Chinese troops said near showdown

Unconfirmed reports numerous in strife-torn country

BELJING (AP) — Embassies ordered their citizens out of the capital today as new troops appeared in the city for an apparent showdown with the army corp that killed unarmed pro-democracy protesters.

There were unconfirmed reports from Japanese sources that tanks from rival armies were already fighting on a main avenue in western Beijing.

The U.S. Embassy told American citizens to leave.

"Because of the security situation it is unwise to stay," an embassy official said.

The Canadian Embassy also ordered an evacuation of dependents and non-essential staff. Australian nationals moved into their embassy compound while the British Embassy helped students reach safe havens.

Japan said it was bringing planes in today to evacuate its nationals.

The official casualty figures were far lower than unofficial estimates. Hospitals put the number killed in just the first hours of fighting Saturday night at more than 500, and other Chinese estimated thousands were killed.

The government also denied a report in Taiwan that senior leader Deng Xiaoping had died. The nationally televised evening news said the report was a "fabrication designed to make people uneasy and create chaos." Chinese sources have said Deng is hospitalized with a prostate ailment.

Yuan Mu, spokesman for China's cabinet, the State Council, said on the evening news that the figure of nearly 300 dead included soldiers, "thugs," bystanders and 23 students. Yuan is regarded as aligned with conservative elements.

Unidentified people on foot opened fire this evening on soldiers stationed outside the military museum in western Beijing, a Chinese witness said. The witness said he was too far away to identify those who fired.

Some students and other civilians are known to have captured weapons from soldiers in fighting over the weekend.

Several foreign embassies, including the U.S. mission, urged their nationals to leave Beijing, and some arranged special charter flights to speed evacuation.

The Canadian Embassy ordered an evacuation of dependents and non-essential embassy staff. Canada, Japan, Britain and West Germany all said they were trying to arrange charter flights for their nationals in Beijing.

House speaker proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats today nominated Thomas S. Foley of Washington as the 49th speaker of the House, moving decisively to replace Jim Wright and end months of political tumult spawned by charges of ethical misconduct.

The full House was expected to ratify the majority Democrats' choice by the end of the day, and Foley was moving to set the tone for his stewardship.

"I hope that this can be the beginning of the movement of the House back to the business for which the public elected us to serve," he told reporters as he arrived at the Capitol. He said he hoped to quickly "restore a mood of conciliation, reconciliation and cooperation between the two parties."

Foley, unopposed, was approved by the Democratic caucus in a unanimous voice vote. Still to come, perhaps next week, were contests for other Democratic

In Brief

Buried today

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini was buried Tuesday alongside followers who died in the Islamic revolution that carried him to power.

Thousands of Revolutionary Guards and civilians pushed and shoved around the graveside, kicking up clouds of dust as Khomeini's body was taken from a metal casket and lowered to the grave at 4:45 p.m.

Burial of the 86-year-old fundamentalist patriarch was delayed when frenzied mourners blocked the funeral procession and some of the vast crowd grabbed the corpse from the open coffin, the Islamic Republic News Agency reported.

2 face indictment in purse snatching

Ten criminal defendants were indicted Monday by a county grand jury, including two young Snyder men who were true billed for robbery in connection with an April 25 purse snatching incident involving an 81-year-old woman.

Pete E. Castro, 22, of 1905 Coleman Ave., No. 1, and Willie S. Castillo, 20, of 314 25th St. are accused of grabbing the woman's purse as they drove past her in an automobile. The incident occurred as she was walking in the 2900 Block of Ave. O.

The woman was held for 23-hour observation and released at Cogdell Memorial Hospital following the incident.

Police said afterwards that an aggravated robbery charge was not feasible because the victim did not sustain a serious injury.

Luis R. Fuentes, 35, of 2803 Ave. X was indicted for injury to a child for allegedly hitting a girl younger than 15 years of age in the face with a bottle on May 13.

Catarino R. Guerrero, 40, of 2700 Ave. J was true billed for aggravated assault on a police officer, being accused of hitting a city patrolman in the head with his fist on May 20.

Robert L. Baker, 31, of Hermleigh was ordered to stand trial for aggravated assault for allegedly cutting an individual with a knife on April 19.

Balentine Carrisalez Jr., whose age and address were not available because he had not been arrested, was indicted for burglary of a habitation in connection with a May 17 break-in at a home located at 507 31st St.

Head of Sun due in city

The president of Sun Pipeline Services Company, Joe Swift of Tulsa, Okla., will be in Snyder Wednesday as part of the business' observance of its 100th year of operation.

Swift will be meeting with employees of the local Sun Pipeline West Texas office for a morning session planned at the Willow Park Inn.

Earl Watts, general foreman for the Snyder-based office, said the appearance will be part of a company-wide tour by Swift.

The year 1989 marks the 100th year of the company being in business. It has been based locally since the 1950s.

There are currently 15 employees for Sun Pipeline living in Snyder and 24 in all which report from the 10-county area it serves in West Texas.

Seal coating work reviewed by city

City council members Monday night reviewed summer plans to use 3,000 tons of gravel and 200 tons of asphalt to seal-coat 8½ miles of city streets.

City Engineer Don Osborn said many streets that were not redone last summer will get a new face this year, with work concentrated primarily in the central, western and northern parts of the town.

Seventeenth St., for example, will be seal-coated along 15 blocks from Ave. T east to Ave. E.

Osborn said bids for the gravel and asphalt will be opened next month.

Other business in the 40-minute meeting included passage on second reading of the city's new exotic animals ordinance, which generally prohibits the keeping of any wild animal inside the city limits, and the re-appointment of District 2 Councilman Ralph Williamson as mayor pro-tem.

Mayor Troy Williamson announced the appointment of Councilmen Joe Coronado and Mike Thornton to investigate the city's possible participation in the newly created Texas Capital Fund, a program being offered through the Texas Department of Commerce to help businesses that benefit low or moderate-income people.

The mayor also said he will begin appointing people to a group he is calling the "2020 Committee" to draft a plan of growth and future needs for Snyder through the year 2020.

He said Dr. Jim Palmer, head of the history and geography departments at Western Texas College, has agreed to chair the committee.

City Manager John Gayle said

The feller on Deep Creek says, "It always happens at the start of summer vacation—mom threatens to run away from home."

BCD President Jack Denman and Chamber President Herbie Figueredo have joined forces to promote an exciting "new industry" in Snyder.

They head a special committee to promote Snyder as a retirement community. Roswell, N.M. has experienced great success in this area, and many other towns are getting on the retirement band wagon.

Denman, who spent his working career working for Sun Gas, knows the advantages and disadvantages of both small towns and metropolitan living. Denman was one of many in Snyder who chose the peaceful living and qualities of a rural town, rather than living behind the locked doors in a city.

Denman is also one of those with a cheerful attitude. He told us recently that when people reach his age, they are mainly interested in two things during the day.

"I find that we spend most of the daylight hours trying to remember names—and trying to find a restroom."

It's vacation time, but commercial flying doesn't have the appeal that it once did.

A guy told us about being on a plane at DFW. It was taxiing out to the runway when it turned around and returned to the terminal.

The stewardess informed the passengers that the captain was not satisfied with one of the systems and that there would be a delay while it was checked out.

One passenger, obviously in a hurry, fumed as he asked the stewardess, "How long will the delay be?"

The stewardess was unable to answer, but a voice grating gentleman spoke up. "Yep, this delay is irritating, but on the whole I think I'd rather be down here wishing I was up there instead of up there wishing I was down here."

Boy undergoes medical tests, treatment for cancer planned

HOUSTON (AP) — Doctors are running tests on a cancer-stricken 4-year-old boy from New York whose mother was sent to jail last week in a legal dispute involving the child's treatment.

Darian Pagan, who has leukemia, underwent tests Monday at Houston's M.D. Anderson Cancer Center. He first arrived at the hospital late Sunday night.

"We'll know in about 48 hours," Dr. Jan van Eys, head of the pediatrics division, said Monday during a news conference. "We're doing tests right now and then we'll proceed. We'll treat his nervous system. It'll just depend how much chemotherapy he needs."

The boy's parents had told doctors at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York they were reluctant to continue their son's chemotherapy treatments there because they wanted him to obtain less painful medical treatment.

Memorial Sloan officials obtained a court order that prevented the Pagans from taking Darian away after two years of treatments, but the father illegally removed his son from the hospital May 28.

Brooklyn Family Court Judge Leon Deutsch ordered Darian's mother, Migdalia Pagan, jailed, though she insisted she did not know where her husband, David, had taken the boy. Mrs. Pagan was freed after the father and boy appeared in court Thursday.

On Friday, the Pagans regained custody of Darian and were allowed to take him to Houston.

Mrs. Pagan said the New York clinic was giving their son excessive and unnecessary treatments. The couple especially objected to intensive radiation therapy he was receiving and believed it might cause him brain damage, she said.

Proposed neurosurgery convinced the couple that they should seek treatment elsewhere. Doctors at M.D. Anderson had told them the surgery was not called for and that there were alternatives, which will include chemotherapy, Mrs. Pagan said.

"The surgery really scared me," she said as Darian sat on her lap. "It was like you had to do this. Here it was said so mildly. They cared about the child's emotional state and his physical state."

Mrs. Pagan said she wanted to stop treatment altogether, because the New York doctors did not give her any options.

Judge enjoins Fed Reserve in its claims against MCorp

HOUSTON (AP) — A preliminary injunction issued by a federal judge will keep MCorp's bankruptcy case in the courts and out of regulators' control.

U.S. District Judge Lynn N. Hughes' decision, issued Monday, also will benefit holders of more than $400 million of the bank-holding company's debt, analysts said.

Hughes' ruling forbids the Federal Reserve System, which regulates bank-holding companies, from using its authority to "effect, directly or indirectly, a reorganization of the MCorp group or its components or to interfere, except through participation in the bankruptcy proceedings, with the restructuring being developed in the bankruptcy proceeding."

The order sides with MCorp, which has been fighting Fed efforts to make it use an estimated $400 million in assets to prop up its weak subsidiary banks.

The Fed has maintained that bank-holding companies should be a "source of strength" for their member banks. If a holding company files for bankruptcy protection, the Fed claimed, the need to provide capital for a member bank should take precedent over the obligation to pay off creditors.

MCorp was the state's second largest bank-holding company until March when regulators seized 20 of the 25 MBanks, combining them under one bank which has been operating since as Deposit Insurance Bridge Bank, with $15.4 billion in assets and $11.6 billion in deposits.

MCorp, which retained five banks and a trust operation, subsequently filed for protection under Chapter 11 of the federal bankruptcy code.

Hughes said in his order that the "waste and confusion attendant upon parallel bankruptcy and administrative proceedings" increases costs and conflict and protects no interests that could not be addressed solely in the bankruptcy proceeding.

"Prevalence on the merits in this case appears to be reduced to a correct interpretation of which public forum has subsidiaries that include non-banks," Hughes wrote. "However, MCorp is likely to prevail on its claim that the executive's administrative power over bank holding companies is pre-empted by the bankruptcy power which Congress has confided to the judiciary."

Exciting times could be in the offing for you in the year ahead where your social life is concerned. It looks like you may become involved with a new adventurous group.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There's a chance you could be manipulated today by a skillful user of flattery. You'll be better off being more responsive to people you know who always level with you. CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be a bit more cautious than usual in financial matters today, especially those that have obvious elements of risks. If you are impulsive or careless, your bank balance will reflect your poor judgment. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Associates may have difficulty discerning your true motives today and for this reason they might not be as supportive of your interests as they usually are. Try to be explicit.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You are endowed with remarkably sharp critical faculties, but, unfortunately, today you might use them more negatively than positively. Look for others' virtues, not their faults.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Be shrewd enough to read the signs today if friends appear to be put off by what you have to offer. Persistence will only strain relationships.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You shouldn't have any trouble being an achiever today, but the methods you might employ could antagonize those with whom you'll have dealings. Do nothing to tarnish your image.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Self-doubts must not be allowed to erode your confidence today. If you dwell too heavily upon negative thoughts, it could induce you to do counterproductive things.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It might not be wise today to take a chance doing business with a person with a questionable reputation. You don't want to learn the hard way how that label was earned in the first place.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) There's a likelihood your boss will be more difficult to get along with today than usual if it is felt that you are not being as cooperative as you should be.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Keep a weather eye peeled for unexpected developments today where your work or career is concerned. Something might pop up that will require a quick response in order to avoid further complications.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Think twice at this time before putting additional funds into enterprises or projects that have yet to yield a proper return. It could be unwise to put good money in after bad.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Instead of operating from your strengths in one-to-one negotiations today, there's a possibility you might emphasize your weakness instead. Do not cater to defeat.

New grill rack for fish

QUINCY, Ill. (AP) — The Griffo-Grill is a new stainless steel grill rack for seafood. It is sized to fit on top of most grills, and is made of a fine, sturdy steel mesh.

The grill can be oiled lightly before each use to prevent fish from sticking to it, and can be cleaned after use in most dishwashers. The grill is available nationwide.

If the bidding seems unusual, you should understand that North's one-trump response was forcing for one round.

To be fair, imagine yourself as declarer in four spades. Blot out the East-West hands from your mind and follow the play. West takes the king of clubs and plays a second club to East's ace. East now returns the six of hearts. You win the ace of hearts and lay down the ace of spades. West plays the four and East plays the queen. What now? If you play a second high spade and it turns out that East had only the singleton queen of spades, you will lose two spade tricks and be set. And what if you lead a spade up to the 10? If West is left with the J-9-5, he will be able to take only one spade trick. Of course you will lose an over-trick when East holds the Q-J alone, but leading up to the 10 is reasonable insurance to guarantee your contract. And the game is rubber bridge, for decent stakes.

So declarer played a low spade. West won the doubleton jack of spades and played back a heart. Primo Levi took the setting trick by ruffing with the nine of spades. Bravo! To us bridge players, the performance equaled that of Caruso at La Scala.

Prize-winning defense

Each year the International Bridge Press Association confers awards for plays deemed to be the best of the year in their particular category. At times the awards can be disputed, but I think everyone would agree that Italian expert Primo Levi deserved the award for best defensive play. (He was East.)

In College World Series...

Longhorns knock off Miami

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) - The big name pitchers in the College World Series West Division contests failed to come through.

Long Beach State All-American Kyle Abbott was knocked out Monday in his team's loss 8-5 to Louisiana State and Texas rocked Miami freshman standout Alex Fernandez 12-2.

Long Beach State's loss sent the seventh-seeded 49ers home with a 50-15 record and two CWS losses. LSU, seeded sixth and 54-16, moved to a 7:10 p.m. CDT

McDonald first choice in draft

NEW YORK (AP) - Ben McDonald is now another of Baltimore's good young arms.

"He's very impressive, a very impressive young pitcher," Orioles general manager Roland Hemond said Tuesday after Baltimore made McDonald, of Louisiana State, the top pick in the nation. "It's a case of a young man showing the arm, the makeup, the ability to be an outstanding pitcher."

McDonald is 14-3 this season with 194 strikeouts in 148 1-3 innings and a 2.91 earned run average.

Three players were selected on the first round from Fresno State. Outfielder Steve Hosey went to San Francisco on the 14th pick, shortstop Eddie Zosky was taken by Toronto on the 19th and outfielder Tom Goodwin was selected by Los Angeles on the 22nd.

The Dodgers also picked 15th and took Kiki Jones, a right-hander from Hillsborough High in Tampa, Fla.

Atlanta used the second pick to take Tyler Houston, a left-handed hitting catcher from Valley High in Las Vegas.

Seattle then chose Roger Salkeld, a right-hander from Saugus (Calif.) High.

Outfielder Jeff Jackson of Siemeon High in Chicago went to Philadelphia on the fourth pick. He hit .504 in 35 games this year with 16 homers, 72 RBIs and 52 stolen bases. Texas then took Texas Tech outfielder Donald Harris, who batted .322 with 10 homers and 44 RBIs.

St. Louis went next and drafted outfielder Paul Coleman of Frankston (Texas) High. He hit .517 in 24 games with eight homers, 34 RBIs and 25 steals.

game tonight against Miami, the No. 3 seed and 49-17.

Tonight's winner will advance to face second-seeded Texas, 53-17, in a 7:10 p.m. contest Thursday. A Texas win would put the Longhorns in Saturday's noon championship, but a loss would force a second game between those same two teams Friday night.

On Monday, Abbott opened the evening with 2 1-3 innings of off-target pitching for Long Beach State. The left-hander, 15-3, had been the No. 9 pick - by the California Angels - in the major league amateur player draft earlier in the day. He walked five, gave up three hits and surrendered seven runs before going to the bench.

LSU used a walk and a catcher interference call to set up a two-run single by Scott Schneidewind in the second. Then the Tigers scored six in the third on a walk, a single by Craig Cala, an RBI single by Mike Bianco, another walk to load the bases and a walk to Matt Gruver to force one run in.

LSU starter Curtis Leskanic, 15-2, went 7 2-3 innings. It was a school record for most wins in a season.

In the nightcap, Texas pounded out 12 hits, including a pair of homers and an RBI single by Craig Newkirk to hand Fernandez his second loss in 17 decisions. The Longhorns also beat Fernandez 6-5 in February.

"We got thrashed," Miami Coach Ron Fraser said. "We had no intensity. We were a dead ballclub. Maybe we were expecting Alex to do everything for us. Two home runs and it got out of line."

Texas added RBI doubles by Jeff Schultz and Steve Bethea after Newkirk's first homer, in the second.

Newkirk's eighth homer of the year, which made him the 12th player in the 43-year history of the CWS to have two in one game, came with two out and nobody on in the sixth.

The Longhorns scored six runs in the eighth on bases-loaded singles by Newkirk, David Lowery and an RBI walk for Schultz. Bethea fled out to the left-field fence to score another and Lance Jones singled two more runs home.

Lowery singled in his second run in the ninth and Schultz grounded out to get his third RBI before the Texans were finished.

Brian Dare, who came on in relief of Texas starter Scott Bryant, said the Longhorns heard Miami's Henry Hernandez say Texas couldn't beat the Hurricanes.

"I think he learned a lesson," said Dare, 5-4.

"He's a freshman and he probably learned something," said Texas starter Scott Bryant, who didn't give up a hit in 4 1-3 innings but went to the bench after issuing his second walk in the fifth. "Don't ever say that to a ball club before the game even starts. You never know what's going to happen."

Chang shocks Lendl; Agenor nips Bruguera

PARIS (AP) - Michael Chang writhed with leg cramps but battled his way through. Ronald Agenor was wracked by stomach contractions but tried not to think about them.

Mind over matter prevailed Monday as both players rallied from two-set deficits to set up a quarterfinal meeting at the French Open tennis championships.

Chang's performance in beating Ivan Lendl, the world's top-ranked player, was described by the American's coach as memorable.

"I've been in tennis some years and this is the most incredible match I ever saw," said Jose Figueras, the former Spanish Davis Cup player. "Mike showed he has the stuff of a champion. It was memorable."

Chang's 4-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3 Center Court victory was the highlight of a remarkable day's tennis as the second week of the clay-court Grand Slam event began.

Over on Court No. 1, the unseeded Agenor of Haiti beat Sergi Bruguera of Spain 2-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2 to reach the quarterfinals of a Grand Slam tournament for the first time in his six years as a pro.

Then there was Soviet Andrei Chesnokov, facing defeat against an American power machine called Jim Courier. But Chesnokov staged another comeback to eliminate the blond right-hander 2-6, 3-6, 7-6, 6-2, 7-5.

Witt finds control for Texas

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) - It's good news for Texas Rangers pitcher Bobby Witt and bad news for the American League batters he's going to face.

Witt said Monday night that he may have found the answer to his recent control problems as he pitched the Rangers to a 4-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Witt suffered through a 1-5 May with a hefty 7.34 ERA.

"It was a mechanical thing," said Witt, after he went seven innings plus to up his overall record to 5-5. "I found that I was over-throwing when I got behind batters."

"I've slowed down my delivery," added Witt, who walked just one and struck out five during his Monday night stint. "I'm happy with that (one walk)."

Witt was also the beneficiary of a couple of badly played fly balls to the White Sox outfield, each of which wound up as run-scoring triples.

The Rangers appeared to figure out Chicago's rookie left-hander Greg Hibbard, 0-1, in the fourth, as Rafael Palmeiro led off the frame with a double down the right-field line. He scored to tie the game one out later when Sox right fielder, Ivan Calderon, lost track of Julio Franco's fly ball and allowed it to fall behind him for a run-scoring triple.

Franco, who upped his American League leading RBI total to 48 with the three-base hit, came home to give the Rangers a 2-1 lead when designated hitter Mike Stanley singled to right field.

Another double-triple combination added to the Ranger lead in the sixth, as Scott Fletcher had a two-base hit down the left field line and scored when Ruben Sierra hit a line drive off of Dave Gallagher's glove in deep center.

VA medical officer cleared

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal auditors have concluded that the Veterans Administration's chief medical officer did not try to improperly dictate the outcome of a study of death rates in VA hospitals, an official said. The study by the General Accounting Office does, however, say that expressions of concern by Dr. John Gronvall over the impact of such a study on the VA image "led some people to believe" he was giving such instructions, said Don Smith, a spokesman for the Department of Veterans Affairs, successor to the VA. Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., chairman of the Senate Veterans Committee, asked for the GAO investigation after The Washington Post reported last October that Gronvall had ordered a change in methodology to lower the percentage of VA hospitals showing abnormal death rates. The newspaper reported results of the study in today's editions. Smith said he had seen a copy of the GAO report. Gronvall was travelling and could not be reached, but judging by his letter to GAO contained in the report commenting on the findings, "I think he feels somewhat vindicated," said Smith.

Tax battles next as Senate debates new spending bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fights loom over a tax law and a new surtax on the elderly as the Senate resumes debate on a $3.3 billion spending bill that is rapidly becoming as multi-faceted as the government itself. The Senate planned its third day of work on the legislation today, more than two months after President Bush first asked Congress to provide extra money for this year for several federal agencies. Since then, the measure has grown not only in size but in breadth, attracting an assortment of amendments ranging from U.S. policy in Panama to work on an Ohio lake. Sen. Bob Kasten, R-Wis., wanted to try to add a provision to the bill repealing a section of the 1986 tax revision law that has elicited howls of protest from the business community. Kasten's amendment revokes a requirement that businesses satisfy a complex test to prove that their health insurance plans are not more generous to upper echelon employees than they are to low-paid workers. Companies have complained that the provision, which took effect this year, has created mounds of paperwork. Small businesses in particular have been unhappy. Kasten called the problem "the No. 1 domestic issue in America today" in a written statement last week, and his amendment was co-sponsored by at least 13 other GOP senators. Bush considering chartered aircraft to evacuate Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Faced with a worsening crisis in China, the Bush administration today was considering using chartered aircraft to evacuate Americans from Beijing and other areas of the country, an administration official said.

The official, who declined to be identified, said State Department officials were reviewing steps to protect the safety of U.S. citizens in China. The official said Americans did not appear to be in any immediate danger.

In addition to using chartered aircraft, the administration also was contemplating asking airlines to use larger planes on regular commercial flights, the official said.

There are an estimated 2,000 Americans in Beijing and another 4,000 Americans throughout the country.

The Chinese capital was threatened with civil war as armies loyal to rival political factions were reported battling for control of the city.

President Bush said Monday the world "must stand with" the Chinese demonstrator who, in a singular act of defiance captured by television, placed himself in front of a column of tanks rolling through Beijing.

"I think that image is going to be with us for a long time," Bush said. "And all I can say to him, wherever he might be, and to the people around the world, is: we are, and we must, stand with him."

Crafting a course influenced by his firsthand experience in China, Bush suspended more than $600 million in U.S. arms sales to China but stopped short of advocating economic sanctions.

"I reserve the right to take a whole new look at things if the violence escalates," Bush said, but for now he is sticking with the arms move and suspending visits between U.S. and Chinese military leaders.

Bush made the announcement — applauded by congressional leaders — at a news conference, but later discussed the China situation again emotionally during a speech before the Business Roundtable.

The president was turning his attention today to another Asian power, Pakistan, as he holds a full-dress welcoming ceremony at the White House for its new prime minister, Benazir Bhutto. He was also hosting a state dinner for her tonight.

Departing from a text that dealt with education, Bush told the business leaders he was haunted by the sight — played frequently through the day on television — of a demonstrator who stood alone in front of tanks advancing through Beijing.

"I was so moved by the bravery of that individual ... What is it that gives a young man strength, gives him the courage, to stand up in front of a column of tanks right there in front of the world?"

Speaker nominee offered by party leadership posts made vacant by the ethics turmoil.

Republicans were powerless to stop Foley's election, since Democrats command a 259-175 majority. But they voted this morning to nominate Minority Leader Bob Michel of Illinois as their candidate for speaker in a symbolic act.

Michel, who by tradition was to introduce Foley to the House, told fellow Republicans today that their party has been mistreated under Democratic control, and just getting rid of Wright won't correct things by itself.

"The House has been corrupted by the absolute power of one-party domination and it isn't going to be cured by a personality transplant," he said, accepting his party's nomination.

The Republican National Committee already was attacking Foley as a political enemy more liberal than his reputation indicated.

Wright, D-Texas, was driven from the leadership by ethics charges that he tried to skirt House rules on outside income. He steadfastly maintained his innocence, but said in a dramatic speech to his colleagues last week that he would step down to prevent the controversy from paralyzing the House.

Republican strategists are trying to label all Democrats as corrupt from an uninterrupted third of a century ruling the House.

Bush told the business leaders they should continue to seek trade with China, claiming he preferred military sanctions against China rather than economic ones.

Earlier, he told reporters, "I don't want to hurt the Chinese people." He rejected out of hand the idea of recalling the U.S. ambassador.

"That would be 180 degrees wrong," said Bush, who was himself the U.S. envoy in China in 1974-75.

Leaders of Congress who visited the White House for a foreign policy review with the president, including a firsthand report on his triumphs at last week's NATO summit in Brussels, emerged with strong praise for the course Bush has set.

"I think he's done the right thing," said House Majority Leader Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., after the bipartisan session.

Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said, "We agreed right around the table that it would be incorrect to take any precipitous actions, that the president was handling it just right and accordingly."

The White House hastily invised four pro-democracy Chinese graduate students and activists from local universities to meet with Bush.

The president looked on approvingly as Jia Hao, 38, a Ph.D. candidate in political science at George Washington University, applauded Bush's actions, saying they "will be a great support spiritually and physically to the people who are fighting for the freedom and democracy."

White House officials said that over $600 million in continuing military sales to China would be affected — including a $502 million program to help the Chinese upgrade electronic and navigational equipment on their F-8 fighter jets.

Dear Abby

Mother Is Feeling Tense About Drinking to Relax

By Abigail Van Buren

© Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I'm a stay-at-home mother of two children, ages 3 and 5. (Before becoming a mom, I was an executive secretary.)

Shortly after my first child was born, after putting him to bed at night, I'd have a glass or two of wine to relax.

Five hectic years and another child later, I am now up to four — sometimes five — glasses of wine each night to relax, seven nights a week. (I do not, however, drink during the day.)

Can this amount of alcohol damage my liver? Am I an alcoholic because I use alcohol to relax? I need to know.

"MOM" IN COCOA, FLA.

DEAR MOM: If you "suspect" that you have an alcohol problem, you have one. Some facts:

There are, to date, more than 2 million female alcoholics in the U.S.A., and their numbers are increasing at a faster rate than male alcoholics. Alcoholism usually starts later in life for women, but progresses much more quickly. Women are more likely than men to drink alone, hide their drinking, and feel guilty and ashamed about it. Women suffer more alcohol-related depression, and are more likely to develop other kinds of chemical dependencies — prescription drugs, for example.

According to the National Council on Alcoholism, nine out of 10 wives stay with alcoholic husbands, but only one husband in 10 will stay with an alcoholic wife.

Are you an alcoholic? Take this test:

1. Have you ever been absent or tardy from work because of drinking?
2. Do you drink to overcome shyness or to build your self-esteem?
3. Have you suffered financial difficulties because of your drinking?
4. Do you encourage others to drink because you don't want to drink alone?
5. Has your job performance suffered because of your drinking?

6. Do you drink in the morning to get you going?

7. Do you drink alone?

8. Do you drink to forget your troubles?

9. Has your drinking caused a faulty memory?

10. Do you try to find "reasons" (or excuses) to have a drink?

If you have answered "yes" to three or more of these questions, you are either an alcoholic or are on your way to becoming one. So, now what do you do?

For openers, look up Alcoholics Anonymous in the telephone directory. (It's listed under "A.") Then attend a meeting at one of the chapters near you. There are no dues, and you need not identify yourself unless you want to.

If you need treatment, your local mental health professionals can help you choose among available community resources for expert, professional treatment. Or, write to: The National Council on Alcoholism, 12 W. 21st St., New York, N.Y. 10010. Please enclose a SASE for a reply, as this is a non-profit organization. Good luck and God bless you.

DEAR ABBY: Would you please publish your address so readers can write to you? Some of the newspapers that run your column never run your address.

DEAR NEEDS: Address your letter to Dear Abby, P.O. Box 69440, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply, please enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. All letters are confidential.

U. S. trade with China pondered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both Congress and the White House are expressing outrage at the violence in China, but U.S.-China farm trade appears to be continuing as usual.

"I don't believe in using food as a weapon," Sen. Patrick Leahy, D-Vt., chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said Monday. "With all that the Chinese people are suffering, we should not deprive them of food as well."

"However, the Chinese government must not use our food as a weapon against its own people. I know the world community would object to any attempt of the Chinese government to restrict the flow of food to its people."

The Agriculture Department announced Monday that China has bought another 1.8 metric tons of soft red winter wheat from U.S. farmers, according to exporters. That makes 2.65 million metric tons of the commodity bought for delivery in the marketing year that began June 1.

A metric ton is equal to about 2,205 pounds and 36.7 bushels of wheat or 39.4 bushels of corn.

Most of the Chinese purchases were in the last two weeks, according to the Agriculture Department.

During the marketing year that ended May 31, exporters sold 8.3 million metric tons of U.S. grain to China.

China also buys poultry to breed, livestock semen, hogs and seed to plant for animal feed, according to the Agriculture Department's foreign agricultural service.

By far, the largest commodity is grain, said a spokeswoman in the department. China gets other products from Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Europe, she said.

Since former President Carter's grain embargo against the Soviet Union for the December 1979 invasion of Afghanistan, the federal government has opposed using agricultural products as foreign policy weapons against countries.

Remaining Texas thrifts gather to discuss legislation

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Restoring the ailing Texas savings and loan industry's health dominated the opening of a convention attended by thrift executives, who urged legislation to help solve the problems.

M. Danny Wall, chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, and George Barclay, president and chief supervisory officer of the FHLBB of Dallas, are to appear today at the 1989 Texas Savings and Loan League convention. The league, which represents nearly all of the state's remaining 200 thrifts, gathers as Washington lawmakers debate President Bush's thrift rescue plan.

DR. GOTT

PETER GOTT, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Does the daily use of iodine in our drinking water present a health hazard? Are there any advantages to the use of iodine? We have recently moved to an area where all water must be treated with iodine to remove bacteria. We assumed it was safe until we put several minnows into a pail of iodine-treated water. In just a few minutes, they all were dead.

DEAR READER: Municipal water supplies are chlorinated to kill harmful bacteria, sometimes fluoride is also added to retard tooth decay. I have not heard of the practice of adding iodine to public water supplies.

Although small amounts of iodine in drinking water would not be harmful, I do not believe that adding the substance would be healthful or necessary. If there was iodine in the bucket of water, the unfortunate minnows may have been unusually sensitive to it, even though the water was safe for human consumption. Extended use of high-dose iodine can cause thyroid problems in humans.

Municipal water supplies are carefully regulated for purity. I suggest that you ask your town administrators if iodine is added to the drinking water — and, if so, why. Let me know what they say.

DEAR DR. GOTT: In 1986 I had a nervous breakdown and was diagnosed as manic-depressive. I was placed on Haldol and lithium. Do you believe a 34-year-old who stumbled once in life should be required to stay on a drug forever? My doctor will not allow me to go off the lithium, even though he hasn't seen me since April 1987.

DEAR READER: Judging from your description, I'd say that you suffered a major episode of bipolar mood disorder (manic-depression) in 1986, for which you received appropriate therapy. Lithium is particularly useful in preventing the cyclic agitation and hyperactivity of this condition. I cannot comment on whether you should continue treatment; this decision is best left to a psychiatrist who is familiar with your condition and needs.

However, I do think that you should be monitored more closely. You haven't been examined in more than two years. This is not good medical practice. For one thing, lithium can build up in your body and cause a toxic reaction, characterized by tremor, poor concentration, weakness, drowsiness and difficulty walking. Therefore, patients taking lithium should have periodic blood-lithium levels obtained. Check with your psychiatrist about closer medical supervision and inquire whether the dose of the drug could be reduced or, over a period of time, tapered. To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Mental and Emotional Illness." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Visitors flock to ailing tree

AUSTIN (AP) — Concerned visitors have been stopping to check on the ailing Treaty Oak, a 600-year-old landmark tree that authorities say may have been intentionally poisoned.

The tree has sustained a severe chemical burn and is losing its leaves. Forestry experts are not sure the tree will survive.

Kevin Kelp, a dentist who said he drives on the street by the tree daily, said he began noticing people gathering near it last Friday, following the first news reports about the possible pesticide poisoning.

"I've always been interested in these kinds of things," he said, pointing to the oak's outstretched, slightly downturned branches.

The Treaty Oak, with a branch spread of over 100 feet, was a landmark and popular spot for picnics before the city engulfed it in the 1880s, according to the authoritative Handbook of Texas, published by the state historical association.

The tree takes its name from a story that Stephen F. Austin signed a treaty with the Indians under its branches, but the Handbook says there is "little foundation for this belief."

In 1927, the tree was admitted to the American Forestry Association's Hall of Fame.

"I just hope this thing lives. It's a major part of history," Kelp said, adding that many people are probably visiting the tree for the first time.
