Measles Outbreak In Houston Still A Threat

When an outbreak of rubeola (red measles) began in Houston last November officials at the Texas Department of health (TDH) predicted that susceptible travelers might contract the disease and transport it to other cities. That prediction became fact, with several cases on college campuses traced to Christmas break in Houston.

Now, with the unusually large outbreak continuing in Houston, health officials have issued a new warning. TDH is concerned that many of the more than 50,000 people expected at Houston's livestock show and rodeo (Feb. 16-26) also could contract and transport the disease statewide.

While the new cases are occurring in all age groups, most patients are toddlers and infants less than 15 months old, and young adults, often high school and college students. Health clinics in several college campuses have reported a growing number of students with measles, most of whom were exposed to the virus during trips to Houston.

Robert D. Crider, director of TDH's Immunization Division, said that the Houston outbreak began late last year with about 50 infants and children. Until that outbreak began, only 17 cases of measles had been reported throughout the state for the first 10 months of 1988. But by the end of December, the year's total reached about 250. New cases continue to be reported at an alarming rate.

Crider said that the Houston area still is the source of most reports. "Between November, when the first of the Houston outbreak began, and early February, more than 900 cases of measles have been reported in Harris County alone," Crider said. "In all of 1987, there were only about 452 measles cases in the whole state."

Crider attributed the sharp rise in the number of cases to several factors. He explained, "Many people seem to have forgotten how contagious the measles virus is. It can infect any susceptible person who is exposed to it. By susceptible I mean anyone who has not had the disease, or whose immunization was not successful--about 3-5 percent of those vaccinated. Measles is so contagious that until the advent of vaccines, few people reached adulthood without being infected--hence the misconception that measles is a 'childhood' disease."

He added that persons born before 1957 are likely to have been infected earlier with red measles and are generally not considered susceptible to the disease.

Since 1981 state law has required that all children entering public or private school must show proof of immunization for measles, or furnish a physician-validated history of measles illness. On physician's advice to parents, most children are routinely immunized at 15 months with measles-mumps-rubella vaccine. The result is that for some years, measles among young children dramatically declined. In 1983, for example, Texas reported only 37 cases.

The symptoms of red measles are fever, runny nose, cough, watery eyes, and a rash which first appears on the head and face, eventually spreading over the body. Crider stressed that red measles, rubeola, should not be confused with rubella, German measles, which can cause serious birth defects in the babies of infected mother.

ATTEND HEALTH FAIR MARCH 9

Chamber Chatter

By J.A. Lasley

Happy Presidents Birthday to all of you! Of course when you read this the day will have been spent. I had my holiday on Friday. I left here at 7 a.m. Friday morning, in the rain. What a lovely experience-driving in the rain. My flight to Austin was not to leave until 12:52, so I did some errands in the city. Boarded my plane at 1:00 p.m. arrived at FW/D Airport 15 minutes late. I entered in gate 39, for all of you that are familiar with that airport, that is the last terminal on the north end. I was to board my flight to Austin in gate 16. The two gentlemen that I had traveled with on the flight, we had not said a word until we were arriving at the D/FW Terminal. A young man from Canyon was going to go to a meeting with some dignitaries from the Christian Church. I became increasingly interested. He was to meet his friend at gate 22, so we started walking. When we came to his gate, he said he would continue on, around with me. I'm sure he thought to himself "this little old lady needs my assistance, its obvious she hasn't traveled much." He is right, of course & I appreciated his concern. At any rate, he deposited me at gate 16. I sat down sweating-legs aching, as we had really walked pretty fast, signed when over the loud speaker, the young man at the desk reported that the flight #431 to Austin had been delayed and would be boarding at gate 10. You know I'm real glad that American Airlines pilots seem to know what they are doing in the air, because I'm not real certain they know which ends up on the ground. Needless to say I arrived in Austin one hour late, my friend Peggy with whom I was to visit had come and waited-driving around in front of the doors we were to meet at, until she finally parked miles from the terminal and had come in to see what tha' heck. It was a good weekend despite my hike in Dallas. There was no hitch in my return home. Despite it all I had a good weekend. AS ALWAYS STRATFORD LOOKED MIGHTY GOOD TO ME.

The flag of Denmark is the oldest unchanged national flag in existence, dating back to the 13th century.

AS ALWAYS STRATFORD LOOKED MIGHTY GOOD TO ME.

The flag of Denmark is the oldest unchanged national flag in existence, dating back to the 13th century.

By the time you read this you will have been to the two town meetings and to the quarterly breakfast. I had the pleasure of entertaining in my home, Cheryl Pink. Incidentally I dialed my eldest, Saturday morning, about 8:30 a.m., to find out who had won the ballgame. This strange voice said "hello" AND I asked to whom was I speaking, "Esther" was the reply. By that time, I had recognized the voice to be Esther Ferguson. She gave me the information I needed-GTE is a strange mechanism-how I got Esther Ferguson instead of Orlanda Garoutte I will never know. At any rate-ELKETTETS IN SPITE OF IT ALL, YOU ALL AND COACH KING DID GOOD!

Frank Caughn came into the Chamber office last Thursday. He wanted me to remind you readers, especially those of you that like to shoot of the PISTOL MATCH, the National Open Pistol Section to be held here in Stratford March the 4th and 5th at 720 E. Texas at the Pistol Club. For any more information you can call Frank at 396-5997.

On February 26th (this next Sunday) the 1800 Conventional Match will be held, at 720 E. Texas at the Pistol Club. This should both be a noisy affair.

To the ELKS I want to say good luck this Friday night at 8:00 p.m. Canyon High, Canyon, Texas. Perhaps these boys have all of the bugs ironed out, and have made Quannah think "aha".

Our new board is underway. Elected President was Doak Crahtree, Vice-president, Steve Griffith. The New directors will get a full initiation in the field of Chamberism as our Banquet is in the making. Hey! out there-lets get those letters coming in on nominations for CITIZEN OF THE YEAR, FARMER, AND BUSINESS PERSON. It is time my friends.

SCOT Notes

by Timmie Brown

Happy Day to you Sherman Co. Older Texans, Neighbors and Friends on this misty-moisty morning Mond. Feby 20, 1989. At 7:30 a.m. the T.V. weather channel reported 35 degrees F; 95% humidity; Wind 11 mph out of NNW. We have been receiving little showers off and on this past week with lots of cloudiness. Have no report of actual moisture accumulation. If one didn't know this is the middle of Feby one might think Spring is here.

The remaining Special Activities this month at Scot Hall are as follows: Tues. Feb. 21 Scot Board meeting—a thing of the past when this is read. Our eagerly awaited Scot Dinner at Scot Hall Thurs. Feb. 23 at 12 noon. Attendance was down last time. Lets make up for that by everyone being out on Thursday. We missed the guests from Coldwater Manor in January—so we anticipate meeting them this time.

Hosts this month are chair-persons Ed and Marie Hill, Jack and Glennell Dettle, Wanda Riffe, Opal Bryant, Sue Smith, Hazel McBryde, Timmie Brown, Bessie Palmer, Bob Burgess, Ava Keener, Alta Mitts. The theme is Scot's Fifteenth Birthday. It is a fitting occasion for all Scotters and Senior Citizens to be present rejoicing in the accomplishments of our organization, isn't it? Let's be present with good will, good cheer and incidentally good food!

One can be forgiven for thinking these last comments should be newsworthy. Did CBS omit them because there was no "time" to give even a two sentence summary, as I have just done? Or does it not please their social engineers to convey evidence that a Christian psychologist can be competent and that pornography is having detrimental effects upon America?

Regular activities of quilting, ceramics, WALKING are in full swing at the appointed hours.

On Tues. 14 Clarence Willman, Ed and Marie Hill, Alta Mitts and Timmie Brown enjoyed playing Chicken Scratch Dominoes. Game night Friday 17 found six hardy souls braving weather and enjoying 88 at Scot Hall. These hardy souls are Ed and Marie Hill, Rowena Williams, Dicy Stephenson, Alta Mitts and Timmie Brown. Max Stephenson was in Lubbock on business.

The ceramic's kiln is stalled and heated. It is a beauty! Same money still due on it!

LeRayne Donelson has been absent from Scot Hall and we miss her. However the Amarillo News of Feb. 2 told us that she was inducted into the Texas Leadership group of Amarillo. LeRayne is deeply involved in the cause of Texas underprivileged children. Stratford is justly supportive and proud of her. We miss you! LeRayne!

Among other Scotters who are ill, and greatly missed are Lawrence Naylor, Dewey Peterson, Kathleen King, Doris Parker, Opal Bryant, Ruby McNeal, Wendell Flores, Eskie Ritchie. Wendell has had a three week bout with strep infection. We are thankful he is mending. We trust all others are improving.

Ethel Alley and Edith Standifors of Kansas and Corda Pleyer returned from Phoenix on Wed. Bertha Oquin and Timmie Brown joined them in visiting Friday and Saturday. The Kansans returned home Sunday.

Sue Haile visited her mother, Dorothy Haile, this weekend. Mike Powers called his family assuring them of his safe return to Base Camp near Frankfort, Germany.

Betty and Baskin Brown visited Joe Ray and Rose Brown, El Paso and Blair in Lubbock over the weekend.

About 3 a.m. Friday morning (we think) on TV Channel 5 we viewed a film

Coldwater Manor. We identified Bertha Oquin, Madge Lowe, Jessie Hodges Walt Lee, W.D. and zola Brannan, Elmer and Charlene Oquin, Rowena McAdams, Luzelle and James Lowe enjoying the party. What puzzles us is the facts that only on Channel 5 (& 4 instead of 5-2) was the only place we could bring the film in. Some one explain!

Amarillo News of Feb. 7, 1989 carried a Caption "Significant Omission" in letters to the Editor which follows—thanks to the "Stratford Star"

SIGNIFICANT OMISSION Dear Editor:

On a day when national attention was focused upon Ted Bundy's execution, it is interesting that the CBS News could not find time to report his last comments about factors that contributed to his crimes. Mobs of reporters milled around the prison, but Bundy chose to request that a Christian psychologist, Dr. James Dobson, come from California for a final and private interview. The mass murderer explained that violent pornography contributed to his sickness and that he did not know of any other chronically violent prisoner who did not have the same addiction to pornography. He warned society that exposure to sadistic pornography is affecting many young men toward perverted behavior.

DPS Announces Tests

The Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) has announced that beginning on March 1, 1989, they will be giving entrance examinations and physical agility tests every Monday and Wednesday, year round instead of only during a short period just before an announced recruit school, according to Major V.J. Cawthon, Regional Commander for this area.

Major Cawthon said, "Even though a date for a recruit school has not been determined, we will begin testing all year long. This change in testing periods, will allow the applicant to take the test, more so, at his convenience and will allow the DPS ample time to conduct the background investigations and hold the interview board."

Testing will begin at 8:00 a.m. on each Monday and Wednesday, except days that fall on state holidays. The tests will take most of the day to complete. Tests will be given at the Amarillo, Wichita Falls and Lubbock Department of Public Safety Offices. The application must be completed and all basic requirements must be met prior to taking the entrance exams. Employment qualifications and application forms may be picked up at the above mentioned offices or by contacting your local Department of Public Safety Trooper.

Major Cawthon stated, "The DPS is actively recruiting qualified minorities and females. For an exciting and rewarding career in law enforcement, come by and see us."

National Committee To Preserve Social Security And Medicare

Nearly every older American objects strongly to the idea of solving the nation's deficit problems by cutting Social Security or Medicare benefits, a membership survey conducted by the nation's second largest senior organization showed today.

"Social Security and Medicare benefits didn't cause the deficit and seniors object strongly to politicians looking to cut these vital programs to raise funds to hide mistakes made elsewhere," said James Roosevelt, chairman of the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare. "Nearly all respondents to our recent survey—96 percent—objected to the idea."

Instead, Roosevelt said, seniors think the budget cutters should look more closely at the Pentagon. Cuts in defense spending had the approval of 77 percent of those National Committee members surveyed. And, nearly half (47 percent) "strongly" favored defense cuts, a finding which contradicts the popular belief that older Americans will support a defense build-up at any price.

The possibility of raising taxes to reduce the deficit won at least lukewarm support from a smaller but still substantial number of respondents—41 percent, Roosevelt said. "However, only 11 percent agreed strongly with this idea."

This graphic display of seniors' animosity to using Social Security and Medicare to solve problems elsewhere in the federal budget will be shared with both Congress and the National Economic Commission, Roosevelt said.

Letters highlighting the survey results and copies of the survey itself were sent today to all Congressmen and Senators and to Robert Strauss and Drew Lewis, co-chairmen of the National Commission, he said.

One of the reasons for sending the survey to the NEC, said Roosevelt, is the strong feelings displayed in opposition to Strauss' remark a few months ago that Social Security and Medicare had to be a part of the deficit solution because "that's where the mohey is."

"Almost all of our members—94 percent—disagreed with that statement," said Roosevelt. Another favorite ploy of the budget cutters is the contention any freeze on government should include a freeze on the cost of living adjustment (COLA) given Social Security beneficiaries struggling to keep pace with inflation. "That idea was opposed by four out of five members surveyed," he noted.

A majority (54 percent) even consider it unfair to cut or tax benefits of seniors with high incomes, but a

ARE YOU LISTENING?

The Apostle Paul had decided to go up to Jerusalem. While he was there a riot began and the mob would have killed him if the soldiers hadn't intervened. For Paul's own safety they put him in jail, but before they did Paul said to the captain of the guard "allow me to speak to the people." So he stood on the steps and began to address this great mob of people. He told of his conversion and how God had told him to go preach to the Gentiles. The moment he mentioned the word "Gentiles" he lost his audience. The Bible says "...They listened to him up to this statement, and then they raised their voices and said, 'Away with such a fellow from the earth' [Acts 22:22]." They listened up to a point and then they stopped.

There are those today who are prepared to hear the preacher unto a certain word, and then they stop listening. Let me suggest two of the words that turn people off today and cause them to stop listening.

1. Sin. Romans 3:23. When the preacher talks about the beautiful life in Jesus we listen with approval but when he begins to talk about sin we begin to feel uncomfortable. I suppose that's natural, for we should feel convicted about sin in general. But when the preacher begins to particularize the sins of our day, our sins, then he's stopped preaching and started meddling.

2. Repentance. Luke 13:3,5 As long as a preacher deals with something that doesn't make a demand on a person's life there is a listening ear, but let him mention the word repentance and that's a different story. They don't want to hear that they need to change the direction of their life and burn the bridges of sin behind them.

The listening ear will cause a person to mature spiritually. Jesus said, "He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches" [Rev. 2:7]. Is there a word that stops you from listening? I pray to God that there is not even ONE word that would keep you from listening to God's Word.

TRIBUTE TO OUR MOTHER

While here on earth Maycle did live
So much love to us, she did give.
I think of the times, her joy, it would flow
To look in her eyes, and see such a glow.

These memories of her, we all have our own
They can't be taken; to us they belong.

Many stories of Mom, her children talk about
Times of good and of bad, but never a doubt,

That the love of their MOM, their stories have shown
Many times in their times, her love would atone.

Even the times no money would come,
They always would make it by the love of their MOM.

I guess we're just selfish, not wanting her to leave.
But I know in Heaven, of her God has a need.

So someday, in Heaven, I'll walk up the street,
And there, see Maycle Gore, and her I will greet.

With her up in Heaven, forever I'll live
To me, her love, again she will give.

While writing the words of feelings I have,
I think of how I'll miss her, it makes me feel sad.

A gift from God, this woman has been.
A gift of love to her family and friends.

SMALL BUSINESS

By Richard D. Smith
News USA

The Small Business Test

Whether you've been running your business for most of your life or are just about to open your doors, you may want to take this little test of ten basic skills.

- T F I believe that treating people fairly and honestly is more important than making money.
- T F I like people.
- T F I recognize that people have different needs and treat each one in the way that will be most beneficial.
- T F I am a good listener.
- T F I speak and write well enough to be clearly understood.
- T F I rarely waste time.
- T F I rarely become overtired.
- T F I don't spend money for anything that is unnecessary.
- T F I have a good mind and lots of common sense.
- T F I'd rather do this work than anything else.

SCORING: Count the number of times you marked true, and then decide if you might be due for a job change.

- 0-4 True—You should be working for someone else, preferably in a large organization where you won't be too noticeable.
- 5-7 True—If you work very hard, you may be able to survive, but the odds are definitely against you.
- 8-9 True—You should succeed in your own business, but you may find the work difficult at times.
- 10 True—Your small business is likely to become a big business.

Liking people and recognizing their different needs, skills, and interests will make you an effective manager and good with customers. Being able to understand others and make them understand you makes a business run smoothly.

Wasting time and money can prevent you from making a profit, but so can a lack of rest and relaxation.

Business success doesn't require a genius, but clear thinking and practical experience will prevent you from running off in all the wrong directions.

In the end, the secret of making a small business into a giant is loving your work and surrounding yourself with others who love what they are doing. Anything less will slow your progress. ☆ times they may have mis-understandings if they don't. We all say that our family comes first, but we may have to schedule some special times together so we may enjoy them more.

Rosella Flanagan won the hostess gift. Almenia Huddleston and Sue Fleming gave a cute illustration of "Tator People". Clara Thrasher read two poems for the devotional "Prayers for everyday" and "Faithfulness to Christ, what did it cost us"?

Those attending were: Jane Clark, Maryann Chesnut, Sue Fleming, Rosella Flanagan, Gene McDaniel, Almenia Huddleston, Buena Shilling, Velma Shubert, Customer Relations Workshop

A Customer Relations Workshop will be sponsored by members of the Retail Trade Committee, Dumas Chamber of Commerce, and the Panhandle Small Business Development Center, Amarillo. Wayne Smith, Retail Trade Committee Chairman, announces the workshop will be held Thursday, Feb. 28, 1989 from 7 to 9 p.m.

"We are happy to be able to offer the small business owner-operators of our area the opportunity to learn more about improving their businesses with this program," says Smith.

Smith emphasizes the workshop is open to all businesses in the area. "The workshop is not limited to only our members," says Smith, "We invite any area business representatives to be with us for the program."

The workshop is designed for all business owners, managers, and employees who have customer contact. The program will emphasize four basics during the 2-hours. These include identifying the customer, expanding the customer base, first impressions, and six secrets that will keep customers coming back for repeat sales.

Don Taylor, small business consultant with over 20 years experience in "taking care of the customer" will lead the workshop. He formerly served as president of a Missouri-based corporation which specialized in small business ownership, management and consulting and also a former national number-one salesman for the Riley Company. He currently serves as director for the WTSU Small Business Development Center.

The workshop will be held in the Dumas Noon Lions Building, 6th and Porter in Dumas. A small fee to cover expenses will be charged at a rate of $10 per person or $50 maximum per business.

Any business interested in having representatives attend the workshop is urged to register with the Dumas Chamber of Commerce, 935-2123, in Dumas. Deadline for registration will be 5 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 27.

Scott McAlister was named Reader of the Week at the Sherman County Library.

Scott McAlister is our featured reader for this week. He is in the second grade at Mary Allen School. Scott is the oldest son of Valerie and Roy McAlister. He has two brothers, Michael and Marcus.

Scott attended the reading program last summer and has been a regular visitor in the library since that time.

He likes to read about dinosaurs. His favorite subject in school is math. He really likes recess! His teacher is Mrs Pat Brite.

Scott's other interests are motorcycles, football, and trampolines. He likes to watch football on television and wants to be the quarterback when he plays for Stratford school. He will be old enough to play Pee Wee baseball this summer and he is eager to get involved.

He is active in Boy Scouts and is a member of Den 1,
