Thongs Poll - Bent For Election Saturday

EARNED RECOGNITION
Class Roy L. Petrich (left), son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Petrich of Haskell, is congratulated by Colonel Gilchrist, Commander of the 455th Strategic Missile Squadron, receiving the Strategic Air Command Certification Achievement at Minot Air Force Base, North Dakota. Petrich was selected for the award in recognition of his participation in the United States Air Force Officer Training Program. He earned 34 semester credits in the program from Plattsburgh (N. Y.) State Teachers College (N. D.) State Teachers College. A graduate of Haskell High School, the airman entered the service in 1958. He is assigned to the 740th Strategic Missile Squadron as an Air Force administrative specialist. He is the daughter of O. C. Donaldson, of O'Brien, N. D., and the daughter of O. C. Donaldson, of O'Brien, N. D., State Teachers College.

Josselet - Perrin - Thigpen - Brown! There's A Band of Great Renown!

Haskell's record-smashing 440-yard relay team, a fleet-footed foursome which clipped 0.3 of a second off the old regional mark set by Quannah in AA competition in 1962, is headed for Austin the weekend of May 8-9 to try for a state championship in their event. One of the relay speedsters, James Brown, will be wearing another set of spikes down Austin way as he tries to crack the 10-second barrier in a try for a win in the 100-yard dash. Brown and a lad from Crane, Paul Cormeyer, were in a photo finish at Lubbock last week with a turf scorching 10.1. But Brown out-ched his competitor, breaking the tape first for the trip to Austin in the 100. Other members of Haskell's hustling relay team are Joe Josselet, Wayne Perrin and Joe Thigpen, with Sammy Larned the back-up baton grabber. Haskell's 36 points in the AA regional finals at Lubbock earned the Indians fourth place behind Denver City, Seymour and Tulsa. Joe Josselet aided our cause with a third place finish in the 100 at Lubbock.

A potential 2913 registered voters, plus some 1500 senior citizens who are poll tax exempt, will have the privilege of going to the polls to register their preferences in the Democratic and Republican Primaries in Haskell County Saturday. In addition, there will be perhaps 100 people who will vote a "short ballot" on which the names of only candidates for federal offices, such as Congress and the U. S. Senate, will appear. The individuals who will have this privilege are those who did not hold a poll-tax receipt, but who otherwise qualify as voters, and who indicated their desire to mark a ballot by registering at the County Tax Assessor-Collector's office (See Thongs Poll-Bent, P. 12)

BIG WEEKEND OF GOLFING IS TEEING OFF HERE ON FRIDAY

Haskell County Country Club's Fourth Annual Invitational Golf Tournament, highlighted by a Divot Diggers' Delight Barbecue on opening evening, a Pro-Am tourney, and an Over-50-Over-90 tournament, in addition to the championship and other flights, will be an outstanding event of Friday through Sunday, May 1-3, at the well-manicured layout here north of town. Morgan Hampton, of Abilene Country Club; Foy Fannin, of Abilene Muni; Travis Horton, of Stamford; Holley Toler, of Hamlin; Jeff Graham, of Knox City, are among area "name" golfers who will be among the 100 or more expected to enter here. Pro-Am and championship flight medal play for medalist honors will be teed off Friday preceding a huge Underwood-catered barbecue dinner near the golf club premises at 7 p. m. Friday. Tickets to the big feed may be obtained from any club members. Flights other than the championship medal play will be posting scores all week, or scores may be called or mailed in to Jack Pippin at Haskell Pharmacy, Phone 864-2221, in Haskell.

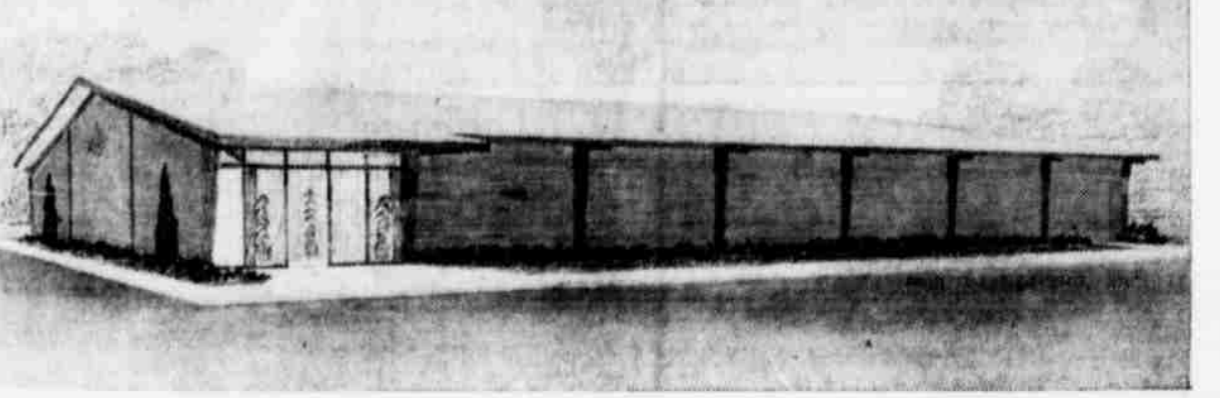

Haskell Jaycees Set Stage For Anson Charter

Haskell's extension-minded Jaycees made preparations at an assembly of young business men in Anson Tuesday night to deliver a charter to a new Junior Chamber organization in that community next Monday night. At a meeting at Jack's Steak House in Anson, Bud Lane, inter-club director and past president of the Haskell Jaycees, directed proceedings during which temporary officers were elected by a group of 11 charter members of a new Anson Junior Chamber of Commerce. The temporary leaders of the new Jaycee group are Durwood Mayfield, Gulf Service Station operator, chairman; George Gaines, of the Anson Western Observer newspaper, secretary; and Dennis White, of United Industries, membership chairman. White pledged a minimum of at least 25 chartering members to attend an organization meeting directed by the Haskell Jaycees at 7:30 next Monday night at Jack's Steak House in Anson. Six Haskell Jaycees who went to Anson to explain the aims and objects of the civic and service organization on the local, state and national level, included, in addition to Lane, Bill Tomlinson, vice president; Abe Turner, past president; J. J. Ballard, Lyndon Harris and Duke Dixon.

Don Revel of Stamford, the newly installed director of the Texas Jaycees for this area, assisted with the indoctrination meeting Tuesday night, as did C. R. Dansby, president of the Hamlin Jaycees. Four Stamford Jaycees and two from Hamlin were present for the occasion. They hung the SRO (singing room only) sign out in Haskell Sunday. From 49 counties in Texas and four states, they came, more than 1200 of them, for six hours of rafter-ringing song at the 41st consecutive annual Haskell singing convention at the American Legion Hall here on Sunday. Fully 600 of the throng which milled the assembly hall from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. didn't miss a note of the gospel singing session which "stirred our insides from start to finish," as one leathery-skinned witness attested when it was over. The ratio of the singing convention here, a tradition-laden institution 60 years deep in Haskell history, was about one to three. The choral convocation, coincidentally enough, was held at the site of Rice Springs, the watering place that became Haskell almost 80 years ago. Hallie Chapman, presiding at the convention for the 26th time, emceed the stimulating singing session, parading some 12 quartets from the length and breadth of Texas and Louisiana, New Mexico, Alabama and Oklahoma and more than that number of song leaders to the podium here. He Truett C. Cobb and Mrs. Troy Ash were re-elected in 1963 as officers of the convention for a 3-year term. Cobb, vice president of the convention, and president of the Haskell County Singing Convention, which meets once a month to "stay sharp and flat, literally," for the "big one," was at his usual station passing out songbooks Sunday. "I can tell the singers from the non-singers when they come in," Cobb declared. "The singers are looking for their very own, and clearing their throats on the way," he added. One of the song leaders summoned to the stand by Chapman was a lady with a splint-wrapped broken arm, and wrapped in a cast. "That's the one she used to 'count the cadence.' This was just one more example, among many, of being 'carried away' by the tuneful tempo of the occasion. Although the day was vile, weatherwise, with a typical West Texas duster following an overnight rain, basket-carrying families still took advantage of verdant Rice Springs Park back of the Legion Hall to fortify themselves with food fare, only to return to the sustained singing. A systematic check of license plates on the acres of cars parked at the convention revealed the 49-county, four-state total of singing supporters. The vantage point of the singing was at the podium, from which one could look into a rippling lake of eyes tilted heavenward. The expressions changed from rapt to rocked, and back again. It wasn't the choral faces one saw as the choral cantation continued. It was their hearts in their faces. Chapman expressed his heartfelt gratitude this week to each and all individuals and groups whose cooperative efforts went toward assuring success of the best-attended and most stimulating convention in the institutional get-together's long and colorful history.

Cancer Crusade Record-Breaker Near With $2155

Haskell County's 1964 Cancer Crusade, carried fence-line to fence-line by 350 dedicated volunteers to every nook and cranny, had climbed to within $850 of its $3,000 goal after one week of canvassing, Felix Mullino, of Rochester, the Crusade chairman reported Tuesday. With a total of $2155.01 in hand, Mullino and W. O. (Bill) Holden, chairman of the Crusade in Haskell, expressed the feeling that the remaining $850 will be realized by next Tuesday in the campaign now in its "cleanup" stage. The $2155 in contributions have come from special gifts, and from Rochester, Haskell and Mattson, the chairmen reported. The door-to-door solicitations results, "which are the marrow of the Crusade," Mullino said, "have not yet been reported from Weinert, Rule, Saperton, O'Brien, Gaunt, or Paint Creek."

Neither Mullino nor Holden could say too much in praise of the house-to-house canvassing volunteers "who are the real reasons for the accelerated results of this drive," the chairmen concurred. A breakdown of the campaign contributions by communities shows: Haskell, $538.50 in special gifts, $820.01 house-to-house, for a total of $1358.51; Rochester, $50 special gifts, $432.00 house-to-house, for a $882 total; Mattson, $25 special gifts, $80.50 house-to-house, for $114.50 total; and Rule, $202.00 special gifts, house-to-house unreported so far. Largest previously high total of a Cancer Crusade in Haskell County was the $2885 donated in 1962 under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. W. Herren, of Haskell. The 1964 effort, thanks to the massed work of 350 volunteers in the field, appears almost certain to exceed that record, Mullino reported Tuesday. Mrs. Janice Pace O'Neal, of Haskell, has been in charge of a organized special and advance gifts campaign throughout the county.

Order To Curtail Some Service Received At P. O. Bob Lowrance Is Leaving Chamber Manager Position

A cutback in parcel post deliveries and Saturday window service at the Haskell Post Office will go into effect next Tuesday, May 5. Postmaster Harold Spain has announced. Postmaster Spain said that a directive from the Postmaster General, in keeping with governmental economy measures, calls for restricting parcel post delivery one day a week and for the Saturday window service curtailment, keeping personnel requirements to a minimum on that day. Service changes planned locally include the following: There will be no parcel post delivery on Tuesday, other than that which is carried on rural routes, mounted routes, and star route box delivery routes. There will be only one window open on Saturday. With bare minimum personnel, only stamps and parcel post will be handled from eight a. m. to 12 noon. No money orders will be written, registry or COD paperwork performed, postal savings transactions, or other functions initiated on Saturday other than stamp and parcel post service, according to the directive. Postmaster Spain said the effect of the new policy would be to reduce the number of persons working on Saturday and cut down overhead on Tuesday, in support of the general economy measures in Post Offices over the nation.

County Farmers Conclave On Quota Business Monday

A countywide meeting of farmers in the Haskell area will be held at 9:30 a. m. Monday, May 4, in the 39th District Courtroom of the Haskell County Courthouse to discuss the urgent wheat and cotton quota and allotment situation, Lloyd Feemster, director of the ASCS office, U. S. Department of Agriculture, in Haskell, has announced. Blain Harrison, district farmer field man, will be the principal speaker at the assembly, Feemster reported. A May 15 deadline upon which some decision-making must be made by wheat farmers is imminent, Feemster said, and it is hoped the meeting next Monday here may assist area farmers in choosing a course of action.

Pinkerton-Foster Whitman Event To Stir Memories

Oldtimers from the now all but extinct and once thriving northwest Haskell County communities of Whitman, Pinkerton and Foster, three of some 40 to 50 which dotted this county in the pre-World War I days, will converge on the American Legion Hall here at 5 p. m. Saturday for their annual reunion. The Whitman, Pinkerton, Foster assembly, always held the first Saturday in May, is one in which many citizens of the Haskell County of yesterday join. Some 300 to 400 senior citizens are expected to attend the 1964 gathering for fellowship, food from picnic baskets they spread in the Legion Hall and at nearby Rice Springs Park and tete-a-tetes of nostalgic reminiscence. This is one of the red letter days of the year for oldtimers in this area to get, and stay, in touch, year to year, according to Claude Norman, president, and Mrs. L. H. Gibson, secretary, of the reunion.

This being the last day of the fourth month of the calendar year, it can be asserted with assurance from this corner that "I'll Remember April" is not for the reason as set down by that rhythmic romancer who wrote the song by that name. Would that it were.

Seems we recall there was an election early in the month and another Saturday. Pulsating political palaver... it's strength sapping, though savory and challenging. Then there was the Idea of April, Income Tax Day, with woe-filled tidings for some, great gobs of glee for others. (This experience made such an impression on us, every time we write "Ira" for Hester... it comes out IRS for you know what!)

All the candidates who have been heelin' and tocin' it over the county, and, in the case of Royce Adkins and Joe Williams, FOUR COUNTIES, big ones, probably will concur with the Pencil Pusher. April was the month that was... in which they were rode hard... and put away wet.

On the subject of extended and extensive activity, me 'n Albert, the only two Porters on the Square early of a dewey, Spring mornin', are figurin' on goin' on Moonlight Saving Time. That way, if we hustle, we can go back on the Gold Standard, too. We are not figurin' on the Double Standard, though, knowing what's good for us!

With the political picture framed and hung Saturday, guess the next "run on the bank" around here will be June weddings. We'll have to be learnin' how to spell "stephanotis" all over again.

You've probably heard this one about Haskell's Tangle-Eyed Twins, Garth Garrett and Ree Gardner, meetin' in close quarters and havin' bodily contact. We hadn't until recently, and think it bears reviewing. Seems these two, after the physical brush, eyed AT one another, Garth choosing the northeast-southwest flight pattern with his orbs, and Ree seeking landing instructions on the northwest-southwest concourse.

Said Gardner: "Why don't you look where you're going?" Retorted Garrett: "Why don't you go where you're lookin'?"

You'd think the way Ski-Nose Bob is turning out TV shows these days that Hope does spring eternal.

We dreamed the other night the water well boys had completely convinced themselves of the perpetuity (that's a good word) of our Not-Publicly-Approved Water Supply here, that they changed the name of the town to FLUSHING MEADOWS.

Our native Texan President of the United States got off a DOKZIE last week in an address before the American Society of Newspaper Editors at its annual meeting in Washington.

Opening his talk, LBJ said his presence in such august company reminded him of a recent conference at the White House in which around the conference table were three Harvard men, three Yale men, three Rhodes Scholars, and "an old boy who barely got out of San Marcos State Teachers College" (his alma mater).

"Dry run" would be a misnomer describing what happened in Abilene last Thursday to the Haskell Sheriff's Posse, a grand group of guys 'n gals, who have brought much glory to our town as a riding club. The "Saddle Tramps" hopes of continuing their winning ways went awash. They could have used their stirrups for canoe paddles, so dense was the deluge that postponed the H-SU Rodeo Parade in downtown Abilene.

It was too bad Jupiter Pluvius prevailed. Our proud bunch looked like a million (worth twice that much) when they departed Haskell for the Key City and projected parade.

Although she doesn't look the type, Mattie Muriel Felker went to the dogs, literally, on a recent Sunday. She played mid-wife at the birth of six dachshunds which arrived in the Felker family Bizzzy? Ask her about "My Day."

During a period of reminiscing with a pretty, perky Mother recently, she recalled a cook she had one time with whom she was consulting about a dinner menu. The cook suggested that she serve some "Pie Alamo." This description of pie with ice cream topping was spoken like a true Texan. She came from San Antonio all right.

We inquired of a well-heeled friend recently if he knew where we could get some "three percent money." He said

Sheriff W. T. Sarrells, who recently underwent an operation in the Stamford Sanitarium, has been returned to his home here and is recovering nicely.

Dr. J. C. Davis, well known businessman of Rule, states this week he will be a candidate for State Representative in the coming primary. He will submit his formal statement at an early date.

L. E. Whitham and Company of Wichita Falls received the contract on the Haskell-Rule highway work and plans to start construction within 10 days. The stretch of approximately 9.6 miles will consist of caliche base and asphalt gravel topping to make an all-weather road.

Miss Ruth Milstead will be Haskell's representative at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in San Angelo. She will take part in the Rainbow Roundup at the convention.

A total of 286 cartons of cigarettes of various brands, all bearing imitations of the 3-cent Texas tax stamp, were seized here this week by George Dussau and Hugh S. Veale, tax supervisors of the comptroller's department. The cigarettes were taken from a truck of a Wichita Falls tobacco salesman who was released after questioning. The cigarettes are being held by the sheriff's department, pending further investigation.

Mrs. A. E. Stocks and family attended a family reunion at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. N. E. Clifton, in Newcastle, Sunday, April 26.

New officers of the Haskell Magazine Club were installed at a meeting April 27. They were: President, Mrs. Hollis Atkinson; Vice President, Mrs. J. U. Fields; Second Vice President, Mrs. W. G. Forgy; Treasurer, Mrs. P. M. Baldwin; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Roy Sanders; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ben Bagwell; Publicity Chairman, Mrs. B. C. Chapman; Counsellor, Mrs. W. H. Cox; and Parliamentarian, Mrs. Carlton Couch.

The Benjamin Post Office was broken into Sunday night, and the safe blown open. The exact amount lost will not be known until arrival of the postal inspectors. Citizens of the town were awakened by the explosion about 2:00 a. m., but did not realize what it was.

Application of two Haskell youths, Daniel Bruce Wilson and Edmond McReynolds, have been approved in the Citizens Military Training Camp at Fort Sill, Okla.

A. H. Golden, of Bomarton, spent Sunday in the home of his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis P. Ratliff.

Good rains were general over the county Thursday and Friday of last week with the fall here being measured at 1.80 inches by Judge P. D. Sanders, who keeps the government gauge. Hail accompanying the rain did considerable damage at Rochester. O'Brien and Weibert. Vic Lefevers, a farmer living about 10 miles north of Haskell, on the Benjamin Road, was struck and instantly killed by lightning Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock during the rainstorm.

Several Fort Worth oil men were in Sagerton this week in connection with the well which was started in that vicinity last week. They believe there is a good chance to develop oil in that section.

G. W. Barnes, beef cattle specialist with the Texas A&M College, was here Monday, and in company with County Agent Trice, visited the Hughes Ranch southeast of town to inspect the Hughes herd of Hereford cattle.

J. L. Means, of east of town, was here Saturday. He says the grasshoppers are starting out by the thousands in his fields, and it looks like they will be a threat to crops.

Mrs. J. P. Payne, who has been in Dallas under treatment he'd let us have all we need "at 3 percent." Our hopes soared. Then he added, "Per day." The Kill Joy.

Oakescript: Mr. and Mrs. Poor Man's Marco Polo, the R. C. Couches Sr., should be back home soon. Wonder if Sassy Hassie got to see Haille Se-lassie.

Let's Make It A PERSONAL Challenge
---To Stop This Tragic Carnage

Of all the grim records of violence and death down through mankind's long history, perhaps the strangest and most tragic is the story of the automobile and its annual army of victims.

Since the first horseless carriage chugged noisily down cobblestone streets, more than 80,000,000 Americans... killed, crippled, and maimed... have inscribed their names on what has aptly been referred to as "the dishonor roll." By whatever name, the yearly casualty count continues its shameful, senseless growth.

Last year was no exception. In fact, 1963 claimed the dubious distinction of being the worst single year in the history of highway safety. During its twelve months, automobile accidents were responsible for more deaths — in what has now become a trite comparison — than the U. S. Armed Forces suffered in the entire Korean War.

According to an authoritative report by the Travelers Insurance Companies, the nation's traffic death toll surged to an all-time high. A total of 42,700 men, women and children died on our streets and highways. The annual country-wide survey based on information provided by state motor vehicle departments revealed that the 1963 carnage topped the figure of nearly 40,000 persons killed in 1941 — a record high which stood for twenty years — and even surpassed the new record of 40,500 deaths established in 1962.

Incredibly, more persons have died on the highways than on our nation's battlefields; more have been injured in auto accidents than in all the world's wars combined.

This roll call of highway fatalities is no secret document hidden from public gaze. In newspapers and bulletins, legal and police reports, in courtrooms and judges' chambers, the names on the dishonor roll and their innocent victims are made known to all. And not the names alone, but the catalogue of their deeds, is made known: driving while drunk, speeding, violating the rules of the road, failure to dim lights, driving on the wrong side of the road, ad infinitum.

These are but a few of their offenses. In an endless roll call are the names read, and the judgments pronounced. Then, all too often, disregarding the memory of traffic experience, the dishonored heedlessly proceed to emblazon their names again on a shameful record.

What is the solution to this national disgrace? Obviously, no one has found it to date. Statistics, pledges, slogans, campaigns... all seemingly have had little effect on the American public. None of these has brought about lasting improvement in any segment of the basic problem. None of them has sparked that dead-serious PERSONAL commitment to greater care behind the wheel which is NECESSARY if we are to reduce the spreading epidemic of traffic slaughter.

When will we succeed in bringing the scourge of needless casualties under some degree of control? Frankly, no one really knows this answer.

Perhaps no significant improvement can be expected until the great majority of us learn to look upon the problem as a PERSONAL CHALLENGE rather than one which is primarily up to the other fellow!

We All Have A Share

Never is there a moment in our lives when we are not sharing in some way in the benefits of our land and water resources.

Our Nation, from its beginning, has drawn its strength from these gifts which God put at our disposal. Their bountiful supply has enabled our people to thrive. And there is no reason why this should not continue to be so.

God gave us authority over His gifts. We are His stewards. In the Divine plan, we have much to do with what happens to His gifts. We can destroy their usefulness, or we can bring about for ourselves manifold blessings from their use.

Tillers of the soil many years ago recognized the need for soil and water conservation on their land. They recognized also that some soil and water problems did not end at the fence line — that they and their neighbors shared a problem. And so they worked together to find a solution. They were quick to realize the interdependence of man, one with the other.

The adoption of soil and water conservation systems has become a community enterprise — the responsibility for which is shared by all. As population increases and cities fan out into the country, we become less of individuals and more a part of a community. We build our communities to provide opportunities to be shared by all. We recognize the interdependence between farm and nonfarm, just as between one farm and another.

To accept stewardship brings great fulfillment. It brings a sense of well being when our land and waters are protected and productive, and sharing the job brings the brotherhood of man closer to reality.

Despite their common interest and purpose, the people in a community may see the land and streams with different eyes. Yes, we share the interests in the land, and water, though our interests may vary. Yet, in the nature of the land, God has provided for a multitude of uses, but only under certain conditions. Each use can be fitted into an orderly pattern when planned ahead, according to the capability of the land, and the water, and the needs of the people.

When we plan and carry out this multiple land use pattern, we all share in the benefits — the rewards of good stewardship. But to share in the rewards, ALL OF US must share, also, in the RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CARE AND DEVELOPMENT OF THESE GOD-GIVEN RESOURCES.

It seems most propitious that, in facing our mutual problems and projects in developing our community, we should think, AND ACT, on these things TOGETHER. NOW would be a wonderful time to begin during Soil Stewardship Week May 3-10.

Three youth leaders of the First Baptist Church of Haskell, having won top honors in the district "Sword Drill" speakers tourney in Abilene on April 12, represented Southern Baptist District 17 in similar competition at the Texas Baptist Training Union Convention in Beaumont last Thursday through Saturday.

Deanne Robertson, Tona Patterson and Barry O'Neal were the victors in their respective age groups at district level, and carried the district's colors to Beaumont. The former two were first-place winners. O'Neal took second place to become an alternate in his division at Beaumont.

Training Union leaders of the victorious trio have been Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thomas, of Haskell. Their coach has been Mrs. Ray Nobles Jr., wife of the pastor of the First Baptist Church here. SKY WRITING STINT IN REVERSE PUTS HASKELL ON AIR MAP

Haskell got its name in the sky, in reverse, Saturday, thanks to a unique project of the Abilene Chapter, 99's Incorporated, a group of women licensed pilots, and an integral part of an international organization founded by the late renowned woman flyer, Amelia Earhart.

The 99's in this area, a closely knit organization of 12 licensed women pilots, whose president is Mrs. Bill Cree, of Abilene, have a continuing project of putting in air markers on air lanes to help pilots keep on course and assist lost airmen in returning to course.

Mrs. John Hamill, past president of the 99's and an enthusiastic supporter of the project, and seven others of the 12 members were in Haskell Saturday to paint this town's name in 10-foot high yellow letters on the blacktopped, 100 foot long 'M' System Supermarket building. A group of Wing Scouts, 16-year-olds interested in flying, helped with the project.

Steve Stephens, manager of the 'M' System store here, said the women's pilot organization had no trouble at all obtaining permission of the owner of his building for such a project. He is Virgil Reynolds, a Haskell native, former County Judge here, who recently was named deputy director of the Federal Aviation Agency, the Number 2 post in the nation in FAA.

Mrs. Cree, Mrs. Hamill, Mrs. Malcolm Schultz, and others from Abilene arrived here at 8 a. m. Saturday, equipped with paint, brushes, and building scaling ladders, ready to paint 'Haskell' yellow, a 'sky writing' situation in reverse.

Mrs. Hamill said the group were making a similar stand at Roby Saturday after finishing here. The 99's have placed these 'air markers' at some strategic towns in Northwest and North Central Texas in the past four years. The most recent ones have been Clyde, Albany, Baird, Bradshaw, Coleman, Lawn, Tuscola and Moran. They also have painted 'Abilene' at the Municipal Airport and Butterfield Trails in their own home town.

Funeral Held For Mrs. Ed Stanford, Former Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. W. E. (Ed) Stanford, 85, former longtime resident of Haskell County, who was found dead in her home in Richmond, Calif., on April 19, were held at 2:00 p. m. Sunday in the First Methodist Church here.

Rev. Ellis A. Todd, pastor, officiated, and burial under the direction of Holden's Funeral Home here, was in Willow Cemetery beside the grave of her husband, who died in 1940.

The body, accompanied by relatives, arrived here Saturday morning. The family was at the home of Mrs. Stanford's niece, Mrs. Walter Kierpeka, 1005 Southeast 6th Street here.

Mrs. Stanford was found dead at her home in Richmond by a daughter. She lived alone and apparently had died in her sleep about 24 hours earlier.

A resident of Richmond since 1952, Mrs. Stanford lived in Haskell County from 1917 to 1944. A native of Tennessee, where she was born on March 4, 1879, Lena Belle Dotson moved to Collin County at the age of 17. She married Wesley Edwin Stanford in Collin County in 1902. They settled in the Roberts community of this county in 1917. He died March 13, 1940. Mrs. Stanford was a longtime member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include three daughters: Mrs. Lewis Berg, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Mrs. Thelma Lewellen, San Rafael, Calif.; and Mrs. Anson Butler, San Pablo, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Lillie Bates, Los Angeles, Calif.; two grandsons, Hugh Lewellen, of Richmond, and Jerry Butler, of San Pablo; one step-grandson; 8 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Callaway, E. B. Callaway, Lynn Tolliver, Jess Leonard, Andrew Leonard, Vernon Ivey, all of Haskell and T. W. Free, of Abilene.

KNOW YOUR CANDIDATE

Don Yarborough, Democratic candidate for governor, warned Texans this that continued lobbyist-controlled government will mean a creeping increase in the sales tax.

Two years ago I predicted that if Connally were elected governor, he would cut taxes on the huge out-of-state corporations his lobbyist friends represent and increase the sales tax burden on the people of Texas.

That is exactly what John Connally signed into law a bill cutting $200 million out of taxes paid by big eastern oil companies, banks, sulphur companies, and other giant monopolies."

He made up for that lost revenue, Connally said, "the Governor's tax bill cut the sales tax to work clothes. As I predicted two years ago, he tried to extend the sales tax to farm implements. If he were re-elected, he would try again to increase this tax on farmers.

Texans cannot afford two more years of this kind of lobbyist domination," Yarborough declared. "What it amounts to is a 'soak the poor' policy."

Yarborough also pointed out that "the state has ignored the needs of elderly citizens by providing an average old age pension of only $100 a month.

Senior citizens who helped build this state are forced to survive under standard conditions because of the meager assistance payments provided by the state. They live in constant fear of illness and its accompanying medical expenses.

But the present governor has done nothing to raise their pensions, even come out against the Medicare program which would help ease their burden.

His campaign is dedicated to bringing a New Day to Texas," Yarborough said, "by correcting the unfair tax situation and protecting the interests of the people instead of the lobbyists."

J. R. (RAY) PERRY

J. R. Perry Has Message In Behalf Of County Post

J. R. (Ray) Perry, a third generation member of a family whose name is synonymous with the settling of this area, this week issued a statement in behalf of his candidacy for Commissioner of Precinct 3, subject to the Democratic Primary on Saturday, May 2.

Perry, who seeks the commissioner's post once held by his own grandfather, the late Wayne Perry, Ray Perry is a native of Haskell County, as was his father, Hoyt Perry, before him, a citizen active in the civic and religious affairs of Paint Creek community where he lives.

The commissioner candidate is married to the former Amelia Holt, daughter of Mrs. Clara Holt, and the late J. C. Holt. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Sara Holt, who until recently resided in Precinct 3, and is still living in Haskell.

The Perrys have two children, a daughter, Milla, 15, a sophomore at Paint Creek Rural High School, and a son, Ricky, 13, an 8th grader at Paint Creek. Both children are most active in school activities, sports, 4-H club work, and Ricky is a member of Paint Creek Boy Scout Troop 48.

Members of the Perry family are all active members of the Paint Creek Methodist church. Ray Perry has spent most of his life in Precinct 3, except for the time he spent in the service of his country during World War II as an 8th Air Force tail gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress in the European Theater of Operations.

Perry announced for the commissioner's post in Precinct 3, of his own free will and accord, and as an independent candidate with no axes to grind or forces to mend for any group or groups of people. The candidate has had extensive productive experience working on the roads of his precinct, and in handling and caring for heavy duty equipment. He feels that his age and health are sterling assets for discharge of his duties to which he will devote his time and energies with dedication.

Mr. Perry is steadfast in his belief that a younger generation should have the responsibility for planned public effort in this era of development, and feels that his long association with the needs of his neighbors in Precinct 3 eminently qualifies him for this important post. He emphasizes that he will not be a "yes man," if elected, and that every decision arising in the Commissioners Court will be carefully weighed, and that controversial questions,

Elizabeth Stewart Cites Experience As Tax Assessor

Elizabeth Stewart, candidate for re-election as Tax Assessor-Collector serving Haskell County, this week appealed for the solid support of the County's citizenship for their continued confidence in her operation of the most responsible function of their government.

Mrs. Stewart, a lifelong resident of Haskell County, has made a concerted effort to see all of the people of the area during the current campaign, but should she have missed the privilege of greeting anyone personally, the candidate declared on the eve of election: "I am humble and grateful, for the warm and hospitable reception accorded me at every turn in my visitations over the county. It particularly has been gratifying to me to have the opportunity to learn firsthand how I and the Tax Assessor-Collector's office may better serve the need of the office which belongs to the people.

"In the event I have missed seeing the pleasure personally, I want to sincerely and cordially thank all the voters who have provided me the experience gained in this office in the past. I am confident that I will be able to perform the duties of this responsible position's many activities and functions in the future. With the experience to guide me, I, with your permission, should like to serve you with the knowledge and understanding of the needs of the citizenship.

"I have endeavored to conduct this office in an efficient and economical manner, and earnestly solicit your continued confidence in returning me to office to pursue and strengthen such a course of action.

"It is with pardonable pride that I would like to quote here the remark of Mr. Robert S. Calvert, who for many years has been Comptroller of Public Accounts for the State of Texas. On the occasion of his last audit of the accounts of your Tax Assessor-Collector's office, he wrote: 'It is indeed a pleasure to make an audit of an account when it has been so accurately kept. May we express our appreciation for the cooperation of you and your deputies while our auditors were in your city.'

"The faith and trust reposed in me by the voters of Haskell County always will be my guideposts so long as I am privileged to serve the people in this responsible capacity," Mrs. Stewart concluded.

Garth Garrett Asks Re-election For Sheriff Post

Garth T. Garrett, Sheriff of Haskell County since January 1, 1961, who is seeking re-election to a second term in office, this week issued a pre-election statement to all his constituents in behalf of his candidacy.

Said Sheriff Garrett, "Inasmuch as it has been necessary for me to continue the faithful discharge of my duties and responsibilities to this office, entailing the lion's share of my time and effort, I have been unable to see all of the people during the campaign now ending. Through this means, I want each and all the citizens of Haskell County to know that I consider it my personal responsibility to loyally and diligently serve them in public office. To me, public office is a public trust in which I have endeavored, and stand on my record in that respect, to consider no request of my services too large, nor too small. It is the little things, as well as the big ones, that count, in law enforcement work, and the human equation also needs evaluation in all matters.

"I sincerely feel that the experience and judgment gained during eight years of law enforcement effort in your behalf, subject to your permission, have earned me the privilege of serving you a second four years as your Sheriff. Through around-the-clock dedication to my job, I have become thoroughly familiar with every facet of the population, and being a native of this territory, know every nook and cranny of the geographic area of my responsibility.

"I have made a determined effort to see you all before May 2, but time and the pressure of my responsibilities have precluded that privilege. I hope you will consider this a personal handshake from me and my earnest, sincere request for your solid support of Garth Garrett at the polls on Saturday.

"May I thank you from the bottom of a grateful heart for your continued confidence in me and my dedicated desire to serve my fellow citizens."

ROYCE ADKINS

Royce Adkins Has Message Thanking Citizens

Royce Adkins, candidate for re-election to the Office of District Attorney of the 39th Judicial District of the State of Texas, this week made the following statement in behalf of his candidacy:

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the citizens of Haskell County, Texas, for the help, cooperation and consideration which you have given me in the past. I appreciate it very much.

"I would like to solicit your vote and support in re-electing me as your District Attorney on the basis of my past record in office and my qualifications as an attorney.

"During the time that I have served you as your District Attorney, I have always done my best to handle the duties of the office in a fair and impartial manner, using good, hard, common sense. I have enjoyed my association with all of the people of the district, the jurors, peace officers and other public officials that I have had an opportunity to work with, and all of them have given the very best cooperation and help possible in discharging the duties of the office.

"In 1961, I was honored by my fellow County and District Attorneys when the District and County Attorneys Association of the State of Texas elected me president of the Association.

"I now have almost 15 years experience as a practicing attorney and over 13 years experience as a County and District Attorney, prosecuting both misdemeanor and felony cases. I am now 37 years of age, married and have two small children. I am a veteran of World War II, having served in the Pacific Theatre. I graduated from Haskell High School, received my pre-law at Texas A&M and graduated from the University of Texas Law School.

"I have made an earnest effort to personally contact each of you prior to the Primary, but due to the lack of time and duties of the office, it has not been possible to see everyone. I sincerely hope that you will each accept this message as a personal solicitation of your vote, support and influence in my campaign for re-election, and I want you to know that my family and I will appreciate it very much.

"If given the privilege of continuing to serve you, I promise that I will discharge the duties of the office of District Attorney in such manner that will merit your continued confidence."

PAINT CREEK... COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

One of the nicest awards made to students of Paint Creek High School is the Annual Honor Trip to the 15 students with the highest averages. Last year was the first time the school board offered this award, and this year the competition was high. Students winning the trip were seniors, Carolyn Carlton, Billie Cockrell, Margie Earles, Edwin Livengood and Marjorie Scheets; juniors, Vickie Morrison, Darla Schmidt; sophomores, Danny Isbell, Allen Schmidt, Danny Ivy, Jerry Scheets, Milla Perry, Janay Morrison, Nancy Jones and Nelda Morrison. Adult sponsors making the trip with the students were Supt. and Mrs. Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Walton. Their itinerary included visits to Proctor Gamble Co., General Motors, the Federal Reserve Bank, Neuhoff Packing Co., Cinerama and a tour of Fair Park. They left Wednesday and returned home Saturday. All the students reported a wonderful trip.

The Scouts of Troop 48 held their spring Court of Honor at the Scout Hut in Gene Overton's pasture Friday evening. Twain Miekler gave the Scouts a 35-pound catfish, and others added smaller packages of fish from their lockers to make enough for a fish fry. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ratliff, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Bland and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton donated fish and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Earles donated a big pan of frogs' legs (caught by Bob Earles and Ricky Perry). Parents of the Scouts furnished the salads, desserts and extras, for a really sumptuous supper. R. V. Earles was chief fish fryer, assisted by Ira Coleman.

After supper, the Mighty Mites Patrol had the opening ceremony. Members of this patrol are: Randy Wiseman and Derrell Davis, patrol leaders; Scouts, Bill Jones, Dwight Overton, Mike Brazel; Cubs, Buddy Morrison, Donald Livengood, Ricky Brazel, Joe Bob Miekler and Phil Josselot.

Johnny Josselot of the Coyote Patrol assisted with the fire-lighting ceremony and Ricky Perry of the Badgers assisted with the opening ceremony. Mr. Herman Josselot presented the Star awards to J. F. Cadenhead Jr., Terry Lowery, Gary Felker and Glen Pogue. Life awards were presented to Phil Coleman and Derrell Davis by Mr. Van Morrison. Merit badges presented by R. C. Couch were Nature, Firemanship and Horsemanship, to Phil Coleman, Animal Industry and Citizenship in the Home, to Gary Felker; Citizenship in the Home, Home Repairs and Art, to Terry Lowery; Dog Care and Athletics, to James Wall. Waller Overton served as Master of Ceremonies and presented the Bronze Palm for the Eagle Badge to Eagle Scout Randy Wiseman.

The Troop re-registered, but this will be in the news later. After the Court of Honor, Waller Overton led the group in a Hootenany. Bill Jones, Nan Jones and Marjane McAddo, of Rule, brought their ukulele's.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Montgomery spent from Wednesday until Monday in Midland with their grandchildren, Johnny

Paul, April and Seetty, while their son, John Carlos and wife, Pat, attended the Jaycee Convention in Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Williams and daughters, Lisa and Vanessa, of Lubbock, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Miekler.

Dickie Gibbs is on leave from the Air Force Base in Amarillo and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gibbs and family.

The 8th grade class had their class party at the Stamford Lanes Friday night where they ate supper and bowled. Attending were Jeannine Isbell, Brenda and Linda Griffith, Melanie Livengood, Elaine Marr, Dudley Cockrell, Donnie Green, Jerry Mueller and class sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gibbs and Room Mother, Mrs. Allen Overton. Guests were Dickie Gibbs and PeeWee Miekler.

PeeWee (Eldon Gene) Miekler spent the weekend with his aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell, while his mother was on a trip to Dallas with the Stamford Band.

Mrs. Mary Hyde spent the weekend at Lake Tedioma and Gainesville, visiting her parents.

James Ross Miekler, principal of Paint Creek High School, served as one of the judges for the Hardin-Simmons Rodeo last weekend.

Jo Morrison stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell while her parents sponsored the Honor Trip to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Morrison were in Weatherford, Oklahoma over the weekend to find a house or apartment for the summer. Van will attend Southwestern State College.

Pvt. William Overton is at home this week on a post-basic leave from Fort Polk, La.

I should have mentioned in the story of the Honor Trip the help given Supt. Morrison by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cole of Dallas in making group. Mrs. Cole plans for Helen Jean Cox, the former Helen Jean Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cox, and has been a great help both years in making the trip memorable for the students of Paint Creek.

Gene Overton, a supervisor of the California Creek Soil Conservation District, attended the Soil Stewardship breakfast Monday morning at Nat's Cafe in Samford. All pastors of the area were invited in observance of Soil Stewardship Week. Among those present were Rev. Ellis Todd and Rev. Douglas Finch, of Haskell.

The only Paint Creeker who won a door prize at the Production Credit meeting at Round-up Hall in Samford Saturday, April 18, was little Blackwell who won a $5 guest prize. Many Paint Creekers attended the meeting and barbecue that day.

George Dickie, of Woodson, visited for a short time with the Gene Overtons last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bean are the proud grandparents of their first grandbaby, Little Craig Allen Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Smith, of Stamford. He is the great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welsh.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry Logan, Steven and David, of McCoy AFB, Orlando, Fla., are on leave and visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bounds. Capt. Logan was recently presented the USAF Outstanding Unit Award and the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal. He was assigned to the Air Defense Command's 966th Air-

Mrs. J. E. McCown is at home in Stamford now after several weeks in the Stamford Memorial Hospital. Her daughters, Mrs. C. G. Raughton and Mrs. Lorene Raughton have been visiting her almost every day.

We vote this weekend, and isn't it the dickens to have to vote for one neighbor and not vote for another. Some poor Paint Creekers are going to have to decide between kin-folks. One woman has to vote for either her brother, or her brother-in-law in the commissioner's race. Her husband has to decide between brothers-in-law and her sons have to vote for one uncle or another uncle. Maybe they can split the votes with their wives or something. Anyway, we can't miss having a good commissioner, whichever man of the three is elected.

Former students of Texas A&M 36 strong, from Haskell, Jones, Stonewall, Knox and Kent counties, held their traditional muster in this area at the Rice Springs Corral here Tuesday night.

Supper, dominoes, reminiscing, and a memorial service for departed Aggies constituted the order of the evening.

New officers of the Texas A&M Former Students Club for the five county area selected at the session were Grover C. Carothers, of Stamford, president; Fred Darby, of Aspermont, vice president; Dr. David Ballard, of Stamford, secretary-treasurer; and Joe Astin of Stamford, 1965 Muster Chairman.

Guests were present from as far away as Pontiac, Michigan.

Wallace Cox Jr., and R. C. Couch Jr., both of Haskell, and Joe B. Cloud, of Rule, were on the nostalgic program. J. C. Yeary, soil conservationist, of Haskell, served as Muster Chairman Tuesday night.
