8 Million To Participate in Blue Sunday Day of Prayer for Abused Children, April 24th

A stranger called saying she thought she had our grandchildren. Their drug addicted mother left the toddlers with the caller to run an errand and never returned. It had been two days.

We knew the caller's address was in an area known for high crime, terrible poverty, and a hotbed for drug activity but that didn't prepare us for what we found. Literally trash filled the yard, and on it sat a mobile home with broken and missing windows. That run down mobile home contained the most important things in the world to us, our grandchildren who stood at the door wearing nothing but their two day old diapers.

This was not the first time our grandchildren had been left with strangers, nor would it be the last.

At our wits end with child protective agencies, family court, and failed rehabs we realized all we had going for us was prayer. So we prayed. Next we asked our church to pray for us. Eventually we asked other churches to pray, not for us, but for the local foster children we met during our journey of finally rescuing our grandchildren.

That was 22 years ago. What started with 20 churches praying for abused children has grown into an international program called Blue Sunday Day of Prayer for Abused Children (Blue Sunday) with over 8 million people participating. We have two goals: To meet the needs of local abused children and to ask the Faith Community to do the same in their own cities, and it starts by asking them to pray. This year Blue Sunday is on April 24th. It's free. Nothing to join. Just prayers.

Our motto is: Let's pray, educate ourselves, and volunteer for the children of our nation until black and blue are just colors in their crayon box.

Are you a grandmother, friend or neighbor who is concerned about a child? Do you know a child who is in harm's way because of addicted parents? We know it is hard but you must be brave.

Tell the parents it's dangerous for their health and the safety of their children. Tell them good parenting and drugs/alcohol will never mix.

Tell them according to the Department of Health and Human Services drugs and alcohol is the number one reason parents lose their children.

Tell them according to the National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse, alcohol and drug abuse are involved in 7 out of 10 child abuse and child neglect cases.

The parents may not listen. They may not change. They may choose their addiction over their children.

So now what does a grandmother, friend or neighbor do? You do what is right. Call 1-800-4 A CHILD. It's the law. We know it hurts but take comfort in knowing that on Blue Sunday over 8 million people will be praying for the victims of child abuse and for those that rescue them. That includes you, grandmother, friend, or neighbor and it includes the children you rescue. Janet Magee is the co-founder of Blue Sunday Day of Prayer for Abused Children. To register for Blue Sunday visit www.bluesunday.org. You'll also find free resources and ideas to help abused and neglected children in your community.

Film Screening on National Parks of Texas Hutchinson County Historical Museum in Borger to host free event in partnership with Panhandle PBS

A new 60-minute documentary film, The National Parks of Texas: In Contact With Beauty, tells the story of National Park sites in Texas and will air on Panhandle PBS at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, April 26th.

Borger will be the site of an exclusive early screening of the film for the Texas Panhandle. The Hutchinson County Historical Museum, 618 N. Main St. in Borger, will host a free viewing of the entire documentary on Saturday, April 23rd at 2 p.m.

Museum Director Clay Renick will introduce the film and provide insight from Panhandle PBS.

The film celebrates the parks as a resource for all of us – with stories of their history, an opportunity to see what each park contains, and a look at what the future might hold for our parks.

In 2016, the National Park Service celebrates its 100th anniversary. Texas is home to 16 National Park sites – a rich and diverse collection of treasured places that draw 5.5 million visitors each year.

"The national parks of Texas are a gift, a diverse mix of sites where visitors can climb rugged peaks, kayak beautiful waterways, discover our state's rich history and experience an endless choice of adventures," said Lynn Boswell, writer and producer of the film. "In many ways, the story of our state's parks is the story of Texas itself. These special places preserve our natural resources and they speak of our history, beginning with a reef that dates back more than 260 million years and ending with an intimate look at 20th century politics."

The National Parks of Texas: In Contact with Beauty is produced by Villita Media and KLRN, with many Texas PBS stations, including Panhandle PBS, contributing content to the production. Funding for the documentary was made possible by the National Parks Conservation Association and Big Bend Conservancy along with the Brown Foundation, the Trull Foundation and a number of individual contributors.

For more information on the film screening event at Hutchinson County Historical Museum in Borger, please contact Lynn Hopkins at 806-273-0130 or visit hutchinsoncountymuseum.org or panhandlePBS.org

BLUE SUNDAY DAY OF PRAYER

April 24, 2016

The day when churches take time in their service to pray for the victims of child abuse and for those who rescue them.

We pray because they shouldn't have to pray alone.

Won't you ask your church to join in this life-changing effort?

WHOEVER RECEIVES ONE LITTLE CHILD LIKE THIS IN MY NAME RECEIVES ME. MATTHEW 18:5

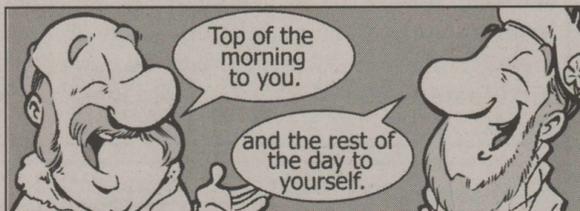

Did you know there are over 3 million confirmed cases of child abuse in our nation annually?

Did you know that of the 1640 child deaths from child abuse that most were under the age of 3?

Did you know your church can make a difference? It can and it starts by praying.

Blue Sunday

In remembrance of the passing of Wayland E. Brown on April 07, 2012, his family Wishes to honor him 'with the following poem. It reflects the character and integrity of this godly man who was truly respected and loved by his family and friends. Wayland and his wife Betty were longtime residents of Stratford.*

WE KNEW A MAN THAT SEEMS TO US TO BE REALLY TEN FEET TALL
HE TREATED US LIKE HIS OWN KIDS AND WOULDN'T LET US FALL
HE SCARED US SO WHEN WE FIRST MET, WE COULDN'T HARDLY SPEAK
BUT WHEN WE GOT TO KNOW HIM, HIS WISDOM WE WOULD SEEK
HE AND OUR SIS HAD HAPPY TIMES AND WE COULD SEE THE LOVE
THE MANY YEARS TOGETHER WAS BLESSED BY GOD ABOVE, WE THANK THE LORD FOR YEARS THEY HAD TO LIVE AS MAN AND WIFE. AND KNOW
ONE DAY THEY'LL BE AS ONE TO START A BRAND NEW LIFE

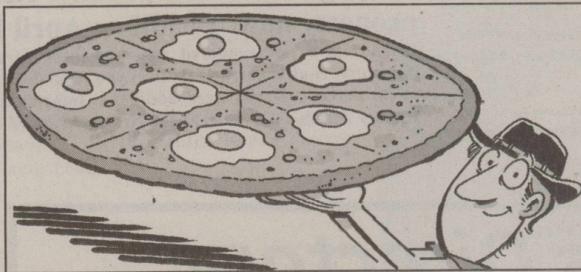

WE ALL LOVED THIS SPECIAL MAN WHO CAME INTO OUR LIVES
HE MET OUR SISTER YEARS AGO AND TOOK HER FOR HIS BRIDE
WHEN HE SPOKE YOU LISTENED TO WHAT HE HAD TO SAY, AND
IF YOU TALKED BACK TO HIM, HE'D SEND YOU ON YOUR WA
HE LIVED HIS LIFE AS PEOPLE SHOULD AND NEVER DID BACK DOWN.
AND WAS RESPECTED BY EVERYONE IN TOWN.
HE KEPT HIS WORD WHEN GIVEN AND EXPECTED THE SAME BACK.
AND WHEN SOMEONE BETRAYED HIM, HIS FRIENDSHIP YOU WOULD LACK.
HE'S TURIN MISSED BY ALL OF US, IT WAS HIS TIME TO GO. GOD TOOK HIM UP TO HEAVEN, HIS WORK WAS DONE BELOW

ATTN: FARMERS & LANDOWNERS

If you have land that came out of CRP in 2015 you need to contact the Appraisal District now.

The land classification may need to be corrected and could reduce your taxes. You will need to complete a new ag form prior to June 30, 2016 for any land reclassifications to take effect for the 2016 tax roll. Sherman County Appraisal District, 402 N 3rd Stratford TX or call 806-366-5566.

Multi-use exemption applies to some self-employed taxpayers.

The passage of Proposition 6, which amended the state constitution under House Bill 1022, provides for an individual to exempt one passenger car or light truck from personal property taxes if the vehicle is used for both business and personal purposes.

To qualify for the exemption individuals need to fill out an application form available from the appraisal office at 402 N. Third Street in Stratford. The exemption form must be filed prior to April 30 each year.

A vehicle is not eligible:

1. If you work for someone else.
2. If you use your vehicle to commute to and from work.
3. If you are a retired person with no production of income.
4. If it is registered in a business name.

Income producing vehicles are and continue to be taxable. The law allows the local taxing jurisdictions to choose to tax personal vehicles. The legislature did not exclude the multi-use exemption in jurisdictions that tax vehicles for personal use.

First Texas War of Secession Part IV By Rocky Jim Sprott, Member Sherman Co. Historical Commission

Following Santa Anna's victory at the Alamo in San Antonio, the self-proclaimed, Napoleon of the West, put his army in motion to search and destroy the remaining pockets of opposition now in retreat somewhere to the east.

The Mexican dictator had devised a plan to sweep the territory of Texas all the way to the Sabine River by dividing his force into four columns commanded by his generals, Ramirez y Sesma, Filisola, Amat and Urrea. By fanning out to the north and south in a giant pincer movement which would converge hopefully east of the retreating Texas army, the representatives of the Republic of Texas, its army, and the fleeing Anglo population would be trapped allowing Santa Anna to carry out his real design, the total subjugation and Annihilation of all opposition to his rule.

The Mexican army had orders, to burn every town, plantation, farm, and dwelling in their path. This was total warfare. The same strategy was used to reduce the political and military opposition in other Mexican states also in revolt. One instance was so brutal it will be forever known as the "Rape of Zacatecas".

Combatants in the service of the Texas army officially were not to be granted the rights normally accorded to prisoners of war. This policy was spelled out in an order issued by the Mexico War and Navy Department issued Dec. 30th 1835 called the "Tornell Decree". Based on this decree, Santa Anna's rule of "No Quarter" obtained official sanction.

The decree read in part,

Foreigners landing on the coast of the republic or invading its territory by land, armed with the intention of attacking our country, will be deemed pirates and dwelt with as such.

As news spread of the fall of the Alamo combined with the withdrawal of the Texas army under Houston exposing the western fringe of the settlements to the Mexican advance, a mass panic precipitated the wholesale abandonment of the Guadalupe, Colorado and Brazos River valleys. The former colonist left their farms and towns with what meager possessions they could carry and fled east toward the safety of the east bank of the Sabine River. This tragic story would be known in the annals of Texas history as the, "Runaway Scrape".

It is estimated that as many as a thousand families along the Colorado and Brazos River bottoms joined in this flight to safety. One refugee, Dr Pleasant W. Rose, recorded in his journal the heartbreaking scenes that attended this exodus.

Dr Rose's record shows how desperate he and his neighbors were at this time. He begins,

By the 20th of February [1836] the people of San Patricio and other western settlements were fleeing for their lives. Every family in our neighborhood was preparing to go the United States. Wagons and other vehicles were scarce. Mr. Stafford, cripple, with the help of small boys and Negroes, began gathering cattle. All the large boys had gone to the army....

Dr. Rose's journal describes the passage east over swollen rivers, prairies that had become lakes, and roads of bottomless mud. Cold rainy winter weather Plagued the homeless hords.

Dr Rose's daughter, Dulce, briefly records the pitiful sight which greeted her family when they reached Lynch's Ferry on the San Jacinto River on. April:

10. The fuller picture can be supplied -by the .imagination.. :

She writes, "Five thousand people were swarming. at that point".

The Rose's journals shows the fight 'of the refugees was attended; by extreme misery, -inhuman tragedy, and terror. In some instances they could see over their shoulders to the west plumes of smoke rising from burning homes and, farms as they were fired by the advancing columns of the Mexican army. Dulce Rose goes on to site the effect of the prolonged march on the weak 'arid young, Soon there was hunger; fever and sickness 'spread, babies began to die. My fellow Texans, this' was the real face of the war for Texas independence.

and the men who struggled alongside them on that miserable march in February, -March, and April' of 1836 kept alive the hope that when the fighting stopped they would have a, home to return to. Let us all say a prayer of thanksgiving for the brave- women of 1836.
