsoring the gospel series are the Haskell-Knox, Stone-wall-Kent, and Jones Baptist Associations.

Latin Americans are especially invited to the services which begin each evening at 7:30 o'clock. Singing, in Spanish, will be led by Don Jones, of San Antonio.

Latin American Crusades are scheduled in Texas through October 11 by churches affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas. In addition to the Haskell tent meeting, each sponsoring church plans a crusade for Sept. 27 through Oct. 4, and a large metropolitan meeting will be held in Abilene October 4-7.

Laymen from local churches will participate in a personal witnessing campaign during the Latin American local meeting here September 13-18.

Films of the Indian-Electra Tiger opening fracas of the season at Electra last Friday, which Haskell won 20-6, were shown at Booster session Monday night in the high school cafeteria.

Everett urged football fans not only to go to the first home game here with Clyde Friday night, but to support a double-header football evening tonight at Rule. Mrs. John A. Couch Burial Here Today

Mrs. John A. Couch, pioneer Haskell citizen, widow of a former Mayor of Haskell and former president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, died at her residence in Waco at 9 p. m. Monday. She had been in ill health about a year.

Funeral services for Mrs. Couch were held at Wilkerson and Hatch Funeral Home in Waco at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday and the body was brought to Holden Funeral Home here Wednesday afternoon. The family will be at the R. C. Couch, Jr., home here.

Graveside services under direction of Holden Funeral Home will be conducted at 10 a. m. Thursday in Willow Cemetery here by Dr. Ray Nobles, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Haskell, of which Mrs. Couch was a member more than half a century. Burial will be beside the grave of her husband, one of this area's most distinguished citizens, who died Feb. 15, 1956. The body will lie in state at the funeral home here until 9:30 a. m. Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Couch, during more than 60 years of residence here, were widely known for their leadership in the church and civic life of the area. Citizens Learn Of College Potential

Haskell and this area, were to learn Wednesday night specifically what its citizens need to do to bring education beyond the high school level to its doorstep.

Dr. B. W. Musgraves, of Austin, assistant commissioner of education under Dr. J. W. Edgar, head of the Texas Education Agency, was to "spell out" the requirements to Haskell citizens in a meeting in the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank at 7:30 o'clock.

(Editor's Note: The Haskell Free Press goes to press Wednesday afternoon for distribution Thursday morning. For this reason, an account of last night's meeting at the Haskell National Bank cannot be included in this edition.)

The top TEA official was to come here on the invitation of, and as the result of an intensive survey initiated by Mrs. Luther Burkett of Haskell. Mrs. Burkett is supervisor of instruction in Haskell schools and a veteran teacher and administrator of more than 30 years in public school affiliation in Texas. She, together with Hoo-

Jim Pennington Leaving Church Of Christ Pulpit

Jim Pennington, minister of the Haskell Church of Christ, is leaving his pulpit here after four years and seven months of fruitful endeavor to complete work on a master's degree and then enter the field of evangelism for his church.

Mr. Pennington and his family are moving about Sept. 18 to Abilene, where he will do research at Abilene Christian College on his master's thesis.

Following completion of this work, the Penningtons plan to go to Estevan, Saskatchewan, Canada, where he plans to enter evangelistic pursuits serving evangelical congregations in Western Canada. His aim is to devote the major part of his time in that area to youth activities and educational training programs as well as evangelism.

The Haskell minister's pulpit experience has included service to the Church of Christ at Choctaw and a small congregation in Oklahoma City, in his native Oklahoma. In Texas, he was a student minister while in college, serving two years at Burkett in Coleman County before coming to Haskell in February, 1960. The Haskell Church of Christ has experienced a widely recognized development and expansion during Mr. Pennington's tenure.

Each year since he has been in Haskell, the congregation has sent Mr. Pennington to several places in Texas, Kansas, Oklahoma and South Dakota to help in mission efforts. Particularly has he been active in the O'Brien area. (See Jim Pennington, Page 10)

Little League Expansion Under Study Here

Possibilities of the operation for the first time of a Senior Little League in Haskell will be discussed when members of the Haskell Little League organization meet next Monday night, Sept. 14, at 7:30 o'clock in Sam's Cafe here.

In addition to planning the scope and schedule of the Little League here for the summer of 1965, officers will be elected at the Monday night meeting.

Heretofore, Haskell, a consistent contender in Little League competition beyond its own area, has only entered Little League endeavor up to and through age 12. Should senior Little League efforts be inaugurated, it would include participation of boys through age 15.

Roy Pitman and Bobby Dulaney have been president and secretary, respectively, of the Little League here for the past year.

Bobby Dulaney, the Poor Man's Samuel Goldwyn, willing, we almost succumbed to an intense desire to set up shop in the cinema lobby Saturday night to make a stab at...no, not the Beatles, but trying to record for posterity, the antics of the local yokels watching the Beatles on film.

However, having a higher regard for our only typewriter, not to mention merris for this tired ol' torso, life and limb, and all that, we thought better of the idea and pigeon-holed it. It probably would have been a Hard Day's Night, any way you look at it.

We are sure we're out of step, but we don't quite dig these refugees from a barber shop. Obsolete is a better word for it, we reckon. We KNOW we're out of step when we read their press notices. Like the one about the girl in Indianapolis who claims the record for collection of Beatleja, suppose you'd call it. She has, by careful count, 8,220 Beatle pictures, and invested $140.00 acquiring them.

In Denver we followed with curious interest the preparations being made while we were there for the imminent appearance of the Beatles at the huge mountainside amphitheater, Red Rocks. The Denver city fathers decreed that mixed drinks couldn't be served during their performance. Figured the patrons already would be high enough on "Beatle juice." Reckon?

Did you hear about the girl who tried to crash the Indianapolis press conference of the Beatles by posing as a reporter for the Marion SENTINEL. The Beatles' PR man grilled her as she tried to enter. Asked her where Marion was. "North of here," she replied. "What county's it in?" he queried. "I knew it wouldn't work," said the Beatle worshipper, sobbing as she departed the area.

Wallace (Have Gun, Will Travel) Wooten calls our attention (and we are grateful) to this one.

A Southern big town newspaper editor was fed up with the state of politics, and ran this headline: "Half the Legislature are Crooks!"

This naturally brought a storm of protest from these gentlemen, who demanded a retraction. The editor was finally forced to agree, and his next edition carried this headline: "Half the Legislature Are Not Crooks!"

See where they put a couple more crack passenger trains in mothballs and cosmoline this past week. At least four more are petitioning for the same. The day seems to be coming and all too soon, when a train ride will take the place of the trail ride as a symbol of an institution that has passed this way, and is no more.

Overheard roundin' the square: "If I could buy her for what she's worth...and sell her for what she THINKS she's worth, I'd have it made the rest of my life...and live in style, too!"

Speaking of passing institutions, the death of Sergeant Alvin York moved us deeply. Like the indomitable General Douglas MacArthur, this Tennessee mountaineer had a fighter's heart, and was a living example of "old soldiers never die." Now the Great American who

 Justice Precinct 4 will be in the spotlight Saturday when voters will ballot in a special election on whether the legal sale of 3.2 beer will continue in that precinct. The proposition has created considerable interest, and the outcome of the election will likely be close. Justice Precinct 4 is in the southern part of the county and extends from 6 miles south of Haskell to the city limits of Stamford.

The sum of $5,477 will be received by Haskell County during the coming term as tuition for rural pupils attending high school, the State Department of Education has advised Miss Minnie Ellis, county superintendent.

Breaking records which have existed for several years, Haskell schools opened Monday with 240 pupils enrolled in the high school, 333 in the North Ward School, and 186 in the South Ward. This is a total increase of 46 scholastics over the 1933 figure.

Miss Maybelle Taylor will leave this week for Louisville, Ky., where she will attend Baptist Seminary for the coming term.

The Weinert schools will made history with those words and the Pacifist of Pall Mall who turned soldier because his country called, and became one of its greatest, are both gone.

As an embryo newsman in Nashville, we interviewed Alvin York at the beginning of World War II when he was trying to get back into uniform and organize a whole outfit of Tennessee mountain boys. This was a dream he couldn't fulfill, because his infirmities even then precluded his returning to uniform.

But we shall never forget his burning desire to do this. He wanted to show the world what a "whole battalion of Tennessee boys could do, using turkey shootin' tactics, pickin' off the enemy, the farthest one away first, so as not to disturb the approach of the ones comin' toward you."

We have a learned dust cousin in whom we are well pleased, Rev. Roy S. Hulan, a Disciple of Christ minister, who not long ago completed some 10 years of a most successful ministry at the First Christian Church in Jackson, Mississippi. He passed on to us recently his favorite Mississippi-type story:

Two cullid girls were walking down the street in Gulfport and saw two nuns on the opposite side. One had never seen a nun before. She said, "What'd dem, hon?" Her companion said, "Why, don't you know? Dem's nuns."

"Yeah? What's nuns?"

"Why, nuns is ladies that ain't got no menses and no sines."

"Oh, and AIN'T they in deep moanin'?"

Why Play Football

Why should you son play football? Why should he run the risk of severe injury? What good is football to him? He'll come home late for meals, dead tired, sore and stiff. He won't be able to get a job after school to earn any money. His time won't be his own for about 13 weeks. He will be forced to obey a strict set of rules. He'll worry about the games and will be disheartened and downcast after losing. Is football worth this sacrifice and effort?

Believing that these are some of the questions which run through every parent's mind, the Free Press put them to Haskell High School's Head Coach Sonny Everett, who made an auspicious debut last Friday night in Electra in directing the destiny of the Fighting Indians of HHS on the gridiron. Believing Sonny a conscientious, diligent, hard-working, serious-purposed and clean-cut gentleman, up to whom any boy should feel proud to look for leadership and direction, we are pleased to record here his answers, which we feel are deserving and truly merit the attentive interest of our readers. We summarize them here, using Coach Everett's first person approach:

The answers which I would like to give you parents are answers which I have thought out for myself, and are ones I would give to myself if a son of mine were old enough to play football. I hope you will believe me when I say that I realize the heavy responsibility parents invest in me in the care and health of your sons during the season.

Football isn't just a game played to determine a winner and a loser. It's an experience in the lives of growing young men which presents them with many of the problems they will face in later life.

During the coming few months, your son will be required to follow a strict set of training rules. He'll either abide by these rules or be dismissed from the team, thus experiencing the discipline so essential in a democratic society.

What's more your sons will frame some of these rules themselves, as well as the punishments for infractions, thus affording another lesson in democratic action.

Competition begins with birth and continues unceasingly in every facet of life. Competition is natural and normal. You compete against yourself and against others for a position on the team. Your son will compete against other sons from other high schools.

If an executive or leader were asked what he wanted most from one of his employees or followers, he would undoubtedly select loyalty. Loyalty goes with teamwork. You will not have one without the other.

Self-discipline is most difficult to master. Sacrifice for a cause, or a reason to give up one thing to gain another, is the beginning. Most athletes realize that to reach a goal they must deprive themselves of pleasures to obtain it. This is wonderful training that is necessarily found in football, more than in any other sport.

The danger of serious injuries is extremely remote. Actually, there is more potential for serious injury to students in automobile and industrial accidents than there is in football.

(According to statistics received by the Free Press, motor vehicle accidents are 180 times more dangerous than football, drownings are 21 times more dangerous than football, and firearms 20 times more dangerous than football.)

Coach Everett concludes with this statement: "We have the best equipment available for your son's protection. I personally am a stickler for conditioning and can assure you that your son will be in top physical condition for every game. However, in order to obtain this, he will be required to work hard and long on the practice field. He will come home dead tired at times. But isn't this better than having him riding around in hot-rods, and, or, gangs until all hours of the night?"

"We coaches sincerely feel that your son's contribution to the football squad will be far overshadowed by the football team's contribution to your son."

This newspaper concurs in, and commends to you, these statements conveyed in all sincerity, by Head Coach Sonny Everett.

Claire Harpham and Fred Allen Seale Are Wed In Munday Church Ceremony

In a twilight ceremony Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church of Munday, Mabel Claire Harpham became the bride of Fred Allen Seale. Mr. and Mrs. James Crowther Harpham are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Seale of Goree.

The Rev. Rex Mauldin of Hale Center read the double ring ceremony. Eddie Littlefield played the organ prelude and accompanied Mrs. Rex L. Mauldin, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk organza gown fashioned with molded bodice and brief sleeves. Re-embroidered alencon lace formed a scalloped neckline and enhanced front of skirt and sleeves.

Controlled bell skirt with bouffant back fell into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from alencon lace cap outlined with seed pearls. Her bouquet was gardenia, lace and pearl nosegay.

Jan Pendleton was maid of honor and Nancy Penick was bridesmaid. They wore peau de soie gowns with bateau necklines, demotee backs and pleated overskirts. Miss Pendleton wore cranberry, Miss Penick, viva pink.

Their matching coils were accented with forehead flower. They carried gladioli buds forming a single flower outlined by cascading leaves. Candelights were Paula Pendleton and Becky Ratliff. Leann Bowden was flower girl and Ricky Stovall, ring bearer. Jim D. Seale, Lafayette, La. brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Groomsmen and ushers were Tommy Kaker, Bridgeport, Jerry Bowden, Phil R. Simmons, Denton, and Ronnie Struck, Goree.

An enchanting garden reception planned at the home of the bride's parents was cancelled, due to rain. A beautifully appointed reception was held, instead, in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride was graduated from Munday High School and the bridegroom from Goree High School. Both attended Cisco Junior College where the bride was Snow Queen, member of the choir and SNEA.

After Sept. 10 the couple will be at home in Portales, N. M., where they will continue their studies at Eastern New Mexico University.

Rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Seale.

AREA RESIDENTS REPORT ON 'INVASION' OF EASTERN POINTS

By MILDRED GUESS
Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Boykin, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Plemister and Hugh Plemister, of Montague, returned recently from a two week and 5,000 mile trip through 13 states in the Northeast.

Looking into the face of the Statue of Liberty and realizing what it represents to the world and the thrill of standing in the very spot in a room where the Declaration of Independence was signed nearly 200 years ago when our nation was born and we, by the hand of our forefathers, became free-born. It was just as great a thrill to be able to touch the cracked, old Liberty Bell and realize that it rang out on many special occasions and has survived to this day as a token to us who treasure our heritage. It made us feel very humble to walk over the sloping hillside of Valley Forge and remember that so many paid with their lives that we might have freedom and enjoy the treasures of history.

The northern part of their destination was a tour of Niagara Falls, and a trip over into Canada. They attended the World's Fair, New York City, where they were joined by Ete. and Mrs. Doyle Boykin, Fort Bragg, N. C., and Mrs. Ida Plemister, of Montague. Mrs. Plemister had flown to Delaware by jet airliner a week earlier. It was her first plane trip. She is 71.

After a two-day stay in and around New York, the group went to Wilmington, Del., and visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Davis. Mrs. Davis is the former Edith Plemister. From Delaware, several points of interest were toured, including "Old Philadelphia," and the battle ground of Valley Forge. One day they went to Atlantic City, walked the board walk, waded in the Atlantic, and peeked into the Democratic Convention Hall. They watched as various delegates arrived from over the nation. They saw a Freedom Riders' "sit-in" on the board walk. The only nationally known personality they saw was NBC news commentator, David Brinkley.

A big surprise to the "uneducated" group was the fact that these states, and New York and New Jersey are almost a "Garden of Eden." Many acres are devoted to orchards, grape vineyards and garden produce. The principal crops are corn, soy beans and cattle. The countryside is very picturesque, farm homes very dignified and beautiful.

The most memorable thing was not the magnificence of the World's Fair, the fantasy land of tomorrow, nor the ugliness and squalor of the large cities, but rather the thrill of

SIX HASKELL ROTARIANS TAKE PART IN INTITUTE AT BRECK

Six Haskell Rotarians were among the 57 officers and key committee chairmen from 13 clubs of Rotary International District 579 who assembled in the American Legion Hall at Breckenridge Thursday for an all-day institute.

Called together to talk Rotary and to discuss ways and means of how better to "Live Rotary," which is the theme of the 1964-65 Rotary year, the participants in the institute accentuated their interest on mutual problems and projects of club presidents, how to better disseminate Rotary information, strengthen club publications, and increase membership through better understanding of Rotary International's membership classification system.

Dr. C. J. Dodsworth, of Bowie, the district governor, directed the seminar on Rotary, assisted by three longtime and well known Rotarians of Northwest and North Central Texas, all past district governors. They were M. W. (Pie) Larmour, of Graham, editor of the Rotary Club of Graham's "Scandal Sheet," probably the most widely distributed Rotary publication in Rotary International; E. A. Gresham, also of Graham; and Ira Kirschnick, of Fort Worth. A fourth past district governor, Bob Blake, of Brownwood, also took part in the discussions.

The Breckenridge meeting was for Rotary clubs in the western half of District 579, a 41-club district. A similar meeting will be held Friday, Sept. 11 in Gov. Dodsworth's home town of Bowie. The institute opens in the First Methodist Church of Bowie at 9 a. m., continuing until 4 p. m.

Rotary clubs represented at Breckenridge, in addition to the host club, were Haskell, Abilene, Southwest Abilene, Hamlin, Clisco, Brownwood, Eastland, Downtown Ft. Worth, Mineral Wells, Verman and Graham.

Going from Haskell were President Roy Johnson, who summarized for the assembly at the end of the day the challenges faced by a local Rotary club president; Vice President H. V. Woodard, R. A. Lane, Porter Oakes, Henry Withers, and Gene Hunter.

Frierson Steady With Squeezing To Win At Traps

David Frierson, a home-towner with a steady squeezin' trigger finger, captured top gun honors in a registered trapshoot at the Haskell Gun Club's layout here Sunday afternoon.

Curtis Gollahan, of Brownwood, and Troy W. Boykin, of Childress, pushed the Haskellite for this recognition, however.

Frierson had an overall 191x200 score. Gollahan, tied for the Class A singles trophy by Larry Gravestock, of Wichita Falls, and Haskell Gun Club President Wallace Wooten, all with 96x100s, went on to win this event in a handicap shoot-off.

Boykin, the Childress crack shot, won the Class B singles with a 96x100 mark. His 42x50 earned him the Class B doubles title.

Don Cook, of Wichita Falls, captured the Class C event with an identical score.

Frierson's 49x50 handicap card was good enough to win, and he also annexed the Class A doubles with 47x50.

In Class C doubles, Gollahan prevailed in a shootoff with D. W. Mercer, of Wichita Falls, and Boykin.

Another big trapshoot is scheduled in Haskell at 1 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 20. President Wooten has announced.

By AL HINDS

This one comes from Shorty (Walter) Rogers, Spencer Lumber Company big wheel. Shorty said that one Sunday, Dr. Ray Nobles preached on "Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself" and after the service, Shorty approached Rev. Nobles and wanted to know how he could go about living up to that sermon when he lived between two Fouts—George and Ed.

With politics in the air, we hear a lot these days about the front lash, the back lash, the liberal and the conservative. With the back lashers... the front lashers... the conservatives and the liberals... it's kinda hard to tell just where a man stands in his party. Heard one prominent Haskellite say that he guessed he was a backlash-conservative.

It was not a total surprise, nor was it a big shock to this scribe when Ex-Representative Martin Dies Sr., of Lufkin, announced that he would support Sen. Barry Goldwater for the Presidency. For several years, Dies has been losing ground politically-wise.

However, I just can't see why a man like Mr. Dies would go against the Democratic Party... the Party which honored and elected him to serve 20 years as a Texas Congressman.

At one time I thought Ex-Representative Dies was one of Texas' greatest. I remember some 14 years ago at a Press Convention in the Driskill Hotel, Austin, I heard Mr.

Dies "speak from the cuff" to Texas newsmen and he held the large delegation in the grip of his hand. When he concluded his speech he received a standing ovation.

I think perhaps why Mr. Dies said he would support Goldwater is that he had "rather switch than fight." Not only did Dies announce that he would back Goldwater, but that he was going to make speeches over the state for the Republican nominee.

Martin Dies won Democratic Party nomination and subsequent election to Congress from the old 2nd District in Southeast Texas in 1931-'44, and again as Congressman-at-Large from 1953 through 1956. He campaigned again for the U. S. Senate in a special election in 1957 as a Democrat. He ran third in a field of 22 as U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough first won his place in Congress.

Earlier, Dies sought a Senate seat in a 1941 special election in which W. Lee O'Daniel, who had just resigned as Governor, nosed out President Johnson, then a Congressman from the Austin District, for a plurality victory. Dies ran 4th in that race.

One thing for sure, Texas Democrats should be "mighty proud." Dies was not elected Senator back in those earlier campaigns.

After all the Democratic Party has done for Mr. Dies, I just can't understand why he would turn his back on a party which had bestowed upon him so many favors and honors. What Mr. Dies has done to the Democratic Party would be just like the man who had been a member of a certain church all his life, got mad at the preacher... and joined another church.

I have always contended a person can not be a Democrat one day and a Republican the next. Jack Cox found that out the hard way. Neither can you be a Baptist one day and a Methodist the next. You either are, or you ain't... and that's all there is to it.

The Clyde Bulldogs invade Haskell Friday night for a non-conference tilt with the Indians. This will be the first home game of the new 1964 season, and Indian Stadium is expected to be filled to capacity. This is the way I pick it: Haskell 26, Clyde 13.

The old saying, "If you dance, you will have to pay the fiddler," certainly holds true... and if the U. S. continues the "Moonshots" we will have to pay the price.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said recently the total cost of the Ranger program to study the moon photographically will be $280 million.

A NASA spokesman said the best estimate of the cost of the successful Ranger 7 mission is about $28 million. Ranger 7 landed on the moon after transmitting a steady stream of pictures.

Two more shots are scheduled in the Ranger series.

Thanks to Tommy Duvall a new corn cob pipe lies peacefully alongside my pipe collection.

Diplomacy is the art of saying "nice doggie" while you look around for a stick.

Longest punt in the Southwest Conference last season was a 60-yarder by Texas Tech's Don Anderson to the Southern Methodist 2-yard line.

Mississippi State, Texas Tech's opening foe, in Lubbock, Sept. 19, is a member of the Southeastern Conference, against whose teams Tech is 3-5-0. Raider elevens have split with Mississippi State, defeated Auburn, taken one of three with Tulane, and dropped a pair to Louisiana State.

Fightin' Indians

quarterback Davy Baker for losses numerous times before he could untrack from center. Another Gary, surname Druessow, also turned in some sparkling all-around play.

Haskell led the entire contest, scoring early in the second quarter and then once in the remaining two. Electra was in the contest until the final seconds and narrowed the score 7-6 in the third.

This being the season opener for both teams, penalties were numerous and Haskell took the worst part of it with 105 yards amassed due to the red flag. The Tigers were quick with their tempers and two had to be expelled from the game.

Haskell gathered steam for its first drive late in the first quarter. The Indians marched for their first score from their own 45.

Josselet credited himself the first TD by rolling around right end, slipping two defenders, and scampering 26 yards. Bill Perry, stocking-footed freeboater, kicked the point after with 10:42 gone from the second period.

Electra, which tried fullback Charles McQuinn up the middle in the first quarter and halfback Alfred Cook around the ends in the second quarter, found their only drive early in the third quarter.

Starting from its own 25, the Tigers scored with Baker rolling out and tossing a five-yard pass to end Butch Kinder in the end zone. They tried the same thing for the go-ahead extra points, but Kinder caught the pass short of the goal.

Haskell wasted no time in scoring again, however, and took the kickoff and marched for six more points. A 15-yard penalty against Electra gave the Fightin' Indians the ball on their own 44 and in five plays, James Ivy crashed over from the half-yard line. Perry missed the PAT. The score was set up by a 38-yard end run by Josselet from the 44 to the 6. A 5-yard penalty put the ball back on the 11. Josselet then took it to the 7. Gary Druessow smashed through to the one-half yard line. On fourth down, Ivy bulled over.

Haskell plugged its defenses to stop Electra's all-out effort in the final minutes and the Tigers never threatened again.

Josselet added the final points with 1:56 remaining in the game by sweeping end again for 24 yards. Perry kicked the extra point.

City Hall---

In what is now known as the Simmons Building, to become a part of Haskell's City Hall, will be housed probably by mid-November, the Police Department, Corporation Court and the City Council chambers, also to be offered for community use "for town hall meetings," Stephenson said.

Modern complementing double doors are planned for the new building now separated by the fire hall entrance and exit. As soon as the current Police Department and city father occupants of the present cramped quarters have their new "home" next door, then work can be initiated to provide the necessary vault space and records filing systems long needed to conveniently conduct the city's business, Mayor Walling and Councilman Stephenson reported.

Mrs. Couch, a native of Comanche, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson. She and Mr. Couch were married in Haskell in 1900. She moved to Waco in 1956 shortly after his death in February of that year.

Throckmorton, Knox City, Seymour, Munday, Rule, Woodson, Benjamin, Rochester, Goree and Haskell lodges have been invited to participate.

Lt. Lewis Jones Completes Tough Aviator School

Second Lieutenant Lewis M. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Jones, of 1014 6th Street, Haskell, completed a 39-week fixed wing aviator course at the Army Aviation School in Fort Rucker, Ala., on Sept. 4.

During the course, Lt. Jones received instruction in instrument flying techniques and tactical employment of Army observation and utility fixed wing aircraft.

The lieutenant entered the Army in June, 1963.

The 23-year-old officer is a 1959 graduate of Haskell High School. A member of the Kappa Alpha Order, Lt. Jones is a 1963 graduate of West Texas State University, of Canyon, where at graduation he was cited as one of the most outstanding ROTC students in his class.

Graduating at the same time from WTU was Jones' wife, the former Gail Ratliff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ratliff, of Haskell. Ratliff, a retired Chief Warrant Officer in the United States Air Force, is business manager of the Haskell Clinic.

A native of Oklahoma City, the departing Church of Christ minister here was reared on a small truck farm near there. He is the eldest of five children of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Pennington. The elder Pennington, an electrician by trade, is a lay minister in the church and has preached in rural Oklahoma congregations for 30 years.

Mr. Pennington graduated from Capitol Hill High School in Oklahoma City in 1953. He attended Central Christian College in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and while there was taught by Gerald McCoy, well-known science teacher who has been at Haskell High School several years.

Entering Abilene Christian College in 1954, Mr. Pennington graduated magna cum laude in 1958, obtaining his bachelor of arts degree. He has completed 36 hours of graduate work and is working on his thesis to fulfill requirements for a master of science degree.

Mr. Pennington and Miss Raymona Weir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Weir, of Oklahoma City, were married in 1956. She graduated from ACC and taught two years at Noodle in Jones County and one year at Guymon, Okla. The couple have two boys, David 5, and James 3.

At the heart of the 4H Club program are some 400,000 men and women who serve voluntarily as leaders.

Since application of sufficient fertilizer in proper balance to correct soil deficiencies is now accepted as one of the most profitable single practices in Haskell County, now is the time to be thinking of a fertilizer use program for wheat to be planted in this area this fall. Haskell County Agent Frank W. Martin announced Friday.

Haskell County soils vary greatly in their ability to supply nitrogen and phosphorus, Martin reported. The soil test remains the best single guide for determining the amount and grade of fertilizer needed. Martin said it should be remembered that 50 bushels of wheat grain alone contains about 50 pounds of nitrogen and 25 pounds of P2O5. Forage removed by grazing can contain 20 per cent protein, or about 3 per cent actual nitrogen on a dry weight basis, he said.

Data from research conducted on the Pullman soils indicates time of nitrogen application is now a major factor where wheat is being grown for grain only, according to Martin. Yields were about the same when nitrogen was applied pre-plant, in split applications, or as a topdress in February.

However, where grazing is to be practiced, it is important to apply all or part of the nitrogen as a pre-plant to stimulate early growth, Martin reminds. The nitrogen can be conveniently applied anytime before listing, he said. If solid or liquid forms are used, they should not be left on the surface for long periods.

If the soil test shows a deficiency of phosphorus, the phosphate should be applied in such a manner that it will remain in moist soil, within reach of permanent roots, said the County Agent. Like in other field crops, much of the phosphorus is utilized while wheat plants are young. Since phosphorus moves very little from the point of application, it is important it be applied pre-plant, says Martin. Topdressing with phosphates after wheat is up, cannot be expected to give the "most profitable response," he advised.

Taking soil samples now will insure "getting your report back in plenty of time for final planning and fertilizer application," declares Martin, who will furnish complete information on sample collection and mailing to all interested farmers and planters through his office in the Haskell County Courthouse.

Potential location and establishment in Haskell of a junior college serving a 5-county area in which this town is the geographic hub, was to be the subject of Dr. Musgraves' discussion before all interested citizens here.

Mrs. Burkett announced on Sept. 1st at a "town hall" session of the Chamber of Commerce here that Haskell "is under serious consideration" as the site for a junior college serving the Northwest - North-Central Texas area. Mrs. Burkett has been working for several months on a survey prepared for and at the request of TEA officials in Austin, with many of whom she has worked closely in the past.

Dr. Musgraves and other officials have selected "an ideal potential location for such a school here, it has been reported."

Mrs. Burkett explained that such an undertaking must be the product of unified efforts of five counties in this territory "and it will take possibly two years to get started, but we can do it," Haskell, Baylor, Throckmorton, Stonewall, and Knox are the counties under consideration for the unity of effort.

Pastor Schaefer New President Of Ministers' Group

Haskell's Ministerial Alliance, following a summer recess of its meetings, met this week and elected two new officers to serve the remainder of the calendar year. They replace ministers who have recently vacated their pulpits here.

Rev. James Schaefer, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, was elected president of the ministerial group, to fill out the unexpired term of Rev. Ellis Todd. Rev. Todd, pastor of the First Methodist Church here, has become pastor of the First Methodist Church in Wellington.

Rev. J. V. Patterson, who succeeded Rev. Todd in the Methodist pulpit here, was elected vice president to fill the unexpired term of Rev. Rogers Durham, minister of the Haskell Christian Church. Rev. Durham recently was called to the pastorate of a church in Logosotee, Indiana.

The ministerial alliance here planned its work for the remainder of the calendar year. It was noted that all churches in the alliance have conducted worship services during the summer months at the Rice Springs Nursing Care Home. The First Presbyterian Church is conducting services at the home during September. Rev. Douglas B. Finch, pastor, is directing worship at 6:30 o'clock each Sunday evening.

Meetings of the alliance will be held the first Wednesday of each month at 12 noon for the remainder of 1964.

Urban, suburban and rural boys work together in 4H Clubs. They have a choice of nearly 50 projects ranging from electricity to livestock.
