By wearing memorial poppies on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 29, people of Haskell will be paying tribute to 500,000 men who gave their lives for America in three wars of this century.

As each poppy leaves the hands of a disabled man it contributes monetary assistance for necessities and amount of savings for the veteran toward the day he can leave the hospital.

Honor the dead... aid the disabled... wear a poppy Saturday.

Haskell Without Power Nearly 4 Hours Friday

Baccalaureate And Commencement Exercises Mark End of School Year

The baccalaureate and commencement services, May 23rd and 24th, marked the end of 12 years of study for fifty-four graduating seniors.

The professional and recreational for baccalaureate were played by Andrea Baird and Paula Hynes, while Juniors, Steve Harper, Jenna Pitman, Mike Felker and Debbie Wiseman, led the march.

The invocation was given by Rev. Allen Johannes, minister of the Trinity Lutheran Church. The senior class president, Wendell Coston, read the scripture, "I'll Walk with God," was presented by the three Senior "Nineteens," Judy Anderson, Andrea Baird and Millie Holden.

The speaker for the night was Mr. Douglas Finch, minister of the Presbyterian Church. He told the seniors that one of the most important guiding scriptures as they prepared to meet life was Matthew 22:34-40.

These scriptures require that we love God with all our heart and love our neighbors as ourselves.

Mr. Finch pointed out, however, that one should not give up self-love for love of others. Proper love of self is necessary before true love of others will come. He reminded the seniors that these exercises mark a definite beginning and not an ending.

The commencement services Monday, May 24, was the final night for the 1965 Seniors before they became "Exes." The seniors made their entrance as Judy Anderson and Carolyn Fischer played the professional.

compared the feelings of the Seniors to those of Dr. Tom Dooley, "but we have promises to keep, and miles to go before we sleep."

"The Man with the Broken Fingers" by Carl Sandberg, was presented by Linda Sampson. A group of Senior girls sang, "When in H. H. S." They were followed by Paula Hynes who gave the last chapter of "The Big Fisherman."

David Follstaedt, class valedictorian, presented his address. He reminded the graduating Seniors that their future might depend on which type of "square" they chose to be.

Royce Adkins, representing the American Legion, presented the American Legion awards to Carolyn Fischer and David Follstaedt. These students were chosen by their classmates and faculty.

Lochie Foote was the recipient of the scholarship presented by Mrs. Stella Trice for the B&PW club. Don Muenzler of the Chamber of Commerce, presented a scholarship to Monte Frierson.

Supt. H. T. Wilkerson presented David Follstaedt, valedictorian, and Carol Klerpeka, salutatorian, scholarships, which had averages of 93.62 and 93.54 respectively.

W. P. McCollum, principal of H.H.S., then presented the 54 diplomas to members of the graduating class. This was followed by the class song, "A Perfect Day," presented by the Senior girls. After the benediction by Jimmy Larned, the audience was dismissed.

An Open Letter to The Public

Well, rodeos come and rodeos go. This is about the way ours has been this year. Out of everything, though, we guess there is some good to come of it.

It seems the rains we have had this past week will offer a bountiful harvest to our farmers if it will just continue to rain once in a while for the rest of the year.

Everyone is asking, "How did you come out on the rodeo?" Well, it seems an evident fact that everyone can understand, there was no money made, as we didn't get to have the rodeo like we had planned. Try as we may, it seemed we were destined not to have the rodeo this year.

We have several things to be thankful for, though, and it is our duty now to offer these thanks where thanks are due. First, we did get to have the barbecue supper and this was a good thing in our favor as this helped to override the money lost on the rodeo. We are indeed grateful for the fine folks who turned out for the parade and barbecue Thursday afternoon. Without your participation in this, we could not have made it the success that it was.

Also, our thanks goes out to these merchants who helped with donations toward the greased pig race: Kennedy Lumber Co., Smitty's Auto Supply, Hassen's, Brazeal Lumber Co., M-System, J. E. Walling Jr., Toliver Chevrolet Co., Haskell National Bank, Super-Save Grocery, Bill Wilson Motor Co., Highway Drive-In Cafe, M&F Pharmacy, Fieldan Motel, Texas Cafe, United Industries, Spencer Lumber Co., Jones-Cox & Co., Medford Motor Co., M. L. Cook Service Station and Fred Gilliam.

As you know, we didn't get to have the greased pig race but one night so we had some of this money left which we hope to use in helping on the expenses.

We have several people to whom we should give special thanks. The most grateful of all would be Merchant Machine and Equipment Co. Mr. Merchant worked faithfully and his operator also, in trying to get the arena in shape. Men who will donate their time and expenses and such expensive machinery as this are definitely the best yet in our opinion.

There are also so many individuals whom we used at no cost to put on this rodeo. These men we have come to depend on, and without them the rodeo would not be possible. Just a few of these are the City Council, the Fire Department, Chamber of Commerce, and all of the individual men who work as time keepers, gate men, fence riders, flag men and judges. These men are indispensable as far as we are concerned.

Of course, we can't leave out the business houses and concerns who brought equipment down to try and get the arena dry. We used equipment from the County, Haskell Farm Store and Richardson Truck and Tractor Company. And then some equipment that we never did know who it belonged to.

We are indeed grateful to Mr. Adrian Parker for his generosity in helping us try and give you a show. In the times we have been sponsoring the rodeo, he is the best man we have ever worked with in helping us in every way possible. He honestly made every effort he could to help us out and already says he wants to come back next year and try again as he thinks the Haskell folks are mighty fine people.

We also have apologies to make. First, maybe you helped with the rodeo, but your name wasn't mentioned here. We assure you it wasn't left out on purpose. There are so many, sometimes it is easy to overlook someone.

Secondly, we are sorry that we didn't get to give you a complete performance on Thursday and Friday night. These things will happen you know, and there is nothing we can do about it. The calf ropers and ribbon ropers were unable to compete in their performances since the arena was too muddy for a horse to run. Also, some of the other riders wouldn't perform on account of the mud. We do thank you, the public, for coming out anyway to see what we could give you in the way of entertainment.

Now, where do we go from here? We spent around $500.00 for work on the new bunking chutes this year. Also, we have some pipe left over and about 3000 feet more of pipe which we have bought and must pay for somehow. With this, we are going to go right ahead and start making plans for next year. Our plans now are to replace the judges' stand and all of the stock pens on the south end of the arena. These we feel need replacing next as they are there to hold these dangerous animals and these pens aren't too good. With the food left from the concession stand, we are planning the big hot dog feast which you have probably heard about by now. On this we hope to clear up some of the debt and get started again.

The last line of the Jaycee Creed says: WE BELIEVE THAT SERVICE TO HUMANITY IS THE BEST WORK OF LIFE. We are out to give the best service we can to the community in which we live. And we are going to give this in the best way we know how. All we ask in return is your continued cooperation and support—THE HASKELL JAYCEES.

W. P. Trice who accepted a position with the U. S. Forestry Service as assistant to Jno. D. Jones, the first of this month was in the city Wednesday in the interest of the Government's plan for planting a shelter belt of trees from the Canadian border through six states, including Texas.

Grandma Dajlom celebrated her 82nd birthday May 22 in the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Jenkins near Weimert.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Gholson are rejoicing over the birth of a son, born Tuesday, May 21.

Patrons of the Haskell postoffice have purchased $1,818.75 worth of new United States savings bonds, popularly known as "baby bonds," according to J. M. Diggs, postmaster.

10 YEARS AGO (May 22, 1925)

H. D. Neff, superintendent of Haskell schools has purchased a lot near the high school in this city and is erecting a modern six-room bungalow. Mr. Neff was retained for the 1925-'26 term of school, and is making plans for greater schools for the ensuing term.

The city of Haskell is steadily growing and there has been no time in many decades that her citizens have not been looking forward to a greater city, and building campaigns have been in progress all the while. But in the last few years the city has quickened her pace and has been speeding up the campaign to supply the demands of the progressive citizenship.

The swimming pool which has been installed by C. W. Bledsoe a few miles south of town in what was known as the Loring tank, is now ready for patronage.

Rev. Raymond Adcock will preach at Post Sunday morning, May 24, at the 11:00 hour.

Jones-Cox & Co. advertised they had just received a carload of McCormick-Deering 2-row cultivators.

Haskell Bargain Store, three doors south of the post office, advertised Men's Gaberdine and Tropical Worsteds Suits for $19.45.

Elaborate plans are being made to open the new English Park next Friday, May 29, with a large picnic and barbecue.

Ross Woodall of Haskell and J. Luther Watson of Centerpoint, both members of the Haskell Band, rendered some special music last Wednesday night at the Music School at Crestview Baptist Church.

60 YEARS AGO (May 27, 1905)

Quite a number of wagons were in town Thursday for lumber to repair the storm damage in the western part of the county.

On last Sunday about 2:00 p. m., this county was visited by cyclonic conditions that developed high winds and small cyclones nearly all over the county. Near Marcy the houses of G. W. Redwine, Alford Parish, A. C. Henry and Will Burdine were blown to pieces. Mr. Will Pounds and family were occupying the house of Will Burdine and Mrs. Pounds and two small children were killed and Mr. Pounds slightly bruised.

The houses of John Reeves, J. E. Pounds, Kendall, Dock Mitchell, Ed Lewis, J. W. Hutto, and J. J. Pounds were blown off their foundations and badly wrecked. The house of Jim Williams at Pinkerton was torn up by the wind, but no one was hurt. A tenant house on the B. T. Gibson place north of town was wrecked by the wind Sunday.

A. F. Smith has taken the school census for this district; the enrollment is 113 and six years ago it was only 26.

Our postmaster, Mr. Poscy, has built a new house in which to run the postoffice. It was formerly kept in W. P. Candell's land office.

The school exhibition last Monday night was well rendered and was enjoyed by a large number of spectators. The people were called on to contribute to the sufferers of Sunday's cyclone and there was about $20 made up for them.

The Primitive Baptists had preaching and foot washing at Fair View last Sunday. Mr. John Therwanger, who has sold out to leave West as two or three times as ways buys more land and then down again, was coming in a town again. He is a good farmer, and is and finds tearing himself from Haskell County for him.

Wardrobe With
Price-Up
New Colors

By BARBARA MARSEE
Haskell County Home
Demonstration Agent

Natural changes in women's fashion tones and hair color
over the years go by are a cue to take a critical look at wardrobe and select new,
bright colors.

It is particularly true of women whose hair has become silvery gray or white.
Light shades that might not have been suitable when her hair was a less dramatic hue,

suddenly are beautifully becoming. Colors which are probably much prettier now with the new hair color are emerald
green, hyacinth blue, cyclamen pink—rather than the more conservative navy, beige and black.

In order to feel more secure
when shopping for the colors,
try experimenting at home with the hues. It can be twice as much fun—and often more effective—to test the new colors
with an audience of friends.

The "props" one will need to do this are brightly colored squares of soft fabric for draping—the way a photographer or dressmaker would do it. Remnants are good for this purpose.

To determine the "right" new colors, simply drape the various swatches of material around your shoulders and bodice one at a time, tuck in the neckline,

and examine the color and effects closely in a good light.

Take your cosmetics into consideration, too. If a new fabric color tempts you but doesn't look quite right, try changing the color of your lipstick and rouge, too.

Hearty Picnic Partners

Fill the picnic basket with an easy-to-fix supper—Quick German Potato Salad, knackwurst or bratwurst ready for the charcoal grill, relishes, fruit and cupcakes. Don't forget a cooler of sparkling 7-Up.
Cover the hot potato dish with foil and wrap in many layers of newspapers to keep it warm. Or, reheat the potatoes in a foil pan on the grill. Be sure to select fully-cooked German-style sausages.
Simply brush with oil and grill until browned.

QUICK GERMAN POTATO SALAD

- 6 slices bacon
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup white vinegar
- 1 bottle (7 oz.) 7-Up
- 4 lbs. potatoes peeled, cooked and sliced

Fry bacon until crisp. Drain bacon on absorbent paper, then crumble. Reserve 3 tablespoons bacon drippings. Sauté onion and green pepper in drippings. Stir in flour and seasonings. Cook over low heat, stirring until smooth and bubbly. Remove from heat.
Slowly stir in vinegar and 7-Up. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly.
Boil for 1 minute. Stir in potatoes and crumbled bacon; heat thoroughly. Makes about 16 servings.

Any Fisherman
Can Solve "The Bait Problem"

The fishing season is here,
and getting good worms for bait may be a problem. But, says County Agent F. W. Martin, any fisherman can solve the bait problem and at the same time cut fishing expenses
with a backyard earthworm bed.

The earthworm bed should be located in a cool, shady place.
The shade may be provided by trees, shrubs or vines or a permanent shed. The bed can vary in size from a tub two feet in diameter which should produce from 3,000 to 5,000
worms annually to an operation that will produce worms
in commercial quantities.

The county agent offers these hints for a successful backyard operation. If a tub or half of an oil drum is used, a two-inch hole should be cut in the bottom to provide for proper drainage. A fine copper screen should be placed over the hole

and secured with hot coal tar.
Tub beds may be kept in the garage or buried in the ground.
But, explains the agent, leave about four inches of the tub above the ground to prevent surface water from flooding the worm bed.

Fill the tub to within four to six inches of the top with fine
loam containing lots of humus
or well-decayed organic matter.
Stock the bed with 50 to 100
worms of the type desired.
"Red wigglers" or "English redworms" are preferred by most fishermen. In 60 to 90 days after your seed stock begins to lay eggs, you should have mature worms and plenty of fish bait, provided the worm bed has been kept moist and the worms fed.

The County Agent has a leaflet, L-196, titled "Raising Earthworms for Fishbait," and will be glad to furnish copies to interested persons.

The Good Earth

by MRS. B. F. COBB

Mrs. M. M. Cobb (Velma) has found many hours of relaxation and easing of tensions by working in her garden. Mesquite trees furnish shade for the front yard.

Two large fig trees loaded with green fruit, flank each side of the entrance porch. Iris, dahlias, amaryllis and ageratum are tastefully planted round the trees. Hedge bushes allowed to grow rampant, screen the yard on either side.

Two peach trees tower above
the house in the back yard. In spite of an early freeze and hail
there is a fair crop of peaches left.

A recently planted row of
malva will separate the flower
and vegetable garden.

A spineless prickly pear forms the background for many different varieties of flowers.
A wild rose forms a fence on the south and its fragrant white blossoms hide the thorny branches that keep out intruders.

Velma has the largest tomato plants I've seen in town this year. Her beans are blooming also. Brilliant colors will be added to the flower beds this month.

Mrs. J. A. Yancy, well known to Haskell folks, hasn't let living alone make her unhappy.
She spends many hours each day putting around in the yard.

Flower beds surround the house. Roses, pinks, wild verbenia, seven-year pepper and many other flowers, add color
to the yard.

A large maderia vine will turn the front porch into a shady retreat this summer.

Earlier Mrs. Yancy had lots of trouble with thrip and aphids, as did several of her neighbors. I advised spraying with Blackleaf 40 and soap suds. In spite of rain washing the spray
off from time to time, Mrs.
Yancy says her roses are beginning to hold their buds and to bloom.

Thrip causes buds to turn brown and dry up, or if they do open, the blossom soon withers and turns brown. This scorching leads one to think that high, hot winds have burned their roses.

Blackleaf 40 sprayed at weekly intervals will keep the invasion of thrip to a minimum.
Mulberries encourage thrip.
Take a ripe berry and examine it closely. Tiny yellow thrip will be darting in and out between the seed. This is one reason children should never be allowed to eat unwashed mulberries.

I asked a friend of mine once
if there were thrip in her mulberries. Her children were in the tree eating their fill. She said it was news to her that thrip stayed on the fruit. She then got a handful of berries, examined them closely and promptly got ill. Needless to say, that stopped the youngsters
from eating any more berries.

ATTEND GRANDSON'S
GRADUATION EXERCISES
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Turnbow, of Haskell, attended the High School graduation exercises of their grandson, Alfred Lyn Therwanger, at Stanton, Texas, Friday night, May 21.

New Caparol
controls weeds in cotton at layby
without residue problems
in crops planted next spring.

You can spray new Caparol* at layby for control of most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses, without fear of a soil residue carryover to harm crops planted in the spring of 1966. Just apply Caparol after your cotton is up six inches or more and before weeds are two inches high.

Spraying Caparol at layby will give you control until your cotton is up high enough to shade out any weeds that may germinate late in the summer. You can even apply Caparol where other herbicides
have already been used and you find weeds breaking through.

Caparol is easy to handle and apply. Just direct the spray at the base of the cotton plants. You'll get quick knockdown of the young weeds and grasses. Then the action of Caparol continues to control weeds and grasses through the roots as they germinate for the next several weeks.

With Caparol on the job, you won't have weeds to compete for moisture and plant food. And you won't have rank weeds to foul up harvesting... to stain and downgrade lint.

So plan now to use Caparol at layby. It's available through your local supplier.

Geigy Chemical Corporation for its

MRS. DONALD RAY BARTLEY

MISS ROBERTA DUMAS IS MARRIED TO MR. DONALD RAY BARTLEY

Miss Roberta Louise Dumas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dumas, was married to Mr. Donald Ray Bartley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bartley, on Saturday, May 15, 1966, at 3:00 p. m.

The First Baptist Church in Haskell was the scene of the double ring ceremony, which was performed by Rev. H. G. Hammer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Giovannachi Original gown of imported organza, fashioned with a round neckline encircled with sculptured Venice lace, fitted long sleeves ending in a point over the hands, long fitted bodice, and a magnificent spread of skirt with chapel train falling from a huge organza bow at the waist in back. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to an open pillbox hat trimmed with seed pearls and tiny organza cabbage rosebuds. Her bride's bouquet was fashioned of split carnations centered with two white orchids and long satin streamers. The Matron of Honor, Mrs. Jean Dunnam, and Bridesmaid, Patsy Bartley, sister of the groom, were attired in identical dresses of lavender crystalline, styled with wide round neckline, fitted bodice, small cap sleeves, and bouffant skirts. Their head-dresses were large flat bows of matching crystalline. Their bouquets were lavender throated glads.

Little Patricia and Pamela Milliman of Lafayette, La., cousins of the bride, were flower girls. The identical twins wore matching dresses of the same lavender crystalline, fashioned with round neckline, fitted bodice, tiny puffed sleeves, bouffant skirt, and wide sash with large bow tied in back of imported organza. Their head-dresses were identical to the matron of honor and bridesmaid's and were fashioned of lavender organza. They carried baskets of white rose petals which they scattered in the path of the bride. The best man was Gary Clopton of Denton, and groomsmen were Glenn R. Kreger, brother-in-law of the groom, Tommy Walker and David Honea.

Traditional music was furnished by Mrs. Philecia Bailey, who also accompanied Mrs. De-light Jones, vocalist, who sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." The ceremony was read in front of the altar which was decorated with a large fan of greenery and white gladioli, and was flanked by standing baskets of white gladioli. Pews were marked with white satin bows and sprigs of greenery.

The reception was held in the Annex immediately following the ceremony. The tables were covered with matching floor length covers of white tulle and lace over white cotton. The bride's table was centered with the bridesmaid's and Matron of Honor's bouquets, and featured a large white 3-tiered cake, decorated with white roses and topped with miniature bride and groom. Table appointments were of crystal and silver.

Miss Margaret Cook presided at the bride's book. Mrs. Kay Mathis served the wedding cake, and Miss Sue Fitzgerald of Denton and Mrs. Janice Honea alternated at the punch bowl.

Other members of the house-party were Mrs. Ola McClure,

Mrs. Verlean Adkins, Miss Cindy Adkins, Mrs. Bud Cook and Mrs. Ed Honea.

The bride's mother was attired in a beige brocade suit with matching beige and white accessories, and wore an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a dress of pink brocade with white accessories, and orchid corsage.

For going away, the bride chose a suit of off-white pure silk, matching hat, white gloves, bag and slippers, and wore the white orchid corsage from the bridal bouquet.

The couple went directly to their apartment in Andrews, Texas, where the groom is employed by the Piggly-Wiggly Store chain. They are at home at 417 Northeast Ave. E., Andrews, Texas.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Haskell High School and attended North Texas State University in Denton, Texas.

The groom is a 1963 graduate of Haskell High School.

Out-of-town guests attending were: Mrs. Nathan Milliman of Lafayette, La.; Mrs. Doyle Norman of Rule; Mrs. Jess Mickler and granddaughter, Debbie, of Paint Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Kreger and Terresa of Andrews; Miss Billie Ann Vahlenkamp of Old Glory; Mrs. Zephyr Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitworth of Stamford; and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Whitworth of Acova.

GIFT TEA

The home of Mrs. Ed Honea, 200 S. Ave. L, Haskell, Texas, was the scene of a gift tea on April 24, 1966, honoring Miss Roberta Dumas, bride elect of Mr. Donald Ray Bartley.

The bride's chosen colors of Lavender and white were used in decoration of entertainment rooms.

The serving table was covered with a white hand crocheted table cloth over white linen. Centerpiece was of lavender dyed large chrysanthemums and greenery, with lavender streamers down the center front of the table lettered with "Roberta" and "Don." Lavender fruit punch and white cake squares, mints and nuts were served by Miss Lela Adams and Miss Judy Collins. Miss Margaret Cook lstered guests and gifts.

The hostess gift was a lovely Martha Washington bedspread of off white color.

By MRS. DELBERT LEFEVRE

(Copy Arrived Too Late for Last Week)

The L.O.C. Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kieke on Friday evening of last week and the members and their families and guests enjoyed a garage party. A pot luck supper was spread and then the group enjoyed playing games of 84 and bridge. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tichelmann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nierdeck, Roy and Mel-sa, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Lefevre and Jill, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Corzine and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Knippling, Mr. and Mrs. John Tichelmann, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Klose, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Klose, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kupatt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kieke, Mrs. John Kieke and Debra and Rodney of Austin, Donnie Mueller, Choya Tichelmann and Leah Hargrove of Stamford.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lefevre Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Majors of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Mignon Majors of Rogers, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Van Laughlin of Rule, and Mrs. Reese Clark. Rain amounting to around 5 inches fell in this community over the past week with no turbulent weather. Although we have had quite a bit of rain, you don't hear the farmers complain. They all agree that this part of the country rarely gets too much rain. The Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos west of Sagerton, was on a rise, which had not happened for quite sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Benton visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hershell Hines in Rule on Sunday.

Dr. Brascher, Stamford District Superintendent, brought the message at the Sagerton Methodist Church Sunday morning, and then quarterly conference was held. Mrs. Harvey Jordan and Mrs. Melvin New were elected as delegates to the Annual Conference in Lubbock the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Pat Sellers has returned home after a stay in a Houston Hospital, and we are all happy that she can be home and is feeling better.

Mrs. John Kieke and daughter, Debra, and three-week-old son, Rodney, of Austin, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kieke for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin New had their grandson, Charles, from Lubbock, with them several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ulmer visited with Mr. and Mrs. Winston Ulmer in San Antonio last weekend.

Guests in the Herbert Nierdeck home Sunday night were: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bredthauer, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bredthauer of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Corzine and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kupatt and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Knippling, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vahlenkamp of Old Glory, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hewitt of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lammert of Old Glory, Erna and Walter Schaeke of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bredthauer and children of Welnet. The occasion was a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Nierdeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spiegelhauer and Mrs. Freils of Lueders, and Mr. and Mrs. August Angerman were guests in the home of Mrs. Hilda Koch on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Lillian Nienast and Mrs. Bill Stanhope of Stamford and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt of Old Glory visited Hilda Koch on Mother's Day.

Mrs. Jack Monse, secretary-treasurer of the Sagerton P.T.A., was on the committee for the reception held at the school in honor of the Sagerton graduates at Rule High School last Monday night, and her name was omitted from last week's paper.

Patay Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark, Janice Hertel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hertel, Delores Macias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cartrino Macias, and Roy Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, are members of the 1955 Rule High School graduating class from Sagerton. Mike Summers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Summers, is an eighth grade graduate at Rule Grade School.

Postmaster, Mrs. John L. Brooks, reminds rural patrons of the Sagerton Post Office to be on the lookout for June Live-stock Survey cards. Next week the mail carrier will leave survey cards in a sample of boxes along the route.

"USDA" bases livestock and poultry estimates on replies to this survey. It is important for every one who gets a card to fill it out and return it to the carrier. This way, USDA gets a representative sample of the area's livestock and poultry holdings. Carrier, W. C. Clark, will distribute these cards and they will be forwarded to Cary D. Palmer, State Agricultural Statistician in Austin. Information from this survey will guide livestock and poultry producers in making important business decisions.

By AL HINDS

When you hear of a man of few words, it may be that his wife has a monopoly.

In a small mimeographed pamphlet released from the Chamber of Commerce, I noticed these few chosen words of much value: "Think well, speak well, do well for Haskell in '65. What Haskell is tomorrow, depends on what we do today."

Active membership in the Chamber of Commerce carries with it a sense of accomplishment and inner satisfaction from the knowledge that you are doing your share in an important job.

Although everyone in the community benefits from the work of the Chamber of Commerce, you can accept those benefits with a sense of pride. ONLY if you have had a part in bringing them about with time and money invested.

Many women say they would not marry the best man in the world.

world... and most women know they didn't.

A poppy over every remembering heart! This is what the women of the American Legion Auxiliary are asking for Poppy Day, this coming Saturday, May 29. If you remember those who died in battle for America and are grateful for their defense of our principles of freedom, put on your badge... a poppy. You will be one of the millions of Americans who will be wearing the little red flower of remembrance... Buy a poppy Saturday... aid the disabled and honor the dead.

Some people are so constituted that they get a lot of enjoyment out of being miserable.

It often appears that the less a man knows, the longer it takes to tell it.

The following item, typed on a letter-size sheet of paper, entitled "Be Proud of Your Own Race," written by Judie Mae Lewis, of Chicago, Illinois, was handed to Prattle by J. E. Bernard, of 207 N. Ave. F. Whether you agree with what she has to say or not, I think you will have to commend the writer for taking a stand in the racial issue.

"I have written several leading magazines supported by the NAACP, but have yet to see anything in print or a word of acknowledgment, so once again I turn to my white friends to get action.

"I have taught many colored children in the Deep South, and was born and raised in the cotton field myself. To some this may sound like a starved, inhuman existence. Let me say here that those were the happiest days of my life.

"I am getting on in years, my health is gone, I long to spend my last days and be buried in Mississippi soil. I want my own kind of people to lay me away in a Christian manner in a free church yard.

"Eleven years ago I heeded the wild tales down there of the wonderful North. I came to Chicago with the hope of being a society lady like I had heard so much about. But what I want to tell my people of Mississippi, is this: Just being allowed to sit up front on the crowded buses and to see here and there a colored child in school with the whites does not mean and will never mean that the respectable white people will take you into their hearts and homes fully and freely as they do one of their own kind.

"And the whites that will, and do, are just mixed trash that any self-respecting Negro will do well to shun.

"I beg you to listen to one who knows about these things. For our own sake, the welfare of the coming generation, do not push integration. Stop and think these things through.

"It just means giving up your own life, and none of us can ever be happy, trying to adjust and conform to the rigid rules laid down for us by white society.

"When you give up your own schools and churches, you are giving up your last hold on your precious freedom. Down there you can meet and mingle, serve and sing if you feel like. Here you would get thrown in jail if you attempted to shout to God in church or anywhere else.

"Down there you can have your entertainment in your own way. Nobody disturbs you so long as you don't disturb the peace. You have as good schools there as any where in this world and a lot more freedom than you will find on the Northern trails.

"If you can't be anything worthwhile in a segregated school, you certainly won't amount to anything in an integrated school.

"One thing I have learned. I want to pass on to you: nine out of every ten dollars you hand over to the NAACP goes to pay the white agitators of newspapers and magazines. This is no hearsay, I've worked for them and I know. The price is high, they are well paid to peddle their agitation and stir up trouble. And all they care about is the money you hand them. Just try paying them a social call. In fact, the whole North, both black and white, is sick and tired of the mess it's made of this entire integration business.

"Stick to your own way of life, be proud of your own race instead of trying to push and shove into places where you won't be happy. Today, I have no regrets I was born black. I have done what I could to help my race improve their way of life. Don't ever blame the white race or any other race for any of your failures. The fault is purely your own. We all have the same opportunity. It's up to each race to rise or fall.

"You've never had it so good as you have in dear old Dixie today. God being willing, I'm coming home to Mississippi, where black is black, white is white, and all a friend to man."

Phemister Is Selected For NFS Institute

Walter Phemister, Route 1, Haskell, is one of 40 high school mathematics teachers selected for a National Science Foundation summer mathematics institute, which opens June 28th at West Texas State University, Canyon. The institute closes on August 20.

Dr. H. L. Cook, head of the WTSU mathematics department and director of the institute, said that the 40 were chosen from more than 500 applicants from throughout the nation. All but four accepted for the institute are from Texas, he said.

The institute is to be conducted through a $50,000 grant from the National Science Foundation. All participants have had at least two years of teaching experience in secondary schools. Work will be devoted to improvement of subject matter background. Visiting mathematicians will assist with lectures and programs on methods and techniques of teaching and new developments in the field.

Oriental influence on American architecture is becoming more pronounced. The design often is from the East while the materials are native to the United States. In the photograph above, the garden gate is an adaptation of a Japanese Shinto shrine entrance. The fence is made of natural-color, whitish mineral fiber sheets, an inexpensive, easily maintained material that contrasts handsomely with the redwood framing to which it is nailed. Pre-finished sheets in other colors could be combined with painted frames to give many different effects.

'LITTERBUGS' COST TEXANS $1.5 MILLION IN TAXES EACH YEAR

Texas motorists paid for many miles of new highways last year. But they never were built.

Gov. Connally emphasized this point recently in accepting the first of a quarter-million litter bags given to the Texas Highway Department by the Galveston Chamber of Commerce Convention and Tourist Bureau.

The bags will be distributed to motorists at each of the eight Tourist Information Centers located at points of entry on key highways of the State and in the Capitol rotunda.

"The Texas Highway Department is charged with construction and maintenance of the State's superb 66,000-mile highway system," Gov. Connally said. He added:

"But the truth is that more than $1.5 million of taxes levied on highway users is wasted each year to pick up litter thrown along the right of way by motorists. This money could better be used to build more miles of new highways, and to protect the taxpayers' $1 billion investment in our existing system."

The bags were donated by the Galveston Chamber of Commerce to encourage litter control among out-of-state visitors. They also bear a message of invitation to visit the Galveston Island resort area.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, pointed out that approximately 12 million visitors come to Texas each year.

"These visitors represent an industry of more than one-half billion dollars a year," Greer said. "We hope that Texans will become conscious of our litter problem and help us present a 'clean house' for our paying guests."

The Texas Highway Department has distributed litter bags through the Tourist Information Centers for many years. However, this is the first instance that any organization has donated such a large number of bags for free distribution.

Some 400,000 tourists visited the Information Center last year. Besides litter bags, nearly two million pieces of travel-oriented literature were handed out. In addition, Information Center personnel encouraged tourists to extend their trips to visit other Texas scenic and historical attractions.

Presentation of the first litter bag was at a ceremony held in the State Capitol, Edwin D. Hunter, president of the Galveston Chamber of Commerce, presented the initial bag to Gov. Connally. He said:

"Galveston merchants who are financing the purchase of these bags are very happy to try to solve the State's litter problem. We are intensely interested in the tourist program. Only by presenting clean, inviting attractions can we hope to encourage out-of-state visitors to come to Texas again, and again and again."

Present at the ceremony besides the Governor and Hunter were Greer; John McCann, president of the Galveston Convention and Tourist Bureau, and Pam Latham, travel counselor at the Tourist Information Center in the Capitol rotunda.

Series of West Texas Utilities Co. Advertisements Generating Interest

A series of West Texas Utilities Company advertisements about West Texas cities is generating considerable enthusiasm.

The advertisements are being published in daily and weekly newspapers, "West Texas Today," and "West Texas Publisher."

"We know most of the towns are pretty progressive and they like to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps if possible," said Dan Jones Castles, WTU advertising manager, in explaining why the firms decided to run the advertisements. "These West Texas towns will build new schools, make street improvements, construct water systems, build community centers and build libraries if given some encouragement to do so."

Castles was joined in his comments by Robert Kennedy, vice president and director, and William (Bill) Sayles, head of the area development department for WTU.

The West Texas Utilities officials are trying, in the series of advertisements, to give the civic spirit that exists in each town a little encouragement, Castles said, for by so doing the towns—and thus all of the WTU territory—will grow.

It is the "duty" of Sayles to help the entire area from the Red River to the Rio Grande—WTU territory—to develop. So, he, Castles, Kennedy and members of an advertising agency have joined hands to print the series of advertisements which likely will continue once a month for the remainder of 1965. "We are getting some comment from the people in the towns about which the advertisements have already been run," Castles said, "and some of our managers in other towns are receiving queries from hometown people about when a similar advertisement is going to be run about their town."
