Central Elementary Principal L.D. (Sonny) Monroe has turned in his resignation effective Friday to accept the position of superintendent for Southland ISD.

Monroe has been the principal at Central the past three years after coming to Snyder from Ira, where he was principal for nine years.

"I've really loved it at Central," he noted Friday morning. "The staff is excellent and the parents and kids have all been very cooperative and interested."

He noted he enjoyed also his service with Ira ISD and that Southland is almost exactly the size of that district.

It is a Class A school with an enrollment between 160-180 students. The community is located on U.S. Hwy. 84 some 17 miles southeast of Lubbock.

Monroe's wife, Patti, will also teach sixth grade math at Central.

Albany administrator chosen as new high school principal

Rueben Dean Gillespie, a 20-year veteran of teaching and school administration, was hired Thursday as the new principal at Snyder High School.

"We are very pleased to have him as a part of our staff," said Dalton Moseley, Snyder ISD superintendent and a member of the five-person search committee which recommended Gillespie. "The most important thing is he likes a well-balanced program. He's very active in all aspects of the school."

Board members approved a two-year contract with an annual salary of $48,000. The contract will be for a 226-day year.

Gillespie, 49, has been employed for the past three years at Albany ISD, where he was principal at the high school and junior high. He began his career in 1969 with the Sangre de Cristo School District in Mosca, Colo., as a sixth grade teacher and head teacher of the elementary school.

From 1973-83, he was employed with the Pecos-Barstow-Toyah ISD in Pecos. For the first seven years he was a part-time principal and sixth grade teacher at Barstow Elementary School. He was principal of the elementary school from 1980-81, then became principal at Crockett Junior High School until 1983.

From Pecos, Gillespie spent three years as principal and athletic director at Hamilton High School in Hamilton before accepting a position with the Albany ISD.

Gillespie is a 1969 graduate of Adams State College where he majored in elementary education with minors in speech-theatre, biology and industrial arts. He received his masters in speech education from the University of Colorado. See SHS, page 11

Ask Us

Q. — Will the prisoners at the Price Daniel Unit be counted toward Snyder's 1990 census?

A. — Officials with the Census Bureau say the inmate number will be reflected in the county's population by '90.

In Brief

Leland update

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — Rescue workers today found no trace of U.S. Rep. Mickey Leland's plane in areas where two distress signals were detected, and they resumed looking along its intended flight path, the U.S. Embassy said.

The Houston Democrat and 15 other people were aboard the twin-engine Twin Otter when it disappeared Monday on a flight from Addis Ababa to the Fugnido refugee camp, 480 miles to the southwest near the Sudanese border.

Leland, chairman of the House Select Committee on Hunger, was one of nine Americans aboard the flight.

James Haley, an embassy spokesman, said rescue workers on foot and in planes scoured rugged highlands north and southeast of Ethiopia's capital where the distress signals were detected by satellites Thursday and early today.

Nose landing

BOSTON (AP) — After a Trump Shuttle jet made an emergency landing without its front gear, owner Donald Trump flew to Boston to thank the pilot and try to turn a near-disaster into a public relations triumph.

"I think the whole crew is made up of heroes," the New York real estate baron said, singling out Capt. Robert Smith as "a great talent."

There were no injuries among the 47 passengers and seven crew members on the Boeing 727, which came screeching into Logan International Airport on its belly Thursday morning and stopped in a shower of sparks.

Prices drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale prices, driven down by declining costs for gasoline and new cars, fell 0.4 percent in July for their biggest decline in three years, the government reported today.

Daniel Unit is due 1st prisoner group effective Saturday

The Price Daniel Unit will receive its first 47 inmates Saturday afternoon and is expected to reach a capacity of 950 within two weeks, Assistant Warden Charles Streetman said Friday.

Streetman said inmates are coming here "from all over the (Texas Department of Corrections) system, nearly," although most will be West Texas natives.

The first 47, all classified as trustys, will arrive on a TDC transfer bus "sometime Saturday evening," and it will be late next week before any more are sent, he said.

As of Friday, all prison staffers were on duty with security and hospital personnel to work three shifts daily.

"We want to get open and in operation," Streetman said. "When all the teachers, vocational teachers, support personnel, hospital and industrial people get started, there'll be nearly 300 here."

"There'll be somebody here 24 hours a day."

TDC paint worker recourse outlined

Although an Abilene painting contractor has been terminated from its work at the Price Daniel Construction site, a majority of the workers are still on the job as employees of the general contractor.

David Ritter, construction management consultant for the project, described the situation between Argee Corp. and G&S Sandblasting and Painting Co. a "contractual matter."

Argee, a Denver firm, is general contractor for the 1,000-bed prison which is nearing completion northwest of Snyder. Last Friday, the Abilene painting contractor was again put on 72-hour notice for lack of performance, Ritter said.

"It's a situation where the sub-contractor is strapped for cash and there is a lack of payment from the general contractor because of a lack of performance by the sub-contractor."

Ritter added, "It's an unfortunate situation. There were always people on the job, but they were not always working."

The contract called for G&S to be paid monthly, but Argee had not paid money bi-weekly in recent months to assist G&S in meeting its payroll.

Under pressure to complete the job, Argee took over the painting project this week and hired a number of G&S former employees. G&S also had the painting contract for the prison construction in Dayton.

The state contracted with Argee to build the prison and Argee then hired its sub-contractors. The weekly payroll pending is estimated at $20,000 and involves about 30 workers.

One recourse is for workers to file claims against Argee's and G&S' payment bond. Legal questions are involved, and persons may need to seek legal advice, Ritter said.

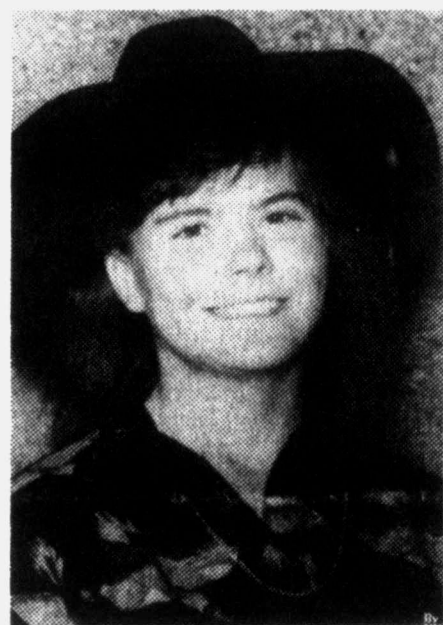

William Sojourner, president of G&S Painting, said earlier this week he will likely file a claim for the funds being withheld by Argee.

Larry Fickle, construction program manager with TDC, said the state's contract is with Argee and the state is obligated by contract only with the general contractor.

Another possibility for affected workers would be to seek relief through federal and state labor relations agencies. The number of the federal office in Dallas is 214 767-2911.

AJRA Queen to be named tonight-TV tomorrow

The AJRA National Finals Rodeo continues Friday night with the naming of a new Miss AJRA.

Miss AJRA nominees include Cheyenne Lambert of Ruidoso, N.M., La Dawn Puckett of Sweetwater, Gretchen Hilton of Olney, Mitzi Mayes of Manor, Kippi Kuykendall of Valley Spring and Lari Dee Guy of Abilene. The current Miss AJRA is Gail cowgirl Ralynn Key.

The rodeo will get underway at 8 p.m. at Scurry County Coliseum. Tickets for adults are $4 and children get in for $2. Box seats are available for $6.

Finals for the annual rodeo are scheduled Saturday evening, and feature the year's top five contestants in each event. The finals will be televised, both on a live and tape-delay basis.

Also scheduled Saturday morning at 10 a.m. is an awards ceremony in the coliseum.

Thursday night's edition of the rodeo started out with a bang for local roper Leddy Lewis. Lewis, competing in the boys 13-15 division of tiedown roping, took top honors with a time of 11.60 seconds.

Big Spring's Dane Driver grabbed second place with a 12.41.

In the boys 16-19 category of the same event, Brad Hutton finished with a speedy 9.65. Hutton is from Stockdale.

Beau Mayo took a 69 in the bareback riding. Mayo, the only cowboy to complete a ride Thursday, hails from Reno.

Casey Callahan of Fredonia and Rusty Wallace from Andrews finished first and second in the boys 12-and-under steer riding. Callahan scored a 63 and Wallace notched a 60 to pace the event.

The bull riding, boys 16-19 division, saw a pair of riders stay on for the eight-second trip. Dax Lackey from Boerne rode a bull named Mayday to a 73. Snyder's own Ted Cooley tallied a 65 for second place.

Monty Cox from Robert Lee was the only junior bull rider to stay aboard last night. He garnered a 77 for his efforts.

Billy Mac Callahan beat Philip Morris for the top spot in steer wrestling. Callahan, from Fredonia, was timed at 6.24 seconds while second place Morris, from Elgin, took a 6.72 second run.

Kaci Bland of Merkel ran the barrel racing course in 14.98 to lead contestants in the girls 12-and-under category. Felisha Smith of Mullin had a 15.19 to finish second. Amanda Bitters of Mineral Wells and Laramie Gorbett of Trent took third and fourth with times of 15.32 and 15.45, respectively.

Kerrville's Bridgett Hamilton and Jennifer Covington of Goldthwaite tangled for the top spot in the girls 13-15 division. Hamilton finished with a 15.13 and Covington ran off a 15.35.

Robyn Jones of Midland was the winner in the girls 16-19 classification. She ran the barrels in a quick 16.57.

New ISD staffers named Thursday

Snyder school board trustees Thursday approved the hiring of five new teachers, including the vocational agriculture instructor at the high school and assistant band directors for the high school and junior high.

The board also accepted the resignation of 10 employees, approved portions of a proposal for a fuel storage system and took care of a number of other items during the three-hour meeting.

The board also recommended and approved a salary increase of $2,000 for Dalton Moseley, Snyder school superintendent.

Coke Hopping, an instructor with Frenship ISD for the past three years, was hired to replace Randy Gillum as vocational-ag teacher. Hopping, 31, is a Texas Tech University graduate with a certification in Ranch Management from Texas Christian.

Hired as assistant band director at the high school was Kay Kennedy, a North Texas State graduate with 17 years experience. See STAFFERS, page 11

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Nobody likes a crooked lawyer until he needs one."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors: Stephen Henry, in the News-Press in Levelland, says there are lots of good reasons for living in a small town. He says in some urban areas, the pizza wagon gets to your house quicker than a police car or ambulance.

While visiting his son at Texas Tech, Vernon's Larry Crabtree saw the following sign on the dorm bulletin board: "Will trade my vast knowledge of math for tuotering in another subject." Larry suggested the student might want a little help in spelling. Crabtree saw another sign at a hotdog stand while on vacation. It read: "We relish our buns."

Walter Buckel, in the Lamesa Press-Reporter, told about the Sunday school teacher who was reviewing the lesson with her class. She asked, "Who led the children of Israel out of Egypt?"

There was no answer. She pointed to a youngster in the back of the room and asked him. "It sure wasn't me," he said defensively. "We just moved here last week from Arkansas."

At a recent political meet in Dawson County, Buckel overheard a long-time supporter congratulate his elected representative following a long-winded speech to a civic club.

Said the loyal supporter, "It was a great speech. I particularly liked the straight-forward manner in which you dodged every question."

Helms praised, criticized for amendment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jesse Helms' effort to prevent federal funding of sexually explicit artwork is being compared to prohibitions against using tax dollars for racial or anti-Semitic activities.

Lawyer Bruce Fein found himself defending Helms and at odds with a panel of art experts Thursday night at the Smithsonian Institution's Hirshhorn Museum when he questioned the propriety of using public funds for controversial art.

He asked panel members how they would feel if the National Endowment for the Arts gave $100,000 to David Duke, the Louisiana lawmaker with ties to the Ku Klux Klan, and "he decided to make nice crosses" inscribed with the word "nigger."

Helms, who was not at the forum, was outraged by two NEA grants given to controversial artists whose work involves homosexual and anti-religious themes.

The North Carolina Republican is calling for a sweeping ban of federal funding of material that is "obscene or indecent" or "denigrates, debases, or reviles" beliefs or people on the basis of religion, race, creed, sex, handicap, age or national origin.

Casteras criticized Helms on Thursday for wanting "sanitized art" while "sweeping certain themes under the carpet."

Fein argued that some may question the proper use of federal funds to a neo-Nazi group that plans artwork splattered with anti-Semitic symbols and slogans.

The Helms amendment "isn't an effort to censor, but to control the type of symbols people wish to give," Fein said, adding that the government must have input about how its money is used.

The artists on the panel — Casteras, former NEA member Richard Andrews, New York artist Leon Golub and photographer David LaChapelle — insisted the government has no right to decide what is erotic or immoral in the art world.

Golub said homosexuals are American citizens and taxpayers who have a right to have themselves expressed through art.

Mapplethorpe's photos have many lesbian and homosexual images, while Serrano has a photograph that shows a crucifix submerged in urine.

'Miracles' reported... 'Cajun Saint' church draws thousands

RICHARD, La. (AP) — Charlene Richard died 30 years ago today at the age of 12 from leukemia. Since her death, many believe she has helped perform miracles, and thousands now would like to have her canonized.

Worshippers were expected to begin arriving at her grave around noon today for a Mass tonight at St. Edward Church, about 155 miles northwest of New Orleans.

The Rev. Joseph Brennan said 4,000 were expected to attend the Mass, representing a growing sentiment among southern Louisiana Roman Catholics to have the Cajun girl made a saint.

Paul Olivier will be one of them. "We had a child who was a year old and diagnosed as having cancer of the larynx. The doctors said it was very rare, but it was a killer. They put her life span at three, four, five months at the most," said Olivier, a retired state policeman. "Then someone told us about Charlene and we went to her grave and asked her to help us."

That was in 1970. Today Angela Olivier is a 19-year-old junior at the University of Southeastern Louisiana.

"I would say that is a sign of a miracle," Olivier said. "A prayer was answered."

There is a box beside Charlene's grave where those hoping for miracles can put their petitions. A light burns at night for those who make the pilgrimage around the clock.

Despite the growing adulation she has received since her death,

Charlene was not a remarkable child, said her mother, Mary Alice.

"She was full of life. She liked sports and was always busy with something. She went to church and said her rosary, but she was just a normal little girl," she said.

Brennan said it was Charlene's death that made her a saint. He was chaplain at the Lafayette hospital where she died in 1959.

"Charlene taught the world not how to live, but how to die. Thirty years ago they didn't have the pain medicine they have now and she died in excruciating pain, but in perfect grace. She became great at that time," he said.

The "miracles" began soon after Charlene's death, according to the Rev. Floyd Calais.

Calais, 62, then was the chaplain at a state hospital in Lafayette, in the heart of Louisiana's Cajun country, when he prayed to Charlene, asking her to inspire the bishop to assign him to a parish. He was soon appointed pastor of the church where the girl was buried, about 155 miles northwest of New Orleans.

"When I found out which church I had, the hair on the back of my neck stood on end," he said.

Lucy and Rogers Courville often visit Charlene's grave to thank her for saving the life of their daughter, Laurie, now 15, who was diagnosed as having cancer at age 5. Numerous others have told of cancer cures over the years.

The United States has produced only three saints and canonization is a lengthy process that can take centuries.

Artist Pablo Picasso died at his home near Mousins, France, in 1973. He was 91.

Open house set on Saturday for new church here

The new Jehovah Witness Church in Snyder will have an open house from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. this Saturday. This event is planned in honor of the church addition which was built in three days through the efforts of some 300-500 volunteers from Snyder and elsewhere.

Talks and sharing of experiences during the construction of the church as well as the growth and history of the church in Snyder will follow.

D. F. Shropshire of Lubbock will present the dedication address.

All are invited. The church is located at 607 North College Ave.

Belgium native becomes manager of Nutri-System

Josephine Huyghebaert, the new manager of the local Nutri-System branch office, arrived in Snyder last month.

She came to Snyder from Dallas where she also was employed by Nutri-System.

Huyghebaert has been associated with Nutri-System for about six months. She said that she was attracted to the program because of the "health diets" the company advocates.

Nutri-System combines classes with its own line of foods in order to help clients reach and maintain their goal weight she explained.

Nutri-System is located in Varsity Square and is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Mondays and Tuesdays only. Other employees include Winona Blair, nutritional specialist, and Laura Blair, behavioral breakthrough counselor.

In addition, Huyghebaert is a commercial artist and fashion designer.

She is a native of Belgium and first lived in the U. S. in the 1970s, returning in 1984.

Contras' controversy refueled

WASHINGTON (AP) — To most people, former President Reagan went a bit far a few years ago when he called the Nicaraguan Contras the "moral equivalent of the founding fathers."

If the Contras don't rank with the likes of Thomas Jefferson in the eyes of the majority, they have been one of those causes that has kept conservative brows in a fevered state for years.

And when Central American presidents set a Dec. 5 deadline Monday for the demobilization of the Contras, conservative wrath was once again energized.

On no issue since the Vietnam war have conservatives and liberals squared off as they have over the Contras. Democrats saw Reagan as contributing to massive death and destruction in a country that could never pose a security threat to the United States.

Conservatives saw Democratic resistance to the Contras as guaranteeing the survival of a Marxist-Leninist regime intent on spreading the gospel according to Fidel Castro right up to the Rio Grande.

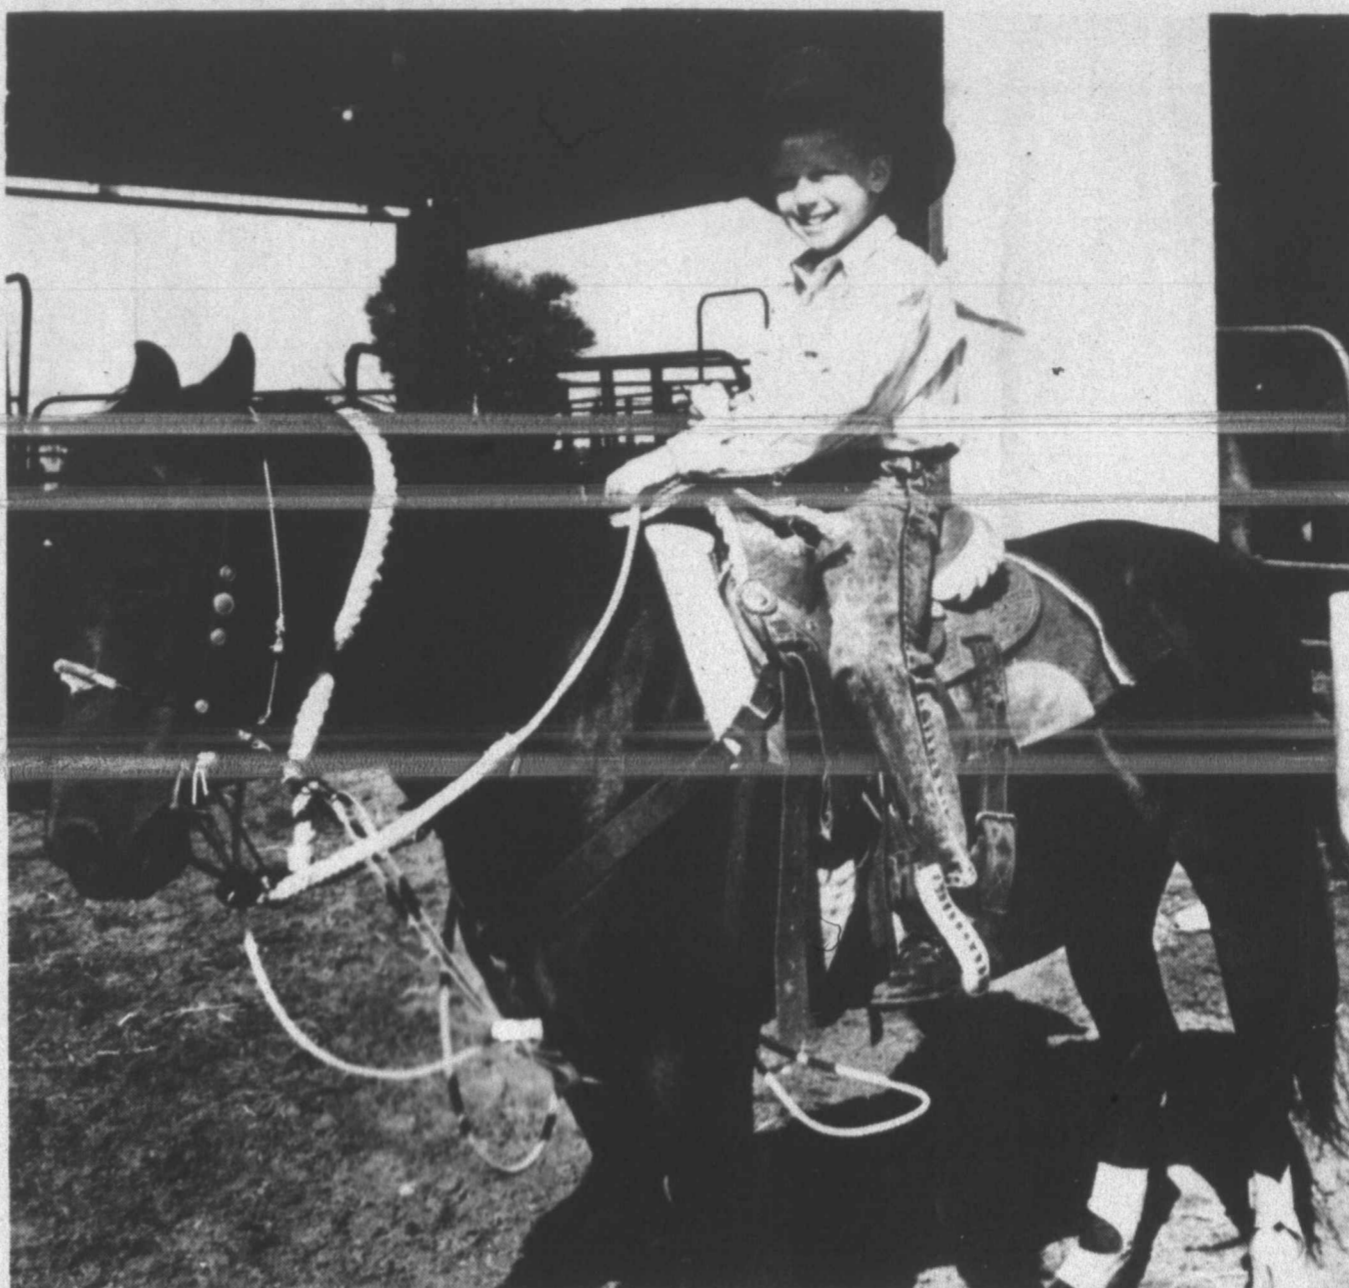

Rep. Henry Hyde, R-Ill., long a stalwart Contra backer, called the proposed dismantling of the Contras a "disaster." He said that outcome might have been averted if Congress had shown more willingness to stand by the Contras rather than strip them of military aid, as it did last year.

Hyde and like-minded conservatives, such as former Assistant Secretary of State Elliot Abrams, could never understand the congressional hostility toward the Contras.

Hyde said Congress has a penchant for funding rebel groups in such remote countries as Afghanistan, Cambodia and Angola but an inexplicable aversion to helping out an insurgency in nearby Nicaragua.

If Nicaragua were 12 time zones away, Hyde said, the Contras would be riding around in "Rolls Royce jeeps, shooting silver bullets and sipping Coors beer between battles," all compliments of the U.S. Congress.

Now in private business, Abrams was in a grim mood after the Central America summit.

Education coalition formed

AUSTIN (AP) — A coalition envisioned as a voice for Texans to share their best ideas for improving public schools has been proposed by the Texas Chamber of Commerce task force on education.

The coalition of business leaders, educators and parents was proposed in a speech Thursday by Paul Roth, president of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., which is Texas' second-largest private employer, according to Roth.

"The critical condition of public education has sounded an alarm unlike any ever heard before," said Roth, task force chairman.

Other speakers, including Gary Wood, president of the privately financed Texas Research League, also told an audience of about 200 that public education is in trouble.

The audience included legislators and representatives of the governor's office, Texas Employment Commission, college coordinating board and Texas Education Agency, as well as local chambers of commerce.

Wood said among 149 memberships of the United Nations, the United States ranks No. 48. "We're the richest, most successful, most prosperous — the land of opportunity and we're 48th in literacy rate," Wood said.

Too quick on the trigger

By James Jacoby

My expert friend George Pisk, retired English professor and currently a professional bridge player and teacher, cites today's deal as an example of partners on different wave lengths. East was a player who always believed in trusting his partner's penalty doubles, even when his hand was more suited to offense than to defense. West was a "hair-trigger" doubler, determined to pounce on an overbidding opponent at the first opportunity.

So George became declarer at two spades doubled. He won the first trick with dummy's ace of hearts and played king of diamonds. West took the ace and played a club. Declarer won dummy's club ace, played a diamond back to his queen, ruffed a diamond and cashed dummy's other high club. He got off lead with a club to West, who led the fourth club. South ruffed and played a spade toward dummy's queen. West played low. (It would not help him to go in with the king.) The queen won in dummy, and George played a heart. East tried to win with the jack, but West had to ruff. West played the spade king, which was allowed to win, and declarer won the last two tricks with the A-10 of trumps. With the vulnerable over-trick, that came to 870 points.

It's seldom wise to double skillful opponents at low-level contracts, since your trump length can often be used against you in the endgame. But East would have been better advised to remove the double to three diamonds, hoping to strike a fit in his second suit, since his hand was notably lacking in defensive tricks.

Ex-policeman fights depotism laws

PASADENA, Texas (AP) — A former police officer in this Houston suburb is appealing her dismissal for violating a department nepotism rule, contending the department's selective enforcement allows officers to live together but not to marry.

"It's discriminatory," said Kerry Burch Fry, who had a child before marrying a fellow officer. "There have been several relationships among officers, and the administration has taken no action," Mrs. Fry said outside a Wednesday hearing. "They're condoning officers living together, and it's a shame because I'm losing money."

The 27-year-old officer was ousted from her $32,000-a-year patrol job in the force's juvenile division on June 13, six days after marrying her longtime fiance, Lt. Jack Fry, 35.

Under the department's 1974 "no-spouses" rule, if two officers marry, the spouse with the least seniority automatically resigns unless the other does so voluntarily.

Mrs. Fry was a six-year veteran while her husband, head of the force's narcotics division, has been on the job twice as long.

She is asking the city's Civil Service Commission to overturn department nepotism laws forbidding married officers and relatives from working together. She also is seeking reinstatement with back pay.

Police Chief Lee Gilbert said he supports the laws because they prevent favoritism, discord and conflicts. He declined to comment on Mrs. Fry's claims that the laws contain loopholes encouraging non-marital relationships.

Foster care may be next for girl

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - State officials say they are considering taking custody of a 6-year-old boy whose 9-year-old sister contracted AIDS as a result of abuse by her parents.

Officials say the girl, who is dying of AIDS, had contracted the deadly virus by being injected with drugs as a form of punishment. Her mother, an intravenous drug user, has died of the disease and her father is dying of the disease.

A prosecutor said Thursday the child may be moved to a foster home because officials are concerned that the brother may be carrying the virus.

"The department (Texas Department of Human Services) is moving to see if the state has grounds to place in foster care the 9-year-old girl's little brother," Assistant District Attorney Richard Garcia said. "Tests have been ordered to see if the 6-year-old also is carrying the AIDS virus, but tests so far indicate he is not."

earlier this week ordered the dying girl placed in foster care following a closed hearing. Officials say the girl, who was also allegedly sexually abused, has less than a year to live.

The judge also ordered the investigation into the well-being of the younger brother and has transferred the case to state District Judge John Specia. The Texas Department of Human Services will report to Specia at a later date on the boy's condition, officials said.

Social workers said the girl has been taken to a foster home with a family who knows the girl and is willing to care for her until her death.

But the 6-year-old boy still is in the care of relatives, and Rickhoff ordered the investigation to see if the younger child is at risk of dying from the same disease.

Officials at the San Antonio Metropolitan Health District say only seven cases of pediatric AIDS have been reported locally. Five of the victims have died.

Tougher rules are sought

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Bill Clements is considering whether to include lobby ethics reform on the agenda of the fall special legislative session, a spokeswoman said.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby said Thursday he wants to require lobbyists to submit more in-depth records, and he has asked the chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee to make recommendations on such legislation.

"The statutes are vague, confusing and contradictory. People, including myself, have a difficult time (interpreting the law)," Hobby said.

Hobby said he has asked Sen. John Montford, a Lubbock Democrat who heads the State Affairs panel, to investigate the matter and report back with recommendations.

"I'd like to see some legislation requiring more specific reporting by lobbyists and what members (of the Legislature) they are entertaining," Hobby said.

Currently, lobbyists are required to register with the Secretary of State and submit monthly reports when the Legislature is in session. They are required to report how much they spend on entertainment and gifts, but not on whom they spend it.

Hobby said he would like Clements to put lobby reform on the agenda of the fall special session.

Secretary of State George Bayoud, whose office handles lobby reports and registration, said Clements wants to keep the focus of the special session on reforming the worker's compensation system. But he added, "There may be a strong possibility that he (Clements) would add it to the call."

Rossanna Salazar, Clements' press secretary, said, "It is under consideration, but no decision has been made."

In the growing controversy over lobbyist-supplied trips and entertainment for Texas lawmakers, Travis County District Attorney Ronald Earle met Wednesday with legislative leaders over possible revisions in state ethics laws.

Attending the meeting were Hobby; Bayoud; Rep. Stan Schlueter, D-Killeen; Mike Millsap, top aide to House Speaker Gib Lewis; and other legislative staff members.

"I think this (lobbying) situation at present is out of hand, and I told them that," Earle told the Austin American-Statesman.

DR. GOTT PETER GOTT, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I suffer from severe pain in my right hip. I'm an 80-year-old male and otherwise in good health. X-rays were negative, and my doctor says it's probably arthritis. I would value your opinion.

DEAR READER: Hip pain has many causes, including arthritis, tendon inflammation, bursitis and nerve compression from a ruptured disc in the back. All these conditions are treatable; most are curable.

I'm not happy with your doctor's tentative diagnosis. Before you can be relieved of your pain, you will need to know the cause of it. X-rays are not sufficient for diagnosis. They often indicate the presence of osteoarthritis, which is characterized by calcium buildup around joints; however, X-rays will not show inflammatory arthritis or most soft-tissue irritations that can produce hip pain. Therefore, I recommend you obtain a second opinion from an orthopedic surgeon, an M.D. specially trained in the diagnosis and treatment of musculoskeletal disorders.

You may be helped by taking an anti-inflammatory prescription drug to reduce pain; special exercises and physical therapy could help you; cortisone injections may benefit you. As a last resort, surgery — to replace a diseased hip or to decompress a pinched nerve — may be necessary. An orthopedic specialist is a good place to start. Ask your doctor to refer you to one. Because osteoarthritis is a common cause of hip pain in older patients, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Understanding Osteoarthritis." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Is continuous blinking of the eyes a sign of illness? My brother-in-law was an alcoholic and did this before he died. My husband is an alcoholic and is now doing it.

DEAR READER: Repeated eye-blinking is ordinarily a nervous habit. It is not associated with any disease, although, obviously, eye inflammation (such as conjunctivitis or irritation caused by a foreign body) can cause frequent blinking and tearing. However, these ailments are usually associated with redness and pain, too.

Most people who blink continuously are experiencing tension. They can be helped by counseling, particularly with regard to stress-control. For a variety of reasons, mostly self-induced, many alcoholics are under stress. Nevertheless, to my knowledge, they don't exhibit tics, mannerisms and eye-blinking to a greater degree than do non-alcoholics. Your husband's alcoholism is potentially a much more serious health problem than his tic.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I've heard of a treatment for clogged arteries called chelation therapy. Can you tell me about this?

DEAR READER: Chelation therapy, ridding the body of certain minerals by using powerful drugs, has no proven value in reducing arterial deposits of atherosclerotic plaque. This technique, which is promoted by unscrupulous medical quacks, is not only useless, it can be hazardous.

Chelation therapy is a medically approved method of treating heavy metal toxicity, such as lead poisoning, when used by doctors who are familiar with it. Chelation for clogged arteries is hogwash. Don't waste your money.

Guy family involved in AJRA

By Jana Harrington Staff Writer

AJRA World Champion Lari Dee Guy wishes there was a word such as "familiness" to describe her favorite part of rodeoing. "You get lots of good friends on the AJRA circuit."

Her actual family is no stranger to the rodeo scene as both her parents attend every rodeo they possibly can with their daughter in the true spirit of AJRA tradition. Her father is also her coach.

This 1989 AJRA president and "Miss AJRA" candidate was ranked first coming into the finals in every category in which she was entered and took the world championship title in team roping Monday morning. Her two roping partners, Kirt Jones and Kory Koontz, took second and third.

Guy has won the world title in optional roping every year since 1980 and has been named all-around world champ five times and reserve at least twice, she said.

Goat tying is another event Guy has mastered to the world championship status. She has held that title once and reserve twice. Guy has also won reserve in team roping once.

In this year's national finals, Guy entered team roping, breakaway, ribbon roping and goat tying. Because of an injury to her left hand requiring 25 stitches, she has had to withdraw from the goat tying competition but will go on to compete in the others.

Guy has been with AJRA since she was 7-years old, but since then has stopped barrel racing and pole bending.

She practices every day when it is cool enough to do so — in the mornings and/or evenings. The world champion said, "It doesn't really matter how long you practice. You've got to practice right or it doesn't do any good."

Her mother, Mary, still runs barrels every once in a while and her father, Larry, ropes calves and steers and coaches Lari Dee. Her older brother, Tommy, also ropes.

Her plans for the future include starting at Vernon Junior College in the fall on rodeo scholarship. She hopes to be involved in sports medicine.

Concert news not definite

DETROIT (AP) — Aretha Franklin's agent says Detroit public school officials jumped the gun when they said the Queen of Soul planned a benefit concert to raise money for music programs.

Franklin wants to help restore music for the schools but hasn't promised the concert, said the Rev. Cecil Franklin, the singer's brother and agent.

Superintendent John Porter said Tuesday that Franklin offered to give the concert to help raise $1.25 million.

Storytime ends

Friday will be the last storytime at the Scurry County Library until further notice. Library personnel are hopeful that it will resume after school starts. Watch for times in the Snyder Daily News.

Nolan Ryan loses no hitter in the ninth against Detroit

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Cool weather and a hot fastball enabled Nolan Ryan again to come close to a sixth career no-hitter, but Dave Bergman's one-out ninth inning single ended, for the time being anyway, the quest to go where no pitcher has gone before.

Ryan, throwing 95 mph fastballs into the ninth inning, struck out 13 batters as Texas beat Detroit 4-1 Thursday night. The strikeouts extended two Major League records Ryan already owns: he has 211 this year, a record 13th 200-plus season, and 4,986 for his career.

"Anytime you come that close you're disappointed, but I realize the last six outs are the toughest," the 42-year-old Ryan said.

It was the fifth time in his 21-year career Ryan lost a no-hitter in the ninth inning. He has 11 career no-hitters, including two this season. On April 23, he also lost a no-hitter with one out in the ninth when Toronto's Nelson Liriano tripled.

"I could say I get used to it," Ryan said. "In that situation, you just hope if they hit the ball good, they hit it at somebody." The victory pushed Ryan's record to 13-7, the most victories since he won 14 with Houston in 1983.

Ryan also tied a Rangers record with his 12th 10-strikeout game in a season. It was the 193rd time in his career he has struck out 10 or more.

Ryan opened the ninth inning with his 13th K, fanning Fred Lynn for the fourth time in the game.

Then Bergman, who had the only other near-hit for the Tigers in the fourth inning, lined an 0-1 pitch to left center, leaving Ryan sitting at five no-hitters — also a record.

Matt Nokes followed with a double, sending manager Bobby Valentine to the mound to bring in reliever Jeff Russell, who finished after allowing Chet Lemon's RBI grounder to gain his 25th save.

"It's always a letdown when your compadre goes after history and comes up a tad bit short," Russell said. "Everybody had their fingers crossed. It's a shame."

Ryan began the game slowly, especially struggling in the third inning when he walked the bases full before striking out Lynn to end the inning. In all, Ryan walked six batters.

"We weren't going to get to him unless he walked us," Tiger manager Sparky Anderson said.

"Early in the game, I didn't have command of my pitches," Ryan said. "The cool weather helped me take it into the ninth. If it was as hot as it was the last time I pitched here, I'd have been gone by the sixth or seventh."

Rain delayed the game's start by 21 minutes, and the rest of the evening remained a cool-for-Texas 78 degrees.

Bergman's hit came on a curve ball.

"I threw a good pitch and he got a good swing on it," Ryan said. "Of all the guys I faced tonight, he had the best at-bats off me."

"I knew he was trying to turn the ball over a lot, so I was staying back, waiting on the ball a little more," said Bergman, a .260 hitter. "He happened to throw a ball where I was swinging."

Said Ryan: "I had a gut feeling he was sitting on a curve."

The Rangers made only one tough play to keep Ryan's no-hit bid alive. Center fielder Cecil Espy made a diving catch on Bergman's liner in the fourth inning.

Ryan got a standing ovation from the crowd of 35,266 as he walked to the mound to start the ninth and again as he walked to the dugout after being lifted. Ryan stepped back out of the dugout to acknowledge the continuing ovation.

Texas got a run in the first on Harold Baines' RBI double off Doyle Alexander, 5-13.

Ruben Sierra's 19th home run in the sixth, Chad Kreuter's second homer in the seventh and Pete Incaviglia's 15th homer in the eighth made it 4-0.

It was Ryan who pitched the last no-hitter against Detroit, on July 15, 1973, when he was with California.

Ryan threw his first four no-hitters in a two-year period with the Angels, starting on May 15, 1973, at Kansas City when he beat the Royals 3-0. After the 6-0 victory over Detroit two months later, he followed with a 4-0 decision over Minnesota on Sept. 28, 1974, and a 1-0 win over Baltimore on June 1, 1975.

His only National League no-hitter came with the Astros on Sept. 26, 1981, 5-0 on national television versus Los Angeles. That gem broke a tie with Sandy Koufax for the most no-hitters.

Many, including his Ranger teammates, believe Ryan will one day get his sixth no-hitter.

"Oh, it will happen," said Valentine. "I believe it as much as I'm breathing."

"It's a matter of time," Russell said. "He has as good stuff now as he did three or four years ago. It just takes a lot of luck."

But said Ryan, "I'm realistic about it. You don't have that many chances. It's not that easy. Things have to go right."

"I realize there's a good chance I'm not going to pitch it," he said. "I just try to throw good pitches."

SPORTS

Walker's time limited for preseason contest

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Dallas Cowboys running back Herschel Walker will play very little — if any — in the Cowboys' first preseason game against San Diego Sunday, coach Jimmy Johnson said Thursday.

Walker, the NFC's leading rusher last season with 1,514 yards, carried only one time in last week's scrimmage against the Chargers. Johnson wants the fourth-year running back to take as few hits as possible during the preseason.

"He'll play very little if at all," Johnson said. "If he does play, it will be no more than one series. There's a chance we may not even play him."

Johnson said Walker's playing time will gradually increase in the second and third games but will drop back in the fourth and final preseason game to allow him to rest before the season opener.

"I want him to be fresh," Johnson said. "We'll pace it to where he stays sharp. But there's no need to have other teams banging on him."

Walker has rarely played in the preseason during his first three years with the Cowboys. In 1986, he signed a contract during training camp and saw little action. The next preseason, he was

Martina, Hana slated for tourney matchup

MANHATTAN BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Martina Navratilova doesn't expect many surprises from her next opponent, Hana Mandlikova, in the quarterfinals. "The last time I lost to her was at the Australian Open a couple of years ago," Navratilova, the top-seed, said Thursday after beating No. 14 Terry Phelps 6-3, 6-1 in the Virginia Slims of Los Angeles tournament.

"We both know pretty much what we're doing out there. I think she's getting better and better all the time. She's getting back to her old form."

Navratilova owns a 29-7 career advantage over seventh-seeded Mandlikova, a Czechoslovakian native who is an Australian citizen. Mandlikova has been bothered recently by several injuries, but defeated Amy Frazier in three sets on Wednesday to reach the round of eight in the $300,000 tournament.

Gabriela Sabatini and Zina Garrison, the second and third seeds, also easily advanced.

Sabatini, who defeated Mary Lou Daniels 6-0, 6-2, today faces Catarina Lindqvist of Sweden, the eighth seed, who eliminated Garrison has seen a lot of her quarterfinal opponent, Nathalie Tauziat lately, having defeated her in the semifinals of last weekend's Great American Tennis Classic in San Diego. Garrison and doubles partner Katrina Adams face Tauziat and Isabelle Demongeot in a double match following the singles.

Garrison said her strategy in her 6-1, 6-2 victory over Britain's Monique Javer Thursday was to keep her opponent running. And she'll use it against Tauziat, who advanced with an upset of sixth-seeded Helen Kelesi of Canada, 6-1, 2-6, 6-2.

"I know that it hurts people when I yank them," Garrison said. "I yank them around the court. I can get the momentum because of my quick speed. I like that kind of game and it's been working for me lately so I'm going to keep doing it."

Garrison took a 5-0 lead in the first set before Javer was able to hold serve. Garrison lost only six points off her serve in the set, five of them in the fifth game which went to deuce three times.

Garrison again took a 5-0 lead in the second set and was serving for the match in the sixth game when Javer broke her. Javer held in the next game, but Garrison then served out the match.

"Well I'd say I backed off a little bit," Garrison said of the sixth game of the second set. "I started to get relaxed and I thought I better stop it. At the beginning I was stepping in and getting the shots I wanted."

"I know I served well at the beginning and not so good to the end but I've been working really hard," Garrison said.

In other matches Thursday, fifth-seeded Mary Joe Fernandez breezed past Getchen Magers, the 15th seed, 6-2, 6-3.

Fernandez faces fourth-seeded Pam Shriver, who gained a spot in the quarterfinals Wednesday by beating Claudia Porwik of West Germany.

The semifinals will be held Saturday and the finals Sunday with the singles champion earning $60,000.

McDowell signs pact with Oilers

SAN MARCOS, Texas (AP) — Houston general manager Mike Holovac called Miami safety Bubba McDowell the key to the Oilers' 1989 college draft.

Oilers' defensive backs coach Nick Saban wanted to see for himself.

"Anytime you draft someone, you aren't sure what you are getting, even though we work them out," Saban said. "It's hard to know what kind of guy he is and what his work ethic will be."

After two weeks of training camp, Saban is ready to agree with Holovac.

"Bubba is a great kid and has great work habits," Saban said. "He's a better athlete than even I thought coming into the draft."

McDowell played cornerback for the Miami Hurricanes last season but the Oilers drafted him in the third round as a projected strong safety.

McDowell, 6-1, 195, is competing for the vacant starting position left by Keith Bostic, claimed by Indianapolis under Plan B free agency.

Veteran Kenny Johnson and second year Oiler Quintin Jones also are seeking the starting job.

McDowell also could help the Oilers on special teams, where he made a school high nine blocked punts at Miami.

That's what caught Oiler scout Glenn Cumbee's attention.

"I think that (blocked punts) tells you everything about the work ethic," Cumbee said. "I think it tells you something about the individual when he's successful as a starter and a (special) teams player."

As a sophomore, McDowell blocked two punts each against Texas Tech and Cincinnati.

"A lot of the starters feel it's beneath their dignity to be in there in special teams situations," Cumbee said. "But he's such a competitor that he takes pride in it. That's something that really stands out."

Holovac's post-draft comment about McDowell hasn't affected his work ethic.

"It made me feel good in a way but I can't go by what someone says, I have to go out and do the best I can," McDowell said. "I'm glad they've got confidence in me, but I've still got to prove to these people I can do the job."

McDowell, 6-1, 195, was a big cornerback for the Hurricanes, but he feels a need to get even bigger to combat NFL tight ends. "It's tough trying to handle those big guys, that's why I've been in the weight room a lot more," McDowell said.

All-Stars lose 21-4 to Pecos

The Snyder Little League All-Stars finished their season with a 21-4 loss at the hands of Pecos Wednesday. The contest was a consolation game played as a part of the state tournament in Waco.

The loss sent the stars home after an earlier loss to Hallettsville.

Snyder garnered seven hits in the game, paced by Chris Mitchell with a single and a solo home run.

Jeremy Wells walked and scored on an error in the first inning to give Snyder a 1-0 lead.

Pecos countered with five runs featuring a two-run home run by Jesus Solis in the bottom of the first. They scored 10 runs in the second, four coming from Timmy Garcia's grand slam.

Snyder scored a pair in the fourth as Shae Sisson, Damian Medrano, Jeremy House, and Greg McAden rapped successive singles. Mitchell hit a homer in the fifth.

Isaac Abila grabbed the win for Pecos and Shae Sisson was the loser for Snyder.

Bush watches Ryans effort

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Texas Rangers majority owner George W. Bush, who prefers the American League pennant race to the Texas gubernatorial race, was ecstatic as he watched Nolan Ryan come to within two outs of being the first pitcher in the history of Major League baseball to throw six no-hitters.

The president's son was seated in his front-row grandstand seat only a few feet from the Rangers dugout Thursday night when Ryan took a no-hitter into the ninth inning only to have it broken up by a single by Dave Bergman of the Detroit Tigers.

Arnie, Tom contending

HAWTHORN WOODS, Ill. (AP) — Who was that out there? Arnold Palmer at Cherry Hills in 1960? Tom Watson at Pebble Beach in 1982?

It was as though Palmer and Watson jumped into time machines on Thursday to summon up their old magic, hoping to win a tournament that would make their careers complete.

Both the 59-year-old Palmer and the 39-year-old Watson need a PGA Championship to join Gene Sarazen, Ben Hogan, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player as the only players in history to win career grand slams.

Watson lost in a playoff to John Mahaffey in the 1978 PGA. Palmer was runnerup in 1964, 1968, and 1970.

Should Watson win the PGA, it would rival Nicklaus winning the 1986 Masters at the age of 46.

It might be bigger than Curtis Strange winning back-to-back U.S. Opens for the first time since Ben Hogan did it in 1950 and 1951.

A Palmer victory in the PGA at age 59 would go down (certainly subject to argument) as the greatest achievement in golf history since Bobby Jones won the British and U.S. Amateur championships in 1930.

Julius Boros was the oldest player to ever win a major, the 1968 PGA at the age of 48, at Pecan Valley in San Antonio.

Sam Snead at 52 was the oldest to win a PGA Tour event, the 1965 Greater Greensboro Open.

What the gallery saw from Watson on Thursday were some imaginative trouble shots.

GOOD RIDE — Breckenridge cowboy Ryan Rickels hangs on to the count of eight in the steer riding event of the AJRA National Finals Rodeo at the Scurry County Coliseum. Rickels is competing in the 12-and-under-category. Tonight's performance of the rodeo will begin at 8 o'clock. (SDN Staff Photo)

Snyder teams gearing up for fall

High school and junior high sports will be beginning next week as football, volleyball and track coaches make announcements about the forthcoming year.

The Snyder Tigers football team will start workouts Monday, Aug. 14, with the varsity and junior varsity reporting at 6 a.m. to be tested on the bench press and one-mile run.

Freshmen will need to be "on the mat" by 8 a.m. Monday for a team meeting.

Eighth graders will be issued football equipment Tuesday, Aug. 22, and seventh graders will get their gear on Wednesday, Aug. 23. The hours for issue will be 1-5 p.m. both days.

Volleyball equipment will be given out Saturday at 3 p.m. in the girls gym.

Practice for the volleyballers is also set to begin Monday with the varsity and JV squads reporting at 8 a.m. The freshman unit will work out from 6-9 p.m. daily.

Track coach Joe Granato is looking for runners to compete in cross country track. Interested individuals should contact Granato at the high school or the fieldhouse, or call 573-6301.

Athletic department officials remind parents and students that a physical exam is necessary for all seventh and ninth graders contemplating competing in sports and for any athlete new to the Snyder school system. The school will pay for exams taken before Aug. 15 for athletics.

Physicians available for physicals are Drs. Nelson Brice, Jim Bureson, Bid Cooper, Bill Pierce and Paul Thompson.

Students not requiring a physical examination must still turn in a medical history and UIL rules acknowledgement form by Aug. 15.

Forms are available at the athletic director's office and at the fieldhouse.

Ball riding

Boys 16-19: 1. Dax Lackey, Boerne, 73; 2. Ted Cooley, Snyder, 65.

Bowlers play for dystrophy

Bowlers Against Dystrophy are sponsoring a bowl-a-thon at 7:30 tonight. The event will take place at Snyder Lanes with proceeds being donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

The bowlers need volunteers to seek pledges and donations as well as bowlers to knock down pins for charity dollars.

Those wishing to participate may bowl for a per-pin pledge or a flat rate.

Organization spokesperson, Lynn Maldonado, has asked that bowlers plan on being at the site of the bowl-a-thon 30 minutes prior to the start. Bowlers will pay $1 per game.

For more information contact Maldonado at 573-7221 or 573-0229.

Big Mac wins at Hardcourts

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Impatient with his slow starts, John McEnroe says he longs for the days when he dispatched opponents without a second glance.

"I used to pride myself on getting off to great starts," said McEnroe, who dropped a set before dismissing No. 15 Michiel Schapers 4-6, 6-1, 6-2 Thursday in the U.S. Hardcourts.

The second-seeded New Yorker faced No. 8 Todd Witsken for the first time ever in today's quarter-finals.

'Day-Night' golf slated at college

Western Texas College golf course will host its Day and Night Scholarship Golf Tournament on Friday, Aug. 18.

The entry fee of $35 will get participants 18 holes of golf, dinner, one "night ball" and stick.

Nine holes will be played in the light of day, with tee time set for 6 p.m., and nine holes will be played after dark as play resumes at 9:30 p.m.

A barbecue dinner, provided by Beta Sigma Phi sorority, will be served at 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the tournament will go to the scholarship fund at Western Texas College.

Third in a series...

Slocum will face pressures

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — As the new head coach of the Texas A&M football team, R.C. Slocum can handle the pressure and the comparisons to Jackie Sherrill.

Slocum is one of three first year coaches in the Southwest Conference this season. Fred Goldsmith is beginning at Rice and Forrest Gregg will field his first team at Southern Methodist.

"Ten or 15 years ago it might have been different but when you get as old and gray as we are, you don't get fazed too much," said Slocum, 44.

That could be one reason Slocum won't spend any time trying to emulate the former A&M coach, who led the Aggies to three straight SWC titles.

"Jackie did an outstanding job at A&M, there's a legacy there to live up to," Slocum said. "But the school will go on and all I can do is be R.C. Slocum."

Slocum is a contrast in style from Sherrill, who resigned last December during an NCAA investigation. But Slocum hopes to have the same success as Sherrill.

Slocum, an A&M assistant 16 of the past 17 years, has work to do on defense.

Three-fourths of one of the best college linebacking corps in the country is gone but linebacker Aaron Wallace and safety Gary Jones are back.

Wide receiver-returned Rod Harris is gone, taking with him eight school records. Running back Darren Lewis, the No. 2 rusher in the nation last season, is back.

Slocum has designated Lance Pavlas as the starting quarterback and brought in Bob Toledo as offensive coordinator to give the Aggies a more balanced attack.

Slocum expects to be a successful replacement for Sherrill and he expects Pavlas to run the offense.

Darren Lewis will still be the big threat in the Aggie backfield, but Slocum wants the passing game to be more effective.

That's where he hopes Pavlas, less than spectacular in his two previous seasons, can help.

Pavlas will get the starting nod over injured Bucky Richardson, who will red-shirt this season. Pavlas will be backed up by Chris Osgood.

"He (Pavlas) reminds me of (Gary) Kubiak (former Aggie quarterback)," Slocum said. "There were times I wondered if he'd ever even played high school football but he became a good football player and he's still playing for the Denver Broncos."

"Lance has similarities to Kubiak and I feel he's going to really help us this season. The offense doesn't depend solely on him making the play every time.

"He does have some help."

Lewis set or tied 13 school record last season and gained 1,672 yards, accounting for 38 percent of A&M's offense.

Lewis was second in the nation in rushing to Oklahoma State's Barry Sanders, the Heisman Trophy winner.

The Aggies lost linebackers John Roper, Dana Bastiste and Adam Bob but a strong secondary, headed by Jones and cornerback Mickey Washington, should help pick up the slack.

The Aggies have non-conference games against Louisiana State at College Station and at Washington before opening SWC play Sept. 16 against Texas Christian.

The only pressure Slocum feels since moving into the head coaches' office, is lack of time.

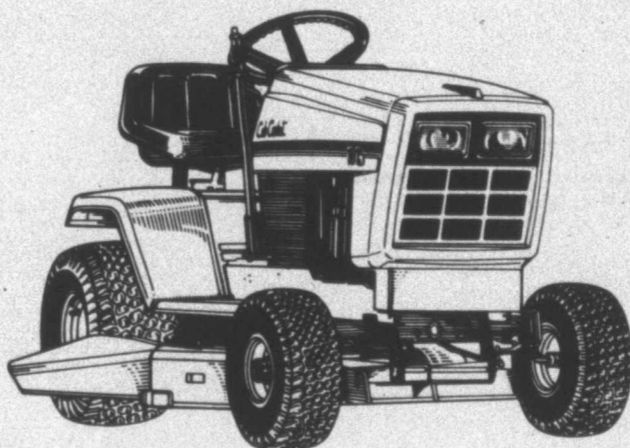

His summer was filled with speaking engagements and promotional visits.

But standing on the sidelines as head coach is no worse than being defensive coordinator against Auburn in the 1986 Cotton Bowl.

"When it's fourth and goal and Bo Jackson is carrying the ball in the Cotton Bowl and I'm calling the play on defense, I don't know how you can get more pressure than that," Slocum said.

Amos Alonzo Stagg coached football at Yale University for 71 years.

Farmers disappointed with new river water settlement

PECOS, Texas (AP) — Texas has agreed to take $14 million from New Mexico to settle a lengthy dispute over Pecos River water, but West Texas farmers say that's barely a drop in the bucket toward paying for much-needed irrigation system improvements.

Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox has suggested the state use the money to study ways to improve irrigation and to purchase more efficient irrigation equipment for the parched West Texas area.

But Alan Zeman, a farmer in Reeves County north of Pecos, says the money won't be enough.

"It may not even pay for engineering," Zeman said.

Texas had been battling New Mexico for nearly 15 years to repay the Lone Star State for water pilfered from the Pecos River system in violation of the 1949 Pecos River Compact.

The U.S. Supreme Court in 1987 ruled that New Mexico had used 340,100 acre-feet of water between 1952 and 1986 from diversions. Texas officials estimated New Mexico made $320 million off the water during the time.

Rayburn Allgood of Barstow, Texas, president of the Ward County Irrigation District No. 1, testified that West Texas farmers had to quit planting cotton in the 1970s because of hard times and the low flow of water from the Pecos River. Texas had claimed roughly 1,415 acres of land could have been irrigated each year during the 34-year span if the diversions had not occurred.

Texas and New Mexico settled their disagreement this week in the midst of a lengthy hearing before a special water master in Denver who was to decide whether New Mexico should repay Texas in money or water.

Texas farmers had sought repayments in water or up to $900 million in cash payments. New Mexico offered varying amounts of cash instead, with the two states settling on the $14 million figure on Wednesday.

Staffers chosen for Snyder ISD

perience as a band director with the Rotan school system.

Leticia Ladesma was approved as a new assistant band director at Snyder Junior High. She is a first-year teacher with a degree from Texas Tech.

Also hired were Lisa Rollins as a junior high school science teacher. She graduated from Texas A&M and has a year of experience with Bartlett ISD.

Terrel Harris, a junior high first-year social studies instructor-coach with a BA from Texas Tech, was employed also.

The board also approved the resignations of 10 teachers. Resignations were accepted from Mike Montgomery, coach/social studies at the high school; Gium, vocational-ag instructor; Diane Arnold, high school journalism teacher; Kelly Clark, high school English teacher and coach; and Teresa Wall, who was on leave of absence.

Others resigning were Mary Ann Masters, second grade teacher at East; Brenda Goldsmith, fifth grade teacher at Stanfield; and Patti Monroe, sixth grade teacher at Stanfield.

Also Thursday, Transportation Director Keith Gentry presented a proposal to bring the district's fuel storage system in compliance with new EPA rules.

The proposal included construction of a 20 x 24-foot concrete slab with a two-foot retaining wall to house an above-ground fuel tank; the removal of the existing 1,000-gallon and the 2,000-gallon fuel tanks; a 40 x 64-foot concrete slab to cover the area after the tanks are removed and for the purpose of extra work space; fence work; and a 6,000-gallon tank. The proposal totaled $16,939.

Board members gave approval to proceed with the removal of the tanks, construction of the 20 x 24-foot concrete slab for the above-ground tank and the fence work. They directed Gentry to obtain the best price for these services, which would cost an estimated $7,565 according to the proposal. The board decided to obtain additional information before proceeding with purchase of the 6000 gallon tank or the 40 x 65-foot concrete slab.

After discussion, the board decided to leave $16,000 in the proposed budget for the purpose of constructing a restroom facility at the junior high tennis courts, and to discuss the subject at a later date after obtaining further information.

Also approved was a proposed "calendar" for appraisals of district teachers and the list of second appraisers for these appraisals. The first appraisal will be held Sept. 19 through Jan. 12 and the second appraisal period will be Jan. 29, 1990 through May 18, 1990.

Lee Presswood, Ned Underwood, Margaret Presswood, Dalton Moseley, Dr. Tom Scannicchio, Janice Brown and Roger Bauernfeind were approved as second appraisers.

The board also reviewed portions of the proposed budget for 1989-90.

Other action Thursday included:

—The hiring of CPA Joe H. Morren of Colorado City to again conduct the district's annual outside audit.

—Approval of a contract with Gates Steen, Austin attorney, for collection of delinquent taxes for a two-year period.

—Approval of policy updates as recommended by the Texas Association of School Boards.

—Approval of revisions to the Discipline Management Plan.

Board members Billy Bob McMullan, president, Mike Jordan, Luann Burleson, Terry Martin, Ygnacio (Junior) Benitez, Sam Robertson and Ann Walton were all present at the meeting.

SHS principal named Thursday

theatre and elementary education from Adams State in 1974 and his mid-management certification from Sul Ross State University in 1979.

He is a member of the Association of Texas Professional Educators and the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals. An active community member, he is president of the Albany Lions Club, works with a Crime Stoppers committee and is a member of the chamber of commerce. He is a member of the First Baptist Church of Albany where he is a deacon elect, a Sunday school teacher and a member of the choir.

He and his wife, the former Linda Grace Chappell, an elementary school teacher, have two children; Lisa Fay, 18, and Emily Kay, 13.

Gillespie was one of 18 individuals considered for the position, which opened when former principal Ray Courtney requested an assignment shift to assume the top administrative job at North Elementary. In addition to Moseley, other members of the search committee were Dr. Tom Scannicchio, assistant superintendent for curriculum, and school board members Billy Bob McMullan, Ann Walton and Mike Jordan.

The vote to approve Gillespie was unanimous with all board members attending.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation will conduct a public hearing on September 12, 1989 at 7:00 p.m. at the Snyder Junior High School in Snyder, Texas for the purpose of discussing the construction of 37th Street in Snyder from State Highway 350 to El Paso Avenue. The total project length is 0.814 miles.

The new street is to consist of four 12 foot travel lanes, all paved with asphalt and concrete curb and gutters and a 60 foot roadway for approximately 300 feet at the intersection of State Highway 350 to accommodate a turning lane. Additional right of way will be required for this project. Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and design will be displayed at the public hearing. The environmental assessment and any other information about the proposed project are on file and available for inspection and copying at the Resident Engineers office in Snyder on the southwest side of U.S. 84 just northwest of the interchange at State Highway 208.

The State's Relocation Assistance Program will be discussed. Tentative schedules for right of way acquisition and construction will also be discussed.

All interested citizens are invited to attend this public hearing. Verbal and written comments from the public regarding the project are requested. Comments may be presented either at the hearing or within 10 days after the hearing. Written statements and other exhibits must be submitted to the District Design Engineer's office at P.O. Box 150, Abilene, Texas 79604-0150, but must be received no later than 10 days after the public hearing.

Obituaries

Opal McLeod

MERKEL—Services were held at 3 p.m. Friday at the Merkel Church of Christ for Opal Omega Yoakum McLeod, 77, who died Thursday in an Abilene hospital. Burial was to follow in the Rose Hill Cemetery.

She was a member of the Westgate Church of Christ in Abilene. Born in Roby, she was the widow of Sam McLeod.

She was a retired school teacher and had taught in the Snyder school district as well as White Flat, IXL, Noodle, Merkel and Trent. She and her husband owned the Steak House now (The Shack) while they lived in Snyder. She was a member of 37th Street Church of Christ.

Survivors include two daughters, Jan Rivera of El Paso and Sue Tucker of Merkel; three sons, Robert McLeod of Brenham, Garth McLeod and Jay McLeod, both of Abilene; two sisters, Bertie Watson of Colorado City and Allie B. Carroll of Sweetwater; 14 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren.

Mary Juarez

SWEETWATER--Graveside services are set for 2 p.m. Saturday in the Garden of Memories Cemetery for Mary Jessie Juarez, 43, who died last Friday in Houston.

She was the sister of Frances Ramirez of Snyder.

Born in Rosenberg, she had lived in Houston most of her life. She was a homemaker and a member of the Catholic Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Alice Liberato; four sons, Jimmy Juarez, Hector Juarez, Albert Juarez and Augustine Juarez, all of Houston; three other sisters, Jovita Balderas of Sweetwater, Rosa Zuniga of Lubbock and Mary Escobedo of Big Spring; a brother, Alfred Rodriguez of Sweetwater; and two grandchildren.

'Jim' Beene Jr.

ROBY—Services for James Foy "Jim" Beene Jr., 50, of Dallas were held Wednesday at the First Baptist Church in Roby with the Revs. Fred Blake and Alvin Petty officiating. Burial followed in the Roby Cemetery.

He died Sunday at his home.

He was the brother of Mrs. Ewell (Janice) Mackey of Snyder.

Born in Lockney, he lived in Houston and Dallas.

He graduated from Roby High School in 1957, was in retail sales for Charles Jourdan and Neiman-Marcus and was a member of the First Baptist Church of Roby.

Survivors include his wife, Neva Rinker Beene of Dallas; a daughter, Tammy J. Beene of Dallas; his mother, Pauline Beene of Mesquite; two other sisters, Emily Jones of Dallas and Susan Childs of Southlake; and a granddaughter, Amy Rene Beene of Tomball.

FAA director sees no reason to ground DC-10 airplanes

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's no evidence to warrant grounding DC-10s despite two explosive engine failures within a month, the nation's top aviation official says.

"It's safe to fly. I would fly in the aircraft today," Federal Aviation Administrator James B. Busey said Thursday, less than 24 hours after a Northwest Airlines DC-10 made a safe emergency landing in Denver with holes blasted in the housing of its tail-mounted engine.

For the second time in his first six weeks on the job, Busey defended the McDonnell Douglas-built DC-10, a workhorse jumbo jet for about 50 airlines around the world.

Three weeks ago, another explosive engine failure caused a United Airlines DC-10 to crash-land in Sioux City, Iowa, killing 111 people.

"We know of no hard facts that would lead us to take action to ground the DC-10," Busey said when asked about its safety.

He declined to draw comparisons between the Sioux City and Denver incidents, saying any decision to ground a class of airliners would be made only after careful investigation and deliberation.

"To act speculatively or on the basis of incomplete information in my judgment would be irresponsible," he said.

The United plane carried General Electric engines, while the Northwest plane had Pratt and Whitney engines.

American, Continental, Delta, Eastern, Northwest, Pan American and United Airlines fly a total of 166 DC-10s, and about 300 more are flown by non-U.S. airlines.

After Busey's statements, the International Airline Passengers Association renewed its call for grounding the DC-10, saying it's the only way to protect the public while finding out what's wrong with the aircraft.

Busey said the FAA was prepared to take any action that might be indicated by facts uncovered in the National Transportation Safety Board investigation of the Denver incident and the Iowa crash.

Investigators said the United jetliner's rear engine apparently disintegrated in flight.

Bike is missing

Tom Dunham of 500 34th St. told police at 7:45 a.m. Thursday that a blue 10-speed Huffy bicycle had been stolen.

Arrest noted

A 33-year-old man was arrested for DWI, driving with his license suspended and evading arrest at 1:50 a.m. Friday in the 1900 Block of Ave. R.

Grass fire doused

Firemen were called to the scene of a roadside grass on U.S. 84 east of Snyder at 2:35 p.m. Thursday and had returned to the station at 3 p.m.

Store thefts cause arrests

Two Wal-Mart employees were arrested Thursday night on misdemeanor theft charges pertaining to two Aug. 3 theft incidents.

Wal-Mart officials reported that two Nintendo games, an Emerson VCR and a Spark-o-Matic power booster were missing from the store.

A city detective said the two store employees, both 22 years of age, were taken into custody at 9:20 p.m. and 10:39 p.m. at the police station and that all of the merchandise had been recovered.

One man was charged with stealing the Nintendo games and the other with taking the VCR and power booster, the detective said.

Hospital Notes

ADMISSIONS: Fern Holt, Rt. 2 Box 421; Helen Block, 2208 45th; Glenda Strickland, 2401 Beaumont.

DISMISSALS: Debra McQuerry and baby.

Births

Shannon and Glenda Strickland are the parents of a baby boy weighing 6 pounds, 2½ ounces, born at 4:55 a.m. today at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Tom Ward of Kilgore was the quickest in the boys 12-and-under at circling the barrels. He outran the field with a 14.57 followed by a 14.86 by Krum cowboy Trevor Brazile.

Times were fast by any standards in the breakaway roping Thursday. Roby's Lorissa Edmonson captured first place with a scorching 2.64 second run. Finishing in spot number two was Christi Sultemeier, a cowgirl from Melrose, N.M., with a 2.97 time.

In the girls 12-and-under division, Jennifer Smith ran away with the top time. Smith roped her calf in a time of 4.63 seconds.

Mitzi Mayes edged out Kipp Kuykendall in the girls 16-19 class of the breakaway roping. Mayes, from Manor, slipped the rope around the calf's head in just 2.38 seconds. Kuykendall, a native of Valley Spring, took a time of 2.69. Olney's Gretchen Hilton finished third by virtue of her 3.35 time.

In the ribbon roping, Trevor Brazile won the boys 12 and under with a time of 9.66. Randy McEntire of Sweetwater, Ok., took the top slot in the boys 13-15 age group with a time of 15.12 and Marty Yates' 4.81 won him first place in the boys 16-19 category. Yates hails from Corsicana.

Monroe takes new position

Southland, a post she has held the past year with Snyder ISD.

"It will also be the first time in our married life that Patti, I and the kids will be under the same school roof," Monroe joked.

Prior to her employment here this school year, Mrs. Monroe commuted to Big Spring.

At Southland, Monroe will be over the principals for both the elementary and secondary levels as well as a school business staffer.

"I'd like to offer a special thanks to Snyder ISD and the teachers, parents and students at Central," he said.

Dear Abby

Bite From Mosquito Cannot Spread AIDS

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I have a question to ask and don't know who to ask. If you don't know the answer, you can at least find someone who does. Please don't dismiss this as a dumb question:

We are told that AIDS is contracted through body fluids or through needles passed around by drug users. We live in an area where there are lots of mosquitoes. Is it possible for a mosquito to bite a person with AIDS, then infect another person by biting them? In other words, can mosquitoes spread AIDS?

DUMB QUESTION FROM ARKANSAS

DEAR QUESTION: There is no such thing as a "dumb question." There are, however, stupid (not "dumb," please — dumb means mute) people who remain uninformed because they are too embarrassed to ask. The answer to your question is no, AIDS cannot be spread by mosquitoes.

DEAR ABBY: For shame! (And fie on you!) You told "Happily Married" (who wrote to pick a bone with you about not having disclosed a previous divorce): "There is nothing wrong with revealing the truth. Hiding it is deceitful, and, therefore, shameful."

Abby, what's happened to you? In the past, you have said that a person's past is not material for the "confession box" between partners. Now you are saying that no matter what the consequences, the truth should be revealed.

You goofed, but I love you anyway.

CAROL B. IN BELLEVUE, WASH.

DEAR CAROL: Whoa — back up. Please don't put words in my typewriter. Never did I say no matter what the consequences, the truth should be revealed.

In the case of "Happily Married," her father had forbidden her to even date a man in whose family there had been a divorce, so when she met the man she wanted to marry, she asked him not to disclose the fact that his favorite aunt had been divorced!

I was trying to make the following point: There was nothing wrong with revealing that particular truth. Divorce is not necessarily a dark and dirty secret. It's nothing to be ashamed of. Hiding it, in my opinion, was deceitful — and, therefore, shameful.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to address my comments to the couple who signed themselves "Married Without Children."

You wrote: "We are both career-minded, have never felt the need to have a child, and we like our life the way it is."

That's fine. But did you ever think what one of you will do after the death of your mate? You are alone, with no children to care for you, help you or turn to in time of need.

Children are a treasure to us who have them. Think about it!

A FRIENDLY READER

DEAR FRIENDLY READER: I don't want to appear "unfriendly" or unduly critical, but having children because you want to be "cared for," or to be assured of someone to "turn to in time of need" is not, in my opinion, the reason to have children.

I would hope that couples have children because they want them, with no thought of "self."

***

DEAR ABBY: What would you think of a grown man who was an ardent football fan of a certain college — so much, in fact, that he brought a portable TV into the back of the church during his cousin's wedding ceremony and watched the game?

UPSET IN PITTSBURGH

DEAR UPSET: The man was rude. Somebody should have kicked him in the end zone.

ASTRO-GRAPH

BERNICE BEDE OSOL

Your Birthday

Aug. 12, 1989

Things you thought would never change will undergo definite alterations in the year ahead. This will be due in a great part to your new approach to life and your ability to view circumstances from different angles.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) When things get down to the nitty-gritty those with whom you'll be involved could be surprised at how clever you are in business dealings today. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your bark is likely to be worse than your bite today. Your gruff exterior is but a pale veil that hides a compassionate heart, eager to help those who need you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) The way to advantageously use an idea you've been toying with should become crystal clear to you today. A chance remark by a friend may be the key that unlocks the enigma.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You'll be able to get your message across today to a friend who has set ways of thinking, because you'll be able to effectively present both sides of the coin.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Commitments you make to others will be points of honor as far as you are concerned today. They will be complied with even if they should prove to be inconvenient.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Be receptive, open-minded and willing to change your mind today about something that appeared to be settled if you find a fresh approach is better for everyone concerned.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) A friend who is stuck on dead center might need your assistance today. Since it's not your problem, you'll be able to clearly see solutions that are not obvious to your pal.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Companions will be responsive to your suggestions today if they do not sound like criticisms. Get your points across in a humorous fashion and avoid using serious terms.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Tasks will not be a drudgery today if you utilize your imagination and resourcefulness. In fact, what you think will be arduous assignments should prove reasonably pleasurable.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) This is a good day to wine and dine a special friend to whom you are socially obligated but haven't as yet had the opportunity to reciprocate. Make the event memorable.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There's a possibility that if you make a few adjustments and shift your funds around a bit today, you might be able to uncover a little surplus you can use for something fun.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Companions aren't likely to have any difficulties today in determining where you stand on critical issues. You're not apt to say one thing and mean something else.

Singer's time off for good behavior reinstated

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Imprisoned soul singer James Brown lost the 20 days off he had earned for good behavior after officials found $40,600 in cash and checks in his jail cell, authorities said.

A state Department of Corrections committee on Thursday ordered Brown to turn the $600 in cash over to the state. The 20 days off of his six-year sentence that he had earned for good behavior also was reinstated.

Inmates are allowed no more than $50 in prison.

The Internal Revenue Service last month confiscated $40,000 in checks found in Brown's cell. The IRS claims he owes about $11 million in back taxes.

Brown is serving a six-year sentence for aggravated assault and failing to stop for police, convictions that stemmed from a car chase in September. Officials are still investigating how the singer obtained the money.
